FACT finder

Are you concerned about getting the straight facts on a question which arises but don't know where to find the answer?

We'll find the facts for questions submitted by our readers. Just drop us a line at FACT FINDER, Clinton County News St Johns 48879.

Q. Could you tell me why the County News doesn't have the Farm Market Report on livestock and grain prices. St Johns is supposed to be a farmer's town. It seems like this report should be there. ET, ST JOHNS

A. The County News will be bringing in the sheaves once again. The grain prices as reported by St Johns Co-op are wheat $1.87, corn $1.12, oats 65¢, soybeans $3.12 and navy beans $8.00. For livestock prices from the Michigan Livestock Exchange see page 8A.

Q. I have my son's picture taken at the Treasure Chest in St Johns by Mark Anthony Studios this summer. I was supposed to get a free picture but I've received nothing. Where is it? LP, ST JOHNS

A. They weren't the slowest developing negatives and your toddler didn't break the camera. The Battle Creek studio had a mixup after its August visit here. And it seems you're the only one who didn't get a free picture in the mail. The photographer sends his apologies and your picture via the postal service. Just remember next time, say CHEESE please.

Q. Is the Happy Trails Boutique being allowed to operate a business on residential property when it should be zoned commercial? Why does city hall have to say about this? RC, ST JOHNS

A. Not only is Happy Trails Boutique a unique business but it has a UNIQUE stand in Michigan. It could very well be the closest building to a highway says Arnold Minarik. It is classified as a home occupation because no more than half of the area of the first floor is being used for business. The reator asked the property be zoned commercial but because all but 25 feet of the property is in the road right of way the request was denied. Minarik says rezoning is unlikely unless the owner purchases more land or the state highway department moves the building.

Why do they allow hunting and snowmobiling on high school grounds? There are homes surrounding this whole area. Last year they suggested going south and west of the school, but whether you know it or not, there ARE homes, children and animals in that area, too. As for hunting, we've had the unpleasant experience of people shooting right into our yards more than once. With snowmobiles we have no TV reception and they often try to use our

Speak Out

LAST WEEK'S QUESTION:

If the percentage of opinions received in response to last week's County News Speak Out is any indication, abortion reform is due to get a resounding "no" vote from Clinton County residents.

The question "Are you for or against the abortion reform proposal?" brought 243 "no" votes with only 5 persons submitting "yes" votes.

FOR 2%

"I feel if this is a free country, it should be their right if they desire to have an abortion. . . it will put the quacks out of business". . . "it should be between the husband and wife and the doctor". . . "the government should not be legislating morals". . . "Children shouldn't be here if they're not wanted."

NO 98%

"God has given life and only he has the right to take it". . . "It's murder". . . "I wish I had 1000 votes against. Even animals don't kill their own". . . "My husband and I vote against it-abortion is repulsive and we do not believe in killing". . . "The state must not give up its duty to protect the most helpless of all, the unborn". . . "Abortion is nothing but legalized murder."

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION:

The US Postal Service has recently changed their service with all mail going to large centers for distribution. Do you feel the service is better, worse or the same?

BETTER WORSE SAME

It's "politickin" time

It's "politickin time" and present for the occasion are Congressman Elford A Cederberg and State Rep Stanley Powell. They and local candidates were the main attraction at an old-fashioned GOP meeting at Uncle John's Cider Mill on US-27 Monday night. Entertainment was provided by the Maple Rapids Square Dance Club.

In DeWitt Township

Permit brings protest

A special use permit for a 24-hour service station was granted Tuesday night by the Clinton County Zoning Commission in its County Courthouse meeting, despite the protests of some DeWitt Township residents.

During the meeting, 7 Twinbrook subdivision residents voiced opposition to the station, that will be located at the end of the limited access portion of US-

27. Cited in their arguments were traffic hazards and congestion, light and noise disturbance and depreciation of property.

A petition objecting to the station as "incompatible" with housing, was submitted by Mr and Mrs John Harvey whose house lies adjacent to the construction site. Seventeen signatures had been collected.

Realtor Russell Paint spoke on behalf of Dale Martin, who had sold the Twinbrook lots and owned the lot in question. Paint said the land was zoned as commercial before the Twinbrook area was developed and he was only requesting the permit required by all service stations in the county.

PAINT STRESSED the station would not be interested in general repair work and would be an adequate distance from neighbors.

Martin said he has turned down other offers on the property including a proposed motorcycle shop and 2 propositions from the Harveys to build a service station there before they became residents in the area 5 years ago.

The commission agreed to grant the permit under the stipulations that Martin modify the drainage system and green screening be put in to act as both a light and sound barrier.

The commissioners noted that some other businesses could build on the site without their approval if the station were not built there.

The commission granted the 3 other permits petitioned for Tuesday, including one to the Clinton County Sheriff's Department Law Enforcement Communications to erect a 400 foot radio tower near Taft Road in section 28 of Bingham Township.

THE PROJECT DIRECTOR reported deputies were having trouble with radio communications and needed the tower to correct the situation.

A property owner in the area of the proposed construction, Robert Smit, protested the move as "spot zoning", but commission administrator Arnold Minarik reported the proposed construction was allowed within the area's present zoning classification.

The other 2 permits granted were for auto body repair and refinishing shops, going to John Niecko in DeWitt Township and Lawrence Teller in Watertown Township.

The commission adopted modifications proposed by administrator Minarik in the agreement between Teller and the Watertown Township Board. The modifications allowed no visible or audible work other than between the hours of 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. Monday through Saturday; and no work Sunday.

A provision allowing 12 vehicles on the premises to be used for parts was struck as Minarik said it would constitute a "junkyard". However, 4 parked vehicles will be allowed on the fenced-in-premises.

Does doctor conflict remain?

EDITOR'S NOTE: Although the situation concerning doctors on the football field at St Johns home games seemed to be resolved, it appears a conflict may still be present. The following is an account from the board meeting supporting Dr Saunders, another meeting between the board and local doctors and an incident at the last home game.

By ANNETTE WHITE
Associate Editor

ST JOHNS - Following a meeting Tuesday, Oct 17 attended by 2 representatives of the St Johns medical physicians and the St Johns School Board a statement was issued to the County News by the board regarding the presence of doctors at the football games.

The release stated medical physicians would continue to attend all St Johns home football games and it would be their responsibility to determine the extent of any injury that might occur on the field and also to determine if a player should be allowed to continue his participation in the game.

The release further stated Dr Arthur Saunders, a local chiropractic physician, would continue in his roll similar to that of a trainer but would not be used for determining injuries or extent of injuries.

At the last regular school board meeting a discussion centered around the presence of doctors at the games.

The meeting was attended by several coaches, players and their fathers who voiced strong approval for Dr Saunders, who has volunteered his services as a trainer to the team for the past 15 years.

Prior to that meeting school officials said the medical doctors had told them they would discontinue sending representatives to the home games if Dr Saunders was permitted on the field.

AN INCIDENT at the Holt-St Johns game touched off the situation between the medical physicians and the local chiropractic physician when Dr Wesley Stephenson, from the medical staff, and Dr Saunders both ran to the aid of an injured player on the field.

Another incident occurred at last Friday's Homecoming game and more discussion arose between the doctors. A player apparently suffering from a muscle spasm came back to the sidelines with coach Ernie Becker and, on his own, went directly to Dr Saunders for treatment.

When asked about the incident later, Dr Saunders stated "He (Dr James Grost, the medical representative at the game) didn't think it was necessary anything be done with the player." He said Dr Grost told him "That is what we (meaning the medical physicians) object to."

"I ADMINISTERED to the boy within the scope of the chiropractic act and of my license by the State of Michigan."

We all took basic science exams before going on to specific boards and I am a duly licensed chiropractic physician according to an Attorney General's ruling," related Dr Saunders. He explained there are 3 classifications of physicians, medical, osteopathic and chiropractic.

"I have no argument with any of the physicians. They have their place and I

Revenue funds may wait until December

Revenue sharing breakdown statistics and payments may be delayed until December according to Peter Callahan, US treasury information official.

Previous figures released showed a total of $371,870 in revenue sharing funds coming into Clinton County.

Figures announced initially by the Treasury Department listed $202,838 to Clinton County government; $48,128 to St Johns; cities and villages under 2500, population would receive $51,284 and townships would get a total of $69,320.

Those figures, however, will reportedly be refigured by computer.

WHEN DISTRIBUTED, state and local government must create a trust fund in which to deposit all revenue sharing funds.

Local funds must be used for certain "high priority expenditures" designated by Congress: for maintenance and operating expenses for public safety, environmental protection, public transportation and libraries.

For capital expenditures, there are no limitations and funds may be used for any uses authorized by law.

Although local units may use the funds to lower tax levies, it has been reported could lower the unit's next revenue sharing allocation.

Suspect arson in Sunday blaze

Arson is suspected following a 2 am fire Sunday, which completely destroyed a home on Herbison Rd, Rt 1, Eagle.

Responding to the call were 3 units from the Grand Ledge Fire Dept, 1 from Westphalia, 1 from Delta Township and another from Portland. The flames also destroyed a 1966

Oldsmobile and 2 snowmobiles.

The home had just been sold by Fred Catlin of Eagle to a Lansing resident. It was valued at $18,000.

Investigating the fire are Detective Richard May of the Clinton County Sheriff's Dept and Sgt Walter Wiedbrauck of the State Police Fire Marshall Division, Lansing.

Death of area resident prompts investigation

The body of Donald Dwight Randolph, 53, 4473 S DeWitt Rd, St Johns, was discovered at his car on McNeil Rd, just south of Maple Rapids Rd, Monday night at 9:23.

Sheriff's Deputies Dennis Warren and Paul St Johns reported to the scene with the death still under investigation.

An autopsy was performed Tuesday, but details were not available by press time.

Shipman wins

ST JOHNS - The "luck" of the Irish was the only thing standing between Fred Shipman, Rt 3, Grand Ledge, and a perfect score on the Clinton County News Football Contest.

Shipman won the contest with only 1 incorrect entry when he picked Notre Dame to defeat Missouri.

Seven others only missed 2. They were Ron Motz, Syb Werbish, Eddie San Miguel, Donald Schrauben, Paul Hurst and Walter E Dick. Fourteen others missed only 3.

In 75th year

Central National Bank

Wednesday night, Oct 18, gathering at Walnut Hills Country Club brought together several area men who have had a part in the 75 years of business now being celebrated by the St Johns Central National Bank.

It was Oct 18, 1897 when the State Savings Bank of Ovid received its charter. The St Johns Central National Bank became a product of the Ovid banking business in 1964, when the US Comptroller of Currency granted permission to the State Savings Bank to change from a state to a national bank and also granted permission for the bank to move its main office from Ovid to St Johns.

After opening the St Johns location, the Central National Bank opened a branch office in Pewamo, "filling a need of several years in the Pewamo area." The bank opened an office Aug 15, 1966 in the Southgate Shopping Plaza, "in response to the growth of St Johns to the south." The bank saw the opening of the branch as "an opportunity to take its services to the customer."

Bernard Feldpausch (left), owner of Bee's Chevrolet and Oldsmobile, and Kenneth "Red" Devereaux, general sales manager, try out the driver's seat of a 1903 Oldsmobile. Discussing the antique auto with them is Robert Thompson, Central National Bank executive vice-president. The vintage Olds is on display through the end of the month in the Central National Bank lobby as part of their 75th year celebration. Arrangements to use the automobile were made with Oldsmobile by the local dealer.

THE WEDNESDAY night dinner meeting, celebrating the 75 years of business, also served as a reunion for many of the bank officials from the Ovid and St Johns areas who have served as board members through many years of the bank's operation.

Currently serving as directors are Harold W H Wellman, Harold S Beardslee, Timothy M Green, Dr James M Grost, Edward A Idzkowski, Dr C W Lumbert, Gordon McCormick, Richard Mysberge, Paul W Nobis, Arnold M Schaefer and Robert E Thompson.

These men carry on the banking service tradition started by H A Potter, 1st president of the bank; William R Shaw, 2nd president; Absalom Woodworth, director; Marcus Taft, director; E M Plunkett, director and N J Clark. Dr James McGillicuddy, was a director and vice-president until he moved to Lansing.

Organizers of the bank were Frank A Marshall and John Robson, competing hardware owners who joined forces, along with Dr Oliver B Campbell to start the Ovid banking facility.

After 75 years, bank officials point out the growth each year and the continued growth in the St Johns facility, after 8 years at the Spring and Walker St location, in addition to the more recent Pewamo and Southgate Shopping Center locations.

Two suspects have been apprehended in connection with the larceny of a large sum of money from the Homer Hoshield home, 320 Carroll Rd, Elsie. He reported the theft Oct 12.

Arrested were John Welter, 17, N Ovid, Elsie, and Donald Sexton Jr, 18, 2235 N Vincent Rd, Ovid.

They were arraigned Oct 18 before Circuit Court Judge Roland Duguay and they waived examination. Bond, which was not posted, was set at $1000. They will appear in Circuit Court Nov 13.

Snowmobile program set

New snowmobile laws will be the topic of discussion at a program Nov 1, 7-9 pm at Grand Ledge High School, sponsored by the Grand Ledge Fire Department.

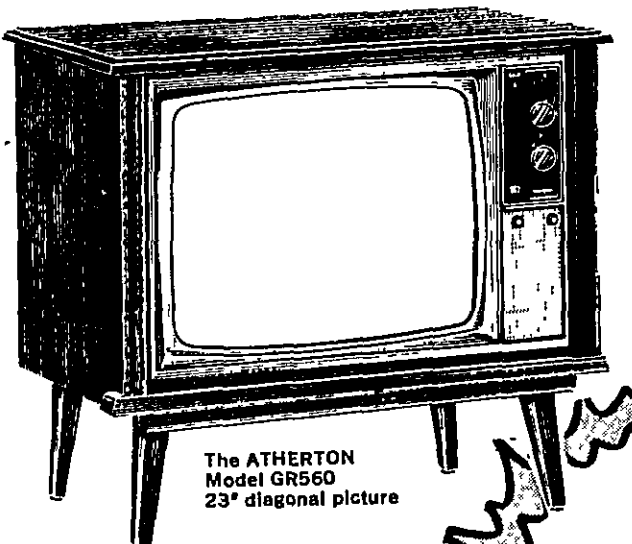

Clinton County residents are invited to attend and more information can be obtained from Chief Bratton Briggs of the Grand Ledge Fire Department.

Members of the O-E carpentry class aid the astronomy class as they erect an observatory. The structure will house a 10-inch dyna-scope.

O-E astronomy club to have observatory

By ANNETTE WHITE Associate Editor

OVID-ELSIE - Astronomy lovers at Ovid-Elsie High School have great plans for a conservatory under construction that will house their 10 inch dyna-scope.

The fall and winter nights will be their target and night sky observations sessions are being planned by the astronomy club. Sessions will include sighting star clusters, first magnitude stars, fall constellations, the planets, especially Saturn and the Andromeda galaxy and moon craters.

The 12 members of the club have planned and helped with the initial construction of the concrete block structure that is 32 feet long by 15 feet wide. Outside help for the project came from Kaufman Construction Company who donated the blocks and the O-E School Board who provided the additional funds for the construction.

Tom Rivest, astronomy club president, designed the building while Grant Palen, club vice-president, and other members have spent summer time and weekends on the construction.

Presently, classes under the direction of William Furstenu, carpentry class teacher, have constructed the wooden frame work and structure of the movable roof. The design of the roof, which slides completely off the building, allows an unobstructed view of the sky.

County Commissioner candidates will be present and local township candidates will be in their respective areas.

More abortion comments

Editor:

Why is it that people who advocate abortion on demand always accuse those who are pro-life as presenting merely emotional or moral arguments. (Cf. letter of Mr Snyder on Oct 16) Are they unaware that "women's rights" is an emotional as well as a moral issue. Also any argument that would be opposed to infanticide or euthanasia would ultimately have to rest on some emotional and moral grounds. Human feelings and emotions are a couple of things, that distinguish people from animals. Are we supposed to ignore all of our feelings when we vote in an election. On the contrary, I would say that if everyone had truly humane feelings and voted accordingly, we would have no problem with women's rights, minorities' rights, abortion, war or a host of other social issues.

How is it possible for people to deny the humanity of an unborn child? From the moment of conception an unborn child does not require anything but nourishment, a proper environment and time to develop. Given food and an adequate environment, he will continue to grow and develop until he becomes a mature adult. He is obviously dependent on others for life for quite a while but that does not mean he is not a human being. Children, elderly people and handicapped people are all dependent on others for life. Does that justify killing them?

Perhaps it is because you do not see an unborn child that you can kill him more easily. An unscrupulous bombing pilot doesn't see his innocent victims either and that probably makes his killing a lot easier. But if someone shows a picture of a victim of abortion, many people write it off as an emotional argument and therefore unimportant.

It seems that if a law is going to be humane it must protect the weak and the minorities. Too many people classify other people in sub-human categories. Some Americans still seem to think that the Black man or Indian is less than human. Hitler thought that Jews were not equal to his "superior" race. Apparently our President has brainwashed many Americans into thinking that the Vietnamese are less worthy of life than we are—our people have become complacent because American casualties have dropped but our bombs are killing thousands of Indo-Chinese. And far too many people think that unborn children should be killed with impunity.

I do not. Rather, let us all vote for women's rights (both born and unborn), men's rights, for minorities' rights, for the rights of the very weak. Let us vote for everyone's right to life. Vote NO on Proposal B.

Sincerely,
ALAN WAKEFIELD

In addition, 8 exchanges are scheduled for upgraded urban service: no more than 1- or 2-party service in the urban area. They are Ashley, Barryton, Carson City, Elsie, Hubbardston, Middleton, Ovid and Sidney. Fifteen other exchanges currently offer that level of service in the central division.

CENTRAL OFFICE EQUIPMENT ADDITIONS

Central office equipment additions will require $3,860,200 of the $11 million expenditure planned for 1973. This includes local and long distance switching, equipment, operator switch boards, "carrier systems" (electronic equipment used to add channels on prent physical voice circuits), and "flicketers" (equipment required for each long distance call which records the digits dialed in, sends them along to the next switch or station, and also records the details of the call such as length, day and time of day).

In all, 39 individual projects within the division will add 5,100 lines, 4,600 terminals, 120 ticketers and 462 carrier channels. (A "line" can accommodate from 1 to 4 customers and a "terminal" is necessary for each customer.)

Buildings to house the additional equipment will cost $868,500 including a major building project at trailers and generators and office equipment costs of $244,100 round out the $11,090,800 budget.

The 1973 program for service improvement and expansion in the central division represents an average investment of $98 for each of the 113,700 telephones in the division. Total capital investment in land, buildings and equipment for the division is now over $79,196,959, or $697 per telephone in service.

Overtime downs Redwings

A successful Hastings conversion attempt in overtime spelled defeat for the St Johns Redwings, who dropped the West Central Conference contest 14-13. At the same time, Alma was busy losing to Grand Ledge, leaving them and the Redwings still tied for the league lead, with identical 3-1 records.

St Johns opened the scoring when Jerry Smith recovered a Hastings fumble on the opponent's 11-yard-line. Bruce Cameron took over from there and charged in for the score. Cameron also kicked the extra point to put the Redwings ahead 7-0.

NEITHER TEAM could mount a successful scoring drive in the 2nd quarter, but Hastings got on the scoreboard in the 3rd quarter when Jeff Bishop plunged over from the 1-yard-line.

A tough Redwing defensive line held the Saxons for 3 downs at the 1, but Bishop finally penetrated for the score. Steve Barnum kicked the extra point to tie the contest at 7-7. The Redwings had 2 strong threats going in the final

The football always attracts a crowd, especially when it zips through the air to a target filled with both offensive and defensive players. Both St Johns and Hastings players streak for the aerial, part of a contest that saw the Redwings bow 14-13 in overtime.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir,
We would like to add our opinion to the senseless controversy between the MD's of St Johns and Dr Saunders DC.

qualified physician. Thirdly: There will always be a place for a qualified DC, DO or MD depending on the type and seriousness of the injury.

to permit Dr Saunders to aid and assist at the remaining games. The boys need all the help they can get.

First: We do not believe Dr Saunders has thrust himself on the team or coaches. We think he was asked to attend these games because of his skill and experience. Secondly: We do not think he intends to treat or diagnose serious or complicated injuries, but turn them over to a more

Our family have been very fortunate in getting excellent treatment from all types of practitioners in St Johns and we do believe that they boys of the football team should be allowed to choose whom they most prefer.

ANNUAL STATISTICAL AND FINANCIAL REPORT

St. Johns Public Schools of Clinton and Gratiot Counties

The school year of 1971-72 was one of financial austerity in the St. Johns district. Three events of the previous year contributed to the General Fund Equity deficit of $107,977 which existed as of June 30, 1971.

Because of the deficit and because voters rejected a 2.5 mill increase for school operation in June and August elections, several cuts were effected in the program. Among these were a year's suspension of the Building Trades program, some curtailment of transportation and others. Because of these reductions in program, the General Fund Equity deficit was reduced to $41,467.

A decrease in the growth of the number of students was visible. The enrollment as of official count day the fourth Friday of operation was 4211 as contrasted with 4167 students on the same date the year before. This represented a growth of 44 students which was the smallest student increase in more than a decade.

For the year 1971-72 the minimum Teachers Salary was $7800 for a beginning teacher with a B.A. degree, while the maximum salary was $13,494 for a teacher with an M.A. degree and 12 years experience. The average teachers salary was $10,450.

Redwing Kevin Knight (10) heads for outside yardage in the St Johns - Hastings game Friday. An extra-point in overtime defeated the Redwings with Hastings taking a 14-13 decision. The Redwings, however, are still tied with Alma for the league lead.

Springport shuts out P-W

Pewamo-Westphalia fell victim Friday to a strong Springport team that blanked the Pirates 16-0.

Springport scored in the opening quarter on a pass from Dale Baum to Doug Talbot, covering 28 yards. Gary Baum ran in the 2-point conversion to give them an 8-0 lead.

Then, for 2 quarters, P-W held Springport scoreless, but were unable to get on the scoreboard themselves.

In the final quarter, Springport added the insurance score on a pass from Dale Baum to Gary Baum. The "Gary" half of the Baum duo added the 2-point conversion after scoring the TD on a play that covered 20 yards.

Pirates with P-W picking up only 38 yards rushing. Quarterback Roy Piggott was 3-for-10 in the air for 15 yards.

Springport had 136 yards rushing and Baum was 4-for-5 for 59 yards in the air.

Pirate runners were just unable to get loose with leading ground gainer, Gary Beaucheneau picking up 18 yards in 8 carries.

Defensively, Charlie Bengel led the effort with 8 solo tackles and 14 team tackles. Bengel also blocked a Springport punt.

A strong offensive team, Coach Marks said, "Their running backs are big and hard to tackle. Gary Baum and Ralph Locke are both real strong performers."

Friday features another tough team with P-W hosting unbeaten Fowler with a record of 6-0.

Coach Bill Marks also commended Dan Tice for "a real good job on defense" with 5 solo tackles and 10 team tackles.

Aside from stifled offense, Marks said "Our biggest

It's another O-E championship team

Ovid-Elsie made in 3 straight as Mid-Michigan B Champions with an 8-0 victory over Midland Bullock Creek Friday.

The only score of the game came on 3-yard touchdown pass play from quarterback, Tom Kirinovic to Dale Miller. Kirinovic hit end, Randy Loynes, for the 2-point conversion.

An O-E touchdown was also called back on a penalty. Another drive was cut short with O-E on the 4-yard line when time ran out.

A hard hitting contest, Coach Mark O'Donnell said, "Give the credit to the defense. Three times Ovid-Elsie fumbled or lost the ball inside their own 30-yard line, but the defense held them off. Bullock Creek picked up only 73 total yards. Last week, their best halfback, John Breault set a school record by picking up 232 yards in 15 carries against Corunna. He found the going rougher against O-E picking up only 28 yards in 20 carries. They also only picked up 4 first downs."

LEADING the defense was Dan Egbert with 16 tackles, Doug Keck and Ralph Lockwood with 12, Randy Bowles with 11 and a pass interception and Robb Nethaway with 10 and 2 fumble recoveries. Doug Keck also received the "best hit" award for the game.

Ovid-Elsie picked up 11 first downs and 93 yards rushing and another 108 passing. Kirinovic was 8-for-17 and Dale Miller led the rushing attack.

The coaches and team awarded the game ball to senior halfback, Gary Groom. Groom, 6-3, 195 pound halfback, received a broken foot in a freak accident at his home Thursday and will be lost for the season. The team felt he had helped carry the team to the championship, scoring over 40 points and was the leading rusher in the first 5 ballgames.

O'Donnell said it will be hard to replace Groom, "but, this team always rises to the occasion."

Doug Keck, who replaced Groom on defense, picked up 12 tackles and Dale Miller, who took Groom's place on offense, scored the winning touchdown.

LYNN WEBSTER. 6-3, 245

pound defensive tackle, also missed the game with a knee injury, but O'Donnell said "Doc Saunders (Arthur) should have him ready for the Corunna game. Webster's replacement was Paul Tomasek, who made 8 tackles in the game.

O'Donnell said, "It's funny, but we've lost 3 boys from injuries this year and none of them on the football field. Groom fell off his back porch and broke his foot, Webster jumped off a tractor on his dad's farm and sprained his knee and Don Reha, another tackle, hurt his knee in gym class and has to have an operation. This is what gives coaches grey hair." The varsity will wind up conference play with Corunna Friday night at Corunna. Every team has 2 losses so O-E is assured the championship.

The junior varsity picked up their 5th victory of the year with a 4-14 win over Bullock Creek. They will entertain Corunna Thursday at 7 pm.

The freshmen lost their 2nd game of the season 20-0 to Bullock Creek and will travel to Corunna for a Wednesday 7 pm game.

That's the kind of game it was. This DeWitt player finds himself manacled by 2 Fowler defenders as Fowler defeated the Panthers Friday night to sustain a 6-0 unbeaten record for the season.

Fowler continues streak with Homecoming victory

After knocking off 2 unbeaten teams in a row, DeWitt's spoiler streak ran out Friday, as Fowler celebrated Homecoming with a 21-6 victory over the Panthers. The victory gives Fowler a 6-0 record, the only unbeaten team in the league. Fowler wasted little time in setting the pace of the game. They took the opening kickoff and rolled 57 yards with Larry Halfman capping the drive on a 4-yard scoring run. Mel Pohl kicked the extra point to give the Eagles a quick 7-0 advantage.

Another shutout for freshmen

St Johns Freshmen picked up their 5th straight victory and 4th shutout Thursday over the Hastings Freshmen 38-0.

running back 14 touchdowns for the season. He also piled up a remarkable total of 210 yards rushing in 24 carries.

Second string quarterback, Greg Hazel, also passed for a 2-point conversion to Nick Pylowanyj. Outstanding blocking by upbacks Eric Grost and Jeff Brasington also aided the offense efforts of the freshmen squad.

DeWitt's Al Brown put the Panthers on the scoreboard in the opening quarter when he scampered 15 yards for 6 points. With the conversion attempt unsuccessful, Fowler held a 7-6 lead at the end of the quarter.

The Redwings were led by captain, Nick Koenigs knecht, as he scored 3 touchdowns on runs of 3, 5 and 58 yards. He also ran two 2 point conversions.

COACH ROGER DePaepe stated Tim Knaus, quarterback, had an outstanding offensive game, running for 2 touchdowns on runs of 14 and 17 yards. He also passed a 2-point conversion to Carl Bashore.

Coach John Wilcox said both offensive and defensive linemen played "an outstanding game," as they consistently outthrust their Hastings opponent. Coach Wilcox had special praise for Doug Beaufore who blocked a punt and for Ken "Moose" Parker, who recovered a Hastings fumble.

Halfman led the Eagle offensive attack with 97 of the total 140 rushing yards. Eagle quarterback, Scott Spicer was 2-for-8 in the air for 33 yards. Al Brown was the DeWitt leading rusher with 57 of the total 96 yards and Randy Lankford was 3-for-10 for 16 aerial yards.

Coach DePaepe added "this was a great team victory, as every one of the players showed a lot of desire and played a good game."

ST JOHNS HAD 274 yards on the ground and 35 yards through the airways.

The freshmen take on Grand Ledge in an away game Thursday. Kickoff time is 7 pm.

FOWLER'S Pat Thelen intercepted 1 DeWitt aerial. Fowler takes on a scrappy Pewamo-Westphalia squad Friday at the P-W field.

Pastor Unger was born near Leipzig, Germany in 1922 and came to America with his parents and family as a child. He was raised in West View, Pennsylvania, near Pittsburgh. ## Dr Sauders, local physicians discuss treatment issue have mine and that's why there are 3 different healing arts licenses in Michigan," said Dr Sauders.

He said each week he has upwards to 50 athletes in his office who come on their own for treatment. He pointed out that some of the players he sees each week also come from surrounding school districts.

"The whole thing boils down to a conflict of method of treatment and the refusal of the AMA profession to recognize our license acts by state legislation," commented Dr Sauders.

"After all these years of working with these athletes, I'm not about to give up to conflict of interest and treatment," he said and added "I wouldn't do anything to hurt the school or the team or coaching staff."

DURING THE OCT 11 board meeting when this issue was discussed it was pointed out that league rulings state that a doctor must be present at the games. However, the stipulation does not apparently pin point if this means a medical, chiropractic or osteopathic physician, all of whom are licensed by the state.

School officials at that same meeting praised the efforts and support of both the medical physicians and Dr Sauders and said they didn't feel the school should be placed in the position of making a choice.

COACH BECKER told the Clinton

County News parents make the final decision when it comes to their son's injuries. He said the policy on football injuries during practice sessions was discussed and outlined last Aug 1 by the coaching staff.

In effect in case of an injury in practice of a significant nature, the boy's parents are contacted immediately. The parents will come and pick the boy up or the school staff will provide transportation. He is taken by his parents or a member of the coaching staff to his family physician. "In case of an extreme emergency we will contact an ambulance from the hospital," he said.

He added that if it is something that needs quick attention but is an injury that doesn't require an ambulance the coaching staff provides transportation to the hospital.

He emphasized that "we always contact the parents first."

Four St Johns medical physicians, W F Stephenson, S R Russell, H Garapetian and J M Grost defined their position on the situation as follows:

"For over 15 years medical doctors of this community have provided medical care for the home varsity football games at the invitation of the school administration. We were initially advised that this was upon request of the State High School Athletic Association. Every Friday night 1 of 4 different physicians attends the game and a second MD is simultaneously available through the hospital to treat injured players who may be referred there for treatment.

We have done this willingly and at no cost to the school or community and are glad we could be of help.

We also do physical exams on over 400 student athletes every year who participate in league competition and again we are happy to do this with no expense to the student, the school, or community. These examinations are required by the State High School Athletic Association, who also specify that the exam must be done by a licensed MD or DO physician and may not be done by a chiropractor.

We believe in completely free choice of physician for treatment of injuries and are unalterably opposed to the school or coaching department directing or suggesting that injured players go to a specific doctor's office.

We do not believe it is the responsibility or the privilege of the coaching staff to direct players to a certain practitioner. If the student is an adult (over 18) he can choose for himself but younger students must have parental guidance and permission.

Because of the structure, content, and philosophy of our backgrounds and trainings in entirely different disciplines, we cannot ethically or legally practice in association or cooperation with a chiropractor.

Therefore, we can only conclude that the School Board must decide who will be on the field at game time to determine the extent of injuries when a player is injured."

Firefighting at Clinton Memorial

ST. JOHNS - Throughout the year various in-service training programs are being conducted at Clinton Memorial Hospital. The most recent was a demonstration of extinguishing fires using the hospital's own equipment.

Participating in the demonstration were Don Bennett, Lansing fire chief, and a member of his staff. In addition to hospital personnel responsible for such activities Mrs Linda Root RN, in-service training director and Don Isbell, chairman of the hospital's safety committee coordinated the program.

Isbell noted that because of bed ridden patients and the numbers of people it is essential that the hospital personnel be constantly reminded of proper techniques to prevent fires and if necessary techniques to extinguish fires.

In addition to this the hospital conducts fire drills monthly.

A. Did you hear about the hunter who bagged a snowmobile on the high school grounds? Sounds extreme, but it could happen some day. Superintendent Earl Lancaster reports "no snowmobiling" signs are posted except to the west of the parking lot and at the extreme south end of the 60-acre school setting. This policy was established by the school board to whom your complaint should be channeled. Lancaster says it has been brought to his attention that many of the transgressors are people in that neighborhood snowmobiling in their backyards. As for hunting in the city limits, it is 100% against the law warns police chief Everett Glazier. If you see a violator report it to the SJPD immediately. However, there is an area off Townsend Road in back of the park which is out of the city limits over which the local law enforcement has no jurisdiction.

USDA offers CCC bins for rent

Over 3 million bushels of grain storage space is being made available to Michigan farmers this year announced Arthur Rowley, chairman of the Michigan State Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

This space is available through a bin rental program at 13 binsites in 10 counties to help store a bumper corn crop.

Under the rental program, farmers and warehousemen may rent empty bins at the various binsites at the rate of one cent per bushel per month. Last year farmers and warehousemen rented over million bushels of storage space from CCC at the binsites. Storage space is available at nearly all of the binsites and farmers interested in renting bins at binsites should contact their local county ASCS office. Nearly all of the bins are 3250-bushel capacity each; however, there are a few large bins available with a 40,000-bushel capacity.

AERATION equipment is also available at a small rental fee.

The bin rental program benefits both farmers and consumers by helping provide a more orderly movement of grain from farm to market, stabilizing prices to both farmers and consumers, and maintaining a reasonable balance between supply and demand, according to Rowley.

St Johns High School SJH Happenings. by Theresa Huard

Although the homecoming events are over, Queen Ann Barber will reign through the rest of the school year. The special event such as the bonfire, the social hour after the game and the dance, proved to be very successful.

The bonfire was held Thursday, Oct 19 at 6:30 in the back of the High School. Jim Hebler was chairman of the committee and had students out of each hour's study hall to help build it. The Seniors won the spirit jug for the yelling contest that night.

The Halftime events were both exciting and interesting and were arranged by chairman, Marla Signs. All the floats were very striking and appealing, but the sophomore float seemed to shine through as the best.

Marla Signs, vice president of Student Council presented Jim Moriarity the trophy for the class. The freshman representative Mary Boettger was seated on a float entitled "The Wizard of Oz." "Candy Land" was the theme for the sophomore float in which Shirley Moorehouse was representing. Debbie Archer represented the Junior class, with the theme of their float "Winnie The Pooh". The Senior class used the theme "The Wizard of Oz" for their float in which Queen Anne Barber, Lynne Grost, Deb Harper, Lee Morriss and Angie Serrine sat. Compliments to Chris Hayes as she did a very nice job announcing the halftime activities.

One of the members of the court, Lee Morriss was chairman of the Social Hour after the game. Coffee, doughnuts and cider were served and although wasn't enough the crowd didn't seem to mind. The dance was held Saturday night, a little different from last year, but it also proved to be very successful. The decorations consisted of the court upon risers with red and pink satin material in the background. Anita Rositas and her escort Bob Lowe were host and hostess, and are complimented on their very fine work. Chairman of this committee was Theresa Huard.

A special "Thanks" goes to all who helped to make this Homecoming the successful one it was.

by Patti Higbee

Bath's Homecoming Week was climaxed Friday evening, Oct 13 by a dance and the crowning of the Homecoming King and Queen. This year's king and queen are Jeff Smith and Laurel Vietzke. The entire week was filled with special activities.

Tuesday was Zap Day, when boys, as well as girls zapped their hair to show spirit. There was also a bonfire in the evening with many cheers led by the cheerleaders. After the bonfire, there was a movie, "The Shakiest Gun in the West", sponsored by the Student Council. At intermission, donuts and cider were served.

The floats were judged by local citizens on Thursday evening. This was also the day when candidates were judged for the King and Queen titles.

Friday started with a pep rally to build spirit up for the game. New and old cheers were led by the cheerleaders, the football players participated in two different skits, and Coach Ronald Skorich gave a pep talk, inviting everyone to come to the game.

The results of the floats were: sophomores, first place; seniors, second; juniors, third and freshmen, fourth place.

Local music club hosts district meet

ST. JOHNS - St Johns turned on its autumnal best to welcome music lovers of the South Central District of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs last Thursday at the First Congregational Church. Sunlit fall color in crisp October air set the scene for an enthusiastic exchange of ideas for promoting the involvement of good music in community life.

Mrs H M Bross, district president and member of the St Johns Morning Musicales, set the theme for the day with a quotation from Hans Christian Anderson, "Where words fail, music speaks."

MRS BROSS was vigorously supported by the local music club members in all arrangements for a full meeting day. As Mrs Winchell Brown reported for the St Johns Music Club, "Everybody is kept busy." Mrs Lawrence Fish, also of the local club, serves as district secretary-treasurer. The abundance of music scholarships for young people are evidence of the service performed by music clubs, Mrs Karl Gilson of Lansing, past liebum district president, explained. Mrs C T Liebum, president of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs said that Michigan leads in the National Federation with $10,000 worth of student scholarships; Florida is second with $5,000. Member clubs were reminded that the Junior Music Festival for 1973 will be at Olivet College on Mar 3, with entrance applications for auditions due by Feb 1. Mrs Bross pointed out that the junior festival is a marvelous experience and an excellent opportunity for music teachers to enter a student.

Another important function of music clubs was explained by Mrs Albert E Bradford, district chairman of music in hospitals. Therapeutic service with music, with workshop training available, is provided by member clubs in hospitals, nursing homes, homes for the retarded, and mental hospitals.

It was pointed out that Michigan was the first state to have the hospital program and serves 91 institutions throughout the state. The need for extending federation membership to junior clubs of young people, down to elementary school age and to symphony groups and choruses was also emphasized. Talented students and young people's groups can join as associate members, not paying a membership fee. Community support can be given by contributing members such as small businessmen that donate money, it was explained. The South Central District is composed of music clubs from Eaton Rapids, Howell, Jackson, Lansing, Leslie, Milan, St Johns, and Tecumseh. Musical presentations throughout the meeting by local musicians included the presentation of student scholarship winners during the luncheon in Wilcox Hall of the church: Cheryl Cole playing "Le Con Con" by Daquin at the marimba; Karen Knight, a piano solo, "Juba" by Dett; and Sue Davis, performing "Sonata No 3" by Handel on the violin, accompanied by her sister, Ann Davis on the piano.

Mrs Maurice Witteveen provided an organ recital of music by Mendelssohn, Walcha, and Mauello to open the convention, and later in the day teamed with Mrs H W Lundy in the piano duo, "Capriccio Brilliant" by Mendelssohn.

The St Johns Morning Musicales Choral Ensemble, directed by Mrs Dean Stork and accompanied by Mrs H W Lundy provided luncheon entertainment with "My Johnny's A Soldier," arranged by Lou Hagward and "The Arrow and the Song" by John F Wilson. The "Wesendonck Leier" of Richard Wagner, a cycle of five German love poems, were performed by Phyllis Rice, mezzo-soprano, and Diantha Witteveen, piano.

Open Letter

from VAN W. HOAG

Dear Friends,

It deserves emphasis that the time, the place, the character of the funeral services, the merchandise used, the cemetery selected - these are decisions of the family of the deceased. The funeral director acts only as a representative of the family.

The clergyman should be consulted in matters that concern him before any decisions are made.

Respectfully,

Van W. Hoag

Clerk reviewed letter addressed to Philip Hart from Valdas V Adamkus, Acting Regional Administrator of the United States Environmental Protection Agency which stated an application by Clinton County for Bath Township Sewer Project is on the State's 1973 approved list and that the project priority has been established consistent with the prerequisite requirements of Section 7 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act. However, since FY73 funds have not been allocated to the States as of this date, we are unable to predict whether there will be sufficient funds for this project. # Collecting antique cars comes AUTO-matically

By LEE PETERS
News Staff Writer

ST. JOHNS — Bruce Lanterman says he's a Ford man who collects Chevys.

A St. Johns insurance agent, he can't remember when he decided to buy antique cars. It just happened AUTO-matically.

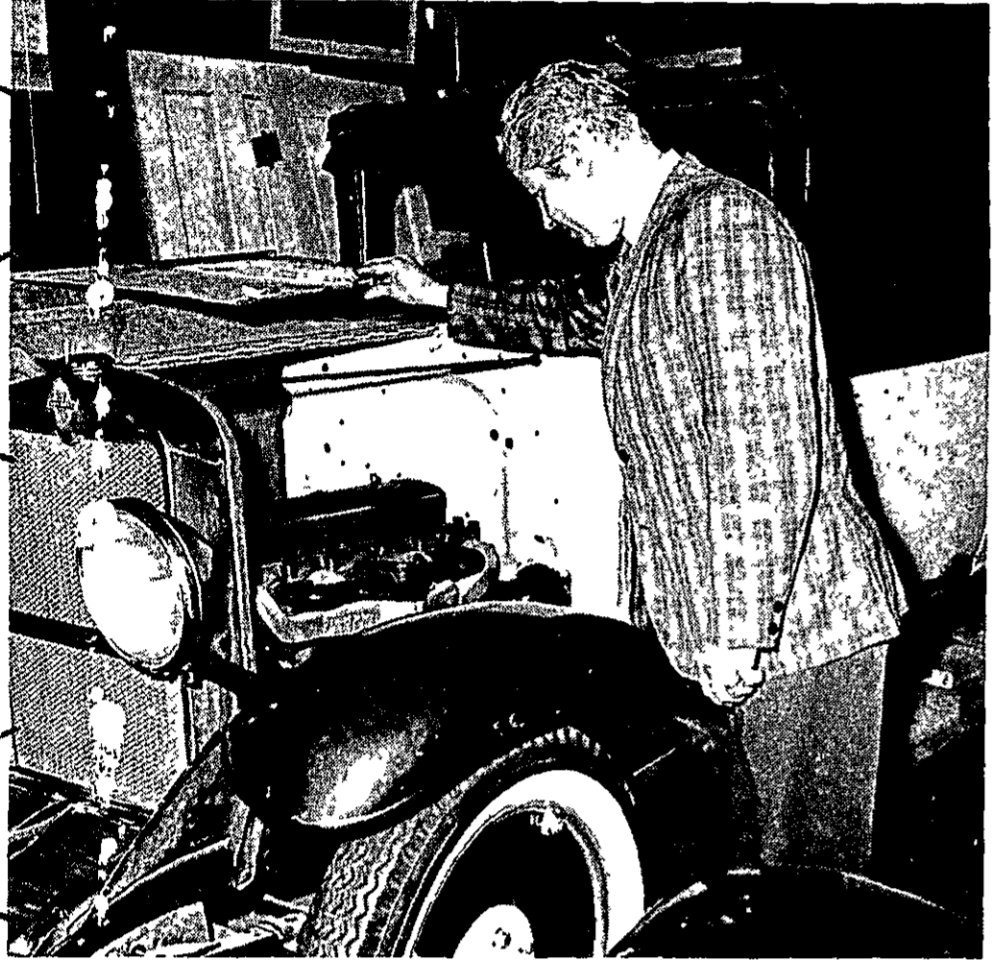

"I've had different antique cars all my life," Lanterman admits. "I guess the oldest I remember was an old '29 Chevy," he continues. "And then there was a '31 Plymouth and at least a half dozen Model A Fords," he reminisces.

he owns now are pushing at the garage walls behind his home at 210 W State. "Right now I'm trying to get a barn somewhere mainly for storage," says Lanterman. He's already bought a '29 Ford pickup and a '29 Ford 2-door sedan in Newberry but as he jokes, "I've got no place to park em."

In his barn now are a 1928 Chevrolet, the last 4 cylinder Chevy made until the Vega, and a 1929 Chevrolet, the first 6 cylinder Chevy made. Parallel parked to those are a 1932 Terraplane made by the Hudson Motor Car Co and a 1941 Chevrolet.

It took a lot of elbow grease to polish the chrome and hub caps on Lanterman's '41 Chevy.

Bruce Lanterman, St. Johns insurance agent, has done all the mechanical restoration on his antique car collection. He's interested in starting a local antique car club.

Although I'm a Ford man I collect Chevys admits Lanterman. He recently purchased a '29 Ford pickup truck and a 2-door sedan from Newberry in the Upper Peninsula.

THE 4 ANTIQUE AUTOS

LANTERMAN'S '28 and '29 are driveable and he hopes to have the '41 on St. Johns streets this week. "It has regular plates," he explains, "but for any car over 25 years old you can get a historical license from the state. That's strictly for driving to parade and car meets."

"I'd like to get a local antique car club started," Lanterman proposes. Backing him up are 2 other St. Johns collectors, his son-in-law, Jim Cain of 910 N Oakland and Jim Fox, 917 N Lansing.

The trio motored to Hershey, Pa for the National Antique Car Show Oct 5-6-7. "There were at least 100,000 people attending," tells Lanterman, with 100,000 autos on display or for sale. A highlight of the event is 20 acres of nothing but parts. Lanterman says the price for investing in antique cars has gone up tremendously in the last few years. The cost of parts is high, he relates, but it's worth the investment. He mentions a '41 Chevy like his which went for $3200 at an Auburn, Ind auction.

Even so, Lanterman says he's always in the market for collectible cars. Coming up Oct 29 is an antique car swap meet at the Marshall Street Armory in Lansing sponsored by the Demolay.

And Bruce Lanterman will be AUTO-matically there.

CHECKMATE AGREEMENT

To: Clinton National Bank and Trust Co.

I hereby apply for your Checkmate plan. I understand and agree as follows:

1. To maintain a checking account with you.
2. That credit will be made available to me up to the maximum amount of my line of credit as determined by you in the following manner:
  - A. Automatic Transfer. If any check which I write creates a deficit in my account, the Bank will automatically transfer money in multiples of $100.00 to my account to cover this deficit.
  - B. Requested Transfer. I may request, on forms supplied by you, that funds in multiples of $100.00 be deposited to my checking account.
3. To repay the Bank in the following manner:
  - A. By monthly payments to the Bank in an amount equal to 1/24 of the outstanding balance or a minimum monthly payment of $25.00, whichever is greater. Of course, I understand that I can repay an extra amount up to the full amount I owe at any time and receive immediate credit for such prepayment.
  - B. By authorizing the Bank to deduct automatically from my checking account the monthly payments as required above.
  - C. By authorizing the Bank to credit to my account such sums as shall be necessary to cover the automatic payments on my account.
  - D. By authorizing the Bank to apply the payments first on interest and the balance on principal with interest on the outstanding loan balance to be at the then current rate for such accounts.
5. That if I default or attempt to default in any agreement with you; if any representations made by me prove to have been false or misleading in any material respect; or if I shall fail to inform you of any material change in my financial position; shall become insolvent, bankrupt, have a receiver appointed, execute an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or have a writ of attachment, garnishment, execution or other legal process issued against my property, die or become incompetent; or if the Bank shall deem itself insecure, you may declare the entire balance of my account immediately due and payable and all credits available hereunder, unless previously terminated, shall terminate without demand or notice. In addition to all other rights, the Bank shall have the right to set-off any sum due me from it against any credit extended under this agreement, and any security interest which the Bank may have acquired, either directly or indirectly, shall constitute security for the payment of all loans made under this agreement.
6. That you will send me a monthly statement showing all checking account activity and all loan activity on my Checkmate account. I agree not to exceed the limit of credit established from time to time. I further understand that any credit extended by you will be in reliance on this agreement and any representations heretofore or hereafter made by me, that you will not be required to extend credit and may revoke credit extended and dishonor any item within the same time as permitted by law or by clearing house or other agreements; that my credit privileges may be terminated without prior notice; and that the line of credit, interest, payments and all other terms may be altered by you from time to time upon prior notice to me.
7. This agreement shall be construed, except to the extent governed by Federal law, by the laws of the State of Michigan. Each provision shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid but if any part of this agreement shall be declared invalid, such declaration shall not invalidate the remaining provisions. Since Ron has been handling the Citizen of the Week award it has been easy for him to ignore his own accomplishments in the area of public service. Ron is presently serving a tour of duty at Clinton Memorial Hospital and that allows us to give him some well deserved thanks.

His efforts include serving for several years on the board of Chamber of Commerce where he presides as president for the second year in a row. He was one of the organizers and is the president of the St. Johns Area Development Corporation. He has served on and chaired the city Planning and Zoning Commission. He is an active member of St. Joseph Church. Ron is an excellent example of the old saying, "If you want to get a job done, ask a busy man."

Thanks Ron. Get well soon; we've got some work for you.

Two Gen Tel employees complete training courses

Two Plant department employees of General Telephone at St. Johns, George Rochon and Sterling Boldrey Jr recently completed courses at Gen Tel's Plant Training School at Owosso.

Rochon took a 2-week course on voice frequency transmission, theory and testing. Designed to enable participants to develop the basic theory and practical knowledge necessary to properly test and maintain voice frequency transmission systems, the course included such topics as: the nature of sound; transmission systems, the course included such topics as: the nature of sound; transmission line characteristics; electrical properties of the transmitted signal; the nationwide DDD network; transmission testing and maintenance; and general transmission design.

Rochon and his wife Sharon live at 601 S. Kibbee with their children Shelly and Scott.

Boldrey completed a 2-week course on AC-DC theory designed to provide students with the basic principles of electro-motive force, structure of matter, general circuit theory, AC-DC circuits, electrodynamics, inductance and capacitance, transformer action, rectifiers and power measurement.

He also took a 1-week course on Basic Station Installation which provides students with the knowledge necessary to install customer station equipment. It includes classes on: telephone set components and circuit reading; station wiring; protection and testing. A laboratory provides actual installation experience for the students.

Boldrey resides with his mother, Mary Boldrey, on Scott Road, St. Johns.

Taxing decisions

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following information on property tax reform and the graduated income tax was provided the Clinton County News by Leon E Thelen, Clinton equalization director. We feel it is an informative tool to assist voters in determining a "yes" or "no" decision by Nov 7.

PROPOSAL C Property Tax Reform

What would property tax reform mean to people in Clinton County?

Presently our Constitution limits millage levies to 50 mills, exclusive of bonded indebtedness.

A "yes" vote on Proposal C would cut the limit to 26 mills. It would eliminate all school operating millages except for County Intermediate. It would set a fixed mill limit for County at 8 mills, Township at 1.5 mills, County Intermediate at 4.5 mills for a total of 14 mills.

Another 6 mills could be voted for schools and 6 mills for County or Townships combined for a total of 12 mills. This, plus the 14, equals 26 mills which would be the new limit.

For example, these levies would be eliminated by a "yes" vote:

St Johns Public School	23.5 mills
Ovid-Elsie Public School	22.0 mills
Pewamo-Westphalia Public Schools	22.5 mills
DeWitt Public School	29.0 mills
Fulton Public School	19.5 mills
Bath Public School	26.0 mills
Fowler Public School	24.0 mills

Naturally, these school operating millages need to be replaced by some other form of revenue. The Proposal C does not impose any new taxes to replace these. The 1973 Legislature would be directed to establish a program of state taxation to support local school districts.

PROPOSAL D Graduated Income Tax

This proposal is entirely separate from Proposal C. If approved it would simply eliminate the existing constitutional prohibition against a graduated-income tax. This question already has been defeated twice in the past four years by the state voters.

Griffin talks about football TV blackouts

DETROIT -- "When the Green Bay Packers defeated the Detroit Lions 24-23 Monday night, millions of fans who wanted to see the game had to settle for listening to it on the radio," US Sen Robert Griffin said last week.

"They all live in or near Michigan."

"There is no better illustration of the folly of allowing 'TV blackouts' of professional football games."

"The game was a sellout for weeks. Football fans in Michigan look forward to 'Monday night football'. But because the game chosen for telecasting was in Detroit, National Football League policy based on Federal law prevented fans from viewing the game."

"THERE IS no justification for depriving hundreds of thousands -- perhaps millions -- of football fans of the chance to watch the Lions play."

"Congress could act to end blackouts of football games sold out in advance, and I have proposed and fought for a change in laws to permit telecasting of games in markets near the scene of the game."

"Last week, NFL Commissioner Alvin (Pete) Rozelle, reacting to Congressional pressure to modify the 'blackout' rule, announced that the Super Bowl game would not be subject to a TV blackout."

"The response is totally unsatisfactory, and I said so at the time."

"The question is not just one involving any one thrilling game, but rather one involving the right of fans to see their team in action. We can't rely on the NFL, so Congress must take effective action."

"WE'RE TALKING about what's good for people, not what's good for ticket-sellers."

"It's time for action, but realistically, the Congress will likely wait until next session to act. We must have changes in Federal law to end unjustified blackouts, and I expect to fight for enactment of such laws."

"The interests of the people demand no less."

ONE YEAR AGO October 27, 1971

An attempt to change a system which has allegedly operated the same way for the last 44 years was launched by a group of concerned citizens from St Johns. They launched a petition in an effort to make changes, both in personnel and policy of the Clinton Memorial Hospital board of trustees.

The State Department of Highways has given approval for a traffic light to be installed at US-27 and Sturgis St on the south side of the city.

Warren Swanson, Route 4, St Johns received a second place award from the West-Agro-Chemical Company in that company's annual herd health contest.

General Telephone plans to spend a record $10,257,400 for service improvement in the central Michigan service area in 1972. B R Davies, central division manager for the company announced. The division includes 49 exchange communities including those in the St Johns district.

Indians are massing to the north of St Johns. There are tribes of Sioux, Chippewa and Huron, but don't be alarmed. They are friendly. It's all part of a new drive in the St Johns area to expand the St Johns YMCA Indian Guide program.

A patient, hard-working team of yeggs literally drilled their way through the roof of Eberhard's supermarket at 911 E State St sometime after midnight Friday and cleaned out the store safe containing $1,069 in small bills and change.

St Johns taxpayers will shell out $310,865.58 for school and county purposes this winter, according to Kenneth G Greer, city assessor. This is $1,739.12 more than last year's total, although the rate per thousand of assessed valuation is 64 cents less

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To whom it may concern, Everyone has already explained how many techniques there are to have an abortion. I have been sitting quietly and reading the pros and cons, myself against it, but one letter really ticked me off. A Mr Snyder went on ranting and raving in favor of abortion, and truthfully, his reasons didn't make sense.

1) No, a woman is not compelled to have an abortion, but if the law is passed, women will think it's OK, because it's LEGAL.

2) True, an automobile is a main killer, but if people obeyed laws and traffic signs, it wouldn't be. Blame People not cars.

3) It doesn't make any difference who gives sex education, somebody has to listen to it for it to do any good. Granted, many kids listen, but some won't. There have already been kids in trouble, and there always will be kids in trouble.

4) This is a democratic nation. So, how do you explain people not caring for the welfare of the unborn? I, too, have never heard of a man giving birth to a baby.

But the comment writer of that letter gave, was the most ridiculous thing I ever heard. He blames the trouble on men, which is only half the trouble. Ok, men, you take preventive measures if you admit you're the blame when women need abortions.

I don't agree with the use of contraceptives, but that is better than killing an already conceived baby.

I resent the comment that women are 'playthings for men. I'm a happily married woman with a beautiful daughter (which I wouldn't have dreamed of killing) and I don't regard myself as my husband's plaything.

Also, I'd gladly take every baby that people don't want, instead of killing them.

Christians are not being narrow-minded, but people who are killing an innocent life are the narrow-minded ones.

Let me leave you with one thought: where would you and a lot of others be if our mothers' regarded us as flesh and killed us.

25 YEARS AGO October 23, 1947

The city of St Johns' new 12-inch, well has a tested capacity of 350 to 400 gallons per minute. The well was completed at a depth of 502 feet last week by the Ohio Drilling Co.

Issuance of 39,909 shares of common and preferred stock, based upon the business year of 1946, has been completed and mailed to member-producers of Dairyland Cooperative Creamery Co at Carson City.

A class of 25 Sunday School children of pre-school age at the First Methodist Church have started a project to beautify the church grounds by planting crocus bulbs.

The St Johns City Commission decided at their meeting to ask for bids on a new pumper unit for the fire department to supplement their present equipment.

Specifications for the new unit call for a 600-gallon per minute pumper mounted on a commercial chassis.

A new home economics extension group was organized Friday at the home of Mrs Mildred Abbott and Miss Florence Woodhams in St Johns.

St Johns High School's first homecoming game didn't end on the happiest of notes as the final whistle of the Redwing-Belding game found the local boys eager to settle for a 7-7 score.

A recent trend in advertising is for the product being advertised to, by name, identify a competitor.

One company involved in such a campaign now is an electric razor firm.

In my case, the approach must not be too successful because the only name I can remember from the television commercial is that of the competitor.

This may be fine for industry, but could you imagine the furor this would cause in everyday, hometown business.

ONE STOREFRONT may have a window sign reading: "Glubb's Diner serves rotten food. Edna Semelink lost 3 fillings in their Tuesday noon caramel apple special."

Glubb's might respond with their own sign reading, "The Gag and Vomit Eatery is guilty of false advertising when they proclaim 'Good Food at a Good Price'. The food is rotten and they should pay unsuspecting souls to eat there."

Or, how about a clothing store. "We at Height of Fashion are sure you'll prefer to patronize our establishment. After all, everyone knows Giebel's Clothing Galore would wear a Giebel coat with those ridiculous pink lapels on a red and yellow striped tuxedo. And, don't forget poor Guy Grommet who took a bow after singing 'Three Blind Mice' at the talent show and, well, you know what happened to those $20 pants with the rotten thread."

Of course our public utilities companies haven't ever had the problem of whether or not to name their competitors -- ain't none.

It just wouldn't make it if the power company announced, "If we had any competition, we would still be better by comparison."

Now, the case of the telephone company is a bit different. It was about 2 to 3 years ago, a competitive telephone company was begun by an area newsman.

IT WAS KNOWN as the "Jim Edwards Ball O' String and Tincan Telephone Company."

Early business reports complained of the company's unfair advertising. Although not claiming to surpass the service of the established company "Ball O' String" contended they offered the same service at a lower price.

"Having trouble with long distance," one advertising promotion asked? "Well just yell a little louder into the juice can with string connected. It's not any different than the other service."

A report about 6 months ago claimed the "Ball O' String" had ceased to operate because of too many requests for service. A severe tin can shortage resulted and the plastic containers proved to be poor conductors.

Because of the inability of the company to keep up with requests, the local phone company is once again operating without competition.

BUT, THEY can still name the competitor and I'm offering this little jingle, "Try General's Ding-a-ling-aling cause there ain't no more 'Tin Can and Ball O' String."

Addicted to baseball

Editor, Lapeer County Press

By Jim Fitzgerald

I thought there might be some therapeutic value to reading Leonard Shecter's book, "The Jocks", during the final week of the baseball season. Sort of like reading a diet book while eating a large-size Hershey bar with almonds.

Shecter is best known as the editor of Jim Bouton's "Ball Four", the best-seller that delighted the reading public while angering the baseball world. Bouton is, a former big league pitcher and he told Jocker room secrets. Shecter is a former sports writer and in "The Jocks" he continues in the Bouton vein - revealing many baseball "heroes" to be dumb, greedy, conceited jerks with nothing to recommend them except their muscles. (Egad, he even put down Joe DiMaggio whom I always thought God made on the 8th day.)

I really don't need Shecter and Bouton to remind me how silly it is that this country makes idols and millionaires out of center fielders (or quarterback; pick any sport). I'm a fairly rational human being, most of the time. I know it isn't really important who wins the World Series. Ending the war in Vietnam, or curbing unemployment, or erasing racism, or feeding the hungry - those things are important. But who cares if the Detroit Tigers are champs?

I do, doctor, I do. I can't help it. I'm addicted, as hopelessly and stupidly as the man who knows cigarettes will kill him but still puffs up 3 packs a day.

I know baseball is a slow game, often dull, straight-jacketed by stuffy traditions. But there are those moments of suspense, high excitement, sweet anguish . . . and those moments somehow make it all worthwhile.

It began when I was about 10 and my father took me to old Navin Field to see Hank Greenberg, Charlie Gehringer, Goose Goslin and the rest. I've never forgotten my first look at that green, green grass and the great crack of the bat hitting the ball.

In 1945 I probably became the first soldier to ever re-enlist for a year simply to earn a 30-day furlough that took me out of Germany and put me near Detroit at World Series time. We beat the Cubs in 7 games.

Now I take my son to the ballgames. We were there for that wild showdown against Boston. I stood outside the stadium and begged loudly for someone to sell me 5 tickets (and, as my wife later observed, I am normally so shy I won't stop and ask for directions when lost in a strange town because "I don't know anybody here").

I finally found a scalper to sell me $2 worth of tickets for $20. We then stood in line for an hour outside the bleacher gates which were unexplainedly shut. When we finally got inside there were no seats left and we had to sit in the aisle, on filthy cement, while fans climbed over us and dripped beer down our necks.

But oh my. Al Kaline got the big hit, and he doffed his cap to the tremendous applause, and I yelled like an idiot. I jumped up and down and pounded strangers on the back. The Tigers won and it was the most beautiful night. I would have paid $200, stood in line a week, and sat on fire, just to be there.

Why would a grown man behave so foolishly, doctor?

I really don't know. It's probably got something to do with not living for bread alone, or all work and no play, and all those old bromides.

Maybe it's simply that a middle-aged guy can remember his father warmly, between innings, and after a great victory he can embrace his son and the people in the nearby seats don't think it's mushy . . . it's baseball.

View from the Senate

By SEN. WILLIAM S. BALLENGER

"Utter confusion" is the best description right now of the legal situation regarding abortions in Michigan.

With a vote coming up Nov 7 on whether or not to liberalize Michigan's 124-year-old abortion statute, Wayne Circuit Judge Charles Kaufman has thrown the situation into a complete muddle with an order declaring all existing Michigan abortion law language unconstitutional.

Judge Kaufman based his opinion on his contention that the state's present abortion law violates the right of privacy of the mother.

About the only agreement one can get from the legal fraternity right now is disagreement as to what Judge Kaufman's ruling actually means.

DOES IT MEAN, as contended by the Wayne County Prosecutor William Cohalan, that his rulings "are only binding on the parties of the lawsuit"?

Or does it mean that Michigan has no law left on the books?

Or does it mean that the law applies to all but parties to the lawsuit?

The law which Judge Kaufman ruled unconstitutional forbids abortion except to preserve the life of the expectant mother.

The ruling came in a lawsuit filed by more than 1,000 Michigan women, headed by former State Senator N Lorraine Beebe, now chairman of the Michigan Women's Commission. It is their contention that the state abortion law denies women the full benefit of modern medicine and the right to plan their families as they see fit.

JUDGE KAUFMAN'S ruling comes just about a month before the people are to vote on a proposal which would "allow a licensed medical or osteopathic physician to perform an abortion at the request of the patient, if (1) the period of gestation has not exceeded 20 weeks, and (2) if the procedure is performed in a licensed hospital or other facility approved by the Department of Public Health."

That, incidentally, is the actual wording of the proposal (Proposal B) that will be on the Nov 7 ballot. If you are in favor of liberalizing the law, you should vote "Yes"; if not, you should vote "No."

What happens in the meantime? If you are planning on having an abortion or performing one, you would be wise not to, unless you go to a state where abortions currently are legal.

Legal experts agree that the question is so muddled now that no one really will know what Judge Kaufman's order will mean until it has been decided by the State Supreme Court.

CONSIDERING some of the decisions the court has made in other matters recently, there is no assurance that its final ruling will be meaningful or understandable. But at

Monkey Business

It is hard to know how many people who get involved in counseling to resolve their emotional hang ups, think well of their counselors.

Situations where things get better for the patient at a rapid pace (what we call crisis intervention) are likely to produce a grateful person, with perhaps a good deal of respect for the professional.

When progress is slow and limited, the opposite reaction may occur.

So we are very concerned about what the best training is for counselors, as well as trying to find out more about the kinds of persons who would make a good therapist. We already know that some people are naturally more apt to understand and help others, and that with them (we use the horrible name "para-professionals"), a little training goes a long way.

Though I have been concerned about these issues for many years, I never thought I would see the day when I would hear about monkeys being educated to help other "sick" monkeys, with precisely the kinds of techniques hitherto reserved for humans.

MENTALLY ILL MONKEYS

Because it is unethical to use human beings for experiments of this type, scientists have, in the last few years, been using non-human primates to try to understand more about human relationships.

A number of procedures have been developed to produce emotionally ill monkeys. One simple way of making a monkey sick is to rear him, under laboratory conditions, in total isolation. The animals are separated from their mothers right after birth, and placed in special solitary chambers.

At the end of 6 months, when they are taken out, the animals appear very withdrawn, fearful and unable to relate to other animal beings. They are also very aggressive, either against themselves, or more commonly, against anybody, man or beast, approaching them.

A HELPING HAND

Efforts to help these unfortunate creatures had been to no avail, until a team of psychologists at the University of Wisconsin came up with a clever idea a number of months ago. Since normal monkeys would either attack or be attacked by their isolated peer, they in effect trained other monkeys by isolating the, but not for very long periods, to react in a more accepting way. These so called "monkey psychiatrists" were much younger than the ones they were asked to "counsel", so that they would pose no direct physical threat to their "patients".

The experiment worked out rather well. The monkey doctors started by approaching and then clinging to the isolated monkeys. Within a week, the patients responded by clinging back; in another week, a kind of primitive play had developed between the two animals, and their interaction improved so that by the time they were a year old, it was impossible to distinguish one from the other, on the basis of their behavior.

Treatment had been successfully accomplished. What can we learn from this experiment?

Psychologist Harry F. Harlow and his co-workers had this ironical footnote to their research findings:

"We are well aware of the existence of some therapists who seem inhuman. We find it refreshing to report the discovery of non humans who can be therapists".

THE OUNCE OF PREVENTION

Human beings of all ages, but particularly human babies, need to feel close to and be cared for by another human being, if they are to develop normally. When there are deficiencies in fulfilling these needs, a relationship to other children is probably very helpful. The need for peer contact and support is present throughout all of our lives; it is one of the best gifts we can provide one another.

least it will be the last word unless or until some similar case is ruled on by the United States Supreme Court.

Already, the US District Court in Detroit has taken the Michigan law under advisement, and the US Supreme Court is hearing two similar abortion cases involving Georgia and Texas laws.

There is even a possibility that Michigan's Nov 7 referendum on liberalizing abortions may be an exercise in futility if the US Supreme Court in the meantime issues a ruling that would make Michigan's proposed new law - if it is passed - unconstitutional.

Right now, your guess would seem to be as good as anyone else's, but it's rather generally agreed that you would be better off not to take a chance on an abortion just yet.

Norman Miller who was admitted at the Carson City Osteopathic Hospital Oct 10, expects to be there 10 days to 2 weeks.

Cheryl A. Knoop, daughter of Mr and Mrs Joseph Knoop, Route 1, Pewamo was admitted to the Ionia County Memorial Hospital Oct 9 having a tonsillectomy. She was discharged Oct 11.

Opinions on abortion reform

Editor,
Hooray for D F Snyder's letter in last week's Clinton County News! I think it should have been printed on the front page instead of the last. I would have missed it if someone hadn't brought it to my attention. I long ago quit reading anything entitled 'abortion' because I was tired of everyone trying to force their morals down my throat. Give intelligent families a chance to make their private and emotional decision themselves.

Thank you Mr Snyder for speaking for a large silent majority.

Sincerely,
MRS G DESPREZ

Diary of an Unborn Child

OCTOBER 5 - Today my life began. My parents do not know it yet. I am as small as a seed of an apple, but it is I already. And I am to be a girl. I shall have blond hair and azure eyes. Just about everything is settled though, even the fact that I shall love flowers.

OCTOBER 19 - Some say that I am not a real person yet, that only my mother exists. But I am a real person just as a small crumb of bread is yet truly bread. My mother is. And I am.

OCTOBER 23 - My mouth is just beginning to open now. Just think in a year or so I shall be laughing and later talking. I know that my first word shall be - Mama.

OCTOBER 25 - My heart began to beat today all by itself. From now on it shall gently beat for the rest of my life.

NOVEMBER 2 - My arms and legs are beginning to take shape.

NOVEMBER 12 - Tiny fingers are beginning to form on my hands. Funny how small they are. I shall be able to stroke my mother's hair with them.

NOVEMBER 20 - Today the doctor told Mom that I am living here under her heart. How happy she must be.

DECEMBER 24 - My heart is strong and healthy. It beats so evenly - tap-tap-tap. You'll have a healthy little daughter, Mom.

DECEMBER 28 - Today my mother killed me.

MRS C FEDEWA

To the Editor,

Probably the most emotional of the five statewide proposals facing the November voter in Michigan is the one labeled "Proposal B" which concerns a change in the State's laws concerning abortion. A great deal of heat is being generated by those on both sides of the question and maybe a little impartial analysis will help.

First of all, in considering Proposal "B" we are not voting on an amendment to the State's Constitution. We are talking about enacting a law, in much the same manner that the Legislature enacts laws but by vote of the entire electorate rather than just their representatives in Lansing. There are some major differences, however.

Any bill the Legislature passes is subject to veto by the governor. One passed by the voters through the initiative process is not.

A bill passed by the Legislature is subject to amendment or repeal by a majority of the members of both houses of the Legislature. A bill enacted into law by vote of the people can only be amended or repealed by the three-fourths vote of both the Senate and

Rep Allen urges Proposal C approval

To the Editor,
The public generally displays a healthy skepticism towards major proposed changes in Government policy. My four years in Michigan's legislature have reinforced my original opinion that such an attitude is often warranted.

However, as the time approaches for a public vote on Proposal C to switch school finance away from property tax, I am disturbed by the level of suspicion and distrust. Especially when so much of the criticism I hear comes from small town and rural areas which stand to benefit most by the change.

If you believe present heavy reliance on local property taxes is an unfair burden on retired people, farmers, merchants, homeowners and others, a "Yes" vote on Proposal C is extremely important. Passage is probably the only chance for significant property tax relief in the foreseeable future. Defeat would be viewed by legislators and courts as an indication of public support for present school finance methods.

Two aspects of the proposal are mentioned frequently by doubters. One is the 26 mill constitutional limit. Many assume that this maximum is a level which will be likely to be reached soon. Since many areas are not paying much more than this now, it looks like little property tax relief in return for additional income tax.

THE ANSWER to this criticism is simple. Outstate Michigan would be no more likely to vote the constitutional limit than now. The present limit of 50 mills is only approached in metropolitan areas where needs of local government are high.

Passage of Proposal C will lower local taxes on agricultural and residential property by 50 to 75% in small town and rural areas. Since the switch of school operation to other revenue sources will be lasting (until Constitutional change), the property tax relief will be lasting.

While local taxes may increase, they certainly will be much lower if C passes than if it fails and local property must continue to carry the burden of schools as well as local government.

The second major argument centers around fear of loss of local control. While this argument may have some substance, in my opinion it is not sufficient to discard the proposal. States have always played a strong role in education and are required to do so by our original US Constitution. The degree of State control varies from State to State. A stronger State role in financing does not necessarily mean control over curriculum and teaching staff, any more than local financing assures local control in such matters. I am firmly convinced that outstate rural and small town areas of Michigan will be best served by passage of Proposal C.

Sincerely yours,

LET Whirlpool MAKE WASH DAY EASY ON YOU

Another careful one from Whirlpool.

Here's the Whirlpool electric dryer that's big on value. Compare its features and performance. Then compare price. Custom dry fabrics using any of three settings for proper drying temp in either of two automatic cycles or choose timed drying when desired. And of course, Permanent Press fabrics get the cool-down drying they require, too, so most of the time even touch-up ironing is minimized. Then there's the functionally appointed operations panel with each and every control clearly defined. Enjoy fingertip touch command. Dependable response. With carefully custom dried clothes the end result is...

Satisfaction! Such a distinctive value. Yet, for all its individuality this new Whirlpool dryer sports all the inherent quality and safety features that tie it unmistakably to the family of Whirlpool home appliances that take better care.

Special no-iron care for Permanent Press fabrics.

(1) Fabrics tumble freely in heated drum 'til dry. Then heat shuts off.
(2) Tumbling continues w/cool so garments cool gradually.
(3) Tumbling stops. Garments should be removed immediately, virtually no ironing is needed.

Results: Garments cool gradually, tumbling freely in the large size drum. Fresh, warm air fluffs them dry, then heat shuts off as tumbling continues. During this final, no heat tumbling garments are restored to their original contours. Most Permanent Press garments are ready to wear without ironing.

TUMBLE PRESS® control is an unusual convenience that takes the place of what used to be "touch up" ironing. When clean Permanent Press clothes become wrinkled from storage or brief wear, just toss 'em in the dryer and set this control. Within minutes most pleats and creases are restored automatically.

Custom drying Women don't always agree upon degree of dryness. A load of clothes may feel dry to one person and a bit damp to another, etc. The Custom Dry system gives women the opportunity to prefer for each specific load. All she does is make her selection by simply setting the Custom Dry control. Then, when clothes reach the degree of dryness selected, drying action stops automatically.

$169<sup>95</sup> & UP

Features Custom Dry control, 3 selections for proper drying temp, plus Permanent Press cool-down.

4-H Bonanza now history

The 4-H Bonanza held Oct 13 - 14 at Michigan State University in East Lansing is now history with the banquet Oct 13 and the auction Oct 14. Over 850 people attended the banquet held in Jenison Field House with Art Linkletter acting as master of ceremonies. Linkletter told of the numerous things kids told him on his television program when he asked them questions. Sue Ann Langdon, star of a television program "Arnie", sang a number of songs and the Conti Family did a number of songs with an excellent performance by the youth. Other entertainment included the Saginaw Choral Group and two 4-H Share The Fun talent winners selected from their performance at the Michigan State Fair.

DURING THE evening performance NADYA, a Champion, registered Arabian mare, was auctioned off for $11,000, which many people felt was a very good buy for the buyer.

During the auction on Saturday, Oct 14 at the Field House many of the buyers picked up some real bargains. The sale started at 10 am and lasted till about 8 pm. There were many items from horses, dairy cattle, beef cattle, pigs, sheep, rabbits, a pedigree kitten, a 420 pound Potoskey stone, appliances, sports equipment, seed corn, fertilizer and many other items.

There was a flea market where a person could make some excellent buys of games, produce, fruit, shrubs, clothes and other items. Clinton County donors of items for the auction included lawn fertilizer by Zeeb Fertilizer of St Johns, a doll cake by Bea Grams of St Johns, Delicious apples by Dana Parker and George Hazle and 4 meals at the Chalet Restaurant in DeWitt by Mr and Mrs Lee Rummel.

Early on Saturday morning in preparing the livestock and other items for the auction Clinton County 4-Hers were busy at work at 6 am.

THEY WERE David Seeger, Pat Zeeb and Bill Brock of Bath; David Haviland of DeWitt; Jack Woodhams, Steve Thelen, Wayne Morrison, Steve VanVleet, Brian VanVleet, Frank Faivor and Kathy Hazle of St Johns; and Bill Spitzley of Fowler. Their help was greatly appreciated at the auction. There were quite a few people from Clinton County attending the auction and flea market for good buys as well as supporting the 4-H sale.

The final summary of the sales total is not complete at this time and will be several weeks before everything is settled. Their goal was $250,000 but it seems the final count will seem closer to $150,000. The funds raised will go to the Michigan 4-H Foundation for supporting Camp Kett, the leader training facilities in Michigan and for developing programs in areas where other funds were not available.

The total project "the 4-H Bonanza" took the cooperation and support of many people, businesses and organizations to make it a success. The youth in Michigan will gain the most from this program.

The Clinton County 4-H Teen Leaders held their hayride Oct 14 at the home of David Seeger with 35 members and guests attending. Officers were elected for the coming year with Virginia Cordes of Lansing elected President, Rita Kissane of St Johns as Vice President and Stuart Hazle of St Johns elected Secretary-Treasurer.

TEEN LEADERS voted to donate $25 to the Grove Bible Church to use toward the softball field lighting and other expenses when they used the field this summer.

The Green Acres 4-H Club was given approval for taking over the glass collection project on Saturday, Nov 4 for the Teen Leaders. Other clubs wishing to take over the glass project certain months should contact the Teen Leaders.

4-H leaders and teen leaders interested in dramatics, modern dance, clay sculpture, sketching and drawing should plan on attending the "Arts in 4-H" leaders conference Nov 10 and 11 at Camp Kett. There is no cost to attend. The program begins at 10:30 am Nov 10 and ends at 3 pm on Nov 11. The county quota is 5 people. Deadline for registration is Nov 3 at the Extension Office in St Johns.

Final details have been sent regarding plans for the National 4-H Congress Nov 24 to Dec 1, at Chicago, Ill. Clinton County will be represented by Alan Cobb of Elsie who was selected as the State 4-H Poultry winner. Three other Clinton County 4-Hers who had been selected as State award winners and had the chance to attend National 4-H Congress but turned it down because of college classes. They would have had to miss a week of classes just before finals. The 33 member delegation from Michigan will be headed with Arden Peterson, Program Leader, 4-H and Youth, from MSU.

The Elsie 4 Corners 4-H club members have elected new officers for the winter program as follows: Rose Oberlin, president; Helen Blakely, vice president; Tammy Woodbury, secretary; Joseph Horak, treasurer; Margaret Horak, news-reporter; Lynette Hrncharik, Kevin Howard and Jane Ortiz, recreation leaders; Kathleen Baese, Pamela Roberts and Theresa Slowinski, song leaders; Pamela Phillips, flag chairman; Debbie Lockwood, supply chairman; Pamela Hrncharik, health chairman and Allan Howard, safety leader.

The club's local 4-H fall achievement will be Nov 7 at the E E Knight School with a potluck supper at 7 pm for members and their families. Members signed up for the winter projects and have 4 new leaders - Mrs Irene Baert, Mrs Donald Whitaker, Mrs Robert White and Mrs John Hrncharik. Members are to take their glass bottles to Dean Roberts with Frank Ortiz to take the glass to the Fairgrounds on Saturday, Nov 4.

NEW OFFICERS for Charlie's Gang 4-H Club for the new year are: Charles Sillman, president; John Richman, vice president; Jon Barz, secretary; Terry Schilke, treasurer; Allan Schilke, news reporter. Members have enrolled for the winter program and will have Karl Schaefer as a new leader helping with the club. The members hope to have a speaker on buying lumber and different woods for a future meeting.

The 4-H members held their first monthly 4-H roller skating activity of the fall Thursday evening at the Ranch Roller Rink in St Johns with 129 members, leaders and guests participating. 4-H clubs wishing to reserve a month for their club to go roller skating should contact the Extension Office as soon as possible.

Farm Tips

Silo gas can kill

By WILLIAM LASHER
Extension Agriculture Agent

Clip cows before winter and you will find it takes less time and labor to keep your cows clean.

Here are some suggestions to follow when clipping cows:

-clip the tail and bob the switch so that it clears the ground about four inches.

-clip the entire surface of the udder.

-clip the belly and hocks. Then make a "mark line" from the navel to the thurl on both sides. Do this by holding the clippers on edge with the bottom blade toward the cow's head.

-clip the flanks and thighs by running the clippers up from the hock to the mark line.

-clip the backbone to help control lice.

Clipping is no substitute for washing the cow's teats and udder before milking; even when cows are neatly clipped, they should be washed with water containing a good sanitizing solution before each milking.

SOY BEANS FOR FEEDLOT CATTLE

There is no harm in replacing soybean meal with ground soybeans for feedlot cattle. Just remember that soybeans are lower in crude protein (38% vs 44% or 49%) and higher in fat (19% vs 1%) than soybean meal. Soybeans should not be fed at high levels as an energy source because of their high fat content; cattle should never receive over 8% fat in the total ration. Furthermore do not mix ground soybeans with urea-containing feeds and store them for extended periods of time. The urease enzyme activity in soybeans will cause a breakdown of the urea into ammonia.

At current prices, there is very little difference between soybean meal and raw soybeans in cost per unit of crude protein. Therefore, there is presently no advantage in buying soybeans rather than soybean meal as a protein supplement. If a feeder has soybeans on hand and wants to feed them it's alright to do so.

Research indicates there is no advantage in roasting the soybeans. Simply grind them and feed them raw.

Ag in Action

Maybe you read about it, and maybe you didn't, but 4 New York bakeries have been sued and charged with price fixing. It is 1 of the "class-action" suits that we're seeing a lot of in recent years. It means that the suit was filed on behalf of all bread buyers in the New York area. A further indictment by a federal grand jury charges that the companies conspired to fix prices, adding 5 cents to each loaf of bread sold from 1966 to 1969. An estimated 750 million loaves of bread were sold during that time in the area, for an alleged overcharge totalling almost 4 million dollars.

This suit comes at a bad time for the bakers. They are already under suspicion by the public because of recent statements that the price of bread should go up. The American Bakers Association has been seeking an increase of from two to three cents per loaf, claiming that higher prices are necessary because recent large grain sales to foreign countries have driven up farm wheat prices.

FARMERS KNOW that such claims are false, and say that it is nonsense to blame current wheat prices and farmers for an increase in bread costs.

One farm leader said, "According to the best we can determine, it takes an increase of about 40 cents per bushel in the price of wheat to raise the farmer's share of a loaf of bread by a half-penny." These figures have since been confirmed by USDA, which adds that remaining wheat stocks still in storage are so substantial that they not only will easily meet all needs, but there will be an adequate carryover for next year.

The biggest mystery of all to farmers is this: Twenty years ago, wheat was selling for $2.12 a bushel, and the average now is only $1.70 per bushel. And while the price of wheat has dropped 42 cents a bushel, the price of a loaf of bread has doubled in that 20 years. It makes farmers a little aggravated to hear the baking industry say that the price of wheat to the farmer has caused bread prices to go up.

PERSEVERANCE
The man who tries and fails will eventually profit by the failures if he keeps on trying.

Lottery tickets on sale Nov 13

Lottery Commissioner Gus Harrison said today that tickets will go on sale for Michigan's new weekly lottery on Nov 13 - just 15 weeks after creation of the Bureau of State Lottery.

Harrison said the first preliminary drawing will be held on Friday, Nov 24, and that subsequent drawings will be held on Thursdays. The day of the week for the first drawing was changed because Nov 23 is Thanksgiving.

"The creation of an operational lottery in just 73 working days has involved the effort of many persons, including those within the Bureau as well as other state agencies," Harrison said. "We have met regularly with the Governor and others from the Executive Office who have been extremely cooperative."

"I wish to thank especially those from the Departments of Administration, attorney general, Civil Service, Commerce, Corrections, Highways, Secretary of State, State Police and Treasury for their assistance. There are many others, both within state government and from the private sector who have been of invaluable aid," he said.

HARRISON, who was appointed by Governor Milliken to the lottery post Aug 1, said the exact place and time of the drawings will be announced later. All drawings will be open to the public.

"The first drawing (Nov 24) will determine thousands of $25 prize winners and will earn several persons a chance to participate in the following week's Super Drawing," Harrison said. "Those invited to the Super Drawing are the only winners required to be present, and we will give them a minimum of $10,000 for showing up. If Super Drawing contestants can not be present in person, they can designate someone, including the Bureau of State Lottery, to represent them.

Harrison said the major jobs to be accomplished between now and Nov 13 are the licensing of approximately 7000 businesses to sell tickets and finalizing arrangements with about 100 banks who will service the sales agents. The first tickets will probably be issued next week, he said, when a 36-man marketing staff takes to the field, operating from regional offices in Detroit, Kalamazoo, Saginaw, Grayling and Marquette.

"The lottery commissioner also unveiled the design of the ticket to be used in the weekly drawing. The ticket, which sells for 50 cents, is printed on grey paper utilizing green and black ink to achieve a money-like quality. Control numbers, the drawing date and winning numbers appear at the bottom of the ticket, while the distinctive lottery insignia - MSL - is prominently displayed in the center.

Treize labels fall session "moderate" success

All things considered, the fall session, just completed, must be considered at least moderately successful. Several major pieces of legislation were passed and sent either to the Senate or to the Governor for his signature. Included in the accomplishments of the three week session were no-fault insurance, the juvenile waiver bill, the Michigan land sales act, inland lakes and streams protection and House passage of a bill prohibiting studded tires.

NO-FAULT INSURANCE

Probably the most notable as well as the most controversial was the no-fault insurance bill adopted by the House on the last day of the fall session. The legislation adopted was a Senate substitute to the original Senate bill. The House, during the first part of the fall session, had adopted a House substitute to the Senate bill which the Senate would not concur in.

Probably the greatest difference between the House substitute and the Senate substitute finally adopted was the inclusion of property damage in the Senate version of the no-fault legislation. The House bill would have retained the negligence concept in settlement of property damage claims.

The no-fault bill adopted by the Legislature covers medical and income losses and eliminates all liability for vehicle damage. Property damage claims arising from an accident now becomes the absolute liability of the person causing the damage and must be paid by the insurance carrier for his automobile.

The bill also includes: unlimited medical and rehabilitation expenses; $1,000 funeral expenses; loss of income benefits for a wage earner and survivor income loss up to $1,000 per month for 31 weeks (up to 85% of income loss); additional recovery through tort action for non-economic loss (pain and suffering) when injured person dies, suffers serious impairment of body function or permanent serious disfigurement; the substitute makes the bodily injury insurance compulsory for owners of motor vehicles registered in this state. Failure to carry such coverage constitutes a misdemeanor.

Perhaps the most important point about the no-fault bill that must be emphasized is that it will most likely not cause any reduction in premium costs for full coverage for the average person and could, in fact, cause a slight increase. The bill will result in faster processing of claims in most cases; will guarantee the insured quicker recovery of income and medical expenses and will require that everyone carry a certain amount of insurance.

JUVENILE WAIVER BILL

Another major piece of legislation was the juvenile waiver bill. The bill was designed to answer criticisms made by the Supreme Court that under present Michigan law the waiving of juveniles for prosecution as adults for certain crimes was unconstitutional because the law did not provide "equal protection" as it was written. It prohibited the waivers of such juveniles in its ruling.

The main thrust of the legislation is that it provides for a full investigation to be held by the court before any waiver is granted. The investigation will be to determine whether the background, mental maturity and pattern of living warrant the waiver; as well as how the public welfare and protection will be served by the decision of the waiver.

MICHIGAN LAND SALES ACT

A major piece of consumer protection legislation was also passed. Referred to as the Michigan land sales act, the bill requires that, for the first time, all land salesmen be licensed, just as realtors who sell houses are now required to be licensed. It also required that land companies make the same kinds of disclosures to prospective buyers who are Michigan residents as they have been required under federal law to make to out of state visitors buying resort property. The disclosure provisions require accurate accounting of ownership of the property, its description and improvements.

The bill will also give the state the right to inspect all land developments to ensure that advertising claims are accurate.

INLAND LAKES AND STREAMS BILL

One other significant piece of legislation that was passed by the House and sent to the Senate was the Inland Lakes and Streams Bill. A major piece of the Governor's environment program, the measure is designed to clarify and refine existing regulations on navigable waters. The bill also will provide controls to smaller creeks and feeder streams that are not now classified as navigable waters to protect them from filling, dredging, damming and other changes which could threaten our larger streams, rivers and lakes.

Farmers will be allowed to establish ponds up to five acres in size and maintain existing drains on their own property without obtaining permits which are required in the legislation.

STUDED TIRE BAN

The Legislature came close to passing a bill to ban the use of studded tires in Michigan. The House approved a House-Senate conference report but after two votes, the Senate failed to adopt it. The bill will be taken up again when the Legislature returns in November.

The major stumbling block in the conference committee report for Senate members, appeared to be a provision which would have allowed Upper Peninsula counties to vote to allow studded tires. Damage to state highways which resulted from their use would have been repaired by the Department of State Highways but the cost of repair would have been deducted from their share of the gas and weight tax.

The bill otherwise would have prohibited the use of steel studs on snowtires after May 1, 1973, except on school buses, emergency vehicles and rural letter carriers' vehicles. Wear resisting plastic or metal could have been used if approved by the Highway Department.

DO YOU KNOW? CONSUMER TIPS - Automobile hood latch failure because of rust is common in some '69 and '70 model cars. Owners of these model years should make sure their hood latch is well oiled and free moving to prevent it from accidentally flying open. Hood damage may cost as much as $150 to repair. Additionally, the risk of accident due to impaired vision is a distinct possibility.

When the entire stock of children's shoes is put on sale, tennis shoes may not be a part of the sale. Shoe merchants consider tennis shoes to be canvas footwear not part of "shoe stock". If you plan to buy a water softener and the deal includes a five year's supply of soap, ask what the "average usage factors" are in determining what a 5 year supply is. Many consumers have discovered that the "average usage" factor used is far less than the average family requires.

THE INTERNAL Revenue Service has finally agreed to allow "Finance Charges" to be deductible as interest on Federal Tax Forms. The July 6, 1972 issue of P-H Federal Taxes Report Bulletin states that both charges on revolving department store accounts and bank finance charges on credit cards are covered. ## Ovid-Elsie FFA chapter captures more awards

OVID-ELSIE -- Ovid-Elsie High School's Future Farmers of America chapter returned from the 45th National FFA convention with a pocketful of awards to add to its growing collection. The meat judging team competed in the nationwide contest at the Oct 10-13 meeting in Kansas City, Mo against 45 teams. Under the coaching of Larry Martin of Sheldon's Packing House, Ovid, the team received a silver award. Individual honors in meat judging went to Charlie Green, gold; Mike Rummel, bronze, and Chris Miller, honorable mention.

THE CHAPTER received the silver award for its outstanding achievement in helping to develop their own community in the National FFA. Building Our American Communities (BOAC) competition. Representatives of 78 chapters were honor guests at a banquet sponsored by Lilly Endowment, Inc. of Indianapolis, Ind in the President Hotel Ballroom in Kansas City. Receiving the award for O-E were President Charlie Green, Community Development Chairman, Chris Miller, and advisor Larry Sprague. James V Smith, National Administrator of the Farmers Home Administration, Washington, DC, was the speaker at the banquet. He told the FFA community builders that the BOAC program is a key segment of the national policy to provide opportunity for young people in rural areas. "The great need," he said, "is to develop rural leadership that understand the needs of rural America and that has the knowledge and skill to develop rural communities so there is opportunity for those who wish to live and work there. "Given such opportunity, the pressure to migrate to - congested urban areas will be lessened -- in other words, balanced growth that benefits all Americans."

HIGHLIGHTS OF the new rural development Act include loans to rural youth for farm and business enterprises. This will enable students in vocational agriculture to obtain loans for supervised experience programs. The FFA BOAC program is a joint effort between the Farmers Home Administration of the US Department of Agriculture and the FFA. Lilly Endowment, Inc. is sponsoring the project through the National FFA Foundation, Inc. In their successful bid for national recognition the Ovid-Elsie FFA is building a small park west of the high school. It consists of a woodlot with nature trail running through it, 5 picnic tables, 2 grills and a small bridge. The park is presently opened and people are welcome to use it provided they clean up when finished. Other recognition received by the O-E FFA include the National Chapter silver award, bronze award for chapter safety and State Outstanding Chapter gold award. The O-E FFA chapter has expressed their appreciation to Superintendent Donald Kenney and the school board for its financial backing for the convention trip and to Advisor Sprague who drove the group to Kansas City.

Ovid area gets more phone service

The distance between Owosso and several near-by communities will be "shortened" by General Telephone on Nov 1. That's the day long distance charges are removed for Owosso calls placed to Bancroft, Durand and Ovid and for calls from each of those communities to Owosso.

Leo Baker, General Telephone district manager, said Extended Area Service (EAS), or toll-free calling between two communities, will be in effect at 12:01 am, Wednesday, Nov 1, for calls placed between Owosso and Bancroft, Owosso and Durand and Owosso and Ovid.

What were previously "long distance calls" between those communities will be able to be completed simply by dialing the directory-listed, seven-digit telephone number, Baker said. Beginning Nov 1, Bancroft, Durand and Ovid customers will have an additional 11,900 telephones added to their "local calling area" -- the area in which calls can be placed without application of long distance charges. The "local calling area" for Owosso customers will be increased by 4,800 telephones.

Light Cluster Signals Action

Imagine a world without traffic lights and think of the total confusion that would result.

If a proposed bill passes the U.S. Congress, every car manufactured will have its own version of traffic lights mounted on the rear end.

Should the proposal become law, automobiles would be equipped with a Tri-light system. The lights would signal the actions of the driver to other drivers in cars to the rear.

This light cluster would include the following:

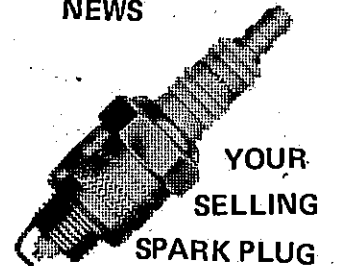

1. The present rear red lights which signal the application of brakes.
2. Two rear amber lights that are activated when both the gas pedal and brake pedal are not depressed. (Or when the driver is about to stop or about to start up again.)
3. Two rear green lights activated by a depressed gas pedal. (Or when the driver has started up again.)
4. Amber rear turn signals, integrated with the amber lights in Point 2.

It is estimated the system would cost $15 per car.

Purpose of the system is to create more exact communication between drivers. It is hoped by proposers of the legislation that the number of rear-end collisions would be markedly reduced.

About half of the accidents occurring on the highway are of the rear-end collision variety and ten percent of the fatalities result from rear-end smash-ups.

'Tune-Up Now, Avoid Winter Motoring Hassles'

Does the thought of wrestling with a stalled engine this winter give you chills? The American Automobile Association says you can avoid this seasonal hassle by putting into practice a few basic guidelines for getting your car under way smoothly.

But well before winter arrives, AAA urges every car owner to take his car in for a complete tune-up and inspection. Especially important is a check of the car's electrical system. In 1971, AAA estimates show 49 per cent of the nation's 82.6 million motoring problems resulted from battery and electrical failures.

Battery Check

Batteries should be checked frequently. At 32 degrees, cranking power is about 40 per cent less than when the temperature is at 80 degrees; and at zero, about 60 per cent less.

During extended periods of cold weather, starting the car and running the engine at least every other day at sufficient RPM's to charge the battery is good insurance against battery failure. If this is done in a garage, be sure to open the garage doors wide enough to protect against the threat of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Do install snow tires well before the first snowfall, and have chains ready in case of a severe snowstorm.

Starting Tips

Once the inspection has been completed, and that first cold morning has arrived, here is AAA's advice on how to get your engine started with a minimum of trouble:

- Make sure the shift selector or gear shift is in neutral. If the car has a manual shift, depress the clutch while starting.

- Avoid a "battery strain" by making certain all electrical accessories (radio, lights, heater) are turned off before using the starter.

- Depress the gas pedal all the way down to the floor once, then hold it halfway down as the starter is engaged. Do not pump the gas pedal, because this can result in flooding.

- Turn the ignition key to "start," but don't hold the key in the start position for more than 10 seconds at a time. Continuous grinding of the starter can damage the battery, and even drain a fully charged one.

- Depress the gas pedal slightly to keep the engine running if the engine starts and then dies a number of times.

- If the engine becomes flooded, depress the gas pedal to the floor and hold it there while engaging the starter. Keep your foot on the pedal until the engine starts again. Then release it slowly. Remember, do not pump the pedal.

Getting your car moving in a heavy snowstorm shouldn't present too great a problem if you follow these tips:

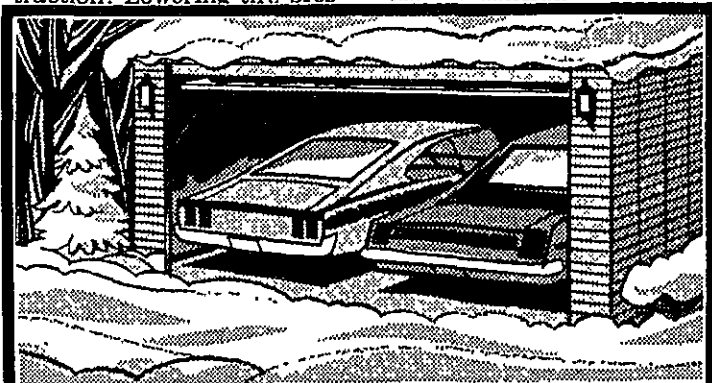

- Start with an "easy" foot on the accelerator and slip the clutch in second gear on cars with standard shift. Don't spin the wheels. You'll find that traction is greatest just before the wheels spin.

- If the wheels should spin, try rocking the car forward and backward. If you've dug yourself into a pocket, use sand or traction mats to get out. Keep the front wheels pointed straight ahead when possible.

- Once the car is under way, keep going.

Finally, AAA would like to put to rest one myth about traction: Lowering tire pressure does not increase traction. And it can result in a loss of control.

Untuned cars face winter starting woes

Tests certified by the United States Auto Club showed untuned cars had over twice the "won't starts" tuned cars had. Good reason for you to get our expert engine tune-up today.

Enjoy winter driving.

ST. JOHNS BAY SERVICE

1107 N. Clinton Ave. St. Johns 224-9969

An untuned car is starting trouble.

It's more than just a slogan.

Much more. Winter tests on motorists' cars showed that untuned cars had over twice the "won't starts" tuned cars had.

A major reason for this is worn spark plugs. They demand twice the voltage of plugs in good condition. And on a cold day, your battery supplies less voltage. When the supply can't meet the demand, your car won't start. No matter how hard you try.

So please consider our "slogan" and see your mechanic for his engine tune-up now—before trouble strikes. You'll enjoy dependable starts. Plus better acceleration and gas mileage. And reduced emissions, too.

Properly Aligned Wheels Add Miles to Tire Life

By CHUCK STROBERG

Chassis Product Manager, TRW Replacement Division

Just as there are timing and ignition gap settings that combine to provide a well-tuned, efficient engine, there are camber, caster, and "Toe" settings to maintain the operating quality of the chassis.

These are adjustable angles that must be maintained to provide a true running front end that will allow tires to give their maximum service life.

The camber angle is a measure of the tilt of the top of the front wheels to or away from the vehicle body. Ideally, for long tire life, the wheels should be close to a true vertical position when the car is in operation and at its stable riding height.

This prevents excessively high pressure on any portion of the tread where it meets the road that could cause unusual tire wear on one section of the tire surface.

Concerned with Steering

Caster is the alignment angle used to measure the forward or rearward tilt of the steering axis of the front wheels, when checking from the side view. Its effect on the vehicle is mainly concerned with steering and handling.

Only under very extreme condition can caster be a tire wear factor.

Other handling problems calling for front end service would occur before tire wear became a problem.

Of the three adjustable alignment angles "Toe" has the greatest effect on tire life. The "Toe" specification concerns the ability of the wheels to roll ahead freely without scuffing across the road surface.

The ability to hold the proper "Toe" setting is directly affected by the condition of the parts in the steering system. This chassis system which includes the idler and pitman arms, tie rod ends, and centerlinks, connects the two front wheels and has the job of transmitting the driver's directional desires to them.

Toe-settings

Although the parts in the steering system don't support a great deal of weight, they are subject to jarring, twisting, and turning forces that tend to wear them and create looseness. The change in the relationship of the parts to each other that is created by this wear can lead to variable or incorrect "Toe" settings that are a real hazard to tire life.

Maintaining the proper "Toe" and camber alignment in a vehicle is critical to obtaining the longest possible life from your tires, but alignment alone is not the whole story. Wheel bearing condition, tire inflation, shock absorbers, wheel balance, and driving habits, all have a big effect on tire life.

All these factors have to be considered, and corrections made when problems exist, before the wheel alignment can be really successful at helping prolong tire life.

It is important to remember that because the suspension systems are constantly changing due to parts wear and sag factors, alignment should be checked periodically. Be sure that the wheels are running straight and true; this is the way wheel alignment saves tires.

Know Correct Answers?

Do you know how often to have your engine tuned, how to start a flooded engine and what causes your engine to keep running after you've turned off the ignition? If you do, you're a pretty "with it" motorist. If you don't, you've got a lot of company.

Questions on tune-up, hard starting and after-run gave viewers the most difficulty in the recent National Automotive Trouble Quiz. The television quiz, produced by the Fram Corporation, was aired nationally and posed questions on car maintenance to the audience.

Three groups of drivers—driver ed students, their parents and members of the Sports Car Club of America—served as a cross-section of the motoring public in answering the quiz questions.

One question, "How often should you have your car tuned?" stumped more than half of the panelists. They failed to guess the correct answer which is, "Once a year for cars that travel an average of 12,000 miles."

On the question, "How do you start a flooded engine?" more than a quarter of the panelists failed to answer correctly. The right reply was, "Depress the accelerator all the way to the floor, hold it there and crank the engine until it clears itself and fires."

A third question, "What's wrong when the engine keeps running after it is shut off?" puzzled almost half of the panel members. They should have replied, "The trouble is dieseling, sometimes called engine run-on, and the services of a professional are needed to correct it."

Starring in the NATQ special were stage and TV comedienne Peggy Cass, comedian Louis Nye, race driver Peter Revson, and Dave Garroway, who served as moderator.

Belting System Check Can Forestall Emergency Repair

A cooling system tune-up doesn't take long—only about an hour and a half. And the cost is small compared to that of emergency service or major repairs.

In case your service station attendant or garage mechanic doesn't know about Tune-Up No. 2, ask him to check his flat-rate manual, or write to The Gates Rubber Company, 999 So. Broadway, Denver, Colorado 80217. Or, hand him this list of service points:

1. A visual check of coolant level for indication of leaks or excessive oil content.
2. Check with pressure tester for internal and external leaks.
3. Visual check of oil for water content.
4. Test thermostat for proper opening and closing.
5. Check of heater valves.
6. Check heat gauge for accuracy.
7. Drain and back flush cooling system.
8. Clean radiator core of bugs and check for clogging.
9. Clean engine if heavily covered with grease and oil.
10. Test radiator pressure cap.
11. Check radiator neck cap seat for nicks or scratches that could release pressure.

Squeal Calls for Attention

If your car has power steering and when you make a hard turn, you hear noises like the squeals of a wild banshee coming from somewhere under the hood, chances are pretty good you have a set of V-belts that are loose. And loose belts could also be the reason why your air-conditioner didn't cool up to par last summer—or why your generator or alternator isn't charging properly, or your engine is overheating.

Fan, water pump, power steering, air-conditioning, generator or alternator—all these are operated by V-belts.

And, to do their jobs efficiently, The Gates Rubber Company says these belts must be tensioned properly, to factory specifications.

Your service technician can provide this service.

You can easily check the belts yourself. With engine off and hood up, press down with your thumb on the belts midway between the pulleys. If there's more than just a little give, the belts are probably too loose. But, unless you have the proper equipment and are especially handy with tools, let your serviceman do the replacing.

12. Check water pump bearings.
13. Check fan blades and pulley for alignment and balance.
14. Inspect all hose and

- clamps for deterioration.
15. Check core plugs and drain cocks for leakage.
16. Refill system with coolant and check for airlocks.

17. Recheck entire system for leaks.
18. Check and adjust tension of V-belts.
19. Check and reset ignition timing to eliminate ping.

20. In cases where cooling system continues to overheat, check other possible causes.
21. Replace belts, hose, clamps, thermostat and cap as necessary.
