Car lost in garage blaze

Fire severely damaged a garage on North Lansing Street Monday afternoon. A 1962 automobile was lost in the blaze.

Firemen were summoned about 3:45 p.m. to the garage at the rear of the Ervin Mishler home at 202 N. Lansing where smoke was billowing from both the downstairs and upstairs portions. Firemen knocked the blaze down in about 15 minutes, but it had gotten a good start and severely damaged the garage.

A 1962 AUTO belonging to Mr and Mrs Mishler was parked in the closed garage at the time and was damaged so bad by heat and flames it was considered a total loss.

The two-car partitioned garage is used jointly by Mishler and a neighbor, Donald Low of 204 N. Lansing. Low's side of the building escaped serious damage, with only a corner of one wall being burned.

THE BLAZE, of undetermined origin, apparently started at the rear of the garage on Mishler's side. It burned walls and ceiling downstairs and spread between wallboard to the upstairs attic of the garage.

Fire Chief Clare Moler estimated damage to the garage to at least $1,500, which does not include the car. Insurance adjusters had not yet made their calculations of the loss Tuesday noon.

THE FIRE was discovered and reported by Mrs Low at 3:45 p.m.

Stephenson promoted in Penney organization

Edward W. Stephenson, manager of the St. Johns J. C. Penney store since February 1954, has accepted transfer to the management of the company's larger retail operation at Cadillac. There he succeeds Dwane Fowler who is retiring after 30 years as Penney manager.

Stephenson is taking over at Cadillac today (Thursday) and is succeeded here by Jerry Knupp, 37, of Wilmington, Del.

Stephenson said Knupp was due to arrive in St. Johns Wednesday. He is married and has four children. Knupp joined J. C. Penney's in 1951 at Harrisburg, Va., and comes here from a job as assistant manager at the Wilmington store.

IN ADDITION to his successful management of the Penney store here, Stephenson has occupied a prominent position in the area's civic life and has played an important role in community affairs.

He has been president of the St. Johns Rotary Club and the St. Johns Chamber of Commerce. He has served a term of the City Planning Commission and was a member of the board of the First Congregational Church of St. Johns.

A native of Gallatin, Mo., he began his association with the Penney company there in 1941. Before coming to St. Johns he was with the Penney organization in stores in Chillicothe, Mo., Quincy, Ill., and Springfield, Ill.

HE SUCCEEDED Robert Nutter as manager of the local store 10 years ago.

The Stephensons live here at 408 S. Kibbee Street. They plan to move to Cadillac as soon as Passerby help firemen and sheriff's deputies free James Fox from behind the wheel of his car after it was involved in a collision early Sunday afternoon. Five persons in the two cars were seriously hurt.

Requests ballot designation

Victor H. Meir of Williamston, Republican candidate for state senator in the new 30th District, has requested the ballot designation "former assistant attorney general."

Meir said he did so because there is another candidate by the name of Meier—Lamont Meier of Byron—seeking the same office.

THE 30th District includes all of Clinton, Gratiot and Shiawassee counties and parts of Eaton, Ingham and Montcalm.

Ovid-Elsie board set; 3 propositions pass

Ovid and Elsie voters Friday chose a new board to run the new school district and gave approval to three measures that will help get the district off to a smooth start.

Seven men were elected to the new board. They were:

Stanley Loznak and Donald Craig for four-year terms; Francis Johnson and Raymond Stewart for three-year terms; Harold Green and Ellsworth Cook for two-year terms; and Frank Rivest Jr. for a one-year term.

PROPOSITION No. 1, to authorize the new board to operate school buses, was approved by a vote of 1,088 to 130, with 15 ballots spoiled.

Proposition No. 2, setting board salaries at $100 for the president and trustees, $200 for the secretary and $300 for the treasurer, was given a vote of 954 yes and 260 no, with 19 ballots spoiled.

Proposition No. 3 asked voters to approve a millage increase of two mills for the three-year period to provide additional funds for operating expenses. Voters went along with it, giving the proposal 796 yes votes, compared to 415 no votes. There were 22 ballots spoiled.

ALL THE NEW board members have served the schools before, either as members of the separate school boards or as members of the interim board.

Loznak, of Elsie, has been president, secretary and trustee of the Elsie board for several years and was secretary of the interim board. He works for the Ann Arbor Railway and also operates the Elsie Real Estate Co.

Craig has been a member of the Ovid school board for several years and was also on the interim board. He is a Middlebury Township farmer.

5 are recovering after rural crash

A grinding, head-on crash on a rural road early Sunday afternoon seriously injured five local young men, but hospital authorities in both St. Johns and Lansing said all were "satisfactory" Tuesday.

The crash occurred Sunday at 1 p.m. in front of the Leo Fedewa home on South Forest Hill Road, a quarter mile south of Church Road.

Most seriously injured were the two drivers, James Fox, 20, of R-2, St. Johns, and Gary Leroy Martens, 18, of R-4, who lived just half a mile south of the crash scene.

Both were reported in "satisfactory" condition at St. Lawrence Hospital in Lansing but still were under intensive care. Fox suffered multiple fractures, broken legs, internal injuries and cuts and bruises. Martens also had multiple fractures, cuts and bruises.

Three passengers in Fox's car suffered facial lacerations and other cuts and bruises about the body and also were in "satisfactory" condition at Clinton Memorial Hospital Tuesday. They were Robert Vitek, 20, and his brothers Raymond, 19, and John, 17, all of R-2, St. Johns.

Fox is the son of Mr and Mrs Charles Fox. Martens is the son of Mr and Mrs Howard Martens, and the Vitek's parents are Mr and Mrs Alex Vitek.

Because of the seriousness of their injuries, Clinton County sheriff's deputies Tuesday had been unable to question the two drivers to determine the actual cause of the crash. It occurred on the brow of a hill and appeared to be in the northbound lane of the gravel road. Deputies Hilary Hiner and Bruce Wilcox, who investigated, said Martens was traveling north and Fox south on Forest Hill Road.

Fox's right rear fender was 12 feet from the east side of the road and 14 feet from the west side, according to the report.

Three ambulances were used to carry the injured to the hospitals. All were taken first to Clinton Memorial, but Fox's and Martens' injuries appeared so serious they were immediately sent on to St. Lawrence in Lansing.

Fire broke out in the cars after the crash, and the St. Johns volunteer fire department dispatched two trucks to the scene. Persons in the Fedewa home at the time put out the blaze, however, with water, dirt and gravel and fire extinguishers.

Fox was pinned in the wreckage and had to be removed by firemen. The fire department's resuscitator unit was used.

Tom Beechler has been elected commander of the Veterans Honor Guard of St. Johns by its members. Beechler is a charter member of the organization and has been active in its organization. Other officers elected were Lloyd Peterson, executive officer, and Joseph Toth, administrative and finance officer. The outgoing and first commander of the Honor Guard is Herbert Estes Jr.

Local man critical after tree crash

Jack Hudson, 43, of 207 N. Mead Street was critically injured early Tuesday morning when his car struck a tree in Lansing.

Hudson was first brought to Clinton Memorial Hospital in St. Johns and then transferred to Edward Sparrow Hospital in Lansing.

TUESDAY EVENING he was reported still under intensive care and on the critical list. His condition was still being evaluated, according to the hospital.

Lansing police said Hudson's car hit a tree at the corner of Sheridan Road and Creston Street at 2:12 a.m. Tuesday. A witness to the accident said Hudson appeared to be turning onto Creston from Sheridan but instead hit the tree.

POLICE SAID Hudson told them he went to sleep and had been driving about 30 miles per hour just before going to sleep. There were no skid marks leading up to the tree, police said.

Hudson was traveling alone in the car.

Workmen use shovels to scoop up pickles spilled over the Robert Hathaway lawn west of St. Johns Saturday morning. Some 450 bushels of them were on this truck which crashed when the driver apparently went to sleep. He was unhurt. Inset shows crumpled cab of truck.

450 bushels of pickles scatter as truck upsets

A Ravenna truck driver escaped unhurt, but his pickles didn't, in a crash Saturday morning on M-21 three and a half miles west of St. Johns.

The driver, Dale Kass, 20, of Ravenna was driving east on M-21 about 4:50 a.m. when he apparently went to sleep. His flat-bed semi-trailer truck left the road, struck a driveway culvert, jackknifed and partially overturned.

CUCUMBERS—450 bushels of them—were scattered across the lawn of the Robert Hathaway farm on the south side of the highway. Some were thrown as far as the front porch of the Hathaway home, about 75 feet from where the truck stopped.

Mrs Hathaway said if the truck hadn't hit the culvert, it probably would have continued across the lawn and into the home.

KASS JUMPED from the truck before it overturned.

The cucumbers had been pickled Friday and were on their way to Imlay City. They and the truck were owned by the Wesley Swanson Pickle Co. of Ravenna. Another truck was dispatched from Ravenna to St. Johns to pick up the pickles and carry them on to their destination.

Police Chief Everett Glazier and Mayor Jack Smit hold plaque won by the people of St. Johns for their pedestrian safety record in the last two years.

City cited for "excellent" pedestrian safety record

For its efforts in promoting pedestrian safety, the city of St. Johns was honored last Tuesday with a two-year Pedestrian Safety Citation from the American Automobile Assn.

The plaque symbolizing the award was presented to Mayor Jack Smit at last week's city commission meeting. Floyd M. Malott, district representative of the Automobile Club of Michigan at Lansing, presented the award.

MALOTT, in presenting the award, cited local police and other interested safety officials, including the schools, for "carrying out an obviously effective pedestrian safety program." He also commended St. Johns citizens for their careful driving and walking practices.

St. Johns had no pedestrian deaths and only one injury in 1963. The city competed with 668 other cities across the country in the under-10,000 class to gain the award, which resulted from entry in the 1964 A/A National Pedestrian Protection program. It was the first year St. Johns has won a special award from AAA.

MAYOR SMIT, speaking for the people of the city, said he was "proud to accept this" and said he would see that it was hung in the office of the chief of police.

"Keep up this record," Malott told Smit, "and St. Johns will soon have the grand award for excellence."

Report bean beetle damage

A serious infestation of Mexican bean beetle was reported near DeWitt Tuesday afternoon by Extension Agent George McQueen.

McQueen said that unless the affected fields are sprayed immediately it might be a matter of only a few days before the entire field is gone. The beetle attacks red and white beans.

THREE OR four large fields west of DeWitt are reportedly affected. McQueen said the beetles multiply rapidly and will completely strip a field if not checked in time.

He recommended Sevin or Malathion, or possibly even DDT as a counter measure. The beetles have been seen in gardens for the last week, he said, but the DeWitt findings were the first field bean infestation reported.

He said all county farmers should check their bean crops. The beetle is a little yellow larva, which looks like it is covered with black hairs. It is found on the underside of bean leaves and will eat at the leaf from the underside.

Planners study freeways

A Freeway Reservation Policies Report was adopted by the governmental coordinating committee of the Tri-County Regional Planning Commission last week. The commission itself will take formal action on the recommendations at its August meeting.

THE REPORT points out the need for reserving rights-of-way of future freeways to prevent development from occurring within future highway beds. The policies, recommended for immediate implementation, will require the cooperation of all affected local levels of government, the commission stated.

THE RECOMMENDED policies are: 1) the preparation of a freeway plan by the State Highway Department and its adoption by the local units of government; 2) based on the freeway plan, the adoption of "official maps" by the local units controlling the issuance of building permits within the mapped freeway beds; 3) adoption of policy statements by local governments indicating an intent to disapprove new subdivisions and zone change requests within the future freeway right-of-way; 4) Start of advance acquisition procedures by the highway department and the local participating governments.

THE PREPARATION of the precise freeway plan by the highway department would, the commission committee said, determine the exact location of a proposed freeway, once adopted by the local units.

Mail carrier in accident

Two cars were involved in a crash Monday morning on M-21 in Ovid Township.

Cars driven by Ronald C. Hyler, 48, of 301 Church Street, St. Johns, a rural mail carrier, and Bernard A. Wilfong, 23, of Grand Rapids collided just west of Henderson Road. Neither person was injured.

HYLER TOLD Deputy Sheriff Hilary Hafner he came off the shoulder of the road onto the pavement and was on the pavement before being struck in the rear by Wilfong's car. Wilfong said Hyler's car pulled out directly in front of him. The accident occurred at 9:10 a.m.

Hyler continued his mail deliveries in another car.

Cropsey files for representative

Harmon Cropsey of Watertown Township, has filed for state representative on the Republican ticket in the new Eighty-eighth District.

Cropsey is a native of Michigan, having attended Michigan State University, and he graduated from Iowa State University in 1938. Prior to World War II he was a 4-H extension agent and farm manager for the Iowa Canning Co.

DURING the war Cropsey served in the Naval Air Corps as navigator and pilot. He flew 43 missions with Bombing Squadron 110 in the European theater of operations and was awarded the air medal and Distinguished Flying Cross. Following military service Cropsey started off on his own with a large farming operation, first in Iowa, and 1951 he moved to Michigan.

During the latter part of the fifties he became aware that the victory we had won at great cost in World War II, was gradually "being eroded by apathy at home and a no-win foreign policy abroad." He believes the ever-increasing power of the state and federal government to regulate and control business and the individual must be called to a halt.

IN 1961 HE sold his 320 acre farm and has devoted all his time and effort to encouraging citizens to become active participants in their government. For the last three years he has served as legislative agent as a watch-dog of the public interest in the field of education at the state capitol.

Crash on county line hurts man

A Holt man suffered a cut nose Friday evening about 5:30 when his car crashed in a ditch just inside Clinton County on Wood Road in DeWitt Township.

State police said Roger Wellington, 29, of Holt, suffered only facial cuts, although he was carried from the scene and taken to Edward W. Sparrow Hospital by ambulance as a precautionary measure.

WELLINGTON was traveling north on Wood Road and was eating a sandwich when the car went onto the shoulder of the road and he lost control. The car skidded and bounced into a ditch, hit a tree stump and overturned.

The car left the road right at the Clinton-Ingham County line and wound up 159 feet inside Clinton County. It was a total loss. Traffic on Wood Road was held up for about 15 minutes.

Gets 90 days for joyriding

Terry Lee Winters, 18, of 909 E. Grand River, Lansing, was sentenced to 90 days in jail Monday on a charge of joyriding.

Winters was picked up in Owosso June 21 in a car that had been stolen from Ray Smith of Fowler over a week before. He was charged with joyriding when officers determined he did not steal the car but did know it was stolen.

Winters will be given credit for time already spent in jail and will be released no later than Sept. 20.

City buys new Ford truck

The city commission last Tuesday accepted a bid for a new Ford truck for the Department of Public Works for a new price of $1,613.47.

The truck is to be purchased from Egan Ford Sales, and a 1956 International truck is being traded in on the new one. Commissioners decided on the Ford truck on the basis of the combination of price and delivery time.

EGAN SAID the truck is on hand and could be delivered as soon as it is painted yellow, the color ordered in the specifications.

Egans' bid was for $2,189.39, less $579.92 for trade-in.

Other bids were: Pohl Brothers, Chevrolet truck, $1,728.22, less $50 for trade, for a net bid of $1,678.22 with delivery in 45 days; and Montague Oliver Implement Sales, International truck, $2,138 less $693 for trade, for a net bid of $1,445 with delivery in 30 days.

THE COMMISSION expressed the opinion that the truck was needed immediately and so for that reason by-passed the actual low bid.

On two other bid items last week, the commission delayed action. They will ask for rebidding on an air conditioner for the library because the bids turned in at the meeting included different installation work. Until the engineer's tabulation and recommendation on bids for water mains is received, the commission will not act on bids already received for the mains.

Work on Garage Fire

Blistered paint, blackened wood, smoke and action were all ingredients at this blaze at the garage of Ervin Mishler, 202 N. Lansing Street, Monday afternoon. A car was lost in the fire. Fire Chief Clare Maier is at left.

Fowler to ask new millage for high school addition

The Fowler board of education will ask voters in a special election Aug. 29 to approve an additional millage to build a $260,000 addition to Fowler High School.

A rising enrollment that already surpasses the designs of the building makes additional room mandatory, the board said. With the opening of school this year, the board said, there will be approximately 190 students enrolled in high school. The building is designed to handle about 175.

"IT CAN be seen that we will be overcrowded this school year," the board said in a letter to district residents, "particularly in the special areas such as shop, home economics, commercial and science. The toilet facilities also will be inadequate.

"In addition, it will be necessary to eliminate some courses

Ovid Dems Club hears Ferency

The Ovid Township Democratic Club met July 20 in the Ovid Village Hall to hear an address by Zolton Ferency, state Democratic chairman.

The address was centered around the topic of the role of local organizations in the development of a strong and effective two-party system at all levels in the State of Michigan.

THE OVID Township Democratic Club was formed in March of this year and now has 31 active members. Interested voters from other parts of the county are invited to participate in the regularly scheduled meetings. The next meeting will be Sept. 14.

FIRST THINGS FIRST, MOM

What would you do first if you were too young for a driver's license, but could handle that Allis-Chalmers B-10 tractor as skillfully as an old pro?

Well, naturally!

Besides, when a real tractor like the B-10 shows up on your lawn who's gonna notice what's parked in the driveway?

When people ask you can say you bought the B-10 because it does a jillion jobs for you—(if fun isn't reason enough).

It'll mow grass, haul trash, pull a roller, till a garden—throw snow next winter—using tools you buy same as a farmer buys implements.

So don't wait to get the car washed... drive on over and let us show you the B-10!

Michigan's Greatest OUTDOOR SHOW!

Little League under way

Teams were chosen and play started Monday evening on St. Johns first official Little League.

Sixty boys were chosen as players on four baseball teams—Tigers, Yankees, Sox and Cubs. They were picked last Thursday night by 11 adults who have volunteered as team managers and coaches.

EIGHTY-SIX boys between the ages of 8 and 12 participated in tryouts July 16 and July 23. After the tryout session last Thursday, the managers and coaches huddled and "bought" their players with mythical money, with the players going to the highest bidder.

Teams were balanced as closely as possible, with each having about an equal number of players of each age. Eighteen games are on the summer's schedule, with each team playing nine times.

GAMES ARE being played at 8 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights at the main field in the city park.

Ex-hurler Feller shows how

A major league baseball pitcher is almost always popular with boys, whether he is a current player or whether he pitched in dad's day. Bob Feller, one-time ace of the Cleveland Indians pitching staff, proved that here last Tuesday.

Feller was brought to town by E. G. Tupper, manager of the St. Johns Dog 'n Suds drive-in on North US-27. Feller flew in his own airplane to bring his Little League Baseball Clinic to St. Johns youngsters.

DESPITE hardly any advance warning, over 50 boys and some of their parents were at the Dog 'n Suds parking lot last Tuesday to get tips from the famous hurler.

Tupper said he sponsored Feller here to help boost interest in Little League baseball, which is in the process of being organized in St. Johns.

FOR OVER an hour, Feller helped the boys on different aspects of baseball—how to throw several kinds of pitches, how to bunt and how to catch different pitches.

He told young pitchers they should warm up while wearing sweatshirts and that this will help prevent sore arms. He told them to live clean; don't smoke and drink, he told them, and be sure to get in bed by 11 p.m. An hour's sleep before midnight is worth two after midnight, he said.

FELLER WAS met at Dickinson Airport southwest of town by a contingent of local people, including city officials and Little League ball players.

On hand were Chamber of Commerce President Bernard Feldpausch, Chamber Secretary Percy Abrams, Acting City Manager Kenneth Greer, Recreation Director Roger Kowalski, Police Chief Everett Glazier, baseball director Bill Smiley, Dog 'n Suds Manager Tupper and about a dozen Little League hopefuls.

3 compete for ladies' golf title

The Ladies' Central Michigan Golf Tournament was held at Portland last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Clubs from St. Johns, Clare, Alma, Ithaca and Portland are in the Central League, and 32 members played in the tournament.

Three were from the local Green Tee Club. Mrs Charles Watson was in championship flight and won from Grace Megarah on Tuesday but lost to Joan Barley Wednesday.

MRS LESTER Lake lost the first day to Neva Hokenson but won over Agatha Davenport and Leona Blank to become winner of the first flight consolation.

Mrs Joe Ricker won all three of her matches, besting Dawn Gaunt, Betty Crayell and Jean Husby to become the winner of the second flight.

BETTY CARTER of Alma beat Joan Barley of Portland to become champion of the tournament.

Medalist on the first day was Jean Dudley of Lansing, and prizes for the low putts were awarded to Vera Austin, Jean Dudley and Leona Blank. Medalist and champion of the nine-hole tournament was Mary Terry of Portland.

A BANQUET was held at the Portland Country Club Tuesday evening, and Mrs Charles Dickenson and Mrs Lake attended from here.

John Spicer of Fowler tees off Saturday morning in the Clinton County Country Club's best ball tournament. Spicer teamed with Dick Dawdy of Portland. Floyd Conklin and Jim Ruetter of Lansing also were in the foursome.

Visiting duo wins best-ball tourney

Determining the winners of the Clinton County Country Club's Best-Ball Tournament Saturday took some doing, and everybody was "in the dark" about the outcome, even the winners.

It was dark outside when John Tews of Bay City dropped a 15-foot putt on the fourth extra hole to earn the championship for himself and his partner, Dave Harrison of Midland.

Hankey, 1964 state amateur champ and Barry Dean, had an off-day and finished at 106, two under par. It was not enough to place them in the first 10.

JOHN HOPKO, co-manager of the tournament with William Pautke, said a gallery of about 100 persons was on hand during the playoff, despite the darkness. The players returned to the clubhouse at 9:30 p.m.

Forty-four teams competed this year, making it the largest tournament in the history of local best-ball play. Twenty-two other teams were turned down on attempts to enter, Hopko said, because there wasn't room to put them on the schedule.

MERCHANDISE worth $200 went to the winners.

Besides those in the playoff, these teams finished in the top 10: Wayne Kramer-Larry Cunningham, 100; Phil Marston-John Kurzynowski, 101; Dick Marr-Bob Meyer, and Bill Whitte-Merle Blackmer, 102; Ed Sullivan - Jim Gittleman, 103; Art Kirchen-Jack Curry, and Lou Sosnowski - Doug Walker, 104; John Hopko (St. Johns)-Otto Schobel, Joe Bartolucci-Mo Keyser, and Mike O'Neil-Gary Pageau, 105.

Group gets first-hand look at teen club

Eight St. Johns teenagers journeyed to Tecumseh last Wednesday afternoon to learn first-hand what goes with the forming of a teen club. A similar club may be formed here.

Included in the group were Jan Miller, Sherry Kentfield, Debbie Strouse, Lee Hill, Brenda Purvis, Al Werbish, John Vitek and Tom Maier. Accompanying them were Mr and Mrs Raymond Kentfield Jr., Mr and Mrs Roger Kowalski, Mrs William Morriss and Leroy Hansen.

THE GROUP was greeted at the Tecumseh Community Center by Don Moffatt, superintendent of parks and recreation, and John Hamilton, mayor pro-tem and founder of the teen club there. Also on hand were about 200 members of the teen club.

A tour of the community center and teen club was followed by a question and answer period concerning the problems of starting and then maintaining a club. The point stressed most was that the club had to be run by teens.

LATER in the afternoon, the St. Johns teens were taken swimming at the city-owned swimming hole, a gravel pit developed into a bathing beach. This was followed by a cook-out at Hamilton's home and a tour of the city, including the high school and library. The climax was a street dance sponsored by the Tecumseh teen club.

The day was both an enjoyable and profitable one, according to Recreation Director Kowalski, because many questions were answered and many new friends were made.

Lissa Knight tells of life in Germany

ELSIE—Lissa Knight was a long way from home when she observed her 17th birthday last week at a party. She is living with the Ernst Gehrke family including their daughter, Ursula in Hannover, Germany.

She is one of over 500 such young people spending the summer on a mission of good will and international understanding under the auspices of the Youth for Understanding Program.

Lissa writes that she is having a wonderful time and learning so much but two drawbacks seem evident from her letters. Ursula is the only one who speaks English in the family and sometimes even she can't understand Lissa. This caused much loneliness at first but she is now learning more German phrases.

Lissa has always lived on a farm and has never done much bicycle-riding until she was preparing to go to Germany. The hectic traffic made her frantic about trying to ride in the city.

SHE FOUND that it was necessary to walk miles and miles to school, garden, shopping or visiting friends so she got up nerve to try the five-mile ride to go swimming. "It was tiring but not so bad after all," she wrote.

They made frequent trips from the four-room apartment (consisting of a combination kitchen and bathroom, two bedrooms and a living room) to their garden 1 1/2 miles away. It covered 13/4 acres and includes a summer house. There, they picked the largest strawberries she had ever seen and cherries until she didn't want to see another one.

Lissa accompanied Ursula to school, which was in session six days a week from 8:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

THEY RODE a tram part way and walked miles. It required 45 minutes for one trip. There were also the regular trips to the open market, post office and to the better part of the city for shopping.

She wrote that she learned to eat everything her German family served but corned beef and herring. She found that part of Germany quite cold at times and suffered a cold with persisted for several days.

Middleland Canal from East and West Germany through Holland to the sea was an interesting sight as she watched some 20 barges from Hamburg, Bremen, Rotterdam and other cities ply up and down.

THEN, there was a trip to the zoo, a boat trip down the Elma River and the television program with appearances of President Johnson, Goldwater, Scranton and Wallace. There were discussions with the German youths concerning her views on the presidential election. She was not hesitant in confirming her faith in Johnson for the future.

Preston and Preston (The Defenders) was another program of interest to Lissa but it was dubbed in German.

Lissa and Ursula met the latter's English teacher in the American House in the US Information Center for an interesting evening where they saw two films on American Universities and the American colored people in athletics.

THEY WERE served ice cream sundaes (not as good as ours, she said) in Cafe Kabu and back to the American House for a Hootenanny by American folk singers.

Lissa has made good use of the local Library in Hannover where she found many English books. Among those that she read were "Oliver Twist" by Dickens and "All the Day Long" by Howard Spring.

Another trip of special interest was the New City Hall (200 years old) located near Marsh Lake. They saw various models of the city during different periods of history. There was one for 1689 and the 1945 model showed the city almost completely flattened by bombs of World War II.

THEY WENT to the tower of the capital building by both elevator and stairs after which they rested during a boat trip around the lake.

Lissa left the Detroit Metropolitan Airport on June 13, made stops at Newfoundland and Ireland, where they were delayed four hours. The plane passed over Holland to Hamburg, Germany where the young people remained over night at a youth hostel near the airport. Lissa went by train to Hannover, where she was met by her German family.

She was accompanied on the train by another Michigan girl, Dottie McDonald of Shelby, who is an exchange student spending the summer outside of Hannover.

THE ONLY inconvenience during the flight was when the zipper broke on her flight bag but she managed the trip without losing anything.

Lissa is planning to meet her two classmates of the past year in Meeden, Netherlands. Maureen Peck of rural Elsie is staying there while her German sister of the past year, Kirsten Rademacher who just left Elsie for her home in Lunenburg, Germany. The three girls plan a reunion before Lissa and Maureen return home.

Her address is: Miss Lissa Knight, 3 Hannover, Germany, Spanngangstr 10, c/o Ernst Gehrke.

Elsie pair tours Georgian Bay

ELSIE—Mr and Mrs Everett Rule have returned home from a most unusual and interesting week's vacation, cruising along Georgian Bay and the Thirty Thousand Islands.

Leaving Elsie by automobile, they crossed into Ontario at Port Huron and drove to Owen Sound where they visited relatives and then proceeded to the Islands, touching at Penetanguishene, Midland, Go Home and many of the islands which are rock and stone and void of any shrubbery or trees.

THEY followed the route taken by the Jesuit missionaries, Bellot and Champlain, where the country was involved in the War of 1812.

At Go Home, the only communication is the boat that stops once a day. Everything must be brought in by boat—dairy products, meat, fresh vegetables and fruits, household wares and furniture.

FOLLOWING the cruise, the Rules drove through Toronto and Hamilton to Windsor and met their brother-in-law and sister, Mr and Mrs Newton Ferguson of Lansing at Traverse City for a few days vacation.

Carl Workman rides high down Higham Street on a bicycle he made from plans in a national mechanics magazine. Other such bikes may appear soon as a result, he said.

Carl's riding high--4 feet high

You can almost truthfully say Carl Workman is riding around town with his head in the clouds.

Last Thursday he finished remodeling an old bicycle, and when he rides it he sits 50 inches—over four feet!—above the ground. That's several heads and shoulders above everybody else.

CARL, 16, is the son of Mr and Mrs Arden Workman of 409 Meadowview Drive. He got the idea for the high bike from Popular Mechanics magazine and did all the work himself except for some welding which he had done at a service station. The bicycle was licensed Friday.

His high bike was previously a 24-inch standard bike. He turned the frame upside down, relocated the pedal sprocket, extended the poles for the seat and the steering wheel and was in business. He is able to swing up and down with much more ease than one might expect at first.

HIS STEERING mechanism is a sawed-off automobile steering wheel. A little horn warns airplanes—and others—of his approach.

Carl and a friend, Dave Henry of 607 E. Higham, said Carl's bicycle is the first of its kind in St. Johns but that other boys are now rebuilding ones of their own.

Students NOT on vacation

Comes summer and many folks' thoughts turn to vacationing. College and high school students, however, think in different terms. For them, the season offers an opportunity to earn some money and to gain practical and on-the-job experience. Close to home employment for St. Johns area students includes playgrounds, restaurants, offices, stores and hospitals.

John Vitek, above, a senior at the St. Johns High School, is working on the farm of his father, Alex Vitek, during the summer.

Miss Pat Stevens, left, actually an ex-student this month having graduated from Central Michigan University in June, is playground supervisor at Perrin-Palmer School where she will teach fourth grade next year. She is supervising Monica Rogers, a student at St. Joseph School, on the jungle bars. Miss Stevens says the experience in the summer program will help her with her teaching.

Central Michigan University sophomore, Marcia Penix, is one of the swimming instructors at Veterans' Memorial pool in St. Johns this summer. She is giving instruction to Martin Szarka, a member of her class.

Linda Lewis, 1964 graduate of Rodney B. Wilson High School, is employed at the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co. this summer. She plans to attend Michigan State University where she will major in social science in the fall.

Between his ninth and tenth grades at Rodney B. Wilson High School, William Eldridge is spending the summer at work replenishing stock at Andy's IGA Store.

Clearing the tray carts and washing dishes at Clinton Memorial Hospital are among the jobs Terry Cornwell is doing in his summer work. He will be a senior student at Rodney B. Wilson High School in the fall.

Greg Penix is prepared for a day's work on the wheat stabilization program. He is employed by the ASC office in St. Johns and will return to his studies at Western Michigan University in September.

James Smit, who will be a junior student at Rodney B. Wilson High School this fall performs some of his duties as stock boy at the J. C. Penney store.

Mary Kay Meyer, a senior at Rodney B. Wilson High School next year, says her job as an assistant custodian at Federal-Mogul may be menial, but it makes money.

Finding the villain in farm-to-market cycle

Back in the Great Depression when the grocery bill was a major topic in every family budget session, there was a widespread belief food costs could be cut considerably if somehow we could "eliminate the middleman."

Now, in these generally prosperous times we are hearing some of the same talk—except that the unrest is presently settled among the nation's farmers and food producers, rather than the grocer's customers.

Small wonder, too, when a recent congressional study showed that retail food prices have increased 29 per cent in the past 16 years, while prices received by farmers have dropped 12 per cent in the same period.

OBVIOUSLY the percentage of the food dollar absorbed by the processing-packaging-shipping phases of the farm-to-market cycle has increased hugely in the years since 1948.

The Clinton area livestock man who can't sell his steers for enough to earn back the cost of feeding them is understandably unhappy when he sees the housewife still paying top prices for her Sunday roasts.

But pointing an accusing finger at the "middleman" on the basis of these simple statistics probably is unfair, and most certainly futile. The food processing industry actually is highly competitive and efficient, as evidenced by another statistical fact that food purchases take a much smaller share of the family income than they used to.

Fifteen years ago food cost 26 per cent of the average paycheck; now it's 19 per cent.

IN ANY CASE, before we can apprehend the villain, we must identify him.

This is the purpose of the recently-enacted congressional proposal to establish a national commission on food marketing to conduct a study of the food industry from the farm to the grocery store shelf.

That no link in the chain regards itself guilty of any gouging can be deduced from the fact that many processing and retailing industries joined all major farm organizations in urging the making of such a study.

If there is a solution to the distressing situation food producers presently face, this is the way to begin looking for it.

Vote . . . and know what you are voting for

The "Get Out the Vote" campaigns are beginning as November approaches. One attractive leaflet is entitled "Just One Vote" and is aimed squarely at the eligible voters who stay away from the polls. And they amount to a disgracefully large number.

In 1960, a presidential election year, more than a third of the voters failed to exercise their right of franchise—a right which is at the very heart of representative government and a free society. In the off-year elections of 1962 the showing was worse still, with more than half of the eligible voters staying away from the polls.

HOW IMPORTANT is one vote? It can actually determine the result. In recent elections, a mayor, a city treasurer, a councilman and a state legislator won office by just that margin.

And, moving up the ladder, the late President Kennedy's plurality in 1960 was less than one vote per precinct. His margin of victory was less than 120,000 votes out of almost 69 million cast.

SO MUCH FOR facts and figures. Another point needs stressing. The country doesn't need "Just Voters." It needs "Informed Voters"—men and women who study the issues and the positions of the candidates, all the way from town and country to Capitol Hill and the White House and know exactly what they are voting for.

So—vote, and vote intelligently for the people and the principles you believe in.

This Is a Vacation?

RAMBLIN' with Rink

BY LOWELL G. RINKER

This week: tales of the thin man, a story well calculated to keep me in suspenders.

Several weekends ago the Rinkers went over to Oceana County to spend some time with our folks, and I chanced to go to the beach at Lake Michigan with my best friend. It is surprising how the beach reflects a much different picture of oneself than does some other area of land.

I FELT like I was the original drawing of a sick man, complete with baseballs for knees. My chest reminded me of a white picket fence laying on its side. Everytime I scratched a mosquito bite, I thought I could hear a clatter of ribs, the same sound you'd get by dragging a stick along a picket fence.

I'm without a doubt underweight. The only time I didn't feel that way was last summer when I played 10 innings of softball, all the way in a drenching thundershower, with 20 other nuts (Teams from a radio station and a newspaper.).

I FOUND out last Tuesday I have good, rich, red blood, but you'd never know it by looking at me on the beach. There I'm just Rink, the friendly white ghost. I look bleached on the beach.

Please don't think I'm trying to downgrade myself. I'm a healthy man, who feels good, has never been sick with any prolonged disease and who doesn't plan to be. I try to be friendly, I use a smile as much as I can. I have a lovely family. I've got a good job and I live in a nice town. All this, despite being underweight. So, you see, I'm lucky.

BUT THE reason I point all this out is to show you that you have what could be Clinton County's funniest tourist attraction . . . If you only had some beaches.

—RINK

A Needed Change

BY W. E. DOBSON

There ought to be a law I vow,
As I fumble around for a cue,
That bathroom lights be standardized,
So a feller'd know what to do!
This groping about in a darkened room,
May be for some all right—
But as for me, I like to see
Where to turn on a bathroom light.

On some you push the button
'Ere into the room you embark,
'N some a button inside the door
Produces the vital spark;
On some you feel fer dangling string,
Or an object tied on tight—
'N some you reach for in despair
Of finding a bathroom light.

Some are secretly recessed
Where fingers dare not feel,
'N some you need to turn a crank
Above or below a reel;
Sometimes you have all day to look—
And no deadline to fight,
But you better try quite early
To discover the bathroom light!

There's other tales of woe, I know,
Other warnings still to heed—
But I'm most sympathetic,
For folks in their hour of need;
'Twould help our peace of mind a lot,
If instead of blackest night—
We knew just where to locate
That plagued bathroom light!

'Extremists' can hurt Goldwater

PERHAPS I'VE BEEN giving too much attention on this page in recent weeks to the Republican position in the coming November election.

But I think it needs clarification and understanding treatment which it hasn't always received at the hands of the ultraliberal columnists and commentators who never have had any use for the GOP.

The continued harping on civil rights and the insinuation that Republicans are somehow opposed to humanity in general is a disservice to the party and to the country. The record from the time of Lincoln to the recent vote of Republicans in Congress on civil rights legislation is ample proof of GOP concern and leadership in this area.

AS A REPUBLICAN, my principal objection to the Goldwater candidacy was the fear that campaign arguments would be twisted to emphasize the race issue. I was fearful that irresponsible people in both parties would grasp the opportunity to corral votes by appealing to deep-seated prejudices which exist in the North as well as the South.

An unquestioned majority of working Republicans, however, decided at San Francisco that the risk was worth taking; and fully responsible leaders, I'm sure, felt that time was running out for the party in its presentation of a clear-cut choice between Conservative and Liberal principles.

The Goldwater-Miller ticket does offer this distinct change. There can be no accusations of "me-tooism" which have been leveled at previous GOP aspirants to the Presidency.

LIKE OTHERS, I was discomfited by some of the verbiage in Senator Goldwater's acceptance speech. The reference to extremists and moderates seemed unnecessary and only served to complicate the situation for those who were trying to climb onto the bandwagon.

This, however, appears to be typical of the Goldwater approach . . . a campaign policy which will brook no compromise. Its effectiveness can only be tested as the vote-seeking progresses and with finality, of course, at the polls in November.

The dimensions of discontent in the nation are an unknown quantity at this time. The Goldwater aim is to appeal to this discontent and to the gnawing fear that Democratic leadership is carrying us over the brink into a Federally-supervised socialistic state.

WITH THE CAMPAIGN still in low gear, it appears just now that we have two groups of patriotic Americans in opposition to each other. While the implications in some of Senator Goldwater's speeches need further clarification, it seems that his views clash sharply with President Johnson's in the matter of extension of Federal regulation into the personal lives of US citizens.

Few of us can quarrel with the Senator's basic statements as enunciated in his acceptance speech: the importance of leaving to government only the things the individual cannot do for himself, and then going up the ladder of government from the township.

Neither can we argue seriously against dedication to constitutional principles and to an individual-based society; or speak of anything except total antipathy to communism, especially as it seeks to destroy free nations and the United States in particular.

BELIEVING IN ALL of this, as an overwhelming majority of Americans do, I can't subscribe to any doctrine which accuses many prominent citizens and public officials of plotting to destroy our freedoms or otherwise subvert the nation.

It is in this charge, if anywhere, that we part company with the supporters of Senator Goldwater. Just because you don't agree with people, you don't call them traitors.

The Goldwater people will do well to rid themselves once and for all of the extremist fringe which will do them more harm than good in the coming fracas.

'Educated fatheads' on court, says Fred

AS I SEE it this bunk of being tried by a jury of our peers, is a thing of the past.

We have a bunch of educated fatheads on our United States Supreme Court who will not temper justice with common sense.

Witness the number of cases in the last few years of where Communists have been convicted by common people like myself, only to be told by insinuation later on that we were plain dumb, and so let these monkeys go free.

Try and convict a rich man in this country and see how far you will get with this stumbling Supreme Court who tell us that they are only interested in justice, and yet they cannot agree among themselves, as you can read by the split decisions.

Yet when 12 dedicated people on a jury make a unanimous decision, it just doesn't mean a d— thing.

The average American today would be in jail for the things that this man Hoffa has been convicted of, but he is too big for the American government. The politicians are running scared of this boy, and if he is convicted of this latest charge I'll gamble that in three years from now a docile Supreme Court will show that the jury was wrong.

So why not have the United States Supreme Court decide all the cases in the first place. Just increase the number by about 1,000, and then we will all be happy and there will not have to be any appeals.

FRED FERRIS
Bannister, Mich.

Highway department likes name change

CONGRATULATIONS on your name change.

I'm sure your Democratic readers appreciate it, too, but not as much as our mailing room people who had an awful time getting "Clinton County Republican-News" all on one line on an addressograph plate.

And your comments on Mr Goldwater are well taken, too.

Best regards,

Aug. 3 deadline for voter registration

THE AMERICAN Legion Auxiliary and the St. Johns Woman's Club are urging women to register for the coming primaries.

In April, Secretary of State James Hare said that registration in Michigan was down 10 per cent from the 1962 figure.

Aug. 3 is the deadline for registering for the Sept. 1 primary.

Statistics show that while women voters outnumber men, a smaller percentage of women go to the polls and vote.

Students are told to study and think before they act. Should voters do less?

We certainly appreciate the time and effort given by your staff.

Warns of careless use of firearms

SOMETHING happened on our farm July 16 that still has me shook up. My son, Hugh, was operating our combine when a bullet from out of the east came whizzing through the heavy sheet metal of the combine, leaving a hole the size of the tip of my little finger, and then on into the other side denting it in.

I'm so thankful it didn't hit the driver or the tractor (as it could ricochet and maybe hit him then).

What can be done to warn people about carelessness with firearms? This wasn't a B-B gun by a long ways. If my son doesn't show up when he should, I'm going to be scared to death to look for him.

Please, whoever you are, don't use firearms unless you shoot into a hillside or where they have a shooting range. You might kill your friend and neighbor with your carelessness.

211 people who really cared

SEVERAL months ago a woman was brutally attacked time after time on the streets of New York City. Thirty-eight people admitted watching this attack and not lifting a finger or a telephone to save this woman's life. Every major publication in America has discussed this case of complete indifference to the life of another human being.

In St. Johns on Tuesday, July 21, 211 people came to the Congregational Church, willingly giving up their own free time to save the life of unknown numbers of human beings.

They did more than pick up a telephone for a person they could see. They came to give a pint of blood for some child, mother or father whom they will never see. They showed no indifference. They really cared—cared enough to do something about it.

Women gave countless hours of their time free. Doctors gave their time freely.

The 38 people in New York and elsewhere do not care to have their names used, but all of us owe the greatest debt of gratitude to these 211 people who gave life-giving blood in St. Johns. The major publications of the nation will not write stories about them, but when you see them, won't you thank them for what they have done for you.

Sincerely,
MR and MRS RICHARD NEWMAN
Co-chairmen
MRS KENNETH SPICER,
St. Johns chairman

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Sees procedure changes in care of mentally ill

Care of mentally ill patients in Michigan apparently will undergo some change in procedure, but will follow the current trend under the state's new mental health chief.

Dr Robert A. Kimmich came from California to Michigan July 1 to serve as head of the large mental health department.

ONE OF HIS first observations was that much of the red tape involved in mental care should be eliminated. "I would like to see us minimize the number of persons and places a patient has to go to in order to receive care," he said.

The trend toward part time, close-to-home care facilities is one which should be continued, said Kimmich.

MICHIGAN accentuated this trend within the last three years. Its aim is to provide care as close to home as possible and on a day-care or out-patient basis wherever practical.

Establishment to community care facilities was enabled by legislative act last year. Prior to the official act, mental health experts touted community care centers as the answer to space demands in existing institutions.

ONE possibility for even further localization of care for mental patients was hinted at by Kimmich shortly after his arrival in the state.

He said he hoped to develop a broader program of cooperation with general medical practitioners, social workers and others in a position to observe potential mental problems and suggest early treatment programs.

THE AGING process which has been working on Michigan's capitol building for 85 years is about to be stopped.

Some $200,000 was appropriated this year to clean the exterior of the sandstone building. It was white when built but over the years has become a dirty, streaked gray-black.

ART-MINDED citizens have contended over the years that the aging process should be allowed to run its course unhindered, that the natural look should be preserved.

Others, many tourists among them, say the state's central government building should be more physically attractive.

A NEW COAT of paint was applied to the dome on the building within the last few years, emphasizing more the aged appearance of the rest of the facade.

Some experts feared the effect of sand blasting on the soft Indiana sandstone structure, but state officials expect a new cleaning process to be used this summer will eliminate this risk.

BY FALL almost 20 years of debate on the advisability of the project will be a moot point. There will be a new face on the building which will house so many new legislative faces at the beginning of the new year.

An unknown factor in the fall elections nationally, reaction on both sides of the civil rights question, may have particular impact in Michigan.

DEMOCRATS usually count heavily on the Negro vote. The Freedom Now Party has nominated Negro candidates for several of the open offices in an effort to marshal the Negro vote to these people.

Any major shift in the Negro vote is viewed by Democrats as a threat to the party's strength in marginal districts and tight statewide contests.

REPUBLICAN Gov. George Romney has made little public comment on the new party but made a major attempt in 1962 to win Negro votes in his campaign and will again be trying to capture a large segment of this population group to his side in this year's contest.

Organizers of the new minor party say their effort is a protest to both major parties for failure to give the recognition and representation due Negro voters in Michigan.

IMPACT OF the new group will not be felt until after Nov. 3 but both parties are likely to be eyeing the Negro vote more closely this year because of formation of the Freedom Now Party.

triumph, selfishness and nobility. The author is a native of the South and is well acquainted with the area she writes about.

"DEAD CALM" by Charles Williams is a suspense novel. It is the story of a honeymoon couple on their yacht in the mid-Pacific who suddenly meet up with tragedy. They find a stranded ship with a lone passenger. The climax is startling and dramatic. The characters are real and well-drawn and react to the situations in logical ways.

"Walnut Grove" by Jane Rushing is an historical novel of a West Texas pioneer town and a family. Their fortunes are bound up in the coming of the railroad to the town and in the changes it brings. This is a warm story about America's past with its glories and growing pains.

THE SCOTTISH Highlands are the scene of Jane Duncan's first novel, "My Friend Flora." The story spans 35 years in the lives of the characters as the author tells the story of the independent Scot.

"The Last Tallyho" by Richard Newhafer tells the story of America's aircraft carrier pilots at the time they were fighting for supremacy in the air during World War II. It is an exciting tale of a small number of men whose daring deeds over the Pacific helped change the course of history. The book is full of action and suspense. It tells mostly of the special kind of warfare these men fought during this important year, probably the most important year of their lives.

FOR MORE variety we have "Favourite of the Gods" by Sybil Bedford, as this story is laid in Europe. It is the story of international marriage, of an Italian countess, and her young daughter. It is the story of riches and manners that no longer exist. The author writes with wit and charm.

Man rushes along hard trails of cement and macadam; he struggles to hold his own in the competition of the marketplace. Harsh noises assail him and the grating cacophony of modern civilization seems to obliterate the small and pleasant sounds. The headlines shout of man's passions and greed, and one asks himself where can he turn for relief.

He who will can find himself a woodland, and in the peaceful branch-arched aisles of nature's cathedral, recapture assurance for the heart. Trees can be a man's friend; they speak a language that one can understand when he is in tune with the verities.

THE BEECHES and oaks, maples and birches know the heat of summer and the tempests of winter, but they stand steadfast and serene. In the woodland one can feel the magic carpet beneath his feet—a carpet of faded leaves and beneath it the primal humus that is the source of all life on our planet.

Council beefs up advertising for more tourists

The Michigan Tourist Council has approved allocation of a record $691,096 state promotional budget for fiscal 1964-65.

The action, included approval of the largest media advertising budget in the council's 19-year history.

"THE COUNCIL has approved a $300,000 media advertising program designed to expand Michigan's image as a year around vacation destination and to prompt even more inquiries for Michigan information than the record numbers we have already received this year," said Robert L. Wooley, of Mt. Pleasant, council chairman.

He said the campaign would include production of a new series of Michigan advertisements based on the successful "Image" campaign which the council has conducted in the past.

THE CAMPAIGN will also include more large newspaper ads designed to complement the magazine ads and to do a double job of image building and producing inquiries.

The council also discussed forthcoming literature production designed to service the inquiries which are expected from the increased advertising.

"INQUIRIES this year are running more than 20 per cent ahead of the same period in 1963, and with this increased advertising budget we can expect a continued increase," according to William T. McGraw, council director.

A committee was named by Wooley to prepare recommendations for a new film featuring Michigan's autumn travel attractions.

The National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan is a unique center of musical art. Situated in a virgin pine forest 14 miles southwest of Traverse City, it attracts the best junior musical talent from all over the country for 10-week summer sessions.

from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

Read Psalm 84: 1-8

Blessed in the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the high ways to Zion, Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs. (Psalm 84: 5-6 RV)

IN ANY dreadful moment of my life, when struggling with some tribulation or suffering, I ask myself, "Why does God allow this to disturb my work? Am I not one of His loved ones? Did not He appoint me to be one of His workers?"

The psalmist answers, "Blessed are they that dwell in thy house; they will be still praising thee.... Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs."

In this sense, Christ went forth successfully to meet the demands of the cross. He passed through the valley of weeping, and He made it a well for mankind in his pilgrimage. There we drink the water of life.

In the world we have tribulation; but Christ has told us to be of good cheer, for He has overcome the world.

PRAYER: O King of glory, the Lord of hosts, help us to be patient in thought, word and deed as we walk in this world of need and want, Help us to go forth with courage in the moment of the midnight darkness of sufferings. In our Lord's name. Amen.

OUR NEW LAND

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Forty-three acres! How long we labored, hoping someday to add it to our modest farm.

Good bottom land... with a grove for the children to play in, a stream with an ol' swimmin' hole, and rich soil just begging for the plow.

Now it's ours! A great moment... full of promise... fraught with challenge.

Sort of like that moment a few years ago when Peg and I became members of the congregation. Before that the church had been simply a familiar scene along the border of our lives. Suddenly it became our church.

And there was that deep sense of partnership with God... full of promise... fraught with challenge.

There is such an abundant harvest of blessing and happiness to be reaped in life... if a man yearns for the best, and claims it for his own, and is ready to put his hand to the plow.

Plan dedication of grain terminal

On Sept. 4, 1964, Farm Bureau Services is holding an open house and dedication ceremony at its new grain terminal in Saginaw. All Farm Bureau members are invited to this event. An exciting day is in store for all who attend. The terminal is located just north of Saginaw at the Zilwaukee exit of I-75.

Tours will be conducted around the terminal site and through the feed plant. The fertilizer plant may also be visited. The facilities may be seen between 9:30 a.m. and 3 p.m.

A COMPLIMENTARY meal of barbecued chicken will be served at noon. Tickets for this meal will be needed. They must be picked up at the county Farm Bureau office no later than AUG. 26.

At 1 p.m. a dedication ceremony will be held. The highlight will be a talk by Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

MICHIGAN farmers are now closer to world markets than ever before! The new farmer-owned multi-million dollar grain terminal operated by Farm Bureau Services makes it so. We urge members to see Farm Bureau at work in the area of marketing. A visit to the Saginaw Terminal will give you more insight into the strength of your organization.

Change name

Representatives of the 35,000-member Michigan Home Economics Extension Council voted last week to change the name of the organization to Michigan Association of Extension Homemakers.

The new name becomes effective Sept. 1.

If the nation's agricultural output of 1962 had been produced by 1939 methods, it would have cost about $17 billion more in land, labor, capital and other resources than the actual 1962 cost.

Grouped around the counter at the Farm Bureau office last week were these local and Alabama officials, on the occasion of a tour by 40 members of the Alabama Farm Bureau. At left is John Lynch, office manager here; standing next to him is Raymond Mayers, county Farm Bureau president. Looking over material at the counter are J. E. Wallis of Sylacauga, Ala., A. B. Griffin of Pell City, Ala., and Mrs. Joe McGhee Jr. of Eutaw, Ala.

40 Alabama Farm Bureau members see Clinton setup

On Friday, July 17, 170 Alabamans, representing all 68 county Farm Bureaus of that state, boarded buses at Birmingham and Montgomery and headed north with Lansing, Mich., their destination.

The group arrived at the Farm Bureau Center in Lansing on Sunday afternoon and were entertained by members of the Michigan Farm Bureau staff. This included a tour of the Michigan State University campus, the Farm Bureau Center and other points of interest in our state capital.

ON MONDAY, July 20, the four buses made their separate ways to various areas of the state. A bus containing 40 persons traveled to Brighton where passengers inspected the new Farm Bureau egg marking division, the Farm Bureau Services branch store and the county Farm Bureau office. From there they headed for St.

Johns and were greeted at the Farm Bureau office by County President Raymond Mayers. They inspected the county office and asked many questions concerning the structure of the organization.

DINNER WAS prepared and served to the visitors by members of the County Farm Bureau Women's Committee at Smith Hall. All food served at the meal was produced in Michigan, and the guests raved at the flavor of the Michigan cherry pie. Present at the dinner were chairmen of six community groups from throughout the county and members of the board of directors.

The hour following dinner was spent in comparing farming operations and in a general discussion of a county Farm Bureau and the community group and committee structure in Michigan.

CHIEF agricultural products raised by the guests are cotton, broilers, peanuts, peaches, corn, beef, hogs, and dairy cows. Small grain is only a sideline and used mainly as feed, not sold. The group expressed a desire for lesser government controls in agriculture, feeling that the margin of profit on products bearing production controls has been depressed to a bare minimum. Mechanization has influenced their methods of farming, and most cotton harvesting is no longer done by farm laborers.

Six community groups held special meetings for the purpose of entertaining the guests and affording them a view of the grass roots structure of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

GROUPS participating were: Prairie, Mrs. Francis Dershem, chairman; Loyal Neighbors, Joe VanSickle, chairman; Looking Glass Valley, Paul Garlock, chairman; Southern Owls, Vaughn Montgomery, chairman; Town Hall, Claude Underhill, chairman; and Parker Center, Wilbur Bond, chairman. These chairmen furnished transportation to the group meeting for seven guests and returned them to their motels in St. Johns afterward.

The groups held their regular monthly business meetings and discussion. This month's discussion concerned marketing, and the visitors were interested in the workings of MACMA, the Michigan Agricultural Cooperative Marketing Assn. formed by Farm Bureau members.

FFA boy dismayed by new wheat law

A high school vocational agriculture student near Granger, Wash., is beginning to wonder what effect government farm programs are going to have on his future farming opportunities.

Alan Sandlin, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sandling of Zillah is a student at Granger High School. He is studying vocational agriculture and is a member of the Future Farmers of America. He will be a senior this fall.

LAST FALL he decided to grow wheat as an FFA project. The federal wheat program in effect at that time permitted him to plant as many acres as he wanted without any penalty, even though he has no acreage allotment. He also understood that he could sell his wheat on the open market free of government-imposed restrictions.

He rented 10 acres of irrigated land from his father and planted it last fall to the new high-yielding Gaines variety.

ALL OF this took place before the new wheat law was enacted.

THE CLINTON County farmers found the Alabamans strive also for a say in the asking price of their products. They realize they need to be organized and that this cannot be done by an outside source claiming interest only for the farmer's benefit.

From Michigan the four buses toured state Farm Bureau's in Illinois, Kentucky, and Tennessee before returning to Alabama July 24.

Now, young Sandlin finds he is faced with an entirely different set of conditions. Describing the situation, he said, "the government changed the rules half-way through the game."

At the beginning, he was competing on an equal basis with established wheat growers who have acreage allotments. Now he finds that allotment growers, who elected to participate in the 1964 wheat program, have a sizeable competitive advantage. This is because they will receive an additional payment of 70 cents per bushel on 45 per cent of their normal production, and 25 cents per bushel on another 45 per cent.

YOUNG Sandlin also finds that while he had originally counted on selling his wheat at a market price of about $1.50 or more per bushel, the price he will actually receive may be as much as 25 cents a bushel less because the new wheat law imposes a "tax" on exports.

To sum it all up, this Future Farmer claims he is being discriminated against by a program that gives established growers an economic advantage.

IN FACT, he said he feels so strongly about the unfairness of the wheat program that he wants to do something about it. He has backed up his convictions by making a personal contribution to a fund being raised in Washington state to finance an impending court test of the constitutionality of the export tax.

After completing his education, young Sandlin plans to make farming a career. That is, he said, "unless I encounter too much discrimination."

Agriculture is big business in Michigan. The state's farmers grossed over $785 million for their products in 1963, making this the second largest industry in the state, an industry worth more than $2 billion at retail prices.

New corn ear rot under close study

A new corn ear rot, which plagued the corn cribs of many Wisconsin farmers in 1961 and 1962, will come under closer study with a new technique developed by US Department of Agriculture plant disease specialist Paul E. Hoppe, stationed at the University of Wisconsin.

The corn disease also showed up in late-harvested fields in 1961 and 1962. Late maturing hybrids, high in moisture at time of killing frost, were most commonly attacked. This rot in 1961 and 1962 caused more damage to corn than all the other common ear rot diseases caused during the past 10 years.

THE DISEASE IS caused by a fungus called Cladosporium. You can't see signs of the disease by looking at the outside of the ear. But if you break an ear, you can see a dark green or black color where the kernels attach to the cob. The dark blotches extend into and around the kernels, but they almost never reach the crown of the kernel.

Rot often completely destroys the embryo. Usually the whole ear is involved. Damage continues after harvest and secondary infections of other diseases often set in.

HOPPE HAS found a way to artificially infect corn with the disease and watch it develop. In the laboratory he grew spores of Cladosporium on potato dextrose agar. He went to the field plots of corn and inoculated ears in late September, mid-October, and early November.

After the ears were harvested in December, those inoculated in late October and early November showed almost exactly the same appearance as corn naturally infected with Cladosporium. This is pretty strong evidence that corn ear rot starts inside the husks and spreads from there.

THERE IS only brief mention of this ear rot in the literature. Pictures in research reports from Illinois as early as 1930 show the disease. Illinois also reported losses from the diseases in 1948, and Hoppe described it as a corn wound parasite in 1953 in Wisconsin corn fields.

While no methods for the control of Cladosporium ear rot are known, this disease can be avoided by planting hybrids which will mature normally before killing frosts occur.

fastest cow in the country!

She's set all kinds of track records. Fastest lap around the pasture. Widest jump into the farm pond. Highest leap over a fence.

She's also set some barn records. Lowest milk producer this summer. Most flareups of mastitis. Poorest conditioned cow. All because of a few pesky biting flies.

No excuse for it when one spray with Purina Dairy Spray Concentrate can keep hornflies and stable flies under control for almost a week. It contains Ciodrin*—a long-lasting fly killer that's safe to spray on dairy cows.

Ask us for Purina Dairy Spray Concentrate, and use it once a week. Your cows may not break any track records... may break some production records!

"A good caddy makes a lot of difference in a man's game!"

A tall tale, full of pure corn

Mr and Mrs Fred Orson always have had good luck with sweet corn in their garden at 712 N. Ottawa Street. But this year they have outdone themselves.

Corn stalks the middle of last week measured over nine feet high in some cases, and there were almost none under eight feet. The amazing thing is that the variety of corn they planted about May 4 is only supposed to get five to six feet tall.

THEY planted Burpee's Golden Bantam sweet corn. They put bone meal in the furrows at the time, and just before the big rain June 21 they put fertilizer between the rows.

Since they have always had good luck with corn, the Orsons didn't think too much about this year's stand until neighbors started asking them when it was going to stop growing.

THAT probably will be soon, for the corn will be ready for the Orsons to eat any day now.

Fred Orson stands between rows of sweet corn that measure in several instances over nine feet in height. Orson stands 5 feet 9 inches. None of the corn was under eight feet high.

(h) The names of two reliable property owners of the County of Clinton, Michigan, who will certify as to the applicant's good character and business respectability or, in lieu of names of references, such other available evidence as to the good character and business responsibility of the applicant as will enable an investigator to properly evaluate such character and business responsibility.

(i) A statement as to whether or not the applicant has been convicted of a crime, misdemeanor, or violation of any Municipal Ordinance, the nature of the offense, and the punishment or penalty assessed therefor;

Section 4. Investigation and Issuance: (a) Upon receipt of such application, the original shall be referred to the Chief of Police, who shall cause such investigation of the applicant's business and moral character to be made as he deems necessary for the protection of the public good.

(b) If as a result of such investigation the applicant's character or business responsibility is found to be unsatisfactory, the Chief of Police shall endorse on such application his disapproval and his reasons for the same, and return the said application to the City Clerk, who shall notify the applicant that his application is disapproved and that no permit and license will be issued.

(c) If as a result of such investigation, the character and business responsibility of the applicant are found to be satisfactory, the Chief of Police shall endorse on the application his approval, execute a permit addressed to the applicant for the carrying on of the business applied for and return said permit, along with the application to the City Clerk, who shall, upon payment of the prescribed license fee, deliver to the applicant his permit and issue a license. Such license shall contain the signature and seal of the issuing officer and shall show the name, address and photograph of said licensee, the class of license issued and the kind of goods to be sold thereunder, the amount of fee paid, the date of issuance and the length of time the same shall be operative, as well as the license number and other identifying description of any vehicle used in such peddling. The Clerk shall keep a permanent record of all licenses issued.

Section 5. Fees: (a) The license fee which shall be charged by the City Clerk shall be $1.00 per day, $5.00 per week, $10.00 per month, or $25.00 per year. Such fee shall be in addition to the investigation fee.

(b) No fee shall be required of one selling products of the farm produced by the seller or by his immediate employer.

(c) The City Commission may, by resolution, waive the requirement for payment of fees, either for investigation or license, or both, if it shall determine that the applicant represents and acts for a charitable, benevolent or non-profit organization which receives all the proceeds of said peddling or soliciting and that the applicant receives no salary, commission, or other remuneration therefrom.

(d) None of the license fees provided for by this Ordinance shall be so applied as to occasion an undue burden upon Inter-State Commerce. In any case where a license fee is believed by a licensee or applicant for license to place an undue burden upon such commerce, he may apply to the Mayor for an adjustment of the fee so that it shall not be discriminatory, unreasonable, or unfair as to such commerce. Such application may be made before, at, or within six months after payment of the prescribed license fee. The applicant shall, by affidavit, and supporting testimony, show his method of business and the gross volume or estimate gross volume of business and such other information as the Mayor may deem necessary in order to determine the extent, if any, of such undue burden on such commerce. The Mayor shall then conduct an investigation, comparing applicant's business with other businesses of like nature and shall make findings of fact from which he shall determine whether the fee fixed by this Ordinance is unfair, unreasonable or discriminatory as to applicant's business and shall fix as the license fee for the applicant, an amount that is fair, reasonable and non-discriminatory, or, if the fee has already been paid, shall order a refund of the amount over and above the fee so fixed. In fixing the fee to be charged, the Mayor shall have the power to base the fee upon a percentage of gross sales, or any other method which will assure that the fee assessed shall be uniform with that assessed on businesses of like nature, so long as the amount assessed does not exceed the fees as prescribed by Section 5(a) of this Ordinance. Should the Mayor determine the gross sales measure of the fee to be the fair basis he may require the applicant to submit, either at the time of termination of applicant's business in the City of St. Johns or at the end of each three month period, a sworn statement of the gross sales and pay the amount of fee therefor, provided that no additional fee during any one calendar year shall be required after the licensee shall have paid an amount equal to the annual license as prescribed in Section 5(a) of this Ordinance.

Section 6. Bond: Every applicant for licensing as a "solicitor" as defined herein, not a resident of the City of St. Johns, or being a resident of the City of St. Johns represents a firm whose principal place of business is located outside the State of Michigan, shall file with the City Clerk a surety bond, running to the City in the amount of $1,000.00, with surety acceptable to and approved by the Mayor, conditioned that the said applicant shall comply fully with all the provisions of the Ordinances of the City of St. Johns and the Statutes of the State of Michigan regulating and concerning the business of solicitor and guaranteeing to any citizen of the city of St. Johns that all money paid as a down payment will be accounted for and applied according to the representations of the solicitor and further guaranteeing to any citizen of the City of St. Johns doing business with said solicitor, that the property purchased will be delivered according to the representations of said solicitor. Action on such bond may be brought in the name of the City to the use or benefit of the aggrieved person.

Section 7. Badges: The City Clerk shall issue to each licensee at the time of delivery of his license a badge which shall contain the words "Licensed Peddler" or "Licensed Solicitor", as the case may be, the period for which the license is issued and the number of the license, in letters and figures easily discernible from a distance of 10 feet. Such badge shall, during the time such licensee is engaged in soliciting or peddling, be worn constantly on the front of his outer garment in such a way as to be conspicuous.

Section 8. Exhibition of License: Peddlers and Solicitors are required to exhibit their licenses at the request of any citizen.

Section 9. Hours: No person, whether licensed under the provisions of this Ordinance or not, shall engage in Peddling, Soliciting, or Canvassing within the City of St. Johns between the hours of 7:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m.

Section 10. Duty of Police to Enforce: It shall be the duty of any police officer of the City of St. Johns to require any person seen soliciting or peddling, and who is not known by such officer to be duly licensed, to produce his solicitor's or peddler's license and to enforce the provisions of this Ordinance against any person found to be violating the same.

Section 11. Records: The Chief of Police shall report to the City Clerk all convictions for violation of this Ordinance and the City Clerk shall maintain a record for each license issued and record the reports of violation therein.

Section 12. Revocation of License: (a) Permits and licenses issued under the provisions of this Ordinance may be revoked by the City Commission of the City of St. Johns after notice and hearing, for any of the following causes:

1. Fraud, misrepresentation, or false statement contained in the application for license.
2. Fraud, misrepresentation or false statement in the course of carrying on his business as solicitor or as peddler.
3. Any violation of this Ordinance.
4. Conviction of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or
5. Conducting the business of soliciting, or peddling, in an unlawful manner or in such a manner as to constitute a breach of the peace or to constitute a menace to the health, safety, or general welfare of the public.

(b) Notice of the hearing for revocation of a license shall be given in writing, setting forth specifically the grounds of complaint and the time and place of hearing. Such notice shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to the licensee at his last known address at least five (5) days prior to the date set for hearing.

Section 13. Appeal: Any person aggrieved by the action of the Chief of Police or the City Clerk in the denial of a permit or license as provided in Section 4 of this Ordinance, or the action of the Mayor in assessing of the fee as provided in Section 5(d) of this Ordinance shall have the right of appeal to the Commission of the City of St. Johns. Such appeal shall be taken by filing with the Commission, within fourteen (14) days after notice of the action complained of has been mailed to such person's last known address, a written statement setting forth fully the grounds for the appeal. The Commission shall set a time and place for a hearing on such appeal and notice of such hearing shall be given to the appellant in the same manner as provided in Section 12 of this Ordinance for notice of hearing on revocation. The decision and order of the Commission on such appeal shall be final and conclusive.

Section 14. Expiration of License: All annual licenses issued under the provisions of this Ordinance shall expire on the first Monday of June following date of issuance. Other than annual licenses shall expire on the date specified on the license, provided that no license shall be valid beyond the first Monday of June next thereafter. After December first, the fee for an annual license shall be one-half the amount specified for a full year.

Section 15. Penalty: Any person violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine not to exceed one Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment not to exceed 90 days or both fine and imprisonment.

Section 16. Severance Clause: The provisions of this Ordinance are declared to be severable and if any section, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Ordinance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining sections, sentences, clauses and phrases of this Ordinance; but they shall remain in effect, it being the legislative intent that this Ordinance shall stand notwithstanding the invalidity of any part.

Section 17. Repeal of Conflicting Ordinances: All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 18. Effective Date: This Ordinance shall take effect from and after the 20th day after its passage and publication as required by law.

1964 MOTOR VEHICLE HIGHWAY FUND BONDS

Sealed bids for the purchase of the above bonds will be received by the undersigned in the Village Hall, Municipal Building, in said Village, until 8:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on Wednesday, the 12th day of August, 1964, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened and read.

Said bonds will be dated July 1, 1964, will be coupon bonds of the denomination of $500.00 and $1,000.00 each, will be numbered consecutively in direct order of their maturity from 1 upwards, and will bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding four per cent (4%) per annum, expressed in multiples of 1/8 of 1%. Said interest shall be payable on January 1, 1965, and semi-annually thereafter on July 1st and January 1st of each year. The interest rate for each coupon period on any one bond shall be at one rate only and represented by one coupon. Accrued interest to the date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Said bonds will mature serially as follows:

- $3,500.00 July 1st of each year from 1965 to 1968, inclusive;
- $4,000.00 July 1st of each year from 1969 to 1972, inclusive;
- $4,500.00 July 1st of each of the years 1973 and 1974;
- $5,000.00 July 1st of each year from 1975 to 1979, inclusive.

Both principal and interest will be payable at a bank or trust company to be designated by the original purchaser of the bonds, which paying agent qualifies as such under the statutes of the State of Michigan or of the Federal Government.

Bonds maturing in the years 1965 to 1970, inclusive, shall not be subject to redemption prior to maturity.

Bonds maturing in the years 1971 to 1979, inclusive, may be redeemed at the option of the Village, in inverse numerical order, on any interest payment date on or after July 1, 1970, at par and accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption. Notice of redemption shall be given to holders of bonds to be redeemed by publication of such notice not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the State of Michigan, which carries, as part of its regular service, notices of sale of municipal bonds. No further interest payable on bonds so called for redemption shall accrue after the date fixed for redemption, provided the Village has money available for such redemption with the paying agent.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from September 1, 1964 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the Village. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds, or at a price less than their par value, will be considered.

The bonds are to be issued pursuant to the provisions of Act 175, Public Acts of Michigan, 1952, as amended, and are issued in anticipation of Motor Vehicle Highway Fund payments to be received by the Village of DeWitt, and said bonds will pledge the full faith and credit of the Village of DeWitt for their payment.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $1,280.00, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the Village of DeWitt, must accompany each bid as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys of Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of such opinion will be paid by the Village. The cost of printing the bonds shall be paid by the Village. Bonds will be delivered at a place mutually agreed upon by the purchaser and the Village.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

The larger the family, more excitement grows

"One could think that a fifth baby might not be as exciting as the others," Mrs. Larry Karber, of 817 Church Street said of her son, John William Karber, "But, we get just as much pleasure from him as we did from the first one and there are more of us to enjoy him."

Johnny, as he is affectionately called by his brother and sisters, is the "adopted" baby of the Clinton County News and the first year of his life will be an open book to its readers.

HIS brother and sister adorers are Dean, Sharon and Janis. Another sister, Karen, 5, died two years ago.

Johnny has made a lot of changes in the last month. His weight has increased to over 13 pounds and some of his garments are small for him. He can no longer wear the little suit you saw him in last month in the newspaper. His terry cloth one-piece pajamas are also too small. Many other suits received from far-sighted givers will fit him now and in the future.

He weighs a pound more than Janis did at his age but a pound less than Dean and Sharon.

EVERY mother is happy when she no longer has to break her night's rest to feed the baby. Johnny cooperated with his mother early by giving up his night feeding before he was two months old.

When Dean was a baby, he could not tolerate the fat content of whole milk and the doctor advised giving him skimmed milk. Since Johnny has had some difficulty with his food, mother has started giving him the new milk with 2 per cent fat. Although he has only had it for a short time, she believes it may solve the problem. Experience gives her confidence and makes it possible for her to regulate his food for better satisfaction.

SHE FINDS that he is happier with taking all of his food from the bottle and it agrees with him. He is now getting cereal, mixed green vegetables and mixed yellow vegetables and his orange juice. "I suppose in another month, I shall begin giving him his vegetables from a spoon," his mother said.

JOHNNY

The children were elated recently when Mother gave Johnny some drink from a teaspoon and he liked it. Every new thing that Johnny does creates a period of real animation among his small admirers.

JOHNNY has been fortunate during the sizzling hot weather since he could be clad in only his birthday suit-plus without causing scandal.

Sharon thought he could wear less one morning. After Johnny's bath, when Mother put on his shirt, she asked "Why does he have to wear a shirt?" "So he won't be too cool," Mother answered. "He doesn't need it," her small daughter advised, "He has powder on."

Johnny spends less time sleeping than he did. He enjoys the attentions of the children and sometimes, Mother props him in a place that he can watch her working in the kitchen. He laughs out loud and throws his hands in glee from the attentions of the children. He is also starting the drooling stage.

ON MOTHERS Day, he received the sacrament of holy baptism at St. Joseph Church. His aunt, Linda Simon of Fowler, is his godmother. William Karber, from whom he received his middle name, is his godfather.

Johnny went to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Leonard Simon at Fowler last week. She stayed with the children during the weekend while her son-in-law and daughter took a vacation trip in northern Michigan.

JOHNNY is growing bigger, cuter and wider awake. We'll tell you more about him next month.

Parting thought: Who can look at a blooming rose or in the face of a tiny infant and not believe in God?

Dolly Needs a Permanent

Little Sharon Karber isn't concerned about laws against home permanents as she curls the hair of her doll, Chattie Baby. This may be Chattie Baby's last as her hair is getting pretty thin from previous care.

Gourmet pays plenty for recipe; gets even

Have heard several versions of the story of how the recipe for the American Beauty Cake was enticed from a famous chef of a well known New York hotel.

The first one told that a Cold-water woman was served some of the super delicious dessert while visiting in New York. She asked the waitress to obtain the recipe for the delicacy from the chef who complacently complied with the request.

AFTER her return home, however, the collector of recipes received a bill, allegedly for $200. Upon advice of her attorney, she sent the chef a check for the amount he charged. And then, she publicized the recipe so that his speciality of the house was the speciality of every woman who wished to try it.

LATER versions of the story involved similar payments of up to $400.

Those who have tried the recipe recommend it.

AMERICAN BEAUTY CAKE

- 2 ounces red food color,
- 3 tbsp. milk chocolate cocoa (instant)
- 1/2 c. shortening (non-liquid)
- 1 1/2 c. granulated sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 c. buttermilk
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 2 1/2 c. sifted cake flour

- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 tsp. vinegar (white or clear)
- 1 tsp. baking soda

Mix food color with cocoa and let stand.

Cream shortening with sugar, add eggs and color. Mix. Beat very well. Add buttermilk, cake flour, salt and vanilla. Beat again.

REMOVE from mixer and add vinegar and baking soda. Mix by hand. Pour into 2 greased and floured 8-inch pans. Bake in oven 350 degrees from 30 to 35 minutes.

Cut each layer in half (lengthwise—use a thread to work well) to make 4 layers.

ICING—(single recipe for ordinary cake—double for this American Beauty Cake):

- 2 tbsp. flour
- 1/2 c. milk
- pinch of salt
- 1/2 c. granulated sugar
- 1/4 c. butter or oleo
- 1/4 c. shortening (non-liquid)
- 1 tsp. vanilla or other flavoring.

Mix flour and milk and cook until it thickens to consistency of cream. Mix well, sugar, shortening and vanilla. Add slightly cooked flour mixture and beat until very fluffy.

Do you question the amount of red food color? It's correct.

Tips on serving given for school crowd

Which way do you pass food at the table? This was one of the questions we discussed after the 4-H youngsters had finished their demonstrations.

I had a good reason for saying— "Food should be passed to the right," but I couldn't think of it. I looked it up when I got back to the office, and there was a good reason.

HERE is the answer Faye Kinder, associate professor of foods and nutrition at Michigan State University, included in her book on Meal Management.

If the hostess asks you to pass a certain item, place the correct serving silver in the dish and pass it to the person on the right. Don't serve yourself before passing the dish, unless the hostess asks you to do so.

TO AVOID traffic jams at the table, all dishes should be passed to the right if it permits each person to take the dish in his left hand, serve himself with his right, and then pass the dish on without transferring the dish.

Another good reason for passing food to the right is that it allows you to hold the large bowl or platter while your neighbor on the right serves himself.

IF YOU are passing pitchers and dishes with handles, be sure the handles are on the right side. This way it is easy for the person to reach for it in their right hand.

Another serving technique that you might keep in mind is to serve and remove, appetizer, salad, bread and butter, main plate and dessert dishes from the left and with the left hand.

SERVICE is from the left because some of these plates are on the left of the diner, and also you are less apt to bump the right hand of the person as they are reaching toward one of these foods.

Serve and remove beverages from the right side of the person and use your right hand. If silverware, on the right side of the plate, must be removed or an additional piece added, do this with the right hand and from the right side.

THERE ARE several different kinds of meal service. The next time you have a special family celebration why not try a different method. Let Dad carve the meat at the table or have mom serve the plates right at the table.

Here's something else to try, let Dad and Junior seat the ladies at the table. A gentleman, even though quite young, seats the lady on his right—and on the left also if there is no other gentleman to help her.

Practice this at home, and the boys will become skilled at this little courtesy—which is a bore to them—but the ladies love it.

Feline reunion causes rousing cat-chatter

Was Captain berating Midnight with "Where have you been day and night for two weeks?" or was he extolling her return with "Darling, I'm so glad you've come home. All is forgiven?"

Mr and Mrs Gordon Luther are wondering. One of their two coal-black felines returned Wednesday after an absence of two weeks. They had decided that the sister of Captain, both of whom they had had for eight years, would never return.

AT FIRST Captain followed Luther around as usual as he

Hate to roll cookies? Why not try this?

'Tis a disappointed child who finds the cookie jar empty. Here is one quick way to hurry up cookie baking.

Instead of rolling out your favorite butter cookie recipe, roll bits of dough into balls between the palms of your hands. Place the cookie balls on a baking sheet then flatten with the bottom of a tumbler which has been very lightly greased then dipped in cinnamon sugar. Bake as directed for rolled cookies.

Bannister
By Mrs. Elmer Leydorf
Party honors home-bound German student

BANNISTER— Mr and Mrs Ray Peck were hosts at their home Monday evening for their German exchange student daughter, Kirsten Rademacher, who left for her home in Luneburg, Germany on Saturday.

The Page 4-Corner 4-H Club of which Kirsten was a part while here, made and served cookies and punch to the group of over 100 who attended the open house.

MANY schoolmates, church friends and neighbors viewed the scrap book and photograph book made with the assistance of Mrs. Peck of Kirsten's year here. Also of special significance to Kirsten is the charm bracelet she acquired while here with charms from several friends.

ALONG with the other exchange students leaving the United States, Kirsten will spend two days at the World's Fair before the boat journey which will get her home in 11 days. Plans have also been made for her to join her American sister, Maureen Peck, and schoolmates Lisa Knight, in Meeden, Netherlands for a short visit. Maureen is spending the summer in the Netherlands and Lisa in Germany.

70 welcome new minister at the Bannister Methodist

BANNISTER— Over 70 persons gathered Sunday evening at the Bannister Methodist Church for a welcome program to honor the new minister, Rev Edward Tillitz and family.

Mrs. Floyd Walters introduced the Rev. Mr. Tillitz and Mrs. Floyd Glowney as counselors and several youth who had recently returned from camp at Wesley Woods and Lake Louise.

EACH GAVE a short resume of their interpretation of camp which were both serious and humorous. Those included on the panel were Elizabeth Ensign, Marcie Moore, Phyllis Stewart, Peter Glowney, Jeffrey Leydorf, Linda Ensign, Frannie Vanek and Sharon Stewart.

Mrs. Richard Moore gave a few words of welcome which also included an original poem by Mrs. Edna Nowlin. Following the program the Tillitz family opened the many gifts of money and groceries.

Mrs. Raymond Stewart was in charge of the buffet luncheon.

Miss Nancy Luznak has returned home after spending a week vacationing in northern Michigan with relatives.

Mrs. Floyd Glowney and Rev. Edward Tillitz accompanied the three intermediate campers, Phyllis Stewart, Peter Glowney and Jeffrey Leydorf, from Wesley Woods Saturday afternoon. The Tillitz family and Bud Casler family also took Eddie Tillitz and Eric Casler to Wesley Woods Sunday afternoon to attend the junior camp.

Miss Vicki Valentine arrived at the Lansing airport by jet from California where she has been vacationing for over a week. She was accompanied by her uncle, Glen Valentine, who had also escorted her to Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm and Marineland among the many places seen on her trip. Vicki is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Robert Valentine.

Mrs. Thressa Sweet of Perrysburg, Ohio, who has been visiting relatives in the area left for home with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Young of Rossford, Ohio, and her sister, Mrs. Ella Mericle of Perrysburg.

Ledges slates comedy-drama

Action, comedy, drama. All fill the stage in next week's play—"Antigone," at the Ledges Playhouse in Grand Ledge. It will play nightly Tuesday through Saturday at 8:30.

"Antigone" is a modern, lively treatment of the Greek classic, with moments of comedy and satire. In comparing it to other productions on Broadway, the Saturday Review said it was "like an edifice of marble in shantytown."

LAEL and Margaret Woodbury, the Ledges' acting couple, will make their second co-starring appearance of the summer in the play, as Creon, the king, and Antigone.

Continuing through this Saturday night is "Petticoat Fever," a Broadway comedy.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

This week I'd like to report to you the gains we have made in the state and local government area and then also summarize some of our other accomplishments.

The 1964 Legislature has written an excellent record of achievement for itself in other areas of concern in addition to the ones we've already touched upon.

STATE AND local government: Special mention should be made in the area of state and local government opportunity and responsibility. Admittedly this year we did not do all that could have been done to strengthen state and local government. The people of Michigan, by adopting our new state Constitution in 1963, spelled out a mandate for such things as state government reorganization and county home rule.

Specific bills to accomplish these two vital steps were considered but not adopted this year. Legislative committees are working on these problems, and I'm confident that sound legislation in these two areas is just around the corner.

DESPITE THE fact that reorganization and home rule bills were not adopted in 1964, along with the important areas of improving annexation procedures and providing for a legislative auditor, much sound progress was made to strengthen state and local government.

Some reorganization of state government in line with the 1963 Constitution was adopted in such areas as highways, elections, the new appellate court and education.

IN LOCAL government, we adopted the uniform city income tax law with the fair and equitable provision to share the taxpaying ability of the non-resident, and we guarded against a hedge-podge of new local non-property taxes by declaring a moratorium on the new taxing privileges of local government until sound and reasonable approaches can be developed.

We provided for the 18-mill tax limitation and fixed allocation among local government units. We provided for fairer and more equitable local tax assessment methods, and provided a sliding scale of local reimbursement for taxes lost under the job-creating exemption of tools, dies, jigs and fixtures.

WE PROVIDED for local government relief of some welfare costs by the ADC-U bill and other welfare formula changes. We provided for more complete coverage of costs of crippled and afflicted children, and in other hospital care cases.

These are just some of the specific ways in which local and state government were strengthened by actions of the 1964 Legislature.

BY WAY OF summarization, let me quickly mention some of the other matters of concern dealt with by the Legislature this year:

—Minimum wage, long needed in Michigan, was finally accomplished on a sound basis that takes into account both the concerns of the employer and the worker. The bill will cover 100,000 persons immediately, and 250,000 in three years.

—The child abuse law will require physicians and hospitals to report all cases of child abuse.

—CONGRESSIONAL apportionment and election dates were handled to keep pace with continuing court decisions in this "new and developing area of law."

—The new vote-on-each-candidate - for - each - office system will require voters to learn more about the candidates and the jobs they seek, reduce blind partisanship, and should result in better government without eliminating straight party voting if the individual voter wants to cast his ballot that way.

—PRESCRIPTIONS will be demanded for paregoric, thus striking out at drug addiction.

—Traffic safety programs include resorting our state police freeway patrol, adopting the uniform brake code, prohibiting drag racing on public streets, putting photos on drivers' licenses to tighten up on the privilege of driving, making school buses safer, and adopting a more stringent chemical test law to crack down on drinking drivers.

THESE ARE some of the major achievements of the 1964 Michigan Legislature and the entire state can be justly proud of the legislative record we've written this year.

List Elsie Holsteins in lifetime report

Lifetime milk and butterfat production achievements for twenty-six Registered Holstein cows in Michigan, including two from Elsie, have been reported from official records of The Holstein-Friesian Assn. of America. # Time for 4-H'ers to plan for fair's pie, apron booths

All 4-H members are urged to participate in the big annual fund raising project—the pie and apron booths at the 4-H Fair.

Quotas for each group for aprons and pies are based on membership lists in the Extension office. Each 4-H group is asked to furnish as many pies as they have members and one-half that number of aprons.

CHILDREN'S aprons, mother and daughter sets, work aprons and men's aprons are most in demand. Women desire pockets in theirs. Each should be tagged with the cost of material, group name, and size and should be delivered by Monday, Aug. 17.

2 area women attend MSU homemaker meet

Two area women were at Michigan State University last week attending the 37th annual MSU Homemakers' Conference, "College Week for Women."

Mrs. Ray Hamer of R-6, St. Johns, and Mrs. Richard Hebel of R-2, Ovid, were among 1,000 women attending the event from throughout the state. Classes and general sessions designed to help homemakers improve the quality of living were held.

MRS. HAMER attended sets of three classes on two subjects—county chairman and her job, and what's new in cotton. Mrs. Hebel attended classes in home management for young families, and toward a happy, healthy family. The conference ran from July 21 to July 24.

MRS. GEORGE Romney, Michigan's First Lady, discussed "Building Stronger Families" at the Thursday session. Keynote for the three-day conference was Mrs. Margaret Browne, director of home economics for the Federal Extension Service, who talked on "Modern Dimensions in Family Living Education."

Students find 'home' in Europe fascinating

OVID—Jack Bates, Ovid High School senior, who is in Wassenaar, Holland, this summer, under the Youth for Understanding program, has been writing enthusiastic letters about his new home and parents.

Jack left Metropolitan Airport on June 22. The flight was delayed three hours in leaving Metropolitan and they were three hours in Gander, Newfoundland, due to engine trouble. Next stop was Shannon, Ireland, where Jack reported that the prices on articles in the duty-free shop were so high that they absorbed the lack of duty fees.

THE PLANE load of 114 youths plus counselors and crew reached Amsterdam late Tuesday, June 23, and the young people stayed in two hotels there overnight. They took canal tours of Amsterdam.

JACK BATES

On Wednesday Jack was met at his hotel by his "brother," Hans Polstra, and his parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. K. Polstra and their 15-year-old daughter, Marianna. A 21-year-old son, Hessel, is in college in France.

WASSENAAR is a suburb of the Hague. It is a city of about 25,000, with spacious homes, many of them with thatched-roofs. Every home has a beautiful flower garden surrounding it.

Jack has been to the seaside resort of Schveningen, on the North Sea. The beaches in this area are very fine and large, and the water is cold, but this does not seem to keep anyone out of the water, as they are accustomed to it.

HE HAS also toured the Hague, which is the capital of Holland. The magnificent peace palace has exceptionally beautiful gardens. In addition to visiting The Hague, Jack has also been to Delft, one of the most scenic cities in Holland, and the home of the famous Delft pottery.

Teachers, too, learning about overseas country

Local teachers, too, are spending summer months in foreign countries. Mrs. Herbert Osborne, Latin and Spanish teacher at Rodney B. Wilson High School, is in Argentina for 8 weeks as part of a National Defense Summer Language Institute.

While there, she is seeing the sights, observing the life and customs of the city of Tucuman, and attending classes in Spanish conversation, literature and new methods of teaching.

HER LETTERS to her husband and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stevens, here indicate she is enjoying learning about the South American nation.

In Buenos Aires, the capital, she and 42 other teachers in her group visited a military school.

... They seem to do a lot with gymnastics," she wrote "and are very good at that. They have boys from 12 to 17 there, and at the completion of their courses they receive the equivalent of a high school diploma. Then they can either go on to a university to become an Army officer or become reserve officers."

"THIS IS A beautiful city. Riding on the bus today we saw orange trees with oranges on them, all kinds of flowering trees including huge poinsettias and roses. There are no stop signs, and I didn't see any traffic lights either.

"We've been having a wonderful time going around Buenos Aires. We just get a taxi—the fare is Rotterdam was next on his itinerary. This centuries-old city was completely devastated by the Nazis during World War II, and has been completely rebuilt with extremely modern homes and buildings.

ROTTERDAM is the world's largest and busiest seaport and is the city where the famous Rhine River flows into the ocean.

Jack says his "family" speaks mostly the Dutch language in the home so he is busy learning the language. He visited several stores in the Hague and found very few clerks speaking English.

JACK'S "brother" was graduated in late June from a Dutch high school. Several graduation exercises are held during the school year. Fifteen seniors were graduated in the last commencement program. The commencement address was given in the Dutch language and each senior presented himself for his diploma, which he signed in the presence of the audience.

The students in the Dutch school take about 17 to 20 subjects, but each subject-class does not meet every day. Written and oral exams are taken in each class.

HANS is taking driver training. Sixteen lessons at $5 per lesson is required. The required age to obtain a license is 18 years. There is no speed limit on the freeways in Holland. Bicycles are not allowed on the freeway.

There are many Americans in Wassenaar. Jack has played tennis with friends at the Canadian Embassy. He and his "brother" hope to take a trip to France and Germany. Hans will be coming to the United States in August, where he will be an exchange student in San Anselmo near San Francisco, Calif.

DAVID POCUIS

David Pocuis, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Stanley Pocuis of St. Johns, is spending the summer in Spain as a member of the Youth for Understanding teenage exchange program.

He left Detroit June 22 with a plenitude of other exchange students for Europe, and he already has written several letters home describing his first days abroad to his parents.

HE SEEMS to be finding it very fascinating, as these excerpts from his letters show:

"Last night I thought Paris was the most beautiful city in the world as I wandered through the Latin Quarter and down the River Seine. The night before that I was sure it was Amsterdam as I walked along the canals and narrow streets.

"EVERYWHERE in Europe there are beautiful trees. Most of the streets in Madrid are wide and beautiful. Today I am convinced Madrid is truly the most beautiful city in the world.

"Perhaps I feel this way because of my wonderful host family which consists of my Spanish mother, Dona Maria Jesus Lozano and her four sons aged 25, 21, 17 and 12. The oldest, Jose, just completed his studies to become a medical doctor. So our mother has six sons this summer (another American boy from Bailey, Mich. is living here, too) our apartment is very modern with two bathrooms and three telephones.

"THE FOOD is very different but real good. I have yet to find out just when we eat meals and how much there will be. There are between three and six courses to each meal, with a different plate for each course. For lunch yesterday we had squid served in the shell.

"Our time schedule is completely different from that we observe at home, with breakfast at 12 noon and dinner at 10 p.m.

"However I guess the fellows are the same all over the world. They all like jazz and are thoroughly enjoying the records I brought them. One of my brother's best friends plays guitar in the most popular quartet in Spain.

"Already I'm making better contact with my Spanish. However, I take my Spanish dictionary everywhere. We have spent the whole day walking all over Madrid. Every other block we would stop to find a word in the dictionary or Jesus would draw a picture in the mud. Yesterday it rained which is very unusual for this time of year."

The car was going north on Hollister Road at the time.

WCTU forms new group

A new prayer group was formed at the meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the last meeting held at the home of Mrs. Verna Beck. Mrs. Donnah Hampton will be the leader.

As many were attending camp or on vacation, the attendance was small.

A recent report on cigarettes received from the American Government was read and discussed.

There will be no August meeting. The group will meet with Mrs. Bud Beck of Eureka for potluck in September. The new officers will take their positions at that meeting.

News Notes

Still needed for the coming year at Rodney B. Wilson High School is a shop teacher. All other positions have been filled, according to Stanley Pocuis, principal.

Summer classes in typing at the high school end this week. Twenty-three students took the course, the first typing course to be given here during the summer. Bill Swears was the instructor.

"But dinner is stupendous. Their lunch hour here is from 12:30 to 3. All the stores close up and everyone goes home. Then they don't eat again until about 9 p.m.—again a pretty substantial meal."

MRS. OSBORNE and the other teachers are scheduled to return to the United States Aug. 15.

HERBERT BROWN

New associate at Osgoods

Herbert Brown, a native of Muir and a recent graduate of the Wisconsin Institute of Mortuary Science, will join the staff at the Osgood Funeral Home in St. Johns Aug. 1.

Brown is a licensed funeral director. He is married to the former Marlyn Fink daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Fink 507 S. Ottawa Street, St. Johns.

HE GRADUATED from Ionia High School in 1960 and attended Central Michigan University and Lansing Community College. He served his mortuary apprenticeship during a 30-month period of employment with the Estes-Leadley Funeral Home in Lansing.

Employment of Brown at the local funeral home will provide an opportunity for Arthur P. Bond, long associated with Osgoods here, to complete his academic work at Wayne State University this coming year.

Woman bruised in 1-car crash

A woman suffered bruises and four other persons escaped unhurt Saturday when the car in which they were riding crashed on Hollister road a half-mile south of French Road in Duplain Township.

Mrs. Mattie Michael, 47, of Belleville, Mich., the driver suffered bruises in the crash. Herman Michael, 53, Curtis Gepson, 11, Ray Gepson, 15, and William Johnson, 14, all of Belleville, were unhurt.

MRS. MICHAEL told Deputy Sheriff Stanley Kadjas of Elsie that she had been distracted by her passengers. She took her eyes off the road, she said, went into the left lane, swerved back to the right side of the road, lost control, went into a ditch and overturned.

The car was going north on Hollister Road at the time.

Bloodmobile gets 169 pints, 211 volunteer

Although the number of donors to the Clinton County Bloodbank program fell short of what was expected, the leaders of the community project were grateful for the turnout and are looking forward to December and the next Bloodmobile visit.

A total of 169 pints of blood were collected at the Congregational Church last Tuesday. The goal was 200 pints.

ACTUALLY, 211 persons registered to give blood, but 42 of them were rejected for medical reasons. Three hundred persons had given pledges for blood, but less than half of them appeared; 44 of the donors were walk-ins, people who had not pledged.

The hot, muggy day was given a great deal of the blame for the low turnout by county Bloodmobile Co-chairmen Mr and Mrs Richard Newman of R-2, DeWitt, St. Johns Chairman Mrs Kenneth Spicer.

THE DATE for the Bloodmobile also fell in the middle of the wheat harvest season, and it was felt this might have affected the turnout considerably, too.

The following 211 persons registered in an effort to give blood:

Was 2nd highest amount donated

Although the Bloodbank's leaders were hoping for a record turnout, the amount was by no means low when compared to previous years. In fact, the 169 pints was the second highest number given here.

The last five Bloodbanks have produced these amounts of blood:

July 1962-----78 pints
December 1962-----168 pints
July 1963-----202 pints
December 1963-----152 pints
JULY 1964-----169 pints

Looking Backward

A Glimpse of the Past by Ira "Sawmill" Birmingham of Shepardsville

In 1900 I was 21 and earning $6 a 60 hour week at the Ovid village water and light plant. Because of that I remember hearing what happened in the St. Johns electric light plant.

A steam engine having a large "balance wheel" drove a dynamo with a 16-inch double thickness leather belt, perhaps one third of the balance wheel, which also served as a belt pulley, being down in a pit that was connected with a sewer.

I SUPPOSE the concrete floor in the engine room was flushed with a hose. But that dark evening there was a big rain and water began to come up out of the sewer.

I was sorry for the man in charge, for with the engine running he couldn't go down in that pit and plug the inlet that was supposed to be an outlet. Centrifugal force threw the water off the belt but the flexible glue that held it together wasn't water-proof.

If the man closed the throttle valve, all lights would go out and only that part of the belt under water might fall apart. Just what do you think you would have done if you had been in his place?

Yes, trains DO roar when they go through this crossing, but it's doubtful the wording here is anything but a human goof. The sign faces southbound motorists on Grange Road just north of M-21, which shows in background.
