Residential property assessments up 4.4 percent

Residential property owners in St. Johns are seeing a 4.4 percent increase in the assessed value of their properties, said City Assessor Diane Edwards last week.

Only residential property increased in value, she said. Commercial and industrial property did change.

The increase in the assessed value of residential property follows an increase in the market value of homes in St. Johns, said Edwards.

"Houses are selling for more than our (city) values," she said.

The 4.4 percent assessed value increase would mean a maximum tax bill increase — if all school, county and city millage rates remain constant — of about $74 to the owner of a home with a $30,000 state equalized value (which is 50 percent of actual value).

However, the tax bill increase could actually be less than that. Under state law, governmental units are required to either roll back their millage rates or hold public hearings any time revenues rise as a result of increases in property values. Even with the public hearings, the revenue increases are limited to a percentage equal to the Consumer Price Index. The index this year is 1.9 percent.

For those who wish to contest the increase in their assessments, the Board of Review will meet in March 9, 10 and 11. The board meets annually to allow property owners to appeal their assessments. "What they should do at that time is come in with what they think their property is worth... and why they feel that way," said Edwards.

An appointment with the Board of Review can be made by calling the city offices at 224-8944.

Correction

There was a typographical error in an informational chart included in the letter from the Clinton Memorial Hospital Board of Directors last week. The chart should have said Clinton Memorial Hospital's net income in 1984 was $503,779; in 1985 it was $124,380. In 1986 the hospital lost a net figure of $346,195.

Notes Principal

FOWLER Lawrence Lawless was recently appointed principal of Fowler High School. The former Portland High School principal and athletic director replaces Stephen Digsby, who has taken a assistant principal post in Milford.

Competing

OID-ELSIE Michelle Brooks, a senior at Ovid-Elsie High School, will compete in the Olympia National Scholastic Typing Contest. Her alternate is Lisa Bernath, also an Ovid-Elsie senior.

Over 5,000 students compete each year in the contest for prizes ranging from typewriters to $500 cash awards.

Gymnastics

ST. JOHNS St. Johns High School will host the Mid-Michigan Womens Gymnastics Conference meet on March 7 beginning at noon. Along with the St. Johns squad, teams from Perry, Haslett, Mason, Lansing Catholic Central, Hartland, and Ionia are scheduled to participate.

The public is invited to attend the meet, hosted for the first time ever by St. Johns.

Day change

OID An open house at Ovid Junior High, originally planned for March 9, has been rescheduled for March 17 at 7:30 p.m. During the open house, the public will have an opportunity to tour the building and gain information about the special millage election on March 30 for voters of the Ovid-Elsie Area Schools District.

The $4,650,000 bond issue would allow for the construction and equipping of a new middle school facility.

History

LEESBACH, LUXEMBOURG Alphonse Kaude... Sohn von Jean Nicolas Kaude und Marie Monique Dosbourg, wanderte nach Amerika aus und liess sich in St. Johns, Clinton County, Michigan.

Thus begins a section of the book "Haus- und Familienchronik Simmern 1654-1985," recently published in Luxembourg, relating the history of an area of that country in which was born Alphonse Kaude. The section tells of Mr. Kaude's immigration to St. Johns, where with his wife, Agnes, he raised two sons, Vincent and John.

John Kaude (the family changed the spelling of their name), a well known St. Johns resident, was recently sent a copy of the book by a friend in Luxembourg. Kaude, a veteran of the invasion of France, and his brother in 1984 visited the birthplace of their father, a visit also noted in the book.

Car hits semi-truck

Two men were injured last week in St. Johns when their car crossed into the path of an oncoming semi-truck.

James McClaine, 114 Armor Lane, St. Johns, was driving east on M-21 east of St. Johns at about 9:30 p.m. Wednesday. With him in the car was a passenger, Jeffrey Lee Farrier, 8804 Allen Rd., Elsie, said police and area residents who heard the call on police scanners.

A Sheriff's Department spokeswoman said Florian Budnik, the driver of a west bound semi-truck, observed McClaine's vehicle cross the center line into the path of his truck. Budnik steered his truck onto the shoulder of the road where it was struck by the car driven by McClaine, police said.

The spokeswoman said alcohol was allegedly involved in the accident and that she believed warrants were pending. McClaine and Farrier were reportedly hospitalized.

10 years of service

GOOD HEALTH — Glenn Webster, left, chairman of the Clinton County Board of Commissioners, resigned last week from the governing board of the Mid-Michigan District Health Department. He had served for 10 years. He is congratulated by Board Chairman Charles Mulholland. County Commissioner Roger Overway takes Webster's place on the health board.

New county jail to cost $4.4 million, says study

Construction of a new Clinton County jail would cost $4.4 million dollars while building an addition to the current jail would cost about $1.6 million, according to an architectural firm consulted by the county.

But the cheaper option would leave the jail deficient in a number of areas, the firm said.

Clinton County Commission Chairman Glenn Webster last week asked for the formation of a special committee to work toward bringing a jail millage proposal to a vote of the people.

"I'd like to see things move along on that," he said. "That's one of my

Foundation gives $1,260 for music ed

The board of directors of the St. Johns Schools Foundation for Excellence approved the awarding of its first grant for a music education project for kindergartners prepared by Joseph Bodarko.

A check in the amount of $1,260 will be presented to St. Johns School superintendent Earl Gabriel for delivery to Bodarko.

Presently, no formal music education is offered for kindergarten students. The format of the kindergarten course will be a series of 45 sequential lessons of 15-20 minutes providing musical foundation in the areas of gross motor skill development, locomotion, rhythmic-coordination skill development and singing techniques.

"This project is intended to aid the classroom teacher in musical skills development," Bodarko said in his application. "It cannot take the place of a formal music education program offered by music department personnel, but would remain of great value as a supplement if at some time the district is able to provide a formal kindergarten program."

Another funding cycle is currently underway during which time educators in St. Johns Public Schools may submit applications for grants. The foundation was formed with the idea of providing supplemental funds to the district for programs which would not be funded through the normal budget process and would be of benefit to a broad segment of the system.

"The foundation board is excited about awarding this grant and looks forward to authorizing several more in the near future," said board Chairman Ron Huard.

priorities." Last November a one-mill jail construction proposal was defeated by 80 votes.

County officials and law enforcement officials have long said the present jail is overcrowded and inadequate. The county is paying dearly for an inadequate facility because it has to transport and "board out" prisoners the present jail can not handle, they have said.

For several months county commissioners have been discussing bringing another jail proposal to the voters.

Cost estimates provided by the architectural and planning firm Wigen, Tinckel, Meyer & Associates show that a new jail could be built for $4.4 million. With double bunking, the jail could house 100 inmates, the estimates show.

The firm estimated the cost of a jail addition at $1.6 million. However, it said, the jail would be deficient in several areas.

One deficiency would be cells too small for double bunking. Jail capacity would be limited to 61 inmates.

Other deficiencies the firm said, would include a lack of space for processing new inmates; lack of space for storage of clothing and personal effects; food and laundry service and storage; lack of a medical or infirmary room; lack of a commissary area; insufficient indoor exercise; and lack of office space.

County commissioners face more problems with shortage of space

By RICH WERTZ
Editor

Clinton County commissioners last week grappled again with the space problem plaguing county government. This time a number of county employees whose offices are in the county services building showed up to protest a plan to temporarily convert half their conference room to office space.

The issue arises because the Mid-Michigan District Health Department had until today to vacate space it has been using at the 65th District Court on US-27 in St. Johns. The court, recently remodeled, requires the space for its own use.

The commission's building and grounds committee initially recommended that the health department use half of a conference room at the services building. The health department is already quartered there.

But other tenants of the services building resisted the idea. Giles Roehl, director of the Cooperative Extension Service, told commissioners the conference room is used 102 times for every 100 workdays.

Other tenants of the services building are the Department of Public Works, the Drain Commission, the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee, the Soil Conservation Service, the Soil Conservation Service, and the Department of Zoning and Planning. Most of the other tenants of the building were represented at the meeting.

"In other words that room is used — just really used," said Roehl. "If it is split those meetings will not be able to be held there."

Roehl asked county commissioners to either reconsider the plan to locate the health department in the conference room or to help find space to replace the conference room.

After discussion, county commissioners asked administrators to try to locate privately owned office space the county could rent for the health department. Commissioners put a maximum price tag of $5,000 on the rental.

A few weeks ago a number of county residents objected when commissioners said they were considering using space on the property of the Paine Gillingham Scott Museum for a pole barn. That plan arose from a shortage of space for storage.

Also short of space is the Clinton County Jail, which boards out prisoners at a cost of thousands of dollars each year.

Thank you, Journal

To the Editor:

It is with the greatest satisfaction and pride that we would like to thank Betty Jane Minsky for her time and energy (to say nothing of her hard work and talent) in covering the St. Johns High School theatre competition. Mrs. Minsky rode our buses, interacted with our students, ate and slept in the same places we did, and took an honest interest in both our youth and their talents. Her attitude and interest is to be commended and we thank her for the terrific articles recently in the Journal. We also thank Brian, the photographer, a most pleasant and competent young man, and the editors who make these feature-writings possible. It made us feel like a million bucks to see some recognition in an area of excellence that has been long overlooked and under-appreciated.

'Story' almost lost

To the Editor:

On Feb. 20 and 21 we were privileged to watch the St. Johns Drama Club, guided by the astute hands and minds of Bob Koger and Barb Markman, again win the state finals against strong competition from 12 other schools. If anyone who could not be there to watch this happen try to get a look at the Feb. 22 issue of the State Journal. Half the front page was devoted to this feat, along with more on page four. Our compliments go to Betty Jane Minsky for the excellent coverage and to Brian for the great pictures.

However, this was not so with our local media. Very little was done to enlighten the public on what happened. You would think that with about 90 families involved it would make a difference. Not so. It was almost lost in the total context of the news. Perhaps if it had been a sport it would have received more coverage. Even a full page with pictures would not have been out of line. Too bad, guess it just didn't make that big an impression on the right people. Just maybe next time?

CMH medical staff supports appeal of bed decision

Open letter to the community:

We, the active members of the Clinton Memorial Hospital Medical staff, do hereby support the hospital board of directors in their appeal of the state health department's decision to award all new allotted nursing home beds to Hazel I. Findlay Country Manor.

We believe there are many obviously good medical reasons to locate some of these beds within the confines of the hospital, as requested in Clinton Memorial's application. As stated elsewhere, those reasons include — but are not limited to — less trauma to the patient and family on transfer to a nursing facility, ready access to physicians who make daily rounds at the hospital, availability of ancillary services including laboratory, cardio-pulmonary, radiology, physical therapy, pharmacy and trained nursing departments, etc. New beds could be built at the hospital for a lower cost per bed than at Hazel Findlay, because no new building would be required. The entire community benefits from such savings.

In light of recent publicized financial losses suffered by the hospital, we firmly believe that a stable patient

To the Editor:

We have three children aged five, seven and nine. Two of them were born at Clinton Memorial Hospital where they, as well as my wife, received excellent care.

This community needs our hospital. Believe us, as parents that 20-mile trip to Lansing with one of your children bleeding, choking or whatever is like driving 200 miles for help.

Everyone hopes it won't happen to them, but emergencies do happen and it's comforting to know there is a hospital only minutes away. Please don't wait for an emergency to find out.

Let's pull together as a community for our hospital and see what we can do to help keep it going for all of us.

base provided by adding extended care beds at the hospital would help spread the costs of the entire hospital operation and lead to improved financial viability.

The losses suffered by Clinton Memorial are significant and cannot be continued. There are many factors which have led to these losses, but no single solution to the hospital's financial difficulty. However, placement of 24 beds at Clinton Memorial Hospital would help a great deal.

As physicians, we are in contact with the hospital more closely and more frequently than most members of the community. The hospital itself is a valuable community asset. It represents a long-term investment by members of this community and their families who have invested a great deal of time and money throughout the past sixty years. Such an investment has and will continue to pay handsome dividends in accessible quality health care to anyone who needs hospital services. It does not make sense to abandon this community asset and deprive the community of a necessary and valuable health care facility. The economic effect alone would have a serious impact upon Clinton County.

We are given to understand that much competition exists between the governing bodies of Hazel I. Findlay Country Manor and Clinton Memorial Hospital. Both groups have responsibility for providing quality health care for our community and would best serve their citizens through their mutual cooperation and support. Such action would also serve the community better and further increase the dividends our community receives on its sizeable healthcare investments in both institutions.

We would urge each of you — as responsible members of the community — to join us in our support of the hospital's appeal and work together in reaching an amicable solution to the problems threatening the future of health care delivery in our community.

Questions about hospital remain

To the Editor:

I must have been delirious the day I sat down and wrote my letters of gratitude to the citizens of this community for saving my life a couple of weeks ago! Sometimes I get so wrapped up in issues and concerns that I come on pretty strong. The truth of the matter is that I am weak! As an individual I am limited in what I can accomplish, given only 24 hours a day to work in. The point is that no one person can accomplish what's best for all of the community on his own.

My plea for support of Clinton Memorial Hospital from the community has shown a genuine, positive response. It has also raised questions regarding current administrative policies and procedures, reasons for staff reduction, and questions pertaining to the organizational structure and investments into subsidiary Clinton Services Corporation, which is the profit making arm of the Health Corporation of Clinton. Other questions pertaining to the Michigan Department of Public Health decision to award all 49 nursing care beds to Hazel I. Findlay Manor and none to CMH have also come to the surface.

I have been approached by many residents and patrons of CMH in regards to my quest for information and the letters, calls, and concerns, continue to mount. So do the signatures on our petitions to the hospital board for information. In response to this mounting concern, the CMH submitted an open letter to the residents of Clinton County addressing some of our concerns and gave us a brief overview of the rising costs of maintaining a community hospital in this day and age. This is a welcome gesture on the part of the hospital board but was it enough to satisfy our need as a community to responsibly support a decision that the rumors and speculations are not true? We think not!

In an audience with CMH Director Paul McNamara I personally addressed several questions of concern regarding the hospital's condition. What you read in the papers last week are some of the answers I received. There are other questions I had that I received no answers to — questions that I feel are pertinent to forming an opinion and ultimately making a final judgment as to where a solution to this problem actually can be developed. The letter from the hospital board, although it answered a minimum of our concerns, also raises more questions.

Two primary facets brought out in the interview reporter Dennis Scott had with Tom Wiseman and that were expressed in the board's letter for long range solutions to the financial crisis were:

1. A continuing recruitment of physicians to bolster the present 18 doctor staff. Our question is: With cutbacks in the nursing and support staffs to the point that present doctors are finding it hard to cope with, how are we ever going to convince current doctors or future doctors to send their patients to CMH or to affiliate their practices with an understaffed hospital?

2. In a time when a financial crunch is threatening existing hospital services, how can we justify even considering more specialized medical care until we maintain what we have now?

Another question we'd like answered is why is there not a greater spirit of cooperation, in the community interest, between the administrations and boards of

Often overlooked and underrated, in fact, used as fodder for livestock in the winter, the turnip has been cultivated for more than four thousand years.

Turnip tops and bottoms were used in Greece and Rome. The Romans, called the turnip the most useful vegetable after beans and cereals. They were boiled and roasted, whole or sliced, served in salad or used for appetizers.

The turnip belongs to the mustard family, and though there are numerous varieties, those we most frequently use are the common white turnip and the yellow turnip or rutabaga. Some of the more mature bulbs have been known to weigh as much as forty pounds. These, of course, are not very tender.

Popular as the turnip was in the ancient world, it was unknown in much of Europe until the early 16th century. First in France but not in England until the mid-seventeenth century. Later, American cooks regarded turnips primarily as ingredients for soups and stews.

If turnip greens aren't in your diet plan, try them... they're good for you. They lend a super flavor to a wide assortment of meats, and with their absorbent quality they go well with fatty meat dishes.

If you don't find turnips in Beck's produce department this week - check with our produce people and they will suggest just the right thing to bring variety to hohum meals.

Watertown water service underway Man sentenced in Fowler case

Watertown Township officials delivered a check for $453,000 to the Board of Water and Light recently, marking the initial payment in an agreement that will extend water service to the area.

Under terms of the agreement, the Board of Water and Light will extend water mains from its system to the west, approximately two miles along North Grand River from Waverly Road to the John Henry Company east of Lowell Road. Mains will also be constructed north on Felton Road and south on Industrial Parkway.

Initially, the project will benefit some 30 commercial property owners and several homeowners, providing them with reliable fire protection service as well as pre-softened, potable water. Eventually, BWL water service will cover 4,200 acres in the southeast part of Watertown Township.

Total cost of the project is $1,253,000, including $449,000 which the BWL is spending. The BWL's portion will provide needed improvements to the existing distribution system in the northwest portion of Lansing, and provides for oversizing water mains in Watertown to meet future needs.

The check was covered by a bond issue. The remainder of the township's share of the project will be recovered through water rates and hydrant fees to affected property owners.

Township and BWL officials described the new agreement as beneficial to both organizations. "Watertown Township is positioned for major economic growth," said Watertown Supervisor Tom O'Bryant. "With sewers in place, a new local zoning ordinance, and major drain projects scheduled, this new water system will be an important factor in promoting development."

Richard Klein, 5267 Francis Rd., St. Johns, who pleaded no contest to leaving the scene of an accident in which a Fowler boy died, was sentenced last week to 60 days in jail and two years of probation.

Gratiot County District Court Judge James B. Mackie also sentenced Klein to 100 hours of community service work, a $500 fine and a one-year driver's license suspension.

Klein had pleaded guilty to a charge of leaving the scene of a personal injury accident September 29 in which his struck and killed Brian Simmon, 15, of 11509 S. Second St., Fowler.

Hospital letter, con't.

CMH and Hazel I. Findlay Manor so that we may be assured that we are not jeopardizing both health care facilities in our community? May we suggest a mutual spirit of cooperation be entered into immediately.

The Residents for Clinton Memorial Hospital are not against anything or anyone. Yes, we are for CMH but more importantly we are for assurance of quality health care services in all sectors of our community, today and in the future. In addition to the assurance stated in the open letter to the residents, we would also appreciate the details of the short term steps to be taken to assure that our families can feel secure in the knowledge that our hospital is in the proper position to handle our health care needs and assurance that our doctors and technicians can feel confident in the hospital facilities, the administration, the nursing and support staff to the extent that we keep good doctors here in St. Johns and project a positive image to the doctors who may be considering St. Johns for their practice, and an assurance that our aged are cared for also.

In an unrelated issue (or is it unrelated) regarding the progress of CANDO in one year's time, Lansing Regional Chamber of Commerce and RED Team Director James Jordan said, "Economic development may be defined as any investment that creates jobs and broadens the tax base...Toward that end it behooves us to take care of what we have...Some of the most important things you can do involve bringing industry, business and government together." The most important thing we can do regarding health care services in this county is to bring together doctors plus hospital services plus Hazel I. Findlay. Together they equal an assurance of quality health care services.

This community has been split too many times and in too many directions in recent times. Murders, school board issues, child sexual abuse cases, etc. It's time we all pull together in a positive, cooperative, Christian manner and ask God to grant us the "Serenity to accept those things we can not change, the courage to change the things we can, and the wisdom to know the difference."

19 SJHS Band Members will tour China

Over 200 students representing 92 different Michigan School districts converged on St. Johns High School over the weekend of January 9th and 10th. At stake were 181 positions on the 1987 Michigan Lions All-State Band and a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to accompany that group on a summer tour that will include Hong Kong, Canton, Taipei, and two ports of call in Hawaii.

For the students involved in the two-day audition procedure used to select the best musicians available, the preparation for the tryouts began some time ago. Applications by each student were due at the Lions state headquarters on December 30, 1986. Most of the bandsmen, with assistance from their local directors, then selected an audition piece for those tryouts and began to practice in earnest.

Capitol Federal launches new promotion to help raise funds for trip

Now through March 31st, 1987, Capitol Federal is giving $5.00 for every new Savings or Checking account opened to help raise money for 19 St. Johns High School band members "1987 China Tour".

That's right. And, anyone in the St. Johns community can help.

Capitol Federal's St. Johns branch employees say the promotion is a great idea. And it's easy!

Here's all you have to do: Stop in to the St. Johns office! Choose between a Savings account, which still pays 5 1/2% interest. Or, if you want the convenience of writing checks and earning interest, open a 5 1/4% interest bearing Checking account. Both accounts require a minimum deposit of $100.00 to be eligible for the promotion.*

"Our Passbook Savings still pays 5 1/2% interest so people can get a very good rate and help out the kids at the same time," states Ken Kralik, St. Johns Branch Manager.

Capitol Federal President Robert Clark says "We like to take part in worthy community causes. This is a brand new promotional idea for us, and we're optimistic that it will be successful in helping send the band members to China."

Hopefully, with your help we can help the dream become a reality for 19 St. Johns High School students.

Local men help Ski for Light

By RICH WERTZ
Editor

Three St. Johns residents last month traveled to Traverse City to volunteer for the National Ski for Light program in which handicapped athletes gathered for a week of winter sports.

"It primarily addresses winter sport activities — primarily skiing in this case — for the blind and mobility-impaired handicapper," says Bill Richards, director of the Community Resource Volunteers in St. Johns. Richards was one of the three volunteers from St. Johns.

Also from St. Johns were Maurice Witteveen and Rick Carson. The three men, among other things, acted as guides for blind skiers.

Actually, local involvement in the event goes back quite a ways. Back in 1981 Richards, former Clinton County News Editor Patrice Hornak and local radio newsmen Ross Woodstock were running a ski event at Sleepy Hollow. "We were doing a meet for sighted skiers," recalls Richards.

FIRST TIME — Robin Devour, left, a psychiatrist from Portland, Ore., tries skiing blind for the first time in his life as Rick Carson acts as a guide.

They happened to ask a man named Harold Brunvand for assistance. Brunvand agreed to help with the local sky event — and then turned around and asked for St. Johns' help in a sky meet he had organized for handicappers. The event was to be a state version of the national Ski for Light, a handicaper winter sports program based on a generations-old similar program in Norway.

Maurice Witteveen, 605 S. Mead St., St. Johns, entered the scene as one of the organizers of the Michigan Ski for Light. Now, every year during the first week of January, a Ski for Light is held at Higgins Lake.

"We try to see that some from the region go to the national meet," says Richards.

There were 200 people at the national meet in Traverse City, says Richards, and over half of them were either blind or mobility-impaired.

Rick Carson, 701 S. Oakland St., St. Johns, acted as a guide for Robin Devour, a blind psychiatrist from Portland, Oregon.

"I thought the program went pretty well," says Carson. The man he acted as a guide for had never before skied.

"He seemed to enjoy it very much," says Carson.

As for himself, says Carson, he was not daunted at the thought of teaching a blind person to ski.

"I knew what I was getting into because I've been a guide at regional meets four times," he explains.

Says Richards, "Fellowship, learning to ski — these things are the important things as opposed to who wins."

Anyone interested in acting as a guide at future Ski for Light meets should call Bill Richards at the Community Resource Volunteers, 224-8285.

ON THE TRAIL The two men continue down the cross country ski trail.

Eagles claim third straight CMAC crown

Fowler takes 36-34 OT win from P-W

By RHONDA WESTFALL
Sports Editor

It's over for another year. In a game that took an overtime period to decide, Fowler came away with the win, 36-34, over Central Michigan Athletic Conference rival Pewamo-Westphalia. The victory gave the Eagles their third consecutive CMAC title, boosting their overall record to 17-1.

Pewamo-Westphalia ends their regular season with a 15-5, 7-3 record, forcing them to settle for third place in the league behind second-place Laingsburg.

"The kids gave it 110 percent," P-W Coach Ron Kramer said. "I'm extremely proud of them. It was terribly frustrating to lose, but I really feel that we couldn't have done things much differently than what we did. "They played the game as well as they could play it."

Fowler Coach Dennis Smith felt much the same way about his opposition.

"Pewamo-Westphalia played excellent defense — just excellent," Smith said. "Quite frankly, I was disappointed in the way we played. I was glad for the win, but there is no way we should have played like we did at this point in the season."

Smith's displeasure with his teams' performance stemmed in part from the Eagles' poor free throw shooting, making good on just 10-23 shots from the charity stripe, and from their inability to handle the ball under the Pirates' intense pressure.

"We knew we had to press to be in the game at all," Coach Kramer said.

And apply pressure they did. FROM THE opening tip to the final overtime buzzer, the Pirates hounded the Eagles. They tallied no less than 15 steals on the night, while making Fowler work hard for each and every shot.

Fowler's Kurt Simon scored the initial points of the contest, the only time that the Eagles would see the lead until the five minute mark in the fourth period. The Pirates answered back with three buckets by Dave Spitzley after stealing the ball each time the Eagles attempted to bring the ball downcourt.

Not to be outdone, Fowler played thief when the Pirates had possession but could not capitalize off their steals. The quarter closed with P-W on top 12-7 after holding the ball for the last :45 seconds of the stanza for the last shot.

Behind more full-court pressure and a flurry of baskets by Glen Stump and Dave Hengesbach, the Pirates pushed their lead up to 18-10. The Eagles looked flustered as Coach Smith called for time out with 4:41 left in the second period in an attempt to marshal his troops.

In the next three minutes of play, the Eagles drove hard to the basket, picking up fouls enroute, but missed on 7 of 9 big free throw attempts. Matt Hufnagel picked up the final two points of the period, sending Fowler into the lockerroom behind by a score of 20-14.

Dave Stump and Dane Hengesbach added to P-W's point totals when play resumed in the third quarter, only to have Simon and Jim Andros answer back with baskets for Fowler. However, the Eagles could not pull closer than four points with the period ending in the Pirates favor, 28-24.

Dane Hengesbach tallied the first points of the fourth quarter, giving P-W 30 points — a score that the Pirates would not get past until the 3:10 mark of regulation.

GRADUALLY, Fowler began to close the gap. Kurt Simon got things off by making 1-2 shots from the charity stripe, and Rex Thelen added 2 more points from the line to pull the Eagles to 30-27.

The senior guard then tied the game at 30-30 when he drove the lane following a steal by Steve Bierstetel and was fouled, giving the Eagles a three-point-play. Hufnagel's two-pointer, also off a Fowler steal, put the Eagles up 32-30 with 4:42 left on the clock.

Dave Stump knotted the score at 32-32 at the 3:10 mark. That score carried the two clubs into overtime when neither squad could score in the defensive struggle.

A shot from near the top of the key by Hufnagel broke the deadlock, putting Fowler ahead 34-32 at 1:37 of overtime. Following a time out call by the Pirates, Dave Hengesbach tied the game once more with just :28 seconds remaining. Called for a foul, the Pirates sent Hufnagel to the line where he connected on both shots to give Fowler all the overtime points they would need for the win.

The Pirates got the ball back one last time, but a shot put up with :06 showing would not fall and, following a wild scramble for the rebound, time ran out.

"For the most part, we did not deviate from our game plan," Coach Smith said. "We wanted to deny them shots from the paint, forcing them to shoot from the outside. Offensively, we wanted to be patient and wait for the inside shot."

"The only thing we did different was to go from a half-court to a full-court press. We had to put pressure on them and pick the tempo up in the second half."

HUFNAGEL WAS the leading scorer for Fowler with 12 points, scoring all four overtime points. Rex Thelen had 9 points, including the key free throws that originally tied the game, and Kurt Simon had 7 rebounds, 5 points, and 8 blocked shots, getting three big blocks in overtime.

New league in the works for area schools?

By MARK PARGAS
and RHONDA WESTFALL

In what could turn out to be a major revamping of area conference structures, eight schools from the Capital Area Conference, Capital Circuit and the Mid-Michigan B League met last week to discuss possibilities for realignment, although nothing firm was established.

Representatives from Charlotte, East Lansing, Grand Ledge, Mason, St. Johns and Waverly met Feb. 26 with Holt High athletic director Jack Crawford to discuss a number of ideas concerning forming a new league or rearranging the Capital Circuit.

Okemos had been involved in early discussions on this topic, but no representative from Okemos was present at the Thursday afternoon meeting in Holt.

Representatives at the meeting said discussion centered on two issues: forming a new league or making a two-level league out of the Capital Circuit.

Okemos, Mason and Charlotte, members of the Capital Circuit, are happy with the Capital Circuit but are interested in what the addition of Waverly, Holt, Grand Ledge or St. Johns would do for the league.

Openly shopping for a new affiliation are Holt and Waverly, both members of the Capital Area Conference, a Lansing based organization.

Waverly has made proposals to both the Mid-Michigan B League and the Capital Circuit that would allow the Warriors to join the league.

Capital Circuit athletic directors did not state whether an official vote was taken, but minutes from a February meeting of the DeWitt School Board indicate the subject of Waverly moving into the Capital Circuit was discussed.

The minutes state, "Waverly School District's letter expressing interest in again becoming a member of the Capital Circuit League was discussed by the (DeWitt) board. The Board continued its position in opposition to Waverly's membership. DeWitt's position is based on comparative enrollment of Waverly being twice that of DeWitt."

Enrollment is a major consideration at the present time.

GRAND LEDGE athletic director Gary Boyce said his school has an enrollment of 1,654. This would make it the largest school of the group at this meeting. Boyce stated that the three Lansing schools (Eastern, Everett and Sexton) have enrollments of more than 2,000 students, as does Jackson.

Holt, said Boyce, has an enrollment of 1,439 and Waverly has an enrollment of 1,143. East Lansing has an enrollment of 1,368.

This difference in size between Holt and the schools from Lansing and Jackson moved the administration of the Holt School District to seek out alternative league memberships.

St. Johns director of student activities Richard Vitek said Holt's situation is made worse due to the fact that the Rams do not have freshmen competing at the high school level. Holt is a three-year school while the rest of the schools in the CAC are four-year institutions.

Much of Holt's problems came with the closing of Harry Hill High School in Lansing. That swelled the number of students at Eastern, Everett and Sexton. The Lansing schools then included ninth graders as part of the package, adding to the difference in size between Holt and the Lansing schools.

Holt was hoping to pick up backing for a new setup, but representatives at the meeting said there appears to be just two schools — Waverly and Holt — who are looking for something solid to develop now.

Still, Crawford said any movement would be down the road because of commitments and procedures.

"Each school would have to go through its administration and then the administration would have to go through the school board," said Crawford. "Then, the schools would have to notify the leagues that they would be leaving and they would have to discuss all of this. There is no way something would happen in time for the 1987-88 school year."

Philip Marazita, athletic director at Waverly, said Waverly has been looking for a new affiliation and this meeting was one for informational purposes rather than trying to do some moving behind the backs of the leagues of which these schools are members.

THE IDEA of realignment will be discussed this week at the regular league meetings for the Capital Circuit and Capital Area Conference.

Boyce said the Capital Circuit is looking at the possibility of moving from a seven-team league to an eight-team league. Last year, the DeWitt School Board stalled a drive to move the Panthers into the Ingham County League. Sources indicate DeWitt is again looking into moving out of the Capital Circuit and that would open up a chance for Waverly and Holt to move into the Circuit.

Charlotte athletic director Gene Visscher said he has no qualms with Waverly joining the Capital Circuit.

"I think they would be a good addition to our league. A couple of years back when Waverly tried to get into the league, I was one of the few who voted for them to come in and I still feel the same way about them in our league," he said.

Mike Duda, Eaton Rapids' athletic director, said he had heard of several CAC schools looking for alternative arrangements but did not come out as endorsing any one school for membership in the Capital Circuit.

"I think it would have to be discussed with the entire league before we could say this or that school would be a good addition," Duda said.

SEVERAL SCHOOLS are just listening to the proposals. St. Johns and Grand Ledge appear to be the fence sitters.

"We're satisfied," Vitek said of St. Johns' position. "We're not looking to get out of the MMB. Right now, with the exception of Charlotte, we play all the other schools on a non-conference basis anyway."

Remembering the West Central

By RHONDA WESTFALL
and MARK PARGAS

The old West Central Conference — a phrase that brings back memories of high caliber athletics and fierce rivalries.

Beginning in 1936, when it was comprised of Hastings, Ionia, Belding and Greenville, until it disbanded in 1975-76, the West Central was a league with teams that were respected throughout the mid-Michigan area.

No where was that fact more evident than in football. Year in and year out, the West Central produced winning football teams. Many were ranked in various state-wide polls, and had there been a state play-off system in place, it's a safe bet that more than a few teams would have travelled the play-off road.

The first football games were played in the fall of 1936, Hastings defeating Ionia 22-9 and Belding downing Greenville 7-6. Ironically, Ionia and Hastings, the two schools who remained in the West Central throughout its existence, played in the final football game in the league 39 years later. Ionia won that outing 13-12.

St. Johns entered the league in 1945, ending its first season with a 0-3-1 record. In 1948, the Redwings got their first league title when the season ended in a three-way tie between St. Johns, Greenville and Ionia.

FROM 1949-1953 St. Johns dominated the West Central with teams that won three consecutive league titles (1949, 50, 51), ending their 1950 season ranked number one in the state.

Charlotte, Eaton Rapids and Grand Ledge joined the league in 1957. The Orioles won the league that year with a perfect 9-0-0 record, ranked number three in the state.

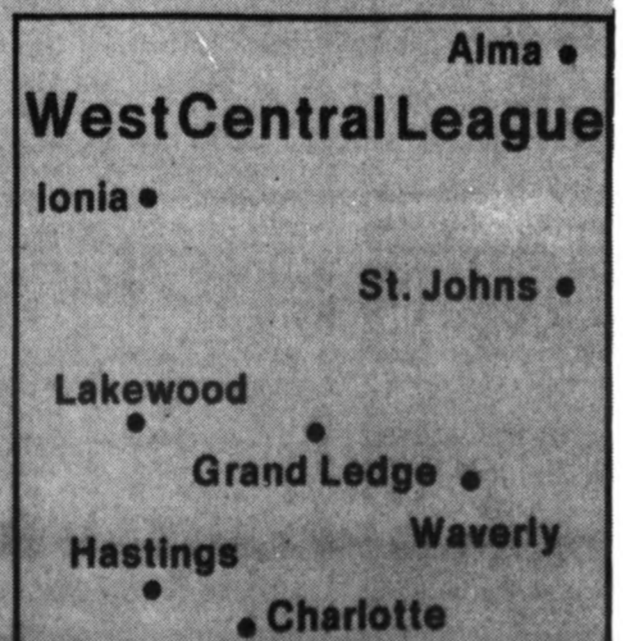

In 1961, Belding left the league, and in 1963 Grand Ledge and Hastings played to a 6-6 tie in the final game of the season, forcing them to share the league title — a first for the Comets.

During the next 14 years, from 1962-1976, Grand Ledge and St. Johns either won or shared the West Central championship 12 times. It was the beginning of a rivalry that would dominate the remaining years of the conference.

Eaton Rapids left the league in 1963, and in 1964 Alma and Lakewood joined. In 1968 Waverly entered the West Central, making it an eight-team conference: Waverly, Alma, Lakewood, St. Johns, Grand Ledge, Ionia, Hastings, and Charlotte.

Grand Ledge ruled the league from 1971-74, winning three consecutive undisputed titles and sharing the league crown once.

In the final 1975 season, the Redwings went undefeated taking the championship away from Grand Ledge with a 26-7 win — the end of an era in mid-Michigan high school sports.

Redwing tankers set records

St. Johns swimmers scored a major coup in the Central Michigan Swim League (CMSL) conference meet held at Alma High School last Friday and Saturday, with a second place finish earning them second place overall in the league for the year.

"It was a tremendous meet — really exciting," Redwing Coach Jim Makaruskas said. "We were tied for third place in the league going into the meet. We knew we would have to swim our best."

The Redwings proved equal to the challenge, turning in best times of the year in 21 of 27 races in qualifying races held on Friday, and posting "best times ever" in 16 of 23 final races on Saturday.

Corunna finished in first place with 239.5 meet points and 18 league points, St. Johns was second with 194.5 meet points and 14.5 league points, DeWitt was third with 186 meet points and 14 league points, and Alma finished fourth with 188 meet points and 13.5 league points.

St. Johns broke no less than 4 school records in the two-day affair, setting new Redwing marks in the following: 100 freestyle (Tom Newhall, :50.92, previously set by Steve Baxter in 1980); 200 freestyle (German Povina, 1:51.51, previously set by Kirk Goins in 1979); 500 freestyle (Povina, 4:58.52, bettering a mark he set earlier this season); and the 400 freestyle relay (Povina, T. Newhall, Pete McNamara, and Mike Martindale, 3:25.69, previously set by Spencer Baker, Mike Martindale, Steve Smith, and Kevin Hufnagel in 1985).

Redwing place finishers were as follows:

200 medley relay: third place — Paul Avery, Steve Williams, Mike Giesecke, Dave Newhall, 1:47.23 (best time of year). 200 freestyle: first place — Povina, 1:51.51; fourth place — McNamara, 1:54.73; eighth place — Martindale, 1:56.31. 200 individual medley: seventh place — Giesecke, 2:11.60; eighth — Williams, 2:11.76. 50 freestyle: third place — T. Newhall, :23.17; eleventh place — Aaron LeVeck, :24.13. Diving: third place — Paul VanBeelen, 277.15 points; eighth place — Mike Baatz. Butterfly: sixth place — Giesecke, :59.14. 100 freestyle: third place — T. Newhall, :50.92. 500 freestyle: third place — Povina, 4:58.52; seventh place — McNamara, 5:12.74. Backstroke: seventh place — Avery, 1:02.44. Breaststroke: fourth place — Williams, 1:05.78; fifth place — Martindale — 1:06.26; ninth place — D. Newhall, 1:08.35. Freestyle relay: third place — Povina, T. Newhall, McNamara, Martindale, 3:25.69.

Paul VanBeelen is the lone Redwing swimmer or diver to qualify for the state regional meet. VanBeelen will take part in regional diving competition at East Kentwood High School in Grand Rapids on March 10. Qualifying divers from the regional advance to the state diving competition scheduled for March 13 and 14 at Michigan State University.

Free throws salvage win for Redwings, 72-71

Ever wonder what goes through the mind of the basketball player standing at the free throw line with the outcome of the game resting on whether or not he makes the shot?

"I was just hoping I didn't miss it like I had before," St. Johns junior forward Jim Martens said of his thoughts when he was in the position of being the hero — or the goat — in last Friday's game between the Redwings and Corunna.

Martens' clutch free-throws with :06 seconds left were a big factor in St. Johns' 72-71 victory over the Cavaliers.

"When I let the first one go, it just felt wrong, and I thought, 'Oh, no!'" Martens said. "But, it went through. The second one felt a lot better."

No doubt it went a long way to allaying Redwing Coach Keith Haske's fears about the eventual outcome of the too-close game.

Behind by a 20-12 score at the end of the first quarter, St. Johns battled back in the second period, closing the gap to 35-36 by halftime. Keeping the score close throughout the third period, the Redwings entered the decisive final stanza still trailing 55-58.

St. Johns took it to the Cavaliers in the fourth quarter, holding as much as a five-point lead at one time in the period. Allowing Corunna to get back into the game on baskets off from consecutive Redwing turnovers, the Cavaliers were down by just one point 69-70 when Martens was sent to the line.

A miss by Martens and rebound by Corunna could have changed the outcome of the game. As it was, both charity shots cleared the net. A final buzzer basket by Corunna ended the contest with the score 72-71 in the Redwings' favor.

Tom Penix once again led St. Johns in scoring with 26 points. Clark VanBuren had 12 points and 11 rebounds, Barry Kiel had 9 points, while Bruce Boettger and Martens had 6 points apiece for the Redwings.

The win gives St. Johns a record of 5-4 in the league, good for a tie for second place in the MMB with Ionia. The Redwings travel to Alma this Friday (March 7) for their regular season finale against the undefeated Panthers.

St. Johns begin Class A district play at Owosso High School the week of March 9 with teams from Owosso, Flint Carman-Ainsworth, Flint Southwestern, Flushing, and Swartz Creek. Complete district pairings will be printed in the Clinton County News next week.

Bears score win in home finale

"We had a winning week," Ashley Coach Gary Schestag said of his team's 67-48 Mid-State Athletic Conference win over Genesee last week.

The Bears turned in their strongest performance of the year before a Parent's Night crowd, leading throughout the contest. With a 34-20 halftime lead, Ashley allowed Genesee to come no closer than 10 points at any time in the second half.

"Everybody played and everyone did real well," Schestag said. "It was a good win to end our home season with."

Strong, all-around games were turned in by Aaron Burk, Mike Turner, and Jim Skaryd. Burk finished the night with 14 points and 8 rebounds, Turner had 8 points, 6 rebounds, and 4 assists, and Skaryd had 12 points and 4 steals.

Other Bear scorers were Rick Saylor and Mike Morris with 8 points each, and Pat Cordray and Steve Hardman who each netted 6 points.

The Bears end their regular season with an away game this Friday (March 7) versus conference opponent Byron.

SJ gymnasts set for conf meet

St. Johns gymnasts ended their dual-meet season by scoring an astounding 117.45 to 32.45 win over Lansing Sexton last week. Coach Sue Cerny's squad took first through fourth place honors in each of the four events enroute to the lopsided final score.

Senior Christine Ebert claimed first place in the vault with a score of 8.5, balance beam (7.65), and in floor exercise with a 8.5 score. She placed second on uneven bars with a 6.9 mark.

Taking the remaining first place was Linda Strickland, who claimed the top spot on uneven bars with a score of 7.75. She finished fourth in floor exercise scoring a 6.95, and tied for fourth with Jodi Smith in vault, each tallying 7.4.

Gwynn Sharick earned second place on vault with a 8.35 score, was third on beam with a 6.4, and placed fourth on uneven bars with a score of 6.2. Missy Vitek finished second in floor exercise with a 7.65 and took third place in both vault (7.9) and uneven bars (6.7). Deanne Fox was second on the beam scoring 7.05, and placed third in floor exercise with a score of 7.55.

The gymnasts are looking forward to hosting the Mid-Michigan Womens Gymnastic Conference meet this Saturday (March 7) beginning at noon. Teams from Perry, Haslett, Mason, Lansing Catholic Central, Hartland, and Ionia will take part in the meet.

"It is the first time that St. Johns has ever hosted the conference meet," Coach Cerny said. "This will be a good opportunity for the public to come and see some fine, young gymnasts compete."

P-W, Fowler finale

"He (Kurt) really took care of the paint for us," Coach Smith said.

For the Pirates, Dave Stump had 12 points, 5 steals and 2 assists, Dave Spitzley had 6 points, 6 rebounds, and 3 steals, Dane Hengesbach had 6 points, 4 assists, and 2 steals, Glen Stump had 4 points, 3 assists and 4 steals, Jeff Smith had 4 points and 4 rebounds, and Dave Hengesbach had 2 points, 6 rebounds and 3 assists.

"We just have to accept the result and give credit to Fowler for having a good team," Coach Kramer said. "They had a lot of poise down the stretch."

The Pirates have this week off before their opening Class C district games at Ithaca High School the week of March 9. P-W will face stiff opposition from Central Michigan League schools St. Louis, Shephard and Breckenridge in their district.

Fowler has regular season games remaining with Montabella tonight (March 3) and Lansing Christian tomorrow before their Class D district begins on March 9. The Eagles host their own district this year with Beal City looking to be the top contender for district honors along with Fowler.

A complete listing of all district pairings will be included in next week's Clinton County News.

In junior varsity action, Pewamo-Westphalia ended their almost-perfect season with a 63-42 win over Fowler. The junior Pirates end the year with a record of 19-1.

New league?

"We were invited to attend the meeting and went there primarily with the idea of hearing what the other schools had to say," he said. "Some of the schools had polled their coaches prior to the meeting on their opinions of forming a new league. We didn't, but that is one thing we will be doing now."

"We (Grand Ledge) are open to the possibility of a new league because we are always looking out for what is in the best interests of Grand Ledge," said Boyce. "We are competitive in all but boys basketball and swimming right now. I know that some of the other schools at this meeting are looking to move because they have been directed to find new leagues by their school board."

"Waverly has been instructed to do so," said Boyce. Getting into other leagues has been a problem for Waverly. Marazita said he has been told by the Mid-Michigan B and Capital Circuit that votes have been taken when they have made overtures to move.

Marazita said he never understood the reasons for the denial but that there was some politics involved.

Sources within the Mid-Michigan B league indicated a feeling by some members that they did not really want to compete on a league basis with a "city" school. Travel time would also be a factor for the schools in the northern and eastern range of the league.

Follow-up information will be sent out by Holt to representatives of the schools who attended the meeting, as well as a questionnaire.

MMB spikers share title

With a first place finish in the Mid-Michigan B conference meet last Saturday, the Ovid-Elsie varsity volleyball team tied for the league championship with St. Johns to end the regular season for both clubs. The Marauders finish the year at 27-7 while the Redwings end their season at 20-16 overall.

St. Johns begins Class A district action on March 5 when they host East Lansing in a pre-district match beginning at 7 p.m. The winner advances to district play on March 7 at Waverly High School, playing Okemos at 11 a.m.

The Marauders face Birch Run in their opening district match at Birch Run High School on March 7. That match begins at 9:30 a.m.

In Saturday's conference meet, hosted by Ovid-Elsie, the Marauders won their opening match with Chesaning 15-11, 15-11. They were defeated by St. Johns in their second match of the day 13-15, 13-15, sending them into the losers bracket where they faced Chesaning again, winning 15-9, 15-10.

That set up the face-off between St. Johns and O-E in the final matches of the day. With St. Johns undefeated, having beaten Corunna in their opening match 15-10, 15-8, Ovid-Elsie had to beat the Redwings twice to claim the championship in the double-elimination affair.

The Marauders did just that, winning the semi-final match 15-5, 15-11, and taking championship honors with a 15-7, 15-13 victory.

"It was a long rewarding day," Ovid-Elsie Coach Doug Long said. "The kids definitely were exhausted."

Individually for O-E, Jami Martin had 41 points, 14 aces, 11 blocks, 72 attacks with 20 kills, and 8 saves. Courtney Schneider had 39 blocks, 131 attacks with 38 kills; Carrie Darling had 32 points and 8 aces; Sheila Platner had 26 points, 6 aces, 110 attacks with 30 kills; Jamie Jones had 42 assists and 13 saves; and Bonnie Patrick had 24 assists and 10 saves.

The Ovid-Elsie junior varsity spikers ended their season undefeated with an 18-0 record. The junior Marauders also have a 26-consecutive win streak going, dating back to the 1986 season.

In other action last week, St. Johns placed fourth in the Lansing Everett Invitational held on Feb. 21, and finished the dual-meet portion of their MMB schedule with a 15-5, 15-11 win over Alma. That gave the Redwings a 5-0 record going in the conference meet.

The Redwings finished in first place in their pool play at Everett, defeating teams from Portland (16-14, 15-12), Lansing Everett (15-12, 15-9), and Williamston (13-15, 15-8). A 15-3, 15-10 win over Davison in quarterfinals, put St. Johns into the semifinals where they faced Everett once again.

The outcome of Redwings' second meeting with the Vikings saw Lansing Everett come out on top 15-4, 15-7. St. Johns then played Lansing Eastern in a consolation match, losing the match in three games 15-8, 5-15, 10-15.

Debbie Bensinger had 12 service aces, 21 spikes, and 1 good block; Kerry Porter had 40 spikes and 2 good blocks; Angie Pung had 12 aces; Janice Rademacher had 20 spikes; and Gina Schneider and Jill Moore had 1 good block each.

In the match with Alma, Rademacher had 5 service aces and Porter had 13 spikes.

EIGHTH GRADE ACTION — It took two overtime periods to determine a winner in the championship game of the Ovid-Elsie Junior High Invitational last week, but St. Johns was the eventual winner by a 68-67 score over Corunna. Junior High 'Wings Bart Dickens (pictured left) and Jason Sinke (rebounding) are eighth grade team members.

Rodney B. eighth graders win trophy

The St. Johns eighth grade basketball team gave Redwing fans their money's worth at the annual Ovid-Elsie Invitational Basketball championship game last week. Coach Dick Blink's Redwings defeated a tough Corunna team 68-67 in a lengthy, double-overtime contest to bring home the tournament trophy.

St. Johns advanced to the final game by defeating Elsie in their opening game of the tournament 41-18, then decisioning Merrill 41-26 in the second round to gain a berth in the finals.

Leading scorer for the young 'Wings was Matt Burk who ended the night with 18 points and 8 rebounds. Jason Sinke had 16 points, including key free throws in both overtimes, Matt Martens had 11 points and 13 rebounds, and Shawn Cole had 8 points and 9 rebounds.

Overall, St. Johns enjoyed a successful season with both A and B squads combining for a record of 13-4.

Fulton fought back in their final, home CMAC contest of the season to take a 47-43 win from Portland St. Patrick last Friday.

"We had only 11 turnovers in the game," Coach Larry Walden said. "That's the best of the year for us."

Trailing 18-16 at the half, the Pirates tallied 17 third-quarter points to take a 33-27 lead into the final stanza. Turnovers allowed the Shamrocks to get back into the game in the fourth period, but fine free-throw shooting saved the day for Fulton.

While only scoring one field goal in the last quarter, Fulton was good on 12-17 attempts from the charity stripe. Roger Skaryd, the Pirates' leading scorer on the night with 16 points, connected on 6-8 shots from the line in the final stanza.

Besides Skaryd, Pirate teammates Brad Smeltzer had 10 points, Tod Koone had 9 points and 9 rebounds, and Mike Simmon had 5 points for Fulton. Mike Parks came off the bench for the Pirates to get 2 key free throws with just :36 seconds remaining to help Fulton ice the game.

The Pirates travel to Central Montcalm for a non-league game tonight before the start of district play next week. Fulton plays their Class D district at Fowler High School.

Fulton's junior varsity earned a 49-48 win over the Shamrocks when Scott McCausey put in two free throws with no time showing on the clock.

Beef farmers

Giles Roehl

Last week someone mentioned that I do not feel feeding beef is an activity that can be done profitably on a farm. Guess I left some wrong impressions.

The enterprise for any farmer depends on many factors, including but not limited to: 1. the management ability of the operator in the various enterprises; 2. the facilities available for the operation; 3. the financial structure of the farm, and; 4. the time available for the operation.

With current feed cost, feeder cost, and if facilities are available this may be the time to fill the feed lot. Each operator needs to use the pencil or our feed beef computer program before taking such a step.

The feed beef program asks the operator to input their cost and feeding performance data. It then provides a chart showing potential loss or profitability in 25 different purchase/selling opportunities. Just ask — it's available for your use!

Corner Garden: — As gardeners we are a faithful lot. In spite of everything winter can throw at us we believe that someday spring will come, and the thought of it is enough to generate books of gardening questions. Here are some answers to commonly asked questions.

Q. A very often asked question about seeds that had been saved is if I plant cucumbers next to melons it will make the melons taste funny. Is there really any problem in planting closely related plants together?

A. Only if you plan to save the seed from this year's crop. Except in the case of sweet corn — which will cross with field corn, Indian corn and popcorn to produce an inferior crop this year — cross-pollination of vegetable crops does not affect the edible parts of this year's plants.

If you save the seeds from the crops you grow and plant them next year, however, the resulting plants may not look much like their parents, either because they were cross-pollinated or because they were hybrids to begin with, which are created by carefully crossing two or more lines of plants and do not produce plants like themselves when grown from seed.

An advantage of planting closely related crops together is that it makes it easier to rotate plant families around the garden because you can work with blocks of plants rather than individual rows, hills or plants.

For instance, if you grew all the cole family crops on the east end of the garden and the squash family crops on the north side last year, it's fairly simple to move them to a different area this year — the cole crops on the south side and the squashes on the east end, for instance.

Giles Roehl is the director for the Clinton County Cooperative Extension Service.

PYGMY GOATS — Katina Schaub, 13, was the first 4-H'er in the county to adopt a baby pigmy goat

Courtesy photograph

Program is one year old

4-h'ers adopt pigmy goats

By DIANNA JOHNSON

The pigmy goat adoption program was started in 1984 when Frank and Pat Galbavi of St. Johns decided to donate one of their registered pigmy goats to the Clinton County 4-H program. The pigmy goats are registered with the National Pygmy Goat Association and the American Goat Association. Pat continues to work with the 4-H program and hopes to get more young people interested in pigmy goats as a 4-H project.

Pigmy goats are a small, compact, little goat. They have a very distinct appearance. The adult pigmy goat only measures between 16-23 inches at the withers. They have a nice, full-barreled body and short muscular legs. This gives them a nice, sturdy look. Pigmy goats can be used for milking, some giving up to four pounds of milk a day. Pigmy goats are friendly and lovable and they are good with children.

Katina Schaub, 13, daughter of Harry and Earlene Schaub of DeWitt, was the first 4-H'er in Clinton County to receive a baby pigmy goat through the adoption program. Tina is in her fourth year in 4-H and is a member of two 4-H clubs. Tina is a member of Charlie's Gang where she was elected as treasurer this year and is working on projects such as foods, needlecrafts, sewing, and ceramics. The other club that Tina is a member of is the Clinton Caprines. She is the secretary of that club. Her main interest in this club is with her goats. She has nubian goats as well as pigmy goats.

Caring Farmers

Marilyn Loudenslager

If someone were to ask me if I was under stress, my first response would be, "No!" I certainly wouldn't want to be accused of having "stress."

This word has been used so much in the last several years in conjunction with negative circumstances that it is now seen as a negative characteristic.

The fact is, stress is an unavoidable fact of life. Some stress is part of daily life — it affects everyone. Certain kinds are actually helpful — they keep you on your toes. In fact, once I heard stress referred to as the air in a balloon. You are the balloon, the air is the stress. With no stress you are limp and lifeless. However, add a little stress and you become full and alert. Now add more stress, and more stress, and burst!

This analogy is a good description of how stress works on people. A little is good and we need it to perform. Too much stress on your mind and/or body can make you worried, sad, and even physically ill.

The key is to manage the stress we have so that we perform at an optimum level. Clinton County Caring Farmers group has recently been started to help people manage the stress of everyday farm life. An individual does not need to be at the "bursting" point to benefit from joining the caring farmers. In fact, the only requirements are that you want to manage your stress, you have an open mind and a closed mouth (everything discussed is confidential).

An important part of the caring farmers stress management program is a "fun night!" That's right, key factors in successful stress management are conversation, exercise, relaxation and a change of pace. This fun night provides all of that with volleyball, board games, friends, neighbors and a warm atmosphere.

If you are interested in learning more about the caring farmers, come to the Caring Farmers Fun Night on March 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the Pilgrim United Methodist Church (corner of DeWitt Road and Parks Road.)
