Enid White named county clerk

By Sue Kiley
Staff Writer

St. Johns

In a surprising move last Tuesday, Circuit Court Judge Leo Corkin appointed Enid White, DeWitt Township treasurer, as Clinton County Clerk to fill the vacancy of retired Ernest Carter. Carter made his resignation effective April 30.

Ex-clerk Carter had recommended Jane Swanchara, assistant clerk since 1976, to Judge Corkin and the Clinton County Board of Commissioners prior to his retirement.

"I do not want to discuss the personalities of Mrs. White and Mrs. Swanchara with you," Judge Corkin told the County News Monday afternoon. "I appointed the person I thought to be best qualified for the job."

Mrs. Swanchara received notice of the appointment by mail on May 9. She said the judge had given her no reason or explanation as to his decision. She served in the capacity of clerk for about one week.

"It took me a week to decide who I wanted for the position," Judge Corkin commented.

The judge noted he had approached Mrs. Mary Anne Barrett and Mrs. Elaine Miller as to whether they wanted the position prior to appointing Mrs. White.

"It was indicated to me that the position would be mine," Mrs. Swanchara said. Mrs. Swanchara finished out the working day of May 9 and submitted her resignation on May 10.

"I had to make a decision if I would seek the Republican nomination for clerk or remain in office," Mrs. Swanchara said. "I knew I couldn't stay in office and do this, too. It just wouldn't have done anybody any good."

The appointment is until November when a general election will be held. The position will be for two years to fulfill Carter's unexpired term of office.

Mrs. White announced her candidacy for the Republican nomination on Monday, May 8. She was appointed Tuesday and sworn in on Wednesday of the same week.

The new clerk was elected DeWitt Township treasurer in 1976. She and her husband, Thomas, resided at 12645 Kruger Lane along with the couple's two children, Deanna, 15, and Woody, 11.

DeWitt Township Supervisor Alta Catherine Reed said Monday, "Enid's appointment has left us with the necessity of finding a new treasurer. So far we have had two people apply for the job." Continuing she said, "Enid left a void which will be hard to fill."

Stoney Creek decision delayed

Clinton County

A decision on whether or not the Department of Natural Resources has authority over Stoney Creek and possibly other agriculture drainage systems has been delayed following proceedings last Wednesday in Circuit Court.

The show cause hearing set for May 10 which attracted over 80 people to the Clinton County Courthouse Commissioners' room, was called off after Clinton Drain Commissioner Harry Harden's attorney, Bill Drillock, told presiding Circuit Court Judge James Banks that there is a law prohibiting the review of drainage projects unless in cases of fraud or jurisdiction disputes.

There was also a question of proper procedures which should have been taken by the DNR in suing Harden.

Judge Banks gave the DNR 10 days to file a brief showing why there should be a hearing. They, Harden will be given 10 days to answer the DNR. Banks will respond after reading both briefs.

Harden argues the Stoney Creek Drain belongs under his jurisdiction and not the Department of Natural Resources. The DNR brought suit against Harden claiming Harden is violating the environmental protection laws, after the county drain commission began cleaning up the drain in order to prevent serious flooding of farmland around the drain.

Jane Swanchara begins county clerk campaign

Clinton County

Mrs. Ben (Jane) Swanchara has announced she will seek the Republican nomination for the office of Clinton County Clerk this week.

Mrs. Swanchara, a life-long resident of the St. Johns area, has been employed with the county for the past 10 years. She is the daughter of Walter and Helen Pierce and a 1954 graduate of St. Johns School system.

At Pierce's Bakery she was business manager for seven years. She married her husband Ben in 1955 and then took some time off to have three children, Bonnie, 22, who is employed in the clerk's office presently; and Ben, Jr., 20, and Michael, 14, both who live at home.

Mrs. Swanchara began her employment with the county in the driver's license bureau in 1968. She was then transferred to the switch board in 1969.

In 1971 she was brought into the clerk's office under Ernest Carter and in 1973 was promoted to administrative clerk. Mrs. Swanchara was officially appointed assistant county clerk on Feb. 1, 1976.

Mrs. Swanchara has since resigned from this post to seek the nomination for clerk.

"The position of county clerk has been to serve the people," Mrs. Swanchara commented. "And that's how I view the job... to be there to serve the public."

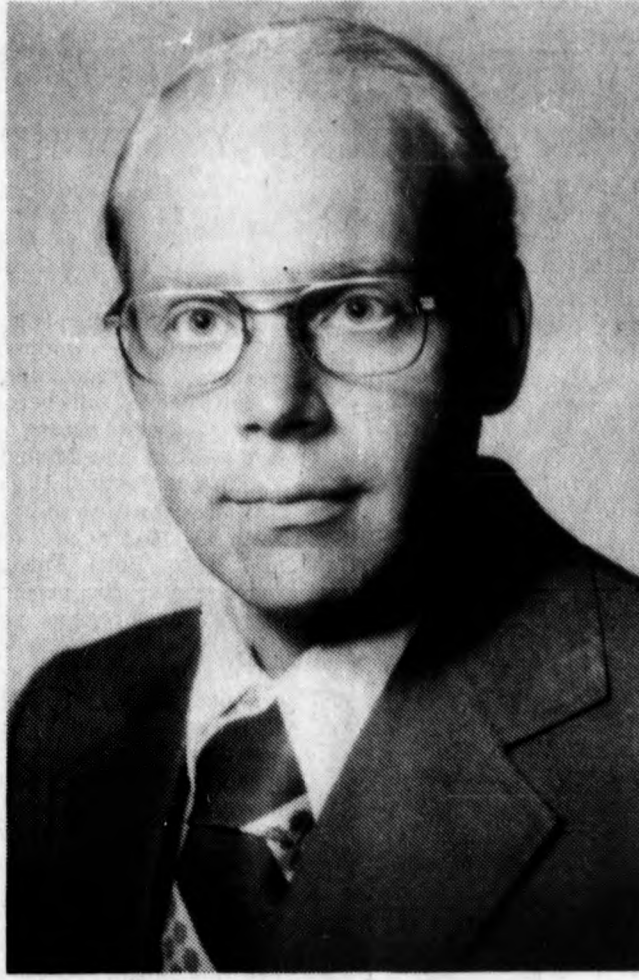

She noted there were 3,300 duties the clerk performs during the course of the term of office. In conjunction with this she added, "I feel my experience in the county clerk's office through the years is my greatest asset. And having Ernie Carter as my immediate supervisor has been invaluable."

In talking about her past job with the clerk's office Mrs. Swanchara concluded, "There is never a dull moment and every day is challenging."

Coming event

Tahvonen announces Circuit Judge quest

St. Johns

St. Johns attorney Randy L. Tahvonen has announced his candidacy for Circuit Judge of the 29th Judicial Circuit, consisting of Clinton and Gratiot Counties.

Tahvonen, a 1973 honors graduate of the Detroit College of Law, is seeking to fill the position being vacated by retiring Circuit Judge Leo W. Corkin.

Tahvonen graduated from Lansing Sexton High School in 1967 and received his bachelor's degree from Michigan State University in 1970. His undergraduate training consisting primarily of work in the fields of political science, psychology and philosophy.

During his law school years, he was the recipient of numerous academic awards, including an Alumni Scholarship and Michigan Consolidated Gas Company Scholarship. The candidate completed his law school education in August, 1973 and received the degree of Juris Doctor cum laude.

Tahvonen then served 18 months with the Michigan Court of Appeals as judicial research attorney to Judge Louis D. McGregor. Upon leaving the Court in October, 1974, Tahvonen established his private law practice in St. Johns. He has since maintained a diverse practice, including acting as Special Prosecutor for Gratiot County in connection with appellate proceedings.

Corkin not running

Judge Leo Corkin, 29th Judicial Circuit Court Judge, has decided not to run for re-election, saying he does not feel he would wish to fulfill the six-year term and said it would not be right to not complete the term.

He is not retiring, but rather he will be substituting when needed in the courts.

courts and justice not delayed by docket backlogs." Tahvonen pledged that he would work closely with the judge elected to the new position to insure the residents of both Clinton and Gratiot counties a full-time judge.

Although Tahvonen is required by law to file nominating petitions with only 252 signatures to secure a place on the ballot, he filed on Monday more than 1,000 signatures with the Secretary of State. "We have had an opportunity, while gathering the signatures, to listen to the citizens and their concerns about the judicial system," Tahvonen said. "This provides all of us involved in the campaign an opportunity to discuss and address those problems."

Tahvonen stated that he intends to emphasize throughout the months ahead the importance of the voters having the information and opportunity to make a thoughtful selection of their next Circuit Judge.

Tahvonen, his wife, Penny, and their three children reside in St. Johns and attend the First Baptist Church.

Where does St. Johns fit in?

By Patrice Hornak
Editor

St. Johns

In less than a month, St. Johns voters will go to the polls and either approve or defeat a millage proposal asking for 18.75 mills, with one-half mill designated to be spent for school maintenance. The proposal is for a two-year duration.

Schools polled were: Holt, Lansing, Okemos, Waverly, Grand Ledge, Marshall, Mason, Charlotte, Eaton Rapids and St. Johns.

25.75 operating mills and 2.84 debt retirement mills, was one of three school districts which has a total millage figure in the 20's. Five districts assess between 30 and 40 mills and both the Okemos and Lansing school systems assess more than 40 mills.

If the June 12 millage election in St. Johns passes, the total millage in St. Johns will still be in the 20's, more exactly at 29.59.

Following is a graph showing a millage comparison of schools surrounding Lansing.

MILLAGE COMPARISON WITH SCHOOLS OF COMPARABLE SIZE

SCHOOL DISTRICT	OPERATING MILLAGE	DEBT MILLAGE	TOTAL MILLAGE

Mothers honored

Last Friday was Mother's Day in Miss Jan Diuble's third grade class in Eureka Elementary School. Students presented their mothers with corsages, punch, cookies and jello and then all enjoyed a slide presentation of the students' accomplishments throughout the school year. This is an annual event in Miss Diuble's class. Presenting their mothers with punch and cookies are (from left) Amy Sadler and Mrs. Nancy Sadler, Jamey Hoeve and Mrs. Judy Hoeve and Robert Wieber and Mrs. Myrna Wieber. (Photo by Patrice Hornak)

Reach Out committee helps school function

By Sue Kiley Staff Writer

Bath Twp.

Bath's Reach Out Committee has done it all from checking for head lice to buying a slide for the playground. Wherever they are needed, they'll go and do whatever has to be done for elementary students.

The Bath Elementary School was without a Parent-Teacher Organization for about five years. The last meeting they had consisted of four people, with two of those persons being teachers. When Don Heimstra took over as principal, he decided a change was needed and so did some parents.

"The only way for a school to function is to have both teachers and parents working together," Heimstra commented. Thus the Reach Out Program was formed three years ago.

"We are primarily concerned with the kids and raising funds for them," Linda Clark, president of the organization commented. "So many times other groups are more concerned with changing the parents' (opinions) and getting them involved."

According to Heimstra the other organization died from lack of participation.

One of the members of the group noted there is not a lot for little kids to do in the area. "We try to encourage the children to like school," Bev Reeder, vice-president of the organization commented.

There are about six active members of the Reach Out group and so far there has been no problem getting volunteers for any of the activities sponsored by the group.

The Reach Out Committee deals mainly with the kindergarten to grade 5 children. They sponsor Walt Disney type movies once a month and only charge enough to cover the cost of the movie. Sometimes they have even gone into the red with this project, but to them it doesn't matter as long as the kids benefit.

They also have all kinds of sales to raise money, but again it is for the students and they are involved with everything from a cookbook with their names on it to popcorn sales.

The group sponsors a "Santa's Secret Shop" where the children can purchase inexpensive items for their parents and brothers and sisters.

They have also had children collect Campbell soup labels and cereal box tops so they could purchase equipment for the school.

"These girls are workaholics," Heimstra said referring to the team.

Besides projects directly involving the school, the Reach Out Committee gave help and presents to a needy family at Christmas time; picked up the tab for the Special Olympics when the millage was cut; and has sponsored an Easter Egg Hunt for the community for the past two years.

"Originally the group did projects to raise money for the kids but they decided not to stop there. The next item they took up was helping out in the various classrooms," the elementary principal said.

They made new clothes for the dolls in the early education rooms and also did repair work. The group started a nutrition program to educate the children on proper diet, and then took their own advice.

At the movies they put on they would sell pop, popcorn and the usual "junk" foods. They decided to practice what they were telling the children in class and served crackers and cheese, fruits, and fruit drinks instead.

"It went over real well," Mrs. Reeder said. "In fact, they enjoyed the fruit drinks better than the pop."

"I can count on these ladies for anything," Heimstra said. "They have been a tremendous plus to me."

Another area the Reach

Out Committee is dealing with is a substance abuse program. The group will be raising money for teacher training films as this year's priority item.

Although there are only about six active members in the Reach Out Committee, Mrs. Clark noted they have never had any problem getting volunteers to help with various projects.

"We've really had a lot of support from the community," Mrs. Clark said. "Most people know about us now and we've had a good response."

Charlene Robertson is in the group for this reason. My son was in the first grade," she began. "I decided I couldn't complain about a group unless I was involved with what they were doing." She added, "I really enjoy working with the kids and the school. I feel like I'm doing something worthwhile."

Mrs. Clark responded she wished she had got involved sooner. "I have some extra time now and I enjoy putting it to good use."

"I wanted to see what was going on for myself," Mrs. Reeder said. "I found the teachers and principal work well together and are doing a good job."

All three members of the Reach Out Committee commented they would like to see more parent involvement and have more people take an active stand in the decision making process.

Pile of fun

Clinton boy wins cartoon contest

Wacousta

Tim McCoy, fifth grade student at Wacousta School was one of 100 winners in the Energy Cartoon Contest sponsored by the 4-H Youth Program and Department of Human Environment and Design Extension. Nearly 3,000 entries from 44 counties in Michigan were included in the contest.

As a winner, Tim received a special energy t-shirt, and had his cartoon displayed in the Treasury Building in Lansing for Sun Day activities.

The 100 winning cartoons will again be on display at Action Energy Day at Michigan State University, Saturday, June 24. Purpose of Action Energy Day is to help the general public learn about 4-H, energy conservation practices and new energy technology relating to energy conservation and alternative energy sources.

I-Squad arrests juvenile in case

Clinton County

The Clinton County Investigative Squad reported a juvenile has been petitioned into Probate Court in connection with a breaking and entering which occurred at the Roxanne Ross residence. Money was taken in the incident.

Also arrested through the efforts of the I Squad was Henry C. Wallace of 708 Randolph, Lansing for the breaking and entering of a Bath residence on April 19.

Investigative Squad members are seeking with warrants three other persons involved with five breaking and enterings which occurred in St. Johns, Bath Township and DeWitt Township.

An I Squad official reported for the month of April a total of 77 breaking and entering and larcenies occurred in Clinton County. Through the work of the Squad, 29 persons have been arrested or found to be involved with the crimes.

The I Squad handled 35 of the complaints and solved 45 per cent of those cases assigned to them during April. Over $11,696 worth of stolen property was recovered by Investigative Squad members.

Looking at facts, F-5 route the best

Whichever way the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation decides to go when building a by-pass of St. Johns on the new US-27 segment between Lansing and Ithaca, there will be some objections.

However, it seems the route which provides the least number of objections should be built, and that route is the F-5 route according to figures from the consulting firm of Wilbur Smith and Associates which has been studying the US-27 link.

There are presently four routes being considered: F-1 which runs parallel to the present US-27 north of St. Johns but is located one-half mile to the east of US-27, between US-27 and Scott Road; F-3 which runs just west of Williams Road and intersects the present US-27 at Hyde Road; F-5 which runs just west of Williams Road and intersects US-27 at about Wilson Road; and G-(partial) which utilizes the present US-27 from Kinley Road north.

Wilbur Smith and Associates has made a study of impacts and cost estimates of each of the four alternatives. Eleven categories were studied and of these 11 areas, the F-5 route received the highest mark in seven categories, G-(partial) rated highest in three categories and F-5 and G (partial) tied in one division.

Here are the facts about F-5 and G (partial). See for yourself if F-5 doesn't make the most sense.

First, the F-5 route costs the least, namely $22.6 million. The F-1 route will cost $300,000 more, followed by F-3 which costs $25.6 million and the G route costing $27.9 million.

Estimated tax loss for the F-5 route is the lowest of all routes, with a $1,618 for the county and $12,195 for the St. Johns school district. Greenbush Township would lose $218, Washington Township would lose $129 and Bingham Township would lose $61. This computes to a $14,221 tax loss.

The G route would lose $53,560 in taxes, including $30,488 in school district taxes; the F-3 route would lose $20,202; and the F-1 route would lose $22,329 in taxes.

The F-5 route also has the advantage when considering the noise impact, the length in miles to build the by-pass, the number of landowners who will be affected by the routing, and the number or relocations involved.

Only 36 residences or buildings would have to be relocated under the F-5 plan, compared to 57 in the G plan. Moreover, the F-5 plan would give the north St. Johns area residents a good roadway leading into town. If the G plan is followed, travelers into St. Johns from the north would have only a two-lane road to take, as opposed to the four-lane divided highway presently used.

By Patrice Hornak

The G (partial) was favored when considering land use changes, the number of woodlots and floodplains involved and the acres of soil with higher yields which would be utilized by the highway.

The facts are on the table. Everyone will have a chance to go on record with their opinions in June, but the facts sure seem to point to a F-5 highway at present.

"OVERULED," SHOUTED THE JUDGE, SMUG IN HIS OMNIPOTENCE. "BUT YOUR HONOR..." WHIMPERED THE WOEFULLY UNPREPARED PROSECUTOR.

Does anyone want to go to Europe?

By Patrice Hornak
Editor

Anniversaries have a way of bringing back fond memories. This is a special anniversary for me—it has been five years since my girlfriend and I left for a 14-week trek through Europe.

When she asked me to join her, my thoughts raced: the only words I know in any foreign language are numbers one to 10 in Spanish and I can even sing "Are You Sleeping?" in French; I've never travelled farther than Wisconsin in my life; and what kind of shots will I need to get over the border?

But, I had a desire to enlarge my horizons, and I had saved some money through working at college and summer jobs. I knew that I would have to borrow money to get myself through my last year of college, but this was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, so I said "YES!"

We definitely went second class—last class is a better term, in fact. We bought a Eurail Pass for two months, slept nights on the trains to save on lodging expenses and lived on bread and butter, yogurt and chocolate bars for many a day. This may sound barbarian, but it was fun.

The less we spent on food and lodging, the more money we had to spend for sightseeing and entrance fees to historical sites. There wasn't much we missed as we made our way through the Netherlands, England, Belgium, France, Spain, Italy, Austria, West Germany, Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden and Norway—all the way up to the Arctic Circle.

Going to the Arctic Circle was just one of our zany adventures. We spent three days getting there, riding trains non-stop, and three days back. We walked off the northbound train at the first community located north of the Circle and hopped on the southbound train, all in a matter of five minutes.

We did our best to see everything we could—including the Vienna Boys Choir, the Vatican, Big Ben, the Alhambra, the Hof Brau-Haus and the Dutch windmills. It was a fantastic trip and one of my favorite memories.

However, my point is not that we had a good time in Europe. I also would like to encourage other young people to make the trip. Europe is educational, one gets a different perspective of life, and when you are young, you have access to MANY reduced rates on travel, lodging, etc.

Also, after 14 weeks of not being able to understand anyone's language, riding trains and walking by foot to all destinations, and living without the benefit of a Big Mac, home is ever so inviting.

To travel to Europe takes initiative. Sure, you need money, too, but if two girls working their way through college can do it, so can others.

My advice to those interested: Try it, you'll like it!

State Police services to be lost

Dear Editor:

Your readers should be made aware they are about to lose the services of the Michigan State Police, who will be relegated to the duties of highway patrol if changes now under consideration in the Michigan Legislature become law.

Senate Bills 1517 and 1518 would prevent the State Police from functioning except as patrol officers on state freeways and trunk lines.

This effort is backed by metro area sheriff unions which are selling some legislators a bill of goods. It is estimated the plan will cost in the area of $10 million a year in state money allocated to pay local sheriff departments.

The Michigan State Police have an excellent record of law enforcement, a fact which I believe is appreciated by most Michigan citizens. I feel sure the voters would not support these proposals if they understood them.

The Michigan State Police deserves better treatment at the hands of our state government than these bills provide. The people of our state deserve the efficient police service which is available from the Michigan State Police.

I hope your newspaper will oppose these changes editorially and encourage your readers to write to their legislators.

Sincerely,
ERNEST W. NASH
State Representative

Fowler band students going to Japan, too

Dear Editor:

As an elated parent of a Fowler band student going to Japan, I want to "get on the band wagon" and cheer the Fowler Lions Club.

They are sponsoring three students and paying half of their trip. This has been a big undertaking for a club with less than forty members and only reorganized in May of '77.

They held several fund raising projects to make this possible. Our community should be proud of this organization in one of their undertakings.

Checker in a supermarket: "I put your eggs at the bottom of the bag so that if they break, they won't run all over the rest of the groceries."

Doctor to a very sick patient, "I'll have you up and complaining about my bill before you know it."

almanack

I see by the papers...

By Richard L. Milliman

I see by the papers that former President Nixon's book, "RN: The Memoirs of Richard Nixon," is not selling so hot. It's no wonder, especially with the almost $20 price tag.

As one columnist noted, there seem to be almost as many versions of what happened at Watergate as there are former insiders writing books. "Memoirs" apparently does not clarify much about Watergate, either.

Some glimpses of the non-Watergate political Nixon emerging at least from the review of the book are very interesting. Perhaps the most revealing to me was the one quote by Nixon on what the review calls "the Nixon tempered in the crucible of politics." Wrote the former President: "In politics, most people are your friends only as long as you can do something for them or something to them."

The revealing philosophy tells me all I need to know about Watergate or any other Nixon political adventure.

I see by the papers that we have now finished working for the government this year, and can now start working for ourselves.

Along about May 6, we passed over the threshold. It takes that long for the average American—whatever and/or whatever that might be—to earn enough money to pay his taxes, according to the Tax Foundation, Inc., a non-profit research and education group in Washington. That's two days longer than last year, which means taxes as a bite on our income are rising.

Looking at it another way, the Tax Foundation reports, in an 8-hour day, it would take two hours and 45 minutes to pay our taxes—about one hour for state-local taxes, and the rest for federal taxes.

I see by the papers that a Michigan legislator wants to change the state motto. Rep. Charles Varnum of Michigan's Upper Peninsula thinks the motto is wrong. The motto is: "If you seek a pleasant peninsula, look about you." Varnum thinks the "peninsula" should be plural, because Michigan is composed of two peninsulas.

Hogwash, You can only be in one place at a time, and—no matter in which peninsula you're located—if you seek a pleasant peninsula, all you have to do is look about you; you'll either be in the pleasant Upper Peninsula, or the pleasant Lower Peninsula.

Varnum's measure is a waste of money and a waste of time. The present motto is not only geographically accurate, it's also grammatically correct.

I see by the papers that the Wayne County Board of Commissioners is faced with a red budget this year. Michigan's largest county is looking at a $9-$12 million deficit by fiscal year's end.

"We're in trouble," moaned one county official. "Someone is going to have to say (to county departments asking for money), 'You've got a beautiful project, but we don't have enough money.'"

That's good advice, but tough to follow.

However, government will survive, whether on the county, state or federal level. Somehow, I don't figure a deficit in Wayne County government is any surprise. The matter is in the hand of the Commissioners' Financial Crisis Committee. Any board which keeps a Financial Crisis Committee certainly is expecting something along this line.

I see by the papers that President Carter, meeting with a group of Democratic Congressmen, advised them to seek re-election as political independents—just as Mr. Carter ran for the White House. Noting the President's wavering poll popularity, one Congressman noted "there are no coattails, from the President to us or from us to the President."

That may or may not be true, but I think all elected public officials would like to think so. For example, Cong. Dale Kildee of Michigan summed it up: "Most of us will be running on our own. Most of us got elected on our own."

That's what they all think. Quick, now: when was the last time you heard any public official acknowledge that he or she was elected on any basis other than individual merit. They just don't think that way.

Thanks for the local media coverage

Dear Editor:

I would like to take a moment to thank both "The Clinton County News" and radio station WRBJ, and especially Mr. Ross Woodstock, for the fine job of covering our theatre events here at St. Johns High School this past year.

It is so nice to have this excellent and ambitious cooperation in the local media. I have given up trying to get even the most minimal of coverage from the Lansing "State Journal." It appears that they are only interested in covering only negative aspects of our local students.

This is most evident from their refusal to even print a paragraph about our students winning the state high school drama championship—even after I personally carried the story to their correspondent, phoned, and wrote a follow-up letter to them to ask why they refuse to cover us. Their answer—nothing.

This is also evidenced in the "State Journal's" lack of enthusiastic coverage of our sports events, and especially our outstanding physical fitness team that has qualified for national finals. But, it is so nice to have the super coverage that our county newspapers and local radio station have given us. There are not "Thanks!" large enough to express our gratitude.

I would like to extend a special thanks to Ross Woodstock of radio station WRBJ. He is often here at the high school compiling interviews and stories of local school events and our students, and seems to always find the time to devote to stopping by to be sure to keep the public informed of the positive achievements of our students. Ross really does a super job.

Once again, THANKS! to the local news media for the fine job you are doing of covering our events!!

Sincerely,
Mr. R. L. Koger
Drama Director—S.J.H.S.

Disgruntled employee warns teens

Editor:

A word of advice for teenagers of the St. Johns area: I hired in at Burger King to work full-time, eight hours a day. They said there would be a couple days of training at 2½ hours per day, which sounded alright. Then they want to leave me at 2 or 2½ hours per day.

Starting on the second week they said to come in at 9 a.m. so I went in, then they say I am too early, come back at 11:30 a.m. When I went in at 11:30 a.m. the boss said I am late.

On top of the double talk, I asked for eight hours like I hired in to work, and because of that the boss said I was fired. Since getting fired I have heard of several similar incidents about Burger King.

Another think which is uncalled for and maybe even illegal, they deduct Lansing City Income tax from St. Johns residents and workers.

If you want similar experiences hire in at Burger King.

Handling emergencies is his business

By Sue Kiley
Staff Writer

St. Johns
The speaker had the group of student journalists in the palm of his hand. It was getting late and everyone was about ready to leave the Big Rapids banquet room. Just before his closing remarks the instructor said, "Excuse me," touched his wife's arm and fell to the ground a victim of a heart attack.

The audience just sat there not knowing what to do. More than 150 people sat helpless while the man lay on the floor gasping for breath. Would you know what to do?

Most people think they will never be put in this type of situation but it does happen. Dale Coffman of St. Johns knows it can happen and that is one of the reasons he teaches Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) to people in Clinton County.

Coffman, a former teacher at Ashley High School, is an Emergency Medical Technician and is currently working towards becoming a paramedic, a first for Clinton County.

Coffman and Tom Benson, also of St. Johns, started teaching classes on CPR in the spring of 1975. Their first class consisted of volunteer fire fighters and then a class of their wives.

The team's eventual goal... to teach everyone in Clinton County CPR so situations like the one in Big Rapids doesn't happen.

The CPR instructor resigned from his teaching position at Ashley High to become a teacher somewhere in the world for the United Methodist Churches. So far Dale and his wife Patsy are still waiting to be assigned to a post.

According to Coffman, it is difficult to find a position for the couple who are both teachers. He feels some medical training would enhance their qualifications and they could be placed near a hospital.

Another reason Coffman is actively involved with the emergency medical care profession is to expose his two young children to a different kind of environment.

"Both Patsy (his wife) and I grew up around teachers and that's what we ended up becoming," he said. "I'd like to acquaint my children with some other types of experiences."

It's been a different experience for the teacher of 10 years to become a student again. But he just felt it was time to move on to something else. "After all, 10 years of Coffman in one school is enough," he said with a grin.

Becoming a paramedic is not an easy task and after the screening process only 15 students were chosen to take the 20-week course. Coffman is now in this sixth week of school and has been viewing emergency room procedures in various Lansing hospitals and ridden with both Lansing Fire Department members and Ingham County Sheriff personnel.

"I'm doing this because it is another way to serve God and my fellow man," he said.

Presently Coffman is an EMT working for the Clinton County Ambulance Service on Friday from 6:30 p.m. to 6:30 a.m. When he is working on a patient or making a run he commented, "Your adrenalin pumps and you end up doing the job you have been trained to do."

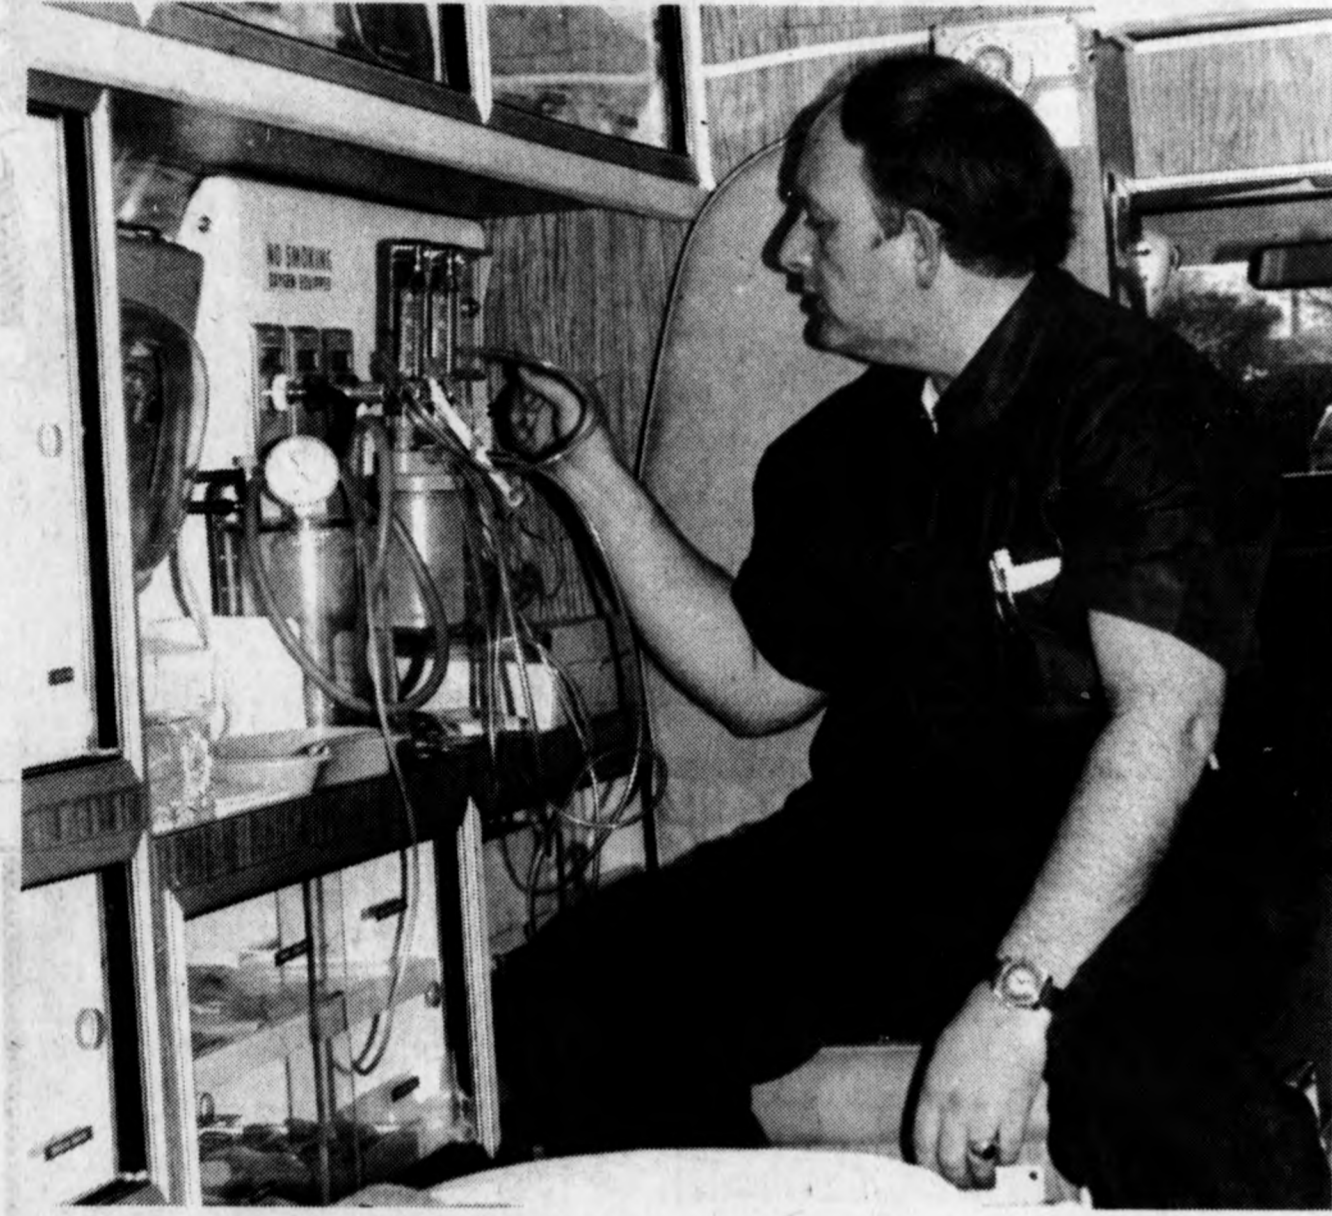

He added, "It's a person-to-person type situation. After 10 years of working with sophomores, juniors, and seniors you can handle just about anything."

The ex-social studies teacher is thinking of teaching EMT skills to the community along with CPR.

While working on his paramedic course, Coffman is not just an observer. He has given injections and inserted I-V's, "with a RN right there at your elbow to give you pointers," he added.

Although it is a totally different experience for Coffman he says he enjoys the chance to learn new things. Because his unemployment ran out, Patsy has taken a teaching job and he goes to school full-time. "We've always done things on a 50-50 basis," he said. "I hate washing dishes though."

The Coffmans have two children, Adam who is seven, and Sam, five, who are enjoying their father's new endeavors.

Alpha Eta honors presidents

The Alpha Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held a dinner meeting May 11, at the Owosso City Club. Thirty-three members enjoyed a delicious meal. The tables were festive with red roses in golden vases.

The past presidents were ushered in and each presented with a corsage of red rose buds. They were: Letah Stewart, Nina Waldron, Thelma Rule, Le Beckert, Opal Fisher and Etta Smith. Four were absent.

Following the dinner a business meeting was held with Louise Somerlot presiding. This proved to be an awards night as scrolls were presented to 11 members of the Polar Bears Club. They were a group of persevering individuals who faced the elements to attend the December meeting.

The president presented unique gifts to a group: Estelle Geller, Alice Thrun, Kathryn Slagell, Helen Mowl, Celia Woodworth and Nina Waldron.

Thelma Rule introduced Dorothy Bakita and Mary Porubsky, who were once members of the Future Teachers' Club that Thelma sponsored. Each was presented a gift.

Dorothy Seward Blue was welcomed. Prior to moving to Saginaw she was a member of the Society.

The club is proud of Julie Shepherd who has been a four-year recipient of the club's scholarship fund. It has been announced that she has had a successful college career and is ranking high scholastically.

A freewill offering was taken to assist in defraying the expenses of Dennis De Morest, a St. Johns high school student who won the state competition in cabinet making and will enter the national competition at Birmingham, Ala. The members donated $35 and with it goes best wishes to Dennis for a successful endeavor.

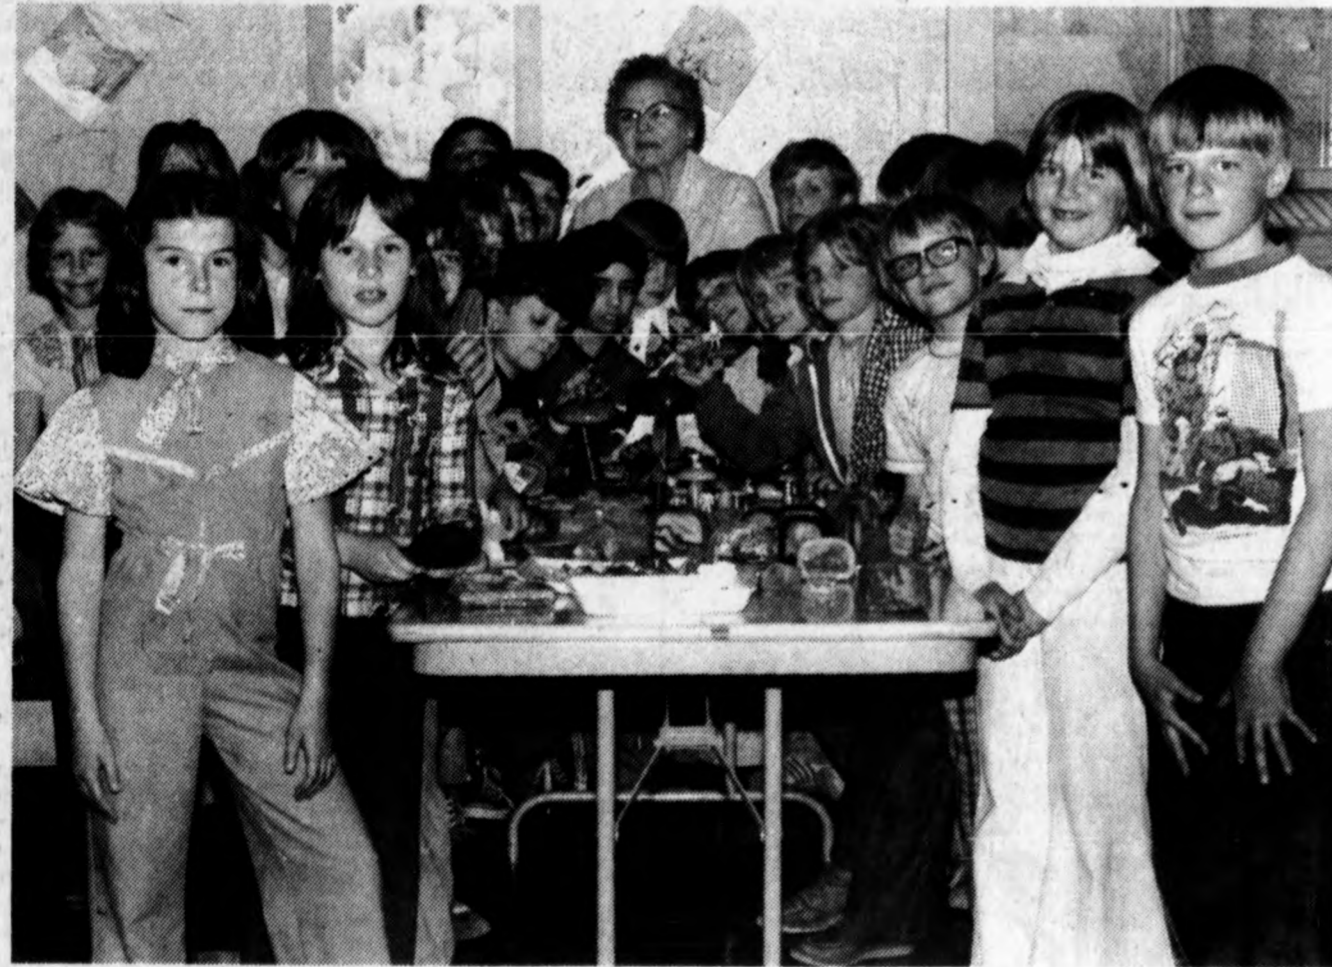

The following officers were installed for the ensuing year: President, Estelle Geller; First Vice-president, Alice Thrun; Second Vice-president, Joan Zatkovic; Recording Secretary, Karin Luck; Corresponding Secretary, Helen Mowl; and Treasurer, Evelyn Weiland.

Five new members were initiated: Patricia Barlow, Nancy Lashaway, Sharon Mayhew, Patricia Nixon and Porubsky. The members are very happy to welcome them into the Society.

Louise Somerlot and Estelle Geller expressed their appreciation to the members for their fine cooperation throughout the past two years.

The Society was adjourned for a summer vacation.

One More Change

It used to be that people never went to funeral directors until they needed their help.

But today people frequently turn to us in advance -- for advice on pre-need planning and for information about our service and prices.

And we think this is a change for the better.

Pay your Phone Bill by Mail.

2. Rather than paying your phone bill at our business office, do it by mail. It's not only more convenient, but we even provide you with an envelope for this purpose.

Do you like yourself?

By Theresa Dow
Extension 4-H Youth Agent

Do you like yourself? What a thought provoking question to consider.

If I ask whether you liked broccoli, football, load parties, cleaning house, your neighbors, or even your job, you'd have an answer right away. But if anyone ever asked a question as basic as whether or not you like yourself, would you have the answer as quickly?

I'm talking about the "you" that you see when looking in the mirror, not what I see or think I see but what you see and how you feel about it.

Self-esteem is just that, how you feel about yourself. A person with a high self-esteem "likes himself" even when it seems like no one else does at a given time. It's a quiet feeling of contentment, an inside happiness, and an inner smile.

Self-esteem is learned and developed as a process of experience; it is not inherited or instinctive. The learning process begins at birth when an individual begins to collect data about himself... what pleases, what gets attention, what makes him comfortable, etc. The resulting feelings of worthiness or unworthiness are a reflection of the quality of the relationship that exists between the individual and those who play a significant role in his life.

Fortunately, one's feeling of self-esteem is changeable, plastic, and possesses infinite capacity for growth. Virginia Satir in her book "Peoplemaking" indicates that it is possible to raise one's feelings of worth at any age... that it is never too late.

It must be recognized, however, that change occurs slowly and takes place over a long period of time. Therefore, especially as one becomes older, it is not realistic to expect sudden or dramatic changes in the way a person feels about himself.

In the process of altering self-esteem, it is important to recognize that past experiences have a vast influence on current behavior and that these experiences per se cannot be changed. What can be changed are our feelings about those experiences.

One's self-esteem, or how you feel about yourself, will determine how successful you will be in life and the degree of one's self-esteem can effect intelligence and creativity. This doesn't mean that people with a high self-esteem are more intelligent or more creative, but that they can afford the inner risk of trying. Likewise, people with high esteem don't encounter fewer problems but can meet the challenge and try to solve them. In addition, the high esteem is not destroyed by a seeming failure.

On the other hand, persons with a low-esteem or with the inner belief that "I am unloveable" tends to twist and diminish their own competencies. The low self-image filters out hard data if it's positive and focuses in on the negative.

In a workshop recently, Dorothy Briggs, author of "Celebrate Yourself" and "A Child's Self-Esteem", stated that as people growers we tend to have less faith and give less attention than as plant growers. We are many times unaware of our impact on others and often fall short in our potential to help those around realize a high self-esteem. She noted we hold back rather than freely give our love to others.

Love is a vital factor in self-esteem. Loving yourself and others makes the difference between high and low esteem. Love is avoiding judging, it is saying "I feel differently" or "I disagree" rather than "You are wrong." It's accepting the fact that lovability is not contingent upon behavior.

Love is important, but getting it across is vital. Freely loving is characteristic of the high self-esteem.

American Agriculture notes

By Sue Heinlen

We held our Monday night meeting on May 15 at the VFW hall in St. Johns.

Our pick-up raffle tickets arrived and they were distributed to members to sell. It is a 1978 Ford 3/4 ton, 4-wheel drive. Tickets will be $2 each or three for $5, and can be purchased from any AAM member. They will be on sale until July 1.

It was decided that we have some representatives of AAM in the St. Johns Memorial Day parade which is scheduled for Thursday, May 25. So far we have an old tractor which belongs to Emil Verlinde, an antique truck which belongs to Ray Heinlen and we have hopes of getting a team of horses.

We held a raffle of four bags of seed corn at the Monday meeting and they were won by Larry Sturgis, Jim Becker, Larry Kuhn, and Harold Lietzke. For the next meeting Jim Becker is donating a hog to be raffled off. The size of the hog depends on the size of the crowd, and you must be present to win. Tickets will be available at the meeting.

The county strike office have been moved to 306 S. Meridian Rd., Ovid. It is located across the highway from Tri-Ami Bowling Alley. It was scheduled to be open starting Tuesday, May 16, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. We hope this hasn't inconvenienced anyone as this office situation has been up in the air for quite a while now, but it should be all straightened out now. The phone is still 834-5563.

Larry Phinney told the group about what is happening in Washington concerning the Nolan bill, but basically it was what I reported to you in last week's news, so I won't cover it again.

Harold Lietzke and his son

Ted talked to the group about the possibilities of the use of gasahol. They went to Decatur, Ill. and toured a plant and were impressed about the possibilities of using such a product. They gave an interesting report to the group about the new fuel. It is something we should be thinking about as we all know how high the price of imported fuel is getting. It is also something to think about as it uses so much corn for its processing.

It seems that there was a good gathering at the courthouse last week concerning the Stoney Creek Drain, but once again we are getting the old government put-off. It was put off for 20 days and they will rule again. It is good to see such support at these things which directly affect so many of us.

Remember the meetings are being held on the first and third Monday of the month while we are in the midst of planting season. The next meeting will be held Monday, June 5. If for any reason there needs to be a meeting before then, it will be announced on our noon radio spot on WRBJ 1580. Plan to attend you may be the winner of the hog to be raffled off that night.

Teachers introduced to nutrition program

St. Johns Teachers of the St. Johns elementary school system were introduced to "Food... Your Choice," National Dairy Council's new sequential nutrition education program. Eighty-eight teachers, including the staff from St. Joe, attended the curriculum workshop at St. Johns High School on May 9. The workshop was presented by St. Johns resident and Home Economist, Sue Berg, program director from the Lansing office of Michigan Dairy Council.

"FOOD... Your Choice," the first program of its kind fills a need expressed by the government and those in education for a more systematic and sequential nutrition curriculum.

First of the three levels in the initial phase of "FOOD... Your Choice" introduces five to seven-year-old students to basic nutrition concepts. It tells them why, what, and how much to eat, and where their food comes from.

Level Two extends the Level One concept. It focuses the attention of eight to nine-year-old students on greater details of the power of food, food comparisons, classifications and processing, and lifestyles and their consequences.

Level Three assists 10 to 12 year-old students in nutrition decision-making based on the nutrients in food. At each level, emphasis is placed on the importance of a balanced diet.

The St. Johns teachers were able to participate in activity centers according to their grade level. These centers allowed them to experience an activity from "FOOD... Your Choice" that they can take back and use in their own classrooms.

Level I activity center contained a food preparation experience. Level II had the Vegetable Tasting opportunity and teachers made their own mystery cartons. Level III teachers made consumer grocery store shopping decisions and reviewed proper food handling techniques.

Preliminary arrangements for the workshop were made through Bette Munger and Roger Feeman, Principal at East Olive Elementary School.

General Telephone local goes on strike

Local 1106 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) went on strike Sunday morning, May 5, following an inability to reach an agreement with the management of General Telephone.

The three-year contract between General Telephone and 2,900 of the 3,800 employees of General Telephone expired at 11:59 p.m. Saturday, May 13. It was originally scheduled to expire on May 4.

General Telephone provides service to 549 Michigan communities in 61 of the state's 83 counties. It has approximately 640,000 telephones in service.

General Telephone's 425,000 customers can expect nearly normal dial service during the strike. Dial service should continue normally, but services that require operator assistance such as directory assistance, credit card, and collect calls will be somewhat impaired. Repair and installation services would also be slowed by the strike.

Cedar Village Shopping Center — a blend of the old & new

Cedar Village Shopping Center is located on Grand Ledge's south edge. It's a dream come true for Village designer-builder Richard Hamill. The unique Old World, old fashioned charm and architecture blended with the latest in building ingenuity to create a warmth and style not offered anywhere else in the area.

Mr. Hamill and his wife, June, visited Williamsburg in Virginia, Westbury Square in Houston, Old Towne in Chicago and the countryside of England and Scotland, wherever authentic restorations or old buildings could be found, to help bring Grand Ledge this priceless bit of nostalgia.

You will note that one of the shop fronts resembles an English pub and another with its concave glass windows is similar to a general store of days gone by.

The stone work that frames the windows of the book store and furniture store is truly outstanding. The red brick walk-ways are made from bricks that came from Battle Creek and Detroit renovation projects. The street lights are replicas of the English gas lit street lamps of Dickens era. Designer

O-E schools to get career computer

Elsie A computer system to help students gain a better understanding of how their personal interests and goals relate to the requirements of various occupations and aid in developing their career plans is to be purchased by the Ovid-Elsie school system, as decided by the O-E Board of Education.

The computer system, Michigan Occupational Information System, is a structured inventory of information and it is 100 per cent reimbursable by the federal government Title IV B program.

A committee composed of Superintendent Donald Kenney, Larry Martin and Dick DePond was organized to investigate potentials and make a recommendation regarding the future use of the former ball diamond and football field located north of the Ovid Junior High School. Gregg Palen and Mike Everts, representing the Ovid Village Council, discussed the possibilities of the village assuming the responsibilities of these athletic fields with O-E Board members.

Also at the May 8 meeting of the O-E Board of Education:

—Tom Vandeventer and John Goebel were appointed co-golf coaches for the school year 1978-79.

—Mrs. Joyce Camarata resigned her position at North Ovid Elementary School.

—The Board adopted the New Music and Laidlaw Language Experience textbooks for grades kindergarten through sixth grade as proposed by the Ovid-Elsie Instructional Council.

Cropsey new to state bar

St. Johns
Twenty-three students from South Riley Christian School triumphantly accompanied their teacher, Alan Cropsey, to the St. Johns Courthouse Friday May 5, where he was sworn in to the Michigan State Bar.
Cropsey has been teaching at South Riley while attending Cooley Law School nights for the past three years, so the students had a vital interest in their teacher's accomplishment. Cropsey graduated in January from Cooley, took the bar exam in February, and the students along with their teachers, have been sweating out the results of the exam. When the results were finally announced, the students determined to be present for the swearing-in ceremony.

The students were excited to get in on all the courtroom procedure and ceremony: the bailiff calling the court into session promptly at 1:30 p.m., followed by the entrance of Judge Leo Corkin in his official robe, then the event they were waiting for—the calling of their teacher to come forward to be presented to Judge Corkin by Attorney Randy Tahvonen of St. Johns for the swearing-in ceremony.

Cropsey is one of the five announced candidates for State Representative in the 88th District. This seat is now being held by Stanley Powell of Ionia, who has announced his retirement at the end of this term.

Class is proud

Students of Alan Cropsey gather around him following his induction into the state bar. The students witnessed the swearing in which took place in the Clinton County Courthouse.

DeWitt features local singers

By Sue Kiley
Staff Writer

DeWitt City
The DeWitt Bicentennial Singers will be singing to their hearts' content during Michigan Week.

During the Bicentennial, the aim was to get 100 voices together and go back to the days when community singing was one of the foremost activities of the townspeople. "This was one of my dreams," avid supporter of the group Faye Hanson said. They fell a little short of their goal of 100 people and had 80 people sign up originally. The funny part of the whole situation was a group of 16 people decided they liked singing together so they kept the idea going even though the Bicentennial is over and done with.

After three years, 40 people have got together for a big sing to celebrate Michigan Week. The concert will be held at the DeWitt High School auditorium on May 23 at 7:30 p.m.

Only one person in the entire group has ever sung professionally, but according to Ms. Hanson they sound extremely professional.

The first time the DeWitt Bicentennial group sang together was for an outdoor church service held at the football stadium. "It went over real well," Ms. Hanson commented.

The core of the group that now calls themselves the DeWitt Reflections sing all year round for anything from church gatherings to fraternal organizations. Their theme song is, "Let There Be Peace on Earth." The program for the Michigan Week consists of three musical groups of folk, patriotic, and sacred selections. They have been practicing for the past eight weeks under direction of Phyllis Winters.

Featured during the evening of song will be duets, quartets, and soloists mixed in with husband and wife teams, mother and daughter and father and son selections.

"Basically it's all for fun," Mrs. Winters said. "The end production is really minor compared to getting together every week for practices."

The singers will be dressed in various styles of red, white, and blue in keeping with the Bicentennial theme. This year the women will be dressed in calico and the men will wear kerchiefs and straw hats.

"They really get into it," Ms. Hanson said. "You won't find them without a smile on their face when they are up on stage."

The singers consist of DeWitt residents between the ages of 18 and 60. "It's a family type, home-spun affair," Mrs. Winters commented. "Faye has been the real mover behind the group." "And I don't even sing," the woman commented with a grin.

The concert is free of charge although there will be a container for a free will offering. The money will be used to purchase music.

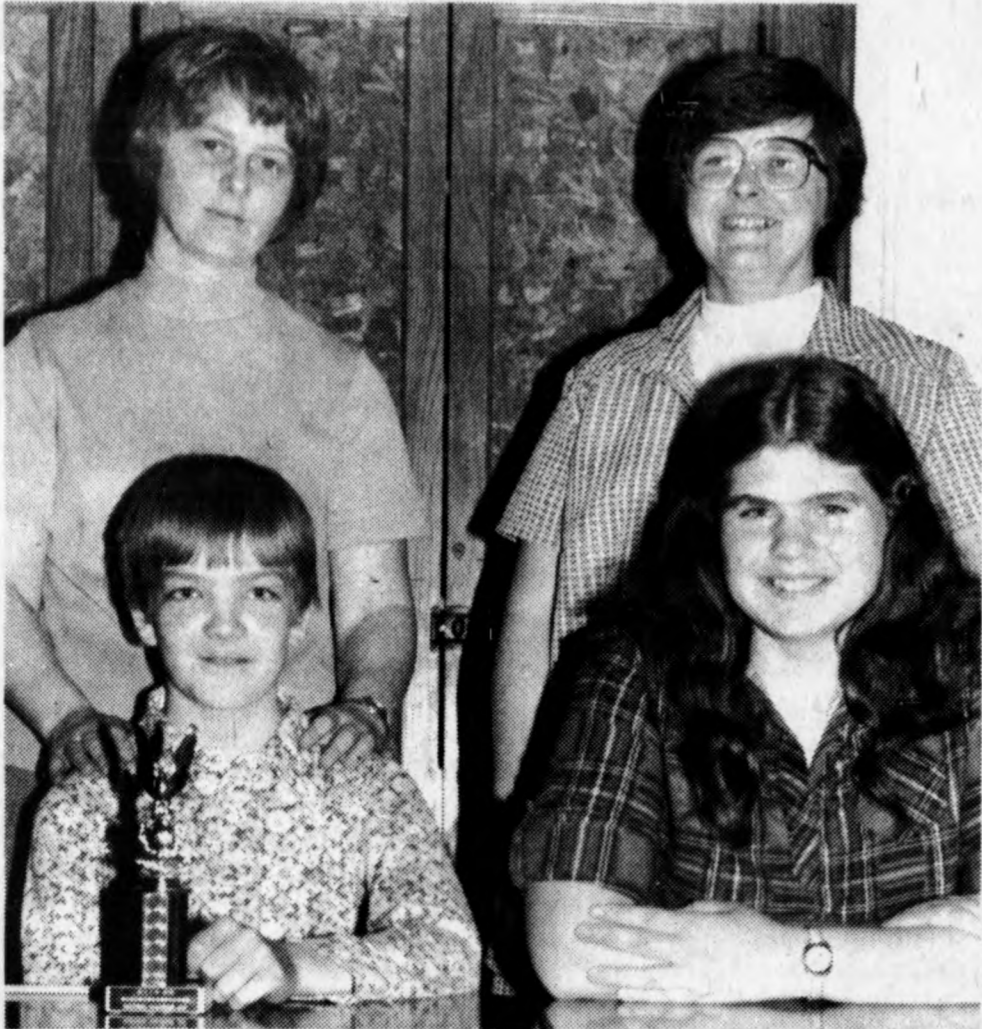

Rev. Murl Eastman will act as narrator for the singers.

"We hope there will be standing room only for the concert," Ms. Hanson concluded enthusiastically.

Elsie

Depth was the decisive factor in the Clinton County Meet held Saturday at Ovid-Elsie High School. In the boys' division, DeWitt's depth in the distance runs paced the Panthers to a 12½-point victory over second-place Bath, while St. Johns girls placed at least two athletes in all but one event to win the first competition for girls.

DeWitt's boys had 85 points, Bath had 72½, Ovid-Elsie and St. Johns 38, Pewamo-Westphalia 14 and Fowler 8½. In the girls' division, St. Johns had 84, O-E 78, DeWitt 29, Fowler 24, P-W 4 and Bath 2.

Both the DeWitt and Bath girls' teams were running with split squads, as those schools were also entered in the Bath Invitational held that day.

Four meet records were set in the boys' division, three in the field events. In the discus, Ron Easlick of Bath threw for 139-0, a meet record. Tim Spencer of P-W was second and DeWitt's John Enderle was third.

Bath's Gregg Tarrant set a high jump record at 6-5. Ron Hensley of DeWitt was next at 6-0, and Tony Faggion of the Panthers cleared 5-10 for third.

In the boys' shotput, Brian Hazle of St. Johns won with a throw of 46-6½. Easlick was second at 44-3¼ and Enderle was third at 40-11.

The girls' field events were dominated by O-E and St. Johns. In the discus, Connie Pattison was first at 103-7. Patti Malusek, also of St. Johns, was second at 102-8½, and Lori Webster of O-E was third at 101-1.

In the shot, Webster won with a throw of 35-7. Pattison was second at 32-1½, and Ronda Osga of St. Johns was third with 32-1.

Jennifer Litomisky of O-E won the high jump with a leap of 5-0. Elaine Miller was second at 4-6 for St. Johns, and Lori Chapko of O-E was third at 4-6.

13-8 ¾, and Janet Feldpausch of Fowler was third at 13-4½.

DeWitt showed its strength in the boys' division in the distance events. In the two-mile, Roland Hensley was first for the Panthers with 10:16.2, and his teammate Dave Wilson was second in 10:18.9. Trent Schafer of P-W was third at 10:34.9.

P-W went ahead for good in the sixth, scoring three runs on a single, three walks and an error.

Doug Schafer had three hits for P-W, and Dave Bengel had two hits and drove in two RBIs.

Bengel was also the winning pitcher, picking up 11 strikeouts and running his record to 4-2 this season and 12-3 for his career.

Except for the runs, the line scores were the same, with each team getting six hits and committing three errors.

In Wednesday's non-league loss to DeWitt, P-W only managed three hits off the Panthers' Dave Noch. Tim Bengel had two of them, a double and a single good for one RBI. Chris Schnieder had an RBI single.

DeWitt had 12 hits and were aided by what Folk called "a multitude of sins"—five Pirate errors. Tom Pohl was the losing pitcher.

Terry Mitchell had a triple and a single for DeWitt, Dale Challiss had a single and a double and Steve Waite had two singles.

Ionia got to losing pitcher Dan Miller quickly, scoring four runs in the first and seven in the second. The Bulldogs had seven hits, but also had the benefit of six P-W errors.

P-W had three hits, one a leadoff double by Doug Schafer which bounced off the 350-foot mark. Things went downhill from there, however, as the Pirates only could manage singles by Dave Shephard and Scott Simon.

Gary Bushong was the winning pitcher, striking out

10 in five innings. He also had a single and a double.

P-W hosts Saranac tonight and entertains Ionia Monday.

The Pirates are 3-3 in the CMAC and 7-6 overall.

Sixth inning 6th trips up Fowler

Laingsburg

Laingsburg scored five runs in the sixth inning to get past Fowler 9-4 May 8 in a CMAC baseball game.

"We play a good ball game," Eagle Coach Jim Wetmore said, "but we always have one bad inning to blow us apart."

Starting and losing pitcher Ed Van Ellis only allowed five hits in the first five innings, but he tired in the sixth and allowed three singles to spark the Wolfpack rally. Laingsburg finished with 10 hits, compared to eight for Fowler.

"We were hitting the ball all day," Wetmore said, "But no base hits. We're ground ball hitters, and Laingsburg had a dirt infield. The ball would hit the sand and it would die."

Mark Schrauben led the Eagles with two hits, including a triple, and an RBI. Dan Braun and Neil Thelen each had a pair of hits and drove in a run.

Fowler hosts Portland St. Patrick Monday.

O-E girls drop 2 in MMB league

Chesaning Ovid-Elsie's softball team came close last week, but still failed to pick up its first conference win of the season.

On May 8 Swan Valley scored two runs in the bottom of the seventh to beat the Marauders 7-6, then Thursday Chesaning took a doubleheader from O-E 16-9 and 11-5.

"The Swan Valley game was the best we played this season," Coach Jack Leydorf said. "Swan Valley had a good pitcher."

But the Marauders still out-hit the Vikings 12-7. Five costly errors hurt the O-E cause.

Denise McCue was four for four and three RBIs, Brenda Francis was three of four, Linda Szilagyi was two for four with two RBIs and Teresa Bates was two for four with a double.

Pam Roberts was the losing pitcher and Sherry Whaley the winner.

But O-E had "one of those days" against Chesaning, as the Indians hit well and the Marauder bats were quiet.

"They were really smacking the ball," Coach Leydorf said, "and we couldn't get anything going at the plate."

In the first game, Chesaning scored in every inning. O-E scored five in the top of the third to take a 5-4 lead, but the Indians scored four in the bottom of the inning and went ahead for good. Pam Roberts was the loser again.

In the second game, which was stopped after five innings because of rain, Chesaning exploded for 10 runs in the first inning and O-E could never catch up. Brenda Francis had a second-inning home run, Lou Ann Redman had a triple and Kim Torrey was two for two. Torrey was also the losing pitcher. O-E hosts Okemos in pre-district play tonight, then hosts Hemlock Tuesday.

Fulton offense earns 2 wins

Middletown Fulton's potent offense combined with two strong pitching performances last week to give the Pirates a pair of CMAC wins.

May 8 Randy Troub threw his second consecutive one-hit shutout as Fulton beat Pottersville 12-0, while Thursday Fulton whipped Laingsburg 12-5 on a cold, rainy afternoon. Pottersville, a Class D power the past few years, has an inexperienced team this year and was no match for Fulton, which scored eight runs in the first inning to ice the game early.

Terry Hnetyuka was two for two with a double and two RBIs, while Jim Sali had a double and Troub connected for a two-run single in the fourth.

Troub had a no-hitter going until the fifth inning. The senior finished with eight strikeouts and did not walk a batter.

Gary Moore pitched a strong game against Laingsburg, holding the Wolves scoreless for the first four innings. Coach Warren Kent said he might have shut Laingsburg out, but the rain made the mound treacherous and pitching difficult.

Fulton committed three errors against six Laingsburg, and the Pirates out-hit the Wolves 13-6.

Leading the Pirates were John Kresge, three for five, Jerry Winsor, three for four with two triples, Daryl Trefil, two for four, Moore, two for three, and Jeff Stephens, two for four.

Fulton, 9-6 overall and 4-2 in the CMAC, is at home Thursday against Webberville and against Ithaca Saturday in a doubleheader.

May 16—Rep. Bob Carr, of the 6th Congressional District, the Michigan House speaker Bobby D. Crim will sponsor a spaghetti dinner in honor of Roger Tilles.

The first-place winners were named to the MMB all-conference team, while the runnerups made second team.

On May 9 the Redwings prepared themselves for the tournament by beating the Panthers in a dual meet 5-2 at Alma. Halfmann beat Mark Hall 6-1, 6-2, and Bryan Salminen handled Sweeney, who beat him Friday, 6-1, 6-1. Vitous beat Gray 6-2, 6-0, and Dedyne beat Shontz 7-6, 7-5.

Marauders take 2 of 3 in MMB

Elsie
The fortunes of the Ovid-Elsie baseball team may have started to turn in the last week, as the Marauders won two of three MMB games.

On May 9 the Marauders beat Swan Valley 5-2, their first league win. Thursday O-E shut out Chesaning 4-0, but Monday the Marauders fell to Alma 6-5 in eight innings.

Against Swan Valley Dan Fabus returned to shortstop after an injury, and the sophomore's presence stabilized the entire defense. While the Marauders had been making many errors in past games, O-E had only one error in each of the last three games.

"It really shows that Dan is back in the infield," Coach Jack Nutter said. "He's only a sophomore, but he's good." Bryan Byrnes wasn't bad against the Vikings, either. The senior pitcher struck out seven, did not walk a batter and allowed only two base-runners until the seventh, when he allowed a double and a home run to spoil his shutout.

Swan Valley was the team that was hurt by poor defense, as the Vikings committed five errors. O-E scored in the first when Matt Fabus singled, stole second and scored on an error.

O-E scored two more in the third when Matt Fabus walked Brad Hudecek, singled and Larry Knutson doubled to send home Fabus. A wild pitch scored one more run, and an error let in still another.

The Marauders picked up their last run in the fourth when Bruce Davis singled, stole second and scored on Matt Fabus' double.

Against Chesaning, the Marauders were again aided by their opponent's errors. In the first inning, Hudecek reached first on an error and a double by Knutson left men on second and third. With two out, John Micka singled both runners home.

In the second, a wild pitch and two errors accounted for two more O-E runs. But the Marauders weren't giving anything away, least of all Micka. The sophomore pitcher threw a "great game," according to his coach. Micka struck out six, did not walk a batter, gave up just four hits and never allowed a runner past second base.

O-E finished with just five hits. Bruce Davis and Micka were two for three. O-E's winning streak was snapped Monday when Alma scored single runs in the seventh and eighth innings to come from behind for the win. Matt Fabus started the O-E scoring in the third when he singled and Hudecek had a ground-rule double. Knutson followed with a two-run double to give O-E a two-run lead.

O-E went up 5-1 in the fourth inning when, after two out, Mike Hudecek and Dan Fabus singled and Matt Fabus followed with a three-run home run.

Alma scored three in the fifth inning, but were down by one with two outs in the bottom of the seventh. Then Mark Ward had a solo home run to tie the game and deflate the Marauders. Byrnes took the loss, walking four and striking out eight. Matt Fabus had a great afternoon with four for four and three RBIs, with a home run and a triple.

O-E not only has Dan Fabus back in the lineup, but the Marauders' top pitcher, Perry Salyer, is ready to rejoin the team after an ankle injury.

"We don't have a chance for anything in the conference," Coach Nutter said, "so now we're looking to district play."

O-E is at St. Johns for a doubleheader Thursday, then at Hemlock Tuesday.

Redwings drop 3 to Bullock Creek and Alma

Alma
After it seemed that the St. Johns baseball team had gotten on the right track, the Redwings turned around again and dropped three league games.

May 9 St. Johns dropped a 4-1 decision to Bullock Creek, and Thursday the Redwings lost a doubleheader to Alma 4-2 and 7-4.

Dan Lee struggled in the first inning against the Lancers, giving up three walks and a two-run single by Ward Nordbeck. He settled down after that, but Bullock Creek picked up an unearned run in the fourth and scored again in the fifth on two singles and a wild pitch.

Tod Ballinger then came in and pitched two excellent innings of relief. St. Johns' only run came in the top of the fifth when Randy Pertler hit a leadoff home run. Rod Lounds and Pat Sipkovsky had two hits apiece for St. Johns.

Errors were the downfall of St. Johns in the first game against Alma, as the Redwings handed Alma a three-run third inning. Winning pitcher Jim Peska was safe on an error and stole second. Brian Doolittle walked, and Lee Schaffer and Mike Ward each had run-producing singles. Schaffer scored when Ward's hit got by the center fielder.

St. Johns narrowed the gap to one when, with nobody out, Brian Romig walked, Mike Stafford singled and Mark White was hit by a pitch to load the bases.

Pertler then drove in a pair of runs with a single, but a strikeout and a double play ended the rally.

Ward had a solo home run in the bottom of the sixth to finish the scoring.

Lee pitched an excellent game, allowing only five hits. St. Johns had eight hits, with Pertler and Lee getting two apiece. The Redwings had four errors, Alma two.

The entire second game was played in a hard rain which affected the hitting and fielding. Unfortunately, it was the St. Johns hitting and fielding that was most affected—the Redwings had three hits and made three errors.

Alma opened the scoring with an unearned run in the second, and Mark Ward doubled home another run in the fourth.

In the fifth, Mike Ward drove in two runs with a bases-loaded double, and two more runs followed when a Alma runner bowled over the Redwing Catcher.

St. Johns answered with four runs in the sixth when Lounds singled, Romig and Stafford walked and Pat Sipkovsky hit a grand slam over the left field fence. St. Johns threatened again in the sixth, but two strikeouts got Alma out of the inning.

Alma scored once in the sixth on an error, two walks and a sacrifice. Coach John Wilcox said Tim Bates, the loser, pitched a strong game. St. Johns hosts Ovid-Elsie in a doubleheader Thursday and is at Corunna Tuesday.

DeWitt tennis stretches win streak to 4, wins 2

By Mark Szalajski
Correspondent

DeWitt

The DeWitt tennis team stretched its winning streak to four this week, edging Durand, 4-3, and downing Eaton Rapids, 5-2.

Mother Nature played havoc with the Panthers' schedule as rain cancelled three matches. The St. Johns match will not be made up, but both the Haslett and Charlotte matches will be played as soon as possible.

Against Durand, number one Mike Ferland, was ill and unable to play, forcing Coach Marc Servis to move everybody up. Marty Lass, playing number one, lost 6-1, 6-3, and did Mark Mandrick at number two, 6-2, 6-2.

However, at number three, Dean Ward pulled out a three-setter, 6-2, 5-7, 6-1. Mike Munroe lost his match at fourth singles, 6-3, 7-6.

The Panther doubles teams fared much better. Dennis Wiser and Mark Szalajski yielded just two games in whipping their opponents, 6-2, 6-0. Randy Thornton and Kurt Hofmeister won their number two doubles match easily, 6-2, 6-4, and the number three team of Steve Platt and Matt Hokanson followed suit, winning 6-2, 6-2.

Ferland was back the next day when the Panthers took on Eaton Rapids but number three player Mandrick was not. Ferland lost his match, 6-1, 6-0. Lass was victorious, 6-4, 7-5, but Munroe, playing for Mandrick, was beaten, 6-1, 6-1. Ward won his match at fourth singles easily, 6-2, 6-2.

Again, the doubles teams were all winners. Wiser and Szalajski defeated their opponents, 6-4, 6-4, as did Thornton and Hofmeister, 6-4, 6-3. Platt and Hokanson went three sets before wrapping up their match 6-1, 1-6, 7-5.

On May 19 and 20, DeWitt will compete with other Class C teams in the regionals at Haslett.

Enlist now. Relax. Go later.

It's called the Delayed Entry Program, and it's the best way to get what you want out of the Army. The best way to get the skill training you want. The best way to serve where you want to serve. If you qualify, you sign up now. Then sit back and relax, waiting up to 365 days for the training you really want—whether it's in medicine, law enforcement, personnel, or whatever. Enlisting now and going later also lets you pick Hawaii, Korea, Alaska, the Canal Zone, Europe or almost anywhere in the continental U.S.A. to serve your country. While you're counting the days, you can let your hair grow, lie on the beach, play your records, kiss that special person good-bye.

The Delayed Entry Program. It gives you time to do a lot of planning.

Pewamo - Westphalia's softball team took two games last week, beating Lakewood 18-3 and Portland St. Patrick 15-14.
P-W was in control all the way against Lakewood, out-hitting the Vikings 21-3. Freshman Therese Simon was four for four with three doubles and four RBIs, Diane Klein was three for four and Lynn Weiber was three for five, including a double, and had one RBI.
Carol Schafer was three for five with an RBI, Maureen Cook was three for four, including a double and a triple, and had four RBIs, and Julie Thelen was two for four with two RBIs.

Julie Thelen was the winning pitcher.
The Pirates had to come from behind to nip the Shamrocks. P-W trailed 4-0, 5-0 and 10-4 before they closed the gap to 14-13 going into the bottom of the seventh.
Cook singled to start the seventh, and Robin Schafer followed with a walk. Denise Pline had a base hit to drive in one run, then Julie Thelen singled in the winning run.

DeWitt's boys' track team won two more Capital Circuit meets, beating Eaton Rapids Wednesday 133½-24½ and whipping Charlotte Monday 93-65.
Against Eaton Rapids, the Panthers were paced by 880 men Dave Wilson and Ron Hensley. Wilson won in 1:57.3 and Hensley was second at 1:57.7, the two fastest times in the area this season.

Also, the mile relay team of Tony Faggion, Scott Tallman, John Enderle and Wilson set a school record with a time of 3:32.2. And though DeWitt did not win the discus (the only first it failed to win), John Enderle's second-place throw of 135.7 was another DeWitt record.
Enderle also had a first in the shotput with 42-8¾; John Lass took the long jump at 18-7 and the 100-yard dash in 10:9. Ron Hensley won the high jump with 6-4; and John Jacobi won the pole vault at 9-8.

Mike Wilson won the two-mile in 10:20.6, Steve Sutton won the 330 low hurdles in 43.4 and Faggion won the 120 high hurdles in 15.6. The 880 relay team of Mark Willson, Mike Schaar, Lass and Tallman won in 1:36.7, Enderle won the 440 in 53.1 and Dave Wilson won the mile in 4:28.4. The 440 relay team of Lass, Todd Hokanson, Bruce Decker and Schaar won in 47.4 and Dave Kendregren won the 220 in 24.6.

Enderle won the shotput against Charlotte, winning with 41-10¾. Ron Hensley won the high jump in 5-10, and Roland Hensley took the two-mile in 10:08.7.
Faggion won the high hurdles in 40.6 and the low hurdles in 15.4, Dave Wilson won the 880 in 2:03.8 and the mile in 4:32.9, and Tallman won the 440 in 53.4 and the 220 in 23.8.

Lass, Devin Leonard, Decker and Schaar won the 440 relay in 47.3, and Ron Hensley, Greg DeSmith, Enderle and Dave Wilson won the mile relay in 3:41.6.
The Panthers, 7-2 overall and 6-2 in the league, are off until the regionals Saturday at Michigan Center.

O-E girls split MMB meets

Elsie
Ovid-Elsie's girls' track team split a pair of MMB meets last week, beating Alma 72-64 and losing to Chesaning 72½-63½.
Against Alma, Jennifer Litomisky set a short-lived school record in the high jump at 5-0. The 880 relay team of Kristie Hose, Litomisky, Vicki Sehlke and Shelley Bracey won in 1:55.4, and Sehlke won the 100-yard dash in 12.35.
Robin Parker won the hurdles in 17-04, Angie Elder took the 440 in 105.6, and the 440 relay team of Hose, Deb Fraker, Parker and Sehlke won in 54.38.

The Marauders took the top three places in the 220, with Bracey the winner in 28.3, and the mile relay team of Lydia Ortiz, Brenda Hughes, Connie Warfle and Elder won in 4:28.7 to save the victory.

In the loss to Chesaning, Lori Webster won the shot with 33-9¼. Litomisky set another school record in the high jump at 5-1, and Theresa Batora won the discus with 92-1.
The 880 relay team tied for first at 1:53.7, and Sehlke won the 100-yard dash in 11.7.

That time would be good for a school record, but because of the strong wind helping Vicki the time does not give her the record.
Elder won the 440 in 1:05.5, and Bracey took the 220 in 28.2.

O-E, 3-3 in the MMB and 5-4 overall, is at St. Johns tonight and at the regionals Saturday.

IN MEMORIAM. In loving remembrance of our precious daughter, Lois Jury Chant, who passed away May 19, 1971. Do not ask us if we miss her, For there's such a vacant place, Oft' we think we hear her footsteps. Or we see her smiling face, For she left us broken hearted. Friends may think the wound is healed, But they so little know the sorrow that is in our hearts concealed. Sadly missed. Her Mother & Father

Wierd bird?

A Yink that drinks pink ink through a straw? Who ever heard of such a creature? The students in Tom Sutton's art classes did. Sutton read a Dr. Suess book to his class of eighth graders at Rodney B. Wilson Junior High and told them to let their imaginations take over.

Pops concert to benefit Tokyo-bound

Whether your taste in music is the big band sound, rock and roll or Dixie Land tunes, the pops concert Monday, May 22, is for you.

Beginning at 8 p.m. in Rodney B. Wilson Junior High School, the music will flow, intermixed with variety acts for spice. Food and soft drinks will be served during the evening and a number of door prizes will be awarded.

Sponsoring the pops concert is the St. Johns Lions Club which will use the proceeds from the concert to help send five students to Tokyo when former St.

Johns resident Ralph Lynam is installed as president of Lions International next month. Proceeds will also be used to help other band students in special programs.

This is the first pops concert of its kind, according to Walter Cole, instrumental music instructor at St. Johns High School who is coordinating the program with fellow teacher John Speck.

Admission will be $1.50 for adults and 75 for students. They may be purchased at the door.

Vials of Life distributed

By Sue Kiley
Staff Writer

Clinton County

A container in your refrigerator could save your life.

Over 2,600 tiny cylinders made of clear plastic will be distributed throughout Clinton County beginning this week. The program is known as the Vial of Life.

Medical information and history about members of your family is to be placed in the Vial of Life container which is being handled through the Crime Prevention Unit of the Clinton County Sheriff's Department.

The cost of the program is being taken over by the Greater Lansing Chamber of Commerce so it will be free to anyone wishing to participate.

In the beginning, a deputy in Monroe County was concerned with the plight of the elderly and invalids who live alone. From personal experience he knew medical and emergency personnel often lost valuable time trying to find out information about the victim's prior medical problems, physician's name, next of kin, allergies and medications being taken.

The refrigerator in each home seemed to be the safest place to store this information because everyone has one, it is hard to move and it is highly visible.

The Vial is to be suspended beneath the upper right shelf of the refrigerator and a sticker is to be placed on the doors of the home so emergency service units know where to look.

Deputy John Criswell, CPU coordinator, commented if there are two people of the same age or look similar, a picture should be placed in the Vial with the medical information.

He also noted the program is not just for the elderly but for everyone.

In the Fowler and Westphalia areas the Vials will be available from the Catholic priests.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I certainly hadn't intended on writing another letter, but I feel there must be a misunderstanding as to what I meant about a Deputy Sheriff working in uniform while being paid by a private business. As sometimes is the case, all the facts cannot be readily ascertained and misconceptions can be made.

When we arrived at Beck's there was no patrol car parked on US-27 and when we left some one and one-half hours later, there was no patrol car parked on US-27. It was certainly a revelation to me when Sheriff Hufnagel said that there was a patrol car there when all I saw was the one parked behind Beck's buildings.

I could make some examples as to how this same service could possibly be misused but I won't. I didn't mean to ruffle anyone's feathers or to rock the boat.

As far as not having mentioned in my first letter about the second deputy being in the Farmarina working with the U.S. Coast Guard; I didn't feel that it was related to what I wrote about. Likewise, it did make a difference to me as to what was said to me—what difference did it make to me whether the deputy was on the county payroll or Beck's payroll?

My conclusion: I feel an officer of the law should not be allowed to wear his uniform when the employer is a private business.

Sincerely,
S.L. Fitzpatrick

P.S. By the way, the entire one and one-half hours were not spent eating hot dogs. Although they were tasty little devils, I could only eat four myself. I also made sure that my family had all that they wanted.

Hearing set for US-27 by-pass

The Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation, and Wilbur Smith and Associates has scheduled a pre-hearing workshop to review the proposed alternative alignments for US-27 in Bingham and Greenbush Townships.

The workshop will be an informal walk-through type of session so that persons can come and go at their convenience yet obtain answers to their questions. The staff will take approximately 15 minutes at 3, 4, 7, and 8 p.m. to briefly review the alignments and the associated impacts.

The workshop will be held Thursday, May 18, in the Eureka Elementary School gymnasium, 7550 Welling Rd., Eureka, from 3-5 p.m. and 7-9:30 p.m.

Approximately two weeks later, the location and design public hearing has been scheduled. This hearing will be transcribed for the record.

In the beginning, the staff will summarize the alternative alignments for US-27 and their associated impacts. Afterwards, the hearing will be opened to accept statements, for the record, from individuals and/or representatives of agencies and governmental units.

This hearing is scheduled for Thursday, June 1 at St. Johns High School, 501 Sickles St., St. Johns, beginning at 8 p.m.

The supplement to Section IV of the draft alignment environmental impact statement and the draft statement are available for review at the following locations in Clinton County: county clerk's office, county planning office, county extension office; Bement Public Library; and city clerk's office in St. Johns.
