Bath cafeteria workers demand equal treatment

Bath School Board officials were faced Monday night with a variety of problems concerning employees in the Bath High School and elementary cafeterias. Policies established by Mrs. Ardith Rosekrans, cafeteria supervisor, were questioned by five of the six workers in a letter sent to the board.

Hourly rates for equal work were items challenged in the letter as well as work schedules. Employees requested the board members establish uniform hourly rates and policies equal for all workers in the cafeteria. Officials agreed with the employee suggestions for the most part, and questioned Roger Carlson, superintendent, on why two different pay scales had been used for payrolls this year which only compounded the confusion among workers and board members. Carlson, placed the responsibility for the conditions on Mrs. Rosekrans and stated he never discussed salary or time-off with individual employees and never made decisions on cafeteria issues without her advice.

ROBERT ZEEB, board member, then stated he had been approached approximately a month ago by three of the six employees involved concerning the conflicts and had advised them at that time to go through supervisory channels to settle the matter, but to keep him informed of their progress. Zeeb then demanded the board give equal treatment to all employees and if Mrs. Rosekrans was unable to handle the situation properly she be replaced.

Carlson stated the employees are the best paid in the area and felt conflicts were caused by bickering. Board members ordered an equal hourly rate be established at once and the facts be posted on bulletin boards for the cafeteria workers.

In other action school officials, discussed vandalism of school buses since school opening which included loss of an estimated 165 gallons of gas; a broken head-light; missing gas caps; and fire extinguishers found empty among other items. Officials recommended more lighting for the area and possible fencing off of bus parking facilities if necessary. Total damage was estimated at between six and seven hundred dollars for the year.

—Awarded the contract to widen the gymnasium door on the west end to the Charles Featherly Construction Co., of Lansing, at a cost of $1,168. Present door space is inadequate for large pieces of athletic equipment, such as trampolines and parallel bars.

—Heard a report from Carlson concerning additional fire alarms needed in four rooms of the high school, cost of the two alarms was estimated at $200.

—Discussed bids on cyclone fencing and costs of black topping an area 50 by 120 feet, the bids were tabled.

—Discussed purchasing new playground equipment for elementary grades with several items being suggested by Carlson, including, slides, swings, large drain tiles and a back-stop area. Robert Zeeb offered to contribute large "tire" sand boxes and members suggested he consult with teachers on the matter.

—Tentatively agreed to purchase a sweeper attachment for the school tractor, pending a check on whether the item can be bought legally with building and site funds.

—Heard a complaint from a resident concerning a threat against his credit rating received by him from Marshall Music Co., in Lansing, on a $4 check which the school was liable for. He stated he and his wife had contacted Carlson at least three times on the matter and nothing was done. Carlson stated the mix-up was with the accounting department of the store and he would personally visit them to resolve the matter.

—Discussed freezer space needed by the school when the local plant closes Nov. 1.

State Treasurer Allison Green flanked by Rotary Club President J. D. Robinson to his right and Harold Wellman, program chairman.

Rotary Club hosts state treasurer

State Treasurer Allison Green gave a short course on taxes and the Treasury department at the St. Johns Rotary Club last week.

Green, who is in his 19th year in state government, told the Rotarians that Michigan taxpayers paid $15.8 billion in taxes last year to federal, state and local governments.

The federal government took in $12.6 billion from Michigan, while the state collected $1.8 billion and local governments $1.4 billion.

"So if you're alarmed about taxes, I think this ratio may give you something to think about," he said.

In explaining the function of the treasury department, Green noted that his own position is not an elected office but rather an administrative appointment.

Green explained that the 1963 State Constitution resulted in a major revision of state agencies by reducing the number of major departments from 130 to 20.

We now have 19 major departments, including the treasury,"

Library changes benefit children

Children are coming up in the world at Ement Public Library, both literally and figuratively. All juvenile books have been moved from the basement to the main library on the first floor of the Municipal Building in St. Johns.

Children now have adult supervision and guidance, as well as full-time library service, 47 hours a week.

To make room for the change, two complete sections of adult books have been moved to the basement room formerly used for the children.

The sections are adult biography and literature, which includes poetry, drama, essays, humor, and short stories. Staff members are ready and willing to get any specific book requested from the basement. Also, adult patrons may browse at leisure among the books shelved there.

Tax Commission: assessments stand; new billings readied

Clerk Ernest Carter last week received official notice from the state tax commission that the Clinton County appeal by the equalization committee had been denied and consequently property assessments in the county will stand as approved last April by the Board of Supervisors.

According to Carter the county's appeal was considered by the state tax commission at their meeting Oct. 7 and members found only an "infinitesimal" difference in various county levies.

First word of the state group's action was received last week by Supervisor Gerald Shepard and later in the week Carter received official correspondence.

He was directed by the tax commission to notify various assessing officers in the county to proceed with routine tax procedures.

A hold-up in tax billings was issued by the state tax commission early this spring when the appeal was filed. The hold affected tax billings throughout the county including the city of St. Johns.

City Clerk Tom Hundley stated Monday that he expects tax billings to be in the mail by November even though he stated official word had not reached him of the tax commission's action.

(Carter explained all county assessing officers, including Hundley, had received notice from his office but because the state had initiated the holding action some assessing agencies might feel the tax commission should rescind the order. He pointed out, however, that the

St. Johns to get new sweeper

The St. Johns city commission Monday night voted unanimously to draw up a lease-purchase agreement with a Grand Rapids firm for the acquisition of a street sweeper.

The model chosen, a demonstrator offered by the Miller Equipment Co. will represent a total investment of $14,074. It can be operated by only one worker and does not necessitate the use of additional trucks to transport collections to dumping areas. The unit can be driven at highway speeds allowing it to travel to the city's sanitary land-fill facilities.

The commission directed city manager Harvey Weatherwax and city attorney Paul Maples to draft a lease-purchase agreement to acquire the sweeper. The Miller offer was one of three considered. Amounts involved in other proposals were $9,541 plus finance charges and $16,200 including finance charges.

It is anticipated that arrangements can be completed so that the unit will be delivered within the next few weeks.

tax commission directed him to advise all county assessing units of the appeal denial and for all to proceed with usual tax procedures.)

Hundley noted that the tax rolls reflect a 7.81 per cent increase over a year ago after equalization. Millage levy in the city is 14.75 with 10 mills for general; two mills for garbage and 2.7 mills for retirement of general obligation bonds.

Most residents of St. Johns have already paid their summer taxes but the additional 7.81 per cent will be added and billed out in November.

City residents therefore will be hit by two tax billings in a relatively short period of time as winter tax billings will soon be completed.

Development group establishes board

The St. Johns Area Development Corporation assumed informal organization this week when appointments to a temporary board were announced by chairman Rollin Huard.

The appointments, made for a period of four months, came one week after an organizational meeting was held in the community room of Clinton National Bank.

That meeting, attended by 18 area business, professional and agricultural representatives, was the first in current efforts to form a development group whose activities will be directed toward orderly economic growth of Clinton County in the general St. Johns area.

Named to the temporary board were Harold Wellman, president, Central National Bank; Ink White, president, Clinton National Bank; Bob Sbrine, Osgood Funeral Home; Jim Leon, Saylor-Beall Mfg. Co.; Ken Moore, F.C. Mason Co.; Brandon White, president, St. Johns Area Chamber of Commerce, and Attorney James Moore.

The temporary board will be assigned the role of outlining a program, establishing organizational by-laws and selecting candidates for the permanent board.

Although the term of appointments is for four months, however, if work of the temporary group progresses satisfactorily there is nothing to withhold installation of the first board and officers before that time has elapsed.

These initial activities, Huard explained, are being done to bring about a development group which will provide liaison between the various civic and government activities in the county to assure orderly economic growth.

Interests of the group will be spread over all areas such as retail, industrial, residential and educational. Various committees will be established to maintain current records so that inquiries concerning Clinton County can be answered.

The first meeting of the temporary board will be Tuesday Oct. 28.

John Fabus Jr., Rt. 1 Ashley and Frank Kapugla, East Lansing missed only the two tie games in last week's football contest. Fabus came the closest to the breaker score of 61 points — guessing 56 and is our winner. Kapugla's guessed 38 for his tie breaker score.

New phone books being delivered

Information on everything from area codes to overseas calls can be found in the new General Telephone directory now being delivered to customers in Fowler, Maple Rapids, Muir, Pewamo and St. Johns.

William Graef, district manager for the company, said there are no major changes in the new directory.

"The directory is larger this year because of expanded listings in both the white and yellow pages," he said. "Community names appear in bold, enlarged type at the upper, outside corner of each page to help customers locate names and numbers."

"Places for emergency numbers to be written are located on page one," Graef added. "We want the location of these numbers to be readily available and easy to find."

The alphabetical index and table of contents for the directory appear on the inside front cover.

The list for frequently called numbers again appears on the inside back cover and a localized exchange area map, printed in conjunction with the continental U.S. Area Code map, appears again in the new directory.

All types of calls—station-to-station, person-to-person, conference, collect, overseas, mobile, and marine—and a graphic description of the three rate periods appear in the introductory pages.

Graef cautioned customers to leaf through the old directory carefully before replacing it with the new edition.

This year, more than 7,300 General Telephone directories will be distributed throughout the St. Johns area, he said.

Gen Tel expands

As the first step in a building expansion project, General Telephone recently established a 24-space parking area adjoining its office at 202 East State, St. Johns. The lot will be hard surfaced next year after completion of a building addition of 5,600 square feet floor area on three floors.

District Manager, William Graef, says that present space for local and long distance equipment is almost completely occupied and a building addition must be made to permit planned additional automatic equipment in 1970 and future years.

Building plans were completed in September by Kenneth C.

Black Associates and bidding was closed Oct. 14. Contract awards will be made in the near future and construction will begin about Dec. 1.

During construction of the building addition, all space behind the building will be unavailable for vehicle parking.

Access to the drive-in window and parking area will then be through the center drive of the new parking area.

Cars can proceed to the drive-in window by going to the rear of the lot and making a right U turn toward the building, exiting on State Street as at present.

Ballenger backs Milliken's education reform

State Rep. William S. Ballenger says he can enthusiastically support many key provisions in Gov. Milliken's Educational Reform program but is conferring extensively with teachers superintendents, principals, and school board members throughout the 87th House District before deciding whether or not he can accept the Governor's entire package.

Ballenger says he is most pleased with Milliken's recommendation to abolish the State Board of Education via Constitutional amendment and to make the position of State Director of Education appointive by the governor.

Ballenger also endorses the concept of a statewide uniform property tax for school operations - provided the millage level set by the Legislature before the issue goes on ballot is low enough to provide meaningful tax relief for Clinton County property owners.

"Whether one agrees with all aspects of the governor's reform program or not, it is obviously the boldest and most comprehensive overhaul of our educational structure ever advanced by a chief executive of this state," says Ballenger.

"Furthermore," Ballenger adds, "It is a program that takes immense courage just to propose, let alone fight for."

"I think we all recognize that something has to be done to make our educational program pay better dividends. Everywhere I go I hear people saying: 'Am I really getting my tax dollar's worth in return? Is my educational tax dollar giving us the proper result?'"

"Let me say that through educational reform of some kind I hope we can provide the answers to these and many other questions. As it was presented, the governor's program will provide more equity in taxation by spreading the pay load over a greater number of people. It will provide for more efficiency of operation by streamlining school operation while still maintaining an important measure of local control, and it provides for methods of accountability for the schools which will in turn let all of us know the answer to that question: 'Is my tax dollar giving us the proper result?'"

Concludes Ballenger: "We in the Legislature could bury our collective heads in the sand and pretend the problem doesn't exist or will go away, but our children, and the citizens of the 87th House District as supporters of education, deserve better."

"Now it is our job to roll up our sleeves and go to work to make educational future in Michigan better and more equitable for everyone."

REMEMBERING

WHEN

M-21 IN 1927

This is M-21, three miles west of Fowler, back in the spring of 1927.

It wasn't too long ago that in your merry Oldsmobile was pretty risky business.

The super highways of today were literally the mud holes of yesterday.

Many of today's improved road conditions around Clinton County are the direct result of work by the County Road Commission.

The commission was first organized on May 18, 1913, but the first regular meeting wasn't called until a month later (June 2) for the purpose of establishing state trunk highways through the county.

Attending the first meeting were Mr. O. C. Hollister and Herbert Armbrustmacher; the minutes were signed by John Walker, as clerk and O. C. Hollister, chairman.

The first roads in the county were financed by Covert Act bonds which required the owner, receiving the benefits of the road, to pay the costs of its maintenance.

In those days, it was common practice to set aside "special work days" when neighbors, with shovels, and wagons would assemble to do their own grading and hole filling.

Investigation of the 1922 file revealed that men were paid 20 cents an hour for hand labor, truck drivers were paid 25 cents, and teams with a driver were paid 40 cents an hour.

Equipment was cheap too. The horse-drawn road scrapers, purchased from the Galion Works Manufacturing Co. cost $250 each.

Four years later, the county purchased an H. and P. motor grader for $1,776. Today, a grader would cost approximately $31,000.

When the depression hit, and land owners had difficulty paying taxes, the state took over the Covert Act bonds, relieving property owners of debts they had no way of paying.

The county assumed jurisdiction over county roads in 1933-35. This time the upkeep was financed through tax levied on gas and weight loads.

Today, the County Road Commission employs 56 temporary and full-time employees with a cost estimate of equipment set at $143,777.64.

Jaycettes begin year's activities

The first meeting of the 1969-70 year was held by the Jaycettes Sept. 25. New projects were discussed and Christmas cards for Vietnam will be given priority on the agenda.

Mrs. Mari Livingston reported the club has collected 13,429 Betty Crocker coupons from local residents. The state-wide project requires 600,000 coupons which are redeemed by General Mills for $3,000 and the funds used to purchase kidney machines.

Thus far two machines have been donated to the Michigan Kidney Foundation and a good start has been made on obtaining a third machine.

The St. Johns Jaycettes would like to express their appreciation to all who donated. The coupon collections will continue until January 1971.

They also expressed deep gratitude to merchants in the area who allowed them to place canisters in their stores.

ROBERTA O'CONNOR

Due to the resignation of Mrs Lowell Rinker, the Jaycettes held another election and Mrs Roberta O'Connor will serve as president for the coming year. She has been an active Jaycette two and a half years and held the office of treasurer last year. Mrs O'Connor and her husband Michael live at 205 W. Cass Street. They attend St. Joseph Church.

Other officers for the year are: Mrs Bud Jarvis, vice-president; Mrs Gene Downing, secretary; and Mrs Paul Maples, treasurer. Directors are Mrs Barry Dean, Mrs Ralph Wycoff, Mrs Dave Humenik and Mrs Roger Hammontree.

Debbie Howard becomes bride of Charles Smith

Debbie Anne Howard, daughter of Mr and Mrs Philip G. Howard of 15398 Chetwin Drive, Lansing, and Charles C. Smith, son of Mr and Mrs Joseph Smith of 708 S. Baker Street, St. Johns were united in marriage Saturday, Oct. 18.

The double ring service was performed by Rev Matthew Fedewa and Rev Sylvester Fedewa, at 10:30 a.m. in St. Theresa Church, Lansing. Mrs Theresa Lud served as soloist accompanied by Mrs Valentine Hill, organist. The bride's father gave her in marriage before an altar set with bouquets of tall white gladiolus.

The bride selected a traditional full length gown completely fashioned in lace. The bouffant skirt fell from the waistline in five tiers. Her long lace sleeves came to points over the wrist and she wore a single strand of pearls. A bow shaped headpiece held her shoulder length veil and she carried a cascade arrangement of yellow roses with white carnations.

Miss Carey Balon served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Diane Feher, Mrs Paul Droste and Miss Jan

Havens. Miss Rebecca Howard served a junior bridesmaid.

The attendants wore identical gowns designed in apricot crepe, with accordion pleated sleeves fastened with three inch cuffs at the wrist. Their headpieces color matched their gowns and held shoulder length veils.

Mrs Howard selected a teal blue dress with net sleeves for her daughter's wedding and Mrs Smith chose a turquoise ensemble.

Joseph Smith Jr. served as best man and groomsmen were Mark Howard, Barry Hallead, and Gary Harris.

The wedding reception was held in the evening at St. Theresa Cafeteria from 5:30 p.m. 'til midnight for 350 guests. Special guest at the reception was Mrs Laurina Droste, grandmother of the bride.

After a honeymoon through the Eastern states the couple will reside at 412 W. Saginaw Street in Lansing.

The bride is a graduate of Eastern High School and the groom graduated from Rodney B. Wilson High School.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Fowler High School and is presently employed with the State of Michigan Commerce Department. The prospective groom is also a Fowler High School graduate and is now employed by the General Telephone Company in St. Johns.

A spring wedding is being planned by the couple.

Let's talk dry cleaning

Velvet is one of the most luxurious and versatile fabrics at a dress designer's fingertips. It is known as a "cut pile" fabric, and during cleaning and finishing the smooth pile threads must be kept in order. During wear the pile often becomes badly crushed and must be straightened and smoothed by the cleaner.

Pile threads differ in velvets. Some are merely anchored under one thread and are easily removed. Other velvets, where the pile is secured under two sets of threads, are much less vulnerable to shedding and damage. Velvet at its best is what is known as one of the "fragile fabrics" and should be shown extra consideration in wear as well as being cleaned frequently.

Many velvets today have been given crease or crush-resistance treatments and present less wrinkle removing problems in cleaning than those which have not been so treated. But all velvets require special cleaning care and handling.

You can safely send us all your "fragile fabrics" for thorough cleaning, to keep them looking new longer...and looking better on you. Remember, the best dressed people in town send their dry cleaning to us!

Open Letter from VAN W. HOAG

Dear friends,

Survivors of each honorably discharged U. S. war veteran, or of a peace-time veteran discharged for service-connected disability, are entitled to several Veterans' Administration benefits.

These benefits in no way conflict with benefits paid under Social Security, and many families qualify for payment under both.

Respectfully,
Van W. Hoag

Lose 10 lbs. in 10 days on Grapefruit Diet

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.

(Special) - This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Literally thousands upon thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Word of its success has spread like wildfire because this is the diet that really works. We have testimonials in our files reporting on the success of this diet. If you follow it exactly, you should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. There will be no weight loss in the first four days. But you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter you will lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1 1/2 pounds every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all, there will be no hunger pang. Now revised and enlarged, this new diet plan lets you stuff yourself with foods that were formerly "forbidden," such as big steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, rich gravies, mayonnaise, lobster swimming in butter, bacon fats, sausages and scrambled eggs. You can eat until you are full, until you cannot possibly eat any more. And still lose 10 pounds in the first ten days plus 1 1/2 pounds every two days thereafter until your weight is down to normal. The secret behind this new "quick weight loss" diet is simple. Fat does not form fat. And the grapefruit juice in this new diet acts as a catalyst (the "trigger"), to start the fat burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted food listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess body fluids. When the fat and bloat are gone you will cease to lose weight and your weight will remain constant. A copy of this new and startlingly successful diet plan can be obtained by sending $2 to GRAPEFRUIT DIET PUBLISHERS, 1213 Premier Way S.W., Calgary 6, Alberta. Moneyback guarantee. If after trying the diet plan you have not lost 7 pounds in the first seven days, and 1 1/2 pounds every two days thereafter, simply return the diet plan and your $2 will be refunded promptly and without argument. Tear out this message as a reminder. Decide now to regain the firm attractive figure of your youth, while enjoying hearty breakfasts, lunches and dinners. (adv.) Dept. No. 1016-22. 25-2

Ten-year-old Jerry Moriarty, son of Mr and Mrs James Moriarty of St. Johns, placed first in his class at the zone competition in Lansing Saturday and will compete in the district finals at Michigan State University this Saturday.

Jerry picked up 222 1/2 points Saturday to lead his class in competition with boys from 20 cities in the Lansing area.

"We've only had one other boy in the competition to go this far," said Bruce Fowler, of Egan Ford Sales which sponsored Jerry. This is the sixth year Egan has participated.

Should Jerry top his class again Saturday, he will be invited to compete Nov. 16 in Detroit during the halftime of the Lions-St. Louis Cardinals game. The competition toughens here as boys from several states will participate.

All will be looking to compete Dec. 13 during halftime at the Lions-Los Angeles Rams game in Detroit for the western winners while at the same time eastern winners will be decided during halftime in Dallas at the Cowboys-Baltimore Colts game.

Winners of this competition will meet Jan. 3 in Miami for national honors during halftime of the NFL playoff bowl.

In winning Saturday, Jerry nosed out his second-place challenger by four points.

Other St. Johns area boys competing Saturday were Phil Douglas, 8, 103 points (winner had 195); Fred Kundrata, 9, 114 (181 1/2); Brian Puetz, 11 1/2 (238); Mark Green, 12, 193 (237); and Kevin Knight, 13, 234 (372-1/2).

The boys received one point for each foot the ball travels on the fly and one point is subtracted for each foot off center.

Randy Walter places first

PEWAMO—Randy Walter, 13-year-old son of Mr and Mrs Donald Walter, of Pewamo, won first place in his class at the ninth annual Punt, Pass and Kick Contest Oct. 11 at Ionia. More than 100 boys participated in the contest.

Gerry Mohn, chairman of the Jaycee Program, presented the trophy to Randy who also won at the Valley Field competition in Grand Rapids, on Oct. 18. He now has the opportunity to compete for the grand prize, a trip to Miami Beach, for the play-off game in January.

Ken Kavanagh, eight-year-old son of Mr and Mrs Ken Kavanagh of Pewamo, placed third in his class at Ionia.

St. Johns Frosh nail Grand Ledge

St. Johns undefeated freshman football squad continued its winning ways last week, thrashing Grand Ledge, 36-6.

The Little Wings were held scoreless in the first half while Grand Ledge picked up six points with 43 seconds left in the first quarter.

But the freshman erased the six-point deficit, striking for three scores in a five-minute span during the third period.

Bruce Cameron scored the first TD when he ran back an interception for 74 yards and Mike San Miguel put the Wings ahead 8-6 when he ran for a two-point conversion.

San Miguel picked up six more on a short burst before Dan Downing intercepted and ran 42 yards for another.

Mid-way through the final period, Cameron dashed 20 yards for his second touchdown and Gary Mankey ran for a two-point conversion.

Cary Rappuhn set up the final St. Johns touchdown with an interception before quarterback Dick Brunner plunged over from the one.

The freshman squad travels to Alma Thursday for a game at 7 p.m.

O-E JVs win fifth

Led by Gordon Baker's three touchdowns, Ovid-Elsie's Junior Varsity picked up its fifth victory of the season last week, nipping Chesaning, 25-22.

Baker rushed for 125 yards in eight carries.

Charlie Miller scored the other O-E touchdown on a 75-yard run in the first quarter. Bill Foran kicked an extra point.

Kurt Kristin led the defense with 12 tackles, while Larry Bush had 11 and Frank Dudash had 10.

The O-E had a comfortable lead narrowed in the last four minutes of play when Coach Russ Pope cleared the bench and Chesaning scored twice.

This week the O-E's JVs travel to St. Louis.

P-W almost dumps DeWitt, but Panthers rally, 18-16

"All I can say is that I'm glad it's over," said Coach Gary Roberts.

And for DeWitt, it almost was: a share of the conference lead, a five-game winning streak and a happy homecoming.

But the Panthers, down by 10 points midway through the final period, struck for a pair of late touchdowns to nip the upset-minded visitors from Pewamo-Westphalia, 18-16.

With eight minutes remaining in the game and the Pirates holding a 16-6 lead end Don Brown scored from five yards out and then with 2 1/2 minutes left, halfback Marty Lankford scampered over from the three to give the Panthers the winning margin.

Fullback Dan Weber was the big man for P-W scoring both touchdowns and catching passes for both conversion attempts.

Weber opened the scoring in the first period on a 23-yard dash and then pulled in a pass from John Bengel for the conversion to give the Pirates an 8-0 lead.

But DeWitt's Jim Ashley narrowed the gap to 8-6 when he dashed for a four-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

In the third period, however, Weber and his friend moved to the DeWitt 18 following a Panther fumble the junior scoring machine carried in from there and then picked off another Bengel pass for two more.

And the Pirates had themselves a nice 16-6 lead.

But in the fourth quarter Weber showed he was human and fumbled.

That's when the Panthers began to turn the nightmare into a beautiful dream, driving to the five before Brown scampered in to cut the visitor's lead to four points.

DeWitt kicked off to the Pirates who were unable to move the ball and were forced to punt to the fired-up Panthers.

With time slipping away, DeWitt methodically moved the ball downfield in a series of 12 plays capped by Lankford's three-yard scoring run with 2 1/2 minutes

But the Pirates, attempting to rebound from their first loss of the season administered only the week before, refused to give up and moved the ball to DeWitt's 10-yard line before losing it on downs.

The Panthers, unable to run out the clock, were forced to punt once more. P-W's final threat was extinguished, however, when Loren Ward intercepted a Pirate pass with moments left in the game.

The victory put DeWitt's season record at 6-0 and its Central Michigan Athletic Conference mark at 5-0 to set up Friday's showdown battle for the league lead at Potterville, owners of an identical record.

Pewamo - Westphalia, meanwhile, is now 3-2-1 on the season and 2-2-1 in conference play. The Pirates, defending CMAC champions, host Portland St. Pat Friday.

P-W	8	0	8	0-16
DeWitt	0	6	0	12-16

It's a happy group of DeWitt Panthers after defeating P-W.

Cross country wins 5th

St. Johns cross country team dashed to its fifth victory in a row last week, downing Grand Ledge, 24-35.

Although the Redwings were missing a key man, Rick Flegel who is out with an injured knee, the club took seven of the first 10 spots to remain undefeated so far this season.

Bill French placed second for St. Johns in 10:56.

Behind French were Fred Root, third; Gary Moon, fifth; Pete Motz, sixth; Jon Pierson, eighth; Al Rappuhn, ninth, and Rick Jones, 10th.

The cross country team travels to Alma Thursday for a meet at 4:30 p.m.

"Dan Rademacher did much the same as Larry Zuker," said Head Coach Jeff Smith in naming this senior defensive end Honorary Captain. Rademacher, who is a two-year starter at the position, "placed a great deal of pressure on their quarterback," said Smith.

"He just came up sometimes and cut people right in half," is how Head Coach Jeff Smith described the defensive play of his Back of the Week Rich Stoddard. Smith said he was pleased with Stoddard's hard hitting and noted he had an interception and was in on several tackles.

Bees fall 26-12

Bath's 12-point lead fades as Leslie romps in 2nd half

By RON KARLE Editor

stopped Bath, 26-12, but as Coach Robert Van Dyke said after the game, "They're by far the best ballclub we've faced all year."

I'm glad the game's over," he added. That's not bad coming from the coach of an undefeated team. And as Van Dyke indicated, it was a lot closer than the final score would have you believe.

The Bees took a 12-6 lead at halftime on a pair of Paul Stoll passes to Dave Ankney but in the end three touchdowns by Tim Connell following Kim Snow's TD pass to John Wheeler was too much.

Bath took a 6-0 first quarter lead when Stoll hit Ankney for a 38-yard pass play with less than two minutes left in the period. But early in the second quarter, Bob Ramirez set up the first Leslie touchdown when he intercepted a Bath pass and moments later Snow hit Wheeler from three yards out for the six-pointer.

Ankney denied the Blackhawks the lead when he blocked an attempted two-point conversion pass. With less than two minutes left in the half, Stoll hit Ankney for an 18-yard pass which moved the ball to the Leslie 11-yard line. Then with 43 seconds left, Stoll found Ankney again for an eight-yard pass and the go-ahead touchdown.

The Bees attempted a two-point conversion when Stoll pitched to Dan Baker who passed to Don Koening but the senior halfback was brought down five yards short of the goal line.

In the third period, with about four minutes gone, Connell struck for his first touchdown of the night when he dashed around left end for 32 yards.

Later in the quarter Connell picked off a Bath pass which first bounced off a teammate, Ron Leach and Leslie took over on its own 17.

The Hawks then moved 83 yards in 17 plays capping the drive with a 10-yard pass from Snow to Connell. Snow plunged for two more and Leslie led 20-12 with 8:27 left in the game.

Connell iced the game with little more than three minutes left when he dashed 20 yards—breaking a tackle—for his final touchdown of the night.

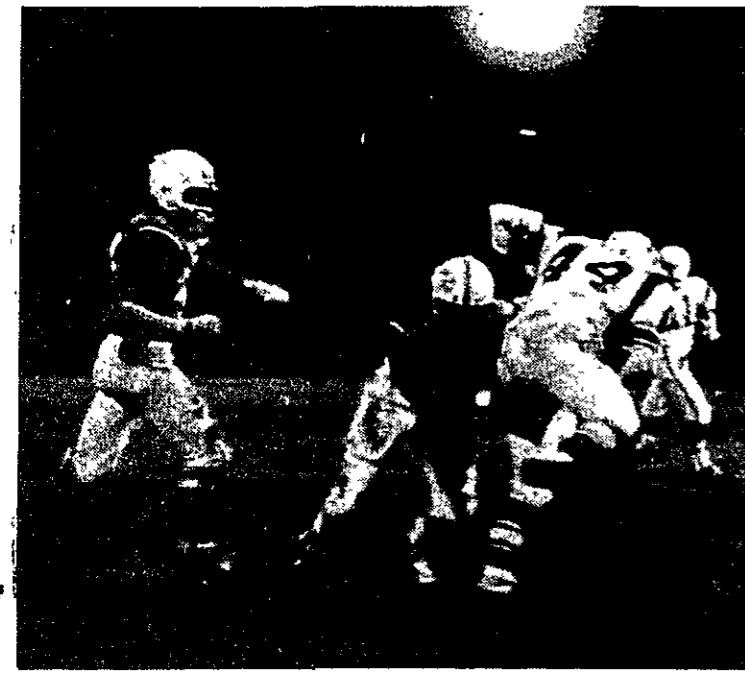

The Bees are now 3-3 on the season and 3-2 in Ingham County League play. This week Bath hosts Williamston for homecoming.

Potterville thumps Fowler, 45-22

There was just a little too much Bruce McMurray for Fowler Friday night.

Potterville's All-State halfback scored four touchdowns as the Vikings won their sixth in a row, 45-22, over winless Fowler. McMurray, who rushed for 89 yards in 15 attempts, scored on runs of six, one and five yards, and returned a kickoff 81 yards for another touchdown.

Kim Van Tilburg picked up two more six-pointers for Potterville on runs of six and 17 yards, while Mike Van Fossen caught a 43-yard pass from Mike Sherman for the final touchdown.

Steffan Bengtson kicked three extra points for the visitors, including one from 38 yards out following a 15-yard penalty against the Vikings.

Meanwhile, Steve Feldpausch, the season-long Fowler workhorse, rushed for 151 yards in 19 carries and scored a touchdown on a 17-yard run.

Gene Messer added another

Fowler touchdown on a 27-yard run and Gary Pung scored on a 10-yard pass from Messer. Messer also hit Bill Arm-bustucher on a two-point conversion pass and Pung tackled a Potterville runner in the end zone for a safety.

Highlighting the Viking defense were three interceptions by Bill Schlee.

The Eagles tangled with Laingsburg this week while Potterville hosts undefeated DeWitt in a battle for the Central Michigan Conference lead.

Central Montcalm nips Fulton, 12-8

Central Montcalm struck in the final period Friday and took its first victory of the season, 12-8, over Fulton.

Dave Parker fired over from the one-yard line with nine minutes left in the game to clinch the victory.

His game-winning touchdown followed a 60-yard pass play from Roger Hansen to Jack Helms which was stopped on the one.

The Hornets got off to a lead in the first half when Hanson hit Steve Mazzola for a 34-yard scoring pass.

But Fulton regained the lead before halftime when Keith Leslie slammed over from the one and Dan Gray ran for a two-point conversion.

The Hornets are now 1-5 on the season.

Fulton, 2-4 overall and 1-3 in Tri-Central Conference play, hosts Portland Friday in another conference match.

Sound again

Michigan State two-time All-America soccer star Trevor Harris missed his team's first two 1969 games as he recovered from effects of an old ankle injury. He did get into the lineup in the third game against Kent State and responded with five goals to pace his team to a 12-0 victory.

Redwings thump Gd. Ledge

'Hardest we've hit in two years'-Smith

Coach Jeff Smith offers some sideline knowledge to Chuck Green.

"It was the hardest hitting game I've seen in two years—a rock 'em, sock 'em game," said St. Johns head coach Jeff Smith after his charges upended Grand Ledge, 14-7.

They were rocking and socking alright.

In fact, the Comets rocked and socked themselves for 95 yards in penalties—one costing a potential game-tying touchdown in the final period.

In a desperate attempt to score in the closing minutes, Grand Ledge took to the air and as Charlie Green moved in for a possible interception, he was shoved just before a Grand Ledge receiver caught the ball in the end zone.

But a penalty was called and the Redwings gained possession and were able to run out the clock and secure their fourth victory of the season.

St. Johns opened the scoring the first time they got the ball in the first period.

The Redwings moved 77 yards in eight plays with Tim Durner hitting Green on a 13-yard scoring pass to cap the drive. Jeff Slim kicked the extra point and the Wings led 7-0.

Grand Ledge tied the score in the second quarter, however, when Jack Decker scampered 13 yards for a touchdown and Dennis Beckwith kicked for another.

third period driving 70 yards for the score as Slim dashed over from the four and kicked the extra point.

Quarterback Durner picked up 70 yards in the air as he completed six passes in 11 attempts while Green was the leading rusher with 46 yards.

Overall, the Redwings picked up 206 yards for the night, including 136 on the ground, and 13 first downs while losing only 10 yards in penalties.

Grand Ledge, meanwhile, rushed for 129 yards and added another 57 in the air completing five passes in 14 attempts for a total of 176 yards.

Larry Wakefield led the Redwing defense in tackles with 13 while Steve Mead had 12.

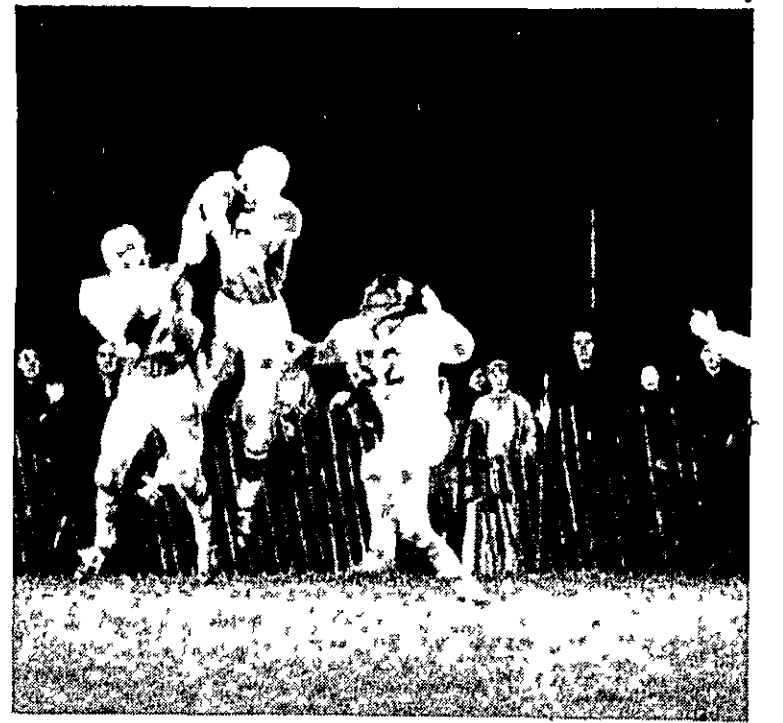

The Redwings are now 4-1-1 overall and 3-1-1 in West Central Conference play.

Looking ahead to next week's conference game at Alma, Smith said, "they're a typical Alma team with a lot of speed. They might have the fastest backfield in the conference . . . I don't know."

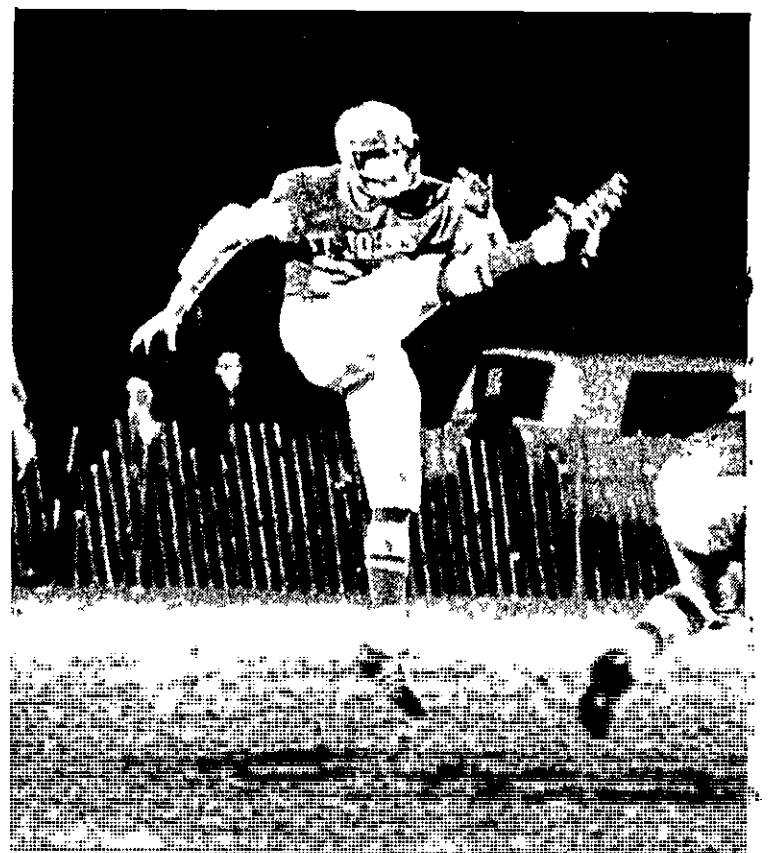

"The only victory they've got this season," said Smith, "is a 15-0 win over Hastings—the team we tied."

Although the two clubs didn't meet last year, Smith recalled that two years ago Alma hadn't scored a point all season—until they met St. Johns and dumped the Redwings, 6-2.

LOCAL HUNTERS HAVE SUCCESSFUL TRIP

Roar Dershem, Dean Worrall, Nicky Knight and Gary Biddinger were mighty pleased with this moose bagged by Worrall on their hunting trip 50 miles north of Sault Ste. Marie. The antler spread measured 47 1/2 inches. The animal was downed one and a half miles from their camp with a 300 Winchester Magnum at a distance of 300 yards.

Chesaning blanks O-E

Fumbles and an inability to move within Chesaning's 10-yard line contributed to Ovid-Elsie's downfall Friday night as the Marauders were shutout, 18-0. Gary Goldiski scampered four yards for the first Indian score and then he added to two more when he passed to Joe Pacek for the conversion. Tom Theil picked up another six points in the final period on a six-yard run and it was Goldiski again passing to Pacek for the conversion. The Indian's other two points today the thing most vitally needed is faith in the future. quarter.

The Marauders are now 1-5 on the season and winless in five starts in Mid-Michigan B. Conference play. This week O-E will attempt to get on the winning track when they host St. Louis.

'Ditty Bag' project a success

By SHIRLEY KARBBER
News Staff Writer

The "Ditty Bag" Christmas project for 1969 has been completed by volunteers in the Mid-Michigan area and states throughout the nation.

The annual project began Aug. 1 and required approximately eight weeks to complete.

The gift bags must be distributed to each camp, bunker, and outpost before Dec. 25, and the Red Cross project requires time, work and funds to accomplish. The volunteers are people who care enough to help ease a most difficult time for our American servicemen.

The people in the Mid-Michigan Red Cross have been involved with the Christmas gift program since 1965. The project was especially requested by the military for Vietnam.

This year's quota for our chapter was 1,600 "Ditty Bags."

There are no names on the bags; they go to each and every American servicemen in South Vietnam. Our Clinton County men may receive their gift bag from another county or state and bags from Michigan may go to men from any of the other 50 states.

After the 10 by 16-inch bags are sewn by volunteers they are filled at the Red Cross Center in Lansing and packed into shipping cartons which are then wrapped in paper and addressed to a warehouse in San Francisco, Calif. They are sent to Vietnam when space is available on board ship.

Help was supplied for this year's project in various forms. Several groups and individuals contributed hours to the sewing of the drawstring bags, including Mrs Birdie Glover, Mrs Lester Lake, Miss Jane Karber, Mrs Clare Thelen, Mrs Edwin Hebeck, Mrs Iola Slagell, Newcomers Club, Esther Circle, Methodist Church, Brown B's Extension Club, and the South Bingham and Olive Extension Clubs.

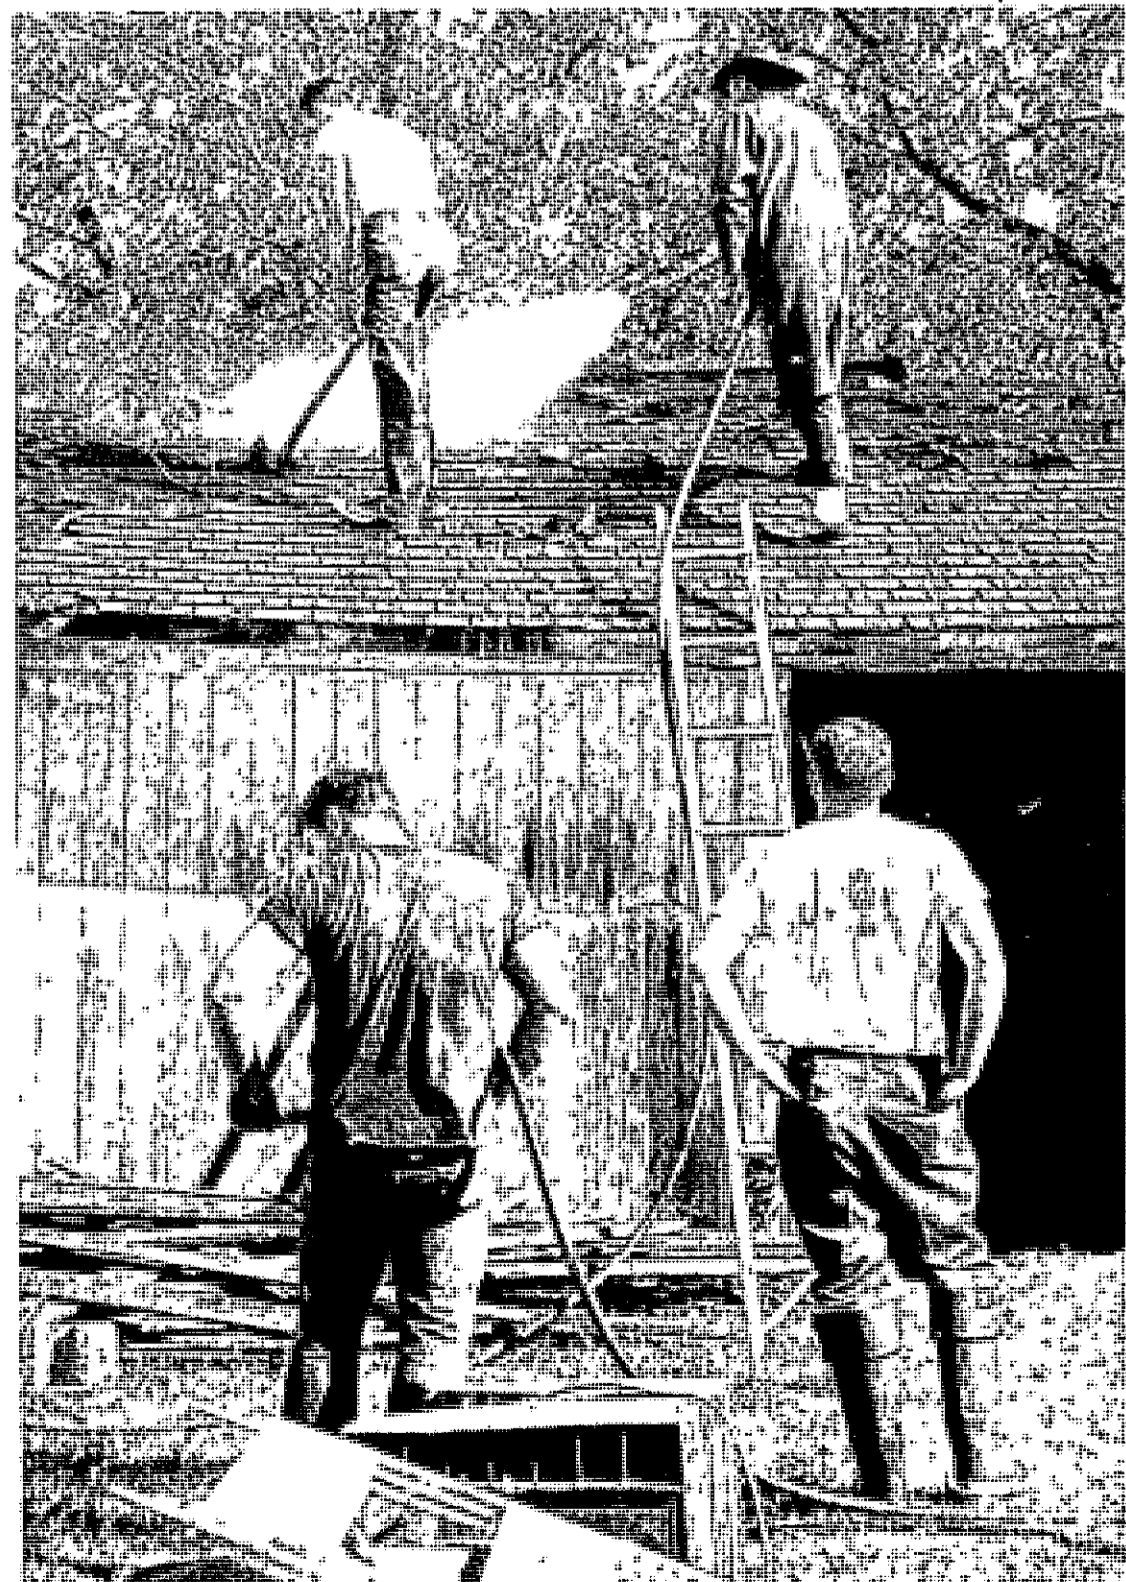

Many persons and groups contributed items to fill the bags and those from Clinton County were Mrs Hazel Keys, Mr and Mrs Richard Urban, Cathy and Marie Schaffer, Mrs Clare Thelen, Mr and Mrs Gerald Karber, Mr and Mrs John Hannah, Mr and Mrs Edward Prowant, Mr and Mrs G. J. Newhouse, Mrs Lucille Hamer, Mrs David Hill, Keith Cramer, Darcy Cramer, Robert Pratt, 4-H Club, South Bingham and Olive Extension Clubs, Ovid-Elsie Jaycee Auxiliary, Esther Circle, and Methodist Church.

Money contributions were received from Mrs George Osgood, Mrs Delbert Conklin, Mrs Alma Dutton, and the Friendly Neighbor Home Study Group.

Bulk lots of items came from the St. Johns Rotary Club, St. Johns Auto Dealers, St. Johns Industries, WRBJ Radio Station, Dr Burkhardt, Dr Stevenson, Clinton National Bank, Allaby Insurance, Quality Discount, Parr's Drug Store, Oldsmobile Corp., John Deere Dealer, Kurt's Appliance and the St. Johns Kroger Store.

Mrs Doris Prowant, found the task of delivering Christmas "Ditty Bags" to the Red Cross Center in Lansing an enjoyable chore. Clinton County residents contributed time, work and financial assistance to the project. The bags will be delivered Christmas morning to troops in outposts, bunkers and camps throughout the Vietnam area.

Volunteer firemen throughout Clinton County contribute greatly to the safety of citizens and the protection of property. Here members of the DeWitt City Volunteer fire unit battle a garage roof fire at the home of Mr and Mrs William Zafocil on Francis Road. Keith Blizzard and Lloyd Berkimer are shown spraying the roof. The blaze started when sparks from a nearby incinerator blew onto the roof area.

Brown shows concern for GI prisoners of war

Condemning North Vietnam's treatment of American prisoners of war as "cruel and inhuman", Rep. Garry Brown, R.-Mich., has joined many of his colleagues in introducing a resolution in the House of Representatives urging President Nixon to take such action as is necessary to require compliance by North Vietnam and the Viet Cong with Geneva Convention tenets and to provide that treatment of American captives which human decency demands.

The Defense Department lists 332 servicemen as known captives in prisoner of war camps. More than 1,200 servicemen are listed as "missing in action" and could be captives. Intelligence reports and testimony from servicemen who have escaped or who have been released indicate that American servicemen while imprisoned are subjected to unusual and inhuman treatment including physical and psychological torture.

Brown's constituent, Thomas Van Patten from near Caledonia in Barry County, was such a prisoner of war until his escape in April. "Contradicting the claim of adequate diet being provided," Brown noted, "Van Patten lost 64 pounds while in a Viet Cong prison camp."

"Not only are the prisoners themselves mistreated," Brown said, "but the North Vietnamese could devise no subtler cruelty for the families of the prisoners and those missing in action than their persistent refusal even to provide a list of names of prisoners in their custody. In one case, each of 20 different wives believed that a prisoner shown in a propaganda photo was her husband. This prisoner remains unidentified," Brown added.

Brown's resolution calls for specific compliance with the Geneva Convention provisions on POW's which North Vietnam signed in 1957.

As Brown pointed out: "Though we may differ in our views on the future course of American policy in Vietnam, we are firmly united in supporting our men who are in enemy custody. This has been made clear by both the present Administration and its predecessor. The issue is not political but humanitarian.

Brown survey results

U.S. Rep. Garry Brown, (R.-Mich.), announces the results of a questionnaire he recently circulated in the Third Congressional District.

Of the approximately 13,000 responses received, more than 60 per cent opposed the extension of voting rights to 18-year-olds.

Approximately 50 per cent favored the President's proposal for deployment of a limited anti-ballistic missile system, while approximately 40 per cent opposed such deployment.

56 Per cent of those responding favored extension of the surtax but tied such support to significant Federal spending cuts.

A substantial majority (70 per cent) favor direct popular election of the President, but only about one-half of those supporting direct election favored the requirement that any candidate receive 40 per cent of the popular vote or a run-off election should be held.

A substantial majority thought that negotiations should be continued or there should be a unilateral withdrawal of military forces with respect to Vietnam, but slightly less than 35 per cent thought that negotiation of an honorable resolution of the conflict would result from the Paris Peace Talks.

4-H Club Chatter

By JOHN AYLSWORTH
Extension 4-H Youth Agent

An Area 4-H Recreation workshop is being planned for Saturday, Nov. 8, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Smith Hall in St. Johns, for Teen leaders, older 4-H youth and adults from Clinton, Gratiot and Shiawassee counties. The program will consist of recreation training in games, dance and drama where members will be able to put many of the ideas and techniques in practice.

The youths will be able to use many of the ideas not only for 4-H meetings but for school and other group activities. There is no charge for the training.

Members are asked to bring a sack lunch with the beverage and dessert being furnished. The older youths are asked to mark the date of Nov. 8, on their calendar and plan to attend this recreation workshop.

Final plans nearing completion for the 4-H Crop Show, Thursday, Nov. 6 at 7 p.m. at the United Methodist Church in St. Johns. The 4-H Crop members will be guests of the St. Johns Exchange Club that sponsor this activity. Members are to return their reservation cards by Oct. 30 whether or not they will be attending.

102 4-H Members, guest, leaders and parents participated in the first 4-H roller skating activity Thursday evening in St. Johns. There will be a 4-H roller skating activity on the third Thursday of each month till April. Clubs wishing to hold a roller skating activity are urged to contact the Extension Office to reserve a date for their club. Proceeds go to the County 4-H Council for trip awards.

Randy Davis of DeWitt is the new President of the County 4-H

Teen Leader Club. Other officers include Alan Cobb of Elsie as Vice President and Jane Smith of St. Johns, as Secretary-Treasurer. The election took place Saturday evening at the teen leaders hayride and recreation evening. The club members discussed National 4-H Club Week Promotion and the National 4-H Center Expansion Drive.

4-H is on the Grow! The National 4-H Center in Washington D.C. needs to expand its facilities. The Center is the meeting place for the Nation's 4-H Youth and at present can accommodate about 300 people. Due to the success of the Center's 4-H Programs, facilities need to be expanded to take care of 800 people.

A total of 2275 4-H members and leaders from 75 counties in Michigan have participated in the Center's Citizenship Training Courses. An eight million dollar expansion program is now under way for the National 4-H Center. Michigan's fair share of this expansion program is $75,000. Michigan will benefit greatly from this 4-H Center expansion, so be a part of this growing movement to provide Michigan Boys and Girls with an opportunity to become better leaders and citizens.

With a 4-H membership in Clinton County of 1500 members our county's fair share is 1500 or a basis of $1 per member to be raised over a three year drive.

The following 4-H clubs have contributed toward this goal so far: Lucky Riders $5,00, Olive 4-H Projects $10,00, Four Corners $30, Westphalia $5,00, Happy Hustlers $19,00, Border Line Club $12, Kountry Kousins $20, Bengal Comm. $7,50 and Nimble Fingers $30.

Throughout the winter and summer program the clubs will be using various methods in raising funds for the National 4-H Center Expansion Drive.

The Olive 4-H Projects members have elected Randy Davis as their President for the winter program. Other officers include: Vice President Sharon Stoy; Secretary Kathy Davis; Treasurer, Becky Gibson; Newsreporter Kathi Haviland; Recreation leaders Sharon Wood, Kris McKenna and Diane Rensberry.

The telephone committee consists of Sherry Smith, Susan Sneeburger, Becky Gibson, Tracy Speers and Debbie Young.

The club members voted that to be eligible for an office, a member must be 14 years of age and have been a member for two years in this club. The next meeting will be a family potluck dinner at Smith Hall in St. Johns for both winter and summer program members starting at 1 p.m. Kathy Nichols will show her slides on her trip to Japan this past summer.

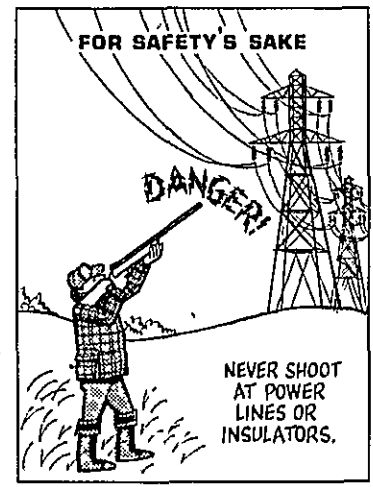

The We-Hah-Kay-Asta 4-H Club members elected officers at their first meeting with the following results: President Mary Stoneman; Vice President Bill Mack; Secretary Janice Parker, Treasurer Laura Stoneman; Newsreporter Carolyn Stoneman and recreation leaders Dave Mack and Brenda Stoneman. Mary Stoneman gave a demonstration on horse worming. The members enjoyed a movie titled "Just Horses."

The Elsie Four Corners 4-H Club members elected the following officers: President Alan Cobb; Vice President Marie Blakely; Secretary Yvonne Rivest; Treasurer Yvonne Ortez;

News Reporter Kam Washburn; Safety leader Dan Washburn; Recreation leaders Debbie Pokorney, Amette Zuchschwerdt, and Arlene Hutchinson; Health leader Carolyn Walter; Sentinel Karen Kimmel and Pam Jewel. The teen leaders will be making up the club calendars for their next meeting Nov. 3.

The Green Clover Girls under the leadership of Mrs. Guy Snyder held their first organizational meetings. Officers elected include President Cindy Miller, Vice President Colleen Jorae, Secretary Linda Miller, Treasurer Marie Shinaberry, News Reporter Susan Fisher, and Recreation and Song leader Sheila Snyder. The girls will be meeting the fourth Monday evening of each month from 7-9 p.m.

The Bengal Community 4-H Club held their first meeting for the winter program and enrolled members starting at 1 p.m. The club voted to donate $7.50 toward the National 4-H Expansion Drive. The members discussed the honor club score sheet and what the honor club was all about.

Michigan's 4-H dairy judging team members meet with their advisor, Dr. Larry Johnson, extension dairy specialist at Michigan State University, before leaving for the National 4-H dairy judging contest at Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 13. They are from left, Dana Sue Hazle, St. Johns; Bruce Peckens, Howell; Marcia Khovsky, Corunna; and Natalie Thacker, Coldwater.

Dairy judging team 13th

Michigan's 4-H dairy cattle judging team placed 13th at the National 4-H Dairy Cattle Judging Contest at Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 13.

One of the team members, Marcia Khovsky, 17, of Corunna, placed seventh in individual competition among 132 contestants. Her score was only 16 points less than the high individual.

THE OTHER team members were Dana Sue Hazle, 17, of St.

Johns, Natalie Thacker, 18, of Coldwater, and Bruce Peckens, 17, of Howell.

"The team scored 2,023 points, which is 163 points higher than the team that represented Michigan at last year's contest," notes Larry Johnson, extension dairy specialist at Michigan State University and team advisor.

"The team placed fourth in Brown Swiss judging and ninth in Jersey judging, but was low in the Ayrshire and Holstein divisions," according to Johnson.

ON THE WAY to Columbus, the team had some pre-contest judging practice at several dairy farms.

The National 4-H Dairy Cattle Judging Contest is held at the North American Dairy Show each year.

Michigan Animal Breeders Cooperative sponsored Michigan's 4-H dairy judging team.

There is an old story that says you can't kill one of those long legged frogs by dropping him in a bubbling kettle of boiling water.

The frog every time will react so quickly (just from the rising steam), that at the instant of touching the deadly hot water his springing powerful legs will leap to action to rescue himself from some chef's dinner menu.

BUT WHAT happens to the poor frog if the cook puts him in cold water and then warms up the water gradually.

This time that old frog probably believes he has made his goal in life with the luxury of this warm bath. Mr. Frog never learns because he never decides to jump till it's too late. By then he's cooked!

I SOMETIMES wonder if men are just as foolish? Take away their freedom overnight, and you've got a violent revolution. But steal it from them gradually (under the guise of "security," "peace," or "progress") and you can paralyze an entire generation.

Take for an example the income tax. It started out at a harmless sounding one per cent. It would have been easy to jump out of the water, then.

But like the old frog, we waited while it climbed even higher. Ever stop to figure out the percentage of taxes you are now paying? Well, try jumping out of the water now.

THE TRAGIC thing about the situation is that we never learn. Many people could not believe that the registration of firearms was the warm water that will boil us should our guns be confiscated.

And today the confiscation of hand guns has been suggested to the President of the United States.

If by chance you should draw a parallel between subsidized teachers' pay and federal control of education, you are called "extremist."

The tragedies of history are always repeated by those who refuse to learn from them. To seek guidance from the past is not "turning the clock back" as we are often told.

It is merely a good way to keep out of hot water.

Be 4-H leader

Don't complain about youth--do something

Adults who complain about today's younger generation should take action to help these young people, says John Aylsworth, Extension 4-H Youth Agent.

Volunteer adult leaders are needed for area 4-H clubs and 4-H activities, he says. October marks the beginning of the new 4-H year and new 4-H clubs and youth activities are now being planned.

The 45 4-H projects and activities range from archery to woodworking, from automotive care to wildflowers and from electronics to child care. If you are a nurse, you could lead a first aid project club. If you are a mechanic, you could work with an automotive or small engines project club.

If your hobby is gardening, you could lead a horticulture club. Someone who enjoys photography, could lead a 4-H photography club, while others who like to bake, sew or knit could work with 4-H projects in these areas.

This volunteer leadership need not take a lot of time and most adults who work with 4-H members find the experience very rewarding, points out Aylsworth.

Through 4-H youth programs, boys and girls work on projects and activities that frequently shape their lives and careers. There are over 27 million 4-H Alumni in the United States and most have been a real benefit to their communities and the country.

Showing and sharing new knowledge and skills is part of the 4-H philosophy. In this way, youth learns to lead. Teen leaders work with younger 4-H members.

A pre-teen girl in the 4-H clothing program starts out by making a simple item and progresses according to her ability. By the time she is in high school, she can make most of her clothes. As a teen 4-H leader she teaches younger members how to sew.

If you are interested in working with youth through 4-H, contact John Aylsworth at the county extension office, located at 1003 South Oakland Street, in St. Johns.

She and Lee were only names to me when I first saw their picture. Incredible — that the children I now mother tenderly, once were strangers!

It seems only yesterday Dan wrote he was bringing them home. How frantic I was with worry and self-doubt. Could I love, as my own, children with stunted eyes and tinted skins? Would I fail them? Could I fulfill Dan's faith in me? We had been longing for children, true — but not foreigners!

In desperation, I called my pastor. Calmly and with understanding, he spoke to me of God's love as the common denominator of all nationalities.

And so from the moment I saw them, Sue and Lee have been our own, bringing laughter and joy without measure.

How grateful I am for God and His Church and the wisdom they teach — in Christ, there is no East nor West!

Without this truth my arms might still be empty.

County President Lee Ormston presides at the 50th annual Clinton County Farm Bureau meeting.

350 attend

Farm Bureau has 50th meeting

A near record crowd attended the Golden Anniversary celebration of the Farm Bureau in Clinton County.

The meeting was the organization's annual business session, and following election of directors and action on proposed resolutions, the members observed the 50-year mark by honoring charter members, past Women's Committee Chairmen and past county presidents.

Charter members introduced by James Becker, County FB Executive committee member were Mrs Floyd Anderson, Essex township; Mrs Guy Simcox, Blingham; C.S. Langdon, Lebanon; King Lee, Watertown; R. L. Beckwith St. Johns, and Elmer Swagart, Greenbush. Unable to attend were James Campbell of Greenbush and Harlen Dershem of St. Johns.

Mrs David Morris, Farm Bureau Women's Chairmen, introduced the past chairmen of that committee. They were Mrs Harold Green, Ovid; Mrs Alfred Wickerham, DeWitt; Mrs Dorothy Ward, Essex; Mrs Romuald Lonier, Watertown; Mrs Kenneth Gelsenhaver, DeWitt, and Mrs Levi Blakeslee, Bengal.

Neil Harte County Farm Bureau Vice President called the past presidents to the platform. Each recalled an important incident which took place during his term of office.

Present were R.L. Beckwith, King Lee, Oliver Angeli, Leonard Koenigskecht, Don Swagart, Levi Blakeslee, David Morris, Robert Reese, Jr., Raymond Mayers and E. J. Bottum.

The remainder of the special anniversary observance included a poem written and read by Warren Dobson, of DeWitt—tracing the history of Farm Bureau, and a skit entitled "I am Farm Bureau" presented by staff from the Michigan Farm Bureau Information Division in Lansing. Concluding the special program, Dennis Phillips, member of the Young Farmer committee, gave a short talk on "What Will Be Farm Bureau's Role in the Future."

Resolutions adopted discouraged governmental control of farm labor, a stand by the members against the refusal of union meat cutters in the Chicago area to allow red meat to be sold after 6 p.m. and on Sundays.

The Farm Bureau also came out against the use of property taxes to obtain school operating millage. The group felt an increase in the state income tax was more equitable.

Members called for funds to carry out more research in navy bean and other Michigan cash crop production with concentration on blight and other pests.

It was resolved that all school district reorganization including intermediate districts should be approved by a majority of voters in each district.

Another resolution passed asking that the Michigan Constitution be amended to provide for election of Superintendent of Public Instruction and four members of the State Board of Education, one per year, at the annual school election with Superintendent of Public Instruction as a member of the State Board of Education.

The Farm Bureau took a stand against the building of a new State Capitol saying taxpayers are already taxed to capacity.

Favor was given to the establishment of a Tri-County authority over Capital City Airport instead of giving the responsibility to the City of Lansing.

Members urged that welfare aid, which is given out by local agencies be watched closely; that those able to work be required to do so.

A resolution favoring the remaining of Michigan on Eastern Standard Time was passed, and two resolutions concerning MASA (Michigan Agricultural Services Association) were discussed. One was supported, asking that all persons carrying Workmen's Compensation with Farm Bureau Insurance be sent the MASA farm labor newsletter as a benefit.

One died for lack of a motion to accept asked that MASA be discontinued.

Re-elected to serve three year terms on the county Board of Directors were Andrew Cobb, Duplain-Greenbush District; Neil Harte, Director-at-Large and Kenneth Gelsenhaver, Bath-DeWitt District.

Replacing Dan Thelen of Westphalia will be Jerome Spitzley of Dallas to serve the Dallas-Westphalia District.

Special awards for membership were given the Parker Center, Maple River, Maple Valley, Country Cousins, Sleepy Hollow and Friendly Fringe Farmers Community Groups.

Groups winning the table decoration contest were Young Pioneers and Loyal Neighbors for originality, and Prairie and Jason Center for beauty. Honorable mention was given Parker Center group.

Door prize winners were Donald Miller, Ellen Sanborn and Wilda Becker.

Prizes were two floral arrangements and an anniversary cake decorated by Mrs Ed Grams of the Friendly Fringe Farmers group.

A dinner was served before the meeting by the Pilgrim United Methodist Church ladies.

Mrs David Cook, of DeWitt, admires the first place winner for originality in the table decorating contest, won by the Young Pioneers. This centerpiece consisted of an old fashioned butter bowl and paddle.

The Prairie Group won first place for beauty in table decoration. These fall flowers, ivy and harvest vegetables are gracing an old-fashioned pump.

Nurse training

In response to the increasing demand for people with nursing care skills for the nation's hospitals, New York City has initiated two New Careers-type programs. These programs will provide more nursing personnel and at the same time build a career ladder from nurse's aide to professional nurse. One program trains experienced nurses' aides to become licensed practical nurses (LPN's); the other trains experienced LPN's to become registered nurses (RN's).

Tall tail

The tail of the glass snake lizard will eventually break off when captured or roughly handled. However, a shorter tail will grow in its place.

Alberta Chase leaves legacy of good works

ELISE — A recent notice of graveside services, in Elsie's Riverside Cemetery, for a member of one of the town's pioneer families went unnoticed, except for a few old friends, and those associated with the Elsie Public Library.

Elise, many years older than she took the place of her mother who died when Elsie was still quite young. Following graduation from Elsie High School, she enrolled at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, where she earned her bachelor of arts degree, during World War I, after teaching in both elementary and high schools for several years, she returned to Ann Arbor and entered the School of Nursing. She completed her nurse's training as well as master of arts.

Her brother, the late Lewis Chase, lost his sight in early childhood but with the help of his family he achieved a high level of education and was able to devote most of his life to college teaching. Perhaps, because of this experience with a serious handicap in her own family, Miss Chase spent much of her life working with handicapped children, serving as executive secretary of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children for six years.

As a result of her involvement in Missouri, Miss Chase became interested in the School of the Ozarks, which was organized in the Southeastern part of that state in order to provide a high school education for children of the Ozark region, whose resources were too limited to permit them to attend school elsewhere. She continued her interest in that institution, which eventually became an accredited

Shepardville

By Lucille Spencer

ELIZABETH GILBERT RE-ELECTED
Morning Star Chapter No. 279, OES, of Ovid met in regular session on Oct. 7 with Worthy Matron Elizabeth Gilbert presiding in the East.

The annual reports were read and an election of officers for the coming year were held. Those elected included: Elizabeth Gilbert, re-elected as worthy matron; Raymond Lawrence, worthy patron; Esther Moore, associate matron; Russell Gilbert, associate patron; Majel Miller, secretary; Margaret Potter, treasurer; Mickey Besco, associate conductress; Dorothy Kadolph, conductress; and Lucille Spencer, county officer.

The new officers will be installed at a closed installation at the next regular meeting.

The afternoon Circle of the Shepardville WOS met at the home of Mrs. George Olson on Oct. 9 at 2 p.m. There were 10 members and two guests present.

Mrs. Ralph Baker had charge of the program, and chose as topic "New Horizons for Women." She brought out that Christian women should look at things a little differently in this changing world. "We cannot be like our grandmothers who brought their best gifts of homemaking to the church. Women today are better educated. They can find careers in teaching and use it in their church work. Women have less vested interests than men in the present institution of religion and can often be the pioneers in new endeavors," she said.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Karl Smith, a card of thanks was read from the O-E Joyce Auxiliary thanking the Circle for coupons. It was voted that members bring something for a layette to the next meeting. These articles will be sent to the Grand Rapids Community House for distribution.

Toward independence

Everyone kicks about big government, but no one seems able to do anything about it. However, the near maxim that the trend toward bigger and bigger government is inevitable and irreversible could possibly turn out to be a fallacy. The largest farm organization in the country, the American Farm Bureau Federation, representing well over a million U.S. farm families, who have endured more than 30 years of government subsidies and controls, now supports federal legislation aimed at gradually unshackling agriculture from governmental domination.

Business, professions and other groups which have been following the path of agriculture toward big government domination may one day look upon the present action of the Farm Bureau as both a turning point and a guide in the endless struggle to preserve independence. The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1969, which is strongly supported by the Farm Bureau, points out: "The transition to the market system would be gradual. Substantial payments would be made during the transition period to help farmers make needed adjustments. . . . At the end of the proposed phase-out of acreage allotments, marketing quotas, base acreages, certificates and government payments . . . each producer would be free to . . . make the best uses of his resources in the light of the market outlook. Thus, the way would be clear for farmers to earn and get higher incomes in the marketplace."

With this kind of citizen leadership, it may prove possible to live with relatively "big government" and preserve our liberties at the same time.

Autumn trip

There is much concern these days over the growing dangers of water and air pollution and this attention is well justified.

But despite the seriousness of the problem there is a degree of regret for it is the time of year when tradition dictates the burning of leaves. Few are those persons who do not experience a twinge of nostalgia from the odor of leaf smoke and whose memories do not slip back to other years.

There is something magical about autumn leaf fires. The tiny flames belie their capacity for dispelling smoke but even then the nuisance is erased by the almost delightful aroma and the most serious of worldly cares are momentarily swept away on the vapors of smoldering leaves.

The little fires in back yards, from yards, along curbs or in driveways add in some measure to the air pollution difficulties but the problem is banned from our minds as we gather the leaves for the burning. The autumn fires offer a more enjoyable return to yesteryear and the realities of today are laid aside for the trip.

Lest we forget

It was quickly and effectively brought to our attention by two hard working volunteers of the Blue Star Mothers that theirs is an organization which regularly conducts the canteen for men of the county departing for military physicals or inductions.

An inadvertent omission caused the Blue Star Mothers to be not mentioned in our remarks of last week regarding departing servicemen and the efforts they extend truly deserve recognition. Numerous items for personal use are regularly dispensed by the Blue Star Mothers to those meeting military demands and, as pointed out in a special feature article which appeared in our recently published "Salute to Servicemen", the group performs various other services as well.

We regret the oversight. In this particular case, however, we wish there were more.

Back Thru the Years

Interesting Items from the Files of the Clinton County News

10 YEARS AGO (Oct. 22, 1959)

Lt. Robert Sirrine of St. Johns set his Navy AD5 Skyraider down on a 22 acre plowed field near Knoxville, Tenn., Sunday, after the engine conked out unexpectedly.

Lt. Sirrine was returning with two others from active training at Guantanamo Bay in Cuba. "Had the motor failure occurred 80 miles sooner or later we would have had to bail out," Lt. Sirrine said.

The motor failed about 8,000 feet up. The plane landed on its belly in the plowed field with minor damages to the plane and no injuries to its occupants.

Eugene Cornwell was presented a camera by Capt. Edward Sonier of the St. Johns Volunteer Fire Department. Cornwell had served the department 13 years. Others who were presented gifts were R.G. Becker and Jack Smit.

25 YEARS AGO (Oct. 19, 1944)

City Manager T. H. Townsend returned Tuesday from a meeting of the association of International City Managers held at Chicago Oct. 13. He was awarded a certificate and testimonial. Mr. Townsend was the only one present who had served continuously for 25 years in one city.

Rex E. Ward, who has served as city commissioner for the past six years, last week filed petitions for the same office. Mr. Ward has served as mayor the past two years. Until this week it was thought his election would be uncontested.

Early this week a petition liberally signed by St. Johns citizens was filed by Rex Sirrine, teller at the National Bank at St. Johns. Mr. Sirrine it is claimed did not seek the nomination, but has agreed to become a candidate.

It is what you want and is hard to get that makes life worthwhile.

50 YEARS AGO (Oct. 23, 1919)

The 27th annual convention of the Clinton County Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held Oct. 16th at the Methodist Church, St. Johns. About 40 delegates were in attendance, who thoroughly enjoyed an inspirational and instructive program.

While setting out tomato plants in a plot near the baseball park, William S. Dills, an engineer for the Miami, Fla., Traction Company, was accidentally shot in the leg by some small boys who were killing rice birds. The boys declared that they were not aware of Mr. Dill's presence.

The Triangle Truck Company of St. Johns had its plant highly praised this week by representatives from New York and Sioux City, who inspected the plant and its product, saying that the Triangle Truck could not be beat.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

He was 'shocked' by report of Ionia game

To The Editor:

To the writer of the article entitled "But For a Point," I was shocked to read such an article in a paper commenting on a High School Athletic event.

First, I would like to say I enjoy sports as much as anyone. Second, I was not at the game; or have I seen the films, but I assume that what was said in the article was factual.

What disturbed me was this. The writer attacked officials for a poor job of officiating. This may be true, but it only widened the generation gap. Showing our young people or young adults that we so called adults wish to obey decisions when they are to our liking. By the attitude of the writer, sports are only played to win period.

If this pressure of winning above all else is the policy of the St. Johns Board of Education, Athletic Dept., and Alumni, then it is time for much soul searching.

I would be compelled to ask the School Board to drop all athletic events if this is so. This probably will not be published in the "Letters to the Editor" but I am sending a copy to the School Board for a statement on their official policy on sports, and their purpose in total education of our youth.

Leo Durocher said and I quote "Good Guys Finish Last." But the Mets finished first, Leo.

Sorry I was misled in school to think sportmanship came first.

'IF IT FITZ . . .'

Bus tale

By JIM FITZGERALD

Until he showed up feeding squirrels, I had forgotten My Most Unforgettable Character, Harry Holmes, the singing bus driver.

Back in the late 40's, Harry drove the bus that went by my parents' home in Port Huron. Two blocks later, headed for downtown, he also drove by my girlfriend's home. I didn't own a car, so it was often Harry's responsibility to get Noreen and me to the movie on time.

Usually, I'd board the 7 p.m. bus at my corner, and then Noreen would get on 2 blocks later. This way I didn't have to pay her fare. She was a working girl and I was a struggling veteran trying to get through college on only $75 a month for beer.

It didn't take long for Harry to realize he was important to our romance. After he'd pick me up, he'd begin looking for Noreen. (She didn't always board at the same corner because sometimes she had to walk a block to Shamaly's Market to sell empty beer bottles to raise her bus fare. We were a wealthy couple.) If Noreen were nowhere in sight, Harry would slow down to 5 mph to give her more time to materialize.

Harry was easily the town's most popular bus driver. It wasn't simply that he was always friendly; always had a corny joke. He was also a singer. Not very good, but louder than the motor. And properly inserted into the lyrics was always the name of the next street. If you missed your stop it was probably because you became bemused and though Hoagy Carmichael had written something called Stardust on Rawlins St.

Noreen and I were an addition to Harry's repertoire. He let the other passengers know when his favorite couple made connections successfully. And, whenever one of us went downtown alone, he wondered aloud what the trouble was. He took a real interest in the courtship, following the ups and downs closely and vocally. Whenever I boarded a homeward bound bus alone and beery, he would toot-toot steadily for 10 blocks. I would have walked 15 miles rather than take another girl onto Harry's bus.

The Readers' Digest would end this tale with Harry bussing Noreen and me on the first leg of our honeymoon. But alas, She found another, a guy with a car, and I left town on another bus line. It was 20 years before I thought of Harry again . . .

Suddenly there he was, the star of a feature story in my hometown newspaper. He's retired now and spends much of his time in a lawn chair, feeding peanuts to pigeons and squirrels.

"I feed them rain or shine—that's half my life now," he told the reporter. "You have to keep busy or you just rot away . . . all I want to do now is live in Port Huron until I die."

Harry lives smack on his old bus route. Boy, what I'd like to do is go home and ride that bus and get off at Harry's corner and hand a bag of peanuts to my Most Unforgettable Character.

But I's so damn busy earning bus fare, I'll forget to do it. And then I'll think of it again when I read Harry's obituary. That's life. What a shame.

On winning and losing

By RON KARLE, Editor

Dear Duane:

I guess I'm the guy you're looking for.

I see by your letter elsewhere on this page that you're "shocked" by my reporting of the St. Johns - Ionia football game.

You say you're disturbed by comments regarding poor officiating borne out in the game films and that such reporting "only widens the generation gap."

Also, you indicate concern that such reporting shows young people that "so-called adults only wish to obey the decisions when they are to our liking." And finally, you detect somewhere "by the attitude of the writer, sports are only played to win period."

I appreciate your interest in such things and am pleased you took the time to express your concern not only to the newspaper, but as you said in your letter, to the School Board requesting a statement on their official policy regarding the sports program.

Stories appearing in the newspaper are, of course, in no way influenced by the schools or anyone else. And although a clarification of the school's policy is welcome, the school cannot be taken to task for what appears in the newspaper.

Incidentally, I notice your address shows you live in DeWitt—home of the winningest high school football team in Clinton County.

I happened to cover DeWitt's game at Webberville the other night and when I asked the coach for comments after the game was over, he replied, "I'm sick—they scored six points on us."

As you're probably aware, it was the first time that anyone had managed to score against DeWitt this year in five games.

I used that quote—not because it reflected any attitude on my part, but because it reflected an attitude of someone involved in an event I was reporting—the attitude of an adult charged with a great deal of influence over some young people.

And I'm not altogether convinced that it's wrong to place a great deal of importance on winning within the rules of society.

Losing is lousy. It does teach valuable lessons by helping us see our mistakes to better prepare us for the next time.

Because we want to win next time. Even so, I emphatically believe in the right to fail.

But winning is important, too. Even for young people whether on the football field, in the classroom or anywhere.

High school football players are in training for future real life situations where the emphasis is on winning.

And high school football is definitely a real life situation for many boys. Their performance determines where, and for some if, they will attend college.

It's a real life situation for their coaches. Losing coaches find it difficult to be hired elsewhere.

Now I realize I'm not covering the Detroit Lions—which I was last year at this time, by the way—but just the same, I believe I must reflect the situation as honestly as possible.

And this does not mean ignoring the shoddy performance of an adult just because it affects young people.

That goes for the coach, the principal or the janitor.

I think high school-age people are aware that all adults are not infallible.

For adults to pretend this is true is not only unjust, and in some cases gross deception; it is simply dishonest.

It is adults — not young people — who are guilty of widening the generation gap when they insist on covering shoddy performances with the cloak of age.

And when a newspaper reports such goings-on, the newspaper cannot be blamed for widening the generation gap.

Using that logic, then, the media widened the generation gap by televising the police riot at the Democratic convention in Chicago last summer.

To be sure, most adults do not "wish" to obey decisions not to their own liking.

But they do. For our protection, however, society has provided institutions such as appeals courts where decisions may rightfully be contested.

To deny younger people similar rights certainly cannot be justified simply because of their age.

It hardly prepares them for anything but an unreal world. And we do not prepare young people for future participation in the world by dishonestly assessing their present world. Rather, we must teach integrity (sportsmanship) to be practiced in a world which isn't all that nice.

To be sure, nice guys do finish first, as you point out. But naive guys can be horribly disillusioned if they don't.

TAKING FIVE

The first snow

By RON HUARD

Our weather column writer, Chris Gentry, advised me the other day that the first traces of winter would descend upon our area. He cited the recent heavy snows which fell in the heartlands of the country and his words, coupled with news photos, spurred me to action.

"Hi," I said into the phone. "Whatcha doin'?"

At the other end of the line my wife advised me that she was knee deep in antiquing supplies and that I wouldn't recognize the place when I got home.

"That's fine," I told her. "But I have something more serious. I just found out winter's coming and wanted to make sure the kids have boots."

A giggle, followed by a long sigh and another giggle penetrated my ear. "What's so funny?" I queried. "There's no sense in waiting 'til the last minute. Do we have enough boots to go around?"

I was advised, between giggles, that, yes, we had enough boots to go around. Even the oldest kid, who had no hand-me-downs to slip into, was in good shape bootwise and everyone was prepared for the big storm.

While mulling the thing over the buzzer on my phone performed its task. "Hi, Dad," said a young feminine voice. "Have you heard? Mom just told me about it."

"Have I heard what?" I asked. "Gee, Dad. You aren't with it, are you? There's a big snow storm coming our way. Isn't that something? And you know what else?"

"No," I replied, beginning to realize I was getting the run around. "The what else is that we kids all have boots. Man, we're really ready for the big storm!"

Obviously, I could tell that no one believed my weather alert but I wasn't about to give up. "Good," I replied. "Better take inventory on the snow shovels while you're at it, too."

"How about salt?" the voice asked. "Should we get some salt for the sidewalks?"

"Might as well," I replied. "Can't be too well prepared."

"Okay. See you tonight, Dad.. unless you get snowed in." The disconnecting click of the phone receiver was preceded by hearty teenage laughter.

Well, as everyone knows, it did not snow. Again the predictions were not entirely accurate but it was the first time since the Christmas I received a real almost crippling blanket of snow. I wanted the last laugh so badly I could almost hear it.

As it turned out I wouldn't have gotten it either way. I don't have any boots.

Questions morality of government

This is a wonderful country for the politician, rich, smart, big businessmen, and a few others that are lucky enough to stay out of our country's involvements. You could call it a democracy for them, but what about the other percentage?

When our government can send a small percentage of our boys to Vietnam, most of whom have never voted or had any say in government, I can't see where that is a democracy for them.

Our past leader spent a num-

ber of years putting our boys through plain hell, and now with a new leader it is no different. Our politicians like to have their hands in everything, but settling nothing. They like to deal with the pretense of problems, but not with the real problems. Examples of this are: talk of doing away with the draft; changes in the tax structure; interest rates; civil rights; and many many more things.

I would like to quote you a few lines taken from an Eastern paper: "The president thinks the war is right, but awkward. He is worried about the cost in lives and money, and is gradually trying to cut both. But, his critics are saying not only that the war is costly, but that it is wrong and should be stopped. He is compromising on the mathematics of the war, but his critics are concentrating on the morals of the war and insisting that it is not too expensive but wicked."

This country has spent a number of years trying to teach the South Vietnamese people about democracy and how to fight for their country, with not much success. These people don't want to fight their war—they want our boys to do it for them.

It doesn't take a very smart person to know that with about 5 per cent of our boys fighting a limited war that you can't stop Communism that way. It would be a good idea if our leaders would take a few lessons from some of the Cuban leaders and get out into the front lines and see what is going on.

This war all adds up to taking about 200 lives a week with thousands being mutilated, leaving a total of 38,400 casualties, 249,602 wounded and 1,330 missing as of September, 1969, plus costing the tax payers about 90 million dollars a DAY. There is absolutely no logical reason behind these casualties and this kind of money could be put to much better use right here in our own country FIGHTING something like cancer, heart disease, poverty, and many other worth while projects.

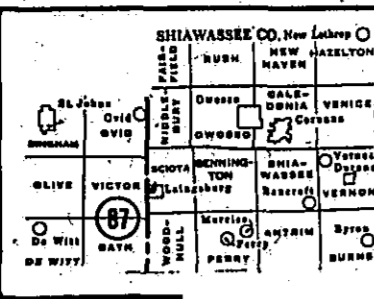

George Romney once said that we are being "brain washed"—I wonder? Every month there is something new our leaders put across to take the spot light off the war. They say "give us time"—well, just how much time do they want? During the past nine months in office our new leaders have accomplished a mere nothing!

Our elected officials have the POWER, but not the WILL to act. This has been proven by the voice of only one senator when he alone almost blocked the nomination of a chief justice.

Others have had their own theory as to how to end this war, and it hasn't solved the problem. I have my own theory too on stopping this mess—take all you politicians, big businessmen, and anyone else that thinks this war is morally right and give them a one-way ticket and let them clean the mess up.

I may add, this is not a protest on our system of government, but on the morals of it and of the men running the defense of our country. And, as one last question to you, if a hand full of Green Berets had to stand up for the death of one South Vietnamese, then who will stand up and be counted for the lives of 38,593 of our boys?? Signed:

The father of a son in Vietnam Madison Wyrick R-5 St. Johns

View from the 87th

By WILLIAM S. BALLENGER State Representative

A few weeks ago, I promised to present a list of all the State Representatives ever elected from Clinton County since Michigan became a state in 1837. So here it is—the fruit of scores of hours of research over the past ten months. I don't believe there is an up-to-date list extant of state legislators elected from Clinton County. If there is, nobody I've talked to including most of the experts in the field has been able to come up with it. I've promised to present the Michigan section of the State Library in Lansing with a copy of this list after it's published today in The Clinton County News.

Remember, I said in my column of September 11 that a total of 43 different men who lived in Clinton County have served in the State House of Representatives. From 1827-1862, they were: Robert G. McKee of DeWitt Township (1839), Democrat; Milo Turner of DeWitt Township (1842), Whig; Daniel Ferguson, Jr., of DeWitt Township (1844), Democrat; Samuel M. Scott of Essex Township (1846, 1848, 1850), Democrat; William W. Upton of Victor Township (1847), Democrat; Morris S. Allen of DeWitt Township (1849), Democrat; David Clark of Eagle Township (1851-52), Democrat; Robert E. Craven of Duplain Township (1853-54), Whig; Timothy H. Pitt of Essex Township (1855-56), Republican; James Kipp of Duplain Township (1857-58), Republican; and David I. Daniells of Wacousta (1859-60), Republican.

FOR A TEN-YEAR period beginning in 1863 and ending in 1872, Clinton County was divided into two Representative Districts. District 1 consisted of the northern half of the county (Lebanon, Essex, Greenbush, Duplain, Dallas, Bengal, Bingham, and Ovid Townships and all cities and villages lying within those townships) and District 2 embraced the southern half of the county (Westphalia, Riley, Olive, Victor, Eagle, Watertown, DeWitt, and Bath Townships, plus all cities and villages lying within those townships). District 1 was marginal, with the Democrats winning most of the time. District 2 was heavily Republican. So from 1863-72, the list reads:

William F. Jenison of Eagle Township (1863-64) (1), Democrat; Chandler Freeman of Maple Rapids (1863-64) (2), Republican;

Moses Bartow of Westphalia (1865-66) (1), Democrat; Orrin W. Munger of St. Johns (1865-66) (2), Republican; Sidney U. Alexander of DeWitt (1867-68) (1), Democrat; Stephen Pearl of Greenbush Township (1867-68) (2), Republican; Philo Doty of Eagle Township (1869-72) (1), Republican; Aaron Sickness of Elsie (1869-70) (2), Republican; Rowland S. Van Scoy of Essex Township (1871-74) (2), Republican (Van Scoy's 2nd District boundaries were changed after his first term, but he was elected to a second term from the "new" 2nd District.

For a 14-year period beginning in 1873 and ending in 1886, Clinton County was redivided into two new Representative Districts which were different than the districts that existed between 1863 and 1872. The "new" District 1 consisted of Duplain, Ovid, Bingham, Olive, Victor, Bath and DeWitt Townships and all cities and villages lying within those townships. The "new" District 2 embraced Greenbush, Essex, Lebanon, Dallas, Bengal, Westphalia, Riley, Watertown, and Eagle Townships plus all the cities and villages lying within those townships. District 1 was heavily Republican, but District 2 was marginal, the Democrats usually emerging victorious. From 1872-86, the list reads:

JOHN C. BRUNSON of Victor Township (1872-74) (1), Republican; Samuel S. Walker of St. Johns (1875-76) (1), Republican; Moses Bartow of Westphalia (1875-76) (2), Democrat; Eugene V. Chase of Elsie (1877-80) (1), Republican; Newton Baker of Bengal Township (1877-78) (2), Democrat; Frank Noeker of Westphalia (1879-80, 1883-84) (2), Democrat; William H. Rose of Bath Township (1881-84) (1), Republican; Richard B. Caruss of Essex Township (1881-82) (2), Republican; Emory B. Voorhees of Ovid (1885-86) (1), Democrat; and Luther Fitch Conrad of Watertown Township (1885-86) (2), Democrat elected on a Fusion ticket with Greenback support.

Beginning in 1887, Clinton County was no longer allowed to elect two representatives from within its borders. The population of the rest of the state had caught up with it, and Clinton from 1887 through 1952 was allowed one State Representative from within its borders. Beginning in 1953, it was combined with Barry and Eaton Counties into a district which elected two Representatives. In 1966, it was reappointed into its present status.

From 1887, the list runs: Loyal W. Hill of Eagle Township (1887-88), Republican; Cyrus Sherman of Ovid (1889-90), Republican; Levi W. Baldwin of Fowler (1891-92), Democrat; Francis W. Redfern of Maple Rapids (1893-96), Republican; Chester E. Jackson of Ovid (1897-98), Republican; Michael S. Doyle of Elsie (1899-1902), Republican; Levi P. Partlow of Eagle Township (1903-06), Republican; William A. Norton of St. Johns (1907-08), Republican; Dwight S. Morrison of St. Johns (1909-12), Republican; Charles A. Hulse of St. Johns (1913-18), Republican; George G. Hunter of Ovid (1919-22), Republican; John P. Esple of Eagle Township (1923-32 and 1935-50), Republican; George H. Schoenhals of St. Johns (1933-34), Democrat; and Andrew Cobb of Elsie (1951-64), Republican.

MOST, IF NOT ALL, of the geographical locations I've listed next to these men's names I'm certain are accurate, although some are postal addresses while others are more precise being the governmental unit in which the men actually lived.

Out of the 43 different men who were elected State Representative from Clinton County, 27 were Republican, 19 Democrats, and two Whigs. In case you note that totals up to 48, not 43, you're right—five of the 43 men served non-consecutive terms, just as did Grover Cleveland as President of the United States.

It's interesting to note that eight of the 19 Democrats (and, needless to say, both of the Whigs) were elected before the Republican Party was formed "under the oaks" at Jackson in 1854. Since 1893 there has been only one Democrat elected to the State House from Clinton County and that was George H. Schoenhals of St. Johns, who was swept into office in the Franklin D. Roosevelt landslide of 1932. He interrupted the longest tenure of any State Representative in Clinton County history—that of John P. Esple of Eagle Township, who had served 10 years when Schoenhals upended him. In 1934, Esple came back to retake the seat from Schoenhals and hold it for another 16 years.

In a future article, I'll document the State Senators elected from Clinton County.

COUPLE CELEBRATES 50 YEARS

Mr and Mrs Louis J. Pohl celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, Oct. 12, beginning with a concelebrated mass at Holy Trinity Church Fowler. Rev Leon H. Pohl of Buchanan, son of Mr and Mrs Pohl was the main celebrant with Rev Albert Schmitt and Rev Bernard Beahan concelebrating. Norbert of Fowler, another son, was commentator and two other sons, Gerald of Fowler and Joseph of Lansing, were servers. Following the mass, lunch was served to the immediate family and relatives. An open house was held from 2 to 5 p.m. in the parish hall for relatives and friends.

Besides the four sons, the other children are Sister Mary Bernice of Dubuque, Iowa; Sister Dorothy of Green Bay, Wis.; Sister Bernadine of Kimberly, Wis.; Sister Mary Ann of Racine, Wis.; and Mrs Delbert Rosaline Smith of Lansing. There are also 36 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

CANADIAN TOUR COLORFUL Miss Josephine Long returned

Oct. 9 from a color tour by bus through Canada and New England. The group of 46 retired teachers included a few husbands who were numbered in the minority. At one hotel a bellboy was heard to remark, "A whole bus load of sweet old ladies!"

Some of the highlights of the trip were a cruise of the Thousand Islands, various lakes, and escorted tours to historical points of interest in Montreal and Quebec. A spectacular sight was enjoyed at St. Bonaventure Island bird sanctuary where thousands of gannets and sea gulls rose as the boat disturbed them. The travelers continued through French fishing towns and villages of Gaspe, each with its own white Catholic Church. The point furthest east was Halifax, Nova Scotia, which is a famous seaport. The route to New England followed the beautiful Saint John River which is known as the "Rhine of America."

Everywhere Mother Nature had used her paint brush on miles of color. Gaspe, Bar Harbor, Maine, and the White Mountains of New Hampshire surpassed all others. The trip ended by way of Niagara Falls to Stratford for Shakespeare's play, "Hamlet."
