Girl Scouting keeps her busy

Girl Scouting makes Mrs. Yvonne DePaape busy, but it also makes her happy. She has been involved in the Girl Scout program for the past 17 years and presently is second vice-president of the Tri-County Girl Scout Council.

Correction

The front page story titled "Commission rejects Big Boy" which appeared in last week's Clinton County News erroneously said the Economic Development Corporation (EDC) bonds were interest free. The bonds are actually low interest and tax exempt, not interest free.

Powell honored

State Representative Stanley Powell will be honored at a dinner at St. Joseph's cafeteria Thursday, April 6, at 7 p.m. Congressman Elford Cederberg will be the guest speaker. A patron's reception will be held at 5:30 p.m. at Central National Bank. Tickets are available from Barry Dean, Paul McNamara or Liz Nobis.

Firefighters needed

Bath Township is looking for interested persons working afternoons or midnights to become volunteer firefighters. Those interested should call Fire Chief Eugene Rounds at 482-0198.

Tab time running out

Time is running out for persons who don't yet have their 1978 license plate tabs. After April 1, all vehicles on the road must display a 1978 license tab. Since the March 31 deadline falls on a Friday this year, persons who fail to get their tabs in time will have to keep their vehicles off the streets for the entire weekend in order to escape being ticketed and having their cars towed away.

'Catch 22' dilemma

Compliance with jail code impossible

By Sue Kiley
Staff Writer

Clinton County
It could be a scene right out of the movie, "Catch 22".

Clinton County Sheriff Anthony Hufnagel says there is no way he can comply with all the codes and regulations set up by the Department of Corrections, yet prisoners can be suing him for violating civil rights by not providing certain facilities at the jail.

"We're doing about as much as we can with what we have," he commented about the situation. "It's really frustrating because you want to do right but can't because of physical restraints."

The County Board of Commissioners has been considering what they will do about the paradox. They are also put in a quandary after obtaining figures from architects on the cost of renovating the present facility versus building a new jail.

Renovation is estimated at $1,705,000 while the cost of a new building excluding the price of property is $1,755,000 or a difference of $50,000.

The present jail was built in 1949 according to Hufnagel. Administrative rules were left up to each sheriff at that time. Then in 1966 the Department of Corrections stepped in and said the county jail was not in compliance with 16 counts of the Corrections Code. By 1973, with administrative and physical changes, about six of those counts were rectified.

In 1975 a new code was established for jails to follow. "There is just no way we could comply with everything in the new code," the sheriff said adding, "Mainly because of our lack of space."

He did note that administratively it was possible to comply with a lot of the regulations.

Some of the problems Hufnagel is dealing with are: lack of space in the cells for inmates; no holding cell; not enough matrons; and an outside exercise facility, (no program space).

On the ground floor, the Clinton Jail consists of a booking area; a female section which also doubles for a juvenile separation cell; an identification room; a detoxification and/or incorrigible cell; and five single man maximum security cells.

The sheriff stated the female section was rarely used on a long term basis and is mainly for overnight use. Maximum security cells are never full for a long period of time either because they are for people who have committed serious crimes, are assaultive by nature, or known homosexuals.

Upstairs is four six man dorm type cells which is for those not violent or for those committing lesser crimes. The atmosphere is a little less strict.

According to the new code each inmate is supposed to have 52 square feet of space which is not possible with the present jail. Hufnagel noted there is also a big push for the one man one cell concept which would be impossible to comply with.

A holding cell is necessary to classify a prisoner in 48 hours before he is placed in with the general jail population. This is to keep him separate from the other prisoners and also to prevent the spreading of any type of disease.

"You've got to know who you are dealing with," Hufnagel said. "You've got to keep people who are in for

DeWitt store axed by county

Clinton County
It's what television football fans would call an instant replay.

Clinton County Board of Commissioners voted almost identically with the St. Johns City Commission on two projects requesting Economic Development Corporation low interest, tax exempt bonds. The only differences were the two projects disapproved.

During a public hearing which was part of the regular Board meeting Tuesday morning, three projects seeking EDC bonds were discussed.

In the vote on the DeWitt Shop Rite Store to be known as the DeWitt Town Plaza, five commissioners voted in favor of the project area; three voted against it; one abstained; and two members were absent. Six commissioners had to vote in favor of the project in order for it to be approved.

The vote went as follows: Commissioner Earl Lancaster, Roger Overway, Robert VanDriessen, Duane Chamberlain and Richard Hawks voted yes. No votes came from Commissioners Bud Nobis, Robert Wood and Robert Zeeb. Harold Martin abstained from voting and David Whitlock and Glenn Webster were absent.

There was little discussion on the project itself during the hearing. A resident in the audience, Johann Balzer, commented she was opposed to spending EDC money on the project because she felt funds could be obtained elsewhere. "Businesses are going to come in this area anyway, whether they get tax incentives or not," she said.

A point of concern brought out by Zeeb was the traffic problem he felt was going to be caused on US-27.

Dyle Henning, president of the EDC, gave a brief description of the project listing Dr. Leland McElmery as the owner. The store would have 20,200 square feet and be leased from the Shop Rite Stores. It was expected to employ between 40 and 50 people.

"The purpose of EDC is to encourage business and industry and get them to come into our area," Henning told the Board. "We are not only competing with other states, but with other counties."

He continued, "It is important we provide these incentives, because we are fast becoming a bedroom community of Lansing."

Dennis Dunnigan, county planner added, "The big question is, 'Is this project in the best public interest?'"

The next project discussed was the

Easter egg hunt slated for Saturday

St. Johns

One hundred and fifty dozen hard-boiled eggs will be hidden at the St. Johns park Saturday morning, March 25, in preparation for the Easter egg hunt being sponsored by the St. Johns Jaycees and Jaycettes.

Co-chairmen of Saturday's egg hunt, Mike Dault and Roger Parker, are hoping to see between 300 and 400 youngsters up to the age of 14 at the egg hunt when the event begins at 1 p.m. They are also hoping to make the egg hunt an annual event.

Youngsters will be divided into groups, depending upon their ages. They are urged to bring their Easter baskets or a bag to carry the eggs. If they find specially-colored gold eggs, the children will be given cash prizes donated by Capitol Savings and Loan and Clinton National Bank and Trust.

McDonald's restaurant of St. Johns will be furnishing hamburgers for the egg hunters after the event.

Eggs, which were dyed by the Jaycees and Jaycettes at Smith Hall Monday night, were donated by Kroger's, Andy's IGA, and Beck's Farm Market. Dye for the eggs was furnished by Sillman's Grocery. Miscellaneous materials for the egg hunt were provided by Central Michigan Lumber and Wickes Supplies.

All area youngsters are invited to participate in the Easter egg hunt.

Five juveniles arrested for B & E

DeWitt Township

Five juveniles were apprehended by DeWitt Township police officers after they broke into a local residence and then proceeded to fire guns off at a tree in the yard.

According to police, three females and two male juveniles broke into the Donald Harnish home at 11303 Wood Rd. and lived there for a couple of days.

Clinton County Sheriff's officers and DeWitt Township police went to the home after receiving a complaint of gunshots being fired in the area. After entering the home, officers found four different guns in the home and at least 70 shots in the tree.

The juveniles from Lansing, Laingsburg, and Webberville have been petitioned into probate court on charges of breaking and entering, incorrigibility, and reckless use of firearms.

The incident was reported March 13.

One person was arrested for assaulting a police officer on March 19 at 2:10 a.m. Both DeWitt City and DeWitt Township officers were called to the scene of a domestic argument involving a husband and wife and a boyfriend-girlfriend situation. One subject fought with police and hit and kicked him before he was handcuffed and transported to the Clinton County jail where he was lodged.

Two breaking and enterings involving businesses also happened in the township during the past week. The breaking and entering of Mauerer Park Well Digging, US-27, occurred sometime during March 14 or 15. Although there was forced entry into the building, nothing was apparently taken.

State Homes, US-27, reported a breaking and entering sometime between March 16 and March 19. According to officers, the vandals ransacked four office areas and took $16 in cash, a leather brief case and an assortment of corporation checks.

Three serious accidents also occurred during the week resulting in serious injuries.

Debra A. Maxey, 23, Laingsburg, was traveling south on Chandler Road on March 15 and lost control of the auto on a patch of ice striking a tree near Drumheller Road. Maxey and passenger Cindy Cook, were injured and taken to Sparrow Hospital for treatment. Maxey was cited for speed too fast for conditions.

Another accident occurred on Chandler Road near Drumheller on March 18 at 1:40 a.m. Cars driven by Bradley A. Crater, 19, of Lansing, and George J. Strait, Laingsburg, collided when the Crater auto crossed the centerline. Strait was taken to Sparrow Hospital for treatment.

Roger W. Dunham, 21, DeWitt, was traveling west on Clark Road, hit a patch of ice and flipped over on March 19 at 1:05 a.m. He sought his own treatment. Dunham was cited by officers for failure to report a property damage accident.

Few accidents reported by sheriff's deputies

Clinton County

Clinton County Sheriff's deputies reported very few accidents during the past week, but also issued several tickets to motorists for various moving violations.

There were nine minor accidents with no injuries and one car-deer accident which occurred on Wildcat Road near the intersection of St. Clair Road.

A motorcycle driven by Mark G. Jacobs, 1500 E. Jason Rd., St. Johns, was traveling westbound on Alward Road and had slowed down to about five miles per hour waiting for traffic to clear. He was signaling to make a left hand turn when he was struck from behind by a car driven by Michael J. Burke, 2806 Montego Dr., Lansing.

Jacobs was injured and taken to Sparrow Hospital for treatment along with a passenger, Robert A. Parks, also of St. Johns.

Clinton County officers are also seeking the whereabouts of Ronald Glenn, 20, of St. Johns, for insufficient funds totaling close to $1,000. Glenn cashed checks in St. Johns at Central National Bank, Clinton National Bank and Trust, Hub Tire Center, and Capitol Savings and Loan. According to St. Johns police there are two warrants for Glenn's arrest.

Clinton deputies also handled a variety of complaints concerning breaking and enterings during the last week.

Sharon Carver, 13080 Wacousta Rd., in Watertown Township reported the breaking and entering of a business on March 6. A small amount of cash was taken.

Roxie L. Fisher, reported her coat was taken from the Royal Scott Bar on March 2.

Otto Perry reported to deputies that his mailbox was taken from 12900 S. Grange Rd., Eagle.

Gerald Brown reported some tools and a tool box were taken from his car while it was parked at Ovid-Elsie High School.

Fergus Thompson, 4194 W. Parks Rd., reported his 22 revolver was taken.

A C.B. radio and base station was taken from the Lyle Acre residence at 7695 E. Kinley Rd., Ovid sometime between Feb. 28 and March 4.

Sill's Liquor Store in Maple Rapids reported their business was broken into. Nothing was apparently taken.

Norm Ellis, Wacousta General Store, reported an attempted larceny under $100. Nothing was taken.

Helen E. Prior, 3263 W. Pratt reported the larceny of a building where a small amount of cash and a money order were taken.

Gary Olin, reported a larceny of an auto while it was parked at the Michigan Grocery Center in Watertown Township. Six gallons of gas were taken on Feb. 27.

I-squad solves B&E's

Clinton County

Clinton County Investigative Squad solved various crimes concerning breaking and enterings and larcenies recently.

Several items were taken from two DeWitt Township residences on March 12. Witnesses reported to DeWitt Township police incidents where tools and speakers had been taken from two autos. The I-Squad was contacted and a surveillance of the area was made.

The I-Squad member observed a juvenile and an adult coming back to get the merchandise and a marked police car was dispatched to the scene.

The adult arrested was Joseph M.D. Dziuban.

Larry S. Holloway, 14371 Chandler, Bath, was arrested for the breaking and entering of an auto and the breaking and entering of an auto under $5. The incident happened at the Bath High School parking lot where speakers, 8 track tapes and a case were taken. The items have been recovered.

A warrant has been obtained for the arrest of John W. Troutt, formerly of Bath, for the breaking and entering of a residence which occurred in November of 1975.

Is your favorite TV program a four-star show?

Just like hotels and motels, the evening viewing television shows were recently rated by the National Parent-Teacher Association (PTA), with top quality shows receiving four stars of approval and lower quality programs receiving a single star or a zero.

Where does your favorite TV show rate in the star game?

First, let's look at the four-star programs, judged on quality of life, lack of offensive content, and program quality.

Receiving the four-star mark of approval were "Donny and Marie", "Eight is Enough", "The Fitzpatricks", "Grizzly Adams", "Little House on the Prairie", "Mulligan's Stew", "Rafferty", "60 Minutes", "Waltons", and "World of Disney".

Of the four-star shows, 30 per cent have been cancelled. "Little House on the Prairie" drew unanimous plaudits from reviewers for its wholesome entertainment for all ages, positive social and humane values, plot development and the resolution of conflict through negotiation and discussion, rather than violence.

Now, down to the three-star programs including: "All in the Family", "The Carol Burnett Show", "Family", "Happy Days", "Hardy Boys—Nancy Drew", "Love Boat", "The Bob Newhart Show", "Tony Randall", "Rhoda", and "San Pedro Beach Bums" (cancelled).

Shall we look at the two-star programs? Those included "Alice", "Barney Miller", "Chips", "Fish", "Good Times", "Hawaii 5-0", "James at 15", "The Jeffersons", "LaVerne and Shirley", "Lou Grant", "M-A-S-H", "On Our Own", "Operation Petticoat", "The Oregon Trail" (cancelled), "Quincy", "Rosetti & Ryan" (cancelled), "Switch", "Tabitha", "We've Got Each Other" and CBS specials in general.

Getting near the bottom of the PTA's list of TV shows, and getting to the shows they considered objectionable, the following shows received one star:

- Baretta
- Big Hawaii (cancelled)
- Carter Country
- Chico and the Man
- Logan's Run (cancelled)
- One Day at a Time
- Rockford Files
- Starsky and Hutch
- NBC Specials
- Betty White (cancelled)

- Barnaby Jones
- Bionic Woman
- Charlie's Angels
- C.P.O. Sharkey
- ABC Movies
- Police Woman
- Six Million Dollar Man
- ABC Specials
- What's Happening
- Wonder Woman

There is only one category left—those getting a big, fat zero. Here is that list: Busting Loose (Cancelled), Man from Atlantis (cancelled)

By Patrice Hornak

- CBS Movies
- Redd Foxx (cancelled)
- Three's Company

- Maude
- Kojak
- NBC Movies
- Soap
- Welcome Back, Kotter

CBS was rated the best network for placing the most number of programs in the top-starred groups, having fewest programs with high violence, and its attitude and cooperative with PTA concerns.

ABC got the second place honors with NBC falling down to last place, even though NBC broadcasts the top show, "Little House on the Prairie."

"We must do our bit to pep up the U.S. economy—!"

something like nonsupport away from someone who is in for drugs or keep the juvenile away from the hardened criminal."

The county jail has six areas of separation and according to the corrections code, there should be about 16 different areas of separation.

"What we are going to have to do is develop some better way of classifying and separating the prisoners," he said.

Right now the jail only has three matrons. Two nights a week from 1 to 7 a.m. there is no female on duty. This means the matrons are on call and must come in if a female is brought in. Even the hourly cell check of the female prisoner can't be made if there is no woman on duty.

"There is no way one of the deputies could go anywhere near the female section," Hufnagel stressed. "This really poses a problem sometimes."

The sheriff also added sometimes it has been necessary to call regular patrol deputies off the road to take a prisoner to the bathroom from the incorrigible cell.

"The corrections department has taken the rules to the ultimate and has failed to see the differences in the counties," Sheriff Hufnagel said. "What is good for Wayne or Ingham County is not necessarily good for Clinton." He added, "They've gone a little overboard on some of them."

Exercising is another problem which is going to have to be dealt with at the county jail in the future. There is no real activity area or a multipurpose room.

Presently to comply with the two hours a week of exercise, required for each inmate, deputies would have to handcuff two inmates together and have them run around the courthouse.

In 1976 a jail study was completed with the results indicating there was a need for a new facility. Almost a year later, County Commissioners retained a Saginaw firm of Wigen, Tinknell and Associates, Inc. to re-evaluate the need of the county. They reaffirmed the first opinion of the need for a new jail.

There has been no decision as of yet on what will be done.

In order to enforce the order to have a corrections officer on each floor of the jail, two patrolmen were lost.

What is really needed according to the sheriff is three more corrections officers and two matrons. "Technically we should have hired them two years ago," he said. "By taking these two men off the road we've had to cut other services to residents of the county."

Money is the big problem in this case with the sheriff agreeing taxes are definitely too high.

"They (Department of Corrections) say we have to do certain things yet they don't give us any of the bucks to do them with," he said. "What they could do is fund us."

With the trend becoming more liberal in the jail system, such as contact visiting, there is also going to be the need for additional personnel. "This liberalism is going to extremes," Hufnagel said.

The county jail has been running about 16 prisoners a day yet the jail study indicates they should have enough cells for about 60 inmates.

The jail issue stands in limbo but soon enough a decision is going to have to be made. The only trouble is no one has very much say in the matter.

The Department of Corrections says to do it, the county has to fund it, and then the Department of Corrections says how to run it.

Elias Brother Big Boy project. This project was turned down by the St. Johns City Commission at a meeting last Monday night. Therefore, no action could be taken on the project by the County Board.

The public did have an opportunity to speak on the issue because it was advertised. However, no one spoke.

Bruce Fowler, owner-operator of Egan Ford for the past 14 years, was present at the meeting to discuss his proposed expansion and moving of his business to the site across from Bee's auto dealership.

The Egan Ford project was approved by a 7-2 vote of the Commissioners.

"We are crowded out right now and that is the basic reason for the move," Fowler said. "With the addition of Mercury products to our line, I feel we will be good for the community."

He told the Commissioners he couldn't build the new dealership without the EDC bonds. He further explained the structure would cost $400,000 and the three acres of land on south US-27 would cost $150,000.

"It's specified by Ford that for a dealership our size we can't go over $70,000 in financing," Fowler said. "Without the bonds we couldn't do it. With the bonds it would be brought back down to the $60,000 range."

"I don't see the need to continue with the EDC if we don't support these projects," Henning said. "By not approving them, it gives Clinton County a black eye... I have better things to do with my time."

Board Chairman Overway addressed the Board saying, "I think these projects are good and I just can't see your reasoning for turning them down." Continuing he said, "Either we're for economic development or we're against it."

Commissioner Hawks questioned, "It's of interest to me to know why the city was in favor of one project and not the other."

Dunnigan responded to the question by saying the restaurant project would go in anyway while Egans said they needed the inducement. "That's just how I understand it," he said. "Anything formal is going to have to come from the city."

Potpourri: Viva, Superior!

By Richard L. Milliman

Time once more this week, for one of our infrequent strolls, barefoot through the potpourri...

Full endorsement comes from this corner for State Rep. Dominic Jacobetti's bill to split Michigan into two states.

I agree the state of Superior for Michigan's Upper Peninsula would provide a superior state for all the people of both peninsulas. The 51st state in the Upper Peninsula has long been a solid plank in my personal public platform, and I'm happy to see folks in the Upper Peninsula finally coming around to agree.

he is not under oath."

SPEAKING OF HALDEMAN and his book, "The Ends of Power," I especially enjoyed one turn of phrase included in the excerpts I saw. In explaining "Why Nixon Covered Up," Haldeman (or his ghost writer) wrote: "Richard Nixon's one-word description of his role in Watergate has a simple majesty, innocence. And his rationale for that innocence has a majestic simplicity: ignorance." A neat turn of the phrase.

Overway made some final comments before the vote was taken by the Board. "I can't see why you turn down a project which would employ 55 people and creates a new tax base of $65,000, and then consider taking an existing business and move it from one part of the city to another and only create five new jobs at the most... If you're going to vote against one I don't know how you can approve the other."

Commissioner Nobis spoke up at this point in the meeting and commented, "My position hasn't changed at all. Right now there is a 90-day supply of tax free bonds that can't be sold. Pretty soon we're not going to be able to sell any bonds."

Before the actual vote was taken Hawks said, "We should look to see if the project is for the benefit of Clinton County, not for the benefit of an individual or a private business."

The vote was Zeeb and Nobis casting nos and Hawks, Van Driesen, Overway, Chamberlain, Lancaster, Wood, and Martin, voting yes.

However, I'd have to think a few times about the suggestion from old friend Whitey Madsen, Editor-publisher of the Crawford County Avalanche in Grayling. Whitey wants to place the new state's southern boundary just south of Grayling—and charge tourists an entry fee to go north. I'm not outright opposing your idea, Whitey; but I would like to think a bit more about it.

Statehood for the Upper Peninsula is just one part of a sound state expansion program for the folks of Michigan. Now, if we could just get Detroit and Wayne County to secede and form the 52nd state, the rest of us in Michigan would be much better off.

—ONE OF THE more enjoyable quotes to appear in the popular media lately came from former Sen. Sam Ervin, who headed the Watergate investigation in the Senate. When asked to comment on Robert Haldeman's latest literary efforts, Judge Ervin said:

"I would say that before I would accept his Book as credible, I would want it corroborated by all the apostles except Judas. A man that would commit perjury under oath might possibly be tempted to commit it when —U.S. REP. Philip Ruppe surprised a few folks with a candid comment at a recent party gathering in Eaton County. Ruppe, you will recall, was shouldered aside by Sen. Bob Griffin when Griffin changed his mind about running for re-election to his Michigan senate seat.

Asked why he was so gracious in pulling out and stepping aside, Ruppe replied: "There's no altruism to it. If I could raise $350,000 to $400,000, I'd run in a minute. In fact, if you can get me the money, I'm running now." Such candor is refreshing.

IN A PURELY personal opinion, on of the least statesmanlike public actions in recent times, it seems to me, is the proliferation of attempts to restrict attendance by public officials or employees at meetings and conventions in the 15 states which have so far not ratified the Equal Rights Amendment.

Secondary boycotts are frowned upon in most circles, but the pro-ERA folks are enthused about the device. Personally I applaud Nevada and Missouri and other states which are seeking court means to block this questionable practice.

It stretches considerably, it seems to me, to trust bodies such as your friendly County Board of Commissioners, or your Regional Planning Commission, into the thick of the ERA battle. Bad public policy, in my opinion.

—AS LONG AS I'm picking on the ERA folks, try this quote from a pro-ERA letter to the editor of one Michigan newspaper: "The legislatures in unratified states have chosen to bow to the monetary influence and emotional distortions and falsehoods of anti-ERA minorities rather than the education and persuasion of pro-ERA groups."

That letter writer has reduced the whole question to its basics: On one side stands "distortions and falsehoods" while on the other are "education and persuasion."

Reminds me of the old definitions: A statesman is an office holder who agrees with me, a politician is one who doesn't.

PERSONALITY PROFILE

Activity makes Yvonne happy

By Sue Kiley
Staff Writer

St. Johns

What makes people happy? Everyone has her own activity, hobby, or type of involvement to fit her needs... some having a lot more than others. Yvonne DePaepe, of St. Johns is one of these people.

Mrs. DePaepe fits more into her 24-hour day than seems possible for one person. Yvonne fills her time with everything from being a Girl Scout leader to driving school bus to being the mother of three children.

She has been involved with Girl Scouting for a total of 17 years. Nine of those years were spent going from Brownie to Senior Scout while still in school. The other eight have been utilized as an Adult leader.

"I guess I got involved with Girl Scouts because that's what everyone was doing at the time," she said. "Becoming a Brownie was something you had to grow up to do."

Continuing, she explained she always wanted her mother to become a leader, but she wouldn't. "I decided right then that when I had children I would become involved."

Yvonne held true to her word and when daughter Lori, now 15, became a second grader and a Brownie, her mom became a leader.

From then on, she became more and more involved going from a leader to second vice-president of the Tri-County Girl Scout Council.

"When I first became a leader, I felt afraid and unsure of myself," she commented. "Then I realized I knew more than any of those little girls did, and it became a lot easier."

Later Yvonne became service director of the local Girl Scouts, then junior leader, next came community relations director, followed by running for the board of directors, and then she went in to her present position of second vice-president.

"By coming up the ranks like I did," Yvonne commented, "you see how things are done and you know that you are best qualified to do the job."

Very rarely will you find Yvonne DePaepe without a smile on her face. She is a very happy person with a lot of ideas and ways of making her life and the lives of her family worthwhile.

She became a bus driver four years ago, beginning by driving a special transportation vehicle for a year during the noon hour. Yvonne and her husband Roger are the parents of ten-year-old David, a handicapped child.

Now she drives a regular school bus transporting kids of all ages to and from school.

Yvonne didn't stop there, however. When she said she wanted to become involved with the schools, she meant it. In addition to driving bus she also works at the cafeteria serving meals to students.

"This is one way I can get out of the house and still have time with my family like weekends, summers, and holidays," she related.

Someday she would like to go back to school and finish her education. After high school Yvonne attended Michigan State University for about a year. She had to quit school because her parents couldn't afford to send her anymore. Yvonne then started working in a shoe factory where she met her future husband.

Roger decided he didn't want to work in the factory all his life so he went to school at Central Michigan University and she worked to support the family.

Yvonne has set priorities in her life with God and the church as number one on the list. Her family, job, and Girl Scouts fall in to order after that. The highlights of her life are many from getting married to having a "special" child like David, and then changing from a Methodist to a Seventh Day Adventist.

Although Yvonne started out to be a home economics teacher, the first time she went to school she stated when she returns she would probably go into special education working in therapy.

"I'm not the kind of person who can be content sitting home all day," she said. "And yet I also find the time to enjoy my family life too."

Mrs. DePaepe feels Girl Scouting is very important and tries to deal with standards and helping the girls live up to them through various wholesome activities.

"The problems we have is not having enough dedicated leaders, more parental support, and creating a better image for the older scouts," she asserted. "We lose a lot of girls at the junior high level because other kids make fun of them saying they're just goody-goody type kids. I just don't feel that way... they are girls who care."

The DePaepe's also have another daughter, Angie, who is nine years old.

Yvonne DePaepe presents a good image to her community, family, and friends. Her standards for life are high and she expects a lot. But, she also gives a lot of herself.

Ovid-Elsie announces spring enrichment classes

Ovid-Elsie

The Ovid-Elsie Community Education office has announced its spring class schedule so as to fit into many interests but primarily to aid people in getting into sound physical condition for the summer.

On Monday, springboard diving will be available for school age students. For adults, there is volleyball and belly dancing. Life savings classes will be offered for any person over 12 years of age.

Golf, country painting and weight lifting will be available for adults on Tuesday while the kids are in family swim. For the whole family, a course in outdoor survival will be held at the high school. Ovid Junior High will be open for basketball.

On Wednesday, the ladies can work in the pool while the over-30 men will be in basketball at the Ovid Junior High. The kids will also have basketball at the Elsie Junior High. If togetherness is preferred, Disco Dance will be held at the high school along with a class on investments and estate planning which will provide facts and fallacies into money matters.

For the do-it-yourselfers, a wood and framing class will lead to some of the basics for those summer home repair jobs. The women will have the use of the high school gym and the whole family can enjoy the pool during family nite. Another golf class will be available while the second night of weight lifting are also being held.

Saturday morning will find all the gyms open for basketball while the swim program will begin its summer program early with tiny tots and basic learn to swim programs in the morning.

A first aid class with CPR will be offered but the night has not been set.

Further information and enrollment may be received by calling the Community Education Office at Ovid-Elsie High School between 1 p.m. and 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday or Friday afternoon. All interested persons are welcome. People do not have to be an Ovid-Elsie resident to enjoy a class.

Syllabus presented

A committee of eight local women of the Child Study Club will be presenting a syllabus they wrote titled "Family Togetherness" on April 15 in Lake City and on April 29 at the state convention of the Michigan Child Study Association. Working on the syllabus are

There's a lot to know about eggs, especially at Easter time:

—eggs should be purchased only from refrigerated display cases;
—to help maintain quality, eggs should be refrigerated promptly at home, large end up.

—temperatures variations cause rapid quality decline and thinning of egg whites. Keep eggs refrigerated.

—only fresh, clean, unbroken eggs should be used when making milk shakes and other uncooked or lightly cooked dishes. Eggs that are cracked should be thoroughly cooked.

—to insure best eating quality, eggs should be cooked over low to moderate heat. High temperatures and overcooking toughens eggs. —a large egg has about 80 calories, 60 to which come from the yolk.

And Larry Dawson, MSU Foods Specialist has some tips on hard cooked (often called boiled) eggs:

1. Use your oldest eggs. Very fresh eggs when hard-cooked may be harder to peel.

2. Colored hard-boiled "Easter Eggs" should be left at room temperatures only two hours if they are to be eaten, and

3. Hard boiled eggs should be refrigerated and used within one week.

Lawrence R. Nurenberg, 35, died March 15, 1978 as the result of a farm-tractor accident.

The David Highway resident in Pewamo was born Feb. 1, 1943 to Elmer and Esther (Lennaman) Nurenberg.

Mr. Nurenberg, a Pewamo area farmer is survived by his wife, Gladys, two sons, Andy and Ryan; one daughter, Beth, all at home; his parents; four brothers, Kenneth, Alan, and Bruce, of Pewamo, Leon, of St. Johns; one step-brother, Robert Densmore, Jr., of Portland; one sister, Mrs. David (Joyce) Kennedy, Pewamo; and two step-sisters, Mrs. Gary (Karen) Bissell, and Mrs. Dan (Toni) Werner, both of Pewamo. His mother preceded him in death in 1972.

Rosary was said on Thursday and Friday. The funeral mass was Saturday, March 18 at St. Mary's Church in Westphalia. Burial was at St. Mary's Cemetery with the Rev. Father James Schmidt officiating.

Funeral arrangements were by Neller's Funeral Home.

J. E. Bartholomew

Manager of the J.C. Penney store for 18 years, J.E. Bartholomew, 86, of 505 S. Oakland St., St. Johns, passed away Wednesday, March 15, 1978 at Clinton Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Bartholomew was also past president of the St. Johns Rotary Club and the St. Johns Chamber of Commerce. He was a member of the Clinton County Country Club and the First United Methodist Church.

He was born in Kansas April 17, 1891 to Milton and Eva (Harland) Bartholomew and on June 6, 1915 he married Chloe Siebold in Kansas. They moved to St. Johns in 1933 from Monroe.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ruby Staggemeier of Jackson; a daughter-in-law, Jean Bartholomew of St. Johns; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Allen of Arizona; six grandchildren; and 10 great grandchildren.

His wife and three sons, Jack, Ladd and Clair, preceded Mr. Bartholomew in death.

Funeral services were at the Osgood Funeral Home on Friday, March 17, at 1:30 p.m. Rev. Keith Laidler officiated and interment was in Mt. Rest Cemetery. The family suggests memorials be made to the Clinton Memorial Hospital Intensive Care Unit or a memorial of the giver's choice.

Liaison to visit

Clinton County Congressman Elford A. Cederberg's Liaison Doratha Stolz, will be visiting Clinton County in order to offer the citizens of the Tenth District an opportunity to bring difficulties they might have with the Federal government to his attention.

Mrs. Stolz will be at the County Courthouse in St. Johns on Monday, March 27, from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. Cederberg reminds those who might have a problem with a Federal agency to bring along any documents that might help to identify his case to Mrs. Stolz.

Fulton boosters plan carnival

The Fulton-Middleton Athletic Boosters will be sponsoring a carnival again this year on Friday, April 7, starting at 5:30 p.m. until 10 p.m. It will be held at the Fulton High School, which is located on M-57 just outside of Middleton.

All proceeds will be used to buy uniforms and equipment for the Fulton Athletic teams.

There will be no admission charged at the door, but tickets for door prizes may be purchased at the door. The first prize is a three-speed bike; second prize is a two burner Coleman stove; and third prize will be a Coleman gas lantern.

Other activities will include a midway with games and prizes for young and old, an auction sale of new and used merchandise, a spook house, food will be served, and all of the Fulton Coaches will have their turn in the dunking machine.

Back Through the Years

March 21, 1968

In a gruesome demonstration of protest, more than 100 members of the National Farmers Organization killed 204 hogs, cows, calves, and sheep then buried the carcasses Tuesday afternoon. The protest against livestock prices took place on the farm of Mrs. Maxine Kramer, R 1, Bannister. NFO members from many areas of Michigan took part. The animals were killed with high-powered rifles in a pit approximately 65 feet long and 15 feet deep. A bulldozer prepared the mass grave.

Voters in the Ovid-Elsie School District will cast ballots this Saturday on a proposed extra-voted millage issue of 12.75 mills to operate the schools next year. There has developed in the past week somewhat of a controversy over the amount of millage—the school board set it at 12.75, but the Ovid-Elsie Teachers Assn. claims the board ignored several recommendations to ask for even more millage.

George Graham Hunter, well-known St. Johns attorney and life-long county resident died Friday, March 14, at the Crichton Nursing Home. Mr. Hunter was 85 and had been in failing health for several years. Clinton County's fourth traffic fatality occurred Monday evening. The victim, Eugene M. Smith, 18, of 2223 E. Main St., DeWitt, was pronounced dead on arrival at a Lansing hospital at 8 p.m. Monday. Smith, an Eastern High School senior, died of a skull fracture and severe cuts, according to Lansing coroner, Harry Leadley.

Alice M. Alberts, 87, formerly of 206 W. Whittemore died early Wednesday at the Scott Rest Home in Jackson. She had been in failing health for several years.

Lloyd E. Janes, well-known carpenter and decorator, died at his home 823 N. Lansing last Saturday morning after suffering a heart attack. He was 68. Earl Luck, 72, a resident of R. 1, St. Johns died Monday following a short illness at Clinton Memorial Hospital.

Flood damage stemming from last Friday's heavy rainfall will cost the county road commission upwards of $35,000 it was announced this morning by Lyle Belknap, Clinton County road engineer. "This figure just covers rain storm damage," Belknap said. "The spring break-up isn't here yet and won't be for another week or 10 days. It would be hard to estimate what the total cost will be."

Clinton County friends of Dr. Eugene B. Elliot were happy to learn this week that he had been named president of Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti. Dr. Elliott is a former superintendent of schools at Ovid and for the past 12 years has been Michigan's superintendent of public instruction. Frank Whittaker, 61, one of Clinton County's most widely known and respected businessmen, died suddenly from a heart attack at his home in Fowler early Saturday.

Mrs. Marian E. Dodge, 85, well-known resident of this city and widow of the late Dr. John Dodge died at Clinton Memorial Hospital early Wednesday following a long illness.

The Clinton County winter tax is 88 per cent paid. Riley Township tops the list for the second straight year with only 4 per cent of levy unpaid.

Maxwell Smith, St. Johns Scoutmaster, received well-merited recognition Tuesday night when he was presented with a Scoutmaster's key at the annual banquet of Chief Okemos Council at Michigan State College.

Judge Clark S. Gregory, Louis Wolf and Albert T. Allaby were elected as directors of the St. Johns Rotary club at the regular weekly meeting Tuesday.

Mrs. Harold Millman, Mrs. Albert Allaby, Mrs. Donovan Smith and Mrs. G.G. Hunter were in Detroit this week attending the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Health clinic set

The DeWitt Community Public Health Clinic will be held at the South DeWitt Church of Christ, 2931 Heribson Rd., DeWitt, on Thursday, March 23. Immunizations are from 4 to 6 p.m. and blood pressure screening from 7 to 8 p.m. Call the Mid-Michigan District Health Department at 224-7772 for information about other services at the clinic.

Easter baskets distributed

Ray Ebert's sixth hour science class at Rodney B. Wilson Junior High made up 143 Easter baskets containing two Easter eggs, marshmallow bunnies and jelly beans and then the students distributed the baskets to area elderly. Last Wednesday evening the students visited the Community Living Center. Giving away their baskets were (standing from left) Larry Goff, Scott Palmer, Dean Sharick, Scott Banner and Barb Downing, (seated are) John Davies, Martin Bendt and French Holbrook. The students financed their Easter project by sponsoring a dance last December. (Photo by Patrice Hornak)

Easter Seal Telethon kicks off

Beginning Saturday, April 1, at 11:30 p.m., the annual Mid-Michigan Easter Seal

Aerial photos available

Aerial photographs of any given area of Michigan are available through the Michigan State ASCS office or photos for a given county may be obtained through the local county ASCS office, according to Vernon L. Kretschmer, Chairperson of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

These photos may be ordered in various scales ranging from 3334 feet to the inch to 200 feet to the inch. The most usable size, Kretschmer points out, is one inch equals 660 feet or 8 inches to the mile. These photos cover four complete sections and about half of the surrounding sections for a total of 8 square miles. These prints are at an exact scale and cost $6.50 each. Copies of these photos can be seen in any county ASCS office or at the Michigan State ASCS office, at 1405 South Harrison Rd., East Lansing.

On the average, a wolf eats five to 10 pounds of food a day when hunting is best, usually in the winter.

Telethon will get underway, with Steve Garigiola acting as the region telethon host over WILX-TV, Channel 10, and Jack Klugman presiding as the 1978 national Easter Seal chairman.

Activities in Clinton County will be centered around Clinton National Bank and Trust in St. Johns where the local chapter of the Business and Professional Women will be manning the phones during the telethon, accepting local pledges.

Also, a fishbowl, will be placed in front of the St. Johns Kroger store for area residents to contribute to the Easter Seal campaign. Clowns will be in charge of the fishbowl, for the delight of the children.

The Lansing Civic Center will be the center of activities for the Mid-Michigan area, with activities slated throughout the telethon at the Civic Center.

At 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Jacobson's Miss J Board will present a spring fashion show titled "Sun Directions". A $3 donation will cover the fashion show, the Lansing Community College Pop Rock Group Band and a buffet.

Easter Seal Societies provide direct services to the disabled and their families in the form of equipment loan and equipment purchase, special transportation for the handicapped, recreation and camping experiences for the disabled and a public education program.

There is also an "advocacy program" in which volunteers are matched on a one-to-one basis with handicappers. The handicapped are given the opportunity to learn about the world of work and business and he or she is provided with a great opportunity for socialization. Seventy-six per cent of the money donated to the Easter Seal Fund goes toward helping the handicapped. The rest of the money is divided evenly between fund raising costs and management.

Special Holy Week services scheduled

By Patrice Hornak
Editor

Clinton County
In observance of Christ's death on the cross and his triumphant ascension from the grave, area churches will be marking Holy Week with special services.

Most churches will be celebrating Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday with services pertaining to this Christian holiday.

Following is a list of those services related to the Clinton County News during the past week.

Salem-Greenbush-Lowe United Methodist Church
Maundy Thursday service will be celebrated at 7:30 p.m. at the Lowe United Methodist Church; Good Friday services will begin at 1 p.m. at the Salem United Methodist Church and an Easter Eve service is slated to begin at 9 p.m. Saturday evening at the Greenbush United Methodist Church. Easter morning sunrise service is scheduled for 7 a.m. at the Salem United Methodist Church. Normal Sunday services will be conducted at 9 a.m. at Salem, 10:15 a.m. at Lowe and 11:30 a.m. at Greenbush United Methodist Church.

Elsie First Baptist Church
The Union Good Friday services will begin at 1 p.m.

Elsie United Methodist Church
An Easter sunrise service will be followed by a breakfast Easter morning.

Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Fowler
Holy Thursday masses will be at 8:30 a.m. and 8 p.m. and private adorations will begin at 9 p.m. and continue through the night until 1 p.m. on Good Friday. Mass on Good Friday will begin at 1 p.m. and at 7:30 p.m. there will be a Sorrowful Mother Novena. Holy Saturday mass will be at 7 p.m. and on Easter Sunday, there will be three masses, one at 6:30 a.m., one at 8:30 a.m. and the final mass at 10:30 a.m.

St. Paul Lutheran Church in Fowler
A special Holy Communion service is slated for 7:30 p.m. on Maundy Thursday and then on Good Friday, services will begin at 1:30 p.m. The sermon topic will be, "Our Suffering Savior in Noonday Darkness." Easter Sunday service will be at 9:30 a.m.

United Church of Ovid
At 7:30 p.m. on Holy Thursday there will be communion service and on Easter Sunday, a sunrise service is slated for 6:30 a.m. with the regular Easter service scheduled for 10 a.m.

Eureka Congregational Christian Church

St. Joseph's Catholic Church in St. Johns
The solemn liturgical observance of the Last Supper and the washing of the feet will take place at 8 p.m. on Holy Thursday. This will be preceded by a Cedar (Last Supper) Dinner observance at 6 p.m. by representatives of the parish. On Good Friday, Stations of the Cross will begin at 12:45 p.m. and the solemn liturgy of Good Friday will begin at 1:30 p.m. Stations of the Cross and Veneration of the Cross are slated for 7:30 p.m. On Holy Saturday, the solemn Liturgical Light Service and Vigil Service of Easter will begin at 8 p.m. During the service, some new adult converts will be welcomed into the parish community. Easter Sunday masses are scheduled for 7:30, 9, 10:30 a.m. and noon.

St. Johns Episcopal Maundy Thursday
communion service will begin at 7:30 p.m. and then on Good Friday, the church will be open for prayer and meditation from noon until 3 p.m. Sunday Holy Communion services are scheduled for 8 and 10 a.m.

First Congregational Church

On Maundy Thursday, a candlelight communion service, including the reception of new members, will begin at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Lord will participate. Good Friday service will begin at 1 p.m. There will be two services on Easter Sunday at 9:30 and 11 a.m. Rev. Lord's sermon topic will be, "You Can Share This," and the church choir will present "This Joyful Eastertide" and "Bless the Lord" under the direction of Bryan Payne with accompaniment of Diantha Witteveen on the organ and trumpets by Don Valentine and Jim Stakenas, and Joan Valentine on flute. The Knights Templar will be honored guests at the 11:30 a.m. service.

Saint John's Lutheran Church

On the evening of March 23, the Maundy Thursday Passover Meal will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Under the direction of Dorothy Flak, Barbara Fenby, Carolyn Beck, Joyce Caulkins, Beverly Hayes and Jean Schwerin, food will be prepared for this meal in keeping with the menu of the original Passover. It will include lamb, haroses, matzos, cheese, herbs, fruit, wine and grape juice. As the meal progresses, Pastor Ruhl will explain the Passover ritual and its biblical connections.

Good Friday will be observed with two services—the Holy Hour at 12:30 p.m. and the Tenebrae (Service of Darkness) at 7:30 p.m. The Tenebrae Service moves from light to darkness focusing on the death of Jesus Christ for the sins of the world.

On Easter Sunday, March 26, the early morning arrival of the women at Jesus' Empty Tomb will be commemorated with the Easter Sunrise Service at 6 a.m. followed by the Easter breakfast served by the young people of J.O.Y. The Easter Festival Service begins at 10:30 a.m.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at both services on Palm Sunday and on Easter Sunday.

PILGRIM UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Pilgrim United Methodist Church will hold a Maundy-Thursday Passover meal at 6:30 p.m. followed by a Tenebrae service. Communion will be offered. Saturday night the area youth and young adults will have a fellowship time with Johnny Ray Watson performing. A Sunrise service will be held Easter Sunday at 7 a.m. presented by the senior youth. An Easter breakfast will follow. The regular Easter morning service will be held at 9:30 a.m. with Johnny Ray Watson being the featured soloist. An Easter evening service for the community will be held with a concert by Watson.

Sale of graves in the Gunnisonville Cemetery, Township of DeWitt, shall be limited to residents of said Township. Provided, however, that non-residents may purchase graves located in the Hurd Cemetery.

B. GRAVE PRICE.

1. A fee of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars shall be charged to Township residents for each regular grave and a charge of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars shall be paid for each regular grave purchased by non-residents.

2. A charge of Forty-Five ($45.00) Dollars shall be paid for each grave in the infant area of the cemetery and for graves for interment of cremated remains. Non-residents shall be charged Ninety ($90.00) Dollars for such grave.

C. GRAVE OPENING.

1. A charge of One Hundred Twenty-Five ($125.00) Dollars shall be paid for the opening of each regular grave Monday through Friday and One Hundred Seventy-Five ($175.00) Dollars for opening of regular graves on Saturdays, Sundays or holidays.

2. A fee of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars shall be charged for opening of graves in the infant section of the cemetery or for interment of crematory remains Monday through Friday and Seventy-Five ($75.00) Dollars for such openings on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

3. All oral requests for grave openings shall be confirmed in writing by the person requesting same prior to interment.

D. MONUMENT FOOTINGS.
Footings for monuments shall be installed by the Township personnel and shall result in a charge of Fifteen Cents ($.15) per square inch of surface area which shall include labor and materials. All requests for footings shall be made in writing.

E. All fees except as set forth in Paragraph D above shall be paid in full prior to interment at the office of the DeWitt Township Clerk.

SECTION II. That Section III of Ordinance 49 entitled "REGULATIONS", Sub-Section B thereof entitled "PLANTINGS" shall be amended to read as follows:

SECTION III. REGULATIONS.

A. FUNERALS, NOTICE.
No funeral service shall be conducted in any cemetery operated by the Township of DeWitt except upon not less than twenty-four (24) hours notice to the Township Clerk.

B. PLANTINGS.
No planting of trees, bushes, shrubs or other plant material shall be permitted within the Township of DeWitt cemeteries. Flowers and urns may be placed at the grave site and shall be located as may be directed by the sexton. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prohibit the Township from removing such materials if, in the opinion of the sexton, such removal is necessary for upkeep and maintenance of the cemetery or in the event such instrumentalities are, or become, unsightly. No glass urns, jars, vases or other glass containers shall be permitted to remain at any grave site. No artificial flowers, shrubs, or similar devices shall be permitted at any gravesite between March 15th and November 15th inclusive.

SECTION III. That this Ordinance shall not be construed to amend any other section of Ordinance 49 not specifically referred to herein.

SECTION IV. This Ordinance shall become effective immediately upon its publication.

4-H Chatter

By Theresa Dow

Extension 4-H Youth Agent

It's a miracle!

Barry Manilow sings, "It's a miracle", and 4-H leaders across the county think that and breathe a sigh of relief with a look of pride as 1978 Spring Achievement is history now.

4-H Spring Achievement is a two-day event concluding the winter 4-H program. On Saturday, March 18, 4-H members brought their projects either to Smith Hall or the St. Johns High School to be evaluated by adult resource people in their project areas.

At evaluation members are able to ask questions and to talk with the evaluators about the good as well as the "improveable". Providing an additional learning experience for members is the purpose for the time and effort that goes into preparing for Achievement.

The conclusion of Achievement weekend was Spring Open House on Sunday from 2-5 p.m. at Smith Hall. Over a thousand 4-H projects were on display as hundreds of people passed through in the afternoon to see what 4-H'ers in Clinton County had done. 4-H members, leaders, parents, friends, and interested people from throughout the county enjoyed the afternoon visiting with friends and viewing the accomplishments of local 4-H'ers.

4-H'ers have been growing, developing new skills, and learning about cooperation, management, responsibility and more, as they worked on their projects during the past five or six months.

Some members finished projects as recently as Saturday morning, even in the car on the way to evaluation. And even that is a learning experience, because, let's face it, at some point or another we all have occasion to finish something at the last minute or to put it off until the end.

Months ago, the beautiful ceramic figurines, the well-tailored coat, the delicious-looking cakes, and the sturdy picnic table were no more than an idea or pattern in someone's head and a pile of raw materials.

It is many hours, much hard work, some frustration, some joy and maybe even a few tears later, that 4-H'ers display their projects with pride.

It is a miracle—a miracle of sharing and caring for 500 adult volunteers and thousands of 4-H members.

Sewing efforts

Clothing is a big part of any 4-H display and Clinton County 4-H'ers had their fair share represented. This woman is shown examining a garment made by one youngster. (Photo by Sue Kiley)

Leaders go to bicycle workshop

Clinton County 4-H leaders from Clinton County will learn the newest methods of teaching bicycle care and safety at the 4-H bicycle programing workshop to held at Kettunen Center, near Tustin, April 7-8.

During the two-day workshop, leaders will attend learning sessions on organizing and developing a complete bicycle training program.

Workshop participants will examine the pilot programs in bicycle enforcement and education which have been developed in Clinton, Eaton, Ingham counties. According to Dr. Bonita Neff, statewide coordinator of the 4-H bicycle project, "the tri-county's pilot program is the first comprehensive coordinated educational bicycle program in the nation."

The two day workshop is open to anyone interested in setting up bicycle care and safety programs.

The 4-H bicycle programing workshop is being sponsored by the Michigan 4-H Foundation as part of a three-year, $200,000 bicycle safety and care project grant from the Office of Highway Safety Planning.

Looking at the projects

Several people attended the 4-H open house held Sunday, March 19 at Smith Hall. Hundreds of exhibits and projects were on

Fowler student to participate in national 4-H conference in D. C.

Fowler

Julie Platte of Fowler is among youth from six Michigan communities who will participate in the 48th National 4-H Conference, at the Nation 4-H Center in Washington D.C., April 1-7.

The Michigan Production Credit Association and the Michigan 4-H Foundation sponsor the conference trips for: Michael Vandermeer, Monroe; Julie Platte, Fowler; Robin Knepper, Ann Arbor; Dawn Roderick, Grass Lake; Gary Harren, Jackson; Jamie Fields, Benton Harbor; and their chaperone Carol Perry, Lakeland, volunteer 4-H leader. Bill Kuechenmeister, Livingston County 4-H Youth Agent is staff coordinator.

According to Larry Ackerson, St. Johns PCA Branch Manager, conference delegates will discuss 4-H program development in the third century of the nation's history. The group will also meet face to face with government and private organization officials to exchange ideas and information on current national, state and local policies and activities.

Highlights of the week will include a visit to Capitol Hill and discussion with Michigan congressmen, hearing addresses by Robert Bergland, U.S. Secretary of Agriculture, and Dr. M. Rupert Cutler, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture for Conservation, Research and Education.

Delegates from around the country will also form consulting groups to discuss topics such as: economics, jobs and careers; food and fiber production and utilization; parenting and family; energy conservation and education; leisure education; and community development.

NOTICE OF BID

The Clinton County Road Commission will receive sealed bids at its office at 701 West State Street until 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, April 18, 1978 for the following:

3 single axle trucks, diesel

Specifications may be obtained at the Road Commission office.

The Board reserved the right to reject any or all bids and to accept the bid that is, in their opinion, in the best interests of the Road Commission.

Since 1837, there have been annual township meetings

Clinton County
In 1837, the year Michigan became a state, the tradition of annual township meetings was initiated. This year, the annual township meetings are slated for Saturday, April 1.

All 1,245 townships in the state, excluding charter townships, have annual meetings that are set for the Saturday immediately preceding the first Monday in April by state law. That is why this year's township meetings fall on April 1.

The meetings are designed to give township residents an opportunity to ask questions and make motions and recommendations. It is a public meeting, not a township board meeting (at which only elected township officials may vote and decide issues).

The supervisor serves as a moderator. By law, residents can legally take action on only four items:

1. They can seek permission to buy, sell or lease property.
2. They can increase the number of township trustees from two to four members if the township has a population of at least 5,000 or has at least 3,000 registered voters.
3. They can raise, but not decrease, the wages of elected township officials.
4. They can set the rules and regulations for conducting the annual meeting.

Beyond these four actions, the public can only make recommendations — recommendations which the Township Board may act upon.

Following is a list of the 14 annual township meeting times and places for Clinton County.

Bingham Township: 1:30 p.m. at the town hall.
Dallas Township: 1 p.m. at the town hall.
DeWitt Township: 1 p.m. at the town hall.
Duplain Township: 1 p.m. at the township office located in the Elsie Library.

Eagle Township: 1:30 p.m. at the town hall.
Essex Township: 1:30 p.m. at the Maple Rapids village hall.

Greenbush Township: 1:30 p.m. at the township hall on French Road.

Lebanon Township: 1:30 p.m. at the town hall.
Olive Township: 1:30 p.m. at the township hall.
Ovid Township: 1:30 p.m. at the Ovid village hall.

Riley Township: 1 p.m. at the town hall.
Victor Township: 1:30 p.m. at the town hall located at Shepardsville and Pratt Roads.
Westphalia Township: 1:30 p.m. at the township hall.

The weekly American Agriculture Movement meeting was held March 20, at the VFW hall in St. Johns. The group that went to Washington D.C. last week returned home on Saturday so they had reports on what went on last week.

The Dole bill, which AAM is backing, went before the Senate Ag committee on Wednesday and was passed by a vote of 14-1. The bill was then to go to the Senate floor on Monday. If it passed there, it was to go to the House.

The national AAM office in Washington D.C. said that it would then be possible for the bill to be acted on yet this week. They didn't think the Tallmadge bill would go much farther than it already has.

The AAM representatives in Washington last week were impressed with what they saw, and with how receptive the Senators and Representatives were to them and to their needs. John Jones told the group what they did while they were there. Larry Sturgis and Terry Powell told in more detail, what happened at the USDA, which most of us heard about from the TV. The group discussed the "Face The Nation" program that was on Sunday. Their guest was Secretary of Agriculture, Bob Bergland. "He presented his usual double talk, and never made a stand for us," was pointed out.

It will be interesting to watch it again next Sunday as the guest is supposed to be Sen. Robert Dole of Kansas. He is the one responsible for the bill the AAM is currently backing, which should be acted on this week.

Some of the group got so fired up while they were there that they decided to stay for this week. They were Bing Barks, Harold Lietzke, and Ted Lietzke. They should have a report for Clinton farmers at next week's meeting.

The Clinton AAM have a display set up at Michigan State this week, in conjunction with annual Farmers Week. They have representatives there who will be glad to answer any questions. They hope that everyone who can will visit the display. It runs from March 20-24.

The next meeting will be held on March 27 at the hall. Any interested persons are welcome to attend.

The AAM office is open daily, Monday to Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is located at 8875 E. M-21, Ovid, in the Sleepy Hollow Inn restaurant. Phone is 834-5563.

Local pharmacist urges awareness during Poison Prevention Week

"More than 100,000 children under five years of age accidentally swallow poisonous household substances each year," Ingham County Pharmacists Association President Dana Beaman said. "That is why National Poison Prevention Week (NPPW), March 19-25, is necessary."

The Ingham County Pharmacists Association urges adults to poison-proof their homes during spring cleaning this year. Poison prevention begins in the home with responsible parents.

"Be aware of that old cliché 'an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure,'" Dana also said. "Discard or lock up those potentially poisonous household substances."

Some recommended "do's" and "don'ts" are:

- ...keep a light on when giving or taking medicines.
- ...keep all products properly labeled and read the labels before using.
- ...dispose of prescription medicines as soon as the illness for which they were prescribed is over.
- ...keep the telephone numbers of your local Poison Control Center, your community hospital or police handy.
- ...ask your pharmacist for poison prevention tips.

DON'T'S:
...store dangerous household cleaning substances in unlocked storage cabinets or under the sink.

St. Johns HS auto students compete in contest

St. Johns
Qualifying examinations for the 1978 Plymouth Trouble Shooting state championship will be taken by auto mechanic students in 74 public high schools in Michigan during April including St. Johns High School.

The state championship mechanical contest will be held at Oakland Mall, Troy on May 17.

The written examinations in automotive technology will be conducted by the state education department in cooperation with Plymouth officials and Plymouth dealers throughout the state who sponsor the program.

Four students from each high school will be selected by their auto shop instructor to take the examination, with the two scoring the highest grades competing against the two highest-scoring students from other schools to win the right to participate in the state championship.

The state championship is a mechanical contest during which these two-student teams try to find and fix a series of malfunctions which have been deliberately hidden in brand new Plymouths. Points scored in the mechanical contest count for 60 per cent of a team's final score, while the grades made in the written examination count 40 per cent.

The winning team in the state championship, and their instructor, will win an all-expense-paid trip to the National Trouble Shooting Championship at Kansas City, Mo., June 18-21, when teams from all 50 states will compete for more than $45,000 in scholarships, awards and other prizes. The national champions will go to Toronto, Canada, during July for the International Championship involving teams from Canada, Mexico, and the U.S.A.

Shepardsville UMW
The Afternoon Circle of the Shepardsville UMW met at the church on Thursday, March 9. The attendance was small. The meeting was presided over by the secretary due to the absence of the president and vice-president.

It was voted to send a thank offering to Church World Service. It was also voted to have a silent auction at the May meeting. The place will be announced later. The usual reports were read and accepted as read. A committee was appointed to see the purchasing of some tables and chairs for the church.

The program and devotions were in charge of Mrs. Clarence Mead. She read an Easter Prayer based on Revelations 1:18. The meditation was on the Easter Lily. She also read a poem by Helen Steiner Rice entitled "I know that my Redeemer Liveth."

Retirees finding way to share their knowledge with the young

By Sharon Randall

St. Johns
Three retired men from St.

Johns have found a way to share their years of accumulated knowledge with young people, ages 16 to 21, who are out of school and have not found a place in the job market.

Through a CETA project, organized by Community Resource Volunteers Inc., volunteer retirees work with small groups of these young people in a service oriented building project. Federal funds are used to pay an hourly salary to the young employee who gains work experience and employability knowledge.

The CRV project teams the youths up with an older volunteer who can offer job experience and know how to a project and who acts as the teacher in the learn-by-doing situation.

This CETA program will run through Sept. 31 and CRV is looking for more building projects as well as Clinton County retirees who have special expertise they would like to share.

Governmental units or non-profit organizations in the county who have building projects they would like done can contact the CRV office to see if they qualify.

Some of the projects now underway include benches and picnic tables, playground equipment and shelves and cupboards. CRV has plans for low-cost playground equipment built of tires and telephone poles for any groups interested.

Six diving blocks and a reel to store lane-markers were recently completed in a project headed by volunteer Jim Spousta, retired owner of the Advanced Castings Company. A backroom corner of the Advanced Castings plant was used to build the items to be used at the high school pool by the St. Johns Sea Lions Club.

Scott Nickols, who did much of the work on the diving blocks said, "Most of what I did, I'd never done before. So I learned a lot of different things." While it isn't conceivable that Scott will find a job building diving blocks, he can add this project to his work experience list.

He's also been through a work learning situation on a one-to-one basis with a man who knows how to work and knows what employers look for in a good employee. At the same time, both Spousta and Scott have been involved in a form of community service.

The Sea Lions Club had only to pay for materials used in the job. The diving blocks are installed and Sea Lions Coach Gene Goins and high school coach Jim Makaruskas, are pleased with the final products. They will be in use for the next Red Cross swimming lessons which are to include competitive swim techniques and diving.

Other volunteers presently working with this CRV program are Clyde Peck, retired from Sealed Power, and Bill Elliott who owned and operated St. Johns Dry Cleaners. Woodworking has been a hobby for both these gentlemen for many years. Peck has been active in 4-H for a very long time.

An outdoor exercise center which includes swings, climbing apparatus and bars, is under construction for Teresa Merrill school. Materials are being provided through the school's PTO funds. Peck is the volunteer in charge. Pat Massey of the St. Johns Egg Station has donated work space.

Six diving blocks were recently completed for the St. Johns Sea Lions Club and installed at the high school pool through a CETA program that provides work for youths who are out of school. Also built, at left, was a reel for lane markers. Scott Nickols, worker, left; Dick Rutter, work site supervisor and volunteer Jim Spousta look over their finished products before they were delivered last week.

County gets water pollution grant

Clinton County

Clinton County is in line for a $235 grant from the water pollution control fund of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, State Senator Richard Allen (R-Alma) has announced.

"The project for which this financial assistance is being offered consists of planning for water pollution facilities needed throughout the rural areas in Clinton County," Senator Allen explained.

The state grant is based on an estimated eligible project cost of $4,600.

The project has been approved by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and offered a federal grant, under the provisions of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, in the amount of $3,450. The state grant, plus the federal grant, represents 80 per cent of the total estimated cost for the project.

Tilles running for Congress

Backdropped against the first day of spring, Roger B. Tilles, the 31-year-old Democrat from Mt. Pleasant and a former St. Johns resident, announced his candidacy for Michigan's Tenth Congressional district.

Formerly, Tilles was a member of the State Board of Education and Executive Secretary to State House Speaker, Bobby Crim.

Tilles spoke with reporters and supporters at press conferences in Midland, Mt. Pleasant, and Traverse City. He said he had been considering his candidacy for at least a year.

Stating that, "What we need is a representative who is vigorous, energetic, and experienced at getting things done," Tilles went on to relate past legislative accomplishments.

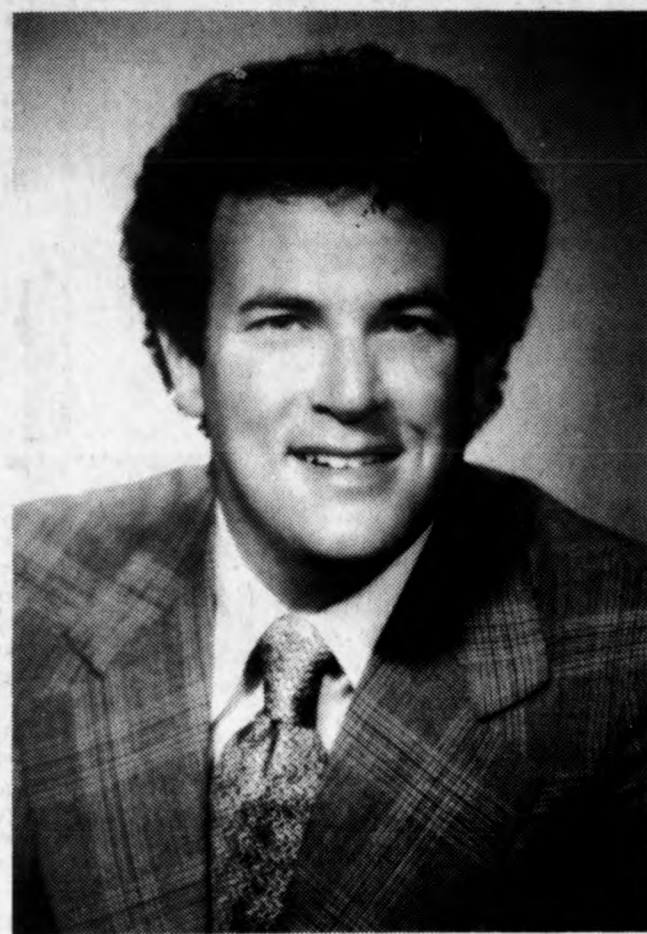

"I helped hammer out," Tilles said, "legislation that took the first major step toward curbing the growth of the bureaucratic structure in Michigan." The laws, he said, "would require that for the first time mammoth departments of state government would have to come before the legislature for approval of rules and regulations."

Tilles said such laws would, "stem the tide of increasingly insensitive growth of bureaucracy."

Tilles has been an instructor at Central Michigan University and University of Michigan. He graduated from the U of M School of Law in 1971.

The Tenth Congressional District of Michigan consists of 23 counties ranging from Antrim to Montcalm, Grand Traverse to Arenac including a major portion of Clinton. Elford Cederberg presently holds the Tenth Congressional seat.

Record holder

Gina Mazzolini, who has just finished her senior season on the Central Michigan University women's basketball team, led the Chippewas in scoring and rebounding and holds CMU's record for most 20-point games. (Photo courtesy of Central Michigan University)

Gina holds CMU b-ball record

By Cindy Shinabery

At 5'11", Gina Mazzolini truly does stand above the crowd. A senior at Central Michigan University, Gina has successfully completed four years of playing Varsity basketball and volleyball.

A native of St. Johns, Gina played basketball in high school before going to CMU.

While at CMU, Gina has divided her time between playing volleyball and basketball. She has been a varsity member of both squads since she was a freshman.

Gina characterized her last season as a Varsity basketball at CMU as "fun" and she feels she has become "more knowledgeable" about the game.

The 1977-78 season for the Chippewa's and Gina Mazzolini can be summed up in one word—consistent. For the Chippewas, their 13-8 season was filled with many close, exciting victories, but the game that may be long remembered, came at the close of the season when the Chippewas participated in the State of Michigan Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women tournament.

After first losing to Western Michigan University, the Chippewas played Oakland University next in the consolation game. Their eventual 69-68 loss to Oakland stopped the team from advancing to the regional championships.

In her last game as a Chippewa, Gina led all scorers with 18 points and she also added 14 rebounds.

Even though it was a bitter loss, the Chippewas placed fourth overall in the tournament and Gina remained optimistic: "We really were better than our ranking."

The final statistics on Gina Mazzolini are very impressive. She served as co-captain for two years and this season she maintained the highest grade point of anyone on the team. She was the team's leading scorer and rebounder and she holds the school record for most 20 point games.

Having a major in physical education and a minor in Spanish, Gina plans to teach. Also foremost in her plans is the desire to coach.

She feels because she has been able to participate in volleyball and basketball, she has become more knowledgeable about those sports and sports in general. Gina is "ready to coach now," and she is ready, willing, and able to coach almost any sport.

With those statistics and a great deal of determination and dedication, Gina Mazzolini already has a head start on the future.

SJ swim team finishes season; Ron Moon MVP

St. Johns

St. Johns swim team ended the season on a high note with six swimmers qualifying for the Class B State Finals on March 10 and 11 at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant.

Qualifiers were Ron Moon

in the 200-yard freestyle, Kirk Goins in the 100-yard butterfly, Tim Grost in the 100-yard backstroke, Rod Lounds in the 100 yard breast stroke and the 200-yard medley relay team of Grost, Lounds, Goins and Moon.

The 400-yard free style relay team of Eugene Pierce, Steve Baxter, Lounds and Moon also qualified.

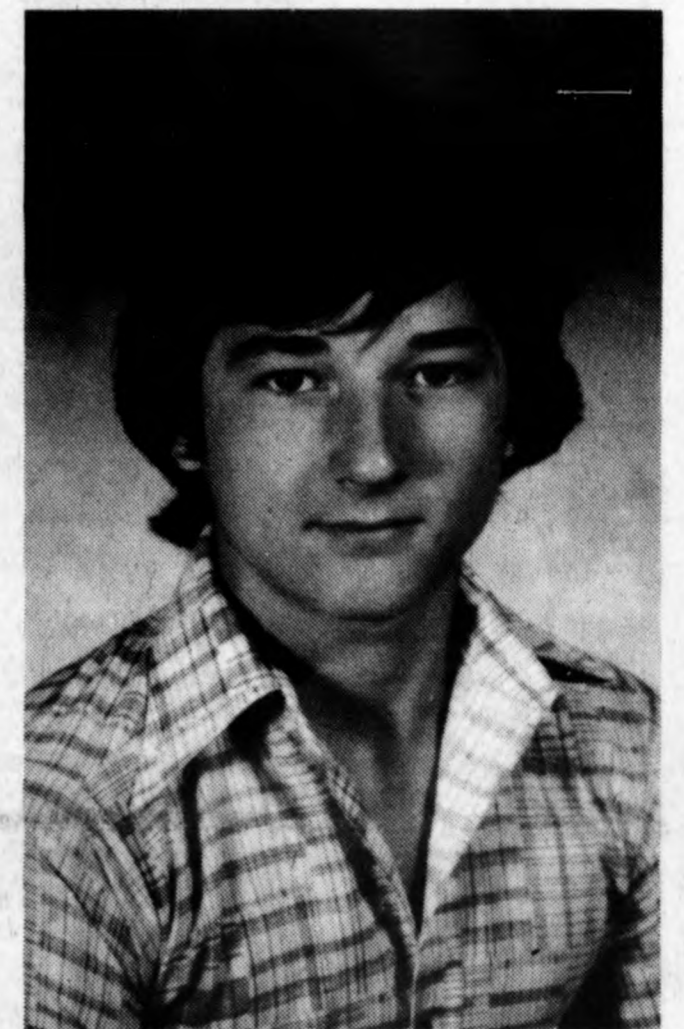

The 200-yard medley relay team placed eleventh in the state and Rod Lounds placed ninth in the 100-yard breast stroke.

The Swim Banquet was held March 12 at the high school cafeteria with Ron Moon being named Most Valuable Swimmer. He is the only graduating team member.

Wayne Ward was introduced as next year's Swim Booster Club President by out-going president, Walter Pierce.

Pierce also announced that the new records boards should be up by next season. There will be one for the Sea Lions, which they financed and one for the boys and girls teams, financed by the Swim Boosters.

5th in state

Bart Acino, a junior at St. Johns, finished third in the all-around competition at the boy's gymnastics state championship meet last Saturday, March 11. Earlier this season, the Redwing gymnast won the all-around championship at the regional meet and the St. Johns Invitational.

Acino took fifth place in the floor exercise, seventh place in the rings and horizontal bar, and eighth place on the trampoline in the state meet to place third overall.

Michigan tour guide available

The 1978 edition of the "East Michigan Travel Guide" is ready for distribution, according to its publisher, the East Michigan Tourist Association, headquartered in Bay City.

The full-color, 112-page guidebook is offered without charge to families interested in a Michigan vacation, weekend travel ideas and a review of the hundreds of recreational activities available in the 28 counties served by the tourist group.

Detailed information is contained in the guide on resorts, motels, restaurants, attractions, public campgrounds and private campgrounds, golf and tennis facilities, canoe liveries, marinas, bait shops and recreation real estate.

A summary of vacation costs is provided plus a featurette on historic Mackinac Island. Each county and community is featured in the guide running from Jackson and Hillsdale on the south to Cheboygan in the north and eastward to Lake Huron, the Eastern and Central Michigan region.

Copies of the guide are available without charge by writing or calling to EMTA, Travel Guide, Log Office, Bay City, MI. 48706. Phone 517 area toll free 800-322-4825 or 517-895-8823.

On the move

Stanley Williams of Kalamazoo won this bout over Terry Churches of St. Johns in the 156-pound weight class.

SJ boxers compete in AAU championships

St. Johns Boys Club had two boxers entered in the first round of the State AAU Boxing Championships at Lansing Community College. This was the first time the State championships were in Lansing and one of the biggest sports events for boxing in central Michigan.

Terry Churches of St. Johns, boxing at 156 sub-novice, lost to Stanley Williams, from the Kalamazoo Boxing Academy, in the second round by RSC (Referee Stops Contest).

Robby Gregory of St. Johns, boxing in the heavy weight sub-novice, won a TKO, 1:56 in the second round, from Kurt Gudesen of Cadillac.

Other boxers from St. Johns Boys Club will be scheduled to box in the State AAU Championships on Saturday, March 25, for the second round of eliminations, starting at 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., for a special matinee. A $1 admission will be charged at the door for this event, resuming at 7:30 p.m. for regularly scheduled bouts.

Richard Padgett, president of St. Johns Boys Club and coach of the boxing team, has good expectations in the club's representation in this tournament.

Bob Every, former St. Johns resident, is responsible for getting the State AAU Championships held in Lansing and is also tournament director.

"We are all looking forward to more exciting nights of boxing, which are scheduled every Saturday through April 1, at LCC," says Padgett.

ELSIE

The Elsie Senior Citizens group of 34 men and women enjoyed a potluck dinner for the March meeting. Among those present were Mrs. Anna Mae Thornton and Mrs. Edna Stedman of Owosso, Mrs. Zella Brewbaker and Mrs. Charles Krinder of Elsie.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Engebretson will be the coffee committee at the April Potluck. Plans were discussed for a one-day trip to the Amish community of Indiana including dinner and tour, May 8. Mrs. James Dorman reported cards sent to Mrs. Cleo Parks, Miss Lula Knight, Ralph Woodard and Sidney West.

Bill Robb announced two meetings at Smith Hall in St. Johns during March on Michigan Properties and the other taxes on March 27. Mrs. Everett Rule reported plans for restoring the Strand Theater in Lansing.

Wilma and Murray Cole presented colored slides taken on a trip to the British Isles in 1973 with Mrs. Cole narrating and her husband attending the slide machine. They made the flight by Irish National Airways from Detroit and travel was made by 44 passenger tour buses through the Isles.

The Senior Citizens were treated by their "Scottish Lass", Mrs. Rose Smith singing "Galway Bay" and "Wee Hoose 'Mong the Heather". She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Zella Brewbaker.

The Elsie United Methodist Church will have an Easter Sun Rise Service and Breakfast Sunday morning, March 26.

John Glowney of Elsie, who recently was guest of honor on his 90th birthday, had a second party when two nieces came to visit him.

Rev Lord to serve First Congregational

David Lord

St. Johns

The Rev. David A. Lord has accepted the call of the First Congregational Church of St. Johns to become their new minister and teacher.

Rev. Lord and his wife, Cindi, come to St. Johns from Taunton, Mass. where he has been pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church for the past seven years.

Rev. Lord is a graduate of Hartwick College in Oneonta, N.Y. and the Andover Newton Theological School in Newton Centre, Mass. As a student at Andover Newton, he served as minister of Youth at the United Church of Christ in Canton, Mass. and was called as pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church of Taunton in 1971. He received his Master of Divinity degree in May 1973.

Reverend Lord has been active in the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Fellowship as Chairman of the Education Committee and secretary of the Fellowship. He is a past moderator of the Mayflower Association of Congregational Christian Ministers, past president of the Greater Taunton Clergy Association and was coordinator of Inter-Church Lenten Programs.

He has served as director of the Upper Bristol Branch of Children's Protective Services for three years and was a member of the Nominating Committee of the Plymouth Bay Girl Scout Council.

He will be completing his fifth year as a trustee of the Northern New England School of Religious Education where he has been a member and Chairman of the Education Committee and vice-chairman of the board. Rev. Lord is also a member of the Religious Education Association, and has been active with the Bristol County Savings Bank and Morton Hospital.

Mrs. Lord is a graduate of the Union Hospital School of Nursing in Fall River, Mass. and is a registered nurse. She has a broad nursing experience base which includes camp nursing, coronary care, pediatrics and surgical care. She is currently completing work on her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree at South-eastern Massachusetts University in North Dartmouth, Mass.

Cindi was on the Youth Commission of the National Association of Congregational Churches and was selected as the planning and program liaison for the 1976 National Association of Pilgrim Fellowship and HOPE assemblies at Endicott Junior College in Beverly, Mass.

Rev. Lord and his wife came to St. Johns as a result of the First Congregational Church's search for a minister to succeed the late Averill M. Carson. The Search Committee of the church, after a lengthy review of many candidates, presented Rev. Lord's name for acceptance by the congregation Jan. 29.

He accepted the call, effective on Easter Sunday, and will take over for Rev. Jerry Churchill who has been serving as interim minister and who has been given the distinction of being named Pastor Emeritus of First Congregational Church of St. Johns.

St. Joe's high schoolers take part in 'Evening of Reflection'

St. Johns

"Evening of Reflection", the new program for youth at St. Joseph Catholic Church, drew 50 high school students who shared their feelings on "Growth, Natural and Spiritual."

Highlighting the six-hour presentation was a special mass prepared by the students. Dave Wiseman and Marie Lenon set the mood for the mass with a violin and organ duet of "You Light Up My Life", followed by a procession of students celebrating Christ's entry into Jerusalem.

After the reading of the scriptures by Rod Lounds, Father Koenigsnecht presented his sermon on growth and the need for spiritual growth. Student petitions were then read by Keith Parsons and the gifts were offered to the priest while Dave and Marie played "Bridge Over Troubled Water."

Students received the body and blood of Christ during communion, and concluded mass by singing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

During the hours before mass, the students listened to presentations on four areas of growth—physical, mental, social and spiritual—and then broke into small discussion groups to discuss their feelings on the areas of growth and the risks involved in growing.

After mass the students enjoyed a pizza party and social-recreation hour in the gym.

In the fall, this new program will replace the present RISE, (Religious Instruction Service and Education) program held each Sunday evening in the hope of reaching more students.

According to Mrs. Charlotte Voisin, director of the program, the present Sunday evening format seems uninteresting to students. This is reflected in the poor attendance—only 20 students in grades 10-12 attend the classes regularly.

"Youth is important to the church," Mrs. Voisin says.

"But up until now, not many adults think that way, nor do the young people. Our young people should have a larger part in the church than waiting to grow up so they can contribute monetarily."

The Evening of Reflection is designed to give students a more positive experience in faith, Mrs. Voisin says.

Father William Hanker, pastor at St. Joseph, says, "What we hope to do is help students make practical the things they've learned in grade school—use what they've learned before in their day-to-day lives as teenagers."

Mrs. Voisin says that parents play a big part in forming students attitudes toward religion. "Simply by expressing a desire for the child to pursue something further in their faith and being enthusiastic about religion classes will have a positive influence on the child."

Proper Easter lily care prolongs life

Your Easter lily will last longer if you follow a few basic care tips from Michigan State University horticulturists.

Place the plant in a well-lighted, draft-free spot where temperatures get no higher than 70 degrees F. At higher temperatures, the flowers fade very quickly, so be sure to avoid placing the plant on or near radiators, televisions, furnace registers, or other heat sources. At night, give the plant temperatures around 60 degrees.

Water your Easter lily as often as necessary to keep the soil around the roots moist but not soaking wet. Water when the soil surface begins to feel dry. Pour in just enough water at room temperature so that some drains out through the bottom of the pot. Pour this excess away to keep the roots from standing in water.

After the flowers fade and wither and the foliage turns yellow, clip off the flowers and brown leaf ends. When the danger of frost is past, plant the bulb outside about three to four inches deep in a sunny, well-drained spot. Though it will probably not bloom the first year after planting, it should flower about July of the next year.

SJ Woman's Club learns of trusts, estate planning at recent meeting

St. Johns

Rollin Huard of Clinton National Bank was introduced by Mrs. Edward Engel at the recent meeting of the St. Johns Woman's Club.

The Trust Department at the local bank represented performs these services:

1. Administration of estates under wills and guardianships.
2. Handles personal trust accounts, and

3. Handles retirement employees accounts. Trusts may be of two sorts, for a minor, an elderly person or anyone for some reason.

Secondly, there is the marital family trust. In the last, half is assigned to each. At the death of one, half goes into trust.

Without estate guidance or management, federal taxes can erode funds more than probate court which seems to hold suspicion of many.

Executors are named by the writers of wills. Administrators are named by probate Courts. Both are required by the Probate Court to be counseled by a practicing attorney.

Fees paid to an executor are set by statute. Uninformed executors consume more time in closing estates.

In regard to joint holdings, estate tax thrives here. For big estates, the plan is not good. In modest estates, holdings pass at once to the surviving holder. The county treasurer must check contents of a locked box if the will is joint.

The session closed with a lively question and answer period.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Richard Lawrence, the chairperson, reported a thank you from Chloe Padgitt for the display on Community Awareness Day.

Mrs. Clifford Lambert presented this slate of officers for the coming year:

President—Mrs. Edward Engle.

Vice President—Mrs. William Morriss.

Secretary—Mrs. John Giesecke.

Treasurer—Mrs. Walter Carter.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Harry Whittaker.

Parliamentarian—Mrs. Manning Bross.

Directors for 1978-1980: Mrs. Richard Lawrence, Mrs. Russell Welsh and Mrs. John Furry.

Continuing directors for 1978-79: Mrs. Martha Foust, Mrs. Roy Davis and Mrs. James Spouta.

This slate was accepted.

Final plans for the 31st Annual Senior Girls' Reception at Smith Hall on April 5 were made. Mr. Letts is providing the dresses for the Style Show. Some senior girls will model. The narrator will be Mr. Letts of Lansing.

The spring luncheon and installation of officers will be May 3 at Someplace Else.

Snow dents auto

Spring had a freaky beginning at the Gene Dunkel home on Lansing Street in St. Johns. If sure didn't come in like a lamb, anyway. The Dunkel children are shown pointing to ice chunks which fell from the roof of the home onto the family car causing a huge dent in the front end. All Mrs. Dunkel could say was, "I'm sure glad it was the car and not one of the kids." (Photo by Sue Kiley)

Proposed education legislation outlined by Alpha Eta Chapter

Clinton County

The Alpha Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, society of women educators, held a luncheon meeting at the Owosso City Club Saturday, March 11.

Hostesses for the evening were Elizabeth Wilson, Letah Stewart, Agnes Murray, Theresa Leitch, and Agnes Blood.

The tables were attractive with decorations depicting St. Patrick's Day. The members joined in singing Irish songs under the direction of Gloria Oliver, music chairman.

Mrs. Ethel Huot, legislative chairman, was in charge of the program. She introduced guest speaker, Mrs. Jean Houghton, a Mt. Pleasant elementary school principal, who is active in the field of legislation. Mrs. Houghton listed the various educational bills that are being introduced in the legislature and gave a vivid description of their possible impact on numerous educational fields, especially that of the teaching profession.

"Old teachers," said Mrs. Houghton, "are expensive but their experience is of vital importance to the school and keeps the educational program on an even keel."

The program was followed by a business meeting with President Louise Somerlot, presiding. Twenty-three members responded to roll call.

A slate of officers for the coming year was presented: President, Estelle Geller; First Vice President, Alice Thrun; Second Vice President, Joan Zatkovic; Recording Secretary, Karin Lusk; Corresponding Secretary, Helen Mowl. Election will be held at the April meeting.

The president announced dates of two conventions. The State Convention will be held April 28-30 at the Sheraton Inn, Jackson. This will be a great "get-together" for teachers from all parts of Michigan. This meeting is extremely beneficial to all members, and it is hoped Alpha Eta Chapter will have a large representation. Also, the International Convention will be held July 23-30 at the Conrad Hilton in Chicago. As Chicago is not too far distant, it may be possible for some members to attend.

Scholarship Chairman Evelyn Wieland, listed the six scholarships that are available to aid outstanding women educators in pursuing graduate study.

The next meeting will be held April 13, in the Conference Room of the Central National Bank in St. Johns.

Bath ponders drain financing

By Sue Kiley Staff Writer

Bath Twp.

In the next couple of months Bath Township officials are going to have to make a decision on how they are going to finance the Remy-Chandler Drain project.

Thomas Woodruff, supervisor told board members at the Monday night meeting three options were available. They are: To pay the full yearly payment out of the general fund; bill all of it to the properties affected, which is better than half the township; or pay a portion from the general fund and assess the rest to the landowners.

Trustee Daniel Carleton asked if it would be possible to change the method of payment in later years seeing it is for 14 years. "Especially if we are running low in the general fund?"

Woodruff noted this would be possible. He also said a decision did not have to be made immediately.

The approximate cost to the taxpayers would be $2.40 per acre per year of $34 a year per acre over the 14 years.

The supervisor noted they have until Sept. 15 to put an assessment on the tax rolls.

The first payment is due in March 1, 1979. He also said bonds have not yet been sold for the project.

Township officials also approved the purchase of a new fire truck at the cost of $30,127. The money will be taken out of the general fund. This was money which was left over from last year but not specifically earmarked for new fire equipment.

There was some question as to why a better truck was not being purchased. Woodruff's reply was, "If you only have the price of a Chev, then you don't buy a Cadillac."

Trustee Elon Pardee asked about not having a big enough tanker to carry water to fires in the township.

Fire Chief Bud Rounds, noted he didn't feel that was a problem and the township is covered by mutual aid from other municipalities if they run into trouble.

Rounds informed the Board the present fire truck they have is over 20 years old. "Under state ruling anything over 20 years old is not considered a fire truck," he said. "Half the time it doesn't even start."

He also commented he doesn't like to even have a man drive the vehicle because it is dangerous.

Pardee made the motion to purchase a truck saying, "We can't hamper the fire department from doing the job with bad equipment." Trustee James Cronk agreed a new truck was needed, but felt some of the money should be spent on roads also.

"One of these days the state is going to come in and give us a rating, if it's low we're going to be hurting. ... having a new truck can only help the situation," Rounds added.

It was unanimously approved by the Board to purchase the new truck.

In other action the Board okayed Ron Bosely to attend the police academy at no cost to the township.

It was also approved to authorize shots to park

CETA workers as a safeguard against poison ivy. Woodruff noted last year all the park employees were out with poison ivy which made the rates of Workman's Compensation increase.

The family of Treva Eaton wish to express their heartfelt thanks to all who were so concerned and kind during the illness and death of our dear Wife, Mother and Grandmother. A special thanks to the staff of Provincial Hospital, Doctors Tucker and Lo and their staff for the tender care they gave Treva in the hospital. We wish to thank Osgood's Funeral Home for their efficient services, Rev. Keith Laidler for his comforting words, the relatives, neighbors and friends for the food, flowers and cards and to those who otherwise conveyed their love for Treva and us at this sad time. A special thanks to all of those who gave to the Michigan Oncology Institute (This was Treva's wish) and also to the Past Matrons of Radiant Chapter No. 79 O.E.S. and to the United Methodist Women for the dinner after the services. You all are dear in our hearts. May God bless you all. 12-1-p-30 SHEPARDVILLE The Ovid Library Club met at the Shepardsville Church on Friday, March 3, with 14 members and six guests present to enjoy the bountiful potluck dinner. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Robert Hebel, Sr. and Mrs. Marian Walker. The speaker for the day was Mrs. Dale Squiers. She showed pictures of the trip she and her husband took to the Holy Land a year ago. She also told of several of the other places they saw. They brought back some water from the River Jordan and several of the babies baptized recently at their church were baptized with this water. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Palen, Jr. The speaker will be Rev. Justin Shepard who will speak on religions of the world. The date will be April 7. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Senior Citizens The United Senior Citizens Group will meet on Friday, March 17 at the Holy Family Catholic Church. Bring items for a Silent Auction. A program is being planned. Members should have something green on or they will be fined. Potluck dinner at noon. Mrs. Mary Waite, Mrs. Roena Cornell, and Mrs. Vida Exelby are acting as a committee for the Silent Auction. A group of ladies met at the Shepardsville Church on Friday, March 10 and worked on several projects for the bazaar to be held in the fall.

I wish to thank all my relatives and friends for the flowers, gifts, cards, prayers and visits during my stay in Memorial Hospital. Also Rev. Gerald Churchill and others for their visits since coming home. Glenn Brown. 12-1-p-30

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Robert Hebel, Sr. and Mrs. Marian Walker. The speaker for the day was Mrs. Dale Squiers. She showed pictures of the trip she and her husband took to the Holy Land a year ago. She also told of several of the other places they saw. They brought back some water from the River Jordan and several of the babies baptized recently at their church were baptized with this water. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Charles Palen, Jr. The speaker will be Rev. Justin Shepard who will speak on religions of the world. The date will be April 7. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Senior Citizens The United Senior Citizens Group will meet on Friday, March 17 at the Holy Family Catholic Church. Bring items for a Silent Auction. A program is being planned. Members should have something green on or they will be fined. Potluck dinner at noon. Mrs. Mary Waite, Mrs. Roena Cornell, and Mrs. Vida Exelby are acting as a committee for the Silent Auction. A group of ladies met at the Shepardsville Church on Friday, March 10 and worked on several projects for the bazaar to be held in the fall.

Elsie news

The March meeting of Elsie Chapter No. 69 Order of Easter Star opened with a dinner at 6:15 p.m. prepared and served by Worthy Matron Jeanne Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Dale C. Levey, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ike. Other members of the committee were Mrs. Stanley Capen, Mrs. Alma Albaugh, Mrs. Victor Fox of Chesaning Chapter also assisted.
The tables were decorated with arrangements of iris and daffodils and a large pastel green and white birthday cake inscribed "Happy Birthday", honoring Mrs. Florence Ewer, chaplain, mother of Mrs. Temple and Mrs. Ike. The cake was made by Mrs. Ewer's niece, Mrs. Dale C. Levey.
A last-minute substitution for the "good of the Order" was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Don Ike as a "Prelude to Spring". The Ikes were managers of the Historical Park at Fayette, Upper Peninsula during years of 1959-1963. At this time they photographed many of the Michigan wild flowers and plants in their natural setting.

In welcoming the approach to spring, Mrs. Ike directed her remarks through the colorful slides as displayed by her husband. All were close-ups and some highly magnified.
The Chapter meeting opened with Mrs. Temple and Sid Keys, worthy matron and patron in the East. After the routine ceremonies, conductresses Mrs. Evelyn Porubsky and Mrs. Anna Dunay draped the Altar in memory of Mrs. Ada Richards, W.G.M. in 1951-1953. A special tribute was given by Mrs. Temple to the late Mrs. John (Mae) Hall, a member of Elsie Chapter since 1932.
She told of the years of serving various stations of the Chapter until 1938-39 when she became Worthy Matron. She was also a past president of the Clinton County Association, OES and secretary for many years until ill health in 1969 forced her retirement. Worthy Patron Sid Keys draped the Charter for Mrs. Hall, expressing some early memories giving "The Lord is My Shepherd, I Shall not Want", in closing.
Mrs. Bruce Levey was presented a proficiency certificate by W.P. Sid Keys. Worthy Matron Temple introduced three members with March birthdays, Mrs. Florence Ewer, Mrs. Neva Keys and Ron Porubsky and gave each a large Easter egg.

Historical Society elects officers

Clinton County
The Clinton County Historical Society met March 9 at the Municipal Building with 48 members and visitors present.
President Catherine Rumbaugh gave a resume of the year's activities. Eleven regular meetings were held with 430 in attendance and 13 board meetings. Varied programs were presented: New England Architecture, Antique Packaging and Advertising, glass display, Iconology for Collectors, post card display, slide presentation of Michigan, lecture on Mainland China, and a day in a one-room country school.
President Rumbaugh said the fine cooperation of officers and members had made her year a very enjoyable one.

The members expressed their appreciation for the excellent leadership qualities Mrs. Rumbaugh had portrayed in guiding the Society through a successful and energetic year.
Some of the coming activities are: a home tour is being planned for Sept. 16; the publication of a county history is being considered; a marker is to be placed at the grave site of Philip Parmelee in East Plains Cemetery, May 29.
Officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, Alta Reed; Vice-President, Hila Bross; Recording Secretary, Nina Waldron; Corresponding Secretary, Margaret Lennen; Treasurer, Sharon Worrel; and Directors, Ken Coin and Catherine Rumbaugh.

The highlight of the evening was the story of the life and times of Clinton County's aviation pioneer, Phillip Parmelee, given by Shirley Karber. Guest of honor was Hazel McKeachie, half sister of Parmelee, who displayed scrapbooks, photos, and trophies of his life while a national hero with the Wright Brothers Exhibition.

Tuff Kote-Dinol moves to St. Johns

St. Johns
Tuff Kote-Dinol will find a new home in St. Johns beginning the first week of April.

The Robert Teichs of Owosso have purchased the former Hub Tire Center on North US-27 next to Andy's IGA and are in the process of converting it to a rustproofing operation.

Mrs. Teich is the former Virginia (Jo) Vail of St. Johns. The business is a family operation with 25-year-old son, Rob, acting as part owner and manager.
Mr. and Mrs. Teich will be in St. Johns part of the time with Rob living in St. Johns. "We decided to start a business here because we really like the St. Johns area," Mrs. Teich commented.
At the present time, the Tuff Kote-Dinol Center will be dealing with rust proofing cars twice with a two-step process. Later they will expand into selling accessory items.

New owners

Owners of the new Tuff-Kote Dinol rustproofing operation to be opening soon in St. Johns are Rob, Jo, and Robert Teich. (Photo by Sue Kiley)
