CITY, SCHOOL BOARD AGREE ON PARK LEASE

A motion by St. Johns city commissioner Charles Coletta Monday night brought to a close an extended period of negotiation between the city and school district which had centered on a leasing arrangement for the athletic field at the city park. The basic structure of the lease calls for a term of 10 years with a renewal option of a like period and annual rent of $2,400, an amount which would be renegotiated if the renewal is executed. The lease provides the school, as lessee, right to install capital improvements at the football field and to retain ownership of same with the privilege to remove or sell such improvements if and when the lease is terminated.

At a special School Board meeting earlier in the evening, board members discussed the measure indicating agreement but didn't believe it was necessary to take specific action on it.

that the lease and memorandum agreement were accomplished by a joint committee consisting of two members of the City Commission, Charles C. Coletta, and Dr. James M. Grosz, and two members of the Board of Education, Aiden Livingston and William Richards, Jr., and Attorney Jack Walker, representing the St. Johns Redwing Association, who voluntarily served as mediator and chairman of the committee.

Hundley explains tax payment procedure

City Clerk Tom Hundley this week issued an explanation of current tax billings along with procedures to follow for payment.

Almost all of St. Johns residents have made prepayments of their summer taxes based on last year's rates and payment of current billings should reflect only differences caused by increases.

Hundley explained that city residents have received billings which reflect total tax assessments and in addition a temporary receipt showing amount prepaid.

To determine exact amount now owed, Hundley explained, taxpayers should subtract the amount on the receipt from the total shown on the statement.

In making payment of this difference, taxpayers should bring to the city hall both the statement and temporary receipt so that proper credit can be given. If paying by mail the two forms should accompany tax payment check.

Hundley pointed out that taxpayers who have not made any prepayment will not have a temporary receipt attached to their billing and whatever amount shown on the statement is the total tax currently due.

City taxes could not be officially billed earlier this year during the regular June period because of an appeal before the State Tax Commission which resulted in the freezing of all tax billings.

The city, however, requested prepayment of summer taxes in efforts to keep sufficient money flow so city commitments could be met.

Residents who paid on this basis now owe only the difference.

THE DOCUMENT stipulates that the mayor of St. Johns and the president of the board of education constitute a permanent board of arbitration for the determination of questions which may arise and the provision states that in the event of disagreement they shall name a disinterested third party for seeking a majority decision.

In addition to the actual lease, a covering memorandum was read by both participants outlining use of land adjacent to the athletic field as "practice field" or "parking lot."

During discussion of the memorandum commissioner John Hannah pointed out that these uses are as they have been in the past and these areas would be allowed useable by any individual or group leasing the athletic field. A special School Board meeting earlier in the evening, board members discussed the measure indicating agreement but didn't believe it was necessary to take specific action on it.

"It may not be everything we like or everything the City Commission would like," said William Richards. "But it's a compromise."

Upon reaching the agreement the two bodies issued a prepared statement:

"THE ST. JOHNS CITY Commission and the St. Johns Board of Education announce tonight the signing by both municipal bodies of a new lease for the rental of the football field for a term of ten (10) years, with an option to renew for an additional ten (10) years.

Also active in assisting the committee was City Attorney, Paul A. Maples. The committee held several conferences and the terms of the lease and memorandum were openly discussed and negotiated in an orderly and harmonious fashion.

"Both the St. Johns City Commission and the St. Johns Board of Education stressed that the alleged past differences between the two groups were due primarily to a lack of communication rather than fundamental differences in policy. Both legislative bodies were highly encouraged and pleased with the attitude of the committee as well as with the results reached."

It didn't have any bearing on the city park agreement between the city and the schools, but Monday afternoon Supt. Earl Lancaster and Mayor Bob Wood took to the gridiron in symbolic agreement. —Photo by Ed Cheeney.

A fourth service station requested at U.S. 27, State

The St. Johns city commission Monday night tabled a rezoning request which, if passed, could eventually lead to a fourth service station at the intersection of State Street and US-27.

Under consideration is rezoning of property owned by E.O. Hylar, 602 E. State, from residential to commercial. Property adjacent to his, on the intersection is currently commercial zoned and a major oil firm is seeking an enlarged area for construction of a service center.

On hand in opposition to the change were Mr. Franklin Moore, 604 E. State Street and Miss Julia Walton, 105 S. Whittemore.

Favoring the proposal was a representative of the Boron Oil Co.

The matter was tabled until next meeting to allow a safety study to be conducted.

In a break from more routine items, the commission passed a resolution commending employees of the city water and sewer department, and Chan Woodbury in particular, for a three-year period of accident-free operation.

The department was presented a certificate, accepted by Woodbury, for the achievement which included the years 1966-1968. Dr. James M. Grosz moved for the resolution after Mayor Robert Wood had presented the certificate to Woodbury.

In other action the commission opened considerations on new street lighting in the area of the high school and along S. Lansing Street and look to move on the matter after each commissioner has opportunity to inspect the area involved.

Accepted a trade-in bid for the purchase of a new sewer catch basin cleaner in the total amount of $6,680.

Voted to withhold membership in the Grand River Watershed Council because of current financial status.

Pool open to students, public admitted Monday

After a series of unforeseen delays, school officials in St. Johns this week opened the new high school swimming pool for regular class instruction and after-school student swimming.

Earlier, officials had anticipated the facility to be in use by Nov. 4 as published in the Clinton County News.

"You were accurate," said Supt. Earl D. Lancaster, "however, the necessary chemicals didn't arrive in time."

Lancaster said state health officials and technical representatives were at the school Nov. 4, but since the necessary chemical didn't arrive the opening had to be postponed. Lancaster said last week that "we want to open the pool, if possible, by Monday (Nov. 10) to school swimming classes and after school swimming."

"We want to open the pool to the public the following week" (beginning Monday, Nov. 17), he added.

He said this would be done if there are no more unforeseen problems.

Here is the tentative schedule:

Monday
3:30 p.m. — 5:30 p.m. — High school students.
6:30 p.m. — 8 p.m. — Pool available for rent by clubs and groups.
8:15 p.m. — 9:45 p.m. — Open swimming.

3:30 p.m. — 5:30 p.m. — Faculty.
6:30 p.m. — 9:45 p.m. — Open swimming.

Football contest settled by tie-breaker

Mr. Craig Hoffman, Ann Arbor, Mrs. R. Quinn, Battle Creek and Mr. Al Egres Jr., Lansing tied with 18 correct games in this week's Clinton County News football contest. But Mr. Hoffman is the winner by his 38-point guess for the tie breaker score. The breaker score this week was 45 points.

St. Johns School Board ok's $2.5 million budget

By RON KARLE
Editor

The St. Johns Board of Education last week held a budget hearing and then approved the 1969-70 budget of more than $2.5 million.

Except for school officials, no citizens or taxpayers attended the meeting and the entire action took about one minute.

The $2,540,933 budget covers salaries, building operation and maintenance, transportation costs and supplies, among other things.

In other action, the board approved a policy excusing students from class for hunting vacations. The policy requires that students present a note from home stating the reason for the absence and the length of time they will be gone.

Students will be responsible for the work missed on those vacations and such arrangements are to be made with their teachers.

Pre-arranged absence slips must be taken to each teacher, signed by each teacher involved and returned to the assistant principal's office at least two days before the absence.

The board also agreed to take bids on snow-removal equipment. At a special meeting Monday, the board reviewed several bids and authorized Don Bast and Wendall Waggoner and Principal Gordon Vandemark to investigate the offers and make a purchase.

Also at Monday's special meeting, the board accepted a low bid on a $250,000 loan from Central National Bank at 2.25 per cent per annum. The money is borrowed against anticipated state aid.

In other action at last week's regular meeting, the board:

Established rental fees for auditoriums at the high school and Rodney B. Wilson Junior High. Supt. Earl Lancaster noted that the fees are only to meet expenses that "the school makes no money out of this."

Agreed to allow high school students in the junior high school area to board buses there in the mornings for rides to school during cold weather. This will not result in any additional cost to the school since boarding students will take seats vacated by rural students leaving the buses at the junior high school.

Agreed to replace a 20-year bond covering the roof of the new high school at a cost of $3,900, plus a three-year guarantee costing $1,400. This when added to a two-year guarantee received when the roof was finished, will protect the school for five years at a $1,500 saving.

Asked Bast to prepare specifications for seeding of lawn areas at the high school. Bids on the project will be let at a later date.

News will be delivered earlier

Rural subscribers to Clinton County News, who for the last few weeks have been receiving their paper a day late, will come in for earlier delivery with this issue.

Acting Postmaster Keith Mishler stated this week that postal officials have reverted their routing schedules to their former times which will insure delivery of the paper on Wednesday morning.

The mid-week delivery day became regular last fall when Clinton County News changed publication from Thursday to Wednesday.

After several months a change in postal delivery schedules caused some rural residents to receive their copies Thursday. Return to former delivery will insure receipt of the paper on Wednesday.

Subscribers are encouraged to contact the Clinton County News office whenever delivery is late.

St. Johns Dystrophy unit plans canvass

Members of the Jaycettes Organization have voted to give the strongest possible support to the St. Johns' March for Muscular Dystrophy.

Some 50 volunteers have already offered their services for the house-to-house canvass on Nov. 18. The St. Johns appeal is part of a great nationwide drive for funds conducted every year by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Inc.

MDAA is waging a fight on many fronts against the mysterious muscle-wasting disease which afflicts more than 200,000 Americans. Because there is, at present, neither a cure nor an effective treatment for MD, The Association places its major emphasis on research. It is currently giving grants-in-aid to more than 100 scientific projects in university and medical centers in this country and abroad.

The most recent grant was awarded to Dr. Bruce M. Carlson at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor. The granted totaled $10,000.

Spearheading the St. Johns Drive, in support of MDAA, is Mrs. Mary Harter, Member of the Jaycettes. "We're glad to do what we can," she said. "This cause merits everybody's support. Perhaps our efforts will spell the difference between suc-

Children's Book Week to be observed at library

Bement Public Library will celebrate National Children's Book Week beginning Monday, Nov. 17. About 300 new books are waiting to be unpacked and placed in the Children's Department, recently moved from the basement of the Municipal Building to the main-floor Library.

A large number are "Easy" books for beginning readers, or for youngsters who still like to be read to, or others who just like to look at the many colorful pictures. For children in the second, third, or fourth grades, who have become independent readers, there are new additions to the "Junior" section.

For the Pre-Teens, there are some new Mystery and Adventure stories, some new books about horses and dogs, and some new biographies, as well as non-fiction books of history and technology.

The hours at Bement Public Library are from 12 noon straight through to 8 p.m. on school days, and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays, a total of 47 hours a week for both children and adults.

Following are some of the 300 new books received at Bement Public Library in observance of National Children's Book Week.

CURIOUS, FURIOUS CHIPMUNK by Jane Thayer, takes the very young reader behind the scenes with bush-tailed Charlie Chipmunk. Here we meet Mrs. Squirrel, Mrs. Rabbit, old Woodchuck, and other animal friends whose happy woodland life is rudely interrupted when some humans named Newman decide to build a house among the trees. Charlie grows more curious and more furious as bulldozers knock down his favorite trees. Things end happily, however, because the Newmans turn out not to be such bad folks after all, even though they are human!

Martha Alexander is both writer and illustrator of a small book called BLACKBOARD BEAR. A little brother—too little to play with the big kids—is sent back to the house to entertain himself. He stands drawing idly on the blackboard in the playroom, and suddenly finds he has created an enormous black bear. At his command, the bear steps out of the blackboard, and at last the little brother has a playmate, one so unusual that he is the envy of all the big kids. This book is a delightful bit of fantasy.

READ-ALONG NURSERY TALES, retold by Caroline Kramer, include under one cover such old favorites as HENRY PENNY, LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD, THE GINGERBREAD BOY, and the four "THREES"—THREE LITTLE KITTENS, THREE LITTLE PIGS, THREE BEARS, AND THREE BILLY GOATS GRUFF. The illustrations, in both color and black-and-white, are done with imagination and humor.

WHAT WILL I WEAR? by Helen D. Olds, is a story for clothes-conscious little girls. This is a "Read Alone" book published by Alfred A. Knopf. Third and Fourth graders will find out for themselves what happens when Pam, the girl in the story, decides to wear her cow-girl outfit to a party, instead of the frilly yellow dress her mother had told her to wear.

WHEN GRANDMOTHER WAS YOUNG is the story of a little girl growing up in the middle-class age, when silent movies were something wonderful and mysterious. The author, Maxine Kumin, has managed to give this book an authentic flavor, while Don Alquist adds greatly to its entertainment value with his illustrations of street cars and open touring cars with working running boards. The big climax comes when women's suffrage comes in and Great-Grandmother casts her first vote, much against Great-Grandfather's better judgment. He finally gets used to the idea, however, and at the story's end another conflict is resolved when he agrees to buy the family one of those newfangled things called a radio.

ALL ABOUT RADIO AND TELEVISION by Jack Gould, Radio and Television Editor of the New York Times, is a book that middle-aged boys will enjoy. The principles of these two media of communication are explained in ordinary language and illustrated in a way to make the ideas clear to a young mind already interested in such things.

FEATHER OR FUR is a collection of juvenile poetry compiled by Grete Manhelm. Realistically illustrated with photographs, the poems all deal with small animal life, such as birds, squirrels, snakes, fish, etc. For example: "A fishing pole's a curious thing; It's made of just a stick and string; A bow at one end and a wish, And on the other end a fish."

LET'S GO TO A HOSPITAL AND A VISIT TO THE HOSPITAL, both done by lay-authors, were written under professional supervision. They are designed to prepare a child for visiting someone in the hospital, or for the possibility of becoming a patient himself.

In keeping with the current trend of teaching foreign languages to elementary school children, Bement Public Library has recently purchased two of Laurence De Bruhoffs' clever books about the elephant named Babar. They are BABAR'S FRENCH LESSONS and BABAR'S SPANISH LESSONS.

Dr. Seuss has also gotten into the foreign language act, and another recent purchase is THE CAT IN THE HAT DICTIONARY IN FRENCH. Bement Library already had THE CAT IN THE HAT SPANISH DICTIONARY, as well as RED RIDING HOOD IN FRENCH, and DR DOOLITTLE in both French and Spanish.

Copy machine at library

A 3-M copying machine has been purchased for use by patrons of Bement Public Library. Copies may be made for 10 cents each.

This is not a coin machine to be operated by the patron, nor is it recommended when large numbers of copies are needed. However, it is expected to meet community needs for an occasional copy.

Uses for this service include magazine articles, letters, legal documents, and even pictures or pages from books.

Fifth grade Orchestra is planned

At a meeting held at Rodney B. Wilson Junior High School, about 50 parents and other interested persons made plans with William Tennant, orchestra director, to form a beginning orchestra class for fifth graders.

Instruments ordered at that meeting will be distributed Thursday and Friday, Tennant said.

A string quartet consisting of Ann Davis, Edna Feighner, Anne Fox and Barb Spousta of the senior high school have been practicing and are available to any community organizations for programs.

The junior high orchestra performed at all the elementary schools this fall as part of their music study program and to encourage younger students to participate in the orchestra.

Twenty-two members of the junior high orchestra also attended a string festival in Battle Creek on Oct. 25. The festival included junior high school string players from all over Michigan.

Ritchie reviews ed. reform at DeWitt School Board

By BOB CALVERLEY
News Staff Writer

Supt. James Ritchie pointed out the advantages of a State Superintendent of Education appointed by the governor over the present system, in outlining the governor's educational reform bill, Monday night at a meeting of the DeWitt Board of Education.

"By having a purely advisory State Board of Education and the superintendent responsible only to the governor, much of the pressure from partisan politics could be eliminated," Ritchie told the board.

Ritchie also explained how new regional school districts, consolidation of school districts, financial support and bargaining for teachers' salaries under educational reform could affect the DeWitt system.

In other action, the board: Voted to chain off a connecting drive between Schavey and Herblison Roads because of its increasing use by motorists and subsequent danger to school children.

Pre-college tests set
Adults who want to continue their education or take special courses can qualify for college classes by passing the general educational development test (GED).

Lansing Community College is making this testing available on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings.

If you begin now you can still make enrollment for winter term. To qualify for GED, you must be 18 or older, and the high school class with which you would have finished must have graduated.

This testing is available, effective now.

—Mr's Merry Selhorn appointed as legislative representative to attend legislators' meetings and make DeWitt School Board views known to them.

—Decided to wait until next spring or fall to prepare the Middle School for seeding because present construction activities could ruin any landscaping there.

—Agreed to advise British Construction to wait until completion of the Middle School to lay the cornerstone, if possible. Completion of the school is scheduled for February 1970.

—Approved certificates of payment requested by the architect to pay for construction activities and bills for operating expenses.

The disposition of the Griswold School, uniforms for the band and the possibilities of sending two board members of the National School Board Convention in San Francisco were also discussed.

Fowler pair sentenced

A pair of Fowler youths, recently convicted of arson, were sentenced Monday by Circuit Court Judge Leo Corkin and both received identical sentences.

Leslie Kohagen, 17, of Hinman Road and Dale Feldpausch, 22, of Townsend Road, each received three years probation, 90 days in jail and $360 in costs. The sentencing followed a jury trial during which time they were found guilty of the arson charges.

The action stemmed from an incident May 21 when an unoccupied house and a barn burned on Stone Road, about four miles north of Fowler.

Elwell man hurt in crash

A 39-year old Elwell man, George T. Owen, was seriously injured in a two-car collision on US-27 near Centerline Road last Wednesday night. Driver of the other car, Mrs Linda Mae Williams, 21, of 209 Prospect, St. Johns, was not hurt, according to Clinton County sheriff's deputies. Maude E. Eaton

Mrs Maude E. Eaton, 502 S. Clinton Ave., St. Johns, died Nov. 7 at St. Lawrence Hospital, Lansing, after an extended illness. Funeral services were held Monday at the Osgood Funeral Home with interment at South Bingham. The Rev Harold Homer officiated.

Mrs Eaton was born Nov. 28, 1882, the daughter of Mark and Geannette Van Vleet. Gage and was a resident of Clinton County all of her life. She was married to Ciel Eaton who preceded her in death in 1925.

Mrs Eaton was active in the Hospital Auxiliary and spent many hours as a volunteer worker at Clinton Memorial Hospital.

She is survived by three sons, Irving and Mark of St. Johns and M. Milan of Santa Ana, Calif. Three daughters also survive: Mrs Thelma Hillman, Pontiac; Mrs Madelyn Huggett, Lansing and Mrs Eleanor Stevens, Mt. Morris, Ill. 26 grandchildren and 57 great-grandchildren also survive.

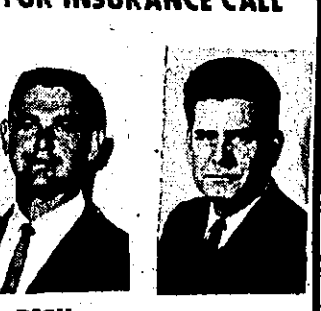

Open Letter from VAN W. HOAG

Dear Friends, What is the history of the funeral service? It is a rite that reaches back to most primitive times. Evidence reveals that some sort of burial rites have always been performed. The Bible offers such evidence, beginning with Abraham whose burial is described in Genesis 25, to Christ who was laid to rest with great tenderness and care (Luke 23). A similar respect for the deceased and compassion for the living is an essential part of the funeral ceremony of today.

Respectfully, Van W. Hoag

Anne Fox heads state Thespians Society

Anne Fox, a St. Johns High School sophomore has been elected to the office of State President for the Michigan International Thespians Society. The society is an honor society in drama and theatre and has a Michigan representation of over 115 high schools.

Anne's only comment after her election was announced was, "Oh, I'm so happy I could cry, but, I don't dare or I'll lose my contacts."

Anne was nominated by her local Thespians Troupe at the fall state thespian conference, held at Midland High School. After a rousing campaign with banners, gimmicks, and speeches from each of the candidates, balloting took place among the 500 plus Thespians assembled.

Anne is the first state president ever elected to this office since this year is the first year the society has had each state elect officers.

In this office, Anne will represent Michigan at the International Thespians Conference to be held in Indiana in June.

However, most of her work will center around organizing and exciting dramatic activities for Thespians Troupes in the state. Two of these activities will be a spring state thespian conference this year and a fall state conference next year.

It is hoped that the fall conference will be held in St. Johns.

The local troupe also ran Ruth Willette, another St. Johns sophomore for the office of State secretary. Ruth made an excellent showing but lost to another fine candidate.

Other officers elected with Anne were vice-president Mark Wescott of Lutheran West High in Detroit; secretary Debbie Elliott of Taylor Center High; treasurer Julie Grove, also of Lutheran West; and Publicity chairman Mary Miller of Clare. The state faculty sponsor is Mr. Harmon Beekman of Taylor Center High.

Technology poses no threat to secretaries, according to the U.S. Department of Labor. Despite new copying machines, dictating equipment, and automatic typewriters, the ranks of secretaries, stenographers and typists have been booming. In 1975, the Labor Department anticipates that there will be 3,901,040 secretaries, stenographers and typists.

CUBS WORK ON CLEANUP PROJECT

Westphalia views county protection

The Westphalia Village Council is considering replacing existing police protection with the Clinton County Sheriff's Department.

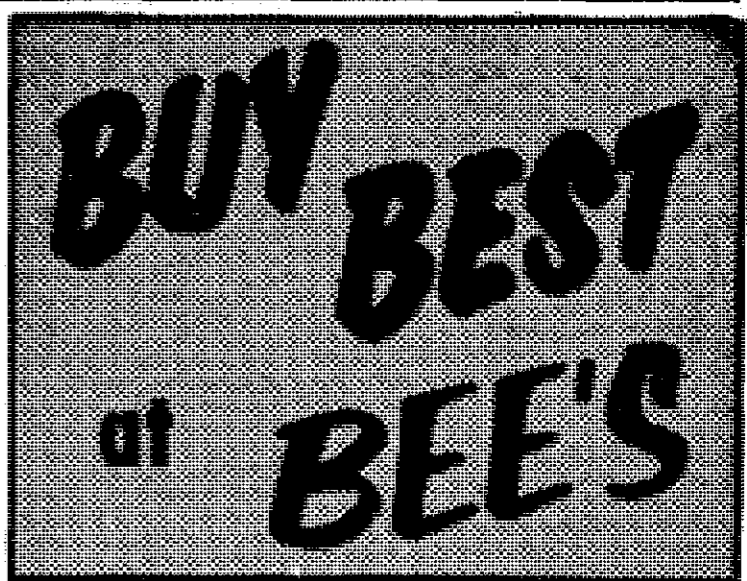

Eugene Droste, village clerk, will report to the Dec. 2 council meeting on how a similar program in Fowler is operating. As in Fowler, Westphalia officials feel hired part-time protection from Lansing private police is inadequate and costly.

They hope a cost-bearing arrangement of some type can be worked out with the sheriff's department. The county then would assume all police work responsibility for the village.

11 on Swegles Honor Roll

Magistrate salary hike defeated by supervisors

Magistrate Gordon Willyoung's salary which has been in salary committee of the Clinton County Board of Supervisors since Oct. 22, when several members of the police divisions in Bath and DeWitt Townships opposed his office closing on S. US-27 was again brought to the front at Monday's board session.

A motion was made by Supervisor Lankford that the salary be set at $10,500 as originally recommended by the committee in their Oct. 13 session. The motion was defeated with a seven "no" and four "yes" votes cast.

An amendment was then offered to the motion to leave his salary at $10,000 with an additional $500 to be provided for an office space in DeWitt Township. Supervisors again defeated the motion in a 5-5 vote with Andrew Cobb, Gerald Lankford, Roy Andrews, Gerald Sheppard, and Robert Montgomery casting "yes" votes

Drama Dept. schedule

The St. Johns Senior High School Drama Division of the Communication Arts Department, in association with the Music Department has announced its 1969-70 Theatre Season.

The opening production will be "Pygmalion" of George Bernard Shaw on Dec. 4 and 6.

The remainder of the season proves equally interesting with Harold Pinter's "The Room" being presented on Jan. 21 at the St. Johns' Invitational Drama Contest.

and Claude Underhill, Walter Nobis, Maurice Gove, Duane Chamberlain and William Hufnagel voting "no." Supervisor Rex Sirrine was absent when the

The spring all-school production will be "The Curious Savage". This show will be produced on March 27 and 28.

The Drama Division will then combine its efforts with the Music Department in the musical production of "Where's Charlie?" May 7, 8 and 9.

All in all, it proves to be an interesting and challenging season. This should be an excellent season.

second vote was taken. In other action supervisors, —Heard a report from Robert Montgomery on the airport committee concerning the proposed bill creating an airport authority, which was approved and will now be sent to the state legislature.

—Gerald Lankford presented a motion to hire a bailiff-probationary officer on a part time basis for the district court. His salary was set at $1,680 per year, for 15 hours per-week. The county would provide him an office and phone. The motion passed unanimously.

—Approved rezoning in Eagle Township for Kenneth Granger, developer, concerning 68 acres of land from agriculture to residential.

—Approved zoning approximately four acres in Bath Township for Clark Engineering from commercial to light industrial.

—Heard a report concerning a planned mobile home park, that

St. Johns Taxpayers:

An explanation of current tax billings

If you HAVE NOT made pre-payment you owe entire amount shown on tax statement

If you HAVE made pre-payment please follow these procedures:

1. Examine current statement for the information on total of taxes owed. Examine temporary receipt which is attached to current statement. To determine amount owed subtract amount on receipt from total amount on statement. The difference is what you currently owe.
2. If paying by mail be sure to enclose check for proper amount as well as current statement and temporary receipt. This will insure proper credit. If paying in person, please bring the aforementioned papers with you to city offices.
3. If prepayment amount was more than the amount due shown on the tax statement, a refund by the city will be issued.

Be sure your check reflects ONLY the difference between your pre-payment (taken from receipt attached to current bill) and total shown on Current Bill.

Redwings close in style, smash O-E 39-6

COACH JEFF SMITH
You could tell that he was pleased

By RON KARLE
Editor

"Shoot." He said it several times quietly and with a half-smile shaking his head. Jeff Smith sat there on a bench in the locker room sipping Coke from a can and you could tell he was pleased. The familiar short-sleeved white shirt, which has become his cold-weather trademark, was undone at the collar and he leaned back against one of the lockers relishing discussions of the last game of the season. His second season at head football coach had just concluded and his St. Johns Redwings, led by the seniors, went out in style, thrashing Ovid-Elsie 39-6 for a 7-1 record and a second-place finish in the West Central Conference with a 6-1 mark. Playing before their fathers at Dad's Night, the seniors, with some encouraging help from next year's seniors, scored almost all against the Marauders who closed out the season with their seventh loss against two victories. Charlie Green dashed for a pair of touchdowns and hauled in one of three Tim Durner touchdown passes for another. Durner hit Randy Atkinson and Steve Pettigrew for the other two while Jeff Silm ran for a six-pointer, kicked a PAT and passed to Wayne Bast for a two-point conversion. Ovid-Elsie's All Conference back Don Mulder scored the lone Marauder touchdown to tie the game with 11 seconds left the first period. Mulder, who dove two yards for the score, rushed for 51 of the Marauders' 111 yards. The Redwings got on the board mid-way through the first quarter when Atkinson made a picture catch on a dive in the end zone. The try for an extra point was blocked. Ovid-Elsie drove to the St. Johns six-yard line before Ron Lover fumbled and Dan Rademacher recovered. But the play was blown dead by the referee. O-E retained possession and two plays later Mulder scored. The Redwings dominated play throughout the second period and then exploded for three touchdowns with little more than three minutes left in the half. Green, who rushed for 105 yards in 11 carries, took a pitch and dashed seven yards for a touchdown with 3:06 remaining in the half. Scott Bennett, held for the extra point attempt but then flipped to the kicker Silm who passed for two points to Bast. About a minute later Green picked off a Marauder pass on the O-E 32 and scooted 30 yards to the two. Two plays later Silm took a handoff and scampered in for a touchdown almost untouched. Silm then booted the extra point and St. Johns led 21-6. The kickoff rolled to the O-E two-yard line and five plays later, Steve Mead recovered a Marauder fumble on the 20 with 16 seconds left in the half. On the first play, Durner hit Green for a 26-yard touchdown pass with nine seconds left in the half to give the Redwings a 27-6 lead. The Wings then tried an on-side kick which was recovered by the kicker Silm on the 50. St. Johns got off one play and

Green was run out of bounds as the gun went off and a scuffle broke out. Although tempers were hot, coaches and officials restrained the players without a major incident. St. Johns took the second half kickoff and didn't relinquish the ball until Durner passed nine yards to Rademacher for a touchdown with 6:10 left in the period. Then with 41 seconds remaining in the third period, Green took a handoff and scampered 32 yards for the final Redwing touchdown. St. Johns substituted freely in the final period and there were several unlikely names in the offensive backfield such as Brian Ballinger, a senior tackle, and there was a new split end named Bob Knight, a senior center. Knight showed his offensive

DeWitt 'lets down,' but blanks Morrice for 9th straight win

By BOB CALVERLEY
News Staff Writer

"The boys weren't up tonight," said coach Gary Roberts, "they played, probably, their worst game of the season."

So the DeWitt Panthers could only beat a tough Morrice team 22-0, for their sixth shutout of the season.

But dripping wet from his end-of-the-season-shower coach Roberts said in a jubilant DeWitt locker room after the game, "these guys are great, even when they're down."

In the first quarter Mike Botke caught a 15 yard pass to give DeWitt a 6-point lead.

Both teams played unspectacular football until the third quarter when Panther Mike Ashley batted a Morrice pass to Steve Tews in the end zone for another DeWitt touchdown.

DeWitt's last touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Tom Ashley stretched up to pull in a 15-yard toss from Joe LaMacchia.

Halfback Marty Langford twice ran for two point conversions to round out the scoring.

Mike Ashley playing defensive linebacker for the Panthers was easily the outstanding player on the field. On the 36 plays run by Morrice, Ashley made 15 solo tackles and assisted on 6 others.

DeWitt closes its season with nine victories, six of them shut-outs, and is the Central Michigan Conference Champions.

Olympic Spartans

The Michigan State co-ed swimming team has a couple of classy recruits for the 1969-70 season. They are 1968 U.S. Olympic team performers Linda Gustavson, sophomore from Santa Cruz, Calif. and Pam Kruse, freshman from Pompano Beach, Fla.

abilities at end when he snared a pass on a play that went for 51 yards. Standing on the playing field by the sideline, Knight obeyed whispered pleas from the bench to "get behind the line of scrimmage" while 10 other Redwings huddled. Unnoticed by Ovid - Elsie, Knight sprinted along the sidelines, hauled in the pass and made it to the 10-yard line.

Thus, the wings rushed for 196 yards and completed 10 passes in 20 attempts for 147 more and a total of 343 yards. Durner completed six for 12 for 120 yards in the air.

In addition to 111 yards rushing, Ovid-Elsie added 28 yards passing completing three of 14 attempts. Lower led the O-E offense with 76 yards rushing. Green paced St. Johns' offense with a total of 161 yards for the night, rushing for 105, plus 26 on his touchdown catch and the 30-yard runback on the interception.

Although he was a "standout" as a running back, Ballinger still managed to lead the defensive unit with 19 tackles, while Larry Wakefield had 12 and Silm had nine.

Quarterback Tim Durner completed six of 12 for 120 yards.

Band Sweetheart Ann Remus was given a dozen red roses and a kiss from Drum Major Doug Kurnez.

Double trouble

Michigan State sophomore Pat Miller of Menominee, worked out with the Spartan varsity basketball team in the morning, then punted five times for a 43-yard average in the afternoon as State's gridders beat Michigan.

St. Johns High School has dropped the English Department from its organizational chart and replaced it with the Department of Communication Arts.

Doug Japinga, department chairman, said the new title more accurately describes the ultimate purpose of the department—to teach communication skills.

In addition, the new title encompasses all the subject areas taught within the department: journalism, speech, theatre arts, English and English literature.

DOUG JAPINGA

Japinga also pointed out that communication arts more accurately describes the curriculum and extra-curricular activities sponsored by the department.

The activities include two major theatrical productions per year, an interscholastic competition in theatre arts, an award winning newspaper, an award winning yearbook, a book of student writings, an interscholastic debate team, an annual student trip to Stratford to attend Shakespearean play, and a musical production in conjunction with the music department.

Lutheran Church commemorates centennial

The Rev Dr W. Harry Krieger of Trinity Lutheran Church, Jackson, Michigan, will deliver the Centennial address at St. John's Lutheran Church at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 16.

Dr Krieger has a record of distinguished activity in the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod including service in World War II as a military chaplain in the Pacific area, during which he received numerous decorations and citations including the Purple Heart, Bronze Star Medals, and the Philippines Liberation Medal.

In addition to his home parish work he has served as President of the Michigan District, Fourth Vice-president of Synod, and on many synod boards and committees.

REV W. H. KRIEGER

THIS YEAR ST. JOHN'S is celebrating the 100th anniversary of the founding of Lutheranism in St. Johns, Michigan, with November designated as Centennial Renewal and Rededication Month.

St. John's, originally known as Zion's Evangelical Lutheran Church, was organized on Nov. 14, 1869, by 23 families of German immigrants who had made the difficult and perilous journey from their homes in Alsace and Darmstadt during the late 1840's through 1850's. Determined to worship according to their Lutheran beliefs, they held services for about six years in St. Johns in a residence where the Congregational parsonage now stands or in the homes of various members. Lutheran pastors who traveled long distances on foot, on horseback, or with some type of horse-drawn conveyance, ministered to them and to the other Lutheran churches in the area.

Among these Spirit-strengthened men were Pastors Furrer, Schmidt, Georgi, Schauer, and Witte. After an interurban electric line was constructed between Lansing and St. Johns, the Rev Paul F. Woldt of Lansing brought the Word and Sacraments to the congregation.

ABOUT 1875 THE members acquired a lot on what is now the corner of State and Morton

Streets and started building a one-room, white, frame church. Lumber for the purpose was hauled on sleighs in mid-winter from Muir. There is no record of the building progress, but the cornerstone date was 1879.

The earliest records are contained in two books, the first written mostly in German begins with the constitution and the twenty-three signers. This was dated Nov. 14, 1869. Six baptisms performed before that date are recorded. In 1883 and again in 1886 classes of seven children each were confirmed by the Rev J. H. Witte.

A parochial school teacher, Miss Helen Mull of Cleveland, Ohio, was hired in 1886 to teach the children of the Lutheran families in the vicinity. Regular subjects for grades 1 - 8 were taught as well as religion. Classes were held in a log house two miles west of St. Johns (corner of Airport and M-21). Sixteen children were enrolled from the Reeb, Becker, Diller, Seibert, and Bandt families. After Miss Mull left, the school was closed.

IT IS BELIEVED that most records of the church pertaining to years between 1928 and 1940 were lost in a fire that destroyed St. Paul Lutheran Church at Fowler. Some records were kept there because Fowler pastors, the Rev. E. P. Beyer and the Rev Arthur F. Beyer, were also serving St. John's at that time.

During the years between World War I and 1940 there was a decline in membership. It was suggested that the church be closed and the congregation transferred to Fowler, since some felt that there was less opportunity for growth in St. Johns where there were many other established denominations. However, a few members continued the struggle to maintain the church.

In 1939 and 1940 the Rev Merle Lutz and the Rev Otto Diefenbach came as missionaries and interested in continuing the services at Zion's revived. The first resident pastor, the Rev Elmer Bickel, was installed in 1942. The church was reorganized as St. John's Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, the building was renovated, a parsonage purchased, and proposals for building a new church set forth.

Mrs. Harter Dystrophy Chairman

Mrs. Mary Harter was named 1969 Campaign Chairman for the St. Johns area by the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America.

Mrs. Harter is a member of the St. Johns J-Cets which is sponsoring the local campaign this year as they did in 1968. Muscular Dystrophy Campaign will be held on the evening of Nov. 18, in the Ingham, Eaton and Clinton County areas.

There are more than 200,000 victims of the mysterious crippling disease in the United States and 40 of these patients are in the Tri-County area.

Mrs. Harter will also be getting support from the St. Johns High School group, the Medical Career Club. If anyone wishes to volunteer services please call Mrs. Harter at 224-6152.

THE REV ERIC CASH followed Pastor Bickel in 1948. A growing building fund and increased membership and activity in the church gave impetus to the building proposals. Shortly after the Rev Calvin R. Fiege came in 1952 a definite building program was set up, and the present church on US-27 at Sturgis Street was completed and dedicated in June 1957.

When Pastor Fiege accepted position as Michigan District Stewardship Counselor late in 1958, the Rev Fred Rutkowski took over the pastoral duties, serving from 1958 to 1965. A thirty foot redwood Memorial Cross was erected on the church grounds near the highway on June 4, 1961. A year later the present parsonage at 704 South Mead Street was purchased.

The interest in Christian education that was evidenced with the log cabin school in 1886 has continued and been increasingly stressed in recent years by the Rev. Theodore C. Moeller, Jr (1965-1968) and the present pastor, the Rev Robert D. Koepfen. A systematic fiscal, administrative, an educational program in keeping with the growth of the church and its potential has been put in operation. The congregation by the grace of God looks forward to continuing to build in the coming century on the firm foundation of faith in Christ laid with struggle and sacrifice, yet through His guidance, by those of the earliest days.

P. M. SESSION

Upon re-convening William Coffey, zoning administrator, appeared and presented the action taken by and the recommendations of that body at their August 28, 1969 meeting. Bath Township, to erect and maintain a mobile home park, requested by Eyde Development Co. It was moved by Montgomery, supported by Gove, to approve the action taken by the zoning commission. Voted and carried. (Supervisor Lankford opposed).

Item 1.—Bath Township (Louis J. Eyde) Approval and recommendations from the Clinton County Zoning Commission and the Clinton County Board of Supervisors to erect and maintain a mobile home park on the following described parcel of land:

The East 1/2 of the Northeast 1/4 of the East 20 acres of the South 60 acres of the West 1/2 of the Northeast 1/4, all in Section 32-5-1, except approximately one (1) acre parcel or less sold to the Park Lake Improvement Association.

Comments and action taken: The developer presented his plan for a combination multiple dwelling and mobile home park. He seems to have a good grasp of the zoning requirements and has more than met the requirements.

The plan contains a lagoon which must meet health requirements and has recreational areas and off-street parking. The proposed plan will be developed in stages over probably five (5) years or more.

We have a letter from Bath Charter Township dated July 10, 1969 in reference to the Eyde Development and have considered their recommendation.

A motion was made by John Amos to recommend to Clinton County Board of Supervisors provided developer meets requirements in proposed new ordinance. Motion seconded by Max Loudenbeck. Motion carried.

Dale Chapman, drain commissioner, presented the matter of certain parties obstructing the Corright Drain in DeWitt Township. He requests the Board's approval to spread on the tax roll costs of repairing the said drain in the amount of $1,098.54. It was moved by Andrews, supported by Lankford, to approve the action taken by the drain commissioner and assess the property, owned by Kesler and Karkau, 726 Clark St. Lansing, Michigan, who are owners by contract. The property appears on tax roll under De 466-Douglas-H. Smith, 9 15134 Turner Rd., R DeWitt, Michigan 48820.

After discussion it was moved by Lankford, supported by Chamberlain, to suspend at this time soil mapping in Clinton County. Voted and carried.

Mr Wilcox then presented a cost proposal on a comprehensive plan for the county as submitted by one of the firms bidding on the project. This is for information only and he requests no action on this proposal at this time.

Gerald Shepard then presented the 1970 budget. There were no interested parties present except the board and the press representative. The budget was reviewed and discussed. It was moved by Montgomery, supported by Hufnagel, to table at this time the 1970 budget. Voted and carried.

The chairman declared a recess at 3:30 p.m. Upon again coming to order, Roland Duguay, district court judge, appeared. He requests that all the facts be obtained when a question of policy or decision arises. Information is available at the district court and he will attempt to answer any questions which may arise.

Supervisor Gove suggests that the county might investigate the possibility of acquiring the former Dr Smith residence. Chairman Nobis referred the matter to the finance committee to investigate.

Supervisor Andrews reports a request from the St. Johns Chamber of Commerce on purchasing a nativity scene at a cost of $565.65. A show of hands were affirmative.

The annual tax conference will be held in Lansing September 29 and 30 (Jack Tar Hotel). The board is authorized to attend if they wish to.

Railway offers 11 $500 scholarships

The Chicago & North Western Railway Co. is offering 11 scholarships of $500 each to current or former 4-H members who are in their junior or senior year of college or in graduate school.

Eight of the scholarships are offered to students majoring or minoring in agricultural economics and three for those in agricultural business or forestry.

This year's scholarships reflect the increasing costs of college. Previously, the grants were for $400.

The offer is restricted to youths residing in the eight-state area—including Michigan—served by the railroad. Those considered for the awards must have completed at least one year in 4-H.

The Cooperative Extension Service chooses the winners who will be named at the 48th National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 30 - Dec. 4.

The railway has been a donor of 4-H awards for 47 consecutive years through the National 4-H Service Committee.

St. Johns High School debaters set to argue

Debaters from St. Johns High School will spend the next several months arguing for and against a proposition which occupies the minds of millions of Americans today:

Should Congress prohibit unilateral military intervention in the affairs of foreign nations? Members of the debate team will defend or denounce the proposition in verbal confrontations with teams from 10 Lansing schools during the Capital City Debate League's 1969-70 season.

The local contingent is composed of two affirmative teams and two negative teams plus some students not yet assigned to teams. The students will be working toward membership in the National Forensics League as a result of their participation in debate.

Arguing against the proposition will be Kathy Irrier, Jane

Smith, Steve Thornton and Marianne Butler.

Arguing for the proposition will be Diane Kanaski, Kathy Gaffney, Ron Whitefield, Kathy Beagle, Jim McQueen and Heidi Sunr.

Debaters will be prepared for verbal combat by their coach, Mrs Beverly Mosher. Mrs Mosher is Secretary-Treasurer of the Capital City Debate League this year. She has been elected to serve as president during the 1970-71 season.

Geographic Center

Impala's hidden persuaders:

① 350-cu.-in. engine
A new more powerful standard-250-hp V8 makes the 1970 Impala move with all the more assurance. On good ol' regular gas.

② Anti-theft column lock
A locking system is built right into the steering column. When you take your key with you, you lock not only your ignition, but your steering wheel as well.

③ Aluminized exhaust system
It simply means that your original muffler, tailpipe and exhaust are going to last longer than you'd probably expect them to. Fair enough?

④ Side guard beams
They look like highway guard rails, and they're built into both sides of the car for extra protection in case of impact. Not too many cars have them.

⑤ Inner fenders
Up inside every fender is another fender to protect against slush and mud and help keep your Impala looking young.

⑥ Flush and dry
We build the car so that rain and wash water can run down through the inside of the rocker panels, then out. Air follows to do the drying.

⑦ Full Coil suspension
Huge coil springs at all four wheels are four big reasons why a Chevrolet Impala rides smoother and quieter than a low-priced car has any right to.

CHEVROLET
On the move.

If only I had been born with the ability to reason and all the wisdom great decisions require.
Then I'd ask Daddy to teach me a prayer.
And I'd ask Mommy to read me a Bible story.
And, if nobody offered to take me, I'd walk myself to Sunday School.

But, as things are, I've no more say about my destiny than a missile has. You grown-ups decide how high—or how low—my life shall be aimed! And when to launch me! And where!

Bean growers to meet later this month

Bean growers of eight mid-state counties, comprising Michigan Bean Commission's Districts 1 and 3, will meet in late November to nominate commissioners, and to hear of progress in developing new markets and about problems facing the industry.

Each District meeting will nominate two candidates for commissioner, and will forward them to the Governor, who will appoint one to a three-year term. District 1, which includes Arenac, Bay, Isabella, Mecosta, Midland and Montcalm Counties, is now represented by Warner Meylan of Bay City. District 3, which is made up of Saginaw and Shiawassee Counties, has Wilford H. Root of Saginaw on the Commission. Each is eligible for re-nomination.

District 1 growers will meet at 8 p.m., Monday, November 24, in Midland County Courthouse Auditorium.

District 3 bean farmers will meet the following evening, 8 p.m. Tuesday, November 25, at Maple Grove Township Hall, on M-57 at Lincoln Road, three miles west of M-13.

Besides the nominations, there will be these highlights on the program:

1. Maynard D. Brownlee, secretary-manager, will tell of Commission activities in research and sales promotion, and will report on efforts to sell more beans to Europe, as well as to other countries. He will show slides of a recent canners' seminar held in Frankfurt, Germany, and London, by the Michigan Bean Industry, for European processors, canners and sales and advertising personnel.

2. Chief needs in research, and problems facing the bean industry, will be discussed by Prof. Leyton V. Nelson, extension specialist in crop science at Michigan State University.

3. How recipes are developed and tested for bulk uses of beans, and steps sponsored by the Commission and MSU in supplying new bean dishes and recipes for institutional use, will be told by Jean McFadden, MSU food scientist. Miss McFadden is expected to serve samples of a new bean dish which the University has been testing in cafeterias and lunch counters.

Time will be allotted for questions from the audience for all speakers, said Secretary-Manager Brownlee.

These new officers of the Michigan Association of Extension 4-H Youth Agents were elected recently during the annual Extension Conference at Michigan State University. The Extension 4-H youth agents are from left, Mrs. Linda Nierman, Genesee County, secretary; Charles Lang, Calhoun County, president; Alan Snider, Kent County, president elect; and John Aylsworth, Clinton County, treasurer. Keith Lamkin, Emmet County, vice-president, was absent.

Space age for farming

Rocket to the moon, rendezvous in space, or orbit the earth, is space talk and isn't strange to hear anymore.

The space age is here to stay and is now coming to farmers in the form of remote sensing devices in intricate cameras transported via satellite through space.

This "spy in the sky" soon to be circling the earth will be used to detect harmful elements to the farmers business, like crop diseases, insect attack and flood land.

Lift-off for the first agricultural remote sensing "space station" is scheduled for 1971 or 1972 according to Agri-Dynamics, a quarterly agriculture magazine.

The story reports that considerable research is still to be conducted here on earth before the blast off date.

Purdue University's Laboratory for Agricultural Remote Sensing (LARS) is collecting data of the earth to better judge the accuracy of the reports that later, it is hoped, will be transmitted from the space satellite.

The ultimate aim is to obtain accurate crop reports and see that the information gets to the right person, fast.

Present data-gathering services are lacking in both timeliness and accuracy.

Some of the many problems according to the report are the many different soil types and the fact that all crops are not planted at the same time. Furthermore the different varieties of crops planted must be considered. In addition weed conditions and flooded-out areas must be compiled.

But the report points out that the headaches will be worth it. One USDA official says that each dollar spent on remote sensing research promises to return $5 in benefits.

Cost or no cost, world hunger is a reality the report stresses. Agriculture, of course, is the vital key.

Remote sensing, say the scientists at LARS, promises to provide information that will alleviate the pressure on underdeveloped nations, to aid in more efficient use of the world's land and water resources, and countless other benefits—thanks to the space age.

Three of America's billion-dollar industrial corporations and 18 of its 100-million-dollar businesses are headquartered in Michigan.

Members at crop show

By JOHN AYLSWORTH
Extension 4-H Youth Agent

Sixty 4-H members, Exchange Club members and guests attended the Annual 4-H Crop Show Thursday evening sponsored by the St. Johns Exchange Club. Twenty 4-H members were guests of the Exchange Club and displayed excellent exhibits of their corn, wheat, soy beans, white beans and kidney bean projects.

Dr. Larry Copeland from the Crops and Soils Department at Michigan State University was the speaker and he discussed the 4-H Grain Marketing project. A movie called "The Speculators" was shown pointing out how grain is sold in futures and how the various market price is determined.

George McQueen Extension Agricultural Agent evaluated the exhibits with the members and for the Exchange Club members. This is an excellent opportunity for the urban exchange club members to visit with the rural youth, their fathers and leaders and learn about the 4-H crops program and the rural members learn more about the business men.

Kathy Nichols was the speaker for the County teen leader club and showed slides of her experience this past summer living with host families in Japan on the National 4-H Teen Caravan Program.

The teen leaders voted to go roller skating Dec. 18 at the Ranch Roller Rink in St. Johns and to hold a Christmas party on Dec. 4. A dollar gift exchange will be held following the group going caroling in the area Dec. 4.

E & W Woodworkers 4-H club is a new 4-H woodworking club under the leadership of Mr. Nell Pingel. E & W stands for boys from Eagle and Watertown townships. Officers elected for the winter program include President, Steve Bancroft; Vice President, William Lehman; Secretary and Newsreporter, Dennis Slocum; Treasurer, Gordon Enness. Presently there are 16 members in the new club. At their last meeting the members demonstrated their ability in driving nails straight and learned more about the 4-H club program from the Extension 4-H Youth Agent.

The Maple River Craftsmen 4-H club members held their achievement program including

A committee was appointed to plan the next year's program for each meeting. The teen leaders viewed slides of the National 4-H Center Expansion Drive, discussed a proposed exchange trip to another state and the National 4-H Citizenship Short Course.

Termites is the name of a new 4-H woodworking club in the Bath area. There are eight members under the leadership of Mr. Howard Hanson. The members learned how to read a ruler, discussed small hand tools they would need for their projects and laid out a project in making tool boxes at their next meeting Nov. 15 at the home of Mr. Hanson.

Eagle Borders 4-H Club is the new name selected by the boys in the Eagle township area under the leadership of Mr. James Palmer. There are 10 members taking woodworking projects.

Officers elected at their meeting include president, Brian Walsh; Vice President, Clair Rowland; Secretary, David Nelson; Treasurer, Mark Whitney. The members learned about measuring, combination square, angles and using a miter box. The members made recipe holders for their mothers and tool boxes for themselves.

EXTENSION REPORT

Corn Lodging

By GEORGE McQUEEN

Corn lodging is serious this year. Even a passing 65 m.p.h. glance sees the down corn.

Most stalk breakage is the result of stalk rotting fungi such as Gibberella, Diplodia, several Fusariums and in some cases other organisms.

These diseases are favored by certain conditions, some within our control. More lodging is usually found when:

1—A variety matures and dries while temperatures or humidity or both are high. This is more of a problem with some early maturing varieties.

2—Potassium supply to the corn plant is too low.

3—Much refuse of other crops offer a ready supply of "seed" organisms.

4—Early frost, drought, leaf blight, hail, insect or mechanical injury breaks the plant "skin."

5—Stands are thick planted, and so weaken the lower stalk that it falls over easily. Losses may occur from dropped ears, stalk breakage and dropping from picking snouts, grinding or ear tips by snapping rolls, and excess trash in the machine.

Infection and rotting may occur also in the kernels, cob, ear stem, leaf etc. to cause additional problems in ear loss, drying, storage and feed quality.

The same organisms can and do cause disease in other grasses such as wheat, oats, barley and rye.

Impossible to eliminate, they can be reduced in effect by:

1—Selecting resistant hybrids.

2—Treating seed with a fungicide.

3—Having soil in good shape with good tile drainage, minimum tillage and cover crops.

4—Doing a good clean job of plowing.

5—Proper fertilizer applications based on a sound soil sampling and testing program.

6—Harvesting early, especially in years when rot may be a problem.

Those farmers with crop dryers or access to them and those storing high moisture corn in silos for feed have the best chance for reducing losses from down corn due to stalk rot.

Unless a youth marries a saving chick, there goes the nest egg.

Blood goes further

When there is a disaster, one of the first needs is plasma to treat the injured. Disasters have dramatized the importance of blood and plasma, but growing use of these lifesaving agents in illness and advanced surgery has resulted in a chronic blood shortage.

The October issue of The Reader's Digest contains an article on ways to relieve the blood shortage, which has become "a dangerous, growing national phenomenon." The article describes "component therapy" which involves separating blood into cellular and protein components and giving each patient only the part that he needs.

All of which means that if you are in good health and between the ages of 21 and 66 you can help by giving blood regularly at your blood bank or collection center. Blood is needed more than ever before; and, under the new technology of component therapy, your single donation may help as many as seven persons.

No miracle

Dwindling popularity of the passenger train has left the impression among some people that railroads are an outmoded form of transport. In fact, they wonder why the railroads, as a transport holdover from another age, are still with us.

In no uncertain terms, the head of the Association of American Railroads provides the answer in an Address entitled "The Seven Wonders of Railroad-ing." As he points out, the railroads are still here because their services are badly needed. But, this alone would not have assured their survival.

By keeping up with the nation's transportation requirements, the rails, far from playing a diminishing role in transportation, have become increasingly essential at a time when each and every American needs 10,000 ton-miles of transport service annually to meet his requirements or desires.

As the originators of mass transport, the rails are now taking the lead in advocating the system and the policies upon which the transportation industry must build for the future.

Back Thru the Years

Interesting Items from the Files of the Clinton County News

10 YEARS AGO TODAY (Nov. 12, 1959)

A wave of criminal action ranging from safe cracking to shoplifting kept state, county and city law enforcement agencies busy this week.

Burglars pried open a safe at the Ovid Farmers Elevator and obtained money and checks totaling $900.

Police believe it was the same burglars who opened a safe at DeWitt Oct. 2 and obtained $325 cash and a quantity of high quality merchandise, from Reed's Foodliner.

A total of 29 seniors, the largest number to graduate in many years, poses a rebuilding task ahead for Director Frank Jilka and the St. Johns High School Band.

The Bulldogs won 32-0, the Wings never had it so bad; Ionia could do no wrong.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY (Nov. 9, 1944)

President Roosevelt was elected president for the fourth time, vice-president will be Harry S. Truman. Throughout the state and nation a "record" vote was being announced.

Mr and Mrs Harry Carpenter received the following letter from the War Department last week, three months from the date their son Lt. Jack Carpenter was reported missing in action.

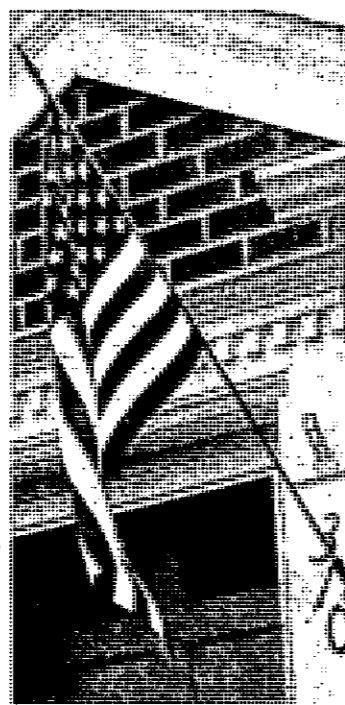

The Provost Marshall General has directed me to inform you of the transfer of 1st Lt. Rexford Jack Carpenter, prisoner of war to the camp indicated (Stalag Luft 3, Germany).

50 YEARS AGO TODAY (Nov. 13, 1919)

Two weeks ago through the columns of this newspaper, attention was called to the fact St. Johns has reached the place in the road where she will have to decide as to what her future will be in reference to furnishing power for her present and future industries.

Two courses are open to her: The one to say to her present, and say to her future industries, "We cannot furnish you power; you must take your industries to cities where they can and will furnish power."

The other is to sufficiently bond the city for sufficient sums to build a light and power plant. Hence as suggested within the next few weeks the taxpayers of St. Johns will have presented to them the question of bonding the city for the purpose of building and equipping a light and power plant that will mean progress and economy.

"Hey--Wait for Me!"

Memory

Memory is oft elusive And, too often full of tricks, Mine I find is really vicious, Leaves me quickly in a fix; Seems whenever I would trust it, It just keeps me in a sweat, Trying vainly to remember, All the things I now forget.

Some folks say I'm just forgetful, And conclude I'm growing old, When excusing my poor memory, How I forget all I'm told; So I try a little harder Seeking calm when I would fret, Till again I can't remember All the things I should forget.

Memory's path is full of failures, Seems I hardly ever dare Trust it in a time of trouble, Lest it lose me in its lair; As a means to future glory, Maybe I could hedge my bet, If I forget to remember, And remember to forget!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Bath official voices protest

Dear Editor:

I would like to protest the article on the front page of your Oct. 22 issue in regard to problems of the Bath Board of Education, with our cafeteria program. It was stated that the board received a letter from five employees questioning the policies of Mrs Ardith Rosekrans.

The statement attributed to Robert Zeeb, board member, was taken out of context and made to appear almost the opposite of what he intended, according to my recollection.

The article stated that the board ordered equal hourly rates be established at once and the facts be posted on the bulletin boards for the cafeteria workers. If such were the case I should find this "motion" in the minutes as I am secretary of the board. No such "motion" was even offered.

I feel that the board realizes we have problems caused primarily by two reasons. This is the first year of operation of our new elementary cafeteria and the administration is feeling its way in regard to the work load required to staff it.

The board did ask the superintendent to look into the matter and give us a "written" report at our next meeting.

I am a defender of freedom of the press but when a publication prints misleading articles on its front pages I must protest.

I feel our problems can be solved with patience and forbearance and perhaps a little of Solomon's proverbial wisdom.

Sincerely, Paul Seeger Member Board of Education Bath Community Schools

TAKING FIVE

With tongue in cheek

By RON HUARD

(With apologies to Rev William A. Spooner, doc, and those of you who may never make it past the first sentence.)

A number of neeks ago our family had the food fortune of camping at Holland State Park with the Lowell Rinkers.

The former editor of Clinton County News gave me a call one afternoon and the idea dounded sood so see wet a into.

Aside from having a jost emoyable weekend there were several thoofy gings that happened, not the least of litch was our purposeful expressions of spoonerisms.

It all began when I pointed out to my family that I was wearing walking shorts by glibly intoning, "I shot my gorts out!"

It was a long time before we got over this tang tongued statement. In fact the laughter carried into our weeting with the Rinkers. Rink, who is not one to be outdone when it comes to word play, picked up the ball and began a broken field run.

"We just passed a giniature molf course," he said gleefully, and pointing to a large marina cried out, "Bookit all the loats!"

ment and this, of course, only prompted us further.

I can't say the entire weekend was spent in toungeing up our tangs, but there were some milarious moments, shoe be tour. All of which shows to go you that it doesn't take too much to make some of us contented. . .once we find out which cheek to put our tongue into.

STRICTLY FRESH

The only families without skeletons in the closet are those with more ample storage room in the attic.

Of course it pays to keep your house in repair. Just ask the plumber, the carpenter, the electrician. . .

The one thing most people need for breakfast is time.

If dolphins are as intelligent as suspected, they'll refuse to communicate with man.

'IF IT FITZ . . .'

Crewcut sergeants

By JIM FITZGERALD

It's 24 years since I was an army sergeant but I still wear my hair in the standard topknot fashion, with most of my ugly skull showing through.

I was reminded of this recently when pictures of Sgts William Woodriddle and William Higdon began appearing in the newspapers.

These guys are right out of Central Casting. The photos showed only their few hairs, many stripes and brave jaws. But you can bet a 3-day pass you could cut your finger on the crease in their pants. They always stand stiff and bark yessir and nossir to officers.

Such sergeants are made of the stern stuff required to keep America safe. They make Little Old Ladies feel secure and they furnish the raw material from which John Wayne fashions Academy Award nominations.

Soldiers like Higdon and Woodriddle are usually pictured on recruiting posters. But here they are on the front page and the headline says "Sergeants Take Fifth in Kick-back Scandal."

Goodness gracious. Is nothing sacred?

Higdon and Woodriddle appeared before a U.S. Senate investigating committee. They are accused of having their meaty paws in Uncle Sam's pockets. It is charged that millions of bucks were swiped in a sweet racket wrapped around the operation of army service clubs in the U.S. and overseas.

They have a perfect right to clam up, of course. It is one of the rights they fought for in Vietnam or Colombia or Little Rock. But what about the image of the hard-core American sergeant? Can you see John Wayne hiding behind the 5th amendment when questioned by some lousy pinko senator? I guess not.

And, for gosh sakes, what about the image of the crew haircut?

Everyone knows that long-haired boys are shiftless punks who shouldn't be allowed in school unless they're playing guitar at the senior prom. Some of my best over-40 friends can judge a boy's character, ambition, relatives, friends and blood type simply by his haircut. This saves a lot of trouble. College professors have created elaborate psychological tests which cannot reveal that much about a person. But you and Spiro know what a bunch of weirdos those professors are. Some of 'em even wear beards and carry signs.

All responsible parents raise their children to understand that the more hair a man has, the less likely he is to be elected commander of the Legion post. But now comes some crewcut sergeants to fog up our prejudices.

What's the answer?

Well, I just remembered why I bucked so hard for sergeant's stripes 24 years ago. It was so I could be admitted to the Sergeants Club at Camp Polk, La. That's where all the action was--booze, girls and gambling. I gained a lot of bad, longtime habits to go with my short hair. And my conduct has been somewhat suspect ever since.

I think I'll be a good boy, turn over a new leaf, and let my hair grow.

Stop the presses

By RON KARLE, Editor

Human nature being what it is, tends to stereotype people.

Other people, naturally. Not us.

We've all said something like "He looks like a southern deputy sheriff" or "he looks like an accountant," etc. only to find the roles completely reversed.

None-the-less, the stereotyping goes on. Well, just a few weeks ago, I was the victim of stereotyping myself.

I would have been pleased if they had said, "You must be a jet fighter pilot" or "Don't you play third base for the Tigers?" or something like that.

It was over at Richards Dairyland where I was engaged in my afternoon repast when one of the gals, Helen I believe, asked if I was a new teacher from the high school.

I know we all have exaggerated images of ourselves, but one of mine was never as a teacher.

When I was a kid there were regular people and then there were teachers. I supposed I've never quite gotten over that even though today I like to say some of my best friends are teachers.

Anyway, I sat there trying to determine how to respond. I took a hefty swig of my black coffee just like Bogart would have done, nonchalantly fingered the press card stuck in my hat band and tried to think of something to say in newspaper talk.

"Stop the presses" was definitely out of the question and "Hold page one" seemed especially out of place since I wouldn't even have a page one to hold for another three days. I decided to pull the old "How do you spell your last name" thing.

"How do you spell your last name, Ma'am?" I said pulling out my pencil and pad.

"Are you going to report me to the principal?" she asked. "No. I'm going to interview you," I replied feeling rather foolish about the entire episode. "I'm a reporter."

"Ah, g'wah. You're going to turn me into the principal."

They all chuckled at that one while I wondered how Clark Kent, who had the advantage of being Superman, would have handled the situation.

I knew Kent would need a phone booth to change in but the only one in sight was right outside on Main Street.

A guy could get arrested for doing something like that.

Well, that all was some time ago and I still am a regular at Richards and they finally have been convinced that I'm not the new school marm.

But I'm not sure if they realize that I'm a hard-bitten old newspaper editor who scoops everybody in sight, gets drunk and solves all the police cases while leading an exciting life mingling with famous personalities.

About the most famous personality I've been associated with recently is one of the suspects in the Pemawo bank robbery. Several people have told me I resemble the driver of the get-away car.

Anyway, they've finally conceded over there at Richards that I'm a newspaper guy.

All I did was get a birth announcement in the paper for friends of one of the gals over there.

Now they think I'm the society editor.

From the state house

By DICK ALLEN 88th District Representative

Michigan has for a long time been noted as a state with good roads. No doubt this tradition had its origins in our leadership role in automobile manufacture. Compared to other states, I think our State Highway Department has been relatively free of scandal and partisan politics.

I do think that the emphasis on freeways created by the Federal Interstate Highway Program of the last ten years has obscured a growing problem. Our local roads in the country and in small towns have not kept pace. In many cases they have actually deteriorated. A good many bridges in the 88th District are either closed or restricted to weights somewhat less than modern trucks expect to haul. Many school buses travel miles out of their way to avoid risky brige crossings.

So much attention has recently been focused on local school finance that other budget areas in local governments may get ignored. In 1967 the Legislature, as part of the "Good Roads" package increased both the gas tax and the weight tax or license fees. This is now showing up as increases in amounts received by counties and municipalities for road construction and upkeep.

The following are amounts received in the past two years by counties and towns in the 88th District area for the year ending June 30, 1968 and June 30, 1969 respectively:

COUNTIES: Clinton, $814,555, $960,494; Eaton, $959,914, $1,156,497; Gratiot, $865,424, $1,015,741; Midland, $818,961, $984,982.

CITIES, VILLAGES: Alma, $95,215, $114,216; Breckenridge, $16,195, $18,964; Coleman, $20,273, $23,637; Elsie, $12,960, $15,196; Fowler, $11,962, $14,011; Grand Ledge, $50,630, $60,788; Ithaca, $37,975, $45,321;

Maple Rapids, $9,141, $10,718; Midland, $374,420, $432,347; Ovid, $19,068, $22,433; Perrinton, $7,625, $8,848; St. Johns, $67,878, $81,310; St. Louis, $43,564, $52,131; Westphalia, $9,271, $10,786.

There should be some increases next year due to increased fees on trucks. No doubt, with increased maintenance and construction costs this still falls short of the amounts needed for improvements in many areas.

This is another reason I believe we should not use a statewide property tax for schools. Property tax moneys are desperately needed by local governments for local projects.

View from the 87th

By WILLIAM S. BALLENGER
State Representative

A few weeks ago, I presented a list of all the State Representatives from Clinton County from 1837 till the present day. This week, I'll conclude by reviewing the names of every State Senator elected from this county since Michigan became a state—and I'll document a few interesting facts and figures besides.

I should mention first that Clinton County has never possessed a population large enough to support a single senatorial district all by itself. For this reason, it's always been connected with one or more adjacent counties to make up a district, although the number and names of these counties have changed from time to time. For this reason, often in its history Clinton County has been represented in the State Senate by men from other counties. The following is a list of just the 18 men who lived in Clinton County when they served in the upper chamber in Lansing.

JESSE F. TURNER of DeWitt (1844-45), Democrat; David Sturgis of DeWitt (1851-52), Democrat; Dr Isaac T. Hollister of Victor Township (1857-58), Republican; Randolph Strickland of DeWitt (1861-62), Republican; Henry M. Perrin of St. Johns (1865-66), Republican; Stephen Pearl of Greenbush Township (1869-70), Republican; Adam Beattie of Ovid (1873-74), Republican; Porter K. Perrin of St. Johns (1877-78), Republican; Henry H. Jensen of Eagle Township (1883-84), Democrat elected on a Fusion ticket with Greenbacker support; Orrin G. Pennell of DeWitt (1885-86), Greenbacker elected on a Fusion ticket with Democratic support; George A. Steel of St. Johns (1893-94), Republican; Elisha Mudge of Maple Rapids (1897-98), Democratic People's Union Silver; Hiram H. High of Ovid (1901-02), Republican; Coleman C. Vaughan of St. Johns (1903-04 and 1911-12), Republican; William M. Smith of St. Johns (1913-14), Republican; George G. Hunter of St. Johns (1923-26), Republican; Edward W. Fehling of St. Johns (1935-38), Republican; and Dr Bion L. Bates of Ovid (1947-50), Republican.

Out of the 18 men who were elected State Senators from Clinton County, 13 were Republicans, four were Democrats, and there was one Greenbacker, Orrin G. Pennell of DeWitt, who, as I've noted above, was elected for a two-year term on a Fusion ticket with Democratic support in 1884. Two of the Democrats were elected before the GOP was formed "under the oaks" at Jackson in 1854, and since 1896 no Democrat from Clinton County has been elected to the State Senate.

THE GEOGRAPHICAL distribution of State Senators has not been so diffused within Clinton County as has been the case with the State Representatives. For instance, seven of the 18 State Senators were from St. Johns, four were from the DeWitt area and three were from Ovid. That doesn't leave too many for anybody else.

In addition, Clinton County has sent two of its sons to Congress, two to the Secretary of State's office in Lansing, and one each to the position of State Treasurer and State Auditor General.

One of the Congressmen was Randolph Strickland, who resided first in the DeWitt area and later in St. Johns. He is mentioned above as a State Senator from 1861-62. Prior to that time he had served as Clinton County Prosecuting Attorney for eight years. A Republican, he served as U.S. Representative during 1869-70.

THE OTHER CONGRESSMAN was Rep. Oliver Lyman Spaulding of St. Johns, who served on the University of Michigan Board of Regents from 1858-64; as Michigan Secretary of State from 1867-70; and as U.S. Representative from 1881-83. Also a Republican, he was a lawyer and married the daughter of one of St. Johns' founding fathers, John Swegles, Jr. John W. Swegles, Jr., himself was the only Michigan Auditor General ever elected from Clinton County. Born in Hector, N.Y., in 1819, he came to Michigan in 1840. In 1853, he selected, on behalf of a company of which he was a member, the site of the present city of St. Johns, the land purchased comprising 920 acres. He built a saw mill and stove house the next year and employed men to clear the land. One story has it that St. Johns was named after him. A Democrat, he served as Michigan Auditor General from 1851-54 while he helped found the city. He died on Dec. 17, 1861, and is buried in St. Johns.

self was the only Michigan Auditor General ever elected from Clinton County. Born in Hector, N.Y., in 1819, he came to Michigan in 1840. In 1853, he selected, on behalf of a company of which he was a member, the site of the present city of St. Johns, the land purchased comprising 920 acres. He built a saw mill and stove house the next year and employed men to clear the land. One story has it that St. Johns was named after him. A Democrat, he served as Michigan Auditor General from 1851-54 while he helped found the city. He died on Dec. 17, 1861, and is buried in St. Johns.

Clinton County's other Secretary of State (Spaulding is mentioned above) was Coleman C. Vaughan of St. Johns. A Republican, Vaughan served non-consecutive terms as a State Senator (1903-04 and 1911-12) and occupied the office of Secretary of State from 1915-1920—in other words, all through World War I.

THE ONLY OTHER man elected to statewide office from Clinton County was George A. Steel of St. Johns, who served as State Treasurer from 1897-1900 after an earlier stint as State Senator (1893-94). He also was a Republican.

The only remaining story to be told is that of the famous U.S. Senator from Michigan, Zachariah Chandler, who was born in 1813 and died in 1879. Chandler served as Mayor of Detroit from 1851-52, having been elected on the Whig ticket. A couple of years later, he was instrumental in founding the Republican Party and was later elected Republican National Chairman and, later, Michigan Republican Chairman (1878-79), a position he occupied at the time of his death.

Chandler, who served as U.S. Senator for 18 long important years from 1837-75 and again for a few months before his death in 1879, bought from the Michigan Agricultural College, (now MSU) and other owners, some 3160 acres of land in Bath and DeWitt Townships while he was a U.S. Senator. This land was designated on surveyors' maps as "swamp-land" and was located about four miles from Lansing, and Saginaw Railroad. Although Chandler never lived there, when he was in Michigan he visited the farm at least once a month. He called it the "marsh farm" and always rated his visits to his property as "a certain and delightful tonic."

THE FARM INCLUDED about 1900 acres of marsh meadow, 500 acres of tamarack swamp, and 800 acres of oak-opening uplands.

Chandler invested thousands of dollars in reclaiming the marshland by connecting, with a large ditch, the 235 acres of Park Lake with the Looking Glass River. The ditch was four miles long, 14 feet wide, and four feet deep.

By 1879, the results (corn, potatoes, rutabagas, and oats) raised by Chandler's superintendent convinced the Senator that the marshland possessed general productiveness.

A short time before his death, Chandler opined that in view of the success of the experiments already tried, he felt the farm would be pointed out in time as an agree-ly transformed into one of the most valuable pieces of property in central Michigan.

Today, part of the area is residential and includes several sod farms as well as the Davis Airport. Chandler Road, which divides Bath and DeWitt Townships, is named after Zachariah Chandler.
