Challenge liquor election in city

A citizens group is challenging the legality of the election on the liquor-by-the-glass proposal in St. Johns Nov. 3.

They charge that no public notice of the election was published in the newspaper prior to the legal Sept. 11 deadline for publication.

Registered letters were sent to the St. Johns city clerk and mayor Monday night asking that the city remove the proposal from the ballot.

The letters were signed by James R. Boyce of 705 N. Oakland Street.

BOYCE SAID HE was acting as a private citizen in making the request. The letter had been written after consultations between the Citizens Committee for a Safer St. Johns Area, the Michigan Temperance Foundation and the director of elections for the State of Michigan.

"Since proper notice was not given me by Sept. 11 as required by law," Boyce said in the letter, "I hereby request this proposition be removed from the Nov. 3, 1964, ballot."

"FURTHER, I would like written assurance from you within seven days that this will be done, so I will not have to contact the prosecuting attorney's civil division to prevent this issue from being placed on the ballot in violation of the law."

Boyce quoted Section 5618-1027 of the liquor control act as stating:

"THE CITY or village or township clerk, . . . shall within 10 days from the filing with said clerk of the petition, give notice of the filing thereof by publication of notice setting forth the essential facts of such petition in a newspaper published or in general circulation in the city, village or township."

Boyce further quoted from a letter from Robert M. Montgomery, director of elections for the State of Michigan:

"WE ARE IN agreement with the Liquor Control Commission that the provisions of the election law supersede that of the Liquor Act."

"The Liquor Act says that petitions must be filed 60 days before, and under the Michigan Election Law 63 would be required, and for this year the last day would be Sept. 1."

"AS TO THE 10 days, that would certainly appear to be Sept. 11 as being the last day for giving notice of the filing by publication."

Notices of the proposal were published by the city in the Clinton County News on Sept. 17 and Sept. 24.

THE PROPOSITION for the ballot is "Shall the sale of spirits in addition to beer and wine be permitted for consumption on the premises within the City of St. Johns under the provisions of the law governing same?"

St. Johns city attorney Harold B. Reed studied Boyce's letter Tuesday afternoon, but he said it would take further study and research before he had any comment on it.

ANY DECISION on whether to keep the proposal on the ballot or throw it off could be made by the city commission, he said. Neither he nor the city clerk

Goldwater tour group to stop here Oct. 21

A Goldwater "Bandwagon" Tour will stop in St. Johns next Wednesday, Oct. 21, at 2:15 p.m. en route from Muskegon to Bay City. The stop here will be part of a six-day auto and bus tour of 30 counties and over 50 cities and towns in the state.

Participating in the tour will be Barry Goldwater Jr., and such well-known celebrities as Eddie Bracken, Constance Bennett and Philip Crosby.

THE STOP scheduled in St. Johns at 2:15 p.m. will be near the M-21 intersection with Clinton Avenue.

Participants in the tour will speak briefly and distribute literature on behalf of the national and state Republican candidates at the Nov. 3 election.

Vandals hit phone booths

One of the most recent targets of vandals in Clinton County has been the public telephone booth. Phones were ripped from two of the booths in the last 10 days.

The phone was taken out of the booth at the corner of US-27 and Maple Rapids Road in Greenbush Township last Tuesday night, and on Thursday night the one at the S & J Supermarket south of East DeWitt was damaged.

SHERIFF Percy Patterson said the phones are ripped off the wall of the booth with a crowbar or other instrument. One of the phones was recovered, broken up, after the money in it had been taken out by the vandals.

Sheriff's deputies are maintaining a close watch on phone booths.

2 Ovid youths hurt in crash

Two Ovid youths were injured last Monday when their sports car struck a jeep on M-47 in Shiawassee County.

They were Steve Magsig of 185 Elm Road and Russell Mikesell of 225 Oak Street, both of Ovid. They suffered severe cuts and bruises when their car struck the rear of a jeep driven by Mrs. Verlyn Rodman of 8106 S. Fenner Road, Laingsburg.

SHIAWASSEE County deputies said Mrs. Rodman was attempting to make a turn into a private driveway off M-47 when the accident happened.

The boys were hospitalized at Owosso Memorial Hospital.

Reckless driving costs him $95

Lee Roy Schreider, 19, of 258 E. Main Street, Pewamo, was fined $75 plus $19.90 costs and sentenced to jail for two days by Justice of the Peace Gordon Willoughby Saturday. He was charged with reckless driving.

New surgeon opens office in St. Johns

Opening his office in St. Johns this week for the practice of medicine and general surgery is Julius H. Kelertas, M.D., who is moving here from Eau Claire, Wis.

The new physician comes to St. Johns highly recommended. He is a native of Lithuania and received his M.D. degree from the University of Wurzburg, Germany, in 1951. He served his internship at Ottawa Civic Hospital in Ottawa, Ont., in 1952-53.

He was a resident physician in surgery at Maumee Valley Hospital, Toledo, Ohio, from 1953 to 1956 and continued his training at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit from 1956 to 1958.

HE RECEIVED his master's degree in surgery from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1960. He practiced privately as a surgeon in Toronto, Ont., for three years and has been in Eau Claire since 1962.

Dr. Kelertas will occupy a suite of offices in the newly-remodeled Parr Building, at the corner of West State and South Ottawa Streets, in St. Johns. He has been appointed to the surgical staff at Clinton Memorial Hospital, St. Johns.

Accompanying him here are Mrs. Kelertas and their daughter, Rima Anne, 10 months old. The family have rented the home owned by Mrs. S. R. Smith at 209 W. Higham Street.

Check forger pleads guilty

Deputy Sheriff Fred Corson returned from Anchorage, Alaska, last Thursday with Stanley A. Sams, 39, of Charlotte, who was wanted here on a charge of check forgery.

He was charged with forging a check for $85 drawn on the State Savings Bank of Owosso and cashed in St. Johns June 20.

Sams waived examination in justice of the peace court and was bound over to circuit court. Monday he was arraigned before Circuit Judge Leo Corkin and pled guilty.

His bond was lowered from $10,000 to $2,000 if it was in cash. But he remained in Clinton County Jail late Monday. Sentencing will be Oct. 26.

Supervisors OK plan for new offices

Clinton's Board of Supervisors Monday approved remodeling of the lower floor of the County Office Building on Maple Street to provide quarters for four county departments now housed in the Courthouse or other locations in St. Johns.

The office building is the former Scott residence, purchased two years ago from Dr. H. L. Oatley. The upper floor is occupied by the staff of the County Board of Education.

Cost of remodeling the lower floor of the structure was estimated at $6,400 by Willard Kriebel of Riley, chairman of the supervisors' buildings and grounds committee.

KREBEL reported that tentative plans call for installing the offices of the Prosecuting Attorney, Zoning department, County Health department and civil defense department in the building.

Moving the offices to the building across the street from the Courthouse would be a temporary expedient he said. Plans are being formulated for additions to the Courthouse which would house these departments in the future.

Board Chairman Charles Coletta asked the Supervisors' finance committee to suggest plans for financing the cost of the proposed Court House additions. The committee is to report at the board's November session.

10-9 vote beats county pensions

By a 10-9 vote, Clinton County's Board of Supervisors vetoed a pension plan Monday that would have provided retirement benefits for an estimated 54 Courthouse officials and county employees.

In voting down the plan, the Supervisors overrode their Salary and Clerk Hire committee which recommended adoption of a pension set-up which was to become effective Jan. 1, 1965.

Estimated annual cost of the plan was $13,932.

It would have provided full retirement benefits for employees and elected officials after 10 years or more of service.

A FULL hour's discussion preceded the Supervisors' vote on the pension proposal and much of it echoed opinions previously expressed by opponents and proponents during consideration of the matter on other occasions.

Those opposed indicated they felt the county has been generous in its pay scale and that taxpayers they represent would not approve payment of pensions in excess of the Social Security levels already provided.

AFTER THE pension proposal was defeated, the Supervisors voted 13-6 to approve a new schedule of salaries for elected officials which boosted pay scales from $500 to $800 annually. The salaries voted will be in effect for the next four years—until Jan. 1, 1969, when terms will expire for those officers elected next Nov. 3.

Salary increases approved were: County Clerk, to $6,700 from $6,200; County Treasurer, to $6,500 from $6,000; Sheriff, to $6,700 from $6,200; Register of Deeds, to $6,000 from $5,400; Drain Commissioner, to $6,000 from $5,200.

A salary of $11,000 for Prosecuting Attorney had previously been set by the board. Also approved was a county contribution of $2,000 annually towards the salary of the Circuit Judge.

W. S. (PAT) LUSK Executive Vice President

Lusk in new bank position

W. S. (Pat) Lusk, veteran of 44 years service in Clinton County banking, has been named executive vice president of the Clinton National Bank & Trust Co., of St. Johns and Elsie.

Announcement of Lusk's promotion was made this week by Lorenz A. Tiedt, chairman of the board, and L. W. Wolf, bank president.

LUSK HAS been a vice president of the Clinton National since the consolidation of the Elsie and St. Johns banks in 1961. At the time of the consolidation he was president of the State Savings Bank of Elsie where he began his banking career in 1921.

As executive vice president of Clinton National, Lusk will continue to divide his time between operations of the St. Johns and Elsie offices of the bank.

200 Ashley folks welcome new plant

Despite a chill wind, rain and air, Friday was a festive day in Ashley. Besides their homecoming, folks watched the groundbreaking for a new steel fabricating plant that may eventually employ more people than there are living in Ashley now.

GILBERT Innes, president of the Paragon Bridge and Steel Co., Inc., of Novi and president of the new Ashley Corp., turned over the first shovel full of dirt. Ashley Village President Wayne Barnes, Max Kent of the Lions Club and Delbert Crumbaugh of the Junior Chamber of Commerce also wielded the shovel.

The homecoming and groundbreaking went hand in hand. A homecoming parade, led by the fire truck and band, circled the business area. It also included floats, queens, marching youngsters.

There were short speeches by officials of the corporation. The invocation at the groundbreaking ceremony was by the Rev. Father Smolinski of St. Cyril Church in Bannister. The elementary school chorus and the Ashley High School band had musical selections, and the benediction was by the Rev. Gordon Overholt of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

AND MOST prominent were signs welcoming the Ashley Corporation to town. Riding in the parade in a convertible with the top down were officials of the new company.

THE $400,000 steel fabricating plant is already under construction. Some 200 persons will be employed initially when the plant opens, hopefully, in February. Eventually 400 to 500 persons are expected to work there.

Gilbert Innes, president of the new Ashley Corporation, prepares to turn over the first shovel-full of dirt at groundbreaking for the new steel fabricating plant Friday. On hand to watch are, left to right, Wayland M. Buckingham, village clerk; Paul Beck, instrumental in getting the plant in Ashley; Wayne Barnes, village president; Innes; John Depodesta, vice president of the Ashley Corp.; M. B. Crooks of the Ann Arbor DT & I railroad; Dr. William Berndt of Ashley who helped make arrangements to get the firm; Arthur Depodesta, executive vice president of the Ashley Corp.; and Barney O'Neill, project superintendent.

Rural Ashley man killed as car hits truck

Lawrence H. Robbenolt, 33, of rural Ashley died early Saturday morning when his car ramed into the rear of a propane tank-trailer truck on US-27 just south of Maple Rapids Road in Greenlush Township.

His death was the eighth on Clinton County roads in 1964. Seven persons were killed in 1963.

MR ROBENNOLT, of 4798 E. Hayes Road, Ashley, was alone in his car and apparently did not see the truck, which turned off Maple Rapids Road onto south-bound US-27.

The car slammed into the back of the truck. State police said there were no skid marks, indicating Mr Robbenolt never attempted to stop.

Driver of the truck was Jack Loveland, 48, of Jackson. He was not hurt.

THE MAPLE Rapids Fire Dept. was called to the accident scene as a precaution. The crash tore up the rear end of the truck, and repairs were made at the scene Saturday.

The accident happened about 2:35 a.m. Both vehicles were traveling south.

FUNERAL services were held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Carter Funeral Home in Elsie, and burial was in Europa Cemetery. The Rev Elmer Dravenstatt of the North Star Nazarene Church officiated.

Mr Robbenolt was born in DeWitt. He was employed as a machine operator at Sealed Power Corp. in St. Johns.

Surviving are his wife, DeLores; two sons, Philip 6 and Thomas 4 and two daughters, Shirley 7 and Susan 2, all at home; his parents, Mr and Mrs Chester A. Robbenolt of Ashley; a brother, Carl of Ashley; and two sisters, Mrs Arlene Kinkead and Mrs Darlene Evans, both of Ashley and Mrs Irene Champion of Belding; and his grandmother, Mrs Mae Morse of Ashley.

Senator asks for Courthouse space

Clinton's Board of Supervisors Monday authorized County Clerk Paul Wakefield to designate a place in the Courthouse where the State Senator elected from the 30th district may meet local constituents from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. on the third Monday of each month.

The privilege was requested by Senator Emil Lockwood of St. Louis. Republican nominee for the 30th district post. Lockwood told the Supervisors that he was sure he or his opponent, whichever is elected, would appreciate the use of Courthouse office space for this brief period each month.

This crushed automobile carried Lawrence H. Robbenolt of rural Ashley to his death early Saturday morning on US-27, six miles north of St. Johns. Robbenolt's car hit the rear of a trailer tank truck about 2:35 a.m.

May act on ordinance to protect local policemen

An ordinance "to promote the public safety and welfare by protecting police officers of the City of St. Johns in the performance of their duties" will get a second reading at the commission meeting Oct. 20.

It was read for the first time last Tuesday. The ordinance would make it a local misdemeanor to resist an officer, assist in an escape, assault an officer, intimidate an officer or incite violations.

MOST of those violations are covered by state law. Harold Reed, city attorney, said the ordinance would give the city attorney power to prosecute any violations as a local misdemeanor in justice court if it was deemed necessary.

The ordinance provides for punishment upon conviction, by a fine not to exceed $100, or imprisonment not over 90 days, or a fine and imprisonment.

Board meets again Friday on budget

Clinton County's Board of Supervisors adjourned their first October session Monday afternoon and will return Friday at 9:30 a.m. to complete their month's business.

Scheduled Friday is final action on equalization and appropriations for the coming year. A tentative budget of $578,219.95 has been worked out. A 5 1/2-mill levy on the county's state equalized value of $105,130,900 would be required to meet the proposed budget.

24 seek Oakland one-way

A one-way street on South Oakland from State Street to Swegles Street was asked in a petition presented to the city commission last Tuesday.

The petition was signed by 24 property owners along Oakland Street. They asked for a three-month trial of the one-way plan.

A PUBLIC hearing will be held at the next commission meeting Oct. 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the Municipal Building.

The petitioners reportedly want one-way traffic south on Oakland. The commission, in talking over the proposal, noted that there would have to be another one-way street running north—probably Mead, in order to keep extra traffic away from the St. Joseph School area.

COMMISSIONER Gerald Irer said he wanted a hearing on the proposal, but he would not make his decision at that time pending an investigation on how a one-way street would fit in with city planning.

Service officer to attend DAV meeting

The Disabled American Veterans of Clinton County will have Casey Homeriga, state field service officer of the DAV, present at its regular meeting Friday at 8:30 p.m. at Ovid Veterans Memorial Building.

Any disabled veteran having any special questions pertaining to veterans benefits will get the answers from Homeriga.

Refer rusty clothes bill for insurance

A citizen's bill of $33.11 for clothes ruined by rust in city water was referred to its insurance company by the St. Johns city commission last week.

The clothes were reportedly ruined when a hydrant flushing stirred up rust in the water. Commissioner Ray Kentfield Jr. suggested residents in the area of a flushing project to be notified so they wouldn't ruin clothes.

City Clerk Jessie Finch suggested the use of oxalic acid—used according to directions—for the removal of rust from white clothes. She said it is available in drug stores.

Car hits house in Fowler

A car hit a house in Fowler last Thursday morning and its driver was ticketed.

It happened this way, according to Deputy Sheriff Hilary Hafner's report: Frank E. Fedewa, 72, of R-2, Fowler, traveling east on M-21, was preparing to make a left-hand turn onto Henderson Street about 6:50 a.m.

A CAR following his pulled out and passed Fedewa on the right. A third car, driven by Dennis H. Fandel, 29, of Westphalia, rammed the rear of Fedewa's when the driver did not see it in time to avoid an accident.

Fandel's car, after colliding with the other, careened across the intersection and hit the house of Retha Winans on the southeast corner.

FANDEL was ticketed for failure to have his vehicle under control.

Fedewa complained of pains following the crash. His wife, Emma, riding with him, reportedly was not hurt.

Clinton Farm Bureau Women host district

District 5 Farm Bureau Women held the fall meeting Oct. 12 at Smith Hall in St. Johns. Roll call showed there were seven from Genesee County, 23 from Eaton County, 12 from Ingham, 29 from Shiawassee and 36 from Clinton, making 107 women present.

The meeting was opened by the Chairman, Mrs Gerald Topliff, followed by community singing led by Mrs Wilbur Brandt with Mrs Lewis Babbitt at the piano.

DEVOTIONS were given by Mrs Robert Reese Sr. Mrs Clarence Mead led the flag salute and Mrs Kenneth Gelsenhaver, Clinton County Chairman, welcomed the group.

The morning speaker was Loren Bishop on "Narcotics and Alcoholism and Lung Cancer Caused by Smoking Cigarettes or Chewing Tobacco." He showed a film on alcoholism and its effect on the human brain, also gave much food for thought about narcotics and their misuse. He showed another film on the introduction of narcotics and withdrawal of a victim. A question period followed.

OK new rack for old truck

Purchase of a flat rack for the old International fire truck was approved by the city commission last Tuesday. The rack will be built in Elste for about $782.

The price includes a hoist which would allow anything carried by the truck to be dumped. It would be used for hauling brush, snow, or similar work.

THE TRUCK itself is in fairly good condition, according to firemen and Rolland Ordway, Department of Public Works director. The pump on the front of the truck will be retained, and a portable tank could be used on the new truck bed if needed, Ordway said.

The rack will have an all-steel bed of 10-gauge steel.

Mrs Maurine Scramlin, State Chairman, conducted the installation of officers: Mrs Crystal Wheaton, District Five chairman; Mrs Romuald Lonier, vice chairman; Mrs Marion Trombley, secretary.

LUNCHEON WAS served by Clinton County Farm Bureau Committee Women.

For the afternoon session, Mrs Robert Reese Jr. sang "How Great Thou Art." The Reese Sisters sang, "This Land is Your Land," and "America The Beautiful." For roll call each county gave a report on its main activities of the year.

A HAT and style show was narrated by Mrs Maurine Scramlin, who modeled a corn hat. Each made her own clever outfit.

A questionnaire on citizenship was conducted.

Miss Solomonson speaks well of Clinton County

A note appended to her approval of the Clinton County proof ballot which bears her name as a candidate for State Board of Education indicates Miss Ellen Solomonson's liking for the Clinton area.

In her message to County Clerk Paul Wakefield, she says, "We like St. Johns. Nice service at gas stations and we often stop at Beck's Fruit Market to buy lots of garden products—free coffee and donuts, too."

Woman's Club sponsored delegates talk

Girls' State delegates from St. Johns, Lorainne Anderson and Molly Sapp, and Interlochen musical scholarship winner, Della Davis, entertained the members and guests of the St. Johns Woman's Club at its first meeting of the club year held in the dining room of the First Congregational Church Wednesday.

The girls expressed their gratitude to the organization which sponsored their attendance. The St. Johns Woman's Club sponsors one girl to Girls' State.

THE GIRLS told that the aim of Girls' State is to make better citizens and to gain knowledge about the state and its government.

Della Davis preceded her talk about Interlochen Music Camp with two piano solos "Crystal Cake" and "Bajo La Mesa" by Jacques Ibert which were played by her. She said her mornings were donated to the study of music, but the afternoons were given over to sports and concerts. The two weeks spent there were both educational and enjoyable, she said.

SANDRA Dersham sang "Climb Every Mountain" from the opera "Sound of Music" with Della Davis as accompanist.

A potluck luncheon preceded the meeting. The luncheon was served under the direction of Mrs. James Spousta and Mrs. John Warstler.

A PRAYER written by former State Federation of Clubs president, the late Mrs. Graham Hunter opened the meeting, and was read by the club president, Mrs. Van Hoag.

A resume of the club program for the ensuing year was given by Mrs. Robert Kelly, a member of the program committee.

THE NEXT meeting will be held at the home of Miss Florence Dexter, 200 Church Street, on Wednesday, Oct. 21, at 2 p.m. Past presidents will be honored and special guest will be the County Federation President Mrs. Elmo Giffels. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Harold Millman.

Supervisors make up County Fair deficit

Clinton's Board of Supervisors voted Monday to make up a $233.74 deficit in 1964 County 4-H Fair funds, after hearing a report on this year's Fair presented by Supervisor George Moore, Duplain, chairman of the board's agriculture committee.

Moore said the Fair costs ran over estimates because of increased premiums paid to the young people participating.

MRS PAUL D. JUNE

Gladioli adorn altar for Rayman-June rites

DeWitt— Two large vases of white gladioli adorned the altar of the First Methodist Church in St. Johns for the double ring ceremony that united Jean Ann Rayman of rural DeWitt, and Paul David June of Bath in marriage. Dr. Howard A. Smith performed the service.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winston Rayman of rural DeWitt. The bridegroom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marshall June.

THE bride chose a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta with re-embroidery and pearl trim fashioned with a portrait neckline outlined with hand-patterned lace. Appliques of lace were scattered over the front of the bell-shaped skirt. A bustle bow centered the back at the waistline and the skirt terminated in a chapel train. A deep scalloped Swedish crown of pearls with a single pearl teardrop in each scallop secured her triple bouffant veil of imported French illusion and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Cheryl Curtis of Laingsburg was maid of honor. Jan Saunders of St. Johns, was bridesmaid. Mary June was junior bridesmaid and Lee Ann Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Shepard of Bath, was flower girl.

THE MAID of honor wore a gown of cranberry taffeta with a matching hat and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The bridesmaids were attired in pink taffeta with matching hats and they carried bouquets of cranberry and white carnations. The flower girl, dressed like the maid of honor, carried a basket of pink rose petals.

Lee Aldrich of Bath served as best man.

DAVID Skiver and Gary Abendroth of Bath were groomsmen. Ray Curtis of Laingsburg was junior best man and Ricky Kill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kill of Lansing, was ring bearer.

MRS DUANE Davis played traditional wedding selections and accompanied Mrs. Robert Sirrine of St. Johns who sang "Because" and "Walk Hand in Hand."

MRS RAYMAN wore a two-piece blue dress with white accessories for the event. Mrs. George Curtis was attired in a metallic blue dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were of pink and white roses.

A reception for 150 guests was held in Niles Hall following the ceremony. Mrs. Archie Barber of Grand Ledge, and Mrs. Richard Kill of Lansing served the wedding cake. Assisting with serving were Miss Diane Bled, Miss Dorothy Pohl and Miss Sandra Rhines of St. Johns.

MRS JAMES Debrabander of St. Johns and Mrs. Terry Rayman of DeWitt opened the gifts and Miss Elaine Curtis of Laingsburg was in charge of the guest book.

Following a honeymoon in northern Michigan, the couple will reside in Bath.

Mrs. June is a 1964 graduate of Rodney B. Wilson High School. Her husband graduated from Bath High School last June.

Two couples note 25 years

The children of Mr and Mrs Lloyd Hopp and Mr and Mrs Clarence Light entertained at the former's rural home on Sunday, Oct. 4 in observance of the couples' 25th wedding anniversary.

Both couples were married in a double wedding ceremony on Oct. 4, 1939 at the Riley Evangelical Lutheran Church by the late Rev. Fred Coellner.

MRS HOPP and Mrs. Light are the former Florence Luecht and Bertha Luecht respectively.

The couples worshipped together at the Riley St. Peter Lutheran Church and later were guests at a family dinner. Both couples received many gifts and remembrances from relatives and friends on this happy occasion.

Guests were from St. Johns, Riley, Lansing, DeWitt, Mount Pleasant and Chicago.

JOANNE MARIE MICKA

Mr and Mrs Tony Micka of Elsie announce the engagement of their daughter, Joanne Marie, to James C. Ebert of Bannister. Miss Micka resides at 508 N. Capitol Avenue in Lansing, where she is employed.

WRC play cards after session

Card playing followed the business session of the Woman's Relief Corps Tuesday afternoon in the Municipal Building. Mrs. Ruth Ely held high score and Mrs. Oliver D. Little, low.

Mrs. Ruby Bishop was the hostess. Mrs. Ely will be hostess for the Oct. 20 meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made of the district convention to be held in Owosso on Oct. 28. Seventeen calls were made on people who were ill, nine get-well cards and fourteen birthday cards were sent.

MR AND MRS ANTHONY KUNTZ

The children of Mr and Mrs Anthony Kuntz will honor them at an open house for friends and neighbors Sunday, Oct. 18, from 2 to 4:30 p.m. at 506 S. Oakland Street. The occasion is the silver anniversary of the couple. It is requested that there be no gifts.

Hospital group to buy TV sets

Proceeds from the annual rummage sale of the Clinton Memorial Hospital Auxiliary to be held Oct. 23 and 24 in the Green Building, will provide more television sets for hospital patient rental. Mrs Timothy Green and Mrs Albert Nelson are chairmen for the event.

The auxiliary has purchased an isotope for use in the nursery and other hospital equipment. Members of the sewing group are making puppets for the children's ward.

Directions for victorious life given for group

Mrs Peter Nieukoop chose as her topic for the first meeting of the Ladies Mission Circle of the First Baptist Church, "How to Live Victoriously in Christ."

The first step in a Christian life, she said, is Miracle Working Faith through Jesus Christ. "We can't live a Christian life without His help," she said. "We have to absolutely surrender to what God wants in our lives and count on God to do his part. If we spend more time in prayer, make time to read His word, and not neglect assembling with God's people we can live a true victorious life."

NEXT MONTH a film on Dr Jenayers' work in Assam, India, will be shown. Contents of dime banks go to help his work this year so members are urged to attend so they can better understand the project.

Kitchen equipment for the Shepards Home for retarded children in Wisconsin will be partially purchased with Betty Crocker coupons.

Mrs Nieukoop suggested to the group that used magazines be sent to missionaries.

DURING THE work meeting, 25 Bible bags were made to be sent to the Navajo Indians in Arizona. Cloth books are also being made for the children.

Mrs Willard Goldman, missionary chairman, reported that every meeting will be concentrated on two or three missionaries to become better acquainted with them.

An arrangement of mums centered the refreshment table. Hostesses were Mrs John Hufnagel and Mrs Nelson Showers.

The Barrones named heads of Radiant Chapter

Mr and Mrs Emmerson Barrone of De Witt were elected worthy patron and worthy matron of Radiant Chapter 79, Order of Eastern Star Wednesday evening.

Other officers for the ensuing year are: associate matron, Mrs John H. Lyon; associate patron, Frank Coykendall; conductress, Mrs John Williams; associate conductress, Mrs Lawrence Kuhns; secretary, Mrs Lysle Steves; and treasurer, Mrs Carl Ludwick.

Open installation was announced for Oct. 31, 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple.

THE CHARTER was draped in memory of Mrs Orth Tatroe of St. Johns, and Anna Burke of St. Louis, Mo.

Worthy Matron Mrs Harold Burke thanked her officers for the past year and presented them with gifts. Refreshments were served in the dining room by Mrs Carl Ludwick and her committee.

Live ghosts will enliven the meeting of Vesper Division

The Vesper Division of the First Congregational Church will meet Tuesday, Oct. 20, at 8 p.m., at the church. The committee, all "live ghosts," includes: Miss Carrie Kellogg and Miss Helen Cressman, Mrs Lawrence Crosby and Mrs Dick DeGroot.

Members are asked to come in costume, if possible, and help add to the "fun night" activities. Prizes will be awarded to the funniest and the most clever winners. The evening is to be an old-fashioned Halloween party. The only thought-provoking part of the evening will be the devotionals, Mrs Russell Welch, speaker. Followed by a short business meeting.

St. Monica's make bandages for leper unit

St. Monica's Catholic Afternoon Guild met Thursday in the social hall of St. Joseph's Catholic School. Twenty-one members were present. Guests were Mrs Paul Jury of Lansing and Mrs Margaret Stewart of DeWitt.

Mrs William Zuker, president, opened the meeting with the recitation of the rosary.

THE GROUP is ordering gauze which will later be made into bandages. These will be sent to the leper colonies through the Catholic Medical Mission Board. Many donations were sent to this organization last year.

Hostess was Mrs William Zuker. Assisting her was Mrs John Baumgartner.

The next meeting will be Nov. 12. Mrs Herman Smith will be hostess and Mrs Ervin Mishler will serve as her co-hostess.

'Amazing' Redwings upset Grand Ledge 19-14

End Al Werbish (84) hauls in a pass for a touchdown in a third quarter at Grand Ledge on an across-the-field pass from Gene Rademacher. Werbish was all alone except for Ron Stanger (22) of Grand Ledge who could only grimace.

Last-minute TD wins for JVs

By GARY BECKER

With the temperature only 40 degrees and in a steady downpour of rain, the St. Johns Redwings Junior Varsity won their fourth straight game of the season Thursday night.

It was a defensive battle for the complete game, with the only touchdown coming in the last 17 seconds. It was Gary Boyce scoring from the 8-yard line to give the Junior Wings a 6-0 victory over Grand Ledge.

THE WINGS couldn't get their offensive rolling, so they were forced to depend on their tough defense to stop Grand Ledge,

Defense shines; record now 4-0

By LOWELL G. RINKER

The St. Johns Redwings continue to amaze their followers. The many persons who watch the team closely and who know the boys aren't surprised at the performance they've put on this season—just amazed.

The job the Redwings did against Grand Ledge last Friday was the most amazing of all, and it put the Redwings in first place in the West Central Conference and jacked them up to 10th place in the AP state Class B football ratings.

THE SCORE Friday night at Grand Ledge's homecoming was 19-14 in favor of St. Johns, in case you hadn't heard. The game was as hard-fought as any high school game could be. It was primarily a defensive battle and the tackling and blocking by both squads was hard and crisp.

Coach Bill Smiley of St. Johns awarded a "star" to each man on his defensive squad for their heartening and outstanding play. They held the high-scoring and hard-running Comets to only 136 yards rushing and 31 yards passing.

GRAND LEDGE'S dangerous duo, speedsters Harold Olds and Zana Easton, played impressively, but they were contained all night by the Redwings defense. The Comets' longest run was for 16 yards and that was by quarterback Mike Dick.

The amazing Redwings, out-classed by size in the line and by speed in the backfield, all but dominated the game. They picked up 17 first downs to Grand Ledge's 11; they had a total net rushing and passing yardage of 313 yards to Grand Ledge's 167.

Gene Rademacher passed 11 times and completed 8 passes; Dick passed eight times and completed only two.

JOHN VITEK carried the ball 16 times for 99 yards, a 6.18-yards-per-carry average; Bill Sirkine carried six times for 30 yards, a 5-yard average; John Sickles ran 12 times for 56 yards, a 4.66-yard average.

By comparison, the Redwings' defense contained the highly touted and talented Olds to 78 net yards on 20 carries, a 3.9-yard average. Zana Easton, another threat, got only 20 net yards on 12 carries, a 1.66-yard average.

Vitek picked up more yardage than Olds and Easton combined. Lee Hill had the most tackles with 11, but Sickles and Jim Pope were in the Grand Ledge backfield all night and had more than their share of tackles.

THE SCORING came in bursts all night Friday. St. Johns drew first blood after getting the ball on a punt on their own 22 yard line.

Quarterback Gene Rademacher passed to Bill Sirkine for a first down, they picked up another on a Grand Ledge penalty, and John Sickles rolled to the left side for a third first down.

WITH THE ball on the Comets' 41, Rademacher hit Lee Hill with a pass on the 35, and Hill ran it to the 15 before being dropped. With a third down play and the ball on the 10 yard line, Rademacher passed to Sirkine for a touchdown.

Dave Hamer's first extra point kick was good, but a penalty nullified it, and Hamer missed the second try.

Trailing 6-0, Grand Ledge, bounced back. They started on their own 41 with a St. Johns on-side kickoff. With Olds and Easton picking up short yardage, and aided by a St. Johns tackling-with-the-face-mask penalty, they picked up four first downs and moved to the three-yard line.

IT TOOK four plays, but Olds finally scored from three yards out. Larry Knapp kicked the extra point to make it 7-6, Grand Ledge. There was no second quarter scoring, and the half ended with that score.

To start the third quarter, St. Johns picked up five first downs and marched 75 yards in 16 plays for their second touchdown. A 15-yard penalty against Grand Ledge for tackling with the face mask helped keep the drive going.

EVERY PLAY was a running play—except the last. With the ball on the Grand Ledge 5, Rademacher rolled to the right, then pitched back to the left to Al Werbish all alone in the end zone for the touchdown. Hamer's kick for Bill Sirkine lunges and escapes grasp of Grand Ledge's Ken Wilcox (25) to pick up some yardage against the Comets Friday night. Grand Ledge's Mike Steinman (23) and Harold Olds (28) move over to make the stop, while Larry Knapp (29) can only follow the play. Other St. Johns players are Bob Krumm (83) and Lee Hill (22).

the extra point was wide, and St. Johns led 12-7.

Grand Ledge got five first downs and scored again on their next set of plays. Despite two 15-yard penalties on one play, Grand Ledge kept the drive alive. It carried to the one-yard line, and Olds dove into the end zone for the touchdown.

KNAPP'S extra-point kick put them ahead 14-12.

Not counted out yet, St. Johns bounced back in the fourth quarter. Taking the Comet kickoff on their own 32, they moved in 10 plays to the Grand Ledge 48.

It was a fourth-down-and-nine-yards-to-go that St. Johns scored. Rademacher faked a running play and passed to Al Werbish on the 40 when Werbish's defense-man was drawn toward the line by the fake.

WERBISH lit out for the end zone and outran Zana Easton, the Comets' sprinter-halfback. Rademacher passed to end Bob Krumm for the extra point, and St. Johns led 19-14.

This happened with 6 1/2 minutes left in the game, and the excitement wasn't over.

Grand Ledge twice on fourth down plays got first downs by inches. Quarterback Mike Dick went into deep pass formation in a desperate attempt to pull the game out.

WITH LEE Hill and Gary Crawley pulling off some sparkling defensive plays, four more of Dick's passes fell incomplete and St. Johns took the ball on downs with 2 1/2 minutes left in the game.

They needed one first down to keep possession of the ball and run out the clock, and Rademacher got it with a third down quick pass to Bob Krumm. St. Johns ran three more plays and watched the clock run out.

A TREMENDOUS number of St. Johns fans were at the game, and many of them stormed onto the field to congratulate the team.

Coach Smiley said later the St. Johns crowd was so big and so vocal, it was just like playing a home game. He gave the fan participation credit for helping win the game. Eight bus loads of St. Johns students made the trip to Grand Ledge.

Game films showed that Grand Ledge clearly fumbled the ball and St. Johns clearly recovered before the whistle on each of the Comets' touchdown drives. The referees said in each case, however, that the whistle had blown before the fumble.

Bob Krumm was given a star for recovering each of them, even though they didn't count.

SMILEY FELT St. Johns could have broken the game wide open in the second quarter when they marched 70-some yards to the Grand Ledge 9. But Harold Olds spoiled that touchdown when he intercepted a Rademacher pass on the two-yard line and ran it back to the 35.

Al Werbish, who caught the two touchdown passes in the second half, did so with only one contact lens in his eyes. He lost the other sometime during the second quarter.

WERBISH WAS also a bear on defense. He had the job of keeping Olds and Easton from getting around his end, and they never did. Each time they tried, he turned the play to the inside, where Redwing linebackers broke up the play.

Lee Hill played the last part of the game with a bad arm. Gary Becker was a thorn in Grand Ledge's side all night, and John Sickles was in the Comets' backfield almost as much as their own players.

Ovid, Elsie collide in week's top game

This is the big week in Clinton area football. Several big games are on tap, including the head-on collision of two of the three leaders in the Central Michigan C League.

The Elsie Big Reds and the Ovid Romans, both 4-0 for the year, will play at 8 p.m. Friday at Elsie. The Portland Red Raiders, also undefeated, will play at DeWitt while keeping their eyes on the game at Elsie.

THE Fowler Eagles will jump back into the fray for the Class D conference championship when

Vestaburg tops Fowler, 26-13

VESTABURG—The Fowler Eagles ran into Vestaburg's homecoming last Friday and came out second best in the football game. Vestaburg won 26-13.

Jon Thelen picked up both Fowler touchdowns. The all-state candidate plunged from the three-yard-line and the one-yard line. Clair Armbrustmacher scored Fowler's extra point on a pass from Thelen.

Vestaburg held a 13-0 halftime lead and led 19-0 before Fowler could tally.

they play at Potterville, last year's runnerup. Potterville, 3-1 for the year, is leading the league. Fowler is 1-3 for the year and 1-0 in conference play.

In the West Central Conference, Grand Ledge, now relegated to third place, will play at Lakewood against the undefeated and one-tied Vikings. Lakewood is tied with St. Johns for the league lead.

THE REDWINGS will host Alma in the homecoming game Friday and will have no easy game in line for them. Halfback Ed Clemence, wearing No. 36, is the big gun for Alma and is a speedster. Two fullbacks on the team are also good runners, and Redwings Coach Bill Smiley expects to see a lot of Alma offense.

They most likely will operate from the shotgun spread offense and also from the single wing and T-formation.

Residential captains for the St. Johns Communities Chest drive met for breakfast at Walker's Cafe

Tuesday and were given their solicitation material. Mrs. Jerry Stone, standing at rear center, is in charge of the residential campaign.

Industry sparks chest drive here

Donations from St. Johns industrial plants are sparking the Clinton County Communities Chest drive toward the contributions goal of $29,000.

Still in its early stages, the drive has already reached the $9,800 mark on the thermometer in front of the Clinton County Courthouse.

SOME figures are in from industrial plants, but they aren't final figures. Federal-Mogul personnel have so far donated $4,400. Sealed Power hourly employees have added $1,395.20, and the executives of the firm have donated $422.80.

Advance Castings and Burton Mixer have achieved over 100 per cent of their goal.

SOLICITATION of school personnel has been completed by Robert LaBrie, and a total of $1,190.90 was donated.

Two other phases of the drive began last week and this week. A luncheon sponsored by Sealed Power last Thursday acquainted out-county chairmen with the material they'll be using as they and their assistants solicit donations in the townships.

Chairmen in the townships are: Mrs. Ray Peck and Mrs. Hubert Hilton, Duplain; Harry Rosekrans, Greenbush; Wayne Cook, Essex; Mrs. Forrest Sloat, Ovid; Mrs. Wilbur Worrall Jr., Bingham; Harold Schmidt and Charles Hennesbaugh, Westphalia; Mark Simon and Roman Koenigskecht, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Witt, Riley; Mrs. Alvin Thelen, Olive; Mrs. Harold Crowley, Victor; and Mrs. Keith Bauerle, DeWitt.

ORGANIZATION plans are still being worked on for Lebanon and Eagle townships.

Residential captains got together for breakfast Tuesday at Walker's Cafe and picked up their solicitation material. They are Messdames Jerry Stone, Richard Tomemacher, George Pierson, Paul Roof, W. F. Stephen-

N. E. EAGLE—Callers of Mr and Mrs D. C. Allen were Rev William Torrey, Mr and Mrs Charles Gillette and daughter of Florida, Mr and Mrs Edward Gerke of Lansing, Mrs Ivy Greenfield and Mrs Sylvia Morris.

Callers were several relatives and friends who came to remind them of their 64th wedding anniversary which occurred Oct. 7. Mr and Mrs Vernon Fairchild of Shepherd called on Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Harold Becker spent the weekend with Mr and Mrs Ralph Burrow of Midland.

Mr and Mrs William Becker entertained Mr and Mrs Fred Black and daughter for dinner Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Andrew Kempf spent Sunday in the Bert Barker home.

The publishing business began to expand in this country shortly after the Revolutionary War.

When newlyweds feather their nests today, usually four parents have been plucked.

Betsy Hufnagel will reign over St. Johns homecoming

Queen Betsy Hufnagel will reign over Homecoming Week festivities at St. Johns' Rodney B. Wilson High School this week.

She and her court will ride in a parade Friday evening and will be introduced at halftime of the St. Johns-Alma football game.

MOST of the homecoming festivities will take place Friday. The high school band will lead a parade up Clinton Avenue at 7 p.m. Also in the parade will be the senior class float, carrying the queen and her court, and automobiles carrying the girl representatives of the junior, sophomore and freshmen classes.

Queen Betsy is a senior at St. Johns High and is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Albert Hufnagel of East Walker Road.

HER COURT includes Cathy Salters, Janice Eldridge, Kay Hendershot and Debbie Wirick, all seniors. Other class representatives are Marie Rademacher, junior class; Marilyn Motz,

The parade will proceed to the city park athletic field for the football game after its downtown performance. There at halftime the band will put on a show, and the queen and other girls will be introduced to the crowd.

THE BAND, under the baton of Director Walter Cole, will have both pre-game and halftime shows. Some 111 band members will take part in the pre-game part and 91 in the halftime show.

The pre-game performance will consist of a fanfare, playing of "Football Hero," fight songs of St. Johns and Alma, the St. Johns alma mater, the Michigan State University fight song and the Star Spangled Banner.

THE BAND will form a tunnel for the team to run through when it comes out on the field.

At halftime, the band will play a fanfare introducing twirlers Kathy Howe and Beth Kuripka and Drum Major Kurt Acton.

As its salute to Homecoming Week, the band will do a drill and dance routine "A Lot of Living to Do" to the song "Hello Dolly." A concert number, "Prelude in C Minor," will feature the drum section to conclude the show.

FOLLOWING the football game a homecoming record dance will be held in the high school gym until 11:45 p.m.

Theme of the homecoming this year is "Coronation Ball," and the senior float and the gymnasium decoration will be on this subject.

Although most of the homecoming week activity will be Friday, a snake dance and pep rally will be held tonight (Thursday). It will be sponsored by the junior class. Starting from the high school, students will "snake" their way to the city park where they will have a large bonfire and hold a pep rally.

SENIOR COMMITTEES working on homecoming arrangements include these students: Float committee, Jim Kronkhitte, (chairman), Dennis Becker and Kathy Salters; Gym decorations, Janice Eldridge (chairman), Mary Witt and Betsy Eaton; Automobiles and driver, Tom Knight; Parade setup, Lorraine Anderson; and halftime program, Charles Huntington.

Teacher Robert White, chairman of the nine senior class advisors, said the students have done all the work on homecoming plans. Automobiles for the parade and halftime show will be furnished by St. Johns auto dealers.

The parade route Friday will be over Clinton Avenue, State Street and South Morton Street to the park.

The crown for Queen Betsy will be furnished by Jeri Toben.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs C. S. Goodrich with Mrs Zella Brewbaker as co-hostess.

Mrs Bahns provided materials and tube paints for each member to make her own sample to display. Mrs Manley Engestrom drew the mystery prize.

THE LESSON was preceded by a potluck luncheon. Mrs Leafy Garrett of Milford, a former Elsie resident for many years, was a special guest.

Mrs Ann Pray directed the business meeting when arrangements were made for the Christmas worship to be held Nov. 10 at Smith Hall in St. Johns. The annual Christmas party and other future activities were also planned. The Nov. 11 meeting is scheduled at the home of Mrs J.O. Schumacher when the program will be "The First Thanksgiving."

4 moves highlight week for Ecumenical Council

By THE MOST REV JOSEPH GREEN

When the history of this Third Session of the Council is written, it will probably say that the week of Sept. 21 was one of the most significant weeks of the entire council. Many important things happened that week. But there were four events which were most significant.

In his opening address to the Council, Pope Paul had challenged the Bishops to complete the work begun at the First Vatican Council and to decide the nature and extent of the powers of the Episcopacy. He said the decision on this matter would be one of the most important of the entire Council.

THE BISHOPS answered the Holy Father's challenge on September 22, by approving by large majorities the several sections of the Schema on "The Church" which dealt with the nature and power of the Episcopacy. The most widely discussed aspect of this problem was that of the Collegiality of the Bishops. This was not a question about the authority of the Bishops in their own Dioceses. Their authority there is supreme. Rather, Collegiality answers the question as to "What is the authority of the Bishop in or over the Universal Church—that is, the People of God outside the confines of his own Diocese?"

This is the second of a series of articles by Bishop Green from St. Johns, written in Rome where he is attending the Ecumenical Council session.

BY APPROVING the concept of Collegiality the Bishops have declared that just as St. Peter and the other Apostles constitute one Apostolic College, in the same way the Roman Pontiff and the Bishops are joined together.

It is important, however, to understand that the College of Bishops has no authority except as acting together with the Roman Pontiff in matters pertaining to the Universal Church. And, also, that the Roman Pontiff, as Vicar of Christ and Shepherd over the whole Church, has full, supreme and universal power over the Church and this he can always exercise freely and even independently of the College of Bishops.

BECAUSE OF the approval of Collegiality the supreme authority over the whole Church which the College of Bishops possesses can be exercised in several ways. First, in a General Council. Second by responding to the call of the Pope when he summons the Bishops, apart from a General Council, to act on specific matters. Third, when the Holy Father either approves or freely accepts the united action of the Bishops so that it is thereby made a collegiate act.

The significance of the approval of Collegiality is profound. It has decided, formally and finally, a question which has been studied and debated for centuries. It expands the scope, interest and responsibility of the Bishops beyond the limited confines of their Dioceses. This in turn, cannot help but have consequences which will be immensely beneficial to the entire Church. For now, definitely, the Bishops know not only what is the nature of their Episcopacy; they know, too, the scope and extent of its power and responsibility. With the Supreme Pontiff they have a more intimate and personal anxiety for "the care of all the Churches."

THE SECOND event of significance during this week was the simple ceremony surrounding the return of the Head of St. Andrew the Apostle to the Orthodox Church.

On Wednesday, the 23rd, Pope Paul entered the Basilica in an informal procession carrying the Reliquary. He placed it upon a small altar. The usual Low Mass was said. The Sacred Relic was then venerated for the last time in St. Peter's Basilica. It was removed to the Church of St. Andrea della Valle where it remained until Saturday. Then a special Commission headed by Cardinal Bea returned it to Patras, Greece. It was received there by the Orthodox Patriarch in a brilliant and moving ceremony. After almost 500 years it had come home.

THIS WAS significant for it was a gesture of deep meaning which brought great joy to the Orthodox Christians. The Holy Father's decision to return this Sacred Relic to the Orthodox Church will have an immense impact on the Ecumenical Movement. It was in so many ways such a simple gesture; only time will reveal its good and profound consequences.

The third event of special significance this week was the discussion on the Declaration on Religious Liberty. The American Bishops spearheaded a campaign to strengthen the wording of the Declaration which, unfortunately, had been considerably weakened in the revised draft. Cardinals Cushing, Meyer and Ritter led a group of American Bishops in demanding that the Declaration be further revised and strengthened. The leadership manifested by the American Hierarchy in this problem received wide acclaim—and, undoubtedly, encouraged many other Prelates from several countries of the world to speak out in equally forceful terms.

THE ACTION of the American Bishops was significant for the entire world was waiting and watching to see how we would rise to the challenge to have this Council come to grips with one of the most difficult problems facing mankind today—the problem of religious liberty and freedom of conscience.

We have been the beneficiaries of a system of government and a Constitution which guarantees religious liberty. All the world knew we could speak from personal experience on this problem. And through a representative group of American Prelates the American Hierarchy spoke clearly and, I think, convincingly.

THE FOURTH significant event of this week was associated with the discussion on Religious Liberty. It occurred on Friday, the 25th. It was the unexpected request by the Moderator, Cardinal Suenens, to invoke cloture to close discussion on the topic. Many of us felt the vote was somewhat premature, that the topic had not been sufficiently discussed.

The vote caught many of the Council Fathers by surprise. We were not concerned only because all of the American Bishops had not, as yet, spoken on the subject. We were concerned because we felt that the topic merited more than the two day's debate it had received. But the vote to close debate passed.

PERSONALLY, I think it was significant for it pointed up the answer to the question which has been plaguing all of us since the Session began. The question is: When will the Session end?

As I said in last week's article, the pace of this Session far exceeds that of the first two Sessions. It has been so much faster that we could not help but suspect that, possibly, the main work of the Council will be finished this Session. The vote for cloture on Friday, Sept. 25, was, I think the answer to this question.

BECAUSE OF this vote I think it is the determination, if not the plan, to finish the discussion of the various Schemata this Session. It will probably not be possible to finish all the voting on the various Schemata. This will probably have to come at a later and more brief Session. But, for me, Friday, Sept. 25, was a significant day and the vote of cloture a significant event.

I probably will not be around to read the official history of this Session of the Council. But when it is written, I think it will say—for the reasons I have given in this article—that the week of Sept. 21, was one of the most significant weeks of this Session.

New hours in effect at city hall

New hours are now in effect in the operation of city offices.

The offices in the Municipal Building will be closed Saturdays, except when required by law to be open for voter registration and payment of taxes.

During the weekdays, the offices will open at 8 a.m. instead of 9 a.m. They'll close at 5 p.m.

VERY LITTLE counter business is done Saturday mornings when the offices have been open from 9 a.m. to noon. City Manager Ken Greer said it was felt the time could be utilized better during the weekdays.

Some adjustment in work schedules for the police radio operators will be made. Personnel in the clerk's and treasurer's offices had handled fire calls on Saturday mornings. In their absence, someone else will be on duty.

October notes for stargazers

Here are some items for the star-gazer's October notebook:

—The length of the day will drop from slightly less than 12 hours at the beginning of the month to about 10 hours and 20 minutes at the end, according to University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

—Saturn and Jupiter are well placed for observation during the month. At dark, Saturn may be seen above the southeastern horizon with no other bright objects in its immediate vicinity. Jupiter rises shortly after sunset and dominates the night sky.

—THE HUNTER'S Moon will appear Oct. 20. This full moon is the first full moon following the Harvest Moon of September and is a great boon for hunters. Like the Harvest Moon, the Hunter's rises at about the same hour for several nights in succession, furnishing plenty of moonlight throughout the whole night.

—A meteor shower, the Orionids, will occur around Oct. 22. It is likely to be scanty shower with only a small number of shooting stars appearing.

Automotive sales highest in August

MRS ANTHONY J. FATURA

Kathleen M. Seibert is now Mrs. Fatura

Miss Kathleen Mary Seibert of Lansing became the bride of Anthony John Fatura of Pontiac, Saturday at 11 a.m. in St. Cyril's Church in Bannister.

Rev Clarence Smolinski performed the double ring service before an altar adorned with autumn bouquets.

The bride is a daughter of Mr and Mrs Albert M. Seibert of 1007 Church Street, St. Johns. The bridegroom's parents are Mr and Mrs Tony Fatura of Bannister.

THE BRIDE chose a gown of silk taffeta with Chantilly lace motifs and seed pearls and sequins trimming the neckline and the edge of the bell skirt which terminated in a Watteau train bandied with Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses with white carnations and ivy.

Mrs Robert Nellis of Owosso served as matron of honor. Miss Barbara Nitecki of Lansing and Miss Rosemary Fatura of Bannister were bridesmaids.

THEY wore floor length gowns of rose taffeta with matching veils and headdresses trimmed with seed pearls and they carried bouquets of pink and white flowers.

Fred Fatura of Bannister was his brother's best man. James Zelma and Carl Peck of Elsie and David Seibert of St. Johns, were groomsmen. Daniel Seibert of St. Johns, and Kenneth Davis of Elsie, seated the guests.

MRS SEIBERT chose a gown of pale autumn rose with brown accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs Fatura wore a gown of blended shades of green and matching accessories. Their corsages were of deep pink roses.

New Names in the News

Mr and Mrs Maurice Dersham of 1021 1/2 Washtenaw Avenue are parents of a daughter who was born Oct. 9 at St. Lawrence Hospital and weighed 7 pounds, 7 ounces. Her mother is the former Gwen Motz of Fowler.

Mr and Mrs Michael W. Ives of Oceanside, Calif., are parents of a son who was born Oct. 5 weighing 7 pounds, 8 ounces. His mother is the former Lynda Johnson of Charlotte and his father is the son of Mr and Mrs Eric W. Ives of Lansing.

Born to Mr and Mrs Dale Henry of Charleston, S. C., a girl on Wednesday, Sept. 30, weighing 6 pounds, 14 1/2 ounces. She has been named Denise Marie. The parents are formerly of St. Johns. He is the son of Mr and Mrs Donald Henry and she, the former Jacqueline Kay Cornell, daughter of Mr and Mrs Arthur Cornell.

Plans completed for the annual church fair

The annual fair and turkey dinner of the St. Johns First Congregational Church, scheduled for Oct. 29 is all set. Everyone associated with the church has some part in making the affair a successful one.

"The Candy Kids," Mrs Joseph Spouta and Mrs Forrest Swatman, have had their committee going for weeks! The old-fashioned hard candy is a secret recipe and to date, 65 pounds are ready to sell.

MRS DORR Anderson, chairman of the "Olde Cape Cod Art Colony," has completed her plans for the "Clothes Line Art Display." Mrs Anderson reports that local artists will sell the pictures displayed.

Pretty and perky "Priscilla Aldens" and handsome "John Smiths" will serve at the turkey dinner. Mrs John Spouta, chairman of the dining room, has already signed up 33 "Pilgrims."

Mrs Roy F. Ryan, dressed in Indian costume, will be in her teepee to tell fortunes. She predicts the future with twigs, a secret known only to her and her Mayflower ancestors!

"LIFTER-UPPERS" are to be on sale, huge catalogs covered in gay, durable materials. These aid the tiny tots to be at the table and "rise" to the occasion.

The hours for serving dinners are 5:00, 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. Mrs Charles Dickinson is ticket chairman. The dinner staff is headed by Mrs Cecil Boak, Mrs Russell Steffens, Mrs Lawrence Crosby and Mrs Jake Wabeke. All husbands will assist or be "burned at the stake."

Mrs Foust gives program for circle

Mrs Martha Foust presented the program and Mrs Horace Howell conducted the devotions at the meeting of the Esther Circle of the First Methodist Church Oct. 6, at the home of Mrs Marvin Bissell.

Mrs Charles Hazle conducted the business session before nine members and a guest, Mrs Joseph Hallenbeck.

A dessert course was served by Mrs Hazle and Mrs Bissell.

Clinton County cited by Cancer Society

Miss Hazel Williams, chairman of Volunteer Activities in Clinton County for 16 years, was guest speaker at the annual convention of the American Cancer Society, Michigan Division Inc., at the Civic Center in Lansing, Oct. 7 and 8.

She discussed her county organizational set-up which has won national acclaim and made other suggestions.

SPECIAL recognition was given to two volunteer workers. Mrs James Postlethwaite, Clinton County chairman of the service committee, and the late Mrs Orth (Helen) Tatroe, were cited with gold pins for 10 years and more of outstanding merit.

One million dollars were presented to six doctors, grants were

First Nighters' play soon in rehearsal

The First Nighters theater group's first production, "See How They Run," will go into rehearsal shortly under the direction of Doris Cramer, assisted by Hyla Bross.

The play will be presented early next year.

Several matters pertaining to the play were discussed at the group's regular monthly meeting last Monday night at the Drop-In Center.

THE SOCIAL part of the meeting was conducted by Mrs Dorothy Makl and consisted of a series of skits taken from various Broadway plays with the membership reading and acting out the parts.

Anyone wishing to join the First Nighters may do so by contacting any present member or attending the group's next meeting Nov. 2.

They Celebrated 30th Anniversary

Mr and Mrs George V. Baker of Bath were honored on their thirtieth wedding anniversary Sunday by more than 100 friends and relatives at an open house at their home. The event was planned by their only son, Arthur Baker, and Mrs Baker. Assisting with serving were Mrs Henry Miller, Mrs Vern Barret, Mrs Gaylord Foote, Mrs Joyce Rost and Miss Linda Beagle.

Glenn Davises greet 350 at anniversary

Three hundred and fifty relatives and friends were guests of the family of Mr and Mrs Glenn Davis at the Bingham EUB Church Sunday when their children honored their parents on their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

During the morning worship service at 10:30 a.m. they were given recognition for their years of service in the church. As a special surprise their son-in-law Rev L. Wayne Smith of Rensselaer, Ind., was introduced as the speaker. He brought an appropriate message.

AT THE OPEN house in the afternoon, those serving from two o'clock to four o'clock were Mrs J. O. Gower of Eureka, Mrs C. H. Fuerstenau of DeWitt, Mrs Albert Gillison and Mrs Edith Ormes of St. Johns, Mrs Lloyd Young, Mrs Carl Brown and Mrs Foster Williams of rural St. Johns.

Mrs Mable Sherman of Lansing, who attended the bride 50 years ago, had charge of the guest book.

A SHORT program, held in the church sanctuary, included a piano and organ number by Rev Smith and daughter, Mrs John Geisler of Toledo, Ohio; a trombone solo, "I Love You Truly" by Roger Davis, accompanied at the piano by Miss Cynthia Davis. Diane Davis played a piano solo, and Mrs L. Wayne Smith gave an appropriate reading, "By the One who is 49."

A number especially appreciated was the original duet by Mrs Glenn Pearson and Mrs Clyde Pearson, sung to the tune of "When You and I Were Young Maggie."

MR AND Mrs Davis gave short readings, which were followed by the reading of the thirteenth chapter of I Corinthians by Rev Marshall W. Hoyt, of Flint, who officiated at the marriage ceremony 50 years ago. The program was concluded with prayer by Rev Norman Crotsler.

Serving at the refreshment table the remainder of the afternoon were Mrs Lysle Steves of St. Johns, Mrs Warren Coffman, Mrs Russell Morrison, Mrs Muriel Havens, Mrs Donald Pope and Mrs Lawrence Yallup of rural St. Johns, Mrs Clyde Pearson and Mrs Glenn Pearson of rural DeWitt.

Mr and Mrs Jack Cornell and family, and Mr and Mrs James Cornell and family served a noon dinner to the family at the church.

MRS LYLE Fenner was in charge of all the floral arrangements.

Guests came from many points in Michigan, besides Toledo, Ohio, Rensselaer and Orland, Ind., Jamestown, New York and Carlsbad, Calif.

NEW IDEA CORN PICKERS

for non-stop picking on either standard or narrow rows. Take your choice of 2-row pull units for big capacity, non-stop picking — standard rows — narrow rows — interchangeable husking beds and cage-type sheller!

That's right. Now you can select a 2-row gathering unit for corn planted in standard rows (36" to 44"), or narrow rows (28" to 36"). To either of these you can add a husking unit or cage-type shelling unit, or interchange the two right on the farm, without special tools. You can harvest "100-plus" yields without stopping.

• New high angled snapping rolls with patented snap bars keep you moving.

• High speed, low angle first elevator with wide, cupped flights moves ears away from the snapping rolls in a hurry.

• The high capacity husking unit delivers clean ears to your wagon and saves shelled corn.

• New Idea's cage-type sheller produces clean, whole kernels.

• Daily lubrication takes only 15 minutes.

• Each of these machines carries New Idea's written full year guarantee.

'Mid much fun, Amica Club plans many events

MAPLE RAPIDS—A most colorful and amusing group gathered in the home of Mrs Mervyn Underwood for the meeting of Amica Club on Oct. 8.

A dancer stepped from the pages of Arabian Nights (Mrs Wilbur Bancroft) to preside over the meeting. Granny (Mrs Albert Abshagen) left the Beverly Hill-billies long enough to assume the secretarial responsibilities . . . of course she brought her jug of "rhumatiz medicine."

THERE was much laughter and fun as plans were made to spend the weekend of Oct. 23 as guests of Mr and Mrs Spencer Moss at their Lakeview Resort near Houghton.

The "rag-mop-dolly" (Mrs Richard Andrews) was appointed chairman of the menu committee for the weekend to be assisted by Mrs Raymond Rumsey (absent) and "Pedro from south of the border" (Mrs Charles Stead).

THE LAUGHING time turned to a more serious note as committees were appointed to begin plans for the annual March of Dimes dance. The Amica Club has given a dance for this benefit every year but one since 1935. The one year was devoted to the efforts of a local benefit.

Batwoman (Mrs Ronald Dean) was appointed the responsibility of reserving the school gymnasium for the dance; a quiet little Japanese girl (Mrs Nelson Rumsey) was appointed chairman of the dance band committee to be assisted by Mrs Lyle Chick (absent) and a cute little hobo on strike for a new outfit (Mrs Steven Bancroft).

MRS PHYLLIS Archer-Horr Moss appeared as the elderly lady of the gardens accompanied by her two gardeners, Mrs Louise Camp and Mrs Bernetha Wethy.

Maple Rapids PTA plans penny supper, carnival

MAPLE RAPIDS—The Maple Rapids PTA of Fulton Township Schools will sponsor a Penny Supper and Carnival Oct. 17 at the Congregational Christian Church in Maple Rapids.

Events will start at 5:30 p.m. The menu for the supper includes ham loaf with applesauce, scalloped potatoes, baked beans, brown bread, barbecue, potato salad, cole slaw, pie, coffee and milk.

THERE will be booths at the carnival, including a fish pond, dart game, jell, bean bag throw, popcorn and pop stand, wheel of fortune, spook house and white elephant and miscellaneous booths.

The carnival will begin at 5:30 p.m. and will be held in the Maple Rapids gym.

DONATIONS of candy or miscellaneous white elephant booth items can be made to Mrs Clare Swanson or Mrs Gaylord Cook.

Methodist women complete fair plans

MAPLE RAPIDS—There were 12 members and 3 guests present at the meeting of the WSCS at the home of Mrs Gerald Winsor.

During the business meeting, which opened with prayer by Mrs Fred Larkin, final plans were announced for the annual fair and bazaar to be held in the church on Thursday, Oct. 15. The booths will be open at 4 p.m. and the dinner, featuring turkey will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

THE MEMBERS voted to purchase three dozen dish towels and two dozen cups for the church kitchen.

Mrs Kenneth Winsor was appointed secretary of spiritual life, replacing Mrs Nellie Bie-master.

The Day of Prayer and Self Denial was set for Oct. 28 at 1:30 p.m. at the church.

Plan penny supper

MAPLE RAPIDS—The Maple Rapids Parent Teacher Association will hold a penny supper and carnival Saturday, Oct. 17, at the Christian Congregational Church. Serving will begin at 5:30 p.m.

"PEDRO from south of the border" disappeared just long enough to become "Mattilda Hunklebrier" from the "highest ridge of the mountains blue." Mattilda gave a cleverly amusing reading of her own origination.

The warmth and friendliness of "Daisy Mae's" hospitality made everyone welcome in the Underwood home.

Thanks to Mrs Mattilda Hunklebrier the Team Two group now rate 1,376 1/2 points; Team One boasts 652.

Next meeting will be with Mrs George Thompson on Nov. 5.

Fowler couple notes 50 years at Maple Rapids

MAPLE RAPIDS—The Congregational Christian Church parlors were decorated in white and gold in honor of Mr and Mrs Edward McCloy of Fowler, for their golden wedding anniversary celebration.

Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Jack McCloy of Ithaca were hosts for the reception attended by over 130 guests from Elkhart, Ind., Brown City, Battle Creek, Carson City, Perrinton, Ionia, Flint, Grand Ledge and Fowler.

A LARGE wedding cake and gold mums centered the refreshment table. Smaller tables were decorated in the gold theme. The couple was married Oct. 3, 1914 in St. Johns and have spent all of their married lives in Maple Rapids and Fowler.

Dr Norma Eleson left Tuesday for Tell City, Ind., accompanied by Mrs Cora Parr, to spend a week with the former's son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs George Wanhaw and family. Mrs Parr will stay with her daughter, Miss Theo Parr.

Mrs Lyle Snyder is in Carson City Hospital for surgery. Mr and Mrs Ervin Upham and Mrs George Willoughby spent the weekend at Chippewa Lake, at the Upham cottage which they closed for the winter.

Mrs Phyllis Moss attended the wedding of Miss Rose Ann Forte and Robert L. Carlans at the St. Casimir Church in Lansing, on Saturday, Oct. 10.

Many of Rheubottom attend nuptial rites

RHEUBOTTOM— Many neighbors in the Rheubottom district attended the wedding of Miss Jean Rayman to Paul June in St. Johns last Saturday.

Those attending were Mr and Mrs Clarence Keck and family, Mr and Mrs Loyal Weismiller, Mr and Mrs Henry Repphun, Mrs Virgil Richardson, Mr and Mrs Glenn Stevens, Mrs Louis Rayman, Mr and Mrs David Conklin and family, and Mr and Mrs Allan Boron.

Mr and Mrs Louis Boron and David visited Mr and Mrs Paul Clark and their family in Harrison on Sunday. Mrs Boron and Mrs Clark were reunited after not seeing each other for 26 years.

Mrs Louis Rayman was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr and Mrs Gale Boron.

Mr and Mrs Boyd Churchill of East Lansing were Sunday afternoon and evening guests of Mr and Mrs Gale Boron.

Mr and Mrs Dan Beck and family of rural St. Johns were Sunday evening callers at the home of Mr and Mrs Gale Boron.

Sunday afternoon guests of Mr and Mrs Allan Boron were Mr and Mrs James Baker and family of rural Howell.

We're apprehensive about proposed ballot change

We can't get all stirred up about the so-called Massachusetts ballot that Michigan voters will be asked to decide upon in the one state proposition to be presented to them at the Nov. 3 election.

Republicans in the state legislature originally approved a law providing for this Massachusetts-type ballot which requires a voter to put an X beside the name of each candidate and would eliminate "straight ticket" voting with a big X in the circle at the head of a party ticket. Gov. Romney signed the bill into law.

Democrats, depending upon straight votes in the metropolitan area, didn't like the idea of the new ballot. They got out with petitions and collected enough signatures to put the issue on the ballot Nov. 3. This prevents use of the new voting procedure this year and gives the people of the state an opportunity to express their choice.

WE'VE WATCHED the progress of ballot changes in Michigan long enough to be apprehensive about them. From a purely political standpoint, we've seen them backfire on Republicans on a couple of occasions. Party situations and party strength change from time to time and what appeared good on one occasion is bad on another.

It seems to us that both parties base their positions on the ballot proposal on bum reasoning. They both assume that the voter lacks the intelligence to separate candidates from party labels.

Experience has shown that this is a false assumption. Soapy Williams won easily while Michigan gave majorities to Eisenhower. And enough Democrats split tickets two years ago to elect Romney while other GOP state candidates went down to defeat.

WE SEE NOTHING seriously wrong with permitting a "straight" vote. It speeds up the balloting, aids in counting and reduces the opportunity for voter error. Whether they mark one X or a dozen, we think most voters read the names of all the candidates.

Additionally, we should keep in mind the "straight" party line vote is pretty basic to our whole political system in this country. It is the backbone of party strength. When we lose party faithfuls we're asking for trouble.

Let's leave the ballot alone. The final count may not suit you from a partisan standpoint, but the system has worked pretty well down through the years. Over the long pull, the party which concentrates on quality among its candidates will come out on top.

A dedicated woman who set example for others

If ever a person literally worked herself to death in the service of others it was Mrs. H. O. (Helen) Tatroe who succumbed to a sudden heart attack last week.

Over the past several years, Helen had devoted countless hours of her time to the organization and promotion of the Clinton County Senior Citizens group. Her efforts were recognized by both state and national workers in the field and the Clinton County set-up established a pattern which others have tried to follow.

HELEN WAS A dedicated woman who let nothing interfere with her service to the aging. She was returning to her home from a chore at the Senior Citizens' Drop-In Center late on the Sunday afternoon when she suffered her fatal attack.

At 55, she was too young to be taken from us. But the example of unselfish service she set should be an inspiration to others who find an outlet for their energies in civic responsibilities.

RAMBLIN' with Rink

BY LOWELL G. RINKER

The art of weather predicting has always held a certain fascination to me. I envy the people who can sit down before charts of isobars and look at thermobarographs and check wind patterns and look at the sky and tell us what the weather is going to be.

Maybe I envy them because I can't do what they can. I make halfhearted tries, using my thermometer and barometer. The only consolation I have is that it doesn't work most of the time that the forecasters forecasts don't work.

I AM WRONG most of the time I predict weather, and so this week, by popular demand of a few of my readers, we bring you this factual report.

Old ramblin Rink missed by exactly three weeks and four days the date of the first snowfall in St. Johns.

I must admit that, while I've never hit the exact day on the button, this year's prediction was the farthest in error of any in the three years I have provided this snow predicting service.

THIS IS undoubtedly due to the fact that it is the first year in eight years that I've been in Michigan at the start of winter. It will take me a few years to warm up to the proper first-snow date.

There was no doubt last Wednesday afternoon that it snowed. It did so long enough and hard enough so no one who was not asleep could miss it.

And it produced various reactions from various persons. Some people sighed and accepted the fact; others claimed the snowfall was pretty. Some reminded Ramblin Rink of his erroneous prediction of Oct. 31. Ramblin Rink silently mumbled to himself.

FOUR BLOCKS away at home, my daughter Kathy had those encouraging remarks: "I want to go outdoors and make a snowman. Get my boots on, Mom."

I am just a little fearful that the snowfall did really signal the start of winter and that we've already had our Indian summer. And this leads me to think we'll have a long and fairly hard winter. (With my record at predicting what it is, just the opposite should come about and I'll be a hero. If my prediction comes true, I shall finally have "arrived" as a forecaster.)

Contracts for digging the Chandler drain were let at the old Chandler home in DeWitt yesterday. It is almost exactly 10 miles long, and the excavating was let to James W. Sanderson at $6.20 per rod for the whole 10 miles. The cost for digging will amount to about $20,000.

Dogs attacked a flock of sheep on the farm of Joseph Bower, three-fourths of a mile west of the fair grounds last Thursday night, killing two immediately. Seven died later and 30 are badly wounded.

While throwing hay from the mow last Tuesday evening, the hired man fell, breaking the lantern which started a blaze resulting in the loss of the barn and contents belonging to Frank Doty of Greenbush. The barn was insured for $150 and the contents for $650.

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY

St. Johns' unique restaurateur

IF A FONDNESS for reminiscence is a sign of advancing years, I'm getting there. The death of Clarence Strauser of St. Johns this past week brought back a flood of memories of my earlier days in this city.

I first came to town in early 1945, during the final months of World War II. My family stayed behind in our former home until the school term ended and we could find suitable living quarters here.

I lived up in a corner room on the second floor of the Steel Hotel, then operated by the late Al Hafner. My meals were eaten at Strauser's Restaurant, then located on the east side of the center block of Clinton Avenue.

CLARENCE WAS the proprietor, major-domo, cashier and waiter at the restaurant. His father, Joe, who has since passed away, used to be around some to visit with the customers. His wife, Hazel, supervised the kitchen and did much of the cooking.

The food was good, plain and reasonably priced. Depending upon how he felt, Clarence could be the kindest or the grumpiest of waiters.

He had some idiosyncracies. Salads, he thought were for rabbits. He didn't offer 'em on the verbal bill of fare. If you ordered one, he curled his lip a little, slipped off his apron and went across the street to the then Kroger Store for a bit of lettuce, a tomato or whatever seemed necessary.

He also rebelled at the idea of a dash of lemon with fish. When fish was on the menu, one of us lemon devotees would stop off at John DeRose's next door, buy a lemon and split it among those who wanted a sprinkle or two of lemon juice on the perch.

WITHOUT much question, Strauser's buckwheat cakes were the best I ever ate. They started the batter early in the fall and kept it at just the right stage of ferment all winter.

There were other specialties you learned about through experience. The hash was extra special, short ribs of beef were always good and the pastry was generally home-made and excellent.

Clarence never explained the absence of French fries from their menu. I suppose he wanted to avoid so much hot grease in the kitchen. He only served them once to my knowledge and that was with a steak they prepared for Barbara and me the evening of the day we moved our furniture to St. Johns.

"Come down at 7," Clarence told me on the 'phone earlier that day. "I've got a surprise for you two." It was one of the best meals we ever ate. There was salad, too. And it was on the house.

IF YOU WANTED to be reasonably comfortable, you didn't complain about anything at Strauser's. You might make a suggestion, but any hint of criticism was answered quickly and sharply in kind.

"If you don't like it, why don't you go home and eat?" Clarence was likely to say. Most people kept the peace, but not Bud Kirvan, our former associate editor who had a low boiling point and was sometimes a little fussy about his food. Clarence gave him the "go home" routine one noon. Bud stalked out and never returned to my knowledge.

That was in the days before mid-morning "coffee breaks" and noon was a gathering time for conversation among men along the street. At lunch, the long table at the back of Strauser's accommodated as many as 20 people. Sometimes there was a spirited cribbage game at one end of the table with the late Joe Matthews and Pete Smith, former elevator and groceryman, as frequent participants.

OTHER "REGULARS" at the long table included Claude Maxwell, of Glaspie's Drug Store; Charlie Fowler, the hardware man; Tom Corkin, banker; Sky Marshall, former publisher; Clarence and Dempsey Ebert, funeral directors; Ken Munger, plumber; Lester Lake, jeweler.

Joining the group from time to time were Drs. Charlie Symmonds, A. C. Henthorn, W. B. McWilliams, and R. E. Benson; Dorr Anderson, grocer; Al Dean, hardware operator; Jud Marzke, then in the appliance business; Frank Beard, of Western Auto; Bart Bartholomew, the Penney man; Red Lundy, auto dealer; Harry Hulse, clothier; Rex Sirrine and Lew Wolf, bankers; Judge Paul Cash and longtime court stenographer, Glenn Whitman; Lee and Mark DeWitt, wholesale grocers; and so many others.

There at Strauser's the issues of the day—local, state and national—were discussed, once over lightly, and there this column was born 19 years ago.

'Punkin' Time

BY W. E. DOBSON

Comes a time long 'bout October,
With the summer chores laid by,
When the air is ventilated
And there's color in the sky;
When cock pheasant's breast is reddest,
And our firearms we "lie,"
When the corn is fit fer shuckin'
'N there's punkins in the pile.

When the ducks 'n geese are stirrin'
Packing up fer sudden flight
When there's color in the country,
'N the fish get set to bite;
Young folks then are congregatin'
Fixed fer goin' out in style
When the corn is fit fer shuckin',
'N there's punkins in the pile.

Summer days I grant are longer,
Winter brings its pleasures all,
But we always find October
Has a lot upon the ball;
With the air plum full of pigskins
'N cheer leaders struttin' style,
Yaller corn all fit fer shuckin'
Yaller punkins in the pile.

Give details of family's moving

THIS IS a reply to the letter in the Oct. 1 county paper, written by two basketball coaches, namely Mr Swears and Mr Japinga, which was an obvious implication to an imaginary racial issue.

I would like to state here that they expounded on one side of the issue only.

I asked Mr Swears why he did not interview the "so-called pressured landlord." He replied that he couldn't find the landlord.

NOW IT so happens that the neighbor whom he interviewed knows me personally and also where I reside.

Evidently, one side of the issue was all they were concerned with—to make a good racial topic.

Therefore, I am taking this opportunity to present the "pressured landlord's" version.

IN THE FIRST place, there was no eviction made, as they so erroneously stated.

The family in question had stated that they did not wish to stay. Their suggestion was accepted and other arrangements were made by us. Sometime later they changed their mind and wanted to remain.

They were told they should go on and move as they had planned to do, as we had made other plans, following their decision to move.

THEY BECAME quite hostile in several ways, such as non-payments, destruction of property, breaking out windows, and even refused to let a neighbor store some hay in the empty barn, as I had told him he could do.

Is that a true spirit of friendliness? I ask you!

After listening to the wife's fowl language, she informed us that, as they had a family of children, we could not make them move, as winter was too near at hand; also that unless we paid them a designated amount of money they would stay there indefinitely.

We paid them the money to get them to vacate, and end further destruction of property.

THEN OUR two coaches ask the question, "How must that poor family have felt?" Personally, I think they should have had a deep feeling of guilt and shame over such conduct. The same manner would have applied to anyone, regardless of race.

Letters to the Editor

We were not pressured by anyone. In fact, one neighbor was the only one with whom we had discussed it at all.

No doubt Mr Swears and Mr Japinga are well-educated and decent citizens, but I feel if they had taken time to procure the true facts and not jumped to conclusions they would not have written their letter.

Perhaps, their own conscience should be stimulated to the point that they can refrain from writing on issues that do not exist, thereby preventing similar happenings in the future.

WITH THEIR imagination, I would suggest that they expend their literary talents to writing light drama or comedy, wherein imagination is a great asset.

I do think the two gentlemen should be honorable enough to extend an apology.

After all, Mr Swears and Mr Japinga, instead of asking how that family must have felt, might also ask themselves how the "poor pressured landlord" felt after reading such a false accusation.

I am wondering if they deal so one-sided and unfairly with the boys in their classes.

Every issue has two sides.

Says liquor by glass is a moral issue

THERE ARE many people who believe that this liquor by the glass referendum has moral overtones. By this we mean that a persons who goes from the bar to the car is not exercising sound judgment or showing moral responsibility to the citizens of this area.

It appears that those who are saying "This is not a moral issue" are closing their eyes to reality. They are saying in effect, "If there is money in it, it is not a moral issue but a business issue."

IT WOULD be most inaccurate to say that moral issues are only to be confined to those issues that are not financially rewarding.

Both social drinkers and total abstainers are concerned about highway safety. This concern is shown in the fact that 80 per cent of the communities that vote on liquor by the glass turn it down. This would not be possible if the moderate drinkers were not concerned.

THE CHARGE has been made that no city has ever voted out liquor by the glass. This is not correct, since the cities of Grandville and East Lansing voted out liquor by the glass within the past few years.

It should be pointed out that the cities that have voted it have had increased problems with accidents, and the expenses of running the city government have increased. To illustrate, Detroit, Flint, Battle Creek and Grand Rapids have all voted in, or are pushing for, city income taxes. No community voting in liquor by the glass has ever reduced its taxes.

THE CITIES that have voted in liquor by the glass have contributed to our rising highway accident rate. Governor Romney, in a special message to the Legislature Jan. 16, reported "50 per cent of the accidents involved the drinking driver, and the state's soaring traffic toll is serious enough to be called a state of emergency."

To be sure, not many communities have the "know how" on how to vote it out, but those that have voted it in have not been pleased with the results." CITIZENS' COMMITTEE FOR A SAFER ST. JOHNS AREA Dr R. L. Wohlers

Takes exception to Ward on NFO

THE LETTER of Bob Ward saying what I believe in today only to change it tomorrow. Then he goes on and says this is true progress.

Mr Ward, what is true about you, being so deficient in understanding? You also claim to be a Christian. Do Christians change their attitude as they go along?

YOU ALSO say NFO will not work on livestock any more than it did on milk a few years ago. You also go on and say Chrysler settled their difficulties without a strike. But since then General Motors went on strike. Now let me ask how many of General Motors' employees are working.

And how many of the farmers held back their milk when they were on strike? A certain party writes a letter in a farm magazine telling about farmers wanting 15 cents a hundredweight more for their milk. They sent word by their representative to the dairy asking for 15 cents a hundred more for their milk. They were refused.

THEN A meeting was called and largely attended, and it was decided that if the dairy denied the 15 cents, they would hold their milk on the first of the month. This was a unanimous decision.

On the first of the month two farmers held their milk. The rest shipped. How can you expect to get anything if you won't stick together and fight? And then again, if the market system is such a good place to determine prices, why don't other segments adopt it. I think you and I are both tired of buying retail and selling wholesale.

THERE WAS also another letter written by Roy Court of Pawamo. He explains NFO very well. Bob, it would pay you to read that letter over again. Myself, I think we should be tickled pink to think we have an organization organized by the farmer.

You also say MACMA is doing the same as NFO but by different methods. They have too much of Farm Bureau policies, and I am very much familiar with them. And when I see Farm Bureau, grain and feed journals and almost everyone else who is against the farmer write things like they have, I know there must be some good about NFO or they wouldn't try to turn farmers against them.

AND I'D ALSO bet my last dollar that when any violence occurred, it was started by Farm Bureau.

And Mr Editor, I want to say we have a lot of supply but not too much demand. How can we have very much demand when we are producing twice the amount we did 20 years ago? Farmers are using 6 per cent more fertilizer this year; therefore more supply.

The same thing with the free enterprise system. What is to stop the buyers at these auction sales from rigging the market. Or what is to stop them (a half dozen of them) from getting together on the price they want to pay?

OH, I KNOW and they know it's against the law. But what proof have we got that they are in the wrong. Well, if they are not, there is something cockeyed wrong some place.

So, Mr Editor, I guess we will have to copy Mr Ward and take what is offered. Not strike, but sell, sell, sell. We have been doing that right along.

AS YOU probably know, newspapers down here read about the same as back "home" except for an occasional startling regional news item. For example, the Washington Post has reported that police have tripped up seven members of the Fairfax Fox Hunt Club for pursuing their hobby out of season. The season on foxes doesn't open until sometime in October, and these boys may be fined up to $100 for jumping the season.

I have had some response to my last letter to you. Then I gave my opinion that discrimination exists both in the south and north, with the one great difference that in the south in many places this discrimination is "legal" or permitted by local laws. In reference to this point, I refer you to the Saturday Evening Post of the past week.

TO CHANGE the subject, the Washington Post contained a story with "local" flavor last week. Two writers told about "Romney being no cinch in Michigan, as even his secret polls give the old rambler only a seven per cent lead over Rep. Neil Staebler and top strategists of both parties believe these percentage points will melt if Romney becomes identified with Mr Goldwater in the public mind."

I included the Mr before Goldwater's name, as that's how they, meaning newspapers, refer to men in the south, always with the Mr or Dr, rather than just plain old "Smith" or "Brown." It must be that southern hospitality.

THE COMING election here will affect more people than in most areas since most people work for some sort of governmental agency, and I guess that when the party in office changes hands, which of course I doubt will happen for some time, heads roll and some people have to find other work fast.

For a variety of reasons, this coming election holds lots of interest. Sages here say that Goldwater will be happy to lose by only a small margin, that way insuring his control of the GOP for four years to come. Others say that if President Johnson wins by

Have you ever thought what an ideal memorial a book makes? If you want a memorial that will make your loved ones remember for years to come, something that will be useful to many people and something that can reflect his interests and character to the community, then there is nothing like a book.

A book never dies; it is a record of man's experience and ideas. A book can save a life or enrich a life because it passes on man's heritage of wisdom and knowledge.

PLACING the memorial book in a public library lets it give a big margin, his inability to control his pride will become a real problem.

And of course, Goldwater could win the election, but what happens then is anybody's guess. And maybe that is just what the Republicans-for-Johnson committee is worried about.

service to anyone. It can be picked to meet any size fund and be appropriate to anyone's interests. It can be available for the use of anyone who needs it. What better memorial than a book?

JOHN KENNETH Galbraith has written the story of his boyhood among his native people in Canada in his book "The Scotch." This tells of the clansmen and the countryside in a nostalgic, dry humor. These were durable people and their story is much the same as other settlements of European people who made up rural America. His expert descriptions and sly humor give the book its interest and appeal.

The author is best known for his book "The Affluent Society" and other works on economics. He has also been our Ambassador to India.

"THOSE Harper Women" by Stephen Birmingham has as its theme the debasing effect great wealth can have on sons, daughters and grandchildren of the first money-maker. The women in the story are the wife, daughter and granddaughter of Meredith Harper who had the talent for making money.

Merritt Greene writes about Michigan in his new book, "Forgotten Yesterdays." This shows the conflict that existed between the white man and the Indian in the clash of wits, though the author gives a sympathetic touch to his red man.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Legislative turnovers problem for executives

Extremely high turnover in legislative membership next year will increase the problems of state executives.

Several department heads had planned a big push for approval of major budget hikes for the next fiscal year now that Michigan's books are in the black. These plans were made before the present legislative apportionment plan was approved.

CONVINCING some of the long-term lawmakers it is time for less conservative budget-writing would have been hard enough in itself, but with a new majority rule in the House and a high percentage of new members in the Senate, this tough job is complicated even more.

Department heads will have to get to know the new members, their pet projects and dispositions.

TWO administrative chiefs will feel this complication particularly. Both the heads of the Conservation and Mental Health departments are new to their jobs since the current year budget appeals were made.

They will have the task of not only getting to know new members and selling their programs, but of convincing the old-timers they have the administrative ability for which they were selected.

NEW CONSERVATION Director Ralph A. MacMullan is not entirely new to state government, having served previously in his department's game division.

He is hoping the new Legislature will bring a major change in past behavior where his department is concerned. He will again plead for repeal of the bounty system, a $250,000 item which has failed to pass during several previous attempts.

Saying he can "defend every dime" of a proposed $33 million budget, MacMullan says his request represents "catching up" after 10 years of enforced austerity which have shrunk the department's employee force and buying power.

HE PROPOSES $8.5 million alone for improved and added state park facilities for campers, picnickers and swimmers, an area of development in which he will get outside lobbying help.

Only time will tell whether the surplus of the books and the new legislators will give department chiefs the money they have been waiting for during the long austerity period.

A CHRONIC teacher shortage still exists in Michigan despite the sharp increases in college enrollments and completions, Department of Public Instruction records show.

Michigan schools experience a dropout of about 5,000 teachers annually who do not return to their jobs, and a need for an additional 3,000 professionals to fill new positions.

The most serious shortage remains at the elementary level, although certain subject areas in secondary schools also lack capable instructors.

DESPITE many years of attempting to eliminate the special certificate for full-time teachers, department records this fall showed about 4,500 positions in public schools had to be filled by teachers holding these special permits.

The number of special certificates in use by persons who have not fulfilled all educational requirements for regular certificates has dropped over the years, however.

Department officials say the reduction in special certificates has been significant but must be further lessened "so that all children in the state will be taught by fully prepared teachers."

THE perennial attempt to eliminate Michigan's sale tax and replace this major revenue source with a state lottery and off-track betting laws may be missing next year.

This set of proposals has been introduced during most of the past 10 years by Rep. E. A. Fitzpatrick, Detroit Democrat.

While Fitzpatrick usually obtained several members to join him in sponsoring his series of repeal bills and new proposals, very few members voiced very serious convictions on the program.

FITZPATRICK was one of several House members dropped from the election list in the primary balloting.

His main objection to the sales tax was that it hit the low income family hardest.

Substituting the sales tax and several of the so-called nuisance taxes with an off-track betting system and state lottery would more than replace the lost revenue, he contended.

THE NEW sources of revenue also would put the burden of supporting state government on those who could afford the luxuries of life, he argued.

Most likely Fitzpatrick's unusual plan for financing government will go the way of many former legislators' pet projects: down to defeat with their proponents.

PROCEEDINGS

of the St. Johns Board of Education

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education of the St. Johns Public Schools was held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 7, 1964, in the office of the superintendent of schools. Present: Members Munger, Meyer, Parr, Richards, Schumaker and Gallagher; also Supt. Lancaster, Principal Pocuis, Ass't Principal Wirick, and Cereida Hicks. Absent: Member Tiedt.

The meeting was called to order by President Munger at 7:30 p.m. Minutes of the September meeting were read and approved.

CURRENT Operating bills in the amount of $38,863.67 and payrolls amounting to $52,908.18 were approved.

The Financial Report of all funds were presented and reviewed.

Bids on boiler insurance were opened and the bid of the A. T. Allaby Agency was accepted.

The policy on tenure which had been considered at the Aug. 19 meeting was taken from the table, and upon motion, duly supported, it was voted to adopt the policy. Also, the proposed policy regarding duties and responsibilities of department heads was again considered, and it was voted to adopt this policy also.

BECAUSE of the necessity to borrow funds for operating purposes, a resolution was adopted authorizing the superintendent to file an application with the Department of Public Instruction for permission to borrow $75,000.

The following board members were appointed by President Munger to serve on the salary committee: William Richards Jr., Raymond Parr, and Lucille Gallagher.

A request from the city commission to set up a series of joint meetings with the board of education was presented, and it was decided to meet with the commission in December, April, and August.

UPON THE recommendation of the superintendent, Mr Robert LaBrie was appointed head of the Language Department in the high school.

There being no further business upon proper motion the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted, RAYMOND G. PARR, Secretary

Will do own pool repair work

A $425 estimate for cleaning out of one of four inlets at the city park swimming pool was rejected by the city commission last week as being too expensive.

The estimate was made by D. C. Byers Co., which did pool repair work last spring.

City Manager Ken Greer suggested the city job out the plumbing work and do the concrete work with city employees for considerably less money. Commissioners agreed.

Only love money can buy is of pal dog, it is said

Mrs. L. Carl Zacharias shows off her pet, Valentine, a petite, cream colored pomeranian, left, and Lucky, an orange colored sire dog that has captured many awards in kennel shows this year.

BY MABEL OPPENHEER

"The only love that you can buy is the love of a dog," Mrs. Louis Carl Zacharias of 2976 N. US-27 says. She is a dog fancier who is particularly partial to the petite Pomeranian.

For ten years, Mrs. Zacharias operated the Tweedy Birdy Aviary and she won many, many rosettes, trophies and prizes with her parakeets and canaries. Among them were the Challenge Trophy for the best canary and the Challenge Trophy for the best parakeet. Now, she has only one that she keeps as a pet that keeps both herself and her husband entertained with its unexpected outbursts of words and phrases.

THE COUPLE retained the five Pomeranians which his mother, Mrs. Myron T. Zacharias, had at the time of her death and have built up the kennel which they maintain at 10 dogs. "I would hate to part with the ones we sell," Mrs. Zacharias said, "but I know that if people will part with the price, they will give the animals good homes."

Remembering all of the dogs by their registered names, they ask new owners to send them news of the dogs after they are adjusted to their new homes. People have sent pictures back to them from as far away as Florida and tell them how much they are enjoying their new companions.

*THE Pomeranian is small and is sometimes regarded as useless except as a toy," Mrs. Zacharias said. "But this is not true," she declared. "These dogs have been known to alert their owners to many kinds of danger. One is known to have caught and held a rattlesnake until it could be destroyed." Outstanding characteristics of the little animals are that they are lovable, toy size, small eaters, healthy, easy to train and they are "as aristocratic as any pooodle."

VALENTINE and Lucky have the highest positions in the Zacharias kennel. Valentine, light cream in color, is their pet and lives in the house. She serves as an illustration for the dogs in the kennel. Other colors characteristic of the breed are red and orange. Besides showing her sweet face and gentle and loving disposition, Valentine alerts the couple when the telephone rings and they are outside and tells them when the mailman comes.

Lucky, the sire dog, was entered in competitive shows last spring and won his owners many awards. This was their first experience in entering shows. "It just seemed as if we never had time to get the dogs groomed and spend the time there," Mrs. Zacharias said. "Perhaps our success this year will prompt us to make more effort in the future."

IN THE competition of the Leash and Collar Club of Lansing, Lucky won the Best of Breed in a class of 12 and Second Best of all Toy Breeds.

At the Ingham County Kennel Club show in Lansing, the little orange rascal captured the ribbon for the Second Highest in the Pomeranian Division.

He won first prize at the Livonia Kennel Club and the Oakland Kennel Club and was Reserve Winner at the Genesee County Kennel Club at Flint.

HE HAS an International championship background. The Zacharias had both his mother and father.

They are already getting their puppies ready for Christmas gifts. They say the pangs of parting with them are overcome with the thoughts that the little mites will bring happiness to someone.

MRS ZACHARIAS turns a room into a maternity ward when new puppies come. Many times, she stays up all night with the new babies which weigh about three ounces when they are born. One baby is left with the mother to keep her from becoming panicky. She has a heating pad ready to keep them warm and a doll nursing bottle ready to feed them. The average weight of the toy Pomeranian is four pounds.

Mrs. Zacharias taught school and took care of homeless children in Wisconsin. Holding a civil service rating, she operated the Union Memorial Cafeteria at the University of Wisconsin.

LATER, she supervised news stands and cigar sales for a company at Madison, Wis., St. Louis, Mo., Sioux City, Iowa, and Detroit where she met Sgt. Major Lewis Carl Zacharias, a former St. Johns resident. They were married a year and a half later.

Mr. Zacharias was liaison officer between selective service and the US Army for more than 27 years. He is still in the Organized Reserve for Selective Service. They returned to St. Johns in 1954 and he suffered two strokes in 1959 which have made his activities limited.

HE IS a thirty-second degree Mason, a past commander of Knight Templars and of the Detroit American Legion Post. He was initiated into Al Malakahan Order of the Mystic Shrine with the famed cowboy and star, Roy Rogers.

It was he who wrote the decision as to where the American flag should be placed in relation to the governor in that office.

Mrs. Zacharias is a member of Radiant Chapter 79 Order of Eastern Star and served as treasurer four years and flag bearer one year. She is a past president of the American Legion Auxiliary of Edwin T. Shiles Post 153 and member of World War Barracks of Clinton County.

Try a vegetable salad bouquet

Canned vegetables can take the humdrum out of salads the year around. Try this vegetable salad bouquet and see for yourself! Cube 1/4-pound Cheddar cheese and combine with 3/4-cup chopped celery and 1/2-cup mayonnaise or salad dressing. Lightly mix in one well-drained 17-oz. can sweet peas and season to taste with salt and pepper. Chill thoroughly and serve on crisp lettuce. This makes 4 to 6 servings.

Washer selection is important decision

BY BETTY KETCHAM
County Extension Agent
Home Economics

Shopping for a washing machine? Here are some things to think about.

Your special circumstances and family needs may decide whether you buy an automatic or a non-automatic washing machine. Which ever type you buy, these points should be checked according to household equipment specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Water needed — This can be important, especially if your water supply (hot or cold) is expensive or limited.

CAPACITY — Manufacturers describe washers as having a certain capacity in pounds of dry clothes. Most wash better with 3 or so pounds less than capacity.

General Workmanship — Washer should be sturdy, the parts that come in contact with clothes should be rustproof, and tub and motor should be mounted on rubber or springs to lessen vibration and noise.

Tub Materials — Porcelain

enameled steel is most common and quite satisfactory. Aluminum, stainless steel, and nickel-copper are more expensive.

OUTSIDE FINISHES — Most are of synthetic enamel on sheet metal. Porcelain enameled steel is more durable but more expensive.

Motors — These should be shielded from water, grounded, insulated from metal parts, and have a sealed-in lubricant that provides permanent oiling.

Responsibility of the manufacturer — Read the warranty carefully so that you will know what responsibility the manufacturer takes for repairs and replacements. Buy the product of a manufacturer represented by a reliable service organization convenient for your use.

UNDERWRITERS' approval seal — It means that the washer has fulfilled Underwriters' Laboratories specifications for electrical safety, materials, and workmanship.

Disposal system — If you have a home disposal system (in contrast to a city sewer connection), be certain that it will accommodate the quantity of water from the type washer you plan to buy, as you intend to use it.

MEET YOUR CLUB PRESIDENT

Heads Woman's Club

MRS VAN W. HOAG

The president of the St. Johns Woman's Club is Mrs. Van W. Hoag of 409 S. Whittemore Street. Mrs. Hoag is also a member of the First Congregational Church, Vesper Division of the Women's Fellowship, past president of the Morning Musicales, past matron of Radiant Chapter 79 OES, first vice president of the Clinton County Association OES, Clinton Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, secretary of River Wabwaysin Chapter DAR, Republican Women's Club, served as Gray Lady for three years and assists her husband in their business. When she has the time, she plans to study the organ as a hobby. She likes homemaking, cooking, sewing, knitting, music, flower arranging, reading and gardening. Her family includes, besides her husband, Vanwyck, two sons, Douglas of Detroit, and John of St. Johns, three grandchildren and her parents, Mr and Mrs John Dexter of St. Johns.

Colorful styles, liven up fall

Leading manufacturers have responded to the fall fashion forecast with a collection of wonderful wearable tops that come in a variety of styles and carefree fabrics: curve-conscious crepes, soft drapeable satins, vivid jersey, textured knits and airy georgettes.

The styles are as different as the sensational separates they'll be seen with. Softness is everywhere, seen in long billowing sleeves, draped cowl necklines, relaxed blouses.

FEMININITY is fashionable and blouses dip to décolleté, flirt with ruffles and bring softened newness to classic shirt-styles. More fashion excitement is added with the marvelous palette of colors for fall: deep rich shades of blue, red and gold, vibrant jewel tones, and, of course, white which is better than ever. Prints are plentiful, beautifully blending hot clashing colors and off-beat designs in a look that is unmistakably fall, 1964.

Mrs Seim honored by area musicians

Mrs. George H. Brooks, president of the South Central District of Women's Clubs, welcomes Mrs. M. Cedric Dowling of Jackson, state treasurer and Great Lakes district director of scholarships to Interlochen, to the district meeting held in the First Congregational Church. Left to right, are: Mrs. Frederick M. Lewis, president of the St. Johns Morning Musicales; Mrs. Dowling; Mrs. Joseph L. Mills of Jackson, district vice president and state individual membership chairman; Mrs. Brooks; Mrs. Frederik Marin of Lansing, treasurer of the national federation; and Mrs. C. W. Lumbert, secretary-treasurer of the district federation.

Mrs. Conrad Seim was honored by the St. Johns Morning Musicales at the meeting of the South Central District of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs Thursday.

The local club will sponsor Mrs. Seim's name in the 1965 issue of Who's Who in Music published by the National Federation of Music Clubs.

MRS SEIM is a charter member of the Morning Musicales and a past president of the West Central District. She was named president of the South Central District following the reorganization of districts.

She is a member of the Lansing Matinee Musicales. She was winner, as a singer, in a national federation contest and she once sang for Lawrence Tibbetts, famed operatic star.

The Morning Musicales was host to the district meeting in the First Congregational Church. The theme was "Music, a Friend Forever."

MRS Frank Coolidge of Grosse Pointe, national chairman of Crusade for Strings, was to have discussed the subject. She became ill and was unable to attend. Mrs. Frederik Marin of Lansing, substituted for her.

Her address was supplemented by several selections by the St. John's Episcopal Church String Ensemble under direction of Mrs. R. L. Williams and Mrs. John Post.

MRS VERNON L. Venman of Birmingham, who was scheduled to present an address on "Music, a Blessed Legacy," was unable to be present because of having sustained a serious fracture of a foot which required hospitalization. Mrs. Jan Vander Helde of Grand Rapids, took her place.

Mrs. Marin was moderator for a panel discussion of "Music in the Air." She was assisted by Mrs. C. T. Liebum of Lansing.

Following several simultaneous sessions, federation projects were discussed. Mrs. Vander Helde discussed "Duties and Privileges of 'Just a Member.'" Mrs. Raymond Reece of Ferndale, Mrs. M. C. Dowling of Jackson, and Mrs. Marine conducted sessions.

MRS MANNING Bross, program chairman, introduced the musical program: a flute-piano duet by Robert Cox and Robert Barnard; vocal solo by Mrs. Robert Rice, contralto; piano duo, Mrs. Harold Lundy and Mrs. Duane Davis. Mrs. Kenneth Jones was a member of the program committee.

Mrs. Holden Horning of Brooklyn, accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Mills of Jackson, led the singing of the Doxology before the luncheon was served by members of the Women's Fellowship.

MRS George H. Brooks, president of the district federation, conducted the business session and introduced the guests. Mrs. Frederick Lewis, president of the Morning Musicales, welcomed the guests and Mrs. Joseph Mills of Jackson, gave the response. The federation hymn for October, "O Word of God Incarnate," was led by Mrs. W. A. Herzog of Leslie.

Mrs. Van Hoag offered the invocation at the opening of the morning session and Mrs. Bross led the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Mrs. John Thede of Howell led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. A prelude of organ selections was played by Mrs. B. A. Delbert.

Favors were furnished by local business firms.

Episcopalians met in many places since founding in 1856

Since 1867 the Episcopal Church has been at the corner of Walker and Mead Streets. A fire all but leveled it on Easter Sunday 1892, but two years later a new building stood in its place.

FATHER BRAMWELL was missionary to several villages in Clinton County. That first missionary meeting in St. Johns took place in a little house at what is now 207 Wight Street.

THE REV HENRY Banwell, missionary at Owosso, held services during 1859. But because of the Civil War and the lack of a regular meeting place, membership waned until April 1864 when the church was reorganized under the original name.

Here's resume of activities

Here's a resume of centennial activities this weekend at St. John's Episcopal Church:

A pageant tracing the history of the church will be held Saturday and Sunday evenings following the 7:30 p.m. prayer services.

A RECEPTION will be held in the undercroft of the church immediately following the pageant each evening.

Rev and Mrs Hugh Banninga will have an open house at the rectory Saturday and Sunday afternoon from 1 to 5.

WHEN FATHER Banwell accepted a call to become resident rector of St. John's in 1865, George W. Stephenson donated use of the upper floor of his building on the east side of Clinton Avenue as a meeting place.

Because the present church site was objectionable to townspeople as the location of a union school, the Episcopalians were able to obtain it. The land reverted back to the city when the Union School building was moved. It later came into the possession of Alva H. Walker, who gave it to the Episcopalians as a church site.

IN THE SPRING of 1866, two loads of lumber were purchased and the footings for a church were built. The cornerstone was laid on April 25, 1867, and in November that year first services were held in the new church by the rector, the Rev Seth S. Chapin.

During Father Chapin's second term, a recessed chapel was added and other improvements were made. The church became free of debt on April 19, 1876.

The church structure itself has been important to the religious life of the city of St. Johns, but the church's members were active as a unit long before their first building rose toward the heavens.

In 1858, the Rev William B. Dooley, rector of Zion Church in Pontiac, held monthly services in Plumstead Hall, present site of the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co.

THIS WEEKEND the present members commemorate a 100 years of the church by holding special services and activities. Highlighting the events will be the presentation of an original pageant Saturday evening and Sunday evening. It will tell the history of the church and the history of the structure's stained glass windows.

The windows were a long time in coming, and so was the first church building. In its early days, the Episcopal Church in St. Johns was a mission, and services were held in various locations at varying intervals. The first services were conducted in 1856 by the Rev John Bramwell, rector of St. Paul's Church in Lansing.

REV FREDERICK HALL . . . he held first services in the present church in 1894

In the late spring of 1858, St. John's Episcopal Church was officially organized with the signing of a document by 12 persons on May 25.

THOSE 12 were Timothy Baker, Louis W. Fausquelle, Hiram C. Hodge, William W. Flagler, James H. Benson, William H. Mootie, George F. Mead, O. L. Spaulding, J. H. Corbit, D. N. Murray, George W. Stephenson and H. M. Perrin.

A vestry of seven persons was elected — Fausquelle, Hodge, Mootie, Spaulding, Stephenson, Mead and Baker. Fausquelle and Stephenson were chosen as wardens, Spaulding as secretary and Baker as treasurer.

REV G. MOORE MORGAN . . . he'll assist at centennial services this weekend.

into the burning church building, snatched the newly made linen from the altar and carried it to safety, crying over and over, "My church, my church, my pretty church." The loss in the fire amounted to $3,000.

Thus, the congregation of St. John's Episcopal Church had to "hit the road" again. They began holding services again in the upper room on Clinton Avenue.

SALVAGEABLE material from the burned church was moved to the rear of the church property and was used to construct a parish house, where services were held until the present church was built.

Edwin E. White was named chairman of a committee to build the new church. Plans were drawn by Rogers and McFarlan, Detroit architects, for a structure to cost $7,000. The cornerstone was laid Aug. 3, 1893.

FIRST services in the present church were held Easter Sunday, March 25, 1894, two years after the fire, by the Rev Frederick Hall.

Up to that time, St. John's had been classified as a diocesan mission, and it received an annual stipend for its support. Father Hall admonished the parish to become self-supporting, and he offered to accept a cut in pay equal to the diocese stipend.

The parish voted approval to being self-supporting but declined to reduce their pastor's salary.

FINAL DEBT on the new church building was retired May 18, 1898, six months before the notes were due. Father Joseph Ewing was pastor at the time.

Fire again played a role in the church's history in 1921. During the winter, the furnace in the rectory overheated, and the building caught fire. It was so badly damaged it had to be almost completely rebuilt.

ST. JOHN'S Episcopal Church has been at the same site for almost 100 years. During that time membership has grown from the very few in 1867 to a present enrollment of 70 families and about 175 persons.

Name committee for Yule event

The South Bingham and Olive Extension Study Group met with Mrs Lawrence Salters with five members present.

The club appointed a committee for Christmas worship, Nov. 10 with Mrs Lysle Steves as chairman and Mrs Lawrence Salters and Mrs Harl Steavens as helpers.

Mrs Harry Northrup read the council report. The new name of the state extension unit is Michigan Association of Extension Homemakers.

October PTA month in state

Gov. George Romney has declared October as PTA Membership Enrollment Month. The Michigan and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers invites civic minded adults to join in its program.

Local and council officials stress that in all PTAs, parents and teachers work cooperatively, seeking to determine what their community wants its schools to accomplish and to act upon the unsolved or most critical problems.

THE governor and the Michigan PTA Congress urges citizens to join their local PTA unit, whether or not they have children currently attending school. Congress officials say this important school-community organization is depending on local leadership and member participation.

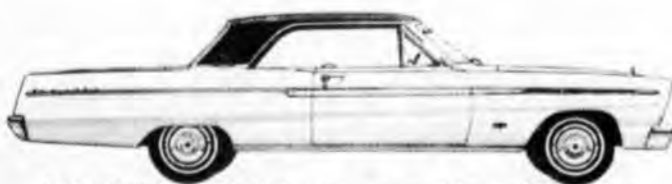

The first type-revolving press was constructed by Hoe and Co. and was installed in the office of the Philadelphia Public Ledger in 1846.

WATCH FOR THE SIGNS

Mike was lucky! He lost his way completely along the thickly-wooded roads during his vacation last summer until suddenly he came upon a small service station. The friendly attendant told him he was only a short distance from the lake. "Just watch for the signs," the man said.

It's easy to get lost . . . it could happen to anyone. At times, our lives get so confused that we don't know which way to turn, and we feel that nobody cares. When that happens, just watch for the signs.

What signs? Well, there's the fragrant beauty of a rose, the laugh of a child, the glory of sunrise, the sound of great music . . . signs all around that point to the constant presence of God who loves us.

The Christian Church is the most important sign of all . . . created solely to reveal a new and meaningful way of life to all who seek it.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Prayer is suggested answer to problems

ELSIE — "Rekindling the Inner Life Through Prayer" was the lesson presented by Mrs. Harry Grenlund before members of the Methodist WSCS Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Lewis Walling.

Mrs. Grenlund gave suggested answers to some common problems and some guidelines for private devotions. She said that most of us rush through the day and when night comes we are too tired or in no mood to pray. We should decide whether we think prayer is important enough to make a time and place for it.

Contributions were voted to help furnish the Women's Dormitory at Rust College in Holly Springs, Miss. and for foreign missions, equipment for the Sunwan Schools in Korea.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Blayney, Mrs. Gerald Cermak and Mrs. Rex Waggoner. Mrs. Phillip West will host the next meeting on Nov. 4, when "Sharing Basic Freedoms" will be presented by Mrs. Everett Rule.

Girls' State delegate tells of experiences

ELSIE — Another year's program for the Woman's Literary Club was revealed by chairman, Mrs. Durward Conklin, at the opening meeting Tuesday evening.

There were 45 members present to hear the highlights of the future meetings.

A cooperative supper was served at the hot lunch cafeteria in Elsie High School with Mrs. Lucas Marton, Mrs. Blanche Bates and Mrs. Keith Conklin in charge.

GUEST speaker was Mary Brady, and Elsie High School senior, who was sponsored by the club last summer at Wolverine Girls State in Ann Arbor. She thanked the club for making it possible to attend Girls State. It gave her a better understanding of government, she said, and the opportunity to make many new friends.

Tuesday night's program opened with greetings by the new president, Mrs. Paul Platner, who asked the continued cooperation from the members. She also introduced several new members.

PRAYER should center, not in our own feelings, but in love and service to God and to other persons, she added.

Mrs. Grenlund interspersed her talk with passages from such well-known authors as Dr. Frank Laubach, Dr. Douglas Steere, Georgia Harkness and Louise Eggleston. She recommended that families read the "Upper Room," a universally used guide for relaxation and meditation.

Mrs. Charles Fizzell led the group singing of favorite prayer hymns.

MRS. CHARLES Kridner presided for the business session when plans were discussed for the annual dinner and bazaar to be held Wednesday, Oct. 28.

The turkey dinner will be served in Fellowship Hall and serving will begin at 5:30 p.m. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Lyle Dunham, Mrs. Gerald Carroll, Mrs. Alpha Grubaugh and Mrs. John Hibbler, who will be assisted by circle chairmen, Mrs. L. W. Burdick and Mrs. Charles Fizzell. The Wesleyan Guild will be in charge of the dining room.

MRS. WOODROW Bashore, program chairman, gave a preview of the year's program. Secretary Mrs. Fizzell reported that new draperies were hung at windows of the Sunday School rooms. She also read several thank-you and appreciation notes from district officers who attended the recent district meeting at Elsie.

This Pumpkin Will Make an Awe-Inspiring Jack 'o Lantern

Collin Robert Hickerson of Columbus, Ohio, will be surprised when his grandfather, Clarence Hickerson of 12510 DeWitt Road, fulfills a promise by bringing this mammoth pumpkin for a jack 'o lantern. This pumpkin weighed 132 pounds and measured six feet in circumference. Other fruit from the same vine weighed 85 pounds, 92 pounds and 72 pounds. They would make a lot of pumpkin pies. The seed advertiser, contrary to belief, says that the large fruit is good for pies.

Peltier clan united after 4 years separation

ELSIE — For the first time in four years, Mr and Mrs Howard Peltier, their children and grandchildren, gathered for a reunion. Several days were spent in the cottage at Crystal Lake in skiing, swimming and family fun.

One evening the young folks dined at The Embers in Mount Pleasant to celebrate the wedding anniversaries of Mr and Mrs Lynn Peltier and Mr and Mrs Gary Peltier and the birthday of David Peltier. Their sister, Barbara Peltier, went along to help celebrate the occasions.

AFTER RETURNING from the lake, Mr and Mrs Gary Peltier spent some time with Mr and Mrs Burr DeBar at their home in Elsie and at their cottage near Hardy Dam, while Mr and Mrs Lynn Peltier left for a week's tour of Canada.

Gatherings of relatives and friends were also held at the home of Mrs. Cleo Parks and Mr and Mrs DeBar for the families during their stay at home.

AFTER many such outings and fun, the families returned home to their duties: David to Reno, Nev. where he is pro-assistant cashier with the First National Bank of Nevada; Miss Barbara to her position with the Dow Chemical Co. in Midland; Lynn with the staff at Michigan State University; and Gary to his studies at the University of Denver, Colo. Upon returning home to register he was asked by the university to assist and teach in the foundations course offered by them.

Pledge to Flag explained at meet

ELSIE — The American Legion Auxiliary held its regular meeting at the American Legion Hall Thursday evening. A report was given by Mrs. Emerson Dunham about the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

The auxiliary voted to make its reservation to send a girl to Wolverine Girls State again this year. The Junior Auxiliary leader, Mrs. Leslie Sturges reported on planned activities for the coming year which will include a trip to the Capital, Oct. 19.

Membership chairman, Mrs. Reginald Crosson discussed plans for a membership contest with the legion post.

Elsie Lions Club visits the campus at Central Michigan

Elsie — The Elsie Lions Club went to college Monday. Twenty-five members of the local Lions Club visited Central Michigan University in Mount Pleasant.

John Berry, Elsie High School band director made all arrangements for the occasion and served as program chairman.

FIRST ON the agenda was observing the Marching Band in practice. This was followed by dinner at the Student Center with Norman Dietz and William Rivard, CMU faculty members as their guests.

A TOUR of the music building, library and field house was led by Rivard. They also viewed the swimming pool with thoughts for a pool for this area in the future. The physical education teacher who was in charge explained the swimming program.

One of the highlights of the tour in the evening was the new science building and observatory.

Road Commission Weekly Report

Our construction projects were delayed last week by the rain and cold. The Wood Road bridge across the Looking-Glass river in DeWitt Township is nearly complete. This bridge with new approaches should be opened to traffic by the end of this month.

The bridges on Colony Road are moving along. Piling is completed on two of them and abutments will be poured this week.

THE CLEARING crew has been working on Howe Road in Watertown Township. The graders assigned to construction have been on Clintonia Road, west of Westphalia.

Hunting season is with us again. Let us remember that signs are expensive. The cost each hunting season is around $3,000.00. I am sure the vandals who shoot signs do not possibly get $3,000.00 worth of enjoyment out of this practice.

MANY ARE shot at very close range. This makes it obvious that the only intent is to destroy property. We again appeal to the hunters for help, or to anyone who has information about such vandalism. Please report it to the Road Commission or to the Sheriff's department.

At least three representatives from the Clinton County Road Commission will attend Gov. Romney's Conference on traffic safety at Flint this coming Friday, Oct. 16.

OTHER MEETINGS in the near future are the regular meeting of the Clinton County Board of Road Commissioners on Monday, Oct. 19 and the Eight County Council meeting on Tuesday Oct. 20. John Jacoby, prominent authority on highway law, will speak to the Council on the new liability law.

Gets 10 days in jail for recklessness

Lloyd Harr, 19, of R-1, Fowler, was fined $54.90 and sentenced to 10 days in jail on a charge of reckless driving Monday morning. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Ramon Terpening in Fowler.

The fine was meted out by Justice of the Peace Gordon Willoughby. Harr was allowed to delay the start of his jail sentence until Nov. 6.

Nurses Get Instruction in How To Fight Fires at Hospital

Nurses and other staff members at Clinton Memorial Hospital learned a little more about fighting fires last Wednesday. Here Mrs Ruth Myers, LPN, slides a cloth over a blazing wastebasket to smother the flames. Don Isbell (left), executive housekeeper at the hospital, gave instructions to groups of nurses on both the morning and afternoon shifts. Instruction included use of all types of fire extinguishers, as well as rescue methods. Isbell received similar instruction several weeks ago at Mt. Pleasant. At right is Mrs Isbell, a registered nurse, who assisted her husband.

$2,000 in equipment lost in tool shed fire

A tractor, pickup truck, new sprayer, wagon and other equipment were lost in a fire at the Bruce VanVleet farm, 1347 E. Price Road, last Wednesday evening.

Damage was estimated at over $2,000, most of it to the contents of the small tool shed. The building was covered by insurance; the equipment was not.

MRS VanVleet said she discovered the blaze about 7:45 when she stepped outside. She called her husband, who was in the attic of the house, and then telephoned the St. Johns Fire Dept.

The building was a mass of flames when it was discovered, and Mrs VanVleet said her husband could not get close to it to save any of the equipment inside.

THE SHED WAS a total loss. Cause of the blaze has not been determined.

Suspended license driving costly

Warren M. McQueen, 37, of Haslett, is still in Clinton County Jail after being unable to pay a $30.10 fine and $19.90 costs for driving with a suspended license. The alternative to payment of the fine is 60 days in jail. He was arrested by state police last Thursday.

County above state average on heart deaths

Clinton County ranks above the state average of deaths caused by cardiovascular ailments, according to a recent study by the Michigan Heart Assn., a Michigan United Fund Agency.

Deaths resulting from cardiovascular causes account for 55.5 per cent of all deaths in Michigan.

CLINTON County's figure is 62.0 per cent, compared with Oscoda County with 75 per cent, highest figure in the Lower Peninsula.

Other high figures in the area have been recorded in Ionia County with 61.0 per cent, Gratiot County with 60.6 per cent, and Shiawassee County with 57.7 per cent.

Nearby counties with low death rates include Eaton County with 53.4 per cent; Midland County with 48.6 per cent; and Isabella County with 54.3 per cent.

The ocelot gets its name from the Latin "ocellus" meaning a small eye. This refers to the animal's being marked with small spots or "eyes."

Is saving that much per acre good enough reason for using our Anhydrous Ammonia this fall? We hope so. Particularly when you know that Anhydrous Ammonia from Dow is the most concentrated form of nitrogen you can buy—82%. You can save as much as $6 to $8 an acre by using a fertilizer program we can recommend.

Apply it to soil now in the fall when you're plowing down summer crop stubble. It won't leach out over the winter. Come spring and it will release needed nitrogen into the soil. Crops will develop stronger roots with more resistance to drought. Have a higher protein content for feeding. Do right by your wallet and your crops with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia. We have it—all you need.

Explains Merit Scholarship program; 39 sign up at P-W

Thirty-nine 1966 graduates of Pewamo-Westphalia Community Schools have signed up for the 1966-67 National Merit Scholarship qualifying test.

Test will be given in the school Tuesday, March 9 (or Saturday, March 13), 1965.

Students who will complete secondary school in 1966 and enter college in the same calendar year are eligible for scholarship consideration in the 1966-67 Merit program. Merit scholarships are four-year awards. The extent of a winner's financial need determines the amount of his stipend.

TO RECEIVE consideration, the student must take the test when it is offered in his school. Participating students pay a $1 fee. If the test is administered on a Saturday, the school may charge an additional fee up to $1 for special administrative costs for testing on a nonschool day. Any interested student who is unable to pay the fee should consult Chester Casari.

A student's performance on the qualifying test also provides him with information that is useful in career planning or in selecting courses in high school and college, Casari pointed out.

AFTER THE test, each participating student receives a "Handbook for Merit Program Participants," prepared by Science Research Associates, the testing agency. The handbook is designed to help students understand their individual test results, to make comparisons with scores of high school students across the country, and to use this information in making educational and vocational plans.

Thus, Casari said, students can learn more about their educational strengths and weaknesses, whether or not they plan to attend college.

IN ADDITION to the awards made by the National Merit Scholarship Corp., about 230 business corporations, foundations, colleges, professional associations, unions, trusts, and individuals give scholarships through the Merit Program. A considerable number of other scholarship agencies utilize the services of NMSC in awarding their scholarships.

NMSC was established in 1955 through grants from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corp. of New York. An additional Ford Foundation grant to extend the Merit Program through 1970 was announced in 1962.

SINCE 1956, about 9,100 students have received Merit Scholarship awards and thousands of other high-scoring students have been assisted in obtaining financial aid from other sources.

First arts, crafts session Tuesday

The arts and crafts program of the St. Johns fall recreation program will begin Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Drop-In Center in St. Johns. Mrs. Roger Kowalski will be instructor. Persons interested in the arts and crafts course can sign up at the Tuesday night session.

Alton Twork, conservation forester for the Michigan Conservation Dept., nails an identification sign to a tree at the city park. Sixteen varieties of trees at the park have been identified and posted for use on student field trips.

(16 city park trees telling world about themselves)

The Michigan Conservation Dept., in cooperation with the City of St. Johns, has marked trees at the city park with signs bearing their English and Latin names.

The trees were marked for educational purposes. The Conservation Dept. expressed the hope that 4-H clubs, Future Farmers of America, biology classes and other young people, as well as adults, will use the trees on field trips.

TWO TREES from each of the 16 varieties found in the park have been marked. City Manager Ken Greer said there are eight different trees in a row around the picnic area behind the athletic field press box.

Trees at the city park include the following species: American basswood (Tilia Americana), American Beech (Fagus Grandifolia), American Elm (Ulmus Americana), American Hophorn-Butternut Hickory (Carya Cordiformis);

BLACK Cherry (Prunus Serotina), Black Walnut (Juglans Nigra), Black Maple (Acer Nigrum), Sugar Maple (Acer Saccharum), Cottonwood (Populus Deltoides), Rock Elm (Ulmus Fulva);

White Ash (Fraxinus Americana), Red Elm (Ulmus Rubra), Northern Red Oak (Quercus Borealis), Eastern Red Oak

Moore host to seed processors

Bob Moore of 9870 Gratiot Road, northwest of Elsie, was host Friday and Monday for meetings of Michigan certified seed processors.

All of Moore's crops on his own farm are devoted to hybrid and certified seed. He is set up to process hybrid seed corn and certified beans, wheat and oats.

Friday he gave demonstrations of his modern, mechanized setup to seed handlers and research people. Monday's program was mainly for the farmer-producers of hybrids.

Don't harvest your gourds too soon. Leave them on the vines until cold weather approaches even if the vines have died. Collect only mature gourds which have hard shells and cut them from the vine, retaining part of the stem.

Annual meeting of Friends of Schools set

The Friends of Michigan Schools will hold their annual meeting Saturday at the Reo Clubhouse on South Washington Street in Lansing.

Highlights of the all-day session will include a film, "The True Revolution" at 10 a.m., "The Ashley Story, How the State Harasses the Small High Schools," as told by Mrs. Martha Cordray, secretary of the Ashley School Board, at 10:45.

A POLITICAL action workshop will be held at 1 p.m. Special reports will be given during the afternoon and an award banquet will be given at 5:30. Rep. Frederic Marshall will speak on "Is Government 'By the People' Out of Date?"

Harmon Cropsy of Cassopolis is president of the Friends of Michigan Schools.

2,000 expected for state FB meet

About 2,000 Michigan farmers are expected Nov. 10, 11 and 12 for the Michigan Farm Bureau annual meeting at Michigan State University.

President Walter Wightman will address the group at the opening session in the MSU auditorium. An "exciting slate" of policy resolutions will be acted on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 2.

Registration will be at the auditorium.

County at 60% of savings bond goal

Clinton County has achieved 60.6 per cent of its quota for the sale of US savings bonds through August. The state achievement is 74.4 per cent of a $259,600,000 goal.

In Michigan... at a picnic, beer is a natural

When you're relaxing at your favorite outdoor beauty spot with friends or family, and your thirst is whetted by fresh air and exercise—that's the ideal time for a cool, refreshing glass of beer. In fact, you can name your recreation—swimming, hiking, or just watching TV—and chances are nothing in the world fits it quite as well as beer.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Michigan...beer goes with fun, with relaxation UNITED STATES BREWERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

Film on Quebec opens travel series

The Lions Club of St. Johns will present the first program in its "Travel and Adventure Series" next Wednesday night at the Clinton Theater.

Howard Pollard is producer and narrator of the film, "Holiday in Quebec."

HE IS a Detroit resident and has a background in engineering and photography. He has produced several films for television instruction.

"Holiday in Quebec" is an all-color travel film of the great Province of Canada that is filled with charm of the Old World and the excitement of a new one.

It's the province that was in the news so much last week during Queen Elizabeth's visit to Canada.

QUEBEC WAS discovered by Jacques Cartier in 1534 and settled by the French under Champlain early in the 17th century. It hasn't lost its Old World flavor even yet. Hand looms, outdoor bake ovens and spinning wheels are still in daily use.

POLLARD WILL bring his interpretation of the historic background of this important province of Canada. He will also show the usual activities and scenic spots of this colorful area.

The film will show outdoor ovens, oxcarts, wayside shrines and picturesque houses. In the many sparkling lakes and streams are bass, trout, pike and salmon waiting for the fisherman to wet a line.

THERE'LL BE the relaxation of riding a ship as it climbs the locks of the St. Lawrence Seaway. The Gaspé Peninsula is a pleasing combination of rugged cliffs, ocean beaches and quaint fishing villages.

They'll all show in Pollard's film, "Holiday in Quebec." Tickets are still available from any member of the Lions Club and at the door.

THE MOVIE will start at 8 p.m. next Wednesday, Oct. 21.

PROCEEDS from this film and five others in this winter's travel series will be spent on Lions' charities. These include Wolverine Boys State, Leader Dogs Inc., Welcome Home for the Blind, purchase of glasses, white canes and other equipment for the blind in Clinton County, distribution of toys to children of needy families and support of the Clinton County Association of Retarded Children.

4-H Service Club plans dance Oct. 24
The Clinton County 4-H Service Club will sponsor a public dance Oct. 24 at the Bingham Grange Hall. Music will be played by the Harmonaires from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. There'll be round and square dancing.

Association classifies herds for body type

The herds of six Registered Holstein breeders in Clinton County have been classified for body type by the Holstein-Friesian Assn. of America.

The Clinton farmers and the results of the tests are:

GEORGE W. Baird and Sons, DeWitt, one animal "very good," three "good plus" and three "good."

Wesley Erickson, Elsie, 35 animals classified, one very good, 18 good plus and 12 good.

FRANK C. Rivest Jr. of Elsie, four animals very good, 22 good plus and 10 good.

MARK A. Eaton of St. Johns, 29 animals classified, one excellent, two very good, eight good plus and 16 good.

George J. Hazle of St. Johns, three animals classified, one good plus and one good.

Leon Miller of St. Johns, 34 animals classified, three very good, 18 good plus and 12 good.

CLASSIFICATION has been in continuous operation since 1929 as the official type program of the Holstein breed. It measures the physical conformation of individual animals against the theoretical perfection of the True Type cow or bull.

Information made available by the program provides detailed reference material for Holstein breeders in all sections of the country.

Mad cow roams city, busts fences

A Holstein cow broke out of a farm truck going into the Wolverine Stockyards in St. Johns last Friday. The maddened animal was finally shot by its owner after an hour-long rampage on the north and northwest sides of town.

City police, stockyards personnel and farmers joined the chase in an attempt to corral the 1,200-pound cow. It broke out of the truck about 3 p.m.

THE COW was first sighted by city police in the Lansing-Walker Street area. It then came back toward the business district, swung north across the tracks and into the section of town north of Perrin-Palmer School at about the time school was getting out.

The maddened cow jumped over and crashed through fences, knocked over trash cans and ran through back yards. It was reportedly roped at one time, but it charged at several persons in the group chasing it, and they were never able to contain it.

THREE PISTOL shots into the cow's head failed to bring it down, and it was finally slain with a deer rifle on Vauconsant Street.

POLICE CHIEF Everett Glazier warned residents that animals that are seen running loose like the cow was Friday should be avoided, because they are dangerous when they are mad.

He said some residents refused his orders Friday to get off the street and keep away from the cow. Some even allowed their children outside. Some children gave chase to the cow despite constant efforts by police to keep them away.

IN ONE instance, Glazier said, the cow charged a small group of children. He said Jim Prince, a partner and president of the Wolverine Stockyards, saw it and drove his car between the cow and the children. The cow bumped the car.

Parents should warn their children to keep away from any area where an animal is loose, Glazier said, because they can be just as dangerous when they are mad as any ferocious bull.

Commission News Notes

The St. Johns sewage plant digester has been repaired and is back in service. The principal problem found was that bracing holding the piping in the digester was "very poorly constructed and improperly welded," according to the city manager. The bracing had let loose, allowing the piping to drop down so that proper digestion wasn't taking place.

Certain accounts receivable carried on the city books were wiped off last week to clear book-keeping audit problems. In reviewing the accounts with the auditors, there appeared to be little chance of collecting the old miscellaneous accounts. These are not taxes or water bills, the city manager pointed out.

Eighty per cent of water main construction is completed, the city manager reported. This does not include tying in of individual lines to the mains.

City Recreation Director Roger Kowalski was given a $500 annual raise, retroactive to July 1.

Wolverine Stockyards officials, in a communication, expressed their appreciation for the job city police and state law officers had done in keeping peace at the stockyards during the NFO picketing.

The painters are expected to be off the new water tower by the end of this week after painting the inside and putting two coats of silver blue paint on the outside.

Jason School

The children say they are happy to have Mrs. Gerald Pope for their music teacher this year.

They sang "happy birthday" to Susan Streeter who was eleven years old Sept. 28. This week Eddie Wood is celebrating his birthday. Eddie will be 14 years old Oct. 7.

Luanne Hopp visited Jason School one day last week.

THE BOYS and girls are sorry that Ronny Whitefield is moving from the district. He expects to start school in DeWitt this week.

There was no school on Thursday or Friday last week because of the MEA convention in Lansing.

Plan automotive 4-H enrollment

A 4-H automotive project, an advanced course that will include engine work, is being set up for anyone in the county aged 14 to 19 anyone in the county ages 14 to 19 inclusive.

MR AND MRS E. J. Bottum are organizational leaders of the Prairie 4-H Club.

An enrollment meeting will be held Tuesday night, Oct. 20, at 8 p.m. in Smith Hall at the park in St. Johns.

The course, a new project of the Prairie 4-H Club, will be open to anyone in the county. Bernard Feldpausch, manager of Pohl Brothers Chevrolet-Olds in St. Johns, will be the instructor.

FELDPAUSCH said the project will be an advanced course, starting with the basics and going as far as those in the course want to go.

The 4-H students will study and work on engines. Other facets of automotive work will be included, as well as information on safe-driving.

CLASSES will be held twice monthly on Saturday nights at a place to be announced. Those who desire to take the course do not have to be 4-H members now.

Feldpausch has had considerable experience in the automotive field in preparation for teaching the course. He has been at Pohl Brothers for 20 years. He got his start in his own small shop of the farm, got additional training while in the military service and also studied it on his own.

HE ASKED that anyone interested sign up. He said it makes no difference whether they have had any experience. "All I ask is that they have the desire," he said.

General Motors Corp. will supply salvage material for the "St. Johns" will be spelled out in six-foot-tall letters on two sides of the tower. The 500,000-gallon tower should be filled and in use by Nov. 1. A 16-inch main from Elm Street to the tower was to be in by this week. Well houses on the two new wells are nearly complete, and the wells will be tested soon.

School bonds sold at 3.59

DEWITT — Building and site bonds for funds to finance a new school building in DeWitt, were sold to Goodbody and Company at an interest rate of 3.59. This rate is lower than that on the bonds now outstanding.

Bids were received from four investment syndicates from Detroit and one from Chicago.

RICHARD Snyder of Warren Holmes, Associates, architects, presented building plans on which recommended changes had been made.

He said that borings that have been taken indicate that formations are suitable for the building site plans.

PERCOLATION tests, however, did not indicate that the soil is suitable for septic tank drainage. He proposed that the board of education of DeWitt Public Schools and the village council consider the possibility of having the village sewer system and treatment plant serve the new school building.

He said that final plans would be ready for the letting of construction bids Nov. 11.

Small group attends DeWitt Grange meet

DEWITT — DeWitt Grange met October 9 at the Memorial Building with a small attendance.

Pictures taken of the ox-roast parade this year and for several previous years were shown and compared.

As the Memorial Building has been engaged, there will be no regular meeting on October 23. The next regular meeting will be Friday, Nov. 13.

The DeWitt Boy Scouts will sponsor a paper drive on Saturday, Oct. 17, between the hours of 9 and 11. Residents are asked to have papers and magazines bundled and on the porch.

The DeWitt Job's Daughters are holding a Parents Night on Thursday, Oct. 15, at 7 p.m. Mr and Mrs Avery Mershon left Sunday to spend two weeks at Kensington, Md. with their daughter, Mrs Alice Moskowitz and two daughters.

Mr and Mrs Howard Roberts left this week for Greenville, S.C. where they will visit their son, Don, a student at Bob Jones University.

Mrs Charles Shimmin, Mrs Carl Smith and Mrs Leo Hanson are spending this week in Grand Rapids attending Grand Chapter of Eastern Star.

Mr and Mrs Avery Lee are spending a few days with their daughter, Mrs Ronald Keel in Philadelphia, Pa.

Open installation of officers of DeWitt OES will be held Saturday, Oct. 17, at 8 p.m.

OK new rules for building use

New rules and rental regulations for use of the municipal building in St. Johns were adopted by the city commission last Tuesday night after considerable discussion.

The tentative set of rules was drawn up by Commissioner Ray Kentfield Jr. and City Manager Ken Greer. There was some debate over rental prices, but most of the discussion concerned the length of time the auditorium could be tied up by any one group.

WHEN IT was all over, the commission voted to adopt the rules as originally presented by the two-man committee. Vice-Mayor Rex Sirrine, presiding in the absence of Mayor Jack Smit, called the rules a definite "improvement over the present situation."

Among other details, the regulations include these points:

WEDDING parties, reunions and private family or group gatherings, industrial, business or professional firms holding conferences or meetings, etc., will pay a $15 fee.

St. Johns charitable or civic groups using the hall for recreational or educational purposes, open to the public and charging no admission, will pay no rent. The same groups, including teenagers sponsoring dances, charging admission or restricting attendance to their own membership will pay $5 for teens and $10 for adults.

ST. JOHNS charitable or civic groups holding meetings, dinners, public exhibitions, conferences and other similar functions will pay no rent for the hall, but a $10 fee will be charged if the kitchen is used.

Similar rural groups will be encouraged to use other facilities in the county, but the municipal building will be available under the same conditions but with an additional $5 fee over local groups.

RESERVATIONS for the hall will be accepted by the city clerk no more than six months in advance of the use of the hall. Application blanks will be provided. No blanket reservations covering separate occasions over a period of more than three months will be accepted.

Most of the commission's discussion concerned this last point. Commissioner Gerald Irer said it would be unfair to groups that use the building regularly, because their regular nights could be interrupted if someone else applied for the building's use.

OTHERS ON the commission argued no group has the right to tie up the building on any night for a long period of time.

The commission finally ruled that new applications for rentals would apply for the three-month period. Reservations already made would stand, regardless of the time period involved.

APPLICATIONS for reservation of the hall will have to be signed by a responsible adult, signifying acceptance of responsibility for any damage caused to the hall.

Job's Daughters projects bring cheer to others

OVID—Ovid business firms and organizations have agreed to cooperate in the Gene Moore project to be sponsored by Job's Daughters Wednesday, Oct. 14 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. when a house-to-house drive will be made in the village. Cannisters have been placed in several of the stores. The fund will be for the aid of Gene Moore who has been ill for some time.

Plans were made for the project at the last meeting of Job's Daughters attended by 25 persons.

NINE members and Honored Queen Sarah Lott visited the Bethel's "Grandma Cole" at the Masonic Home Annex at Alma and presented her with birthday gifts and cards. They were accompanied by Mrs Harold Gardner, guardian, Mr and Mrs Arley Lott, Richard Allen and Mrs Richardson.

A Bible ceremony will be held Oct. 18 at the Alma Masonic Home. Two members of the Ovid Bethel will participate. A contribution was approved for the home.

A COUNCIL meeting will be held Oct. 19 at the Robert Kridner home in Elsie. The next meeting will be a school of instruction conducted by Mrs Myrtle Oles, grand guide.

Because of their absence at the installation ceremony, the following officers were installed by Honored Queen Sarah Lott: Katherine Hallead, director of epochs; Mickey Richardson, director of awards; Richard Richardson, director of fraternal relationship for Laingsburg.

Mr and Mrs George Storey have moved from West Simpson Road to the Lawrence Kadolph home on Fitch Street which they recently purchased.

Mrs Juanita Kadlek, RN, is in Toronto, Canada, this week representing the Owosso Memorial Hospital nursing staff at the National Convention of Doctors and Nurses.

Miss Mary Myers has returned to Detroit, after spending a few days with Amy and Jennie Hudson.

Luncheon guests presented with gifts from abroad

OVID—Mrs John Owen entertained the office personnel of the Vaughan's Seed Company, at a luncheon at the Owosso City Club on Friday. The table centerpiece was fashioned with red and yellow chrysanthemums and yellow snapdragons.

Places for the guests were marked with place cards and gifts which Mrs Owen had obtained in France and Italy.

The girls surprised Mrs Owen with a beautiful yellow and bronze chrysanthemum corsage which she planned to a spice brown pleated jacket dress.

Soldier finishes machinist course

OVID—Pvt. Joseph C. Jordan Jr. has completed an 11-week machinist course under the Reserve Enlistment program at the Army Ordnance Center and School at Aberdeen Proving Ground.

He was trained to manufacture, repair and modify parts for tanks, trucks, weapons and other combat equipment.

Jordan is a 1960 graduate of Ovid High School. His parents are Mr and Mrs Joseph Jordan Sr. of North Hollister Road.

Mrs J. W. Bates, Mary Alice and Mrs J. W. Kelder of Ypsilanti have returned home from a color tour in the upper peninsula and Wawa, Ontario, Canada. On their return, they visited friends at Petoskey.

Steve Magsig and Russell Mikesell are in Owosso Memorial Hospital as a result of injuries received in an automobile accident Monday while en route to classes at Lansing Community College.

Sidney Wittenberg and Dan Thurston are enrolled at Hallmark Business Institute, Detroit, where they attend classes two days a week.

Eugene Moore returned to his home from Owosso Memorial Hospital this week.

Mrs Austin Ridsdale is in Owosso Memorial Hospital suffering injuries received in an automobile accident on Monday.
