Number of student pregnancies on the increase or fewer kept secret?

By TAMI VAN DYKE
MSU Journalism Student
Problem pregnancies among high school students — once considered by many a big city problem — are appearing with greater frequency in small towns like St. Johns.

St. Johns High School Counselor Robert Tisot, Jr., said the number of student pregnancies the counseling staff has learned of has gradually increased over the past several years. This year, he estimated, there are 12 pregnancies at the high school while last year he knew of nine.

Right now, Tisot said, the only program the school has for pregnant students is the alternative education program run by the Community Education Department. The program offers the chance to complete high school to students who for a variety of reasons — including pregnancy — do not fit into the regular high school.

Alternative education students spend 20 hours each week earning credits toward graduation. Pregnant girls participating in the program may earn credit for classes in prenatal care and related subjects, Tisot said.

Most of the girls do not return to high school after giving birth, Tisot said. Instead, the majority go to work in addition to caring for their babies. High school falls by the wayside.

"Most of them we don't see again," said Tisot.

WHEN GIRLS who are pregnant seek help from the guidance counselors at the high school, the counselors try to provide as much help as possible, said Tisot.

"The first thing that any of the three of us do is encourage them to involve the parents immediately," he said.

Many of the girls are reluctant to tell their parents, usually because they are afraid, said Tisot. However, he said, all of the pregnant girls he has counseled did finally agree to tell their parents.

"When a kid goes back and talks to her parents, the next day the kid's a different person," Tisot said. "It's unbelievable."

The parents will often be upset and angry at first, Tisot said, but in most cases they eventually resolve their anger and give the girl needed love and support.

Tisot said nothing counselors do can replace the love and support of parents.

Other than getting the parents involved, Tisot said, there is no set method for helping pregnant teenagers, no steps to follow. Each girl faces such a different set of problems that helping to resolve those problems becomes a highly individualized process, he said.

"Just when you think you understand what's going to happen," Tisot said, "the next one comes along and reacts to it totally differently."

Historical Society recalls

Past trains

The Clinton County Historical Society heard two Clinton County natives — Alden Livingston and Ford Ceasar — speak about historic railroads last Thursday night. Following are excerpts from that presentation:

In 1857 the long-awaited railroad reached St. Johns. Henry M. Perrin, who was to become one of St. Johns leading citizens, was one of the first passengers on the line.

"When my father came to St. Johns in 1857 the railroad only came this far," wrote his daughter, Lucy Palmer, in 1945. "When he got off the train he said, 'Here I'll live and here I'll die.' — and he did."

For the next 100 years the trains were as much a part of St. Johns life as Clinton Avenue. By 1920 there were 12 passenger trains each day going through St. Johns — six going east and six going west. Some of those trains had mail cars, bringing deliveries twice each day to town.

"People often set their watches by the trains coming through town," comments Ford Ceasar.

During the last half of the 19th Century, railroads were making inroads into outlying parts of the county as well. For instance, in the southeast corner of the county there was the Ann Arbor-Lansing-Traverse Bay line. It didn't have a reputation for providing a smooth ride. Folks said ALTB stood for "Awfully long and terribly bumpy."

Also, there was a station on that line in an area known as Chandler's Marsh. When the sleeping accommodations were full, men slept by a big bonfire beside the tracks. One man complained that his boots had been stolen during the night. The station master found the boots, chewed to a pulp, and informed the owner that wolves were the culprit.

In 1886 the Toledo-Ann Arbor line reached Elsie and was an economic boon to that village of 500 people.

Many times, however, railroads were started but never completed. Maple Rapids had its hopes for a railroad dashed several times. In Hubbardston in the 1860s and '70s, men invested fortunes in anticipation of a railroad that never arrived.

In April, 1904, after years of talk about a north-south railroad, an electric railroad came to St. Johns. By the following September the trolley was providing regular service between Lansing and St. Johns. The line lasted 25 years, until 1929.

In 1957 — exactly 100 years after the first steam engine arrived in St. Johns — the last steam engine departed. Clinton County Republican-News staffer Al Haight captured the moment in the photograph at right.

LAST STEAM ENGINE — In 1957, 100 years after the first steam engine pulled a train into St. Johns, the last steam engine passed through town. Clinton County Republican-News photographer Al Haight recorded the event on film. It is believed he was standing on the water tower from which the boilers of the trains were filled. The Painé-Gillam-Scott Museum now has possession of the photograph.

United Way

ST. JOHNS The 1986 Clinton County United Way campaign exceeded its goal by 5.3 percent and exceeded last year's tally by nine percent.

Seventeen county teams, headed by Robert Claycomb, plant manager of Federal Mogul in St. Johns, raised a total of $76,693 — and contributions are still coming in.

Clinton County is part of the Capital Area United Way, which raised $5,912,924 this year — a 6.2 percent increase over last year.

Thanksgiving Service

ST. JOHNS The Community Thanksgiving Service, sponsored annually by the St. Johns Ministerial Association, will be held this year at the Pilgrim United Methodist Church, corner of Parks and DeWitt roads, on Nov. 26 at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Jay Terbush of the First Congregational Church will be the speaker.

Along with the usual free-will offering which enables the Association to do its work, a non-perishable foods offering will also be received to assist the St. Johns Area Food Pantry. The public is invited to attend the service.

The Clinton County News asked a sampling of Clinton County folks what they are thankful for this year. This is what they said:

PHYLLIS NOBIS, receptionist-secretary for the Clinton County Sheriff's Department: "I'm thankful for my husband, my children and my grandchildren...and the freedom which we have in our country. And a lot of other things... I'm thankful for my religious freedom."

JOE KEYES, maintenance man at the Southpoint Mall in St. Johns: "I like to see everybody else in a good mood. This time of year everybody's happy. I guess that's about it."

What're we giving thanks for?

BRENDA MASARIK, secretary for Walker and Moore Attorneys: "I'm thankful for my family and for the health of my family...I'm thankful for my mom and dad and that they brought me up in a Christian home so that I can be thankful for the things that are really important in life. I'm thankful for my son, Eric, and my friends. I'm thankful for the free country that we live in."

HAROLD FINK, resident of Hazel I. Findlay Country Manor: "Well, There are a lot of things I should be thankful for. I'm thankful that I'm here, being taken good care of, good food and a good comfortable bed. What else should I want? ...We went to Henry Ford's world-famous Greenfield Village in Dearborn. Oh, we saw so many, many fabulous things."

MARY RASDALE, cashier at the Speedway Gas Station on US-27: "Well, I'm thankful to have a job. I'm happy to have a big family...I'm happy for my single life."

Chances looking good for a local bird watching group to begin in '87

An effort to begin a local Audubon group for Clinton County appears to be paying off, says Fran Peterson, a spokesperson for the group.

Since a Lansing State Journal article publicized the effort to start the group, ten people have called to say they are interested, she says.

Peterson says the group will begin calling people back after the first of the year to begin organizing the group.

The idea for the group arose when area bird enthusiasts decided a local group would be a nice addition to the Audubon group centered in Lansing.

"Some of our people belong to the Capitol Area Audubon Society and no one is dissatisfied with that," Peterson says. "They may stay in that group too because it has been going for many years and can offer programs a small, new group couldn't."

MANY BIRD enthusiasts are also photographers and can capture scenes like this cardinal on a feeder.

"But, some of us feel a group closer to home would also be nice, especially for the elderly and others who don't want to go so far."

Peterson says the idea is for the group to meet monthly in St. Johns for bird/nature/environment programs and to work on projects involving birds or the outdoors. There is also a possibility for trips to bird sanctuaries.

Persons interested in forming an Audubon group may contact Peterson at 224-8521, Adelaide Mikula at 224-3654, or Betty Jane Minsky at 224-7261.

In the House of Representatives Science testing

Gary Randall

For the first time in the 18-year history of the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP), all fourth, seventh, and 10th graders have been tested in science as well as math and reading.

The annual testing of students has been expanded in an effort to beef up the science curriculum in the state's schools. Like the current math and reading tests, the science exam measured only minimum competencies.

Students were tested on their knowledge of life science, earth and physical sciences, and certain skills such as the ability to interpret data, make inferences, and formulate hypotheses.

MEAP tests were taken by about 100,000 fourth graders, 110,000 seventh graders, and 120,000 tenth graders. Test results are expected sometime in December.

I'm pleased that the Department of Education is toughening its standards for our public schools. Increasing graduation requirements and offering state-aid incentives to districts that lengthen their school days will help Michigan's workforce become better educated and better trained. Including a science test in the MEAP is one more step toward upgrading the public education system in Michigan.

The world in Bement Library Holiday thoughts

By Jean Bartholomew

Now that the holiday season is quickly approaching and each of us finds ourselves going in circles making order out of chaos, how nice it would be to find a quiet place to count our blessings and give thanks for the good things that have involved us over the past year.

No matter how dark our lives may seem, we can always find something to be grateful for, however small.

With the overwhelming Christmas season we lose sight of the equally important holiday, Thanksgiving. To me, it is a special time, with or without family, and a nice break before the frantic pace of preparing for Christmas.

Several people have asked about the Christmas collection at the library. All materials will be out Dec. 1, and one holiday book per person.

For those of you who have papers to write about

Christmas in other lands, these books will be on reserve for use only in the library. This is the only fair way to provide necessary materials to the majority of the students.

The library will close at 6:30 p.m., Friday, Dec. 5, to allow the staff to attend the City Christmas party. Please mark this date on your calendar. Especially if you have VCR cassettes reserved for that weekend.

The St. Johns Area Library Project is alive and well. Still moving slowly so there is time for more of you to become involved.

Sorry this is a short column this month, but the sinus and the arthritis have fogged my brain. I don't think it's senility quite yet, even if I have been accused of it.

Jean Bartholomew is the head librarian for the Bement Public Library in St. Johns.

Remembering when

5 Years Ago

Gwen Nash of Elsie was named the 1982 Outstanding Young Farm Woman by the Michigan Farm Bureau at their 62nd annual meeting. Nash takes an active role in the 300 acre dairy farm she operates with her husband Dwight.

Seven inches of drifting snow closed schools, offices, and businesses in an early season, Nov. 29, snowstorm. Twenty units of snow removal equipment worked straight through for 13 hours battling the storm.

45 Years Ago

Three Clinton County deer hunters brought home a part-albino spikehorn while hunting in Oscoda County. The trio of Louis Thelen and Joe Feldpausch from Fowler and William Fox from St. Johns jokingly said the buck, which was pure white on its belly, sides and hind-quarters, was a "holstein."

Fifty-seven young men, the largest Clinton County contingent selected since the draft army was instituted in Oct., 1940, prepared to leave by bus from St. Johns for Detroit for pre-medical exams. The group exhausted the Class 1-A men in the county selective service list. A total of 232 county men were drafted during the first year.

Three Valley Farm residents held up Clinton National Bank's Valley Farms office and were captured less than 18 hours later after they had made off with $27,050. They were captured after an all-night stake out at 222 Wieland Road in Valley Farms by 35 state police officers and FBI agents.

Mark Grubaugh, of Elsie, and Pat Ashley, of St. Johns, will each take home a turkey. The turkeys were raised by Roger Dershem, of St. Johns.

Beck's Farm Market names fowl winners

Beck's Farm Market, on US-27 north of St. Johns, last week announced the winners of its annual Thanksgiving Turkey Drawing.

Mark Grubaugh, of Elsie, and Pat Ashley, of St. Johns, will each take home a turkey.

The turkeys were raised by Roger Dershem, of St. Johns.

Letter

Council appreciates open house support

The Clinton County Arts Council would like to express our thanks to Goff Food Store for donating cider and to White's Bakery for donuts also donated for our recent Christmas Open House. They were enjoyed by all who attended. Also thanks to our local newspapers for letting people throughout the area know of our many activities. The continuing support of businesses like these are greatly appreciated.

Thank you.

Correction

In the caption of the photograph last week of two children with turkeys at Beck's Farm Market, it was incorrectly stated that Jim Dershem raised the turkeys. Mr. Dershem's first name is Roger. We apologize for the error.

"It's in the Bag"
by Bob Beck

Can you imagine someone asking you if you would like to join them at an outdoor picnic in late November? Well, that's what happened in 1621 when the Indians and the Pilgrims got together. Or, was it 1621?

Today, millions of Americans will feast on piping hot turkey with all the traditional Thanksgiving trimmings, unmindful of something else that's hot... a debate over when, and where, the first Thanksgiving was held.

Virginians insist they had the first day of Thanksgiving, on December 4, 1619 at the Berkeley Plantation, located about 25 miles outside Richmond.

History books, on the other hand, report the first Thanksgiving occurred in November of 1621 at Plymouth Plantation in Massachusetts. However, Old Dominion residents contend that's just because they were written by New Englanders.

Regardless of where or when, the Pilgrim fathers gave their thanks to God for their plenty. They had conjured the crops out of the earth as self-starters. As Americans we are still giving thanks and celebrating what they started.

In closing, Thanksgiving is the one festive holiday we associate most in this country with food and feast. All of us here at Beck's hope you associate us with all of your holiday needs. Happy Thanksgiving!

Down in the dump

Rich Wertz

I'm telling you, manual labor is good for the soul. My soul was sorely besieged last week, not to mention my nose and my throat and various muscles. I had a cold.

Figures. Two days before I got it, I boasted to a friend that "I never get sick. I haven't been sick in three years." Also, I quit smoking, which means that it was somewhat ironic for me to get a cold since in the last three years of smoking I never had a cold and irony is of course always lurking around waiting to happen.

Anyway, I don't know which came first, my cold or my sorely besieged soul, but sorely besieged my soul certainly was. Nothing seemed any good. All the trees were barren and the skies were gray. I felt rotten, the world looked worse, and every morning I woke up and snarled.

It took manual labor to pull me out of it.

See, the house I live in is quite old. I'd say it is about 100 to 1,200 years old, something like that. The basement had never — not ever — been cleaned. There were decades worth of magazines and newspapers down there. There were bathroom cupboards from three remodelings, broken window frames, tire irons, large tangled masses of electrical wire, stacks of lumber, broken chairs, kitchen sinks, broken freezers, broken sofas, bedsprings, doorknobs, ghosts, tires, paint cans, rusting piles of automobiles, and a pile of coal.

It had been a long time since that coal pile had seen the light of day.

"Look," said one of my housemates when it was uncovered. "Antique coal."

So...on Sunday afternoon from out of that dark, dismal, damp dungeon we tugged, hauled, carted and cajoled all that stuff and put it in a big pile that someone is going to make a fortune hauling away. It was dirty work and the cobwebs kept grabbing at my ears and my glasses kept fogging up and my back was sore from ducking beneath low ceiling beams and somewhere in there it occurred to me that I felt better than I had all week.

"This work," I said, "is physically invigorating and is yielding broad expanses of uncluttered basement, sending messages of tidiness and order to my soul." No longer besieged, my soul had become satisfied. See?

Two things though — No, thank you, I am not interested in cleaning your basement. And I'm still trying to shake this cold.

Dr. David Dush

St. Johns grad leads in health publishing

Even before he was a student at St. Johns High School, David Dush had developed an interest in medicine and science. Over the years Dush has channeled that interest into a career as both a psychologist and a publisher.

Now living in Sanford, Michigan, Dush is the president and founder of Health Sciences Corporation. The company was formed to publish specialized health care magazines.

The company this month published its first magazine, Mature Health, billed as a "health magazine for adults over 50," the publication provides easy-to-read information calculated to be of interest to those who are growing old.

Dush, 32, says the magazine is geared toward those who want accurate and timely health information but who do not understand the technical jargon of publications aimed at professionals.

The first issue of the magazine includes articles about longevity, health maintenance organizations, lens implants, and medicine of the future.

Regular columns will address topics ranging from the sexuality of older people to exercise and nutrition. A regular column will feature profiles of retired people who live active and interesting lives.

"There is a lot of research that shows that people who have a more information in fact do better, health-wise," says Dush. Mature Health, he says, will be only the start of a line of specialty health magazines the Health Science Corporation anticipates eventually publishing. The company has a 15-member advisory board and two paid advisors to ensure that the information it publishes is accurate. Contributors to the magazine include doctors and health educators in addition to professional writers.

DUSH HIMSELF brings extensive experience to the magazine. In addition to his work and academic degrees in clinical psychology, he has published numerous articles about aging, preventive health care, heart disease, cancer, psychotherapy and research methodology.

He is also the founder and editor of The Hospice Journal, which has become the official journal of the National Hospice Organization.

The son of Hellen and George Dush, of 704 W. McConnell in St. Johns, David Dush says his interest in publishing was a later development but that his interest in science began even before high school.

He remembers his family doctor, Dr. Leslie Stevenson, who encouraged him in his youthful curiosity about medicine. He also remembers teachers who encouraged him in his desire to learn — Michael O'Conner, his grade school science teacher; and high school teachers Gary Kingsley and Paul Repath, who taught him chemistry, physics and algebra.

"And of course," says Dush, "there was always the encouragement of my parents.

For subscription information about Mature Health write to the magazine at P.O. Box 499, Sanford, Mich., 48657. Or call 687-5555.

Canning venison

Dawn Harris

Now that we are in the middle of hunting season many of you have more venison than you know what to do with. If your freezer is full you can preserve some of that meat by canning it. Ground venison is a product that is a quick and easy dish to use once its been canned.

Canning ground venison

Put meat through food chopper; measure. Cook it in hot skillet until seared. Add 1 to 1½ cups boiling water, meat stock or tomato juice, and 1 tsp. salt for each quart ground meat. Pack, hot, into hot jars, leaving 1 inch head space. Adjust caps. Process pints 1 hour and 15 minutes, quarts 1 hour and 30 minutes, at 10 pounds pressure. To serve use for meatloaf, baked hash, or stuffing vegetables.

VENISON MINCEMEAT As long as you are canning ground venison, why not mix in a few additional ingredients and put up a few cans of mincemeat. Mincemeat will be a special treat for the holidays to come.

Mincemeat

5 cups ground, cooked lean venison
1 quart ground suet (about 1 pound)
3 quarts chopped, pared tart apples (about 12 medium)
¼ cup finely chopped orange peel
1½ cups chopped orange pulp (about 2 large)
¼ cup lemon juice
33 ounces currants
3 pounds seedless raisins

Jopke painting to be prize

A painting donated by Margaret Jopke is the featured prize in a drawing at a members-only reception sponsored by the Clinton County Arts Council at the Gallery & Gift Shop on Dec. 2 from 4:30 to 9 p.m. New members are welcome at all times. Members are invited to stop in at the Gallery during the evening, enter their name in the drawing, enjoy refreshments and the holiday atmosphere. Each purchase during this time will entitle the member's name to again be entered in the drawing. Additional prizes include sets of prints of local historic buildings, including the Steel Hotel.

8 ounces chopped candied citron
2 pounds brown sugar (4½ cups)
1 T salt
1 T cinnamon
1 T allspice
2 tsp. nutmeg
1 tsp. cloves
¼ tsp. ginger
1 quart sweet cider or grape juice
Mix together all ingredients in a large kettle; simmer 1 hour. Stir frequently to prevent sticking. Pack hot into hot jars, leaving 1 inch headspace. Adjust caps. Process pints and quarts 20 minutes at 10 pounds pressure. Yield: about 6 quarts.

Friends make music history when named to Hall of Fame

By MARILYN HESS
Staff Writer

Florence Friend of Bath was in charge of the Key Awards Banquet Nov. 1 for the Michigan Gospel Music Association and she thought she had the program planned down to the last detail.

But at the end of the evening, while she was at the microphone inducting a Battle Creek singer into the Michigan Gospel Hall of Fame, she found out that others had their own plans for the program: they surprised Florence and her husband Cleo by inducting the couple into the Hall of Fame as well.

"It was really a shock. I came completely unglued. Cleo said it was the first time he's seen me without something to say," she recalls.

There, in the Lincoln Room of the Kellogg Center at Michigan State University, the Friends received a beautifully framed portrait of themselves (it was secretly made from a picture they had given to a friend) which has two small brass plaques attached: one says their names, and the other says Michigan Gospel Hall of Fame, 1986.

The Friends will keep the portrait in their home until the next annual banquet, when it will be displayed with the others. The Hall of Fame does not yet have a home, but Florence says they're working on it.

The MGMA has been around for about 20 years, and that's also about how long the Friends have been singing professionally. Well, actually, that's how long Florence has been singing professionally — Cleo came on the scene five years ago when the Friendship Gospel Singers (of which Florence is a charter member) needed a bass singer. He explains that he was supposed to be a stand-in until they found someone permanent, but he fit in so well he's still an integral part of the group.

Cleo laughs when he says he has trouble remembering words to the songs — the only songs he knows by heart are The Star Spangled Banner and I Love You Truly, which he often sings to his wife. But because his wife loves him too, she lets him have the words in front of him during performances.

Florence writes most of the songs the group sings when it performs in churches and at shows across the state. Some of the songs take 15 minutes to write, she says, and others she may start and not finish until two years later. But besides the Southern Gospel style of music she writes, all her songs have another thing in common: they all, she says, come from God.

That source of inspiration is nothing new to Florence.

HALL OF FAMERS — Cleo and Florence Friend of Bath position themselves behind the grand piano in their home, where they enjoy practicing for their gospel singing group, the Friendship Gospel Singers. The Friends on Nov. 1 were inducted into the Michigan Gospel Hall of Fame for their contribution to the art.

Christian music all my life. I learned it at my father's knee. I came from a big family, and everyone played a musical instrument. I just grew up on it," she says.

When the Friends were married 40 years ago, she noticed Cleo's remarkable singing voice, and encouraged him to develop that talent. Now, four of their grandchildren sometimes sing with them as the Friendship Kids. Mandy and Cleo III live in Bath with their parents Cleo Jr. and Mary; Leslie and Melanie live in Midland with their parents Roger and Linda. The Friends also have another daughter, Judy Driver, who lives in Bath with her husband David.

"The reason we sing Gospel is because we love the Lord. It's a very satisfying, fulfilling Christian life," Florence says.

It's also a very hectic life. Practicing with the group does take away somewhat from other social activities, and the Friends are on the road about once a month performing. They limit it to that because they do not want to be gone from their home constantly. Florence says.

Florence plays piano for the Friendship Singers, and sings tenor. Cleo is the group's bass singer; Andrea Patterson of Bath sings alto; and Kevin Stubbs of Vestaburg is the lead singer.

Many of the songs Florence has written and that the group performs have been published. Several were written when the Friends took a trip to the Holy Land in 1978, or were written upon remembering that trip.

When she is not performing or writing songs, she is busy working on the Bath

Beautification project. Cleo spends most of his days as a heavy construction contractor with Steel Reinforcing Service. He is also on the Bath Housing Commission, is a member of the Bath VFW, the Bath American Legion, and the St. Johns Rotary Club. He recently was a write-in candidate for the Clinton County Board of Commissioners.

The Elderly and Abortion

A seemingly incongruous title? Last week a house joint committee chose to allow the very emotional issue of abortion to profoundly affect all other Medicaid services. The interim Medicaid budget approved for Oct. 1-Nov. 15, 1986, has expired; the legislature has again recessed until Dec. 2 without arriving at a solution. There is no funding available for Medicaid services.

This facility receives two checks monthly of $33,000 from the Medicaid program. These are used for payroll, food vendors, utilities, medical supplies, etc. Since our only source of revenue is from services, in order to continue uninterrupted service, we must borrow. Of course, this entails interest payment. Since this is a reimbursable expense, the tax payer again suffers, as Medicaid rates are adjusted to reflect the higher cost of operation.

We urge you, regardless of your personal feelings on state funded abortions for the poor, to contact your legislators and urge them to separate these very important issues.

We cannot hold our elderly loved ones hostage to satisfy the political aims of certain members of the legislature. Call and write now!

Della Thompson, 11-27;

'To the dome! To the dome!'

By RHONDA WESTFALL
Sports Editor

Jubilant.
No one word could better describe the scene at Battle Creek Central's Post Field last Saturday following Fowler's Class D semi-final 6-0 football victory over North Muskegon.

Eagle fans stormed the field, showering their heroes with hugs and kisses as the ecstatic team hoisted Coach Steve Spicer onto their shoulders and carried him into the lockerroom.

"To the dome, to the dome!" chanted the throng of Fowler followers when the triumphant Eagles streamed off the field.

The Silverdome in Pontiac will be the site of the championship game this Saturday where Fowler will meet Michigan Lutheran Seminary with the winner taking home the State Class D crown. Seminary took a big upset 20-9 win from number one ranked Crystal Falls Forest Park to earn their berth in the finals.

Game time is set for 10 a.m. with $4 tickets on sale at Fowler High School now through Nov. 26. Tickets may also be obtained at the Michigan High School Athletic Assoc. in East Lansing or from the Silverdome ticket office.

"It's nice to be able to go back (to the finals)," Coach Spicer said of his team's second trip to the Silverdome. The first came in 1980 when Fowler suffered a 25-0 blanking by Norway.

"At this point in the season it doesn't matter what happens — the kids are all winners already. Anything else that comes along now is all extra," the 16-year veteran coach said.

Spicer, with a 123-28-1 career record, had a little "extra" goodness come his way too last week when he was named Coach of the Year by the Lansing Downtown Coaches Club. The former Eagle football player noted that it was one of the biggest honors he had been awarded during his coaching career.

As in so many of their previous wins this season, the Eagle defense played a dominant role in Saturday's shut-out. Fowler allowed the usually strong Norseman offense just 77 yards on the ground and 29 aerial yards while holding star halfback/quarterback Dante Hutcherson to 28 yards on 16 carries. The All-State back had rushed for a total of 1,535 yards before the Fowler game.

"Our defense played super," Spicer said. "It was a total team effort."

THE GAME BEGAN with the Eagles being stopped on their opening possession. North Muskegon drove the ball all the way to the Fowler 5-yard line on their initial possession before the mighty Eagle defense stopped them on a fourth and four situation, turning the ball over to the offense.

Another exchange of possessions brought the first quarter to a close with good defensive play on the part of the Norsemen holding the Eagles at bay and allowing them no first downs.

Fowler's first "first down" of the game came in the second quarter on runs by Rex Thelen and Curtis Feldpausch. On the next series of downs, and with the Eagles staring at a third and 11 situation, Thelen broke loose for a pretty 61-yard run which resulted in the only touchdown of the game. Thelen's six points came at the 7 minute mark, capping a 6 play drive that covered 74 yards. The two-point conversion pass was incomplete, making the score 6-0.

Although no more points would be posted on the scoreboard for the duration of the contest, the remainder of the game was not without excitement.

The Eagles had one more chance to score in the first half when they took the ball all the way down to the North Muskegon 6-yard line before time ran out on the clock. That drive featured more brilliant running by both Thelen and Feldpausch and two pass completions from Matt Hufnagel to Kurt Simon.

A KEY PLAY of the second half came in the fourth quarter with just over 4 minutes left on the clock. Curtis Feldpausch, who had dropped back to punt from the North Muskegon 45, seeing that the Norseman rush would block the punt, broke free of his would-be tacklers and turned up-field for a big 32-yard gain.

"I'd like to be able to say that the coaches had it all planned," Spicer said, "but he (Feldpausch) did it all on his own. He found the seam and was gone."

"After looking at the films, I'm sure the punt would have been blocked. It turned out to be a real heads-up move."

That play enabled the Eagles to keep the ball on the ground and run the clock enough to stall any chance for a late-minute surge by North Muskegon. The Norsemen used up their final time-outs before eventually getting the ball back on their own 3-yard line with just 45 seconds remaining. Fowler's defense held strong and gave them the 6-0 victory.

JUNIOR EAGLES — Three junior members of the Fowler football team whooped it up at the conclusion of the Eagles' Class D state semi-final 6-0 win over North Muskegon last Saturday. Numbers 65, Chad Theis, 34, Don Simon, and 86, Tom Wirth will be among the leaders of the 1987 Fowler football team.

Thelen picked up 111 yards on 21 carries, Feldpausch totaled 86 yards on 15 carries, and Hufnagel was good on 3-6 passes for 27 yards. The Eagles were penalized just two times for a total of 20 yards.

WITH THE MEDIA blitz that Spicer and his team has endured in the past weeks, several big contributors to Fowler's success have been overlooked. The coach is not without extremely able assistants in the form of Jim Wetmore, who has been Spicer's right-hand man throughout all of his 16 seasons, and Junior Varsity Coaches Neal Hoffman and Neil Hufnagel.

"They deserve some attention," Spicer said. "We couldn't win without their help and assistance on the sidelines. They've done a super job for this team."

Although the win by Michigan Lutheran Seminary came as a surprise to many people, Coach Spicer noted that his scouts thought they were the best team they had watched so far this year.

"They (Seminary) have a fine quarterback and two good running backs," Spicer said. "From what we've seen so far, they seem to be a little more wide open than other teams we've faced this year."

When Fowler's fans travel to the Silverdome this Saturday they should be aware of several rules which will be enforced for the championship game:

1. No confetti or pom-poms will be allowed in the stands;
2. No video cameras or film cameras can be used;
3. No bottles, food, coolers, etc., inside the building;
4. All persons entering the building carrying large parcels will be checked.

The Eagles will spend two or three days practicing at Michigan State's indoor facility this week in order to become acquainted with playing on artificial turf. Other than that, Fowler plans nothing out of the ordinary in preparing for their final game of 1986.

They even get Thursday off to eat a little turkey.

CURTIS FELDPAUSCH, Fowler's 5'6", 185 lb. senior back, sometimes takes on the form of a human bowling ball as he rolls forward, knocking down and running over would-be tacklers. Feldpausch turned a possible blocked punt into a long-gainer for the Eagles in their game with North Muskegon, ensuring another Fowler victory.

PICKING UP YARDS — Senior end Ted Meyers (88) picked up the necessary yards to put Fowler in position for a field goal attempt, but time expired in the first half of Saturday's semi-final game before the Eagles' could get in place for the kick. Fowler took a 6-0 lead into the lockerroom; all the points they would need to earn the win.

It's becoming quite a task to find things to write about Fowler's football team that have not already been written by any number of people — journalists and quasi-writers alike.

Really, how many adjectives are there for "good?" We've used up "excellent," "outstanding," "superb," and "exceptional."

The only completely new angle to take on the Eagle success story is that no one, including the coach, expected this 1986 version of Fowler football to be as good as they have turned out to be.

Well, maybe there are some people who would have put money on Fowler to be in the State Class D Championship game this week, but would they have back in August?

Not Coach Spicer. "If someone would have said that we would be in this position before the season began, I would have said they were crazy!" Spicer said following last Saturday's 6-0 semi-final win over North Muskegon.

In fact, the Coach may be sporting a new hair-do after this week's season finale at the Silverdome in Pontiac.

It seems that he agreed to a little wager of sorts with one of his linebackers, Jon Spitzley by name, before the start of the season.

"He (Spitzley) said to me, 'Coach, if we go 13-0, can I cut your hair?'" Spicer said. "He reminded me of that after we won last Saturday. Knowing Spitzley, I'm not sure what I'll look like in school on Monday morning if we win at the Silverdome!"

WHAT THE scoreboard shows when the gun sounds in Pontiac on Nov. 29 remains to be seen, but one thing can be said with certainty — win or lose on Saturday, Fowler's fans will be behind their team and coaching staff 101 percent.

Throughout the season, Spicer has continually stressed the fact that much of his teams' success has been because of total team play and the tremendous support given by Eagle boosters.

There will always be nay-sayers who point to the fact that it's easy to get behind a winner, but what would happen if Fowler turned in a losing season next year? Where would all the fans be then?

That's easy to answer — right where they are now. The real Fowler fans would still be there in the stands for every game, cheering and encouraging their team.

That's just the way it is, and anyone who believes otherwise is probably a little green because Fowler seems to get all the ink — all the press.

IF YOU ask me, they deserve every bit of it. No other area school in recent times can come close to Fowler's win/loss records. Whether it is in cross country, track, basketball or football, Eagle teams are consistently in the top percentile of Class D teams. Why? No one has a clear-cut answer. Just as no one can explain how a team that began the 1986 season without 10 defensive and nine offensive starters from the 1985 squad managed to end up playing in the State Championship game.

Probably Coach Spicer himself came as close to an answer as anyone when he noted that, "they don't know they're not supposed to win — they just don't know how to lose."

Whatever the reasons, I want to extend a personal "thank you" to each and every member of the team for giving this sportswriter a chance to sit in the Silverdome press box.

I've had a great year trying to think of new ways to write about you guys. Thanks.

Redwings take 38-28 win in district opener

The St. Johns Redwings opened with a low-scoring 38-28 win in their Class A basketball district game versus Flint Carmen-Ainsworth. The victory advances Coach Beth Swears' team into the championship game tonight (Nov. 25) against Flushing.

The game, played at Owosso High School, begins at 7:30 p.m.

St. Johns was ahead 10-8 after the opening period of play, but then allowed Carmen-Ainsworth to best them 8-2 in the second quarter. That gave the Flint team a 16-12 halftime lead.

The Redwings came back in the second half, outscored Flint in both quarters, 12-4 and 14-8, to take home the 10-point semi-final win.

The win boosts St. Johns' overall record to 12-7 on the year.

Anne Brocker led all scorers with a big 23 points. The sophomore also had 13 rebounds in the game. Kerry Porter added 6 points and 9 rebounds to the Redwings' cause. Kristen Kloeckner was good for 4 points, Karen Simon had 3 points, and Monica Vasquez netted 2 points for St. Johns.

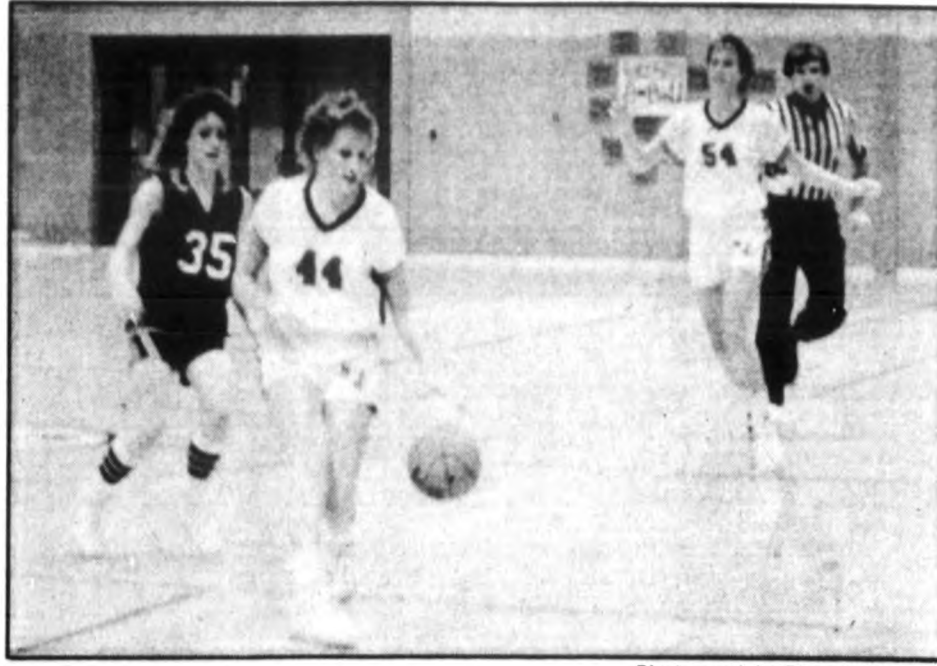

St. Johns committed just 10 fouls during the course of the game, and made good on 16-28 shots from the charity stripe.

The St. Johns girls basketball team ended their regular season with a win, defeating Alma 66-61 in their away MMB league game last Tuesday.

The Redwings outscored Alma 16-1 in the opening quarter, then hung in for the win.

Anne Brocker led all scorers with 30 points, Karen Simon added 17 points, and Kerry Porter was good for 8 points for the Redwings.

Coach Beth Swears' team ended the regular season in third place in the Mid-Michigan B League with a 6-4 record, 11-7 overall.

UP THE COURT — St. Johns' Kristin Kloeckner brings the ball up the floor for the Redwings in a recent game, while Anne Brocker brings up the rear. The Redwings took a 38-28 opening district game win over Flint Carmen-Ainsworth last week.

End of year for Bears

The Ashley Bears' 1986 basketball season ended in a 62-48 loss to Michigan Lutheran Seminary at the Class D districts played in Vestaburg last Saturday.

Coach Carl Wayers' squad took an impressive 17-3 regular season record into their opening district game, but could not counter the strong Seminary shooting attack led by 6'1" center Rachel Henderson.

"We were disappointed with the way we played," Wayer said. "We tried to do things in practice last week and talked about how we were going to play her (Henderson), but we just didn't do it on the floor."

The Cardinals jumped out to an early 32-21 halftime lead, with Henderson netting 19 of her 25 total points in that half.

"We contained her in the second half," Wayer said, "but the damage was done by then. We missed a lot of easy shots, especially in the first half, and our press was ineffective. That led to easy lay-ups for them (Seminary) and got us into foul trouble early."

Senior Theresa Fabus ended her career at Ashley as the Bears' leading scorer with 18 points, while senior teammate Lori Haruska added 13 points and 11 rebounds to Ashley's totals.

"They (Fabus and Haruska) will be hard to replace," Coach Wayer said of his dynamic duo. "Their all-around skills are very good."

Other Bear scorers included Chaunda Shaw with 7 points, Jami Plesko and Karen Burlingame with 4 points each, and Lisa Wingle with 2 points.

"We had a good season," Coach Wayer said, "but if you judge it strictly by tournament play, some people will say it was not so good. We feel bad today and are disappointed, but it was a good year."

The Ashley Bears girls basketball team earned a share of the Mid-State Athletic Association crown with a 69-36 win over Dansville in their regular season finale last week. Ashley will share the top spot with Webberville, as both teams end the season with 9-1 league records.

It was a Bear game the whole way, with Dansville out-played in every category. Ashley was ahead 30-16 at halftime and continued to widen the point margin throughout the second half.

Theresa Fabus led the Bears in scoring with 13 points, and had 5 assists and 4 steals. Lori Haruska added 12 points to the Bear cause, Chaunda Shaw was good for 12 points, Angie Felton had 8 points, and Jami Plesko had 6 points.

Ashley's J.V.'s defeated Dansville 37-12.

TWO POINTS — Anne Brocker (54) goes up for two, sure points for the St. Johns Redwings, while Kerry Porter (50) looks on. Brocker, a sophomore, has been the scoring sparkplug for the Redwing team throughout the regular season, continuing into the district play. St. Johns plays in the Class A championship game in Owosso tonight.

Pirates breeze to victory

Pewamo-Westphalia opened their Class C district girls basketball play with an easy win over host, Shepherd, 66-30.

Fourteen of Coach Carol Rademacher's Pirates saw action in the Nov. 19 game, with 13 of the 14 scoring.

"It was a nice ballgame for a district opener," Rademacher said,

"especially with so many of the girls getting playing time in tournament action."

The Pirates were ahead 20-3 at the end of the first quarter and widened that margin in each successive period of play.

Sandy Simon led P-W's scorers with 19 points. She also had 8 rebounds and 4 steals. Deb Pung had 13 points, 10 rebounds, and 6 steals; Keri Nurenberg added 6 points and 6 steals; Brenda Martin netted 6 points and had 4 rebounds; Shirley Thelen had 5 points and 5 assists; and Rhonda Heckman tallied 4 points on the night.

The win advanced the Pirates into the semi-final round of play last night against Breckenridge. That game and the Carson City/Ithaca semi-final, were both played after CCN press time. The Championship game of the Class C district at Shepherd is set for tonight (Nov. 25) at 7:30 p.m.

Marauders end year with split at district

Ovid-Elsie emerged as winners in their opening Class B district basketball game last week, defeating Corunna 49-44, but lost in the semi-finals on Saturday to Chesaning by a close 36-34 score.

The Marauders jumped out to an early 11-4 lead in district opener with Corunna, and widened that margin in the second period. Their 29-14 halftime lead was enough to stall off a second half surge by Corunna when they outscored Ovid-Elsie in each of the last two periods.

Carrie Darling was the Marauders' leading scorer with 11 points, Jami Martin had 9 points, Cheryl Batara was good for 7 points, Kirsten Gibbons netted 8 points, and Courtney Schneider and Bonnie Patrick had 4 and 5 points respectively in the balanced-scoring effort.

The loss to Chesaning on Saturday ends Ovid-Elsie's season with a 6-14 record.

Chesaning and Durand will meet tonight (Nov. 25) in the championship game at Corunna High School.

Amateur boxing is back

Amateur boxing returns to the mid-Michigan area on Nov. 28 when boxers representing the Lansing District Golden Gloves will face representatives from the Flint, Grand Rapids, Benton Harbor and Detroit areas.

Tickets for the event, which begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Lansing Hilton Ballroom, are $8 for reserved seats and $5 for general admission.

No city rec b-ball for St. Johns in 1987?

There may not be a men's basketball program run through St. Johns City Recreation this year — unless officials come forward by the end of this week.

According to Diane Edwards, Director of City Rec programs, obtaining licensed officials has become a problem with no applications received for this year's games.

"The city winter basketball program has evolved to a point that has become very competitive and not just a fun activity," Edwards said. "For that reason, getting referees to work in the program has been difficult.

"The programs were established to allow all city residents an opportunity to participate in a low key, recreational activity, allowing physical exercise and fun for all participants," she said.

The city subsidized program has run in the red for the past two years, losing $1,116 in 1985 and $1,075.87 in 1986. Teams are assessed a minimal fee of $80 per team with the City picking up the balance of expenses incurred from paying referees, scorekeepers, and purchase of trophies and equipment.

Of the 10 teams and 94 players involved in last year's program, over half were non-city residents. That raises a question concerning the legitimacy of City monies going toward funding of an activity which is benefiting fewer and fewer St. Johns residents.

"Costs have been kept to a minimum to allow individuals to pay a reasonable fee and not require sponsors to pick up costs," Edwards said.

All team managers from the 1986 program and officials who refereed games last year have been informed that the program will not be continued in 1987 if qualified officials have not been contracted by the end of November, Edwards said.

Fulton girls in cage finals

Fulton's girls basketball team, who had fared extremely well all season against non-CMAC opponents, pulled off a big 60-34 win in their opening Class D district game with Beal City last Saturday.

Coach Ron Merritt's Pirates were paced by senior Janice Kresge who shot the lights out at the Vestaburg gym, scoring a game-high 28 points. The All-League guard canned 10 of 12 shots from the charity stripe, helping her team to their district final berth with Michigan Lutheran Seminary tonight (Nov. 25) at 7:30 p.m.

The Pirates took a 17-12 first quarter lead, advanced it to 31-27 at halftime, and did not trail in the second half.

Besides Kresge's 28 points, teammates Dee Gardner added 14 points to Fulton's total, and Lori Helman had 9 points.

Fulton made good on 16-23 shots from the line behind Kresge's hot hand.

Michigan Lutheran Seminary advanced to the final game by virtue of their 62-48 win over Ashley in semi-final action.

Fulton took a last second basketball victory from Ovid-Elsie in both teams' regular season finale 42-41.

The non-conference game gives the Pirates a 12-7 overall record, while the Marauders ended their year at 7-12.

The game was close throughout all four quarters, with Ovid-Elsie taking a 26-22 lead into the lockerroom at halftime. Fulton outscored the Marauders 12-8 in the final stanza with Lori Helman putting in the game-winning basket with just four seconds remaining.

Fulton's Janice Kresge had a game-high 21 points to lead all scorers. Dee Gardner added 11 points for the Pirates, Helman had 6, and Michelle Weller cleared the boards of 10 rebounds.

Bonnie Patrick and Kristen Gibbons had 8 points each for Ovid-Elsie, and Jami Martin chipped in 6 points.

Eagle cage season at end

Fowler's girls basketball season came to an abrupt end last Friday night when they dropped their Class D district opening game 39-36 to Portland St. Patrick.

"It makes for kind of a short tournament," Eagle Coach Tom O'Rourke said. "Looking back, overall we had a good year and the girls played well."

Fowler took a 34-27 lead going into the final period of play when the Shamrocks converted on 14 free throw attempts to take the come-from-behind win. The Eagles managed only 2 points in the last quarter.

"They just really went at us in that final period," O'Rourke said. "They were crashing the boards on us. When (Teresa) Feldpausch fouled out early in the quarter, we were really in trouble — that was costly."

Feldpausch cleared the boards 11 times and picked up 9 points before she was forced to sit out the last few minutes of the game. Mary Jo Simon led all Eagle scorers with 12 points, Amy Witgen was good for 7 points, and Mary Kay Jandernoa added 6 points to Fowler's score.

Semi-final games, played last night after CCN press time, saw St. Pats go against Webberville, and number one ranked Potterville play Lansing Christian. The championship game of the district hosted by Fowler is scheduled for Nov. 26.

The Eagle Varsity ends their 1986 season with a 10-10 overall record. Fowler's junior varsity had a successful year, finishing with a 16-3 record.

Financial focus Capital gains

By Chuck Dicken

For years, investors who sold capital assets such as property, real estate, stocks, bonds, mutual funds and the like and held these assets long enough to qualify as long-term gains were allowed meaningful tax benefits. The reasoning behind this capital gain tax break made sense. After all, a person who made an investment to enjoy future gains took some risk. Generally, growth investments pay less current income than strictly income-producing investments. If the planned growth does not materialize, the investor not only loses a potential gain but also the income the investment would have earned but didn't during this period.

Another factor affecting long-term gains is inflation. For example, if you paid $1,000 for XYZ common stock in 1974 and sold it for $2,000 in 1986, you doubled your money. But, at a reasonable inflation rate of just 6 percent, you also lost half of your buying power. In terms of what your money will buy today, you're back where you started in 1974 with $1,000 of buying power. So, until the new tax legislation, the government shared in some of your risk by allowing certain tax benefits.

Until Jan. 1, 1987, when new tax legislation on long-term capital gains takes effect, you pay taxes on only 40 percent of the profit from any capital asset owned more than six months. In the above example, the profit was $1,000, so only $400 is taxable income. The other 60 percent, or $600, is free of federal tax because of the long-term capital gain rule. So, even if you're in the highest bracket — 50 percent — your maximum tax due on $1,000 would be $200 or an effective tax bracket of only 20 percent. If you were in a lower tax bracket of 25 percent (joint taxable income up to approximately $31,000), your tax on this long-term gain would be only $100.

Beginning in 1987, the tax breaks are reduced, and beginning in 1988, all capital gain income will be taxed as ordinary income. In 1987, the top tax bracket will be 38½ percent. In 1988 and beyond, the top tax bracket will be 33 percent. The law stipulates only two brackets, 15 percent and 28 percent, but there's a special 5 percent surtax for high income individuals which effectively raises the top bracket to 33 percent.

Using the same example of $1,000 long-term capital gain, the investor in the top 38½ percent will pay $280 in 1987 on the gain versus $200 under the old laws. For 1987 only, long-term capital gains will be taxed at the maximum rate of 28 percent. A married couple filing a joint return with a taxable income of about $30,000 would pay $280 on a $1,000 gain versus $100 under the old method.

So much for gains. How about losses? As with the old tax laws, an individual can still deduct a maximum of $3,000 per year of capital losses against other income. However, beginning in 1987, each dollar of net long-term loss offsets $1 of other income. Previously it took $2 of long-term capital losses to offset each dollar of other income.

As you see, the new tax laws may affect your investment strategy. It's wise to stop now, take inventory of your investments, and see how the new tax laws will affect your overall plan. If changes are in order, consider them now while maximum benefits are still available.

Capital Emergency Med. Service to serve southern part of county

A new ambulance service is available to residents in southern Clinton County.

According to supervisor Bob Robison, Capital Emergency Medical Service (EMS), Inc., was formed by several investors because "we felt that there's room for another service in the area."

Robison says the ambulances — which are 1986 Fords filled with all new equipment — will be staffed with both paramedics and emergency medical technicians (EMTs), classifying the service as advanced. Capital EMS is able to provide emergency service, routine transfers, and transportation to out-of-town destinations, Robison says.

Until now the city of Lansing was served by Lansing Fire Department ambulances, and a private service (Lansing Mercy) which also covered some of the outlying areas, including DeWitt and Bath. But Robison says Capital EMS is working with those services to find their niche. He is serious about making the service a success. "Each ambulance crew will have at least one member with a lot of experience. And I plan on doing a lot of follow-up — contacting the emergency rooms and nursing homes to see how my employees are doing," he says.

Robison received his paramedic (or Advanced EMT) training at Lansing Community College, as did most of the other employees. He graduated in 1981, and then passed the state certification exam. He worked for Lansing Mercy for several years, but most recently worked for Eaton Rapids Area EMS, based at Eaton Rapids Community Hospital. He says his work with Mercy allowed him to become familiar with the fire departments in the DeWitt-Bath area, which are the first responders to local emergencies.

Capital EMS is located at the corner of Saginaw and Larch in Lansing, in a building that formerly housed Freedom Van Lines. And although the ambulances are all equipped, complete with a radio that can reach from Lansing to Clinton Memorial Hospital, the offices are still being completed. Persons in need of an ambulance can contact Capital EMS at 482-6200.

Bee's Bernard Feldpausch cited for 25 years with GM

Bernard Feldpausch, owner of Bee's Chevrolet-Olds Dodge-Chrysler-Plymouth dealership in St. Johns, was last week recognized by General Motors for his 25th anniversary as a GM dealer.

Bernard Feldpausch added the Chrysler and Plymouth lines.

At a ceremony in Detroit, zone managers for Chevrolet and Oldsmobile awarded Feldpausch with a Silver Anniversary plaque. In 1985 he added the Dodge line to his present dealership and this year

Disaster grant regulations called 'unpleasant surprise for farmers'

The regulations on the Disaster Grant Program last week proposed by the United States Department of Agriculture provide several unpleasant surprises for Michigan farmers, according to Jim Byrum of the Michigan Bean Commission.

He said the Commission sees problems with the proposed rules, including:

- The threshold of farmer eligibility for the grants call for a farmer to have lost over 50 percent of all his crops. The eligibility test should be the loss of 50 percent of a given crop, said Byrum.

- The loss of quality or pick is not considered "losses" if a farmer harvested these beans, under the proposed rules. This penalizes farmers who made good faith attempts to harvest their crops, he said.

- The timing of the program is pushed back, with the USDA proposing that applications not be accepted until Jan. 11, 1987. This is 1 to 1½ months later than Congress had intended.

The Michigan Bean Commission is encouraging farmers and other interested parties to write the USDA, expressing their concerns on the issues. The address is:

Good corn

Giles Roehl

Dave Motz, rural St. Johns farmer, entered the National Corn Growers No-Till corn growing contest. Motz selected last year's no-till soybean stubble as his contest field. He burned down the weeds using glyphosate (Roundup) herbicide.

The fertility program required 37 pounds of nitrogen, 48 pounds of phosphorus and 144 pounds of potash. He did not apply any manure or trace elements. On approximately half of the field he applied an additional 40 pounds of nitrogen.

The official yield on Motz No-till field was 190.41 bushels per acre. A good yield well above the current county ASCS average of 89 bushels per acre. On the half of the field where the extra 40 pounds of nitrogen was used the yield was 189.8 bushels per acre.

in Minnesota received a small plaque recognizing the fact it had been in the Roehl family for 100 years. I recently was on a farm here in Michigan where they have the original grant deed signed by a president of 150 years ago.

The Michigan Department of State would like to honor these families who have land which has been owned by the family for 100 years or more.

To qualify as a Centennial Farm, the owner must submit an application indicating the farm meets the following qualifications: It must be a working farm, must have a minimum of 10 acres, ownership must have remained in the same family (not necessarily the same family name, it may have passed to daughters sometime who have changed the name through marriage, may be a cousin, grand cousin, etc.) the relationship of the present owner to the original purchaser of 100 years ago must be stated.

After the State Bureau of History certifies qualifying farms either Consumer Power of the Detroit Edison Company will provide the owner with a large, beautiful Centennial Farm Marker. This marker will stand as a proud symbol of Michigan and the farms agriculture heritage.

Giles Roehl is the director of the Clinton County Cooperative Extension Service.

Conservation corner Farming today

Eileen Gillespie

The Michigan Department of Agriculture Environmental Division provides assistance to Michigan's 83 soil conservation districts throughout the year. Together, division and district personnel counsel land owners in management practices and wise use of our irreplaceable land and its water resources.

MDA food inspectors regularly check stores, bakeries, processing plants, warehouses and soft drink bottling plants to ensure that the food and beverages you buy meet Michigan's high standards.

An average Michigan farm today is 181 acres, compared to 101 acres 54 years ago. Total farm acreage in Michigan has declined from 18 million acres, 54 years ago, to 11.4 million acres today. But with the help of modern technology, each Michigan farmer is able to produce enough food to feed himself and 78 other people, and does it on less land than ever before.

One farm worker produces an average of 107,000 pounds of food or 53 tons of finished product each year, and creates jobs for more than five non-farm people who process, transport and merchandise a crop as well as produce items farmers need. Nearly 25 percent of America's total labor force is involved in the food industry.

Agriculture is Michigan's leading growth industry. Farmers received an estimated $3.092 billion in cash receipts in 1984. While final figures are not yet available, preliminary estimates indicate that with the addition of the costs of processing, transportation and marketing services, total cumulative value to Michigan's economy was nearly $14.3 billion.

Michigan farmers spent approximately $366 million for farm machinery in recent years. According to the USDA, 40 jobs are created for every million dollars farmers spend for machinery and equipment. Thus Michigan farmers created 14,640 jobs for factory workers.

Christmas is a year-round business for 700 Michigan farmers who grow Christmas trees on 40,000 acres of land. As the nation's largest grower of plantation Christmas trees, Michigan shipped four million trees in 1984, some as far away as Hawaii. The crop was valued at $30 million.

There can be no question as to the importance of our Michigan farms. Not only in what they produce for us, but for the industry created by their needs.

Our own Clinton County is a leader in the production of corn, edible beans, apples, mint, and honey.

So when you are shopping, look for Michigan grown goodness!

Farmers should control own marketing, says Farm Bureau

Robert Craig, agricultural economist for the Michigan Farm Bureau, says farmers should try to be in a position to control their own marketing this harvest season.

"Producers delivering grain to elevators and not making a cash sale must be offered a warehouse storage receipt or a certified 'price later agreement," Craig said. "They should definitely get one of those two marketing instruments for protection."

Craig said that Farm Bureau is working to develop legislation to protect producers of all agricultural products delivered under contract or by agreement, to provide a secured status until payment is made by the buyer.

Production costs

Marilyn Loudenslager

Every farmer is quoting what it costs to produce an acre of corn, a hundred weight of milk, or a pig for market. MSU also has average cost production figures available. The problem is that there are various methods of figuring costs of production.

There is a cash cost of production, an accounting cost of production, and an economic cost of production. The farmer producing corn for $70 per acre may be quoting an accurate cash cost if he does not allocate such costs as trucking, fuel, building repairs, equipment repairs, insurance, interest, labor, depreciation, and, occasionally, lime.

The Clinton County Extension Service and neighboring CES offices are sponsoring a workshop called "Crop/Livestock Production Strategies for the 80's". Crop producers or livestock producers with crops are invited to attend the two day crop program at Corner Landing Restaurant at 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Dec. 11 and Dec. 18. At this workshop each farmer will develop his/her own cost of production controlled and determine how much can be paid for land rent and land purchase. We will also examine machinery investment as well as look at future prices, yields and costs. Cost of these two days for meals and materials is $20 per person. Speakers and discussion leaders include Dr. Oran Hesterman of MSU Crops and Soils and Dr. Ralph Hepp and Dr. Jim Hilker of MSU Ag Econ. Dept.

Livestock producers are invited to meet on Jan. 8, 1987, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. to discuss specific livestock cost of production and outlook information. Market livestock producers will meet with Dr. Ralph Hepp and Steven Radecki in the Ionia CES Conference Room and Dairy Producers will meet with Dr. Sherrill Nott at the Ionia Free Fair in the Youth/Activities Bldg. Cost for either livestock program is $10 for lunch and materials. Call the Extension Office at 224-3288 or send in our reservation with payment by Nov. 26. You must be pre-registered and enrollment is limited.

Marilyn Loudenslager is the agriculture agent for the Clinton County Cooperative Extension Service.

Bruce Bernath

Pvt. Bruce Bernath, son of John Bernath, 8951 Maple Rapids Rd., Elsie, has completed one station unit training (OSUT) at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapons infantryman and as an indirect-fire crewman.

Soldiers were taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad. Bernath is a 1986 graduate of Ovid-Elsie High School.

Teresa Hatta

Airman Teresa Hatta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hatta, 2675 N. Hollister Rd., Ovid, has graduated from the U.S. Air Force avionics instrument systems course at Chanute Air Force Base, Ill.

During the course, students were taught the operation and maintenance of aviation and electronics instrument systems. They also earned credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Hatta is a 1982 graduate of Ovid-Elsie High School.

Hospital Auxiliary meets; $2,500 presented in gift shop proceeds

By JEANETTE HUARD

The Clinton Memorial Hospital Auxiliary met Nov. 19 in Conference Room C of the hospital. President Kay Mishler gave a report on the 38th annual fall conference of the Michigan Association of Hospital Auxiliaries that she and Chris Peacock attended in Traverse City. Gift Shop Treasurer Dorothea Daley presented a check for $2,500 as proceeds from the gift shop. First Vice President JoAnne Gentry reported on the legislative training session that she and President Mishler attended in Battle Creek.

Puppet chairman Ellen Burnham displayed the Christmas stockings that are being made for the new births at Clinton Memorial Hospital during the month of Dec. She informed the group it requires five hours to assemble the stockings and four hours to complete the puppets.

Administrator Paul McNamara praised auxiliary members for their contributions to the hospital. They have made the changes in health care possible and are the backbone of Clinton Memorial Hospital.

Vice President, Tom Wiseman, reported they are studying plans to renovate the emergency room entrance of the hospital. The second floor nursing station is also in the process of being remodeled.

Rick Burk, supervisor of education services at Clinton Memorial, gave a program on AIDS featuring a film and a question and answer period. She feels the best way to fight AIDS is to know the facts about AIDS.

Women's Club meeting to be December 10 at Lumbert home

By EDWINA McDOWELL

Nineteen members and guest of the General Federation of Women's Clubs-St. Johns, met Nov. 12 at the home of Dee Morris. Nicia Beck and Myrtle Parker served as hostesses. During the business meeting Dorothy Lawrence reported on the gathering at Girlstown on Nov. 8. Girlstown is a home for girls sponsored by the Michigan State Federation with all clubs participating.

Sylvia Hirschegger, the health promotion coordinator of Clinton Memorial Hospital explained the Wellness Program. Wellbeing is the physical, spiritual, emotional, intellectual and social components of our health.

After an individual personal survey, small groups met to discuss an area of needed improvement. Each person received a "Wheel of Health" for future reference.

The next meeting will be Dec. 10 at the home of Nola Lumbert.

Music is a boon to our sense of well-being, guests tell Musicale

By CAROLYN CAMPBELL

A unique program was presented by Kaye Pilmore and Diantha Witteveen for the November meeting of the St. Johns Morning Musicale at the Witteveen residence.

Using the theme "Home and Family," Kaye spoke on the need for music in our lives — a boon to our sense of well-being and a nourishment to our spirit. As she gave the development of the family in society and the many cultures represented in our country, she related the expansion of music in the social events of a family. Beginning with birth, she continued with patriotic holidays, weddings, funerals, and religious holidays. Simultaneously, pianist Diantha Witteveen played background music of piano selections ranging from "Brahms Lullaby," "This Is My Country," "Handel's Largo," to "Bless This House."

At the close of the program, members individually cited experiences in their own lives that were enriched by music.

St. Johns Morning Musicale MFMC and guests will meet Dec. 11, 7:30 p.m., at the Art Gallery for an evening of song and guitar playing by Michael Herman.

Janice Kresge is Fulton's 1986-87 DAR Good Citizen

Fulton High School has announced the selection of Janice Kresge as the 1986-87 DAR Good Citizen. Kresge, the daughter of Stanley and Helen Kresge, was selected by the faculty as the senior who most exhibits the combined qualities of leadership, dependability, service and patriotism.

The award is presented each year by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Kresge's high school activities have included both academic and athletic pursuits. She has been a member of Fulton's varsity basketball, volleyball and track teams, earning All-CMAC honors in basketball and volleyball and All-State honors in track. She won the state title in the 300 meter low hurdles in track as a sophomore.

Named the senior student representative on the Gratiot-Isabella ISD's CEPD council, Kresge has a 4.0 GPA at this point in the year. She is currently a member of the National Honor Society and was a member of the Student Leadership Forum plann-

*Thoughtfulness adds a special kind of beauty to life.....
A helping hand makes the sun shine brighter,
A loving deed adds a special glow...
A word, a touch, a gift, a smile, the knowledge that someone cares...
All these fill the world with warmth and joy and beauty...
Thank you for the beauty you've added to our lives.*

Words cannot express our gratitude for all we have received since Kelly's relapse. The food, gifts, cards and especially the prayers are appreciated so much by all. A special thanks to all those who helped make Kelly's benefit weekend a success. How fortunate we are to have such caring family & friends.

ORDINANCE NO. 102.2

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE CONSTRUCTION OF IMPROVEMENTS TO THE WATER SUPPLY AND DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM OF THE VILLAGE OF WESTPHALIA...

WHEREAS, it is deemed necessary by the Village Council of the Village of Westphalia, Clinton County, Michigan...

THE VILLAGE OF WESTPHALIA ORDAINS:

Section 1. Definitions. Whenever the word "System" is referred to in this Ordinance...

Whenever the words "Revenues" and "Net Revenues" are used in this Ordinance...

Whenever the word "Acquired" is used in this Ordinance it shall be construed to include acquisition by purchase...

Whenever the words "Council" and "Village Council" are used in this Ordinance they shall be understood to mean the Village Council of the Village of Westphalia...

Section 2. Necessity; Description of Project. It is hereby determined to be necessary for the public health and welfare of the residents within the corporate limits of the Village of Westphalia...

Section 3. Cost; Useful Life. The cost of the Project has been estimated by the Engineer to be Four Hundred Twenty-Four Thousand Dollars ($424,000)...

Section 4. Payment of Costs. To pay a part of the cost of acquiring and constructing the Project, including the payment of legal, engineering and financial expenses...

Section 5. Bond Data. The bonds shall be designated WATER SUPPLY AND DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM REVENUE BONDS, SERIES 1986...

Section 6. Bond Form. The form and tenor of said bonds shall be substantially as follows:

Section 7. Bond Proceeds. The proceeds of sale of the bonds herein authorized to be issued shall be deposited in a bank or trust company located in the State of Michigan...

Section 8. Security for Bonds. The bonds hereby authorized, together with interest thereon, shall not be a general obligation of the Village, but shall be payable solely from the net income...

Section 9. Custodian of Funds; Bank Accounts; Funds. The Treasurer of the Village shall be custodian of all funds belonging to and/or associated with the System...

Section 10. Rates and Charges. Prior to the issuance of the bonds, rates and charges for the services of said System will be fixed in an amount sufficient to pay the costs of operating and maintaining the System...

Section 11. No Free Service. No free service shall be furnished by the System to any individual, firm or corporation, public or private, or to any public agency or instrumentality...

Section 12. Covenants. The Village covenants and agrees that so long as any of the bonds hereby authorized remain unpaid as follows:

Section 13. Equal Bonds. The Village may issue additional bonds of equal standing for the following purposes and on the following conditions:

Section 14. Ordinance Shall Constitute Contract. The provisions of the Ordinance shall constitute a contract between the Village and the bond holders...

Section 15. Default of the Village. If there shall be default in the Redemption Fund, provisions of this Ordinance or in the payment of principal or interest of any of the bonds...

Section 16. Fiscal Year of System. The fiscal year for operating the System shall be from March 1 to February 28 of each year.

Section 17. Municipal Finance Division Approval. The Clerk of the Village is authorized and directed to file notice of intention to issue an obligation with the Municipal Finance Division of the State of Michigan...

and revenues to be derived from the operation of the System. To pay such principal and interest as and when the same shall become due, there is hereby created a statutory first lien upon the whole of the net revenues of the System to continue until the payment in full of the principal and interest on said bonds and said revenues shall be set aside for that purpose...

Both principal and interest on this bond are payable in lawful money of the United States of America at _____ Michigan, paying agent/registrant, or such successor as may be designated upon sixty (60) days written notice to the registered holder...

The bond is one of a series of one or more bonds of even date of issuance and like tenor, except as to rate of interest and date of maturity, aggregating the principal sum of $250,000, issued pursuant to Ordinance No. 102.2 duly adopted by the Village Council November 17, 1986...

Bonds of this issue maturing in the years 1987 to 1996, inclusive, are not subject to prior redemption. The right is reserved of redeeming bonds maturing in the years 1997 to 2011, inclusive...

2% if called on or after November 1, 1996 but prior to November 1, 1998. 1% if called on or after November 1, 1998 but prior to November 1, 2000. 5% if called on or after November 1, 2000 but prior to maturity.

Thirty (30) days notice of the call of any bonds for redemption shall be given by first class mail to the registered holder at his registered address. Bonds called for redemption shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption, provided funds are on hand with the paying agent to redeem said bonds.

This bond is a self-liquidating bond and is not a general obligation of the Village of Westphalia and does not constitute an indebtedness of the Village Council within any constitutional or statutory limitation and is payable, both as to principal and interest from the net revenues of the Water Supply and Distribution System of the Village...

The Village of Westphalia hereby covenants and agrees to fix and maintain at all times while any of the bonds shall be outstanding, such rates for service furnished by the Water Supply and Distribution System as shall be sufficient to provide for payment of the interest upon the principal of all bonds payable from the net revenues of the System as and when the same become due and payable...

This bond and the interest thereon are exempt from any and all taxation whatsoever by the State of Michigan or by any taxing authority within said State. It is hereby certified and recited that all acts, conditions and things required by law precedent to and in the issuance of this bond, and the series of bonds of which this is one, have been done and have happened in regular and due time and form as required by law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Village of Westphalia, County of Clinton, State of Michigan, by its Village Council, has caused this bond to be signed in the name of said Village by its President and to be countersigned by its Village Clerk and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed...

B. WATER SUPPLY AND DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM RECEIVING FUND ACCOUNT.

The gross income and revenue of the System shall hereafter be set aside into a separate account to be designated the Water Supply and Distribution System Receiving Fund Account, and moneys so deposited therein shall be expended and used only in the manner and order as follows:

1) Operation and Maintenance Account. Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year the Village will prepare an annual budget of the System for the ensuing fiscal year itemized on the basis of monthly requirements, a copy of which budget shall be mailed upon request to the original purchaser of the bonds and upon written request to any other bond holders. There shall be set aside and deposited each quarter pursuant to the budget a sufficient portion of the income and revenue in the Operation and Maintenance Account to pay the reasonable and necessary current expenses of administering, operating and maintaining the System for the ensuing quarter...

2) Water Supply and Distribution System Revenue Bond and Interest Redemption Fund. After the transfer required in (1) above, there shall be transferred each quarter from the Water Supply and Distribution System Receiving Fund Account, before any other expenditures or transfer therefrom, and deposited in the Water Supply and Distribution System Revenue Bond and Interest Redemption Fund Account, (hereinafter called "Bond and Interest Redemption Fund"), for payment of principal and interest on the bonds on April 1, 1987 a sum sufficient to pay all interest due May 1, 1987 and one-half of principal due November 1 and thereafter quarterly, a sum equal to at least one-half (1/2) of the amount equal to the interest due on the next ensuing due date and not less than one-fourth (1/4) of the principal maturing on November 1 of each year thereafter...

There is hereby established in the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund a separate account to be known as the Bond Reserve Account, into which there shall be paid in quarterly installments from the Revenues of the System after provision has been made for the Operation and Maintenance Fund and the current requirements of the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) per quarter until there is accumulated in such fund the sum of Twenty-Four Thousand Dollars ($24,000), or the following calendar year's principal and interest requirement, whichever is less. Except as hereinafter provided, no further deposits need be made into the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund for the purposes of the Bond Reserve Account once the sum of Twenty-Four Thousand Dollars ($24,000) has been deposited therein, which sum is hereby deemed reasonable and necessary as security for the bonds to be reduced only upon the advice of bond counsel that reduction is necessary to comply with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code to preserve the tax exempt status of the bonds...

If at any time it shall be necessary to use moneys in the Bond Reserve Account for such payment, then the moneys so used shall be replaced from the Net Revenues first received thereafter which are not required by this Ordinance to be used for operation and maintenance or for current principal and interest requirements.

No further payments need be made into the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund after enough of the bonds have been retired so that the amount then held in said Fund (including the Bond Reserve Account), is equal to the entire amount of principal and interest which will be payable at the time of maturity of all the bonds then remaining outstanding.

3) Surplus Moneys. Whenever there shall accumulate in the Redemption Fund Account amounts in excess of the requirements during the next eighteen (18) months for paying the principal of bonds falling due and interest on outstanding bonds, and in excess of the requirements of the Operation and Maintenance Account and Reserve Account hereinafter established, such excess may be used by the Village for redemption of bonds in the manner set out below.

All moneys remaining in the Water Supply and Distribution System Receiving Fund Account at the end of any operating year after satisfying the above requirements shall be transferred to the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund and used to call bonds for redemption, or at the option of the Village transferred to the General Purpose Account and used for the purpose for which said Account was established: Provided, however, that if there should be a deficit in the Operation and Maintenance Fund, Bond and Interest Redemption Fund or the General Purpose Account, on account of defaults in setting aside therein the amount herebefore required, then transfers shall be made from such funds remaining in the Water Supply and Distribution System Receiving Fund Account to such funds in the priority and order named, to the extent of such deficits. Surplus moneys may be used to fund, as a part of the General Purpose Account, any replacement deemed necessary by the Village Council or any other lawful purpose of the Village.

Section 10. Rates and Charges. Prior to the issuance of the bonds, rates and charges for the services of said System will be fixed in an amount sufficient to pay the costs of operating and maintaining the System and to leave an amount of revenues adequate for the principal and interest, debt service, reserve, replacement and improvement requirements and all other requirements provided herein, and otherwise comply with the covenants herein provided. The rates and charges for all services and facilities rendered by the System shall be reasonable and just, taking into consideration the costs and value of said System and the cost of maintaining, repairing, and operating the same and the amounts necessary for the retirement of all bonds and accruing interest on all bonds and there shall be charged such rates and charges as shall be adequate to meet the requirements of this and the preceding section. Charges for all services furnished to any premises shall be a lien thereon as provided in Section 21, Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended. The charges for water service which are, under the provisions of Section 21, Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended, made a lien on all premises served thereby, unless notice is given that a tenant is responsible, are hereby recognized to constitute such lien, and whenever such charge against any piece of property shall be delinquent for six (6) months the Treasurer shall certify annually, on September 1 of each year, to the appropriate tax assessing officer, the fact of such delinquency, whereupon such delinquent charge shall be entered upon the next tax roll as a charge against such premises, and a lien therefor enforced in the same manner as general Village or Township taxes are collected and the lien thereof enforced: Provided, however, where notice is given that a tenant is responsible for such charge and such service as provided by said Section 21, no further service shall be rendered to such premises, and a cash deposit of less than one (1) full year service shall have been made as security for payment of such charges and services.

Section 11. No Free Service. No free service shall be furnished by the System to any individual, firm or corporation, public or private, or to any public agency or instrumentality.

Section 12. Covenants. The Village covenants and agrees that so long as any of the bonds hereby authorized remain unpaid as follows:

a) It will comply with applicable State laws and regulations and continually operate and maintain the System in good condition.

b) (i) It will maintain complete books and records relating to the operation of the System and its financial affairs and will cause such books and records to be audited annually at the end of each fiscal year and an audit report prepared, and will furnish any holder of any bond a copy of such report upon written request.

(ii) It will file with the State of Michigan, Department of Treasury, Municipal Finance Division, or its successor agency each year, as soon as is possible, but not later than ninety (90) days after the close of the fiscal year, a report, on forms prepared by the Division, made in accordance with the accounting methods of the Village, completely setting forth the financial operation of such fiscal year for the Village's own purposes.

c) The Village will maintain and carry, for the benefit of the holders of the bonds, insurance on all physical properties of the System, of the kind and in the amounts normally carried by municipalities engaged in the operation of water supply and distribution systems. All moneys received from losses under any such insurance policies shall be applied solely to the replacement and restoration of the property damaged or destroyed, and to the extent not so used, shall be used for the purpose of calling bonds.

d) It will not borrow any money from any source or enter into any contract or agreement to incur any other liabilities that may in any way be a lien upon the Revenues or otherwise encumber the System so as to impair Revenues therefrom, nor shall it transfer or use any portion of the Revenues derived in the operation of the System for any purpose not herein specifically authorized.

e) It will not voluntarily dispose of or transfer its title to the System or any part thereof, including lands and interest in lands, by sale, mortgage, lease or other encumbrances.

f) Any extensions or improvements of the System shall be made according to sound engineering principals and plans and specifications.

Section 13. Equal Bonds. The Village may issue additional bonds of equal standing for the following purposes and on the following conditions:

a) To complete construction of the Project according to the plans set forth in Section 1, bonds in the amount necessary may be issued.

b) For the purpose of making reasonable repair, replacement or extension to the System additional bonds of equal standing may be issued if:

(i) The Net Revenues of the System for the fiscal year preceding the year in which such additional bonds are to be issued were one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the average annual debt service requirements on all bonds then outstanding and those proposed to be issued; or

(ii) The holders of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the then outstanding indebtedness consent to such issue in writing.

The funds herein established shall be applied to all additional bonds issued pursuant to this section as if said bonds were part of the original bond issue and all revenue from any such extension or replacement constructed by the proceeds of an additional bond issue shall be paid to the Water Supply and Distribution System Receiving Fund Account mentioned in this Ordinance.

Except as otherwise specifically provided so long as any of the bonds herein authorized are outstanding, no additional bonds or other obligations pledging any portion of the Revenues of the System shall be incurred or issued by the Village unless the same shall be junior and subordinate in all respects to the bonds herein authorized.

Section 14. Ordinance Shall Constitute Contract. The provisions of the Ordinance shall constitute a contract between the Village and the bond holders and after the issuance of such bonds this Ordinance shall not be repealed or amended in any respect which will adversely affect the rights and interests of the holders nor shall the Village adopt any law, ordinance or resolution in any way adversely affecting the rights of the holders so long as said bonds or interest thereon remains unpaid.

Section 15. Default of the Village. If there shall be default in the Redemption Fund, provisions of this Ordinance or in the payment of principal or interest of any of the bonds, upon the filing of a suit by twenty percent (20%) of the holders of the bonds and any court having jurisdiction of the action may appoint a receiver to administer said System on behalf of the Village with power to charge and collect rates sufficient to provide for the payment of the bonds and for the payment of operation expenses and to apply income and revenues in accordance with this Ordinance and the laws of Michigan.

The Village hereby agrees to transfer to any bona fide receiver or other subsequent operator of the System, pursuant to any valid court order in a proceeding brought to enforce collection or payment of the Village obligations, all contracts and other rights of the Village conditionally, for such time only as such receiver or operator shall operate by authority of the court.

The holders of twenty percent (20%) of the bonds in the event of default may require by mandatory injunction the raising of rates in a reasonable amount.

Section 16. Fiscal Year of System. The fiscal year for operating the System shall be from March 1 to February 28 of each year.

Section 17. Municipal Finance Division Approval. The Clerk of the Village is authorized and directed to file notice of intention to issue an obligation with the Municipal Finance Division of the State of Michigan for authority to issue and sell said bonds and for approval of the form of notice of sale of said bonds in accordance with the provisions of Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended, if public sale is required, and in the alternative to request waiver of the requirement of public sale to permit negotiated sale of the bonds.

Section 18. Qualified Tax Exempt Obligations. The Village hereby designates the bonds of this issue as "qualified tax exempt obligations" for purposes of deduction of interest expense by financial institutions under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The Village Council further covenants to comply with existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 necessary to maintain the exclusion of interest on the bonds from gross income. This issue is determined to be a governmental purpose bond and not a private activity bond for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended.

Section 19. Conflict and Severability. All Ordinances, resolutions and orders or parts thereof in conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance are, to the extent of such conflict, hereby repealed, and each section of this Ordinance and each subdivision of any section thereof is hereby declared to be independent, and the finding or holding of any section or subdivision thereof to be invalid or void shall not be deemed or held to affect the validity of any other section or subdivision of this Ordinance.

Section 20. Paragraph Headings. The paragraph headings in this Ordinance are furnished for convenience of reference only and shall not be considered to be a part of this Ordinance.

Section 21. Publication and Recordation. This Ordinance shall be published in full in the Clinton County News, a newspaper of general circulation within the corporate limits of the Village, qualified under State law to publish legal notice, promptly after its adoption, and the same shall be recorded in the Ordinance book of the Village and such recording authenticated by the President and Clerk.

Section 22. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication as authorized by Act 91, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended.

Passed and adopted by the Village Council of the Village of Westphalia, Clinton County, Michigan on the 17th day of November, 1986, and approved by me on the 17 day of November, 1986, after the following roll call vote:

Ayes: Council Members M. Schafer, M. Simon, P. Schafer, J. Schafer, G. Schafer, J. Schafer.

Nays: Council Members.

Fredric R. Martin President, Village Council Village of Westphalia

Attest Phyllis M. Myers Clerk, Village Council Village of Westphalia

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and complete copy of an Ordinance adopted by the Village Council of the Village of Westphalia, Clinton County, Michigan, at a Special meeting held on November 17, 1986, and that public notice of said meeting was given pursuant to Act No. 267, Public Acts of Michigan, 1976, as amended.

I further certify that said Ordinance has been recorded in the Ordinance Book of the Village and such recording has been authenticated by the signatures of the President and Clerk.

Mortgage insurance is voluntary and can be cancelled by the buyer

BY DON G. CAMPBELL

Webster defines the term "to insure" as "a contract to be paid or to pay money in the case of loss (life, property, etc.)."

And so, in just 17 words, the noted lexicographer kisses off a commercial activity that employs hundreds of thousands of individuals, takes in, invests and pays out hundreds of billions of dollars a year and covers virtually every type of "loss" known to man.

Dear Mr. Campbell: Is it possible to cancel the "credit life" portion of a mortgage? - Mr. T.R.K., Allentown, Pa.

ANSWER: All things are possible in this most beautiful of worlds - with the conceivable exception of being able to read an airline time schedule.

First, though, we have to get our terminology straight. "Credit life" is one of those catch-all phrases that can mean several different things. As used here it's normally associated with the insurance you take out when you buy a high-ticket item, such as a car, and which - in the event of your death - pays off the balance due on the car so that your survivors will own it, free and clear.

Even though it has the same general application when applied to a mortgage it tends to take on a different name - just plain old "mortgage insurance" - which is normally known as "decreasing term life insurance." And which, incidentally, is a very good thing for a young man with a budding family to have. This type of insurance, again, pays off (in this case the balance due on a mortgage) in the event of the home buyer's death. And it is "decreasing" in the sense that the face value of the policy drops each year at about the same rate that the mortgage is being paid off. But, as you have seen from your mortgage amortization schedule (the one that "horrified" you into beginning an accelerated payoff), the face value of the policy drops extremely slowly for many years because the amount due on the mortgage also goes down like molasses. But, it is an excellent thing for a young home buyer, with a young family, to have for his peace of mind.

However, this sort of "mortgage insurance" is 100 percent voluntary on the part of the home buyer and so there is absolutely no question about his right to cancel it at any time he chooses.

Which leads me to assume - and rightly, I think - that what you are talking about here when you say "credit life" is actually "private mortgage insurance," or, as it's known in real estate circles, "PMI." And it doesn't insure you against so much as a hangnail - it's purely and simply for the lender's protection.

Under guidelines laid down by the secondary market for mortgages - Fannie Mae (Federal National Mortgage Assn.) and Freddie Mac (the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp.) which buy up the vast majority of individual home mortgages and then package them for resale to institutional investors - PMI is required of home buyers who make less than the conventional 20 percent down payment. It cannot be required of anyone paying 20 percent or more down.

The rationale is simple: A home buyer who has an equity of 5 percent of 10 percent in a home is a lot more likely to "take a walk" from his mortgage if he gets into a financial bind than is a home buyer who has 20 percent invested in it.

What PMI does, then, is to insure the lender for the difference between what the home buyer actually paid down and the 20 percent conventionally required. In other words, if the home buyer paid $10,000 down on a $100,000 home (10 percent) the lender would require him to carry, and pay the premiums, for PMI covering the $10,000 difference.

So, back to your original question: When can the home buyer get this PMI monkey off his back? It's a good question because, until relatively recently, there were no guidelines and it was pretty well left up to the home buyer to convince the lender that PMI was, at some stage of the game, no longer required - presumably when equity hit the 80 percent level. But there were no guarantees that the lender would go along with it.

Now, however, Fannie Mae-secured mortgages have a definite guideline: Based on an appraisal (paid for by you, the home buyer), which indicates that the loan-to-current value has hit at least 80 percent, then the lender must permit you to cancel the PMI. Freddie Mac has essentially the same position, but with a slightly less liberal pitch. When your appraisal, again, shows that your loan-to-value has leveled off at 80 percent or better you can cancel the PMI, but Freddie Mac also requires a seven-year "seasoning" period. You can't go this route, that is, until you've had the mortgage at least seven years.

Both organizations, for obvious reasons, require a good track record of making mortgage payments on time.

Making larger payments will decrease length of debt but not your interest rate

HOUSE CALLS by Edith Lank

Dear Edith: My mortgage payment is $208.85. If I add another $25 or $50 just how big of a help will it be on our interest rate? If it isn't, would you please tell me the best way to bring our interest rate down? We owe seven more years on our mortgage. - R.E.W.

Extra payments won't have any effect on your monthly payment or interest rate. What they do is reduce the remaining debt and shorten the length of time remaining for you to pay.

If you want to make extra payments, check first to make sure you can do so without any penalty. As for reducing your interest rate - there isn't any way. You promised many years ago to pay at a given rate, and that's that.

ANOTHER RESORT LOT

Dear Edith: In the early 1970s we purchased a lot in a resort community in Pennsylvania. After several years we realized we would never use it and tried to sell it, lowering the price to $1,000 last year without success. We presently owe about $500 in property owners' fees and recreation fees. We want to give the property back to the developer for back fees. How can we legally do this? - Mrs. P. L.

I don't usually print letters when the only advice I have to offer is "see a lawyer", but I'm including yours to emphasize, once again, that it can be foolish to buy a resort lot "as an investment" unless you know what you intend to do with the land in the near future.

It's likely that you owe the money not to the developer, but to a property owners' association. In that case, the swap you propose wouldn't work.

See a lawyer - in Pennsylvania.

FLORIDA LICENSE REQUIREMENTS
 Dear Edith: I will soon move to Florida and am looking forward to getting in to real estate. Do you know what the schooling requirements are there? Do they differ in different states? - Ms. P. A.

Each state sets its own licensing regulations. Florida requires 63 classroom hours of study before licensing.

Voice of Democracy prize winners announced

Judging for the local Voice of Democracy program sponsored by the St. Johns Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4113 was held recently at the home of Eloise Hambleton, Past District President of the Auxiliary.

First place winner was Shelly Campbell, second place winner was Mike Crosby, and third place winner was Velvet Atkinson. All winners received cash prizes and trophies.

This is a national broadcast script-writing scholarship program in which high school students expressed their ideas on the theme "The Challenge of American Citizenship." The judging panel included Joanne Martis, Chamber of Commerce; Judge Randy Tahvonen; Dr. Clifford Lumbert, DDS; Douglas Woolley, UAW Financial Secretary; and John Kennedy, St. Johns Reminder. Bill Coelius was chairman of Voice of Democracy this year, and John Wilcox conducted the program at St.

Johns High School. The winning entry will be judged at the District level in December and State level in January. State winners will receive all-expense paid trips to Washington D.C. for $32,500 in scholarships.

Randall elected assistant GOP leader for 1987

State Rep. Gary Randall was re-elected assistant Republican leader for the 1987-88 legislative session.

Randall, an eight-year veteran of the Michigan House, has served in the post for the last two years. During the 1983-84 session he was the House Republican caucus chairman.

As assistant leader Randall will work closely with newly-elected Republican leader Paul Hillegonds (R-Holland) and the other legislators in the 46-member caucus.

"I look forward to working with Paul. During the next two years we can develop innovative proposals and promote needed reforms, especially in such areas as jobs, business expansion and labor issues," Randall said.

"House Republicans have the agenda that will help restore and maintain Michigan's economic health."
