Brown, dad hurt in crash

St. Johns realtor Winchell Brown and his father, L. J. Brown of rural St. Johns, were injured early Sunday evening in a two-car collision on US-27 at Hyde Road in Greenbush Township.

The elder Brown is listed in critical condition and is under intensive care at Sparrow Hospital in Lansing where he has a broken leg, broken ribs and possible internal injuries. He was unconscious yet Tuesday.

Winchell Brown of 403 S. Baker Street is still confined to Clinton Memorial Hospital with bruises and possible broken bones. Hospital officials described his condition Tuesday as "good" and improving.

STATE POLICE said Brown was driving south on US-27 when his car collided with another attempting to cross the southbound lanes ahead of him. That car was driven by Rose Viola Nafziger, 63, of rural Archbold, Ohio.

The police report said Mrs. Nafziger approached the intersection from the west and stopped at the stop sign. They quoted her as saying she saw the approaching Brown vehicle but thought she had time to cross the southbound lane onto the median cross-over.

BROWN APPLIED the brakes to his southbound car and swerved to the left, but the car skidded sideways into the Nafziger auto. Mrs. Nafziger and her husband, Harry J. Nafziger, 67, were both taken to Clinton Memorial Hospital where they were treated and then released.

No traffic citations had been issued by state police yet Tuesday.

Driver ticketed

Michael R. Weirman, 16, of 410 Alward Road, DeWitt, was ticketed for having defective equipment after he said his brakes did not work properly and he hit the rear of an auto driven by Richard W. Leonard, 32, of Dimondale Saturday morning. The accident occurred on US-27 south of Parks Road. Leonard complained of pains as a result of the crash.

A mystery of Halloween

There's mystery to Halloween, and it comes in its purest form at the age of 2. For Jimmie Rogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogan of 704 E. McConnell, St. Johns, this is his first Halloween, for all intensive purposes. The jack-o-lantern was something new to him, and the mystery that surrounds it was a mixture of curiosity and fear. As all little boys do, Jimmie will learn a lot about Halloween during the coming week, and it won't be long, Mom and Dad, before he will be one of the mysteries of Halloween himself.

Citizens to make P-W study

PEWAMO - WESTPHALIA - A survey of the total school program in the Pewamo - Westphalia School District by a citizen's committee to be organized tonight (Thursday) at the high school.

"The board of education and those who work closely with the schools can see some problems cropping up in the immediate future," William Steinke, superintendent of schools, said last week. "Many of these problems need citizens' support for solution."

"THE TOTAL physical plant as it relates to future enrollments, curriculum and finance demands a thorough study," Steinke said.

There are 124 students enrolled in the kindergarten class this year, an increase of 32 over last year. The total school enrollment has increased from 417 students in 1961-62 to 601 students this year. General fund expenditures in 1961-62 amounted to $168,661, compared to a budget of $279,060 this year.

Proposed changes in accreditation standards by the Bureau of School Services in secondary schools relates to the physical plant which is already overcrowded, Steinke said.

All citizens of the P-W School District are urged to attend the meeting tonight.

Hit-run car creases auto

A hit-run driver is being hunted by sheriff's officers after creasing the side of another auto on DeWitt Road early Saturday morning.

According to the sheriff's report, an auto driven by Douglas Michels, 19, of 700 W. State Street, St. Johns, and carrying five passengers, was rounding a curve on DeWitt Road at Jason Road when the accident occurred. Another car, described as a 1962 Plymouth, came from the south and took the curve on the wrong side of the road.

The other car scraped down the left side of Michels' car from the door to the rear tail light. After first slowing down, the other car left the scene. No one was injured.

Preliminary findings in an urban renewal study during the last year and half will be presented to the St. Johns City Commission next Tuesday evening, Nov. 1.

The presentation will be made at the regular commission meeting, which starts at 7:30 p.m. in the commission chambers in the basement of the municipal building.

The commission is expected to approve making an application to the Housing and Urban Development Agency for federal funds for an urban renewal project, but it could be six months yet before they make a final decision on whether or not to go ahead.

IN SHORT, IT will be about six months before any final decision is made, according to the city.

Next Tuesday's presentation of material will be to back up the urban renewal project objectives: "Remove structurally substandard and obsolete buildings in area."

"Establish a homogenous business land use pattern by assisting the development of central business land uses and related facilities and removing non-conforming land uses."

"Strengthen the economic and employment base of the city and arrest the economic decline of the business area by providing for new commercial and office development."

"PROMOTE THE rehabilitation of basically sound structures and establish a unified appearance and competitive position of structures to remain."

"Provide adequate off-street parking to serve the business area and reduce traffic congestion by providing efficient movement of local traffic."

"Provide all necessary improvements to streets, sidewalks, walkways and utilities to adequately service, increase the safety and improve the appearance of the downtown area."

Curb-gutter assessment roll OK'd after change in resolution wording

A score of people showed up last Tuesday night for a public hearing before the St. Johns City Commission concerning the curb and gutter assessment roll. The roll—with $2 a foot being assessed for curb and gutter—was approved.

The reading of the confirming resolution had to be made twice, with a change of wording in effect the second time. Members of the audience, and Mayor Jack Smit, objected that the wording on payment of the assessment in installments was misleading. ORIGINALLY, and in past resolutions pertaining to special assessment rolls, the wording was to the effect that property owners could split their assessment into three yearly installments, and then the due dates for each installment were given.

But, according to the dates given—and the same applied to past resolutions—only two years was allowed. According to city ordinance the assessment is due upon confirmation of the ordinance, with a 90-day "grace" period in effect.

If a person were paying his assessment in installments, the first installment would be due immediately and payable within 90 days. The second installment would come due next July and the third in July 1968. Mayor Smit and others pointed out that, even with the grace period, the final installment would have to be paid in less than two years.

SO AS NOT TO CONFUSE the public on this score, the wording of the resolution was changed and now reads that payment may be made "in three installments." The final installment is still due in 1968. Rate of interest on the installments is 6 per cent per year on the unpaid balance.

The audience, unlike many previous meetings, stayed on even after the assessment roll hearing was over, and later they got a chance to sound off about various problems including water leaks and why no driveway openings were left at some places during curb and gutter construction.

The sounding off opportunity came during a lull in the business of deciding on bids for a new dump truck for the city. The meeting was recessed while specifications on one of the truck bids were checked out.

Hettler Motor Sales was the low bidder and was awarded the contract on a bid of $5,440. Other bidders and their net amount, after trade, were Egan Ford Sales $6,282.02, Bee's Chevrolet-Olds $6,858.27, and Oliver Montague $6,485.

THE COMMISSION also accepted the low bid of Egan Ford Sales for $7,736 for a three-quarter ton pickup truck.

Both trucks will replace present ones being "retired" according to a city mobile equipment schedule.

The city planning commission has passed a resolution removing the parcel of land at the city park being sought by the St. Johns Public Schools from the city master plan. The city commission, however, did not act on a proposal to sell the approximately six-acre site to the school until they hear a report on an appraisal of the land.

The planners recommended that if the property is sold outright to the school the proceeds be used to purchase more park or recreational land.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, the city commission confirmed the appointment of 12 persons as precinct election inspectors for the Nov. 8 elections. They are:

Precinct 1: Ladd Bartholomew, Mrs. Alberta Cornwell, Mrs. Marjorie Cowan, Mrs. Ellen Devoreaux, Mrs. Mary Meyer and Miss Carmen Tranchell.

Precinct 2: Don Britten, Mrs. Elma Parr, Mrs. Helen Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mrs. Doris King and Mrs. Ruth B. Sirrine.

Rules for the 1966 residential Christmas lighting contest were announced last week by the St. Johns Chamber of Commerce and Jaycees, who will co-sponsor the contest.

This year's event will be the first since the Christmas of 1964 and will be marked by several prize and rules changes.

The contest will be conducted in two categories—best religious outdoor display and best non-religious displays—with $50 in cash being awarded for the best three displays in each of the two categories.

TOP PRIZES in each category will be $25, while second and third-place displays in each will receive $15 and $10 respectively. Judging will be done by three out-of-town judges.

Residents desiring to participate in the contest must send entry blanks to the Chamber of Commerce office before Dec. 10 so judges will have time to look over all the displays. Entry blanks will be available at the C of C office (above Parr's), Parr's Drug Store, Sears, Eberhard's, Central National Bank, Glasple Drug Store, Lake's Jewelry, Andy's IGA, Clinton National Bank and Capitol Savings and Loan Assn.

The contest will be open only to residents within the city limits of St. Johns. Entrants must leave their outdoor display lights on from 6 to 10:30 p.m. between Dec. 15 and Dec. 20, during which time judging will take place. The decisions of the impartial out-of-town judges will be final.

JUDGING WILL be done on the basis of theme, originality in carrying out theme, effective use of outdoor lighting, use of materials and their adaptation to the display, and overall effect of display and lighting. Cash prizes will be awarded and winners announced on Friday, Dec. 23.

Jaycees' park plan gets village's OK

FOWLER — The village council has accepted general plans for a village park proposal being undertaken by the Fowler Jaycees. Project chairman Phil Macunovich told the Jaycees last Thursday night his committee will start surveying the grounds this fall.

The major transformation of the village square into a park will be started early next spring.

Another JAYCEE project in the process is a kids Halloween party scheduled for Monday night at Holy Trinity School Hall in Fowler. Cartoons will be shown, games will be played and prizes and candy will be given away. Carl Koenigsnecht is chairman of the project.

New projects being undertaken by the Fowler Jaycees include: Junior bowling will again be sponsored by the Fowler Jaycees, and $27.00 covering their sanction fees was given to the junior bowling program chairman at Fowler Bowl lanes.

The United Fund drive for Fowler will be undertaken by the Fowler Jaycees and chaired by John Rademacher.

A Fowler area Christmas house decorating contest will again be sponsored by the Fowler Jaycees, and Mary Fox will chair the project. Rules and entry instructions will be released in November.

Project Santa Claus will bring Santa to Fowler again this year, and Jaycee chairmen Bob Cole and Dennis Armbrustmacher are contacting Santa at the North Pole to be sure he visits Fowler.

A NEW YEARS eve dance is on the schedule of projects this year and will be chaired by Paul Ulrich and Jerry Spitzley.

The Fowler Jaycees are in the process of starting an auxiliary. Any Jaycee wives interested should contact Mrs. Joyce Wohlfert or Mrs. Sharon Becker.

The state and local directors of the Fowler Jaycees will be responsible for having a Jaycee represented at the village council meetings and the Fowler school board meetings.

Mark Wilgen was appointed the new community development chairman and Bob Halfmann was appointed the chairman of the Fowler Jaycees by President Francis Schaefer.

A chapter orientation meeting will follow the Nov. 17 membership meeting. This orientation will be for old and new members.

New members since August are Bob Cole, Dave Cole, Mary Fox and Mark Myers.

WRAP-UP REPORTS were given at the Oct. 20 meeting on three other projects.

Thirty-seven area men took a bus to the Detroit Lions and St. Louis Cardinals game Oct. 9. Chairman Clark Becker reported a $35 profit on this project.

Little League baseball wound up another successful season under chairman Bill Braun. Miller's Snack Bar won the league and all the boys were treated to a Detroit Tigers baseball game at Detroit. Punt, Pass and Kick was also chaired by Braun. A practice session was held at the Fowler athletic field and boys were taken to St. Johns for competition and awards.

Hospital volunteers invaluable

Patients in hospitals throughout the country see ladies bringing flowers, gifts, and mail to their rooms, see ladies adding the nurses and clerical staff, see ladies working at reception desks and running errands, and never wonder who they are or if this is their regular job.

They are taken for granted, receive no fanfare or special attention, work each day including holidays and week-ends. But this is not their regular job, and the only benefits they receive are deep feeling of personal satisfaction for having contributed a service to the hospital and its patients.

They are Red Cross volunteers.

IN ST. JOHNS over 25 service-minded ladies work as American Red Cross volunteers each month in the Clinton Memorial Hospital. They are under the direction of Mrs. Cecil Boak, unit chairman, and Mrs. Oral Rice, unit co-chairman. In their work, these ladies have more direct patient contacts than is allowed in many other hospitals. In addition to the long hours they spend in their hospital duties, many of these ladies are also active in blood recruitment and work on the bloodmobiles.

To become American Red Cross volunteer hospital workers, the ladies took a six-hour Red Cross basic training course, additional skill training, on-the-job training, and training from the hospital. They were then ready to join the ranks of the 602 hospital volunteers in the area of the Mid-Michigan Chapter of the American Red Cross, which serves 14 hospitals, clinics, and nursing homes.

THE VOLUNTEERS ARE grouped in units according to the hospital in which they serve. Each hospital unit is represented in the regional office of volunteers, which provides the training, recognition, and guidance of the volunteers.

Under the direction of the American Red Cross, these ladies, forming a part of the total 119,000 Red Cross volunteers in hospitals throughout the country, provide an invaluable service to the hospitals and their communities.

Eagles relapse, but keep unbeaten mark

By Lowell G. Rinker

FOWLER — The Fowler Eagles suffered their first big relapse of the football season Friday night but had enough steam in reserve to take a 20-7 victory from Portland St. Patrick's.

The Eagles thus remain unbeaten and are running neck and neck with Bath as co-leaders in the Central Michigan Athletic Conference. Both teams have 5-0 league records.

Fowler's relapse came in the second half of the game with St. Pat's during which time they failed to score a point or even come close to scoring. But during the first half the Eagles scored three times, with fullback Ron Brown running two over and throwing a pass to Mike Nobach for the other.

FOWLER GAINED a total of 213 yards rushing and passing during the first half but could get only 84 in the second half. At the same time the Fowler defense allowed St. Patrick's 169 yards in the second half compared to only 94 in the first.

St. Pat's got its lone touchdown on the last play of the game after striking quickly against Fowler reserves. Starting on their own 41, St. Pat's Terry Morrison carried five straight times to the Fowler 2; one time he went 34 yards and another time 9. Morrison got the TD.

But Fowler's first half had put them out of danger. They covered 80 yards in two plays for their first touchdown the second time they had the ball in the first quarter. Taking over on their own 20 after a St. Patrick's field goal fell short, the Eagles gave the ball to Ron Brown, and on the first play he threaded his way through the line and then broke down the sidelines for 75 yards before being pushed out of bounds on the five yard line.

HE FOUGHT HIS way into the end zone on the next play, and Fowler led 6-0. Bruce Thelen made it 7-0 with his placekick, which hit the right upright and then caromed through.

Beginning again on their own 25, with a St. Patrick's punt,

Fowler picked up three first downs, including one on a 20-yard run by Brown, and got as far as the Shamrock's 25. They were set back to the 30, however, and Thelen attempted a field goal but was wide with it.

The Shamrocks were forced to punt into the wind after making no headway and Fowler got the ball on the St. Pat's 40. Then on a pitchout and pass, Brown threw long to Nobach who gathered it in over his head and outran his pursuers the final 10 yards for a touchdown. Thelen's extra point kick was good.

FOWLER'S FINAL touchdown came after St. Patrick's fumbled the ball on their own 25 and the Eagles recovered. Neal Thelen got the key yardage in this touchdown drive — a 17-yard run to the two yard line. Brown bulled over for the TD on his second try. Thelen's extra point kick was blocked.

St. Pat's threatened twice in the closing minutes of the half, once reaching the Fowler 27 before fumbling and again getting to the 28 before time ran out in the half.

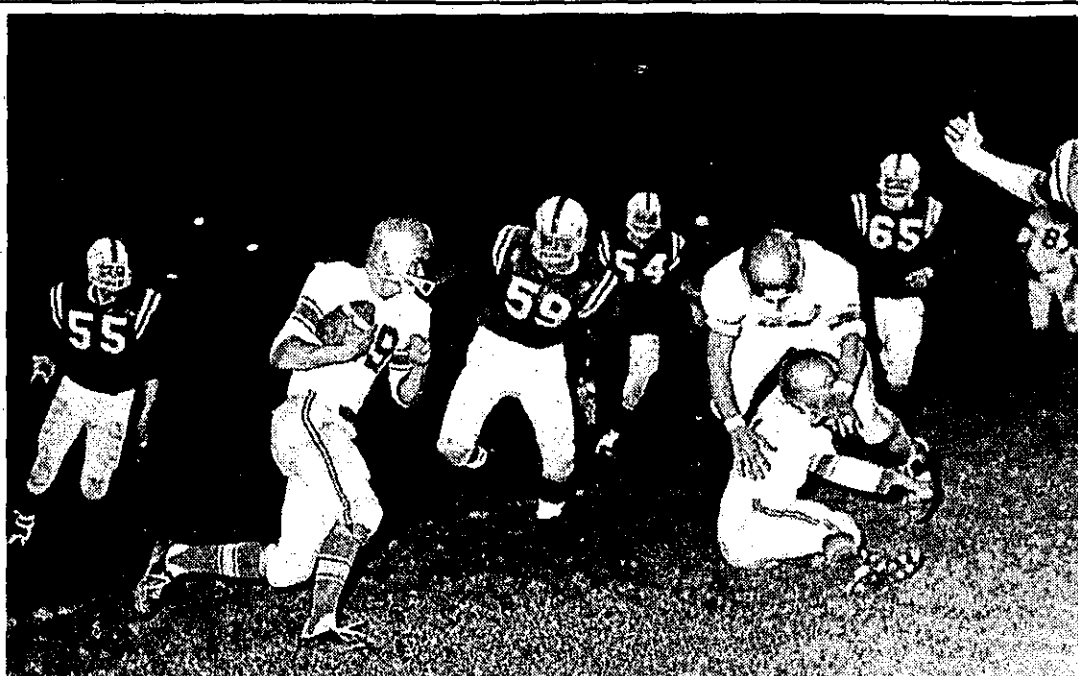

Most of the second half was played in St. Patrick's territory, but Fowler could get no farther than the 27. St. Patrick's got to the Fowler 23 in the third period and 28 in the fourth quarter before finally getting into the end zone on the last play of the game.

THE SHAMROCKS had 12 first downs to Fowler's 11. Brown picked up a total of 158 yards rushing in 16 carries, while Neal Thelen gained 75 yards in 14 carries. Bruce Thelen, Brown, Brendon Goerge and Ralph Pung got commendation from Coach H. Blaine Douglas for outstanding defensive games.

The Fowler JV squad, still undefeated, beat St. Patrick's JVs 24-0 Thursday.

Fowler's Ken Weber hauls in a pass from George Goerge for seven yards Friday night and at the same time checks converging St. Patrick's tacklers in an effort to find a "way out." The St. Pat's player at left and Steve Wilcox (26) made the stop a foot short of a Fowler first down. Other Fowler players identifiable are Brendon Goerge (30), Stan Pohl (70) and Bruce Thelen (64).

Randy Van Sickle (19) of Fulton picked up 13 yards on this play against Saranac Friday night, but it was nullified by a holding penalty. Saranac players giving chase are Joe Stuck (55), Dan Sparks (59), Cliff Grieves (54), Howard Courtney (65) and Rick Perry (51). Fulton won the game 19-7.

Stubborn Fulton defense holds stubborn Saranac

MIDDLETON — A stout Fulton defense held off a determined band of Saranac Redskins Friday night to aid the Pirates in a 19-7 Tri-Central victory that kept them in contention for the league title.

The defense set up one of Fulton's touchdowns when Don Loud-enbeck blocked a punt in the third period, and then they twice stopped Saranac thrusts at the goal line in the fourth quarter before finally yielding a touchdown.

Randy VanSickle scored two of Fulton's TDs on runs of 11 and three yards, and Dick Zamarron scored the other on a dash of 37 yards early in the second period.

THE FIRST TD WAS set up by a bad pass from center on a fourth-down punt attempt by Saranac on its first series of plays. Fulton got the ball on the Saranac 23 yard line. VanSickle promptly went to the 3, but a penalty nullified the run and set the ball back to the 38. Three plays later VanSickle broke away to the 13 yard line for a first down. Terry Proko carried to the 11 and then VanSickle went the rest of the way for a touchdown. His extra point kick was no good.

After Fulton got the ball back on the a fumble and gave it back to Saranac on a pass interception, play settled down. Saranac was forced to punt, and after Fulton got it on the Saranac 48, they went to work on another touchdown drive. It took only five plays, with Zamarron going the last 37 yards for the TD.

It's easy for outsiders to criticize those on the inside.

VanSickle's kick for the extra point was good.

THAT ENDED THE scoring for the first half, but not the excitement. Saranac brought the crowd to its feet with a 22-yard pass play from Crain Adgate to Joe Stuart, and then when Fulton got the ball back Zamarron broke loose on another long run, this one for 23 yards to the Saranac 42.

Proko started the second half fireworks with a 10-yard run and VanSickle ran 10 as the Pirates threatened the Saranac goal again. But Fulton fumbled on the Redskins' 13 yard line and Saranac recovered. They moved out as far as the 30, but then Loud-enbeck blocked a Saranac punt and Fulton recovered on the Saranac 11.

VanSickle went to the 6 on one play, Proko made it to the 3 and then VanSickle went in for the extra point.

AN INCENSED Saranac team then went to work in a determined fashion, but it took three big rushes at the goal to crack the Pirate defense. On the first series of plays, Saranac's Bob Davis and Roger Butcher peeled off runs of 15 and 22 yards in one-two fashion, but Gary Yaw fumbled when he reached the 2 yard line, and Fulton recovered.

They punted out of danger from the one-foot-line, and Saranac came huffing back, this time from the Fulton 37. Davis ran 14 yards to the 12. A few plays and a Fulton penalty put the ball on the 8. Saranac lost seven yards on a fumble and then finally the ball on downs at the 4.

FULTON KICKED AGAIN on third down, and then Davis erupted again. He caught a pass for 15 yards and ran for 11 yards to the Fulton 13. Adgate then connected with Dennis Bowen for 13 yards and a TD. Fulton's Jeff Gray blocked the extra point try, but Saranac got another chance on a Fulton penalty, and this time Joe Stuck ran it in for the extra point.

Saranac made another scoring effort after recovering a Fulton fumble at mid-field. David ran 16 yards to the Fulton 36, and then Adgate passed to Dan Sparks who carried to the 3 yard line before fumbling the ball back to Fulton as the game ended.

Redwings gun down Orioles 59-19 as Boyce, Humphrey roll

By Steven Hopko

COACH BILL SMILEY'S Redwings met the challenge of Charlotte, the number two team in the West Central League, Friday as Gary Boyce and Randy Humphrey led Smiley's 'Wings to a 59-19 victory.

The victory clinched at least a tie for the league championship. St. Johns with a 5-0 record in league play (6-0 overall) has two league games to play. Lakewood this Friday and Ionia a week hence. They close out the season against Ovid-Elsie in a non-league game the following week.

BOYCE AND HUMPHREY teamed up to gain 440 yards between them as seven St. Johns backs rolled up a net total of 515 yards rushing. Norm Love completed six of thirteen passes for 41 yards to give the Redwings a net total of 556 yards for the evening.

Boyce, who carried 12 times, rolled up 225 yards. His longest was a 98 yard touchdown run. Humphrey carried 10 times for 215 yards with his longest being a 62 yard touchdown play.

BOYCE AND HUMPHREY each scored three times and Boyce kicked five extra points. Boyce now has 118 points for the first six games on 16 touchdowns and 22 extra points. Humphrey has 48 points of six TD's.

Boyce also caught three passes for 17 yards. For the season St. Johns has completed 35 passes. Boyce and Humphrey have caught 18 for 243 yards. Boyce getting 11 for 130 yards and Humphrey getting 7 for 73 yards.

FOR THE FIRST six games, Boyce has carried the ball 70 times for 817 yards. This is 11.7 yards per carry. Humphrey has carried 35 times this season for 524 yards, a 9.5 yard average.

Both Boyce and Humphrey's individual rushing efforts were more than the entire Charlotte team could gain. The Orioles had a net rushing total of 165 yards.

Charlotte quarterback, Jon Whitely, completed five of twelve passes for 105 yards.

THIS COMBINED with the 165 on the ground gave Charlotte a combined total of 271 yards gained. This is the most yardage any team has gained against the Redwings this year.

The score Friday, belies the fact that this was a rough ball game for the Redwings. Although the Redwings scored five times in the first half, twice the Orioles stopped them deep in Charlotte territory.

ST. JOHNS SCORED twice in the first seven minutes of the game. Charlotte received to start the game, and on the first play, quarterback Jon Whitely fumbled and John Salemi recovered for the Redwings on the Oriole 21. On the first play, Boyce hit his right end and went 21 yards to score. He kicked the extra point and St. Johns led 7-0.

The next time St. Johns had the ball, the Oriole defense held and the Redwings had to give up the ball on the Charlotte 29. After three plays had gained one yard, Charlotte punted and St. Johns took over on the Charlotte 49. On the first play, Humphrey hit right end on a reverse and went 49 yards to score. Boyce kicked the extra point to make it 14-0.

LATE IN THE first quarter St. Johns drove to the Charlotte 19 where they were stopped and the Orioles took over. After an incomplete pass, Whitely stepped back and fired another pass. This went to Dave Green who scampered 71 yards to score for the Orioles. Eric Wilmore's kick was wide and St. Johns led 14-6.

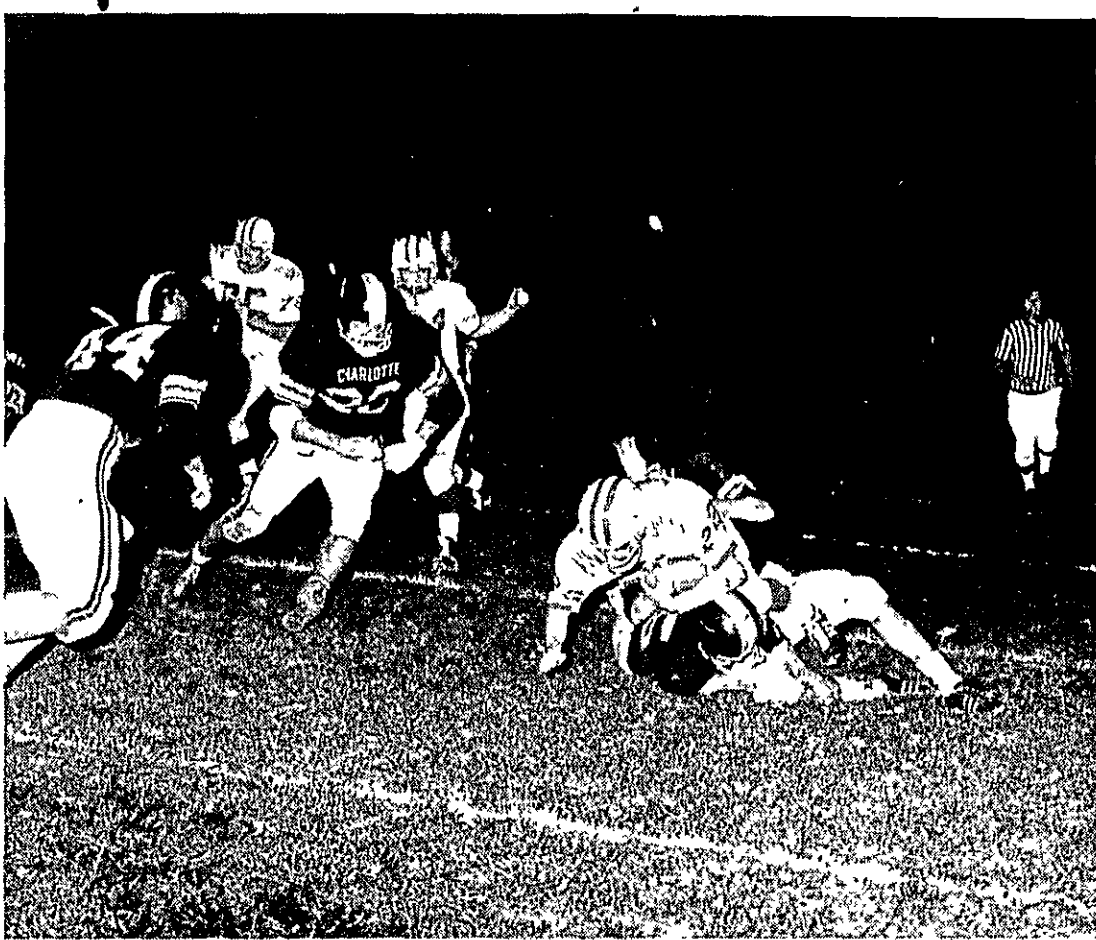

St. Johns came right back as Humphrey returned the kickoff 17 yards to his own 32. With a fourth and two on their own 41, Humphrey took a pitchout from Love and went around left end for 62 yards to score. Boyce's try for the extra point was blocked and St. Johns led 20-6.

BOYCE SET UP the next score when he intercepted a Whitely pass. He lateraled to Salemi who returned in 22 yards to his own 43. Nine plays later, Boyce hit right end for the last four yards and a TD. Boyce's pass to Green for the extra point was incomplete.

St. Johns' Gary Boyce is hauled down after a sweep around left end against Charlotte Friday night. Bob Harvey (44) and Vaughn Rawson (22) of Charlotte move up to insure the stop.

ed as St. Johns led 26-0. Boyce again set up the next score as he intercepted a Whitely pass a yard into his own endzone and returned it 84 yards to the Charlotte 17. After Boyce had picked up 10, around right end, Love hit Don Palmer in the endzone for a seven yard TD pass. Boyce's pass for the extra point was incomplete and St. Johns led 32-6.

ON THE THIRD play of the second half, Wilmore of Charlotte intercepted a Love pass on the St. Johns 35 and returned it to the St. Johns five. Charlotte tried the middle of the line four times, but the St. Johns defensive line held and the Redwings took over on their own two yard line.

On the first play, Boyce broke over right tackle, cut left and took off down the side lines. With Humphrey tailing him, warding off tacklers, Boyce went 98 yards to score. His kick was wide and St. Johns led 38-6.

AFTER AN 81 YARD punt into the St. Johns endzone, the Redwings took over on their own 20. On the fourth play Humphrey went over left tackle, cut right and went the last 54 yards to score. Boyce's kick was good to make it 45-6.

Charlotte scored on the first play of the fourth quarter when Mike Snyder climaxed a 49 yard drive by diving over center for the last yard. Flemmings pass for the extra point was incomplete and St. Johns led 45-12.

ST. JOHNS WAS penalized 15 yards on the kickoff return and took over on their own 12. On the first play Dave Howe fumbled and Charlotte recovered on the St. Johns eight. Charlotte scored with Whitely going the last yard on a quarterback sneak. Craig Olmsted's kick was good and the score stood at 45-19 with 11 minutes remaining in the game.

A short time later, Tim Spitzley recovered an Oriole fumble on the Charlotte 44. But on the second play, Mike Green fumbled and Charlotte recovered on their own 40.

THE ORIOLES DROVE to the Redwing 12 where Lance Rochester fumbled and Craig Knight picked up the ball and returned it 51 yards to the Oriole 35. On the third play Howe circled left end for 30 yards and a TD. Boyce's kick was good and the score stood 52-19.

Charlotte took the following kickoff on their 20. On a fourth and six, Olmsted went back to punt, was rushed, and Fred Moore blocked the punt. Dave Peck picked up the ball and went 15 yards to score. Boyce's kick was good to make the final score 59-19.

THE 59 POINTS SCORED by the Redwings was the highest that the Charlotte defense had allowed this year. Up until they met St. Johns the most points scored against the Oriole defense had been 21 points.

But fine blocking by the St. Johns offensive line, led by center Rick Liszewski, makes the running of Boyce, Humphrey, Green and Love look very easy as any well executed play does.

Football contestant 'perfect'

Carl Koeningknecht of 410-N Elm Street, Fowler, was perfect in his selection of winners on last week's football contest, but judges had to go to the tie-breaker before declaring him a winner.

Three persons missed not a one last week; it was the first time in at least three years a "perfect" paper has been entered. Koeningknecht listed a tie-breaker score of 38 points, and although it was 23 points shy of the actual total score of the Purdue-MSU game it was closer than the other two.

Sandra Meredith of 240 E. Clinton, Ovid, had 24 for her tie-breaker, and Russell Gintner of 209 W. Maple, Elsie, had 30 points for tie-breaker. Both had perfect scores on the main part

Bath, with eye on Fowler, beats DeWitt

DeWITT — All eyes of Central Michigan Athletic Conference fans are slyly looking two weeks ahead to what is shaping up as a showdown game between the Fowler Eagles and the Bath Bees.

So was Bath as they rolled over scoreless DeWitt 33-0 to keep pace with the Eagles.

Coach Ron Skorich's Bees displayed some balanced scoring, with five boys sharing in the touchdowns. Bruce Miller caught a 35-yard scoring pass from Mike Tucker for the first of Bath's touchdowns, and before the half was over Mike scored on a 16-yard run on a quarterback option play. Dan Tucker skipped five yards for a touchdown and Warren Baird romped 48 yards for a TD. Bath left the field at halftime leading 27-0.

Randy Tucker got Bath's second-half touchdown on a seven-yard run. Elias David scampered 43 yards on another play, but that score was nullified by a clipping penalty.

DeWITT MADE three serious threats for their first touchdown of the year. Twice they moved to the Bath four yard line and once to the 13 — all in the second half — but the Bath defense always stiffened up and held. Jeff Geisenhaver was the mainstay for Bath, getting credit on 22 tackles.

Out of the title race but still playing to win, Pewamo-Westphalia got two touchdowns from Jim Bengel and one each from Ken May and Stan Fedewa as the Pirates dumped Webberville 24-13.

Bengel's touchdowns were on runs of 26 and 27 yards. May ran for one score from 25 yards out and connected with Fedewa on a 60-yard TD pass play. Bengel had two pass interceptions in a defensive cause.

WEBBERVILLE GOT its two touchdowns on passes from John Swain.

Down at Potterville, the Laingsburg Wolfpack fell to the Vikings 27-0. Quarterback Mike Heinze passed for three of Pot-

Elsie

By MRS. NEVA KEYS, Correspondent

Pair wed at Methodist Parsonage Oct. 15

ELSIE—The new Mr and Mrs Rodney Ginter have returned from their honeymoon in the North. The couple was married in the Methodist parsonage, Saturday night, Oct. 15 with the immediate families present. The Rev. Gordon Showers performed the wedding ceremony.

Mrs. Ginter is the former Barbara Miller, daughter of Mr and Mrs Alfred Miller and the groom's parents are Mr and Mrs Merle Ginter, of Elsie.

Mrs. Herman Kaufman was her sister's matron of honor and Richard Miller, brother of the bride served as best man.

THE BRIDE WORE a blue wool suit and carried an arrangement of carnations centered by a gardenia which she later wore as a corsage. She also wore a strand of pearls from Mrs. Rosa Hernandez, a friend of the family, who said that in her native Puerto Rico, they were considered good luck. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Alfred Miller. The guests included the grandparents of the newlyweds, Mrs. Daisy Bashore and Mrs. Edith Miller of Elsie and Mrs. Ruth Austin and Mr and Mrs Harry Ginter of Lansingburg. Others were: Mr and Mrs Orlo Mead Sr., Mr and Mrs Donald Lidle, Mr and Mrs Clarence Geiger, Mr and Mrs Robert Ginter, Mr and Mrs Ronald Ginter and Mr and Mrs Russell Ginter.

THE SERVING TABLE was centered with a two tiered white wedding cake made by Mrs. Myron Tethal. It was decorated with sugar wedding bells. It was cut by Mrs. Clarence Geiger and the groom's cake by Mrs. Donald Lidle. The table was laid with cutwork cover brought from Spain and also provided by Mrs. Hernandez.

The bride is employed in the Horticulture Department at MSU while the groom is employed at Oldsmobile. They are now residing in Lansing.

Literary club sees fall fashions

ELSIE—Colorful travel posters formed an attractive background for the Woman's Literary Club fall style show "Traveling in the Fall" presented Tuesday evening in the Knight Elementary School.

Sixteen people modeled some 30 fashions from Dancers Department Store in Elsie, operated by Spencer and Neita Blackford. The Blackfords assisted Mrs. Lawrence Hess and Mrs. Jack Hawes, co-chairmen, in arranging the style show and selecting the outfits.

THE FIRST GROUP of fashions were nightwear from children's cotton flannel pajamas to the teen-age "granny" gown with matching hat. Wendy Stauffer, Kella Carter, Elaine Bloomer and Pamela Loznak served as models.

Western styles, levis, sweaters, skirts, toppers and corduroys in the new washable Sta-Prest materials, waterproof and stain-resistant. These styles were modeled by Barry Moore, Janelle Price, Jay and Wendy Stauffer, Lisa and Kirk Baese, Kella Carter and Kathy West.

Teen fashions were shown by junior and senior high school students, Elaine and Dottie Bloomer, Pamela Loznak and David Showers. Included were ski outfits, jackets and Mod caps, sweaters and skirts, reversible coats, hoods and purses.

THE FINAL GROUP of styles was modeled by Mrs. Ward Lewis, Mrs. Lunsford Melvin, Mrs. Donald Cook and Mrs. Loyal Hinkley. Dresses in paisley, cotton prints, wools, plaids and coats for rain and cold weather. Colors this fall vary from the new shades of plum and grape to the ever basic navy blues, according to Mrs. Hess who served as emcee of the show. Bronze and gold add zest and beauty while shades of green and brown complete the picture of autumn colors, she added. Black and white, always important, were also included in the fashions displayed.

Styles were simple with emphasis on materials of various textures and patterns. Paisleys and the small flower prints were out in front, while the textures varied from pines and corduroy to hosiery in wash and wear fabrics, a great time-saver for the busy housewife. Recorded music added to the parade of fashions.

Pamela Loznak and Dottie Bloomer danced two polkas in costume prior to the show and followed it by novelty and "go-go" numbers.

PRESIDENT MRS. Durward Conklin welcomed the members and their guests and opened the meeting with the Club Collect. Mrs. Keith Wright, president of the Clinton County Federation and Mrs. Edgar Walker, president of the Maple Rapids Sorosis Club, were special guests.

Tickets were distributed to the members by Mrs. Harold Heldeman, chairman of the Library Benefit to be held, Nov. 1, at the Knight Elementary School.

To build training center for women

Nov. 4 at 1:30 p.m. at the Bingham EUB Church the United Church Women will meet. Ray C. Hotchkiss from Lansing probate court will talk about poverty. DeWitt churches are in charge of the program.

This year there are two major projects for which the world community offering will be used: one, to build a women's training center in the highlands of New Guinea and two, a project to promote family planning in India.

The highlands in the Kundiwa, Pari District, are made up of hundreds of self-isolated narrow valleys. In the past the people have had little communication with each other and often language and customs vary sharply from one valley to another. The Australian trusteeship is bringing the outside world to highlands by means of road building, radio and new schools.

New Guinea is one of the three remaining trusteeship territories and is being pushed toward independence. The indigenous people in the isolated highlands are far from ready for this responsibility. Under the laws of the territory, women have equal rights but unless they are given opportunities for training and education, they will be left behind. The women's training center is a means of closing the gap.

Construction is already begun. The center will include a staff residence of 10 or 12 round-houses as living quarters for students a washhouse and water-filtration system, dining and kitchen space and a lecture hall.

The Australian Trusteeship Administration who will staff and equip the center is considering erecting a community recreation center to add to the complex. World Community Dayfunds will further be used to provide scholarships to bring New Guinean women to the center. The plans have been worked out with the section on the status of women of the United Nations and its secretariat will see to it that the Australian government carries out the implementation of this project.

Radiant Chapter officers were installed Saturday evening. Worthy matron and worthy patron Kathryn and John Williams, returned to their offices in the East for the second year. Associate matron and associate patron are Virginia and Charles Zigler. Conductress is Elizabeth Henry and Jeanne De Vore, associate conductress. Chaplain for the year is Violet Pope. Neva Pope will be the organist.

To guard the doors as warder and sentinel respectively are Frank Coykendall and Gerald Pope.

The Star points are Adah, DeLores Cartwright; Ruth, Beatrice Cornell; Esther, Imogene Heuer; Martha, Arlene Hoag and Electa, Betty Burk.

ON THE INSTALLING staff were installing officer, Marguerite Crampston; installing marshal, Esther Bradley; installing chaplain, Helen Hoag; installing organist, Evelyn Jones of DeWitt and soloist, Gordon Vandemark. An honor guard was formed consisting of Jamie Bar-gar, Linda DeVore, Martha Jean Locher, Nancy Annlicher, Linda Lumbert and Judith Ripple all from Rainbow Assembly number 21 of St. Johns.

Road Commission Weekly Report

No decision has been made on the bids received last week for a new asphalt distributor and a new motor grader. There were four bids received on the truck to be used as carrier for the distributor. Bee's Chevrolet Oldsmobile was the low bidder and was awarded the contract.

Four bids were received on the distributor, and seven companies bid on 10 models of motor grader.

THE BOARD did vote to purchase two more mobile radio units bringing our fleet total to 24. Also ordered was a new trailer mounted highway barricade flasher. This warning device is strongly recommended by the state highway maintenance people and is in use by many contractors, utilities and state crews. It is very difficult to slow down today's high-speed traffic and when crews work on State trunklines or main county roads, warnings are needed for their protection.

The commission approved final plans of two new subdivisions, one in Bath Township and one in DeWitt.

THE BOARD discussed the new labor contract, proposed by Local 704 of AFSCME. Negotiations are to start at a special commission meeting Oct. 31.

The new bridge across the Maple River on Island Road near Elsie is now being used. Final completion and official opening dates have not been set.

DON EWING Road Clerk

MSU FIELD TRIP

The Sherwood School field trip held Oct. 12 was successful. First, we visited the Dairy Building at MSU and saw workers putting milk in the cartons. The sales manager told us that they are self-supporting; that means that we pay no taxes to support it.

Then, we went to the MSU Museum, and saw many things that were "old and new."

At the MSU horse barns we saw an Arabian and quarter horse stallion. There were three foals in a meadow and one sold for $1,000 at three weeks. There was one quarter horse, 10 years old, that was given to MSU free, because the King Ranch in Texas didn't believe in white stockings.

We ate lunch near the horse barns.

The last of our field trip was at McDonald's. Everyone had money to buy anything they wanted for dessert.

THE MOTHER'S Club school auction netted over $50. Mrs. Carroll Clark was our auctioneer. We held it on Monday, Oct. 17, at 7:30 p.m.

The following mothers volunteered to act on the "Sunshine Committee" for the rest of the year: Mrs. Melvin Weber, Mrs. Ernest Ashbaugh and Mrs. Bernard Jorae. These ladies will work with Mrs. Guy Snyder, treasurer of the Mothers Club, on this project.

Pictures were taken Wednesday, Oct. 19. The pictures will be colored this year.

Mrs. John Clark, received a broken arm and cuts in a car accident last Wednesday night on the way home from Detroit.

Clarence Burk has been ill and just returned home from the hospital.

William Bellingar, Sr., has also been in the hospital with pneumonia.

WONDERING ABOUT ADVERTISING?

Here Are Some Facts To Consider!

ADVERTISING VALUE

The true value of advertising lies not always in the actual offering of merchandise for sale, but in a subtler manner . . . the keeping before the public eye the name of your place of business and the names of the products you carry.

The average consumer of the articles you sell, when he has no immediate need of those articles, does not buy. But the constant association of yourself and those articles in persistent advertising in the Clinton County News will in time produce results.

Mr. Merchant:

1. Your advertising message in the Clinton County News goes into more homes in Clinton County than any other kind of advertising.
2. Every big store in America built its business with newspaper advertising and relies on it today.
3. A full page advertisement in the Clinton County News cost less than TWO CENTS per family you reach.
4. Your advertisement is a part of the Clinton County News that everybody wants to read.
5. You get thousands of SHOW WINDOWS. People can see what you want to sell . . . pictures, prices and descriptions.
6. Clinton County wives and mothers plan their buying while they're reading the Clinton County News. So do their menfolks.
7. Your Clinton County News is more carefully read, by more members of each family, than any other advertising medium, and its readers believe in it.
8. Your national manufacturer and distributor can join you in advertising the products you have to sell.

Watertown proposal assured of better turnout

WACOUSTA — Watertown Township officials are almost assured of a more representative vote on their proposed charter township status than they got the first time the proposal was presented to voters.

It is second try the charter township question will be coupled with other state-wide propositions and the election of township, state and national officers in the Nov. 8 general election. Slightly over a year ago, the charter proposal was put before the electors at a special election, and only 11 1/2 per cent of the 987 registered voters in the township turned out. The proposal was defeated 67-46.

THAT'S NOT definite enough, township officials said. This time they're hoping the larger number of people voting in the general election will be enough to bring the Charter Township of Watertown into being.

The ballot question will be the same as before: "Shall the Township of Watertown incorporate as a charter township which shall be a municipal corporation subject to the provisions of Act No. 368 of the Public Acts of 1947, which act shall constitute the charter of such municipal corporation?"

Charter township status would retain many of the qualities of regular townships, and proponents believe there are many extra advantages. Two informational meetings have been scheduled in the next week to give voters an opportunity to ask questions and get answers on "charter townships."

JOE PARISI, with the Michigan Townships Assn., will address a meeting at 8 p.m. next Tuesday evening at the Wacousta School. He'll explain what charter townships can and cannot do. Next Thursday night, Nov. 3, Noel Miller, treasurer of Meridian Township, will be the speaker. Meridian is a charter township in Ingham County.

The charter township act has been called by many as the "finest solution to the problems of metropolitan-type townships."

Reasons advanced for that opinion are:

1) Greater flexibility in administration; 2) ordinance-making powers comparable to those of cities; 3) the right to levy a real estate tax of up to 5 mills without a vote of the people and up to 10 mills with a vote of the people . . . outside the 15-mill limitation.

4) GREATER SELLING power on bond issues because of lower interest rates and the pledge of the full faith and credit of the township; 5) charter townships retain fines from justice courts; 6) it is a co-equal partner in joint operation of services and utilities; 7) it provides the greatest degree of "home rule" short of becoming a city.

8) The right to determine public necessity, in the interest of the public peace, safety and welfare of the residents of the township; 9) a greater degree of regulatory power over the streets, alleys and bridges of the township; and 10) a more business-like and sound method of township financing and budgeting.

13 complete basic leadership classes

Troop leadership courses for Girl Scout troop leaders were completed last Wednesday afternoon with the women participating receiving their Girl Scout and World Association pins.

The classes held at the Congregational Church of St. Johns from 9:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. Sept. 28, Oct. 5, 12 and 19, were taught by Miss Janet Stetser, district advisor, of Lansing.

The women were given instructions on how to teach girls scouting and the background of scouting.

ALL OF THE ST. Johns women enrolled in the training have troops they will be leading. About 150 girls make up the six troops in St. Johns.

There are 11 troops in the area, which includes Maple Rapids, Eureka and St. Johns.

Several women from Clinton County attended the National Council meeting-National Convention, held in Detroit Oct. 23-27. Mrs. Arden Davis of DeWitt attended as a delegate. Others attending the convention as visitors were Mrs. Glenn Coryell of DeWitt and Mrs. Jerrold Hotchkiss of Bath. Miss Janet Stetser, the leadership course instructor here, also attended.

They joined with the total of 8,000 delegates, observers and visitors meeting at Cobo Hall in Detroit.

The participants will hear a keynote address by the noted British economist Barbara Ward, and will participate in, among others, a session projecting the world of 1980 and the place of Girl Scouting in that world.

THE NATIONAL Council meeting is focusing on the changing status of women, the increasing mobility of our population, the speed of travel and communications, the rapid developments in technology, and all the affects that are rapidly changing the shape of the world.

The objectives for this meeting reflect the realization of this change. They are: A deepened impact of Girl Scouting in a world of change and challenge, to increase the understanding of commitment to the Girl Scout ethical code by girls and adults, and demonstrate the vital role of the volunteer organization in our society. A broadened reach of Girl Scouting, to reach and serve a membership truly representative of the community; and Sound financing throughout the organization.

A SPECIAL INTEREST Group will explore the future in terms of youth, women, the voluntary organization and the world.

Several other activities are scheduled, these include a Roundup Reunion breakfast for all who were campers or staff members at the 1956, 1959, 1962 and 1965 Girl Scout Roundups; an Old Timer's dinner for all who have been active in Girl Scouting for 25 years or more; a dinner for representatives of other national and international organizations; "Yellow Ribbon" dinner for leaders and assistant leaders of currently active troops and a birthday party for the Juliette Gordon Low birthplace celebrating the 10 anniversary of the designation of "the Low home in Savannah, Ga., as the Juliette Gordon Low birthplace."

Meat market orphan is nutritious, cheap

by HELEN B. MEACH
Extension Home Economist

Among the many meats offered at your favorite market, there is an orphan. It's always there, but seldom made a special on given ad space. Did you already guess - the orphan is liver.

Liver deserves emphasis on fall menus. It's not that more liver is available now than during other seasons. Our local supply is quite steady the year around.

Liver is less often demanded than many meat cuts and so remains evenly priced as a very economical source of important nutrition.

Local meat cases offer several kinds of red meat livers - beef, pork, calf and sometimes lamb and chicken livers. Choice among these may depend upon preferred taste and intended use. Calf liver is most mild; pork liver tastes the strongest.

Beef and pork liver may be braised (simmered in liquid) or fried or ground for making loaves. Calf and lamb liver may be broiled or fried. Chicken livers broil or braise nicely.

DELICATELY flavored calf liver price is highest, with pork and beef liver the least expensive. Varying from about 9 to 14 cents a serving, we get four or five servings from a pound of liver, with a minimum of waste. Liver is 93 percent edible.

To buy liver, freshness is indicated by uniform, bright color, and the liver is plump, moist, shiny and bright. Keep it cold. Best to cook and serve it the day of purchase.

NEVER OVERCOOK liver. It is naturally tender. It needs only short time cooking, whether fried, broiled, scalloped or baked or made into liver loaf. Most people seem to prefer an auxiliary flavor with liver - as simmering it in tomato juice, or in a prepared soup, or adding lots of onions for lots of flavor. Get out your trusty cook books and see lots of appetizing variations.

Resolve that you, Mrs. Home-maker, will serve liver once a week at your home to give your family a highly nutritious meal.

Chamber of Commerce

By BETTY MINSKY

Secretary-Manager

About a year ago Jim McKenzie gave me a copy of "Reader's Nutshell," a publication put out by the Michigan Association of Mutual Insurance Agents.

One of the articles in it was entitled, "What Is A Chamber of Commerce?" A good question. And, one that will have as many varied answers, perhaps, as the number of people you might ask it.

"Nutshell," in answering the question, said, "... you'd get a dozen different answers... for a Chamber of Commerce is many things to many people." And that is true.

AS ILLUSTRATIONS, it used these examples: "Your wife may think of the Chamber as the place where you spend entirely too much time. Your milkman might offhandedly refer to it as 'that outfit that is trying to straighten out the traffic problem.' The young couple next door to you may know that it was the Chamber that lured them to this city... first as a visitor and then as a permanent resident. The retail merchant members who first sought assistance from the Chamber when they considered opening a business here."

Then, to more technically describe it, the article stated that a Chamber is "People working together, to make their community a better place in which to live and make a living." And, that pretty much sums it up and goes along with how we in Chamber work describe the Chamber of Commerce.

The next point covered in this insurance booklet asked who are these people who call themselves a Chamber of Commerce? And it answered by saying, "They are such people as yourself, people who recognize civic responsibility and who work diligently on organizing and directing the energies and talents of men and women in our community."

THAT TOO is correct. For, contrary to what some people believe—or think—a Chamber of Commerce is not a public office in the sense that it is a part of the community government. With the exception of those instances

(and they are usually rare) where a city or county government may be working together with the Chamber on a project, the Chamber does not have taxpayers' money at its disposal nor does it depend on it for its funds.

A Chamber of Commerce is a group of men and women, usually the business, professional and industrial firms in a community, who band together so they can do collectively what they could not do individually insofar as making their community a better place in which to live. This is done through a well-formed and well-run organization, wherein the members pledge so much per year in the form of membership dues and/or assessments along with the donation of their time to meet and conduct the affairs of the organization and to plan and carry out the projects they become involved in.

NOW—TO RETURN to "What Is A Chamber of Commerce," as defined in "Nutshell." Another comment contained in the article interested me for it is all too often true. "Surprisingly enough, some businessmen don't stop to realize they are the Chamber of Commerce. This is particularly true, when our democratic processes produce action which doesn't meet with their personal pleasure."

How true! How often have members of a Chamber of Commerce, or any organization for that matter, dropped out or refused to participate in a project simply because the majority of the members voted to do it a different way? Think about it. Sound familiar? So we see then, that a Chamber of Commerce is a group of people, usually business oriented, working together for the same common good. It is primarily a business organization... serving the business interests of the community. And how good the Chamber of Commerce is rests directly with the people who are, or who should be, supporting it.

IN THOSE communities in which the organization receives good support from most of the business, professional and industrial firms, not only in financing its operation but in contributing time and effort, the Chamber can accomplish much.

On the other hand, in those communities where both financial and human support is lacking, little can be accomplished, even if a handful of dedicated workers attempt to push a program.

Very simply put, one could say that a strong Chamber of Commerce is one which receives strong financial and human support from its members. And, a weak organization is one in which its members, and others who should be members, offer little in the way of financing and human time and effort.

A Change In View

There's nothing like a new perspective to change your attitude toward life. When Junior is bored, he simply stands on his head for a new slant at things. The floor flips to the ceiling, with tables and chairs hanging from it, and people walk upside-down. At least that's the way it looks to him. It is a good idea to gain a different perspective—to step back and get a new slant on things around you. But you don't have to stand on your head to do it. Instead identify yourself with a church. Take your family and go regularly to worship. You will find a new perspective. Genuine values will keep their importance; unimportant things will diminish. Today's life will be happier; tomorrow's full of hope. Nothing is upside-down, but everything claims its rightful place when you view life with the faith of a Christian.

Detroit Junior Livestock Show opens next week

Nearly 400 4-H Club Livestock Show. Held Oct. 31-Nov. 3 at the Michigan State Fairgrounds, the show annually provides recognition for the 4-H'ers ability to bring their steers, swine or lambs to peak condition by showtime.

The event will open Monday, Oct. 31, with the weighing and evaluating of entries in the carcass division. The carcass contest is gaining in popularity, and enables young showmen to judge animals on the hoof and compare the results with the finished carcasses in the cooler.

THIS GIVES THE junior livestock producers an opportunity to see if their fitting is giving consumers the top-quality meats they demand. This is the fourth year carcass contests have been held in all three livestock classes.

Animals entered in fat stock classes will be weighed upon arrival Tuesday, Nov. 1. Judging of classes will take place in the coliseum on Wednesday, and the annual exhibitors' awards banquet will be held in the evening.

The Detroit Junior Livestock Show will begin at 1 p.m. Thursday.

The show is designed to promote interest in the livestock industry among the young people of Michigan. Dr. Gordon Beckstrand, director of the Michigan 4-H youth program, voiced support for the show's activities.

"THE JUNIOR Livestock Show has contributed greatly to the 4-H livestock program. In a wholesome environment such as this," Beckstrand said, "the show serves to develop a sense of responsibility and provide an education experience for all who participate."

The show is sponsored by the 4-H Club Department of MSU's Cooperative Extension Service, and the Detroit Junior Livestock Society.

2 named to dean's list at Ferris State

Richard L. Shoup, senior in the School of Technical and Applied Arts and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shoup, and Kenneth L. Love, freshman in the School of Technical and Applied Arts and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Love, both of St. Johns, were among the more than 200 Ferris State College students named to the dean's honor list for academic excellence during the past quarter.

Dr. Robert L. Huxol, vice president for instruction, noted that to be named to the dean's honor list a student must maintain at least a B average while carrying a full academic load.

Charles Frost (seated right), Clinton County civil defense director, attended a community shelter planning workshop recently. ACP practices benefit wildlife

The Agricultural Conservation Program shares with farmers the cost of carrying out soil, water, woodland, and wildlife practices on farmland. Many ACP practices carried out since 1936 have benefited wildlife.

These include vegetative cover, forestry plantings, ponds, and erosion control practices. Frank Light, chairman of the Michigan ASC State Committee, stated that since 1962 county ASC committees have been promoting three wildlife practices with soil and water conservation benefits. These include food plots, meadow seedings, trees and shrubs for food and cover; the development or restoration of shallow water areas for wildlife; and constructing permanent ponds or dams for fish and other wildlife.

In 1964 another wildlife practice was added, fencing areas to protect existing natural wildlife habitat.

Agricultural conservation increases fishing and hunting areas which are so badly needed. Each year about 1 million more Americans become interested in these two sports. As our population expands, we will have a greater need for more hunting and fishing opportunities, more parks and playgrounds, and for open meadows and woodlands close to metropolitan areas.

Privately owned farm and timber lands provide 80 per cent of the wildlife available for hunting as well as much good fishing, upland game birds, resident game animals, fish, and even the migratory ducks and geese are part of the harvest on farms. This is why sportsmen are directly interested in wildlife practices under the Agricultural Conservation Program on private land.

Frost completes CD shelter planning course

Charles Frost of St. Johns, Clinton County civil defense director, recently completed a special course in community shelter planning.

Frost was one of 26 local officials from throughout the United States to attend the Office of Civil Defense Staff College in Battle Creek. He worked with professional planners to develop methods by which the government of Clinton County can best develop an essential fallout shelter program for the general public.

LOCAL OFFICIALS were present from Oklahoma, Utah, North Dakota, Tennessee, Minnesota, New Jersey, Maryland, Georgia, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Colorado, Washington, Wisconsin, South Dakota and Montana, as well as Michigan.

In addition to defining the civil defense program as conducted by the federal, state and local jurisdictions of government, this special training covered nuclear attack considerations and the effects of modern weaponry. Under contract with the Office of Civil Defense, the course at Staff College was conducted by the University of Tennessee Graduate School of Planning. The place of the planners and the planning agency in developing some six steps for a total community shelter program were discussed in relationship to urban planning, contracting, organizing and staffing.

THIS PLANNING will be conducted here in order to provide the public with information needed as to where fallout shelter is located, how best to allocate it, and what emergency measures will be necessary in the event of attack on this nation.

QUESTION: I own savings bonds purchased between 1947 and 1954. Are these bonds still earning interest and when will this interest stop? ANSWER: Any Series E savings bond ever purchased is still earning interest. Bonds purchased prior to May 1949 have been granted two 10-year extensions. Bonds purchased since then have been granted one 10-year extension. Interest will continue until the bonds are cashed or reach absolute maturity.

Dairymen pass 'A' inspections

Nearly half of all of the Michigan dairymen on the fluid milk market have already passed inspection under the new Grade A milk law.

"By the end of the year, indications are that nearly all permits for the 11,570 dairymen on the fluid milk market will have been issued," commented Donald Murray, Michigan State University extension dairyman. "This is a tribute to the progress our dairymen have made over the years in meeting the high quality standards demanded by the new law."

The inspections are made by the dairy division of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

"THERE'S ONLY one aspect of the new law that is giving dairymen much trouble. That's the part about the water systems," noted Murray.

"I suggest the dairyman wait until his water system has been inspected before spending a lot of money on putting in a new well or making some other major repairs. In many cases, minor adjustments costing less than $100 are probably enough to correct the situation and put the water system in compliance with the law."

Autumn soil tests bring more profit

Farmers who take soil samples now can make more profit from the fields they plan to plant next spring, contends John C. Shickluna, Extension soil scientist at Michigan State University.

There are many reasons, but making better crop management plans is of prime importance.

Shickluna says farmers have more time now than at the time of spring rush, and the dry fall soil is in better condition for sampling. Furthermore, by getting soil recommendations returned yet this fall farmers are able to buy fertilizer needs at bargain, off-season prices. Farmers can also be sure of having what they need when planting time comes.

If tests show lime is needed, it can be applied in time to become incorporated into the soil before planting date.

It's good insurance, too. Shickluna says the usual rush of thousands of samples hitting testing labs in the spring delays reports. Then suppliers' stocks may be low.

County Extension offices can provide a simple folder explaining the best method to take a representative sample of each field and how to label them for best results.

"The soil test can be no better than the sample provided and farmers must make sure it is representative of the entire field," the Extension soil scientist concluded.

ASC PROGRAM

Election of committeemen scheduled in December

Election of ASCS community and county committeemen will be held this year in December. Community committeemen will be elected at meetings held on Dec. 6, 1966, in each community. In our county each township is a separate community for ASCS program purposes. A committee of three are elected in each community to serve for a one-year term.

The community committeemen elected on Dec. 6 will meet Dec. 15, 1966, to elect one member and two alternates to the county ASC committee. This is a change from past years when all the members of the ASC county committee were elected each year for a one-year term. Beginning last year one member of the county committee was elected to a three-year term, one for a two-year term, and one for a one-year term.

BEGINNING THIS year the member to the county committee is elected to a three-year term; the alternates are elected to a one-year term.

The delegates at the convention also elect one member to be chairman and another to be vice-chairman of the county committee for the coming year.

Both county and community committeemen will take office Jan. 1, 1967.

Programs administered by the committeemen include: ACP, acreage allotments, commodity loans, voluntary feed grain and wheat programs, Sugar Act programs, national wool program, farm storage facility loans, conservation reserve, and cropland adjustment program.

THIS PAST YEAR the volume of funds handled by our ASCS office exceeded $2 million. The two largest programs administered by our office is the feed grain and wheat programs.

A letter will be mailed to all farmers on record. In our office telling them the time and place where the elections will be held in their community.

This past summer we have been in the process of obtaining each farm owner and operator's Social Security number or employers identification number.

We have been requested to put the social security or employers identification number on each draft issued from our office. Beginning with 1967 program payments a report of payments earned will be mailed to each one who has received a payment;

450 attend NFO state convention

Over 450 voting delegates — including those from Clinton — and 100 visitors attended the NFO state convention Oct. 15 at Howell. John Kuch of Unionville and Edene Jones of Charlotte were nominated as national directors; it is Kuch's third term and Jones' second as directors.

Oren Lee Staley, national president of the NFO, was the main speaker and urged cohesiveness of members. "Collective bargaining in American agriculture means farmers bargaining together and selling together."

"IF WE HAD all 3 1/2 million farmers signed up and they would not bargain together and sell together we would have ruined 3 1/2 million sheets of paper and could not accomplish a thing," he said.

"In the past Joe Buyer would put his arm around your shoulder and occasionally buy you a cup of coffee and say, 'see the price on the wall; that's what I'll give you.' It is about time that you, Mr. Farmer, put your arm around Joe Buyer's shoulder, buy him a cup of coffee and tell him, 'if you want my production, pay my price.'"

Staley said the only thing holding up a just price for agriculture is the farmer himself.

ANTON PETERS gave a grain report at the state convention and urged all members to sign up their grain. Ray Nelson reported much progress had been made in dairy, but he said "soon you will really see things happening."

Fall good time to lime soil

Fall is a good time to lime soil. About two-thirds of Michigan's cropland needs occasional liming. In general, soil needing lime could profitably use about three times what is actually being applied, Michigan State University soil scientists contend.

Michigan State University experiments show that agricultural lime, applied according to soil test, will return at least $5 to $10 for every dollar spent for lime delivered and spread.

APPLICATION OF LIME on old sod in the fall preceding plowing rather than in spring gives good results. MSU soil scientists say the finer limestone is ground, the more quickly it will react in the soil. Coarser material, however, has a longer-lasting effect on the soil.

Soil scientists advise farmers to retest the soil of a limed field after two to four years to measure any change in acidity. Possibly 200 to 300 pounds of lime are lost per acre of topsoil each year. How frequently farmers should lime their soil can be learned only by testing representative samples of soil, scientists say.

Farmers are advised that if they know their soil needs lime, now is the time to apply.

IF THE SOIL HAS not been tested recently, soil samples should be taken and sent for tests immediately so there would still be time to lime before winter.

Blueberries and cranberries need strongly acid soil, around 4 to 5 pH. More acid tolerant crops are buckwheat, oats, potatoes, raspberries, rye and strawberries. These need a pH from 5 to 7. Corn, grasses, trefoil, and wheat need a soil 5.5 to 7.5 in pH test.

Crops least acid tolerant, which need a soil from 6 to 7.5 or higher are: alfalfa, asparagus, barley, beans, peas, red clover, soybeans, sugar beets and sweet clover.

Dangerous curve overlooked

The stop - start pattern of Clinton County's road system is not conducive to the safest driving conditions possible, but the Clinton County Road Commission has been making steady progress in not only the driving condition of the roads but in the safety factors as well.

One prime example was the straightening out of curves on East Price Road east of Chandler Road. This type of improvement is heartening to see.

But one particularly bad corner is being neglected, and it continues to take a toll in damage to automobiles and people.

We're speaking of a 90-degree angle curve on Meridian Road a half-mile south of Taft Road in southeastern Ovid Township. Within the last four weeks Clinton County News photographers have had occasion to photograph two accidents at this corner, and numerous others which we haven't pictured have occurred.

Pride in one's work means great accomplishments

Pride in one's work is a great thing, and it results in great accomplishments. But a lack of pride is too often apparent in the work of many people in our world today, and the result is great sadness.

Too many jobs have to be done over and too many products replaced and repaired because too many people don't care about how they do their work.

Few people experience the pride of doing a job just a little bit better than is expected of them—of "going beyond the call of duty." And too often society itself frowns on the man who does try.

Lack of pride is not peculiar just to Americans, but to all of the civilized world. Former Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was aware of this problem with his people, and he was mad about it.

In the book "Khrushchev: A Career," author Edward Crankshaw notes that his (Khrushchev's) anger would come out in all sorts of ways. "He was angry with bad workmanship. 'The joints between the pipes,' he said of a new show hotel in Sverdlovsk, 'had been very badly made. And I, as a former fitter, was extremely indignant; even before the Revolution pipe-joints in the mines were cleaner and better finished than in this hotel in Sverdlovsk!'"

Yes, lack of pride is commonplace throughout the civilized world. The so-called uncivilized people do have pride in their work, for to them it means the difference between feast and famine, life and death. America grew to greatness because of the pride of individuals in their work, in their communities and in their nation. Individual pride built our nation, and a lack of it can destroy it.

The habit of thrift valuable lesson for kids

For most of us, the key to financial independence — whatever the degree — is systematic savings. And the sooner these savings are started the better.

Fortunately, we can teach our children the habit of thrift at an early age. We can do this by supporting the Treasury's School Savings Program which operates in many of our schools. This is a plan whereby youngsters buy U. S. savings stamps on a given day each week. When enough stamps have been accumulated, they may be converted into U. S. savings bonds.

U. S. savings stamps—available for a dime, a quarter, or larger amounts—are sold at post offices, too. Thus children can continue their purchases right through vacation months.

Youngsters are natural accumulators. If they include U. S. savings stamps and bonds among their collection they'll learn to prepare for a rainy day. And they'll learn something of citizenship and participation in their country's affairs.

The 90-degree angle doesn't show up on county highway maps, but aerial photos show it plainly. Mr and Mrs Charles Bracey, who live on the dangerous outside of the curve, have counted 17 accidents in the five years they have resided on the farm—and that was up to only last spring.

What is eventually needed is a relocation of Meridian Road at that point to do away with the dangerous curve. In view of the high accident rate (and there have been deaths on that curve), this should be seriously considered right away.

In the meantime, more adequate signing of the road to warn motorists of the approach to the curve should be installed. Mr Bracey has indicated a willingness to relocate a driveway so that a reflectorized warning barricade can be put up in a direct line with the road from the north. He's tired of cars colliding with his farm, and we can't say as we blame him.

RAMBLIN' with Rink

By LOWELL G. RINKER

Life is full of patterns. If ever anything gets started on the wrong foot, watch out; the pattern can be troublesome.

Take Friday evening, for example. It got started on the wrong foot, and it took the stroke of midnight to change the pattern. Allow me to think out loud while I reflect on my troubles of that night.

A week ago Friday I laid plans to cover the Bath-Pottersville football game at Bath. I figured on leaving about 7:15 so I'd have plenty of time to get there, get in and get a position on the field.

"THE PATTERN" began to form when I was six minutes late in leaving the house, with the prospect also of having to stop at the grocery store on the way. About that time the fire whistle sounded and after a few seconds of debate with myself, I decided I'd better check it out.

It was a country fire and, of course, far out in the opposite direction which I'd take to the football game. It turned out to be a minor fire (as I had guessed it would be but was afraid not to find out). Back to town I came, stopped at the store and drove on to Bath.

It was 8:15 when I got to the field. Not too bad, I said; at least I'll only miss about a quarter. Then both teams left the field and I found out it was halftime and that the game had started at 7:30 instead of 8. Such is life.

WHEN THE GAME was over it was only 9:30, so I figured I'd have time, maybe, to whip back to St. Johns for the last few minutes of the Redwings' game with Alma. About at Centerline Road I started to hear a thumping from my left rear tire, but there was no drag or pull so I continued on.

The noise was rather pronounced on Sturgis Street, and I stopped twice to check the tire but couldn't find anything wrong. After watching the last 10 minutes of the St. Johns game, I walked back to the car and checked both rear tires again.

This time the right one was flat. Whether it went flat while sitting there or whether I drove it five miles in that condition

If a letter containing money can not be delivered and is not claimed within one year, the money becomes the property of the Post Office. Every year the Post Office receives more than $100 thousand from dead letters.

I'm not sure. At any rate the next morning a garage inspection showed the tire had a big balloon in it and was surely shot. That meant a new tire. Que sera, sera.

ANYWAY, GETTING back to Friday night, "the pattern" was not yet complete. Having changed the tire, I drove home and lounged in preparation for an evening with the late movie. This just nicely got started when the police department called with the report of a serious accident on Meridian Road and questioned if I would go out for a picture.

Seeing as how the whole evening had been full of setbacks, I took the situation in stride and said I'd be out. Just past the east city limits my right rear hubcap (on the tire I'd changed) came off, rolled along the highway and disappeared off the side of the road.

Within a few minutes it was midnight, and "the pattern" was complete. It was a new day and, despite the news of having to buy a new tire, I was a new man. Such is life.

I was very proud of the many school age children who attended the football game last Friday in St. Johns.

Lately I have written about the way so many have acted, disrespectfully, during the playing of our national anthem. But, last Friday I was very pleased.

FROM MY VANTAGE point, it was heartening to see almost everyone behave in a manner that would make everyone proud of them.

My thinking on this has always been that if these children can have pride in their national symbols and show a little respect during the display of our symbols that they will have pride in themselves and their fellowman. The respect they show for our flag and symbols is also reflected in their respect for other people. I was proud of them Friday. I hope that this will continue whenever the occasion arises.

LAST WEEK was the opening of the pheasant season in our area. I have not hunted pheasants in three or four years, basically because of the shortage of the birds in our area. But, last week I was invited to hunt with a fellow St. Johnsite, who informed me that his uncle in Ingham county had a farm and there were many birds available.

Some time next week a milk station will be started in the old creamery building north of the railroad. The work is to be under the management of the Detroit Creamery Company, and will be in the charge of Jesse Mosher.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Wonder what happened to the fiction story of supply and demand? While some people are fighting "tooth and toenail" to keep farm prices up, others are reporting with glee that "A drop in pork prices around the first of the year, with prime bacon touching a low of 79 cents a pound," as predicted by Carl G. Mayer & Co., Chicago, and as reported by John Gill in the July 24th Detroit News.

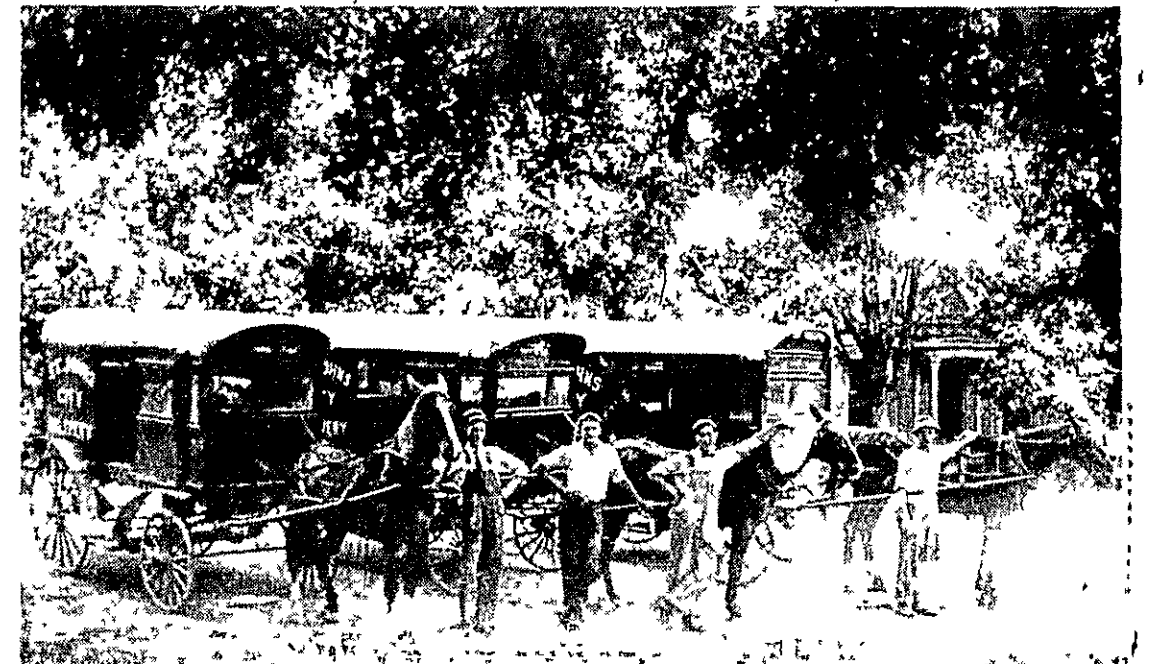

Mayer's reasoning . . . most buyers of meat now-a-days are big buyers, such as supermarket chains, which will pay so much for meat and no more.

I also get quite a chuckle out of the proponents of the theory of supply and demand who recently have been taking bows for the increase in the milk prices. In fact some of them have been so busy patting themselves on the back that they may have injured both arms. On page 15A of the Dec. 23, 1965 issue of Clinton County News an article appeared, and I quote:

"HAROLD Bracy, dairy chairman, reported that dairy farmers will enjoy a price rise like the

DOOR-TO-DOOR GROCERY DELIVERY

Bert Schoepfals owned this city delivery service for groceries back in the early days of this century—days when you could order your groceries and meat by phone and have them delivered to your home anywhere in the city. Herb Estes Sr. of 706 W. Cass Street offered this picture for our "A Look into the Past" series and recalls that four delivery trips were made each day, at 7:30 and 9:30 a.m. and 2 and 4 p.m. And six days a week, at that. This picture was taken on North Clinton Avenue, and the gentlemen standing beside their horses and wagons are Herb Estes (left), William Wekenman, Lloyd Scott and Calvin Balcom. There was no date on the picture to pinpoint when it was taken.

Will reform be in the fore in '67 legislative session?

BY ELMER E. WHITE
Michigan Press Assn.

Will reform be the order of the year in the 1967 legislative session? Is income tax a likelihood?

Gubernatorial candidates and several other sources openly described the urgent need for tax reform during the campaign. Indications are an income tax of some kind will be included in any forthcoming recommendations.

Legislative reform itself also is in the making. Democratic majority spokesmen this year named a special unit to update the lawmaking process. The committee's recommendations will be due in 1967.

CONSTITUTIONAL sections which haven't functioned up to expectations are likely to be changed during the coming biennium. Even the most prominent members of the convention which wrote the 1963 Constitution noted several deficiencies in their work, noticeable only through actual use of the document.

Filling judicial vacancies and apportioning the state Legislature seem to be the most pressing areas of concern for constitutional reform.

Most legislative revisions undertaken will be mechanical or semi-technical in nature, relating to the inner process of making laws and hardly noticeable to anyone other than those who closely follow the activity in Lansing.

Public concern will be centered on the reform to be urged in the area of taxation.

Some other ideas, such as getting more federal funds or issuing bonds for specific purposes, have been proposed but generally are regarded as inadequate to meet the forthcoming demands of funding services.

SPOTLIGHT WILL again focus on basic ideas already presented a number of times under the administrations of John B. Swainson and George Romney: fiscal reform based on use of a state income tax.

Public reaction to this proposal has softened somewhat in the years it has been openly discussed.

Most officials agree strong opposition still exists. Several of the most vocal elements of the state community have changed positions, however, and there are indications that ballot-box repercussions against an income tax will be considerably less a factor in the 1967 deliberations.

FIRST FROSTS of the year bring worries about saving the fall plantings. They should cause concern about saving the population.

Sneals of delight greet the early snows and children who live near bodies of water can hardly wait for ice to give them a new form of exciting activity.

State Police warn early winter ice may look thick and safe enough to walk and slide on but actually may be too thin to hold up under a youngster's weight.

Parents must teach caution against venturing on ice the same as they teach safety in crossing streets. Ice on deep bodies of water should be several inches thick, preferably about four, to assure safety.

EVEN WHERE SAFE sliding and skating is evident, emergencies should be provided for: long branches, poles, ropes or a ladder should be handy to reach a person who may break through where ice may be thin.

Children do not hold a monopoly on use of ice-covered water. Hunters, fishermen and other outdoor fans should keep their guard when using frozen lakes or streams during outings.

Periodically note is made by various authorities to encourage use of Michigan's official flag, which many long-time state residents would not recognize.

Gov. George Romney's office has been attempting to promote recognition of the flag by providing the official banner to Michigan men serving in the armed forces.

MICHIGAN'S PRESENT flag, in use since 1911, is dark blue with the coat of arms of the state on it. The coat of arms shows two deer flanking a shield bearing the word "Tuebor," or "I will defend." Below the deer is written, in Latin, the state motto, "If you seek a pleasant peninsula, look about you." Above the shield is an eagle with wings outstretched and the federal motto, "E Pluribus Unum," or "From many, one."

At various times since the introduction in 1837 of the first state flag, Michigan's standard has shown a soldier and lady with the state seal, a portrait of Michigan's first governor, Stevens T. Mason, and the coat of arms of the United States.

The "Low Down"

From the
Congressional Record
By Joe Crump

Our Thailand cat is out of the bag

Senator J. W. Fulbright (Ark.) . . . "Since the officials of our government who are responsible for our policies in Asia, and more specifically Thailand, decline to testify in public session before the Committee on Foreign Relations, I believe it is my duty as chairman of that committee to make a brief statement on the subject.

When I say "decline," I speak from personal knowledge because I personally invited members of the Department of State — specifically, the secretary of state — to come and testify in public session, and my cordial invitation was declined.

"I BELIEVE IT is my duty simply because it seems to me that the people of my country are entitled to know to what extent their sons and their fortunes are being committed in Thailand . . .

"Regardless of my views, I believe the expenditure of billions of public funds and the exposure of American lives to destruction, 12,000 miles away in Asia, is a matter of sufficient importance to warrant congressional consideration and approval . . .

"We are building up in Thailand—building barracks, air bases, ports, and supply depots. What are the reasons for this new military involvement in southeast Asia? What is the legal basis and the political justification?

"For answers, Americans must turn paradoxically to the press, for a curtain of official secrecy surrounds our activities in Thailand . . .

"FROM THE PRESS we learn that most of the 30,000 men we have in Thailand are in the Air Force. They fly a majority — some reports as much as 80 percent — of the bombing and reconnaissance missions that are flown over North Vietnam and northern Laos from a half a dozen American-built air bases in Thailand—which are legally Thai bases and fly the Thai flag. We are building a giant sea and air base complex at Sattahip, which will have runways long enough to accommodate B-52 bombers and which is costing hundreds of millions of dollars—either $100 or more than $500 million depending on which paper one reads . . .

"Testifying before Congress in 1951 on President Truman's decision to deploy four army divisions to Europe, the then secretary of defense, George C. Marshall, said: 'My opinion in the matter is that Congress is certainly entitled to know what we are planning and . . . what we do has to have the support of the people.'

"HOW TIMES have changed. Apparently we no longer believe that, 'What we do has to have the support of the people.'

"We are building up in Thailand. We are moving into Thailand. We are moving in men and planes and steel and cement. We ones enjoyed by the meat growers."

This prediction was made at a time when all others were telling the farmer to become more efficient and expect lower prices, as we had a large surplus of milk.

Because the by-laws of NFO prohibit the organization from going into business, we will always strive for just prices for the farmers raw materials, as NFO cannot benefit from underpayment to agriculture.

Ridge voices haunting music of Earth's symphony

HAYDN PEARSON

Go to an upland ridge one of these blue-sky, golden days when the fires of autumn are blazing and a brisk wind is pressing from the north. It is good for a man to climb the heights and look down to the valleys. On the windswept crests among lichen-laced rocks and wind-slanted trees, one can capture a fresh outlook that reduces man-engendered tensions to proper perspective.

The crest of a ridge is an exhilarating place in any season of year, but in October when colors are flaming and the wind is freshening, the voices are deeply meaningful. Among scrubby, tangled pasture oaks with leathery brown and purple blotched leaves, the pressing wind plays haunting, deep-toned chords that remind one of distant organ music.

STAND NEAR a fall, weather-

furrowed rock and as the wind sweeps around the corner, you can hear the warning voices of winter's scouts — high-pitched and eager. If the time of ripeness has come to the trees, the leaves flutter down; perhaps one or two that drift slowly to earth; perhaps a shower of gold and red if a gust has whipped the branches. Like drifting snowflakes they they whirl and turn as they settle to the humus that gave them birth. If one stands in a leaf shower, he may hear soft whispering as they drop from their air anchorage to the safety of land.

Not too many persons climb heights in October to listen to the voices. But if one will, above the noises that accompany man's daily business, he can hear the haunting, insistent ridge music that is part of Earth's never-ceasing symphony.

The tallest Chinese temple, the Pagoda of the Six Harmonies, outside Hangchow, is 334 feet tall.

The highest price for a modern painting, $1,400,000, was paid in 1964 by London's National Gallery for one of the series of Les grandes baigneuses by Paul Cezanne.
