St Johns denies zoning request

ST JOHNS - St Johns Commissioners supported a recommendation from the city planning commission Monday night denying a rezoning request for a proposed senior citizens complex.

The request, submitted by Tranchell House, a non-profit organization, was turned down due to a lack of utilities. An engineer's report showed the area, south of Andy's IGA in northwest St Johns, is inadequate due to insufficient storm sewers.

City fathers have been plagued with complaints from home owners in that area of flooded basements and property. One Garfield Street resident, Lon Canum appeared before the commission Monday night asking for a definite answer as to what the city plans to do.

Mayor Robert Wood told Canum, "We're trying to make some sort of coordinating plan so we don't duplicate ourselves as we have in the past. Until then we have no authority to approve anything for 1 specific area."

"We're aware of your problems but we're still in the middle of the sewer study," said Commissioner James Grosz. The sewer evaluation has been underway for about 3 weeks by Williams and Works of Grand Rapids.

A motion by Commr John Hannah was approved asking for the engineer's recommendation for the Garfield St area. The commission requested it be placed on the Nov 27 agenda with a report from city manager Harvey Weatherwax.

MS JUANITA O'Leary appeared before the commission asking for a sewer extension for 2 vacant lots she owns on Scott Road. The matter was temporarily tabled pending reports from the city engineer and manager.

Tentative go-ahead was given to Gary Baker of John Carpenter Building Assoc, Inc, Flint for a public works contract to extend a water line on Hurd Street. The main will be extended some 250 feet from either Lansing or Church to the property in the middle of the block as recommended by the city engineer contingent to the city manager's approval.

Mrs Clair Haske was appointed to fill a vacancy on the city planning commission following the resignation of Rollin Huard. Reappointed were James McKenzie, Board of Review, 3 years; Dr Stephenson, Board of Appeals, 3 years; James Moore, Planning Commission, 3 years; Edward Idzkowski, Parking Lot Board, 2 years; Edward Mankey, Parking Lot Board, 2 years; Tony Kuntz, Library Board, 5 years; Ed Schmitt, Park Board, 2 years; Lester Lake, Park Board, 2 years.

In other action - A land use survey as required by the zoning ordinance was approved.

And commissioners adopted ordinance 250 on the second reading creating a volunteer fire department.

Make sure license cash stays in county

State Senator William S Ballenger has urged all mid-Michigan vehicle owners to check their license plate registration forms to be sure that their proper county of residence is recorded.

"License plate fees are a major source of revenue for local road improvement," explained Ballenger.

"Often a vehicle owner will record on the registration form the county where his car is purchased or where he works rather than his county of residence. This means that he's cheating himself and his own county, which won't be getting its fair portion of his license plate fees. Instead, this money goes to the county where he works or where he happens to buy his car or register it," Ballenger pointed out that each county is coded with a two-digit number. "I suggest that each registrant check the coding on his registration form, and if the county of residence is not recorded there, he should make the correction." The code for Clinton County is 19.

Local Lions in France

Mr and Mrs Ralph A Lynam, of 207 East State Street, St Johns, are greeted by Alain Poyer, president of the Senate of France. The Lynam's attended a board of directors meeting of Lions International in Paris, and Senate President Poyer, a member of the Paris Lions Club, hosted a reception in his official residence for the Lions International Directors from around the world.

While motorists traveling Monday night might not have been too enthusiastic about the first snowfall of the season, the clinging white snow offered a peaceful scene in many places of the county. Swirling damp snow provided this scene at the entrance way of the Franciscan Friars Retreat House, in DeWitt.

United Fund at 38% of its goal

ST JOHNS - Clinton County United Fund officials announced that as of last Thursday, 38 per cent of the $29,000 fund goal has been reached. The campaign officially ends next Thursday and officials are doubtful that the total goal will be reached in this area.

Some 46 agencies, both local and county and state associations and national organizations receive funds. Seven divisions were established this year for the 4-week drive and the door-to-door canvass was eliminated. Among the divisions is a special gifts committee headed by Rolan Sleight and Lester Lake. Persons who have not been contacted to date may call either Lake, 224-2417 or Sleight, 224-3978 to make their contribution. These would include people who aren't in business, retirees or newcomers to the area.

Bath elects 3 Dems, 2 Reps to Township Board

Bath Township voters elected 3 Democrats and 2 Republicans to serve on the Township Board in last Tuesday's election.

Carl VanSickle (Rep) retained his supervisor's post with 990 votes while Carl Crofts (Dem) polled 694 votes.

In a close race for clerk, June Burnett (Dem) defeated Lee Reasoner (Rep) by 10 votes. Mrs Burnett received 847 votes to 837 for Reasoner.

Thomas Woodruff (Dem) won the treasurer's race with 930 votes, while his opponent Priscilla McGonigal

(Rep) received 742 votes.

DANIEL CARLTON (Dem) polled the most votes for 1 of 2 2-year trustee terms. He received 920 votes and Richard Bragdon (Rep) was elected to the other 2-year term with 831 votes.

Robert Briggs (Dem) was defeated with 806 votes, as was John Hawkins (Rep) with 723.

In the race for representation on the County Board of Commissioners, Gerald Shepherd (Rep) was re-elected, defeating his Democratic opponent James Cronk Jr 881-793.

Fulton schools will try vote again

If at first you don't succeed try again. That's what the Fulton School District is doing Dec 9. Officials are asking voters to approve a $1,845,000 bond issue to construct a middle school and a 2-room addition to the high school.

In August 1969, a similar proposal was defeated at the polls by 149 votes, according to Supt Walno Pihl. He stresses need is greater than it was 3 years ago and says "if we don't try again we would be neglecting our responsibility to provide the children's educational needs."

"People know we need it," states Pihl, "but there is a reluctance on their part. They still feel there will be a tax referendum even with the recent defeat of Proposal C. They think Gov Milliken and the legislature will act on this and their taxes will be eased. But we can't wait."

The proposal calls for a long term bonding program with a debt retirement of not more than 5.3 mills. This would be in addition to the present 2 mills debt retirement. "Bonds have had preliminary qualification," says Pihl, "and if the state equalized assessed value in the district doesn't go up, it could be over a 40-year period."

Currently the district is using 10 portable classrooms. Middleton has 2 (1 is a double unit), Perrinton 3, Maple Rapids, 2 and the high school 3. The new middle school would serve 5th through 8th graders and would be built south of the high school for a fall '74 occupancy. The 50,221 square feet of space would feature 12 classrooms. Folding doors would be built-in so each room could be divided into 2 smaller areas. "We can give the boys and girls a much more varied education than they now have," explains Pihl. "In the past we had traditional classrooms, but with the folding walls we can have team teaching." A recent law passed says vocational or career education must be introduced in the elementary grades. Included in the plans are areas for arts and crafts, basic shop, general science and instructional materials. A gymnasium is also planned with folding tables, along with special education typing and music rooms. A modern kitchen would be used to transport hot lunches to Middleton and Perrinton Schools.

The 2,000 square foot addition to the high school would be an industrial arts and art room and a science room. Pihl says questions are being asked why additions are not made to Perrinton and Middleton. "There's not enough land at Maple Rapids," he says, "and the front of the old building at Perrinton has been condemned by the state fire marshal."

With sewage systems going in at Perrinton and the Rainbow Lake area, there are going to be more homes in the Fulton district, states Pihl. The cost of building materials is going up and up every year, he adds. "It's hard to feel the pulse of the people," he admits, "but we are asking any qualified elector who has resided in the state for 6 months and for 20 days prior to the election to get out and vote."

FACT finder

Q. We have a $1000 note on the Bank of the United States in New York, Philadelphia dated Dec 15, 1840. Can you tell us if it is of any value? BK, DeWITT.

A. Chances are 99 out of 100 it's worth 25¢. Collector Ralph Hinkle of Muskegon specializes in US currency in paper. He says there are about 9000 copies like yours usually on parchment and usually a reproduction. If you want to be sure send a photostatic copy to Coin World, Sidney, Ohio. Hinkle says he has a $10 and $20 note from series #1 St Johns dated 1902. Now they're worth something - $200 for the pair.

Q. I would like to know the facts about the bells in the First Methodist Church in St Johns. Some say Hicks did all. But it seems a man by the name of Martin also had something to do with it. AS, TUCSON, ARIZ

A. Easter morning April 23, 1916, was the first morning the Memorial Chimes first pealed forth their songs of praise from the St Johns Methodist Church. The bells were installed by Mrs Ida Hicks Rawson Bishop and John C Hicks in memory of their mother, Eliza Ann Huston Hicks. There are 11 bells in the chime, comprising the 8 notes of the octave, a sharp fourth, a flat seventh and 1 tone above the octave. Net weight of the bells is 11,600 pounds with the framing complete 17,000 pounds. During a fire Oct 10, 1936, considerable anxiety was felt for the tower and its valued possession. Streams of water were directed at that part of the church. Scarcely had the fire died down when the bells sang forth with "Faith Of Our Fathers Living Still."

Speak Out

The last Speak Out, inadvertently, was omitted from last week's edition of the Clinton County News. The question concerned how county voters would cast their ballots for Proposal E, asking whether the state should be allowed to borrow $28,000,000 to pay bonuses to veterans.

Voters at the polls in Clinton County last Tuesday approved the proposal by a narrow 9323-9293 margin, but the proposal was defeated statewide.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION:

Would you be willing to support, with time and money, a volunteer ambulance service for Clinton County? YES. NO

To submit your vote and comments, call 224-2361 day or night and your answer will be received or mail a card to the Clinton County News, 120 E Walker St, St Johns.

Snowmobile rules set for park

ST JOHNS - There will be two areas closed to snowmobiles in the St Johns city park this year. The first area closed is the center section of the park encircled by the paved drives containing the ice skating rink and the sledding hill.

This area will be designated as a play area for smaller children for sledding, skating, etc.

The second area to be closed is that immediately surrounding the park office, garage, house and rest rooms.

This area is closed for the safety of the people using it and because of snow removal equipment and park equipment movements mainly in this area. The park hours must also be observed. No snowmobiling will be permitted after 10:30 pm or before 8:00 am.

THE CITY ASKS all snow machine operators to please obey these rules as failure to do so will result in the entire park being closed to snowmobiles. Signs will be placed around the designated areas. Caution should be used by snowmobilers as the front or north roads in the park will be opened to vehicle traffic.

Annual meeting time for state's Farm Bureau

The 53rd Annual Meeting of the Michigan Farm Bureau, the state's largest general farm organization, opened Monday in Grand Rapids Civic Auditorium.

More than 1000 farmers were in attendance to hear Michigan Farm Bureau President Elton R. Smith deliver his annual address.

Smith commented on the results of the election. He said, "Yesterday we, the voters of this nation, expressed our views on important issues affecting the future of agriculture and our entire society. Our actions involved more than just choosing between candidates for important local, state and national offices.

This election decided that agriculture should continue to have open access to foreign markets, that we in agriculture shall have freedom to manage our farming operations with less government influence and will have access to the marketplace for our products. Farmers spoke clearly with their vote at the polls and our influence has been felt."

HE ALSO commented on the defeat of Proposal C. "Today is a sad day for property owners and especially Michigan Farm Bureau members. After a long hard struggle, Proposal C was defeated. However, we are not yet ready to retire from tax issues. We must continue to support tax reform and relief which will lead to a more equitable balancing of the Michigan tax structure," Smith said.

Following the morning's program, a kick-off luncheon was held.

The main banquet, scheduled for Monday, featured Distinguished Service to Agriculture awards, Young Farmer Awards and the crowning of the Michigan Farm Bureau Queen.

Attention Thursday and Friday will focus on the consideration of resolutions by county Farm Bureau delegates.

Clinton County Area CHURCH NEWS

The Lowe Woman's Society met at the home of Ruby Pierce Wednesday at 7:30. The meeting opened by a short worship service by Doris Shinaryer dwelling on various times that the members have to be thankful for - some offered by each member present.

Alving East played a tape recording by someone who had been a communist prisoner in the Soviet Union for several years. He told of his various experiences and treatment by his captors. A short business meeting was held and a report was given by Mabel Frost of the installation service by Margaret Seideman, district WSCS president, held at the Greenbush Church for all three churches' officers.

Tona Anderson reported on the study group that had met at her house on Tuesday with 10 people present, and the lesson on Romans given by Marbeth Hynes.

The next study meeting will be at Laura Powers' on Tuesday, Nov 21, with Cook as discussion leader. It was announced by the president that on Nov 19 the society would have an annual fall harvest festival at the church with everyone bringing their harvest produce to the church.

The committee for decoration and dedication is composed of Marbeth Hynes, Eloise Cook, and Dolores Betz.

An executive committee meeting is to be held on Monday, Nov 13 at the home of Caroline Anderson to plan for the program for the year. At that time, plans for the Christmas meeting will be discussed which will be an entertainment of Secret Sisters, and the revealing of them at a potluck supper at the church. A play will be presented as a part of the program.

The Welcome wagon committee members plan call on all the eight newcomers in the neighborhood within the next week.

The meeting closed by singing the "Doxology", and the service terminated in the serving of refreshments by the hostess and her co-hostesses, Helen Murton.

P-W holds Olivet to minus 5 yards

Pewamo-Westphalia pushed their season record over the 500 mark Friday night, completely dominating the contest with Olivet for an 18-0 victory. The win gives P-W a 5-4 season record.

Randy Walter tossed to Roy Piggott in the 2nd quarter to put the Pirates ahead 6-0. The scoring pass covered 5 yards. The Walter-Piggott scoring combination was the only scoring in 3 quarters.

PIGGOTT MADE it 12-0 with a 1-yard plunge and later hauled in a 15-yard pass from Walter for the final score of the game.

Gerard Fedewa led the rushing for the Pirates with 30 yards in 10 carries. P-W had a total of 109 yards rushing and 24 passing on their way to the 18-0 victory. Olivet runners were completely bottled up by the defensive P-W team and when the game was over, the stat sheets listed a minus-5 yards for Olivet.

Their only gains in the ballgame came through the air and then for only 18 yards.

LEADING THAT DEFENSE was Dan Theis, with 14 team tackles and 5 solo tackles. He also intercepted a pass. Charlie Bengel had 8 team tackles and 3 solo tackles.

Bengel and Al Nurnberger each got through the Olivet offensive line to block punts.

Roy Piggott, Pewamo-Westphalia's hard charging running back, fights for yardage in Friday night's contest with Olivet. Olivet felt the sting of the Pirate defense as they were held scoreless while P-W put 18 points on the scoreboard.

Pewamo-Westphalia's Charlie Bengel charges the Olivet punter and blocks the kick during 2nd quarter action Friday night at P-W High School. Bengel's blocked punt was just part of a fine defense night for the Pirates as they shut out the Olivet visitors 18-0.

Game's only score downs Fowler 6-0

A single touchdown in the opening quarter ended Fowler's hopes for an unbeaten season and sole possession of 1st place as Springport upended the Eagles 6-0 in the muddy Friday night contest.

In a contest dominated in the statistics column by the Eagles, Springport went ahead to stay in the 1st quarter when Denny Vaun broke loose on 78-yard touchdown run.

Carrying 7-1 record into the game, the victory gave Springport a tie for the conference championship with Fowler. Both teams ended the season with 8-1 records.

After the Springport touchdown, Fowler held them to only 20 yards rushing and 2 1st downs for the remainder of the contest.

Fowler runners ground out 254 yards and picked up 17 1st downs, but couldn't get the ball into the end zone. They were inside the 30-yard line at least 5 times, but each time were forced to turn the ball back to Springport.

Aside from the lone touchdown, once again the Fowler defense turned in a strong performance. Twice the defense held Springport on downs after the Eagles had fumbled inside the 10-yard line.

During the season, the Fowler defense allowed only 33 points and shut out their opponents 5 times.

Springport's all-conference candidate, Jim Locke, felt the sting of the Fowler defense as he was held to 25 yards in the contest.

For Fowler, Pat Thelen led the rushing game with 130 yards and Larry Halfman pounded his way to 109 yards.

Fowler coach Steve Spicer praised the entire defensive unit for their Friday performance and throughout the season.

The defensive unit includes Bill Feldpausch and Frank Koenigsnecht, defensive ends; Mel Pohl and Dave Osborn, guards; Dave Halfman, Neil Simon, Tony Thelen and Rich Epkey, linebackers; Pat Thelen, safety, and Russ Novak and Bob McKinnon, halfbacks.

DeWitt rolls over Laingsburg 24-6

DeWitt had little trouble defeating Laingsburg in the Friday night rain and mud, capping ending season with a 24-12 victory.

Panther kicking specialist, Chris McNeely, started the scoring with a 37-yard field goal in the 2nd quarter, to put DeWitt ahead 3-0.

Later in the 2nd quarter, Bob Rice rifled a pass to Tom Couling for a 65-yard touchdown combination. McNeely kicked the extra point and the Panthers led 10-0.

Gary Muylle put Laingsburg on the scoreboard with a 2-yard touchdown run the same quarter. With the conversion attempt unsuccessful, DeWitt held a 10-6 lead.

RANDY PITTS added to the Panther lead just before the end of the half when he plunged 4 yards for a touchdown. McNeely booted the extra point and the half ended with DeWitt leading 17-6.

In the 3rd quarter, Rich Alvertson increased the Panther lead with a 5-yard scoring run. McNeely kicked his 13th extra point in as many tries for the season and the Panthers were ahead 24-6.

Laingsburg got on the scoreboard once more with a 45-yard run in the 3rd quarter. The conversion attempt failed and neither team scored again.

The Panthers put the ball across on 2 other occasions, but penalties called back both scores.

The Panthers ran for 220 yards in the contest and added 91 more in the air, while the DeWitt defense held Laingsburg to 130 yards on the ground. Laingsburg passed for another 72 yards.

Duane Scholtz led the rushing for DeWitt with 106 yards in 18 carries and he had a touchdown trip called back. Rich Alvertson added another 56 yards, including a touchdown. Tom Couling's scoring pass reception in the 2nd quarter was the 4th touchdown of the season for the 140-pound, 5'6" Panther.

DEFENSIVELY, Gary Bouts turned in a remarkable performance. He was involved in 32 tackles with 19 of those in the 2nd half. For the season, Bouts had 195 tackles, 3 fumble recoveries, 2 interceptions and 1 blocked punt.

Also turning in strong defensive games against Laingsburg were Joe Cavanaugh with 9 tackles and Tom Ashley with 8.

Three Laingsburg fumbles were recovered by Ashley, Bouts and Berkimer.

Too many campgrounds?

EAST LANSING - The privately owned campground industry in Michigan may have reached a crucial phase of development, according to a Michigan State University professor of recreation resource development.

Dr Eugene F Dice suggests that the industry should be aware of the very real risk of overbuilding. "When we combine the growth in privately owned camping facilities with that of the public campgrounds it is very evident that the increase in facilities is more rapid than the increase in campground users," says Dice.

O-E ends 1972 season with win over St Johns

For almost 2 periods of between Ovid-Elsie and St Johns would be decided in a defensive contest. Ovid-Elsie threatened on the opening series, but that's when the defensive games of both squads began to highlight the action in the 1st half. The Marauders took the opening kickoff and drove to the St Johns 3-yard line. The drive was highlighted by a 45-yard pass from quarterback Tom Kirinovic to halfback Rich McCurry. The 3-yard line was also the end of the line, however, as St Johns smothered the offensive drive on 3 quarterback sneaks.

AFTER THOSE 3 attempts, Ovid-Elsie lost the touchdown opportunity when the Redwings took over after stopping a pass play on their own 1-yard line.

Defense was the name of the game until just before the end of the 1st half. Ovid-Elsie drove all the way to the St Johns 15-yard line, but once again the Redwings forced the Marauders to turn the ball over on downs. After getting possession of the ball, St Johns also ran into an offensive freeze and was forced to punt. Ovid-Elsie's Rob Nethaway broke through the offensive line and blocked the punt. The 1st score of the game was in the making and Dave Winkler fell on the ball in the end zone to give O-E a 6-point lead.

The extra point conversion was no good and Ovid-Elsie carried the 6-point advantage into the clubhouse at half time.

Ovid-Elsie received the kickoff in the 2d half and went 65 yards to pick up a quick 12-0 lead.

The score was set up by a 15-yard pass by Rick Staples, Marauder fullback, and a 20-yard pass from Kirinovic to end Randy Loynes.

Kirinovic picked up the Marauders' second touchdown of the night on a 1-yard plunge.

HE ALSO ADDED the 2-point conversion on a pass to left end, Dan Egbert, to put O-E ahead 14-0.

St Johns bounced right back into the contest when Gary Mankey took the ball on a reverse and raced 45 yards to put the Redwings on the scoreboard.

Redwing signal caller, Kevin Knight, tossed the 2-point conversion to Mike Lynch to pull the Redwings within a touchdown of the Marauders.

A roughing the kicker penalty hurt St Johns as they sent in a determined drive to block an O-E punt from the St Johns 40, but set the opportunity for another Marauder touchdown.

Ovid-Elsie had driven to the 40 of St Johns, but the Redwing defense forced the Marauders into a punting situation.

CHARGING REDWINGS defenders just missed blocking the punt, but were called for roughing the kicker and O-E had another crack at the football.

On the next play, Jim Kelly scampered 43 yards for his 1st touchdown of the season. The conversion attempt was no good and the scoring ended 20-8.

Ovid-Elsie picked up 267 total yards in the contest with St Johns rushing for 86 yards and passing for 65, picking up a total of 141 yards.

O-E picked up 1st downs to 9 for the Redwings. The victory gave Ovid-Elsie, winners of the Mid-Michigan B Conference championship, an 8-0 record and St Johns finished the season with a 4-5 record.

Tom Kirinovic (11), Ovid-Elsie quarterback helps on defense here as he rushes in to join the tackles on St Johns Redwing, Bruce Cameron, while 2 O-E players keep the strong running back from turning the corner.

P-W women's lib

"Right on women, right on" could be this show of woman power as community members of the Pewamo-Westphalia area rehearse for the Nov 17-18-19 performances of "F.L.I.P.P.E.D.", a spoof on women's lib. A community service project sponsored by the Pewamo-Westphalia Education Association, the play includes 40 members of the community and school with proceeds going to the William Steinke Memorial Scholarship Fund. Rehearsing in this picture are (rear, from left) Barb Hoekema, Darlene Costello, Sara Laitner, Sheila Fedewa, Wilma Schafer, Sally Glenn and Beth Schneider; (front) Kathie Schmidt and Rae Peterson and Paula Rehner (standing).

Open Letter from VAN W. HOAG

Dear friends,

It deserves emphasis that the time, the place, the character of the funeral service, the merchandise used, the cemetery selected - these are decisions of the family of the deceased. The funeral director acts only as a representative of the family.

The clergyman should be consulted in matters that concern him before any decisions are made.

Respectfully,

Van W. Hoag

Bored and fed up with the whole women's lib business are (from left) Dennis Pohl, Jerry Casari and Dennis Pilmore while Barbara Spencer adds fuel to the fire. The scene is part of "F.L.I.P.P.E.D.", a spoof on women's liberation, sponsored by the Pewamo-Westphalia Education Association. The Nov 17-18-19 performances will benefit the William Steinke Memorial Scholarship Fund. Tickets are $1.50 in advance and $1.75 at the door.

Mrs Jopke is St Johns' 'artist in residence'

Mrs Margaret Jopke

ST JOHNS -- Mrs Margaret Jopke is St Johns' 'artist in residence.'

A garage at the Jopke home at 711 S Oakland has been remodeled into her studio. "I needed a place to work," smiles Mrs Jopke, "as I'd been working in the basement where the light is undesirable."

A painter, Mrs Jopke, had the idea to turn the garage into a studio for a long time. Workmen started in August and the finishing touches are now being added.

MRS JOPKE first began painting in 1959. "I started when the kids grew up," she remembers, because I needed either a hobby or a job." But, she admits, this has become more than a hobby.

Her paintings have been exhibited in Niles, South Bend, Kalamazoo and Lansing, all juried shows. She's had 1-man shows in Alma and Lansing and at the Central National Bank in St Johns.

A member of the Lansing Art Guild, she also belongs to the Lansing Art Gallery where she works as a volunteer. Her paintings are on exhibit at the Gallery. They're also on exhibit for sale or rent at Jeanne's Beans, Dailey's Fine Foods, The Colonial Inn and the McKenzie Agency in St Johns.

Now her work is being exhibited in her own studio by appointment. Mrs Jopke's artistry is done in oils, acrylics, pen and ink and water and she features portraits.

MRS JOPKE had studied under Jens Plum of Michigan State University and Harold Worst of Lansing Community College. "When I first discovered I could paint I did 400 in the first 5 years," she says. "You have to have a certain knack for it," Mrs Jopke feels, "but you never know until you try."

ST JOHNS -- Friends of Bement Public Library held their 5th annual meeting Thursday night, Nov 2, in the Municipal Auditorium in St Johns.

Donald Isbell was elected president, 11 children received prizes for book reports written in connection with the Library's Summer Reading Club, and 4 St Johns High School students presented a scene from "The Wizard of Oz."

Two St Johns couples both had two daughters receive prizes in the book report competition. They were Mr and Mrs James Cerny and Mr and Mrs William Buggs Jr.

Darlene Cerny and Shawn Meyer tied for first place in the 3rd grade level. Shawn is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Fred Meyer.

Dr and Mrs Herand Garapetian's daughter,

Irenna, finished first among 4th graders, while Carolyn Buggs and Tamela Willett tied for second, and Kim Japinga won third prize. Mr and Mrs William Willett and Mr and Mrs Douglas Japinga are parents of the latter two girls.

Tom Fox, son of Mr and Mrs Bernard Fox, won first prize for 5th graders and Lynn Flermoen, daughter of Mr and Mrs Emil Flermoen, took second.

Two girls tied for first place in the 6th grade entries. They were Denise Cerny and the Raymond Eislers' daughter, Bonnie.

Mrs H M Bross, Librarian, announced the winners and congratulated each one; Mrs Debra Conklin, corresponding secretary of the Friends, presented them with certificates; and Howard Casler, treasurer, awarded the prizes which were checks, gifts of the Friends organization.

Mrs Robert Barnes, program chairman, introduced Robert L Koger, St Johns High School Drama coach. He told of the Drama Club's forthcoming production of L Frank Baum's perennial favorite, "The Wizard of Oz." He introduced the students who portray the 4 main characters. They were Connie Cornell as Dorothy, Jim Barnes as the Scarecrow, Paula Pope as the Cowardly Lion and John McElroy as the Tin Woodman.

Made by Drama Club members, the costumes were cleverly contrived but presented some transportation problems. It had been necessary to load the Cowardly Lion and the Tin Woodman on to a pick-up truck, and the Woodman experienced great difficulty climbing the stairs to the auditorium.

Following a scene from the play, Jim Barnes, president of the Drama Club, told of the group's various activities and announced that the latest project is a plan to assist with the Christmas story hours at the Library in December.

In the absence of Mrs Larry Plowman, president, Mrs Dale Finch, vice president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs Edward Mikula reported on the Library's book cart project which gives bedside service 3 times weekly at Clinton Memorial Hospital. During the past year more than 700 items have been circulated.

Mrs Bross reported on activities connected with the Literacy Council and the workshop sponsored by the Friends last spring. Nine people have helped others learn to read or to improve their reading. Mrs Stanley Welton is coordinator for this project.

Five new members were elected to the Board of the Friends of Bement Public Library for terms of 3 years. They were Mrs Merritt Scharnweber, Mrs Raymond Torpey Sr, Mrs Emil Flermoen, Donald Isbell and Rev Francis Johannides.

The 10 members who remain on the board are Mrs Arnold Rademacher, Mrs Plowman, Mrs Finch, Mrs Dick DeGroot, Mrs Barnes, Mrs Mikula, Mrs Conklin, Mrs Lawrence Fish, Mr

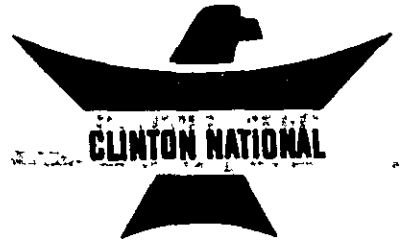

Casler and William Escher.

Following the general meeting a board meeting was held and the following officers were elected: Mr Isbell, president; Mrs Finch, vice-president; Mrs Fish, recording secretary; Mrs Conklin, corresponding secretary; Mr Casler, treasurer.

Mrs Scharnweber was appointed historian and Mrs Bross publicity chairman. Mrs Mikula remains chairman of the book cart project at Clinton Memorial Hospital, assisted by Mrs Floyd Countryman, Mrs Torpey and Mrs Garapetian.

A PERSONAL LOOK AT THE NEWS

Between the lines

with Jim Edwards

We don't understand

We don't understand all we know about this. The state of Michigan runs a lottery. It is perfectly legal, as is horse racing in certain areas. Newspapers are allowed to publish advertisements for race tracks, but try to publish a lottery ad in a mailed newspaper and see what happens. According to federal law, it is illegal for a newspaper with mailed circulation to publish the lottery ads.

RECENTLY we received an advertising order from the audit bureau asking us to publish the advertisement. Included with the request was a statement explaining that we couldn't legally publish the ad.

Currently, the only way to publish a lottery advertisement is to place it in non-mailed newspapers only. Some newspapers are using that procedure. We, at the County News, feel it is a questionable business practice to stop an expensive press in the middle of a run, change a plate for the advertisement, turn the presses back on and finish the run.

According to our advertisement department figures, the County News would realize about $6 from publishing the ad. You can't run a profitable business printing $30 ads for $6.

In a conversation with Jim Fitzgerald, editor of the Lapeer County Press, he said he was informed it is also questionable whether news stories telling where lottery tickets are sold may be legally published. We can, however, print names of the winners.

Because the issuing of agent licenses is an action by the state, we have published as a news item in this week's County News the names of business places selling lottery tickets.

According to the law, this is probably the last time we can publish the names without getting into that hazy "what is news and what is advertising" area.

From now on we can't print the names of agents, but we can publish winners. So... we'll be able to tell you if you won, but we won't be able to tell you where you can buy tickets so you can win.

Questions about Social Security

Q. When I became 65 recently, I signed up for Medicare's hospital and medical insurance. Can I use this coverage for all doctors and hospitals?

A. You can of course, go to any physician of your choice. Most hospitals participate in Medicare, but not all. Any social security office can tell you whether a hospital participates in Medicare.

Q. I get social security because my father retired. I'll become 22 about 3 months before I graduate from college. Will I continue to receive student benefits until I graduate?

A. No. Monthly social security benefits to student beneficiaries are only payable up to age 22.

Q. My brother, who had worked all his life in a job covered by social security, died a few months ago. Who gets the lump-sum payment from social security?

A. If your brother was insured under social security and living with his wife at the time of death, his wife gets the payment. If your brother wasn't married, the person responsible for the burial expenses can request that the death benefit be paid directly to the funeral home. If, however, the burial expenses have already been paid, the person who paid them can claim the death benefit.

Announce new REAP program

Secretary of Agriculture Butz, has announced the 1973 Rural Environmental Assistance Program (REAP). Through REAP, the Federal Government shares with farmers the cost of carrying out needed conservation and environmental protection measures on their farms. The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) administers this program through its farmer-elected committee system. Practices emphasized are those which help to provide long-range preservation of the environment and return greater benefits to the public.

The initial National funding level for 1973 will be $140 million. Funds are allocated to each State and subsequently to counties based on their conservation needs, participation, and other factors. Several new practices have been included for the 1973 program. One is the installation of excess water management systems where they are essential to combat adverse environmental conditions such as water pollution from contaminated water run-off caused by high water table, (incomplete recycling of animal waste, sedimentation, and salinity or alkalinity. The second is the use of conservation tillage on a demonstration basis to reduce soil loss from land devoted to intertilled (row) crops.

High priority will be given to practices which have long-term conservation benefits such as establishing permanent vegetative cover, improving or protecting permanent vegetative cover, constructing terrace systems, diversion terraces and ditches, permanent wildlife habitat, animal waste storage and management facilities, sediment retention and water control structures, and disposal of crop or woodland residues without burning.

A few weeks ago I read about cycles in the human life. The article discussed the phenomenon of "bad cycles." "Bad cycles" are those few days that occur ever so often when nothing seems to go right. The article implied, "ain't a thing you can do about—so just ride it out until things get better."

Whether it was the power of suggestion or it was my "bad cycle" time or whatever—it's hit me.

It's not what you eat, it's what you know that gives you indigestion. Ye Olde Philosopher has spoken.

What I mean is, my son Eddie hit me in the head with an olive (you might want to quit reading now, because this could get confusing).

This kid is always shooting baskets, see? He is also always eating. One of his favorite snacks is olive juice. Just the juice; not the olives. He pours the juice into a tablespoon and slurps it up, quiet as a busted vacuum cleaner.

Eddie is no Abdul Kareem Jabbar when it comes to making baskets. So naturally, he tilts the odds in his favor. So what could be more natural than popping tiny olives into huge wastebaskets, especially when he's usually got a jar of olives in his pocket anyway? And he doesn't eat the olives, just the juice?

(If you don't believe any of this, it's simply because you never had a 14-year-old son. Every word is true.)

Anyway, despite the odds, Eddie missed the basket this time and hit me in the head. I'll admit he was throwing all the way from the kitchen, through an alcove, and aiming at a basket half hidden by my chair. But it was still a lousy shot.

But I made the best of it. I picked the olive out of my lap and ate it.

Immediately there was a gasp from the kitchen and my daughter, who is 2 years

"ruined a roll of film after half-drowning taking pictures at a Bath football game. "caught a beaut of a cold ruining a roll of film after half-drowning at a Bath football game.

"lost a page out of a day-by-day calendar and wound up being either a day late or a day early for all my appointments.

WITH THE WEEKEND once again upon me, I told the wife: "I'm not leaving the house all weekend. I'm going to lock myself in my little cubby hold upstairs and hide from the world.

"Don't you or anyone bother me for 2 days. I'm going to hibernate so nothing can hurt my precious body any more. Don't just stand there muttering 'but, but, but', I'm running upstairs right now and you won't see me for 2 days."

Wife answers, "You wouldn't be lying there like that if you'd listened to me. I just waxed the stairs and they're very slippery. . . get up off the newspaper—I wanna read your horoscope."

Letters to the Editor

Parents should visit schools

Letter to Editor:

What a Beautiful, spacious, clean, well-organized building I have just visited with my freshman daughter.

It was Parent-Teacher night at our St Johns High School, and a very interesting one for me. I met my daughter's teachers, and saw the classrooms, also the Cafeteria and lunch hall.

I am very proud to have such a beautiful place and such nice teachers where my daughter spends her days as a student.

If you are a parent, and have not visited your high-schooler's school and classrooms and met the teachers, you are missing a very important part of your daughter's or son's world. One I think we should all be proud of.

Strong feelings on Proposal E

Dear Sir: The people of Michigan are ignorant, stupid and lazy. When it came to Proposition E they didn't even bother to check into it to see what it was about, all they saw was the $266 million price tag.

How short a memory people have! It was just a little over a year ago that the State "borrowed" millions from the Veterans Fund, and that wasn't the first time they did that.

Now that the veterans would like a little money they're told no. I would say $500 isn't too much to ask for giving up a year of happy life to fight in a war.

Our old men — the ones who voted it down — were given money and educational benefits after previous wars. Where is their generosity now, now that it is time for their sons to get just compensation?

Sincerely, BARBARA KNICKER BOCKER Maple Ct Ovid.

EATIN' IN THE DARK

Among the pleasures that are mine To practice while I may, (In spite of cranky diets) That restricted my right of way Are spots reserved for eatin' That extra meal or snack, To satisfy some appetites 'N coax us to come back.

Now I am not a gourmet Least not the fussy kind 'N mebbe it's not too tragic When I grope like I am blind; But I still raise the question When to places I embark, Why must we cloud the issue By eatin' in the dark?

Now there were times 'n places When there wuz no cryin' need Fer sixty wats or more of gleam We didn't need to read; But when I scan a menu After managin' to park, It's tough enough to choose 'em 'Thout doin' it in the dark!

If once you glean a notion Of what makes the bill of fare, And prices opposite are smudged, Are we supposed to care? The folks who tally up the bill They really have a lark With computers n' a flashlight, They're never in the dark!

These lamps of mine are slanted Their plastics do play tricks, N' I'm about to shun the spots Where vision's poor or nix; So I put 'em now, on notice From now on I make my mark On spots where I am not obliged To eat all in the dark!

An ounce of prevention

By Jose J. Llinas, MD
Director of Community
Mental Health, Clinton,
Eaton and Ingham

Retarded enjoy community life

Do you ever feel sick and tired of living where you are, and wish you could move away some place else? Does the dog next door aggravate you so much at night that you occasionally hope he chokes on a dog bone? Do children in the neighborhood love to use your lawn as a short cut to and from school? Most of us find times when the situation around us is so irksome that we would like, even if it was only for a few hours, to be somewhere else.

WOULD THEY LIKE IT?

Perhaps feelings like that help us understand how people react in our institutions for the mentally retarded, who, if you have read this column in the past, you know we are trying to bring back home.

A nagging question, whenever you try to do something good for other people, is, Would they really like it? Do they feel it is helpful for them? Dr. E. Gordon Yudashkin, Director of the Michigan Department of Mental Health, has just finished such an inquiry.

WHAT DID HE FIND OUT? "They told me very clearly," Dr. Yudashkin states, "that life in the community, despite its problems, is better than life in a state institution." This comment summarized the answers of nearly 300 mentally retarded persons, and about 100 parents and guardians. An overwhelming 90% of them were happy with the placement in their home communities, and pleased with the quality of care.

SOME DISSATISFACTION

About 10% of the respondents to the survey indicated they were not entirely satisfied, primarily because of the lack of supportive services in their local areas.

This is an important complaint, and means that we just have to work harder to see that those ancillary programs (rehabilitation, sheltered work, recreational activities, etc) are provided to all of our citizens, young or old, who have to face this misfortune.

WHAT THEY SAY

The questionnaires had been mailed by Dr. Yudashkin to retarded persons placed during the last year, who had been in the community for at least three months, and to their parents or guardians.

Typical responses from them include the following:

From Flint, "Yes, I am doing fine here, I'm very happy here, I'm getting along with the other boys ok and with my landlady ok."

FROM DETROIT, "I like it, I can do more things, I go to the store."

From Newberry, "Living here has been wonderful, and has made me happy."

Perhaps the most direct, but terse response, came from a young retarded girl living in the Upper Peninsula.

She sent Dr. Yudashkin a 4 word note. "I love it here."

THE OUNCE OF PREVENTION

We as professionals in the field of mental retardation have learned (even if it took us a long time!) that we can get people out of the state homes and back in their own communities without much trouble. But we need the help of everybody, to make their lives as rich and fulfilling as those of the rest of us.

If you want to know what you can do to help, call us, or write Dr. Yudashkin, Michigan Department of Mental Health, Lansing, for a copy of his heartwarming report.

time. Perhaps the iron is too hot, or the fabric finish can't stand bleaching. Whatever the cause, the result is a ruined garment.

Avoiding damage to garments and fabric through improper care is one of the aims of the Federal Trade Commission's new rule on permanent care labeling.

The ruling went into effect in July and requires that most articles of wearing apparel bear permanent care labels that tell how to wash, iron, dry, bleach, dry clean and carry out any other procedures regularly used to maintain or care for a particular article.

Most yard goods bought for making clothing must also be accompanied by permanent care labels; all stores must supply these. If a tag is not volunteered--ASK FOR IT. You're paying for it!

The labels must warn if the usual care methods do not apply (a white blouse that should not be bleached, for example), they must stay attached and legible for the life of the garment, they must be easy to locate on the garment and be repeated on packaging, they must use words and not symbols, and they must apply to all the components of the product.

Any exception must be noted on the label.

The labels must also warn against dry cleaning if the garment cannot be dry cleaned. Negative instructions, such as "DO not dry clean," must not replace positive instructions, such as "Handwash separately."

It should be pointed out that permanent care labeling will allow the homemaker to use the care procedure which will give the best overall performance and provide her with the information she needs to purchase garments that can be most easily and inexpensively cared for.

It is the homemaker's responsibility to follow care label instructions and to complain to manufacturers if care instructions are confusing or if the treatment called for damages the garments or fabric.

Permanently attached care instructions will be considered lawful until product failure based on care instructions is proved. Consumers must register their complaints or the labeling will continue unchanged. Be an alert consumer and help your legislators help you!

Watch for ice on bridges

LANSING -- Ice on bridges, especially when adjacent highway surfaces are clear and dry, is a hidden hazard to unsuspecting motorists, the Department of State Highways warns.

Such conditions are especially prevalent in early morning in late fall when warm ground temperatures keep highway surfaces from freezing. Unprotected bridge surfaces, exposed to freezing from below as well as above, often acquire a thin coating of frozen condensed moisture.

Highway Department safety engineers caution motorists to be alert to slippery bridge conditions whenever temperatures fall below freezing. To help warn motorists, the Highway Department has erected diamond-shaped yellow and black signs in advance of all bridges on the state highway system.

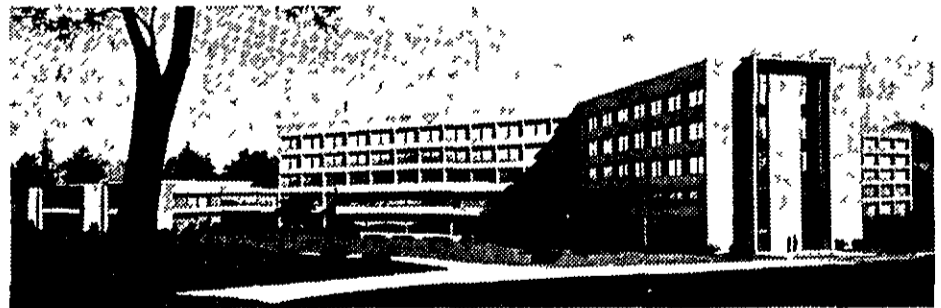

They warn: "WATCH FOR ICE ON BRIDGE."

Farm Tips

Wild game tips

By WILLIAM LASHER
Extension Agriculture Agent

Much of the nearly 7,000 tons of dressed meat taken each year by Michigan hunters and trappers never reaches the table due to mishandling by hunters or misgivings by cooks, says Bill Lasher, Clinton County Extension Agent.

For good-tasting wild game, use special care both in the field and in the kitchen.

In warm weather, clean and wipe dry body cavities of game birds as soon as possible, Lasher advises. Do not remove feathers or use water until ready to cook. In cool weather, birds may be carried through the day without cleaning.

Clean abdominal cavities of small mammals, bear and deer the day they are killed. Remove splintered bones, shot and fur from wounds.

If there is little natural bleeding from the wounds, bleed the animal. Or soak the cleaned animal 8 to 10 hours in a solution of one tablespoon salt per quart of water.

For tender meat, wait 24 hours before cooking young game. Older animals should be aged several days and parboiled.

Because wild game tends to be drier and tougher than domestic meat, cook at low temperatures in moist heat, Lasher suggests.

To prepare pheasant, use any moist-heat, chicken recipe. Pheasant meat is similar to chicken but drier.

Duck meat is usually served rare, Lasher points out. Wild duck meat is dark and dry, and should be cooked in a covered roaster with strips of bacon on the breast.

Wear rubber gloves when cleaning rabbit, and cook the meat until well done to avoid tularemia, or rabbit fever. Warty growths on rabbit legs, head and other body parts are harmless.

With ruffed grouse, or partridge, prairie chicken, woodcock and sharp-tail grouse usually only the breasts are served.

When preparing beaver, raccoon or bear, remove all fat from the meat to avoid strong flavor and odor. Serve bear meat well-done. Even after long roasting, bear meat is pinkish when first cut, but darkens.

For further wild game information, obtain Extension Bulletins 252, "Good Eating from Woods and Fields," and 253, "Venison" from your County Extension Office, 1003 S. Oakland, St. Johns, phone 224-3288.

Agriculture in Action

Save the taxpayer

As any taxpayer can testify, government, over the last decade, has been the nation's number one growth industry with very few exceptions. Expansion at the federal level continues and so does the amount of money it requires.

If spending is held at the $250 billion level, proposed by the Administration, it would still mean an $18.4 billion increase in spending over last year. This would mean a deficit of $25 billion in the 1973 fiscal year ending next June 30. Even without any new major social programs, spending and debt could rise by another $5 to $10 billion, bringing an even more intolerable deficit of $30 to $35 billion.

It doesn't take much imagination to conclude that such a level of spending will build an inflationary pressure that it will be impossible to restrain it. The only place the money can come from is taxpayers through additional taxes.

THE BUYING power of workers is supposed to be up 4.1 per cent from a year ago.

But for most people, it's tougher to make ends meet now than ever before. US News and World Report figures bear out the fact that the financial pinch on most families is not imaginary. As US News and World Report puts it, "... you need an income that is at least 34 per cent more than you had seven years ago merely to stay even with inflation and taxes."

And so the pressure mounts, government spending trends and growth continue. Congress passes legislation which requires more money than the federal government collects. Taxpayers will have to dig deeper in their pockets to pay the bill.

In the long run, the only way we can put the lid on the inflationary pressure and save the taxpayer is to stop or slow down government spending.

The Crescent Club of Ovid met Monday evening Nov 6 with Mrs John Owen. Mrs. Lucille Semans presided at the business meeting.

After the reports of committees, Mrs John Goebel, gave the high lights of the District Convention held at Grand Haven. The meeting next year will be in Owosso.

John McMurray, weather director of Flint TV Station was the speaker of the evening. He stated that "weather patterns usually originate in the Texas area and go cross country to Michigan." He added every state has some weather problem and ours happens to be the Lakes. A tornado usually goes from Southwest to Northeast but they can turn in other directions. In Oklahoma, where he formerly lived, it wasn't uncommon for three tornadoes to be on the ground at the same time. "People must learn to pay attention to warnings of wind and rain and many lives would be saved," he said.

When asked about the Farmer's Almanac, he said if the forecast struck it correct once or maybe several times, people rely on it not to be wrong. He explained some of the old superstitions and hearsays. He did predict that there would be a hard winter. He also mentioned how tricky the time element can be in broadcasting and some of the things that can bother, such as film breaking. One has to have a sense of humor and be able to take criticism for wrong broadcasting.

The ideal way to succeed can never be realized by the idler.

Motorists may again purchase plates by mail

Michigan motorists will be able to purchase 1973 passenger car license plates by mail for the second consecutive year when these plates go on sale beginning Wednesday, Nov. 15.

Prepared applications have been mailed to Michigan's more than five million passenger car and motorcycle owners.

These forms can be mailed back to the Department of State immediately with orders to be filled after Nov. 15.

"License plates also will be available at Department of State branches starting Wednesday," Ratke says.

DEADLINE for plates being ordered by mail is February 10, 1973. The deadline for having 1973 plates on passenger cars and motorcycles is April 1.

Between 500,000 and 750,000 license plates orders are expected to be filled by mail, more than double last year's 300,000 tab sale by mail. Last year was the first time plates were sold by mail, and the deadline request was December 31, 40 days earlier than this time.

This year's plates have white letters upon a dark blue background. The Department of State is considering using the plates for two or three years. Tabs would be needed each year the plates are extended.

Persons ordering by mail will receive aluminum plates because they are lighter and easier to send while those buying plates at Department of State offices will receive the standard steel plates.

Passenger car or motorcycle owners should check closely the renewal application mailed to them. Missing information should be completed, wrong information should be lined out with the corrections made and the certification on the reverse side should be completed and signed. Directions on obtaining new plates are printed on the envelope.

Whitmyer has completed his assignment in Middlebury.

Rita Whitmyer and Letha Furnish attended a training meeting at Bancroft and reported on the preview they were given on the new structure of the UMW Global Missions were stressed. Rita Whitmyer said a missionary should be available to come to us for a meeting between March 18 and 25. She will try to get him for a Sunday with a family dinner following. Helen VanDyne will be responsible for planning the World Day of Prayer to be held on March 2 with area churches invited to attend. Elizabeth Putnam and Esther Semans attended the district meeting at First United Methodist Church in Owosso where mission pledges were given. Mrs. Richard Turner was the guest speaker. District Conference will be held in Ann Arbor, Nov. 9. There were tentative plans made for a Father-Son banquet or a Father-Daughter banquet or both to be held at a later date.

An installation of Officer was conducted by the minister, Rev. Kundinger. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The Community is invited to attend an open house in honor of the Silver Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Don Craig at the Middlebury Church Sunday, Nov. 12 from 2 to 5 pm.

The couple request no gifts.

The event is being planned by their children, John, Bob, Karline, Heidi, Rita and Amy.

The November meeting of the Sunshine Club met Thursday with Eleanor Fowler for a potluck dinner.

There were 11 members and 2 guests present, Jane Fowler and Jodie Bradley. A cake was made up by Mildred Bradley for the November birthdays of Marie Schreiner, Margaret Moore and Twilla Swanson. Diane Bradley and Bun Gallup joined the Sunshine Club. Contests were conducted by Anabel Peck and won by Mildred Bradley, Helen Corday, Helen Scott, Eleanor Fowler and Diane Bradley.

The Christmas party will be Dec 7 with hostess Ruby Stewart. Each person is to bring a $1 gift for her mystery pal.

Mrs. Earl Darling read a Bible verse, "A Table in the Wilderness" for devotions for the evening.

A small box was given to each member to fill with daily thanksgiving tokens, daily; these boxes are to be turned in to the treasurer next year at this time.

Reports of all officers were read and approved, as well as the reports of the Harvest Supper that was well attended at the Carland church-house Saturday evening.

The Christmas meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Mike Schultz, with each member contributing her part for the program which is to pertain to Christmas.

A birthday card was signed by all the ladies present and sent to their adopted Missionary friend.

If you expect to outshine your neighbors, build a good reputation and keep it polished.

Now is the time to select and mail gifts

Sugarplums should come before hobgoblins and turkeys - that's if you're going to be an on-time Santa for a serviceman overseas, says the Mid-Michigan Chapter American Red Cross.

According to US Postal Service, surface packages should be mailed as soon as possible for the Far East. Parcel Air Mail should go by Nov. 27 for the Far East, Dec. 1 for Europe. Regular air mail should be sent by Dec 1 for the Far East, by Dec 11 for Europe.

According to the American Red Cross, with years of experience in Services to the Armed Forces, a variety of small items to open is usually more welcome than one large gift. The Red Cross also advises originality in the seasonal wrapping and a special effort to put some personality - yours and the receiver's - in these Christmas gifts.

AMONG THE items Red Cross suggests are: a combination pocket knife, small tool kit, cuff links, individually wrapped shoe polish envelopes, packages of pre-moistened towels, shoe mittens, adjustable picture frames, guidebooks for countries the serviceman might visit on leave, after-shave lotion, a pocket comb and nail file, a key case, a rechargeable flash light, note paper and stamps (gentle hint!), a clip board, clothes brush, lint remover, set of greeting cards, a checker set, playing cards, puzzles and small games, ever-necessary hand-dickies, a thermometer, a quick immersion heater, a selection of dehydrated soups, individual pudding packs, smoked oysters, cheese, canned meals, an accordion file is useful, if he's the orderly type - or field, a subscription to the hometown newspaper, folding slippers, a small artificial tree with unbreakable ornaments would add to the feeling of the season. With the popularity of camping and hiking, a pocket compass might be appreciated. For the ardent auto owner, there are as many gadgets as there are models. Files are available with a fisherman. A set of paper-backs can be made up around one author or one subject. Foreign pocket dictionaries and phrase enlargements of a favorite home neighborhood scene, the latest book in his hobby field, a subscription to the

A DOZEN inexpensive ballpoint pens help the person who always misplacing them. Mistake-replacing tape, new ribbons, key cleaning paper make the job of the owner. A lot of heavy duty thread in the right color for both uniforms and civilian clothes is always welcome. A repeating alarm clock will insure prompt morning rising. A crossword puzzle book and dictionaries add to the word game specialist, and cassettes and recording tapes are always welcome. Fragile items must be well cushioned. Foam rubber chips are practically weightless and hometown newspapers stuffed between the gifts help keep them from shifting. If home-prepared food is sent, be sure its edibility exceeds several weeks. Red Cross advises that cookies should be individually wrapped and packed in metal, air-tight containers. The outer box should be sturdy and the address legible.

Meanwhile, a Good Thanksgiving!

Fifth graders compile cookbook

Fifth graders at Central School have been studying the life of Felipe Rojas Lombardi recently and discovered he learned the art of cooking at an early age. By the time he had reached the age of 12 he was a skilled chef. The class decided to compile its own cookbook and Billie Hill, Jamie Irrer, Calvin Rice and Robert Decker look at the finished project. The cookbook is made of the children's favorite recipes from home and features a large section of desserts. Billie designed the cover of the 13 page booklet.

'Keep Michigan Beautiful' award

Sylvia Eitelbuss of Bath, Clinton County chapter chairman of the Keep Michigan Beautiful Inc proudly looks at a distinguished achievement award presented to the local group Oct 30 at the convention held in Grand Rapids. The award was presented to the Clinton County KMB chapter for its efforts and projects for the betterment of local environment. Also attending the convention were Penny Fortier of Ovid and Jean Weeks of Bath.

She heads family of 50

EAST LANSING - Pamela Miss Darling, the daughter of Mr and Mrs Harvey Darling of 312 Main St, Ovid, (RA) at Michigan State University. A senior majoring in landscape architecture. A 1969 graduate of Ovid-Elsie High School, she is a member of the Honors College at MSU.

Three hundred twenty-four RAs provide counseling, information, and referral services for 17,300 students living in on-campus housing.

Gary North, dean of students and coordinator of residence halls, explained the student service positions.

There are 16 to 24 RAs in each hall. Five to seven positions turn over each year. There are 70 to 100 applications for the positions opened in each dorm.

"The real dilemma is trying to set qualifications. We must identify the elusive quality in a person that enables him to interact with people," North said.

"Positions are made well known. To provide consistency, a minimum of expectations for operations are placed on the program. Applicants are asked what things they want to accomplish; how and why," he concluded.

RA TRAINING consists of SJ teacher attends conference

ST JOHNS - Gwendolyn Walker, a 6th grade teacher in a self-contained classroom at East Essex, St Johns participated in a 1-day Simulation Strategies Conference held at Detroit Metro Airport Nov 4.

Michigan Association of Classroom Teachers invited 30 teachers to work with the Arizona Innovative Teaching Techniques Cadre, investigating new ways to solve classroom problems using Simulation Strategies. Simulations, communication games, problem solving, value clarification, consensus and group cooperation techniques for all school age groups were demonstrated.

The Association of Classroom Teachers is an affiliate of the Michigan Education Association.

'Old-Fashioned Holiday Bazaar'

'Old-Fashioned Holiday Bazaar' is the theme for this Saturday's event sponsored by the women of Hope Lutheran Church at Herbison Road and US-27 near DeWitt. Highlighting the 9 am to 7 pm bazaar will be 12 different booths and baked goods. The women are featuring pine cone decorations and handicrafts as displayed here by from left, Mrs Barb Searles, Mrs Lois Ziegler, chairman and Mrs Margaret Boehmke, publicity chairman. A continuous luncheon of hot sandwiches and desserts will be served.

Shepardsville

Mrs Effie Wilson has returned home after spending a few days with her granddaughter, Mrs Ronald Freeman and family of Harbor Beach.

Reinhard Billing is a patient at the Ann Arbor Veteran's Hospital. His address is Veteran's Administration Hospital, Ward 5, N, 2215 Fuller Road, Ann Arbor, Mich, Zip 48105. He was able to spend the past weekend at home but had to return to the hospital for further tests.

two different aspects. As referral agents, prospective RAs learn the services available at the university and in the community. They are also trained to have a greater sense of empathy.

"An RA must help with conflicts. The nature and range of conflicts are extreme. They must be able to confront situations and get involved at a lower level. They must learn to focus on the issues before they get all out of proportion."

"The greater portion of the position is judgmental. A person in an RA position has to be sensitive to the variation and variety of people he is involved with.

"We have tried graduate students as RAs, but this was not satisfactory. An undergraduate student can live with, tolerate and work with more adolescent problems better than graduates who have passed through this and are now above it," North concluded.

Shepardsville

By Lucille Spencer

Mr and Mrs John Spencer and Gale Craig were recent visitors of Mr and Mrs John E Craig of Allegan.

The Ovid Duplain Library Club met at the Shepardsville United Methodist Church on Friday, Nov 3, with 24 members and 1 guest present.

During the luncheon a miniature wedding cake was brought in and set in front of Mrs Geneva Kaltrider, a long time member of the club, who was married on Saturday, Nov 4 to Harold Bates. She was completely surprised. She was also presented a gift from the club.

Mrs Richard DePond, Ovid Township Clerk, was a special guest. She explained about the ballot, how to put in a write-in vote, also how to use the machine to vote on the proposals. She was presented a gift.

Mrs Florence Phelps and Loretta Lang explained the proposals, Miss Lang explained Proposal C and Mrs Phelps, A, B, and D.

Roll Call was answered by saying something for which we were grateful. All were glad that the election will soon be over so we won't have to listen to the candidates.

There were the usual reports. It was decided not to exchange Christmas gifts at the Christmas Party but rather to take up a collection. This will be used to bring the joys of Christmas to those who might not otherwise have any.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mr and Mrs Charles Palen Jr on Dec 1. It will be the annual Christmas Party. Entertainment will be in charge of Mrs Chauncey Green and Mrs John Spencer.

Duplain-Rochester Colony

Greeters for the day at the Church of Christ Sunday were Mr and Mrs Lyle Acre. Special music for the worship hour was presented by Judy Schwark accompanied by Mrs Jack Schwark at the piano. Sunday evening a spontaneous service was held which was an inspiration to all. A progressive supper will be held Saturday evening, Nov 11 for all youth with the bus leaving the church at 5:30 pm. All youth be aboard Saturday evening. The Youth Choir from Grand Rapids will be presenting an evening of song next Sunday evening at the Church of Christ at 7 pm. William Nicholson began as Youth Minister at the Church of Christ Sunday. He will be working with our young people in various programs. He and his wife, Susan, have 2 children, Melanie, and William and live in Lansing. Mr Nicholson is a graduate of Great Lakes Bible College.

Elsie

Charles Hyde, who spends his summers in his home north of Elsie on Hollister Rd, has been confined to a Coldwater Hospital. He expected to return to his home at 164 Callard Rd, Jonesville for some time before undergoing surgery. He would appreciate hearing from his Elsie friends.
