1,038 seniors say farewell to high school

Clinton County

Graduation from high school marks the culmination of 13 years of schooling, the end of bells ringing every 45 minutes and the conclusion of A's, B's, C's, D's and E's for many.

A total of 1,038 Clinton area students are taking that step from student to adulthood during this week and next, as seniors across the county fling their tassels to the other side of their graduation caps and march out of their high school gymnasiums or football stadiums with diplomas in hand.

The largest graduating class is from St. Johns High School where 281 seniors and 38 adults from the adult education program will graduate June 11 at 4 p.m. in Frank P. Buck Athletic Field or in the high school gymnasium poor weather prevails.

Freda Robbins of the adult education program will address the graduates, followed by short speeches by Valedictorian May Lynn Foo and Salutatorian Tim Halfmann. Choir music and the traditional torch ceremony will also mark St. Johns High School's commencement exercises. There is no formal Baccalaureate at SJHS.

The earliest graduating class in Clinton County was that of Fowler High School, numbering 55, led by Valedictorian Sandra Schafer and Salutatorian Lynette Thelen.

Graduation exercises for Fowler High School were held last Sunday, May 21, at 3 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. The 1978 seniors also attended mass at 8:30 a.m. Sunday morning at Holy Trinity Catholic Church.

Next in line to receive their diplomas will be the 1978 graduating class of Pewamo-Westphalia High School totaling 106 seniors. They will have commencement exercises Wednesday, May 31 at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium with Dr. Howard Hickey, associate professor at Michigan State University, to be the main speaker. Robert Schmitt is the class Valedictorian.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday, May 21, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church at 10:30 a.m. in Pewamo and services at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Westphalia are slated for Sunday, May 28, at 10 a.m.

Fulton High School's graduating class of 81 will have Baccalaureate tomorrow night, May 25, at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium, and commencement is slated for June 1 at 8 p.m. in the gym. Brenda Davis is Valedictorian and John Kresge is Salutatorian.

Commencement speaker will be Omar Garberson, senior energy management consultant for Consumers Power Company.

Graduating June 4 will be the 95 members of the class of '78 at Bath High School. Andy Beachnau and Andy Bos have been named Valedictorian and Salutatorian, respectively. Commencement is slated for 3 p.m. at the high school and Baccalaureate services are set for June 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Last to graduate in Clinton County will be the 153 members of DeWitt High School's senior class led by Valedictorian Joseph Reed and Salutatorian Maureen Stevens.

Commencement exercises on the football field, weather permitting, are scheduled for June 7 at 8 p.m. and Baccalaureate services are set for June 6 at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Information on Ovid-Elsie's graduation will be included in next week's Clinton County News.

Wolpe opposes Garry Brown

Howard Wolpe made it official Monday morning, May 15, that he is a candidate for the U.S. Congress in the Third District.

Facing an assembled gathering of more than 60 persons in the Congregational Church fellowship hall in Grand Ledge, the 38-year-old Delta Township Democrat claimed that "Community problem solving" will have top priority in his campaign.

"For our government to work for the benefit of all the people, the people themselves must be involved in community problem solving," he stated. "That's what my campaign is all about."

"Not only must there be effective political representation in Washington, but the people themselves must become directly involved in identifying and resolving the problems facing their communities," he added.

Wolpe, who narrowly lost to Rep. Garry Brown in the 1976 Congressional election and who will likely be opposing him again—officially announced plans—pledged to establish a program of citizens outreach in the district if elected. He said he felt it was not enough for a Congressman to simply answer his mail and indicated he would actively solicit the concerns and problems of constituents.

At least a third of his Congressional staff would be assigned to work in the district, he said.

Why do you feel it's important to run against Brown?" Wolpe was asked at the conclusion of his prepared statement.

"For one reason as a response to the energy policy in the country," Wolpe answered. "I'm not satisfied with what's coming out of Congress. Brown has been voting consistently in favor of the oil companies... adopting a position of favoring them."

"Can you promise anything but an open ear?" asked one man in the audience, to which Wolpe quickly replied. "Too many promises are made. The record of the candidate is important."

As an example, Wolpe, who until his recent resignation to become politically active, served as regional representative for U.S. Senator Donald Riegle, pointed out his work with the Grand Ledge City Council in securing federal monies to help correct a water supply problem in the community. The Council worked with Wolpe on a grant to augment the city's north side.

Prior to his post with Riegle, Wolpe had spent three years in the State Legislature and had been a two-term Kalamazoo city commissioner. He moved from Kalamazoo to Delta Township 16 months ago, where he resides with his wife Nina and their 9-year-old son.

Blood pressure theme says: Treat it for life

St. Johns
The National Institute of Health High Blood Pressure Education Program has declared that May, 1978 is National High Blood Pressure Month. The slogan for this year's education program is, "High Blood Pressure—Treat It For Life."

High blood pressure is a condition which is often overlooked and not treated properly by its victims. Alarming statistics compiled by the National Program show that of the people who have high blood pressure, only about 29 per cent successfully control it. About 19 per cent are under treatment but do not yet have it under control, and 23 per cent are not treating it at all.

In addition, approximately 29 per cent do not know they have the disease. It is these last two groups to which the educational efforts of this year's campaign are primarily directed.

Karen Ledebuhr, education coordinator at Clinton Memorial Hospital, cites four common misconceptions which make it difficult for people to deal with high blood pressure.

First, patients think that controlling high blood pressure is the same as curing it.

Ms. Ledebuhr states, "There is no cure for high blood pressure. But often a simple treatment plan will assist in being able to lead a normal life. Without the assistance of the treatment plan, which is prescribed by a physician, disability and death can result at a much too early age."

Second, many people believe that there must be symptoms and if there are none, the blood pressure is normal. Ms. Ledebuhr points out, "Most high blood pressure persons have no symptoms and a person can't always tell when his blood pressure is up."

A third mistake is confusing hypertension, the medical term for high blood pressure, with nervous tension. It is true that the blood pressure may rise in tense situations. However, some people act on this error by taking their blood pressure pills only when they feel tense or nervous.

Ms. Ledebuhr states, "This practice is not only ineffective but also dangerous. With many medications, they must be taken over a period of time to get the desired effects. Taking a medication once in a while will not allow this to happen. Also, the results (increased blood pressure) of a tense situation may continue for a long time after the situation is gone. Again, taking the blood pressure medication only when the tension is felt may not be enough to lower the blood pressure."

Fourth, people feel they have a choice of what part of the treatment plan they wish to follow. In addition to medication, the physician may tell his patient to quit smoking, lose weight, exercise more, and so on.

"Often the patient assumes he can choose from the various directions and still achieve a lowered, normal blood pressure".

reports Ms. Ledebuhr. "This also can be seen in those patients who do not have their blood pressure checked periodically. They may be choosing not to acknowledge the possibility of high blood pressure so that they don't have to deal with the problem. Unfortunately for them, the If-I-ignore-it-it-will-go-away syndrome definitely does not work."

In Clinton County, there are several agencies which can assist in dealing with high blood pressure. For instance, the Clinton County Branch of the Mid-Michigan District Health Department has three blood pressure educational programs, presented by the public health nurses, to community groups. For more information, call 224-2195.

Another facility which is available in Clinton County is Clinton Memorial Hospital. The hospital maintains a 24-hour emergency room for those people having immediate, critical high blood pressure problems, such as a stroke.

Also, a variety of tests can be performed at the hospital, usually on an outpatient basis, to assist the doctor in diagnosing the problem and

Detroit News and County News only a zero apart

What is a zero? It represents nothing, right? Only sometimes.

Recently at the 53rd annual meeting of the Dairy Council of Michigan, I had the opportunity to sit next to an editor of the Detroit News, Tish Myers, Foods Editor.

It was only upon chance that we sat next to each other during the dinner and address by nutrition expert Dr. Gilbert Leveille. Four hundred other people could have sat next to her, too.

Anyway, someone asked Tish how the morning edition of The News was being accepted. "That is a well-guarded secret," she responded, adding that they print about 60,000 copies of the morning edition—a rather slow run for them.

Well, 60,000 was an impressive figure to me. It was even more impressive when someone at our table asked me what the circulation of the Clinton County News was "Six thousand." I said matter-of-factly. To think, the Detroit News a.m. edition has only one more zero than we do.

We had little in common, Tish and I. Besides being women and both having to write for a living, we were opposites, from the color of our hair to the fact that she covers foods and I am content to eat dried cereal and bologna sandwiches. But, it was fun sitting next to the Detroit News.

Dr. Leveille who is chairman of the Department of Food Science and Human Nutrition at MSU, quieted fear in the hearts of his audience concerning bacon and McDonalds hamburgers.

Just last week there was a news break announcing bacon and hamburgers which are fried to be cancerous. Rubbish, he said. It was a pre-mature statement coming from an unofficial source that should have interpreted the facts differently, he said.

He also dispelled many of the other "myths" put in the wind about foods and nutrition. Do you know the consumption of sugar 50 years ago is the same as it is today? Who says we eat too much sugar these days? We have always been eating it.

Americans are eating 46 per cent more meat products, 16 per cent more dairy products and 12 per cent less eggs than 50 years ago, too. The consumption of vitamins has significantly increased, but the iron intake of women is still "a real problem."

Also, the food additives haven't ruined the food of America. "We have the safest food in the world," the nutrition authority said. "We are dealing with such a low level risk, we don't know how to deal with it," he said.

After enjoying a delicious dinner, his audience was also told that one-fourth of the American population is overweight by as much as 20 per cent. That means if you are to weigh 100 pounds and you weigh 120, you are 20 per cent overweight and are among the 25 per cent of the American population in the same boat. Obesity is the major nutrition concern in America, he pointed out. There is nothing, like that kind of news to make a meal sit better in your stomach.

Board jobs tough to fill

By Richard L. Milliman

The newspaper article carried an intriguing opening paragraph:

"Wanted:" the story read. "Dedicated residents willing to work long hours, without pay, on knotty problems involving the education of our children."

That was the way the article began in The Detroit News, telling of a News survey of school districts in the Detroit metropolitan area on the question of school board members.

"Those willing to take on such formidable tasks are becoming fewer in number," the newspaper story related. "In some communities, the few local residents willing to take on the thankless job of school board member are running unopposed. Others are serving short terms, then resigning, claiming that the hard decisions they must make on millage issues, labor problems, and teachers' contract discussions simply aren't worth the hassle."

It's sad, but it's true; the job of servicing on a school board is one of the most thankless public jobs available anywhere, in my opinion. Those of us who are not willing to serve on a school board certainly are fortunate if qualified, interested and concerned citizens step forward to offer their services.

So far, there has not been a school district which was forced to close down because nobody wanted to be on the school board; but with the way things are going it may not be far in the future.

The News survey claims these findings in its 3-county area:

—Fewer people with "top management" experience in private life are running for school boards, compared with 20 years or so ago.

—More women are serving than in the past.

—More friction is developing between superintendents and school boards, primarily because school boards are "looking over the shoulders of the administrators too much, instead of setting policy" and letting the school people carry it out.

—More teachers are running for school board jobs in the district where they teach.

The Michigan Association of School Boards chipped in with other findings—such as the claim that between 1972 and 1977, the number of women on school boards more than doubled, from 11 to almost 25 percent...and that although the school board term usually is four years, the average tenure of a school board member now is only three years.

Most superintendents, incidentally, average about 4 years on the same job.

As I said above, a school board job is a tough one. From where I sit, it looks like the board's hands are tied pretty much on curriculum, because so many standards are set by the state and federal governments, which have quite a bit of control because of funding-withstrings, plus laws.

In addition, the bargaining table has taken away most board discretion on personnel, extending beyond teaching to drivers, administrators, maintenance people, clerical help, and everything else. Not much discretion for board members there, either.

That leaves the school board's job primarily as one of selling millage campaigns and bond issues. In other words, the school board does all the thankless work, like raising taxes, without having the clout to make the vital policies in either personnel or curriculum areas. At least, that's the way it looks from here.

Open meeting laws—which I strongly favor, incidentally—still make it more difficult to serve on any public body, while the developing trend of public disclosure laws add considerably to the sacrifices and frustrations of serving on a school board or other local public body.

The Detroit News survey spotlights what to me is a dangerous omen. Instead of having public spirited citizens withdrawing from local public duty, we need more concern and more involvement to make the local government system operate effectively—and by more than just those with a vested interest in the outcome, like teachers serving on school boards. That's highly questionable, in my book.

The alternative to citizen control at the local level—of school boards, city councils, county boards, township offices, or other local jurisdictions—is to hand over to somebody else the direction of the system, and that will be either regional, state or federal control.

Personally, I prefer to have the folks who must live with the system, and under the system, in charge of it.

What is the true meaning of Memorial Day?

By Edna Eldred

As May 30 nears, the older generation looks back on the true meaning of this day as Memorial Day. This year the date has been set for Monday the 29th. The date has been changed for the commemoration but the original date set cannot be changed.

The decorating of graves began back in Civil War days when the boys who fought in the battles in the South were buried in cemeteries close to the fighting location. Wives, mothers and sweethearts used to go to these cemeteries and place flowers on the graves, sometimes not knowing where their loved ones were buried, but in hopes to show respect to all those who had made the supreme sacrifice. This was always in the spring.

It is claimed that the first organized Decoration or Memorial Day was held in Mississippi in 1866. There is, however, a claim that the first one was held on April 26, 1866 in Linwood Cemetery in Columbus, Georgia.

John A. Logan was a Commander in the Union Army. One day he called his officers together after the close of the war and declared May 30 Decoration Day. He said he thought this was an appropriate date as the last Union volunteer was discharged on this date. For over 100 years this date was set aside to honor those men who had served. Now it has been changed.

Each boy and girl should understand the reason for this day.

We will have a parade, carry flags, go to the cemetery and as we enter we can see the flags on the graves of the boys from our community who have given their service for the safety of all citizens.

The different organizations place wreaths at the foot of the monument of the unknown soldier, to honor the branch of service they represent but with reverence for all.

On this, large monument is the inscription donated by the Soldiers and Sailors Association and Clinton County Citizens under the aspects of General C. E. Grisson No. 20 in Honor of Union Volunteers. General Grisson served in the Union Army from 1851 to 1865. He was injured in a battle and retired from active duty but stayed on until the end of the war as an informant. He left the South and came to St. Johns where he took a very active part in the civic affairs of the city.

Just north of the large monument is a plaque (bronze) which carries the inscription that it is a memorial to the unknown soldiers. On one end is the name of Ormson Brown 1839, on the other end is the inscription of eight Union soldiers died in the St. Johns Hospital in 1865.

There are two benches which are memorials to soldiers. One is inscribed To Honor Leonard Bond, the other one is to Honor Corp. Wm. Shipley U.S. Army Signal Corps in 1962.

The monuments, benches, parade, sermon, gun salutes, taps and all stand for a very large number of people, thankful to those who have fought for their safety. As we honor them, let us not forget the thousands who are in hospitals, bedridden, in wheel chairs, legless, armless, and let us not forget those whose lives were so rudely interrupted to go to defend their country.

As we celebrate Memorial Day, may God bless them all living and dead for their worthy deeds and may their limitless efforts and glory mark a new and upward milestone toward the peak of Light, Truth, Justice, Brotherhood and Peace.

I hope the boys and girls understand the true meaning of Decoration Day and always take time out to help honor our veterans of all wars.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Burger King responds

Dear Editor,

The Burger King in St. Johns would like to answer the charges made in your paper by Paul Barnes. We believe that Paul's experience was unusual and we will show that Paul caused it to be unusual.

As is our training policy, we start all new employees by working them a few hours a day. As the employee progresses (1-2 weeks) we increase their hours to the level specified upon hiring. However, we never intended Paul (age 19) to work anything more than part-time. This was made clear to him in his initial interview. Paul agreed to work part-time and was hired on this basis.

Paul's allegation of illegal withholdings is unfounded. He reported a Lansing address, therefore city taxes were withheld. All Paul had to do was tell someone of his error and it could have been corrected. Unfortunately, he chose not to.

At the end of Paul's first week he related to a manager that he desired to work as a maintenance man because he "didn't like inside work." This manager told him he could come in the following week at 9 a.m. to talk to the present maintenance man. He did come in at nine but, unfortunately for Paul, he was told the present maintenance man did not need an assistant. Paul left and returned late for his regular shift.

When he did finally arrive, he told the store manager that he had just landed a job with a detective agency in Lansing and would have to quit. It was then decided that further training was senseless and Paul left, presumably for Lansing. Thus, Paul's experience is regrettable but as I have shown not due to Burger King management.

The Burger King in St. Johns tries to treat all its employees as fairly as possible. We give regular raises, give half price to employees and also provide meals and unlimited free drinks for all working employees. We are also active in the community and have provided food, advertisement,

In accordance with and response to the many requirements contained in Sec. 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (PL 93-112) amended 1974, the following notice is being issued:

The Clinton County Intermediate School District office hereby provides that "no otherwise qualified handicapped individual shall, solely by reason of his/her handicap, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity (including employment) administered by this agency."

Furthermore, please be advised that Mr. Frank Rowell has been designated as the "contact" person for the coordination of the provisions of this act, and will be available to answer questions and handle complaints relative to the "rights" protected by this law. Mr. Rowell can be reached at Clinton County Intermediate School District, 4179 South US-27, St. Johns, Phone 224-6831 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

"NEED A FIX, KIDS..?"

PERSONALITY PROFILE

Singing is more than a hobby

By Sue Kiley
Staff Writer

St. Johns
When Bill Roll plays his guitar he becomes a totally different person.

He becomes caught up with the wholeness of the song, the meaning of the words, and then conveys these feelings through his playing.

With eyes closed, head bent, and foot tapping to the beat, Roll becomes lost in his music. It doesn't matter if he is sitting in a living room playing among friends or leaning up against a tree at the city park strumming his six string alone.

The 20-year-old young man began playing three years ago and never took any sort of lessons. He started with a $15 guitar and a Glen Campbell song book.

"I went to a church camp and heard some friends play," he said. "I knew then I wanted to do that too."

He began practicing four hours a day just by looking at the way the chords were placed above the notes in the book. Bill doesn't know how to read music either.

"Sure there were lots of times I was discouraged," he said. "There were times when I just felt I wasn't going anywhere. In fact, there still are those times."

Two years ago, Roll began playing and singing at weddings. This all came about when his girlfriend, Nancy Warstler, was asked to play for Marsha Pierce and Dave Snyder's wedding. She didn't want to do it alone so she asked Bill. Since then he has played for about 12 weddings, some with Nancy and some without.

That's how Nancy and Bill's romance began also. The couple still play their guitars and end up singing their songs to each other, most of the time with Bill in the lead.

The hardest time the young man had singing was at his own sister's wedding. Becky and Bill are very close and when he sang "If" the marrying couple's favorite song, Becky started to cry.

"I just looked at her and when I saw the tears rolling down her face I started to cry too," he said as he talked from the city park picnic area guitar in hand. "It was pretty hard standing up in front of all those people crying and trying to sing at the same time."

Roll is not content just playing amateur anymore and would like to pursue a career in the music world. "It's just too expensive right now though," explained the 1976 St. Johns graduate. "Cutting a record costs $2,000 alone."

Since he has been playing, the full time salesman at Clinton Automotive, has written eight songs. Mostly they deal with life as he sees it, the times he and Nancy have spent together, or what he wishes he could do.

Anyone familiar with the St. Johns city park knows they can see Roll on any given day clad in blue jeans and denim shirt playing his guitar and singing.

"Sometimes when I'm depressed I'll play and it will mellow my mood right out," he said. "You have to put yourself as part of the song like when I'm playing 'Rocky Mountain High' I have to feel I'm in the mountains or when I sing 'My Sweet Lady' I have to be in love."

When Bill is singing in the park people stop by for awhile to listen and as they are leaving they will look at him, smile, and say, "That's really nice."

"It makes it worthwhile when people enjoy your music," the young man commented. "I think they can tell when you put feeling into a song and not just mumble the words. You have to get into it."

Friends are always asking him to play when they are together and even seek him out, mostly finding him at the park.

One thing he does not want to be is a rock and roll singer. "Yeah, sure I like it sometimes, but not to play," he said. "It makes it hard sometimes because that's what kids my age like to hear. I tried it, but all it is for the most part is a lot of screaming."

He would like to start playing Blue Grass music which is a whole different ball game. It makes playing a lot harder.

"I just can't see myself taking lessons from someone else," he said. "Especially after you learn it from scratch your own way."

And then came the end of the interview and he sat there singing. "Just yesterday morning they let me know you were gone. Suzanne, the plans they made put an end to you..." He had remembered my favorite song.

UMW host missionary luncheon

The Bannister United Methodist Women hosted four area churches Wednesday at the church. Approximately 100 were present from Ovid, Elsie, Ashley and Chapin besides the host church. A salad luncheon was served at 12:30 p.m. on tables appropriately decorated with Easter theme.

President Anabel Peck and Vice-president Gayle Green served as greeters for the occasion. Hostesses Gertrude Hofferbert, Marjorie Glowney and Mildred Bradley were in charge of the luncheon and had also decorated the tables.

Immediately following the luncheon, the program was presented in the sanctuary. Central District officers portrayed "The Five Mary's". Two of the group served as soloists. Those performing were Virginia May of Six Lakes, Pat Hippensteel of Pewamo, Marbeth Hynes of St. Johns, Maxine Leydorf of Bannister, and Betty Clover, Margaret Seidelman and Joanne Boehlke of Ionia.

The background represented a garden which had been furnished by many local women. Plants had been brought in by car and truckload. The setting was so impressive that it was used for Maundy services Thursday evening and also the Sunday morning worship services.

Two other District officers were present for the day. Hope Moore of Alma had served as stage manager and Nancy Hehrer of Elsie had served as back-up person in previous performances. All nine officers were presented with a corsage by Vice-president Gayle Green.

P-W SMASH-ers place second in state competition

Westphalia
Pewamo - Westphalia "SMASH" students (Students of Michigan Attaining Safer Highways) traveled to Sugar Loaf Mountain for a conference on highway safety.

Six students who attended were: Vicky Freund, Tina Thelen, Norma Fedewa, Janet Rademacher, Mary Weber, Yvonne Schafer and advisor, Mrs. Sherri Dible.

At an awards banquet on Friday, the P-W students received a second place trophy for their achievements in the state of Michigan for highway safety for the 1977-1978 school year. They felt this a real accomplishment because the program has only been at P-W for six months.

May 11-13 were busy days for these students with a variety of activities. Some of the activities included going to workshops, which helped them understand the importance of publicity and how to get it. They saw films concerning project C.A.R.E. (Combined Accident Reduction Effort) and the speakers they listened to were well prepared and got their points across very well.

The importance of wearing safety belts was a main topic brought out effectively by Sgt. Jack Ware, M.S.P. Bay City. The breathalyzer test was given to one of their of-age students, Tina Thelen, and their advisor, Mrs. Dible. A debate on whether to change the drinking age was discussed and the results were that the SMASH students of Michigan are in favor of changing the drinking age to 19.

On Thursday evening they had a dance and on Friday they had a talent show which gave them an opportunity to meet several new people.

Right now SMASH is growing in popularity and P-W hopes to keep it going. They feel this organization is a first step toward more highway safety.

Cachet for Philip Parmelee being designed by Lansing man

By Shirley Karber

A "cachet," you say, WHAT'S THAT?

Well, a philatelist, stamp collector, knows, and when you want to learn more you go to an expert-in this case Jack T. Crosby, of Lansing. Crosby will be designing a cachet for aviation pioneer Philip Orin Parmelee by authorization of the Central Michigan Philatelic Society. Crosby has designed others including one for the 50th anniversary flight of Charles Lindbergh.

A cachet is a special design placed on the left one-third side of an envelope commemorating either a historic event or anniversary. Crosby will study photos and texts of Parmelee's early aviation career for a long time and then says when he feels ready he will do the actual design in about 30 minutes.

It is hoped the cachet will be ready for the dedication of the state historical marker sometime this fall. Orders for the Parmelee cachet will be taken through trade papers, designated persons and are usually sold at the event, costs running 40 to 60 cents each.

Crosby said, "If you had a piece of the mail carried by Parmelee, on March 2-3, 1912, from Sacramento, California Agricultural Park Aviation Meet to West Oak Park, a distance of one mile, it has a book value of $225 today and you'd be darn lucky to find it at that price."

Collectors study history through stamps, and cachets. Each has an individual character and meaning, but age does not necessarily mean it has more value. Crosby says, "It's basically how rare the item is that determines its cost. Although most depression-era items are high because people couldn't afford to buy stamps in the 30's."

Crosby has so many ribbons, trophies, and awards he's never taken time to count. how many, but they represent honors for his vast collection, that is neatly filed and labeled with history.

"In May 1918, the citizen paid 24 cents for an airmail stamp, two cents to send a regular letter, and for years the post card sold for a penny. The hobby has been called 'The King of Hobbies' because the king of England was once a collector," Crosby said.

The Parmelee cachet will probably receive nationwide acceptance and Crosby added, he will likely receive orders from several foreign countries as well.

Jack T. Crosby of Lansing will be contributing his artistic talents on behalf of Philip Parmelee, noted early aviation hero of the early 1900's when he designs a special cachet in his honor. Crosby is a noted authority on stamps and cachets.

I think I would like to become a

St. Johns
It isn't every day that you have the President of the United States, an astronaut, an oceanographer, a magician and a forest ranger in your classroom.
But, on Career Day in Miss Mary Kempter's classroom of 11 and 12-year-old students in St. Joseph Elementary School in St. Johns, all these professionals and more were present.
Andy Brockmyre has decided he would like to be President of the United States and so he wrote a report and gave an oral presentation to his class on the qualifications of a President.

Each of the students was required to investigate a profession which interests them through research in the library, reference books and area residents practicing in the profession during the two-week unit on careers.
Designed to teach students about various careers and their requirements, the Career Day also gave students an opportunity to dress like the career they had chosen to study.
The President carried a centerpiece of flags, the oceanographer carried sea shells, the magician wore a black cloak, the grocery store manager wore a white apron, the astronomer brought a telescope and the disc jockey wore headphones.

Also in the class were eight farmers, two engineers, two teachers, a mechanic, two police detectives, a banker, a baker, two carpenters, an 18-wheeler truck driver and a housewife.
This was the first Career Day at that school.

Pope new O-E coach; MacKenzie leaves SJ

Clinton County Ovid-Elsie has hired a new football coach, but other County schools are still in the market after a series of resignations.

The Ovid-Elsie Board of Education Monday approved the hiring of Russell Pope as varsity football coach, replacing Tony Nastase, who resigned at the April 24 board meeting.

Pope, a native of St. Johns, graduated from St. Johns High School in 1956 and has a master's degree in counseling from Central Michigan University.

Pope joined the Ovid-Elsie schools in 1965, and has been a football coach for 12 of his 13 years in the system. He has been head junior varsity coach, varsity assistant, freshman coach and held other positions.

Pope, along with his wife Sally, his two sons and daughter live in St. Johns.

St. Johns High School is just beginning to look for a replacement for head basketball coach Doug MacKenzie who resigned last week to take a position in private industry.

MacKenzie, a graduate of the University of Michigan, was hired last June from Madison Heights Lamphere High School. He led the Redwings to a 9-10 record last season.

Steve Bakita, St. Johns athletic director, said he has posted the job position to the staff and they have until Friday to apply for the basketball vacancy or openings for the varsity wrestling, girls' tennis and girls' junior varsity basketball positions.

St. Johns may decide to go outside of the system for candidates after the present staff has had a chance to apply, Bakita said. DeWitt High School is also in the market for a basketball coach, as Terry Gale resigned from the Panther's helm earlier this month.

Gale who has been varsity basketball coach for the past five years and assistant football coach, will be moving to Florida to go into the real estate and security sales profession. According to Athletic Director George Noch, DeWitt hopes to name Gale's successor as soon as possible.

Okemos
St. Johns gained a share of its first regional tennis title in 13 years last weekend as the Redwings tied Okemos for the title.

Okemos, the defending regional and Capital Circuit champion, handed St. Johns its only dual match loss early in the season, was third with 17.

Eaton Rapids and Holt had 9, Charlotte 8, Hartland 3, Durand, Lakewood, and Chelsea 2, and Corunna 0.

St. Johns trailed by just a point after the first day of play, but the Redwings had a chance to make up ground by meeting the Chiefs head-to-head in the finals four times. St. Johns took two of them. The Redwings had finalists in five of the seven flights, and won three championships.

One of those champions was Bryan Salminen, who won the second flight singles. He beat Alan Pittel of Hartland in the first round 6-3, 6-2, beat Tim Hatton of Okemos in the semi-finals 3-6, 6-2, 6-2, and defeated Jay Braman of Mason in the finals 6-3, 6-4.

Jim Vitous won the title in the third singles flight. He opened with a win over Todd McCoy of Charlotte 6-2, 6-0, beat Tod Miller of Mason 6-2, 6-4, and beat Grant Walters of Okemos in the finals 6-2, 6-3.

The final Redwing champion was the third doubles team of Kurt Stork and Jason Livingston. They beat Ide and Fowler of Eaton Rapids 6-2, 6-0, defeated Hopp and O'Brien of Mason 6-4, 6-4, and won in the finals against Bera and Berkeimer of Okemos 7-6, 6-4.

Jim Dedyne was runnerup in the fourth singles flight. He beat Lakewood's Jeff Heide 6-1, 6-0, and Mike Armstead of Eaton Rapids 6-4, 6-4. Dedyne lost to Rick Welsch of Okemos in the finals 6-4, 6-3.

The top doubles team of Alan Gove and Jeff Swears was also second. They beat Jonikas and Norton of Hartland 6-2, 6-4, and Kean and Van Horn of Mason 6-2, 6-3. They also lost to Okemos in the finals, dropping a match to Deans and Vandermeer 6-3, 6-1.

Tim Halfmann went to the semifinals before losing. He beat Mark Ward of Eaton Rapids 6-1, 7-6 in the first round, but fell to Tom Schultz of Okemos 6-3, 6-4.

In the second doubles flight, Ron Moon and Jon Salminen beat Spaniola and Cook of Corunna 6-1, 6-2, but lost in the quarter finals to Pentecost and Conklin of Holt 6-2, 6-0.

The entire Redwing team will compete in the State finals at Holland High School June 2-3.

Also, St. Johns won two dual matches last week, beating Lansing Everett 6-1 on May 16 and Holt 4-3 May 17.

Against Everett, Halfmann beat Scott Cler 6-4, 6-4, Brian Salminen beat John Kanallitsas 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, Vitous beat Mark Ott 6-4, 6-3, and Dedyne beat Gary Fausset 6-1, 6-2.

In doubles, Gove and Swears beat Bob Rogowski and Jan Anderson 6-3, 6-3, and Stork and Livingston beat Dennis Kocsis and Bob Schafer 6-3, 6-2. Moon and Jon Salminen fell to Troy Camburn and Matt Kaufman 7-6, 3-6, 6-2.

The Redwings ran their dual record to 10-1 with the win over Holt. Halfmann beat Hap Hausch 2-6, 6-4, 7-5, Bryan Salminen beat Mike Taylor 6-2, 6-1, and Vitous beat Jeff York 6-3, 6-2. In doubles, Gove and Swears beat Todd Jackson and Bob Reutter 6-4, 5-7, 6-3.

Dedyne dropped a 6-1, 6-2 match to Mike Havens, Moon and Jon Salminen lost to Chris Conklin and Greg Pentecost 6-4, 6-1, and Stork and Livingston were beaten by Dave Freely and Jeff Kressler 6-3, 7-6.

DeWitt track team takes regional

Michigan Center
DeWitt's boys' track team scored in nine events and qualified events for state finals to win the Class C regional held here Saturday.

The Panthers rolled up 39½ points, with Bath second at 36 points and Perry third with 31.

DeWitt accomplished that without the services of junior hurdler Tony Faggion, who missed the meet because of the measles. Coach Kim Spalsbury said Faggion probably would have brought the Panthers points in both the high and low hurdles had he been healthy.

Dave Wilson was certainly healthy, however, as he took home three first place medals. He won the 880 in 1:57.2, tying his own school record. Wilson's time is the fastest in that event in the area.

Wilson also won the mile run, coming in at 4:29.4, and he anchored the winning mile relay team. Scott Tallman, Ron Hensley, John Enderle, along with Wilson, won in 3:34.6, despite a downpour during the race.

Winning seconds for DeWitt were Roland Hensley, two-mile, 9:51.5; Ron Hensley, 880, 1:58.6; and Tallman, 440, 52.7.

Ron Hensley high-jumped 6-2 for fourth place, but still qualified for fourth place on the basis of the height he cleared. He also finished fourth in the mile run in 4:36.9, but did not qualify for the state championships.

Enderle's time of 53.5 in the 440 gave him a share of fourth place, but he qualified for state with his fifth-place throw of 134-1 in the discus.

The 880 relay team of Mark Willson, Mike Schaar, John Lass and Tallman was fifth at 1:38.0, Lass was fifth in the 100-yard dash in 10.7, and Roland Hensley was fifth in the mile with a time of 4:37.4.

Coach Spalsbury said that though the Panthers won the regional title without Faggion, his absence may cost DeWitt the state crown at the final meet June 3 at Michigan Center.

"With Tony, we had a very good shot at the team title," he said. "Without him, we lose placing potential in two races. But we still have a shot at the top five."

Spalsbury said Dave Wilson has definite first place potential, that Roland and Ron Hensley could both place high and that the 440 relay team could do well if it smooths out its handoffs.

Bath High School is sending seven events to the state finals, including two regional champions. Gregg Tarrant took the high jump, while Reggie Clark won the 100-yard dash.

Clark was also third in the pole vault, Tarrant third in the long jump, Jeff Kloeckner was third in the 100-yard dash and Gregg McGarey third in the mile. The Bees' mile relay team also was third.

Ron Easlick placed fourth in the discus, but qualified for state because of the distance.

Bath is at the Ingham County League meet today at Pinckney, and tomorrow the freshmen and sophomores are at Ovid-Elsie for an invitational. DeWitt runs against Haslett Thursday in the last Capital Circuit meet.

Only Tuff-Kote rustproofs used cars... twice.

Because only Tuff-Kote has the 2-Step System.
It's difficult to effectively rustproof a used car. That's why many rustproofers don't want anything to do with them.

At Tuff-Kote, we rustproof used cars probably better than anyone else in the world. That's because we rustproof every used car twice. The secret is our exclusive 2-Step System.

Step 1. Penetrant stops existing rust.

Ordinary rustproofing compounds merely cover up rust that's already formed.

At Tuff-Kote we apply a unique penetrant which creeps down to the bare metal, displaces moisture, and actually stops existing rust in its tracks.

Step 2. Sealant stops new rust.

Secondly, Tuff-Kote rustproofers apply a sealant to keep new rust from starting. It locks out moisture, salt, grime, and all other corrosive elements.

Used car warranty.

Tuff-Kote's 2-Step System is so effective at fighting rust, we even guarantee our work on used cars with a 2 year limited warranty. So don't trust your used car with any other rustproof. Bring it to Tuff-Kote. We'll rustproof it twice with our 2-Step System. And no one else in the world does that.

Only the world's largest automotive rustproofers rustproofs your car twice.

Fulton loses twice in CMAC softball

Webberville
Fulton's softball team dropped two CMAC games last week, falling to Olivet 16-11 and to Webberville 12-5.

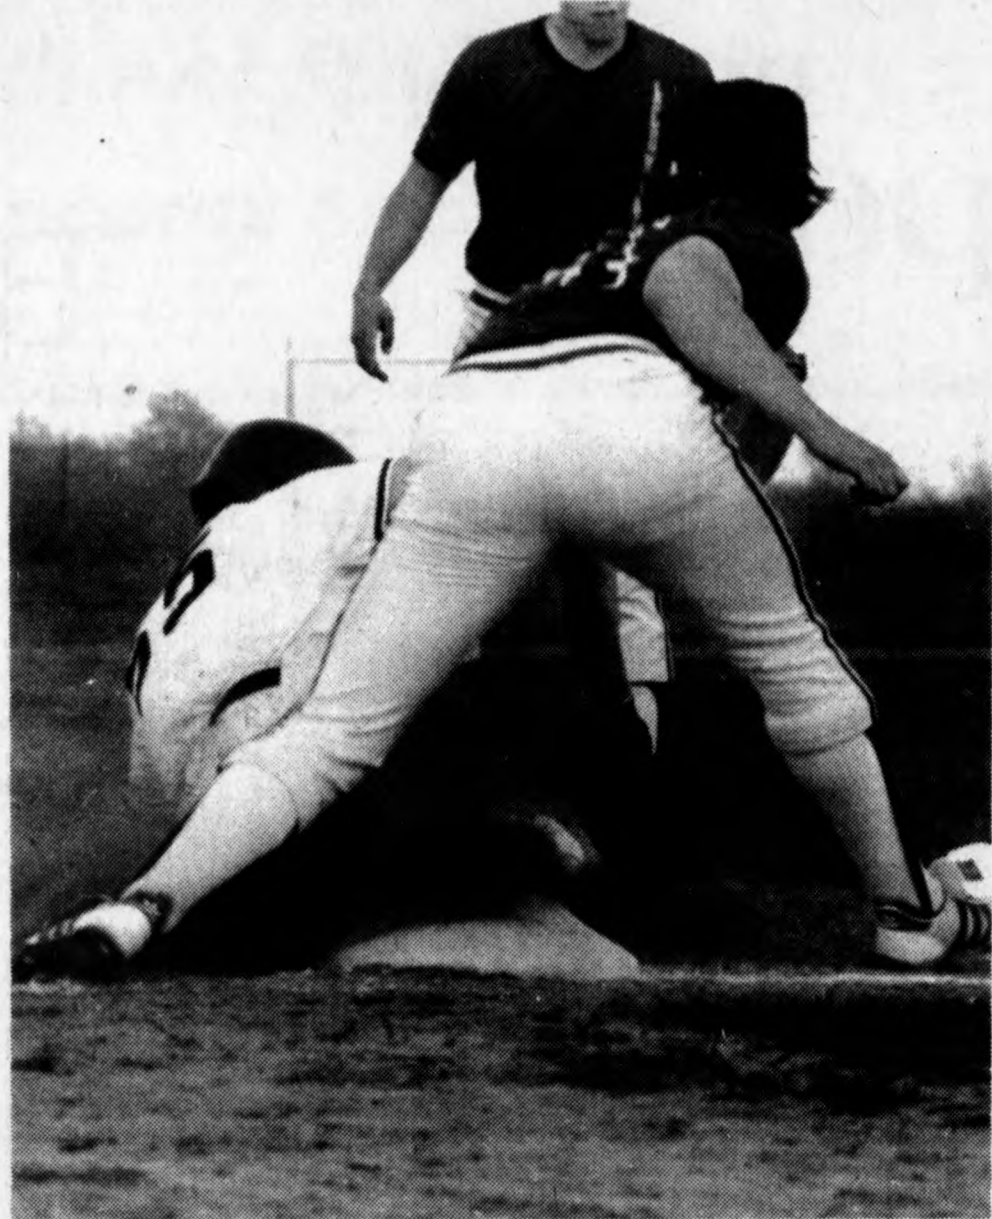

Against Olivet, Chris Hunt was the top hitter with three for three with one run scored. Sarah Ondrus was two for five with two runs and two RBIs, Jennifer Ely was two for five with three RBIs and one run scored, Sarah Ondrus was two for five with two runs and two RBIs, Janet Fricke was two for five with two RBIs and one run, Jill Moore had two hits and scored three times, and Ronna Gallagher didn't have a hit but scored three runs.

In the loss to Webberville, seven Pirates had one hit. Ondrus drove in two runs and had a hit, as did Hunt. Sue Whitford had one RBI, while Moore and Fricke each scored once.

Moore was the losing pitcher in both games. Friday Fulton hosts Shepherd in predistrict play at Maple Rapids, with the game set for 4:30

SJ takes 2 from Marauders

In for the tag

St. Johns
Ovid-Elsie's baseball fans would do well to hang on to their seats until the final out, because lately the Marauders' games have been going down to the wire. Unfortunately for O-E, and fortunately for St. Johns and Corunna, the Marauders have been coming up short.
On May 16 O-E rallied for four runs in the top of the ninth but still lost to Corunna 9-8. Thursday O-E had two fifth-inning leads only to drop a double header to St. Johns 8-7 and 8-6.

In the opener against St. Johns, the Redwings took a 4-1 lead on some timely hitting and some shoddy O-E fielding. But the Marauders came back, aided by a shaky St. Johns defense, and took a 6-4 lead going into the bottom of the seventh.
But St. Johns came back to score four unearned runs that inning, with the winning runs sent home by winning pitcher Dan Lee, who had two hits.

Brian Byrnes was the losing pitcher, although he allowed only one earned run. Both pitchers had three walks and five strikeouts. Byrnes allowed six hits, Lee allowed nine.
O-E committed five errors, St. Johns made three. In the second game St. Johns was forced to come from behind, as O-E jumped to a rare five-run first inning lead. But that was all the Marauders could get for quite a while, and by the end of the sixth inning the Redwings had pushed themselves on top 7-5.

Brad Hudecek put the Marauders back in the game in the top of the seventh with a two-run home run, his fifth of the season. That tied the O-E school record set by Mike Fabus last year.

But O-E let St. Johns slip by in the seventh. Pat Sipkovsky walked and two errors brought him home with the winning run.
Mike Greene was the winning pitcher, while Dan Fabus, who relieved John Micka, took the loss for O-E.
St. Johns had six hits, two by Albert Ott. O-E had ten hits, with Dirk Besko and Matt Fabus each getting two.

Both teams played a lot of second-stringers, and that showed in the line score. O-E again had five errors, while St. Johns had four.

One-run losses are always frustrating, and O-E's defeat at the hands of Corunna must have been more frustrating than usual. O-E trailed 9-4 going into the top of the seventh, but came back to pull within one, leaving runners on first and second with nobody out.

Then Dan Fabus popped a short fly to right field. The outfielder appeared to be in position to catch it, but he lost it in the sun and the ball fell to the ground.

The right fielder threw the ball to second for a force, the relay to third base got the runner headed for third, and O-E was left with just one runner on first and two out, and that ended the rally.

The Hudecek brothers paced the Ovid-Elsie attack. Brad had three singles in four at-bats, while Mike was two for three.

Perry Salyer, making his first mound appearance in more than a month after a track injury, took the loss. He was wild, as was to be expected for his first outing, walking five and striking out three.

Thursday St. Johns hosts perennial power Mt. Pleasant in a doubleheader, then Friday afternoon both O-E and St. Johns begin pre-district action, both against familiar foes. O-E is at home against Bullock Creek, while St. Johns entertains Alma.

Haslett
The DeWitt tennis team split its dual matches last week, defeating Ithaca 6-1, and losing to Haslett 5-2. The Panthers also competed in the Capital Circuit League and the Regional meets. DeWitt placed sixth in the league meet, ahead of Lansing Catholic Central and Howell. At regionals, the Panthers placed fifth.

Against Ithaca, number one Mike Ferland edged his opponent, 7-6, 3-6, 7-5. Marty Lass was not as successful, however, losing 7-5, 5-7, 6-7. Kurt Hofmeister played Mark Mandrick and Dean Ward played number-one doubles and won 6-1, 6-1. At second doubles, Dennis Wisner and Mark Szalajeski pulled out a close match, 7-6, 7-5. Steve Platt and Steve Sadler won their third doubles match, 6-1, 6-4.

At first singles, Ferland lost his match against Haslett 6-0, 6-4. Lass lost in three sets, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, as did Mandrick, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4. Ward won at fourth singles, 6-3, 6-3.

Wiser and Szalajeski were victorious at first singles,

6-4, 6-7, 6-3. Hofmeister and Thornton dropped a 6-3, 6-3 decision at second doubles, as did Platt and Sadler at number-three, 6-4, 6-4.

In the league meet, which Okemos won handily, Ferland lost his match at number-one, 6-0, 6-0 to Eaton Rapids. At second singles, Lass met with the same fate, losing to the eventual champion from Mason, 6-0, 6-0. Mandrick dropped a 6-3, 6-2 decision to Howell, and Ward did the same to Lansing Catholic Central 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, at third and fourth singles respectively.

The doubles teams fared a little better than did the singles. Wiser and Szalajeski defeated their opponents from Eaton Rapids 6-4, 6-2, but then lost to the champions from Okemos, 6-0, 6-1. Hofmeister and Thornton also won their first match 6-3, 6-3 from Howell, but lost to Okemos 6-2, 6-0. Platt and Sadler lost at Number three doubles, 6-1, 6-4, to number one seed Haslett. Haslett hosted the regionals, which Battle Creek Springfield won by one point over Haslett. At first singles, Ferland was beaten by Lansing Catholic Central 6-0, 6-2. Marty Lass had a bye the first round, then defeated his opponent from Haslett in the second round, but lost in the semifinals, 6-2, 6-1.

In the first round by Springfield 6-3, 6-3. Ward drew a Bye the first round, defeated the number one seed from Augusta, 6-1, 7-5, in the second round but lost to LCC in the semifinals 6-2, 6-2.

At first doubles, Wiser and Szalajeski defeated the opposing team from Potterville, 6-4, 6-3, but lost to number-two seeded Olivet 6-4, 6-2. Thornton and Hofmeister rolled over their first opponents from Leslie, 6-0, 6-1, at second doubles, but then lost a long three-setter to Haslett 6-2, 3-6, 6-0.

The number-three doubles team of Platt and Sadler whipped their first opponents from Maple Valley 6-0, 6-1, and defeated LCC 6-3, 6-3 in the second round. They lost in the semi-finals to Haslett 6-3, 6-1.

The Panthers take a 7-4 record into their last match of the season with Charlotte.

Fowler girls win 2

Fowler
Timely hitting and Webberville walks combined to give Fowler a 5-2 CMAC softball victory May 16.

The Eagles had trouble with the Spartan pitching, striking out 12 times, but Fowler drew five walks and followed them up with run-producing singles.

"Their pitcher was really consistent," Fowler Coach Betsy Smith said, "but the five walks all came at the wrong time. They set up all our runs."

Lynette Thelen drove two of those runs home with a single, while Kat Schmitt was two for three with a triple and an RBI. Sophomore Sandy Thelen was two for two, with two stolen bases and two RBIs.

Jane Goerge was the winning pitcher.

Thursday the Eagles host Laingsburg, and Tuesday they entertain Beal City in a pre-district game.

Bath girls 2nd

Fowlerville
Bath's girls' track team was second in a three-way Ingham County League meet held Thursday. Fowlerville was first with 63 points, Bath second with 55 and Dansville far behind with 27.

Winning first for Bath were Tammy Burdick, shotput, 35-6½; Ruth Miehke, discus, 96-8; Kathy Nichols, 880 run, 2:35; and Fuett, hurdles, 16.2.

Also, Nichols, mile run, 5:52; and the 440 relay team of Cindy Cullimore, Leanne Vietzki, Renee Fouch and Dawn Cooley.

Fowler drops one to St Pat

Fowler
Fowler may have dropped two of its last three baseball games, but Coach Jim Wetmore says his team is still headed in the right direction.

Fowler lost to Olivet 3-2, but came back to beat Webberville Saturday 10-9 in eight innings. Then Monday the Eagles narrowly missed upsetting the CMAC's top team, falling to Portland St. Patrick 7-6, also in eight innings.

Don Schrauben pitched an outstanding game against Olivet, according to Wetmore, allowing three hits, no earned runs and scoring eight strikeouts. But he didn't get much support from either his fielders or the offense—Fowler got only four hits—one more than Schrauben allowed—and committed eight errors.

"Don pitched a super ball game," Wetmore said. "He's had three excellent ball games and one bad outing, and that's the one he won."

Mark Schrauben, who is batting over .400 for the Eagles, had a pair of hits that game. He has had two hits in all but one league game. Dan Braun, another .400-plus hitter, had one hit.

But a feeble offense wasn't a problem Saturday—for either team. Webberville had 14 hits, and Fowler 15.

Ed Van Ells started for Fowler, but was lifted after two and 1-3 innings, replaced by winning pitcher Jeff Thelen.

Fowler was behind most of the game, but the Eagles kept creeping back on the Spartans. Down 6-2 in the third, Fowler made the score 9-6 going into the sixth, when the Eagles added two more runs.

He went to second on a ground out, stole third and came home on Mark Schrauben's RBI single.

Jim Theis had three hits, including a triple, and scored twice. Mark Schrauben had three hits with a triple, scored twice and drove home two runs, Dan Braun had two hits and two RBIs. Neil Thelen had a tape-measure home run in the fifth inning, which traveled over the center field bleachers (a 400-footer," according to Wetmore) and sent in three runs. Weber had two hits, including a triple.

"We had four errors," Wetmore said. "But some of those were questionable. We were hustling, played overall good team defense and I was pleased with the way the team fought back."

The St. Patrick game, Wet-

more said, had a bit of everything—strong pitching, good defense, plenty of hitting and lots of runs scored. The pitching was on display first, as Don Schrauben and the Shamrocks' Dave Pung struck out 11 of the first 21 batters they faced. The defense shone throughout—both teams were errorless.

Fowler took a 2-1 lead going into the fifth, but in that inning St. Patrick's scored five times and Fowler again had to play catch-up.

And again the Eagles were successful. They picked up one in the sixth, then tied the game with three in the seventh. Mark Schrauben had an RBI single for the first run that inning, Braun had an RBI double to send in the second, and a wild pitch tied the game.

Wild pitches also played part in the final Shamrock run. Chris Schrauben walked in the eighth, moved to second and third on two wild pitches and scored on a force out when he slid under the catcher's tag on the relay home.

St. Patrick won the league title with only one loss. Fulton finished a game behind.

Fowler's next task is to knock off once-beaten Mt. Pleasant Sacred Heart Saturday morning in pre-district play in Mt. Pleasant, and Wetmore thinks that is possible.

"We've had a rough time lately, but we've played good ball the last two games and we're moving into the tournament playing well. If we keep playing good ball, we've got a good shot at Sacred Heart."

Bath scores win

Williamston
Bath's baseball team picked up its second win of the year and its first Ingham County League victory when the Bees took the second half of a doubleheader from Williamston 7-5. Bath dropped the opener 8-4.

The Bath offense was led by Don Cronk and Gregg Covell, who each had two-run home runs.

Jon Means was the winning pitcher, allowing six hits, five walks and collecting five strikeouts.

He was aided by the defensive play of center fielder Frank Beachnau, who made two diving catches, one in the bottom of the seventh inning to prevent a Hornet rally.

Thursday Bath entertains Pottsville, then Friday the Bees are at home against Leslie in a pre-district tournament game.

P-W track teams split CMAC pair

Laingsburg
Pewamo - Westphalia's boys' and girls' track teams each split a pair of CMAC meets last week, and the boys qualified two athletes for the state finals June 3.

The boys beat Portland St. Patrick 128-20 and lost to Laingsburg 95-63, while the girls beat the Shamrocks 82-20 and fell to Laingsburg 78-51.

And in Saturday's regionals at Tri-County High School in Howard City, Tom Spencer was second in the discus at 141-6 and Gary Schafer was third in the 330 low hurdles at 41.2 to qualify for the state finals June 3.

Schafer also finished fifth in the 220, but that was not good enough to qualify for state. The girls were shut out at regionals.

In the CMAC duals for the boys, Spencer was a double winner in the discus with a throw of 138-0. Schafer won the high jump and low hurdles in both duals, and Kurt Bengel was the overall winner in the two-mile.

Winning just against St. Patrick were Spencer, shot-put, 39-1; Steve Kimball, pole vault, 10-6, his top height of the year; Todd Droste, 880, 2:19; Schafer, 100-yard dash, 10-7, and 220, 24.9; Kimball, 440, 58.4; Bengel, mile run, 5:14; and Eugene Spitzley, high hurdles, 19.2.

Both the boys and girls are at Olivet today for the CMAC league meet.

Fulton's baseball team appears to be near the top of its game as tournaments approach, as the Pirates won three more games last week.

May 15 the Pirates beat Olivet 5-2. Thursday they defeated Webberville 10-0, and Saturday they beat Ithaca in a nonleague game 5-2.

Senior pitcher Randy Troub was masterful against Olivet, striking out 16 batters, tying a school record, without allowing a walk. The complete games was Troub's third straight win.

The Pirates didn't get much hitting, scoring seven hits to just four for Olivet. Terry Hnetyka was the leader with two hits and two RBIs, while Larry Fisk had a double, a triple and an RBI.

Troub ran his league record to 5-2 by getting the win against Webberville. He struck out eight and allowed just two hits and two walks in the five-inning game.

Again, sophomore Larry Fisk had a strong offensive game, as he went two for three with a double and three RBIs. Jerry Winsor had a double and two RBIs.

The Pirates could only manage two hits against Ithaca in the nonleague game Saturday, but they were helped by four errors and a number of wild pitches. Gary Moore pitched a strong game, striking out

P-W raises record

Westphalia
Dave Bengel picked up two more wins for Pewamo-Westphalia's baseball team last week, as the Pirates raised their season's record to 9-6.

Bengel stopped Potterville on just one hit as P-W whipped Potterville 16-0 on May 16, while the next day Bengel pitched four strong innings of relief to take a 8-4 win over Saranac.

Bengel Faced just 16 batters in the five-inning game against Potterville. He struck out six and allowed only two men to reach first base.

P-W attacked Viking pitching for 15 hits, with Mike Belen leading the way with four singles and four RBIs. Bill Simon had two hits and drove in two runs, while Dan Miller and Scott Simon had two hits each.

The Pirates jumped off to an early lead against Saranac and never trailed. Dave Shepherd had two doubles, a single and four RBIs, while Tim Bengel had a double, a single and scored three runs.

P-W, now 4-3 in the CMAC, hosts Portland Thursday.

P-W beats Potterville

Westphalia

Dietician honored for service

By Elaine VanDyk

Maxine Parmelee, dietician at Clinton Memorial Hospital who is retiring this year, was honored Wednesday evening, May 17, at the Clinton Memorial Hospital Auxiliary meeting, with a certificate honoring her service.

The certificate was presented by Katie Aylsworth, president of Meals On Wheels. A check for $100 donated to the hospital in Maxine's honor was also presented.

Maxine has given her service, dedication, and willing assistance to the Meals On Wheels Program in St. Johns since the program's founding in June of 1973. The program has provided a total of 2,111 meals since January of this year.

Maxine was most instrumental in the founding of the program and has been most influential and helpful in the programs growth to its current service to the community of St. Johns.

Meals on Wheels, a non-profit organization, is funded by the Hospital Auxiliary and staffed by a hard working group of St. Johns community women who volunteer their time and talents to the program. The program provides delivery of warm and nutritious meals prepared and planned by Maxine and the dietician staff at Clinton Memorial Hospital to community members needing such service.

Hawks attends seminar

Richard Hawks attended a three-day insurance seminar for the State Farm Insurance Companies of Marshall, on May 15-18.

This seminar was held to provide continuing education to the agents in attendance. The subject matter treated not only the technical aspects of insurance, but also presented an opportunity to evaluate new business techniques to better service the needs of his many clients. Agent Richard Hawks has been servicing the insurance needs of the people of the St. Johns area over the last 12 years.

He is a member of the Baptist Church. He is also a member of the Clinton County Board of Commissioners and a Clinton Memorial Hospital Trustee. He lives with his wife, Dawn, and four children at 14275 Chandler Road, St. Johns.

1,249 residents pick up the pieces

St. Johns Denise Cerny, Clinton County Roadside Clean-up coordinator, reports that the 1978 roadside beautification projects was a success. Over 1,200 youth and adults in 50 different groups joined forces to combat litter marring Clinton County roadsides recently. 4-H clubs, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, church groups, and individuals endorsed this project by picking up the pieces of litter left as remembrances of a winter past. These groups, making a conscious effort to preserve the beauty of the environment, retrieved over 100 pick up loads of trash from the 304 miles covered. Cerny noted that a similar clean up campaign by tax supported institutions would have cost upwards of $35,000. She was quick to add that although all clean-up participants were volunteers, the projects would not have been possible without the support of many organizations.

The Clinton County Road Commission supplied trucks to haul the litter and sponsored participation ribbons, while McDonald's of St. Johns gave each litter fighter a free hamburger coupon and furnished trash bags.

The National Guard 72nd Support Center R.A.O. provided trucks and manpower, and the Granger, Greenbush and Randolph Landfills made dumping sites available.

"I hope that these people will continue their efforts in helping to make this a litterless year!" said Cerny. The support and participation of all residents is now needed to keep the roadsides uncluttered by trash.

DeWitt Twp farmer receives dairy award

Wilbur Van Zee (left) receives a special plaque from Harold Wood, dairy farmer from Marlette in Sanilac County and a member of the Board of Directors of Dairy Council of Michigan. Van Zee is president of the Independent Cooperative Milk Producers Association, Inc. in Grand Rapids and a DeWitt Township resident.

DeWitt Twp. DeWitt Township farmer Wilbur Van Zee was awarded the 1978 Dairy Council of Michigan's Service Award at the Dairy Council's 53rd annual meeting last Wednesday, May 17, in Dearborn. Van Zee, who resides at 3090 W. Stoll Rd., farms 800 acres with three of his six sons and a son-in-law. He and his wife, Marge, also have three daughters and 21 grandchildren. The 1978 DCM service award recipient was a member of the Dairy Council of Southern Michigan's Board of Directors when it was formed in 1963 until it merged with Dairy Council of Detroit to form the Dairy Council of Michigan. He was a member of the Dairy Council's Board of Directors until 1972. For two years he served as president of the American Dairy Association of Michigan and is still on the Board of Directors. He is also a member of the Board of directors of the Associated Reserve Standby Pool, and was on the Board of Review for some time. He has been a member of the Independent Co-operative Milk Producers Association's Board of Directors since 1959, and its president since 1972.

completely corrected.

Following are some precautions that can be taken:

1. Install eave troughs or repair old troughs and downspouts so water will not run down along the foundation and seep through the wall.
2. Be sure the ground slopes away from the house so rain water and melting snow will run away from the foundation. Many times when new houses are backfilled along the foundation the fill is not compacted and after several years it settles.

3. Put a concrete, plastic or wooden diverter on the ground to direct water from the downspout out from the wall far enough so it runs away from the house.
4. If seepage through the wall is serious, dig down around the foundation wall to the bottom of the footing. Apply a layer of asphalt and heavy paper to the outside of the wall. Install a drain tile line around the house and connect to an outlet which could be a ditch or large field tile. Usually perforated plastic drain tile is used for this purpose and should be placed on a level at or a little below the basement floor and back filled with coarse gravel.

In city homes an outlet might not be available so the end of the tile would come under the wall into a sump in the basement to be pumped to the street curb or in a part of the lawn away from the house.

One final word of caution—make certain the sump pump turns on before the water level reaches the height of the drain tile coming into the sump and periodically check the electrical on-off switch.

"It's like a dream come true," says Village designer-builder Richard Hamill Cedar Village Shopping Center is located on Grand Ledge's south edge. It's a dream come true for Village designer-builder Richard Hamill. The unique Old World, old fashioned charm and architecture blended with the latest in building ingenuity to create a warmth and style not offered anywhere else in the area.

Mr. Hamill and his wife, June, visited Williamsburg in Virginia, Westbury Square in Houston, Old Towne in Chicago and the countryside of England and Scotland; wherever authentic restorations or old buildings could be found, to help bring Grand Ledge this priceless bit of nostalgia.

You will note that one of the shop fronts resembles an English pub and another with its concave glass windows is similar to a general store of days gone by.

The stone work that frames the windows of the book store and furniture store is truly outstanding. The red brick walkways are made from bricks that came from Battle Creek and Detroit renovation projects. The street lights are replicas of the English gas lit street lamps of Dickens era. Designer Hamill created the Village Clock with an Austrian flavor.

The gourmet-gift shop is housed in a Hamill Model vacation home and features polished brick floors and a huge field stone fireplace. A former horse barn has been transformed into an arts & needlework shop. It boasts a new loft and an addition with specially crafted, crooked windows.

Cedar Village's Chinese restaurant's interior is truly interesting with its unusual wooden booths, copper kettle, and the extra dining room complete with rush ceiling, wooden floors and slab lumber chandeliers.

Come to Cedar Village enjoy a walk through the old and new.

Have you ever felt just fantastic without really knowing why? Have you ever walked into a room singing and not even been aware of it? Has a frightfully awful day turned great without your being able to identify the cause? Maybe someone gave you a warm fuzzy and you didn't even realize it.

What is a warm fuzzy? A warm fuzzy is something that make you feel good about yourself and the whole day. It makes you smile from the inside out and definitely promotes a high self-esteem.

Where do warm fuzzies come from? They are something you receive from or give to someone else. Warm fuzzies can be a smile across the room, a wave across the street, a passing hello, a cheerful good morning, a sincere thank you, a hug or a pat on the back. It can be a plant or a flower, a cup of coffee, a photograph, a phone call, or a letter. A warm fuzzy can be as expensive as a dozen roses or as reasonable as a dandelion, as complex as a hand made picnic table or as simple as a kiss.

Think about it! Give someone you know a warm fuzzy today.

Election '78 shaping up in Clinton

By Patrice Hornak
Editor

Clinton County

Even though this is an off-year election year, a number of races for township, county and state seats are promising to draw attention before the Aug. 8 primary and Nov. 7 General Election.

On the county level, the positions of District Court judge, Circuit Court judge, clerk and prosecuting attorney will be up for election. Deadline for filing petitions to run for a county office is June 6.

Already announcing their candidacies were Randy Tahvonen who is seeking the Circuit Court judgeship; and Enid White and Jane Swanchara who are running for county clerk. Prosecuting Attorney Jon Newman is reportedly going to seek a judgeship but has not announced his candidacy yet.

Supervisors, clerks, treasurers and some trustees are also up for election on the township level. Filing for candidacy of a township office must be completed by June 6 also.

Looking to the Michigan House and Senate races, the vacancy of Representative Stanley Powell (R-Ionia) has drawn the attention of four men running for that office including Alan Cropsey, Dave Pohl, John Fox and Jim Koenigsnecht, all Republicans.

Tony Goodman of Eaton Rapids and Denise Arnold who works at the capitol, both Democrats, have announced their candidacy for incumbent Republican Ernest Nash's seat in the Michigan House of Representatives; and also representing a portion of Clinton County is Representative Francis Spaniola.

For the State Senate race, Eaton County Sheriff Art Kelsey and Potterville assessor and barber Kenneth Fry are challenging incumbent Senator Richard Allen. Both Kelsey and Allen will oppose each other in the August 8 Republican primary and then the winner will take on Democrat Fry.

The U.S. Senate race for the seat presently held by Robert Griffin has a host of candidates for the Republican Senator's position. Oakland County prosecutor L. Brooks Patterson will oppose Griffin in the Republican primary; and six others will seek the Democratic nomination.

Running on the Democratic ticket are John Otterbacher, state senator from Grand Rapids; Dudley Buffa, former aide to Senator Phil Hart; Phil Powers, newspaper publisher in Plymouth; Richard Vanderveen, former Congressman from Grand Rapids; Anthony Derezinski, state senator from the 33rd District; and Carl Levin, former president of the Common Council in Detroit; and Paul Rosenbaum, a lawyer from Battle Creek.

Clinton County is represented by four U.S. Representatives including Garry Brown, Harold Sawyer, Bob Carr and Elford Cederberg.

Roger Tilles and Donald Albosta are running against Cederberg; state Representative Mike Tomlin from Jackson is opposing Carr; and Howard Wolpe recently announced his candidacy for Brown's seat.

Persons wishing to vote in the Aug. 8 primary must register by July 10 at 8 p.m. To vote in the Nov. 7 election, persons must register by Oct. 8 at 8 p.m. with their city or township clerk.

On the state level, voters are to be selecting a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, on US Senator, Congressmen, State Senators, State Representatives, State Board of Education members, Regents of the University of Michigan, Trustees of Michigan State University, Governors of Wayne State University, Justices of the Supreme Court, and Judges of the Courts of Appeals.
