Chest drive hits 100%

Ink White (left), Clinton County Communities Chest drive chairman, and Charles Huntington, Chest treasurer, tacked up a big "Thanks" sign on the Chest progress board on the courthouse lawn Tuesday morning after reporting the 1968 drive had surpassed the goal for the first time in recent years.

A big "Thanks" sign was installed atop the Clinton County Communities Chest thermometer on the courthouse lawn Tuesday, signaling achievement of 100 per cent of this year's chest goal of $23,683.

It is the first time in recent years that the Clinton chest has reached its quota.

Ink White, campaign chairman, said there were still some reports to be turned in by a few area solicitors, but he had been assured that funds and pledges now in hand would account for the county's full quota.

This year, for the first time, Clinton joined Ingham County in a United Community Chest. Funds contributed here will be combined with the Ingham solicitation in an overall $1,933,888 total. The money will be allocated among 59 agencies serving the two counties.

Included in the Clinton budget are the St. Vincent de Paul Society and the 4-H Clubs of the county. Among the other well-known local agencies are the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, YMCA, YWCA, Michigan Children's Aid, American Red Cross, USO and the numerous health and welfare organizations supported by the Michigan United Fund.

In issuing his campaign committee's thanks to the people of the county for their generosity this year, Chairman White emphasized the Chest's gratitude to the scores of solicitors who carried on the work of gathering funds throughout the area during the drive which began Oct. 15.

Six team captains were responsible for the campaign in the St. Johns area. They include Lawrence G. Sexton, industrial division; William H. Patton, commercial division; Stephen Bakita, schools and government division; Leon Brebaker, professional division; Rolan Sleight, special gifts divisions; and Mrs. Richard Kohls, women's division.

Area chairmen whose team efforts helped to swell the fund's total were: Mrs. S.K. Thingstad, Watertown; Mrs. Wayne Loomis, Bath; Mrs. Don Huguélet, Elsie; John Rademacher, Fowler; Willie Tabor, Ovid; Albert Abschagen, Maple Rapids; Charles Hengesbach, Westphalia; and Ed Rose, Eagle.

Jay Barrett (left) and Clayton Fisher pause in front of a frosty road grader back of the road commission garage in St. Johns as they reminisce about their 41 and 36 years of experience on county road jobs.

2 long-time road commission foremen about to retire.

By LOWELL G. RINKER
Editor

More than three-quarters of a century in total experience will be lost to the Clinton County Road Commission after the first of December when two of its long-time foremen retire.

Clayton Fisher, 66, and Jay Barrett, 65, are formally retiring Jan. 1, but they are taking accumulated vacation time during December.

"It's going to seem strange knowing we don't have to get up in the middle of the night during a snowstorm and go out on the roads," Barrett commented.

Barrett has been maintenance foreman for the road commission crews on the west side of the county, and Fisher has been in charge of maintenance on roads east of Airport Road. Their work has consisted of just about everything—scrapping roads, repairing bridges, putting in tubes, patching blacktop.

Each man was in charge of keeping the work going on some 700 miles of primary and local roads, and the mileage has been getting higher as new subdivisions are put in.

Fisher started out as a laborer and then drove a gravel truck. In the early 1940's he was moved up to a scraper truck and then in 1948 he was made foreman of the gravel trucks. He held that job until 1956 when he was made east-side foreman.

Barrett and Fisher are leaving the road commission under far different conditions than when they first came to work. The road commission has trucks and other equipment far exceeding the number and power they had when the men first started. There is better pay and better hours. There's a bigger crew but more work to do.

When Barrett began work with the road commission, M-21 across the county was only gravel—it hadn't yet been paved. And it was routed right through Shepardsville and Ovid, not around them as it is today US-27 north of St. Johns was gravel, too, but between here and Lansing progress had taken over already, and the road was a 16-foot concrete strip.

ROUND LAKE ROAD was then a state highway—M-104. The road commission equipment consisted of an old Republic truck made in Alma, a Triangle truck made in St. Johns, a "Quad," a 1 1/4-yard light truck for hauling, and an old grader that had been bought from A.T. Smith, the Ford dealer in St. Johns.

There were only eight or 10 regular employees of the Clinton County Road Commission then—compared to 55 now and as high as 70.

Early paper next week

Because next Thursday, Nov. 28, is Thanksgiving and there will be no mail delivery, the Clinton County News will publish a day early next week.

Copies of the newspaper will be on the newsstands Tuesday afternoon, and mail delivery of newspapers throughout the county will be on Wednesday, Nov. 27.

In order to effect this early edition, all advertising and news deadlines will be advanced one day. Display and classified advertising for the Nov. 27 paper will be accepted through this Friday at 4 p.m.

Monday at 9 a.m. will be the deadline for all submitted news copy. There will be no staff pickup of correspondence news Monday, so all correspondents are urged to mail their copy early.

The Clinton County News staff will be working over the weekend to prepare the paper, with Section B going to press Sunday evening and Section A Monday evening. The cooperation of everyone in observing the earlier deadlines will be appreciated by the staff and, we're sure, readers alike.

Killed on M-21 Friday night

DeWitt soldier 28th traffic victim

A DeWitt soldier home on leave for a deer hunting trip was killed Friday evening when the car he was riding in apparently ran a stop sign at Forest Hill Road and M-21 and was struck broadside by another.

Spec. 5 Michael B. Wilcox, 22, of 409 S. Bridge Street, DeWitt, was the 28th victim of Clinton County automobile accidents during 1968. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Coroner Robert Strrine.

Four other persons in the two cars involved were hurt, but all are reported in either "fair" or "good" condition as of Tuesday at Clinton Memorial Hospital. They were Robert M. Walle, 24, of Detroit, driver of the car in which Wilcox was riding; David Solbert, 24, of Selridge Air Force Base, another passenger; Floyd E. Smith, 40, of Saranac, driver of the second car; and Roger Conner, 32, of Lowell, a passenger with Smith.

Fire hits parents' home in DeWitt

Adding to the tragedy of the weekend, the home of the parents of Friday night's crash victim was damaged by fire the following evening. The fire caused relatively minor damage, however, to outside siding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton (Bill) Wilcox at 409 S. Bridge Street, DeWitt.

southbound auto sailed past the stop sign on Forest Hill Road at M-21 and out onto the highway where it was struck broadside on the right by an eastbound car driven by Smith. Wilcox was in the right front seat. Smith told officers he had seen the other car approaching the intersection from the north, but the next thing he knew it was right in front of him. He said he applied brakes, but it was too late to avoid the accident. Both cars wound up in a field on the south side of the highway after ripping out eight fence posts.

Walle, Wilcox and Solbert were returning from a hunting trip. Smith and Conner were enroute hunting and were pulling a camper trailer behind their auto.

Michael B. Wilcox, 22, of DeWitt was killed in this auto when it was struck broadside after apparently running a stop sign at M-21 and Forest Hill Road Friday evening. Deputy Sheriff Richard May, who along with Deputy Tony Hufnagel investigated the accident, checks over the car from the right.

Looking for food ideas?

Those readers with culinary skills and those who would like to develop such talent will be particularly interested in our tasty Section C this week. The Clinton County News staff and advertisers have combined to produce a special holiday edition of "Kitchen Ideas."

Local cooks have contributed a number of their favorite recipes for special kitchen treats, and there are lots of general ideas for the kitchen, too. Section C is in tabloid form, so it's real handy to pull out and save for future reference.

The Clinton County News had a favorable response from readers who submitted recipes. Not all of them could be included in this edition of "Kitchen Ideas," but they are "re-heatable" and will be warmed up for serving to our readers in subsequent issues of this paper.

We hope you enjoy these favorite recipes.

ANOTHER BROWNIE TROOP AT INVESTITURE SERVICE

Investiture services were held Nov. 18 for 21 Brownies at the Lutheran Church basement. The troop is sponsored by the Swegles School PTA. Mrs Rosemary McCarthy is their leader, and co-leaders are Ann Larner and Maureen Miller. Pictured in the back row are Julia Dokers, Laurie Larner, Kristine Aylsworth, Laurie Miller, Tammy Esch, Kelly Pertler, Cathy Williams, Brenda Bancroft, Dana Haske, Kathy McCarthy, Tammy Sweeney and Connie Jorac. In the front row are Kelly McCarthy, Theresa Butler, Jeanna Hallenbeck, Debbie Kaminski, Connie Phelps, Susan Gonyer and Wenda Barrett. Seated in front are Shelly Rochon and Laurie Mack.

"We had only the main roads to take care of," Barrett recalls. "The commission didn't take over local roads until the 1930's. Most of the primary roads were built after I went there, and all the blacktop roads were built after I started."

"The township roads were just trails from the horse and buggy days," Fisher added. Road building will always take time, but Barrett thinks it will probably never be the same as it was when he was overseeing a WPA gang building the road from Lansing to DeWitt and out to Round Lake Road.

"WE STARTED OUT on South Turner Road at Lansing and graded the road back to DeWitt, with the guys using picks and shovels," he recalls. Then the 98 men went back and graded the road by hand.

"We started in the fall and worked all winter. There was quite a lot of snow that winter, and we'd have to shovel the snow out of the ditch so we could dig. At night we'd throw the snow back so it wouldn't freeze overnight; then the next morning we'd dig it out again and work on.

"Those guys on the WPA gang were getting $7.50 a week, but I still had my regular job. And if they weren't a rough gang... They were always clobbering one another. But we made it."

As they said earlier, both men are going to have to get used to staying in bed late and the other luxuries of retirement when they look out and see the heavy snow falls that are bound to come this winter. Even if they can physically reject the impulse to go down to the garage, their minds will probably be with the road crews. There's too many experiences not to feel that way.

"THAT STORM WE HAD two years ago was a bad snow," Barrett said in thinking back over his years of experience, "but we still had everybody out in not too bad a time. If we'd have had that years ago it would have been two weeks before we had them out. We just didn't have the stuff to do it with.

"Back then we used to take those four-cylinder duplex trucks, put on a bump pole and get behind one another and push. Then you couldn't get anywhere. But with every snow storm, it seems like we improved on equipment, and with the power they've got now you can go through most anything."

Fisher recalls the winter of 1935-1936 as being a bad one. "A lot of roads never did get opened up until the sun warmed up in the spring."

Pay and working hours have improved, along with available equipment, since Barrett and Fisher have been with the road commission. Barrett recalls he started in 1927 for 25 cents an hour, and he worked 10-hour days six days a week. By the time Fisher started in 1932, pay had been improved to "30 cents an hour."

"Now we go to the garage at 7 a.m.," Barrett points out, "but in those early days you had to be on the job at 7. If the work was way over by Eagle you had to be there at 7. If you quit at 4, you stayed there till 4. You came and went on your own time."

"If it rained 15 minutes, the foreman would take his watch out and keep track of it, and then you were docked."

"IT'S A LOT different now," Fisher pointed out. "Under the union, we work 8 1/2 hours a day, we get two coffee breaks a day and we get time and a half for hours between 4 p.m. and 7 a.m.

While pay and equipment have changed over the years, people haven't very much. The road commission and the crews that work for it still hear from the people with gripes and, occasionally, with bouquets.

"In the winter people want their blacktops and side roads cleaned right off so they can drive on them just like they do in the summertime," Fisher said. "But the majority of the people appreciate what we're doing. Of course there's a lot to do, and we can't get it all in one day."

Barrett recalled a couple of instances where irate property owners have pulled shotguns on them. "I remember one place where I was cleaning out a culvert on Airport Road, which some guy had plugged up. He stood up on the porch and had a shotgun trained on me, only I didn't know it until I was pretty nearly done."

"There's all kinds of guys, I guess, but in the last few years people have been pretty decent as a rule."

Barrett and Fisher both lamented at the high cost in dollars and time at repairing vandalism. "People tear down signs as fast as you put them up, or they shoot them full of holes or they bend them over. It keeps a gang busy just putting stuff back."

THE MEN RECALLED one instance where vandals cut down a tree and dropped it across the road, creating a traffic hazard.

But after next week, Barrett and Fisher won't be directly concerned with such problems. Fisher, who lives alone at 505 S. Lansing Street, plans to spend a lot of time with his daughter, Mrs Betty Gregory, and to do a lot of fishing. Barrett, who lives at 608 S. Mead Street, plans to just putter around the house and also enjoy his grandchildren (five of them).

"I'm going to take it easy, I've been working since I was 15 years old, I figure I've done my share, so I'm not looking for any job anywhere."

We're waiting for you to call

The Clinton County News staff finds it impossible to attend meetings of all clubs and organizations that take place in busy and active Clinton County. And there are insufficient hours to chase the president or secretary of each group to get the stories that arise out of their meetings.

Club secretaries are requested to drop us a card or give us a call at 224-2361 and fill us in on the highlights of their meetings and especially about special upcoming activities.

If we could financially afford it, we'd employ enough reporters to follow you around and report what you do...and take your picture, too. But our bankers insist on our remaining solvent, paying our interest on time and occasionally making a payment on the principal.

Dozen weekend crashes in county kill 1, injure 12; none hurt seriously

The weekend of Nov. 15-17, 1968, may go down as one of the busiest the Clinton County sheriff's Department has had, although it wasn't the worst as far as automobile accidents are concerned.

Sheriff's officers policed at least a dozen accidents. One, at Forest Hill and M-21 Friday evening, resulted in the county's 28th traffic fatality of the year. Details on that accident are reported on Page 1-A.

At least eight other people were hurt in the weekend accidents, none of them seriously. Celene R. Martin, 18, of Westphalia, and Wilma Smith, 18, of Pewamo, were both hospitalized late Saturday evening after the Martin car skidded sideways on icy blacktop and hit a concrete abutment on Wright Road south of Dexter Trail.

Both women were taken to Clinton Memorial Hospital. They were reported in "good" condition Monday evening. Deputies said the car was traveling south when the accident occurred about 10:30 p.m.

MRS GERALDINE L. Irrever, 24, of R-2, Fowler, and her two children, Daniel, 5, and Michele, 3, were treated at Clinton Memorial Hospital Saturday afternoon and then released. They were hurt when Mrs Irrever's car went out of control and overturned in a ditch on Francis Road north of Townsend about 4:45 p.m. It was near the scene where a mother and two of her children were killed several weeks ago.

Ronald Flitton, 24, of Grand Ledge, suffered cuts and bruises when the car he was riding in hit a car parked in a ditch on Wright Road north of Walker Road near Fowler Sunday afternoon. Flitton's brother, Michael, 23, the driver, said an on-coming car forced him off the road and into the ditch, where his car collided head-on with a parked car owned by David A. Carner, 18, of Flint. Neither the driver nor another passenger were injured.

Mrs Lavonda Pohl, 27, of Hall Road, R-6, St. Johns, and her son, Michael, 4, were treated by a doctor for minor injuries, suffered early Friday afternoon in a one-car accident on Kreppe Road north of Avery Road. Mrs Pohl's southbound car went out of control and overturned in a ditch.

Two people were hurt in this auto. It hit broadside another car at the intersection of M-21 and Forest Hill Road Friday night, killing an occupant of the other car. Floyd E. Smith, 40, of Saranac, the driver of this car, was on his way deer hunting. (Related picture and story on Page 1-A.)

Nobody was hurt, but William L. Gamble, 39, of Jackson got a traffic ticket as the result of a two-car collision Friday evening about 7:45 on US-27 north of Parks Road. Gamble was ticketed for failure to stop in assured clear distance ahead. His car, driving south in the passing lane, struck the rear of one operated by Arthur W. Weld, 46, of Lansing, who had stopped for a turn onto the median cross-over.

Sales tax funds distributed here

A total of $105,872.13 in sales tax diversion payments was made Nov. 13 to treasurers of townships, cities and villages in Clinton County.

Mrs Velma Beaufore, Clinton County treasurer, made the payments, reporting that they were made on the basis of $2.79 per capita. DeWitt Township received the largest single amount, $17,886.69, while the City of St. Johns got $15,682.59.

Fowler $2,382.66; Hubbardston $92.07; Maple Rapids $1,905.57; Ovid $4,198.95; and Westphalia $1,562.40.

The sales tax diversion was for the third quarter of 1968 ending Sept. 30.

The friends that promises bring will not last long when excuses replace fulfillment.

Only the most expensive dress-makers seem to have the knack of making simple frocks.

Ovid may ask state police post

OVID—The Ovid Development Corp. is laying the groundwork for a campaign to get a state police post located at Ovid.

Willie Tabor, president of the corporation and the Ovid Businessmen's Assn., said Ovid's business growth, location on M-21 and its proximity to the developing Sleepy Hollow State Park make it an ideal location for a state police post.

State police posts are now located at Flint, East Lansing, Ithaca and Ionia. A new post at Ovid would provide better patrol protection for the mid-Michigan area, Tabor said.

Petitions, resolutions, studies and other promotional efforts will be combined in the campaign if it is finally decided to try to get a police post.

Uphold denial of new trial

The denial of a new trial here for a Flint man on a charge of felonious assault has been upheld by the State Supreme Court in Lansing.

The court ruled it could find no grounds for reversing the Clinton County Circuit Court's denial of a new trial for John A. Lang, 41, of Flint. Lang had first pled innocent, then guilty to a charge that he threatened a farmer with a revolver during an argument near Eagle.

Lang was sentenced to a term of 1 1/2 to four years in prison March 14, 1966, and after the parole board denied a parole at the end of his minimum term, he asked for a new trial and the setting aside of his conviction in circuit court.

Elsie

By MRS. NEVA KEYS, Correspondent

Committees named for year by Elsie OES chapter 69

Recently installed officers of Elsie Chapter No. 69 OES presided for their first regular meeting with Worthy Matron Mrs. C. H. Sills in charge.

Several standing committees for the 1968-69 season were named: examining, Luman Hall, Mrs. R. D. Martin and Robert Kridner; finance, Archie J. Moore, Dale C. Levey and Mrs. Mae Goodrich; proficiency, C. Hulbert Sills; relief, Stanley Loznak, Mrs. Dale Levey and Mrs. A. W. Cobb; entertainment, Mrs. Archie J. Moore, Mrs. Donald Temple and Mrs. Ann Praay.

Other committees for the year are: publicity, Mrs. S. J. Keys, Mrs. Paul Platner; social, Mrs. Leila Wilson, Mrs. Stanley Loznak and Mrs. LeRoy Vincent; sunshine, Mrs. Paul Platner, Mrs. Esolda Irving and Mrs. Robert Baker; custodian, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Dunay and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kridner, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tillotson; nominating, Mrs. LeRoy Vincent, Doreen Kridner and C. H. Sills; and instructor, Archie J. Moore.

There were reports of the Grand Chapter at Grand Rapids in which Mr. and Mrs. Sills and Mrs. Ann Praay participated; visitations to Chesaning, Grand Rapids and Ovid installation of officers. An invitation to the Job's Daughters, Masonic and Eastern Star night on Nov. 25 was accepted.

The Sunshine committee reported visits and cards to Alton Fizzell and Mrs. John Hall, who were hospitalized.

The next meeting will be followed by a Christmas party when members will exchange one dollar gifts. Following the chapter meeting, Mrs. Leila Wilson, Mr.

and Mrs. Stanley Loznak and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Vincent served refreshments from a table decorated for the Thanksgiving holiday.

REPORTS GIVEN AT DINNER AND MEETING

The Green School Extension Club met with Mrs. Mae Goodrich for a dinner and meeting on Nov. 14. Dinner was sent to the Alton Fizzell family, who were unable to attend. Mrs. Manley Engebretson opened the meeting with the poem "When Leaves Go Riding on the Moon". Plans were made for the Christmas meeting for Dec. 12 with dinner at 12:30. The mystery prize was drawn by Ann Praay. Mrs. Goodrich gave a report on "Drug Usage". The report of Mrs. Anne Wolford of College Extension was reviewed and considerable additional discussion was held.

The October meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Helen Wittsee.

Madrigal festival Nov. 25

Rodney B. Wilson High School St. Johns will present a madrigal festival next Monday evening, Nov. 25, when 10 singing groups from mid-Michigan high schools and the Central Michigan University Concert Chorale will perform here.

The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

The Wilsonaires from St. Johns will host the group and guide them around the school and also provide refreshments.

with a dessert served previous to the business meeting. The Woman's Creed was recited and roll call was responded with a driver safety tip.

Plans were made for exhibit at the Christmas Workshop and material was read concerning the value of UNICEF. A collection was also taken for CROP.

MRS. FREDERICK J. COOK II

Jeanne Fleischer wed to F. J. Cook II

Miss Jeanne Fleischer, daughter of Mr and Mrs Frederick Fleischer of 3441 S. US-27, and Frederick J. Cook II, son of Mr Frederick Cook of Pewamo and Mrs Mary Cook of Okemos, were united in marriage Nov. 16 at noon in St. Joseph Catholic Church.

The marriage was solemnized before an altar decorated with tinted blue mums and gladiolus. Fr. Joseph Labiak performed the double-ring service. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mrs Herman Smith was organist.

Miss Fleischer selected a full-length empire waisted gown of white satin, with white lace overlay on the bodice, long sleeves and a bateau neckline. The gown had a chapel train of satin with lace on the sides. Her veil was a pearl crown with teardrop crystals. She carried a white muf with a fall of red roses and white mums.

Miss Debbie Cook, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs David Cleveland, sister of the bride, and Miss Margie Thornton of St. Johns. Flower girl was Miss Cindy Sue Fleischer. The attendants wore full length A-line gowns of Caribbean blue velvet, with petite flowers at the empire waistline. Their headpieces were velvet ribbons, with blue veils.

They each carried a white muf with one red rose and streamer pinned to the muf.

The bride's mother selected a silver grey dress and coat ensemble with grey accessories. The groom's mother wore a gold dress trimmed in brown with brown accessories.

Bruce Kramer served as best man, and Michael Fleischer, brother of the bride, and Dean Cook of Okemos, brother of the groom, served as groomsmen. Ushers were David Cleveland and Fred Wood.

A reception was held at the VFW Hall in St. Johns at 8 p.m. for 250 guests. Mr and Mrs Raymond Fleischer were host and hostess. Others who helped with the serving were Pam Gage, Mrs Mary Ann Wood, Mrs Pat Louth, Mrs Judy Sutfin, Miss Linda Marek, Miss Judy Frestick, Miss Kathy Carter, Miss Anna Leonard, Miss Linda Castner, and Miss Jennifer Wood.

The bride's chosen A-line dress with black accessories for her going-away outfit. They will reside at 52 Devine Highway, Pewamo. The bride is a graduate of Rodney B. Wilson High School class of 1968. The groom is a graduate of Pewamo-Westphalia High School and has just finished serving three years in the Navy.

FOR MORE TREES TO VIET NAM

Mrs Pauline Powers receives a money donation from Mrs Leon Cramp-ton to send a tree to Viet Nam for Christmas. The tree that is being sent is shown in the center, decorated with bulbs and icicles. Mrs Powers would like to thank everyone who donated money or contributed their time and work for the project. The boxes will be wrapped and sent tonight (Nov. 21) to servicemen from this area who might not receive gifts from home. They will each receive one collapsible green Christmas tree, one box of bulbs, one box of icicles, one pair of white socks, one box of foot powder, pre-sweetened Kool-Aid, and other items.

Here's more details on wedding story

In last week's story on the Irene Sehke and Ronald Terry Gibson wedding, the following information was inadvertently omitted.

Donna and Ray Olmstead, friends of the bride and groom, were matron of honor and best man. Miss Olmstead wore an aqua street length dress with a matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of yellow mums.

For their second reception in the evening held at the Local Plumbers Union Hall in Lansing, there were 200 guests present. Mrs Lester Sehke and Mrs Wayne Rossow, sister-in-law and sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Opening the gifts were Janet Hartman and Karen and Sharon Rossow.

MRS. KENNETH SCOTT

Ovid girl wed in Arizona

Brighter Yule planned at Ovid

OVID—Each end of the village will be decorated this Christmas season with two gigantic Christmas trees, George Higbee has offered a huge spruce tree, and councilmen have accepted the offer. In the past one large tree has been placed in the center of the main four corners.

Councilmen have also agreed to cooperate with the Ovid Businessmen's Assn. to help pay for new amplifiers or repairs to present ones. The village will hear the strains of Christmas music as they shop this holiday season.

Miss Irene Kathryn Squiers became the bride of Kenneth Charles Scott Saturday afternoon, Oct. 26, at the Asbury United Methodist Church Chapel, in Phoenix, Ariz.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs Dale Squiers of rural Ovid. Parents of the groom are Mr and Mrs Harry J. Lentz of Glendale, Ariz.

The bride chose a white lace street length dress, edged in satin and a chapel veil for her wedding. Miss Judith Ketchum of Tempe, Ariz., as maid of honor chose a navy and white dress. Both carried colonial bouquets of white carnations.

Dennis Pomaroy of Phoenix, Ariz. was the best man.

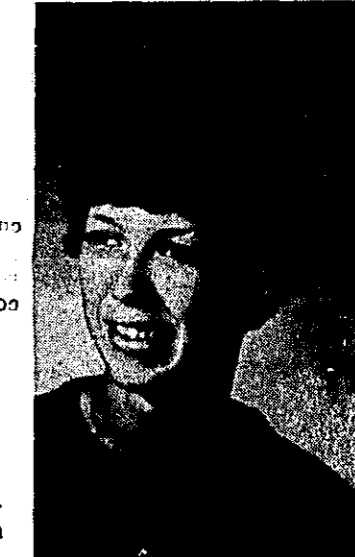

A reception immediately following the wedding ceremony was served by the bride's prayer circle in the social hall of Asbury United Methodist Church.

Mr and Mrs Scott are making their home at 4335 N. 15th Avenue, Phoenix, Ariz.

Blue Star Mothers to contribute radios

The Blue Star Mothers of St. Johns will purchase some radios this month to be sent as Christmas presents to the Veterans Facility Hospital in Grand Rapids.

This has been a project of the chapter for years, and anywhere from two to nine have been taken at Christmas time. Hospital chairman this year is Myrtle Tolles.

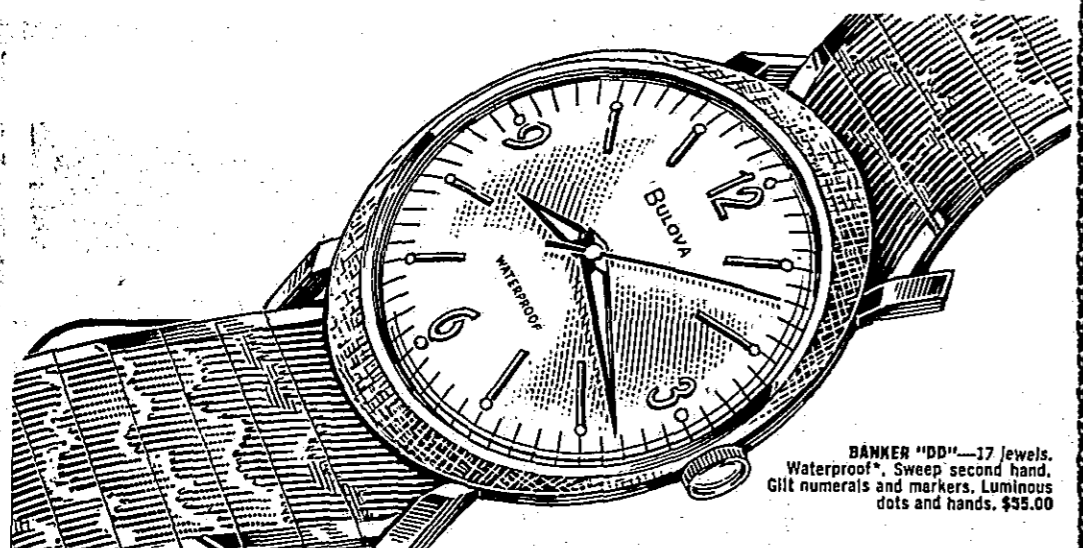

The group's mitten chairman said 70 pairs of mittens were made and more are coming. The mittens are given to local needy children.

Twenty-seven members and three guests were present at the Blue Star Mothers' regular meeting Nov. 12. Rose Wilkie read a letter she received from her son stationed in the Philippines, and Americanism Chairman Chloe Bartholomew gave a short talk on honoring the veterans of all wars.

Mrs Mildred Smith and Mrs Edna Brown were initiated as new members, and Mrs Martha Parks was initiated as an associate member.

Members helped pack boxes that will be sent overseas to servicemen. Mrs Pauline Powers is chairman of the project. The next meeting of the Blue Star Mothers will be Nov. 26.

Holiday sugar cookies

1 c. butter or margarine (softened)
3/4 c. confectioners' sugar
1 1/2 t. vanilla
2 cups flour
1/2 cup light cream
1/2 cup coarsely chopped pecans or walnuts
Decorators' sugar or nonpareils

Blend all ingredients except decorators' sugar. Chill dough thoroughly. Heat oven to 350 degrees. Shape dough into 1" balls; dip tops in sugars. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Bake 20 min. or until lightly browned. Makes 6 doz.

Candle cookies

3 c. flaked coconut
1/3 c. sugar
1 egg white
green food coloring
1/4 t. almond extract
1/2 c. sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 t. baking powder
1 egg white
1/3 c. sugar
12 green jellied fruit slices
3 red jellied fruit slices
Combine coconut, the first 1/3 c. sugar, the first egg white and 8 drops of green food coloring. Cook and stir over low heat until mixture is hot. Stir in almond extract. Remove from heat; stir in flour and baking powder. Beat the remaining egg white with 8 drops green food coloring till soft peaks form. Fold into coconut mixture. Moisten hands with water; shape mixture into 12 balls, using about 2 T for each. Place on greased cookie sheet; flatten slightly. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees) for 20 to 25 min. Cool on cookie sheet 2 or 3 min; remove to rack; cool.

To decorate: Insert a 4 inch red candle in center of each cookie with wooden picks. Cut remaining part of green jellied slices into leaf shapes; cut red jellied fruit slices into berries. Attach leaves and berries to cookie with confectioners' sugar icing.

Makes 12 cookie candles.

The annual Christmas party will be Dec. 10.

New labeling law described for Grangers

Clinton County Pomona Grange and Olive Grange members learned something Nov. 9 about a new law taking effect the first of the year regulating instructions for use of pesticides and liquid fertilizers.

J.F. Hartwell, general supervisor of the food inspection division of the Department of Agriculture, explained the new law and also discussed imitation milk, cream, ham and bacon, which are considered pure and healthful.

Hartwell has been in the food inspection business about 21 years.

Also on the Grange program Nov. 9 were two accordion solos by Debbie Thelen; a style review by members of Olive Grange; Laura, Betty and Beth Myers presented a song and dance number; and a skit was given by Debbie, Douglas and Jim Thelen.

A. J. Thelen announced that National Master H. Newsom had been appointed to the U.S. Tariff Commission for a term of six years by President Johnson.

Goldie Brooks and Alvin Thelen gave a report of Michigan State Grange held at Adrian.

Indoor-outdoor carpet compared

By LORRAINE SPRAGUE Extension Home Economist

shrinkage and all were comfortable and safe for standing or walking on.

Questions continue to arise regarding the somewhat newer carpeting—the indoor-outdoor types. As consumers we should be aware that there are three main types of carpets in this class of floor covering. They are polypropylene olefin fibers felted into a material about 3/8 inch thick; needle tufted materials made like regular pile rugs; and vinyl matting.

A well-known and reliable consumer testing service, after testing 14 different samples of these floor coverings, report all indoor-outdoor carpets they tested have exceptionally fine durability features. One important finding, however, is that only three of the total could pass the flammability test set up by the U.S. Government. Homemakers planning to purchase indoor-outdoor carpeting might well be advised to check such testing results.

In general the felted products are slightly less expensive than the other two types. Tufted types are available in cut, uncut or partially cut pile resulting in interesting patterns. Again, in general, vinyl mat carpeting was found to be waterproof, but slightly less strong than fiber-base types.

WHEN BUYING indoor-outdoor carpeting check for the manufacturer's claims regarding fading. Some manufacturers recommend certain colors not be subjected to strong sunlight.

In the laboratory testing, all types of carpets were discussing had good bursting strength. This means when laying it out of doors over small holes, or even pebbles there was little danger of puncturing. All types also had good resistance to rotting and Though tests showed water did not affect the carpeting, they did have a tendency to absorb and hold moisture much like a Turkish towel. This would indicate that if laid on a wooden foundation such as a porch, the dampness could cause faster rotting of the wood.

Another feature of these carpets that homemakers like is the resistance to staining. It is recommended, however, that spills be cleaned up as quickly as possible using clear water or a diluted detergent solution. Testing bore out that complaints of consumers are valid regarding some food stains leaving a definite odor. Milk has been one of the serious offenders. This may cause a homemaker to give considerable thought in deciding if she will use it in her kitchen. Probably family characteristics will greatly influence this decision.

A safety precaution should also be mentioned here. If the carpeting is installed outdoors, pushing an electric vacuum sweeper over a rug that is in contact with damp concrete, wood or grounds is a potential shock hazard. Use a mechanical carpet sweeper instead.

TESTERS FOUND all types easy to cut, making it easy to install. Careful measurements must be taken since the material does not stretch. Felted types need no edge binding. Tufted types do require binding.

Certainly indoor-outdoor carpeting has a place in many of today's homes. It does deserve considerable thought and study to select that product which best meets your family's needs.

Bath and Fowler High School have exchange day

By MARILYN SIDEL
Bath High School

Bath—The semi-annual Central 'C' League exchange day was held Nov. 13. The exchange students from Bath went to Fowler High School and the students from Fowler came to Bath. The students from Bath High were: Randy Markham, freshman; Cathy Pardee, sophomore; Roger Brook, junior; and Beverly Beebe, senior.

The students that visited Bath from Fowler were: Joanne Pohl, freshman; John Matthews, sophomore; Eva George, junior; and Gary Feldpausch, senior.

During the noon hour the Chorus Group of Bath High held a cake walk and Eva George won the first cake. Other winners of cakes were: Rusty Swart and Brad Schaffly.

THE BATH HIGH School Band, instructed by Mr Ken Koolman, performed for the student body Nov. 13. The band demonstrated the main parts of the band; melody, counter-melody, rhythm, and D clef, while playing parts of "Anchors Away." After the demonstration the whole band played the song.

The other music they played were selections they used during the football season such as: "Sugar-town," "Up, Up, and Away," "We'll Sing in the Sunshine," "Feeling Groovy," and "Going Out of My Head."

While the band played the twirlers had their last performance of the year. The girls that twirled were: Carol Dunavant, Dawn Easlick, Angela Hagey, Linda Green and their mascot, Lori Barnard.

The newly formed Hi-Y Club at Bath High School staged its first event last Saturday, Nov. 16. They held a fun night at the high school building. For activities they had dancing, table games, television, and the gymnasium was open for basketball and volleyball. The fun started at 7:30 p.m. and lasted until 11 p.m.

The Junior Class will stage a Central 'C' League dance Friday, Nov. 22. The music will feature the New Paris Bakery Band. The dance will begin at 8 p.m. and last until 11 p.m.

Fowler students approve Nixon

FOWLER—Fowler High School had a good turnout of eligible voters when they had a special student body election recently. Some 219 students out of an eligible 243 voted.

They approved the election of President Richard Nixon with 118 votes over Hubert Humphrey with 80 and George Wallace with 21.

They also voted down a new school fight song by 118 no to 101 yes; they voted down daylight savings time 119 no to 100 yes; and the clean water bond issue passed 195-24. The school also voted Portland St. Patrick's as the outstanding sportsmanship school in the Central Michigan Athletic Conference.

Gets jail, probation on narcotics charge

William W. Witt, 21, of Holt and formerly of St. Johns, was placed on three years probation Monday—with the first 90 days to be spent in the county jail—after earlier pleading guilty to a charge of possession of narcotic drugs, marijuana.

Witt was sentenced by Circuit Judge Leo M. Corkin. He had been arrested in June in connection with an alleged act in April 1968 and was originally charged with dispensing narcotic drugs, marijuana.

Musical meeting held Nov. 14

The St. Johns Morning Musicals met on Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs William Kemper. Mrs B. A. Delbert brought news from the district convention, and mention was also made of the vocal concert which Mrs Robert Rice, recently gave in Corunna, with Mrs Harold Lundy as accompanist.

Our alphabet of music continued with fantasia, fugue, gavotte, and hymn. Mrs Manning Gross had prepared the commentary, but since she could not be present it was read by Mrs Lawrence Fish. Fantasia, or English fantasia, is a free and fanciful form made notable in our time by Walt Disney. It may be sung or played by one or many, and often consists of variations on a familiar theme. To illustrate it, Mrs Lundy played "Metropolis, a Fantasy in Blue," by Ferde Grofe. The fugue is the most highly developed form of contrapuntal music, and ranges from a simple round, such as "Three Blind Mice," to the complex overlapping parts of Handel's "Messiah." Mrs Duane Davis played Bach's "Fugue in D Minor." The gavotte is a dance form which originated with a French peasant people called the Gavots and was brought into dignified social use at about the same time as the minuet. It is more gay and sprightly. The gavotte has been stylized for many instruments. Mrs Lundy played a gavotte by David Popper which had been originally composed for cello.

The word hymn properly refers to words, not music, but has come to mean both commonly. After Christianity was made legal, church music began again, but soon grew too difficult for any but trained choirs. Martin Luther introduced congregational singing once more with "A Mighty Fortress is Our God."

The nineteenth century brought the emotional gospel hymn, but the present trend is back to the earlier style of Luther and Bach. Hymns had to be easy to sing, thus were often written to well-known love and drinking songs.

Mrs Clifford Lambert sang "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," and "God Bless Our Land" by Richard Kauntz. The ensemble of the St. Johns Baptist Temple held their Nov. 14 meeting in the church fellowship hall.

There was a discussion about our next meeting to be held on Dec. 10, with Christmas gifts being exchanged among "Secret Pals." There were some other Christmas items discussed.

Mrs Barbara Brewbaker will have devotions for the Dec. 10 meeting and Mrs Connie Coe, Mrs Doris Cleland and Mrs Alice Richmond will serve on the refreshment committee.

Hubbardston Mrs Mamie O'Connell Phone 981-2374

Golden Gloves boxing training for boys and young men age 16 through 25 will start in St. Johns Nov. 25, trainer Wayne Beaufore announced last week.

The Golden Gloves, sponsored by the Clinton County Athletic Club, will work out in the club's gym at the corner of Clinton Avenue and Railroad Street. The gym will be open from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Friday starting next Monday.

Golden Gloves eliminations start in Lansing Jan. 8 and will be run every Wednesday night for five weeks. State finals will be in Grand Rapids Feb. 7. There will be three divisions and 10 weight classes.

Put off until tomorrow the worrying you might do today.

Mask and Dagger Club elects Mystery, drama, intrigue. Those are the passwords for the newly named Mask and Dagger Club at R. B. Wilson High. Previously the group was called the Dramatic Club. Officers recently elected were president, Linda Liszewski; vice president, Pam Hettler; secretary, Jane Alabay; treasurer, Judy Westland. The purpose of the club, according to sponsor Robert Koger, is to "promote all community drama activities."

Perrin Palmer has Service Squad girl and boy of month The Perrin-Palmer Service Squad selected Karen Mazzolini as the Service Girl - of the Month. She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Donald Mazzolini of 209 E. Gibbs Street. Karen is a fifth grader and has shown outstanding dependability, willingness, and consideration for others. Bill Bancroft was chosen by the Patrol Boys to be Patrol Boy-of-the-Month. He is the son of Mrs Lois Bancroft of 805 N. Oakland Street, and William Bancroft of Detroit. Bill has been especially fair and honest, earning the respect of the others, while serving as the elected captain of the patrol squad.

Mrs Edith Simpson
has many callers

Mr and Mrs Kenneth C. Tator of Detroit were overnight guests of Mrs Edith Simpson on Nov. 11. Mr and Mrs Tator will soon leave to make their home in Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr Dewey Simpson, Mr and Mrs Ivan Simpson, Mrs Eldon Simpson and Debbie, and Mr and Mrs Delmar Crossbie were callers that evening. On Friday Mr and Mrs Harold Underhill of Traverse City, Mrs Rex Martin of Ovid, Rev Gordon Spalenka, Mrs Mahlon Waite, Miss Ada Williams, and Mrs Homola of Owosso called on Mrs Simpson.

Mrs Simpson has had a cast on her foot now for the past four weeks. She is spending a few days at the home of Mrs Jack Moller of Brant as her husband has gone deer hunting.

Mr and Mrs Archie Moore Sr. of Carland and Mrs Archie Moore Jr. of Elsie called on Mrs Fred Moore at Memorial Hospital on Thursday. They also called on Mrs Morrison who is there with a broken hip, and Mrs Helen Latz and Earl Albaugh of Chapin.

Mrs Archie Moore attended a stork shower for Mrs Ronald Capen of Owosso, which was held at the Methodist Church house in Chapin on Nov. 14.

Mrs Larry Kadolph, Mrs Archie Moore of Carland and Mrs Elizabeth Gilbert of Ovid attended a school of instruction of OES in Flint on Nov. 15. There was a large attendance from many areas.

A lot of fellows would save money if their families would let them.

Vandals take
$45 at DeWitt

DeWITT—Vandals broke into DeWitt High School over the weekend of Nov. 9-10 and got away with an estimated $45 in cash after causing some interior destruction.

They entered the school through an outside door leading to the shop classroom and then emptied vending machines and the pay telephone of coins. They also took money from the offices of two teachers and the school principal.

DeWitt police and state police are investigating.

7 boys help hunt
'lost' hunter here

Seven St. Johns youths volunteered to help hunt for a "lost" hunter late Saturday morning in wooded areas near Essex Center, and Island Roads, but the "lost" boy turned up before they got to the search area.

The sheriff's office reported a misunderstanding in the timetable and directions by a 14-year-old youth was responsible for the "lost" report and that the boy was calmly and quietly hunting when his dad found him.

The St. Johns boys who volunteered to help in the search were Steve Mead, Curtis Keck, Byron Carpenter, John Smith, Dave Flernmoen, Gary Rademacher and William French.

School
contracts awarded

DeWITT—Contracts have been awarded for two school additions at DeWitt, with the Britsch Construction Co. of Okemos being awarded the general contracting job with a low bid of $299,990.

One of the building projects will be an addition to the high school, and the other is an addition to Scott Elementary School. Both are due for completion by the opening of school next fall. Both projects were combined in one bidding.

United Piping of Detroit got the mechanical contract on a bid of $140,500, and Superior Electric of Lansing was the low bidder at $95,778 on the electrical contract. There were five bidders on each phase of the work.

The additions to the two schools are part of a $2.7 million bond issue for school construction approved by voters earlier in 1968. A new middle school on Schavey Road is the big project.

The school board will meet tonight (Thursday) to sell the entire bond issue.

Greeting cards need 6-cent
stamps in '68

The Post Office Department today advised persons sending Christmas cards that all cards weighing one ounce or less must carry six cents postage.

In previous years, unsealed cards without a written message (only the signature of the sender) could be sent one cent less than first class postage. These would be delivered as third-class mail, without the provision for forwarding or return if undeliverable.

The postage rate legislation which went into effect last January raised the single rate-third class postage to six cents for the first two ounces. Thus, the post office notes, all greeting cards bearing six cents postage which are undeliverable as addressed shall be forwarded if a new address is available.

The Department stressed the importance of a return address to assure that undeliverable cards will be returned. This allows mailers to keep their address lists up to date.

GETTING READY

About a dozen St. Johns businessmen assembled at the city garage last Thursday evening to clean and prepare Christmas decorations for hanging in the downtown area. Floyd Parmelee directs a cleansing spray on one of the pieces while Jim Leon stands ready to take over. The "cleaning bee" was headed by Bernie Feldpausch. Leon is general chairman of the 1968 Christmas program for St. Johns which will include Santa's arrival, the annual tree lighting ceremonies, lunches with Santa, Kiddies' movies and several other events.

Bowmen's rabbit hunt Dec. 8

OWOSSO — Upwards of 1,000 Michigan bowmen are expected to attend the annual Bow and Arrow Rabbit Hunt on Sunday, Dec. 8, at the Owosso YMCA Camp Shilawasee. This is the same hunt which was annually held at Style Ferris's Coverside Farms near Perry up until 1966 but has since been transferred to the 'Y' Camp. Ferris, honorary hunt chairman, will officially begin the hunt again. "Last year nearly 40 rabbits were bagged, and many more are expected to be taken in the day-long event this year." The 250 acre 'Y' Camp, owned by the Owosso YMCA, has good natural coverage and insures hunters with plenty of game. The day's activities will begin on Sunday, Dec. 8, at 7:30 a.m. with a hunters' breakfast. Registration is from 8 a.m. on. A special church service will be held at 9:30 a.m. The Hunt will start at 10 a.m., with a lunch available during the noon hour, and conclude at 2:30 p.m. Hunters will be using blunt, not field point, arrows during the hunt. Detailed information will be passed out to each hunter at the time of registration. Camp Shilawasee is located approximately 3 1/2 miles south and east of the M-78-Brancroft exit, between Perry and Durand.

Ovid-Elsie invades Tuesday Redwing prospects bright

If ever Coach Bill Swears has looked forward to a basketball season, this is probably the one. The St. Johns coach has an all-veteran starting five back to play for him this year, and he's got good bench strength.

Repeat free throw award

Basketball teams around the county are hurriedly getting into shape for the opening of the 1968-69 season, and the Clinton County News wants to remind them of the traveling trophy which this newspaper awards for proficiency in free throw shooting.

This will be the third year the trophy will be awarded, Joe Koenigsnecht of Fowler won it for the 1966-67 season, and Jerry Weir of Ovid-Elsie won it last year. Both were juniors when they won with percentages of 82 or better. Weir, now a senior, will be eligible to repeat as county free throw champ this year, but he'll have a rough go matching his mark of last year. In the 1967-68 season Weir connected on 41 of 50 free throw attempts — exactly 82 per cent.

Joe Koenigsnecht, who won it the year before with an 83.6 per cent mark, finished third last year at 70.5 per cent.

All varsity basketball players at St. Johns, Bath, Fowler, DeWitt, Pewamo-Westphalia, Fulton, Ashley, Ovid-Elsie and Laingsburg high schools are eligible to compete in the contest. To be considered for the prize, however, they must shoot at least 40 free throws during the year; percentages will be figured to four decimal places in determining the winner.

Besides having his name engraved on the handsome traveling plaque awarded by the Clinton County News, the winner will receive a smaller engraved trophy for him to keep.

The Clinton County News staff—longtime basketball fans for both news coverage purposes and for strictly enjoyment, has always recognized the importance of the free throw to the game of basketball. Free throws have won many basketball games, and missed free throws have lost many.

The young man who can step to the free throw line with a thousand eyes on him and consistently put the ball through the hoop 15 feet away is a valuable player not only as a scorer but as a morale builder. The Clinton County News seeks to honor the Clinton area high school player who can make the free throw more often than anyone else.

All regular season and Christmas tournament games will count. A story will be printed at about the halfway point in the season to keep readers abreast of the top free throw shooters at that point and tell how they are doing.

"I'm quite optimistic," he said Monday night in looking at the schedule of 16 games.

Although he's not ready for it, the season for the Redwings will open next Tuesday night when St. Johns will play host to the Ovid-Elsie Marauders. This is about a week earlier than the season has started in recent years, and Swears said his team is far from smooth.

"They still look like they're playing football," he commented, "but they'll do a lot of improving."

Three of the probable starting players and 10 of the 16 on the team were out for football this year and have only switched over to basketball during the past week.

THE FIVE LETTERMEN back from last year's squad will probably be the starters. They include two-letter winners Jon Berkhausen, a six-foot forward, and 5-10 guard Terry Maier. Big 6-6 center Dick Rehmann should be much more experienced this year and holds the key to the Redwings' rebounding abilities. Dave Gaffney, at 5-10 and the only junior among the five lettermen, will be the probable other guard, and playing the other forward will be 5-10 senior Dick Henderson.

Dean Eisler, a 6-3 sophomore forward, junior guard Richard Stoddard, and junior forward Tim Durner will be battling the lettermen for starting roles. Eisler led the junior varsity in scoring last year.

Then, there is 6-3 junior Bob Rehmann at center, Chuck Green at guard, Larry Zuker at forward, Roger Davis at center, Dan Rademacher at forward, Terry Nobis at guard and Greg Kirby at guard and Mike Pearson at center to give support.

All in all, Coach Swears should have more material to work with than he has had in many years. But as all coaches do, Swears worries about some problems.

"We're weak in rebounding, strange as that may seem," Swears said. "We're not that big after Rehmann at 6-6. Berkhausen is stretching at 6 foot, and Henderson at the other forward is only 5-10. And our guards are short."

Eisler, Durner, Bob Rehmann, Davis, Rademacher and Pearson are all six feet tall or better, but they may have a tough time getting into the game, depending on the play of the first five.

"WE'RE STILL plenty ragged," Swears noted Monday night. "These are good ball players, but we've got a lot of improving to do."

"I hope people realize they're young people who will make mistakes. They can do a lot of things, but this early in the season they're overplaying themselves."

"I think they'll come around, though, and I'm quite optimistic." The veteran coach thinks Ovid-Elsie will probably be as tough for the Redwings this year as any team, particularly considering they play in the first game of the season next Tuesday. Ovid-Elsie will have three players who saw considerable action back, including big Jerry Weir who is a good shooter and who won the Clinton County News free throw award last year. Ovid-Elsie's new coach, Bob Foreback, also has veteran talent in Daryl Melvin, Jerry Guysky, Terry Flowman and last year's JV star Cal Woodard.

In the West Central Conference, Lakewood is Swears' pick as the team to beat, since they have four starters including Steve Schray (Swears calls him the best basketball player in the league) back this season. Waverly, new in the league, is also expected to be tough with four regulars back, Hastings has to be contended with, too, Swears said, but Ionia, Alma, Charlotte and Grand Ledge are considered to be rebuilding this year.

The junior varsity game Tuesday night will start at 6:30 p.m., with the varsity game to get under way about 8 or 8:15.

Coach Bill Swears (center, gesturing) points out some ragged play his Redwings are showing during practice last Monday evening. Swears hopes to smooth out the roughness and have a good team operating well before too many games go by.

St. Johns, P-W ranked in state

Two Clinton County football teams have been ranked in the top 10 in their enrollment class for the 1968 season just concluded.

St. Johns, which compiled an 8-1 record after dropping their opener to Mason, was ranked ninth in the state at the close of the season. The Redwings won the West Central Conference title with a 7-0 record. Riverview was ranked first in the state, Muskegon Reeths Puffer finished just above St. Johns in eighth place, and Corunna was rated 10th.

Pewamo-Westphalia, after a dismal year in 1967, came back strong this year to post a 7-1 record, win the Central Michigan Athletic Conference title with a 6-1 mark, and finally to be ranked 10th in the state among Class C teams. Frankemuth was the top Class C team, while Battle Creek St. Philip was ninth just above P-W.

Tie-breaker worth money to winner

Like the extra point kick often does in the game itself, the tie-breaker score spelled the difference again last week in the outcome of the Clinton County News football contest. Richard Fero of 605 N. Ottawa Street, St. Johns, won the $20 prize with 19 correct answers and a tie-breaker score of 28, just nosing out Eddie San Miguel of 208 Ross Street, who had 19 correct and a tie-breaker of 27. The correct tie-breaker score turned out to be 31 in the Arizona-Utah game. Both contestants did extremely well last week, because for the first time the contest selections were of college football games only. But Fero was near perfect, with only Baylor's victory over Texas Tech and Bucknell's win over Lehigh spoiling his record. The football contest is being expanded this year, and there are still three more chances for fans to win $20. This week's contest is on Page 11-B.

ATTENDS EAST ESSEX SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE:

The four officers of the Eureka Elementary School's Community Club, Mrs Maynard Moon, Mrs Charles Rasdale, Mrs Gilbert Baker and Mrs Dale Henning, all attended the open house of their sister school The East Essex Elementary School, last week Wednesday evening. Also attending the open house was Mrs John Bryant, the Principal of the Eureka Elementary School, and Mr Bryant.

WEEKLY PRAYER SESSIONS:

Each Thursday afternoon a prayer session meets at the home of Mrs Elizabeth Blank at 1:30 p.m. And in the evening on Thursday there is a prayer session meeting at different homes. This week in the evening they will meet with Mrs J.D. Robinson. Anyone interested in attending one of these sessions may do so at any time. You may call Mrs Blank or Mrs Robinson for the time or place of the meeting.

MOTHERS ALBUM DAY:

Mothers Album Day at the Eureka Congregational Christian Church will be held Dec. 8, at the Church. The Pilgrim Fellowship will be sponsoring a luncheon (free-will offering) and a photographer will be present to take family group pictures. The Sunday School will give one 8" x 10" black and white family portrait free to every mother present on that day. This will be the day for every mother to be sure that her husband, children and grandchildren are present for Sunday School.

Mrs Hartley Holmquist of Detroit, spent Sunday and Monday here with her mother Mrs Ethel Randolph. Monday they were callers at Owosso.

Mr and Mrs John Bryant spent the weekend at their trailer house on Higgins Lake.

WESLEY SMITH IS SPEAKER

The Pilgrim Fellowship of the Eureka Congregational Christian Church attended services Sunday evening Nov. 10, at the Free Methodist Church in Ithaca. Here they heard Wesley Smith speak.

QUARTET FROM OWOSSO HEARD:

A Quartet from The Owosso Bible College sang several folk music songs, Nov. 17, at the Eureka Congregational Christian Church. This was at the meeting of the Youth Pilgrim Fellowship. Several students from the college also came to hear them sing.

CHRISTMAS CARD POSTAGE RATES:

The postage rate legislation which went into effect last January raised the single rate third class postage to six cents for the first two ounces. Since most greeting cards weigh less than an ounce, the first and third class rates are in effect, the same. These will be forwarded or returned, if undeliverable as addressed provided they have a return on them.

EUREKA ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS:

Open House was held at the new Eureka Elementary School Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m. About 200 guests toured the various rooms and then were served refreshments from an attractive table in the library.

Door prizes were won by John Kurncz, Claude Bishop, Elmer Thornton, Jill Bunce and Eric Brockmyer.

Much credit is due the officers of the Community Club who planned the affair.

The Concert Choir from the St. Johns High School presented a program of vocal music at the Eureka Elementary School Tuesday afternoon.

Thanksgiving vacation this next week will be Thanksgiving Day and Friday, so the children will have only three days of school next week. The milk money will be only 16 cents which is due on Thursday.

Mrs Don Eastment flew from Lansing, Friday Nov. 8, to Akron, Ohio to spend the weekend with her sister, Janet and three sons. Sunday night Mr Eastment and daughters, Kathy and Patty and Mr and Mrs Gordon Eichorn met her plane in Lansing at 9:15 in the evening.

Mr and Mrs Milford Clark were Wednesday evening guests of Mr and Mrs Cecell Smith in Elsie.

Mr and Mrs Dale Randolph and Larry spent from Thursday evening through Sunday deer hunting. They stayed in their trailer house between Houghton and Higgins Lake. Mr and Mrs Wendell Waggoner, Ron and Russ spent from Thursday until Sunday noon deer hunting. They stayed in their trailer house between Houghton and Higgins Lake, too. Mr and Mrs Gordon Waggoner and Gloria spent from Thursday evening through Sunday afternoon deer hunting. They stayed in their trailer house between Houghton and Higgins Lake, also. Others deer hunting there were Mr and Mrs Hub Meadows and Mr and Mrs Howard Waggoner.

Mr and Mrs Milford Clark of Elsie, are spending some time at their cottage, taking care of their grandson Kimber, while his parents Mr and Mrs Gale Wood are out deer hunting.

Linda Waggoner spent Thursday afternoon and night with Kathy Eastment, then Friday after school her cousin Terrie Randolph came for her, and she and Sherry Moore of Elsie spent the weekend with Terrie.

Mr and Mrs J.D. Robinson visited this weekend in Ann Arbor with their daughter Miss Barbara Waggoner at the University of Michigan.

Pessimists may be appropriately termed misfortune tellers. Lack of foresight is demonstrated by the aftereffects.

West Elsie

By MRS. WAYNE MEAD, Correspondent—Phone 862-5447

Mr and Mrs Kenneth Wilson and children of Shepardsville Road attended the first birthday celebration of their niece, Dawn Marie Bellingar, Tuesday evening. Dawn is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Lloyd Bellingar of St. Johns.

Mrs Blanche Binger of Maple Rapids Road returned to her home Nov. 16 from Owosso Memorial Hospital. Mrs Binger underwent major surgery three weeks ago.

If he's hunting stag, let him go stag . . . that's her advice

(Editor's Note: Mrs R.C. Smith, a former correspondent of this newspaper in the southwest DeWitt area, wrote this humorous piece for the Clinton County Republican News on Nov. 21, 1957. Somehow, we can imagine the same thing taking place this year, and so we reprint Mrs Smith's article for your enjoyment.)

By MRS R.C. SMITH

He took me deer hunting this year after many seasons of useless pleading ending with my staying home alone.

He decked me out in red plaid and thick boots and mittens, filled me with high hopes and anticipation and we headed northward on the trail of the illustrious buck deer.

He pulled me out from under warm thick quilts onto an icy cement floor at 4:30 in the morning.

He made me eat soggy pancakes and drink bitter, black coffee from stained, cracked china.

He marched me into the shadowy, eerie, God-forsaken deer country half an hour before dawn and stood me up on one side of a burned tree stump in the drizzling, freezing rain while he took his place on the other side of the stump.

WE STOOD BACK to back without a whisper or a twitch, and when I blew my nose he gave me such a poke with his elbow that he squashed the banana I had hidden in the game pocket of my coat.

Another hour we stood. The only things I moved were my toes and I didn't know how much longer that would be possible.

I didn't know I could get so cold, so hungry and so miserable in two hours time.

I turned to ask if we couldn't move somewhere else when a cracking in the swamp drew us both to attention.

I was paralyzed with eager anticipation as the crunching drew nearer. Our eyes were glued to the dismal swamp. We were quiet as mice.

"It's a buck!" I shouted, "Shoot him!"

There was a terrific crashing as the buck lunged back into the safety of the thick swamp. He was gone in a few seconds.

There was a dead silence. That hunter gave me a dreadful sigh and with gritted teeth turned on me.

My eyes widened in innocence. "Why did you have to open your big, fat mouth?" he asked. I shrugged my shoulders with obvious self-control.

"He's such a grouch anyway," I said to myself.

Another hour went by and then I sneaked my hand into my pocket and stealthily pulled out a sandwich.

I unwrapped it without making a sound. I bit into it.

He grabbed it and with a grunt shoved it far down into his own pocket.

"It's only a beef sandwich," I whispered, "I wasn't making a sound."

"Did you have to put onions on it?" he retorted irately. "The deer can smell those things a mile away."

I was mad. He didn't have to be so mean.

I had a tickle in my throat and I coughed.

"Quiet!" he commanded. "I'm cold," I said.

He shook his head in defeat. Then he told me I could warm up by taking a walk in the woods. He told me to circle the swamp and maybe I'd scare some deer his way.

I THOUGHT I'd get lost but he assured me that the compass I had would always let me know where north was.

He showed me where the road was and sent me on my way. I walked far enough so that I couldn't see him anymore and I checked my compass.

I beat it back to him in a hurry. He didn't have to get so mad.

All I wanted was to use his compass. That darned thing I had wasn't worth a plugged nickel. The needle was broken and it was dancing all over the dial. It pointed to everything but north.

He made me sit down this time. He said he had to take a walk.

I thought I'd do him a favor while he was gone so I gathered some dry sticks from under the blanket of wet leaves and I had a nice little fire started. It felt pretty good to!

He never did say why he got so mad and stamped out the fire. He lit up a cigarette and we stood quietly for two more long hours.

He grumbled that we would have to move. He said that there wasn't any living animal within two miles of the place.

I DON'T KNOW how he figured that. Three does and a buck had gone by our stump not 10 minutes ago.

I wouldn't tell him, though. He thought he was so smart.

We walked about a mile farther into the woods and took up our vigil beside a huge pine tree.

We were only there a short while when a beautiful wide-eyed doe emerged, gingerly picking her way through the undergrowth.

We watched breathlessly.

When I was sure it was a doe I relaxed and bit solidly into that nice juicy apple I had been holding in my hand for the last 10 minutes.

That was a good apple. It cracked right proper with that first bite—and the last bite, I might add.

Boy, that guy was mad! I bet he threw that apple half a mile into the woods.

How was I to know there was a buck following that doe. I didn't know deer had such good manners.

We stayed in the woods until dark with nary a shot, and then we started for the car.

I felt like soggy wet blanket. I swear my toes were about to break off. I was so hungry I could have taken a bite off the nearest poplar tree.

I was so tired from doing nothing, and eating nothing, I could scream.

Next year he could beg me all he wanted. He would not get me deer hunting again, and judging from the look on his discouraged face I don't think he will give me any argument.

I'm sure we both agree: if you're hunting stag, go stag!

Jaycees set broom sale date

The St. Johns Jaycees have scheduled their annual broom sale for the last week in February and the first week in March. Some 50 dozen brooms have been ordered, an increase of 14 dozen over what was sold by the service group last year.

The Jaycees netted $343 toward the tot lot playground project through the sale of Halloween candy this fall. Chairman Tom Peacock reported to members last Tuesday evening at the L&L Restaurant. Some 22 bags of candy that were left over are being donated to the Blue Star Mothers for including in Christmas gift boxes being sent to area servicemen in Viet Nam.

Six new members were inducted into the Jaycees last week. New members are Lawrence Slade, James Catty, John Arhart, Randy Baker, Mike Robertson and LeRoy Martens.

Roger Beebe was named the Jaycee of the month for October by President Gene Downing.

St. Johns Jaycees were the tying link between 17 voting precincts in Clinton County Nov. 5 and the national reporting of the results by the major wire services and television networks. Jaycees under the chairmanship of Lowell Rinker covered precincts in Duplain, Ovid, Greenbush, Bingham, Olive, Victor, Bath and DeWitt townships, as well as the cities of DeWitt and St. Johns. They phoned in the results of the presidential and congressional races to the News Election Service, which provided the tallies for the networks and wire services.

EARLY SUCCESS ON HIS DEER HUNTING VENTURE

Larry Bovee (right) of North Essex Center Road, R-1, St. Johns, was out deer hunting early Friday morning, despite the rain, and it wasn't long after the crack of dawn that his rifle cracked and down came this eight-point buck. The deer, weighing about 150 pounds, was shot on Bovee's property. His brother, Mike, (left), was hunting with him.

Big projects clog council calendar

WESTPHALIA — Things like hunting season, Thanksgiving and Christmas are causing some problems in Westphalia, with members of the council finding it a little difficult to choose a night when they can all get together to deal with zoning, sewage plants, and other matters.

Before mid-December the council would like to prepare preliminary plans for both and go over them so public meetings can be held.

Chances of a federal grant to help finance the sewage treatment plant are now nonexistent and councilmen would like for the community to go ahead with the project on its own.

Citizens will be asked to give their opinions on an updated plan now being done by R.W. Petrie, engineer, as soon as the councilmen have met with him and can call a public meeting to hear the reactions of the citizens.

The councilmen are presently discussing zoning and feel that an ordinance should be passed so that residential, commercial, and industrial sites can be determined.

Elvan Pohl, village president would like to call a special meeting late in November to discuss zoning only.

Fowler council planning 2-a-month business session

FWLER—Starting the first of the year councilmen will have two regular meetings per month instead of one. With their new schedule they will meet on the second and fourth Monday. At present they meet only on the second Monday.

In the past the councilmen have found themselves without sufficient time to study sewage problems or for updating village ordinances.

The council held an informal meeting Nov. 7 with Kenneth Fishbeck, engineer, and Fedewa Builders, Inc. to discuss the capacity of the sewage treatment plant. There has been some doubt that the present sewage treatment plant could handle the extra load placed on it by a laundry service.

Eventually the council feels expansion of the sewage plant will be necessary and the informal meeting was held to further discuss the matter.

The council approved plans for a proposed subdivision which would include a two-block area lying southwest of Third and Sorral streets. Owner Joseph Hafner will have to meet all specifications and requirements of village ordinances.

The council also approved an SDM license for Harvey's Market at 140 S. Main Street owned by Harvey Antonides. They also decided to ask Timothy Greeb, attorney, to draw up a proposal for a careless driving ordinance which would be a lesser offense than the one covering reckless driving.

Demand still high for 'real' wood

Synthetics and substitute wood products have greatly improved, but they have failed to reduce the demand for high quality hardwood lumber and veneer, reports Lester Bell, Michigan State University forestry specialist.

"Collectors are constantly searching through antique shops for fine pieces of hardwood furniture, but we have yet to see one looking for plastic or synthetic antiques," Bell says.

Synthetic wood substitutes have been on the market for over 30 years and have greatly increased in quality. Despite this, Bell warns, the future need for quality hardwood lumber will probably exceed supply. He says nearly every Michigan landowner has some opportunity to do something about this shortage—and can earn some money at the same time.

An intensive "Blue Ribbon Trees" educational program is presently under way in Michigan to increase plantings of "quality" species: American basswood, black cherry, black walnut, northern red oak, sugar maple, white oak, yellow birch and yellow poplar.

THE PROGRAM IS sponsored by MSU, the Michigan Department of Conservation and related forest industries.

The first three bulletins of a "Blue Ribbon Trees" series are now available through county Cooperative Extension Service offices or the Bulletin Office, Michigan State University. The bulletins offer introduction, identification and planting recommendations for each of the quality hardwoods. Two more bulletins on cultural practices and harvesting will soon be available.

"Blue Ribbon Trees" supply about 80 per cent of the wood used for quality veneer and solid furniture parts. They are all suitable to at least a part of Michigan, putting the state in an excellent position to provide a good share of the quality hardwood of the future.

"Present day values of these fine species give some indication of the potential," Bell says. "Trees grown for future production give promise of even greater returns since prices of quality veneer products can be expected to increase."

Water-bearing rocks that underlie Long Island, N.Y., contain about 60 trillion gallons of water, enough to cover all of New York state to a depth of six feet, report hydrologists of the U.S. Geological Survey.

NEW HORSE BARN SAW LOTS OF ACTIVITY THIS SUMMER

The new horse barn on the 4-H grounds in St. Johns is empty and idle now, but it was filled with animals during its initiation at the 4-H Fair last year. Officials say the barn will be used for any horse show that is planned at the park, whether it is connected directly with 4-H or not. They are hopeful its presence will increase the number of horse shows and put the building to good use.

EXTENSION REPORT

Fall spraying heads off 'yellow' spring fields

By GEORGE McQUEEN

Remember those pretty yellow and white fields last spring? Chances are we will have them next spring, too.

Fall spraying time is almost here. Sprays of weed control chemicals will prevent those yellow and white fields next May.

Many other pesky weeds can be eliminated by fall sprays also. Here's the fall spraying schedule:

Yellow Rocket, Field peppergrass, Shepherd's-purse, and most other broad-leaf winter annuals and many perennials—spray now after these killing frosts. On established alfalfa and clover fields use 1/2 pound MCPA; on pastures use one pound 2,4-D ester; on lawns use one pound 2,4-D ester; on roadsides, fence rows, etc., use two pounds 2,4-D ester.

Fall sprays catch the broadleaf winter annuals in the rosette stage. These are small leaf clusters at the ground level. They grow from this year's seeds which have germinated and will bloom next year. Now perennial plants also start growth this way. For established perennials, fall sprays also are very effective in killing them but weakening them so they winter-kill. Fortunately, 2,4-D will work since the broad leaf winter annuals and most perennials retain active growth during the warmer days of the fall and winter.

Also, this is a good time to clean up brush and unwanted trees. A spray of 2, 4-D, 2,4,5-T or a combination of these esters in oil will do an excellent job on woody plants. Apply to the entire stem of brush and two feet up from the ground on trees. Most important—READ THE LABEL—carefully. If the label is followed you can be reasonably sure you will get a good job done—safely.

International Live Stock Exposition to start on Nov. 29

CHICAGO — The International Livestock Exposition will celebrate its 69th anniversary here as the country's largest farm animal exhibition Nov. 29 to Dec. 7.

An entry of 8,000 purebred cattle, horses, sheep and hogs is anticipated by the management by the time a final tally is made of all entries following the Nov. 1 closing date. They will fill to capacity the 13 acres of exhibit area in the International Amphitheatre, in addition to a large section of the nearby Chicago Stock Yards.

It is the closing and climax event of the agricultural show year in North America. There will be 37 different breeds on view—a multi-million dollar display of the continent's most valuable farm animals entered by stockmen and dairy men from over 40 states and Canada.

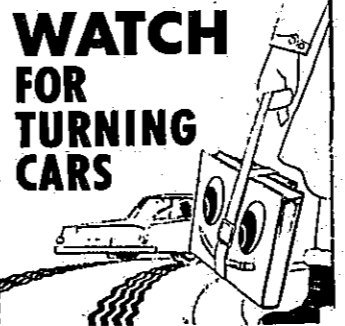

Among them will be several hundred boys and girls, members of 4-H and Future Farmer of America Clubs, exhibiting cattle, sheep, swine of their own raising that have won top prizes at preceding shows and Fairs in their home states.

plus the crowd-pleasing hunter and jumper competitions. With each of the International Horse shows will be championship rodeo. The show management reports many well-known cowboy contestants have registered for competition in this roughest of all sports.

They will compete in Chicago to gain championship points in bull-dogging wild steers, calf-roping, saddle and bare-back riding, and the always dangerous and spectacular Brahma bull riding contests.

Appearing this year for the first time at all performances of the international Horse Show and rodeo will be the youngsters, consisting of 30 youngsters from Golden, Colorado, presenting a fast, spectacular, precision ride with flags and colorful costumes that exits from the arena at top speed through fire.

Snow-ice events highlight Michigan winter activities

Prospective visitors to Michigan this winter have a wide variety of activities and events to keep them entertained and occupied during the snowy season, according to the Michigan Tourist Council Calendar of Events.

The new calendar, covering the period of December through March, lists more than 95 community events and activities designed for the enjoyment and entertainment of all ages and interest groups.

The preponderance of snowmobile competitions and events listed in the calendar reflects the increasing popularity of the new family winter activity. Skating and skiing events, ice fishing festivals, winter carnivals and shows also account for many of the other listings.

The Detroit Auto Show at Cobo Hall in Detroit Nov. 30-Dec. 8 heads the line-up on the December calendar which includes the Christmas Exhibit, Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, Dec. 6-Jan. 5; Christmas Trees Around the World, Nature Center, Kalamazoo, Dec. 10-29; and Christmas at Greenfield Village, Dearborn, Dec. 13-31. Harrietta will hold a snowmobile rally Dec. 14-15, and the annual Christmas Show at Cobo Hall, Detroit, is scheduled Dec. 14-29.

Snowmobile events contribute to Michigan winter fun during the month of January, according to the events calendar. Included among the 10 snowmobile events listed are the Snowmobile Safari, Kalkaska, Jan. 3-4; Snowmobile Races at Alpena Jan. 11-12, and Snowmobile Races at Lake Linden Jan. 25-26.

FUN IS IN STORE for visitors to "Tip-Up-Town, USA," Houghton Lake, Jan. 18-19, the biggest of the ice-fishing events. The Greater Michigan Boat Show at the Detroit Artillery Armory will start Jan. 25 and continue through Feb. 2.

Also of interest to boaters is the Michigan National Boat, Sports and Vacation Show which opens at Cobo Hall, Detroit, Feb. 1, and closes Feb. 9. Ice fishermen will gather for the Tip-Up Festival at Baw Beese Lake near Hillsdale Feb. 2, which is also the tentative date for the Michigan Ski Jumping Championship at Mesick. The Petoskey Winter Carnival Feb. 1-9, the Michigan Tech Winter Carnival at Houghton-Hancock Feb. 6-8, and the Winter Sports Carnival at Grayling Feb. 7-9 promise to add to Michigan's winter fun in February.

Among the other listings for February are the Michigan Mobile Home Assn. Campers' Show, Artillery Armory, Detroit, Feb.

12-23; The Midwest Snowmobile Championship Race February 14-16, Mancelona-Bellaire; Northern Michigan Speed Skating Championships, Alpena, Feb. 15-16; and the North American Snowmobile Championships Feb. 28-March 2 at Munising.

March winds bring the hint of spring to Michigan and with them come more interesting and entertaining events. Among them are the "Detroit" Antiques Show, Light Guard Armory, March 5-9, and the University of Detroit Spring Carnival at the State Fairgrounds March 14-16. The State Indoor Skating Championships will be held at Flint March 15. The Detroit Sportsmen's and Vacation Show at the State Fairgrounds March 21-30 and the Easter Baby Animal Exhibit at the Nature Center in Kalamazoo, March 31-April 1, complete the listings on the calendar.

Copies of the Michigan Calendar of Events, listing a wide variety of winter activities from December through March, are available without charge from the Michigan Tourist Council, Stevens T. Mason Building, Lansing 48926.

ASCS REPORT Defense activities of ASCS outlined

By WILLIAM SMITH

The objective of the defense preparedness program in the United States Department of Agriculture is to maintain a state of readiness to carry out food and agricultural programs in an emergency. In this event USDA must be able to mobilize rapidly its forces without undergoing substantial reorganization. It also must provide leadership and guidance to state and local governments, farmers, the food industry and the public to insure conservation and continuity of the nation's food supply and the preservation of agricultural resources.

Defense responsibilities in USDA stem from regular program authorities and special executive orders. These responsibilities have been assigned by the secretary to agencies whose peacetime activities bear a close relationship to programs that would be essential in an emergency. Defense preparedness in USDA is coordinated by the assistant to the secretary (for defense mobilization). He is assisted at the national level by the National Defense Board composed of heads of agencies having defense responsibilities.

Within the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service each deputy administrator supervises defense preparedness by the divisions, staffs and offices under his jurisdiction. (For defense purposes, ASCS commodity offices are considered components of USDA headquarters.) Among the units in ASCS most prominently associated with defense are the defense activities staff of the policy and program appraisal division and the disaster and defense services of the office of the deputy administrator for state and county operations.

ASCS HAS BEEN assigned defense preparedness functions relating to farm production, conservation and stabilization. ASCS personnel are experienced in the administration of farm programs and programs to alleviate the effects of natural disasters. This experience would be valuable in defense emergency programs, including emergency production of crops, livestock and poultry; handling and storage of agricultural commodities on farms; salvage of agricultural commodities on farms and rehabilitation of facilities on farms and farmland; distribution of farm equipment, fertilizer, seed and livestock feed; estimating requirements for manpower, equipment, fertilizer, fuels and other supplies and services needed for agricultural production and for the handling, storage and distribution of grain.

ASCS also is responsible for emergency preparedness programs and defense operations relating to handling, storage and distribution of all grains prior to export and prior to processing for human consumption or industrial use. These programs include grain for seed and livestock feed.

Commodity Credit Corp. Stocks which are administered by ASCS automatically provide a stockpile of food and livestock feed for emergency use. They would be used in an emergency in the best interest of the nation as a whole. In the peacetime management and storage of these commodities, such factors as safety and emergency accessibility in relation to defense needs are kept in mind.

ASCS is also responsible for providing certain coordinating services for the assistant to the secretary. These include the USDA-wide consolidation of claims in an emergency for non-food requisites and manpower necessary to support food and agricultural operations and other programs for which USDA is responsible; servicing of USDA state and county defense boards;

Farmers Week dates set up

The 1969 Farmers' Week will be held March 17-21 on the Michigan State University campus, general chairman Byron H. Good announced this week.

Farmers' Week has historically been held in late January but was changed to MSU's spring recess so more facilities would be available for an expanded program.

This year's theme will be "Science, Cybernetics and the Seventies." Cybernetics, the study or use of mechanical-electrical communications systems such as computers, was chosen as part of the theme because of the increased impact this technology is having on modern agriculture.

SHARON V. STOY BECOMES JUNIOR MEMBER Sharon V. Stoy, 14, of St. Johns has been granted a junior membership in the American Angus Assn. at St. Joseph, Mo., announces H. Dick Nobis, president. This new junior membership entitles the member to register purebred Angus at regular membership rates and to the privileges of the association until the age of 21. At that time junior members are eligible to convert to lifetime memberships in the association.

COVERUP A heavy flow of language is often merely a smokescreen for a scarcity of ideas.

Plan class for mechanics

As a result of a Statewide survey conducted by the Rural Manpower Service of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, it was established that a shortage of farm equipment mechanics continues to exist in the State of Michigan. Under the Manpower Development and Training Act, a new class for farm equipment mechanics will be conducted within a month in Bay City.

Persons 18 year of age and up, with an eighth grade educational minimum, with previous farm experience and showing interest in this field, are eligible for admission. Classes will last 48 weeks. Students will be trained in the following major units of interest: assembly, disassembly, repair and adjustment of farm implements, repair and maintenance of tractors and equipment engines, use and care of tools, new tractor servicing, tractor rebuilding, carburetion, electricity, fuel injection, transmission drives, hydraulics, engine testing and tune up, and welding arc and gas. Related instruction on parts and service manuals, customer relations, safety and service responsibilities will be given.

Living expenses are paid

through the program according to the needs of applicants. Special consideration is given to the size of family the applicant has to support. Most single youth qualify for these training benefits. Transportation back home on week-ends is also considered as part of general expenses.

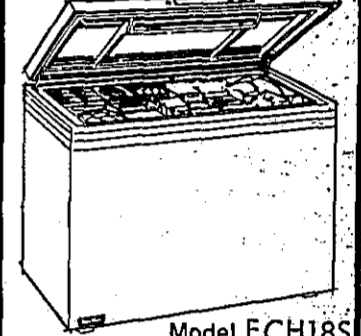

Four classes have been graduated already and students have been placed in good jobs immediately. Application for this class are being taken at the Rural Manpower Office located at 3215 S. Pennsylvania on the south side of the Michigan Employment Security Commission Building in Lansing.

Questionnaire to aid planning

MIDDLETON — Residents of the Fulton School district have been given questionnaires concerning the guidance of future school planning.

The questionnaire was prepared by a steering committee and will be used as a guide for future school planning. The committee was formed by a group of citizens from all sections of the district.

The committee was appointed by the board of education last spring, when members of the board decided that the facilities at Fulton School would not be adequate.

5 Green Meadow cows get notoriety

Duane and Velmar Green of Green Meadow Farms at Elsie have been notified by Holstein-Friesian Association of America that Registered Holstein cows in their herd have received an "E" designation for body type conformation.

On the basis of their previous classification of "Excellent", the following have been awarded 2E designation:

Green Meadow Ruby Emilia 5621644, Dark Wood Supreme Pattie 6312503, Sanhill Supreme Hope 5602118, Luxana Royal Brigitte 5610331, Athlone Gracious Ada 5550318.

This new phase of the Holstein Association's long-time breed improvement program provides additional recognition for "Excellent" cows that are reclassified "Excellent" beyond the age of maturity. A cow may be designated 2, 3, or 4E according to her history of previous "Excellent" classifications within specified age brackets.

Clinton, Middleton, and Maple Rapids and some rural schools have been annexed. The board of education has purchased moveable classrooms where space was inadequate in schools.

The questionnaires were mailed to all known residents of the area. For anyone not receiving one through the mail, they may get one at Supt. Walno Pihis' office.

A middle school estimated to cost $1.4 million has been offered as a suggestion to ease the classroom situation. It would require an eight-mill debt levy for a period of 29 years. The debt at present is only three mills, one of the lowest debt levies in the area.

Because of fire regulations, some of the buildings now being used could not be expanded without a complete renovation.

The members on the committee feel that a new school building for sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils would best serve the area. They would continue using all schools presently in operation.

The first newspaper in Kansas was the Shawnee Star, printed in the Shawnee Indian language for members of that tribe in 1835. It wasn't until 1854 that Kansas got its first English-language paper.

Mrs. Mary Papo, individual awards chairman, presented the "Top Crusader Award" pins to Mrs. Raymond Thornton (left) of Elsie and Mrs. Albert Fruchtl, of St. Johns. Only 17 volunteers from Michigan received the Cancer Society award.

Mrs. Thornton, Mrs. Fruchtl

Cancer Society honors 2

Two Clinton County women, Mrs. Raymond D. Thornton of R-1, Elsie, and Mrs. Albert Fruchtl of St. Johns, received the highest-level volunteer award possible from the American Cancer Society, Michigan Division, at the recent annual convention in Lansing.

The "Top Crusader Award" was presented by Mrs. Mary Papo, individual awards chairman, to Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Fruchtl. They were two of only 17 volunteers from throughout the state to receive the award.

Mrs. Thornton reports she was very surprised to receive the honor. She is vice-president of the Clinton County unit and also Duplain Township chairman. She has held the chairmanship of Duplain since 1956, and was a worker for many years before that.

One of their more recent projects was conducted by the Ovid-Elsie band—"Send A Mouse to College." Duplain has always been rated as outstanding in their annual cancer drives, in service, and in educating the public. Mrs. Thornton says "It's a great place to live."

MRS. FRUCHTL, director of the Clinton County American Cancer Society, has about 500 volunteers, and reports that 78 members attended the annual state convention at the Jack Tar Hotel in Lansing. She reports also that she gets marvelous cooperation from all volunteers. She also serves as chairman of the Public Education Commission for the Michigan Division.

To receive the crusader pin a person must have been an active member for at least 10 years and do outstanding work in education, and service as well as crusade.

Mrs. Albert Fruchtl, of St. Johns, received the "Top Crusader Award" pin.

The pin is a jeweled sword on gold with blue stones. Pins were awarded to 17 members at the meeting.

Mrs. Fruchtl reports that the "National Crusade" will be held at the Park Plaza Hotel on Jan. 9 and 10, 1969.

The featured speaker at the awards banquet was Edgar A. "Bud" Guest Jr. Over 325 volunteers were in attendance; they represented 44 counties throughout the state.

4-H Club Chatter

By JOHN AYLSWORTH
Extension 4-H Youth Agent

Larry Borton of R-4, Lansing has been selected as one of Michigan's 28 4-H delegates to participate in the 47th National 4-H Congress in Chicago Dec. 1-5. He was selected in the area of public speaking, having won the boys division in the county, state and ranking high in the regional competition.

He will be one of the 1,650 boys and girls, all top notch 4-H members, from throughout the United States in attending the National 4-H Congress. The delegates will be between 15-19 years of age and have been 4-H members for at least three years. The Michigan delegates were selected at State Show at Michigan State University in August following an interview with a committee representing that project area. Their accomplishments in Citizenship, leadership and personal development were also carefully evaluated.

While in Chicago, Larry will hear addresses by Charles W. Ferguson, senior editor of Reader's Digest; Juanita Kidd Stout, judge of the county court of Philadelphia; Dr. Harold Sponberg, president of Eastern Michigan University, and Dr. Luther Roehm, president of Merck Chemical Division. Delegates to the Chicago conference will see, hear and learn many things which will expand their horizons and contribute to their education. They will tour several of the city's famed museums such as the Science and Industry, Natural History, Aquarium and the Art Institute.

Larry is the son of Mr and Mrs Robert Borton and has completed seven years of 4-H club work in the Watertown-Grove 4-H Club. He is presently a senior at Waverly High School and plans to attend college next fall.

Nineteen clubs were represented at the County 4-H Officers Training Conference last Thursday evening at Smith Hall in St. Johns. Fifty-six officers and 11 adults participated in the training of the presidents, vice-presidents, secretaries, treasurers, news reporters and song leaders.

4-H Leaders are reminded to send in their reservation cards by Monday, Nov. 25, for the Leaders Recognition Banquet on Dec. 2 at Smith Hall in St. Johns. Final plans for the election of 4-H Council members and program were completed Monday evening at the council meeting.

Charles Gang 4-H Club members have elected Dan Barz as their club president for the winter program. Other officers include: vice-president, Tim Barz; secretary, Earl Flegler Jr.; treasurer, Mark Barz; and news reporter, Jim Irerer. The club discussed bowling and roller skating activities, but no dates were set. Charles Silm gave a wood working demonstration.

The Jolly Knitters 4-H members answered roll call with an Indian or Pilgrim name. The members will hold a roller skating party in the near future as well as having the officers visit another club meeting. The members drew names for the Christmas gift exchange on Dec. 17. The gift should range between 50 cents-75 cents in price. The club will go Christmas caroling on

The Knit N Stitch 4-H members will make hospital favors for Washington's Birthday as a community service project. Demonstrations were given by Barbara Harte and Diane Davis.

The Kountry Kousins 4-H members are planning several community service projects this winter. One of these projects will be for the youth at the children's home in St. Johns. The Extension 4-H youth agent discussed with the members the achievements accomplished this past summer and what they need to do to become an honor club. Dana Hazle showed slides of her experiences in attending the National 4-H Citizenship Short Course in Washington, D.C., in July.

The Lucky Riders 4-H members visited the veterinary clinic at Michigan State University where they saw how horses were treated for various ailments and how x-rays were taken for large and small animals. The club will hold a bake sale Dec. 14. The members discussed several different community service projects for the holiday season. The members were shown how to pick up and clean a horse's hoof.

BLUE STAR MOTHERS PREPARE BOXES

Eureka School has open house

Approximately 200 guests registered at the Eureka School Sunday afternoon, Nov. 10, for the open house sponsored by the Eureka School Community Club in observance of American Education Week.

Tours of the various rooms and offices were conducted by the teachers and teacher aides. Following the tours the guests were served refreshments. Several floral arrangements and paintings were placed throughout the building and the Intercom was used for soft background music in the rooms. Drawings for door prizes were held, with John Kurnez winning the propane torch donated by Lewis Plumbing and Heating. Mr and Mrs Claude Bishop won a lazy susan tray donated by Gower's Hardware. A permanent donated by Hillside Beauty Salon was won by Jill Bunce. Elmer Thornton won a turkey donated by the principal, Vera Bryant. The refreshment table centerpiece donated by the Eureka School Community Club was won by Eric Brockmyer.

Silence may be golden, but it takes a lot of doing to convert it into cash.

Chapter No. 99 of Blue Star Mothers met with Mrs Marlon Ritter on Nov. 14. Gifts were turned in to pack the Christmas boxes that will go to our adopted veterans at Iron Mountain and Grand Rapids.

The committee to send the cards and gifts to the servicemen from the DeWitt area, reports the names are coming in very slowly.

We have two new members, making our present membership 20. Officers for the coming year were elected and will be installed at the January meeting. The new officers are: president, Mrs Florence Magsig; vice president, Mrs Martha Blizard; secretary, Mrs Elsa Hill; treasurer, Mrs Marlon Ritter; chaplain, Mrs Bernice Wohlfert; patriotic instructor, Mrs Jean Thayer; hospital, Mrs Freda Nichols; sunshine, Mrs Reta Bordua; and historian, Mrs Vera Cortright.

Chapter No. 9 received "The Award for Outstanding Work in Michigan Veterans' Hospitals", presented by the hospital chairman, Mrs Marlon Alexander of Port Huron. Chapter No. 99 has six adopted veterans at the Veterans' Hospital in Iron Mountain and two at Veterans' Facility in Grand Rapids. The veterans at Iron Mountain have been sent clothes, games, books and money each month for their greenhouse, also a gift for each at Christmas with games, puzzles, socks, handkerchiefs, cards and cookies.

We also send money each month to the rehabilitation fund. This fund is used to lend a helping hand to veterans or their families when needed.

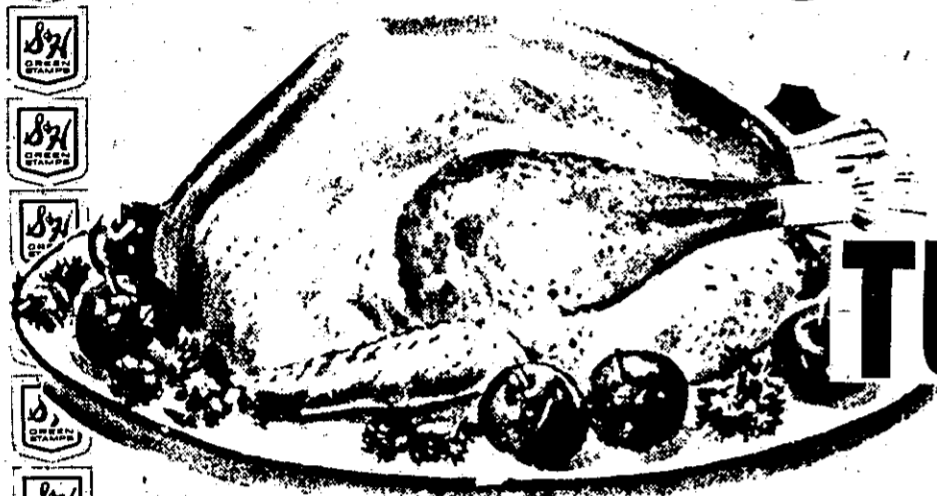

We also send a Christmas card and money gift to each serviceman from our area.

The money to carry on these projects is earned by selling cards and other household gadgets and by donations.

THINK ON THESE THINGS

A devotional message written each week by a pastor of a Clinton County church

By JUSTIN SHEPARD
Minister
Diplain Church of Christ

Someone has said, "Worry is like a rocking chair; it will give you something to do, but it won't get you anywhere." If asked, "What are you worried about?" and the answer comes out, "Nothing," you are either not honest with yourself or a very unusual person.

The toughest decisions some doctors have to make is knowing whether to prescribe medicine for people who are suffering from worry or to tell them, "Go to bed and sleep it off." Often if told to forget it, folks will keep looking for a doctor who will give them something to take.

Nearly everyone worries; single folks worry about getting married, and some of the married folks worry about staying that way. We worry about money, about what others think of us, about the future, about our successes or failures. About anything! The world is restless and discontent. Our stomachs jump when an announcer says, "We interrupt this program for a news bulletin." The threat of annihilation lives in every home and sleeps in every bed. Few 25 years of age or younger can recall anything but tension. Five nations now possess the secret of atomic warfare, and smaller nations will soon learn them. A person does not have to be pessimistic at all to suggest that worry and tension are here to stay.

What's the answer? Learn to live with it? No—we've had a long time to learn to live with it and co-existence is not the answer. When you live with worry I firmly believe it gets more than 50 per cent of your time. The answer is to live ABOVE worry! Haven't you ever noticed that whenever a man comes to Christ, he stops worrying. Read the scriptures and find it is true.

A government official whose son was dying, a woman who was worried about her sinful life, a business man who was worried about his good but dishonest dealings—yes when they all came to Christ they stopped worrying. You can't trust and worry at the same time. If you trust you will not worry; if you worry you will not trust.

Have you had enough of worry? Look to Christ and say, "Lord I turn my life over to you" "You made me, you know what I need better than I know myself." Jesus Christ doesn't care what the condition of your life is (He already knows that). But He does care for you. He cares so much that He was willing to die for you. God so loves you He gave His only Son that as you believe in Him you will have eternal life. You make a poor choice when you worry, for you can trust and find the answer through Jesus Christ.

College Night tonight

The annual County Higher Education Night for Clinton County high school juniors and seniors and their parents will be held tonight (Thursday) at Rodney B. Wilson High School in St. Johns.

The program will start with a brief orientation period at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Students and parents from all over Clinton County are invited.

After the orientation, students and parents will visit with representatives of the college of their choice for a 40-minute period; at the end of this time they will go to the second college of their choice for another 40-minute period. This will give every student and his parents an opportunity to visit with representatives of two colleges.

O-E High School hears band concert

By FRAN FOWLER
O-E High

Donald W. Church, director of clinical services at Lansing Boys Training School, will be the principal speaker when the Central School PTA meets this evening (Thursday). The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m., according to President Darrell Pope. Church has been at Boys Training School in Lansing for over 26 years. This was preceded by four years with Michigan Children's Institute.

When he first came to the Lansing Boys Training School, boys came directly from the courts to the school. Now, however, all boys are made wards of the Department of Social Services and sent to the reception unit at Whitmore Lake and then assigned to the various units.

Church is senior division head at Lansing BTS and is acting director in the absence of Director Paul J. Spata Jr., Ph.D. Church will show a film entitled "Finding a Place," which depicts various phases of recreational, religious, vocational and academic life at BTS. He will also explain the goals and policies of BTS.

Although Church has counseled thousands of boys — his real hobby is girls, as he and Mrs. Church are the parents of 4 daughters.

Rehearsing a scene from the St. Johns Dramatics Department play, "Diary of Anne Frank" are Dick Moldenhauer (left), Marsha Galvatch, Carol Martin, Tamma Simunek, Jamie Bargar, Karen Lundy, Dave Smith and Craig Puetz. The play will be presented Friday and Saturdays evenings.

'Diary of Anne Frank'

St. Johns thespians ready drama for this weekend

The stage version of "The Diary of Anne Frank" will be presented in St. Johns this Friday and Saturday evening by the Drama Department at St. Johns High School, in association with the junior class.

Curtain time each night will be 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door, and they are also on sale during the day at the school box office.

The play, under the direction of Robert L. Koger, is headed by cast members Marcia Galvach as Anne Frank, Dave Smith as Mr. Frank and Doug Nickleson as Peter VanDaan. Backing up these leads are Jamie Bargar as Mrs. Frank, Karen Lundy as Mrs. VanDaan, Craig Puetz as Mr. VanDaan, Dick Moldenhauer as Mr. Dussel, Carol Martin as Margot Frank, Doug Dubay as Mr. Kraler, and Tama Simunek as Melp.

The plot of the production centers around the true story of the lives of these two families, the Franks and the VanDaans, and how they spent well over two years hiding in an attic above a warehouse in Amsterdam to avoid being found by the Nazi Germans. It not only reveals the tense and horrifying moments of the group, but also reveals the tender, humorous, and warm moments that these valiant people shared. It is a true test of dramatic ability and the cast and crews have been putting their all into this production for the past six weeks.

Koger is the new drama coach at St. Johns and comes from James Campbell High School in Honolulu, Hawaii. In the past he has directed "The Mouse That Roared," "The Bull in a China Shop," "The Room," "The Brick and the Rose," "The Campbells Are Coming," "The Diary of Anne Frank," and "The Recognition Scene from Anastasia." Koger has also done the dramatic, musical and choreography direction of "Guys and Dolls."

IN 1963 HE TRAVELED the Orient and South Pacific for 2-1/2 months for the American Educational Theatre Ass. and the USO, entertaining U.S. troops and nationalist audiences as a member of a college production of "Guys and Dolls."

Koger says of the St. Johns production, "The students have worked hard on this show, and it looks like a fine opening for our dramatic season."

"The Diary of Anne Frank" is being produced by special arrangement with the Dramatists' Play Service of New York.

4-H Notes

Parker's Workers 4-H members celebrated their fall achievement with a hayride and weller roast activity. Premiums, pins and certificates were presented to the members. Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich showed pictures of various club activities this past summer. A committee consisting of Nancy Parker, Luanne Bancroft and Ann Dietrich will plan a community service project for Christmas for the members.

Signing of the armistice ending World War I took place in a railway car in the French forest of Compiègne. The original car, which the French kept in a museum, was taken away by the Nazis in World War II and has never been found since.

Modern-day tale of Job topic for DeWitt play

By Dave Horvath
DeWitt High

DeWITT—The DeWitt High School Drama Club will present its first production of the year on Nov. 21, 22, 23, with Archibald MacLeish's "J.B."

"J.B." is the story of Job put in modern setting, concentrating the spotlight on a wealthy man, his wife, and their five children. The play begins as two old-time actors are vending popcorn and balloons in the circus. After walking around the tent for a while, they climb into the center ring and assume roles of God and Satan.

These Venders, Zuss and Nickles, are omnipresent figures who watch the family of J.B., and the tragedies that ensue. Both Zuss and Nickles believe the actions they are watching are the efforts of circus actors, and yet in reality they are seeing the sorrows and troubles of an actual family. Nickles plays the antagonist, while Zuss is firm in his belief that J.B. will retain his faith in God.

The cast will include Dave Horvath as Zuss, Shireen Spencley as Nickles, Jim Reed as J.B., and Ruth Smith as his wife, Sarah. Directed by Mrs. Barbara Gebhardt and the student directors Linda Everett and Diane Smith, the 21 member cast will appear in the DeWitt High School Cafeteria at 8 o'clock Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Busy day on tap at P-W High

By GAIL COTTER
Pewamo-Westphalia High

PEWAMO — WESTPHALIA— This Friday will be a busy day for P-W students who belong to PAC and FHA. In the afternoon Dr. Darrell Thomas will give a talk at an assembly sponsored by FHA, and two neighboring FHA chapters will be here to listen to Dr. Thomas. Before the assembly all the FHA members will meet for refreshments.

Later that evening, those interested PAC members will journey to Waverly High School to see Waverly's production of "West Side Story."

The GAA members and their guests had a roller skating party on Tuesday.

P-W juniors and seniors were invited to attend College Night with their parents. It will be held tonight (Thursday) at Rodney B. Wilson High School in St. Johns. College-bound students can look into different colleges before choosing the one they wish to attend.

The fall session of driver training classes began last Thursday. Classes meet every Thursday from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Instructor is Mr. Cotter.

Plan Thanksgiving service at church

Members and friends of the First Congregational Church of St. Johns will gather in the church sanctuary at 9:30 a.m. Thanksgiving Day to share in a brief service of Thanksgiving. Rev. Gerald Churchill, minister, extended an invitation to "all who are grateful for the blessings they enjoy" to attend the service.

Putting you first vaaarrroooooomm keeps us first.

Chevrolet's got a big surprise for the guy who'd buy a sports car if only it had more room. It's the Impala SS 427.

Like all Impalas, it comes with a 119-inch wheelbase, Astro Ventilation and full door-glass styling. Like all Chevy Sportsters, it comes with a beefed-up suspension and grabby red-stripe wide oval tires. Under the hood, it's more of the same. We lucked in a 427-cubic-inch 390-horsepower Turbo-Jet V8. That means it's the kind of car you can take for a workout even if you're just going to work.

There's driving excitement in these other packages too: Corvete

Slingray, Chevelle SS 396, Camaro SS, Camaro Z 28 and Nova SS. Vaaarrroooooomm!
Listen for it at your Chevy dealer's Sports Shop.

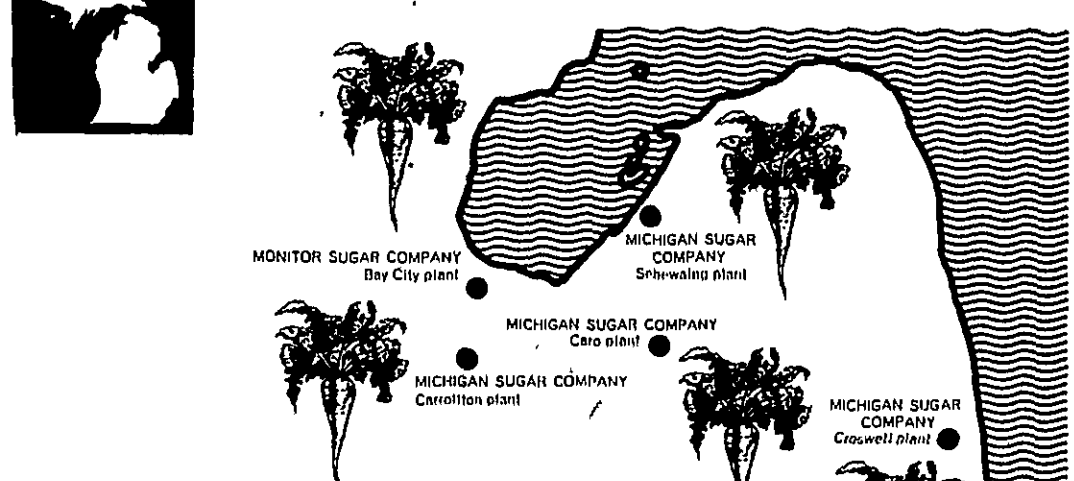

Putting you first, keeps us first.

See the Super Sports at your Chevrolet dealer's Sports Department now.

BEET SUGAR INDUSTRY OF MICHIGAN

AGRI-BUSINESS IN ACTION...

Sugarbeet growers in Michigan's Saginaw Valley have played a vital role in the agri-business economy of our state since the turn of the century. Their progressive efforts combined with those of the state's two processing companies have boosted the dollar value of the sugarbeet crop to nearly $35 million dollars annually. In 1968 farmers in 17 Michigan counties harvested over 84,000 acres of beets. A crop that will produce nearly 350 million pounds of sugar for the Michigan market.

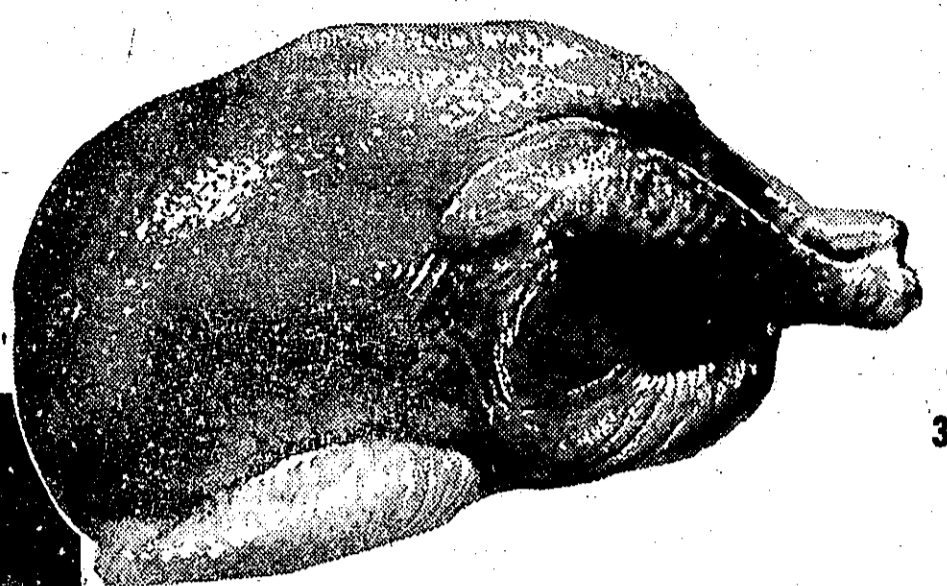

If you live in the Saginaw Valley-Thumb area of Michigan, you no doubt know someone that helps fill Michigan's "sugar bowl" each year. It makes good sense to buy a Michigan grown product. Help yourself to Michigan Made Pure Sugar the next time you shop. Ask for it by name—Pioneer or Big Chief. These brands in the red, white and blue bags represent the finest that Michigan agri-business has to offer.

The forgotten man

It was with more than a good deal of sympathetic interest that we noticed several weeks ago a speech made earlier by President Miller Upton of Beloit College, Wisconsin. He hit some kind of a nail on the head when he said:

"I have just about reached the end of my tolerance for the way our society at the present time seems to have sympathetic concern only for the misfit, the pervert, the drug addict, the drifter, the ne'er-do-well, the maladjusted, the chronic criminal, the underachiever, the loser—in general, the underdog."

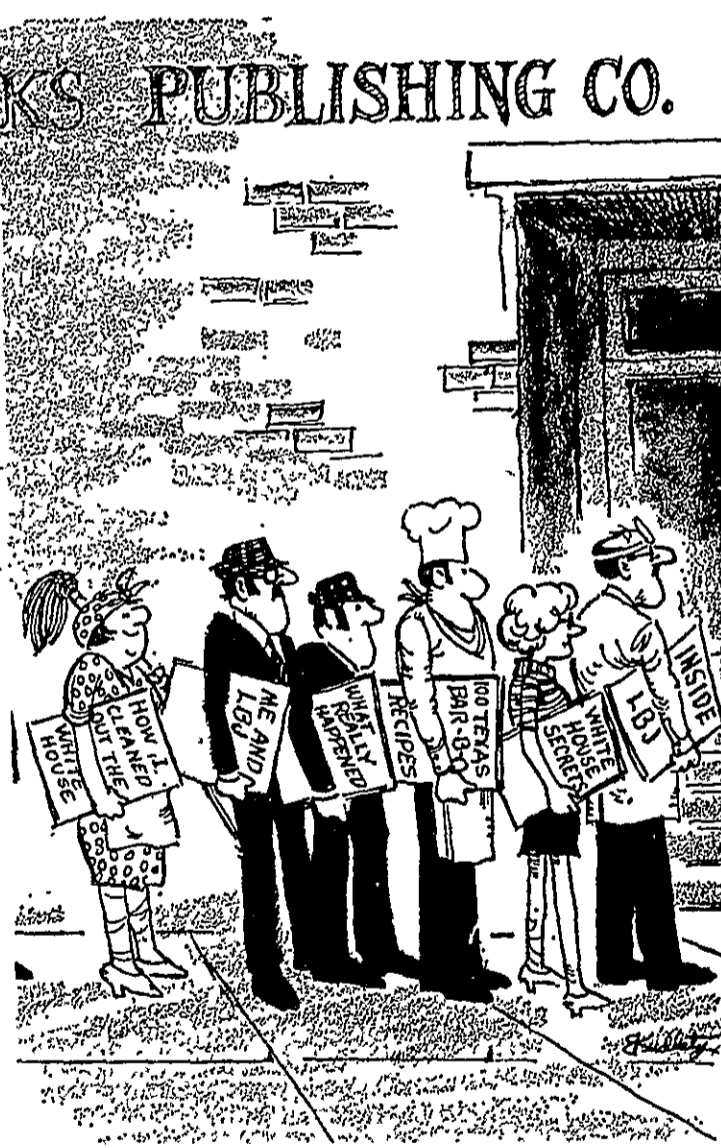

Upton went on to declare he does not in any way oppose public efforts to assist such people. But he thinks that somehow more recognition and solicitude should be shown for the members of our society who go about their business and amount to something....

What the educator was talking about here was America's forgotten man. He is the ordinary, decent man of character who goes to work on time, pays his bills and taxes, worries about his family, probably goes to church, obeys the law, casts his ballot, avoids trouble with the neighbors and seldom goes to extremes about anything. In short, he is what our drop-outs refer to as a "square."

Like Upton, we most certainly are not opposed to social uplift programs. But, along with him, we emphatically lament the fact that the forgotten man is so prevalently either taken for granted or laughed at because he constructively conforms to his responsibilities.

So here, at least, is a salute to the man who gives instead of asking... Without the forgotten man and his tax payments there would be no such programs.

10 YEARS AGO (Nov. 20, 1958)

Rex Sirrine was elected new mayor to succeed Ray Kenfield, J.D. Robinson was recommended for appointment as acting postmaster for St. Johns.

Christmas shopping started early, with the banks sending out $76,000 in special Christmas club funds.

25 YEARS AGO (Nov. 25, 1943)

Dick Millman finally made it. The pint-sized valetictorian finally got into the Army. There was a grin on his face, also a look that was closely akin to consternation when he saw the whole St. Johns High School band come trooping around the corner of the depot just two or three minutes before the conductor yelled "All aboard."

50 YEARS AGO (Nov. 21, 1918)

Rodney B. Wilson, son of Mr and Mrs Arthur Wilson of this place and one of St. Johns' most popular and well-known young men, passed away at the home of his parents about 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. He had been sick only about a week with pneumonia which developed from influenza.

He was born on Aug. 2, 1901, and spent all his life here. He was in his second year in the high school and was a member of the Episcopal Church.

GORMAN, Tex., PROGRESS: "There is so much talk about police brutality, I sat down and tried to place myself in an officer's shoes standing in front of a doped up, agitated group of idiots. The cursing was hard to take, but I considered the source. Tearing up draft cards was really their headache, not mine. Watching a group set fire to an American flag was very irritating, but I had my orders. Being spit at was pretty bad, but when the bottles and rocks started to fly and the officer next to me was hit in the face with a beer bottle I could hardly restrain myself. But then, I had my orders. Couldn't help but think of the boys overseas who were told not to shoot until they were shot at. At least, I do have ammunition. What has happened to the leadership of this nation that will permit this to take place? How can YOU, the average citizen be protected, if the rulers of our nation permit lawlessness without recourse?"

RAMBLIN' WITH RINK

I was football's starting drawback

By LOWELL G. RINKER

Athletic ability is something that most people have, I suppose, to some degree, but then there are others. . .

I've been an athletic fan for years, but most of that has been as a spectator. Occasionally there are delusions of grandeur, that creep in as I watch others at the sports, and I become gung ho for trying that myself. But I always wind up a failure in it, and that's about par for the course with my other (dis)abilities. If only I could break par sometime.

The latest of my delusions to go haywire was that I was a potential 300 bowler. I now realize the ability for such a feat is not in me, nor is the potential. But last summer, after watching a number of bowling shows on the tube, I got to comparing myself with those top bowlers. My approach on the alleys wasn't that much different than theirs, I thought, and I should be able to control the ball OK by just giving myself the right instructions. So when someone offered to sponsor a Jaycee bowling team this year, I was willing to bowl, if only part-time because of other commitments. I had bowled but one time since coming up here from Illinois some four years ago, but I had a new ball and I was sure that, like the broom, a new ball would sweep the alleys clean.

I HAD A DANDY first night, and my confidence was buoyed. It would take a little while to get the rust worn off, I told myself, but soon I would be bowling that perfect game and maintaining a real high average. Something has happened in the nights since then, however, and ye olde bowling average has been climbing in the wrong direction. Strikes have been on strike against me and there aren't enough spare spares around for me to get one.

I was at first blue with rage, but now I'm just plain blue—down in the dumps—realizing once again that my athletic ability is not up to par with my athletic interest and my athletic imagination. But I shall not let on about this feeling, knowing that I'm making some other bowler on my team and some other teams happy every night.

I am not really surprised at this down-turn of events in bowling. It is typical of my athletic career. Such things as this have been happening all my life.

The football coach at our high school promised me he would play me all season at starting drawback if I came out, but I had enough sense at that stage to realize I probably would be a flop even at that. So I never did go out for football (the real reason was that I feared for my life).

I played on our junior high basketball team and was the manager for the high school varsity basketball team at the same time, but when I got into high school myself I thought about going out for the team. The coach looked me over, decided I wouldn't be much good under the boards because of my lack of weight and then offered to use me as his secret weapon.

"You look like you'd be good on the long corner shots. We'll play you 50 feet in the corner, and that way, we can use five other guys closer in. OK?"

OK, COACH, I SAID, and I practiced faithfully. But I never did hit one of those shots from the top row of the bleachers, and the one time they threw the ball to me in a game the ref whistled it dead before I could shoot. I soon became so discouraged I quit wearing my uniform in the bleachers.

I've thought about track and field events, but I decided against that when I tried to pole vault across an eight-foot creek and slid right down the pole into the water.

I played tennis a lot when I was younger, but all I got out of that was B. O. and weight loss.

I played on the baseball team as a senior, but my diamond ability didn't sparkle either. My one big thrill was coming up during an intra-squad game with the bases loaded and one out and hitting a long fly ball to center off our star pitcher. But the centerfielder ruined everything by catching it and then throwing the runner out at the plate when he tried to score from third. From then on my career went downhill, I wound up shagging foul balls during batting practice and splinters during the games.

The closest I got to stardom in baseball was keeping the scorebook and logging the winning run three times in late innings of games.

Now that my bowling ability has clouded up, I guess I'll have to go back to frisbee.

TAKING FIVE

Along the deer run

By RON HUARD

Holy mackerel! It's like world series week, Fourth of July, vacation time and Mardi Gras all rolled into one. The festive attitude among those who observe the occasion is infectious and even if you've never seen a deer outside a children's zoo it's difficult to ignore the season set aside for stalking the critters.

This, our first autumn in Michigan for over a dozen years has brought back memories of a distant time when an invitation was extended to accompany a group northward in quest of deer. It was my initial venture, and the host graciously positioned a group of us along his favorite deer-run well before the first rays of sunlight cracked the blackness of eastern sky. Now, there's little to do while sitting on a stump except wait and listen and while engaged in these activities rustling leaves and muffled voices hinted that there were others besides our group along this "favorite deer-run."

And so there were! As daylight rolled back the curtain of night, upwards of 15 hunters could be spotted within a radius of 100 yards, and my thought quickly evaluated how great the possibilities were for a deer on his way to breakfast to become venison hamburger before his first sip of orange-juice. Along these same lines I considered the chances for my missing the morning meal, too, and the longer I dwelled on that possibility the shorter became my interest in deer. Rather my eyes darted from hunter to hunter and when the time arrived, that daylight provided sufficient encouragement, I stole back to camp, loudly whistling, waving a red bandanna and otherwise making a concerted effort to avoid being mistaken for a deer.

So now, while I can share the enthusiasm felt by those who excitedly greet the annual deer hunting season, I have little desire to hitch up the trailer and take to the woods. As a matter of fact, the traffic itself can be a deterring condition. Pass the roast beef, please.

Idle observations while shaving and doing other similar time wasting things:

Why do television codes prohibit the sipping of alcoholic beverages, such as beer and dinner wines, and yet continue to permit the regular programming of much more disagreeable scenes such as violence, killing or stories of life's seamer sides?

It's surprising (and regrettably revealing) how frequently we ignore or take offense at the suggestions of others while failing to consider the sometimes-tactless presentation of our own desires.

The collective sense of insecurity in our society cannot help but contribute toward the growing popularity of astrology and persons said to possess powers of clairvoyancy. Man has always been fascinated by the future, but the suggestion that more and more of his manipulations may work against him causes some anxiety. Desire for reassurance is a foundation upon which prophetic popularity is built.

Diets, like religion, should be a personal thing. Pursuing eternal salvation and striving for sensible physical proportions are generally acceptable goals but ones for which the rewards are greater if won in silence.

So what's the matter with beards?

IF IT FITZ . . . Being the only son

By JIM FITZGERALD

They fly our flag

Mr and Mrs Allen Anthes and family live at 501 Church Street. They fly the flag regularly at their home.

Everytime our son complains about having two sisters and no brothers, I tell him there are worse things that could happen to a kid.

For instance, I remind him, I have four sisters and no brothers. "Gee," he always says, "How did you ever stand it?"

There will be a renewed discussion about how I stood it this Saturday when the Fitz sisters and brother have one of their rare get-togethers. The occasion is the 44th birthday of Terrible Jean, my older sister who will probably beat me up for the 167th time for telling the world she is not 38.

Close students of this nonsense may recall that I have written before about Jean's birthday parties. Our mother is giving this one in Port Huron. Last year Aunt Florence was the hostess, and Aunt Madeline has done her share, too. No one ever gives me a birthday party. A sympathetic neighbor dubbed me "The Forgotten Man" when I was 10 years old and nothing has changed since. At family reunions I often wear a name tag so relatives will quit asking me which one of the Fitzgerald girls I married.

When a person is invited to a birthday party for Jean, he is always told "Oh, don't bother bringing a gift. Unless you really want to." This means bring a gift or you can't get in. Jean and her husband usually rent a haul-away trailer to accommodate the loot.

Actually, only two of the four sisters will be at Saturday's party. Lynda, the youngest, is too far away. She lives in San Francisco where she is a secretary, her mother thinks. But everytime a newspaper publishes a picture of west coast hippies, Mother peeks at it from between her fingers. And Nancy, the second youngest, is pregnant and immobile in Cincinnati.

(My three married sisters will soon have a total of 14 kids, none old enough to vote for the president of the freshmen class. I think the girls exchange weekly encyclical with the Pope).

But Terrible Jean and Worse Mary Lou will be present and that will be more than enough to remind me of the deprivations of my childhood.

I have often related how muscular Jean abused me physically to the point where I grew up with an Amazonian complex. I remember, as a small boy, how surprised I was to learn that Joe Louis was not short for Joan Louis. Mary Lou was a different problem. She was two years younger than I, so my job was to take care of her while Mother played bridge. Mary Lou was continually walking in front of cars or falling down riverbanks. She had so many narrow squeaks she turned grey when she was 8 years old. And every time Mary Lou skinned a knee or shed a tear, I was in trouble for "not watching your little sister." Even today when she stumbles I flinch and tell Mother I'm sorry, please don't hit me.

All of which I tell my son when he complains about a paltry two sisters. But I got a letter the other day which reminded me there's a big advantage to being an only son. The letter came from Clare Sperry, a Port Huron man I've never met. But he'd read something I wrote and he began his note: "You are Eddie Fitzgerald's son, aren't you?"

And boy, that rang a bell. When I was a kid, strangers were always looking at my Irish mug and saying things like, "with that face, you must be Eddie Fitzgerald's son."

And I was. The only one he had. And man, I was proud of it. It seemed like my dad knew everybody in town and it sure made a kid feel good to be the only guy who looked just like him. It still makes me feel good.

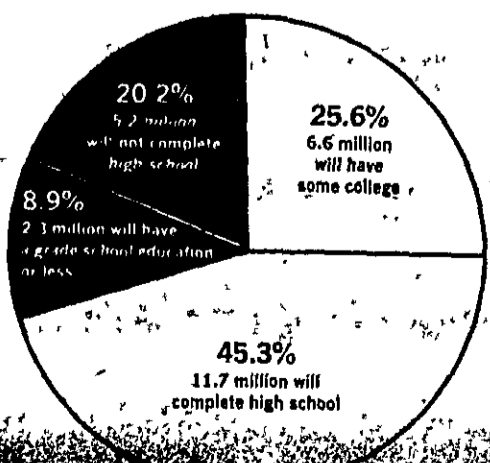

So there was that advantage to being an only son. It was a grand feeling none of my smartie sisters could enjoy. I won't tell my son about this advantage but I sure hope it occurs to him some day.

Birdaline Smith, who still helps out the Clinton County News staff, remembers this picture well. It was taken in 1937 on a Wednesday night before she left for a vacation in California. The object was to have a picture of the staff to take to a friend in California who used to work at the newspaper office. That's Miss Smith on the left, with the late Gordon Luther next to her, then Gene Tabor, the late Glenn Tupper and Joe Corkin. The camera looks toward the front (north end) of the printing shop at the newspaper.

Muted memory

I'd like to tell a story
If I could just recall
The thing I want to talk about,
'N who was carryin' the ball:
'Twas in a fertile valley—
'Er some hill of greater fame
The thing I'm a-join' to discuss,
That happened to What's-His-Name!

The thing for which he's noted
Just now has slipped my mind,—
Now isn't that peculiar?
I can't recall the kind;
'Twas a December morning
When the earth was all aflame,—
Or was it a cool evening
When I met with What's His Name?

His face was dark and swarthy—
Or was he complected light?
'N was he hard of hearin'?
Or was his trouble sight?
He lived out in the country—
From the crowded mart he came,
To the spot I don't remember,
Did Mister What's His Name.

Some day I'll tell the story,
When I get the facts all straight—
But fer now I dis—remember
The name, the place, the date;
The tale is real excitin',
But just now it seems quite tame,
Till I and my computer
Discover What's His Name?

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Public watchdog

By ELMER E. WHITE

Government watchdogs in Lansing are supposed to see to it that the electric, gas and telephone companies don't gyp their customers.

That's the job of the Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC), the agency which screens public utility requests for rate increases.

It has the duty to allow rate levels high enough to provide a fair and reasonable return to utility shareholders, but no higher.

The MPSC's accountants, engineers, economists, auditors and other specialists have their hands full most of the time with rate petitions.

Each petition is given thorough consideration, including a public hearing, said Knight D. McKesson, commission secretary. "The ratepayer's posture is always on the commission's mind."

Some utilities file requests for immediate fee increases, with the stipulation they will roll them back if the commission rejects the petition.

BUT UNDER THE law, "partial and immediate" rate relief can be granted only on solid evidence of need, notice to ratepayers and an opportunity for full and complete public hearings.

As state agencies go, the MPSC is peanuts. Before transfer of 89 truck weight regulation workers from the highway department, it employed only 97 of the nearly 44,000 on the state payroll.

The commission's size, hasn't changed appreciably in 10 years, and repeated requests for more manpower are routinely rejected in the legislature. Utility lobbyists seldom weep about this.

The commission's chairman, Peter Spivak, a Republican Detroit attorney, draws $20,500. Commissioners Willis Ward of Detroit, a Republican, and William Boos Jr. of Bay City, a Democrat, each get $19,000.

Real watchdog unit within the commission, the public utilities division—or "staff"—as it is known in rate cases—consists of 27 persons.

These include six accountants, two economists, 11 engineers, an engineering technician and seven administrative and clerical personnel.

This handful monitors 30 electric utilities counting co-ops, 11 gas companies, 72 telephone companies, 15 private water companies and, in a limited way, 26 gas pipeline firms.

The staff runs a continuous rotating check on the value of utility assets—generators, utility poles, switchboards and pipe lines.

IN A RATE CASE, the value of plant and property used to provide service is a crucial concept. Reasonable returns to investors is figured on a percentage of plant investment.

After the petitioning utility finishes its testimony, the MPSC staff develops an entire case on its own. In 1960 when the MPSC granted its last general rate increase to Michigan Bell Telephone Co. of $4 million, the staff recommended a rate reduction of $4.1 million, and was backed by one commissioner, the late James Lee, a former assistant Detroit corporation counsel.

Where does John Q. Ratepayer figure in MPSC proceedings? He can write the commission a letter or postcard, attend a public hearing in person and give his views, or join with others in submitting a petition.

As one out of 2 1/2 million, his impact is likely to be slight. Rate cases are highly complicated and specialists are almost a necessity. It is not enough merely to say "I don't want to pay more."

Only a big city with experienced in ratemaking concepts has the know-how and financing to conduct a skillful intervention.

Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley, who has a staff assistant assigned to the MPSC, can intervene in any rate petition case on behalf of Michigan ratepayers.

The state government directly pays tens of millions of dollars annually in telephone, electric and gas bills, and thus is a leading customer of the major utilities.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

COMMENTS FROM OTHER PAPERS

POMONA, Calif., PROGRESS-BULLETIN: "How many governments do Americans live under? Most people, thinking of the federal, state and city or village governments would answer three. Others, remembering counties and townships, would say four or five. The fact is, it takes seven 'governments' to administer the affairs of the United States and they add up to more than 80,000 separate units, reports Commerce Clearing House. In addition to the federal, state, county, township and municipal governments, there are school districts and special governing units, such as highway and housing authorities. The grand total is 81,299...."

FLEMINGTON, N.J., DEMOCRAT: "After the business meeting, Mrs. Jack Hawes opened devotions by leading the group in several Thanksgiving hymns. A special number in song was presented by Mrs Keith Kimball, Mrs Joe Bancroft and Mrs Sydney Acre. Mrs Wayne Holden presented the lesson entitled 'Give Thanks.' CLARENCE, N. Y., PRESS: "Freedom of the press was considered so important to our founding fathers that it became the first of 10 amendments to our Constitution which were required before its adoption. Newspaper editors often write about this subject... The right of newspapers to print what they believe to be the news and the truth along with editorial opinions and recommendations to readers is an essential ingredient toward making our form of democracy work. At the same time there is an inherent obligation of each adult citizen to inform himself on public matters and to learn something about the issues on which he may be expected to express an opinion at the polls."

Even a married woman is entitled to her own private affairs.

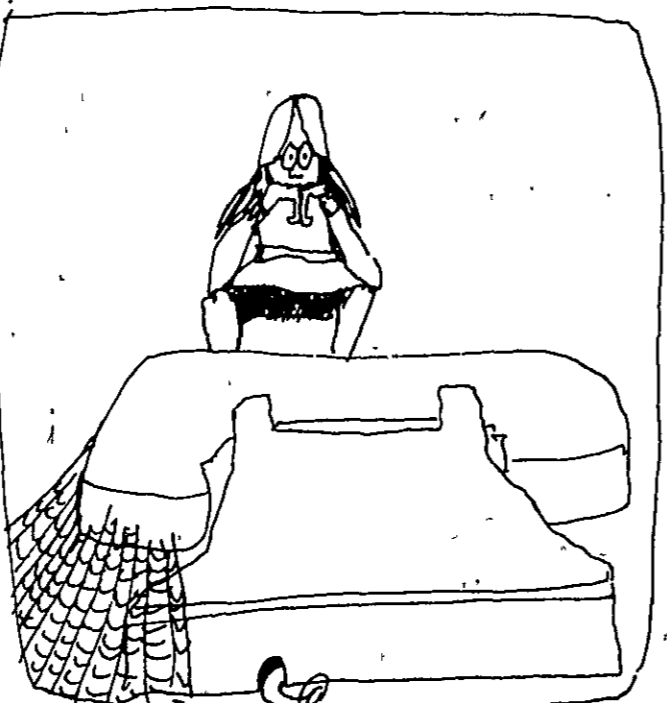

Once the phone rings for the lady of the house, it works like Pavlov's bell. The whole gang (including the dog) decides they're hungry. They swarm around the kitchen noisily feeding their canine appetites while whetting their appetites for gossip, and that's the end of mother's privacy. Even if you don't go for the idea of not being in on Mom's conversations, she's still got a right to say what she wants without a clammering, chomping audience around. ### Area towns get vehicle tax funds

Third quarter motor vehicle highway fund collections are being distributed to Clinton County and area cities and villages, the State Highway Commission reported last week.

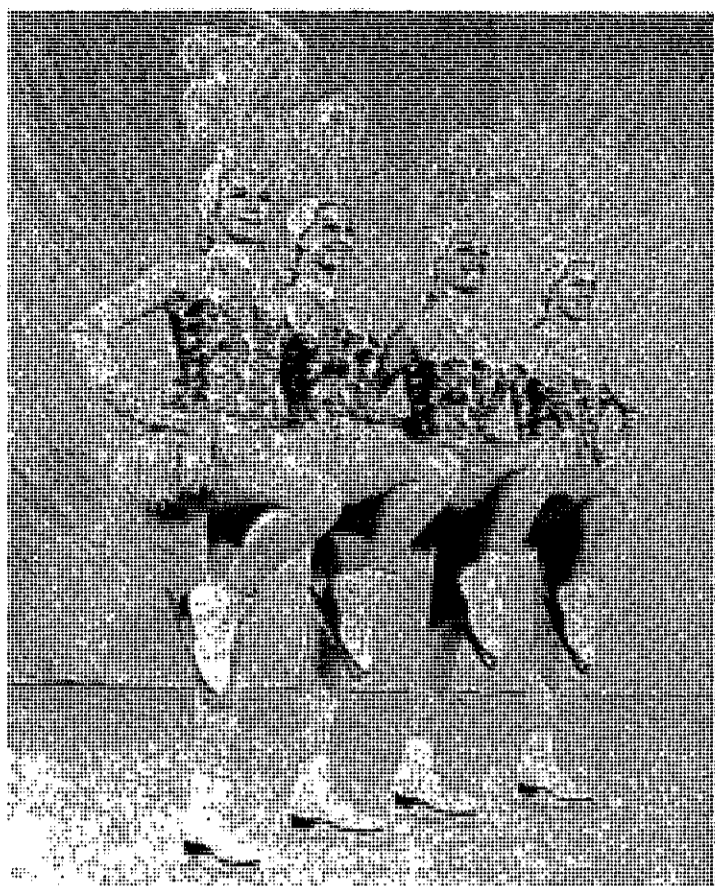

The Clinton County Road Commission is getting $179,504. Area cities and villages and the amounts they are receiving include:

Alma $21,438; Ashley $1,797; Carson City $3,901; Chesaning $7,982; DeWitt $3,815; Eagle $542; East Lansing $68,654; Elsie $2,855; Fowler $2,632; Grand Ledge $11,401; Greenville $19,093; Hubbardston $2,260; Ionia $14,606; Ithaca $8,512;

Lansburg $3,894; Lansing $324,993; Lyons $3,054; Maple Rapids $2,013; Muir $2,093; Ovid $4,214; Perry $3,471; Pewamo $1,988; Portland $10,127; St. Johns $15,265; and Westphalia $2,027.

Net highway fund receipts by the state in July, August and September totaled $66,965,812, an increase of 11.9 per cent over the same period of 1967. Most of the increase is attributed to the cent-a-gallon increase in the gas tax which took effect last Jan. 1.

The motor vehicle fund includes all state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and license plate fees. After deduction of collection costs and the Waterways Commission's share, 46 per cent goes to the Department of State Highways, 34 per cent to the counties and 20 per cent to the 528 incorporated cities and villages for use on state and local highways, roads and streets. Under this formula, the highway department will receive $30,804,273 as its share of the third quarter collections.

Meet the presidents

Mrs Finch leading busy Blue Star Mothers here

Mrs Dale (Jessie) Finch has served as president of the Blue Star Mothers for the past two years, and has been a member of the club for 15 years.

The main purpose of the Blue Star Mothers is to help veterans and servicemen. They do a great deal of their work at the "Veterans' Facility" in Grand Rapids, a home for ex-servicemen and women, complete with a hospital and recreational facilities. They often donate needed equipment plus furnishing radios and other items the men or women may need.

At Christmas time they send a card with a gift of money to any serviceman stationed in the United States, and a gift box with an artificial collapsible Christmas tree will go to servicemen this year who are stationed in Viet Nam. They are sending eight of the trees, and the boxes will also contain candy, popcorn and other goodies.

EVERY YEAR the Blue Star Mothers make warm mittens that are then distributed to needy children in this area. To raise funds for their projects they have rummage sales, bake sales and white elephant sales. However, their main fund raising project is held only once a year when they have the "Blue Datsy Sale."

They now have a membership of 71 plus two associates. At their next meeting Nov. 26 they will have an election of officers. The only requirement for membership in the club is that you must have either a son or daughter who is in the service or has been a member of the armed forces since 1942.

90% of parents at conferences

First reports from St. Johns elementary teachers and principals indicate that well over 90 per cent of the parents met their appointments with their child's teacher last week. The school staff expressed pleasure with this response.

Teachers feel that such conferences are valuable for a number of reasons. Among them are: 1) teachers have an opportunity to meet parents, 2) parents can often give information which help the teacher better understand the child, 3) talking with the teacher gives the parent a better idea of what the school is trying to do, 4) parents may have a better understanding of the school's problems and the job of the teacher, 5) sometimes the teacher can give a parent helpful suggestions in working with a child, and 6) just talking together is often helpful to both the teacher and the parent.

A survey taken a few years ago at Central School indicated that parents highly approved of such conferences.

It's no problem to figure out if a man's on the level if he's viewed from the right angle.

It costs more to live today than ever before—and fair-minded folks admit it's worth it.

Prosperity brings friends and adversity proves them.

MRS JESSIE FINCH

Other officers for the club are: Alberta Brock, second vice president; Dorothy Steves, secretary; Mary Masarik, treasurer; Eloise Pease, financial secretary; Ruth Barrett, chaplain; Rose Wilkie, historian; and Nora Heibeck, patriotic instructor.

Mrs Finch has three children: her son, Fielding, is a teacher at Benton Harbor, and twin daughters Jean and Jetta are both married and raising families. Jean lives in East Lansing and Jetta in Kalamazoo.

Mrs Finch has lived in St. Johns most of her life and served as city clerk for over 23 years. She is now retired and devotes many hours of her time to clubs, church, the local hospital and other charities.

War story just 'STORY'

The heroic war story told by Spec. 4 Terry D. Estes of St. Johns in the Oct. 3 issue of the Clinton County News appears to have been just that... a "story."

Estes told of suffering a broken arm, lacerations and shrapnel wounds in the right knee when the helicopter he was in was shot down by Viet Cong while flying in a assault helicopter mission in Viet Nam.

Not so, says Col. R.O. Lambert, commander of Headquarters, 12th Aviation Group, in Viet Nam. Col. Lambert said the injuries were suffered in a truck accident while Estes was absent without official leave.

Southern corn bread dressing

(For one 10-12 lb. turkey and 1 qt. casserole)

- 1/2 c. chopped onion
- 1-1/2 c. chopped celery
- 3/4 c. butter or margarine (melted)
- 1 pan corn bread, coarsely chopped
- 5 c. dry bread crumbs
- 2 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. pepper
- 1 tsp. poultry seasoning
- 1 c. milk
- 1 egg, beaten.

Lightly brown onion and celery in 1/4 c. butter.

Combine corn bread, bread cubes and seasonings in large bowl. Add onion and celery to bread mixture. Add milk, egg and remaining 1/2 cup butter, tossing lightly to combine.

Use an additional 1/4 cup milk for a moister dressing.

Lightly stuff about 2/3 of dressing into body cavity and neck.

Put remaining dressing in casserole and bake in oven (350 degrees) until brown on top.

Her kitchen always has the aroma of fresh baked bread, or other goodies. For the holiday season she will have decorated cakes, cookies, and fancy candies to serve her guests.

Cake Decorating Eggplant-American

Icing

From St. Johns Christmas Workshop

BUTTER CREAM ICING

- 4 cups powdered sugar
  - 1 cup Crisco
  - 1 large egg
  - dash salt
  - flavoring
- Beat all the ingredients together for five minutes. If icing is too stiff, add a little more moisture.

ROYAL ICING

- 7 T Water
  - 3 T egg meringue powder (dissolved in water-bought at bakery)
  - 1 lb. powdered sugar
  - 1/2 tsp. cream of tartar
  - 1/4 Tsp salt
- Beat about 18 minutes until icing holds a stiff peak. Should be glossy.

Tips Most Used For Decorating Are

- No. 67-leaf
- No. 104-rose
- No. 3-4-writing
- No. 16-30-32-edging
- And a rose nail.

Eggplant-American

- 1 med. eggplant (I usually use two)
- Salad oil
- 2 c. chopped onions
- 2 c. diced green pepper
- 2 c. sliced olive halves (I usually skip these)
- 2 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. pepper
- 2 c. grated sharp process cheese
- 1 - 8-oz. can (1 cup) seasoned tomato sauce
- 1 c. soft bread crumbs
- 2 tbsp. butter, melted.

Pare eggplant; cut into 1/2-in. slices; fry in a little hot oil until lightly browned. Cook onions in a little hot oil until tender. Add green peppers, olives, salt and pepper. Place 1/2 the eggplant in 2 qt. casserole. Cover with 1/2 the green pepper mixture and 1/2 the cheese. Repeat layers. Pour tomato sauce over all. Mix with crumbs and butter; sprinkle on top. Bake in a moderate oven, 375 degrees, for 50 minutes. We find this even better by adding some hamburger to it.

"One cup of good thoughts,
Two cups of sacrifice,
Three cups of forgiveness for others,
One cup of kind deeds,
One cup of consideration,
Two cups of own faults, well beaten
Mix THOROUGHLY, add tears of joy,
Sorrow, and sympathy,
Flavor with love and kindly service.
Fold in four cups of prayers,
Faith and enthusiasm.
Spread all into your daily life.
Blend well with human kindness

Caramel Corn

- 2 quarts of popped corn
  - Boil:
  - 1 c. sugar
  - 1/2 c. white Karo syrup
  - 2 T. molasses
  - 1/2 c. water
  - 2 T. butter
  - 2 t. vinegar
- Mix and boil to very hard crack, or 295 degrees on candy thermometer. Remove from heat add 1/2 t. soda and stir well. Add to popped corn stirring and mixing while pouring syrup mix over corn-

Snappy apple punch

- 2 cans (45 oz. each) regular or low-calorie Hawaiian punch, chilled
- 1 quart apple juice, chilled
- 2 apples, cut into 1/2-inch thick slices
- Lime juice
- Whole cloves (optional).

Combine the Hawaiian punch and apple juice. Brush apple slices with lime juice to keep them from discoloring; carefully float in punch. Makes about 4 quarts.

Punch may be decorated with fluted orange slices on skewers. Maraschino cherries, lemon slices and ice cream balls are other good decorations. Cloves may be pushed into apple slices.

Turkey tips

1. Rinse poultry in cold water, pat dry.
2. Sprinkle salt lightly into neck and body cavity.
3. Refrigerate while preparing stuffing.
4. Allow 1 cup stuffing for each pound of ready to cook weight of bird.
5. Lightly spoon stuffing into both cavities using family favorite in body cavity and one of a different flavor and texture in the neck opening.
6. Close opening with skewers or lace with cord, tie drumsticks; skewer wings.
7. Pace in shallow pan on rack and roast uncovered without water at 325 degrees.
8. Allow 20 to 25 minutes per pound for small turkey (6 to 10 lbs.); 18 to 20 minutes per pound for medium sized turkey (10 to 16 lbs.) and 15 to 18 minutes per pound for larger turkey (18 to 25 lbs.)
9. Completely remove stuffings to hot serving dish.
10. Refrigerate any leftover stuffing in dish—not in bird!

Cranberry salad

- 1 pkg. cherry jello
- 1 c. hot water
- 1 c. pineapple juice
- 1 tbsp. lemon juice
- 3/4 c. sugar
- 1 c. fresh cranberries (ground)
- 1 whole orange (ground)
- 1 whole apple (ground)
- 1 c. drained crushed pineapple
- 1 c. diced celery
- 1/2 c. pecans, chopped.

Dissolve jello in hot water; add pineapple and lemon juice. Cool. Add sugar to ground fruit, celery and nuts. Add this to cooled jello mixture and refrigerate.

St. Johns Home Economics Department

Cranberry salad

- Four c. cranberries
- 1/2 c. water
- 3 c. sugar
- 2 (3 ounce) packages lemon gelatin;
- 1 c. boiling water
- 2 cups diced celery
- 1 c. chopped black walnuts
- crisp lettuce or salad greens

Combine cranberries and water in sauce pan; simmer until skins burst. Add sugar, cook 3 min. more; combine gelatin and boiling water, stir to dissolve gelatin. Chill until partially set. Fold in celery and nuts. Pour into a two quart mold or eight individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce or other greens. Serve with fluffy fruit dressing. Makes eight servings.

Variations of old-fashioned stuffing

APPLE RAISIN STUFFING

Use 1 chicken bouillon cube dissolved in water, to make stuffing. Add 1-1/2 cups unpeeled diced apple, 1/2 cup seedless raisins, 1/2 t. poultry seasoning.

APRICOT SESAME STUFFING

Rinse 1 cup dried apricots in hot water; drain; cut with scissors into thirds. Add to stuffing with 2 T. sesame seeds, 1/4 cup snipped parsley and 1/4 teaspoon each of thyme, nutmeg and cloves.

GIBLET STUFFING

Simmer turkey giblets with onion slices, celery stalks, parsley sprig, seasonings until about done. Drain; chop coarsely. Add to stuffing. Use broth in the gravy or to replace the water in stuffing.

MUSHROOM STUFFING

Cook 1 cup sliced mushrooms with onion and celery and add to stuffing

NUT STUFFING

Toast 1 to 1-1/2 cups chopped nuts in butter before adding to stuffing. Almonds, Brazil nuts, chestnuts, filberts, macadamia nuts or walnuts may be used.

PARSLEY STUFFING

Add 1/2 cup chopped parsley to stuffing

RAISIN STUFFING

Soak 1 cup seedless raisins in hot water 10 minutes; drain, add to stuffing.

WATER CHESTNUT STUFFING

Add 1 cup finely sliced water chestnuts to stuffing.

Frosting

2 T. flour
1 cup water
1 cup sugar
Pinch of salt
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup Crisco
1 t. vanilla
Mix flour and water and bring to a boil-let the mixture cool. Beat in sugar, salt, butter, Crisco and vanilla. Mixture will have an odd appearance till thoroughly whipped-then it will look and taste like whipped cream, but will not soak in to cake or sour like real cream.

prepare desserts in advance, enjoy holiday hosting!

Flaming Crepes à l'Orange!
The perfect dramatic climax for your elegant holiday dinner. But you say you haven't the time to spend in the kitchen the day of your party... then fix them and freeze them days ahead... and surprise your dinner guests with this glamorous dessert... right on cue.

The key to this easy elegance is advance preparation and freezer storage of the crepes. Rolled in saran plastic food film, the crepes will keep for several days. You may defrost them at room temperature while you're heating the sauce after the main course of dinner. Then, spread the crepes with filling, cover them with sauce, ignite the liqueur, and serve them proudly with a flourish to match.

Flaming Crepes à l'Orange

1 1/4 cups prepared pancake mix
2 tablespoons sugar
2 eggs, beaten
2 tablespoons melted shortening or cooking oil
1 1/4 cups milk

Filling

1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese, room temperature
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
2 tablespoons sugar

Flaming Sauce

1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/4 cup sugar
4 teaspoons grated orange rind
1 cup orange juice
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup orange flavored liqueur

For crepes, combine pancake mix, sugar, eggs, shortening or oil and milk in mixing bowl; beat until free of lumps. Pour about 3 tablespoons batter into a lightly greased hot 6-inch fry pan or onto a lightly greased griddle. Turn crepe when top is covered with bubbles and edges look cooked; bake on second side. Remove crepe from pan, place on wire rack or paper toweling to cool.

Repeat process until all crepes are prepared and cooled. Place each crepe to one side of a length of Saran Wrap brand plastic food film, fold wrap over crepe and roll up jelly roll fashion. Fold wrap ends under and secure with freezer tape. Freeze until ready to use.

To serve, defrost crepes at room temperature while preparing sauce and filling. For filling, beat cream cheese until smooth; stir in sour cream and sugar. Remove wrap from crepes; spread filling on crepes and re-roll as before.

For sauce, melt butter or margarine; add sugar, orange and lemon rind and orange and lemon juice. Heat until sugar melts and sauce is hot. Stir in 1/2 of the liqueur. Arrange filled crepes in chafing dish or electric fry pan. Cover with sauce; heat thoroughly. Pour remaining liqueur over crepes. Ignite; allow flame to die down before serving. Yield: 8 servings, 2 crepes per serving.

Spiced sheet cookies

1/2 c. fat
2 c. brown sugar
2 eggs
1 c. cold coffee (1 tbs. instant)
1 tsp. baking powder
1/8 tsp. salt
3 c. sifted flour
1 tsp. nutmeg
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. vanilla
1 c. seedless raisins or 1/2 c. each raisins and nuts.

Spread in well-greased pan (about 1/2 in. thick). Bake at 375 degrees. Test as for cake. Cool slightly. Frost with powdered sugar vanilla cream frosting. Cut in squares. a 2 x 10 x 15-inch pan with the mixture spread real thin works best.

PUSH-BUTTON OVEN CLEANER HOLIDAY BOON

Holiday activities seem to start earlier and earlier each year. At least people begin planning and preparing for them sooner.

By Halloween most store owners are getting ready to display Thanksgiving and Christmas decorations. Greeting cards are ordered and lists are made for mailing. Local merchants soon begin receiving supplies of Christmas trees which were cut from the forests in August! And, Mom brings out her prettiest table linens and polishes the family silver.

When organizing her cleaning time, the wise homemaker will list her chores and try to complete the most dreaded ones first. One chore that would top that big list would be oven cleaning. The oven really gets a workout with holiday cooking and baking. And a clean range is a necessity for the busy holiday hostess. Fortunately, modern oven and range cleaning aids ease that job tremendously.

Baked-on oven soils are never simple to remove, but the job no longer requires the fussing it once did. An aerosol oven cleaner, with ammonia loosens baked-on food substances with a minimum of effort and great effectiveness. Food splatters and grease come off the broiler and range burners, too, without difficulty.

The people who make Dow Oven Cleaner say, "just pre-heat the oven according to directions, turn the oven off, spray on the aerosol oven cleaner, let it stand a few minutes, then wipe off the cleaner and the soils with a damp sponge or paper towel." It's as easy as that.

Men are conservative after dinner.—Ralph Waldo Emerson

Texas doughnuts

1 c. milk
2/3 c. sugar
1 tsp. salt
1/2 c. butter or margarine
1 c. very warm water
1 pkg. active dry yeast
2 eggs (slightly beaten)
1 tsp. grated lemon rind
1 tsp. lemon juice
1/4 tsp. nutmeg or mace
6-3/4 c. sifted flour.

Scald milk; stir in sugar, salt and butter; cool to lukewarm. Sprinkle yeast over water in a large bowl; stir to dissolve. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture, eggs, lemon rind and juice, nutmeg and 3-1/2 c. of the flour. Beat until smooth. Stir in enough of the remaining flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or prepared pastry cloth; knead until smooth and elastic—about 8 minutes. Keep dough as soft as can be handled without stickiness. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease all sides. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk — about one hour. Punch down; divide in half. Turn half of dough out onto floured board. Roll out into circle or rectangle 1/4 inch thick; it is important to have dough no thicker. Cut into large rounds, using inverted saucer as a guide, remove centers with small cutter. Place doughnuts and centers on baking sheets; let rise. Repeat process with second half of dough. Heat deep fat to 365 degrees. When doughnuts that were rolled first have risen 45 minutes, begin frying them, turning occasionally to brown both sides evenly. Remove and drain on paper toweling. When cold, cover one side with confectioners' sugar frosting. Makes about 12 giant doughnuts, or eight giant and eight regular-size doughnuts.

My favorite cookie

2 c. brown sugar
1 c. shortening
2 eggs
2 c. oatmeal
3 c. flour
1 c. coconut
1 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla

Mix in order given. Form into small balls and press flat with glass, dipped in sugar. Bake in 375 degree oven for 8 to 10 minutes on ungreased cookie sheet. Yields six dozen

Mrs E. R. Hughes,
Wichita, Kansas

Toll house brittle

1 c. margarine
1-1/2 t. vanilla
1 t. salt
1 c. sugar
2 cups sifted flour
16 oz. (1 c.) semi-sweet chocolate bits

1 c. finely-chopped walnuts
Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Combine margarine, vanilla and salt in bowl, and blend well. Gradually beat in sugar. Add flour, chocolate morsels, and 3/4 c. walnuts. Mix well. Press evenly into ungreased 15 x 10 x 1 inch pan. Sprinkle remaining 1/4 c. walnuts over top and press in lightly. Bake at 375 degrees for 25 min. or until golden brown. Cool, then break in irregular pieces.
Makes about 1 3/4 lbs.

 1 tsp. salt
 1/2 tsp. ginger
 1/2 tsp. cinnamon.

In a large mixing bowl cream butter and sugar thoroughly. Add egg and molasses, blend well. Stir lemon juice into the butter-sugar mixture. Sift flour with soda, salt and spices. Add to butter-sugar mixture, blending well. Drop by rounded tablespoons two inches apart on a greased baking sheet. Bake in pre-heated moderate oven (375 degrees) until cookies are lightly browned, about 10-12 minutes.

Old-fashioned buttermilk cookies

2 c. sugar
 1 c. butter
 3 eggs
 1 c. buttermilk
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1 tsp. baking soda
 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
 4-1/2 c. all-purpose flour.

Mix together eggs, sugar and milk. Sift dry ingredients and add alternately with buttermilk to first mixture. Drop on greased cookie sheet and bake about 15 minutes at 375 degrees. Add raisins if desired.

Carrot cabbage casserole

1 medium head of cabbage (cut in wedges)
 2 small onions, sliced
 6 medium carrots, cut in quarters
 1 can of tomato soup
 1/2 cup cream

Arrange cabbage in casserole in which 2 tbsp. of shortening have been melted. Next arrange onions and carrots on cabbage, season with 1 tsp. salt and 1/2 tsp. pepper. Cover casserole and bake until vegetables are done. Add tomato soup and cream and bake 20 minutes more. Bake at 350 degrees for several hours.

Toffee bars

FIRST LAYER:
 1/2 c (1 stick) butter
 1/2 c. firmly packed light brown sugar
 1 c. sifted all-purpose flour

SECOND LAYER:
 2 eggs
 1 c. firmly packed light brown sugar
 1 tsp. vanilla
 1 tbsp. regular all-purpose flour
 1 tsp. baking powder
 1/2 tsp salt
 1 1/2 c. (3 1/2 oz. can) flaked coconut
 1 c. toasted almonds

To prepare first layer: In a mixing bowl cream butter; gradually add sugar and beat until light and fluffy. Gradually add all flour. Spread in 9-inch square pan. Bake 12 min. in 350 degree oven. Meanwhile, prepare second layer: In a mixing bowl beat eggs until thick; slowly add sugar, then vanilla and beat until well blended. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt; blend into egg mixture. Fold in coconut and almonds. Spread carefully over first layer. Bake 30 additional minutes. Cool slightly in pan on wire rack; cut into bars. Cool completely before removing bars from pan.

COOKING CAN BE FUN

Mrs Richard French of R-5, St. Johns, contributed several of her favorite recipes for publication in this special holiday food section. She says "I love to cook and try new and unusual recipes." Her son Danny, now stationed with the Army in Germany, has been sending her some new recipes for German cooking that she is trying for the first time.

CARRIAGE ON CAKE

Mrs. Mary Masarik has been decorating cakes for over 20 years. She has always been more than generous, and her cakes have appeared at cake-walks, school carnivals, and other charity projects. She suggests that homemakers can learn by doing—don't get discouraged with your efforts just keep trying. The holiday season can be brightened with colors of the rainbow if homemakers give it a try.

Italian sweet loaf

- 3 cups Pillsbury flour, sifted
- 3 t. baking powder
- 1/8 t. of salt
- 1-1/2 c. of sugar
- 1/2 c. of milk
- 3 eggs
- 1/4 c. butter
- 1 t. of Anise extract
- 1 T. of brandy extract
- 1/2 t. of rum extract
- 1 t. of cinnamon

Combine sugar, softened butter and salt. Blend together. Add eggs, anise, vanilla, rum, brandy extracts, flavors and the cinnamon. Mix until blended together. To this mixture add milk. Fold ingredients just enough to make a stiff cake batter. Use a wooden spoon. Pour batter into a greased 8 x 12 pan. Sprinkle top of batter with nonpareils candy confetti and also some sugar—very lightly. Bake in oven at 400 degrees for 10 minutes. Then reduce heat to 375 degrees and bake for 15 minutes more.

what's cooking on the party-line?

Frozen party salad

- 1 cup salad dressing
- 1-8 oz. pkg. of cream cheese
- 1 cup drained pineapple tidbits
- 1 cup chopped, drained apricots
- 1/2 cup chopped maraschino cherries
- 2 table spoons confectioners' sugar
- Few drops of red food coloring
- 2 cup miniature marshmallows
- 1 cup heavy cream (whipped)

Gradually add salad dressing to softened cream cheese, mixing until well blended. Stir in fruit, sugar and food coloring. Fold in marshmallows and whipped cream. Pour into a nine by five inch loaf pan and freeze. Unmold on platter.

Miss Ida Kaufman,
Middleburg, Ind.

Peanut butter candy

- 2 cups of sugar
- 1/2 cup of milk

Stir until blended and place over medium high heat. After it comes to a rolling boil, continue cooking for seven minutes. Remove from heat and add one heaping tablespoon of butter and three heaping big tablespoons of plain crunchy peanut butter, stir until smooth and pour into buttered dish. Slice into squares while still warm, but not hot.

Mrs Gerald Karher, St. Johns

Glorified rice

8 to 10 servings

The day before:

Cook 3/4 cup of long grain rice in 3 qts. of boiling salted water ( 1 teaspoon salt) until just tender.

Pour into large strainer and run cold water through it.

Let drain, then store in refrigerator in covered dish until ready to use.

The next-day:

Set one box of lemon jello until firm. Measure into large bowl 3 cups cooked rice, 1 cup of drained crushed pineapple, 1 cup chopped nutmeats, 1/2 pt. whipping cream (that has been whipped) and 3 or 4 T. sugar (or season to taste) Whip jello and add to rest of ingredients. Blend well and garnish with maraschino cherries that have been cut and drained on towels. Store quickly in refrigerator.

Mrs Gerald Good, St. Johns

Caramel snappers

On greased baking sheet, arrange pecan halves, flat side down, in groups of four. Center one vanilla caramel atop each cluster of pecans. Heat in slow oven (325 degrees) until caramels soften, (7 to 8 min) Remove from oven; with a buttered spatula, flatten caramels over pecans. Cool slightly; remove from pan to waxed paper. Spread tops with melted semisweet chocolate pieces.

Easy, Elegant Party Parfaits Easy On Your Holiday Budget

Simple and striking party parfaits can be made by layering pudding and fruit in clear stemmed glassware. If you have parfait glasses, by all means shine them up. If not, create them from all the natural resources of the home bar. Whiskey sour glasses, wine glasses and champagne glasses all add special glamour and excitement to desserts.

Chocolate Nut Pudding makes an especially fine party parfait mixer because it is slightly unusual in flavor and texture. The home economists in the kitchens of My-T-Fine suggest preparing a 3-5/8 ounce package of chocolate nut pudding according to directions. After the pudding has cooled slightly, fill your glasses part way with pudding, top with canned apricot halves and repeat until glass is full. Chill. Just before serving, top the parfait with sweetened whipped cream and a single apricot half.

BOYS FOLLOW IN CHEF-DAD'S FOOD-STEPS, STAR IN KITCHEN

It's no secret that millions of American men became dedicated chefs immediately after charring a first steak on an outdoor grille. Before cook-outs, the family cuisine was strictly Mom's department. Now fathers are expert - or think they are - in everything from spaghetti sauce to French pastry.

Their sons are following in their footsteps. That's the word from Boys' Clubs of America. They report that many of their 750,000 members sign up for cooking lessons with the same zest they show for club ball teams and game programs.

It's pretty noisy in those kitchens, but it's another Boys' Club service to future citizens. And to the future wives of those citizens who will have more assistance in the kitchen than their mothers and grandmothers. (Incidentally, many of the cooking instructors are mothers or grandmothers who volunteer their services - and have a ball.)

How do boys feel about food and cooking? The depth of their interest and the range of their tastes might surprise those who think it's all hot dogs, hamburgers and pizza.

A recent sampling of teenagers reveals that -

- almost every boy considers his mother a good cook.
- 45% report that their fathers like to cook. (There were some reservations: "only steak . . . chili con carne . . . he likes to, no one likes him to.")
- 65% of the boys say they like to cook. Their greatest successes in the kitchen are so varied as to be impossible to tabulate: "baking . . . chicken . . . fried food . . . fish . . . bacon and eggs . . . everything." Plus something called "marsh-mallows."

When asked if they prefer to eat at home or in a restaurant, 75% voted for the restaurant. This should not bring despair to mothers - or fathers

- because the reason was almost invariable: "I can order what I want." And one home lover insisted that the food was better at his house, "even if I cook it."

When dining out, the young masculine preference was for steak and hamburgers. No surprise there. But seafood did remarkably well and captured almost a third of the vote.

Beef rated well again when the boys were asked, "What is your favorite food in the whole world?" It got thirty per cent of the votes. But here again, seafood was the surprise; it topped the favorites at 36%. (There was one vote for caviar and pate de fois gras. Could it have been a put-on?)

If the youngsters polled can be considered representative of the cooking enthusiasts in the 774 Boys' Clubs, it is a good bet that the Clubs are not only producing good citizens but also good chefs. And gourmets, too!

Philadelphia cream cheese frosting

- 8 oz. of Philadelphia cream cheese
  - 1 stick oleo
  - 2 t. vanilla
  - 1 box of powdered sugar
- Blend all ingredients and mix well.

Mrs. Buster Splam—Owosso

Candy cane cookies

- Mix together thoroughly:
- 1 c. soft shortening (half butter)
  - 1 c. sifted confectioners' sugar
  - 1 egg
  - 1-1/2 tsp. vanilla

- Sift together and stir in:
- 2-1/2 c. sifted flour
  - 1 tsp. salt (if you use self-rising flour, omit salt)

Divide dough into halves. Blend in 1/2 tsp. red food coloring. Roll 1 tsp. of each color dough into a strip about 4 inches long. Place strips side by side, press lightly together and twist like rope. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Curve top down to form handle of cane. Bake about 9 minutes (or until lightly browned) in quick moderate oven (375 degrees). Remove with spatula from cookie sheet while warm and sprinkle with a mixture of:

- 1/2 c. crushed peppermint candy
- 1/2 c. sugar.

Makes about 4 dozen cookies. SUCCESS TIPS: Smooth rolls can be made by rolling small strips back and forth on lightly floured, cloth-covered board. Make complete cookies at a time. If all the dough of one color is shaped first, the little rolls become too dry to twist.

HE SERVES IT FLAMING

Terry (Toby) Castner, chef at the "Pear and Partridge" in Lansing, gave his recipe for baked Alaska. Made with red raspberry and lime sherbet with vanilla ice cream, the creation has a golden meringue. Toby served this on a silver tray with two scooped out meringue shells at each end. When the baked Alaska came out of the oven, he filled them with a liquid and with a flick of a match lit both ends of the desert.

AVOID CAT-ASTROPHES . . . KEEP KITTY OUT OF KITCHEN

A Siamese who liked dark corners was once shut into the oven with the muffins and baked for ten minutes at 375° before he was rescued. He lived to tell the tale, but the experience could hardly be said to have done him any good.

Of all the rooms in the house, the kitchen is probably the most hazardous - and the most attractive - to your feline householder. If you are wise, you will stop your ears against his plaintive protests, and keep Puss out of this fascinating domain, advises Felicia Ames, Director of the Friskies Cat Council.

To a curious Felix, half-open cupboards are tailor-made for exploring the mysteries of crockery. It is more than possible that Felix will manage to get in quite easily, will even enjoy a quiet nap in the salad bowl without incident, but getting out is something else again. You have automatically kicked the door shut on your way out of the kitchen, and now you can't hear his frantic miaows of claustrophobia. Cats become easily frightened by incarceration, even if it is of their own making. If Felix manages to emerge without having kicked over your most careful arrangements, not to mention breaking your favorite mixing bowl, it will be a small miracle.

There are other problems: Small kittens are easily stepped on in the traffic between sink and stove. Even grown-up cats who hang around your ankles hoping for a handout are in danger of wounded toes or tenderized tail. Your startled reaction to his howl of anguish may well be another disaster, as a dish shatters to the floor or lands on his head.

A cat's natural instinct to snatch any tasty morsels within leaping distance insures that a cat in your kitchen means eventually a cat on the stove. Scorched fur, burned paw-pads, or even a scalding can best be avoided by not letting him share in meal preparations no matter how much he begs to be included.

This is especially true at holiday time when roasts and fowl are usually the main course of a meal, and where the tasty twine used in tying them often entices Mr. Felix into swallowing it as his entree of the day. Result: possibly serious damage to his gastrointestinal tract and an emergency trip to the veterinarian.

No, it is not true that cats always eat what is good for them. They are sometimes as foolish as we are. That is one of the many reasons why it is wise to bring them up on a quality prepared commercial cat food - like Friskies - and shut them out of the kitchen at all times.

Cotton holds a larger share of the textile market than any other fiber.

Toby's baked Alaska

- Cake:
- Combine 2-1/3 cups of cake flour
  - 1-1/2 cups of sugar
  - 4-1/2 t. baking powder
  - 1 t. salt
  - 3/4 cup shortening
  - 1 cup milk
  - 3 eggs-

Beat to a thick consistency and spread on 3/4 inch cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees approximately 1/2-hour or until cake springs back when touched. Place cake on oven proof serving tray in your own design. Fill with ice cream or sherbet to one inch from edge of cake. Cover top with same design cake. Cover completely with special meringue, tight to tray for a good seal. Store in freezer until ready to serve. Have oven as hot as you can get it, take cake from freezer and bake just long enough to brown meringue. No more than a few minutes. Serve immediately. This size serves 10-12.

- Meringue:
- 1 cup egg whites
  - 1-1/2 cups sugar
  - 1/2 cup water
  - 3/4 cup light corn syrup
  - 1 t. cream of tartar.

Combine sugar, water and syrup in sauce pan. Boil until threads form from the spoon. When almost ready beat egg-whites until very stiff. Add syrup in a fine stream until thoroughly blended and stiff.

Terry (Toby) Castner

Tennessee pumpkin bread

- 3/4 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
- 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
- 1/3 c. shortening
- 1-1/3 c. sugar
- 1/2 tsp. vanilla
- 2 eggs
- 1 c. canned, mashed pumpkin
- 1/3 c. water
- 1/2 c. chopped walnuts or pecans (optional).

Grease a regular loaf pan (9 x 5 x 3). If you are using a non-stick coated pan do not grease.

On wax paper sift together the flour, baking powder, soda, salt, cinnamon and nutmeg.

In a medium mixing bowl cream shortening, sugar and vanilla. Add eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Stir in pumpkin.

Stir in dry ingredients in four additions, alternately with water until just smooth; do not overbeat. Fold in nuts. Turn batter into pans.

Bake in a pre-heated 350 degree oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. About 45-55 minutes.

Turn out on a wire rack; turn right side up, and allow to cool.

Fresh orange squares

1 c. brown sugar (Packed)
 1 egg
 1 cup flour
 2/3 c. finely cut up peeled orange (about 1 large)
 1/2 c. chopped walnuts
 Orange glaze
 Heat oven to 350 degrees. In small mixer bowl beat sugar and egg on high speed 3 min. Stir in flour, orange and nuts. Spread in greased 9 X 9 X 2 pan. Bake 30 to 35 minutes or until golden brown. While warm, sprinkle with glaze. Cool; cut into 1-1/2 inch squares.

Makes 36 squares.
ORANGE GLAZE

Mix:
 2 T. grated orange peel
 1/3 c. sifted confectioners' sugar
 2 tsp. water
 Until smooth.

St. Johns Home Economics Department

Banana quick bread

1-3/4 c. sifted All-Purpose Flour
 2-3/4 t. double-action baking powder
 1/2 t. salt
 1/3 c. shortening (1/2 for richer)
 2/3 c. sugar
 2 slightly beaten eggs
 1 c. mashed ripe bananas
 1/2 cup nuts if desired
 Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Place shortening in mixing bowl and beat until creamy and glossy. Gradually add sugar to shortening beating until light and fluffy, and a thick, pale lemon color. Add flour mixture and bananas alternately, blending thoroughly after each addition. Grease bottom only (not sides) of a loaf pan. Turn batter into pan. Bake at 350 degrees for about 50 to 60 min. (325 if glass pan) Let bread partially cool in pan. (20 to 30 min.) before turning out on rack. Cool thoroughly before wrapping for storage.

Makes one loaf.

Herbed crescents

2 tbsp. melted butter or margarine
 2 tsp. dry salad dressing mix (such as onion, herb, Italian or garlic)
 1 pkg. refrigerator crescent rolls.

Combine butter and salad dressing mix. Brush on unrolled dough. Shape and bake as directed on the package. These may be prepared in advance and placed on the baking sheet and held in the refrigerator until ready to bake.
