Lone opposition commission member

Proposed county jail criticized by Overway

By LORA THOM
Associate Editor

Roger Overway, member of the Clinton County Board of Commissioners, feels it's excessive to build a larger jail with up to 130 cells.

Overway asserts that the existing jail built in 1949 could be brought into full rule compliance to meet the state of Michigan Department of Corrections administrative code requirements. "We could get deviations from the MDOC for the present jail," says Overway.

"I don't like to see voters pay extra millage, and to throw their money away upsets me," says Overway. "$800,000 is a large amount of money spent to renovate the 1949 jail facility."

Overway is not in opposition of the two comparative site studies which are being considered — one a 60-acre parcel on Townsend Road just east of Scott Road in St. Johns and the other the County Farm.

What concerns Overway is the up to 1-mill property tax increase to fund jail construction if Clinton County residents vote Nov. 3 to build a new jail.

In 1982, Clinton County funded an $800,000 jail remodeling project in an attempt to deal with the housing shortage and other jail deficiencies.

THE INITIAL renovation of the jail was undertaken following the Correction Commissioner's order of Oct. 27, 1980, which limited the operation of the 1949 facility to a 72-hour lock-up, and construction work that when completed would allow operation of the prison facility as a modified jail for a two-year period.

"The department of corrections agreed to the drawings of the Master Compliance Plan which consisted of three phases drawn up by Wigns and Associates of Saginaw, an architect group hired for the renovation of the prison located on 100 Cass St.," says Overway.

According to Overway, future use of the facility was contingent upon a good faith showing and significant progress toward construction of a new jail in full compliance with the administrative code requirements.

The Master Compliance Plan was an approach of developing a phased compliance over a four- to five-year period. Other counties have also used the approach and the department of corrections officials approved it, according to the Master Compliance Plan informational packet.

PHASE I consisted of an addition to the west side of the jail with a basement and two floors above ground. The basement provides facilities and office space for employees, and on the second floor 10 new low security cells were built for trustees (inmates who are classified as low-risk).

Upon completion of Phase I in 1984, the jail's capacity was increased to accommodate a total of 38 inmates, with four work release cells, according to the informational packet.

In 1985, Phase II was partially implemented based on the county's ability to set aside funds on a yearly basis to finance the construction. The plan was to construct a facility to provide a new holding cell, enclosed security garage, new space for both public and private visitation, expansion of an outdoor exercise area, and a new detoxification cell.

Phase III was never implemented, but the new construction plan was intended to build 20 low security cells on the second floor of the addition to the north side of the existing jail. The 10 low security cells constructed in Phase I would then be used for an expanded work release program, with the modified work release cells constructed in Phase I used for inmate search, medical treatment, and improved booking facilities.

THIS RENOVATION was supposed to satisfy administrative code requirements and taxpayers of Clinton County.

However, the time table for implementation was dependent upon assessment of cell capacity needs at the time Phase II would be fully implemented, according to the packet.

Overway suggests that the phased construction schedule should be completed because it seems to be a practical solution to solve physical plant problems.

"In order to save taxpayers dollars, the board of commissioners could take up to $1,000,000 out of county funds, and continue where we left off in Phase II for the renovation of the jail," says Overway.

According to Overway, the delinquent tax revolving fund has not been touched and has over a million dollars in its budget.

Clinton County Sheriff Terry Haneckow says the completion of Phase II and III would be a waste of money because there is no room for expansion.

"Renovations would temporarily be good, but we have to project future needs," says Haneckow. "We're already packing in prisoners like sardines, and are still faced with the problem of lodging prisoners in other county jails in Antrim, Otsego, and Ogemaw due to inmate housing needs."

According to Overway, if the second half of phase II and III were completed, the cost of operating and maintaining the jail would be cost effective for the taxpayers.

Overway contends that if the jail proposal does get rejected by the voters, the Department of Corrections won't press the county to resolve the physical plant problems of the existing jail, with the exception of the holding cell detention area and intake area which don't meet the state's regulating codes and standards.

Clinton County News earns awards in MPA newspaper contest

We're proud!

The Clinton County News just received three awards in the Michigan Press Association Newspaper Contest.

Announcement of the winners was made in conjunction with National Newspaper Week, Oct. 4-10, with the theme: "Your Newspaper: People Serving People." National Newspaper Week is a time when a concentrated effort is made to stress the community service role of newspapers and the relationship between personal freedom and a free press.

Hand-lettered certificates were awarded. Your local newspaper, The Clinton County News, received three of those certificates. Former Editor Rich Wertz received an honorable mention for his series of articles concerning AIDS in the Local News Reporting Category. Rhonda Westfall, sports editor and now associate editor, received the third place award in the Sports Coverage category. The Clinton County News also received the third place award in the Use of Color category.

General Manager Pete Cantine and Managing Editor Nancy Zeimen congratulate the Clinton County News staff on their commitment to excellence which these awards honor.

"Rhonda does a fantastic job of providing sports coverage throughout the year," says Zeimen. "I'm pleased she received the award, but, more importantly, that she is dedicated to giving sports in Clinton County thorough, interesting, consistent, and complete coverage."

Rich Wertz's series of articles concerning AIDS and the local community also earns Zeimen's praise. "We all wish Rich well in his new position in Cheboygan, and I'm sure that what he learned while serving as editor of The Clinton County News, will serve him well in his career. The award he received for these stories is a tribute to the concern he showed for providing our readers with solid and consistent information."

Other awards won by The Clinton County News' sister newspapers include the following: Use of Color — Delta-Waverly News Herald, Lansing first; Portland Review & Observer, second; Local Columns — honorable mention, Eaton County Newschronicle, Charlotte (Leila Klais); Spot News Picture — honorable mention, Grand Ledge Independent; Special Section — Grand Ledge Independent Sesquicentennial Edition, third.

Members of the Nebraska Press Association judged the Michigan Press Association 1987 Better Newspaper Contest and awarded over 250 certificates of excellence to both daily and weekly newspapers throughout the state. The judges worked with 1,755 entries, from 86 weekly newspapers and 42 daily newspapers.

Great Pumpkin

ANDY T'S PUMPKINS produced another record-setting pumpkin this year, under the watchful eyes of owners Andy Todochek and Joe Rewerts. The pair weighed-in several of their giant pumpkins and squashes last week prior to taking the largest — a 547 pounder — to competition in Buffalo, NY.

Todochek and Rewerts weren't surprised with the weight of their "Great Pumpkin," but it wasn't the one they thought would end up weighing the most. "I don't understand it," Rewerts said.

SJHS theatre casts Peter Pan

Rehearsals are underway at St. Johns High School for the theatre department's fall musical "Peter Pan" with performances scheduled for Nov. 20, 21, and 22. Barbara Markman will direct one of the largest casts ever involved in a SJHS theatre production — 57 high school, junior high, and elementary students.

Playing Peter Pan is Lori Nichols; Wendy is played by Dionne O'Dell, and Gerry Nichols plays the villain, Captain Hook. The trio bring a wealth of theatre experience into the lead roles, having been cast in lead positions in 19 previous SJHS productions.

Cast as members of the Darling family are Nathan Lounds as John, Terry Schwartzkopf as Michael, Michele Roberts as Liza, Hans Heikinen as Nana the dog, Colleen Redman as Mrs. Darling, and Chris Hart as Mr. Darling.

The animals of Never, Neverland are played by Mike McGee, Laura Matic, Jennifer Goodrich, and Bill Semrau. Playing the boys of Never, Neverland are Eric Weber, Brian Klumpp, Eric Matteson, Derek Koger, Richie Koenigsnecht, Robert Andretz, Freddie San Juan, Matt Anderson, Kyle McNamara, Kirk Rasmussen, and Colin Mitchel.

Cast as Tiger Lily and her Indians are Christy Dove (Tiger Lily), Kim Matteson, Charlotte Shaw, Kelly Riley, Mary Wills, Moriah Glew, Melinda Knapp, Tanna Lounds, Meghann Lutz, Sarah McKenzie, Laura Schafer, Leslie Winsor, Amanda Masaros, Brooke Bennett, Sarah

Delavan, DeAnn Feldpausch, and Shani Fletcher.

Playing Wendy as a grown-up is Renee Turcotte, and Moriah Glew is Jane. Included also is the shining star — Tinkerbell.

Because of the young age of some of the actors, the cast has adopted a big brother/big sister custom of pairing up elementary and junior high members with high school students.

"I'm looking forward to working with the younger actors," says Dionne O'Dell (Wendy).

Ticket information will be available at a later date.

One less on jail committee

To the Editor:

On Oct. 10, I resigned from the Clinton County Jail Committee. I would note that my resignation was unanimously accepted by that committee.

I would like the voters to be aware about some of the factors that were involved in my decision.

I was invited by the Clinton County Board of Commissioners to attend the Aug. 27 informational jail meeting to "mark the start of the public awareness and education efforts to present this issue to the voters of Clinton County."

After that meeting, I talked with Glenn Webster, chairman, and Robert VanDriessen, member of the BOC, and to Sheriff Terry Hanecow. I told them that if they only wanted "yes men" on that committee not to choose me.

But I would gladly serve if the purpose of the jail committee was to present the real facts to the public.

On Sept. 11, I was invited to attend the first jail committee meeting to be held on Sept. 15.

First of all, my first source of irritation was when the architect stated that he had a reputation for being "TIGHT" with the taxpayer's dollars. Then, I read through The Clinton County Jail Facility Proposed New Construction pamphlet in which it stated that his architectural/engineering fees with Landmark Design Group are $240,000. One-quarter of a million dollars sounds like a lot to me.

An informational hand-out on the proposed construction of the jail which provides questions and answers to the public as to why the prison should be built is painted as a rosy picture for us voters to view.

You will have heard or read about the fact that no renovations or modifications can be made to solve housing, support service, or administration special needs. You might want to know about the 1982 renovation, which was as I understand, a three-phase operation.

Phase II has been completed. What happened to Phases I and III?

You may read that the existing jail creates many problems for the downtown community. Neighboring churches, schools, and businesses often fall prey to the antics of misbehaving inmates.

Oddly enough, in my lifetime I've never heard complaints about any of the above.

When you vote, you will not be given any options on location, and as much publicity as the Townsend Road site location receives where do you think the board of commissioners lean?

Also, you will probably read the estimated construction cost is to be $5,040,000, and if the vote for an additional mill favors jail construction, it will cost an individual homeowner an average of $25 per year. Based on the state equalized value of $50,000 property ($25,000).

Before I resigned, I made a motion to inform the public that the BOC has actually estimated the total package to cost the taxpayers of Clinton County approximately $12,000,000; since 1 mill generates $600,000 times 20 years. The payback is actually $12,000,000.

The motion was supported, yet the discussion revolved around the fact that when people buy cars or homes, they're only interested in the base price, or their monthly payments, not the final cost.

Only one member out of 17, besides myself, voted to portray that information to the public. And that wasn't the party who supported my motion.

I think the jail committee members and the commissioners are being deceitful because a lot of the facts are not fully publicized to the citizens. I refuse to participate in a committee that is going to paint the rosier picture possible, because I do not wish to distort, add, or delete from the actual facts. The public deserves to be leveled with on this proposal.

When I first served on the committee, it was understood that the county commissioners could not spend tax dollars to supply propaganda to the public in order to sway our vote. In my opinion, this is a legitimate reason.

So, it was quite disturbing to have GayMarie Granger, president and executive writer of Pen and Inc., a public relations firm, at most of the jail committee meetings when she is not a voter.

Supposedly, she is on loan to the committee, at no cost to the taxpayers. Her duties are to help this committee develop and promote their information and actions to the public.

Granger has been employed through Landmark Design Group. "NO COST TO THE TAXPAYERS!" "BULL!"

It is also disturbing to hear that the law enforcement officers have had little to any input as to design, layout, and location of the preferred sites. I would think that they might be more knowledgeable as compared to others with these topics.

In conclusion, if you visit the jail, there appears to be many areas which look awkward and inefficient. I do not blame the jail administrators and committee in their efforts.

But, for once, let's level with the voters. Give them all the information possible, and let them make an objective decision. If this millage is defeated, I would gladly volunteer my services to investigate, study, and disclose the facts; not just those facts which have been handed down to me by special interest groups, and the like.

A mother's Halloween nightmare

To the Editor:

As the bewitching season of Halloween draws near, my worst nightmare becomes reality. It's not the one where I'm surrounded by ghoulish creatures and about to be devoured by a hideous drooling beast.

This nightmare is much more horrifying. It's where I wake up in a cold sweat and realize that it's 5 p.m. on Halloween and I haven't realized my kids' costumes yet. It happens every year.

By the first week of October, some moms have already sewn the last sequins on ballerina tutus. But, come Oct. 31, I find myself at the opposite extreme — which is usually about the time I break out in a cold sweat.

SJ frosh say thanks for help with float

To the Editor:

The St. Johns High School freshman class would like to thank Chris Reha for the use of their wagon, Zebs Fertilizer for the use of their pole barn, Clinton Home Center, Al Marrah Custom Carpet, Boak's Upholstery, Kurtis Appliance, Keelean Buick for the use of the car, and all the parents who served as chaperones during the construction of our Homecoming float.

Thanks again to all. The float took first place and we couldn't have done it without your help.

One year, I shoved a newspaper under my son's arm and he went as a paperboy. The mother who waits until the last minute is nothing if not creative and inventive. Anyone can sew 82 pattern pieces together and come up with a reasonable facsimile of an alien life form, but try stretching a leotard over a coat hanger bent in the shape of a bunny ears and attach it to the head of a three-year-old with modeling clay and rubber bands — now that takes creativity.

Depending on the availability of resources, one must generally work with what one has at hand. A favorite standby of mine is when I stuff a few old clothes in a brown paper bag and the kid tells everyone that he's disguised as a collector for Good Will.

Why doesn't Halloween arrive in July or August when it's warm? Why does it always wait until the coldest, windiest, and rainiest night of October? It seems ironic that parents spend hours fashioning costumes and applying make-up and then must send the kids out layered in hats, mittens, winter coats, and boots. My friend, Orla, once spent days constructing a very unique robot costume for her son from cardboard boxes, but once he had on a big, yellow rain parka and orange boots people thought he was Big Bird with a glandular problem.

Then there's this "treat dilemma." Some moms have picked up bars of candy on sale in July and stashed them away so that they would be prepared. Usually my husband must stall little trick or treaters at the front door while I race out the back to the nearest 7-11 Store for five dozen bags of popcorn to go. One year I resorted to handing out coupons which I thought was very clever on my part. The little ones were grateful, but I received strange looks from a fifth grader as I handed him a 35 cent off coupon for facial tissue.

I can't imagine why he was so upset — it was for a name brand.

Sesqui photo identified as St. Johns waterworks

The search for the identity of the building shown in the photograph on the right appears to have come to an end. The building is the old St. Johns waterworks plant.

Work on the well pumps and waterworks was completed in 1889, according to excerpts from "The History of Clinton County." Following are passages taken from the book which was compiled by the Clinton County Historical Society.

"The plan is to call a special election to vote upon the proposition to bond the village for $45,000. The bonds can be placed at five percent or less...Our artesian well will supply 85,000 gallons per day."

"Mac Walker, of Port Huron, was in St. Johns on Fri., with a chart of the village showing the streets where the water mains will be extended under the proposed system of water works..."

"The deep well pumps of St. Johns have been put in place and the waterworks are now an accomplished fact. A good many have arranged to take the water..."

One day at a time Mixed emotions

By Phyllis Roehl

In the last column, I started commenting on one person's statement to me that "what you're saying is good for everyone, not just for farmers." I continue.

Whether it's the farm economy that's suffering or what we feel, the depth of that feeling, and the way we each see a situation and its effect upon us is unique. The individuality of each situation is something we need to recognize. Yet there is also a common denominator in emotions that we also need to recognize.

Pain is pain; hurt is hurt; anger is anger. Frustration leaves us all wondering what's going on and why.

Whether it's the farm economy that's suffering or the automobile plants or their subsidiaries that are closing, the changes that are brought about by these situations cause similar emotional crises in the people affected.

Or maybe our job situation is stable, but there are crises in our home lives, with those we love and live with everyday. It might be an abuse situation, or learning to live with panic attacks, or watching a loved one with a terminal illness die.

Any of these situations can leave those affected by them with feelings of anger, frustration, and helplessness. When we feel out of control of a situation, we tend to become fearful. It brings feelings of tension and stress.

And those feelings are hard to deal with alone. But having those feelings doesn't mean you're "crazy." It only means you are a normal person dealing with an abnormal situation. And you may need help doing that.

In another county, the flood people were able to have a computer stress test at their fair booth. They shared with me that one person was reluctant to take the stress test because "I don't have stress, I'm not 'crazy.'" That person scored high on the stress test, but it was easily evident to the flood workers that the person was mentally competent.

This mistaken idea that if persons score high in a stress test or even admit to having stresses in their lives, that they are then also mentally ill is just that a mistaken idea. It's a myth!

While having too many stresses in our lives for too long can cause problems, the idea that it is automatic and cannot be avoided is the myth we have believed too long. Too many changes in our lives can cause "dis-ease" in our lives, which can also lead to disease.

That's why it is so necessary to know the danger signals for overload and the self treatment which is often very effective. It's also why seeking out someone, a professional, when we face a rough situation, and talking through that situation may be one of the best preventive medicines available.

And that advice is "good for everyone, not just for farmers."

Thought for today: Getting through life is like learning how to pick a rose without getting scratched badly by the thorns.

Dillingham Comments Radioactive waste

By Fred Dillingham

Now that Michigan has been selected to host the first low-level radioactive waste storage facility, the Senate is considering measures that would help ensure the safe transportation and disposal of low-level radioactive waste in this state.

Senate Bills 65, 66, and 297 are designed to fulfill federal obligations by creating state standards and regulatory procedures covering low-level radioactive waste. They have all been referred to the full Senate for approval.

Senate Resolution 259 and Senate Concurrent Resolution 314, which call on the federal government to review its policies covering low-level radioactive waste, were also approved and sent to the Senate.

There has been a large reduction in the amount of low-level radioactive waste generated each year since the federal Low-Level Radioactive Waste Policy Act was enacted in 1980. Under current federal rules, approximately 12 new disposal sites would be developed throughout the country, and that may be too many, given the decline.

Senate Bill 66 would amend existing state law to bring it in line with federal disposal requirements. Senate Bill 65 would regulate the activities of low-level radioactive waste generators, carriers, processors, and collectors, as well as outline responsibilities of the State Department of Public Health over these groups.

Senate Bill 297 would create a Low-Level Radioactive Waste Authority, and outline the process for selecting a host site for the Midwest Low-Level Radioactive Waste Compact's first disposal facility. Members of the Compact are Michigan, Ohio, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa, and Missouri.

Michigan must enact these or similar bills before Jan. 1, 1988, to comply with the 1985 federal Low-Level Radioactive Waste Policy Amendments Act or face costly punitive damages. We want to comply with those rules, but at the same time express our serious concerns over locating a low-level radioactive disposal facility in this state.

Michigan has three options since being chosen as the region's first host state. One option is for Michigan to withdraw from the compact and take care of its own radioactive waste instead of being the host facility for a seven-state region.

Or, if Michigan could prove that no safe site exists here for a low-level radioactive waste facility, another state from the compact would have to be selected. The third option is to agree to host the region's first disposal facility.

Whether or not we remain in the compact, it's clear that Michigan will be responsible for at least handling its own radioactive waste.

Cooperation is key

Area resident gets new porch with help of MSHDA loan

Julia Longoria of 108 N. Lansing St., St. Johns, was in danger of losing her home. Longoria's insurance company was unable to continue to provide homeowners insurance for her property because of a dangerous front porch and a roof which needed costly repairs and replacements.

Without homeowners insurance, Longoria would have lost her Farmers Home Administration financed home. Unable to pay for the repairs herself, Longoria applied for and received a Michigan State Housing Development Authority Low Interest Home Improvement Loan.

The Clinton County Department of Planning and Zoning reports the availability of a low-interest home improvement loan program to eligible homeowners.

Through the cooperation of Peggy Cote Piggott, MSHDA coordinator, who has independently contracted with the county, and Karen Ward, community aide, who has been hired through Capitol Area Community Services of Lansing, but works at Clinton County Community Services and Sharn's Remodeling of St. Johns, the loan was secured for Longoria.

To receive a MSHDA loan, applicants must have an adjusted annual income of $20,000 or less (gross income less $750 per household member) and own a home that is at least 20 years old. Exceptions to this last requirement include improvements made to weatherize, incorporate handicapper accessibility, comply with basic health and safety factors, or to repair damage caused by a natural disaster.

Interest rates on the home improvement loan vary between 1 and 9 percent, and the loan value can range between $500 and $15,000 with up to 15 years to repay.

According to Piggott, she is always excited to help people who need to have repairs done, but can't afford higher interest rates. "These are rates Longoria can afford, and it aided her in saving her home," says Piggott.

For more information about the MSHDA program, call 224-5180 for an appointment. Applications are available on Tuesdays and Thursdays between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the offices of the Department of Planning and Zoning located at 1003 S. Oakland, St. Johns.

Shared time training

The Shared-Time Vocational Training School operated by the Clinton County Intermediate School District has expanded its training program for students from the six local school districts. In a pilot project this year, coordinator Bill Phillips has placed students in training facilities around the county.

The local districts, Phillips locates local businesses that are in the students' interest area and are willing to accept student placements.

The ISD then contracts with the business to train the students, with the business reimbursed for training students. The contracts contain a list of well-defined skills that the students are to be taught during the training program.

Students are first surveyed by their teachers to find their career interests. If training programs in these interest areas are not offered by

Auto accident takes life of local woman

Tamara Sue Irish, 23, of 1016 Suntree Blvd., St. Johns, was killed Oct. 9 at about 8:35 p.m. in a two-car collision at East Street and Coleman Road in DeWitt Township. DeWitt Township Police officials report.

DeWitt Township Police officials say Irish was driving a car north on East Street and making a right turn onto Coleman Road when she struck a Coca-Cola tractor trailer heading southbound on North East Street and making a left turn onto Coleman.

Fish oil pills

By Dawn Harris

Many people know that eating too much animal fat can cause health problems. Regularly I receive questions in the office on how to reduce the amount of animal fat in the diet. One such question relates to the consumption of fish oil pills.

Is consumption of fish oil in capsule form the secret to improving your health? There is no straight forward yes or no answer to this question.

Initial research on the health benefits of Omega-3 fatty acids has had promising results and studies are continuing. However, on the basis on what is known now, it would not be wise to rely on fish oil capsules to ensure good health or prevent heart disease, says Barb Mutch, CES food and nutrition specialist.

Omega-3 fatty acids, which are found in relatively large amounts in seafood, affect the way the blood platelets stick together, making them less sticky. When the platelets are less sticky, they are less likely to form blood clots or stick to blood vessel walls, which makes for less risk of heart attack.

Omega-3s appear to be more effective than polyunsaturated vegetable oils in lowering the blood cholesterol level. They also tend to raise blood levels of HDL cholesterol, the "good" type of cholesterol. The result is less risk of hardening of the arteries.

Both seafood and fish oil capsules have been used in research studies with positive results. But the scientists recommend eating seafood rather than substituting fish oil capsules.

There is no recommended "safe and effective" level of intake for Omega-3 fatty acids, and little is known about the long-term effect of taking large amounts of fish oil, Mutch says.

Anytime you use a drug or medical treatment, side effects occur. The possible harmful effects of fish oil capsules include:

- Decreased clotting ability of the blood, which may be dangerous during surgery or in the event of an accident.

- Prolonged consumption of fish oil may result in vitamin E deficiency.

- Fish oil, like all other fats and oils, contains calories. At nine calories per gram of oil, regular consumption of fish oil capsules could add as many as 300 calories per day to your diet.

The best way to get the healthful effects of Omega-3 fatty acids is to eat two or three seafood meals a week. The seafood could be broiled, poached, or pan-fried, or it could be served in soup, sandwiches, or salads.

If a physician prescribes fish oil capsules for you, be sure to follow instructions for taking them carefully. And don't decide on your own that you or another family member needs to begin taking fish oil capsules regularly. It's difficult to overconsume fish oils by eating fish, but it would be easy to overdose on fish oil by taking capsules.

Audubon Society plans trip

By GRETCHEN JEWISON

The Sept. 22 meeting of the Audubon Society was called to order at 7:30 p.m. with 40 people in attendance. Gretchen Jewison was appointed as secretary. Election of president of the club was tabled until the next meeting.

Discussion was held concerning having the entire year's programs planned in advance. Ed Mikula is program director. No decision was made.

Stevie Staples reported on a field trip being planned by the Capital Area Audubon Club to see the sand hill cranes on Oct. 31. Persons wishing to attend should contact her.

Terry Yonker, executive director of Michigan Audubon, talked about the different aspects of the Michigan Audubon. Persons wanting information on tours of wildlife refuges in Michigan should check with him.

A movie was shown on the return of the bluebird, it's nesting areas, and how people are bringing bluebirds back. There are quite a few people who have seen bluebirds or have nesting places which the birds have been using.

Evelyn Brice and Wanda George brought cookies. Vera Rowland, Blanche Plesko, and Bill Staples won drawings for pictures. Donations will be taken at all subsequent meetings for refreshments which have been purchased.

Dr. Eyer will be the guest speaker at the next meeting, Oct. 27, at Suntree Apartments. His topic will be "Three Weeks with the Eskimos."

Homemakers hold class day

The Michigan Association of Extension Homemakers will hold a fall class day at Smith Hall in St. Johns on Thursday, Oct. 15, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Sunshiners take color tour

By BINA OBERLIN

Nine members of the Elba Sunshine Club took their annual fall tour to Eleanor Fowler's near Hersey on Oct. 1. Anabel Peck and Bina Oberlin drove. We saw some very pretty colors.

Happy birthday was sung to Eleanor Fowler, Bun Gallup, Anabel Peck, Barbara Wilson, and Leona Betz, and a Happy Anniversary wished for Michelle Peck. The members and their guests, Alfred Fowler, Laura and Ray Johnson, and Betty McDonald, enjoyed a delicious meal. There was much reminiscing about Betty's husband who was a former minister at Bannister United Methodist Church.

Vice President Barbara Wilson called the meeting to order following dinner with Mildred Bradley reading from the Bible. Roll call was answered with a quotation. The minutes and treasurer's reports were approved.

The price of secret pal gifts was set at $3, and it was decided to send $20 to Eagle Village. Thank-you notes were read from the Steve Strouse family and Maxine Leydorf.

Some areas stressed were on safety and protection, and what to do in case of burglary, rape, or fire, while traveling or at home. The book will be passed among members for future study.

The next meeting will be a luncheon at the Raddison Hotel in Lansing and a tour of the Impression Five Museum on Oct. 25. Guests are welcome. Persons interested in attending should call 224-2287.

"It's in the Bag" by Bob Beck

Early New England women baked pies by the hundreds, and made them of everything. Their covered crocks in an unheated shed took the place of our modern food freezer. In fact, their fireplaces had cupboards built into them, where pies were placed until heated through.

Recently, believe it or not, some folks in Washington ordained that an eight-inch cherry pie should weigh at least twenty-two ounces and contain at least 2.7 cherries per ounce, or 59.4 per pie. Turning to another Washington, George, that is. Possibly to make up for what he did to that cherry tree when he was a lad, he had a cherry orchard on his estate. But don't be too sure it was for cherry pie. Martha Washington's cookbook contained an excellent recipe for cherry wine.

At Yale College apple pie has been served at every dinner for well over a hundred years. As you may know, it was the English settlers who brought apple pie to America. And although it may seem strange to us here, it is quite common throughout New England to enjoy apple pie for breakfast.

For variety, it was our own President Calvin Coolidge who raved about his mother's "pork" apple pies, of all things. This tasty economical idea is worth reviving now. The filling of the traditional pork pie was made by mixing chopped pork with apples and spices. Years ago, such a pork pie as this would have been served cold, or barely warm.

When you're in Beck's this week remember to pick up the things you'll need for your pie. And if anyone tells you they don't like pie... they've got a lot of crust.

Clinton County jail committee members speak up

By LORA THOM
Associate Editor

Following are the concerns and opinions of seven members of the 17-member Clinton County Jail Committee interviewed by The Clinton County News as to why they feel the existing jail needs to be replaced.

William Serviss
Chairman William Serviss of DeWitt says, "I urge a yes vote on the jail proposition. I am concerned with the $200,000 that we are spending on outside lodging of inmates, and not as concerned with the location of the jail at this time."

Thomas Irrer
Secretary Thomas Irrer of St. Johns says, "Jail overcrowding has developed because of increased population, increased crime rate, and a continued tough stance on law enforcement. These facts will remain with us. We need a larger jail."

James Sjoberg
Harry Harden of Elsie says, "I am in favor of a new jail to house our prisoners rather than sending them away, costing the county several thousand dollars a year."

roads of our county.
"The structure was clean and neat, but there were far too many blind spots where prisoners could not be observed. Proof of this was two weeks ago when two prisoners escaped. There are other numerous reasons why we need this new jail, and only you as county residents by getting involved can find out as I did."
The function of the committee is to educate citizens in the county about the need for a new jail, and a millage increase which will be necessary to finance the project. Clinton County residents will vote Nov. 3 on whether or not to adopt an up to 1-mill property tax increase to fund jail construction.

Roger Kindy

Robert Purtil
Robert Purtil of St. Johns says, "Clinton County has been in need of a jail for many years. It appears wasteful to transport prisoners to other counties, and to pay their board there. Adding on to the present jail would only be a band aid solution."
James Shoberg of St. Johns says, "I am in favor of the new jail. It is financially right to build a jail by the official state projections. We would have more building for our money."
Al Brunner of Maple Rapids says, "The new jail would improve and expand our detention system."

Roger Kindy of Bath says, "On Sept. 16 William Serviss and I asked for a tour of the jail facility in Clinton County. At the time I thought why do we need a new jail, when in 1982 the county spent $800,000 to update the present structure? My findings were shocking; most disturbing was the overcrowding. I also discovered the county has to spend $200,000 to house prisoners out, which creates a shortage of an officer to transport these prisoners and a patrol car that could be used on the

Findlay Manor news

Happy birthday to Margaret Gorman, Oct. 16; Edith Melvin and Bessie VanHulst, Oct. 19. Happy birthday, ladies.

Specialized institutions providing nursing care and related services are a relatively recent but rapidly growing phenomena in our society. To a large extent, this development coincides with increases in the number and proportion of aged persons in the population who are the primary users of such facilities. By the year 2000, there will be 30 percent more aged citizens, a phenomena known as the "Graying America."

For centuries, influenza, pneumonia, tuberculosis, plague, war, and malnutrition combined to maintain a relatively small aged population. Primitive societies were likely to view the sick as afflicted by evil forces and the disabled and aged were viewed as a drain on society's resources and the usual solution was abandonment.

In the early 1930s, with the establishment of the American Medical Association, the situation began to improve. Voluntary health insurance also was an outcome of the AMA, the first being Blue Cross.

In 1935, the enactment of the federal government's Social Security Act had an impact that was to alter the course of medical care in this country. The passage of the act made boarding homes available to more aged under two provisions — the Old Age Survivors Insurance and Old Age Assistance.

From 1950 to 1964 the growth of the nursing home business was stimulated, and from 1965 to 1976 we witnessed an explicit effort to bring the nursing home industry into the mainstream of the health care system. The passage of Medicaid and Medicare not only financed patient care in nursing homes, but also attempted to bring the industry into the system through certification requirements, reviews, and medical audits.

Looking toward the future, more direct intervention from the government seems inevitable. But private insurance companies are now actively marketing excellent long-term care insurance as well. At a reasonable premium they offer home health care, skilled and intermediate nursing care, and home-for-the-aged care all in one policy. A more responsive health care system will depend on linkages such as adult day care in addition to long-term facilities.

Mesquite Open Fire Grilling

What is mesquite cooking?

Mesquite is a tree which flourishes weedlike in the Southwestern United States. The Western Indian discovered the mesquite tree and named it "The Honey Tree" because of the sweet fragrant flavor it gave to their food. When set ablaze, mesquite provides an intense heat which quickly seals in flavor and juices to keep foods from drying out, while giving them a sweet, subtle woody flavor.

Egg Roll Kitchen offers Chinese food to area patrons

By LORA THOM
Associate Editor

Freshly prepared food and service to guests is a way of life in China. The owners of The Egg Roll Kitchen located at 605 N. US-27 also take great pride in this philosophy.

Tom Phung, Eric Kwok, and Tai Nim are the owners of this new restaurant.

Phung explains that careful planning is imperative to the success of the Chinese meals. Dishes showcase a contrast of colors, textures, and seasonings. Various combinations of spicy, mild, sweet, salty, and sour are used throughout the Peking-style meals available at The Egg Roll Kitchen.

The second type of meal available is the Cantonese-style dish which is a traditional Chinese food that has been served in the U.S. for over 100 years.

Carry-out service and American lunches can also be ordered.

Phung has been in the restaurant industry for seven years. Prior to moving to the St. Johns area he owned and operated Charlie Wong's Restaurant in Jackson and Egg Roll Express in Owosso.

Kwok, co-owner and chef, has also had extensive experience in the food service area. He was employed as chef for The House of Ing of Lansing, Imperial Gardens of East Lansing, and May Kong of Flint.

According to Phung, 90 percent of the vegetables, meat, and seafood are fresh, and meals are cooked individually to meet the special requests of their customers or guests.

Special sauces from Hong Kong and Main China have been imported for customers to enjoy a delicious meal. Food is an important part of the Chinese lifestyle, and the focal point of The Egg Roll Kitchen.

The Egg Roll Kitchen is open seven days. Hours are Monday through Thursday, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Friday, 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturday, noon to 10 p.m.; and Sunday, noon to 8 p.m.

Beaufore article in print

Jerry Ann Beaufore, Business Department chairman and business instructor at St. Johns High School, recently had a feature article published in the nationally circulated publication "Business Exchange." Beaufore's article, "Teaching Beginning Typing — Enthusiastically!" was published in the fall edition.

"The object of the article is to give the professional typing teacher some ideas on how to add vitality in speed and production once the entire keyboard has been presented," Beaufore says.

Firm up at new toning studio

What does it take to lose inches? Millions of dieting Americans who try to starve it off, melt it off, and exercise it off would like to know. Is there some deep, dark secret that, once revealed, will enable dieters to lose weight or those extra inches and keep them off?

The most basic of these principles is that the body needs a certain amount of energy, expressed as calories, to maintain its weight. To lose weight, you have to use up more energy than you take in through food.

This means either eating less or exercising more, or some combination of the two.

Judy Parsons, co-owner and manager of California Toning Studio, 1059 US-27 located in Southport Mall, has a different product as to how to gently tone and firm the entire body, without the muscle strain and fatigue that accompanies traditional types of exercise.

Parson uses the cliché "get into it" with seven motorized beds which feature a combination of physical and isometric movements to reduce inches and build muscle tone in the arms, legs, thighs, hips, stomach, and upper arms.

"There's no extreme pain or sweat lost to lose inches in our program," says Parsons.

According to the California Toning Studio brochure, the machines provide increased oxygen supply, and improved circulation helps to break down stubborn cellulite while the individual concentrates on one part of the body at a time.

Upon arrival, customers start on the first machine, the circulator. It increases blood circulation, removes excess water gain, and massages the client through its motorized movements.

After the circulator, the individual is personally monitored by Parsons or an employee, while the seven-minute rotation begins on the other six machines.

According to Parsons, the promotion of these seven motorized machines is not a fad or gimmick. "It takes a good deal of effort and time to lose inches and tone the body," says Parsons. "The machine devices are a tool used to help maintain our clients' fitness goals," she says.

"Much of the failure and relapse experienced by dieters is due to unrealistic expectations that devices will quickly burn away excess inches," says Parsons. "Losing inches is not magic; it is the result of applying basic principles to eating and exercising, and that is why we're here to help."

Parsons claims that seven minutes stimulation from the tummy toner device has the figure-toning ability equivalent to 90 sit-ups, and seven minutes on the waist toner machine amounts to 530 waist twists which is equivalent to one mile of brisk walking.

Free demonstrations are available at no obligation. SCA Wolff Tanning system and Acu-Massage equipment are also available. For more information, call 224-9423.

CB stocks up

At the Sept. 21 meeting of the CB Financial Corporation Board of Directors, two dividends were declared to shareholders of common stock.

A cash dividend of $45 per share to shareholders of record Sept. 30, 1987, will be paid on Oct. 15. The annual dividend paid for 1987 will be $1.80.

In further action, a 5 percent stock dividend was declared to shareholders of record Oct. 30, 1987, and will be paid on Nov. 18. Cash will be paid in lieu of fractional shares.

CB Financial is the parent holding company of City Bank and Trust Company, N.A., in Jackson and Clinton Bank and Trust Company in St. Johns.

The trip was awarded to new representatives who displayed exceptional performance over the past two years. The weekend included presentations from various St. Louis associates, a nationally known motivational psychologist, and a discussion on the stock market and economy.

The sales meetings are held every two years to provide brokers with additional in-depth product knowledge, enhanced selling skills, and updates on current conditions in the

Founders day at McDonalds

McDonalds of St. Johns had a special guest working the grill for McDonalds Founder's Day last Friday. Bob Fox, originally from Fowler, returned to Clinton County for the celebration.

"The idea behind Founder's Day is to honor Ray Kroc, the founder of McDonalds, and the principles he set forth with the opening of the first restaurant in 1955 — quality, service, cleanliness and value," Fox says. "It gives McDonalds' management personell a chance to get back to the basics of restaurant work also."

"I really enjoyed the day," Fox currently is the staff director at McDonald's Oakbrook office near Chicago, Ill., where the national personnel and regional relations departments of the enterprise are housed. Upon graduation from Fowler High School in 1968, Fox attended Michigan State University and began his career with McDonalds working as a crew person at the South Logan restaurant for three years.

After he graduated from MSU, Fox worked for McDonalds as a manager/trainee on the West Coast for three years, and served as the personell manager for franchises in the San Diego, Calif., area before become staff director at Oakbrook.

While working in the St. Johns restaurant last week, Fox had a chance to serve his parents, Mark and Marie Fox of Fowler, and have lunch with them. He also worked the grill, waited on customers, and "did just a little bit of everything."

According to Fox, some things about coming home never change.

"When I was getting ready to leave for St. Johns in the morning, my mother made sure I had a clean McDonalds' apron to wear," he says.

Dear Concerned Citizen,

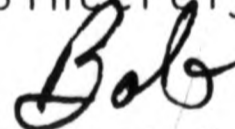

"Wake Up America! The drug epidemic is destroying us all," pleads David Toma, a national motivational speaker on the effects of drugs. Drugs and alcohol abuse touches all Americans in one form or another, but it is our children who are most vulnerable to its influence. As parents and teachers, we need to educate ourselves about the dangers of drugs so that we can teach our children. Outside the home, the school is the most influential environment for our children. This means that schools must protect children from the presence of drugs and nurture values that help our young people reject alcohol and drug abuse.

St. Johns is going to help its young people, because here too we cannot neglect the devastating effects substance abuse has caused children from all walks of life. Interested St. Johns Parents organized a group called "Hugs Not Drugs" for the purpose of making young people aware of the hazards of substance abuse. To educate and bring a better understanding of why drug abuse has touched so many families, this committee has asked Dave Toma to speak to St. Johns High School and RBW Middle School students this November 4th and 5th. In addition to meeting with the students, Mr. Toma will host a parents' night on November 4th at the St. Johns High School Auditorium.

To accomplish this goal, we need your moral and financial support. Clearly, the committee needs your support in the form of dollars. At this time, we estimate our cost to be $7,000. We feel the dollars spent for this commitment will have an immediate and lifelong effect for the students and community of St. Johns. We invite you to become involved in this ambitious project by contacting a committee member. Please make checks payable to "Hugs Not Drugs", c/o Robert Kudwa, St. Johns Public Schools.

Thank you for your support!

4-H hosts "Night of Stars"

"A Night of Stars" was the theme of this year's 4-H Leader Recognition Banquet. The banquet was held on Oct. 5, marking the start of National 4-H Week activities here in Clinton County. Co-sponsored by Clinton Bank of St. Johns and the Clinton County 4-H Council, the banquet is an annual event held to honor the 320 adult and teen volunteers who work with 4-H clubs throughout the year.

During the program, leaders with 3, 5, 10, 15, 20, and 30 years were honored. Each received a certificate of appreciation and a pin to commemorate the occasion. The pins are sponsored by the Michigan Farm Bureau.

Six leaders were honored for having been leaders for 15 years: Juanita Atkinson of Moonlight Riders, Carolyn Conklin of Olive 4-H Club, Kathy Hazle of Scattered Southeast, Pat Koenigsnecht of Knit 'n Stitch, JoAnn Lehman of Westphalia 4-H, and Elma Valentine of Olive 4-H.

Bea Grams and Bob Vitek were each honored as 20-year leaders. Bea is a leader in the Clover Patch Kids. She leads projects in candy and cake decorating. Bob is a rabbit leader in the Bengal 4-H Club and is also the rabbit department chairperson at the Clinton County 4-H Fair.

Katie Aylsworth and Charles Silm were honored as 30-year leaders by the council. Katie is a leader in the

He works with members on woodworking and swine and is also a member of the county livestock committee. Both Katie and Charlie will be honored at the Michigan Leadermete in late February at Michigan State University.

Another highlight of the program is the presentation of the Friend of 4-H and Alumni Award. The Alumni Award goes to an individual who has been a 4-H member in their youth and who is now making a contribution to the community. This year's award was presented to Alice Hebeck of the Knit 'n Stitch 4-H Club. Alice has been a leader for 39 years.

Friend of 4-H is awarded to an individual selected because of outstanding contributions to the county 4-H program. It has been presented in the past to businesses, organizations, and individuals. This year's award was presented to Anabel Peck of the Elsie 4-Corners 4-H Club. She has been a 4-H leader for 41 years and was selected as this year's Clinton County Fair Homemaker.

Theresa Silm is the 4-H youth agent for the Clinton County Cooperative Extension Service.

Present: Councilman Brunner, Borie, Setterington, Wright, Stephens, Husted and Kindel.
Absent: Councilman (None).

The following preamble and ordinance was offered by Councilman Borie and supported by Councilman Setterington.

WHEREAS, it is deemed necessary to the public health and public welfare that an ordinance be passed defining junk automobiles and prohibiting their open storage and possession, the following ordinance which shall be numbered Ordinance No. 56 is hereby offered:

ORDINANCE NO. 56
JUNK AUTOMOBILES

THE VILLAGE OF MAPLE RAPIDS ORDAINS:

Section 1. Open Storage Unlawful. It is hereby declared unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to store on, place on or permit to be stored on or placed on, or allow to remain on any platted or unplatted parcel of land, a dismantled, partially dismantled, abandoned or inoperable motor vehicle, or any parts thereof, which platted or unplatted parcel of land is located in the Village of Maple Rapids, Clinton County, Michigan, unless said dismantled, partially dismantled, or inoperable motor vehicle or parts thereof, shall be kept in a wholly enclosed garage or other wholly enclosed structure.

Section 2. Definitions. The following words or terms, when used herein, shall be deemed to have the meanings set forth below:

A. "Motor Vehicles" are hereby defined as any wheeled vehicles which are self-propelled or intended to be self-propelled.

B. "Inoperable Motor Vehicles" are defined as motor vehicles which by reason of dismantling, disrepair, or other cause, are presently incapable of being propelled under their own power, and shall include, without limitation, any vehicle which is not licensed for use upon the highways of the State of Michigan for a period in excess of thirty (30) days, and shall also include, whether licensed or not, any motor vehicle which is inoperative for any reason, for a period in excess of thirty (30) days, and provided there is excepted from this definition, unlicensed but fully operative vehicles which are kept as the stock and trade of a regularly licensed and established new or used automobile dealer. Provided further the time limit said vehicles may remain upon the premises of a motor vehicle repair garage shall be a period of ninety (90) days rather than thirty (30) days.

C. "Abandoned Vehicles" shall include, without limitation, any motor vehicle which has remained on private property for a period of forty-eight (48) continuous hours or more, without the consent of the owner or occupant of the property, or for a period of forty-eight (48) continuous hours after the consent of the owner or occupant of the property has been revoked.

E. "Parts of Motor Vehicles" shall be defined as any commonly known parts of motor vehicles stored in or upon premises as above defined.

F. "Dismantled and Partially Dismantled Motor Vehicles" are defined as motor vehicles from which some part or parts which ordinarily are a component of such motor vehicle have been removed or are missing.

Section 3. Cause of Blight. It is hereby determined that the storage or accumulation of dismantled, partially dismantled or inoperable motor vehicles, within the Village of Maple Rapids tends to result in blighted and deteriorated neighborhoods, the spread of vermin and disease, the increase in criminal activity and therefore is contrary to the public peace, health, safety and general welfare of the community.

Section 4. Abatement. The Maple Rapids Police Department may remove or cause to be removed, any dismantled, partially dismantled, inoperable or abandoned vehicle, or parts thereof, from any platted or unplatted parcel of land, after having notified in writing, the owner or occupant of such property of its intention to do so at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the physical removal. Such notice shall be served personally upon the owner or occupant of such property, or may be posted in a conspicuous place upon vacant or unoccupied property. Such dismantled, partially dismantled, inoperable or abandoned vehicles or parts thereof, shall be removed and disposed of in accordance with the law. Such removal by the designated enforcement official shall not excuse or relieve any person from the obligation imposed by this Chapter to keep property free from the storage or accumulation of dismantled, partially dismantled, inoperable or abandoned vehicles or parts thereof, nor from the penalties for violation.

Section 5. Penalty. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $100.00 or imprisoned not more than Ninety (90) days.

Section 6. All ordinances, resolutions, or orders or parts thereof, in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are to the extent of such conflicts, hereby repealed.

Agricultural news Swine insemination

By Marilyn Loudenslager

A statewide swine artificial insemination school is being offered at the Swine Research Center at Michigan State University. This one-day workshop will be held on Nov. 4 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The cost is $20 per person and enrollment is limited to 20 people. To obtain registration material, call the Cooperative Extension Service at 224-5240.

This workshop offers any producers interested in learning artificial insemination techniques or improving on their present program an opportunity to talk with specialists and people who do artificial insemination on a regular basis. It also offers practical, hands-on experience so bring coveralls and boots.

Throughout the day you will learn when and how artificial insemination can fit into a swine production scheme. You will review the anatomy and physiology of the sow and boar and then will get into the actual mechanics of making an artificial insemination program successful in your swine herd.

Artificial insemination is a production management technique that has enhanced the genetic profile of the dairy industry. This same technology has been adapted to be used in the swine industry to bring new genetics in.

Take advantage of this workshop and see how artificial insemination can fit into your program. Remember, enrollment is limited so call early for your registration.

Marilyn Loudenslager is the agricultural agent for the Clinton County Cooperative Extension Service.

Gratiot couple in Hall of Fame

State Rep. Gary Randall recently congratulated a Gratiot County couple on their induction into the Michigan Farmer's Hall of Fame.

Basil and Jeannette McKenzie of Breckenridge were recently named to a place in the hall which honors those whose careers have made a significant contribution to the development of agriculture.

"Basil and Jeannette McKenzie are two individuals who truly have made their mark on Michigan agriculture and on life in their community," Randall says.

"This recognition of their leadership is most appropriate, and reflective of the highest values and greatest traditions of American agriculture."

Randall notes that Mr. McKenzie was a charter member of the Michigan Bean Commission, former chairman of the Gratiot County Commission, member of the first Gratiot County Planning Commission, and president of the 1974 Michigan Agriculture Conference.

Mrs. McKenzie was also active in the operation of the family farm as well as the Eastern Star, 4-H, and the local school board.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie are graduates of Michigan State University, and operated a 500-acre seed corn farm in Gratiot County for 30 years.

Wildlife and farming

By Eileen Gillespie

You hear them in mid-September. Honk! Honk! Honk! The first of the Canada Geese are arriving. Flocks have become larger and more numerous these past few weeks. It is a sight we never tire of seeing.

Wildlife, like the crops, is a product of the land. Good soils produce good crops — and good wildlife. Therefore, it makes sense to manage our lands wisely.

By working with the technicians at your local Soil Conservation District office you can develop a conservation plan for your farm. Your plan, over the years, can reflect new farming methods and new knowledge with your main goal to protect the soil, raise good crops, and provide a good area for wildlife.

Food, water, shelter, and adequate living space are the basic requirements of all living creatures, man and wildlife. Most farms have odd areas which are unsuited for agricultural crops and can be managed in simple ways to benefit various birds and small animals.

Corn, soybeans, and wheat provide farm income. In the spring these are planted using conservation tillage, including no-till methods. Crop residue left on the soil surface by using these tillage methods reduce soil erosion and help keep ponds and streams free from silt.

In the fall and winter, after harvest, the corn kernels and soybeans spilled by the modern combine provide feed for geese, ducks, rabbits, deer, and other small game.

A hedgerow which separates fields or field edge from country roads, can add to the feeding grounds as well as provide nesting cover for dozens of songbirds, and valuable shelter in the depth of winter. And for you, the farmer, the hedgerows reduce soil erosion, and add beauty and privacy to the farm lanes and homesteads.

Eileen Gillespie is the administrative assistant for the Clinton Soil Conservation District.

AGVISOR to answer farm questions

Farmers anywhere in the country can call a new toll-free number to find answers to their local agronomic questions. The telephone number is 1-800-AGVISOR.

This agronomic hotline is being offered to all farmers by The New Northrup King starting Oct. 10.

"Callers will be able to talk with an agronomist who is experienced with the crops, soils, weather patterns, and management options in their particular geography," says David Thomas, executive director of marketing for The New Northrup King.

"Naturally, a farmer from North Carolina who raises soybeans, peanuts, and tobacco will not want to ask cropping questions of an agronomist who works in Nebraska or Iowa. Likewise, the farmer in Iowa will want to talk with an agronomist who is experienced in corn and soybean production in the Midwest, while the Nebraska farmer will want the agronomist to also know about sorghum production and irrigation," says Thomas.

Each call to the 1-800-

AGVISOR network will automatically be routed to The New Northrup King agronomist who works in the caller's geography. This will be done through an AT&T computer that deciphers where a call originates and then routes it instantaneously to the appropriate agronomist.

"We want to offer a real service," says Thomas. That is why the company has charged its agronomists with the responsibility of responding to farmer's calls within 24 hours.

Thomas notes the breadth of experience represented in the AGVISOR network. "In an average year, each of the agronomists talks to more than 2,500 farmers, has one-on-one discussions with more than 500 farmers, and evaluates crop performance in more than 200 fields," says Thomas. In addition to this, agronomists are in frequent contact with the university and company researchers.

The New Northrup King was formed by the merger of Northrup King, Pride, and Stauffer seeds.

CCC loan bill in senate

Michigan 10th District Congressman Bill Schuette last week became co-sponsor of legislation aimed at ending the current method of taxing the redemption of Commodity Credit Corporation loans which result in a double taxation on state farmers.

"We cannot allow the IRS to unfairly penalize farmers for using the PIK and roll option of redeeming commodity loans," Schuette says. "Taxing farmers when they pay off their CCC loans without providing them with the option to sell their crop is plain wrong and makes no economic sense."

The problem stems from a March IRS ruling taxing farmers for the CCC loan in the year the loan is repaid, rather than the year that the crop is sold.

Schuette co-sponsored House Bill 3266 which will legislatively reverse the decision by the IRS.

Each year the agricultural economists of the upper midwest meet to discuss the economic outlook for the area. Economists from Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota, Kansas, and Nebraska discuss where we've been the past year and where the indicators show we will probably be a year from now.

This group provides some guidelines that can be used as we plan our individual economic strategies for the next year. Note they provide the high, the low, and also the expected. Depending on what you believe, if the cup is half full or half empty, you use your judgment from these guidelines to do some long range planning.

Fulton keeps CMAC race on hold

Fulton's Pirates kept a firm grip on second place in the Central Michigan Athletic Conference with a 22-6 football win at Saranac last Friday. The victory gives Coach Randy Lark's team a record of 4-1 in the league and 5-1 overall.

"We were kind of dead the first half," Lark said of his teams' play, "but perked up in the second half and then finished strong."

Scott McCausey got the Pirates on the board early when he intercepted a Saranac pass in the first quarter and returned it 15 yards for a touchdown. Sophomore Tom Cecchini ran in the extra-point to give Fulton a 8-0 lead.

Saranac's lone tally of the game came in the first period, but their extra-point attempt was no good.

A three-yard run up the middle by John Gallagher put 6 more points on the board for the Pirates in the second quarter, and Cecchini made the score 16-6 with his extra-point run.

The Pirates completed scoring in the final stanza on a 30-yard reverse by Ben Burk. The extra-point attempt was no good.

Cecchini led Fulton with 165 yards on 27 carries. Defensively, Tony Reeves had 12 tackles and Gallagher had 11 tackles.

Coach Lark's Pirates still have a chance to tie Fowler (5-0) or win the CMAC title with two conference games left on the 1987 schedule. Fulton plays host to Portland St. Patrick this Fri. in a Homecoming game, and ends their league schedule the following week with Lingsburg. Fowler faces Bath this Fri., and ends their league season with a game versus Pottersville in the annual battle for the "Little Brown Jug."

"Every game is a big one for us from here on out," Coach Lark said.

Marauders play tough versus undefeated Indian team in MMB

Ovid-Elsie matched up with unbeaten Chesaning in their Homecoming game last week, playing close with the Indians for a half, but ending on the bottom of a 37-13 score.

"We played pretty good, really," Marauder Coach Dennis Baratona said.

The score stood at 15-7 at halftime, following a pair of Indian touchdowns and a questionable field goal with just :03 left on the clock.

Wayne Kennedy gave Ovid-Elsie 6 points in the second period on a 6-yard option run which capped a Marauder 76-yard drive that took 10 plays. The PAT by Rick Coleman was good.

Chesaning's premier running back, Toshi Kobayashi, scored on a long 56-yard run on the Indians' second play from scrimmage in the third quarter.

"We had him cornered and he got out," Baratona said. "He can run."

The two-point conversion put Chesaning ahead 23-7, and they closed out their scoring with another touchdown in the third quarter and one in the final period.

The Marauders made the score 37-9 when John Keys sacked the Indian quarterback for a safety, and Jason McCreery closed out all scoring with a 1-yard run in the fourth quarter.

Ovid-Elsie totaled 10 first downs for 200 total offensive yards compared to 14 first downs for 389 yards for Chesaning. Neither team committed a turnover.

Individually, Coleman rushed for 63 yards on 6 carries, Chad Crippen totaled 36 yards on 7 carries, and McCreery had 35 yards on 7 carries.

Defensively, Mike Stoneman had 11 tackles, Coleman had 9 tackles, Brett Miller had 9 tackles, while Paul Bremmer, Chris Good, Joe Komora, and Kerry LeRoy had 8 tackles each.

Good was crowned Homecoming King during the Marauders' halftime festivities, and Karmen Swanson was chosen as Ovid-Elsie's 1987 Homecoming Queen.

Ovid-Elsie closes out the MMB portion of their 1987 schedule with a game versus Corunna this Fri., Oct. 17.

"It should be a tough game," Baratona said. "Corunna has all their backfield back for the first time since early in the season."

Defeat P-W 28-2

Eagles fly over Pirates

By RHONDA WESTFALL
Sports Editor

Not everybody in the Westphalia/Fowler area was at the P-W/Fowler football game last Friday night — there was a line of wagons unloading corn and beans at the elevator in Westphalia and a lone combine in a field near the football field.

But, for the most part, it was a usual standing-room-only turnout for the county clash which this year ended in a 28-2 Fowler victory.

Coach Steve Spicer's Eagles took advantage of several Pewamo-Westphalia miscues enroute to upping their Central Michigan Athletic Conference record to 5-0.

"Steve is a good coach and his teams always pick up on any mistakes you make," Pewamo-Westphalia Coach Kurt Mabie said. "Frustration is a terrible enemy — our kids are young and they were all terribly frustrated in the game."

THE EAGLES scored off their opening drive of the game, going 64 yards with quarterback Matt Hufnagle taking the ball in from 1-yard out. The extra-point pass was no good, making the score 6-0.

The two teams exchanged possessions with Fowler forced to punt following fine defensive efforts by Tony Schneider and Jason Spitzley for the Pirates. Pewamo-Westphalia got the ball on their own 33-yard line, but a fumble recovered by Tony Schafer for Fowler on the first play from scrimmage gave the Eagles possession on P-W's 28-yard line.

Runs by Jeff Miller and Don Simon carried the Eagles close to the goal line, but P-W's defense held strong again and Fowler came away without scoring.

The Pirates could not move the ball on their ensuing possession, but put Fowler deep into their own territory with a booming 42-yard punt by Bill Schafer which saw the Eagles set up shop on their own 35-yard mark. Again, the teams exchanged possessions, this time Fowler getting the ball on the P-W 44-yard line with 3:38 left in the half.

A 40-yard pass from Hufnagle to Tony Bertram carried the Eagles down to the Pirate 21-yard line. With time running out, Hufnagle completed a pass to Ron Schafer to put the Eagles on the 9-yard line, and another Hufnagle strike to Mark Simon gave Fowler a 12-0 halftime lead.

PEWAMO-WESTPHALIA came out throwing in the second half, moving the ball down to the Fowler 30-yard line before being forced to punt. The Eagles also punted on their next possession, but got the ball back when the Pirates were called for roughing the passer.

A long gainer by Don Simon took the Eagles down to the P-W 24-yard line, and another Simon run put Fowler at the Pirate 12-yard mark. With fourth down and 11-yards to go for the score, Hufnagle hit Scott Koenigsnecht in the endzone for an Eagle TD, then connected with Bertram on the 2-point attempt to up the ante to 20-0 at 4:28 of the third quarter.

The Pirates' aerial attack brought P-W down to the Fowler 27-yard line before they picked up a holding call and were forced to punt the ball away. The kick carried deep into Eagle territory and was downed on the Fowler 1-yard line where they eventually elected to take a safety, giving the Pirates their only score of the contest.

Fowler tallied their final touchdown of the game in the fourth quarter on a 10-yard run by Jeff Miller, who also caught the 2-point conversion pass from Hufnagle to complete the Eagles' scoring.

For Fowler, Don Simon carried the ball 14 times for 107 yards and Miller rushed for 87 yards on 22 carries. Hufnagle completed 5-9 passes for 85 yards.

TIM WIEBER was the leading Pirate ground-gainer, picking up 44 yards on 14 carries. Defensively for P-W, Bill Schafer had 5 solo tackles and 3 assists and Tony Schneider had 5 solo tackles and 2 assists.

Pewamo-Westphalia brings their 3-2 CMAC record into this Friday's Homecoming game with Saranac.

"Like I told the kids after the game, the difference between a winner and a loser is that when a winner gets knocked flatter than flat, he gets back up and dusts himself off — the loser lays down and quits," Coach Mabie said. "We're winners — we'll be back this week."

The Eagles will try to secure a certain CMAC tie when they meet Bath this Friday — also a Homecoming game.

"Bath is deceptive," Coach Spicer said. "Their record is 1-5, but we've seen them play and they're tough. They have good size."

"Our main aim each year is first of all to win the CMAC — that's what we're looking at now."

Redwing gridders post 13-7 victory over Alma Panthers

The St. Johns football team had plenty of time to celebrate their 13-7 victory over Alma last Friday night — until about 1 a.m. the following morning to be exact.

The Redwing team bus broke down on the way home from the MMB win in Alma, allowing Coach Bart Kjolhede and his charges ample time to contemplate their gridiron success.

"It wouldn't have been nearly as much fun if we had lost the game," Kjolhede said.

The win over the Panthers puts St. Johns in a tie with Alma for second place in the league — both have records of 3-1 — and keeps St. Johns' hopes alive for a first place tie in the conference. That would happen if the Redwings win their final MMB game this Fri., with Ionia, and Alma defeats league-leading Chesaning in their conference finale which is also set for Friday night.

"It's still possible for us to tie for the league title," the coach said. "We know we have to beat Ionia this week — and they've got some really huge people. We're talking 250 and 270 pounds. They're big."

Coach Kjolhede hopes his defensive unit will have as fine a showing against the Bulldogs as they had versus the Panthers. With the exception of a long 68-yard Alma run that set up their only touchdown of the game, the Redwing defense played tough football all night long.

THE REDWINGS scored the first touchdown of the game with just :35 seconds left in the half off an 8-yard pass from Matt Wilcox to Tom Penix. Oliver Kessler's extra-point attempt put St. Johns on top 7-0 at the end of the half.

Following the 68-yard run, Mark Powellson put the Panthers on the board in the third quarter and the PAT tied the contest at 7-all.

A 34-yard option gainer by Wilcox in the same period set up the Redwings' winning touchdown which was tallied by junior Dale Feldpausch who punched the ball in from 9-yards out. Kessler's PAT was wide, making the score 13-7 in the Redwings' favor.

Fourth quarter action saw the Redwings stall several Panther scoring threats when Feldpausch recovered an Alma fumble and Andy Ball intercepted a pass with 1:30 remaining in the game. St. Johns ran the clock out for the win.

Individually, Dwight Pierson totaled 49 yards on 12 carries, Paksi had 26 yards on 11 carries and a pass reception for 33 yards, and Wilcox carried the ball himself 6 times for 52 yards. Penix snagged 2 passes for 16 yards and Doug Hoyer caught 1 pass for 13 yards.

REDWING PUNTER, Zane Ballard, kept the Panthers in their own territory for much of the night, punting the ball 7 times for 261 total yards — an average of 37-yards per punt.

Defensively, Randy Trayer led St. Johns with 8 tackles and 5 assists — all before he suffered a mild concussion and was taken to the hospital for observation.

"We expect him to be back ready to play this Fri.," Kjolhede said.

Other defensive players making contributions included Feldpausch (5 tackles, 4 assists), Ballard (3 tackles, 7 assists), Scott Heibeck (6 tackles, 7 assists), Jose Riojas (7 tackles, 1 assist), Jim Martens (5 tackles, 5 assists), Mark Locher (4 tackles, 5 assists), and Ball with 2 pass interceptions.

Game time of the Redwings' MMB meeting this Fri., Oct. 17 with Ionia is 7:30 p.m. St. Johns has the home field advantage.

Fulton cagers have up and down week

The Fulton girls' basketball team split a pair of games last week, defeating Saranac 60-52 in a CMAC contest, but losing to Carson City 56-50 in a non-conference outing.

Excellent 80 percent free throw shooting spelled the difference in the win with Saranac on Tues., with the Pirates connecting on 16-20 shots taken from the line.

Fulton also used a 21-8 first-quarter scoring spree to put Saranac in an early hole.

Dee Gardner paced the Pirates with 25 points and 10 rebounds, with teammate Lori Helman adding 17 points and 12 rebounds to the winning effort.

In the Thurs. night game with Carson City, Coach Ron Merritt's team pulled to within 4 points in the third period, after having trailed 35-18 at the half, but could not maintain their momentum.

"We missed a lot of easy layups early in the game," Coach Merritt said. "We just didn't seem to be able to do things right."

Gardner again led the Pirates with 16 points and 10 rebounds, while Helman had 8 points and 12 rebounds.

The Pirates are at the half-way point of their CMAC schedule, doubling up on league games this week to complete the first-half rotation. They travel to Portland St. Patricks tonight (Oct. 13) where they meet the co-leaders on their home court — the famed "Pit" — and have an away meeting with Lingsburg this Thurs., Oct. 15.

"We played very well against Saranac," Merritt said. "Maybe things are beginning to turn around for us."

Fulton's record stands at 4-6 overall and 2-3 in the CMAC.

Pirate golfers end year

The 1987 Central Michigan Athletic Conference golf season came to an end last week with the Pewamo-Westphalia Pirates capturing top honors in the meet held at Portland Country Club.

Coach Duane Blatt's squad fired a 331 with Dan Smith carding a 77 to tie for medalist honors with Ryan Simon from Portland St. Patrick, Scott Platte shot an 82 for the Pirates, with teammates Rich Thelen and Glenn Thelen both coming home with 86s for P-W.

Pewamo-Westphalia ended their regular season with a 6-6 dual meet record and a second place finish in the league. Laingsburg finished first.

"We had kind of an up and down year," Blatt said. "We had some pretty good scores in some matches which were played in not the best of conditions."

Smith was selected to the CMAC First Team All-Conference at the conclusion of the season.

Scott Platte and Rich Thelen were named to the Second Team in the CMAC.

Bears suffer defeat in MSAC cage game

Ashley's Bears came away with a loss in their bid for sole possession of first place in the Mid-State Athletic Conference girls' basketball race, dropping a close 38-34 decision to Webberville last week.

"It was a very intense, tough defensive game," Ashley Coach Carl Wayer said, "but we were all still friends at the end. We have a good rivalry with Webberville."

The loss puts Webberville on top of the Mid-State league with a record 4-0, while Ashley stands at 3-1 in MSAC play at the mid-way point of the league schedule.

The Bears led for the entire first half, jumping off to a big 11-3 first-quarter lead, and ahead 18-9 at the half. Webberville outscored Ashley 14-6 in the third period, then went ahead on a 3-point basket shot near the end of the game, from which the Bears could not recoup.

Lisa Wingle was the leading Bear scorer with 11 points, Chris Shaw had 7 points, and Sherry Kral had 4 points, 4 assists, and 8 steals.

The Bears have one league game slated for this week, meeting Dansville tonight, Oct. 13.

"We're getting healthy mentally and physically," Wayer said. "We hope to go undefeated the rest of the way."

P-W keeps perfect cage record intact

By RHONDA WESTFALL
Sports Editor

The St. Johns Redwings pulled off a big 68-64 overtime win over Alma in an important Mid-Michigan B league game last week — but could not stop undefeated Pewamo-Westphalia in a non-league meeting on St. Johns' home court last Thurs.

Coach Carol Rademacher's Pirates came from behind to outlast the Redwings 58-57, upping their overall record to 9-0. The Pirates were ranked number one in Class C in the AP poll last week.

"We are very pleased with the way we've played so far this year," P-W Coach Carol Rademacher said. "We have a very balanced team, and I think it shows. When our opponents key on one player, it leaves someone else open somewhere on the floor."

"We were impressed with St. Johns' ballclub — (Anne) Brocker is the best forward that we've seen this year."

The Pirates held a slim 17-16 lead at the end of the first quarter of play, but the Redwings rebounded in the second stanza outscoring P-W 21-12 to take a 37-29 lead into the lockerroom.

P-W whittled away at St. Johns' lead throughout the third stanza, cutting the margin of difference down to 49-46 at the close of the period.

THE EXCITING fourth quarter finish saw the Pirates take the lead with just over a minute remaining when Keri Nurenberg stole a St. Johns pass and Shirley Thelen scored on the opposite end of the court.

A basket by Brocker gave the Redwings a one-point lead again, 57-56, but Nurenberg iced the game for the Pirates on the return trip downcourt, making the score 58-57. A last second shot by St. Johns was off the mark.

Pewamo-Westphalia shot 45 percent for the night and cleared the boards of 21 offensive rebounds.

"We felt good about the second half," Coach Rademacher said. "We rebounded much better."

Shirley Thelen and Amy Hengesbach were the leading Pirate scorers with 15 points apiece, with Thelen netting 6 assists and Hengesbach grabbing 9 rebounds. Sandy Simon had 12 points, 12 rebounds, and 6 assists, and Nurenberg had 7 points, 5 rebounds, 4 steals and 3 assists.

For the Redwings, Brocker had 20 points, Kerry Porter had 10 points, and Gina Manas, Gina Schneider and Kerry Porter each had 6 points.

In St. Johns overtime win at Alma, the Redwings outscored the Panthers 10-6 in the overtime stanza to earn the victory.

PORTER LED all scorers in the game with 26 points, Brocker had 20 points, and Manas had 10 points for St. Johns.

The Redwings played at Mason in a non-league game last night (Oct. 12), and host Ionia tomorrow, Oct. 14, in an MMB contest.

Pewamo-Westphalia's other outing last week saw them travel to Fowler and come away with a 67-43 CMAC victory.

"We didn't feel that we played poorly," Fowler Coach Tom O'Rourke said, "but P-W played better. It didn't seem to matter what defense we used against them."

Fowler was paced by Mary Jo Simon who scored 18 points, had 13 rebounds, and 5 assists in the game. Donna Feldpausch had 10 points and 8 rebounds for the Eagles.

The loss drops Fowler to 3-2 in the league and 6-3 overall. They have conference games scheduled with Bath and Potterville this week.

Nurenberg made good on a hefty 9-14 shots taken from the field to lead the Pirates with 21 points in the Fowler game. She also had 6 rebounds and 8 steals.

Sandy Simon had 17 points, 11 rebounds and 4 steals in the game, while teammates Sandy Martin added 9 points and 5 rebounds, Hengesbach had 8 points and 9 rebounds, and Thelen had 6 points, 9 assists, and 4 rebounds.

The Pirates and Portland St. Patricks could square off this Thursday in a battle of unbeaten teams. P-W plays Saranac and St. Pats hosts Fulton prior to the Oct. 15 game on P-W's home court.

"They have a good bench and they are scrappy," Coach Rademacher said of the St. Patrick team.

Redwing golf team ends 1987 season on high note

Redwing golfers wrapped up their 1987 season by participating in Class A regional play last Friday, one of 17 teams competing in the meet at El Dorado Golf Course in Holt.

Coach Paul Sternburgh's linksters were edged out of a bid for the state Class A playoffs, finishing fourth in the regional with a 347 team total. A score of 342 shot by the Grand Ledge squad was good for third place — only the top three teams in each regional advance to state competition.

East Lansing placed first with a 316 score, and Holt was second at 326.

"Somehow, regional competition doesn't seem to bring out the best in a golf team," Sternburgh said. "Scores overall were generally high. We felt good that we finished as high as we did."

Paul Hughes carded the low score among St. Johns' golfers, coming home with an 84. Jeff Dean shot 85, Paul Schneeberger shot 88, Todd Kiem carded 90, and Tom Lewis shot 91.

The fall golf season packs a lot of action into a short space of time — Redwing varsity linksters ended their regular season with a 12-2 overall record, picked up three championship trophies in invitational competitions, along with the fourth place regional finish.

"It may not have been as good as we would have liked, but still it was a pretty satisfying year," Sternburgh said. "It was an especially enjoyable and good year for me, and I felt that Jeff (Dean) had a good effect on the team overall."

He emerged as a leader and had a good season. Dean, the senior team captain, was the only Redwing selected to the First Team in the MMB and was also voted as the teams' Most Valuable Player. He ended the season with a 39.5 average.

"He scored well in big matches for us," Sternburgh said.

Named to the MMB Second Team was Lewis, a sophomore, with Hughes, Keim and Schneeberger all getting honorable mention nods.

MMB All-Conference selection is based on scores in the final league meet.

CARAMELS & APPLES... Dip Into New Possibilities

Tucked away in the minds of many Americans are the fond memories of family apple-picking outings each autumn. Thinking back, it's easy to call to mind the ritual looked forward to by family members of all ages.

Who could forget the tempting scent of a warm apple-cinnamon pie or the tangy blend of a tart apple wrapped in sweet caramel?

The Kraft Kitchens have not forgotten those mouth-watering memories. In keeping with today's fast-paced world of innovative ideas and trendy creations, they've developed a batch of exciting caramel and apple recipes that are sure to become the traditions of tomorrow.

These new variations of favorite desserts—a Layered Caramel Apple Biscuit, Louisiana Style Bread Pudding and the Caramel Apple Puff Pancake—in addition to the homemade Caramel Apple recipe itself, will convince you that caramels are a sweet addition to apple recipes regardless of the season.

When you cook with caramels, follow these helpful hints to make the most of their rich and creamy flavor:

- o To avoid scorching when melting caramels, use a heavy saucepan over low heat.
- o Once the caramels begin to melt, stir them gently with a wooden spoon.
- o For caramel apples, allow about 20 minutes to melt caramels in a heavy 1-1/2 quart saucepan on a conventional rangetop.

Whether you choose to pick your apples at the local orchard or at the produce section of your favorite supermarket, you may become confused by the numerous varieties available. McIntosh and Jonathon apples are favorites for dipping as well as cooking. Other popular apples for cooking are the Granny Smith and the Golden Delicious varieties.

When selecting your apples, pick up the fruit and feel it—an apple should be smooth and have unblemished skin. Soft or mealy apples are not good for cooking.

Finally, before you begin peeling, slicing or chopping, wash the apples in a mild soap solution to remove their natural waxy coating.

When you finish the preparations, you'll be ready to dip right into those sweet n' tart sensations that will leave your taste buds clamoring for another bite!

CARAMEL APPLES

Temp your taste buds with a tart, juicy apple tucked inside sweet, chewy caramel. Here's a recipe for the classic taste that has delighted generations of caramel lovers.

- 1 14-oz. bag Kraft caramels
- 2 tablespoons water
- 4 or 5 medium size apples
- Wooden sticks

Melt caramels with water in 1-1/2 quart heavy saucepan over low heat, stirring frequently until smooth. Wash and dry apples; insert stick into stem end of each apple. Dip into hot caramel sauce; turn until coated. Scrape off excess sauce from bottom of apples. Place on greased wax paper. Store in refrigerator. Let stand at room temperature 15 minutes before serving to allow caramel to soften. 4 to 5 servings

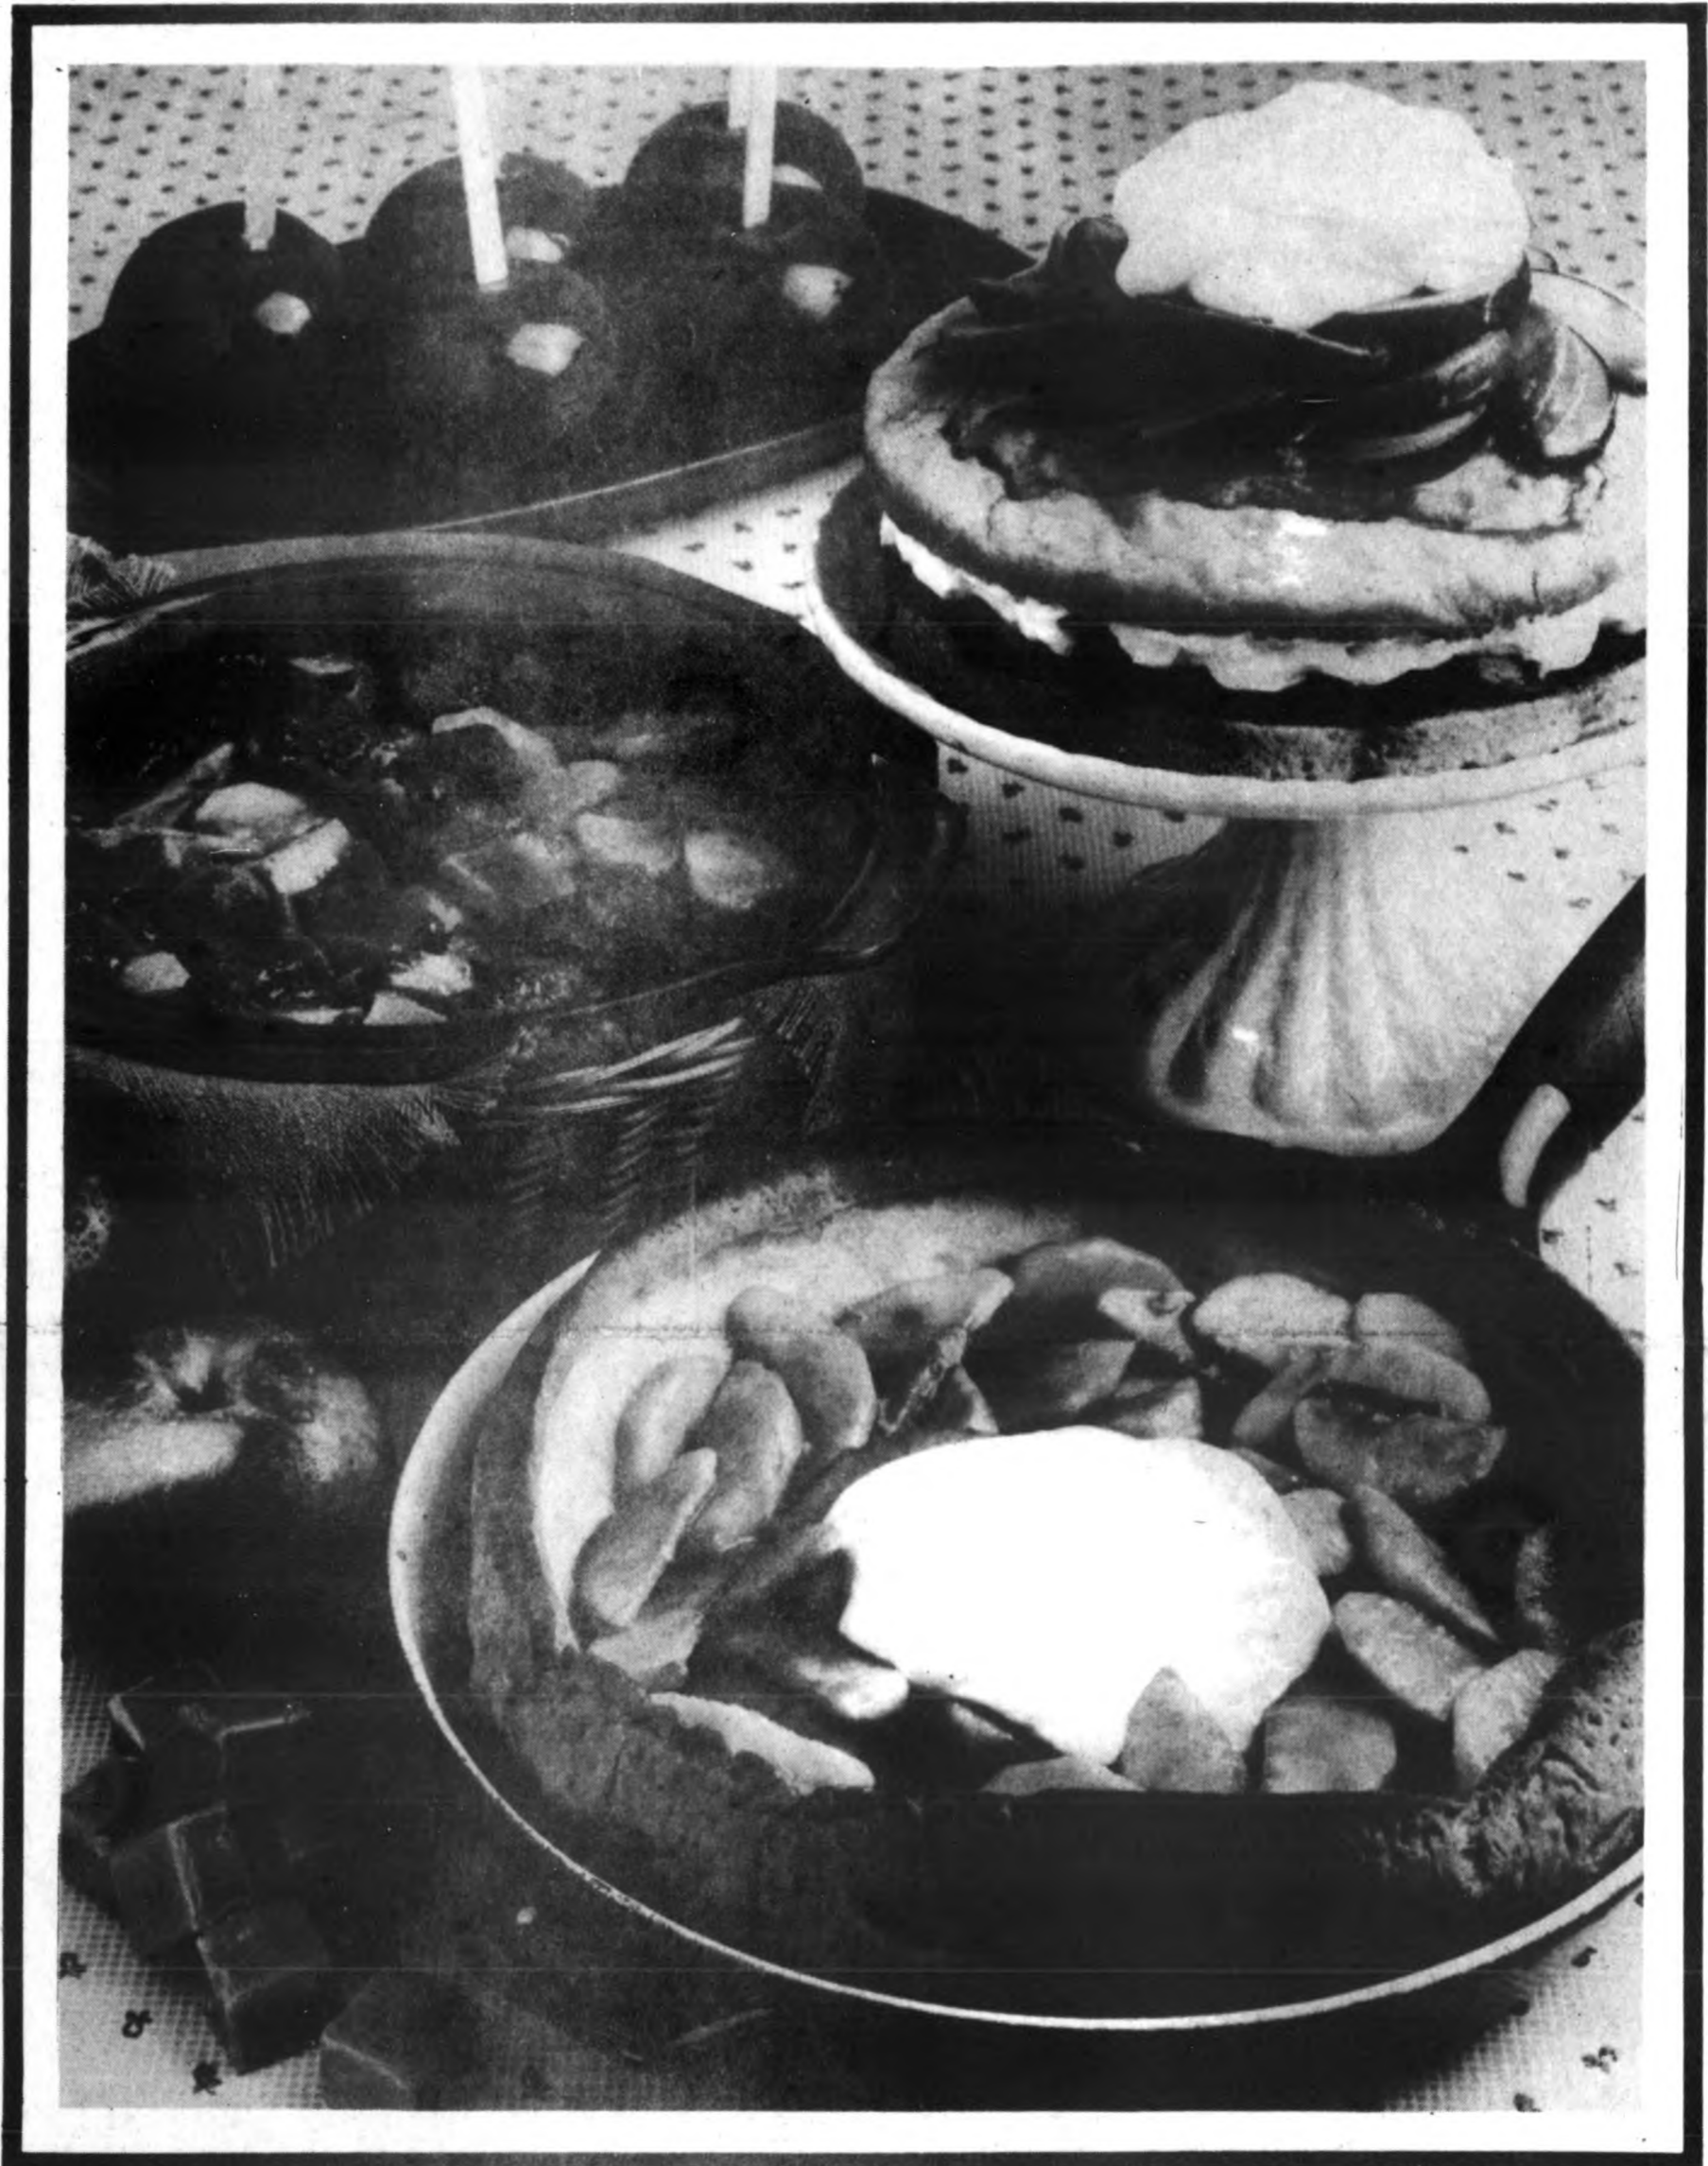

Variations: Substitute pears for apples.

Substitute 14-oz. bag Kraft chocolate fudgies for caramels and 1 tablespoon milk for water.

Add 2 tablespoons creamy peanut butter with caramels and water. Roll apple in chopped peanuts.

Dip caramel-coated apples in chopped nuts, flaked coconut, chocolate pieces or Kraft miniature marshmallows; cut in half.

Microwave: Microwave caramels and water in small deep glass bowl on High 2-1/2 to 3-1/2 minutes, stirring after each minute until sauce is smooth. Continue as directed (if caramel sauce is too thin, let stand about 2 minutes before dipping apples).

These tasty variations on traditional desserts features the tart-sweet combination of crisp apples and creamy caramels. Clockwise from the top: Caramel Apples; Layered Caramel Apple Biscuit; Caramel Apple Puff Pancake; Louisiana Style Bread Pudding.

SURVEY CONFIRMS ENGLISH MUFFIN VERSATILITY

It can be "habit-forming," "handy" and "munchful." Some describe it as "special" and "stupendous" and similarly "terrific" and "tasty." Others declare it "unsurpassable," and "unrivaled," while many feel it to be "versatile," "warm" and "wonderful." One anonymous respondent even labeled it "yuppie toast."

"It seems that Americans today simply cannot find enough words - or uses - for the English muffin," states George A. Bay, Vice President, Marketing, at Bays English Muffins.

"We recently surveyed more than 300 consumers to determine how and when they eat English muffins. The 'when' substantiated what we already knew; the 'how' revealed some amazing surprises," Bay explains.

A Breakfast Favorite

Breakfast is the favorite time of day to eat English muffins, according to 90 percent of the respondents.

About two-thirds of the people surveyed simply toast and butter their morning muffins. A strong minority prefer to top their toasted muffins with cream cheese and such additions as smoked salmon, herbs, crabmeat or olives. A number of respondents cover their muffins with peanut butter and accompaniments including bananas, jelly, pickles or bacon.

For a special breakfast dish, English Muffin lovers prefer the classic eggs benedict. Approximately 30 percent of the people surveyed regularly prepare this breakfast treat - many with creative variations including additions of whipped cream, asparagus, green peppers, pineapple, broiled tomatoes or brandy sauce.

Popular Party Pizzas

The most popular use for the English

muffin - other than at breakfast - turns English muffins into individual party pizzas. After covering the muffin with tomato sauce and shredded monterey jack, cheddar or mozzarella cheese, muffin lovers add combinations of their favorite traditional pizza toppings including mushrooms, sausages, green peppers, or black olives. Some out-of-the-ordinary suggestions are steamed asparagus, broiled chicken breast or pineapple chunks.

"Not only do I enjoy eating English muffin pizzas myself, I also discovered that they make great hors d'oeuvres for casual and formal entertaining," states one respondent. "Simply cut the muffin pizza into quarters, arrange creatively on a platter and serve hot from the oven. They're definitely a party favorite."

Unique Uses

Several consumers suggested unique uses for the English muffin. One dips English muffin quarters into cheese fondue and another tops toasted English muffins with cream cheese, peach slices and cinnamon. Additional recipe combinations submitted include chopped sardines with mayonnaise; cucumbers, salt and pepper; and fresh vegetables and herbs mixed with sour cream.

One idea that makes full use of the English muffin suggests placing it on top of French onion soup with a sprinkling of parmesan cheese. Cover the muffin with a slice of mozzarella cheese and bake until golden brown.

The Bays survey shows that there are as many ways to serve English muffins as there are ways to describe it. Whether "continental" or "convenient," "filling" or "flavorful," the English muffin is an American favorite.
