Recognition dinner honors Clinton hospital personnel

A group of 15 Clinton Memorial Hospital employees, including two who are retiring, were honored at a special Hospital Recognition Dinner in St. Johns Monday night. The two retirees are shown above receiving the thanks of Judge Leo Corkin, secretary of the hospital association, and Dr. James Grost, chief of the medical staff. From the left are: Judge Corkin; Ervin Mishler, retiring after 24 years as maintenance superintendent; Miss Edna Lamb, retiring after 14 years as a nurses' aide; and Dr. Grost.

Honored for long service to the hospital was this group of five women (left to right): Mrs Dorothy Motz; 10 years; Mrs Florence Cornell, 10 years; Mrs Margaret Antes, 10 years; Miss Julia Walton, 20 years; and Mrs Shirley Craner, 20 years. Not present for the dinner and picture were two other 10-year employees—Mrs Lois Bissell and Mrs Amy Splane.

A bill specifying that township officers elected Nov. 3, except justices of the peace, will begin their term in office at noon, April 10, became law with Gov. Romney's signature Friday.

It also provides the incoming township officers must qualify for office by Wednesday, March 31.

SECRETARY OF State James M. Hare said that includes taking the oath of office and posting a bond if one is required.

As in the past, newly-elected justices of the peace will take office July 4.

Spelling contest April 6

Some of the contestants won't be known until the day before, but by next Tuesday there'll be about 75 county rural school pupils ready to participate in the Clinton County News' annual Spelling Contest.

The Rural Teachers Club is co-sponsoring the contest, which will be held next Tuesday, April 6, at 1:30 p.m. at the Eureka School.

JUDGES MRS Wilhelmina Reed, Mrs Frances Reeve and Mrs Beatrice Cook have chosen four batteries of words for the contest, from several different sources.

The contest will be a written one, with one pupil from each of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of each rural school participating. Twenty-five per cent of the students will be eliminated with each battery of words, according to Mrs Violet Phinney, Cedar Lake School teacher, who is in charge of the contest.

THE TOP speller in each of the three grades will receive a trophy from the Clinton County News.

Among the rules for the contest are several that apply directly to the spelling: Words will be pronounced, read in a sentence and then pronounced again. Pupils must write with a pencil, which they must provide. They should dot their i's and write legibly, capitalizing words that should be capitalized.

WORKING WITH Mrs Phinney on arrangements for the contest are Mrs Fidelis Cameron of Eureka School and Mrs Esther Kramp of Chapman School in Riley Township. Mrs Stanley Welton is president of the Rural Teachers Club.

5 at CMU get 'B' averages

Five Clinton County students at Central Michigan University received grades of 3.0—a B— or better for the fall semester, according to C. M. Pike Jr., dean of students.

The Clinton County group was composed of Judy Ann Falor, a senior from Eagle; Mary Louise Kadolph, a senior from Ovid; and Mary Renee Kuntz, a freshman; Pamela Rae Murton, a freshman; and Bette L. Watson, a senior, all from St. Johns.

A total of 784 students at CMU received the high grades.

Discuss ordinance

The St. Johns Planning Commission and the St. Johns City Commission met jointly last Thursday evening to discuss informally the proposed new city zoning ordinance which the planners have drawn up and presented to the city commission. The commissioners probably will set a date for a public hearing before the governing body when they meet next Tuesday evening.

State tax rate irks assessors

Objection to methods of the State Tax Commission and state legislators in setting up a new schedule of personal property depreciation was voiced by the county board of supervisors Monday evening.

Some supervisors planned to seek permission to deviate from the new schedule, claiming it could result in $300,000 to $400,000 less valuation county-wide and an accompanying loss of revenue from personal property tax.

The board as a whole, however, merely objected to the handling and timing of the whole affair.

The board's resolutions committee was instructed to draw up a resolution for passage at the next meeting, protesting to state legislators the handling of the personal property valuation problem.

MOST OF THE valuation loss in the rural areas would be from utilities — electric companies and pipelines — because of the new schedule that would allow faster depreciation of electric poles and wires and pipelines.

Only Saturday the Tax Commission notified the assessing officers of the county that it would entertain requests to deviate from the schedule for 1965 if the Tax Commission schedule does not harmonize with past assessment practices in each assessing unit or is different than an es-

Sherwood, Sage OK annexation

Two more districts voted Saturday to join the ranks of the St. Johns Public School District, and another four will vote on the annexation question this Saturday.

Sherwood School District voters approved annexation by a 52-1 count, and the accompanying 4 1/2-mill tax proposal passed 47-6. Sherwood is in Greenbush Township.

THE SAGE School District in Bingham Township voted 27-2 in favor of the annexation and the millage, with one ballot on each issue being spoiled.

This Saturday, April 3, annexation elections are scheduled in Eureka District in Greenbush, Price District in Victor, Church District in southern Gratiot County, and Harper District in Bengal Township.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the schools.

REGISTRATION for voting in the annexation elections will be buttoned up by next Wednesday, the final day for registering in Krepps and Stoney Creek Districts. Today (Thursday) is the last day in Cedar Lake District, and Friday is the last day in the Merle Beach district.

Greenwood, Frink, Chapman and Jason districts are next in the voting line. They will vote on annexation April 10.

ANNUAL MEETING of the Eureka Community Hospital Assn., Monday, April 12, at 8 p.m. Eureka School Building. Everyone welcome. 49-2 established program of revaluation of personal property.

ASSESSORS objecting were given only until 5 p.m. March 31 to tell the Tax Commission of their objection, setting forth the reasons why the schedule should not apply entirely and a proposed alternative to the schedule.

"In the event your board of review has closed," Edward W. Kane, secretary of the commission said, "and you desire to recalculate personal property returns and establish an increased personal property assessment, it will be necessary that the board of review reconvene and each taxpayer affected be informed in writing and given an opportunity to protest to the board of review."

"BECAUSE OF time limitation before county equalization, it is essential that you act with utmost dispatch," Kane said.

The time limit in particular irked supervisors, and at their special meeting Monday they decided to have the protest resolution drawn up, even though it will be too late to affect the depreciation schedule this year.

Individual assessors may or may not have a chance to have the schedule changed, depending on their alternatives and the mood of the Tax Commission. Several planned to seek a change.

THE NEW schedule allowed to industry and utilities assesses their equipment at 98 per cent of cost the first year, declining thereafter until the 15th year when it is assessed at 75 per cent of cost. Beyond that age, no further depreciation is allowed.

The rate change this year apparently caught many of the assessors by surprise, resulting in the objections. Monday night's special meeting of the supervisors was called, according to Chairman Charles Coletta, to get all the facts together.

WILLIAM DENNISON, secretary of the State Association of Supervisors, was present, and he reported on the status of present legislation relating to this subject. His feeling was that it would do no good to protest but that a protest should be made.

Trucking spokesman is Rotary speaker

"Wheels within Wheels," a sound movie illustrating the personnel involved in the state's trucking industry, was shown to St. Johns Rotarians Tuesday noon by Douglas W. McGivern, public relations manager for the Michigan Trucking Assn.

McGivern also spoke briefly on the importance of his industry to the Michigan economy. He was introduced by Howard Kortes, program chairman for the meeting.

Episcopal bishop next Lent speaker

The Rt. Rev Archie Henry Crowley, suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, will be the speaker for the fifth of a series of six union Lenten services Sunday in St. Johns.

The service will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Methodist Church. The Rev Hugh Banninga, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, will be the presiding minister.

AS SUFFRAGAN bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, the Rev Mr Crowley is assigned to the administrative division of the executive council, which includes the departments of missions, communications and diocesan institutions. He also has the supervision of the marriage commission of advice to the bishop and candidates for the perpetual diaconate. He has the administration of the parishes and missions in the central district of the diocese.

Bishop Crowley is chairman of the Fair Campaign Practices Commission (State of Michigan), and a director of Cranbrook School and of Lynn Hospital. He is president of the Michigan Council of Churches, president of the American Indian Foundation and a member of the board of directors of Camp O-AT-Ka in Maine.

A NATIVE of Massachusetts, Bishop Crowley graduated from Dartmouth College in 1929 and the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Mass., in 1934. After two years as curate of Grace Church in Lawrence, Mass., he became rector of that parish, serving in that capacity until he came to the Diocese of Michigan in 1949.

He was consecrated suffragan

BISHOP CROWLEY

bishop on Sept. 30, 1954. From 1949 until 1954 he served as rector of St. James' Church in Grosse Ile, Mich. Bishop Crowley is married and has two sons, Lawrence and Daniel.

BISHOP CROWLEY'S address Sunday evening will be entitled "Spiritual Growth."

Also on the program Sunday will be the Methodist Church Choir. Mr and Mrs Lyle Fenner of the Bingham EUB Church and Dr and Mrs Franklin Smith of the Episcopal Church will be in charge of hospitality. The coffee hour after the service will be handled by the Bingham and Bengal EUB churches.

LAWRENCE KUHN will be head usher, and assisting will be William Elliott, George Brenner, Henry Dellar, Richard Kingsbury and Ernest Wing.

The last of the union Lenten services will be April 11 at the First Congregational Church.

Each day of Michigan Week special this year

Each day of Michigan Week this year will have its own special significance and observance, County Chairman James McKenzie said this week, with special activities planned.

He urged individuals and groups to join in as many activities as possible, either as an active participant or as a spectator, "for the broader the participation the bigger and benefit for Michigan."

Sunday, May 16, for instance, is Spiritual Foundations Day, which salutes the faiths that have made Michigan great and the contributions which the churches and religious groups have made to the state's past and present.

MONDAY, MAY 17, will be Our Government Day, honoring those who serve in government, at all levels. It is generally a day of open house in government offices, departments and buildings. The mayor's exchange is a feature of the day.

Tuesday, May 18, will be Hospitality Day. The "red carpet" will be rolled out for all the state's guests and neighbors. "It's the day for pointing out to travelers and neighbors alike that we're a friendly state, that we welcome those from outside the state and appreciate those who are already here," McKenzie said.

WEDNESDAY, May 19—Our Livelihood Day—salutes the industry, agriculture, resorts and institutions which provide livelihood for a community's people. Parades and exhibits show Michigan products, past and present, plus plans and research for the future. Industry opens its doors.

Thursday, May 20, will be Education Day. The schools of Michigan and the people who staff them will be saluted, and it is also the day when Michigan Week activity in schools reaches its height.

FRIDAY, MAY 21, is Our Heritage Day, which "looks to the past for strength for the future," McKenzie said. "Parades, pageants and festivals salute the people who made the state and the community. Special attention is given on Heritage Day to the cultural assets of the state."

Saturday, May 22, the last day of Michigan Week, will be Youth Day. "The objective of this day," McKenzie related "is to look to the future of the state and its communities — its youth. It salutes youth and youth groups who are making outstanding contributions to the community and adult groups who are making outstanding contributions to the welfare of youth."

Car goes into ditch

John P. Dedyne, 21, of 118 W. Genesee, Lansing, and his wife Doris escaped injury Sunday evening when Dedyne lost control of his car and it went into a ditch on Wright Road a half-mile north of Kinley Road in Dallas Township.

Man gets 2-10 years in prison

David E. Hazel, 28, of 210 Gunther Street, Lansing, was sentenced Monday to two to 10 years in the state prison at Jackson after pleading guilty March 17 to a charge of breaking and entering of the Heights Auto Parts in DeWitt Township.

Another man arrested in connection with the case, Robert Finch, 26, of 119 1/2 E. Saginaw Street, Lansing, appeared before Judge Leo Corkin Monday. His arraignment was postponed so he could confer with a court-appointed attorney.

The firm will sell small items such as found in drug stores. The building has been remodeled to handle that type of products and merchandise.

4 youth jailed for having beer

Five youths felt the sting of court fines and four spent some time in jail over the weekend being found guilty of being in possession of beer.

The minors were arrested by state police in Bath Township last Thursday. Friday they appeared before Justice of the Peace Gordon Willoughby. Four of them drew fines of $25 plus $19.90 court costs and five days in jail.

THEY WERE John J. Inosencio, 20, of 2201 S. Washington; Jose Antonio Lira, 18, of 2304 Rheamont; Raul Guerrero, 18, of 1324 S. Washington; and Max Lopez, 19, of 1546 Ballard, all of Lansing.

Another Lansing youth was fined $15 plus court costs and was released from jail when the fine was paid.

No school this week

St. Johns High School students are about to wind up their week of spring vacation. Last Friday was their last day of school until next Monday.

A request comes from Nigeria

It isn't odd when people order parts for their cars from a local dealer. Or even when somebody out of town orders parts from a dealer in town.

But what is strange is when people from Nigeria order parts from a dealer in St. Johns, Mich., USA.

THIS STRANGE turn of events happened some weeks ago when Harold Lundy of Lundy Motor Sales, 200 E. Higham Street, St. Johns, received a letter from Dr. W. W. C. Echezona, of the University of Nigeria, Nsukka, E. Nigeria, West Africa.

Why the man wrote to St. Johns hasn't been explained, but the letter was addressed correctly and precisely. Lundy has two possible explanations but no definite answer: he at one time worked on a car deal involving a four-wheel drive car sent to Africa; or, he has a cousin who has a son who is a student in Nigeria.

DR. ECHEZONA said in his letter he had a 1961 Dodge Dart Seneca, but the engine is now gone and I would like to rebuild it. Can you give me a quotation for the following?"

Then he listed a number of pieces of engine items and asked for the price shipped to the nearest port to him—Port Harcourt.

Lundy checked with the Dodge factory in Detroit and found out that Dr. Echezona could order the equipment he wanted only through his area supplier—in Port Harcourt.

AS WAS DR. Echezona's request, Lundy was forwarding the detailed answer to Nigeria by air mail.

Schoenhals retires as state trooper

J. D. Schoenhals, formerly of St. Johns, has retired as a corporal at the Niles state police post, it was announced last week.

Schoenhals' retirement is effective this Friday and it closes out 25 years of service with the state police.

THE 50-year-old Schoenhals, who was born in St. Johns and went to school here, was transferred to the Niles post from Rockford in October 1956. He had been serving with the equivalent rank of detective with the security guard at Sixth District headquarters at Rockford.

He enlisted in the department Nov. 1, 1937, first serving at the East Lansing post. Duty followed at Jonesville, Battle Creek, Traverse City and Paw Paw before his transfer to Rockford.

SCHOENHALS is the son of Bert and Agnes Henderson Schoenhals, a well-known family in St. Johns. He's a nephew of Mrs. Jean Corkin of 108 E. Cass Street, former Clinton County judge of probate.

Schoenhals and his wife live at 1348 Oak Street in Niles. They have one daughter.

Robins still here

To prove they haven't been disheartened by all the snow, a robin was spotted in a tree in front of his house Monday by young Brian Pertler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Pertler, 705 E. Higham Street.

To annex part of 'island'

City Attorney Harold Reed is working on an annexation procedure that would bring into the city a portion of an area presently surrounded by the city but outside the city limits.

The surrounded section of land is on the east side of Swegles Street about half-way between Sturgis Street and Townsend Road in the southeast part of town. Two homes and lots there would remain outside the city.

THE REQUEST for the annexation was made to the city commission Tuesday, March 16 by the St. Johns Development Corp., owners of the property. It includes land behind the property on which the two homes are situated. Bingham Township has agreed to release the land for annexation.

The owners of the homes have indicated they do not want to be in the city. The "island" of out-of-town land is unique for a city the size of St. Johns, City Manager Ken Greer said.

REED was instructed by the commission to begin work on the annexation procedure.

Supervisors' April meeting set back

The Clinton County Board of Supervisors will not meet Monday, as they do normally on the first Monday of each month, but will meet the following Tuesday, April 13, as required by statute. Board meetings convene at 10 a.m. in the upstairs meeting room at the county jail.

Spectators watch as St. Johns firemen on roof and on ground battle a flash fire which destroyed the home of Mrs. Edith Hill and her family late Tuesday morning. The home was gutted by the flames, but no one was injured. Two small dogs died in a bedroom, however.

Arts, crafts lessons only in evenings

The arts and crafts lessons sponsored by the St. Johns Recreation Department will be held only Wednesday evenings, beginning this week.

Flash fire destroys St. Johns home, family of 4 escapes

The six-room frame home occupied by Mrs. Edith Hill and her family at 806 N. Clinton Avenue was destroyed by a flash fire late Tuesday morning. There was no estimate of damage made.

Two dogs died in the flames, but Mrs. Hill, sons Dave and Lee and daughter Billie escaped without injury.

FIRE CHIEF Clare Maier described it as a perfect example of a flash fire. It started in the back corner of the kitchen, apparently from some faulty wiring.

Mrs. Hill and her family were eating lunch at the time—11:30 a.m.—when they smelled smoke. Lee and Dave investigated and found flames going up the wall of the kitchen. They tried to put them out with a wet blanket, Maier said, while Mrs. Hill and Billie ran next door to call the fire department.

FLAMES spread very quickly, Maier said, and the house was burning in every room when firemen got there. Firemen were at the scene nearly two hours. The house was completely gutted by the flames.

Firemen used water on their trucks in the initial stages of the battle before having to resort to laying lines to the fire hydrants for additional water and pressure. The stubborn flames, which flashed up a stairway into two upstairs bedrooms, ate its way into the attic of the house and forced firemen to go through the roof to get at the fire.

Neighbors chipped in to provide aid for the Hills.

Bishop to conduct confirmations here

The Rt. Rev. Archie Henry Crowley, the Lenten service speaker Sunday evening, will be in St. Johns and DeWitt all day Sunday and will conduct confirmation services at the St. John's Episcopal Church and St. Anne's Church in DeWitt.

The confirmation service will be conducted by Bishop Crowley at 2:30 p.m. at St. Anne's Church in DeWitt.

Essex man attends insurance hearing at Detroit Monday

Robert Ward of Essex township attended a legislative hearing conducted by the state senate committee on insurance at the City-County building in Detroit Monday. Presiding at the hearing was Sen. George S. Fitzgerald (D) of Grosse Pointe Park.

Protests were heard on recent cancellations of automobile and property insurance by state insurers. Those attending the hearing seek legislation that will halt unwarranted insurance cancellations or provide some means to protect those denied insurance by private firms and mutual companies.

A member of the senate's insurance committee also attending the Detroit hearing was State Senator Emil Lockwood, (R) St. Louis, representing the 30th district of which Clinton is a part.

Safety patroler here to get Washington trip

A St. Johns area school safety patroler will take bows for 156 fellow patrolers' 28,000 hours of community service by attending the AAA National Safety Patrol Rally in Washington, D. C., May 6-9.

This youth—yet unnamed—will join about 130 other Michigan patrolers from 105 Michigan communities for the annual four-day all-expense-paid trip to the capital as Automobile Club of Michigan's guests. St. Johns will be represented by a patroler from St. Joseph School.

be represented by a patroler from St. Joseph School.

"THIS IS the 29th consecutive year we have selected schools for the trip on the basis of a patrol group's general performance and efficiency," said Ernest P. Davis, Auto Club safety and traffic director. Schools named nominated the patrolers they wish to represent them, with Auto Club's assistance.

Davis estimates that each safety patroler from St. Johns has spent 180 hours at street corners protecting classmates during the 1964-65 school year, with no reward other than satisfaction for a job well done.

Miller's outruns Tractors to win city basketball title

Miller's Tavern won the City Basketball League championship last week by outrunning Clinton Tractors 74-58 in the third of an exciting three-game series.

The first two games of the series were decided by two points, the second one in overtime. The Tractors won the first game 78-76 and almost pulled out the second before losing to Miller's 81-79 in overtime.

THE EFFECT of the strenuous series last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings was evident in the final game. The Tractors, after trailing by only one point, 32-31, at halftime, practically fell apart in the final half. Miller's outscored them 20-12 in the third quarter and 22-15 in the final eight minutes.

Dan Fox set the pace for Miller's in the last game with 22 points, while Vern Sillman had 17 and Jim Farley and Bill Werner 10 each. Ken Fox's 12 points was high for the Tractors, while Dale Knight had 10.

THE SERIES started excitingly last Tuesday night, with the Tractors finally eking out a 78-76 victory. They trailed by a score of 43-33 at the half before rallying, pulling to within 61-58 at the end of three quarters. They then outscored Miller's 20-15 in the final period to chalk up the win.

Steve Spicer scored 26 points to lead the Tractors, while Ken Fox and John Werbish had 12 each and Dale Knight 11. Dan Fox of Miller's took scoring honors with 28 points, while Clare Fox had 16 and Sillman 10.

BOTH TEAMS had 35 field goals, and the Tractors won it at the line where they high eight of 16 shots, while Miller's canned only six of 16.

5-3 scoring advantage in the overtime period.

BALANCED scoring accounted for Miller's 81 points. Clare Fox got 17 points, while Jim Farley had 13, Larry Thies 13, Bruce George and Dan Fox 11 each and Vern Sillman 10. The Tractors were well balanced, too. Russ Edger got 20 points, Dale Knight had 18, Steve Spicer 11 and John Werbish and Ken Fox 10 each.

The Tractors had a 34-32 edge in field goals, but Miller's won at the free throw line, where they made 17 of 30 shots, compared to 11 of 17 by the Tractors.

THE MILLER'S team was presented with the league trophy at the conclusion of the last game by City Recreation Director Roger Kowalski. They also became eligible to represent St. Johns in the Class C state recreation tournament at Marshall last weekend.

Winter, spring sports mingle in spotlight

All-State title for Wings' Al Werbish

Al Werbish, the 6-1 senior forward whose scoring and rebounding paced St. Johns to the West Central Conference title, was chosen for the Associated Press Class B All-State basketball team last week.

The selection of the All-State team was made last Thursday.

Werbish's cool, steady play, his accurate shooting and his outstanding rebound work earned him the honor and prompted Coach Bill Swears to call him the "complete ball player who does everything well."

AL WERBISH

HE WAS the league's leading scorer this year with 293 points in the 14 conference games—just five points shy of a league scoring record. For the full 16 games of the regular season he scored 331 points, an average of 20.7 points per game.

Werbish's 115 field goals during the conference season did set a new record in that category. During the 19 games of regular season and tournament play he connected on 157 of 296 shots for 53 per cent. He ended up with 405 points in the 19 games with performances of 24, 26 and 24 points in the three district tournament games.

HIS BEST scoring performance during the year was 36 points at Ionia on Jan. 22. He pulled down 25 rebounds in one game against Ionia at St. Johns and he got 24 against St. Louis in the district tournament.

"I used to tell people how good he was and they wouldn't believe me," Swears said. "But Al made believers out of all who saw him this season."

WERBISH, SON of Mr and Mrs John Werbish, of 408 Giles Street, was voted the team's most outstanding player in the 1964 season and this year shared the Jack Wirick Memorial Trophy with Clark Berkhausen. He has also been an outstanding football player and tennis player.

Others on the state Class B "dream team" are Jim Lawson of Tecumseh, Tom Klingel of Three Rivers, Tom Deur of Holland Christian, Sam Campbell of River Rouge, Al Dismon of Willow Run, Herb Humphrey of Tawas Area, Dave Page of Jackson St. John, Ken Parrish of Cheboygan and Terry Walker of Fenton.

BERKHAUSEN OF St. Johns was given honorable mention in the All-State selection, as were Ron Hewitt of Lakewood and Paul Dean of Alma, other West Central schools.

The Associated Press' All-State team was chosen by the AP's panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

Action in City League Championship Game

Flying Ken Fox of Clinton Tractors hooks away a rebound from Bill Werner (41) of Miller's Tavern in this action in the City Basketball League championship playoff last week. Other players identifiable are John Werbish and Dale Knight (at left) of Clinton Tractors and Larry Theis (35) of Miller's. Miller's won the championship by winning two of the three games.

Tennis team top choice to repeat as champions

The St. Johns High School tennis team—defending champions of the West Central Conference—are rated the top choice for the 1965 league title, and Coach Bill Swears is looking forward to another good year by his netmen. Swears lost no one by graduation, and 10 of the 28 boys out for this year's team are lettermen. Last year's squad had a 10-2 overall record and won the West Central title with a perfect 6-0 mark.

BACK AGAIN this year are No. 1 singles man Al Werbish, who had an 11-4 record last year.

NEXT WEEK... a look in the prospects for 1965 for the St. Johns High School baseball team, coached by Bill Smiley, and the golf team, coached by Mike Humphrey. Plus, a look at spring sports in other Clinton area schools.

No. 2 singles man Kurt Acton (10-4) and No. 3 man Bob Vollbracht (12-3). Playing in doubles will be Bill Strrine (11-3) and Jim Cronkrite (7-1), the number one doubles team last year, Dave Pocus (9-3) and Terry Green (8-4), No 2 doubles team, and Dick Cornwell (5-2) and Jeff Blackman (5-2), the No. 3 doubles team. Also back is letterman Nick Williams who had a 3-2 mark last season.

ory, Doug Crawford, Ted Loomis, Toby Safford, Jim Salisbury, Tom Rademacher and Jeff White.

BECAUSE eight of his lettermen will be graduating this spring, Swears says he hopes to be able to carry the whole team throughout the season in an effort to give everyone experience. He said he is attempting to set up a reserve program and is seeking teams for his reserves to play.

Carrying all 28 players will be rough, Swears said, because of the lack of facilities for the tennis players. Only the four courts at the city park are available, and this means many of the team members will be sitting out at any given time during practice sessions.

SO FAR, the team hasn't even been able to use those four courts, but Swears believes the bad weather may have been a help, rather than a hindrance. "We've had to do our hitting inside, bouncing the balls off the walls of the gym," he pointed out. "The balls come back off the wall a lot faster than on the court, and its made the fellows really hustle."

Swears said he was pleased with the early progress of the team.

"THEY'VE been hitting the ball well rather than trying to blast them over the net this early in the year. I'm well pleased with the way they have shaped up."

The tennis season starts next Thursday at Owosso, one of the two teams to beat the Redwings last year. Next Friday the squad will go down to East Lansing for their second match.

NEW TO THE West Central Conference this year will be Alma, the only other team to beat St. Johns in 1964. But Swears said they have lost one or two of their top men, and he thinks the Wings will be in the driver's seat in the league race this season, with Alma their only serious contender.

Snow shoes off, track shoes on as thinlies get set

For a while, it appeared the St. Johns track team would have to don snow shoes instead of track shoes this year. But while they haven't gotten on the track yet, the Redwing thinclads have been outside recently running along streets in town preparing for the opener of the season April 9.

Head Coach Bob Spencer has a squad of 44 boys out this year, and he says he has a good mixture of returning veterans and new candidates. The seniors, led by Captain Dave DeGeer, Doug Lundy, Dennis Whitlock and Jerry Kubica, will be called on to furnish leadership and experience for the squad.

THE TEAM will get its first competition of a limited sort Friday at the Spartan Relays at Michigan State University's Jensen Fieldhouse. DeGeer is entered in the mile run, and a mile relay and two-mile relay teams have also been entered.

The regular schedule of meets begins next Friday, April 9, when Haslett comes to St. Johns for a meet at 4:30 p.m.

COACHES FRANK Rosengren and Doug Japinga have been helping with specific groups of boys in an effort to get them ready for the first meet. Rosengren, in charge of the distance events, has been putting his boys through various types of workouts, stressing speed. Japinga, coaching the field events, has been trying to work on form in the various events in the gymnasium whenever he can find enough room.

Spencer has been working with the dash men and hurdlers and has had to confine his workouts to the hallways and gymnasium at the

Tired out, Miller's loses 96-56

The basketball season ended rather abruptly and decisively for Miller's Friday night when they embarked on the tournament trail at Marshall.

The St. Johns league champions, tired after three consecutive nights of games in the city championship playoffs, ran up against Albion Friday night and lost 96-56.

MILLER'S managed to have three men scoring in double figures—Bill Werner with 19, Jim Farley with 12 and Vern Sillman with 11—but they were no match for Albion.

Miller's trailed 19-12 at the end of the first quarter, 38-27 at the half, and 67-45 at the end of three periods. Albion's Len Wheeler ran wild in the third and fourth quarters and finished the game with 49 points. Tim Robinson had 22.

Bath's sewer ills discussed by officials

BATH—A meeting of the Bath Township Board, Bath Board of Education, State Health Department representatives, and Clinton County officials was held last week to discuss the need for a sanitary sewer system for Bath Township.

The first step approved by the Board will be to contact an engineer to learn the cost of a sewer survey.

INADEQUATE and faulty privately owned sewage disposal units have resulted in polluted water flowing through drains in the community, it was reported during the discussion.

The State Health Department was represented by Dr. George H. Aggate, LaRue Miller, and Maurice Richmond. The health officials said the sewage conditions in Bath are conducive to the spread of disease, and they reported at least 20 cases of hepatitis have been confirmed in the township this year. They added there are no doubt more cases which have not been reported.

Dale Chapman said there had been nine instances where residential sewage was following directly into the drain. Most of these have been corrected, he said. Chapman and Zoning Administrator Gerald Walter represented Clinton County.

School board members revealed that any planned expansion of the schools will depend on the sewage facilities. They said they have been told that if there is to be expansion the schools will have to build adequate sewage disposal facilities if the township does not provide the system.

FINANCING a sewage system poses a major problem, the board said, and they said another public meeting will be called as soon as they have contacted an engineer.

Looking over news stories about their coming cancer fund drive are these officials of the Clinton County Cancer Society. Left to right are Dr R. L. Wohlers, president and campaign chairman; Mrs James Postlethwaite, service chairman; Mrs William Dahoney and Miss Hazel Williams, co-chairman and chairmen of volunteer activities; and Dr F. W. Smith, a state board chairman. The group is shown at Monday night's cancer kickoff dinner at the Episcopal Church in St. Johns.

21 cited for service as county cancer drive opens

Citations for distinguished service to the Clinton County Cancer Society were made to 21 county women Monday night at the kickoff potluck dinner for the 1965 fund drive.

Over 100 persons attended the dinner at St. John's Episcopal Church in St. Johns. It was a "pepper-upper" meeting for volunteer workers, who will embark on a month-long fund drive today (Thursday), with the aim of achieving the county's '65 quota of $8,000.

MISS CARMEN Tranchell, chairman of service awards, presented the citations for distinguished service. They went to the following persons:

Mrs Raymond Thornton of Duplain Township for 10 years of service; Mrs Robert Pettit, Mrs John George, Mrs Earl Frechen, Mrs Kenneth Feldpausch and Mrs John Kramer, all of Fowler, for five years of service.

Receiving bronzed "Sword of Hope" letter openers for over 10 years of service were Mrs Mary Peterson, Mrs Earl Pierson and Mrs Lewis Babbitt of DeWitt; Mrs Florence Phelps and Mrs Aphra

ARTHUR CRAMPTON, executive director of the Michigan Division of the American Cancer Society, spoke briefly and presented Miss Hazel Williams, chairman of volunteer activities, with a gift. The miniature "liberty bell" given her was from Clinton County workers who attended the national convention in Philadelphia last year.

Dr F. W. Smith, chairman of the Clinton County Medical Society, introduced the speakers of the evening, Dr James P. Muldoon and Dr A. Thomas Hudson of the Grand Rapids Ferguson Clinic.

THIS WAS their second visit to St. Johns for the Cancer Society meetings. Both stressed the fact that "There are no secrets in medicine" and they feel that "quacks" are a real detriment to society.

The 100 persons present were told that detection of early cancer can mean it is curable and that the best insurance one can carry is his periodic checkups.

"ALL CANCERS are tumors, but not all tumors are cancerous," Dr Muldoon repeatedly stressed.

A question and answer period followed the doctors' presentations.

Dr Wohlers, speaking for Miss Williams, thanked all the workers and chairmen for the loyal support in all phases of the cancer program. He urged residents to receive the cancer volunteers when they call during the drive and to accept and read the information they pass out.

Mrs Dale Finch was in charge of the dining room and kitchen for the evening's affair.

Among the upcoming special events planned in connection with the cancer drive is the "Bowl Down Cancer" tournament to be held at the Red Wing Bowling Lanes April 4-10. Prizes will be donated by local merchants.

★ IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband and our father Oren McClintock who passed away one year ago March 31, 1964. You're gone away Oren but still I feel you near. I listen for your footsteps at the door. You're gone away, ah no, you still are here. Absent or present, you are everywhere. Your things are still in your accustomed place. A girl in a cotton knit can't help but look neat and be in style in 1965. The navy and white sleeveless one worn by Barbara Anderson is dressed up by a large navy bow and front pleat. For it, she has chosen a youthful looking Lady Bird hat over a flowery Easter Bonnet.

A beige Chesterfield is perfect for weather fair or foul. The matching velvet collar on this coat dresses it up enough for it to be worn with such "not-too-fussy" Spring hats as the Mary Poppins model which Mrs Redman is carrying.

Boosters plan show of Spring fashions

The new fashions for the new season which are pictured on this page are among those which will be featured at the Music Booster's style show, "Spring Preview."

The show, which will be held in the auditorium of Rodney B. Wilson High School, will include fashions for men, women and children.

The evening's festivities will begin at 7:30 p.m. on April 1 with the music of a dance band and will be followed by the fashion show which is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

THE INSTRUCTORS and children of the music department and the children's parents will model the latest wares of St. Johns merchants to the narration of Carol Lee Sprague. In addition to the fashions, the girls and women will be wearing new hair-dos, styled for 1965. Door prizes will be raffled during the program's intermission.

Spring Preview chairman is Mrs Jay McKay. Assisting her are Mrs Joseph Spousta on publicity and Mrs John Caudy on tickets. The purpose of the show is to raise money for summer music camp and tickets can be obtained from anyone connected with the music department and participating merchants.

Versatility makes the shirtwaist a favorite in every girl's wardrobe. However, a more feminine version like this blue and white cotton pinstripe modeled by Mrs Gale Redman is "in" in '65. It features a lacy trim and tiny pearl buttons.

Little need to weed

April is a gardener's month for it is the time when trees bud overhead and the bulbs at our feet open. The wise gardener knows that it is also the time to take care of his weeding problems. Why give the weeds a chance to grow?

Early sewing of annuals which naturally grow low and spreading will give these a head start and if you keep a space clear around them for just a little while there will be no need to weed later in the season. They will provide color and, sometimes, fragrance.

Sweet alyssum used as a border will gradually merge into a carpet of one color. It is available with flowers of white, pink, lavender or purple so even this one annual offers a wide choice.

Creeping zinnia might be used in a similar situation and its small yellow flowers would present a different color scheme from alyssum. Lobelias with blooms of varying shades of blue or white would be equally suitable and grow especially well in light shade.

For long-season weed avoidance, verbenas in mixed colors or in white, pink, rose, lavender or purple would be a happy choice—for these annuals continue to grow and flower until hard frost.

Portulacas are the gayest of the spreading annuals. Coming as they do with single or double flowers in bright yellows, roses, pinks and white, they are particularly suitable for a sunny situation where soil is poor for they thrive under these conditions.

College Week aid available

College Week for Women scholarship are available again this year, according to Betty M. Ketcham, county extension agent for home economics.

Two applications may be submitted from the county for the scholarships offered by the Michigan division of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Assn.

THE following items should be considered when submitting names for consideration, Miss Ketcham said: A person who has young or school-age children; who has never attended College Week for Women; who could not attend without this financial help; who has present or future leadership potential; and who will conduct herself as a responsible citizen.

The force of habit leads a man into many pitfalls—none of them really justified.

Kilts are still a favorite among young women for classes and such informal occasions as table tennis dates. Now, ensembles such as shown by Beverly Barclay are available. The blouse is trimmed with a plaid which matches the skirt.

Giving us a glimpse at what will be popular with the well-dressed young men this Spring is Gordon Vandemark. Such sport-coats as this glen plaid can be worn with any number of solid slacks. For more casual activities, first choice in slacks are those made of white denim. In jackets, madras parkas rate high.

Tourist unit lists week's activities

The following events are listed for next week around the state by the Michigan Tourist Council:

Cadillac Home Show at Cadillac through Saturday; Home and Builders Show at Manistee through Saturday; Home and Sports Show at Hillsdale through Sunday; Escanaba Smelt Run at Escanaba through April 20; Ionia County Home and Sports Show at Ionia Friday, Saturday and Sunday; the Northern Michigan University Science Fair at Marquette Saturday; and the Home Builders and Furnishings Show at Traverse City April 7-10.

Start at the bottom when washing walls

BY BETTY KETCHAM
County Extension Agent
Home Economics

Are you up to your elbows in spring housecleaning? Here's how you can do a better job of washing walls.

First collect your supplies. Use a milk soap or commercial cleaner. Have one pail for washing and another pail with clean water for rinsing. Use large sponges in each pail.

Then wash your walls from the bottom up. This, reports the US Department of Agriculture, is the secret to success.

IF YOU start at the top, you may drip dirty scrub water down over the soiled area. This will cause streaks. But, if you drip into a clean area, it can be wiped off easily.

Wash only as much as you can reach. Then rinse immediately. In washing the next area, overlap the first one.

Now—do the ceiling last. I might suggest that you do the side walls one day and then work on the ceiling the next morning. This is leaving the hardest task till last. I hate to wash ceilings—don't you?

WHEN YOU'RE doing your spring house cleaning, don't forget to vacuum the television set.

The heat of the set pulls dust in among the tubes, and this can become a fire hazard.

Unplug the TV before you start to work. Ask your husband to take the back off the set. Then vacuum lightly among the tubes. Or, if you have an old-fashioned feather duster—here's a good place to use it. Whisk out those unwanted dust balls. It's a good idea to clean the TV once or twice a year. All of those cowboys and Indians kick up a lot of dust.

HEAR DR Peisner April 1, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the Municipal Building, St. Johns. He will discuss Teenager and Parent Relationships. Dr Peisner is associate professor of home management and child development and extension family life specialist.

Manicure nails once each week

Some girls have the habit of chewing their nails. The result is not attractive. Other girls let their nails grow until they look like cat's claws!

Your nails require constant care if you want to avoid either extreme.

TREAT yourself to a do-it-yourself manicure at least once each week. Many girls combine their manicure with their weekly shampoo.

You'll need blunt-ended nail scissors, a small nail brush, a bowl of soapy water and orange stick for pushing back cuticles, emery board, nail buffer, and non-perfumed hand lotion.

Here's what to do:
WASH hands well and scrub nails with a small brush.

Gently push back cuticles with an orange stick, and trim away any jagged bits of cuticle with the nail scissors.

Use the emery board to file the nails to a medium length and give them a nice round shape. (A medium length, rounded nail is far more attractive than a long, pointed claw.)

LAST OF ALL, buff your nails to a glistening finish with the buffer. Then rub hand lotion into your hands, making sure that the skin area around the nails receives plenty of lotion.

Neat nails make you feel good.

Iron T-shirts?

Properly laundered T-shirts don't need ironing. Buy shirts a size or two larger and dry them at low to medium settings in the clothes dryer. There will be no distortion of the shirt as in line-drying.

American students now espouse serious causes

A few years ago people were still wondering why it was that American college students, unlike their contemporaries in other parts of the world, seldom protested in behalf of serious causes. In Asia and Latin America student demonstrations shook chancelleries and brought down governments. Young men, many of them hardly out of college, sparked the African struggle for independence.

Meanwhile the college set in America had progressed from goldfish swallowing to panty raids. Between frivolity and serious purpose students of other lands saw no choice. From their point of view, on every hand were terrible wrongs crying out to be put right.

THIS IS NOT TO say that they invariably exercised good judgment. At times they became unwitting pawns in the hands of clever manipulators. The rebellion of youth has frequently been subverted to promote sinister causes. And more than once rebellion has run amuck.

Then and now, for all its enthusiasm for moral crusades and for all its belief that it knows best, youth often lacks the wisdom and judgment of maturity.

Having said this, we cannot help but feel that on balance the increasing commitment to serious causes on the part of American youth is to be judiciously encouraged rather than condemned. Through the Peace Corps young Americans have tackled with dedication and acknowledged distinction the staggering problems of developing nations.

WITH THE COMING of the civil-rights movement the American student found at home a cause he could call his own. Once he found it, he moved with the same enthusiasm, courage, and determination that has characterized student social protest movements around the globe.

It is safe to say that the American student will never be the same again. He will be found protesting those things which outrage his sense of justice. He will stand up and be counted when he senses, rightly or wrongly, that human rights are at stake. Sometimes wisely, sometimes rashly, he will, nevertheless, make his voice heard.

WHEN WE ARE tempted to despair of the modern generation for its increasing involvement in crime, dope addiction, sexual experimentation, and the like, we need to take care that we do not lose our sense of proportion.

It is well to recall that among the young there is also a genuine awakening to a deeply felt moral and social concern.

Propagandists make hay out of tear gas furor

It is too much to hope, we suppose, that the furor over the use of tear gas in Vietnam will soon vanish, but we think Secretary of State Rusk has at least put the real issue in clear perspective.

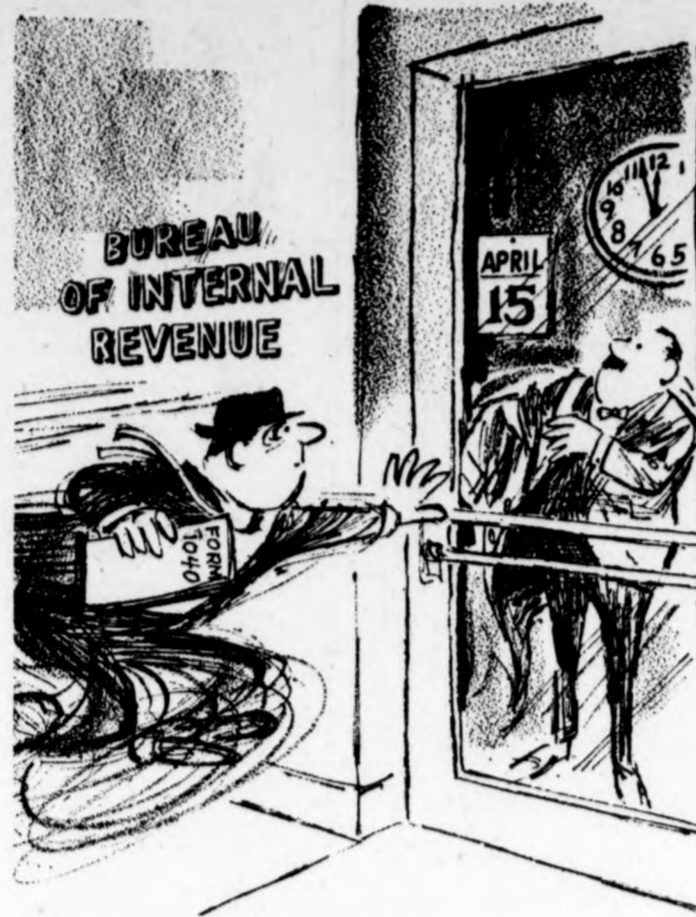

No explanation, of course, would stop the Communists from distorting the incident for propaganda purposes. But perhaps the Secretary's calm attentions will soothe those detractors in friendly countries who took the incident as evidence of base American motives, and those at home who claim it was an inexcusable affront to world opinion.

RUSK POINTED OUT that the types of gas used are simply common police armaments, hardly new or horrible weapons. He added that in Vietnam they were used precisely because they were less, not more, violent than conventional military means.

For example, it can hardly be considered inhumane to use tear gas to disperse guerrillas firing from behind shields of civilian villagers.

MOST encouragingly, the Secretary also made it clear that this policy will not be changed simply because what passes for world opinion happens to be ill-informed or inflamed by Communist propaganda.

A Friendly Reminder

In this incident, as in many past ones, the State Department was bombarded by hasty cries from abroad, echoed at home by assertions that we must bow to the foreign chorus even when it is obviously irrational.

In giving Secretary Rusk a chance to express US determination to follow its own best judgment in the face of such clamor, the gas incident may serve a useful purpose despite the vastly exaggerated attention its received.

comfortably where there is no air. They can return to earth like a meteorite and yet not burn up like a meteorite. Fantastic.

AND THEN there was the Ranger probe last week, too. That, too, is incredible. A man-made craft hundreds of thousands of miles in alien space, sending back to us pictures of the moon from only a few miles above its surface. It was fascinating to watch the live telecast of Ranger 9's pictures, actually being taken at the time we were seeing them.

What lies ahead? We have come so far in 50 years; can we go that much farther in the next 50 years?

WE MAY NOT all agree on the practical points of space flight and going to the moon. I'm not sure how I feel about it. But the technical knowledge man is gaining these days may help provide answers to real problems in the future, much as did Christopher Columbus on his "flight" to a new world 473 years ago.

Florida Observations

By W. E. DOBSON

I've heard a lot about how thick
Is hair upon a dog,
And few have ever reckoned
The bristles on a hog;
But naught I'm sure is thicker
So far as I've got inter—
Than all the Michiganders
Goin' to Florida in the winter.

Wherever one may wander,
Or however he's inclined,
The "Water-Wonderland" is fast
To cars front and behind;
If all the Wolverines stayed home
Who follow robins down,
There'd be a tourist scarcity
In every Florida town.

We seek their winter sunshine,
But in long summer days
Our Michigan will beckon
To them in many ways;
So if we'd go a visitin',
Choose well a place to rest,
And ask 'em all to visit us
When Michigan looks best!

Green carpet treatment at The News

by Ink White

PLEASE FORGIVE ME for reporting to you now and then about the progress of remodeling here at The County News building. This week we're entering our 14th month of the project. We're hoping that the job will be completed by June 1.

The building interior is shaping up pretty much as we intended, but there's much to be done on the exterior when weather permits.

MOST CONTROVERSIAL of the numerous interior changes we've made is the installation of green carpeting throughout the downstairs business office and on the stairway leading to our advertising, editorial and offset composition departments.

Customers comment kindly on the appearance of the carpeting but some of them, I'm sure, think it's pretty impractical. They may be right, but we wouldn't have been satisfied not to give it a trial.

It does contribute immeasurably to the comfort of customers and our office help and it's far easier to maintain than the tile or linoleum floor covering we've previously had.

ONE OF OUR business acquaintances prophesied that the carpeting would keep some of our farm friends from visiting us so frequently. "You'll scare 'em away," he warned.

All I can say is that he underestimates the rural people of the Clinton area. None of my acquaintance can be intimidated by comfortable surroundings. Many of them have far better homes than their town friends.

I had occasion not so long ago to visit the board room at the Michigan Farm Bureau building on the west outskirts of Lansing. You'll not find a plusher set-up anywhere.

OF COURSE, our carpeting takes quite a beating this time of year from snow, slush and mud. But it cleans up beautifully and it's surprising how many thoughtful people stop momentarily to stomp and wipe their feet as they enter.

Our office manager, Lil Swagart, says she can spot the fellows whose wives have trained them at home. Some of them even go so far as to take off their boots or rubbers before they come in.

25 YEARS AGO
From the Files of March 28, 1940

Ovid's fire department fought in vain to save the Russell Chaffee farm home from flames late Monday afternoon. Located three-quarters of a mile east of Ovid, the doomed structure, a modern 10-room residence, burned to the ground with much of its contents.

After handing out some highly "unusual" weather a month or two ago to the South, Old Man Winter finally got around to crack down on Michigan with a late March cold spell that "beat everything" in the memory of the oldest settler. This spring frigid wave arrived Friday when the mercury dipped to 5 above zero.

50 YEARS AGO
From the Files of April 1, 1915

William H. VanConsant assumed the duties of postmaster at St. Johns today, Will H. Brunson retiring after filling the office with marked ability for the past 16 years.

Unable to obtain work during the winter and harassed by his inability to pay a $90 board bill, Eugene McCrumb, 52 years old, committed suicide by drinking an ounce of carbolic acid sometime Thursday night.

About 60 friends and members of the Congregational Church met at the parsonage Monday evening where a very pretty service was performed. Rev. R. M. Traver of Pontiac gave a very solemn and impressive dedication address.

Wearing qualities of carpet have improved considerably in recent years, I'm told. The commercial type we've installed is being used in school corridors and, of all places, restaurant and hotel kitchens. So far as I know, we're the first country print shop to carpet completely our office and customer areas. We'll be able to testify a couple of years from now as to how good or bad our decision has been.

A REAL conversation piece is the big brass knob we've installed on our old, relocated front door. It's a touch suggested by Architect St. Clair Pardee and the comment it provokes makes it worth the few dollars of extra cost.

Those familiar with the old Gilbert and Sullivan operettas will recall the tuneful lines from H. M. S. Pinafore sung by the Captain, if I remember correctly:

"When I was a lad I served a term
As office boy to an Attorney's firm.
I cleaned the windows and I swept the floor
And I polished up the handle of the big front door.
I polished up that handle so care-
fullee
That now I am the Ruler of the Queen's Navee!"

Maybe the brass knob on our front door is a throwback to the Gilbert and Sullivan days when The County News was in its adolescence. Pinafore was first performed in 1878—just 22 years after this newspaper was founded.

ON THE SUBJECT of old days, Mrs Hila Bross, who is correlating the displays for the Centennial Room at the Clinton National Bank, showed us a March 10, 1865, copy of The Middletown (N.Y.) Mercury which reports fully on the second inauguration of President Abraham Lincoln.

The New York state newspaper has several caustic comments to offer regarding Lincoln's address on Inaugural Day and its editorial remarks about Vice President Andrew Johnson's behavior border on the libelous. The implication is that Johnson imbibed too freely before speaking to the inaugural crowd.

"He evidently did not shun Bourbon county, Kentucky, on his way to Washington," says the newspaper account. Johnson, you'll recall, was a Tennessean.

Letters to the Editor

Former St. Johnsites writes about morals

I DO SO hope that those reading your recent column did not feel that your comments regarding the deterioration of morals was limited to Southern California.

Unfortunately though it be, immorality goes on in one's own backyard and not always in the other fellow's.

Problems of this and other sorts are solved by individuals sometimes at home, and not always by the disgust of awesome "facts and figures" of other places.

People will always shake their heads at delinquency rates and crime rates and demand to know "What is the world coming to?" Unfortunately, few of us take time to make even the smallest corner a better place for others to live.

Those "facts and figures" again seem to prove it. Over any given period of time somehow, somewhere, some aren't doing, for things seem to be getting a bit worse.

Charity begins at home, as do much else.

Democrat reversals could trigger veto rush

Veto numbers could easily reach new highs in the next two years of state history. Whether this occurs probably will depend largely on how much legislative reversing the Democrats do.

Already at least one reversal has been started. A bill to repeal the two-year voter registration law and restore Michigan to a four-year registration system is better than half way through the legislative process.

BITTERLY FOUGHT by Democrats when they held the minority position, the two-year registration law just took effect for the last election.

It was an improvement, then-controlling Republicans said, because it would help clean out dead wood in clerks' files and prevent vote fraud practices.

Democrats said the two-year system was designed to make it more difficult for the many people who normally vote only in presidential years. Most of these, they said, were Democrats.

WORK BEGAN early in the current session to restore the four-year system. It progressed rapidly through the legislative process. This is but one area of legislation bitterly opposed by the Democrats in past years when they were in the minority.

Reversal of this election law and others in the fields of workmen's compensation and unemployment compensation would presumably draw a veto from Republican Gov. George Romney.

It would seem a shame if much legislative work time were wasted on reversal legislation the majority party knows would be vetoed. Such action might well provide good campaign material but concentration on such matters would hardly provide the public service expected of state lawmakers.

ANY DOUBTS about the magnitude of Michigan's tourist industry are dispelled by a look at the calendar of events published monthly by the State Tourist Council.

It indicates not only the large number of events being conducted on a local, regional or state-wide basis but also the great variety of activity available which makes Michigan the "Winter Water Wonderland."

Even in the hardest months of the winter, the council calendar listed more than 50 events ranging from winter carnivals to sports car and dog races on ice, from auto shows to golf shows, invention displays and home shows.

THE YEAR-ROUND impact of the industry is also indicated by the council calendar of coming events.

A 12-month calendar distributed early in the year showed many communities were already busy with plans for special events scheduled in mid-summer or early fall.

NEGAUNEE, for example, is thick in plans for its July 4 centennial celebration and Fremont has its "old fashioned days" set for July 23-24. Sault Ste. Marie's Hiawatha Festival Sept. 26 - Oct. 3 was in the planning stages well before the first of the year.

As summer draws near an almost countless number of tourist-attracting events will be listed on the calendar, one of the most accurate barometers of tourist activity in Michigan.

A DIFFICULT TASK lies ahead for Michigan's state-supported colleges and universities. It has several times been proposed that all 10 institutions join together in submitting a lump sum budget request to the Legislature.

Now a governor's study committee proposes that not only this be done but also that the budget request cover a two-year period rather than being an annual appropriation item.

DIFFICULTIES ARE many in both proposals, which is one of several reasons the unified budget has not been accomplished already although it was first proposed several years ago.

A two-year budget plan possibly could be workable soon because of the high degree of accuracy in predicting future enrollment and cost factors. Presumably the institutions would be allowed to seek supplemental funds during the biennium if such a plan were effective.

Several state agencies now come back to the Legislature every year for a supplemental appropriation although they are on a single-year budget operation.

THE consolidated budget plan, however, still has many problems to be ironed out. Standards for judging per-student costs are not uniform at the various institutions and some officials think this one point is enough to prevent total agreement on budget request methods among the 10 autonomous colleges and universities.

COUNTRY FLAVOR

Woodland drummer's call tells of new season

It is a heartening sound when the staccato drum call comes from the woodland. The cock partridges know it is a new season and they sound their challenges. The experts tell us we should call this noble bird a grouse, but the early English settlers thought it resembled the partridge of their homeland, and that is the common name.

The partridge drums in all seasons of year, but it is in March that the urgency of spring stirs the bird to the most drumming. He is a handsome, cocky, beady-eyed miniature monarch. Somehow when the countrymen see him strutting in the woodland aisles, the bird reminds him of Napoleon. The partridge is imperious in manner; he holds his head high and he pushes out his chest.

IT IS A memorable picture to watch a bird in the drumming act. He usually mounts a log, hummock or rock. For a few moments he surveys the scene in regal self-confidence. Then he lifts his wings; for a moment they are held high. Then the drumming begins. The wings go so fast they are a blur to the human eye.

For many years it was believed the drumming noise was the

Bement Library Book Shelf

By Elizabeth Millman

An excellent book choice of the Junior Literary Guild is "Meet the Future in the Libraries of Today and Tomorrow," by Edith Patterson Meyer. No matter how you reckon progress, it is always built on knowledge and experience, and it is the library that brings you the record of that knowledge and experience.

Whatever your connection with the library—as a worker, a reader seeking recreation, a scholar tracking down reference material or a worker needing practical advice—the library is the community center for information.

THIS BOOK gives all the different kinds of libraries and the type of services they render. It also attempts to interest young people in the library as a career. The broader services given by libraries and their increasing use make imperative more trained personnel to handle this. Librarianship is a satisfying and interesting vocation.

"Anyone Got a Match?" by Max Schulman, is a funny novel about the four greatest threats we face—cigarettes, food, TV and love. The four main characters who make the story in each of these categories are full of interesting foibles. Blended by the author's genius, they result in a very hilarious story.

DAVID Weiss, author of "Naked Came I," has written an exciting novel of the Broadway theater, seen from the inside, in his new book "Justin Morgan." It is the story of an actor on Broadway, giving in detail his craft and his surroundings, as well as the man himself. It gives a clear picture of Broadway of the past quarter-century. The author has spent much time in the theater world, as he is a play writer and director, so from such first hand experience comes a fine novel of the world of the theater.

"The Rector of Justin" by Auchincloss has been the longest on the New York Times Book Review Best-Seller list. This is the story of the headmaster in a New England boy's school. "The Men" by Wallace is a close second. This last is a political novel of great interest.

Scientists look at pork future

A Michigan State University animal husbandry researcher's "crystal balling" has revealed some expected nutritional changes for swine producers.

Dr. J. A. Hofer says constantly changing and improved feeding standards will result in better swine rations for the producer still in business in 1980. Although corn and soybean oil meal are likely to still be the two main ingredients of the 1980 swine ration, new developments may increase the number of available ingredients.

HOEFER points out that swine producers can be expected to adopt more controlled feeding in the future and feed various classes of swine with particular objectives in mind.

The MSU nutritionist adds that the importance of feeding is so great that it justifies considerable research attention in the years ahead regardless of past accomplishments. Feed makes up approximately 70 per cent of total hog production costs.

ED MILLER, an MSU swine extension specialist, says there are probably only about 25,000 Michigan farms producing swine today. "The number of farms raising hogs will continue to drop in the years ahead although the number of hogs raised per farm will continue its upward trend," he adds.

Another MSU animal husbandry staff member, Dr. W. T. Magee, foresees the possibility of farmers marketing 200 pound hogs at five months of age in 1984.

150-bushel yields... easy

All you have to do is harvest half-pound ears from 21,000 plants per acre. That's the formula for 150-bushel yields. So why don't you do it? Probably for the same reason you can't match all those top yield claims you hear about. Top efficient yield on your farm might be 120 bushels, or less.

Instead of trying to break records that P-A-G can shout about, we'd rather you'd try for top profits. That's why we talk about Selective Planting. This is simply selecting seed for a planned harvest, for resistance to disease and insect damage, for standability, for drying characteristics, and for easy harvest using your harvest methods.

P-A-G offers 37 Four-Way Crosses and 12 Special Crosses. All have special characteristics spelled out so you can select varieties with the right combination of factors to make you the most profit. We recommend some varieties for populations up to 24,000 (and we find that some customers plant them as high as 30,000 with good success) and we recommend that you load on the fertilizer because they'll take it and give you those extra high yields that produce the most profits. There are other varieties that do best at around 12,000 population. The important thing is that you can match variety to the yield-producing capability of your soil fertility. At the same time you select corns to meet your problems head-on and to meet the requirements and needs of your particular farm to the greatest degree.

The 49 varieties P-A-G now offers are the best from over 20,000 crosses developed and tested during the past 21 years. All 49 are modern, up-to-date corns with the proved performance to increase your farm profits. When you follow a Selective Planting program, you plant for profit... not for prizes.

Your P-A-G dealer can tell you which varieties will match your need... your conditions... your end-use requirements. Call him today!

Says farmers groggy from farm labor punches

"Michigan farmers are groggy from the one-two farm labor punches they have received this year." That is the testimony of Michigan Farm Bureau Legislative Counsel Dan E. Reed before the Joint House and Senate Labor Committee recently.

The committees have been hearing farm spokesmen and others react to proposed amendments to the Workmen's Compensation Act, which would provide for coverage of certain farm workers. Further, all farmers would be required to provide hospital and medical coverage to all employees, whether hired for an hour, day, week or year.

FARMERS say that this coverage, which would be "in accordance with rules established by the department" would bring "major adjustments and expense to an industry which already often pays its employees more in wages than the employer receives in income."

In his testimony, Reed pointed out that Michigan agriculture is a family-farm affair, and that nearly all farmers employ some extra help because mechanization has allowed farmers to plant and care for more acres of crops than the family alone can harvest.

MOST OF the seasonal help moves from place to place, and according to Reed, "often they are here today and somewhere else tomorrow." However, he explained, more farmers now carry liability insurance and many also provide hospital and medical coverage. Reed said that domestic farm labor in general includes many who are not physically or otherwise fit, or who lack work habits acceptable to industry or business.

"Screening through physical examination and interview does not seem to be feasible. Yet the possibility for claims for already existing conditions or those not of an occupational nature is tremendous," the farm spokesman testified.

SOME PROPOSED legislation recognizes some consideration to agricultural problems, Reed said. However, he urged the committee to give further thought to the serious adjustments farmers are already facing this year.

"We believe the full shock of the entire program proposed in

Birds Flock 'Round the Feeder

Now that seems odd!

While other folks say that they don't have very many birds at their feeders this winter we have them in droves. Does anyone want a few bluejays? We could spare a few. And to THINK that years ago the first time one landed on our window feeder we Oh-ed and Ah-ed. Even took his picture!

Now sometimes we tap on the glass and say, "Boo!" Much good it does. They just keep swallowing away taking down as many as 23 sunflowers at a gulp. They may take more than that at a time but we counted THAT many.

EVEN SO, bluejays are pretty. Well, more than that. Down right beautiful! Sort of reminds one, though, of the old saying, "Pretty is as pretty does." Because when a bluejay lands with a thud no other bird remains on the feeder . . . not even another bluejay without a fuss out of it. Counted seven of them on and in the bushes and feeder this morning amid a racket and flurry of wings.

The sunflower seeds practically melted. Sammy's seeds are down to just a few now, so we will have to buy some . . . and plan on growing more sunflowers next garden-planting time (not far off).

SNOW ON the ground does seem to make them flock to the feeders more. As we haven't had much snow this winter may account for folks not seeing as many.

We stuck to sunflowers, ear corn and suet this winter for feed for the birds. And there was scarcely a time that one couldn't look out without seeing one or several.

A cardinal right next to the glass is a delightful sight. Guess it would take a real hard-boiled individual not to get a thrill out of that!

NOT FAR behind the glory of a cardinal is a red-headed woodpecker up at close range. You know how books always depict them as "blue" instead of black when at a distance they look black. Well, they do look blue, indeed, up close.

In spite of the greedy way the bluejays gobble the food and dart at the other birds the blue-red combination of them with cardinals is inspiring. It does something to me!

THAT'S WHY this typewriter came out of its cover.

Sort of like . . .

A birdie with a yellow bill
Hopped up on my window sill,
Cocked his shining eye and said,
Aren't you shamed you sleepy-head?

East Ward Kindergarten Class Learns About Pets, Then Displays

Mrs Eugene Beagle's kindergarten class at East Ward School in St. Johns has been learning something about different kinds of pets during the last week or so. Among the different kinds they had at the school on March 18 were a guinea pig, guppies, a turtle and gold fish. The 28 children in the class showed lots of interest and enthusiasm, and the pets prompted such purely logical questions as "Why is that gold-fish black?" The guinea pig seemed to be the favorite of the pets for the children.

Want more homes for exchange student plan

There's a good chance there could be two or three foreign exchange students in St. Johns High School each year if there were homes for them to stay in. That's the opinion of B. Stanley Pocus, principal at the high school, and the high school student council, and they have asked that any family who might like to open their home to a foreign student during the school year contact the principal's office.

THE STUDENT council, enthusiastic over the success of the exchange program in recent years, wants to expand it. Principal Pocus said he thinks there is room in a high school the size of St. Johns for at least one and probably two more exchange students.

In the past there's been only one exchange student. This year it is Anita Masterson of Great Britain, who is staying with Mr and Mrs Earl Creece of 504 E. Walker Street. Two earlier students were from Germany.

"WE HAVE a couple of agencies who frequently have students they would like to place here," Pocus said. "But when they contact us for available homes, we have no one to refer them to."

He pointed out there is no cost to the host family other than providing board and room. Transportation expenses are taken care of, and the student council sees that the exchange student's school expenses for books, paper, etc. are taken care of.

THE TWO agencies most active in placing foreign exchange students are the American Field Service and the Ann Arbor-Washenaw Council of Churches. They screen applications from families in an effort to fit the student to the right family.

The student council wrapped up their appeal by urging that "anyone interested in furthering the cause of international understanding and in providing themselves with an enjoyable new member of the family should call the principal's office for more information."

Gospel Heralds at First Baptist Church Sunday

Singing group to appear at Baptist Church

The Gospel Heralds from the Baptist School of the Bible in Cleveland, Ohio, will present a sacred concert at the First Baptist Church in St. Johns at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 4.

The Gospel Heralds have been singing in many places in Ohio and Pennsylvania and will appear April 4 in Grand Rapids, St. Johns and Jackson, Mich. They are a promotion arm of the Baptist School in Cleveland, which trains Negro pastors for the ministry. Sylvester Davis, the leader of the group, has been associated with the school since its inception in 1948.

THE MUSICAL program will include presentations of the old hymns of the church, a few modern religious songs and a few of their own spirituals. John Alexander, representative of the school, will take a few moments to tell of the work the school is doing.

Members of the First Baptist Church invite members of other churches and friends in the community to join them in this service.

Bone up, they say
Would-be scientists and engineers should bone up on their English before concentrating on career specialties, say experts at Rutgers University. Full utilization of knowledge in such highly technical subjects as advanced mathematics and physics depends on the scientist's ability to communicate his ideas to others.

Choir to festival Saturday

The St. Johns High School Concert Choir will participate in the Michigan School Vocal Assn. Festival at Midland Saturday with 20 other choirs from such area schools as Owosso, Mt. Pleasant, Alma, Ithaca, Big Rapids.

This will be the first year in several years the choir has participated in such a festival. The main object is to give students a chance to hear other groups perform good musical literature and for the students to get together and talk to each other about their schools and choirs.

EACH SCHOOL will prepare two numbers for judging by three judges. One, "Lord, Thou Hast Been Our Dwelling Place," is required, and the other which St. Johns has chosen to do is an 18th century piece in Latin, "Adoramus Te."

After those performances, the choir will be judged on singing, without piano, several compositions which they have never seen before.

GORDON Vandemark, director of vocal music at the high school, will lead the group. The 65-student choir will leave by bus for Midland at 8:15 a.m. and return about 6 p.m.

Rehearsal for the festival will be Friday at 2 p.m. in the high school band room, Vandemark said.

School librarian to attend conference

Mrs Nancy Horst, librarian at the St. Johns High School Library, will attend the 15th annual conference at the Michigan Association of School Librarians Friday and Saturday at the University of Michigan Union.

The two-day meeting will include group sessions dealing with all aspects of the school library program. The theme of the meeting, which will take over 500 school librarians to Ann Arbor, is "Gearing for Service."

Discuss GOP Party Policies

Emil Lockwood, (center), Republican state senator from the 30th senatorial district which includes Clinton County, discusses party policies and programs with Republican State Central Committee Chairman Elly M. Peterson of Charlotte and new committee Secretary Al LaPorte of Standish. The conference came after the recent Republican State Central meeting in Detroit.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

REP. LESTER J. ALLEN of Ithaca, 88th District

The House Committee on Agriculture has several proposals under consideration and has been busy with hearings on the uniform meat inspection bill and a measure to establish a State Bean Commission. The proposed commission would promote the sale of Michigan beans throughout the world by methods similar to the Apple and Potato commissions.

Perhaps most of you know of the work being done by Lyle Sherwood and a group of Gratiot County farmers to provide a guaranteed price of $8 per hundred pounds for all beans used for domestic and foreign consumption. Surplus beans would then be sold at the government price. I understand organization papers have been filed and everything appears favorable for the development of this organization.

THE OTHER bill (which I co-sponsored) provides for a uniform system of meat inspection (ante-mortem and post mortem) in slaughterhouses throughout the state under the jurisdiction of the Agriculture Department. This will guarantee clean and wholesome meat to all the people of Michigan and will afford a better opportunity for controlling animal diseases than all former legislation for this purpose put together.

The entire packing industry favors this inspection being placed in the hands of the Michigan Department of Agriculture. I believe this is an excellent proposal and will work for passage of this bill this session.

REPUBLICANS are dismayed over some recent high handed Democrat antics. A joint committee was newly established to investigate the office of the commissioner of labor. Committee members were surprised to read in the newspapers that a strongly worded subpoena had been served on the commissioner. The surprise resulted from the fact that the committee, the only group authorized to use the subpoena power, had not even met and, further, such strong action has not been employed by a committee for years.

Several investigations have been proposed and others under discussion, some pointed toward the executive branch and Governor Romney's appointees. The minority party is rightfully concerned over what appears to be the beginning of a series of witchhunts and persecution.

H. B. 2121 PASSED the House this week. It gives the Conservation Department more control over navigable inland lakes and streams, including the St. Mary's, St. Clair and Detroit rivers, regulating the uses thereof, providing coordination between units and agencies of government and providing remedies and penalties for violations of this act.

Fiscal reform, requested by Governor Romney, who expressed his desire to work out a truly bipartisan program, remains the subject of "much talk, little action." Republicans and a few Democrats have expressed their willingness to cooperate, but the majority party caucus has yet to adopt such a stand. Several "vehicle bills" have been introduced simply as a means to keep a subject under consideration, not necessarily intended for passage.

APRIL 14 is the final day for introduction of bills (except appropriation and taxation measures). Over 800 bills have been introduced so far this session, with requests for 1,300 more to be drafted still pending. Each bill is referred to a committee which must establish a priority for consideration and most of them will never see the light of day.

I wish to thank all of you who took the time and trouble to fill out and return the questionnaire. I expect to advise you of the results next week or the week following.

Senior Citizens plan gathering

Due to bad weather only 25 persons were present at the meeting of Clinton County Senior Citizens on March 23. Because of hazardous driving Mrs Alice Epple of Ann Arbor was unable to be present to complete her class instruction on care of the heart. She will return at a later date.

Announcement was made of the Annual Senior Citizens' Get-together which will be held at Smith Hall in St. Johns on May 19. For the past few years this meeting, which embraces several of the surrounding counties, has been held in Howell. Since St. Johns has been chosen for this year's meeting plans will be made to make it a success.

The next meeting of Clinton County Senior Citizens will be held at the VFW Hall on April 13 with a potluck at noon.

Mead through street at Steel

The stop street situation at the corner of Mead and Steel streets adjacent to the new Federal-Mogul addition has been reversed by a permanent traffic control order approved by the city commission recently.

The commission's order makes Mead Street the through street, with traffic using Mead not required any longer to stop at the intersection of Steel. Traffic on Steel will now be required to stop before turning onto Mead.

The change is a logical one following the closing of Steel Street between Mead and North Spring for the Federal-Mogul addition. The stop signs at the intersection have already been changed.

Road Commission Weekly Report

The Board of Clinton County Road Commissioners held a special meeting Friday to inspect a drainage problem on Upton Road. The Board made an extensive tour of county roads, looking at weather damage and inspecting proposed construction sites.

Les Drago, county road engineer, attended an asphalt meeting at the Kellogg Center last Thursday.

CONSTRUCTION this year is scheduled for about the same as last year except that the proposed bridge construction will be more. The postponed Island Road Bridge across the Maple River is rescheduled for this year, and in addition the Howe Road crossing of the Looking Glass in Eagle Township is proposed.

Total cost of these two bridges is estimated at $170,000. This is to be paid by one-half federal aid and $75,000 county appropriations and the balance plus engineering and right-of-way costs are to be paid from Motor Vehicle Highway funds. The estimates are for construction only and do not include engineering and right-of-way.

MOST OF the maintenance activity the last week has been concerned with winter maintenance. Although April 1 is here nearly all of last week was spent on snow removal and the first of this week the salt and sand trucks were combating freezing rain. More rain and snow increased the danger of a more severe spring breakup.

The next regular meeting of the Board of Clinton County Road Commissioners will be held Monday, April 5.

BANNISTER—Mrs Bill Mitchell was hostess at the Bannister Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon, March 17, for the Women's Society of Christian Service. Assisting her with the dessert luncheon were Mrs Harold Albaugh and Mrs Ivan Hofferbert. Mrs Tom Bradley, vice president, presided over the program, during which time Mrs Bill LeClear explained her worship setting. A ceremony on Commitment Day followed.

Mrs Wayne Peck was in charge of the worship service and Mrs Floyd Walters gave the lesson entitled "Rekindling the Inner Life Through Prayer." She was accompanied in her musical selection, "Sweet Hour of Prayer," by Mrs Ray Canfield and Mrs Walter Miller.

AT THE business meeting Mrs Richard Moore, president, stressed the School of Missions dates which is June 21 through 25. Mrs Edna Nowlin read an original poem in honor of Mrs Bud Casler who was leaving the community. Mrs Nowlin was also appointed to take over the flower committee chairmanship.

Following the request for a 25 per cent increase in giving, the society voted to accept the challenge. Mrs Hofferbert passed out service cards in an attempt to also increase the activity and membership of the group.

All were reminded to hand in the world banks for the April meeting.

Blue chinaware in Bank display

Several collections of old and modern blue chinaware are being exhibited this week in the Centennial Room at the St. Johns office of the Clinton National Bank.

In addition, there will be an exhibit of implements and utensils used in the making of maple syrup, announces Mrs Manning Bross, who is correlating Centennial exhibits for the bank.

CONTRIBUTORS to the collection of chinaware include Eldred Walker, Mrs Jack Dietrich, Mrs E. O. Prince, Mrs Lawrence Rasey, Mrs Arthur Workman, Lester H. Lake, Mrs George Brooks and Mrs Charles Fowler.

Centennial exhibits scheduled for next week include those having to do with the ending of the Civil War in 1865 and the assassination of President Lincoln.

AMONG THE items to be shown in the Centennial Room later this month are a collection of hand-decorated Easter eggs and a display of Easter hats and bonnets.

The Centennial displays are arranged in conjunction with the 100th birthday observance of the Clinton National Bank.

Benefit dinner for park fund

ROCHESTER COLONY — The Extension Women's Creed, said in unison opened the Colony Home Economics Extension meeting Tuesday evening, March 23, at the home of Mrs Elmer Thornton of Colony Road.

Mrs Al Rademacher reported on the benefit dinner served at Smith Hall, March 10, which netted $225. The money will be used for the maintenance and improvements of Friendship Park, the group's community project.

Mrs Emerson Dunham volunteered to represent the group at the "Friends of the Library" organization in Elsie.

The members also voted to purchase and donate diapers to Mrs Luella Canfield, county health nurse, and 12 tablespoons to Smith Hall.

The 14 members present heard Mrs James Houska, lesson leader, speak on the need of balance appetite and activity to look and feel your best. Preventing obesity is better than trying to correct it, from a health standpoint, she said. The lesson was entitled "Slim and Trim."

Afterwards refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs Roland Thornton and Mrs Richard Hebel.

Mrs George Libey will host the next meeting, April 27, at her home on North Watson Road.

Autos sidwipe on South US-27

Cars driven by Janice A. Kubica, 17, of 716 S. Lansing Street, and Byron E. Barton, 32, of Alma, reportedly sideswiped on US-27 in the south part of St. Johns last Wednesday afternoon.

No one was injured. Barton said he saw the Kubica car pull onto the highway, heading north, and as he swung out to pass, the other car moved across the centerline, forcing him onto the left shoulder.

Miss Kubica said she was in the right lane all the time and never intended to make a left turn. No tracks or skid marks were found where Barton claimed he was forced onto the left shoulder.

Musicales sets audition date for music camp

The St. Johns Morning Musicales met at the home of Mrs. John Caudy on Thursday morning, March 25.

Plans were announced for holding Interlochen scholarship auditions on April 24 at the high school.

Mrs. Caudy, Mrs. George H. Brooks and Mrs. Richard Amstutz were appointed to a committee to arrange an exhibit at Clinton National Band and Trust during National Music Week in May. It was announced that the club's Spring Luncheon, originally planned for May 13, would be postponed until May 20.

FOLLOWING the business meeting, a Shakespearean program, entitled "Three Cases of Mistaken Identity," was presented. Mrs. Kenneth Jones accompanied by Mrs. Manning Bross, sang, "O Mistress Mine" set to music by Reginald DeKoven. Mrs. Basil Deibert reviewed the three plays, "Twelfth Night," "Measure for Measure," and "The Winter's Tale."

Charles Huntington presented a group of local persons who performed on instruments known as recorders. These instruments, which are forerunners of the clarinet, were popular in Shakespeare's time. Those comprising the group in addition to Huntington were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nickel, Mrs. Margaret Wood and Mrs. William Richards Jr. Mrs. Paul Martis Jr. also appeared with the instrumental group as a soprano soloist.

THEIR numbers were "It Was a Lover and His Lass" by Morley, and two Spanish dances from the Renaissance period. Mrs. Martis sang two numbers with recorder accompaniment, "O Mistress Mine" by Morley and "Light of Love."

The next meeting of the St. Johns Morning Musicales will be held on April 8 at the home of Mrs. Richard Amstutz.

March of Dimes gets $5,188

A total of $5,188.43 — the largest amount ever received — was donated to the 1965 March of Dimes by Clinton County residents, according to the final report from county Co-Chairmen Donald Roesner and Mart Livingston.

The money will be used mostly in the fight against birth defects. Three Clinton County families have already applied for aid under the March of Dimes program.

THE $5,188 WAS almost $1,000 over last year's final figure. The top category of funds received was the Mothers' March, which brought in $1,913.12. Another $1,828.12 was donated through the mail.

Other special events and the amounts of money raised included: dancing, bowling and coffee day, $547.29; skating party, $139.50; schools $536.93; clubs, $111; and canisters, $112.56.

Style show ends 4-H 'week'

4-H style revues will headline the last few days of the annual Clinton County 4-H Spring Achievement Show at Smith Hall in the St. Johns City Park. The revues are scheduled for Friday evening, Saturday morning and Saturday afternoon.

An open house last evening (Wednesday) and this afternoon (Thursday) from 2 to 5 o'clock provided the public with an opportunity to see the work of county 4-H youth with their winter projects. A total of 1,138 projects and displays were arranged for the show by some 892 youngsters.

JUDGING OF the displays was done during the day Tuesday.

The style revues will be held in three divisions. The senior miss revue will be at 8 p.m. Friday, with Virginia Zeeb as narrator. The young miss style revue will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, with Marilyn McQueen describing the models' own creations to the audience. The junior miss style revue will be at 2 p.m., with Alice Heibek as narrator.

THE 4-H EXHIBITS will be released at the conclusion of today's open house, after which a committee will prepare Smith Hall for the style revues.
