Bloodmobile "buddy day" is next Tuesday

Next Tuesday is "Buddy Day" in St. Johns.

"Bring a buddy" is the appeal the Clinton County Red Cross chapter is making in urging St. Johns area residents to turn out for the semi-annual Bloodmobile visit. It will be held Tuesday from noon to 6 p.m. at the First Methodist Church in St. Johns.

The goal for this Bloodmobile visit is 225 pints of blood, and the Red Cross people pointed out that bringing a buddy—whether he or she has previously given blood or not—will help achieve the goal.

IT IS 10 PINTS higher than the actual achievement at the Bloodmobile visit last Dec. 29. A continued good turnout by blood donors will keep Clinton County in the national Blood Bank program, which makes blood free of cost to all residents of participating counties.

The "buddy system" of blood donors hopefully will account for many first-time donors, which are needed badly to keep the list of active donors at a healthy level. Then, too, the new donors may have the negative types of blood which are in extreme demand by the Red Cross.

RED CROSS officials have no idea how many such "walk-in" donors there will be (they hope a lot), but by way of a telephone telephone Wednesday night they were hoping to get a close approximation of how many previous donors will be giving again at the Bloodmobile.

Knowing how many donors to expect is of relative importance. The Red Cross wants to be sure they have enough facilities (nurses, tables, etc.) on hand to care for the donors without making them wait too long. A system has been set up for the coming Bloodmobile to make sure that donors are taken care of in the same order they register.

ALSO A BIG help to fast service at the Bloodmobile will be an orderly flow of donors all afternoon Tuesday. The period from 1 to 3:30 p.m. is usually a slack time, experience has shown, with most donors coming in after 3:30.

OK full repairs to water well

Water well No. 5, which has been giving the city lots of trouble recently, will be fully restored. The cost will be somewhere around $2,470.

The city commission last week authorized an extra $500 to make all the necessary repairs. It had previously approved up to $2,000 in repairs.

THE WELL, located practically under the old water tower on the north side of town, was drawing only about 130,000 gallons a day June 10 when a check of it was made by engineers. This is far below its expected capacity.

Work done so far has included blasting of the well to open up pores to allow water into the well shaft, replacement of the pump bowl, lowering of the pump bowl and the addition of an extra 40 feet of pipe.

THIS WORK is expected to increase the amount of water flowing into the well shaft, provide a better pumping ability and prevent the probability of it sucking air as it had done previously.

When the repairs are completed, engineers estimate the one well will be able to pump 500,000 gallons a day. The well is one of eight the city uses or has used.

Mrs. Kenneth Spicer, chairman of the St. Johns Bloodmobile campaign, tacks up a sign urging blood donations next Tuesday when the Bloodmobile is stationed at the Methodist Church during the afternoon. The Red Cross is hoping to get 225 pints of blood here, which would help keep Clinton County in the national Bloodbank program.

Mrs. Kenneth Spicer, city chairman for the Bloodmobile visit, asks that as many persons as can donate between 1 and 3:30 when they can be most assured of getting through the donor lines fast.

While donors were being solicited from the public Wednesday night by the telephone, other groups were making private efforts to get people out for the Bloodmobile. Federal-Mogul Corp. is making a determined effort to get their employees to give blood as a plant effort. They are handling the recruiting themselves.

PERSONS WHO were not contacted by the telephone volunteers—Mrs. Leonard Puetz, Mrs. Jerry Stone, Mrs. Steven Hopko or Mrs. Thelma Acton—on Wednesday night are asked to call the following people if they wish to give blood: Mrs. Bob Rand at 224-4485 or Mrs. Howard Woodbury at 224-2838. "If you can't let us know, come anyway," Mrs. Spicer said.

The St. Johns Bloodmobile has been scheduled at the times of the year it has for special reasons, Mrs. Spicer said. Because of heavier traffic and more accidents at Christmas time and around the Fourth of July, there is usually a great need for blood to fill exhausted supplies at the Regional Blood Center.

SUCH IS THE case again this year, and area residents can help keep the supply of life-giving blood at safe levels. "Give a pint of blood before going on vacation," Mrs. Spicer urged, "because there'll be a great need for blood all summer."

The Bloodmobile will be set up at the Methodist Church Tuesday morning, and blood donors will be received between noon and 6 p.m.

Eureka has doctor for community clinic

EUREKA—Dr. Ronald J. Weller has opened his offices in the recently completed Eureka Clinic, fulfilling a six-year-old dream for Eureka residents.

The dream began in 1959 when the Eureka Community Hospital Assn. was formulated. Since that time, money has been raised through voluntary contributions and fund-raising drives to construct the modern 34 by 72-foot cement block building.

DR. WELLER most recently served as house physician at the Carson City Hospital. He was a 1958 graduate of the Chicago College of Osteopathy with a D. O. degree. He served his internship at Bay Osteopathic Hospital, following which he opened a practice in metropolitan Detroit, where he served on the staff of the Detroit Osteopathic Hospital.

Dr. Weller received his high school education in New York City, and his bachelor of arts degree was earned at New York University.

THE NEW Eureka Clinic has a main floor and a basement. Offices for the doctor and his secretary, a reception lounge, an X-ray room and other rooms are located on the main floor. The basement will be reserved as a community center and is equipped with a kitchen and dining facilities.

Municipal court's first 6 months busy

The first six months of life for the St. Johns Municipal Court have been busy ones, according to Judge Alba Wert's report to the St. Johns City Commission last Tuesday.

During that time the court processed 395 St. Johns and area village ordinance cases and 676 state statute cases. The court has also docketed 114 civil cases during this time besides disposing of numerous garnishment proceedings.

THE MUNICIPAL court here has been in existence only since the first of the year. At last fall's general election, voters overwhelmingly voted to set up the court, which replaced the justice of the peace system in St. Johns.

The municipal court has much wider jurisdiction, particularly in the amount of money involved in civil cases which it can handle. And in criminal cases it has county-wide jurisdiction.

FOR ST. JOHNS ordinances, Judge Wert reported he handled 279 traffic cases and 28 cases of other nature. He also took care of one case from Maple Rapids, 55 from Fowler, 26 from Westphalia and six from Ovid.

Violation of state statutes were also handled by the St. Johns Municipal Court in the number of 676. This included 481 traffic cases, 91 other state statute cases, 69 for the Michigan Public Service Commission and 17 for the Michigan State Highway Department.

A MONTH-by-month comparison of fine and cost collections with his records as a justice of the peace during the first six months of 1964 shows a large increase in the amount of business handled this year. The first two months under the new setup lagged, however.

In January, fines and costs totaled $862.90, compared to $1,133.45 in 1964 under the JP system. In February this year, fines and costs totaled $933.80, compared to $1,160.80 the year before. Then, as the word spread, municipal court activity jumped.

IN MARCH, a total of $1,759.60 was collected, compared to $1,464.45 in 1964. The other 1965 figures showed greater increases: April, $1,339.95 compared to $941.80 last year; May, $1,901.15 compared to $1,319.35 last year; and June, $2,229.10, compared to $1,481.65 in 1964.

All fines collected by the municipal court go to the city or county, depending on which jurisdiction was involved, and all court costs collected go to the city. The judge is paid a salary. Under the justice of the peace system, the JP was paid by the court costs he collected.

Old-time threshing demonstration planned

ELSIE—Roy Fizzell of Elsie is planning to demonstrate how the old-time threshing used to be done when he gets all the ingredients together in Elsie Saturday morning.

The ingredients are six loads of wheat, a separator, horses, steam engine and burlap bags.

School budget reflects growth

The addition of 32 rural school districts was pegged last week as the major cause for a 50 per cent increase in the new budget for the St. Johns Public Schools.

The budget, which calls for estimated expenditures of $1,275,766, was adopted at the board's organizational meeting last Wednesday night.

The operating budget is more than $425,000 higher than last year's budget of $850,000.

The proposed expenditure is $10,171 higher than anticipated income of $1,265,595.

THE BIGGEST increases come in expenditures for transportation, plant operation and plant maintenance, as well as salaries. Transportation costs are estimated at $63,450 for the 1965-66 school year, compared to $41,450 last year.

With the addition of the rural school districts, several new bus routes will be needed, Supt. Earl Lancaster said, and others will have to be changed and lengthened. Two new buses and three van vehicles have already been authorized for purchase to help meet the extra transportation needs.

ST. JOHNS will operate between 25 and 30 additional buildings this year, causing an almost 100 per cent increase in plant operations. The estimate for next year is $113,050, compared to only $63,235 in 1964-65. Plant maintenance costs show only a moderate increase, by comparison, in estimates for the coming year. The new budget calls for about $58,950 in expenditures for maintenance, compared to $49,450 last year.

In the field of salaries, there is not too much to compare, except to point out there'll be about 45 more teachers this year than there were last year, all but a few of them being in the elementary grades in the rural areas of the district.

ESTIMATED expenditures for regular teachers alone next year include $455,864 in elementary instruction and $239,600 in secondary instruction.

Some $38,000 of the total figures had already been earmarked for salary increases in the original district prior to the annexations.

A summary of estimated expenditures shows these figures: elementary instruction, $512,206; secondary instruction, $329,120; special education, $49,250; administration, $51,980; health services, $10,450; transportation, $63,450; operation of plant, $113,050; maintenance, $58,950; fixed charges, $49,810; capital outlay $32,500 (includes $22,500 estimated for site acquisition); and community services, $5,000.

RECEIPTS ARE estimated this way: current operating taxes, $489,645; delinquent taxes, $32,000; interest on delinquent taxes, $2,000; other taxes $500; miscellaneous receipts, $3,000; from county special education, $25,000; State aid, $642,450; transportation aid, $32,000; special education state aid, $25,000; driver education aid, $6,000; vocational education aid, $5,000; and reimbursement from NDEA, $3,000.

The budget was adopted last Wednesday night following a public hearing. Supt. Lancaster said three citizens of the community were present as observers, the first time in his 13 years here he has seen anyone at a budget hearing.

2 St. Johns Scout troops set for camp

Boy Scout troops 71 and 81 of St. Johns will be at Northwoods camp next week, according to the schedule for the Chief Okemos Council's camp near West Branch.

Consolidation in rural area schools begins

The Serviss and Union Home schools will be closed this year and their students will attend adjacent schools under a plan announced last week by the St. Johns Public Schools.

The rearrangement of the rural school students was expected to take advantage of the newer and not so crowded buildings. More changes are expected to be announced before the summer is over, including some in the Eureka area and the Bengal Center-Jason area.

HERE IS what will happen in the two changes approved last week:

—Serviss School in Ovid Township will be closed. Twenty-five beginner and first graders from Price (Victor Township), Krepps (Bingham Township) and Serviss schools will attend school at

RAYMOND PARR

Raymond G. Parr, St. Johns pharmacist, was elected president of the St. Johns Board of Education at that group's organizational meeting last Wednesday evening. Leon Schumaker was elected vice president, Fred Meyer secretary and William Richards Jr. treasurer. New board members Donald Bast and Allden Livingston took the oath of office.

Plan mobile classrooms in St. Johns

Mobile classrooms will be put into use by the St. Johns Public Schools this fall to obtain needed classroom space.

Supt. Earl Lancaster said two mobile classrooms will be situated at the southwest corner of the high school building and another will be set up at a specific site to be determined later at Central School.

THE MOBILE units were approved by the board of education at its meeting last Wednesday.

The mobile classrooms will each be 20 by 40 feet in size and will be completely outfitted. Lancaster said each is actually two 10 by 40-foot trailers parked side by side with the inside walls taken out.

Consolidation in rural area schools begins will be sent to East Essex School (Essex Township), along with 16 students living in the Marshall District (Greenbush).

AT EAST ESSEX, the large room would be divided. Enrollment by rooms would then be this way: 35 beginners and first graders, with 13 to go home at noon; 31 second and third graders; 30 fourth, fifth and sixth graders; and 30 sixth, seventh and eighth graders.

The Marshall School burned down last winter, so its students would have to attend elsewhere anyway.

NICKEL POINTED out that one of the advantages of this plan was that all the pupils involved would eventually go to East Essex anyway under the St. Johns School District's long-range plan.

Scouters plan Aquatics Week

Aquatics Week will be observed by the Chief Okemos Council, Boy Scouts of America, between Aug. 22 and Aug. 28, with a fun-filled week being planned at the council's Northwoods Reservation near West Branch.

Robert Arnold, Chippewa District Scout executive, said Scouts can earn all aquatics badges except the swimming merit badge. Those that can be earned include lifesaving, rowing, motorboating, canoeing, fishing, first aid and small boat sailing.

SCOUTS MUST be at least First Class Scouts and hold the swimming merit badge prior to arrival at Northwoods. In addition to the merit badge achievements there, Scouts are urged to become proficient in mile swim, water skiing, skin diving, Scout life guard and scuba.

New telephone book changes deadline July 23

The new General Telephone directory for St. Johns, Fowler, Maple Rapids, Muir, and Pewamo, will "go to press" July 23, General Telephone District Manager W. F. Graef has announced. Customers who wish to make corrections or additions to the directory are urged to call their General Telephone business office before July 23.

"The General Telephone Directory Co., which prints millions of telephone books each year, operates on a deadline basis much like a newspaper and for this reason we cannot accept any changes after the July 23 date," he said. "On that date the directory is 'locked-up' and sent immediately to the directory company in Des Plaines, Ill., for printing."

3,534 tons asphalt used on city streets

St. Johns' recently completed street paving program used 3,534,125 tons of asphalt, according to a report by Spartan Asphalt Paving Co., to City Manager Ken Greer. The biggest single street tonnage was 559.35 tons on Lincoln Street; the smallest was 60.5 tons on the tennis courts at the city park.

2 jury trials set next week

Two criminal trials are scheduled next week before Judge Leo Corbin in Clinton County Circuit Court. Jury trials will be held Tuesday on a charge of breaking and entering against Robert N. Finch, 26, of 119 1/2 E. Saginaw Street, Lansing. He is charged with burglary at the Heights Auto Parts. On July 23 a jury trial is scheduled for Randy Lee Brush on a charge of larceny.

4 Remus youths with beer jailed

Four rural Remus youths spent the first three days of this week in the Clinton County Jail, a reminder of the county's crackdown on juvenile drinking.

The four were arrested by sheriff's deputies about 1:30 a.m. Sunday on US-27 in Olive Township, and they were all charged with being in possession of beer. The driver of the car, William T. Baldwin, 19, of R-1, Remus, was also charged with reckless driving.

BALDWIN, along with Gary W. Fountain, 17, and Dennis W. Fountain, 20, both of R-1, Remus, and Barry E. Karcher, 18, of R-2, Remus, all appeared Monday morning before St. Johns Municipal Judge Alba Wert. He fined each $25 plus $4.90 costs and sentenced them to three days in jail on the minor in possession charges.

Baldwin pleaded innocent to the reckless driving charge, and his trial was scheduled for Aug. 18. Bond was set at $200. Remus is located west of Mt. Pleasant.

St. Johns turns thumbs down on study share

St. Johns has, in effect, turned thumbs down on a request of the Tri-County Regional Planning Commission that the city join with 24 other municipal water users to assist in financing an evaluation of the local ground water situation.

The commission last Tuesday night tabled a letter from Robert N. Young, executive director of the Tri-County group. Young said the survey would be made by the United States Geological Survey at a cost of $127,000. Some $63,500 would be raised at the local level within the region, $39,992 of this by the 24 municipal water users.

ST. JOHNS' share of the cost would be $1,184, Young said in his letter, on the basis of use of approximately 2.96 per cent of the total water use in the region.

City Manager Ken Greer pointed out that the city has been aiding the USGS in their continuing study by paying $200 a year since 1958 for a USGS service of recording the water levels in a testing well the city has furnished.

GREER SAID he felt the city of St. Johns has already contributed more to the water study of this area of Michigan (in proportion to its size) than any of the municipalities shown on Tri-County's list.

This is where the commission tabled the letter.

Crash kills 3, injures 9 of Laingsburg family

LAINGSBURG —Members of three generations of a Laingsburg family were killed Sunday in an automobile crash seven miles east of Kalkaska on M-72. Nine others in the family and a man and wife in a second car involved were injured.

Killed were Mrs Daniel (Norreen) Baumgras, 38, driver of one of the cars; her son, David Baumgras, 17; and her mother, Mrs Marge Daschner, 59. All lived at 323 E. Grand River Avenue in Laingsburg.

THE THREE WERE killed when Mrs Baumgras' car reportedly ran a stop sign at the intersection of M-72 and a county road and drove into the path a car driven by George Burk, 62, of Toledo, Ohio.

The Baumgras car was hit broadside by the other, and then it flipped over and went off the road, ending up on top of a bank across a roadside ditch.

KALKASKA COUNTY Sheriff Earl Woodman reported some of the 12 occupants of the Baumgras car were thrown out as it rolled and careened off the road. Mrs Daschner and David Baumgras were pronounced dead at the scene of the accident. Mrs Baumgras died early Monday morning at Munson Hospital in Traverse City.

4 are uninjured in Eureka crash

Four persons escaped injury Saturday in a two-car collision on Hyde Road a half-mile east of Krepps in Greenbush Township. Drivers of the two vehicles were James O. Gower, 17, of Eureka, and Catherine Louise Webster, 21, of R-1, Elsie.

Sheriff's deputies said the Webster car was making a left turn into a driveway and the driver didn't see Gower starting to pass on the left. When she turned toward the drive, Gower's car hit the Webster car in the left side, pushing it off the road.

Neither driver, nor two passengers in the Webster car — Wayne, 10 months old, and Sandy, 7 — were hurt. The accident happened at 7:30 p.m.

Cars sideswipe at intersection

Two cars sideswiped at the intersection of US-27 and Clinton Avenue in St. Johns Friday afternoon. They were driven by Wilmot H. Ridsdale, 66, of R-2, Ovid, and Gordon H. Harris, 17, of 209 S. Emmons, St. Johns.

According to St. Johns police, Harris pulled in front of Ridsdale's car as Ridsdale was driving south on US-27. The two cars sideswiped. Ridsdale and his wife, Ruth, both suffered bruises in the accident but weren't seriously injured.

Harris was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way.

3 girls bruised as cars back, crash
Three persons reportedly suffered minor bruises Monday afternoon when two cars backing out of parking spots at the Dog and Suds Drive-In on North US-27 backed into each other.

The drivers were Raymond E. Doyle, 20, of R-6, St. Johns, and William F. Michalek, 16, of 504 Wight Street St. Johns. They were unhurt, but Sharie Cressman, 19, of 401 S. Morton, a passenger in Doyle's car, and Bonnie Speidel, 14, of 114 Lewis Street Street, and Kathy Pope, 15, of 606 N. Morton, passengers with Michalek, were bruised.

To make a ton of hay at 10 per cent moisture, 7,000 pounds of water must be removed from 9,000 pounds of fresh-cut forage.

who suffered injuries were: Steven, 15; Kathy, 13; Wendy, 11; Margie, 10; and Jimmie, 5; Paul, 9; Susan, 7; Robert, 6; and Karen, 3.

STEVEN, KATHY, Wendy Margie and Jimmie were taken to Mercy Hospital in Grayling. Margie suffered internal injuries but is listed in good condition; the others were treated for cuts and bruises and were to be released from the hospital Monday.

At Munson Hospital the other children were all in satisfactory condition. Paul had a possible shoulder fracture; Susan had a fractured left arm; Robert was being treated for head lacerations; and Karen had minor bruises.

THE DRIVER of the other car, George Burk, is in "fair" condition at Munson Hospital with numerous lacerations and burns. His wife, Mrs Carmel Burk, 55, has severe head injuries and possible internal injuries. Hospital authorities described her condition as also "fair."

The Baumgrases and Mrs Daschner were reportedly on their way home after a weekend visit with a friend near Kalkaska.

Complete obituary material is on Page 6-A.

Kin of St. Johns couple in fatal Sunday mishap

Two were killed and 10 others were injured in a traffic accident shortly before noon Sunday at the intersection of M-21 and M-13 in Genesee County.

Involved in the crash was a Pontiac family group en route to St. Johns for dinner with the Rev and Mrs G. Moore Morgan, 307 E. Walker Street. The Rev Mr Morgan is retired rector of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Killed in the mishap was Mrs Mary Cunningham, 21, a bride of three weeks and a granddaughter of the Morgans.

SHE WAS A passenger in a westbound car driven by her father, William A. Simpson, 52, of Pontiac. Susan Simpson, 52, another daughter, is also listed as seriously injured at McLaren Hospital in Flint. Mrs Peggy Simpson, the Morgans' daughter, suffered painful injuries but is not in critical condition.

Simpson and his new son-in-law, Jerry Simpson, 22, were shaken up and bruised but not seriously hurt.

MRS BETTY DeClaire, 35, of Saginaw, a passenger in the other car, was also killed in the accident.

Leo DeClaire, 39, her husband, is in critical condition at Hurley Hospital in Flint. Five of eight children, who were passengers in the DeClaire station wagon, were also admitted to the hospital, but none was seriously injured.

State Police said DeClaire failed to stop for a blinker light at the intersection and crashed into the Simpson car.

Cooperative education program launched here

A cooperative education program, in which local businesses help train students, is being revived by St. Johns High School after an eight-year lapse.

John Furry, high school guidance counselor, announced the resumption of the program this year on a limited basis, with only students in business education participating. St. Johns businesses are being solicited to help in the program by providing practical, on-the-job training in office practices.

FURRY IS enthusiastic about the progress he's made so far on the plans. Eight different businesses or government offices have given him tentative commitments to hire the students and give them training.

"We need help in this program," Furry said. "It must be looked on as above and beyond what a business normally has on its office force. It must be looked upon as a matter of cooperating and providing training on a practical level."

FOURTEEN SENIOR girls are already enrolled in the course for this fall. The fact that about 95 per cent of them have indicated they will not go on to college underscores the need for early, practical training before they go on the labor market next spring, Furry said.

Students are expected to be paid a salary commensurate with their earning ability and status as a trainee, Furry said. And since the student will be under the direct supervision of the schools, he will receive appropriate credit for satisfactory work.

STUDENTS must work a minimum of 15 hours a week in their on-the-job training. They will be released from school for a maximum of two hours a day. The school will provide classroom training that is related as close as possible to the work the student will be doing on the job.

The cooperative education plan is a state program and is partially reimbursable to the schools, and therefore it must meet requirements of the state. But it has proved extremely successful, Furry said.

A recent study conducted by Michigan State University surveyed 3,932 high school students of cooperative occupational training who were reported as graduated in June 1962. Data was returned by 42 per cent of the students and reflects their status 10 months after graduation.

EIGHT OUT OF 10 had obtained full-time employment within one month after graduation; 62 per cent were still employed full time; 14 per cent were employed part time; and 30 per cent were attending college.

Furry said the St. Johns program of some years ago was also highly successful from this standpoint and was discontinued only because of a lack of funds. It was operated in three occupational categories, however—office practice, distributive education and trade and industry.

BECAUSE OF the lack of funds this year the program is being undertaken in only the office practice category.

Furry will be coordinator of the program. He will meet once a week with each student to go over the student's work in a kind of seminar. He'll also meet frequently with the businesses that hire the students.

Furry emphasized again that offices should hire the students only if they would like to cooperate in their training. He said students should not be regarded as an employee filling a vacancy. They should also receive a variety of work to do to make the training worthwhile, and one of Furry's jobs as coordinator will be to see that some variety is offered the students.

EIGHT ST. JOHNS offices have already joined with the schools in the start of the program, and Furry said he expects to be able to obtain others during the summer. "If the program is successful and accepted, there is a definite possibility we will add to it retail distribution students in the following year."

Employers will have an opportunity to interview the students available and make their selection on a normal hiring basis.

MSU crop scientists note that the 25 per cent of the US potato crop which goes into processed products has a greater resale value than the 75 per cent which is sold as produce.

Gilson to lead Chamber during next year

Installation of officers and talks on the proposed new Sleepy Hollow State Park near St. Johns were highlights of last Thursday evening's annual dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

Donald Gilson, personnel director at Federal-Mogul Inc., was installed as president of the Chamber following his election by the board of directors at noon the same day.

OTHER NEW officers of the Chamber are: Leon Brewbaker, vice president, and John Rumbaugh, treasurer. Mrs Betty Minsky is secretary-manager.

Also introduced were the newly-elected board members—Brewbaker, Robert Gay and Jerry Knupp. Other members of the board of directors are Bill Barber, Alan Dean, Jim McKenzie and Max Fields.

GILSON TOLD the 140 persons attending the dinner meeting that he would formulate and appoint his working committees soon. One of his first official duties was to present a certificate of merit to Bernard Feldpausch, the outgoing president, for his "outstanding service to the Chamber." Feldpausch's term on the board of directors also expired this year.

Other certificates of merit were presented during the evening to the other retiring board members, Lester Lake and Dr R. L. Wohlers.

LARRY COOK and Jim Hanes of the Michigan Conservation Department presented a talk and slide presentation concerning the Sleepy Hollow State Park project now under way 10 miles southeast of St. Johns.

Cook pointed out a great need for park facilities in this general "lakeless area" of Michigan, saying that with a growing population and decreasing number of working hours, more people have more time for leisure. He said they need areas for recreation such as the state is planning at the Ovid-Victor townships site.

AN ESTIMATED $1 1/2 million will be spent for the new park facilities, in addition to the cost for acquiring the land. Cook said it would probably be about two years yet before all the properties can be purchased and about three years before the park is usable.

He said about half of the land involved has already been optioned or purchased, and options have been obtained on two of the four centennial farms in the 2,698-acre park area.

THE PARK WILL be on the east side of Shepardsville Road primarily on the north side of Price Road, four miles south of M-21 and six miles east of US-27. A 550-acre lake would be built in the center of the park land.

In introducing the speakers, Mrs Minsky announced the Chamber's tourism committee, headed by Ray Mitchell, is working on St. Johns promotional material that will be ready for distribution by the time the new state park opens up.

THE MORE-THAN 140 persons attending the buffet-type dinner filled and overflowed from the dining room of the Clinton County Country Club. "This is far, far more than we expected," Mrs Minsky said, "and we hope it's an indication of the interest in the Chamber of Commerce during the next year."

The first event on the evening's program was the presentation of "A Pair of Lunatics," a one-act play put on by two members of the St. Johns First Nighters, local theater group. Vicki Rowell and Don Wiseman played the two sane people who met while visiting an insane asylum in the 1890s and thought each other a lunatic.

THE PLAY director, Terry Foster, said it was the 11th performance of "A Pair of Lunatics." Two other actors in the First Nighters company also do the play, and they frequently interchange cast members.

Bernard Feldpausch, in his final remarks as president of the Chamber of Commerce, expressed his feelings about community attitude and responsibility. He urged an active, growing Chamber and said with the new board as a foundation and Mrs

Minsky as the engineer, the Chamber of Commerce ought to really show some progress in the coming year.

"If we use our ability, education, desire, hard work and optimism with a community-minded attitude," Feldpausch said, "then when it comes time when you want to see your son or granddaughter, you won't have to go to Seattle or New York, but right across the street, because we have built a better St. Johns."

Hobo convention on playground program Friday

Approximately 35 children attended the playground Puppet Show last Friday at the City Park. The puppets were made on the playgrounds at Perrin Palmer and Swegles School during the week by the children. The children displayed their imagination with many peculiar creations.

This week a hobo convention and hike is being planned. The children are urged to dress like hobos and may bring a hobo lunch in their knapsacks if they prefer. Children will meet at the city park pavilion at 9 a.m. and proceed to the downtown shopping area. The destination for the Hobo lunch will be the courthouse lawn.

EVERY AFTERNOON at the park pavilion from 1 - 5 an arts and crafts session takes place for the children. They make such things as bracelets, wallets, small purses, key chains and finger paintings. There will be an art show at the conclusion of playground activity; dates will be announced later. Prizes will be awarded.

Patrick J. Main, 18, of 5817 Buena Vista Parkway, East Lansing, was ticketed for failure to have his car under control Monday morning after a two-car crash on US-27 at McConnell Street in St. Johns.

He reportedly was starting to pass a car driven by Stanley A. Schneider, 24, of R-2, St. Johns, but cut back to avoid a car passing him. He hit the clutch of the car rather than the brakes, and his car went over the curb, with the back end hitting Schneider's car in the right side.

Hope 'misunderstandings' cleared up on swim program

The second session of swimming instruction for youngsters of St. Johns and the area will get under way Monday, with city officials hoping there'll be no misunderstanding this session as to who can participate.

There were 333 youngsters registered for the first three-week session, City Manager Ken Greer reported to the city commission last week, about 29 per cent of them coming from outside the City of St. Johns.

SOME 180 OF them were in beginning sessions, 60 in intermediate sessions and 90 in advanced sessions. Greer said there were about 10 openings in the advanced sessions that had not been filled the first part of the summer.

"There have been some kids turned down this first session and more than likely there will be some turned down in the next session," Greer said. "We can only handle so many beginners in these sessions, and each year there are more and more beginners."

SOLUTIONS ARE hard to come by, Greer said. More instructors? "We've barely been able to fill our needs now." More hours? "Our kids now work 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. on many days." Enlarge the pool? Hardly, as the cost would be about the same as a new pool. "Drop the advanced classes? These help keep the kids interested to go on to become qualified life guards."

Greer recommended keeping the scheduling as it is now and continuing to fill in any registration openings with children from the surrounding area on a first-come, first-served basis. St. Johns children were given registration preference Wednesday.

"AT 1 p.m. EACH day for 10 cents per child, we open the pool to regular swimming on a first-come, first-in-pool basis," Greer said. "Our only discrimination at this time is that we will not allow nude swimming, water skiing, motor boating or other unsafe practices in the swimming pool."

Another proposed solution, Greer said, is to add a third three-week swimming lesson session, in that the pool is only open 10 weeks and it takes three weeks for each session. "It is impossible to run more than two three-week sessions, as cold weather registration and lack of early instructors prevents this," he said.

GREER PREPARED the report on the swimming program for city commissioners because of "some public misunderstandings on the part of some of our rural neighbors and citizens of St. Johns regarding the swimming lesson portion of our pool program."

The city pool operations have had no changes in rules since the schools operated the pool, Greer said, with but two exceptions. "Extra sessions had been established last May by the previous city manager, and it was to care for areas such as Fowler, Westphalia, Elsie, etc., who-bused children over for our swimming lesson program. These extra sessions were scheduled during the noon hour from noon to 1 p.m. and meant that some life-guards either didn't get a lunch hour or we opened at 1 p.m. short-handed.

"OUR instructors and guards didn't like this arrangement. These sessions were not scheduled this year for obvious safety reasons."

Co-Op throws fireworks at Benson's, wins 6-4 in Class A softball action

St. Johns Co-Op didn't use up all of its fireworks on the Fourth of July.

The St. Johns Class "A" softball league entry saved a little for last Wednesday night and exploded for three runs in the first inning and go on to score a 6-4 upset victory over Benson's.

In other league action Wednesday Deans kept on their winning ways with a 6-3 victory over South Riley.

THE BIG MAN in the Co-Op victory was Jim Pope, who hit a bases-empty home run. Some fine infield play combined with the steady pitching of Bruce Blizzard was too much for Benson's. Jeff Martin was the only bright spot for Benson's as he got his first hit of the season, a home run to deep right center. Rod Hayes and Gary Sillm got two hits each for Benson's.

Deans greeted Gerry Cassel, South Riley's hurler, with three runs in the first inning to get started on its victory.

IN OTHER games during the week, Benson's came from behind to drop second-place South Riley by scoring two runs in the bottom of the seventh on an error allowing Ivan Sperry to reach

2nd period swim signup today

Registration for the second session of children's swimming classes in St. Johns began Wednesday morning at the city park pool. Children living outside the city of St. Johns are registering this morning (Thursday) from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

The fees for the swimming classes will be $1 for children living in St. Johns and $5 for those not living in St. Johns. In order to avoid any confusion and help speed up registration, children should have their name, address and age printed on a slip of paper. Children must register on the date assigned, as registration will be made on a "first-come - first - serve - basis." The pool has a limited capacity in order to comply with Red Cross Safety Regulations.

The second session of lessons will begin on Monday, July 19, and will run for a three-week period. The lessons are in the following classifications: beginners, intermediates, swimmers, advance swimmers, junior life saving and senior life saving.

All children have to be nine years old in order to receive lessons.

4 Elsie boys on Scout ranch tour

ELSIE — Four boy scouts from the Elsie Troop No. 76 were among the 130 senior scouts, explorers and leaders of the Chief Okemos Council No. 271 to leave Saturday morning from Lansing on an expedition and Western tour to Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

The Elsie boys were Dennis Mead, David Williams, Ronald Sills and Robert Bloomer. The entire group left from the capitol in Oldsmobiles. Cpl. Morris Tubbs of the Michigan State Police led the caravan.

THE PHILMONT Scout Ranch, which celebrates its 27th anniversary this year, is the national camping area for the Scout movement. Located on the slopes of the Sangre de Cristo range of the Rocky Mountain chain, it comprises 137,000 acres of western terrain.

Marvin Forbord, Nakoma district chairman, and Harvey M. Griswold, district scout executive, are leaders of the contingent. Griswold, a veteran of many years in scouting, formerly resided in Elsie and was leader of the local explorer scouts until accepting a position in the Traverse City area.

THE SCOUTS spent the first night in Jacksonville at Illinois College. Sunday morning church and breakfast were followed by a trip through Missouri and Kansas.

Eisenhower's Museum and a sight-seeing tour at Abilene, Kan. were scheduled for the third day with an overnight stop in Hayes at Kansas State College.

Tuesday they continued across Colorado and spent the afternoon and evening at the US Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs.

A PICTURESQUE trip to Glenwood Springs will be in store for Wednesday with the Scouts passing through the capital city, Denver, over the Rocky Mountains through Loveland and Vail Passes, which are 10,000 to 12,000 feet high.

The boys will have opportunities to take many pictures of this beautiful country. They will remain overnight at Glenwood Springs and swim in the world's largest outdoor hot mineral pool fed by Yampa, the largest of the springs which flows 2,900 gallons per minute.

THE CARAVAN will make a side trip to Aspen, a former silver mining town, but now a year around resort. As a ski center, it is one of the best-equipped and most popular in the west.

They will board a chair lift for a two-hour round trip to the top of Loges Peak. Highlands rise from an 8,000 foot base elevator to 11,800 foot summit at Loges Peak. This 3,800 foot vertical rise is the longest in North America.

The lift enters White River National Forests and many surprises will be in store for the boys with a variety of mountain animals, birds and flowers. After their return to Aspen they will

State Democratic chairman to talk here July 22

The Clinton County Democratic Central Committee will sponsor a dinner in honor of State Chairman Zolton Ferency next Thursday night at the L & L Restaurant in St. Johns.

County Chairman Leroy Vincent of Elsie said the dinner will begin at 7 p.m. Tickets are available at the PX Store in St. Johns.

Ferency will be the main speaker for the dinner.

Half of the Great Lakes ports handling a million tons of cargo each year are located in Michigan.

Dennis Mead, David Williams, Ronald Sills and Robert Bloomer display their Philmont Trail uniforms at a boy scout meeting. The group is on the 23-day Philmont Expedition and Western Tour.

winnow shop through the town and return to Glenwood Springs for another swim and overnight.

NEXT SUNDAY (July 16) will be "Philmont or Bust" as they are scheduled to arrive in time to unload before dinner.

Earlier that day they will travel through the mountains to Canon City at the Arkansas River west of the town. They will see where the canyon narrows at some points to 30 feet with sheer cliffs rising 1,200 feet.

The caravan will leave the mountains at Pueblo and travel southwest through Trinidad, Colo., and Baton and Cimarron, N.M., to the ranch where they will begin a high - adventure camping experience for 12 days in Philmont's more than 200 square miles of rugged country.

THE BOYS WILL test their camping skills on the trail as they carry their own equipment and cook their own food. Horseback riding, burro-packing and wilderness survival will be combined into the experience.

The Elsie boys are a part of 11 groups from the Chief Okemos Council. The other boys in their group are Mike Weathers, David Smith, Warren Kenney, Tom Charland, John Fields and Tom Higgins, all of Lansing. Walter Russell of St. Johns and Vince Vida of Lansing will be their adult leaders.

DAVID WILLIAMS of Elsie was chosen to relay information concerning the camp experiences of this group to area news media.

Two weeks prior to leaving on the Western Tour, the entire group of boys participated in a pre - Philmont training session. In Grand Woods Park, Lansing. It was culminated on June 27 with a family picnic dinner where latest plans were heard and all were given an opportunity to ask questions about the Philmont Ranch and the tour.

Final Account Jastram-Aug. 5 STATE OF MICHIGAN-The Probate Court for the County of Clinton.

It is Ordered that on Thursday, August 5, 1965, at 9:30 A.M., in the Probate Courtroom in the City of St. Johns, Michigan a hearing be held on the Petition of W.M. Luecht, the administrator of said estate for allowance of his final account.

Publication and service shall be made as provided by Statute and Court Rule. TIMOTHY M. GREEN, Judge of Probate.

Dated: July 1, 1965 Alma F. Wert & Wood Attorney for Estate 115 E. Walker St. Johns, Michigan 12-3

It is noteworthy that with a few exceptions, the budget measures adopted by the State Legislature follow closely my recommendations of five months ago. In the fields of higher education, mental health and the state building program, they continue and accelerate the massive program of improved public services initiated two years ago. In the case of public health, the bill includes many new and important programs recommended in my budget message of Feb. 2.

These bills are a recognition of the need to continue the efforts launched in 1963 to put Michigan back into the forefront of the states in meeting the basic public service needs of people.

ON MAY 28, when all legislation had passed the house of origin, total appropriations represented by the 12 major bills and by miscellaneous legislation totaled $862 million. A budget of this magnitude would have violated all principles of fiscal integrity and certainly would have left Michigan in a deficit position at the start of the next fiscal year.

As governor I called attention to the dangers inherent in this situation and promised that unless the level of spending was substantially reduced, I would be forced to veto budget bills in their entirety. I was not alone in this admonition. Certain legislative leaders joined me in this warning.

AS A RESULT, by June 22, when all bills had passed both houses, total spending had been reduced to about $820.6 million and a few days later, following conference committees, became $820.4 million.

I have concluded that although the final budget exceeds recommendations by nearly $32 million, the budget is manageable primarily as a result of continued favorable economic trends which have also increased revenues. In fact, revenues for the new budget year are now expected to be about $27 million higher than our original estimates of six months ago, and the surplus on June 30, 1966, is now anticipated to be $10 million to $12 million greater than our $72 million forecast of last February.

SOME $1.6 BILLION in plant expansions were announced in 1964 to set a new record for Michigan. The six-month totals for 1965 are $881,628,000, over half of last year's 12-month total.

In addition, we have already started the third quarter of the year with an announced $100 million expansion by the White Plains division of Copper Range Co. in the Upper Peninsula. This announcement brings us close to the $1 billion level which we didn't reach in 1964 until about Sept. 1.

But the real meaning of this economic success is in terms of people.

IT MEANS MORE jobs and less unemployment, it means opportunities in new and growing fields, it means business for the retailer and the farmer and the motel operator, and it means increased tax revenues to permit us to better meet the public service needs of the people.

Thus, although spending is substantially higher than my recommended $788 million budget, additional revenues will very nearly meet the additional expenditures in this final product.

MY FREQUENT warnings have only been reinforced that we stand on the brink of another period of efficiency and difficulty unless we are prepared either to hold to a stand-still budget next year or deal now with the need for tax reform and increased revenues.

Barring an abnormal level of economic growth, this 1965-66 budget leaves nothing available one year from now for new programs or improvements in existing programs. The expected year-end surplus of $82 million will all be eaten up by 'build-in' increases resulting from applying the higher level of expenditures to our expanding population.

IT IS DIFFICULT to comprehend a stand-still year in this period of exploding population and expanding public service needs. Yet there will be no improvement in programs in 1966-67 as we have enjoyed in this three-year period unless we take needed tax action in the months ahead.

So in signing these budget bills for 1965-66, I do so with a firm conviction to do everything within my power as governor to meet our future needs and at the same time safeguard our hard won fiscal integrity. I enlist the support of every citizen and every public official in this endeavor.

PLAY SAFE AT THE POOL

Whether using a private or public pool, certain rules should be observed to insure sanitary, safe swimming and play at the pool.

- Be certain the pool is clean and that the water is chemically purified.
Avoid injury by walking around the pool instead of running. Remember that the pool deck is usually wet and slippery resulting in serious falls unless caution is exercised.
If swimming in a public pool, be certain that a lifeguard is on duty. Avoid swimming alone in private pools and be sure the pool is equipped with complete rescue equipment, such as long poles and ring buoys.
Pool decks should be free of bottles and glasses that can easily be broken, leaving splinters of glass that can cause serious cuts.
If you and your family are not good swimmers, proper instruction should be obtained. Swimming classes are available in every community.

Enough fresh water flows by Detroit each day to supply every industrial plant in the nation.

THE NEWS in Brief

The Ashley Corp., Ashley's new steel fabricating firm, now employs 250 men and operates three shifts a day, it is reported. . . Granger Brothers in Lansing, contractors for the new county courthouse addition, are now on their second week of work inside the building. . .

Construction of the new microwave tower at St. Johns is now complete. . . Rev Keith Bovee, St. Johns' new Methodist minister, has complimented the city on its "fine municipal building," which he said he felt was excellent for this size town. . . James Matthews, who will be moving from St. Johns soon, resigned last week from the Mayor's Downtown Committee, a group he led as chairman. . .

THE COST OF time and material for the recent repaving of Clinton Avenue in downtown St. Johns was $8,310.73, according to a report to the city from Williams and Works, engineers for the job. . . Clinton County Sheriff Percy Patterson and Deputies Hilary Hafner, Fred Corson and Frank Sharick spent Saturday giving drivers tests to 79 St. Johns High School students who graduated from driver training classes this summer. Written tests were given Friday at the high school. . .

Wiring on a car belonging to Hettler Motor Sales and driven by Carl Andrus of St. Johns caught fire about 4 a.m. Friday as Andrus was returning home from work. Firemen, who answered the call to 501 E. Sturgis Street, said there was no other damage to the car. . . Spring and Walker streets were blocked off for a time last week while workmen made sewer and water connections in the streets for the new Central National Bank building. . .

THE FIRST NIGHTERS', St. Johns theater group, hopes to have one or two different one-act plays available for public use by the fall to go along with their highly successful "A Pair of Lunatics." . . John Hopko and his family of St. Johns have some good stories to tell about the Colorado floods of several weeks ago. They returned last Wednesday from a three-week vacation trip that got them to the flood area only a day or so after the water hit. . .

The recently enlarged St. Johns Public School system will have about 140 teachers on the payroll this next year, and they'll be teaching an estimated 3,100 students in grades kindergarten through 12. . . Steel framework is up on the new Michigan Milk Producers building across the street north of the main plant in Ovid. . . Joseph Ley of 302 S. Traver Street has put in a new concrete driveway entrance ramp between the street and the sidewalk. . .

Carpenters are hard at work on the inside of the new addition and the curbing for the parking lot is in at the Elsie branch of the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co.

Demonstration Day August 3

Clinton County's annual 4-H Demonstration Day will be Tuesday, Aug. 3, at Smith Hall in the St. Johns City Park. This is a change from the original date of July 22.

The program will start at 9 a.m.

"THERE IS more opportunity for individual accomplishment and recognition in this area than any other in 4-H," Donald Walker, county extension agent for 4-H Club work, said.

"There's still time for members to work up a simple demonstration in their favorite project area to present at that time. They will receive great satisfaction from participating."

WALKER SAID any demonstration given in the club is acceptable, or a first-time demonstration is also acceptable. Forty-two different demonstration classes are listed for the state 4-H Show.

Business Bubbles at Microwave Tower

These are the sending and receiving units at the new microwave relay tower in St. Johns. Both antennae, covered with a fiberglass material to protect them from the weather, receive and send signals. The little building will house the technical equipment and the emergency power plant for the operation. The antenna at left will send and receive to and from Parma, near Jackson, and the other will send and receive to and from Alma. Building in the right background is the General Telephone Co. vehicle storage headquarters.

Consider parking lot for Courthouse

A new courthouse parking area for county employees is being considered by the board of supervisors on the west side of the new courthouse wing.

No decision was made by the board at its regular meeting last Tuesday, but supervisors were going to study the idea, placed before them by George Moore of Duplain Township, chairman of the building and grounds committee.

MOORE SAID his committee figured roughly that the size of the lot possibly would provide off-street parking for perhaps a dozen cars. Entrance would be from the Maple Street (west) side of the courthouse. Moore said the ground is still torn up because of the construction of the courthouse wing and that it would be a good idea to make a decision on the plans for the ground there before the contractors level it off.

The alternative to the parking area would be a new lawn, but supervisors generally acknowledged that the amount of foot traffic over the lawn by high school students going to and from downtown wouldn't make for very healthy grass.

ALSO SUGGESTED was a larger lot on county property next to the education building on the west side of Maple Street. But again no decisions were made regarding the parking situation.

The county board, though conducting only routine business at its July meeting, was in session again until after 5 p.m. last Tuesday. In late afternoon business, the board:

-Approved two appointments to the Clinton County Zoning Commission, Lyle Brook of R-1, East Lansing, was reappointed for a four-year term expiring in June 1969, and Gerald Shepard, Bath Township supervisor, was reappointed as supervisor member of the zoning commission, also for a four-year term.

-Approved a bid of Granger Brothers (the courthouse wing contractors) to repair the lintels over the windows in the education building, many of which have been showing cracking. The brickwork will be torn out, steel reinforcing will be put in and then the brickwork will be returned.

-VOTED TO provide more adequate lighting for the basement offices in the county welfare building on South Oakland Street. The offices are being used now by the H. L. Yo Co., the firm conducting the appraisal of the county.

Michigan's 36,500 miles of rivers and streams would reach around the world almost one and a half times.

ASC PROGRAM

It's time to establish your winter cover crops

W. M. SMITH
County ASC Manager

The purpose of winter cover crops are to establish a vegetative cover on soil for winter protection from erosion. It also retards water runoff in the spring. This helps build up the water level, which is needed due to the increased amount of water used each year. Winter cover in corn helps at harvest time, keeping the wet soil from sticking to the tires of harvesting equipment.

The requirements are that a good stand and good growth must be obtained in sufficient time to protect the area from late fall and winter rain and must be maintained on the land to April 1, 1966. Pasturing consistent with good management may be permitted but none of the growth may be harvested for hay, silage, or seed. Volunteer stands will not qualify for cost-sharing.

ELIGIBLE SEEDS are sweet clover, domestic ryegrass, annual brome, winter barley and rye. Sweet clover must be seeded by Aug. 31, domestic ryegrass and annual brome must be seeded by Sept. 15, winter barley by Oct. 15, and rye by Nov. 1.

The cost-share varies with the kind of seeding used. There is a cost-share payment of 3 cents per pound of available plant food applied to cover crops after Aug. 1, 1965 and not later than Nov. 1, 1965. This cost-sharing is approved for adapted commercial fertilizer in an amount not to exceed 90 pounds of available plant food per acre.

THERE ARE different methods of seeding winter cover, many use tractor grass seeders, a high boy seeder and others have the winter cover applied by plane.

Farmers interested in earning assistance for this conservation practice or any other conservation practices should call at our office, 100 S. Ottawa Street, St. Johns. We will be glad to discuss your conservation problems and explain the different conservation practices available for farmers in our county.

FARMERS WHO wish to sign up to get cost-share assistance and are unable to come to our office may phone our office, and we will mail you an application and practice requirement sheet.

Remember, you must make a request for cost-share before you start a practice to be eligible for assistance.

Microwave Signals Go Up, Up and Away

Three hundred feet above the ground are the reflecting discs that aim microwave signals toward Alma tower (left) and Parma tower. Area black, white show set

The Mid-Michigan Black and White Show for Clinton, Shiawassee and Genesee counties will be held Thursday, July 22, at McCurdy Park in Corunna. Everett Miller of Rives Junction will be the judge.

Bull classes will start the show at 10 a.m., according to George Hazle of St. Johns, secretary. Potluck dinner will be served at noon, and immediately after that the female classes will be judged.

THIRTEEN trophies will be presented to various winners, including the champion 4-H animals shown in the junior and senior divisions and the top showman in both divisions.

Four Clinton area businesses are providing trophies. They are Clinton National Bank and Trust Co., Central National Bank, St. Johns Cooperative Co., and Brown's Elevator in Ovid.

ALL INTERESTED Holstein members, breeders and 4-H members with registered Holsteins are urged to exhibit. Exhibitors are asked to consult their veterinarians as to health papers required. State Black and White Show rules will be followed.

Many of mid-Michigan's outstanding dairy cows will be exhibited at the show.

Blaze damages DeWitt area bar

DeWITT—DeWitt firemen battled a stubborn blaze at Jorja's Bar at Waverly Road and North Grand River Avenue for three hours early last Thursday morning before subduing it.

The fire "almost demolished" the kitchen and back end of the building, Fire Chief Glenn Halterman said, and the bar also sustained considerable damage. The fire apparently started in the kitchen. It was discovered about 4 a.m. by the cook who was sleeping upstairs; he was awakened by the barking of his dog.

Rural Bath man sentenced in death of man

Roger G. Dowell, 28, of rural Bath was sentenced Friday in Lansing to two years probation and assessed $500 court costs in connection with the death of his former father-in-law May 22.

Dowell was sentenced by Ingham County Circuit Court Judge Sam Street Hughes after he pleaded guilty to a secondary count of aggravated assault. He had originally been charged with manslaughter.

STATE police charged Charles E. Brown, 44, of Lansing was injured when Dowell struck him during an argument while they were walking in an alley in Lansing. The victim was picked up unconscious at Dowell's home later and died shortly after arrival at a Lansing hospital.

Plan Illinois tour for state pork producers

Michigan swine farmers will have an opportunity to visit some of the nation's top hog farms in late July. The Cooperative Extension Service has announced that a three-day tour will be sponsored to Illinois July 26, 27 and 28.

E. C. Miller, swine specialist at Michigan State University, advises that the trip is planned to study management practices and to see the latest in buildings and equipment for efficient pork production.

THE TRIP IS open to any Michigan farmer and will be especially useful for those who are contemplating new buildings or enlarging present facilities, Miller adds. The tour will also visit the MoorMan Research Farm at the University of Illinois.

The tour group will be limited to 40. The group will leave East Lansing by bus on Monday morning, July 26, and return Wednesday night. Reservations can be made through the Clinton County office of the Cooperative Extension Service. Reservations should be made by today. They can also be made by contact with Prof. Miller, Anthony Hall, MSU.

COST OF THE trip will be $15 for transportation, and tour members will provide their own meals and lodging. A check to cover transportation must accompany reservations.

"We think tours of this kind have done more to bring about improvement in the swine business in Michigan than any other activity," Miller observes. "We hope that any farmer interested in latest developments for modern pork production will join us for the trip."

New Holstein herd average reported

A new annual herd production average for milk and butterfat has been announced for the Registered Holstein herd owned by William H. Knight of Elsie. As reported by Holstein-Friesian Assn. of America, the herd has completed its latest testing year with an official per-cow average of 15,770 pounds of milk and 572 pounds of butterfat, based on 31 completed lactations.

Purple willow trees make good windbreaks to hold milk soils. In Lapeer County farmers report trees reached heights of six feet in three years.

"Why are Chryslers so popular these days?"

"DRIVE ONE!"

You'll discover a Chrysler adds up to solid value the smaller cars can't match. Its 124-inch wheelbase gives you the extra left you need for a big-car ride. It's powered by a big 383 cu. in. V-8 that you'd pay extra for on the smaller cars. You'd think performance like this would cost a lot. But it doesn't. Nearly half our Chrysler models are priced just a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars, comparably equipped. Small difference to pay for a mighty big difference in your driving. No wonder it's the most popular Chrysler in history.

5 youths jailed for having beer

Four Laingsburg youths spent the latter part of last week in the Clinton County Jail after their conviction Wednesday of being in possession of beer.

They were Terry Robert Gillison, 18, of 600 E. Grand River; Gary Lynn West, 18, of 9558 Holliester Road; Clyde Casler Jr., 18, of R-2, 9302 Oakdale; and Duane H. Guenther, 18, of 4807 Lealand Road, all of Laingsburg.

THEY WERE fined $25 plus $19.90 costs and sentenced to three days in the county jail by Justice of the Peace Gordon Will-young. They were booked Wednesday afternoon.

The boys were among the first minors to feel the three-day jail sting which courts in the county have made mandatory for youths under 21 convicted of being in possession of beer. A number of other cases are reportedly pending in justice courts.

A GAYLORD youth, George M. McCutcheon, 18, also spent three days in jail after his arrest in St. Johns last Tuesday morning for being in possession of beer. He was given a fine of $10 and $19.90 costs by Municipal Court Judge Alba Wert.

Road Commission Weekly Report

The Board of Clinton County Road Commissioners held its regular meeting Tuesday, July 6. Bids were opened for the July and August requirements of gasoline. Gulf Refining Co. was low bidder and was awarded the contract.

Hilary Simons of Olive Township discussed construction plans for Krepps Road with the commission.

The Board made an inspection trip to Clintonia Road.

THE COMMISSION discussed the Jason Road hearing and voted unanimously to close Jason Road at Lake Victoria from Westgate Drive to Highland Drive.

The commissioners then discussed the wage scales and financial picture and after considerable discussion and some dissension they voted to increase all pay by five cents per hour, effective at the start of the pay period nearest July 1.

THE BOARD then voted to spread calcium chloride solution on all gravel primary roads. There are about 90 miles of gravel roads in the primary system.

The commissioners, engineer and clerk appeared before the Board of Supervisors and gave the yearly report. Several questions were asked, particularly about the status of the Federal Aid Bridge Program.

THE DUST control program is well along on the second application. All second applications and some new first spreads will be finished by next week.

The blacktopping program started this week. We expect to be receiving and applying from 11,000 to 12,000 gallons of bituminous material per day for several weeks.

Serve Great Lakes food

New methods of achieving culinary magic in preparing fish from the Great Lakes are offered in a publication just released by the Department of the Interior's Bureau of Commercial Fisheries.

Bureau home economists developed 24 new recipes and serving ideas for yellow perch, catfish, whitefish, pickerel, smelt, buffalofish and other species from the Great Lakes.

IMPROVED transportation and refrigeration makes fish, once associated by most people only with Friday, more of an every day food than ever before. The recipes are adaptable for an evening meal or for "brunch," for midday or midnight snacks and for hot or cold weather. There is a growing appreciation of fish as a breakfast dish.

Circular 201, "Fish Recipes from the Great Lakes," is available for 25 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., 20240. Illustrations are in color.

THIS KITCHEN-tested recipe cleverly blends golden pineapple with popular catfish; the result—easy elegance.

ISLAND FRIED CATFISH

2 lbs. skinned catfish fillets or other skinned fish fillets, fresh or frozen

- 1/4 c. soy sauce
- 1/2 c. cornstarch
- 1/2 c. flour
- 1 Tbsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 1 c. water
- 1 egg, beaten
- Pineapple Sauce

Thaw frozen fillets. Cut fillets into strips, approximately 1 x 2 inches. Place fish in a shallow baking dish. Pour soy sauce over fish and let stand for 30 minutes, turning once. Sift dry ingredients together. Combine water and egg; blend into flour mixture. Dip fish in batter. Fry immediately in deep fat, 350 degrees F., for 5 to 6 minutes or until brown and fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Drain on absorbent paper. Keep warm. Pour Pineapple Sauce on a warm platter. Place fish on top. Serves 6.

PINEAPPLE SAUCE
1 can (1 pound 4 1/2 ounces) pineapple tidbits
2 Tbsp. cornstarch
1/4 c. cold water

Heat pineapple and juice. Dissolve cornstarch in water. Add gradually to pineapple and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Keep warm. Makes approximately 2 cups of sauce.

Women sick oftener, have longer lives

Men have long claimed that women are the weaker sex. Now comes proof. A recent study shows that women have 18 per cent more colds, 20 per cent more attacks of flu and twice as many headaches as men. The fair sex comes down with 233 acute conditions a year per every 100 women, compared with 204 for men. These facts notwithstanding, women live longer than men—almost seven years longer, according to the experts.

Make own biscuits to brown 'n' serve

For year 'round convenience, make your own brown 'n' serve biscuits. Prepare biscuits as usual, baking just until done, but not browned, in preheated 450 degree oven (about 6 to 8 minutes). Cool, then wrap in moisture-vapor proof material and freeze or refrigerate. Frozen biscuits keep for two months; refrigerate biscuits for three days. Just before serving, bake 6 to 8 minutes longer in preheated 450 degree oven, or until golden brown.

Pickling at home? Use heat treatment

BY BETTY KETCHAM

Food markets offer a wide variety of pickles and relishes, but many persons like to make their own pickle products when garden vegetables and fresh fruits are in abundant supply.

It looks as if pickles supplies might be scarce this year due to the pickle picking problem, so you might like to pack some pickles at home. Last year, I know that some of you processed pickles. I've had all kinds of reports. Some of you thought the pickles were good — others thought the pickles were softened by the processing.

SO, HERE I GO again. Heat processing is recommended for all pickle products!!! Pickle products require heat treatment to destroy organisms that cause spoilage and to inactivate enzymes that may affect flavor, color or texture.

Adequate heating is best achieved by processing the filled jars in a boiling water bath.

I think some of you are having difficulty because you are using an old recipe but with the new processing techniques. If you have been dissatisfied with the pickles you pack—stop in the extension office and pick up the bulletin "Making Pickles and Relishes at Home."

PROCESSING procedures for fermented cucumbers and fresh-pack dills are slightly different from the usual water-bath procedures. IMPORTANT: start to count the processing time as soon as the filled jars are placed in the actively boiling water. This prevents development of a cooked flavor and a loss of crispness.

Also, be sure liquid is boiling when it is poured over the pickles.

Soft pickles generally result from microbial action which causes spoilage. This action can be caused by too little salt or acid, cucumbers not covered with brine during fermentation, scum scattered throughout the brine during fermentation period, insufficient heat treatment, a seal that is not tight or moldy garlic or spices.

Be sure to pick up your copy of the new pickling bulletin.

3,161 county residents sharing $2,506,000 in social security benefits

The number of Clinton County people who are now on the receiving end of social security has reached a new high.

In the past year, according to the latest government figures, there were 3,161 local residents getting monthly retirement checks, compared to only 2,487 five years ago.

ALSO, THE total amount going to them was 42 per cent greater than it was then.

The findings are contained in a report released by the Social Security Administration. It shows, for every county in the United States, the number of people on the retirement rolls and the payments to them, as of Jan. 1, 1965.

It reveals the extent to which the amendments written into the Social Security Act by Congress have added to its scope. Nationally, there are now 20 million men, women and children, receiving benefits, compared with 13.7 million five years ago.

MOST OF them are retired workers or their widows, children and parents. Others are disabled workers and their dependents.

In Clinton County, pension payments are currently at the rate of $793 a year, in contrast to the 1960 rate of $707 a year.

The local rise, 12.2 per cent, compares with an 8.5 per cent gain in the United States and 9.4 per cent in the East North Central States.

THE PAYMENTS are related to the amounts that were paid into the Social Security fund by workers and their employers during their active years.

Now, with pension checks larger than in the past and with more people covered, the amount of cash flowing into the local area from this source has grown in importance. It represents a sizeable part of the money in circulation in the area.

THE TOTAL amount being received by Clinton County residents at the present time is $2,506,000 a year, as against $1,759,000 in 1960.

More and more, Americans are retiring at earlier ages than before, it is found. Making it possible are better company retirement programs, larger benefits under social security and the revision in the law that permits pension payments, in some cases, from age 62.

Community antenna TV practical here? city asks GenTel

Some skepticism about the practical need for a community antenna TV system for St. Johns was raised by the St. Johns City Commission last Tuesday night, but it promised to study the matter further before deciding on whether to grant a license for such an operation.

William Graef, St. Johns district manager for General Telephone Co., presented some details on the proposed system to the commission. The antenna system would be operated by General Telephone and Electronics Communications, Inc., an affiliate of General Telephone Co.

GRAEF SAID GenTel would provide and lease coaxial cable and amplifiers for its affiliate. GT & E Communications would provide the single antenna and individual service to its customers.

He said General Telephone Co. received a tariff March 18 of this year to establish such a system. He said there are about 1,500 systems of the type proposed here now in use throughout the country.

HE SAID THAT with a master antenna, the television signal strength remains constant as it is carried over the coaxial cables to the homes of customers. He said this is especially important for color TV and that it would also provide a sharp, high-quality picture in black and white, too.

Questions from the commission and from those in the audience at last Tuesday's meeting pertained mostly to the need for a community antenna system. Several pointed out that all three major networks are available now through stations that are easily picked up in St. Johns.

GRAEF SAID the antenna system would provide high quality pictures on many channels, including UHF, but the exact number was not known pending further work on the proposal by GT & E Communications. The cost to customers was also not immediately known, although Graef said the approximate cost to customers in other areas for this type of service was about $5 per month.

He said General Telephone Co. decided to get into this field so that it could control the use and location of the coaxial cables on their poles. He said this is a new plan with General Telephone and is a pilot project.

A LETTER FROM P.A. Betty, operating vice president of General Telephone Co., was also read, and he asked that the commission grant approval to issue a license for the affiliate to operate the CATV system in St. Johns. Graef said the company would need a 10-year license to make the project worthwhile.

The city commission took the matter under advisement. Should they agree to issue a license, the antenna TV system would still not be a definite thing. The company would first undertake a survey to see how many persons would like such a system.

UNDER the community antenna project, television signals are received by one high-grade antenna, then transmitted along coaxial cables (which would be located on telephone poles) directly into the homes of customers. There would be no need for individual television antennas on homes.

Graef said the proposed antenna system has no connection whatever with the new microwave relay tower at the west edge of St. Johns.

P-W lighting bonds paid

PEWAMO - WESTPHALIA - Over $1,300 was paid this month by the Pewamo-Westphalia Athletic Booster Club in bond redemptions, which represented the final installment on money borrowed to finance the lighting of the P-W football field three years ago, according to Carl Pfaff, president of the club.

Thirty-eight hundred dollars in non-interest bearing bonds were sold to numerous organizations and individuals within the Pewamo-Westphalia school district three years ago to help finance the lighting of the field at that time.

ALTHOUGH the total cost of the project, including poles, lights, wiring, and labor, was over $6,500, a large portion of this amount was raised by the club before construction began through numerous fund-raising activities.

The final payment of $1,375 was raised primarily by receipts from concessions sold at the football and basketball games and 30 per cent of the net gate receipts from the games last year.

lighted by six poles supporting 12 mercury vapor lights each, is rated as one of the finest lighted fields in this area. An oval cinder track surrounds the main playing field and provides facilities for track and relay meets.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

BY REP. BLAIR WOODMAN of Owosso (87th House District)

Some 400 pieces of legislation were enacted during the legislative session just concluded. Not all of the new laws will affect everyone . . . many of them will depend upon circumstances.

It seemed to me that a short analysis of the most important bills would be useful in acquainting the people of the 87th House District, which I represent, of their contents.

WITH THE cooperation of the newspapers of the area, an analysis of a number of new laws appears today. More will follow throughout the summer months. Perhaps you will want to clip them for future reference. If you wish more detailed information about specific ones, I will be glad to help you in any way possible.

Singer Miss Betty Johnson and comedian George Gobel headline the list of attractions at the Lowell Showboat in Lowell July 26-31.

TV entertainers top Showboat fare

LOWELL—It might seem as though they were making a live TV spectacular at the Lowell Showboat this year.

In a do-or-die effort to revitalize the Showboat performances which started to sag a little in recent years, the combined service clubs of Lowell have brought in top-notch TV network entertainers for six nights of what they say should be "the very best in family entertainment."

THE SHOWBOAT will run July 26 to July 31.

"Lonesome" George Gobel is universally known to be one of the nation's leading comedians. After years of successful work in radio, he finally started doing guest appearances on television shows popular in the early 1950s. Within a couple of years he was starring in his own regular weekly series.

Now with temporary relief from regular TV series work, Gobel keeps busy with guest TV appearances, recording and personal appearances in big-name hotels and clubs.

'Enter Laughing' next production at Ledges Playhouse

"Enter Laughing" is a highly romantic comedy. This new play, starring Lane Bateman as David, the young man in love, opens next Tuesday at the Ledges Playhouse in Grand Ledge.

Bateman has also been seen in "Mary, Mary" and "The Sound of Murder" this season. The plot reveals a young man in love with a new girl and a theatrical career both at the same time and dramatizes their conflicts when he tries to make progress in both directions at once.

HIS JEWISH mother, played by Murrell Gehmen, has plans to send him to pharmacy school and constantly presents her plans for his future. Added humor is brought to the situation by Lael Woodbury who portrays the teacher-manager of an acting school where David begins his career.

A point of high comedy comes when David is presented in his first play. The fumbling attempt to be at ease and the bumbling attempt at ad lib when lines fall plus the consternation of fellow thespians make this sequence broadly humorous.

THIS PLAY, adapted from a novel by Carl Reiner, is of today and it is not unusual when our young man falls hopelessly in love with his leading lady, Angela (Barbara Rowe). His adventures to keep these many affairs straight are riotously related to Marvin, pictured by Dave Hundhausen.

Playing this week is "Lute Song," a lovely Chinese musical play which stars Margaret Woodbury and Dave Hundhausen in the roles of the lovers who are separated through circumstances. "Lute Song" will continue through Saturday.

Discuss vocational education

George Kallos from the office of the Shiawassee County School District was the speaker last Thursday at the Exchange Club meeting. Kallos is one of the men who is conducting a study of the Clinton-Shiawassee area to determine the need for vocational and technical education.

The study is now underway and it is financed in part by federal and state money with matching funds from business and industrial establishments.

KALLOS STATED that students and parents have already been surveyed. The business and industry survey is ready to be mailed to a sampling of such places. He urged that all places of business who receive inquiries should fill them out and return them in order to make the study a valid one.

It was pointed out that many high school graduates, dropouts, and even adults do not have the skills necessary to hold productive jobs in modern industry. Non-college bound students need additional training. Since there are not enough students interested in any one area of such training in community high schools, the study is aimed at finding out if the need might be met on a county wide basis or a combination of counties.

NEW CLUB President Charles Huntington was in charge of the meeting and program. Nineteen members were present. Guests were John Francis, Shiawassee County School Superintendent, Rev Keith Bovee, minister of the Methodist Church and James Bolton an employee of the Federal Land Bank Assn.

The courses, which will run from July 18 to 24, will be held at the University of Maryland. Field trips include the Lincoln Memorial, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the grave of late president, John F. Kennedy, the US Dept. of Agriculture and the Capitol.

and utilities are in, or the developer has posted with the city a performance bond guaranteeing that the work will be done, or a certified check for the amount of work to be done.

Norman Cain, representing the company, appeared before the commission to ask if a letter from a local bank approving a large loan would suffice to replace a certified check to meet legal requirements so that property could be sold.

Cain said that in an effort to speed things along, to not tie up money with the certified check and to prevent the cost of several thousand dollars for a performance bond, it was hoped that the letter approving a loan would be sufficient to allow the development company to proceed with the sale of property.

UNDER THE STATE plat act, property in a subdivision cannot be sold until after the final plat has been approved. The plat can't be approved until streets

CAIN SAID HE would submit the final plat to the commission before its next meeting July 20. The commission will turn it over to the City Planning Commission for their recommendation before finally acting on it. Cain said he would like to get approval of it sooner than this procedure would allow.

The commission, however, would not approve the letter as a substitute for the certified check.

Worthless but valuable

Black calcite, a common mineral heretofore considered worthless, may be a significant new source of silver, say scientists of the Geological Survey of the Department of the Interior. A sample from Hamilton, Nev., contained 1,500 ounces of silver per ton. Black calcite is abundant throughout Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico.

PTA works on sponsors of television claptrap

A calm—and potentially deadly—approach to the problem of unwholesome television fare has been suggested by the editor of the PTA Magazine, Mrs Herman Grant, of Chicago.

Not at all priggishly, she accepts as a fact of life that sponsors must seek the dollar, and also that sex is fair as a basic ingredient of drama.

But, she explained in an interview at the National Convention of PTA, this acceptance does not extend to dramas which do not "illuminate" the problems—specifically such as "Peyton Place" that strange town in which practically every inhabitant has "a sordid past, an equivocal present and a fearful future."

STARTING IN September, the PTA Magazine will make a point of listing sponsors of TV programs; readers will be urged to write directly expressing their opinions.

This seems fair enough. The sponsors of a wide variety of claptrap would be well-advised to read their mail, along with their cherished ratings.

Calm ladies of the PTA are capable of blackening TV screens across the land.

Radio and TV increase newspaper readership

More people in the United States are reading newspapers than ever before.

A recent survey shows that in 1964 daily newspaper circulation averaged 60,412,266 copies per day, an increase of 20 per cent over 1946.

Back in the early 1920's when radio broadcasting became popular, it was predicted that newspapers were on the way out. The radio, it was pointed out, could bring the news much more quickly than the printed page.

The same thing happened when television came on the new broadcasting scene. And, in each case, there was genuine concern among some publishers.

STRANGELY, radio and television, had just the opposite effect. The news broadcasts merely whetted the appetite of the public for more news in greater detail and depth, which the air waves could not provide.

Aware of this, newspapers have concentrated not only in bringing news while it is still fresh, but in providing more background material and interpretation.

As a result, not only are more newspapers read today, but studies have shown they are being read more thoroughly than ever before.

Dangerous months for youngsters in streets

It seems to happen every year.

Suddenly, school is out, and the kids are everywhere.

Including in the street.

THE ABRUPT release from the schedule of school, coupled with the arrival of warm and sunny weather releases quantities of enthusiasm and exuberance that have been bottled up too long.

Even the most careful driver has no control of the youngster that suddenly darts from behind a parked car, or lets his bicycle wander heedlessly from one side of the street to the other.

MOTORISTS SHOULD be—and are—warned to be careful, but the same warning should go to each parent and each child.

A child hit by a car is a sudden and senseless tragedy that stuns the community.

These are dangerous months, and caution is better than killing.

RAMBLIN' with Rink

BY LOWELL G. RINKER

One of my favorite TV shows—and I've allowed myself the luxury of a very few in recent weeks—is "The Fugitive." I am not as religious about watching him as I am Dick VanDyke, but I do turn it on whenever I can.

I probably would even watch the reruns (and there are plenty of them these days) if I could, but Ann isn't a fan of Dr Kimball's, and so reruns are out. When a show is on that I haven't seen before, Ann becomes a fugitive herself and flees the room.

THE SHOW, as you may know, is based on a story where Dr Richard Kimball's wife is murdered, and he is "falsely" convicted of killing her. He says he saw a one-armed man run from the house and is sure that man is the killer. On the way to prison, a train wreck frees him, and he has been running now for two years.

Det. Lt. Girrard, the man from whom Kimball escaped in the train wreck, is out to recapture him. But week after week Kimball manages to elude local police or Girrard after he is discovered doing different work all over the country—the all the time in search of the one-armed man.

LAST WEEK, in Wisconsin, he inadvertently took a station wagon in which Girrard's son was hiding while Girrard and sheriff's officers were looking for him. He finally convinced the boy he didn't kill his wife and made good his escape.

The show undoubtedly will go on for another year—I hope. I hate to see Kimball captured because I, too, believe he's innocent, and he should have time to find his one-armed man. He is so persistent in his contention of innocence that I think he is even starting to convince Lt. Girrard, the same man who is so obsessed with his capture.

I HATE TO see the guy keep running, but if that's the way it has to be to prove his point then he hasn't much choice. Maybe in another year he'll convince Ann, too, of his innocence, and then I can watch the reruns next summer.

Attitudes of age

BY W. E. DOBSON

"I can do it, says the youngster,
As impatiently he waits
For a chance to prove his mettle,
As his tutor hesitates;
Though experience he's lacking,
He is full of vim and try,
And it's hard to curb his ardor
Till sufficient time goes by.

Passing years make adolescent
This youth who had much to learn;
Other pastimes now engage him,
Other pleasures wait in turn;
He is active—there's no question—
But not always quite inclined
To be ready at the asking,
To do what you had in mind.

Boy to man is the next short span,
And on man are demands made,
Till he finds his time allotted
To the details of his trade;
Not from choice he finds occasion
Oft to differ with his kin
On the nature of the missions
He may be included in.

From her well-protected arm-chair,
Grandma watches what is done,
Keeps abreast of all the details,
Strives to have her share of fun;
She is happy if the project
Down her ally comes in view,
And she quick enlists by saying,
"That's a job that I can do!"

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY

by Ink White

Anyone know these phantoms?

THE EDITOR has been loafing around the north country this past week on vacation, so he gladly turns this space over to a recent column by the erudite Jim Fitzgerald of the Lapeer County Press. Says Jim:

TV is a great contributor to my list of people I-have-to-meet-to-believe-but -I-just-can't-seem-to-meet-them.

In fact, I would happily settle for meeting someone who has met someone on my list. But I never have so who can blame me for doubting their existence?

YOU KNOW. You see this candid commercial where a businessman is stopped by a stranger on a crowded street and asked to shave himself. Or a surprised housewife is cornered in the supermarket and quizzed as to the whiteness of her husband's t-shirts.

It is made plain that these people are not actors. They are common, ordinary citizens who never, in their wildest dreams, expected to be on TV, my goodness. They could easily be you or me. Or at least my cousin Alfred in New York, or your Aunt Martha in New Jersey.

But they never are.

OR: DO YOU know anyone who has been phoned and asked what they were watching on TV? Me neither. Where are all these people whose votes encourage the perpetuation of such inanities as "The Beverly Hillbillies" and "Gunsmoke?" These people I would like to meet in a dark alley when I'm carrying a baseball bat.

And where are all these people who phone and write TV stations to raise heck because their favorite programs were replaced for one night by a baseball game? A Free Press story last April quoted the manager of WJBK-TV as saying his "switchboard was swamped" with bitter complaints because a religious program replaced a soap opera Good Friday.

In view of the fact that all TV shows are the most disposable things since Kleenex, I can't help wondering what sort of idiot would make such a phone call, I'm sure you never did and I'll bet you don't know anyone who knows anyone who did.

IT ISN'T just TV that produces these nagging phantoms. Newspapers do, too. Take Ann Landers, the darling of the Women's Page. I know she exists but do you know anyone who ever wrote a letter published in Ann's column?

It is difficult enough to believe that anyone could write such incredibly stupid letters. But what really bugs me is—what do these poor fools do while waiting for Ann's advice?

Being familiar with deadlines and the physical problems of putting a newspaper together, I know there has to be a considerable lapse of time between when Ann receives a plea for help and when her answer appears in print. In view of the great volume of mail Ann and her secretaries must read, and the great number of newspapers carrying her column, this gap could easily be several weeks.

BUT HERE IS sweet Susie somehow writing to Ann while actually in a physically compromising position. Some husky lout has got a good hold on Susie and is demanding that she prove her love. Susie does love him but she is a nice girl and the Prom is tomorrow night and she knows she can't get another date this late. What should she do?

Susie obviously needs an answer right now. She isn't going to get it that quick and it is a good bet that her boyfriend, on the way home from the Prom, will not agree to postpone all aggression until next week's paper arrives.

So what happens? If you don't know Susie like I don't know Susie, you don't know either. If you do know Susie, or anyone who writes to Ann Landers; or anyone who has had any of those TV experiences—please come shake my hand.

It is difficult for a man to proceed Onward and Upward while weighed down with all these terrible doubts.

Clinton County was harvesting the largest and best wheat crop in its history this week, more than a week earlier than the harvest in an average year. Production was indicated at higher than the 1,200,000 bushels in 1954, the previous best year.

Birds carrying lighted cigarettes could set the courthouse clock tower afire, and steps to avert this danger were recommended to the board of supervisors Monday by insurance underwriters. The board was asked to have quarter-inch mesh hardware screen placed over all openings in the tower to keep out the birds.

A baled - hay conveyor chute which they were moving, coming into contact with an electric power line, caused the death Tuesday morning of two widely known Shlawassee farmers and next door neighbors. The accident occurred about 8:50 a.m. in Middlebury Township. They were John R. Brookins, 49, and Franklin C. Semans, 46.

J. G. Matthews has been elected president of the St. Johns board of education to succeed William M. Luecht, retired.

With the recent decision of the board of education to floodlight Buck Field at the city park, night football for St. Johns became assured. Contracts have already been let for the necessary equipment, and the work will be finished in time for the opening high school game next Sept. 20.

What will it cost to operate the public schools of St. Johns for the ensuing year? As estimated by the board of education, expenditures will total $113,708.92. That figure, incorporated in a budget for 1940-41, was approved by the handful of patrons who attended the annual meeting of District No. 4 Bingham, held Monday evening at the high school building.

Orville Wright, pioneer aviator, warns Americans that we need 2,000 aeroplanes at once for US defense and that we are at present at the mercy of any war power.

The automobile licenses issued by the secretary of state passed the 100,000 mark Tuesday.

The annual school meeting of District No. 4, City of St. Johns, was held in the high school room last Monday evening. Thirty patrons of the district, four of the number being women, evinced their interest in school matters by attending the meeting. C. A. Putt and A. G. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Roadside improving up to us, he says

I DIDN'T GET MY flag up today, but neither did I set my pole. It cost over $10, the flag $2.50. Oh, Well! I didn't see many flags today, and I don't care for fireworks. I remember one time they all caught fire at the park.

But what of our roadsides? Mostly grass, weeds and brush, or corn, beans or wheat. Our President and his wife want us to spend a lot of money to beautify our roads and screen auto graveyards. But why not a "do it yourself" project for each of us or a "help your neighbor" policy?

PERHAPS 4-H projects for boys and girls clubs could see which group could show the most improvement on their roads.

One man has nearly two miles of road and some more than that. To plow right up to the gravel is illegal but does eliminate weeds and brush; it also destroys drainage and causes snow problems and traffic hazards at intersections.

The man with the two miles of roadside does a fine job of mowing and may "make a little hay," but he has no weeds or brush. Why don't we each do what we can? Spray the weeds and brush and mow the grass for the neighbor if he can't do it himself.

My mower is worn out, but I have a fine new jet-type weed sprayer that sprays 20 feet wide at a cost of $2 per mile for 2-4-D and kills all except the worst brush. That is a job for a bulldozer or a chain saw, but some farmers have those or could hire a lot of brush moved for $25 or less. One man does light dozing for $10 per hour. The county can't do it all. But ask for a permit first.

WELL, I HAVE lots of good ideas and practice them as best I can. A swing knife is too much for me. My 65th birthday is today, July 6. Don't send me a card or flowers; just get out and mow those weeds or brush on your roadside or mine. I will spray my neighbor's or plant a few flowers. Sunflowers will grow by the road as easy as weeds and make excellent bird food and self seed year after year.

Got any ideas, want to start a project or write a letter?

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Northern Michigan U. — haven for crowded-outs

BY ELMER E. WHITE
Michigan Press Ass'n.

Northern Michigan University at Marquette may become a haven for high school graduates with difficulties enrolling in overcrowded colleges.

The philosophy of Northern President Edgar L. Harden is that education must become more inclusive to allow more young people "the right to test themselves against the realities of college or university life."

Harden described his view recently at the summer meeting of the Michigan Press Assn. at Marquette. "Higher education must serve a handful of people, not a handful," he said.

STUDENTS WHO find other colleges closed to them because of low entrance examination results or other problems might do well to try Northern Michigan.

"We do not believe that test scores alone can measure ability. We do not believe that arbitrary percentages or inflexible admission policies should turn the key that locks the classroom door to the student who wants to make the effort.

"Neither do we believe that admission should be contingent upon the size of dad's pocketbook or mother's position in the social register," says Harden.

CURRENTLY one of the smaller of Michigan's state-supported colleges, Northern is looking to ward tremendous growth which likely will be helped partly by its president's view of the role of higher education.

"Those who would limit higher education contend that too many of our young people already are in college." In reply, Dr. Harden contends, "Our greatest concern should not be for those who are in college but for those who should be. When you diminish the opportunity for education, you compound the growing problems of delinquency, unemployment, irresponsibility, immorality and indifference."

PREDICTIONS are sometimes interesting to view in retrospect. One such was made last November and in succeeding months by Harry R. Hall, executive vice president of the State Chamber of Commerce.

Immediately following the November election, Hall set out through the state to fulfill part of his responsibility. This is to keep Michigan businessmen informed of state legislative activities.

At that time Hall felt compelled to warn businessmen that there would be troubled times ahead. The 1965 session was to be the trouble spot because of the new majority control by Democrats.

ONE OBVIOUS factor was cited by Hall in his gloomy series of remarks. The sheer newness of many legislators would make it more difficult to foresee what would happen. He termed the session "the most staggering challenge" in the history of Michigan business.

Hall thought, however, that "some developments can be predicted with a high degree of fidelity."

"THE POWER struggle between the Democratic Legislature and the Republican executive office will make previous battles between these two, when party alignments were switched, seem like summer picnic games by comparison," he said.

In this, his main prediction, the legislators fooled him. Relations between Gov. George Romney and the lawmakers were relatively good. The few battles were very mild when compared with those of previous years.

ONE GOOD score goes to Hall for his foresight in predicting the flood of legislative proposals for increased employer - paid benefits. In this area, however, Republican lawmakers also agreed some changes were needed in the law.

To be judged well, Hall's forecast should be reviewed again next year at the end of the session.

If Romney decides to run again in 1966 for governor and Democrats think he is aiming himself at a presidential attempt two years later, it is a certainty the 1966 session could meet Hall's prediction.

Extension Club sets Battle Creek visit

The South Bingham and Olive Extension Group was hosted at a picnic dinner by Mrs. Oscar Young at her residence on Taft Road recently.

It was decided that on their annual trip, to be held Wednesday, July 21, the women would visit the Kellogg Co. and Bird Sanctuary in Battle Creek. Members making the trip will assemble at Bingham Grange before 8 a.m.

Hoarders, speculators create coin shortage

Senator Alan Bible (Nev.) "... On May 25, I introduced Senate bill 2036, which, if passed by Congress and approved by the administration, will, in my opinion, stop much of the speculation and hoarding of our coins. . . . The present shortage is an artificial one, created by hoarders and speculators. . . ."

"I think it appropriate that the vending machine industry take a look at some of its operators, who are literally rolling in coins. This is evident from advertisements offering all types of coins—rolls, bags, and so forth—for sale to the public. If the vending machine industry is concerned with a coinage shortage, one would think many of these operators would stop the sale of such coins and, instead, would put them into the channels of trade and commerce. I submit, for printing in the "Record," concrete evidence that many vending machine operators are helping to create a shortage of coins. I urge that members of this body review some of these advertisements. . . ."

Bement Library

Book Shelf

By Hila Bross

Our library is a busy place as summer programs progress. There were 125 boys and girls enrolled in the Busy Bee Reading Club, about 40 more than last year. Their four-week schedule ended July 10, and winners of the book-report contest will be announced next week.

This week, attention focuses on younger children, as the annual Summer Story Hour opened on Tuesday, with Mrs. Bess Osgood conducting the first session. Three more story hours will follow on Tuesday afternoons at 1:30 p.m., with Miss Evelyn Putnam in charge July 20, Mrs. Gerturde Bennett on July 27, and Mrs. Teresa Merrill on Aug. 3.

LIBRARY circulation for June exceeded that of last June by about 500 items. Greater activity in the children's department accounts for much of the increase, but not all. Adults read more non-fiction than last year.

Some circulation increase is due to discovery of our phonograph - record department by a few patrons. One lady has recently been borrowing records at the rate of 10 or 15 a week. The first records were bought for our library by the St. Johns Morning Musicale about 1947.

WITH THE death of Mrs. Adele McMaster in 1953, the library received a gift of a $1,000 bond, interest from which has been used to buy records ever since. The repertoire runs the gamut from Al Hirt and Mary Poppins to Van Clyburn and Swan Lake. Records are lent on the same terms as books.

Least anyone still thinks of a library as just a building full of books, let it be said that behind

Shop brings back memories

HAYDEN PEARSON

It wasn't much to look at—just an old, weather-beaten, rambling shop at the village edge. Around it was a tangled mass of old cultivators, wagons, wheels, sleds, plows and harrows. Inside, the floor was black with dirt and littered with hoof parings. Windows were gray-streaked with grime and half concealed with masses of old cobwebs.

Overhead on the stringers were all the books and bricks must be brains combined with dedication to the lasting things of life. Such a combination calls for people like Teresa Merrill, who recently resigned after serving on the library board since its very inception more than 25 years ago. We shall indeed miss her guiding hand.

TO HUNDREDS of patrons, our library is personified in Elizabeth Millman, who has just retired after 19 years on our staff, 15 years as librarian. Mrs. Millman will be greatly missed around our library by personnel and by patrons, large and small. Her quick wit and friendly way, her resourceful mind and retentive memory, her great love of books and her extensive knowledge of them, all combine to make Mrs. Millman's shoes most difficult to fill.

This new (and very green) librarian begs your patience and cooperation, but most of all she cordially invites your continued patronage of Bement Public Library.

rows of new shoes—dainty, lightweight shoes for Morgan riders and heavy ones for big work horses. In one corner was a heap of discarded shoes plus a tangled mass of odds and ends of metal. At one side was the forge with its big leather bellows; near it was the old anvil and the half tub of black-looking seummy water.

IT WAS FUN for small boys to watch the old smith as he heated a shoe red hot in the glowing coals and then pounded the shoe to shape on the anvil. Clouds of red-orange sparks arched in the air; gray steam billowed upward as he plunged the hot shoe into the water. Quickly he lifted Old Jerry's leg and tried the fit of the shoe; the acrid, nostril-tingling smell of burned hoof filled the shop.

The old smith talked as he worked and told boys stories of long ago when he shod as many oxen as horses. Perhaps he heated the shoe again and pounded it again for an exact fit. Then he drove nails through the hoof and the holes in the shoe. He twisted off the nail ends and filed the ends smooth with a big rasp.

OLD BLACKSMITH shops are gone—gone with the wagons and sleighs of yesteryear. But there are men in office and factory who look back over the years and remember the pleasant hours they spent in an old blacksmith shop.

Wisconsin is the leading dairy state. It produces about 15 per cent of the national supply of milk and other dairy foods.

Scientists have new lead for keeping butterfat test up in over-fed cows

Heavy grain feeding to dairy cows is becoming more popular, but along with higher milk production it brings the problem of lower butterfat test.

To learn why butterfat tests drop off, University of Wisconsin dairy scientists have been pushing grain to dairy cows beyond the practical limits of commercial feeding. Neal Jorgensen reported their results at the recent annual meeting of the American Dairy Science Assn. at Lexington, Ky.

LOWER butterfat test which comes with high concentrate feeding can be partially remedied with common bicarbonate of soda, Jorgensen said. With 3 per cent sodium bicarbonate in the concentrate, butterfat heads up toward normal again. Researchers in other universities have reported this in the last couple years, but the University of Wisconsin researchers are trying to explain how the reaction works and how practical it might be.

Jorgensen emphasized to the audience that the feeding trials were exaggerated for experimental purposes. The scientists fed a 3:1 grain-hay ratio—30 pounds of pelleted concentrate and 10 pounds of hay. (Heavy grain feeders may feed no higher than a 1:1 proportion in a practical farm situation.) One group of cows got this ration for eight weeks, another group got the ration with 3 per cent sodium bicarbonate for eight weeks, and the third got sodium bicarbonate with the 3:1 ration for the last four weeks of the feeding trial.

COWS ON THE 3:1 ration showed a drop in butterfat test to 1.17 per cent. When bicarbonate was fed with the ration for eight weeks, the fat test was 2.73 per cent. Feeding bicarbonate with the ration for only 4 weeks brought fat test up to 2.16 per cent.

The different groups of cows ate about 2 1/3 pounds of feed per 100 pounds body weight—an intake about 2/3 of a pound lower than on a normal ration. However, the feed had a higher portion of concentrate than a normal ration.

JORGENSEN EXPLAINED that cows that are overfed on grain tend to put on body fat rather than make butterfat. For some reason a heavy grain ration creates an acid condition in the stomach which depresses production of the components of butterfat. Bicarbonate of soda neutralizes this acid condition in the stomach and makes it more favorable for normal rumen activity.

Wisconsin dairy scientists aren't recommending that dairymen start feeding bicarbonate of soda to keep fat tests up with heavy grain. But they have learned more about this problem and may come up with a practical solution.

Mastitis treatment preference given

State mastitis control programs as well as many local milk sheds routinely run screening tests on milk to check herds and cows for mastitis. These tests can detect mastitis before it becomes serious enough to show any swelling in the udder or flakes in the strip cup.

But what can the farmer who is having trouble with high positive reactions to these screening tests do to lower them? A University of Wisconsin dairy scientist had some answers when he spoke to the annual meeting of the American Dairy Science Assn. at Lexington, Ky., recently.

R. P. NATZKE said that test results vary greatly depending on the type and method of treating milking cows that show no obvious signs of mastitis.

When either a commercial antibiotic mixture or penicillin was injected directly into the udder, it caused a temporary increase in CMT (California Mastitis Test) and catalase readings and in leucocyte count. In other words, readings were higher for about seven days after treatment than they were before the cows were treated. Intramuscular injection of antibiotics, on the other hand, showed a reduction or little change in the test readings.

THE SCREENING tests showed that after seven days, the cows that were treated by injecting antibiotics directly into the udder had returned to about the same level they were at before treatment, while those treated with intramuscular penicillin continued to show improvement.

Recommendations for mastitis control still call for the use of good milking practices and proper sanitation as the major control procedures. Natzke suggests that if treatment procedures are used on subclinical mastitis along with other control measures intramuscular injection would be preferred to injecting antibiotics directly into the udder.

Hazle on new state DHIA unit

George Hazle of St. Johns has been elected a district director and vice president of the new Michigan Dairy Herd Improvement Assn. Supervisors Assn., the third such statewide organization in the United States.

"Organization of this association got under way several months ago when a group of supervisors in the thumb area drew up a constitution for presentation at the annual Michigan DHIA meeting," says Paul A. Wilkes, Michigan State University extension dairy specialist. The Michigan DHIA supervisors gave the go ahead to form the association at their annual meeting.

PURPOSES OF this organization include conforming with all regulations of the national DHIA program, improving relations between supervisors and local associations, setting standards of training for new DHIA supervisors and providing better service to dairy farmers.

A similar association has been in operation in Pennsylvania for 25 years. The second was formed just last year in Iowa.

THE MICHIGAN organization will hold frequent meetings in seven districts of the state.

The following supervisors were elected district directors: Robert Reed, Brimley; Chriss Esch, Mio; George Hazle, St. Johns; Henry DeWitte, Fremont; Wilbur Singer, Mason; Ervin Klusendorf, Armada; and Raymond Fish, Romeo.

Klusendorf is the president of the newly formed association. Vice president is George Hazle and Roy Fish serves as secretary-treasurer.

Good communication includes conditioning people for the acceptance of ideas.

Beware of Covetousness

Are you dissatisfied and always wanting what you do not have? Jesus said, "Beware of covetousness; for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things he possesseth" (Luke 12:15). What does 'covetousness' mean? Webster says, "Inordinately desirous of something belonging to someone else." Actually it is the constant desire rising up within us to have things we do not now possess. Jesus said to be on guard against such a spirit. In Hebrews 13:5 we are instructed to live without covetousness and be content with such things as ye have! The sin of covetousness breeds unthankfulness and discontent. When a person is always occupied with what he doesn't have he is never happy for what he does have. God is robbed of thanksgiving and man is robbed of contentment. We are especially tempted to commit this sin in these days due to modern advertising methods which are purposely designed to prey upon this human weakness. Much unhappiness, even among Christians, can be traced to this sin in the heart. Search it out, condemn it and confess it that it might be cleansed away. Remember, "Godliness with contentment is great gain" (1 Timothy 6:8). This gives rise to much thankfulness that pleases God.

City of St. Johns Ordinance No. 185—Water Supply and Sewage Disposal

ORDINANCE NO. 185

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE ACQUISITION AND CONSTRUCTION OF ADDITIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS TO THE WATER SUPPLY AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM OF THE CITY OF ST. JOHNS; PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF REVENUE BONDS OF EQUAL STANDING WITH THE OUTSTANDING REVENUE BONDS TO PAY PART OF THE COST THEREOF; PROVIDING FOR OTHER MATTERS RELATIVE TO SAID BONDS AND THE SECURITY THEREOF.

WHEREAS, it is deemed necessary by the City Commission of the City of St. Johns, County of Clinton, Michigan, and for the benefit of the public health and welfare of said City, to acquire additions and improvements to the Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System of the City, consisting of a water treatment plant, discharge main, transmission mains and storage tank, together with necessary appurtenances and attachments, said described additions and improvements being hereinafter referred to collectively as the "project;" and

WHEREAS, the total estimated cost of the project has been estimated by Ayres, Lewis, Norris & May, engineers of Ann Arbor, Michigan, to be One Million Fifty Seven Thousand ($1,057,000.00) Dollars; and

WHEREAS, the City of St. Johns, by Ordinance No. 141 duly adopted on February 15, 1956 has heretofore issued and sold Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System Revenue Bonds in the aggregate principal sum of Five Hundred Ninety-Five Thousand ($595,000.00) Dollars, dated April 1, 1956, having serial maturities on July 1st of each of the years 1957 through 1987, inclusive, for the purpose of acquiring and constructing additions, extensions and improvements to the Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System of the City of St. Johns; and

WHEREAS, Section 21 of Ordinance No. 141 authorizes the issuance of additional bonds of equal standing with the bonds authorized and issued pursuant to said Ordinance, for the following purposes and upon the following conditions:

SECTION 21. The right is reserved, in accordance with the provisions of Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended, to issue additional bonds payable from the revenues of the System, which shall be of equal standing with the bonds herein authorized but only for the following purposes:

(a) To complete the public improvements in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor, and such bonds shall not be authorized unless the consulting engineers, or the successor engineers in charge of construction, shall execute a certificate evidencing the fact that additional funds are needed to complete the public improvements in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor. If such certificate shall be so executed and filed with the City Clerk, it shall be the duty of the City Commission to provide for and issue additional revenue bonds in the amount stated in said certificate to be necessary to complete the public improvements in accordance with the plans and specifications.

(b) For subsequent extensions and improvements to the System; Provided, that no such additional bonds shall be issued unless the average annual net revenues for the last two (2) preceding completed operating years of the System, when supplemented by the net revenues estimated to accrue from the extensions and improvements to be acquired, and/or when supplemented by the net revenues estimated to accrue from an increase in rates to be put into effect at the time such additional bonds are authorized, shall be equal to at least one and one-half (1 1/2) times the average annual principal and interest requirements thereafter maturing on the bonds herein authorized, on any then previously issued bonds of equal standing with the bonds herein authorized, and on such additional bonds then being issued. Prior to the issuance of any additional bonds pursuant to this paragraph, there shall be filed with the City Clerk a statement showing the average annual net revenues for the two (2) preceding completed operating years, the net revenues estimated to accrue from the proposed extensions and improvements, the net revenues estimated to accrue from said increase in rates, if any, and the average annual principal and interest requirements on all outstanding bonds payable from revenues of the System and the bonds proposed to be issued. Said statement shall be executed by a registered engineer appointed by the City and by an engineer designated by the Municipal Finance Commission (or such other State body having jurisdiction over the issuance of municipal bonds). Permission of the Municipal Finance Commission (or such other State body having jurisdiction over the issuance of municipal bonds) to issue such additional bonds shall constitute a conclusive presumption of the existence of conditions permitting the issuance thereof.

Except as herein authorized, no additional bonds having equal standing with the bonds of this issue shall be authorized or issued.

WHEREAS, the average net revenues of the System for the last two completed operating years next preceding the issuance of the bonds authorized to be issued by this Ordinance when supplemented by the net revenues from the rate increase put into effect are equal to not less than one hundred fifty per cent (150%) of the average principal and interest to fall due in any future operating year on the bonds now outstanding payable from the revenues of the Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System and on the additional bonds to be issued pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance; and

WHEREAS, all things necessary to the authorization and issuance of additional revenue bonds, to finance the cost of the additions and improvements hereinbefore described, under the Constitution and laws of the State of Michigan and ordinances of the City of St. Johns, and particularly Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended, and the aforesaid Ordinance No. 141, have been done, and the City Commission is now empowered and desires to authorize the issuance of said bonds;

Section 3. The cost of said project as estimated by said engineers in the amount of One Million Fifty Seven Thousand ($1,057,000.00) Dollars, including engineering, legal, financing and other incidental expenses in relation thereto, is hereby approved and confirmed.

Section 5. Said additional issue of bonds shall be designated WATER SUPPLY AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM REVENUE BONDS, SERIES II, and shall be not general obligations of the City but revenue bonds payable out of the net revenues of the System, and shall consist of either two hundred (200) coupon bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, or forty (40) coupon bonds of the denomination of $5,000.00 each, but not both, dated as of September 1, 1965, numbered consecutively in directorate of maturity from 1 upwards, and payable serially as follows:

The right is reserved of redeeming bonds of this issue maturing in the years 1977 to 1982, both inclusive, on any interest payment date on or after July 1, 1976, at par and accrued interest, plus premiums in accordance with the following schedule:

1% of par value on each bond called for redemption on or after July 1, 1976, but prior to January 1, 1980; 1/2 of 1% of par value on each bond called for redemption on or after January 1, 1980, but prior to maturity.

Callable bonds shall be redeemed in inverse numerical order, except that such bonds bearing interest in excess of two per cent (2%) per annum may be redeemed before bonds bearing interest at a lower rate.

Thirty days notice of the call of any bonds for redemption shall be given by publication in a paper circulated in the State of Michigan which carries, as part of its regular service, notices of sale of municipal bonds, and in case of registered bonds, thirty days notice shall be given by mail to the registered address. Bonds so called for redemption shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption, provided funds are on hand with the paying agent to redeem said bonds.

Said bonds may be registered as to principal only in the manner and with the effect set forth on the face thereof, as hereinafter provided.

Said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the City Clerk, shall have the City seal affixed thereto, and shall have interest coupons attached bearing the facsimile signatures of said Mayor and City Clerk, and said officials, by the execution of said bonds, shall adopt as and for their own proper signatures their respective facsimile signatures on said coupons.

Section 6. The Bond Reserve Account in the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund as established by Section 15, subsection (B) of the 1956 ordinance shall be increased by depositing into said Bond Reserve Account in equal quarterly installments from the revenues remaining in the Receiving Fund, after providing for the current requirements of the Operation and Maintenance Fund and the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund in the manner required by Section 15, subsections (A) and (B) of the 1956 ordinance, the sum of $10,000.00 in the operating year commencing July 1, 1965, and the sum of $5,000.00 in each of the operating years beginning July 1, 1966, July 1, 1967 and July 1, 1968, so that a total Bond Reserve Account of $55,000.00 shall be established by the end of the operating year commencing July 1, 1968. All of the provisions of Section 15, subsection (B) of the 1956 ordinance relative to the use of said Bond Reserve Account moneys, the maintenance thereof, and other details thereof shall be as specified in said 1956 ordinance, said Bond Reserve Account moneys to be considered as a reserve for the payment of principal of and interest on all bonds payable from the net revenues of the System.

Section 7. Except as otherwise provided by this Ordinance, all the provisions and covenants of the 1956 ordinance shall apply to the bonds issued pursuant to this Ordinance the same as though each of said provisions and covenants were repeated in this Ordinance in detail, the purpose of this Ordinance being to authorize the issuance of additional revenue bonds, of equal standing with the outstanding bonds, to acquire and construct additions and improvements to the System; bonds for such purpose being authorized by the provisions of Section 21 of the 1956 ordinance upon compliance with the conditions precedent to their issue as therein specified.

Section 8. The proceeds of sale of the bonds herein authorized to be issued shall be deposited in the Clinton National Bank and Trust Company of St. Johns, Michigan, a bank insured with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Any premium or accrued interest paid by the purchaser of said bonds shall be transferred to the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund. The balance of the proceeds of sale shall be used only to pay the cost of the additions and improvements herein authorized to be made and any engineering, legal or other expenses incidental thereto. Any unexpended balance of the proceeds of sale, after completion of the additions and improvements herein authorized to be made, may, to the extent of Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars, be used for further additions, extensions and improvements to the System provided that at the time of such expenditure the approval of the Municipal Finance Commission to such use be obtained. Any balance remaining after such expenditure or, in the event of no such expenditure, the entire balance, shall be paid into the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund and shall be used for the redemption of callable bonds or prior to the first call date only purchasing bonds on the open market at not more than the first call price. The proceeds of sale of the bonds herein authorized may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America as authorized by Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended.

Section 9. The bonds and coupons shall be in substantially the following form:

CARE OF CLOTHES

Too-tight shirt collars and too-tight socks can make the wearer highly-uncomfortable in the hot weather. Put yours away 'til next winter . . . Wash-and-wear shirts will dry out smoother, without puckered seams, if the last rinse water is cool, rather than hot . . . 1966, and semi-annually thereafter on July 1st and January 1st of each year. The interest rate on any one bond shall be at one rate only, and all bonds maturing in any one year must carry the same interest, and each coupon period shall be represented by one interest coupon. Both principal and interest shall be payable at the Detroit Bank & Trust Company, Detroit, Michigan. Accrued interest to the date of delivery of the bonds shall be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

THE BONDS WILL mature serially as follows: $10,000.00 July 1st of each year from 1967 to 1974, inclusive; $15,000.00 July 1st of each year from 1975 to 1982, inclusive.

The right is reserved of redeeming bonds of this issue maturing in the years 1977 to 1982, both inclusive, on any interest payment date on or after July 1, 1976, at par and accrued interest, plus premiums in accordance with the following schedule:

1% of par value on each bond called for redemption on or after July 1, 1976, but prior to January 1, 1980; 1/2 of 1% of par value on each bond called for redemption on or after January 1, 1980, but prior to maturity.

Callable bonds shall be redeemed in inverse numerical order, except that such bonds bearing interest in excess of two percent (2%) per annum may be redeemed before bonds bearing interest at a lower rate.

THIRTY DAYS notice of the call of any bonds for redemption shall be given by publication in a paper circulated in the State of Michigan which carries, as part of its regular service, notices of sale of municipal bonds, and in case of registered bonds, thirty days notice shall be given by mail to the registered address. Bonds so called for redemption shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption, provided funds are on hand with the paying agent to redeem said bonds.

The bonds are to be issued under the authorization of Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended, and Ordinance No. ___ of the City adopted on July ___, 1965, and Ordinance No. 141 adopted February 15, 1956, for the purpose of paying part of the cost of acquiring additions and improvements to the Water Supply and Sewer Disposal System of the City. The bonds will not be a general obligation of the City, but will be payable solely from the net revenues of the said System of the City, and for the payment of the principal of and interest on said bonds and on any additional bonds of equal standing issued pursuant to the terms of said Ordinance, a statutory first lien has been created on the net revenues of the System, including any additions, extensions and improvements thereto. Said bonds shall be of equal standing with $595,000.00 Water Supply and Sewage Disposal Revenue Bonds of the City dated April 1, 1956.

ADDITIONAL bonds of equal standing with the bonds of this issue may be issued but only for the purposes and on the terms and conditions expressed in the aforesaid Ordinances.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from (here insert the first day of the month next following the date of receiving bids, or the date of the bonds, whichever is later) to their maturity, and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the City.

No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds, or at a price less than 100% of their par value will be considered.

A CERTIFIED or cashier's check in the amount of $4,000.00, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company, payable to the order of the City Treasurer of the City of St. Johns, must accompany each bid as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest will be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys of Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds, which opinion will be furnished without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof and which opinion will be printed on each bond. Executed bonds will be delivered to the purchaser without expense. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan. The bonds will be accompanied by the usual closing documents, including a certificate that no litigation is pending affecting the issuance of the bonds.

THE RIGHT is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

Persons requesting further information concerning these bonds should contact the Michigan Municipal League, 428 Townsend Street, Lansing 48933 Michigan (telephone: IVanhoe 9-3485).
