Retailers declaring war on shoplifting

By MARTY ACKLEY

Beware shoplifters — the St. Johns area retailers have declared war!

Realizing shoplifting not only hurts their business, but customers as well, shopowners will be on special alert this holiday season to crack down on the often looked-over crime.

During a shoplifting seminar sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce retail division, Bill Krupka of the Michigan Coalition for Prevention of Shoplifting, said shoplifting is the "biggest little crime in America."

He said it costs each household in the United States approximately $307 each year through the higher retail costs and the prosecution of the criminal.

Shoplifting is also the most expensive crime in the country, accounting for over $24 billion in stolen goods.

That is why Chamber Retail Committee Chairman Dick Johnson of Penney's, and two other committee members, Shelagh Kosinski of Dancer's Fashions and Mary Wingert of Spartan Travel, arranged the shoplifting seminar.

Nearly 60 local retailers and their employees learned how to fight the crime of shoplifting.

Employee awareness and motivation is one of the big keys, they were told. Involvement by the employees is one of the best ways to combat shoplifting.

All of these precautions will help St. Johns retailers in their crusade against shoplifting, helping their business and in turn, helping the consumer.

Fowler fans soaring high on the Eagles

By AL PALMERI

Anytime a football team wins all nine of its games, it obviously has talented players. Neither can the importance of coaching be denied.

But the strength of Fowler's football team, the real backbone, may rest somewhere else. A stroll along Main Street in the western Clinton County village gives a clue.

Fowler's fans have a reputation for being as loyal as they are numerous. And numerous they are.

In 1980, the team qualified for the state Class D playoffs and won its first two games. That set up a championship game in the Pontiac Silverdome — an event which attracted almost the entire population of the village of about 1,000.

"There was a big sign on the outskirts of town saying the last one out should turn out the lights," recalled Julia Schueller, a counter worker at Becker Furniture.

Schueller, who has watched eight Fowler games this season, is sure to head for Corunna this Saturday with many other townfolk. That's where the Eagles, 9-0, will take on Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes, 8-1, in a first-round playoff game at 1:30 p.m.

Travel distance won't discourage a large Fowler turnout. For games at Fulton and Portland this season, Fowler's fans have either equalled or surpassed the number of fans for the home team.

"Everybody knows everybody," Schueller said. "There's no strangers. This Tom Simon (Fowler's leading rusher), I went to school with his Dad."

"Besides, the games are fun to watch." Another Fowler resident, Joe Bodarko, attributed the high fan turnout to the closeness of the community.

"A lot of the parents stay in the community, and they kind of reminisce on their younger days," he said.

"An awful lot of it is just community pride," said Mark Simmon, a Farm Bureau insurance agent on Main Street. "They're proud of their kids and they're proud of their team. I know of grandparents that are in their seventies that come to those games."

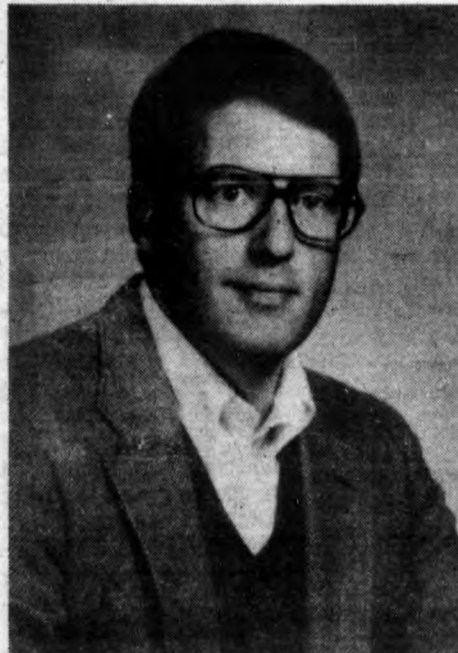

While shopping at Parr's Pharmacy, Helen Schaefer, secretary at the high school for 18 years, offered this explanation.

"Fowler just has a lot of athletic supporters," she said. "I just think they have a lot of enthusiasm."

At Theis' Party Store, clerk Penny Wohlert agreed.

"Fowler's a pretty sports-minded town — track, basketball, football, everything," said Wohlert, whose son, Dale, was an all-state defensive tackle on last year's Fowler team.

City posts to Munger, Parr

Ben Munger

Ray Parr

Ben Munger and Ray Parr were elected to the St. Johns City Commission Tuesday after a day of light voter turnout.

Munger led all vote-getters with 675 while Parr was a distant second in the balloting with 478. Former commissioner Jeanne Rand received 350 votes and Ray Pineau finished with 256. Only 21 per cent of the registered voters in the city came to the polls to cast their ballots.

Munger carried all five precincts by wide margins and was the only candidate to receive at least 100 votes in any one precinct. He did so in all five.

Munger said he was delighted to be elected and was looking forward to serving the city of St. Johns.

"I appreciate all the votes and am pleased to be the highest vote-getter," he said. "It's a great compliment not only to me but to all the people who worked on my campaign also."

Munger said they worked hard on a phone campaign, encouraging people to get out and vote, putting up a lot of signs, and getting out to the people.

He is the Executive Director of the American Board of Emergency Medicine and has served on the Tri County Emergency Medical Services Board and the Rotary Board. He was born and raised in St. Johns and has lived here for the past 12 years.

Ray Parr said he is looking forward to the new experiences the city commission will bring. He served on the St. Johns Board of Education for 20 years, 10 as president, and feels the two bodies are fairly similar.

County News is sold to Lansing area man

The Clinton County News and DeWitt-Bath Review have a new owner. Clinton Beckwith, 42, of Chelsea bought the Clinton County News and DeWitt-Bath Review and their sister newspapers — The Portland Review & Observer, Charlotte Republican Tribune and Grand Ledge Independent — last week.

The five community newspapers formed Lansing Suburban Newspaper Network and were owned by Suburban Communications Corporation (SCC) of Livonia. SCC President Richard Aginian made the announcement of the sale Friday morning, Nov. 4.

Clint Beckwith

"I'm extremely sorry we're ending our relationship," Aginian told the almost 50 employees Friday. "I wish you all the best of luck."

Beckwith said all but two of the 45 to 50 employees have been offered positions with the new company.

Beckwith presently publishes three shopping guides in Washtenaw and Jackson counties and operates a commercial printing firm in Chelsea.

In the local area, Beckwith's company publishes the Eaton Rapids New Times, an 8,600-free circulation weekly.

"Advertisers in the community newspapers should now enjoy the availability of the Eaton Rapids area," he noted.

A native of Flint, Beckwith and his wife of 19 years presently reside in Chelsea. They have three children, one attends junior high, one is in senior high and a daughter is a student at Ferris State College.

Drunk drivers crash, two are injured

Two men are being charged with drunk driving after a two car accident on the evening of Nov. 2 in DeWitt Township which left one of the men hospitalized.

DeWitt Township Police report that Myron Merrill Jr., 26, of 4721 Bristol, Lansing hit a vehicle driven by Kevin Nemetz, 20, of 601 W. Sheridan, DeWitt as Nemetz was attempting to turn.

As Nemetz was attempting to turn off DeWitt Road onto State Road, Merrill tried to pass on the

Nemetz was arrested at the scene for driving under the influence of liquor. Merrill was taken to St. Lawrence Hospital in Lansing for treatment and will be charged with drunk driving at a later date. One passenger in the Merrill vehicle, Terry Cole, 24, of 5091 Fairview, Hosson, Mich., was also hospitalized at St. Lawrence.

The DeWitt Township Police Department are also investigating the breaking and entering of two residences in the township.

The first occurred last Wednesday, Nov. 2, when a neighbor of the Raymond Patterson residence at 15055 Wood Rd, discovered the house had been broken into while they were on vacation.

The neighbor, Rosemary Davenport, was picking up the mail and noticed the back door of the house was standing open. Upon investigation, she discovered the door had been forced open and pieces of the frame were on the floor.

The Pattersons have since returned home and have yet to report what, if anything, was stolen during the break-in.

The second break-in occurred Nov. 3 at the home of David Pung, 14400 DeWitt Rd.

The Pung family had arrived home around 8:55 p.m. when Mrs. Pung noticed the rear door to the house and the door into the kitchen were open. She told authorities she heard footsteps running away from the home, traveling north on DeWitt Road.

She entered the home and found it ransacked, went to a neighbor's house and reported it to the police. Missing was over $100 in cash, tools, a Coleman lantern, and various other small items.

Both break-ins are still under investigation.

The Clinton County Sheriff's Department is investigating an unusual accident Monday night when a tractor plowed into the home of Edmund Tucker, 1651 E. M-21.

Authorities say around

5:50 p.m. on Nov. 7, a tractor pulling a grain drill driven by Ivan Alex Vitek, 67, of 4652 W. Walker Rd., was hit in the left rear end by a car driven by David Long of Farwell.

Vitek was traveling on the shoulder of eastbound M-21 and swung out into traffic to avoid hitting a mailbox. Long tried to avoid the tractor, but was forced to stay in his lane because a truck was approaching in the opposite direction.

When Long hit the grain drill, forcing it into the back of the tractor, Vitek was thrown from the vehicle. The tractor proceeded across the highway into the Tucker residence.

No one was home at the time. Vitek received lacerations and Long was uninjured.

The Sheriff's Department is also investigating two incidents believed to be related. George Baer of Lansing reported that someone had broken into his vehicle while it was parked at the Royal Scott Bowling Alley in Watertown Township on Nov. 2. Taken were two Ebonite bowling balls with bags, along with an AMFM stereo cassette player. Entry was gained through the passenger door where the suspect apparently caught his pants in the door.

Later, in an apparently related incident, Dale Womble of Lansing reported that someone had damaged his windshield on his 1979 Mercury. The windshield had been struck near the rear view mirror causing the glass to spiderweb. Damage was estimated at $100.

John MacLennan of Maple Rapids reported that someone had stolen his 1976 Chevy pickup. The keys had been left in the vehicle. The truck was found later down the road in a ditch, abandoned.

Art Courtland of DeWitt reported that someone had shot a BB gun at a window of his residence. The BB put a hole in the window and screen. Damages were estimated at $20.

The County Sheriff's Department also investigated 144 complaints including 40 accidents, two personal injury accidents, 17 car-deer accidents, and one incident of foreign objects in Halloween candy. The DeWitt City Police had their share of Halloween pranksters. One youngster had thrown a pumpkin through a storm door at a residence on South Geneva Drive, causing $80 in damages. Another pumpkin was thrown onto the hood and fender of a vehicle parked on Redpole. Estimates on that are still pending.

In addition, the DeWitt City Police Department handled 30 complaints, two malicious destruction to property, one private property accident, one juvenile arrest for possession of marijuana, and three other arrests.

Servicemen's parents worrying more

By MARTY ACKLEY

"It's not a pleasant thing to think about, but it's a fact," said James Peters of St. Johns of the possibility of his son, Marine Pvt. Jerald Peters, going off to fight.

Since the United States has stepped up its military force in the war-torn areas around the globe, the realization of having their sons fight and die has opened a few eyes of parents whose sons serve in the armed forces.

The thoughts of the suicide bombing of the Marine outpost in Lebanon and the Army attack on the island of Grenada have stoked the fires of concern in the hearts of parents who may have previously felt their sons were safe because the country had not been in an actual war for some 10 years.

"Like all mothers I'm worried," said Mrs. Beverly Kelly of St. Johns, whose son Kevin serves in the Army and is currently stationed in Germany. "Even though I felt the invasion was necessary, I don't like to see it and never had any idea this would happen. But for us to continue being free, it was necessary."

"We have to have boys willing to fight and defend our country," she added. "We have to have a strong military if we are to remain free. I hate war and the thought of boys dying, but unfortunately there are other powers in the world that make that necessary."

That tone of patriotism was often mixed with concern over this country's role in the world.

"He's one of this nation," said James Peters of his son, "you have to do what a nation calls for. I certainly wouldn't want to lose my son, he's a wonderful boy, but sometimes you have to lose a few to save a nation. We have to stand firm as a nation. This is the best nation on earth."

Mrs. Roger Cook of Fowler, whose son is Army Pvt. Ron Becher, says she believes in what the country stands for but said, "I don't understand why our country has to be the country trying to protect everybody."

"It's sad," she said, "that the boys who are dying are not losing their lives for our country, but for another country to protect that country."

She and her husband are proud their son is in the armed services, but "it's darn awfully scary."

They say they support not letting Communism take over, but added that they're not for going into all-out war. "It would do away with our civilization," he said referring to an inevitable nuclear war.

As to the young men's feelings on their situation, it seems most are good products of their military training and are ready and willing to fight.

"They're all ready to go," Cook said, "they train them that way."

Mr. Peters said his son was more than ready to go over to Lebanon and fight. "Every Marine wants to get his revenge for what happened over there. It was rotten, the way it was done," he said.

Mrs. Donna Housler of DeWitt said her son, Marine Pfc. William Scott, told her he's prepared to do what needs to be done. Like all Marines, he told her, he is loyal to his country.

She said she has been closer than most to the tragedy over in Lebanon. Her son is stationed at the Marine Air Station in Cherry Point, N.C. — the airfield closest to Camp Legune, the last point before departure.

Now the air station at Cherry Point has the grim responsibility for returning all of the personal property of those killed in the truck bombing attack to the families of those Marines. That, in turn, has made the entire incident more personal to Mrs. Housler and has also made for a very emotional past two weeks.

"I feel a very strong bond with all of the parents. It could very well have been our son over there," she remarked.

"The boys are all so very young and green," she sighed. "They do the best they possibly can. It's sad to see anything happen to them."

"You always have a concern for their safety — for Bill and his comrades — something has to be done over there to ensure their safety," she said. "I was very angry. Now I'm bewildered. Why are we over there? What's going to be the final outcome?"

She said she and her husband are extremely proud of their son and feel empathetic toward all the families who have lost their sons in the fighting.

"It's a darn shame for them to lose their lives when they're so young," she said. "They are a fine group of men and a tremendous amount of credit has to be given them."

The same feelings hold true for the other parents in the area with sons in the service.

With their increased concern now of what will happen to their sons, James Peters may have said it best, "Sure we worry about him, but he's in the Lord's hands."

Appreciating our Vets Day

By MARTY ACKLEY

Veteran's Day — what does it mean to me? Not a whole heck of a lot, to be truthful. That's what I would have said one month ago, but somehow things have changed since. It's been about ten years or so since our country has been in a war, that is a real "heated" war with actual casualties. I was in my teens when America was fighting over in Vietnam, so that whole scene seemed too confusing to me to understand fully.

During those so-called "off years", when the country eliminated the draft, I only thought of the armed services as a place where guys went after high school who didn't want to go to college or couldn't find a job. I thought of it as an outcast service.

Needless to say, the armed services didn't garner a lot of respect in my book. But in the course of interviewing parents of servicemen this week for a story I was doing on their thoughts of the stepping up of our military actions, I started feeling ashamed.

These parents, most of whom had lived during an era when the armed services meant something, made me realize how much these guys were putting on the line and how much I took it for granted.

It's easy to take our freedoms and our lifestyle for granted. It seems almost automatic that we have these freedoms and little do we realize what it takes to maintain them.

Why did it take the deaths of nearly 300 Marines in Lebanon and several in Grenada for me to appreciate what our servicemen stand for. Maybe some of you feel the same way.

Freedom is not free. It took the sacrifices of many men to gain it, and many more to keep it. Whether they are in battle or not is irrelevant. It's the fact that they are trained and ready to fight for us and the ideals behind our freedom that is important.

It's a nice, secure feeling knowing that I am being protected tonight as I sleep and that tomorrow I'm going to be able to go to the job of my choice, say what I please, and worship where and how I want.

No longer will I think of Veteran's Day as just another holiday when a handful of World War II and some Vietnam Vets gather around a flagpole and remember how they fought to protect our country.

I'll be there too, if not in body, in spirit. And I'll be clapping my hands the hardest, raising my voice the loudest, and waving my flag the highest for all those wonderful people who defend what I have and what every man wants. That is freedom.

For your information: The Michigan Historical Museum will show two films on Veteran's Day. The first film will be six minutes of a Lansing parade that took place in 1941 when battle flags captured from Confederate forces in the Civil War were returned to their respective southern states. The film was made by Mr. Austin Knapp of DeWitt.

Biggest Doll-Up Age; 30-39 For Men and Women

Whether women spend more for clothing than their husbands depends greatly on their age bracket.

Usually, explains Dr. Elizabeth Wiegand of the home management staff at Michigan State University, the number of clothes bought by adults decreases as they get older.

For those husbands and wives under 30, the clothing for the Mrs. is responsible for the larger share of the clothing dollar. In the 30 to 39 year age bracket, both men and women are at their maximum spending for clothing. With the money spent for feminine frills still a little ahead of that spent on men.

But Dr. Wiegand says in the 40 to 49 year-old group both husbands and wives have tapered off in the amount spent for clothing and both of them spend the same. From 50 and up, studies show that men tend to spend somewhat more than their wives for clothing.

Don't Condemn Golf Until You've Played a Game

The Republican-News force has not been all of one opinion this summer in regard to the merits of the game of golf. Most of our newspaper people are neutral. Ralph H. Cedarquist, advertising man, is not one of these, however. He is a golf fan, bug, crank or whatever you may call it. Furthermore he won his argument against S.L. Marshall this week, who has steadily maintained that golf was an old ladies game. It all came to pass this way.

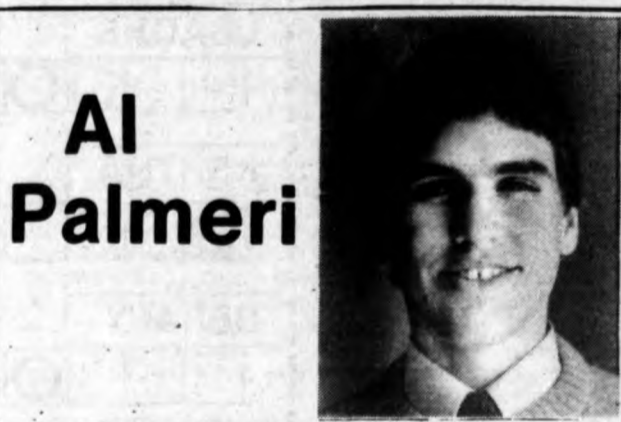

Cedarquist came to work one morning this week with his head bandaged up and one eye closed. Asked if he had experienced domestic difficulties, he replied in the negative and that he had been at the St. Johns golf links in Greenbush the afternoon before with attorney Wm. C. Searl. "Cedar" had made a beautiful mashie shot and Searl was about to duplicate it. As Searl swung with the iron mashie he heard two thuds. The first was when the mashie hit the ball. The second was caused by the club hitting his companion on the head.

Cedarquist had stepped too close to Searl and was completely knocked out by the blow. A gash which required five stitches was cut in the forehead and his right eye closed. Dr. Frank Luton was on the links and was hurried to the prostrate newspaper man who quickly recovered but was a gory sight.

When Cedarquist came into the office the next morning he was asked by Marshall if he was cured of golf. He ignored the suggestion and immediately began to rant about the beautiful mashie shot he had made just before the mishap and cursed his luck that he was so rudely interrupted before he could finish.

The seriousness of his injury, the pain and the close call to an ignoble death seemed to worry him not at all. He did maintain it was a crime to lose a 150-yard mashie shot that put the ball within ten feet of the hole.

Marshall listened to the wounded business associate in amazement and since has worn a dazed expression. He has been heard to mutter that "there must be something to that darned game after all."

Al Palmeri

Warning. Parking on a pile of leaves may be hazardous to your health. Take it from me. I know. Now. It may not be hazardous 99 percent of the time. But from now on, I'm not taking any chances.

On Sunday, I was traveling with a friend in Detroit when we stopped in Dearborn Heights to visit someone. My friend, the driver, was going to pull up in front of the person's house to park, but he decided against it because of a pile of leaves hugging the curb. It turned out to be a wise choice. About 15 minutes later, a woman pulled her car up and parked on the leaves. After she went into her house, things got hot. The leaves started burning. Pretty soon, the entire car was in flames as my friend rushed to call the fire department. Fortunately, they arrived to put out the flames before the gasoline tank blew up, but the car was a charred mess.

The Dearborn Heights fire official at the scene said the fire was probably caused by the car's catalytic converter. Apparently, when the engine is turned off the converter remains hot enough to ignite a substance like dry leaves.

The moral of the story is, if you want to park a car and you see leaves, leave the leaves. It's worth the effort to find another parking space, even if you have to walk a longer distance.

CCC vets wanted

To the Editor

Forty-nine years ago I was in the Civilian Conservation Corps at Camp Houghton Lake State Forest, the 684th Co. While there, I met about six or more C.C. Corpsmen from St. Johns, whose full names I have since forgotten. The last names of two of these ex-corpmen are "Harris" and "Honeycutt."

Now I need help in locating these fellows for a possible reunion at Houghton Lake. We would like to meet June 12, 1984. Anyone who feels they can make this reunion should write to Joe Barber, 3541 Duke St., Kalamazoo 49008. Please inclose two addressed postcards for future correspondence.

We would like to hear from those who joined the C's from May 1934 to May 1935, but anyone is welcome to join us if they enlisted later. They will surely meet someone they know.

Where are you ex-corpmen? We need to hear from you. Let's make this first reunion a big success.

I will gladly exchange photos taken in camp, so we will know who we are.

Sincerely,
Joe Barber, ex-corpman

Parents can prevent juvenile shoplifting

Shoplifting is the biggest little crime in America, according to Bill Krupka of the Michigan Coalition for Prevention of Shoplifting.

It accounted for over $24 billion in stolen goods in 1982 and costs the average household $307 per year in higher retail costs and prosecution of the criminal.

Most shoplifting offenders fall in the 15-20 year-old category with an increase being noticed in the 29-year-old and up group. Girls are most likely to shoplift over boys by a four-to-one margin.

Krupka said along with fighting the crime in the stores, it can also be dealt with in the home. He gave several preventative measures parents can take to teach their children not to steal.

• Make sure your children understand that shoplifting is a crime — a serious crime.

• Be certain your children know what a police record can do to their chances for jobs, college, and professions.

• Know how much money your children have and how they spend it. Know where they get it!

• Know what your sons and daughters bring into the home. If it isn't his or hers, find out where it came from and don't accept a pat answer.

• Know when, where, and why your child is going shopping. Don't allow your child to hang around business premises.

• Teach your child that it is more chicken to go along with the crowd than to refuse to do so.

• Be alert to a daughter who repeatedly goes shopping with an extra large handbag, a common tool used by a shoplifter.

• Supervise any clothes "swapping".

• Emphasize to your children that a sense of honor is indispensable to having personal self-respect, that self-discipline is essential to individual happiness.

• Tell your children that to reject the reasonable discipline and values of home, school and the community is to live a life which is bound to be smothered by futility.

• Practice what you preach.

• Preach what you practice.

Fowler facing formidable foe

By AL PALMERI
Sports Editor

Fowler's football team was tested a little more last week and the response wasn't surprising.

The Eagles fell behind for the first time this season when Portland burned them on a 35-yard touchdown pass and two-point conversion run. At that point in the second quarter, Fowler trailed, 8-7, and the momentum was with Portland as the Red Raiders attempted to ruin Fowler's perfect season.

"That's when you find out how good a football team you have," said Fowler coach Steve Spicer.

Fowler's Joe Bertram recovered a fumble on the Portland 40. Then the Eagles — keyed by Steve Goerge's fourth-down completion to Giles Feldpausch — moved into position for Bob Simon's 30-yard field goal 54 seconds before halftime.

ing tailback Tom Simon for yardage. Simon has put together the finest season ever by a Eagle running back, gaining a school-record 1,314 yards in 241 carries. He has also scored a school-record 20 touchdowns.

"This year, we felt what we had to do is give the ball to Tom," Spicer said. "He may get all the yards and touchdowns, but it doesn't cause any problems on the team."

Portland and also hit Tom Simon on a two-point conversion pass.

Fowler's undefeated season is the fourth in Spicer's 13-year tenure as Eagle head coach. His record is 95-25.

Portland coach Doug Parshall offered this opinion on the playoff game after watching Fowler dismantle his team.

"Fowler is a team that will never embarrass itself," Parshall said. "They're too well-coached and too well-disciplined. They'll be in any ball game they play."

Other Class D playoff games pit Mendon, 9-0, against Morenci, 9-0, Friday night in Battle Creek; Central Lake, 9-0, against Beal City, 8-1, Saturday afternoon in Cadillac and St. Ignace LaSalle, 8-1, against Crystal Falls Forest Park, 8-1, Saturday afternoon in Escanaba.

Saturday's starting lineups

Here are the starting lineups for Saturday's Class D state playoff game at Corunna matching Fowler and Waterford Our Lady of The Lakes:

cornerback — Kurt Koenigsknecht, 140-pound senior; strong safety — Scott Ruhl, 140-pound senior; free safety — Tom Simon.

Quarterback — Mike Goga, 5-8, 165; wingback — Nick Seeterlin, 5-7, 150; fullback — Bob Schuster, 5-11, 185; tailback — Mike Boyd — 5-9, 150.

Waterford defense

Defensive end — Jim Dawson, 5-8, 150; defensive end — Pete Ottman, 5-10, 165; defensive tackle — Barker; defensive tackle — Smith; nose guard — John Barry, 5-6, 126; inside linebacker — Cassidy; inside linebacker — Oliver; cornerback — Chris Johnson, 5-8, 160; cornerback — Pat Dudash, 6-2, 170; safety — Schuster; safety — Mehl.

The key for Fowler Saturday — as it has been all season — will be to spring tailback Tom Simon for yardage.

In the second half, Fowler made Portland pay for some more mistakes and pounded out a 24-8 victory.

The reward for Fowler's 9-0 season is a berth in the Class D state playoffs. Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes, 8-1, awaits the Eagles in a 1:30 p.m. Saturday game at Corunna.

Spicer, who had previously scouted Waterford in a Sunday game against Hamtramack St. Florian, scouted the team Sunday against Detroit St. Martin dePorres at the Pontiac Silverdome. Despite dePorres' 36-0 victory, Spicer came away impressed with the Waterford team.

"They ran into the best ballclub in Class C," the Fowler coach said. "Waterford's a good football team. They just got outmanned."

The key for Fowler Saturday — as it has been all season — will be to spr-

Halfback Giles Feldpausch and fullback Dan Simon have been steady blockers and sure ballcarriers when the defense starts to key on Tom Simon. And quarterback Goerge, Fowler's smallest player at 130 pounds, has provided consistency which Spicer wanted at the start of the season.

However, Goerge suffered torn ankle ligaments when a Portland player tackled him last week. He was on crutches for one day this week and the soonest he could practice with the team would be today.

Spicer said a decision would be made today on Goerge's condition for Saturday's game. If he can't go, senior Bob Simon will be the starter.

Goerge has completed about 50 percent of his passes and was coming off one of his best games. He completed all three passes he attempted against

Lakes holds strong tradition

By AL PALMERI

Fowler may boast of a strong football tradition, but Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes is definitely not a slouch in that area.

A check of the numbers shows that Waterford knows a little something about winning football games, too.

Its coach, Mike Boyd,

'We aren't a spectacular team. We don't do any fancy-dance stuff.' Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes coach Mike Boyd has led the team for 19 seasons. His record is 116-38-1.

During those 19 years, Boyd's teams have won 11 championships. Except for three years since 1972, Waterford has won titles every year.

Last year, the team edged Grass Lake, 3-2, in the opening round of the playoffs before losing to eventual champion Mendon, 33-14, in the semifinals.

Boyd's 1983 team is 8-1, after playing two Class B schools and seven Class C teams.

"Our league is one of the toughest Class C leagues in the state," Boyd said.

"Every week, it was like a battle for the conference championship."

But Waterford was able to win another championship, thanks largely to the efforts of quarterback Mike Goga, fullback Bob Schuster and wide receiver Buddy Mehl. Schuster has rushed for over 1,000 yards and Mehl has caught 28 passes for over 400 yards and eight touchdowns.

"We aren't a spectacular team," Boyd said. "We don't do any fancy-dance stuff. We just try to run the ball and throw it some, probably just like Fowler."

Boyd had a scout watching Fowler's game with Genesee but he wasn't able to scout the Eagles' 24-8 victory over Portland last week.

"I don't really know that much about them," he said. "I've got to make some phone calls and find out about them. You really can't change very much at this point. You have to go with what got you there. From the looks of it, we'll have to stop (Fowler tailback Tom) Simon."

Points and counterpoints

Fowler has scored 199 points this season (22.1 per game) and given up 39 (4.3 per game). Here is the rundown on the Eagles' season:

- Fowler 13, Maple Valley 0.
- Fowler 40, Vestaburg 0.
- Fowler 13, Portland St. Patrick 6.
- Fowler 12, Laingsburg 6.
- Fowler 35, Pottersville 12.
- Fowler 35, Fulton 0.
- Fowler 14, Pewamo-Westphalia 0.
- Fowler 35, Genesee 0.
- Fowler 24, Portland 8.

Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes has scored 179 points (19.9 per game) and given up 111 (12.3 per game). Here is the rundown of its season:

- Waterford 12, Livonia Clarenceville 7.
- Waterford 27, Detroit Lutheran West 12.
- Waterford 21, Detroit St. Alphonsus 14.
- Waterford 10, Orchard Lake St. Mary's 0.
- Waterford 14, Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard 7.
- Waterford 33, Redford St. Agatha 15.
- Waterford 21, Pontiac Catholic 20.
- Waterford 41, Hamtramack St. Florian 0.
- Detroit St. Martin dePorres 36, Waterford 0.

Defenders aid DeWitt

DeWitt continued its dominance over Bath by blanking the Bees, 14-0, in a season-ending football game last Friday at Bath. DeWitt last lost to its southern Clinton County rival in 1979.

Joe Wheeldon scored on touchdown runs of 1 and 7 yards to pace DeWitt, 4-5. Bath, 3-6, had two drives stall inside the DeWitt 10.

Ovid-Elsie trips Redwing girls

St. Johns falls from conference lead

Ovid-Elsie handed St. Johns its first conference loss this season when the Marauders beat the Redwings, 45-33, in Mid-Michigan 'B' girls' basketball last Thursday.

"Ovid-Elsie is an excellent defensive team," said St. Johns coach Beth Swears.

St. Johns could shoot only 21 percent from the field against the Marauders — its poorest percentage this season. St. Johns had been averaging 37 percent from the field.

Consequently, no Redwing scored in double figures. Janine Scott and Amy Hartsuff led St. Johns with seven points apiece. Brenda Eiseler was held to six points, but she did pull down a career-high 19 rebounds.

Ovid-Elsie, which moved into a first-place tie with St. Johns, was led by Mary Perrien's 16 points and Shelby Terpstra's 11.

Inconsistency and let-downs at crucial times have plagued Pewamo-Westphalia in seasons past. In fact, those things plagued the Pirates so much that they never were able to win a conference championship.

But those days are no more. In a crucial game last Tuesday, P-W whipped Portland St. Patrick, 55-36, to clinch its first Central Michigan Athletic Conference title.

"I can't say we've played a poor game or let down all year," said P-W coach Carol Bogard, reflecting on a season that has carried the Pirates to a No. 5 ranking in the Class C coaches' poll. "They've really been consistent in their play."

With the championship clinched, Bogard started three of her reserves for last Thursday's non-conference game at Maple Valley. The results were predictable — a rather sloppy 51-32 victory over a team the Pirates could have routed.

"I expected a little bit of a letdown after the (St. Patrick) game," Bogard said. "The kids weren't really up for the game."

Senior Jackie Bauer had one of her most productive weeks, scoring 18 points against Portland St. Patrick and 19 against Maple Valley. Michelle Wieber added 10 points against Maple Valley as the Pirates boosted their record to 17-1.

Fowler won twice last week to even its record at 8-8. The Eagles are hoping to win two of their final three games and carry a winning record into Class D district action at Ashley.

"We're playing so well now we can give most teams — most normal teams — a game," said Fowler coach Denny Smith, thinking briefly about Friday's matchup with Pewamo-Westphalia.

Last Tuesday, Fowler turned the tables on Potterville by whipping the Vikings, 42-37. Potterville had beaten Fowler by 24 points earlier this season.

Peg Thelen led Fowler with 24 points and 10 rebounds. Patty Wieber had 10 points in support.

Fowler then routed Portland, 54-28, on Thursday. Darce Schmitt led all scorers in that game with 16. Thelen had 13 and reserve Cindy Schneider had seven points and a team-high 10 rebounds.

Fowler plays Mt. Pleasant Sacred Heart in its first district game Friday, Nov. 18. If Fowler wins, it could meet state-ranked and unbeaten Ashley the following Monday.

Bath had a Wide World of Sports week. First, the Bees experienced the thrill of victory when Finnish exchange student Kristiina Penttila made a basket to beat Dansville, 45-43, last Tuesday.

Then came the agony of defeat when Williamston laid a 63-33 licking on the Bees. "It was probably one of our worst performances of the season," said coach Tom Campbell.

Wendy Foote, Bath's scoring leader all season, was held to 12 points against Dansville and 10 against Williamston. "Teams are starting to double-team her and put a lot of pressure on her," Campbell said.

Sara Jubb scored a season-high 11 points against Dansville to offer Foote a hand. "She's our defensive specialist, so it was a nice turnaround having her score for us, too," Campbell said.

Bath is now 4-14 overall. The Bees are 3-8 in the Ingham County League, which is good for sixth place.

DeWitt, 5-3 in the Capital Circuit, must beat Lansing Catholic Central on Friday and Charlotte next Tuesday to finish in second place.

The Panthers climbed back into the second-place picture last Thursday by throttling Mason, 53-35. Nine players scored, led by Sheila Milner with 14 and

Amy Hartsuff

Renee White with 11.

Last Tuesday, the Panthers fell, 40-33, to Charlotte. Milner had 12 points but DeWitt was outbounded for one of the few times this season, 41-38.

Simmon places eighth in state

St. Johns' Tina Simmon duplicated her state-meet performance of 1982 when she placed eighth in the state Class A cross country meet at Brighton last Saturday.

In the boys' race, Tom Rayman finished 34th with a 16:48 clocking. Andy Brockmyre was 79th.

After the meet, the state qualifiers pulled in many of the team awards. Simmon won the Most Valuable award for the girls, while Rayman and Brian Devereaux were named co-MVP's for the boys. Brockmyre was given the 101 Percent award and also named captain for next season.

Eric Bolyard won the boys' Most Improved award, while Julie Maples won the award for girls. Becky Irrer captured the girls' 101 Percent honor and Bobbi Bolyard was chosen as next year's captain.

Two Clinton County boxers win

Two boxers from the Clinton County Boys' Club won bouts at a boxing show in Whitehall last Saturday.

Alvin Vandegriff, 10, won in the 63-pound weight class, and Brad Kilcherman, 20, won in the 147-pound division.

Holt sinks St. Johns swimmers

A St. Johns disqualification in the medley relay cost the Redwings any chance they had to defeat Holt last Tuesday. Holt won, 96-73, to hand St. Johns its second loss in seven meets.

Audra Peters won the 100-yard butterfly in a season-best effort of 1:11.1, and Chris Rapelje won the 50 freestyle and 100 breaststroke.

Rapelje, a senior, has posted the team's fastest times in six of eight individual events.

WORLD'S BEST SELLING CAR NOW...GETS EVEN BETTER!

INTRODUCING 1984 FORD ESCORT DIESEL

WORLD LEADER AT AGE 3

46

When we say "Quality is Job One," we are talking about more than a commitment. We are talking about results. An independent survey proves Ford makes the best-built American cars. The survey measured owner-reported problems during the first three months of ownership of 1983 cars designed and built in the U.S.

Just three years ago we introduced Ford Escort as the car engineered to take on the world. And has it ever! Our little engineering marvel far out-sold every import carline in America its first year... And now Ford Escort is the world's best selling car. Making it a world leader at the very tender age of three.

EST. MPG. CITY

EST. MPG. HWY.

And now the world's best selling car gets even better.

The new Escort Diesel actually rates 4 miles per gallon higher than a Honda 750 motorcycle... And because this diesel is an Escort, there's more to talk about than great economy.

Like the fact that it has more passenger room than a Honda Accord. More standard features than a Toyota Tercel. There's even a fully-independent suspension system for a smoother ride than a Nissan Sentra. All of which means Ford Escort not only gives you a big advantage over the Honda 750 motorcycle, it also beats more than its share of cars. The best-built American cars.

*For comparison, Honda 750 mileage is obtained from EPA emissions testing and is not an official rating. Your mileage may vary depending on speed, trip length, weather. Actual hwy. mileage lower. Escort Diesel mileage applicable to sedans with FS engine and without power steering and A/C.
Based on EPA Interior Volume Index.
Escort GL (shown) compared to Toyota Tercel 3-door deluxe liftback.

Munger keys Redwing win

Chad Munger

Though Grand Ledge gained 199 yards, St. Johns football coach Joe Gonzales was quick to praise his defense after last Friday's 12-7 Redwing victory.

"Our defense played better than they've played all year," Gonzales said. "In the second half, they just stuffed things down."

The excellence of the defenders enabled St. Johns to erase a 7-6 deficit and post a winning season. The Redwings finished the year at 5-4.

Chad Munger, who carried 18 times for 92 yards, scored the decisive touchdown on a 7-yard run in the third quarter.

In the first quarter, St. Johns grabbed a 6-0 lead on Chris Loucks' 41-yard run on a swingback reverse. It was the fourth touchdown on the reverse for Loucks this season. Later in the first quarter, he went down for the game with a broken ankle.

But the St. Johns defense was able to contain Grand Ledge most of the evening. The Comets' only score came on a 49-yard pass in the second quarter.

Free safety Jeff Hayes finished a brilliant season by snaring two Grand Ledge passes and breaking the St. Johns season inability, Hayes also set school records for knocked down passes (13) and touchdown saving tackles (9).

terception mark. Hayes' interceptions hiked his total to 10.

"He knew how to intercept passes," said Gonzales, reflecting on Hayes' season. "He's got that knack to be in the right place at the right time."

Besides his pass theft

Munger finished as St. Johns' leading rusher with 637 yards in 154 carries. Loucks rushed for 539 in 61 attempts (an 8.9 yard average).

Marty Martens led St. Johns receivers this season by grabbing 11 passes for 146 yards.

Crippled P-W bows as season concludes

Football

Pewamo-Westphalia's football season staggered to a halt last week as the injury-riddled Pirates came away wounded once again.

Carson City-Crystal won the game, 9-3, and P-W added two more casualties to the longest list of injured football players in Clinton County. Scott Schneider broke his arm on the opening kickoff and Jim Pohl later suffered a knee injury.

didn't used to believe in old sayings, but the old saying 'When something goes bad, everything goes bad' is true," said P-W coach Mike Folk, whose team finished at 2-7 after losing only one game in the two previous seasons.

In essence, P-W's final game was a reflection of its biggest problem all season long. The offense moved the ball well, but it could not finish what it started.

The Pirates had four chances to score after moving the ball inside the Carson City-Crystal 10. Four times they came up empty.

"That's been the story for us all year long," Folk lamented.

Statistics revealed one of P-W's best of-fense games this season as the Pirates outgained the visitors, 303-224.

Junior quarterback Kris Werner had perhaps his best passing night, completing nine of 17 for 165 yards. End Ron Schafer caught five of those passes for 128 yards. And Tom Schafer finished his high school football career with a bang, gaining 153 yards rushing.

But the only points P-W could muster came on a 20-yard Ron Schafer field goal in the second quarter. Carson City-Crystal tied it before halftime, and won the game with a third-quarter touchdown.

On defense, Folk was pleased with senior Pat Thelen, who made 14 tackles and recovered one fumble, and senior Brian Thelen, who had eight tackles, one recovered fumble and one interception.

Tom Schafer finished the season with 673 yards rushing in 113 carries.

O-E falls, stays 4-5 in football

Ovid-Elsie lost its last football game, 14-10, to Linden last Friday to finish with a 4-5 record.

The Marauders have now finished 4-5 in each of the past four seasons.

Jon Martin closed his season by rushing for 143 yards and one touchdown in 10 carries. Mark Schneider kicked a 35-yard field goal and one extra point to account for the other Marauder points.

SPRITE BEATS 7UP

Recently an independent research firm ran a taste test between Sprite and 7UP. And the taste people chose most often was the taste of Sprite.

That's because Sprite's the only caffeine-free soft drink with Lymon.TM And people just seem to love that great Lymon taste.

We like to look at it this way... We gave the people a choice, and more of them made the Sprite one.
