Tower Sections Are Welded In Place

Welders work high above the ground on the sloping interior of the new water tower. The final big sections of the tower were raised into position last week, just about giving it its final change of appearance. The derrick showing above the tower will be lowered through one of the lower bowl sections after the cap is put on the top.

Plan Sabin polio vaccine clinics in Clinton Oct. 11

Clinics for the distribution of Sabin oral polio vaccine will be held in all the communities of Clinton County Oct. 11 and Dec. 13.

The Clinton County Health Dept. will sponsor the clinics, and they have been endorsed by the Clinton County Medical Society.

OVID WILL be the only county town where a clinic will not be held those days. Ovid was the scene of a clinic last Sunday conducted by the Shiawassee County Medical Society.

Mrs. Luella Canfield, RN, county nurse, said the trivalent vaccine will be given in two feedings—one on Oct. 11 and the other Dec. 13. The trivalent vaccine is protection against the three types of polio. Clinics in many communities in the early days of the Sabin vaccine provided monovalent vaccines, and three doses were necessary for complete protection.

THE VACCINE will be given on a cube of sugar, or orally with an eye dropper for youngsters too small for the sugar. Mrs. Canfield said the vaccine—which is tasteless—is recommended for everyone, regardless of age. Even those persons who have had polio are urged to take it, because the vaccine will protect them against the two types of polio they haven't had.

Persons who may not have completed their monovalent series in other towns are urged to start over. Booster series of the Sabin vaccine are recommended every two to four years.

A 50-CENT donation will be requested to cover the cost of the vaccine, sugar and other supplies. But no one will be refused the opportunity to take the vaccine.

The Clinton County Board of Supervisors voted last week to underwrite the cost of the vaccine should there be any deficit from lack of donations.

New surgeon to locate here October 15

Dr. J. H. Kelertas of Eau Claire, Wis., was in St. Johns Monday making arrangements for the opening of his new offices in the Parr Building, at the corner of W. State and Ottawa Streets on Oct. 15.

Dr. Kelertas is a general surgeon and is making application to join the staff at Clinton Memorial Hospital. He has been associated in surgery with the Maumee Valley Hospital at Toledo, Ohio; Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit; and the Ottawa Civic Hospital, Ottawa, Ont. He was granted his masters' degree in surgery at the University of Michigan in 1960.

His family includes his wife and a daughter, Rima Anne, 9 months old. They have rented the S. R. Smith home at 209 W. Higham street and expect to occupy it about Oct. 15.

COUNTY doctors are volunteering their help, and the St. Johns Exchange Club has taken on the task of securing other volunteer help for the clinics. They will be contacting service clubs in other towns in the county.

The clinics in each town will serve everyone in that area, including those in rural sections. Two clinic sites are planned for St. Johns. Exact locations of the clinics in each community will be announced later.

May act on pension plan

Action on a pension plan for county employees possibly may be taken at the October meeting of the Clinton County Board of Supervisors. The officials heard a report on the audit of employees records last week, but wanted to study it before deciding.

The audit showed 54 employees made $207,778 during the year that ended June 30, Lorenz Tiedt, chairman of the salary and clerk hire committee, reported.

THE TOTAL cost to the county per year would be about $13,932, but it would be subject to yearly audits of employee service, age and other factors, he said. Employees of the Clinton County Road Commission would not be included. They already have their own pension plan, the same one, in fact, written with the Michigan Municipal Employees Retirement System. The city of St. Johns also has the same plan.

Central National to open St. Johns bank

The new Central National Bank, serving St. Johns and Ovid, will open its main office at 212 North Clinton avenue here within the next few weeks. The Clinton avenue location is that formerly occupied by the Yankee Store.

The new bank is an outgrowth of the State Savings Bank of Ovid which has been given permission by the US Comptroller of Currency to convert from a state bank to a national bank with the main office in St. Johns and the Ovid bank as a branch.

Operations from the Clinton avenue location will be continued until a new ultramodern banking facility is erected on the former funeral home property at the corner of Spring and East Walker streets.

THE OVID bank bought this property from C. D. Ebert of St. Johns several weeks ago.

Robert L. Leonard, executive vice president at Ovid, will be in charge of the St. Johns office, according to W. J. Buescher, president of the bank. Buescher, whose home is in Greenville, is also president of the First State Bank in that city.

Members of the board of directors of the new banking chain are: W. J. Buescher, Robert L. Leonard, Paul Meder, George S. Robson, Harold S. Beardslee, Robert D. Martin, Robert L. Gumaer and Kermit Hart.

Newman heads Red Cross unit

Richard Newman of DeWitt was elected chairman of the Clinton County Red Cross Chapter by the board of directors at their meeting Tuesday, Sept. 8.

RICHARD NEWMAN

OTHER officers elected were Steven Hopko, vice-chairman; Richard Kohls, treasurer; both of St. Johns; and Mrs. Wilma Sowle, recording secretary, of Maple Rapids.

Members of the board of directors are: Mrs. Lavina Ferden of Ovid; Mrs. Fedewa of DeWitt; Roy Ormsby of Ovid Township; Phillip Smith of Pewamo; Mrs. Jane Sloat of Ovid; Royal Ellinger of Elsie; Mrs. Willard Wittenberg of Ovid; Van Hoag of St. Johns; plus the officers named above.

Farm Credit Board coming

Top brass of the Farm Credit Board of St. Paul will make stops in Clinton County next Wednesday as part of a three-day tour of central and western Michigan.

Floyd L. Parmelee, manager of the Federal Land Bank here, said the group will travel by special bus and make stops at the George Baird and Sons farm in DeWitt and the Ray Warner place in Bengel. They will also inspect the facilities of the bank and PCA in St. Johns.

MEMBERS OF the 7-man Farm Credit Board of St. Paul also serve as the board of directors of the Federal Land Bank, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank and the Bank for Cooperatives, all of St. Paul.

These three banks and the local Federal Land Bank Associations and the Production Credit Associations loaned about $700 million to farmers and farmers' cooperatives in Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota during 1963.

NFO picketing quiet, orderly

Picketing by members of the National Farmers Organization continued at the Wolverine Stockyards last Friday but without the tenseness of Sept. 4.

Between 50 and 60 pickets were on hand, compared to nearly 300 persons the week before.

Half a dozen state policemen, three sheriff's deputies and three city police officers were on hand. About four times that many officers were present the week before.

SHOUTING and name-calling were noticeably absent Friday, too, as the picketing took on a much more orderly fashion.

State police stopped all trucks at the Steel Street entrance to the stock yards and explained that the NFO wanted to talk to them.

The officers told the drivers they could do whatever they wanted, however. Many drove on past the few pickets and into the yards; others stopped to talk before moving on to unload. A few trucks—much fewer in comparison to a week previous—turned around and left, with NFO members applauding them.

STOCK YARDS officials said farmer marketing was down considerably Friday, but they gave no figures. They had no comment on the activities.

The NFO displayed a flag at half mast, commemorating two Wisconsin NFO members who were killed Sept. 9 in Bonduel, Wis., when a stock truck backed over them. Three others were hurt. The pickets at St. Johns also wore black arm bands calling attention to the accident.

IN SOME areas of the country, the NFO leadership called for a short suspension of picketing because of the deaths. An NFO spokesman on the picket line in St. Johns said the Wisconsin incident had nothing to do with the smaller number of pickets here.

We just decided not to have so many on the picket line, he said.

The picketing was orderly and there was no sign of trouble.

2 jury trials set this week

Two jury trials are scheduled in circuit court in St. Johns this week.

Thursday an appeal by Gerald F. Jones of Lansing on a drunk driving conviction will be heard. The case was originally heard early last spring before Justice of the Peace Robert Wood. It ran from noon until late in the evening before Jones was found guilty.

In the other jury case, scheduled for Friday, Dale R. Ostrander will be tried on a charge of violation of financial responsibility. He stood mute when arraigned in circuit court June 8.

Tire goes flat, truck overturns

A city-owned truck turned over Saturday morning when a tire went flat while the truck was turning a corner.

The accident happened at Krepps and Colony roads northeast of St. Johns. The driver was Leonard G. Race, 31, of 513 N. Lansing Street.

HE TOLD Police Chief Everett Glazier he was making a left turn from Colony onto Krepps Road. The truck, the city's International, was loaded, and when Race made the turn, the truck went to the right, slid over the shoulder and overturned. It was later determined that the right rear tire went flat.

Banning, St. John's Episcopal church; the Rev. Roy Green, St. Johns Baptist Temple; the Rev. Peter F. Nieuwkoop, First Baptist church; and the Rev. Bruce L. Srigley, Free Methodist church.

NFO Pickets Fly Flag at Half Mast

A flag flies at half mast at the entrance to the Wolverine Stock Yards in St. Johns last Friday as the NFO continued its holding action and picketing. The flag calls attention to the deaths of two NFO members in Wisconsin last week. NFO pickets at right also wore black arm bands. Picketing was light compared to a week earlier, and there was no trouble.

Ovid youth badly hurt in crash

An Ovid youth was critically injured early Monday morning on Hollister Road.

William Charles Binger suffered severe skull injuries and was reported in critical condition Tuesday afternoon at Edward Sparrow Hospital in Lansing. He resides at R-2, Ovid.

THE ACCIDENT occurred at 3:20 a.m. Monday, the sheriff's office reported. Binger's car, in which he was alone, went off the left side of Hollister road into a ditch, traveled 300 feet and rolled for another 150 feet before coming to a stop.

Binger was reportedly thrown into the middle of the road 300 feet from where the auto finally stopped. The car knocked down 300 feet of fence along the ditch. There were no skid marks on the pavement, the sheriff's office said.

BINGER WAS first taken to Clinton Memorial Hospital and then transferred to Lansing. He underwent surgery Monday afternoon.

Grand Ole Opry show Saturday

The nationally popular recording artist Bobby Helms will headline the show for the Grand Ole Opry, appearing in St. Johns Saturday night under the sponsorship of the St. Johns Fire Department.

The Opry program will be held at the St. Johns High School Auditorium. Curtain time is set for 8 p.m. If ticket sales continue good, however, officials say it may be necessary to hold two shows during the evening to accommodate the crowd.

IN THIS event, they would probably start at 7 and 9:30 p.m. The one-show, 8 p.m. time will hold, however, until an announcement to the contrary is made.

Helms got his professional start on his father's TV show in Monroe County, Ind. Local TV shows and public appearances followed in rapid succession, and his big break came when Helms appeared on the Ernest Tubb Mid-night Jamboree in Nashville, Tenn.

IN 1956 HELMS signed his first recording contract with Decca Records. His first record, "Fraulein," was so popular it was on all the trade publication charts for 52 weeks, a rare thing.

Then followed "My Special Angel," another million-seller. The Christmas season brought "Jingle Bell Rock," a record that has become a Christmas standard and has already sold close to 20 million copies.

HELMS HAS appeared all over the country, and the great appeal of "Fraulein" to servicemen made him a favorite entertainer at armed forces bases around the world. He made his TV debut on the "Ed Sullivan Show" and has appeared on the "Dick Clark Sat-

The tractor driver said there was no damage and not to report the accident. His identity was not known.

Agree to share in salary

Joanne Miller, who has split her time as assignment clerk for the 29th Judicial Circuit and a clerk in the office of the friend of the court, will become full-time assignment clerk Jan. 1.

The Clinton County Board of Supervisors approved last week an agreement with Gratiot County to pay half the $4,800 salary for the assignment clerk, by then a full-time position.

THEY ALSO approved a raise in the salary of the probation office clerk from $3,100 to $3,300. This cost is also split with Gratiot, the other county in the judicial circuit.

In other miscellaneous business conducted by the board of supervisors last week, they:

—PLEGGED support to the audit committee on a plan to require itemized statements of county officers' expense accounts.

—Granted an easement to Consumers Power Co. to install an anchor pole and guy wires on the county Children's Home property for the relocation of the utility's high voltage line around the Stur-

—REFERRED to the government committee a request that Clinton join with other counties in opposing a supreme court ruling holding counties liable for the cost of appeals made from circuit courts by indigents in criminal cases.

—VOTED to notify the Legislature of the board's opposition to diversion of public waters from lakes and streams for private uses.

—APPROVED A trip by Civil Defense Director Charles Frost to attend a CD conference at Colorado Springs, Colo., Nov. 2-6 if Frost and the civil defense committee deem it advisable and worthwhile.

—Heard a report from Arthur Kelley, assistant zoning administrator, on objections to offense odors from hog feeding lots and other farm operations. The board decided such matters were for either the state health department or civil courts to decide.

Car backs up, hit by another

Two cars collided Sunday when one backed from a parking place into North Clinton Avenue. Nine people were in the two cars. None was hurt.

Fredrick Stehlik, 27, of Bannister was driving north on Clinton at 3:55 p.m. when his car struck the rear of one driven by Richard G. Steinhouse, 19, of 609 N. Lansing, St. Johns. Steinhouse was backing from a parking space in front of the Sport Center at Dean's Hardware.

New Western Auto Front

One of the recent improvements to downtown St. Johns is this attractive new front on the Western Auto Store, owned by Mr and Mrs Gordon Stoner. The new front provides considerably more display space inside. An outside stairway to the basement toy department was also eliminated and a wide stairway built inside. The toy department was completely remodelled, including new lights, wall panelling and tile floors. The store has also been air conditioned. The Stoners have operated the business for over 12 years.

Car hits gas pump after crash, 1 hurt

Thanks to a little luck, there was no fire following another crash last Thursday at the corner of US-27 and M-21 in St. Johns. But one of the drivers was injured.

Two cars collided and one veered into Gladstone's Pure Oil service station on the southwest corner and smashed a gas pump. No fire broke out, however.

6 unhurt as 2 autos collide

Six persons escaped without injuries when two cars collided on Price Road a half-mile west of Meridian Road in Ovid Township Friday evening.

The cars were driven by Donald Saxton, 44, of R-2, Ovid, and Richard A. Bancroft, 27, of 241 W. Pearl, Ovid. Phyllis Saxton, 41, Douglas Huyck, 16, Leonard Huyck, 17, all of R-2, Ovid, and Greg Price of R-3, St. Johns, were passengers in Saxton's car.

BANCROFT was ticketed for driving to the left of the center of the road. Deputy Sheriff Ramon Terpening, who issued the ticket, said Bancroft swerved to avoid the other car but was traveling too fast. Bancroft was going east on Price Road and Saxton west on Price.

ONE OF the drivers, however, was injured and was hospitalized until Tuesday at Clinton Memorial Hospital. She was Mrs. Elsie McCulloh, 65, of 101 1/2 N. Emmons, St. Johns. She suffered severe bruises in the crash.

Mrs. McCulloh was making a left hand turn onto West M-21 about 5:20 Thursday when her car was struck by one driven by Samuel H. Parks, 34, of 117 Lewis Street St. Johns.

THE IMPACT forced Mrs. McCulloh's car around the corner and into the gas station. She was cited by police Officer James Stiffler for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Neither Parks nor his son, Kurtis, 10, a passenger, were hurt.

Mom, 2 sons unhurt as car hits wagon

Mrs. Donna Jean Forbes of R-2, Elsie, Martin 6, and Roy Forbes 2, escaped injury last Wednesday afternoon when the brakes locked on the car Mrs. Forbes was driving.

The car, traveling north on Meridian Road, swerved into the driveway at the Merle Green place and hit a wagon parked there. The scene is a quarter-mile south of Mead Road.

Bigger water bill upcoming

Don't be too surprised if your next water bill is much higher than past ones have been.

That's because of the new water rates which went into effect the first of July. They'll be showing up for the first time on the water and sewer bills to be received shortly after the first of October.

The new minimum rate for water is $4.50 for the first 10,000 gallons used. This compares to $2.70 for the first 3,000 gallons under the old rate.

FOR THE average family of five persons who may use 25,000 gallons of water during the three-month span, the water bill will now be about $12.50, compared to $7.10 under the old rate.

The new rate figures $4.50 for the first 10,000 gallons and 40 cents per thousand for the next 15,000 gallons. The old rate included 20 cents per thousand for the 22,000 gallons over the minimum.

The new water rates will also affect the sewer charges. The city ordinance governing this says that the sewer charge shall be 100 per cent of the water charge.

THIS WON'T quite hold true on the upcoming billing, however, because the city gives the customer a "break." Customers usually use more water in the summer quarters than in the winter, but the sewer use is about the same. The summer sewer charges, therefore, are computed as an average of the two winter quarters.

The new water and sewer rates will produce an annual revenue of $176,450 or thereabouts, an increase of $66,000 over the old rate. But City Manager Ken Greer said this increase will only take care of increased operating expenses of the new system and increased bond expenses.

THE NEW rates were set up at the suggestion of the city's engineers, Ayres, Lewis, Norris and May of Ann Arbor. They had studied water rates of 17 cities the size of St. Johns and found St. John's rates were the lowest of the 17. The new rates fall just about in the middle.

Greer said studies have also shown that certain parts of the cost to run a water utility were not in proportion to the water used by a customer. For instance, it costs the city $1.90 per quarter to meet the "customer service" expenses of meters and their installation, repair and reading.

THIS LEAVES 80 cents per quarter per customer to pay for the production, treatment, storage and distribution of the water, Greer pointed out. This 80 cents per customer amounts to $1,400 revenue per quarter for the city. Lights and power alone to run the system costs $2,300 per quarter.

Greer said the city does not subsidize its water system from the general fund. It is set up to pay for itself. The new rates will prevent need for subsidizing in the future.

Now!!
You can control these lawn weeds this Fall with one application of

is one of the worst lawn weed problems in America. It is an annual plant and survives in your lawn only because it reseeds itself each year. A single plant may bear 100,000 seeds.

While it leaves are broader and lighter green in color than most desirable lawn grasses, crabgrass is difficult to distinguish from many other grass varieties until middle or late Summer. At that time, it develops into matted patches which choke out desirable turf plants. It often turns purple or brown early in the Fall. Relatively high soil temperatures, moisture and light are required for its germination. While proper cultural practices will help, crabgrass cannot be controlled successfully merely by fertilizing, mowing or raking.

Crabgrass seeds do not all sprout at one time, but germinate over a period of several months during Spring and Summer. Some seeds lie dormant in the soil for several years and then germinate if brought to the surface through cultivation or deep raking.

In Michigan... after a swim, beer is a natural

On a hot summer day, a dip in a cool stream can be wonderfully refreshing. Equally refreshing when you're relaxing afterwards with friends is a hearty glass of beer. There's hardly another beverage around that suits what you do for fun as much as beer.

Camping, hiking, or just lounging on a lawn chair—beer brings to each just the right touch of extra good living.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Michigan...beer goes with fun, with relaxation UNITED STATES BREWERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

6 Clinton teams in Central C race

Portland, Elsie and Ovid appear to be in the running for the Central C football league title this year, with most coaches giving a slight nod to Portland.

DeWitt and Perry are both reported improved and may cause some headaches for the chief contenders.

NINETEEN lettermen, 15 of them seniors are playing football this year for Coach Mark O'Donnell at Elsie. Seven were regulars last year.

O'Donnell feels this should give his squad a good start on bettering their fine 7-2 record last year when they had to share the class C title with Portland.

Junior lettermen are Joe Guy-sky, R. J. Jones, and halfbacks Herman Kaufman and Charles Rigby.

IN ALL, 76 boys reported to O'Donnell and Asst. Coach Keith Sheldon on the first day of practice.

The backfield is pretty well set, O'Donnell said, and when a guard, tackle and pair of ends are decided on, the Big Reds will be ready to go on all 11 cylinders.

Ovid High School's Romans are short on lettermen, Coach Larry Essenmacher points out.

"OUR SUCCESS this year will depend on how well our juniors coming up from last year's JV team can fill the gaps left by the 13 seniors we lost last year."

OF THE six returning lettermen, four were regulars last year when Ovid compiled a 4-3-1 record. They are guard Ray Chamberlain, end Leonard Huyck, tackle Bary Miller and halfback Steve Leonard. The other lettermen are seniors Norm Snyder and Tom Salters.

OTHER SENIORS on the squad are Don Fox, Lee Woodworth, Adrian Hus., Bill Richards, Terry Binger, Mike Hawley and George Parmeter.

DeWITT COACH Don Wight promises trouble for a lot of opposing teams. "I don't have as much material as some of the teams in the Central C Conference," he said, "but these kids love to play and they have a tremendous attitude."

There are 12 lettermen among the candidates. Pat Weston, 165-pound center, Roger Coryell, 190-pound end, and Jim Shavey, 145-pound fullback, lead the returnees. But Greg Price, tackle; Dwight Devereaux, tackle; and Bill Watson, quarterback, also have experience.

TIM SMITH, Dave Parkhouse and Lenny Ward are also half-back candidates. Guards Paul Dinstbier and Ron Shire also hope to land starting berths.

Al Cropp, new coach at Laingsburg, hopes what players he has returning from last season will help his team play at least even in the Central C conference this year.

Eleven lettermen are on the team, but only two of them have more than a year's experience. Jim Swarthorn, 150-pound full-back, and Tom Wilson, a 175-pound halfback, are seasoned.

ED ADAMS at tackle is the biggest player on the team at 217 pounds. The rest of the line averages only about 150. There are only eight seniors on the Wolf-pack varsity.

Leading candidates for the backfield include Larry Wellman, fullback, Jim Bradford, halfback, and Chuck Beavers, quarterback.

THE BATH BEES will have a strong first unit this season but will need depth in their efforts to better last year's 3-4-1 record. Coaches Chuck Karpinski and Hal Beatty will be guiding the squad this year. Head Coach Dick Wick-ins is taking the year off at his doctor's request.

The Bees have 15 lettermen, including co-captains Chet Mc-Gonigal, fullback, and Ron Parks, guard. Other veterans back are tackles Gordon Pittenger, Roger Friend and Jack Everingham. Tailback Jim Sober and end Art Six are also vets.

HAROLD Jensen is entering his first year as head coach at Pewamo-Westphalia and he'll be trying to improve on last year's dismal 1-7 Pirate record.

Fourteen lettermen are out this year. "Most of the kids are going to have to play both ways," Jensen said. "But they have shown great hustle and desire and if that wins games we should do all right."

JENSEN IS pinning his hopes for the Pirates on tackles Ron Spitzley and Glenn George, full-back Joe Noeker and others. Both Spitzley and George weigh 215 pounds, and Noeker weighs in at 200.

Perry also had a bad season last year, but with 16 lettermen on this year's Rambler squad, things look brighter for Coach Butch Cantrell.

"We'll make our presence known this season around the league," Cantrell said. "We have some pretty good veterans who took their lumps last season."

PORTLAND Coach Hank Dugan has 14 lettermen on his squad, and he expects to have a good squad in a tough league.

"We do not have a large varsity team in terms of numbers," he said. "But we do have some size and a lot of speed. Our strongest point this season will be overall team speed. Another point to mention is that every boy on the team is showing great desire and hustle—the boys want to play good, aggressive, tough football this season."

ALL-conference tackle John Davidson is back for the Raiders. Dick Agostini and Bill Johns were on the conference second team, and Fred Reahm, Rich Webert and Dewey Manshum received honorable mention.

John Braman, 11, son of Mr and Mrs John Braman, 111 N. Ottawa Street, was one of more than 20 youngsters who have signed up for the Punt, Pass & Kick competition in St. Johns next month. John's dad stands behind him, and Bruce Fowler, left, of Egan Ford Sales, Inc., one of the sponsors of PP&K, looks on. Prizes to be won in the contest show on the table.

Coaches plan clinic for PP&K

St. Johns High School football coaches will conduct a special clinic on Saturday, Sept. 26, to help all boys prepare for the St. Johns Punt, Pass & Kick competition to be held next month.

Arrangements for the clinic were made by Bruce Fowler of Egan Ford Sales, Inc., sponsors of the competition along with the St. Johns Jaycees.

THE CLINC will be an opportunity for all boys now registered—as well as all those who plan to register—to receive tips from experts in football skills.

"This clinic will give every boy a chance to see just how they will be graded at the Punt, Pass & Kick competition on Oct. 10," said Fowler. "The rules will be explained and demonstrations will show exactly what PP&K calls for. In addition, boys will receive instruction on correct methods of punting, passing and place-kicking."

"I'M SURE every boy who attends the clinic will benefit. I also hope a lot of boys who still haven't registered will come to the clinic. They're sure to see how much fun PP&K can be and they can register before the deadline on Oct. 9," he said.

The demonstrations of football skill will augment the illustrated booklet given free to each boy who registers for Punt, Pass & Kick. The book was prepared by THE PUNT, Pass & Kick competition, now in its fourth year, is open—without charge—to all grade and junior high school boys eight through 13.

Local competitions in thousands of towns throughout the country will determine winners in each age group, with District and Area competitions to produce the 12 top finalists for the national PP&K competition during half time at an NFL championship game on Jan. 3, 1965.

In St. Johns, top prizes for the 8-, 9-, and 10-year-old winners will be Detroit-Lions warm-up jackets, with place-kicker outfit and autographed footballs as second and third prizes. Boys 11, 12 and 13 will receive gold, silver, and bronze trophies. There will be 18 prizes in all.

IN THE competition, boys are judged on the distance and accuracy of their passing, punting and kicking.

Registration headquarters is at Egan Ford Sales. Boys must be accompanied by a parent or guardian when they register.

Redwings ready for Mason

Tigers Had Perfect Little League Season

While not yet honed to perfection, the St. Johns Redwings hopefully will be sharp enough Friday night to inflict lots of damage on the Mason Bulldogs.

It's the opening game of the football season for the Redwings. Spirit will be a big factor, and Coach Bill Smiley and his assistant Frank Rosengren have been building it up all week. By Friday night, Smiley expects his charges to be charged for action.

THE REDWINGS picked up some valuable information last Friday night in a scrimmage with Pewamo-Westphalia at St. Johns. Enough mistakes came to light so that Smiley felt he could get them ironed out of the team by opening game.

Some good examples of what fans will see this year also were shown last Friday. Coach Smiley had words of praise for junior linebacker Doug Salters who "hit real well." The defensive line also did an outstanding job of hitting,

Redwings compete again in Class B

Last year's St. Johns High School enrollment of 926 placed the school in Class A for athletic competition. This year, however, the classification limits for Class A have been raised from 900 to 1,100.

Thus the Redwings athletic teams will again compete in Class B.

Fulton has young team

Fulton High School at Middleton, playing in the Tri-Central Conference, has a young football team this year, but Coach Barney Schulthess is looking for a good year.

He has nine lettermen back, including end John Roberts, guard Larry Barr, quarterback Terry Thomas, guard Monty Litwiler, end Bill Cartwright, tackle Mike Williams, quarterback Bob Anderson and halfbacks Chris Van-Siekle and Bob Carpenter.

OTHER SENIORS on the team are tackle Glen Kendall, center Tom Studer and halfback Joe Balcom. Other juniors are guard Jim Bancroft, tackles Eldon Roberts and Dave Thompson and halfbacks John Neiman and Rick Chick.

Report 55% saving bond achievement

Clinton County, through July, had achieved 55.5 per cent of its quota for the sale of United States Savings Bonds. The state achievement was 66.1 per cent. Surrounding counties and their percentages are: Gratiot 69.2, Ionia 63.6, Shiawassee 74.2, Montcalm 61.1, Eaton 89.6 and Ingham 72.3.

DOUG HANKEY

Doug Hankey, state amateur golf player, has won the Clinton County Country Club championship with a 72-hole score of 295. He finished one stroke ahead of Barry Dean. Bill Pautke, last year's CCCC champ, finished with a 302 for third place, and Dennis Hankey came in in fourth place.

WEST CENTRAL FRIDAY—Alma at Cadillac, Lowell at Ionia, Eaton Rapids at Charlotte, Mason at ST. JOHNS, Gabriels at Grand Ledge, Michigan Center at Lakewood, Hastings at Battle Creek Lakeview.

CENTRAL 'C' LEAGUE FRIDAY — Portland at Saranac, PEWAMO-WESTPHALIA at St. Patrick, LAINGSBURG at Byron, Perry at Corunna, BATH at Dansville, Williamston at ELSIE, Owosso St. Paul at OVID, Maple Valley at DeWITT.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN 'D' FRIDAY—FOWLER at Lake Penton, Pottersville at Springport, PEWAMO - WESTPHALIA at Portland St. Patrick, Detroit Country Day at Webberville.

2-team W. Central fight shapes again

Without much doubt, there'll be a good race this year for the West Central Football championship. Grand Ledge and St. Johns, who tied for the title last year, will be in the thick of things again.

Grand Ledge has 20 lettermen on the team, more than anyone, but St. Johns, Hastings and Charlotte also have quite a number back. Alma and Lakewood, new members of the conference this year, will also be tough. Charlotte will be a dark horse, and Ionia and Greenville will have to be considered as tough teams.

CHARLOTTE went winless last season, but this year the Orioles have a veteran backfield built

Looks like Fowler again in 'D' race

The Central Michigan 'D' League is shaping up this year as a two-way race again between Fowler, the defending champions, and Pottersville.

Coach Larry Churches at Fowler is conservative in his outlook on the new season. "We don't have enough experience," he said. "We must depend upon boys who haven't played much ball and you can't tell at this time how they'll turn out."

THE LINE IS Churches' main problem. The Eagles have to find a pair of guards and some tackles. Being depended on for good work this year are Neil Thelen, Chuck Thelen at guard and Jim Halfman at tackle.

All-conference halfback Jon Thelen and center Larry Thelen will also be tough on opponents.

Pottersville finished 4-4 last season by winning four of its last five games, and Coach Tom Truscott is looking for a pair of tackles that may help improve the record this year.

NINE OF last year's starting players are back, and the tackle position and quarterback are the main worries for Truscott.

Ashley is stepping down from bigger schools into a league of around twin brothers Bob and Dick Lutz, at fullback and quarterback, Rick Myers and John Newland at halfbacks.

Coach Bernie Ratterink lost some key linemen last year by graduation, and he sees his big problem this year as a weak line. There are a lot of sophomores seeking starting posts, and they will probably be used on the line.

COACH Charlie Gorman at Grand Ledge has had to share the conference title both years he has been at the helm of the Comets. But this season Grand Ledge is expected to be the front runner, even though the track will have its hurdles.

Harold Olds, one of the area's most promising college prospects, last year scored seven touchdowns before he was hurt in the third game of the season and lost for the year. He'll be back this year at halfback.

ALONG WITH Olds and halfback Zana Easton, fullback Mike Steinman and quarterback Mike Dick give the Comets some flashy speed in the backfield. This speed is one of Grand Ledges' big assets in their hopes for an outright league title this season.

Alma's head coach, Mike Sweeney, feels his squad will be green this year, but 16 lettermen form a nucleus for a team which other coaches in the league expect to be tough.

THIS WILL be the Panthers' first year in the West Central League. Last season they were in the rugged North Central Conference. They'll boast a good-sized line this year, one which includes four tackle candidates each weighing over 200 pounds.

The smallest school in the conference is Lakewood, and this will also be its first year in the conference. Coach Jerry Eckman is shooting for a .500 season.

"WE JUST don't have the big guns like we did last season," he said. "I lost 17 seniors and have 12 players back who have limited experience."

Eight of the Vikings, however, have two years of service. Ionia, Hastings and Greenville balance out the West Central.

Swinging High for the Redwings

These are the girls who will help arouse and lead cheers for the St. Johns High School Redwings this football season. Swinging high in preparation for the opening game Friday are: lower row, Debbie Wirick, Betsy Hufnagel and Carol Kees; and upper row, Marie Rademacher, Sue Humphrey and Molly Sapp.

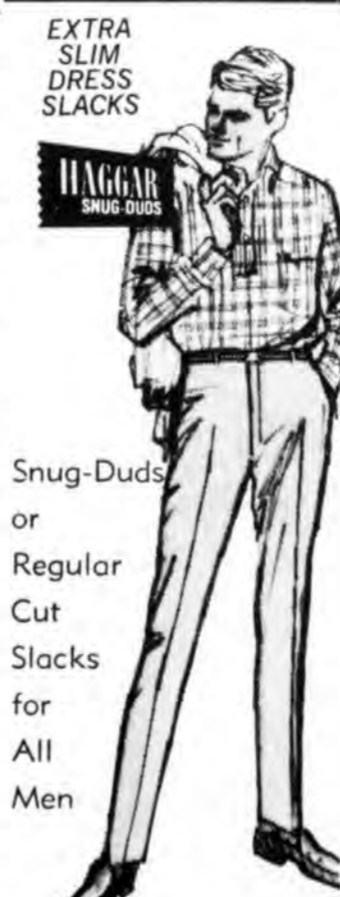

Football dads meet Monday

The first in a weekly series of football Dads Club meetings will be Monday night at 7:30 at the St. Johns Municipal Building.

The coaching staff will be present to answer questions concerning Friday's game with Mason. Movie films of the Mason game will be shown, and a scouting report on Greenville will be given.

COFFEE and donuts will be served. All interested dads are invited. Head Coach Bill Smiley said between 25 and 50 attended the sessions last football season.

GENERAL FARMER: It's not just one skill that's important . . . but rather the awareness of several. Many Peace Corps Volunteers on one assignment have undertaken extra-curricular projects and discovered new interests and hidden talents.

AGRICULTURE IN THE PEACE CORPS:

Metal Tips for Wooden Plows

During 1963, the average American farm worker produced enough to feed and clothe himself and 28 others. Considering advances in modernization and the accompanying strides in automation, this figure isn't really surprising.

Consider this, though.

Two-thirds of the peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America today make their living in agriculture, yet millions go hungry in countries where malnutrition is an accepted fact of life.

In an effort to remedy these centuries-old evils, Peace Corps Volunteers are now working in agricultural programs or related fields in many countries around the world. The skills and experience of these men and women range from general farm work to advanced college degrees in agricultural economics; their ages from 19 to 70.

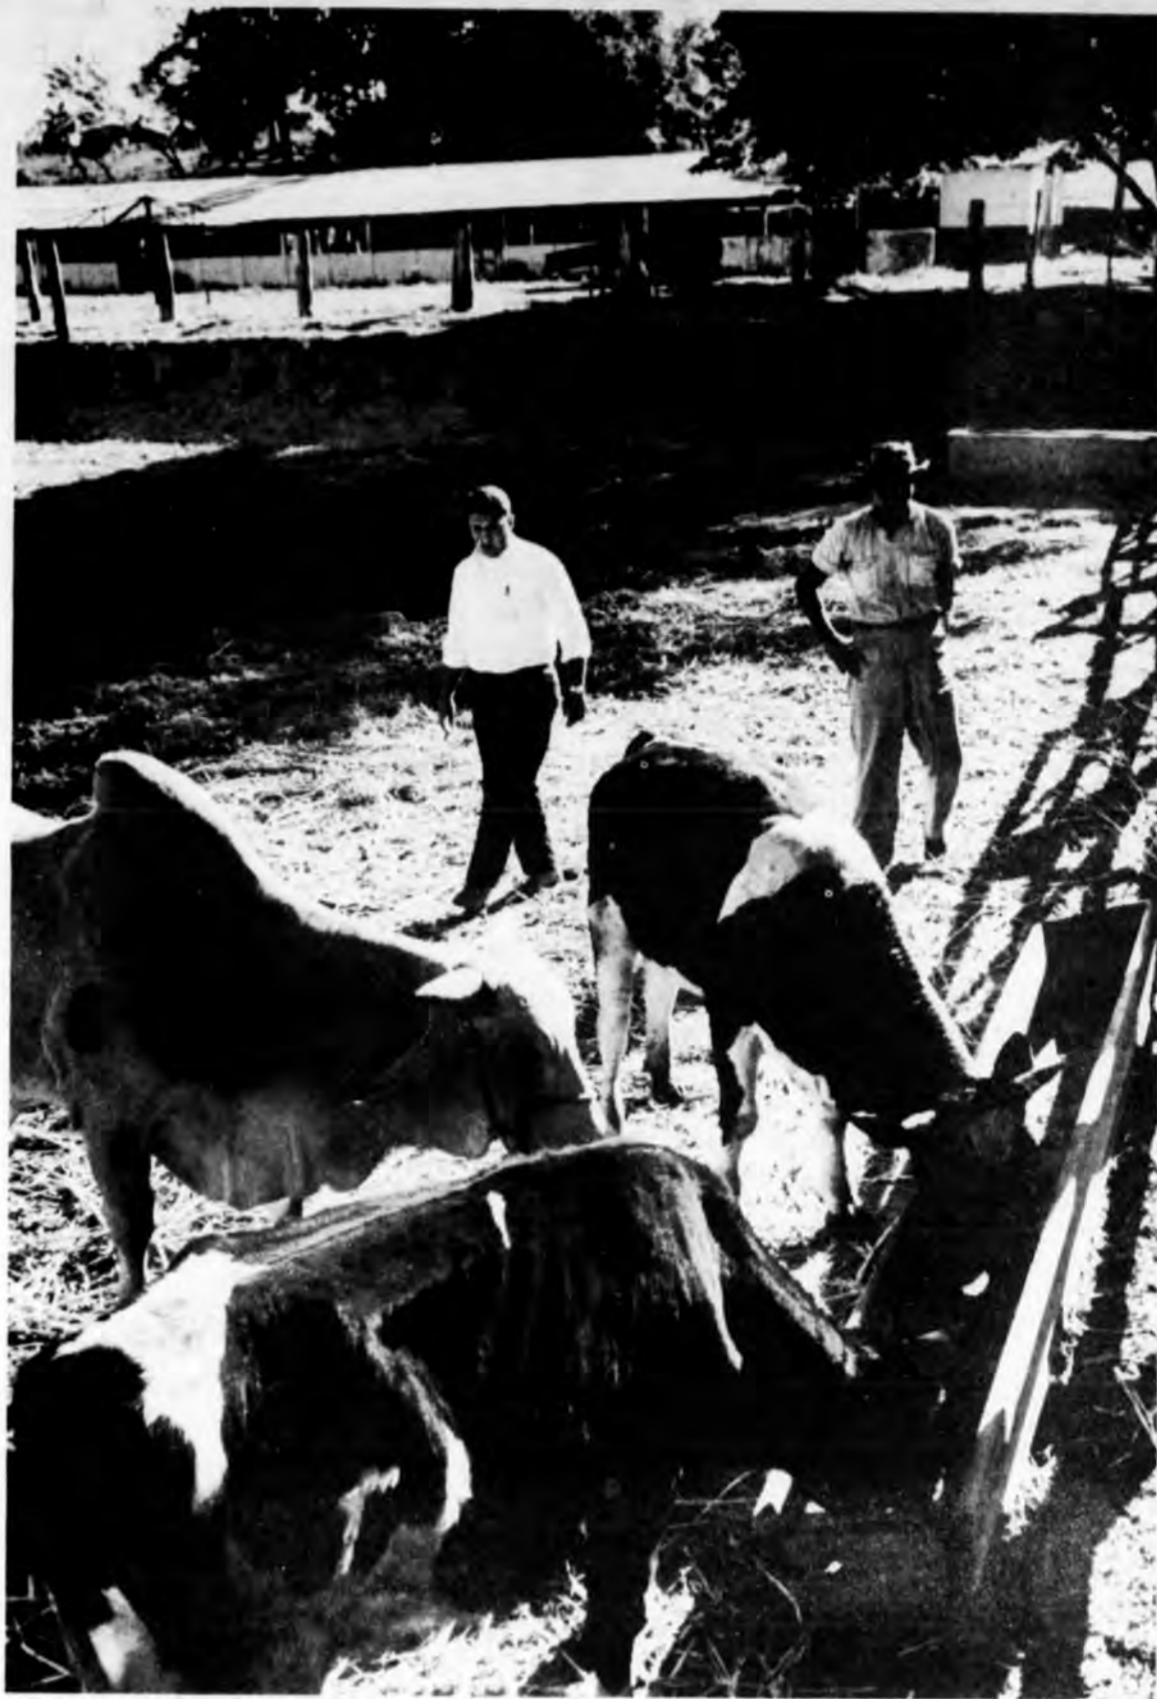

These Peace Corps Volunteers are using their time and talent in an effort to do more than merely feed and clothe people for a short time. Their efforts are geared to helping the people of developing nations help themselves. If they're successful, the programs they are now launching will continue long after the Peace Corps has departed.

Not long ago, one Peace Corps Volunteer—a retired 62-year-old farmer—returned home from his two-year assignment in a Latin American country. After listening to him describe his work in a rural village, a friend suggested that it would be simpler to ship modern farm machinery overseas instead of Peace Corps Volunteers.

"Simpler, yes," he replied, "but before we can send new tractors we have to help these people put metal tips on their wooden plows."

Peace Corps Volunteers are aiding others while making a significant personal contribution to mutual understanding and world peace. If you're interested in helping that half of the world that goes to bed hungry each night, write the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C. 20525, for further information.

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION WORKER: Nearly every day I use some bit of information I picked up on the farm or at 4-H Club sessions. . . . A college degree is not required for Peace Corps service.

SOIL CHEMIST: The pay isn't much . . . but how can you buy the look on the face of a man who's just harvested his first decent crop? Volunteers receive a living allowance during service and a payment of $1,800, less taxes, upon completion of duty.

HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT: We're not 'do-gooders' . . . we just believe in helping people who want to help themselves. Women—as well as men—are needed for Peace Corps agricultural projects.

LIVESTOCK SPECIALIST: The best way to teach is by doing. Specialists are needed in agronomy, agricultural engineering, soil conservation, home economics, and a wide variety of other areas.

See another sub-par year for state pheasant harvest

Pheasant hunters should take 650,000-750,000 ring necks in Michigan this fall, the Conservation Department reports.

The prediction, pointing to another sub-par harvest roughly comparable to last year's kill of 720,000, is tied closely to results of a recent brood survey by mall carriers which shows that pheasant production has tailed off about 8 per cent in 1964.

THIS YEAR'S biggest pheasant drop has taken place in the Thumb area where brood sightings were down 23 per cent from a year ago. Mall carrier counts dipped 8 per cent in the central part of southern Michigan, but measured up well to last year's totals in the southeastern area.

Janson doubts that kill will again hit the mark of nearly 1,500,000 pheasants as it did in the early 1940's because roadbuilding, housing projects, and other developments are steadily watching away at the birds' range.

which is considered a good harvest in Michigan.

Commenting on the idea of releasing birds in Michigan, Janson advises that Wisconsin's pheasant kill recently slumped from 500,000 birds a year to 300,000 in spite of a continued large-scale stocking program.

PROCEEDINGS of the St. Johns Board of Education

The regular monthly meeting of the board of education of the St. Johns Public School District was held Sept. 2, 1964, in the office of the superintendent of schools. Present were members Mungler, Meyer, Parr, Richards, Schumaker, and Gallagher, superintendent Lancaster, Principal Pocus, Ass't Principal Wirlick and Ceredia Hicks. Absent: Member Tieda.

$2 million bean crop in harvest

A $2 million dry bean crop is now being harvested in Clinton County. It will probably be about an average yield, according to Extension Agent George McQueen despite some problems with the Mexican bean beetle and the green clover worm.

Most of the crop was planted early enough that its susceptible stage was past by the time the green clover worm problem set in.

THE HARVEST is late this year, McQueen said, and although it started last week it will probably be next week yet before it is going good.

Yields are spotty, he said, with some fields looking just fair and others looking real good.

About 20,000 acres of county farmland is planted in dry beans this year, McQueen estimated, roughly double the acreage four years ago. The Sanilac and Seaway varieties are predominant.

ALTHOUGH there are yet a lot of unknown factors about the bean harvest, McQueen said, an average yield of 30 bushels per acre at $3.60 per bushel will result in an income to Clinton County farmers of about $2,160,000 in 1964.

Swine disease hits new low

Only five cases of hog cholera, all in Michigan's southernmost tier of counties, have been reported to the Michigan Department of Agriculture's Livestock Disease Control Division since Oct. 29, 1963.

Efforts to eradicate the costly disease of swine are being pressed by a cooperative program between the Michigan department and the USDA's Animal Disease Eradication Division.

In commenting on the low incidence of the disease, State Veterinarian J. F. Quinn said the record speaks well for Michigan's stand in restricting the use of live vaccine in immunization procedures of swine.

notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order once each week for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Clinton County News, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

Curb work half done, quarter of mains in Major construction on streets and water mains in St. Johns is progressing on schedule, with about one-half of the curb and gutter work done and one-quarter of the water mains in.

None of the mains, however, are yet connected to houses. They first must be pressure tested for leaks and then chlorinated to rid the pipes of bacteria.

THIS IS the work being done now on South Lansing and Buchanan streets, where contractors are rushing to tie in individual homes to the new mains.

Water mains are also in the ground on Prospect, Ross, South Clinton and most of Lincoln and Spring streets. City Manager Ken Greer said last week mains are yet to be laid in one block of Mead, two blocks of North US-27, one block on East Railroad Street, one block on North Traver, two blocks on South Traver and two blocks on Park Street.

WITH THE exception of back-filling and cleanup work, curb and gutters are complete on the following streets.

South Swegles, two blocks on Elm, two blocks on Sturgis, four on South Clinton, four on Lansing, two on Ross, one on Prospect, two on Baker, three on South Traver, three on Lincoln, two on Spring and four blocks on Morton Street.

GREER SAID the city is trying to keep all the residential streets usable by graveling them when the curb and gutter work is completed. Because of a switch in priority the water main contractor has not been able to follow closely the curb and gutter work, as was originally planned.

DAV to sell forget-me-nots this weekend

The Disabled American Veterans again this year will ask the people of Clinton County to "Give a Little for Those Who Gave a Lot."

The permanent slogan will be in the inspiration for the annual DAV Forget-Me-Not campaign this Friday and Saturday, Sept. 18 and 19, in St. Johns and next weekend, Sept. 25 and 26, in Ovid.

CARL G. Light, commander of the Clinton County Disabled American Veterans said: "It's easy to show you remember the sacrifices made for us all by our wartime disabled veterans by wearing a Forget-Me-Not on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 18 and 19.

"Contributions for the little blue flowers provide funds for the chapter on its rehabilitation and service work among deserving disabled veterans."

HE EMPHASIZED that all funds collected will be used in Clinton County.

The DAV also gives free assistance to all wartime disabled veterans in matters of compensation, hospitalization, employment and other problems.

7 win Spark Plug awards

Seven young men from St. Johns received Spark Plug Awards last Tuesday for activities in the St. Johns Jaycees.

They were Don Bast, Jack Hart, Bill McCarthy, Jerry Shoemaker, Vern Kremer, Roger Feeman and Bill Warstler.

To win the award, the men had to attend meetings regularly, bring in a new member, visit the meeting of another chapter and be able to recite the Jaycee Creed. Other requirements were varied, ranging from work on a project to serving as a chairman and from presenting an oral report to reactivating a member who has dropped.

CONTENDERS for the award must participate in at least eight activities, with no activity being repeated over two times for points. He must earn a total of 100 points or more within a 12-month span.

DPW asks residents' help in solving leaf, grass woes

The Department of Public Works of the City of St. Johns has requested the help of residents in alleviating a problem. The problem is the disposal of leaves and grass clippings.

Grass clippings are frequently taken in baskets to the edge of street curbs and then dumped into the gutter by residents. When rains come, the clippings are washed down to catch basins, where they clog the openings and

Driver ticketed after accident

Herman Reyes, 27, of 224 E. Hillsdale, Lansing, was ticketed by Deputy Sheriff Fred Corson for failure to stop in assured clear distance ahead. Reyes car reportedly hit the rear of one driven by John F. Mahler, 39, of R-1, Perrinton. Both were going south on Hollister.

Michael C. Ludwig, one of them, is a car salesman for Pohl Brothers. He lives at 102 S. Prospect with his wife Sharon and one child.

Willie Tabor resides at 807 N. Oakland with his wife Beverly and three children. He is employed by Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. as an agent.

cause water to back up over intersections.

INSTEAD OF dumping the clippings, the Department of Public Works asks, residents should leave them in the baskets at the curb and they will be picked up and disposed of by the Mead Dray Service on its normal rounds.

With autumn near the department is asking that residents not burn leaves that fall in the yard. If you decide to burn them, please don't do it in the gutter and on the street, they said.

IF THEY must be burned, residents are asked to do it in their driveways or some other place out of the street. But the city prefers leaves be raked into the gutter. Then they can be picked up by the city's vacuum leaf picker, which is on the job constantly during the leaf season.

Last year the vacuum machine was a two-man operation. This year it is being revamped so that one man can handle it.

IF THE leaves raked into the gutter should get wet before they are picked up by the city, the leaf picker may not be able to handle them. In that case, city crews sweep them up and dump them by hand into a truck.

Leaves should be the only things residents put into the gutters, the city points out. Shrubbery, small branches and other small items should be bundled and left at the curb for the Mead Dray Service. Larger branches and other refuse will be picked up by the city, which devotes its entire crew to the job on the last Friday of each month.

THE cooperation of residents will be greatly appreciated, the Department of Public Works said. Not only will it prevent damage to streets and curbs by fire, but it will make the streets more pleasant to live on and prevent unnecessary clogging of storm sewers.

Why those two letters were in same edition

Just to clear the air with respect to a matter that several people have asked about, we explain to readers how a letter from Lee Cobb appearing in our issue prior to the primary election could be answered in the same edition by Senator Emil Lockwood of St. Louis.

The Cobb letter was prepared and mailed to several newspapers in the 30th Senatorial District the weekend prior to our last issue before the primary.

Through newspaper acquaintances in his home county of Gratiot, Senator Lockwood learned about the letter.

ON SUNDAY the Senator called this newspaper and inquired if we intended to run the Cobb message. When we indicated that this was our plan, he asked if he might have space to reply if his letter reached us Monday morning.

Since this was to be our last issue prior to the election and the Senator would have no other opportunity to answer the charges made, we agreed to his request.

This, under the circumstances, seemed no more than fair treatment to two incumbent legislators who were engaged in a tough primary campaign.

HINDSIGHT IS always better than foresight and, in retrospect, the wiser course for us would have been to print neither letter. This was the policy that a number of newspapers in the district pursued.

And this is a policy which we are now establishing at the Clinton County News. No letters from candidates or their supporters will be published the week prior to an election. Never during our stewardship of this newspaper will there be a chance for one candidate to make charges to which the other does not have an opportunity to reply. In the future, proper deadlines for such correspondence will be set up and announced.

Renewing faith in our basic American beliefs

This week, Sept. 17-23, has been proclaimed locally and throughout the nation as Constitution Week. Spearheading the observance here and elsewhere in the US are the active members of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Today the world is alarmed with talk of the threat of war. One crisis follows close upon another as the Communist countries probe for weak spots in our armor—weak spots not only in missiles, planes and guns, but in our fundamental beliefs and philosophy of government.

WE AVERAGE citizens must of necessity leave the threatened armed conflict and the physical preparation for it to our Department of Defense and other government agencies. But, as interested citizens, we can and must concern ourselves with the war of ideologies—a war that is just as real and as bitter and uncompromising as armed conflict.

This is the purpose of Constitution Week . . . to renew once again our faith in the basic principles upon which the nation is founded and to give thanks for the opportunity to live and rear our children in these free United States.

A basic economic law "outmoded", they say

In an adjoining column, a couple of NFO friends tell us to mind our own business and quit expressing our thoughts on the present farm price crisis.

If these folks think we are not alarmed about the declining market for agricultural products, they misread our editorial comment.

We have no quarrel with the NFO or anyone else who is making an honest attempt to improve the situation.

FOR 30 YEARS the efforts of sincere men from Henry Wallace to Ezra Benson and Orville Freeman have done little to solve the basic problems on the farm market.

Unfortunately, political considerations have frequently interfered with the adequate trial of some suggested solutions.

Maybe the NFO has some of the answers . . . we're willing to watch with interest. But when they tell us the law of supply and demand is "Outmoded" we question their economic thinking.

RAMBLIN' with Rink

BY LOWELL G. RINKER

While strolling through the BOTTUMlands in the FIELD behind my LIGHT GREEN NEWHOUSE, a FURRY WOLF came out of the HAYES on the Hill and began EATON the RICE and FLOWERS near my FOOTIE.

I had been standing there quietly, watching the FISH RIPLE the water on the LAKE. KNIGHT was coming on, and the MOON could be seen coming up over the CHURCHES in the distance.

QUICK like a FOX, I kicked at the WOLF, my HART pounding all the time. Instead of hitting him, I hit my SHINN on a PYLE of POSTS next to a STUMP on the banks of the BROOKS leading into the LAKE.

When the WOLF was gone, I thought "Gee, I WOOD LOVE to have some of that GOOD GREEN WOOD for my fireplace." I felt GAY. My BUTLER could PYLE the WOOD in the WHITE shed behind my CASTLE and I would be set for the SHOWERS of fall and the snows of WINTERS.

SCRAPING the BUGGS and the SAPP from the POSTS, I PLYED them into my FORD and started home. I made a stop at the BARBER and to pick up BACON for my wife. I checked the BARNES when I went past to see that the LIGHTS were not on.

"I hope this WOOD BURNS all KNIGHT," I thought as I put my KEYS in my pocket and rang the doorBELL. "It sure is a lot better at keeping the FROST away than COLE is. It doesn't take a JURY to decide that."

WHILE THIS little essay doesn't make much sense, it was quite a challenge, and it helped while away some of the spare time which I haven't had. In case you can't figure out the rhyme or reason of it, the capitalized words are all names out of the new St. Johns phone book.

Picking out the ones that can be used as nouns or adjectives and trying to tell a story with them can be entertaining, in an odd sort of way. Try it next time you have spare time . . . about 1997.

SPEAKING OF the MOON, the Harvest Moon is the full moon that occurs next week. An astronomer from the U of M says that the Harvest Moon is different from those in other months in that the delay in rising from night to night is short.

On the average, the moon comes up nearly an hour later each night, but this delay varies considerably during the year. In the autumn, this retardation is the shortest of the whole year, being around 20 minutes, in contrast to more than an hour in the spring.

"The nearly full moon will rise at approximately the same hour for several successive nights, and hence there will be

Glories of old Ovid recalled

FROM MISS Dorothy L. Tyler, former St. Johnsite who is now a Detroit school teacher, comes a note this week enclosing a clipping from the March, 1922, issue of the old Bookman magazine.

The Bookman was a favorite among the literary of another generation and has since been supplanted by The Saturday Review and other such. Miss Tyler's concern is with a piece in the Contributors' Column of that 1922 issue written by Hal Waldo, former Ovid resident.

Harold Beardslee, Ovid's unofficial historian, tells me that Hal (Harold) Waldo was the son of a former Ovid school superintendent, E. F. Waldo. He enjoyed some success as an author and published a book or two in which the characters resembled Ovid people. He moved away from Ovid about 1910 and has since died.

BUT HE was very much alive in 1922, as Miss Tyler's clipping testifies. Here were his comments about this area:

"In a recent Contributors' Column I found mighty interesting the letter from the Owosso librarian. I lived next door to Owosso for four years while a youngster.

"Owosso was not an exceedingly attractive town, not nearly so much so as Ovid—my town! Owosso on one side and St. Johns on the other were always our rivals in baseball, and we always whipped 'em.

"Which leads me to speculate if some small towns, like Owosso—towns of 10 to 15,000—are not in reality we shriveled senescent metropolises. No rustic vigor in them, as in Ovid!

"THERE WASN'T enough lusty youth in this town of Owosso to get up a baseball team capable of beating my small town, one tenth Owosso's size. Ovid was 'the gen-u-wine small town, and, by Jasper, we would take on Owosso any time in baseball, football, or debating and whip her to a frazzle.

"I'm working up a great afflatus over Ovid, because at present I'm having the writing fun of my life in spinning a boy's town chronicle about it. I gotta believe it was great!

"Why, shucks! We had our culture, too. Used to charter a special train to take the Ovid contingent to the big high school debate at St. Johns. Whip 'em? Sure! Our fellow's tossed Bryce's 'Commonwealth' around as easy as a 14-pound shot. The very same fellows that could chase out to the lot next Saturday and lam the old apple clean over the fence.

"But heavens alive, what could you expect from a 'ville' with the classic name of Ovid? There was something classic about it! Those youths were the Scipios of the true Roman breed.

"Where has it all gone to? This seems to me a different country than the land in which I first began to cut fish-bait."

IN HIS REPORT to me on Mr Waldo, Harold Beardslee adds a tragic note. "During his years in Ovid," Harold says, "young Waldo was confined to a wheel chair with a crippling ailment that affected his walking. Before his death it became necessary to amputate both of his legs."

It's sort of in character, somehow, that this invalidated young man should write so glowingly of the athletic prowess of his schoolmates.

Happy Birthday - To Me!

BY W. E. DOBSON

I'm rather a conceited cuss,
'N blessed with plenty gall,
The things that would shame some folks
Don't shame me none at all;
So now I've made confession,
You'll find it easy to agree
I'm only normal wishin'
Happy Birthday now to me!

I know there are some other dates,
Some folks would even compare,
'N declare 'em as important
As the day they found me there;
They're all entitled to their view,
While I'm shoutin' loud 'n free,
Has anyone a better right
To a birthday now than me?

In scannin' o'er the records
Fer this last year 'er so,
My total of achievements
Would seem a little low;
But I can choose a brand new tack,
Shake off my lethargy,
Perhaps I'll get my bearin's
Happy Birthday now to me!

The years must be heaps shorter
'N they wuz when I was young,
Seems I so often miss my cue,
'Er speak with careless tongue;
But there could be another chance
In the new year yet to be,
So I join myself in wishin'
Happy Birthday now to me!

bright moonlight in the early evening—a traditional aid to harvesters," the Professor says.

The Harvest Moon is likely to appear larger than usual and take on quite a reddish appearance near the horizon. This is due to the condition of the earth's atmosphere, and not to the moon itself. The molecules of the air and the dust particles, suspended in it, scatter the light, the blue considerably more than the red.

The apparently large size of the moon near the horizon is an optical illusion, and again has nothing to do with the moon itself.

Letters to the Editor

Former resident tells his impressions of Virginia

JUST A week or so before we left, I photographed the Becker-Rademacher wedding. During the proceedings, I stepped outside for a breath of air and noticed three young girls watching the drama unfold inside. I shot the unusual grouping, and entered the print in a photo contest sponsored by one of the many papers in our Fairfax area.

As you can see by the enclosed section of the Fairfax Times the editor named the entry the grand prize winner for the contest. So at least one newspaper here has a fan.

ONE STATEMENT I heard often from Michigan people was that "down south, you are going to have to watch what you say,"—in relation to civil rights they meant. I have been listening with interest to statements and comments people here say about the equality of man, and must say that so far, I have run into no more racial or religious prejudice than in Michigan or New York or any other state.

Really, we have not moved into the deep south by any means. In fact, northern Virginia is looked upon as Yankee country by those down around Richmond, the state's capital. In addition to being a "border" state, although on the "gray" side of the civil war, Washington has employed many thousands of persons who live in this area, and thus just about all 50 states are represented in any square mile.

JUST A comment about the Civil War—it is not called by that title down here. Real southerners call it the "War of Northern Aggression" and still have not heard that Lee surrendered. I also found out the difference between Yankee and Damn Yankee. A Yankee is a tourist who comes, spends and leaves. A Damn Yankee is one who comes and stays.

But to get back to my topic, I don't know, at least now, if folks around here have any great feelings of prejudice. I remember well many comments of Michigan people which could not be called charitable to Negroes.

Probably the main difference between the north and the south, if you pardon a generalization, is that the south has allowed over the years more "legal" discrimination than has the north, and I refer to racial barriers to education and places of public accommodation. In time, I think the new civil rights law will take care of these instances, not only in the south, but all sections of the country.

THERE ARE a few schools here with all Negro children, and some with all white children. The exact figures I have not located as yet, as this issue is a bit touchy. But, there are a great many schools with just a few Negroes in them, and the main reason for race distribution, I think, is because of the neighborhoods which the schools are near. I don't think any city in the United States has yet figured a way to make every-one happy about conditions of de facto segregation.

While most folks around here are Democrats, they are Byrd Democrats, which is a donkey of a different color. Senator Byrd is the grand old man of the party with 32 years in the US Senate, and is running again this year for another six-year term, and is maintaining a "golden silence" about the national Democratic ticket.

Some of the "Dixiecrats" in the south have leaned toward Goldwater because of his so-called strong stands on states' rights, but how this state will go depends a lot upon this area of northern

Hope to take advantage of new anti-poverty funds

Michigan officials hope to take full advantage of federal funds available under the new anti-poverty program.

Gov. George Romney established a 30-member human resources council soon after the war on poverty legislation was signed by President Johnson.

Coordinating federally-funded programs will be just part of this unit's job. The council was comprised of administrators from several state agencies concerned with human resources plus private citizens.

ONE STATE AGENCY voiced its interest in anti-poverty activity even before council members were appointed.

Highway department officials said they could use 400 men in a work-training program on some 200 miles of freeways in northern Michigan.

The proposal called for a sharp increase in the enrollment of the department's student highway technician training program with funds largely from federal coffers.

SOME 40 students have been enrolled in the training program since it was initiated in 1957. They work half the year for the department and attend school the remainder.

Highway officials said up to 400 young men could be given training in forestry work which could lead to careers in the field, while the state would save money and accelerate efforts to beautify the freeways.

EXPANSION OF the training program under the Federal anti-poverty law could help fill the continuing need for men with backgrounds in soil conservation, erosion control, forest management and related fields, they said.

Department spokesmen said this need exists in local road agencies as well as in the state governmental unit.

MANY CONSUMERS won't even notice it, but some packages being sold in Michigan have a new look because of the state's 1964 revision of the weights and measures act.

State Agriculture Director G. S. McIntyre said the new law gives the buyer an advantage he never had before through several features.

In the past, the law required a statement of quantity in a package of food but not on such non-food items as paint, anti-freeze, varnish and oil.

UNDER THE new law the quantity must be declared on all packaged items sold by weight, measure or numerical count. Thus, if a non-food item is sold in a container that looks like a quart, it must state the exact quantity inside.

Terms that tend to exaggerate quantity such as jumbo, king-size, giant or full are illegal under the new law, which took effect Aug. 28.

Some of the computing problems of shoppers also are cut down under the act. Each package must be labeled in terms of the largest unit.

A 20-OUNCE loaf of bread, for example, must be declared as one pound, four ounces, or 1 1/4 pounds.

Agriculture department spokesmen emphasized that many packages of non-food items which did not come under the old law already labeled their goods by quantity, but there were some who didn't.

The old theory was that the size of the container spoke for itself.

Among manufacturers who did not label for quantity, no law violation occurred for a semi-filled container because the law did not require this declaration.

McINTYRE SAID the new law would work to the advantage of both the consumer and the upstanding members of industry "because the chiseler must now meet requirements that the honest member has complied with on a voluntary basis for years."

Virginia with its many "outlanders" like us.

The white "backlash" we have heard so much about may not be a significant factor. A Michigan politician who voted against the new civil rights bill got a taste of "frontlash" on Sept. 1, we read in Washington papers, so just what the south will do is really hard to say.

THIS IS A different part of the country, there is no doubt of that, but because of the many Washington workers who live here and represent all sections of the states, the effects of the "pure" south are somewhat filtered out. You'll have to wait until we travel other parts of the area before we can give a more significant opinion on what the south is really like.

Only by calling was I able to learn that Norm White has obtained the Republican nomination for county prosecutor, as our issue of the News carrying the election results had not arrived. Of course being a card-carrying member of the opposition party, I cannot endorse Mr. White. But, if by some miracle he does get elected, we think he will do a fine job for the county.

We enjoy keeping tabs on friends through your paper, especially with your new printing process.

More scandal from the nation's nerve center in a few weeks... for now,

NFO partisans scold editor

AFTER READING the first part of your editorial (Sept. 3 issue, with respect to livestock withholding), we wonder where you get the idea that your qualifications for opinions include those which deal with problems which concern the farmer.

We have known for some time now that farmers are the least of your brethren, so your latest reflection was no great surprise.

It's too bad that an otherwise healthy newspaper need be used to badger our people who make a living from their land.

YOU HAVE evidently found it necessary to raise the price of your newspaper from that of 20 years ago, but to see prices for farm goods take an upturn is giving you great pains.

A "generous government" was mentioned in your editorial, but no mention was made of the wheat

"Fluffy's diary makes such interesting reading... It's all about me—" referendum story—when farmers voted it down, only to get it thrown back regardless.

The appropriations, which are supposedly marked as benefits for farm people, have been so depleted by the payment of wages to office workers or those who manage to fill out a few forms that only a small portion is left to be used for the actual program for which the money was intended.

IN A HIGHLY organized society your supply and demand theory is as outdated and as effective as last year's calendar.

May we please remind the good editor to stick primarily to making judgment in categories with which he is more familiar and leave the NFO to do what it is intended for and set up to do?

Be advised that NFO policy is to "sell less at a profit, instead of more at a loss," and to "place a price tag at the market place." Surely, in the near future, the farmer will get the recognition he so nobly deserves and this will come about in spite of your editorials.

MR AND MRS WM, CHAPKO Elsie.

Says NFO methods are not effective

IT WON'T work. The methods used by the NFO will not be effective with livestock any more than they were with milk right here in our county only a few years ago.

It is too bad about the death of the demonstrators in Wisconsin, but remember they might have beat up or killed the poor truck driver had he stopped. They were wrong and were killed.

If they can't convict murderers in Alabama or Mississippi they probably can't convict this truck driver in Wisconsin. The whole public is against these tactics of unfriendly persuasion, whether in St. Johns, Owosso or Wisconsin.

WHY DOESN'T the NFO recommend $2 for wheat? That won't work either. I owed every penny of my wheat crop to my creditors and they just said "sell" at $1.12. If I had cattle or hogs it would have been the same.

They say the same thing about livestock or apples and livestock just get fatter and fat hogs or cattle bring less money in the long run.

Notice how Chrysler and the union settled their difficulties without a strike.

PERHAPS hog prices will have to go to 10¢ per pound before farmers will stop raising them. Then supply and demand will work. A price of $1.12 per bushel for wheat doesn't pay, but believe me I won't plant any more and have Freeman manipulate the market on me as he did the past season.

I don't know the answers, but the NFO won't win members or get better prices by their irresponsible methods.

COUNTRY FLAVOR

Fringed gentian shyly slips back to untraveled roads

HAYDN PEARSON

The fringed gentian is a shy and lovely flower, the most famous member of a well-known, widespread clan. It grows in low moist spots and offers its beauty when most wildflowers have finished their blooming and fruiting.

From Quebec to Georgia and beyond the Mississippi, the gentian holds deep, glowing blue to the blue of autumn skies. Half a century ago it was common, but ruthless and thoughtless pickers have caused the fringed flower to retreat far from trafficked roads.

A POET wrote that the flower comes to cheer the melancholy days that marked the closing of the year; but the country man, watching the blossoms open at the low end of the meadow, feels the poet was rushing the season. For the fringed gentian means October with crisp, starry nights and mellow warmth at midday.

It is a biennial plant with erect branches, each bearing a single terminal flower. The blossom has four violet-blue, fringed lobes that spread horizontally in bright sunshine. The four-pointed calyx is also four-sided and a rich bronze-yellow green in color.

THE DELICATE fringe is a graceful touch. But all of Nature's beauty is functional, and so is the fringe of this flower that is becoming more rare. Centuries ago there was no fringe and the ants swarmed into the cup for the nectar. This prevented the crosspollination essential for seed formation. Therefore Nature in its wisdom caused the flower to develop a fringe to repel the ants but still permit bees and butterflies to harvest the nectar, and at the same time carry vital pollen from anthers to pistils.

This flower is no longer found along the traveled roads. But go back from the beaten trails, through the woods to low-lying meadows and sloughs, and you will see the blue flower with fringed petals holding its beauty to blue skies.

THE RIGHT APPLE

When there are so many apples on the tree, how do you pick the right one?
This is always the problem of youth. There are so many roads, so many opportunities, so many desires. How do you decide which may be best? And, when you have made a choice, how do you know it is the right one?
Education is society's solution to the quandaries of youth. Fortify the child's mind with knowledge and skills and he'll be ready to make decisions.
But secular education offers no basis for meeting dilemmas that are not secular. Youth desperately needs moral and religious education as well.
Every Sunday in our churches millions of fortunate youngsters are receiving the vital spiritual training which our complicated life demands. Their parents generally come with them. For grownups wise enough to understand their children's needs, realize their own as well.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor in the building of an earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Confession and Forgiveness

Some believe that all one needs to do to be right before God is to make an apology to Him for their sins and this will square matters with Him. This idea is contrary to what is taught in the scriptures and contrary to reason as well.

When a criminal is brought before a judge, his admission and expression of regret will not keep the judge from passing sentence upon him. Justice demands that the offender be punished for his crime in spite of his confession. How then can we expect to be set free by the Judge of the Universe merely because we confess? Hebrews 9:22 says, "And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without the shedding of blood is no forgiveness."

God's forgiveness for sins involves the shedding of the blood of His dear Son. "Christ died for our sins" is the only basis upon which God has ever forgiven sins. When one repents and puts his trust in Jesus Christ, God forgives that person because Christ settled the penalty for his sins on Calvary. Only believers can confess their sins and be forgiven. Unsaved people need to put their trust in Jesus Christ first, that the penalty for sin may be removed forever.

Clinton girl learns many things in Peace Corps duty

BY MABEL OPPENNEER

A young Clinton County woman who spent two years as a Peace Corps Volunteer to help others, has returned home to obtain more education to further her career in helping the underprivileged.

Miss Pat Anderson spent 20 months in Peru teaching in the under privileged in the barriada of Comas (a suburb of Lima) a variety of subjects to make them better citizens and help them improve their very subnormal standards of living.

BEFORE entering the Peace Corps, Miss Anderson received her bachelor of arts degree in elementary education. Her courses had included two years of Spanish. She will return to the Michigan State University this fall to obtain her master's degree. Then she plans to teach in a school for underprivileged children.

Prior to going to Peru, she spent three months in Puerto Rico where she received training at the Catholic University at Ponce and a month at a camp at Arecibo for training in physical fitness.

HER PROJECT for community development in the barriada of Comas was in a population of 180,000 Indians who came down from the Andes Mountains.

Years ago, they attempted to settle in the city of Lima but found that home rentals were prohibitive and their language was a barrier. They speak "quechua," a dialect of the Andes which is not a written language. Spanish is spoken on the coast.

MANY OF the homes are adobes of straw mat or mud. Some brick homes are being built.

Trucks deliver water from a mountain river and wells to the residential areas for 16 cents a gallon. There are many open air markets for foods and clothing, banks and barber shops. Many of the residents go to Lima by bus to work. There are few automobiles.

Only about one-half of the residents of Comas are married because of the high cost of legalizing marriage. Many of the men have several concubines and when a "wife" is abandoned, she is forced to find work to support her brood or find another "husband."

NINE MEN and eleven women of an average age of 22 years were in the group with which Miss Anderson went to Comas. They were invited to go there by the housing commission of the country.

Finding no place to live when they arrived, the men started construction of a building but they were not permitted to continue, so they were given two rooms in a schoolhouse in which to live. They did build a community building later, however.

MISS ANDERSON concentrated her efforts on classes for literacy and nutrition sensing the dire need in these areas. She also sought to train people who could carry on the work when her time there had terminated.

Sixty per cent of the population is illiterate. The University of Peru also sent out volunteer students to help teach literacy classes.

She helped in the work of an organized mothers club which included literacy classes for 40 women and a day nursery for the care of 60 children of working mothers.

SHE ORGANIZED a knitting cooperative which taught the women, not only how to knit, but to save some money. She organized three girls sewing clubs and taught in two schools, part-time.

Since no funds were available to carry on the club work, they gave parties and organized other activities to raise money. Several groups in Clinton County sent her money to help with the project.

The Catholic religion is predominant in the country. Canadian priests started several schools there and organized 13 other mothers clubs during the time she was there.

"SINCE everything was at rock bottom," she said, with her infectious laugh, "There was no way to go but 'up'."

One journalism graduate started a newspaper; two other volunteers started a chorus; two others, a Boy Scout troop; and others, classes in cooking, crafts, cosmetology and English.

The purpose of the Peace Corps was to promote impetus to organizations already formed by Peruvians and to help them reach their objectives.

THE OBJECTIVES for the volunteer were to learn about the host country and to use her education in her home country; to tell people in the country she visited about the United States and its interest in them; and to help raise the people's standard of living, which is difficult to achieve.

Although Peru has a democracy, the people do not understand politics. But, how could they when the government is controlled by business enterprise and the people are comparatively illiterate? Politicians win their votes by visiting the barriadas bearing gifts to the residents.

Miss Anderson brought home many mementos of the country she visited.

ALSO returning with her was 19-year-old Mario Diaz Paredes whose parents have property in the Andes Mountains. Mario is here on an immigrant visa and wants to learn modern methods of agriculture. Although few farm implements are available in his country, he hopes to be able to derive some benefits useful to his family.

He will reside with Mr and Mrs Dale Anderson of Paxton Road where good agricultural methods are put into practice and will take a short course in agriculture at Michigan State University. He has completed his high school education but speaks only a little English.

MISS ANDERSON found her many years of 4-H training beneficial in Peru with her teaching of cooking, sewing, knitting and other arts.

She said "As a Peace Corps Volunteer, one of the easiest steps to conquer is learning how to get along without material comforts."

"The harder part of living under these conditions," she continued, "is the immaterial. Like learning to be tolerant of things that once seemed objectionable; learning to accept thankfully all the kindnesses we are shown; learning to laugh at some of our mistakes and at some of our habits and customs, but being grateful and proud of others; and learning to appreciate, to understand, and to love."

Blue Star Mothers Entertain Ill Veterans

Members of Chapter 88 of Blue Star Mothers entertained 47 hospitalized patients from the Grand Rapids Veterans Facility for dinner and a social period with music and games Wednesday in the 4-H building. The group included amputees, crippled patients and invalids who are victims of the Spanish-American War, World War I and World War II and the Korean Conflict. Among those assisting with the party were, left to right: Mrs Frank Maier, treasurer of the local chapter; Mrs William Wilkie, secretary; Mrs Herman Heidtman, state president; Mrs J. E. Bartholomew, hospital chairman; and Mrs Lester Welton, president of Chapter 88.

Leftovers are glorified in casserole

Here is a delectable way to fix leftover. Meat leftovers of all types can be prepared quickly and deliciously in a blue cheese cream sauce casserole. The casserole is a combination of sauteed onion, zesty green pepper, crisp celery, and leftover ham in a smooth cream sauce that is flavored with hearty American blue cheese. The addition of blue cheese to the sauce turns the ordinary casserole into a gourmet's delight.

ALTHOUGH ham is used in this casserole, leftover chicken, pork, or veal would also be delicious.

- Leftover Casserole (Serves 4)
- 1 medium onion, chopped
 - 2 tbsp. butter
 - 1 1/2 c. milk
 - 1 c. crumbled blue cheese (about 5 1/4 ounces)
 - 1/2 green pepper, chopped
 - 1/2 c. chopped celery
 - 1 1/2 c. cooked chopped ham
 - 1 tbsp. chopped parsley
 - Pinch of sugar
 - Salt and pepper to taste
- Saute onions in butter until tender. Stir in flour and simmer about 4 minutes. Stir in milk and blue cheese. Stir until thickened. Add remaining ingredients. Heat through. Serve with hot noodles.

No need to skimp on chicken in these last few weeks of summer. There are five per cent more broiler-fryers than last year at this time. So enjoy those last of the summer plenties and cook-ups.

Plan your menu to fit your schedule. If the hour before dinner is your most hectic time, flour and brown the chicken in fat or oil several hours before. Arrange it on an oven-proof platter. Bake off in a slow oven during the last hour before dinner. Serve direct from the oven to the table. Bake apples at the same time and you'll have fruit ready for tomorrow's breakfast or lunch.

A CHICKEN PIE with biscuit topping is another dish you can start ahead of time. Fry the chicken until it's almost done. Add homemade gravy or a condensed cream soup.

If your fry pan has an oven-proof handle, roll the biscuit dough to a size that will cover the top of the pan. Or, transfer the chicken to a casserole, cover with dough and bake in a hot oven until chicken is hot and biscuit topping is brown.

SHARPEN your pencil and do some figuring when you buy eggs this month. Small eggs appear on the market during September.

September is the month to buy eggs by the pound—not by the dozen.

You need to know the ounces per dozen for the various weight classes if you are going to compare costs.

A dozen small eggs weigh 18 ounces per dozen; a dozen medium—21 ounces and a dozen large—24 ounces.

DETERMINE the cost per ounce by dividing the total price per dozen by the weight of the eggs per dozen. Then compare egg costs of the various sizes by the ounce.

BE SURE you are comparing like grades—eggs are graded AA, A, B and C.

For example—if large eggs sell at 60 cents per dozen, they would cost 2 1/2 cents per ounce or 40 cents per pound. Small eggs selling at 39 cents per dozen would cost 2.1 cents per ounce or 33.6 cents per pound. In terms of price per pound, small eggs would be the thrifty buy.

Make-with-wool contest open to county girls

It's time to Make It Yourself With Wool if you plan to compete in the third annual district four contest Nov. 21 at Anthony Hall, Michigan State University.

Any girl from 10 to 21 may enter a 100 per cent American wool garment that she has made herself and be eligible for hundreds of prizes at the local, state or national contests.

The American Wool Council and the Women's Auxiliary to the National Wool Growers Association co-sponsor the contest to acquaint girls with the place of wool in today's fabric and fashion world.

DISTRICT 4 includes Clinton, Ingham, Livingston, Genesee and Shiawassee counties. The district director, Mrs James C. Cretcher, 3436 Jolly Road, East Lansing, may be contacted for entry blanks and additional information.

Mr and Mrs Les Botlmer, R-5, St. Johns, represent Clinton County on the district committee. Last year's winners from Clinton County were Jean Schaefer, daughter of Mr and Mrs Albert Schaefer, East M-21, St. Johns, who was top sub-deb winner, and Rosemary Kiesling of Bath who won for best construction of a sub-deb garment.

Towels go to college in new way

Brightest idea to hit the campus in many a day is a new collection of cotton terry towels boldly striped in authentic college colors.

They're fast winning honors as the most versatile items a coed can pack in her back-to-school luggage.

IDEAL of course for the bath, these new towels lend themselves to a host of other uses as well.

Made in a generous 25 by 50-inch bath size, they can be stitched up into such useful items as study togas, ponchos, laundry bags, and decorative pillow covers.

YOU'LL find these towels just as easy to care for as they are to sew on. Made of selected fine cotton yarns, they are soft to the touch and super-absorbent.

Loomed with tightly anchored loops and borders that won't pucker, their colors will actually look better after each laundering.

If freezer space is at a premium with garden supplies coming in at a good pace, you might consider having large roasts boned and rolled so they take less space. This will make for easier carving, too, when they're brought to the table.

She has five children, Mrs Dale (Bertha) Feighner of St. Johns, Mrs Eugene (Donna Jean) Schmidt of Adrian, Donald of Cincinnati, Richard of St. Johns, and Dale of Enumclau, Wash., and 15 grandchildren.

They Grow Their Tomatoes Big!

Mrs Mitchell (Mike) Hyler of 211 S. Baker Street measures a large tomato taken from her garden. The unusual vegetable of the Winsall variety weighs 2 pounds, 6 ounces, and measures 18 inches in circumference. The Hylers thought because of dry weather and the onslaught of rain following, their tomatoes "wouldn't amount to much." The girth of several others is 16 inches.

Land Bank, PCA open house Friday

The Federal Land Bank Assn. and the Production Credit Assn., which jointly occupy a building at 108 Brush Street, will hold open house Friday to show off their new office facilities.

The building was remodeled early last spring, but delays in the receipt of new office equipment in both offices set back any plans for open houses. The equipment is all in now. PCA has been in the office building since March 1.

THE OPEN house will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday for members and friends. Refreshments will be served. Some 1,500 invitations have been sent out for the affair.

Floyd Parmelee is office manager for the Federal Land Bank, and Bernard E. Miller is branch manager for Production Credit. Both are farmer-owned businesses.

PRODUCTION Credit occupies quarters on the north side of the building and the Land Bank quarters on the south side. Although housed in the same structure, the Horatio Alger! This name must bring to mind happy memories since it is the name of America's all-time best selling author, and his story is as entertaining as his tales of Ragged Dick, Tom the Bootblack or dozens of other Alger heroes.

Ralph Gardner has written a biography of this man who lived in the 1800's during the American hero era. His books were all on the theme that any spunky lad could whip the neighbor hood bully, rise from newsboy to banker, from farmboy to Senator, or even from rallsplitter to President of the United States. These books were the chief reading of hundreds of boys and girls of the early part of this century.

In addition to writing the biography, the author has compiled a complete list of Alger's writings in which he fully describes each edition and gives the present value. Many of the first editions are now very valuable. There are many collectors of Alger's books and they will be glad to know there is such a compilation.

"SWEET HORN of Judas' Day" by Richard Llewellyn is a story of modern Brazil. It is a story of a powerful family of that country. They own a vast agricultural empire and control the fate of hundreds of workers.

The heir of all this finds that his empire is threatened by occult forces that threaten to overwhelm him and his family. The author has created a vivid picture of life in Brazil today, crippled as it is by the tragic split between the very rich and the very poor.

The author is best known for his book "How Green Was My Valley," a very popular novel of several years back.

AN EX-JET PILOT, Hank Searles, writes with technical accuracy in his books about aviators. His book, "The Crowded Sky," was a real thriller. Now he has written "The Pilgrim Project" which is the story of our efforts to land a man on the moon. This is a top secret project and the author writes well of all the complex issues involved.

The astronauts and their families, the scientists and the Congressmen are all drawn into the plan and "The Pilgrim Project" takes place. It is a novel that will hold the reader spellbound.

We have many new books for our readers that include "One Perfect Rose" by Hall, "Gaelic Ghosts" by Leodhas, "Time of the Great Freeze" by Silverberg—all good reading.

AGRICULTURE in ACTION

by M. L. Woolf

Farmers are greatly concerned with their immediate future, and there are state and national signposts to show that they have every reason to be.

Farmers face the possibilities of less friendly legislatures resulting from the Supreme Court apportionment ruling. Then too, there will be a newly elected President of the United States in office this January when the new Congress meets.

ADDING TO the unease are changes due in nearly all of the "emergency" farm legislation enacted in recent years, most of which expire with the 1965 crops. These include: the present feed-grain program, the International Wheat Agreement, and the National Wool and Sugar Acts.

Most important is the expiration of those provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1964, which permitted the secretary of agriculture to place the controversial Wheat Certificate plan into effect without a referendum of growers.

IN MICHIGAN, four out of five wheat farmers voted against the program. Still Congress ignored these wishes to enact the plan, without a referendum, for the 1964-65 year.

Mixed in with these more obvious big issues are dozens of lesser ones that farmers cannot ignore. Such things as tax reform, farm labor and a multitude of marketing problems are among them.

Even though most of these are loosely classified as "farm" problems—the general public has a much greater stake in what happens in these areas than many would suppose.

THIS COUNTRY began as an agricultural nation with the people gradually moving away from the land as productive capacity of the farms allowed. There is time now for the pursuit of a thousand-and-one occupations other than farming, all of which makes this nation so rich.

But those left on the land, the vital 6 or 7 per cent, voice this plea: "Don't forget we're here so that YOU can be there, doing whatever you prefer doing."

"Don't forget that as the agriculture of a nation goes—so goes that nation."

New livestock law in effect

Further steps to prevent the spread of livestock disease in Michigan, which is recognized nationally for its progress in this field, were taken Aug. 28 when amendments to the state's livestock disease control laws became effective.

New amendments to the law, passed in 1919 and amended several times since, deal with the intra-state movement of cattle. On Jan. 1 Michigan had 1,752,000 cattle of all kinds, Agricultural Director G.S. McIntyre said.

THE HEALTH of the state's cattle is high because of intensive efforts of persons and organizations working with the joint program operated by the Michigan Department of Agriculture, the Livestock Disease Control Division and the USDA's Animal Disease Eradication Division. The new amendments had the support of the Michigan Livestock Health Council and other farm organizations.

These provide that native feeder cattle up to 18 months old may be sold on a permit provided by the offices of State Veterinarian John F. Quinn, D.V.M., in the Department's offices at Lansing.

ALSO REQUIRED under the new amendments is that dairy and breeding type cattle when consigned to the livestock markets must go for slaughter only, unless accompanied by an official certificate of record. This eliminates female cattle of breeding or dairy type returning to farms from markets without proper health status.

Cattle with official certificates of health records must be penned separately at markets. The pens, alleys, and ring must be cleaned and disinfected before each sale. These facilities may not be used after cleaning and disinfection by cattle consigned to slaughter until the animals with health records are disposed of.

THE AMENDMENTS also modify the law to the extent that herds in which all cattle over two years old have been tested for tuberculosis would qualify as a herd having had a complete negative herd test for the purposes of Michigan sales health certificates.

Set a good example—what you are influences others in making them what they are.

FHA loans program triples in 4 years

The loan programs of the Farmers Home Administration have increased almost three times in the past four years, according to Nyle L. Katz, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration in Michigan.

Nationally some $800 million has been advanced to farm and rural families in 1964 fiscal year. In fiscal 1960, approximately $310 million was loaned. The funds have helped strengthen family farms and rural communities by financing farm operations, farm ownership, rural housing, rural water system programs, rental housing for senior citizens and shifts in the use of land to recreation and grazing, he said.

MOST OF THE loans are used by family farmers to acquire resources they need for successful farming. During the past year special housing programs for senior citizens, and shifts in land use programs were launched.

Speaking before a conference of employees of the Farmers Home Administration in Battle Creek, Katz expressed concern at the apathy with which the public at large regards the plight of the family farmer.

"WE KNOW THAT the price-cost squeeze, the shrinking number of market outlets, and the difficulties encountered by young farmers in obtaining adequate credit are menacing family farms. But we find it hard to arouse many others to our concern," Katz said.

"If we can step up our activities in the next three years in a measure commensurate with the increase since 1960 we will make some headway in assisting many family farmers," he said.

Fulton seeks bids on 2 schools

The Fulton Board of Education at Middleton is accepting bids on two schoolhouses—Carr School in Washington Township and Wood School in Newark Township—in Gratiot County. The buildings are to be removed within 90 days of the opening of bids. Bids must be submitted by Sept. 24 at 4 p.m. to Ronald Bellingier, secretary of the board.

HOW OLD-FASHIONED IS THE MILKING STOOL?

Modern dairy farms are a far cry from the days of the milk pail and the three legged stool. Today, cows enter milking parlors or stanchions where automatic milking machines do the work. Yet, in another sense, the old milk stool is far from old-fashioned, because those three legs symbolize the three major aspects of today's dairy industry. (1) The farmer who produces the milk, (2) the cooperative which markets the milk for the farmer, (3) the dairy which processes and delivers the milk to you. Cooperatives are owned and operated by the dairy farmers they serve. They give these farmers a strong voice in the marketing of their products. They also provide many special services and guarantees which an individual farmer, working alone, could not provide himself. The result of this united effort is a more stable market for the dairy farmer and, for you, an uninterrupted supply of wholesome fresh milk. Thanks to the three-way cooperation among farmers, cooperatives and dairies.

The Yardener
 Lawn and You
 Water is important to your lawn, which needs the right amount at the right time.
 During the summer, let your grass grow taller. The soil will be more shaded and that reduces water loss.
 Don't rake the lawn of fine grass clippings. They should settle into the lawn as mulch and will keep the earth cooler and add organic matter.

Fall Fertilization Offers You More Profits
 You Can Benefit from the Use of Fall Fertilization of Your Crops

WHEAT
 Fall fertilization of your wheat grounds means you are adding plenty of plant food for top wheat yields, plus providing sufficient nutrients to soil organisms which convert plowed-under straw into soil building humus.

LEGUMES
 Fall fertilization of legumes is always profitable. Soil test to determine your needs.
 An early fall top-dressing of phosphate-potash fertilizer can improve the growth of weak stands and help resist winter kill.

Chest contributions aid to Scouting work

One of the big beneficiaries of the Clinton County Communities Chest is the county's scouting programs, both girls and boys. Over 900 youngsters benefit directly.

If the Communities Chest drive is successful in reaching its $29,000 goal this year, $2,400 of that amount will go to the Girl Scouts and $9,500 to the Boy Scouts.

ST. JOHNS has 145 girls in the four classifications of Girl Scouts. Maple Rapids has 29, Eureka 26 and DeWitt 114.

The Girl Scout Council has three beautiful campsites, maintained through the annual cookie sale, but the Chest helps with administrative costs. This year four troops camped at Wacousta and Wilderness State Park, one camped in a private area and one participated in a winter weekend. Fourteen girls attended sessions at Camp Deer Trails.

Last spring a get-together with mothers for all troops in Neighborhood 19 was held at Smith Hall with 350 mothers and Scouts in attendance.

IN ADDITION to the youngsters, many adults are involved in Girl Scout work as leaders. Before they can actually start a troop of Girl Scouts, it is necessary for the adults to take a required number of hours of training.

This training is given by the personnel at the Lansing Girl Scout office, and materials and other aids needed by a leader to help her in running a successful troop are provided by the Scout office.

This fall there will be workshops on crafts and Girl Scout government for leaders of older troops. In February a council-wide event, "Girl Scouts Look Wider Still—A Promise in Action," will be held at the Lansing Civic Center.

THE Girl Scout district including Clinton County ranked second in increase of membership for the past year.

Membership in Boy Scouting is high, too. Some 589 boys and 285 adults are enrolled, and organization has started for new units in Eureka and Westphalia and a proposed unit in Ovid.

Membership in the Chippewa District at the end of June was: Cub packs, 373 boys, 166 adults; Scout troops 188 boys, 97 adults; Explorer posts, 28 boys, 22 adults.

YOUR contributions to the Communities Chest will help in maintaining the local camping area as well as the Northwoods Summer Camp.

With the exception of one troop, all troops in the Chippewa District camped at Northwoods this summer. With the exception of one troop, all participated in the Klondike Derby last winter.

Your contribution will also help defray office expenses and expenses of the field men—without them there would be no scouting.

A GENEROUS contribution to the Communities Chest will help the Scouting programs as well as 4-H. It would be an investment in tomorrow's citizens.

Harvest events on travel slate

Harvest-time activities are the center of attraction at many Michigan events scheduled for this weekend of Sept. 19-20.

The Allegan County Fair at Allegan and the Fall Festival at St. Louis wind up several days of celebration Saturday, according to the listings in the Michigan Tourist Council's Calendar of Events.

SUNDAY marks the end of the Mackinac County Fair at Allen-ville, and the two-day Posen Potato Festival at Posen. Farm City Week is listed for a full week at Mt. Clemens beginning Sunday.

Road Commission Weekly Report

Les Drago, county road engineer, Paul Nobis, commission chairman, George Moore, chairman, road and bridge committee and Don Ewing, road clerk, attended the Northern Michigan Road Conference last week.

The conference was devoted to the responsibilities of road commission personnel and to definitions under Act 51 and other legislation affecting road commission operations.

WE RECEIVED the 1964-65 road certification this week. This is the official mileage of all legal Primary and Local roads as certified by the State Highway Department, Local Government division.

The report shows a total of 1,206.75 miles of roads in Clinton County divided as follows: State Highways 71.91 miles, county primary, 311.89 miles and county local 822.95 miles.

MILEAGES are reported by Townships showing DeWitt Township with the highest county road mileage, a total of 80.05, and Eagle Township the least with 57.82 miles. Average per Township was 71 miles.

Incorporated city and village streets are not included in these totals nor are State Highways not maintained by Clinton County Road Commission. State Highway mileages are figured as miles of two-lane highway.

THE BOARD of Clinton County Road Commissioners will hold their regular meeting Friday, Sept. 18. The commission will open bids for this fall's requirements for treated bridge plank.

County road machinery was again the target of vandals over last weekend. This time the destruction was not only on machinery left on the job but also on trucks and mowers at the county garage.

THE COST of this loss is not only in the repair of damage but also the expense of the delay. Every Monday morning and sometimes during the week, some of our crew is held up because of these senseless acts.

We again appeal to all persons, if you see anyone tampering with ours or a contractor's equipment please notify the local police department or the sheriff's department.

DON EWING, Clerk

Say 5,000 in county harboring TB germs

Between 5,000 and 6,000 adults in Clinton County are harboring tuberculosis germs in their bodies, the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Assn. says.

The estimate, using 1960 census figures showing 20,720 persons in this age group in the county, is based on recent state survey results.

Very few of those infected are spreading the disease to others, the state Christmas Seal agency emphasized. But of those infected, one in every 20 at some future time will break down with the disease and will become a threat to others unless treated promptly.

Masons sponsor fall auction

The fall white elephant sale will be held on the Masonic Temple grounds Saturday, Sept. 26, at 1:00 p.m. Some antique chairs, picture frames and other items and other articles donated by members of the Masonic orders will be sold. Rainbow Girls will serve refreshments.

Plans were made by the Masonic Temple board and members of the various organizations.

Members were asked to bring all items possible to the Masonic Temple on Sept. 19 or call a member to have the articles picked up.

Also discussed was the first anniversary temple dedication barbecue chicken dinner to be held Sunday, Oct. 4, from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Democrats blasted for new state districting

Vicious Democratic gerrymandering of congressional and legislative districts threaten the very existence of county and local governments, said Alvin M. Bentley, of Owosso, former 8th district Congressman, in the keynote address at last Saturday's Republican County Convention here.

Bentley spoke out forcefully against "politically-inspired" judicial determinations of legislative districts which cut across county lines. This carried to the ultimate, Bentley said, would result in the chopping up of townships and cities into separate districts.

Such actions, he pointed out, imperil the basic, grass roots functions of our political system and undermine the foundations of local government.

IN A CONVENTION, lengthened to three-hour duration by efforts to comply with new statutory provisions dealing with political party organization, county Republicans adopted resolutions:

—Commending Gov. George Romney for his leadership in helping Michigan to solve its fiscal and economic problems.

—Supporting the national Republican party platform and the candidacies of Goldwater and Miller for President and Vice President.

—Endorsing the actions of the 1963-64 Republican Michigan legislature for producing legislation in line with the party's pledged goals.

—Setting up procedures for the choice of members to the new 15-member county Republican Executive Committee and members of the 3rd and 6th District Congressional Committees.

THE CONVENTION crowd of 90 people applauded heartily a resolution expressing the party's appreciation to Rep. Andrew W. Cobb, state representative from this district for the past 14 years. A victim of legislative redistricting Cobb suffered defeat in the primary when he sought the State Senate seat in the 30th district.

The resolution "gratefully recognized 14 years of excellent service to the people of Michigan."

County Dems endorse farm bargaining for markets

Clinton County Democrats, meeting for their Fall convention here Saturday night, endorsed the principle of collective bargaining for farmers in marketing their products.

The resolution, introduced from the floor by James Pino of Victor, pointed to the party's long support, of industrial union efforts in collective bargaining and urged similar backing for farmers.

Attendance at the convention exceeded 70 people—the largest in the memory of local party workers.

PRIOR TO the official opening of the partisan meeting, the group was addressed by a nonpartisan candidate for 3rd District Court of Appeals — Austin J. Doyle, Kalamazoo attorney. Doyle based his talk on the principles of the Democratic party.

The only controversy at the convention involved the number of members of the party's coun-

REP. ANDREW W. COBB Honored by Republicans

It continued: "The Republican party of Clinton County expresses its sincere appreciation to him for his leadership in the State House of Representatives as Chairman of the Agriculture Committee and as a member of the Elections, Military and Veterans Affairs, Retirement and Revision and Amendment to the Constitution Committees, and as a member of the Legislative Audit Commission.

"We urge him to continue his long and devoted interest to Republican party affairs and make himself available to party leaders for assistance and counsel in matters of importance to the people of Clinton County and the state of Michigan."

OLIVER Ancell, nominee for Supervisor of DeWitt Township at the November election, presided as permanent chairman of the generally harmonious convention. Mrs. Andrew W. Cobb of Duplain was secretary. Alba F. Wert, St. Johns, and Miles Merrill, DeWitt Township, were tellers. Luman Hall, Greenbush Township delegate, said the invocation opening the session.

Elected as members at-large of the new 22-member County Executive Committee were Mrs. Richard Newman of Riley and Wilbur Thurston of Bengal. Other members of the committee, serving by virtue of their official position in the party or their ty committee to be named from each election precinct. A group of Ovid delegates asked that the number be increased from two to three per precinct.

A series of motions designed to resolve the controversy were voted down by the convention and the matter was finally left to the judgment of the new county Executive Committee which will take office following the November election.

OTHER resolutions adopted by the convention endorsed the Johnson-Humphrey ticket for President and Vice President and the candidacy of Congressman Neil Staehler for Governor. Other Democratic candidates at the national, state and county level also drew the unanimous endorsement of the convention.

THE HEART-BEAT OF MICHIGAN

During 1963 Michigan farmers harvested and delivered over one million tons of beets to the state's five sugar factories for processing. This crop produced over 279,000,000 pounds of pure sparkling sugar for sale exclusively in Michigan during the current marketing year.

In an average year, the beet sugar industry of Michigan will derive from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 from the sugarbeet crop. From this crop Michigan sugarbeet growers will receive approximately $15,000,000 in company and conditional payments.

These dollars which the sugarbeet growers and processors of this state receive for sugar produced in Michigan affect economic units all around their own horizons and far beyond Michigan's 17 county beet producing area. Remember, every time a sugar beet grows—so does Michigan.

Serves bucket brigade to $19,000 fire truck

BY FAYE HANSON

DEWITT—The DeWitt Fire Department is in its 50th year and Fire Chief Glenn "Dutch" Halterman has been with it for all of those 50 years.

Mr Halterman was 15 when he signed up as a volunteer on the first bucket brigade. Each man bought his own bucket back in 1915.

IN 1919 THE department purchased a push cart, high-wheeled chemical wagon, and in 1927 it bought a Chevrolet four-tank chemical truck. In 1937 they got a Bean high-pressure volume vehicle and in April of this year they added their pride and joy, a $19,000 Ford high-pressure and volume wagon.

Mr Halterman became assistant chief in 1926 and Chief in 1938, a position that he had held constantly since that time.

THE DEPARTMENT consists of Chief Halterman, two assistant chiefs, Arthur Newman and Louis Nabbefeld Jr. and four town men always on call, as well as 14 regular firemen. These are all local men and are volunteers.

The department has just added $1500 worth of two way radio equipment which is to be installed in the two fire trucks and in the fire station. They are also planning on getting a new siren which has three different tones, one for fires, one for emergencies and one for Civil Defense.

THE DEPARTMENT is financed by DeWitt Township and is housed by the village. Besides DeWitt Township it also will go anywhere in Riley, Olive and Watertown Townships and also aids the Bath fire department when called upon to do so. They make about 100 fire runs a year.

Chief Officer Holly from Selfridge Air Force Base was the speaker and showed films on fighting atomic fires.

They added an inhalator in 1954 and have made over 300 runs with it.

The DeWitt area is proud of its Fire Department and its group of dedicated men and at this time the community gives a special salute to Chief Halterman for his 50 years on the department.

Mrs Leo Hanson attended the state conference of Demolay for Boys at the Civic Center, Lansing, Saturday and Sunday as a representative for Grand Chapter of Eastern Star.
