State Troopers Stand Guard as NFO Pickets Stockyards

Steel-helmeted state policemen, carrying night sticks, step into shade for a few moments of relaxed guard between arrivals of farm animals at the Wolverine Stockyards Friday. Three squads of state troopers were called in by city police who feared violence might spread after three pickets were arrested by city officers. NFO pickets mill in street waiting to stop the next truck.

NFO Spokesmen Talk With Truck Driver

This was the object of the NFO in their picketing at the Wolverine Stockyards Co. in St. Johns Friday—talk. Spokesmen for the NFO approached each driver after his truck was halted by the pickets. They explained the NFO's objectives and urged the farmer to take his animals back home. This one did.

Truck Drives on Through NFO Picket Lines

A state policeman at left pushes back pickets to allow a Michigan State University truck to pass through into the Wolverine Stockyards Friday. The driver did not stop his truck to talk to the NFO. However, the truck was never unloaded, and it left the stockyards 45 minutes later with its full load of cattle. (MORE PICTURES ON PAGE 3-A)

Courthouse additions considered

The Clinton County Board of Supervisors is considering new wings to the courthouse which would add the equivalent of 32 office spaces. The rough cost estimate given them Tuesday by the architect was between $250,000 and $300,000.

No action was taken by the board pending investigation during the next month of financing methods.

CONSIDERATION of the wings reportedly has been on the supervisors' minds for several months due to a shortage of office space. Willard Krebel of Riley Township, chairman of the building and grounds committee, said this need will increase with future rulings by the state for additional full-time positions.

Tuesday the board looked at drawings and floor plans presented by St. Clair Pardee, St. Johns architect. His proposed additions to the courthouse would be two wings, each of which would extend 27 feet north of the present entrance. The entrance would remain essentially as it is.

EACH WING would have two floors. However, the ground level floor of the addition would connect with the basement of the original building, and the second floor would connect with the main floor of the old building.

A new supervisors' room is envisioned on the second floor of the west wing, where it would be close to the clerk's office. There would also be a public gallery, something not available now, and a committee room, also not available now.

The new wings, if both are decided on, would total 10,824 square feet, compared to about 22,000 square feet in the present building. The additions would each be 42 by 53 feet.

PARDEE SAID the estimated cost would be $135,000 for both floors of one wing, plus about $5,000 for remodeling of the present building and $1,000 for contingencies. He figured it would cost in the neighborhood of $141,300 to get one wing up.

Two wings would cost less than $300,000, he said. It would take about a year to build it, regardless of whether one or two wings was decided on, he said.

THE PRESENT building was constructed in 1869, and Pardee said it is still considered so sound that he considered it better to add on to it than build a new structure.

NFO picketing cuts flow of stock to yards

St. Johns and state police, as well as the Clinton County sheriff's department, will be standing by again Friday to prevent possible violence such as the disturbance which led to three persons being arrested last Friday.

The three were members of the National Farmers' Organization (NFO), but none were from the county. They were charged with interfering with the transportation of farm livestock to the Wolverine Stockyards in St. Johns.

An estimated 175 NFO pickets clogged the entrance to the stockyards, seeking to convince farmers to refrain from marketing their animals. The minor violence and arrests in the late morning and early afternoon prompted the city police to request aid from state police.

Troopers had reportedly been standing by since late the night before, and St. Johns Police Chief Everett Glazier said they were at the scene about three minutes after he called them. Three squads—36 men—wearing steel helmets and carrying night sticks, were at the stockyards from 2:30 p.m. to 7:30.

NFO COUNTY President Roy Westendorf called the blocking of the stockyards effective and said the NFO was happy with the results. The "results," according to stockyards President James W. Prince, were that receipts at the weekly livestock auction were down about 75 per cent.

One NFO spokesman said he figured the farmer trade was cut by about 95 per cent. He claimed the bulk of receipts came through commercial channels and in the bigger lots but "didn't amount to anything."

THE NFO's aim at the St. Johns stockyards, as in 23 Midwestern states, is to keep livestock off the markets in an effort to force meat processors to sign contracts with the farmers for a guaranteed price.

THE NFO wants $32.45 a hundredweight for choice beef, $22.75 for top hogs and $29.45 for prime lambs. Wolverine stockyards officials said the prices paid Friday at the auction were $24 to $25.70 for choice beef; $18.50 to $18.80 for No. 1 hogs; and $22 to $24.25 for prime lambs.

THE THREE arrests were made at different times during the day. Robert R. Jones, 38, of Henderson was arrested shortly before 10:25 a.m. by city police. He pleaded innocent to a charge of putting sugar in a truck's gas tank and was released on $100 bond set by Justice of the Peace Robert Wood.

At 1:37 p.m. Morland D. Shuster, 31, also of Henderson, was arrested by city police. He was charged with hindering a vehicle hindering farm products by standing in front of the truck. He also

County political delegates to convene here Saturday

Clinton County Republicans and Democrats will meet in convention in St. Johns Saturday to choose their delegates to state conclaves of their parties the following week and to name members to the county Executive Committees of each of their political parties.

Republicans will convene at 2 p.m. in the courtroom at the Courthouse. Democrats are scheduled to meet at 8 p.m. in the Supervisors' Room in the county jail building.

Alvin M. Bentley of Owosso, former Congressman and chairman of Governor Romney's committee on state educational problems, will keynote the Republican session. Austin J. Doyle, Kalamazoo attorney and candidate for Judge of the 3rd district Court of Appeals, will speak to the Democratic convention.

OLIVER ANGELL, Republican nominee for Supervisor of DeWitt Township in the November election, has been appointed temporary chairman to preside at the Republican session.

County Democrats will choose eight delegates and eight alternates to their state convention in Lansing Saturday, Sept. 19. Republicans will name nine delegates and nine alternates to the Republican state convention in Detroit—also on Saturday, Sept. 19.

To move water table recorder

The city of St. Johns will move a water table recording device from its Lansing-Gibbs area well field to an abandoned test well behind Andy's IGA, in an effort to get more accurate information.

son's property—to which Anderson has agreed—Greer said the city engineers feel they could get better and more accurate information. The Conservation Department, Greer said, is willing to move the instrument.

To do this, they agreed to take their option and buy from the Dunbar Drilling Co. about 140 feet of six-inch pipe for $2 per foot. The pipe was left in the ground behind the store after the test well was dug, with Dunbar still owning it and planning to remove it at a later date.

THE WATER table recording device, as explained by City Manager Ken Greer, is a little float, which ride on top of the water in the well casing. As the water table rises and falls, the float, attached to a tape and a recording instrument, makes a record of the changes.

It is owned by the Michigan Conservation Dept., which charges the city $200 a year and provides the city with data every two weeks. The device is presently located in the old well No. 2, a well which has a bent shaft and is not used for pumping.

BUT GREER said since this is the center of the present well field, the information received from it is the same as what the city gets from its own pumping figures and is thus practically useless.

By moving the recording device 1,400 feet north to the six-inch test well on Dorr Ander-

Clarence Hill wins State Fair honors

Seventy-two year-old Clarence A. Hill of St. Johns was selected as Michigan's Senior Citizen Leader of the Year at the Michigan State Fair.

Floyd D. Wallace, field administrator of the Michigan Commission on Aging, said Clinton County has perhaps the most active and comprehensive program for senior citizens in the state and that much of the credit goes to Hill.

The plaque presented Hill at the State Fair reads: "1964 Michigan State Fair Senior Citizen of the Year For Leadership. Presented to Clarence A. Hill, who has forged a golden capstone to retirement through untiring assistance to his fellowmen."

HILL'S award was the highlight of a trip to the fair for 56 Senior Citizens of St. Johns. They went down in the Olds Courtesy Bus, chartered by Pohl Brothers. The group's 26-member Kitchen Band played at 10:30 a.m. and later entertained at Gov. George Romney's trailer.

Portland lawyer opens at Eagle

Eagle—Ronald VanBuren, attorney at law, who has had an office in Portland for several years, has opened an office at the Eagle elevator property and will practice law here.

He, with his wife and two children, reside in Portland.

Ovid-Elsie bloodbank Sept. 17

Residents of both Ovid and Elsie are being asked to contribute blood to the Clinton County Bloodbank program next Thursday, Sept. 17.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be set up at the Ovid Veterans Building between noon and 6 p.m.

Mr and Mrs Richard Newman, county chairmen for the Bloodbank program, said this is the first combined effort. The Bloodmobile usually sets up in both Ovid and Elsie but technical problems make it impractical this year.

"IT IS hoped that the people who are used to going to Elsie will commute the short distance to Ovid to support this program which is so vital to the community," Mrs Newman said.

"There is only one program a year in this area now, and with a successful effort we can keep it this way. Say yes if you are asked, and come if you are not contacted," she urged.

He's fined, jailed on driving charge

Gary B. Snyder, 19, of Maple Rapids, was fined $40 plus $15 costs and sentenced to seven days in jail by Justice of the Peace Robert Wood on a charge of reckless driving.

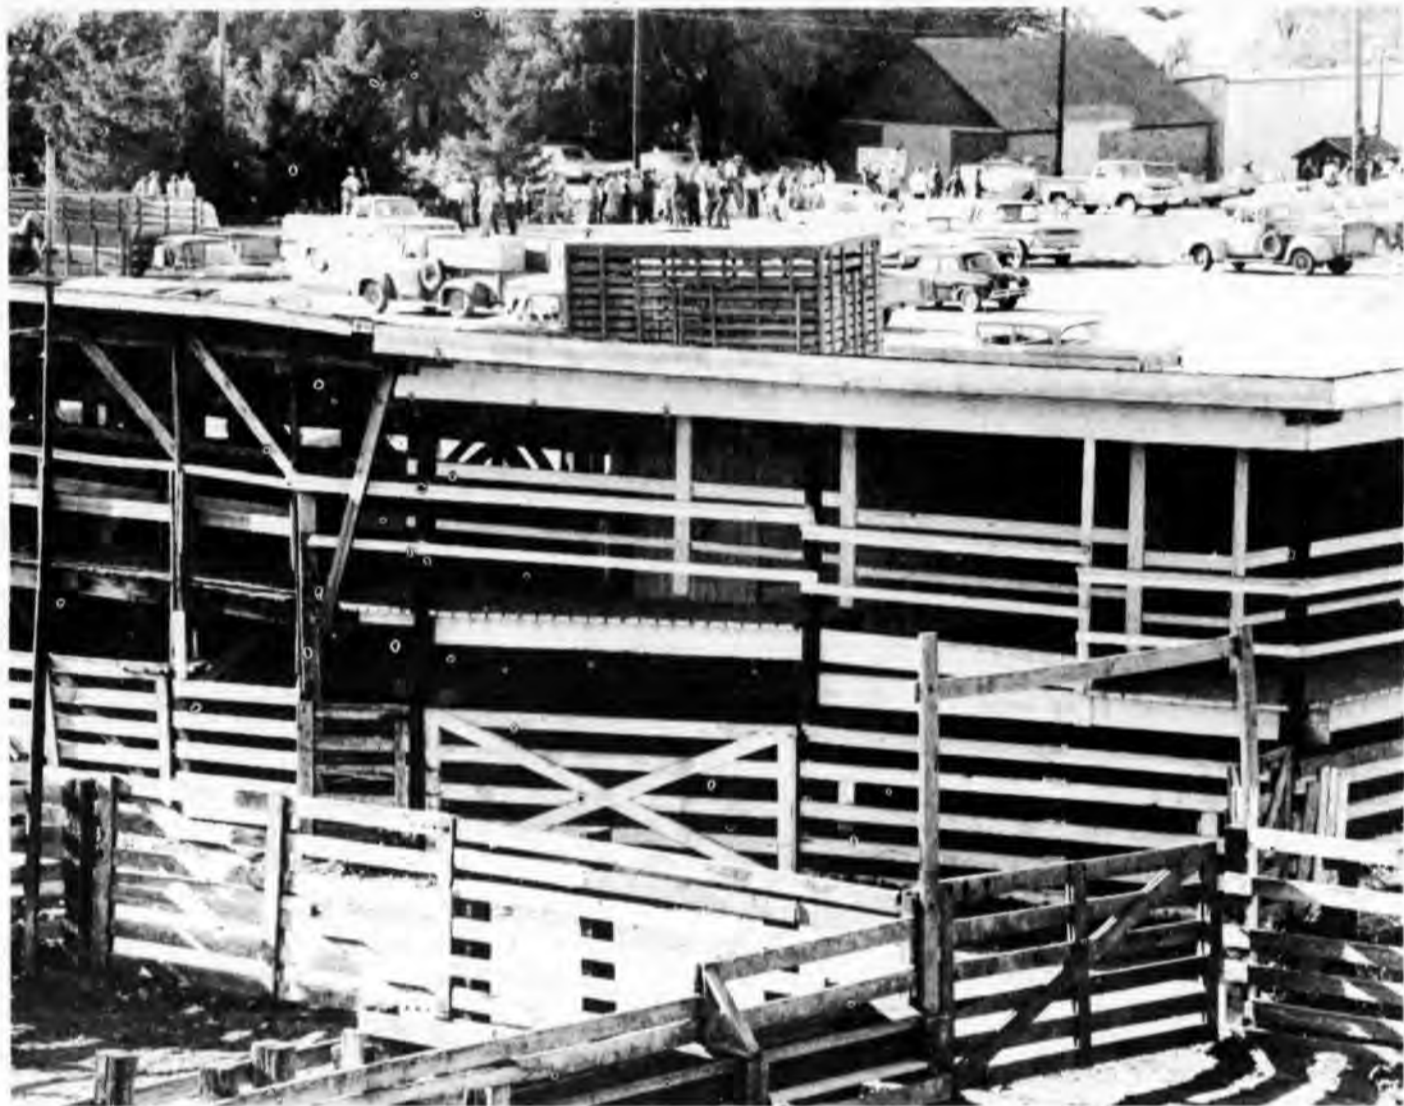

Snyder was arrested Monday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Ramon Terpening in Essex Township.

NFO Pickets Surround, Halt Cattle Truck

With the arrival of each truckload of livestock at the stockyards in St. Johns Friday, pickets of the NFO swarmed into the street to block its passage. An estimated 150 to 200 pickets were on "duty" for the NFO. One of them (left) fortified himself with a half-gallon of milk for the long vigil.

NFO Picketing Kept Many Stockyard Pens Empty

Empty stockyards—that was the aim of the NFO pickets in the background. While they didn't succeed in closing down the weekly auction at the St. Johns Wolverine Stockyards Co., receipts reportedly were off 75 percent. Pickets blocked all trucks entering the yards, and most farmers were talked into turning around. The auction was held anyway.

Formal opening of Eagle elevator on Saturday, Sept. 12

A formal opening of the Eagle elevator under its new name, All-In-One Feeds, Inc., is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 12, and the public is invited to view the facilities.

The elevator is now owned by a corporation headed by Ronald VanBuren, Portland attorney, as president and general manager.

The company plans to conduct a general elevator business and will manufacture its own brand of feeds.

pleaded innocent to the charge and was released on $100 bond. His justice court trial was set for Sept. 23 at 1:30 p.m.

THOMAS J. Bradley, 21 of R-2, Ashley, was booked at the county jail at 2:55 p.m. by city and state police on a charge similar to Shuster's. He was charged with lying on the ground in front of a truck.

He pleaded guilty to the charge before Justice Wood and was fined $35 and $4.90 costs.

Other than the arrests, there was no violence. The crowd of farmers, however, surged around every truck that sought to enter the stockyards. NFO spokesmen talked to the driver of each and tried to get them to turn around and take their animals back to the farm.

"YOU JUST get more money next time you bring 'em in," a woman in the crowd shouted at a farmer who had two calves in his truck. "Take 'em home," somebody else shouted. The crowd broke into cheers and applause when the driver backed the truck into Steel Street and left.

"All you have to do is tell them you couldn't get in," another farmer was told. But when he wasn't convinced, he edged the truck through the crowd, with state police help, and unloaded a truckload of cattle.

"HOW'S IT feel being a scab?" the driver was asked by NFO pickets who followed him to the unloading gate.

Shouts of "Scab," and "Traitor" also greeted a Michigan State University truck, whose driver drove slowly through the crowd without stopping. The truck drove out about 45 minutes later, however, without unloading. This time the NFO pickets applauded.

"With the first 10 farmers that came through, we talked to them and they turned around and went home," Westendorf said in claiming victory Friday. He said the picketing would continue until contracts were signed.

HE SAID some contracts have been signed already.

The pickets and other farmers milling around the area began to drift away for home to do chores about 4:30 and by the dinner hour there were just about as many policemen as there were others at the scene.

The livestock auction ended around 7 p.m. As the crowd continued to dwindle, state police began to move out about 7:30.

WESTENDORF and another NFO member claimed they had called in state police when they "weren't getting a fair shake" from city police. But Chief Glazier said the state police were called in by himself and that they had been standing by waiting for his call.

State police will undoubtedly be on hand again this Friday if picketing develops. Gov. George Romney last week directed them to honor all requests from local law enforcement agencies for "whatever assistance necessary to maintain law and order at livestock auctions."

IN A statement he said: "Members of the NFO certainly have the right to peacefully picket stockyards and certainly may pursue peaceful persuasion to tell their story. But they must also respect the rights of others."

The pickets in St. Johns Friday congregated on the paved city street which leads from East Steel Street into the stockyards. Chief Glazier said he gave the pickets all the leeway possible. He said many sat along the curbs of the street, although the law says pickets must keep moving.

Sits out start of drunk fine

William J. Pruitt, 24, of R-3, St. Johns, remained in county jail Tuesday after being arrested and found guilty on a charge of being drunk and disorderly in a public place Saturday evening. He was arrested by St. Johns police.

Pruitt was fined $15 plus $15 costs, with the alternative being 15 days in jail. The case was before Justice of the Peace Robert Wood.

Delay action of standards for firemen

Action on the long-discussed physical standards for St. Johns firemen was postponed yet another time by the city commission last Tuesday to give the firemen time to look over the proposed standards.

The firemen were to meet the night after the city commission meeting, and it was decided to get their opinions before any action is taken. The new standards are about the same as those for school bus drivers.

CITY MANAGER Ken Greer

said questions frequently asked of him concern why the medical examiner was to base his opinion on the same standards required for school bus drivers.

"The best answer to this," he said, "is that the doctors are familiar with these, and otherwise the city would have to draft some rather precise standards or the doctors wouldn't know what to base their medical fitness certificate on."

Band winds up week of intensive drills at Interlochen Music Camp

INTERLOCHEN—The St. Johns High School band, fresh from a week's intensive pre-season instruction, should be well on its way to some fine performances during the coming school year.

For a week, the northern woods at the famed National Music Camp resounded with the roll of drums and the marching of hundreds of young feet as eight bands from Michigan put in days of musical work. They returned Monday.

"THE ATMOSPHERE of the camp is a strong motivating power," Walter P. Cole, St. Johns band director, said at Interlochen, "and if effects of the music we are surrounded with all week rubs off, we are happy."

The band, which has been a regular Interlochen visitor since 1954, this year had 111 members at the music camp. Twenty orchestra members also put in a week here.

"WE BEGAN planning for this trip last March or April," Cole said. "It means so many things, and what we do here sort of sets the tempo for the rest of the year."

"We are here to get a jump on the marching season and in the process prepare a lot of special musical numbers which are tougher than ordinary arrangements and, I think, better," he said.

The Interlochen stint provided about 7 1/2 hours of music a day, which Cole said equals about eight weeks of instruction during an ordinary school year.

IT WAS UP before 7 a.m. in the cozy cabins which dot the Interlochen woods, put the quarters in shape, get to breakfast and then launch into a full day of marching, four hours of it, another 3 1/2 hours of playing and a session of recreation to change the fast musical pace.

The recreation included time for getting to know bandsmen from such cities as Wyandotte, Jackson or GrandLedge, which is in the same athletic conference as St. Johns.

"We want to develop an inner spirit, to make the players proud of themselves," said Cole, "and from that standpoint it looks good this year."

WITH THE START of the regular school year, Cole plans to divide the players into two high school bands, one called the symphonic band made up of the best players, and the other the high school band with opportunity for any member to compete for higher position.

"The number and percentage of kids interested in music is increasing," he said, "and this kind of experience, which parents also think is fine, helps them to realize what music can mean."

Both Cole, who was at Corunna 11 years, and his assistant, Robert Cox, made their second trip to Interlochen.

THE STUDENTS pay their own way for a week of work, fun and learning in northern Michigan.

Interlochen, where the famed National Music Camp was initiated 36 years ago by Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, then a music professor at the University of Michigan, covers 1,200 acres 15 miles south of Traverse City.

It is located between two lakes, Wahbeganetta and Wahbeganess, which provide plenty of swimming and boating.

BUT MOSTLY it is music, from dawn to dark and the year round.

The US Office of Education reports voters approved $2 billion in school bond issues this past year. That's a new high.

Beth Kuripla, Kurt Acton and Kathy Howe kick and swing in sharpening up their abilities with the baton at Interlochen. They will be out in front of the band when it marches at the football games this season.

St. Johns High School bandsmen form long lines in practicing their marching and playing abilities at Interlochen last week. The band was at the National Music Camp for a week, getting ready for their marching programs at the Redwings' football games this fall.

63 to take 4-H award trip

Sixty-three 4-H members and at least 13 adults will make the Barry County 4-H Award trip Saturday and Sunday.

The Barry County 4-H Camp at Hastings is the focal point of the trip, and a heated swimming pool, outdoor recreation, hiking and other activities are provided for the campers.

THE TRIP is awarded annually for outstanding, all-around 4-H work by 12-year-olds. Leaders of the various 4-H Clubs recommend youngsters for the trip to County Extension Agent for 4-H Don Walker.

Thirty-three girls and 30 boys will be making the trip. The adults will be going down as drivers, and to assist in supervision, and most will stay overnight.

THE CARAVAN will leave the Clinton County Courthouse at 9 a.m. Saturday and will return about 5 p.m. Sunday. Those involved should take two blankets or a sleeping bag, sheets and pillow, wash cloth, towel, bath suit and other personal articles.

Each member is asked to bring a dish to pass for Saturday lunch—sandwiches, cake baked beans, goulash, scalloped potatoes or similar dish.

EACH MEMBER will pay 50 cents toward the cost of the camp.

2nd charter change on Nov. ballot

Voters in the city of St. Johns will have two charter amendments to vote on in November.

One regards the proposed municipal court system. The second, by resolution of the city commission last Tuesday night, will be for increasing the pay of city commissioners.

THEY PRESENTLY receive $3 for each regular meeting they attend and nothing for special meetings. The proposed change in the charter would make this $10 per regular meeting and nothing for special meetings.

City Atty. Harold Reed drew up two resolutions for concerning their pay for commissioners to decide on. One, the resolution accepted, set the specific amount in the charter; the other, turned down, left the amount to the commissioners.

THE NEW salary would not affect any of the present terms of office. Only those commissioners elected after the charter change goes into effect—if approved by voters Nov. 3—would receive the higher pay.

New vacuum system for heating OK'd

Here's a brief rundown on some of the miscellaneous business handled by the city commission last Tuesday night:

—Commissioners gave the city manager power to make contacts and have a new vacuum system for the city building heating plant installed this fall.

—THE COMMISSION officially turned down a request by Henry Beechem of Beechem Laboratories, 1102 W. State Street, for city water. They cited the commission's policy not to furnish services to areas not in the city limits. A similar request by a homeowner on Walker Road near North Clinton Avenue was also rejected.

—The commission asked that flags in the city be flown during the entire week of Sept. 17 to 23, which is "Constitution Week." The request was made by Mrs. George Brooks of the River Wabwaysin chapter of DAR.

—A 2,000-GALLON gas tank for the city's new Department of Public Works building will be bought from the Blued Oil Co. for $240. Other local firms said they bought from the Owosso Tank Co., too, and their prices would be the same.

—About 300 square yards of sod, at 70 cents per square yard, will be bought for the north side of the concession stand at the city park.

—Bills totaling $41,464.28 were approved for payment.

Asked to allow nurse to cross county line

Proposals by officials of the new Ovid-Elsie school district to allow the county nurse to cross the county line in her work is being studied by the county board of supervisors.

THE EDUCATION committee of the board, consisting of Maurice Gove, Lorenz Tiedt and Moore, will study the situation and have a recommendation at the October meeting.

Letters sent Supervisor George Moore of Duplain and George Austin of Ovid asked that consideration be given the request. Although the new district has been formed, it is still operating classes in the surrounding rural schools, including some in other counties.

ROBERT Beauchamp, superintendent, and Earl Seybert, assistant superintendent, pointed out in their letters that the children are from Clinton County, even though they have been assigned to schools in other counties.

They requested that the county nurse, Mrs. Luella Canfield, be allowed to cross the county line to care for the Clinton County youngsters.

Will increase rental for city building

Clubs and other organizations which use the auditorium of the city building may have to pay more rent in the future for that use.

The present rent is $5 for the hall ($10 if tickets are sold for admission) and $5 for use of the kitchen.

The city commission feels this price is hardly enough to pay for the janitorial and other work involved in renting the auditorium out, and Commissioner Raymond Kentfield was named to work with the city manager in designing new rental prices and rules for use of the auditorium.

. . . Your Prescription Headquarters

What Goes Into the Price of Your Prescription?

Most people will agree that the price paid for any product rightly includes the cost of materials and the cost of labor.

This is true of prescriptions. The price you pay for your medicine includes the cost of the "materials" (the drugs) and the cost of "labor" (the pharmacist's service). The latter reflects the fact that the pharmacist's expert knowledge and professional training are essential in transforming your physician's prescription into a health-giving medicine.

Today, a pharmacist attends pharmacy college for a minimum of 5 years. It has been estimated that he spends more than 10,000 hours receiving his professional training, not to mention a long period of apprenticeship following graduation. Finally, he must pass a rigorous state examination before he is licensed. With this superior professional background, the modern pharmacist is uniquely qualified to protect your health through his professional knowledge.

Your prescription means much more to the pharmacist than a piece of paper. He has studied many years to provide you with the best pharmaceutical service, and you can be certain that, when you hand him a prescription, he focuses all his professional knowledge on it.

At Parr's Pharmacy, we are a member of your health team, see us for all your prescription needs.

State UF services extensive

Some $5,000 of the $29,000 Communities Chest goal has been approved for the Michigan United Fund this year. The Michigan UF, consists of 17 state agencies and 20 national agencies.

The following dollar figures represent actual services rendered to individuals in Clinton County during the past year by some of the UF agencies:

ARTHRITIS and Rheumatism Foundation $68.24, Michigan Children's Aid Society $159.21, Michigan Diabetes Assn. $39.97, Michigan Epilepsy Center and Assn. $22.00, Michigan Assn. for Better Hearing $1,607.10, Multiple Sclerosis Society of Michigan $87.63, Sister Kenny Foundation $81.77, and United Service Organizations $2,019.60.

Referring to the USO, reports show 306 men and women from the county in the armed forces as of January. This averages out to an expenditure of only $6.60 per person per year.

MICHIGAN UF health agencies also invest heavily in research projects to discover causes of and improved treatments for heart disorders, arthritis and rheumatism, kidney disease, mental illness, cancer, cerebral palsy, and diabetes, to name a few.

Your contributions to the Clinton County Communities Chest will assist this agency in continuing its aid to all in the county as well as statewide and nationally.

St. Johns hunter to get elk license

Joy W. Tait of R-1, St. Johns, was one of 300 Michigan applicants chosen by data-processing machines recently to receive licenses for the state's Dec. 5-13 elk hunting season.

Continue punt, pass signup

A number of boys have signed up already for St. Johns' first Punt, Pass & Kick competition, sponsored nationally by the Ford Motor Co. and locally by Egan Ford Sales and the St. Johns Jaycees.

The Punt, Pass & Kick contest will be Oct. 10, and youngsters age 8 to 13 have until Oct. 9 to register at Egan's on West High Street. Awards and prizes which the winners will receive are on display there.

BOYS WILL compete for distance and accuracy in the three football skills in six different age groups, with three awards or prizes being given to each group.

There are plans for a football skills clinic to be held for entrants sometime before the contest, but no definite date or time has been set.

DAR Chapter urges respect to Constitution

The members of River Wabwaysin Chapter of the DAR are making plans for Constitution Week which will be observed Sept. 17 to 23. There will be a window display at the J. C. Penney Company store.

The teachers of the schools will observe the anniversary of the signing of the Constitution of the United States, the ministers will cooperate as will the service clubs during that week.

THE MEMBERS of the DAR ask that all lovers of America, proud of the achievements of our ancestors, pause during these seven days to consider the heritage of our Constitution and its enduring principles. Then, with renewed faith and determination to abide by them, go forward and devote ourselves to the protection of the ideals exemplified in the Constitution.

Redwings Dig Hard in Preparation for Mason

The St. Johns High School Redwings conducted football drills twice a day last week and will meet after school from now on. All the activity is geared toward the opening game of the season against Mason Sept. 18. In this picture, a lone defensive man (bottom of pile) tries in vain to stop ball carrier going over the top.

He's ticketed for bad turn

Daniel Medina, 37, of 425 Fox Street, Ovid, was ticketed for making an improper left turn after a crash on North US-27 in Bingham Township Saturday evening.

According to Deputy Sheriff Gaylord Foote, who investigated, Medina made a left turn as his car was being passed by another driven by Mrs. Sharon Meagher, 21, of 1841 Beal Street, Lansing.

THE CARS collided, Medina's being damaged on the left side and Mrs. Meagher's on the right side.

Country Club plans Senior golf tourney

The Clinton County Country Club will hold its 1st annual Senior Golf Tournament on Sunday, Sept. 13. All club members over 50 years of age are eligible to enter.

The annual President's Cup Day will be held at the local club on Sunday, Sept. 20. All members are invited to play in this tourney.

Both were traveling north on US-27.

Neither driver was hurt, nor was Shawn Meagher, 7 weeks old, or Harold Meagher, 25, passengers in Mrs. Meagher's car.

Delay asphalt base for ice rink

A proposal for a two-inch asphalt mat for the ice skating rink at the city park was set aside for at least a year by the city commission at its meeting last week.

New asphalt covers for the four tennis courts also entered the conversation, but this was tabled pending discussions with the St. Johns school board, which shares in some of the city park costs.

THE ASPHALT covering for the ice skating rink was postponed after City Manager Ken Greer said he thought the oil seal applied last year would hold up for at least another winter and maybe longer. Foreseeable fiscal problems also entered into the commissioner's decision to wait.

The proposed rink asphalt mat would be two inches thick and would have a rolled three-inch curb. "This mat would be an improvement and could be utilized for other purposes in the summer recreation program," Greer said.

"IT WOULD probably help in preparing proper ice base for skating, but the oil seal that was applied last year worked fairly well, and we had almost twice the number of skating days as we've previously had." Greer told the commissioners another oil seal would be needed in time, but not this year. It would cost roughly $800, he said.

No high school classes yet for Bannister students

Twenty-five high school students from Bannister are students without a school. And they may be that way for some time.

Bannister voters turned down a proposal last month to merge with the new Ovid-Elsie district. The vote was 74-62. As a result, when school opened Tuesday in Ovid and Elsie, the Bannister students weren't there.

SATURDAY voters are going to ballot on same proposition—the merger—but even if it should pass this time, there seems to be doubts about the legality. Some school officials say a vote can't be held twice in less than 30 days.

on a school merger proposition. The last vote was Aug. 24.

Supt. Robert H. Beauchamp of the Ovid-Elsie School District said an ultimatum was given Bannister district some time ago that no high school students would be accepted after Sept. 8 unless Bannister became a part of the new district.

SEN. EMIL Lockwood of St. Louis has been asked by Bannister parents to seek an attorney general's opinion as to the legality of a second election.

Ken Greer, St. Johns city manager and assessor, will preside over a sectional meeting of assessors at the 66th annual convention of the Michigan Municipal League in Lansing Sept. 16-18.

The assessors will hear talks on "Some Legal Aspects of Special Assessments" by a Detroit attorney, and "1964 Property Tax Laws," by Richard R. Roesch, state assistant attorney general.

GOV GEORGE Romney and Congressman Neil Staebler will appear together at the convention's opening session to address the delegates on the subject of "The Future of State-Local Relations." At the closing luncheon Friday, Sen. Phillip A. Hart and Ely M. Peterson, nominee for the US Senate, will speak on "The Future of Federal-Local Relations."

"Meeting Tomorrow's Problems Today" will be the theme of the annual convention, and more than 1,000 municipal officials are expected to attend.

Crazy golf features Country Club fun day

Fun Day at the Clinton County Country Club was held last Wednesday under the direction of Mrs. Lorenz Tiedt, sports chairman, and Mrs. Wayne Hicks.

The ladies played in one-ball threesomes with each using only one iron and a putter. As if that weren't hazardous enough, they had to putt with a croquet mallet or through a wire fence, had to sit on a chair to tee off on one hole, use a baseball left-handed and even throw the ball on one tee.

BALLS FOR low score were won by a team consisting of Mrs. Charles Watson, Mrs. Richard Newman and Mrs. Hazel Allaby for their 77 total.

Crazy prizes were given to Mrs. Joe Ricker, Mrs. Basil Delbert, Mrs. O. B. Moore, Mrs. Lester Lake, Mrs. James Nuser and a practice ball to all others present.

The annual Green Tee banquet will be held at the Country Club

Monday, Sept. 14, with the cocktail hour at 6:30 p.m. Members are asked to make early reservations with Mrs. Charles Dickson or Mrs. John A. Martin.

Brothers differ on drinking pleas

Two Detroit brothers made different pleas Tuesday to drinking charges.

Eugene A. Klei, 23, of Detroit pled not guilty to driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor when he appeared Tuesday before Justice of the Peace Robert Wood. He remained in county jail Tuesday under $300 bond pending a justice court trial Oct. 6 at 9:30 a.m.

ROGER E. Klei, 20, also of Detroit, pled guilty to drinking on a highway and was fined $15 plus $15 costs by Wood.

Both brothers were arrested Monday by Deputy Sheriff Stanley Kajdas.

BATH—Douglas Winkel, 9, of Bath may have saved the life of a neighbor pal, Curtiss Randall, 6, in a fire at the Randall home last Wednesday afternoon.

Firemen said Curtiss, son of Mr and Mrs Jack Randall, 13811 Main Street, Bath, had just returned home from school about 3:45 p.m. when the fire started. He was alone at the time, his father being at work and his mother visiting with friends.

DOUGLAS, son of Mr and Mrs Harold Winkel, saw Curtiss screaming hysterically in the house and went in to get him before firemen were called. Douglas had gone to the Randall home to play with Curtiss.

The blaze, which reportedly started in a closet, caused an estimated $5,000 damage because of intense heat, although firemen said only about $600 worth of household furnishings was actually charred.

THE RANDALLS' 11-year-old daughter had not returned home from school when the fire started.

Pride and tradition are military attractions

A Pentagon study group is looking into the reasons why young men enlist in military service. Behind the research is the possibility that Congress may abolish the draft some day, and officials would like to know the best ways to lure volunteers into the Army.

Among the current theories, pay ranks first as an attraction, followed by the opportunity to learn new skills, and last, the popular image of service life.

WHILE THE authorities are still busy with motivational research and don't offer their findings as final, we'd like to suggest that such vague intangibles as esprit, pride, tradition and challenge all affect the decision by a good many of those who sign up.

The Marine Corps, for example, has filled its ranks with superb fighting men for generations without a draft and without much talk about pay.

The paratroopers and Rangers of World War II were volunteer outfits. In Britain, where regimental pride runs deep and no draft exists today, some famous units such as the Coldstream Guards and the Black Watch need only run up their flag in a village square to win recruits.

IT MAY be that we live in an age when the soldier's ideals are out of fashion, when mundane considerations such as three squares a day come first.

But it may also be that the echo of Concord and Saratoga, of Vimy Ridge and Belleau Wood, Midway and St. Lo and Inchon all count for something, too, in that young man's mental process.

Recruiting posters of the future should keep the dollar signs inconspicuous, and the image of the soldier bright.

Bird count points to more Noisy Springs

If agricultural pesticides are the menace to human and animal life that they're cooked up to be by the late Rachel Carson and others, our American birds haven't been told.

An analysis of figures compiled by the Audubon Society, which keeps track of the bird population through the counts of bird watchers, indicates that our feathered friends are decidedly on the increase.

Specifically, in 1940, some 2,200 counters listed a total of 2 million birds; in 1961, there were 9,677 counters and their total was 37.8 million—which seems to add up to a doubling of the bird population in a couple of decades.

WE DON'T MEAN to dismiss entirely the possible danger of indiscriminate use of pesticides, but it would appear that well-meant criticism has frequently reached totally unjustified dimensions.

It seems that Noisy rather than Silent Springs are a continuing prospect in Clinton County and throughout America . . . and the chemicals used by farmers to kill pests will continue to be a major factor in the phenomenal production of US agriculture.

NOTHING GIVES a man more leisure than always being on time for appointments.

Things To Think About

RAMBLIN' with Rink

BY LOWELL G. RINKER

Two young type lice lounged on the disk that carries the 36-point Bodoni italic headline type used at the Clinton County News. They were looking at the workers scurrying around the composing room.

Etaoin turned to Shrdlu and remarked:

"Can't see why they're in such a hurry. It's only Tuesday night."

"YOU'D THINK they had a deadline, wouldn't you?" Shrdlu commented. "Nobody else has one."

"Yah, the news all comes in early anyway," Etaoin said. "It's all carefully written and there are no mistakes. Can't see what they're all heated up about."

Shrdlu felt compelled to expound.

"With hundreds of names and dates and places and circumstances in a single issue," he noted, "nobody in the place ever gets anything wrong. Nothing ever gets left out of the paper by accident. The proofreader is a mind reader and can always tell what was intended, whether it was written that way or not.

"I'VE watched them. These County News people never get a vacation, because they don't need one. They never get tired. Why, I hear they spend long evenings at home loafing, and even then they have time to attend all public gatherings, board meetings, entertainment and social affairs."

Etaoin interrupted.

"People never ask them to leave anything out of the paper or put tripe in," he said. "And if on very rare occasions a mistake does get into the paper, people who call about it always laugh understandingly and say 'That's perfectly all right.'"

"NEWSPAPERING is a snap, any way you look at it," Shrdlu concluded. "It's time the editors tell the public how wonderfully simple and easy it is."

"Can't understand why they're running around out there like that," Etaoin sighed in wonderment.

★ Interesting Items from the Files of The Clinton County News

TEN YEARS AGO From the Files of Sept. 9, 1954

Enrollment in the city's five public schools and St. Joseph Catholic school reached an all-time record of 1,725 students as classes resumed this week. The previous record of 1,657 was set last year.

According to a recommendation from the St. Johns Chamber of Commerce, the city commission Tuesday night voted unanimously to put metered parking here on a two-hour basis.

Beginning Sept. 15, Harry Herbruck and Son of St. Johns will buy eggs on the basis of official US grades and size classes. The Herbruck grading station will be the first egg buying establishment in Clinton County to be supervised by full-time egg graders from the US Department of Agriculture.

25 YEARS AGO From the Files of Sept. 7, 1939

Many residents of this locality were awakened at 3 a.m. Monday by a blast of wind that shook houses, "trimmed" trees and caused considerable property damage throughout the community.

School opened this week at the St. Joseph parochial school in St. Johns, with an enrollment of 120 pupils, an increase of five over last year. There are 36 youngsters in the first three grades, 45 in the fourth, fifth and sixth and 31 in the seventh and eighth.

Jim Kelly of St. Johns, golf champion of the Clinton County Country Club two years ago and runner-up last year, repeated his 1937 triumph and won the 1939 cup by defeating Judge Clark S. Gregory in the final match played over the windswept course Sunday. Scheduled for 36 holes, the contest ended on the 31st, with Kelly seven holes up and five to play.

50 YEARS AGO From the Files of Sept. 10, 1914

Rev Matt Mullen, for four years pastor of the Congregational Church in St. Johns, has tendered his resignation to take effect Dec. 15, but asks the privilege of retiring from the pastorate Oct. 1, if he so desires, as he is contemplating taking up work for the Anti-Saloon League on that date.

While unhitching his team of horses Wednesday, one of them became frightened and jumped, shoving Jacob Gordanier to the ground. The animal stepped on his chest, injuring him quite badly, although it is thought no bones are broken.

Royce and Kentfield have opened the hotel at Maple Rapids in good shape.

Folk tales about plants should be corrected to prevent accidental poisoning, says the American Medical Assn. There are no safe tests for poisonous plants, and what birds and animals may safely eat isn't necessarily harmless to humans, according to the AMA.

Question marks in November vote

EVERYONE IS saying that this year's presidential campaign will be the hardest fought of modern times. That seems a certainty, in the light of the characters and positions of President Johnson and Senator Goldwater. Both are politicians of the driving type, and neither gives quarter when matters of power, influence and principle are at stake.

Along with this, a great many informed people think that the election may be the most historically important of the century. For, in their view, out of it could come political re-alignments that would vastly change the political complexion of the country and determine for a long time the course we are to take, both in domestic matters and our attitude toward world affairs.

THE BIG question has to do with what is called the mainstream of present-day American thinking. It is the question that, in the opinion of the conservative groups which make up the dedicated hardcore of Goldwater supporters, the American people have not had a chance to answer.

They argue that the voters have not been given a clear-cut choice between two sharply different philosophies of government. For the most part, their argument continues, there has been an excess of "me-tooism" on the part of Republican candidates, and this has alienated great numbers of voters and played into the hands of the Democrats.

The upshot, as they see it, has been the gradual development of a welfare state government which is not wanted by a majority of our citizens.

NEXT NOVEMBER should certainly tell how much truth there is or isn't in this position. The President and the Senator provide, in their policies, about as broad a difference as anyone could ask. That difference extends to every issue of real consequence.

The Administration holds that our intermingled defense and foreign policies are sound and productive; the other side charges timidity, indecision and retreat, and finds grave defects in our military programs.

The President is unequivocally committed to the new civil rights bill; Senator Goldwater voted against it—not because he opposes racial equality, but on constitutional grounds.

Mr Johnson solidly backs major extensions of federal aid and relief projects of assorted kinds; Mr Goldwater holds that these, generally, are wrong in principle and ineffective and excessively wasteful in practice.

THE RIGHTS, obligations and responsibilities of the states are very precious to the Senator, and he sees the increase of federal power as a menace to our very system of government. The President disagrees. Both men and parties, of course, are in agreement in their opposition to the communist tide, but there is a world of difference in the policies they urge to contain and defeat it.

There is no doubt that the Goldwater drive is making deep inroads in the once solidly Democratic South, or that the Democrats are picking up strength in some areas that were once dependably Republican.

Indeed, it's been a long time since there were so many political question marks on the horizon, or when it was so difficult to analyze the hopes, beliefs and loyalties of the electorate. And the stakes—not just for the parties and the candidates, but for us all—are great beyond measure.

Pleads for farmers to join with NFO

SINCE THE beginning of time, it has been customary for man to eat in order to survive, so it is pretty nice to know that our God-given land is still in business.

But in order to run this business, God has also provided certain people to operate this business. He expects these operators to make this land fruitful—which they do. But he also expects these operators to retain their stature as men; and as men they must be able to operate at a profitable margin.

ANY manufactured product, when completed, is identified by a price tag which marks it as a saleable item.

Can we not truthfully and proudly acknowledge our product as a saleable item?

But where are our price tags?

How long, for instance, could a druggist, hardware or gasoline salesman stay in business if he were to remove his price tags and then was left to the mercy of the consuming public?

THIS IS exactly what our farmers are doing but are ashamed or unwilling to admit it. Except for the fresh air and beautiful skies which we share in common bondage, we are entirely the separated poor souls.

Gratefully, though, on the horizon is building up a mountain of farmers who have been quite successful organization-wise. Maybe God has looked down and has seen the plight of the small-sized farmers and has prompted these individuals to work toward a better and more dignified balance for the farmer.

THE NATION Farmers Organization banner has been flying for several years now, bringing with it more members each year and showing greater strength progressively. But to be effective enough and have the power to place an above-cost price on their produce, they must have the co-

Charges lawlessness among our teenagers

SOMEONE SHOT my neighbor's dog. It was done from a red car. There were witnesses. The dog was on private property.

It was probably a thoughtless act. However, this is a serious crime—or crimes. It is illegal to carry loaded firearms in an automobile or shoot from the highways. This is also malicious destruction of property.

The sheriff is looking for these boys. It might be hard to prove just who did this crime. It might have been your dog or mine, or involved your son or mine.

A FEW years ago someone threw two stones with firecrackers attached through my front window at midnight. These boys were never caught.

Group is working hard to keep Michigan beautiful

BY ELMER E. WHITE
Michigan Press Ass'n.

SINCE PUBLIC education is the biggest problem behind the state's anti-litter campaign, much of the Keep Michigan Beautiful effort is aimed at mass information media.

Gordon B. Bonfield of Grand Rapids, chairman of the permanent Keep Michigan Beautiful organization, now has 10 citizen committees working to inform various segments of the population of the need for a no-litter attitude.

Each is working with local organizations "so that others will know of the campaign and how they can help," said Bonfield.

ARMED WITH Michigan's new anti-litter law, the committees hope to encourage law enforcement officials to levy penalties upon litterbugs. These penalties can include such things as requiring an offender to remove litter from public places.

But preventing the cluttering eyesores caused by litterbugs is the main goal of Keep Michigan Beautiful.

Through the use of a national film, brochures and broad publicity campaigns, they hope to make Michigan citizens aware of the litter problem and how every individual can help diminish it.

"AS TIME goes on, we hope to produce a movie made on the Michigan scene to point up the problems we have right here at home and how we can lick these problems," said Bonfield.

Keep Michigan Beautiful started under the administration of former Gov. John B. Swainson as a group of high government officials.

This group studied the problem generally to determine its scope and make recommendations for official action to eliminate it.

THEN UNDER Gov. George Romney the new organization was formed among prominent private citizens to provide a continuing effort.

Working with organizational help from the State Chamber of Commerce in Lansing, the new group has been lauded by Gov. Romney for its work to date as "a remarkable example of private action in the public interest."

BIRTH RECORDS in Michigan are expected to continue the seven year downward trend, State Health Department statisticians predict.

Reports during the first six months of this year showed a continued decline from the previous year. The January to June figures reported 2,622 births less than in the same period of 1963.

Births hit a peak in 1957 at 207,277 and have declined every year since. Last year's total of 177,636 births marked the first time since 1952 that the number of births in Michigan did not exceed 180,000.

NURSES IN Michigan hospitals received a substantial increase in average earnings over the past few years, but they are still not among the top five categories in hospital personnel.

This year's survey by the Michigan Hospital Assn. showed the average starting salary of a general duty nurse has increased 20.3 per cent since 1959 while the cost of living has gone up only 7.6 per cent.

John Gunther, of the "Inside" travel book fame, has written a novel which he calls "The Lost City." This is a story of the old Vienna that existed before World War II. It is also the story of the American and British newspaper men and women who lived and worked in Vienna at that time. Their story is a part of the story of the city.

The author was an American correspondent in Vienna in the 1930's and from his experiences there he has written a memorable novel.

"UNDINE," by Phyllis Brett Young is a novel based on the old legend of the water maiden who was denied a soul unless she should win the love of a mortal man. In the book the spirit of the first wife returns to haunt the second, determined to live again through her. It makes a thrilling suspense novel and a very moving story.

"The Third Day" by Joseph Hayes is the story of a man suffering from amnesia. A train ticket, a telephone number, and a photograph are the only clues of his previous existence. His quest for his identity takes him back to his home town, but into a complex situation. It is a novel of intrigue and mystery and one that will keep the reader on his chair's edge to the end of the story.

JAMES SILVER, professor of history at the University of Mississippi, has written a book about the segregation of the South in: "Mississippi: The Closed Society." This describes how the state's commitment to that doctrine has led such a path that violence seems the only cause left to it. The author describes himself as being appalled by the moral chaos of his state. He states that Mississippians have really no more chance of holding to their outmoded policy of segregation than they did once of holding to slavery. The change must come because it is right and just.

"THE POND," by Robert Murphy is a story of a boy going through adolescence in the early years of this century. The pond is his magic world and the book follows his progress to maturity as he acquaints himself with its outdoor life. The book has an unusually appealing cast of characters both animal and human.

School bells are ringing again this week. We will be glad to see the students and teachers again. Rural teachers are invited to borrow books from our children's library for the use of their pupils. These may be taken on an extended loan.

in hospital staffs are the nurse anesthetist, pharmacist, registered social worker, physical therapist, and staff dietitian, the association study showed.

MONTHLY pay among 30 key hospital staff jobs this year has increased an average of 4.3 per cent over 1963, the survey showed.

Alan Barth, executive director of the association, said 73 per cent of the association's hospital members participated in this year's survey.

The average pay for the 30 positions was $376 per month as compared to $362 in 1963 and $347 the previous year. The study was limited to certain positions which could be related to the other job classifications being surveyed, said Barth.

TAXES ON income remains a major issue with the people of Michigan, the current campaign reveals.

Several legislative candidates from throughout the state who went through a primary campaign report that one of the most frequently asked questions from their constituents was "Where do you stand on a state income tax?"

There has been no indication at this time that either candidate for governor plans to propose a state income tax program next year.

THERE CAN be little doubt, however, that each will be listening to public sentiment about it as they travel through the state in the remainder of the campaign.

St. Johns teachers on tenure

The St. Johns school board has granted tenure status to 50 of its teachers who have served two years or more, thereby following provisions of the State Tenure Act approved by the Legislature last winter.

Thirteen other teachers who have one year of service are on one-year probation before reaching tenure, and 21 new teachers will be on probation for two years.

SIX PERSONS in administrative posts were not placed under the program, at their own request, according to Supt. Earl Lancaster. They would be covered by the act as teachers, however, even though not as administrators.

The board did not deny tenure to any of the school's eligible teachers, Lancaster said. If any teacher had been denied, he or she would have been allowed to stay until their contract, which has just gone into effect, expired.

THE TENURE act sets up proceedings designed to prevent schools in the state from firing teachers for reasons not connected with the teaching profession. If a teacher resists plans of a school to fire him, the teacher may demand hearings that could result in he or she being retained.

The teacher's first move would be to have a hearing before the board of education for the school district involved.

Some parents back up boys and girls with lawless, immoral, un-Christian attitudes. They say: "We were young once and did a few bad things ourselves."

The cherry stoner seen with mixed emotions

HAYDN PEARSON

Time was when jars of canned cherries gleamed like clustered garnets in the cupboard beneath the stairs of the earth-floored cellar. Housewives liked to can the colorful fruit and good farmers said they could stand the winter if Mother would make a cherry pie about once a fortnight.

It was a real victory to harvest sufficient fruit for the family's needs in competition with the cedar waxwings, robins, catbirds and bluejays. The birds enjoyed the fruit and were willing to take it before it reached the peak of juicy perfection.

A LAD DID not mind picking the red nuggets, but he never could generate much enthusiasm for operating the Perfect Cherry Stoner. The catalog was enthusiastic. "Does not crush the cherry nor cause any loss of juice, a perfect machine for large or small cherries."

*The seed extracting knife

drives the seed into one dish and actually throws the cherry into another. The marks of the knife can scarcely be seen on the seed ed fruit. It seeds from 20 to 30 quarts per hour."

A 12 YEAR-OLD felt no compulsion to test the last statement. The stoner was attached to one end of the drop leaf kitchen table. Each cherry had to be placed in position and the knife on its spring pushed downward. Each stroke meant a stoned cherry; each stroke meant one cherry nearer the end.

It was monotonous work and a boy thought he could help the family more by bringing home a mess of trout. Still, next winter those cherry pies and cobbler's would go well for supper after the fried potatoes, ham, and cream of tartar biscuits.

'Please Don't Hurt My Kids'

Dear Driver:

THIS WEEK, OUR DAUGHTER, who is six years old, started school for the first time. Her brother will be with her, but he's only nine himself, and he still looks pretty little to me. Their little dachshund, whose name is "Schnapps", sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as they waved "goodby" and started off to the halls of learning.

LAST NIGHT WE TALK ABOUT SCHOOL . . . my daughter and I. She wondered what the teacher would be like . . . she hoped she could sit beside Mary (the little girl next door). She said her "letters" for me . . . just to be sure she knew them. Oh, we talked about a lot of things . . . tremendously vital, unimportant things. Then she tried on her new dress to show me . . . and then to bed.

SHE LOOKED SO HELPLESS . . . sound asleep, with "Sally" (that's her doll) cuddled in her right arm. You see, I'm her daddy. When her dolly is broken or her finger is cut, or her hand gets banged, I can fix it . . . but when she and her brother start to school, when they walk across the street, then they're in YOUR hands.

THEY'RE NICE KIDS, both of them. They like to fish, swim and go for walks with me on Sunday afternoon. But I can't be with them all the time. I have to work to pay for their clothes and education. So please help me look out for them. Please drive slowly past the schools and intersections . . . and please remember that children DO run from behind parked cars.

PLEASE, DON'T HURT MY KIDS!

ASC PROGRAM

Substitution under 1965 Wheat Program provided

One feature of the 1965 voluntary wheat program which was not available in 1964 is the so-called "substitution" provision.

This means that, as provided by the authorizing legislation, a producer who has both a farm wheat allotment and a feed grain base, and who signs up for both programs, will be eligible to grow wheat on feed grain-permitted acres, or grow feed grains on all or part of the wheat-permitted acres.

SUCH A PRODUCER would take part in the 1965 program relating to wheat and feed grains exactly as he would without the substitution provision, except that the acreage of either wheat or feed grains could be greater. The diversion payment such a producer would earn under the programs, while using the substitution provision, would depend upon the crop actually diverted from production into an approved conserving use.

In other words, if the farm's wheat acreage exceeded the wheat allotment, the participating producer would receive diversion payments based on the rate applicable to the feed grain reduced.

A PRODUCER who plants wheat in lieu of feed grains may put this wheat under loan, but he will not be eligible for additional certificates because of the substitution.

Likewise, a producer who plants feed grains on wheat-allotment acreage may put this feed grain production under loan, but he will not be eligible for feed grain program price-support payments on this acreage. A producer not eligible for the benefits of both programs may still obtain the benefits of the program in which he is eligible.

WE URGE wheat producers who have a question about the 1965 wheat program or who wish to sign up not to wait until the last week. The closer it gets to the end of the sign-up period the busier we will be explaining the program to producers. So to avoid this, stop at the office the next time you are in town and avoid the rush. The sign-up period extends through Oct. 2, 1964.

Roadside stand operators band together to proclaim quality produce

Michigan roadside fruit and vegetable stand operators have banded together to help consumers know exactly where to look for quality produce and how to avoid doing business with unethical highway based peddlers.

*Many of these highway based truckers selling stale produce at regular prices give the entire roadside stand business a black-eye," says Don Hine, district extension marketing agent in southeast Michigan.

FOLLOWING two years of careful study, 25 growers and roadside stand operators located in nine southeastern Michigan counties organized the Michigan Certified Farm Markets earlier this year. Aim of the organization is to educate consumers to the high quality food grown and sold at members' roadside stands, according to Hine.

Roadside stands are a big volume business with some of the operations selling more than $100,000 worth of produce annually. Most members of the organization grow the majority of the produce they sell but often turn to other growers as sources of certain specialty items.

Predicts violence from NFO activity

Violence, not higher prices, is the predicted result of the current withholding action of the National Farmers Organization (NFO).

That's the candid opinion of one livestock marketing expert, Larry Ewing of the Market Development Division of the Michigan Farm Bureau.

According to Ewing, the attempt to hold cattle off the market to force higher prices has done little more than create ill-will between neighbors.

"THE NUMBER of livestock marketed has been going up and packers are rehiring employees to handle the increasing volume.

"Prices are now at about the same level as before the holding action started. Tempers rise," Ewing said, "pitting neighbor against neighbor. Unkind statements are made. Truckers and farmers fear for their personal safety and that of their property."

"Fear to market," not support of the NFO program, has been the greatest factor in the slight shifts in marketing patterns and livestock prices that have occurred, Ewing says.

HE REMINDED farmers that Michigan law forbids the hindering of any vehicle transporting farm products by force, or intent to hinder the loading or unloading of any such vehicle. These are offenses punishable by fine and imprisonment.

He advised farmers marketing livestock to be "as courteous as possible" if stopped. "The picket should be asked if they are actually preventing the progress of the vehicle. If the answer is 'no' then the motion may be resumed. If 'yes' the farmer should return home and contact the sheriff or State Police for an escort."

Follow carpooling rules of safety

Will you be carpooling the youngsters this fall. Here are some safety rules worth following. Keep children seated until the car is fully stopped. Park close to the curb. Have children exit from the right side only — directly onto the sidewalk. And don't let that back-seat roughhousing distract you from your other precious charges.

This is a birds-eye view of the new grain and bean terminal constructed by Farm Bureau Services, Inc. at Zilwaukee. Trucks are tilted hydraulically in any of four stalls in the lower wing of the main structure. The tower-like structure behind the silos houses the new Farm Bureau Services Feed Mill. Both facilities were dedicated last Friday.

Dedicate new grain terminal

A multi-million dollar grain and bean terminal and an automated feed mill on the Saginaw River near Zilwaukee were dedicated Friday in ceremonies attended by an estimated 5,000 persons.

The new facility, expected to help make Michigan the "Agriculture Gateway to the World" when in full operation in late fall, is owned by Michigan's farmer-owned cooperative, Farm Bureau Services, Inc., and the terminal is operated by the Michigan Elevator Exchange division.

JOHN HALL, manager of the St. Johns Cooperative Co., is one of seven men on the board of directors of the two groups who worked to get the facility built.

The first load of new grain delivered to the terminal came from St. Johns Co-op on July 11.

Some 5,000 farmer members of Farm Bureau Services attended the dedication program, toured the facility and were guests at a luncheon.

CHARLES B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, told the assembled throng at the ceremony that the installation is a "demonstration that farmers make greater progress in solving their own problems when they use their own resources than when they turn to politicians."

The Farm Bureau Services terminal will process and ship some 500,000 hundred-pound bags of navy beans in the first year, and an estimated five million bushels of grain.

AT AN average cost of $6 per hundred pounds of beans, and $1.50 per bushel for grain, this amounts to about $8.5 million in gross business in the first year, with plans to top the $20 million mark in the relatively near future as markets and facilities expand.

The terminal is one of the most completely automated facilities of its kind ever constructed.

From the time when trucks are hydraulically tilted to dump incoming grain and beans into huge hoppers, it is literally untouched by human hands. Gigantic conveyor belts, operated by electronic control panels, take the grain and/or beans through a series of processing steps, then into one of 36 concrete storage silos, and eventually into either rail cars, trucks or ships for transport to US or overseas markets.

ADJACENT TO the grain and bean terminal, and dedicated at the same ceremony, is Farm Bureau Services' new feed mill, with an 85-ton per day capacity to mix and bag or bulk ship some 80 different livestock and poultry feeds.

Farm Bureau officials say the feed mill, employing five men, is so completely automated that 61 ingredients, including 31 drugs, medicants and additives, can be mixed thoroughly into large quantities of feed down to fractions of an ounce per hundred pounds.

TO SHIP THE products of both the feed mill and the grain and bean terminal, three rail sidings and a marine loading facility will be provided. Farm Bureau officials say the first foreign ship is scheduled to arrive for a load of Michigan wheat late in September.

Big state grape harvest starts

The largest crop of Michigan grapes in recent years, a whopping 72,000 tons, is beginning to reach retail outlets throughout the state, and by Labor Day the popular Concord variety was expected to be ready.

This year's grape production in Michigan is more than double the small 33,500 ton harvest of 1963 when adverse weather conditions in the spring cut the crop short. The previous year, however, the crop amounted to 68,000 tons.

THE GREATER part of Michigan's grape production is purchased by wineries, juice plants, and jam and jelly manufacturers. The rest finds its way into retail channels.

Most of the commercial vineyards are to be found in the extreme southwestern part of the state. The main grape-growing counties in their order of rank are Van Buren, Berrien, Kalamazoo, Allegan, and Cass. All of them place among the top 60 grape counties in the entire nation. In production this year Michigan will be preceded only by California and New York.

WEATHER IS an important factor in the flavor of grapes. Unless completed before, the harvest is usually concluded when temperatures drop to a point where the fruit itself is frosted.

Heirlooms bring memories to Mrs Krumm, Wacousta

BY MABEL OPPENHEER

WACOUSTA — Some people collect antiques for profit. Others buy and keep them because they enjoy them.

Mrs Carl Krumm of 960 Hopp Road has many of them in her home which she prizes as heirlooms. She and her husband have memories of them when they were in the homes of their parents.

MANY OF them she has restored to their original beauty by removing coats of paint and re-juvenating the wood. In some of the pieces, she has found several kinds of wood when she got to it through the coats of varnish and paint.

She renovated six dining room chairs that her mother, Mrs Charles Hardke, received as a wedding gift from her mother. She believes they are hand-carved and she left the natural wood which changes them from the dark appearance they formerly had. "I remember using them all the time I was growing up," Mrs Krumm said. A desk that belonged to her mother and that she used when she was still at home was found to be a combination of mahogany and oak.

A CHAIR that she remembers seeing many times in her grandmother's kitchen had had a cane seat. She has re-caned the seat and put new seats woven of Hong Kong grass on two matching chairs that are heirlooms from her Great-grandmother Stabler to replace the seats woven of wool twine.

She has searched in antique shops and second hand stores for three legs for a small, dainty stool that she found in the attic of her mother's home. A matching stool which was complete, she has refinished and upholstered and it makes a real conversation piece. "Some say I will never find three legs for the other stool, but I'm going to keep on looking," she said determinedly.

A SILVER chest made by her Uncle George Schaibly which has a wood-burned holly pattern painted with holly berries and leaves is a prized possession.

Gracing her living room are a small table and two chairs that belonged to her husband's "Grandma Krumm."

Her friend, Mrs Avis Tunnell, gave her a platform rocker which she has refinished and re-upholstered in gold. This she knows to be more than 100 years old. Of the same vintage is a walnut chest of drawers which belonged to her great-grandmother.

AN OPEN bookcase on casters, which has marks that indicate that it may have been used sometime as a jelly cupboard, she knows to be about a century old. It is put together with screws and has adjustable shelves.

Two tables that the couple gave to their mothers years ago now serve as bedside tables in her home. Here, one of her talents was an asset as she painted the MRS Carl Krumm sits in a 100-year-old platform rocker which was a gift from a friend, Mrs Avis Tunnell. She holds a silver chest made by her uncle, George Schaibly, and a stool that she found in the attic of her mother's home, and restored to its original beauty.

Mrs Krumm knows that this walnut chest which was inherited from her Great-grandmother Stabler is more than 100 years old.

tables and put Mosaic tops on them. Viewers believe them to be antiques.

ANTIQUES are amazingly well constructed and the woods are beautiful. Sometimes, one has to break through many coats of paint and varnish to find them but it's rewarding.

Mrs Krumm's time isn't entirely consumed with renovating furniture. She makes quilts, paints pictures and does Mosaic work with stone glass on canvases to make gifts for her children and friends. She likes to cook, bake and work among her flowers.

She has four children, Mrs Wayne (Jean) Root of Lansing; Miss Ruth Krumm of Flint, a nurse; Ralph, at home; and Robert of St. Johns.

Alabamans liked what they saw in Clinton

Parker Center Community Farm Bureau held a meeting at the Wilbur Bond cottage at Crystal Lake on Sunday with a picnic dinner and wiener roast at noon. Mr Bond, chairman of the group, read a thank-you letter from the Alabama delegation that attended Parker Center's July meeting.

In this letter the Alabama delegate stated, "I would like to say that visiting your group was one of the highlights of the trip for me and one of the high points of my life. Your people get to know each other better and associate better than our people in the South, and in Alabama, especially. You also get to be in on the actions of your Farm Bureau. Our people only know Farm Bureau as insurance."

THE DISCUSSION on the topic of financing schools proved to be timely and of particular interest to farmers with the increased consolidation of rural schools.

Mr and Mrs William Wilson and Mr and Mrs Clarence Kaltrider were named on the nominating committee to report at the September meeting.

U-M food specialists offer tips on saving

Milk, meat and eggs add up to nearly half of your family food budget, say dietitians at The University of Michigan Medical Center, and there are tricks to stretch every dollar you spend on these essential items.

Whole milk is an excellent source of calcium, protein and riboflavin. But, say the U-M specialists, these same ingredients are also found in other forms of milk—powdered, skim, evaporated and butter milk—"and at widely varying cost."

THE DIETITIANS say you can use non-fat dry milk solids in most recipes calling for whole milk. Sift the powder right in with the flour, sugar and other dry ingredients, then add water for the necessary liquid content.

Among the foods you can make with money-saving powdered milk are pancakes, muffins, biscuits, cooked cereals, meat loaf, mashed potatoes, cocoa, white sauce, cakes and puddings.

BYING less expensive cuts of meat can also stretch the family food dollar while maintaining essential nutritional value.

Lean meat from a chuck roast is considerably less expensive than prime ribs of beef, yet each makes the same contribution to your diet.

But, warn the U-M dietitians, cheaper cuts of meat are no bargain if they contain large amounts of bone, fat and gristle. So you should never shop for meat by the price tag alone.

TO CUT down the egg bill, buy eggs of lower market grades when you plan to use them for scrambling, or baking, or in combination with other foods.

The color of the shell sometimes affects the price of eggs but, say the dietitians, it has no bearing on the food value of the egg itself. If eggs are comparable in size and quality, choose the color that is less expensive and pocket your savings.

Old favorite, hickory nut cake, offered

Hickory Nut Cake is a favorite of many people.

This recipe is a tested one having been in the family of Mrs Raymond Locher of DeWitt for many years and was a favorite of her mother's.

Hickory Nut Cake

- 1/2 c. butter
- 1 c. brown sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 c. water
- 1 heaping tsp. baking powder
- 1 1/2 c. sifted flour
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1 c. chopped hickory nuts

Cream butter and sugar. Beat egg yolks and add. Sift flour and baking powder and add alternately with water. Beat egg whites stiffly with salt and fold into the batter with the chopped nut meats. Bake in layers at 350 degrees for about 20 minutes and frost with hickory nut icing.

Hickory Nut Icing

- 1 c. brown sugar
- 1 c. sour cream
- Butter size of walnut
- 1 c. chopped nuts

Heat sugar and cream together over low heat for a few minutes until it thickens. Add butter. Simmer until the mixture forms a soft ball when dropped from spoon into cold water. Remove from stove and cool. Beat until thick enough to spread. Add the nuts and spread quickly on the cake.

Give curtains body

When laundering drippy curtains, use a gallon of starch water for the final rinse. Hang curtains to dry and shape with the hands to make time-consuming ironing unnecessary.

Miss Ketcham offers low-cost recipes

Here are some recipes furnished by Miss Betty Ketcham, Clinton County extension agent, home economics:

TEXAS HASH

- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 1 lb. hamburger
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 2 c. tomato juice
- 1 1/2 c. water
- 1 tsp. paprika
- 1/2 c. rice
- 1/4 lb. cheese

Brown hamburger and onion. Add rest of ingredients except rice and cheese. Bring to boil. Pour into casserole. Add rice. Cover and bake 30 minutes in a 300 degree oven. Remove from oven, add grated cheese. Bake another 1/2 hour uncovered.

CHEESE BREAD

Scald 1 cup milk; stir in 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon salt, and 1 tablespoon butter. Cook to lukewarm. Measure 1 cup warm water into large bowl. Sprinkle in 2 packages active dry yeast. Stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk mixture, 1 cup grated cheese, and 4 1/2 cups sifted flour. Stir until well blended, about 2 minutes. Cover.

Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until more than doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes. Stir batter down. Beat vigorously about 1/2 minute. Turn into greased 1 1/2 quart casserole or two 9 x 5 x 3 inch loaf pans. Bake uncovered in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 1 hour.

LUNCHEON MEAT CASSEROLE

- Brown 1/2 can luncheon meat (cubed)
- 1 small onion
- Salt and pepper

Add: 1/2 green pepper (optional) 1 c. diced celery 1 can cream-mushroom soup 1 can cream of chicken soup 1/2 c. dry rice 2 cans water

Bake 300 degrees for one hour.

Identify child

Whenever you take your young child shopping with you in town, always see that there is a little tab with his name and address pinned on the inside of his coat. Do this in case he slips away from you and gets lost.

Refrigerator ham

All canned hams should be stored in the refrigerator unless label instructions are to the contrary. The labels on some canned hams weighing less than 3 pounds may indicate that you can store the ham on your shelf. All hams, except possibly country-style (with a very heavy cure,) should be refrigerated.

Ministers' wives honored by Congregational women

Three ministers' wives were honored at the first fall session of the Women's Fellowship of the First Congregational Church. Mrs Manning Bross, president, serves them at the tea table centered with an arrangement of flowers in a white and gold mortar with pestle, significant of the profession of Mrs Gerald Churchill who is a pharmacist. Those being served are Mrs Churchill, wife of the new minister, Mrs Earl F. Collins of Greenville, and Mrs Clyde Wilcox of Marshall, wives of former pastors.

Welcoming their new minister's wife, Mrs Gerald Churchill, 60 members of the Women's Fellowship of the First Congregational Church turned out Tuesday afternoon for their first meeting of the year. Special guests were Mrs Earl F. Collins of Greenville, and Mrs Clyde Wilcox of Marshall, wives of former ministers of the church.

The president, Mrs Manning Bross, conducted the meeting in the church parlor, and announced the theme for the year, "Our Heritage." Mrs Basil Delbert, spiritual life chairman, introduced Mrs Frank Maier who used the Bible as the subject of her devotions.

THE FELLOWSHIP voted to send miscellaneous articles to the women of the Congregational Church of Anchorage, Alaska, to sell at their first church bazaar to be held this fall. Mrs John Warstler, chairman of the project, asked members to bring the articles to the next meeting, Oct. 6, when Rev Gerald Churchill will speak on the Anchorage church, of which he was the first minister.

Announcement was made of the rummage sale on Sept. 18 and 19, and the annual turkey dinner on Oct. 29. Ye Olde Pilgrim Market is the title of this year's church fair, also on Oct. 29.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made of the pending organization of two Fellowship interest groups, the Mary Wilcox Handicraft Division and the Blanche Collins Study Division. Mrs W. David Lockwood told of plans under way in the Vesper Division for a memorial to Mrs Ray Caldwell, wife of another former minister.

Mrs Alden Livingston, program chairman, introduced a panel discussion entitled, "What Went on at Wichita," dealing with the annual meeting of the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches, and the national Pilgrim Fellowship Assembly, both held at Wichita, Kan., in June. Panel participants included Mrs Wilcox, Mrs Delbert, Mrs Warstler, Mrs Bross, Miss Sharon Hall, Miss Margo Cortes, Brian Waltz, Philip Anderson and Gerry Lewis.

OTHER ATTENDANTS at the Wichita meeting were Miss Irene Speck, Mrs Clarence Waltz, Dr Clyde Wilcox, David Waltz, John Carmack, and the Rev Mr Churchill.

Mrs George Chapman and Mrs E. O. Prince poured at the tea table, which was decorated to honor Mrs Churchill and her profession of pharmacy. It featured one tall, gold candle and fall flowers in a white and gold mortar and pestle, flanking a display of small pictures.

ARRANGEMENTS were in charge of the Vesper Division, the committee consisting of Mrs James Spousta, Mrs Richard Amstutz, Mrs Raymond Eick, Mrs Russell Welsh, Mrs Albert Garey, Mrs Van Hoag, Mrs Clarence Waltz, Mrs Charles Austin, Mrs John Bryant and Mrs Floyd Hill.

Mrs Marcelle Garver of Seattle, Wash., Mrs Florence Roemer, and Mrs Leon Corwin were guests, while Mrs Richard Jacoby formerly of Marietta, Ohio, was welcomed into membership.

New Faces

They're newcomers. They moved into the neighborhood just last week, and this is their first Sunday in our church.
Very soon they'll be making friends, and joining in many worthwhile church activities. Mr. Jones may develop his talent for organization, or fund-raising, or youth leadership. His wife may find her place in one of the busy organizations for women, or discover that she loves to teach. The children will settle happily into Sunday School classes suited to their age group.
Above all, this young family will share in the secure feeling of Christian fellowship and spiritual well-being that comes from serving God and His Church. They will be better people, better neighbors and better citizens because of their decision to put God's work first. THE CHURCH FOR ALL. ALL FOR THE CHURCH.
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Rice Christians

Missionaries in China who were engaged in relief work often had the sad experience of meeting people who professed faith solely for the purpose of getting free rice.

It was decided that it was best to separate the evangelistic ministry from the relief ministry so that this knotty problem would be removed. I wonder how much worship of the Lord by professing Christians is on the same level. We serve the Lord because we are blessed, but if these blessings were removed our worship and devotion would soon wain. Is this not serving of the Lord for what we get out of Him? This is the accusation Satan brought against Job (Job 1:9-11). This was not true of Job, and when put to the test, even to the taking away his family, he still remained true to the Lord and said, "Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him; but I will maintain mine own ways before Him." This would be a good time to look deep into our own hearts and confess what shallow devotion we have for our Lord who does so much for us. We have lived so much in the shallowness of this world's possessions that we measure God's love by the temporal blessings we receive here and now.

Road Commission Weekly Report

The Board of Clinton County Road Commissioners held their regular meeting Thursday, Sept. 30. Bids were opened for the September and October requirements of gasoline. The Sinclair Co. was low bidder and was awarded the contract.

The board had several visitors to discuss various matters including: Walter Thelen, Westphalia Township supervisor, and Dale Chapman, Clinton County drain commissioner.

THE COMMISSION discussed county line road agreements. The regular agenda included the minutes of the previous meeting, 54 bills for materials and services amounting to $19,803, several permits for utility installations on county roads and the August operations report.

Two new subdivisions were presented to the board, one a preliminary sketch and one a final. Both were accepted with some exceptions.

LES DRAGOO, county road engineer, reports that the 18-mile construction program is well under way. Only Clintonia Road in Westphalia Township and Howe Road in Watertown Township remain to be started in the 1964 program.

Some of the new construction and some of the roads that were started late will receive a final application of calcium chloride this week. This will complete the dust control program for the year. Total spread falls just short of 1,000,000 gallons of calcium chloride solution.

WE HOPE that you have noticed the new flag pole and new flag that has been installed at the road commission office.

The county road engineer, your road clerk and two commissioners will attend the Northern Michigan Road Conference at East Tawas Thursday and Friday, Sept. 10 and 11.

DON EWING
Clerk

Plan hearing tests for all grade schoolers

All grade school children in Clinton County will receive a hearing screening test during the coming school year, according to County Nurse Luella Canfield, RN.

Kindergarten children will be tested first, then grades one through eight. High school students are tested on a referral basis only.

ALL STUDENTS failing the first test will be retested. Those failing the second time will be referred to a medical clinic. Those children will be examined by an ear specialist from Lansing or Owosso and a recommendation made to the parents for care.

The hearing tests and examinations are free, one of the services of the county health office.

MRS GENEVA Cornell, technician for Clinton County, has been trained by the Michigan State Department for this position. She attends a refresher workshop course prior to each testing program.

Expanse of $3 Million Federal-Mogul Addition Shown By Excavations

Some of the footings are in for the expansion portion of the Federal Mogul plant, and the expanse of the new $3 million addition can now be readily seen. Other excavation work is in progress inside and around the perimeter of the building. Steel street from Mead to near North Spring, and North Oakland from Steel to Lincoln have been closed.

Anderson adds wings of jumper

A US Air Force general's aide's spotless uniform is distinctive with its shoulder aigillette, aide insignia and fliers wings, but add the hard-to-earn paratrooper's jump badge and you have a real eye-catcher.

The individual in this case is Capt. David D. Anderson, an erect six foot-two aide-de-camp to Maj. Gen. George B. Dany, commander, Western Transport Air Force (WESTAF), Travis AFB, Calif.

ANDERSON added the second pair of wings after completing a rugged three-week ground and air course at Fort Benning, Ga., the US Army's parachute jump school.

Some 300 Army and Air Force officers and enlisted men attended, with approximately 200 completing the final jumps. Mostly Army personnel, there was also a small number of airmen who started and completed.

PRESENTED his wings on graduation, Anderson also received a special trophy from the Army instructors as top graduate among the officers in attendance. The same instructors selected an airman as tops among the enlisted graduates.

He made five jumps, the final a mass drop loaded down with combat gear. Asked why he volunteered, Anderson simply said, "I just wanted to jump."

DAVE ANDERSON hails from St. Johns. One of the first graduates from the USAF Academy in 1959, he spent a short tour at Andrews AFB, near Washington, D. C., and went to Travis over three years ago.

CAPT. ANDERSON

Before being selected as General Dany's aide, Anderson was assigned to WESTAF's 84th Air Transport Squadron where he was navigator on C-133 Cargomasters, largest aircraft in the Military Air Transport Service.

OVER A three-year period he has flown some 2,500 hours, became an instructor and then a navigator flight examiner, as well as a qualified jumper.

Today, jumper and aide, he travels with the general wherever he goes, which can mean most any spot on the globe where Military Air Transport Service aircraft fly.

HOWEVER, he still maintains proficiency as a C-133 instructor navigator.

He and his wife Robin have two small children, Cindy, 3, and Greg, 2.

Capt. Anderson is the son of Mr and Mrs Dale W. Anderson, R-1, St. Johns.

Weekend full of diving, old cars, turkeys

Skin divers, antique car buffs and model airplane fans are among the hundreds of Michigan residents contributing to a busy schedule expected to attract visitors to all parts of the state during the weekend of Sept. 12-13. Highlighting the weekend events is the annual Old Car Festival at Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn both Saturday and Sunday.

OTHER EVENTS scheduled for both days include the Invitational Radio Controlled Airplane Meet at Utica; the Detroit Antique Show, Detroit; Plymouth Fall Festival, Plymouth, and the Good Old Days Festival, Richmond.

The Annual Muzzleloaders Turkey Shoot will be held at Manistee on Sunday, while Higgins Lake will be the setting for the Skin Divers Underwater Angling Contest, also on Sunday.

FIVE REGIONAL or county fairs are also scheduled over the weekend. They're the Eastern Michigan Fair at Imlay City; Western Michigan Fair at Ludington; Saline Community Fair at Saline; Chippewa County Fair at Stalwart; and the Saginaw Fair at Saginaw.

Cronkhites ride Monorail at fair

The Cronkhites — Richard, Connie, Bruce, Cathy and Jim of 504 W. Baldwin Street, St. Johns, recently rode the AMF Monorail at the New York World's Fair.

A forerunner of monorail systems for the mass transportation field, the AMF Monorail at the fair has seven two-car trains operating continuously over the 4,000-foot closed loop track suspended 40 feet in the air.

Riders have a panoramic view of the World's Fair scene and a good vantage point for making snapshots through photographically corrected picture windows.

St. Johns' new water tower recently made a startling transformation from what looked like a huge rocket to what looked like a big dish setting on a pedestal. From the air it looks smaller but certainly not less imposing. This picture, looking north up Oakland Street, shows some of the interior of the bowl. City Manager Ken Greer said exterior steel work on the water tower should be completed within two or three weeks. Identifiable buildings include the county welfare building next to the water tower's shadow and Clinton Memorial Hospital just above the tower.

(Omitted from last week)

The Witts find many interesting experiences on trip

REW—Mr and Mrs Howard Witt recently returned home from a trip through several of the western states. Among the many places of interest they saw was the "House of Yesteryear" in Minnesota. This was located on the highway away from any town and was filled far beyond its capacity with antiques from every walk of life.

Most of the antique cars were in running order and carried permanent licenses so they could be taken to exhibits all over the country.
 ALONG THE same line but much larger was the pioneer auto museum at Murdo, S.D. This was truly amazing, there were relics from the pioneer days in the Dakotas; a bank, general store homestead shack etc. Even an early Ford Garage featuring nothing but Ford cars. Other antique cars included a 1902 Jewel, a 1905 Sears Roebuck a 1902 Schacht and many others we have never heard of. There were also antique musical instruments to listen to such as a honky-tonk bar room piano, a piano-violin, Regina music boxes and humorous military band organ, plus a penny arcade movie machine.

To date, 30 states have been covered in collecting these items; the exhibits cover three acres.
 We also stayed at the new camp ground at the biggest earth fill dam in the world just North of Pierre, S.D. and drove through the National grasslands of South Dakota.

THOSE STATES were all suffering greatly from the dry weather, one farmer said that he had worked all year for nothing as his corn was ruined and he didn't know if he would be able to keep all his cattle because of lack of pasture.

This farmer, was mowing and raking prairie hay all in one operation in preparation to stacking it. The fields around were literally full of these hay stacks.

IN NEBRASKA the lush irrigated fields were a direct contrast to the dry ones and the huge alfalfa processing plants along the highway were going full blast with huge clouds of steam rising that could be seen for miles. The Platte River in places was completely dry, making one really wonder how the farms would ever pull through out there.

Mrs Dow Young, Mrs Burton Flynn, Patsy and Chuck and Dwight Devereaux traveled to Washington, D.C., to the World's Fair in New York and on to Newton Conn. to visit Mrs Young's sister, Mrs Ted Sooy, and family. Mrs Sooy and daughter, Diana, drove home with them to visit her mother, Mrs Charles Flynn.

Mrs Charles Grof of Chippewa Lake spent two weeks with Mrs Charles Flynn.
 Mr and Mrs Oliver Smith and family of Cleveland, Ohio, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr and Mrs Dow Young. The Smiths will move to Providence, R.I., the middle of September.

Mrs Elma Lyon and Mrs George Kirschman spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs Charles Flynn.

Mr and Mrs W.D. Chadwick called on his parents, Mr and Mrs Clyde Chadwick, Sunday afternoon.

Leo Coin underwent major surgery at the Sparrow Hospital. His granddaughter, Cindy, from Flint kept her grandpa company the first week he was home from the hospital.

Grand Ole Opry, Bobby Helms in St. Johns 19th

The Grand Ole Opry, headlined by singing star Bobby Helms, will play Saturday night, Sept. 19, in St. Johns under sponsorship of the St. Johns Fire Department.

The fire department's share of the proceeds will go toward the purchase of additional rescue equipment.

THE OPRY program will be held in the St. Johns High School Auditorium and will last anywhere from two to four hours. It will start at 8 p.m.

Helms, nationally famous with the younger set, got his start with the hit record "Fraulein," which sold over a million copies for him.

Others on the show will be Bobby Smith, another guitar-strumming singer; Doris Carrol, female vocalist; and Cranford Nix, a comedian who does "horrible things" with a banjo.

ALL THE entertainers have appeared frequently on country western radio and television shows with many of Nashville's popular country western stars.

The Tennessee Pals will be the music makers for the event.

Student dress regulations set

St. Johns high school and junior high school students have been reminded by their principals of the school board-approved regulations regarding proper dress for school and school-sponsored activities.

B. Stanley Pocus, high school principal, and Walter Nickel, junior high principal, pointed out that for the most part St. Johns students have traditionally dressed and acted very appropriately.

MANY STUDIES throughout the nation have proven that student behavior patterns are definitely affected by how they are dressed. For this reason the following guides for proper and business-like dress were outlined by Pocus:

GIRLS - Girls should wear skirts and blouses or sweaters, or dresses. Slacks, bermudas, shorts, culottes, kilts or shifts that are split on the sides, and such, may not be worn. Bermudas and slacks are permitted at football and basketball games.

Heavy, formal, or exaggerated makeup is not acceptable during the school day. The hair style, as well, should be neat and clean at all times. Extreme bouffant, such as the extreme teasing or ratting of the hair, will be considered in bad taste.

BOYS - Boys should wear clean slacks or jeans with the belt line above the hips and with belts when slacks provide for them. Sport shirts or regular dress shirts must be kept buttoned, except for the top button, and ALL SHIRT TAILS MUST BE TUCKED IN. Extreme form-fitting slacks which are excessively tight across the hips and/or very narrow in the legs will be considered improper wear.

The conventional hair style, which is kept trimmed and neat and various versions of the crew cut are recommended. Extreme bizarre hair arrangements will be considered in bad taste.

ALTHOUGH SMOKING has always been forbidden at school and at all school activities, students will this year be forbidden to visibly carry cigarettes on their person into the school. Smoking will also be forbidden in the immediate area of the school grounds. Violations of smoking regulations as well as of regulations of dress will be subject to suspension.

Pocus and Nickel pointed out it is the school policy to encourage the highest standards of student behavior in school, at school activities, and in the community. It is an accepted fact that high standards of behavior and conduct, will in turn lead to high personal standards of courtesy, decency, morality, honesty and wholesome relationships with others.

THE wholehearted support and cooperation of all parents of students are essential for the realization of these goals, Pocus said, which in the final analysis "is for the benefit of the young people under our guardianship."
