10 CENTS

St. Johns firemen and neighbors stand by before pushing down the walls of the burned out Marshall School just off US-27 in Greenbush Township. The school burned Saturday morning with the loss estimated by firemen at $5,000. Cause of the fire was believed to be defective wiring.

St. Johns may take 14 after fire

Fourteen rural youngsters who Friday were attending Marshall School probably will be in the St. Johns system by the end of the week, the result of a fire which destroyed the school Saturday morning.

Bishop Emrich to install St. John's Episcopal rector

The Rev. Hugh Bannings will be officially installed as the new rector of St. John's Episcopal Church here at evening prayer services on Wednesday, Dec. 2, at 7:30 p.m.

Taking part in the installation will be the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich of Detroit, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan.

A 6 p.m. parish potluck dinner will precede the services. Local ministers of all denominations and Episcopal clergymen from this area will be invited to the dinner and installation.

just off US-27 was discovered burning shortly before 7:30 a.m. Saturday. St. Johns firemen answered the alarm and were on the scene for nearly four hours. Only the walls were left standing, and they were pushed in for safety's sake.

LOSS WAS estimated by firemen at $5,000. Marshall School directors were compiling information on the loss for insurance purposes, but they had set no figure yet Tuesday.

Fourteen children in grades kindergarten through eight attended school in the one-room building, which was estimated at over 100 years old.

MRS ERNEST Huss, wife of the school board president, said the St. Johns Schools has offered to take the 14 students and could probably do so by the end of this week.

But Huss and Director John Decker were both away for at least a week, leaving only Mrs

Dick Kentfield, a new board member, in the area.

SHE ASKED that patrons of the district make the decision on where to send the children, and a special meeting of those persons — about 36 in all — was to be held Tuesday night at Mrs Kentfield's home.

The feeling was that the St. Johns offer would be accepted. The Marshall district was one of over 30 which have been asked to annex to St. Johns before next July or else to send their high school students to another high school district.

FAULTY WIRING HAS been tentatively blamed for the fire, which reportedly started near a water heater in the southeast corner of the building. Flames spread rapidly through the interior of the school.

The school is located about a quarter-mile west of US-27 on Marshall Road.

MRS MILDRED Penner of Pompeii was teacher for the 14 students. They were listed as Bonnie Castell, Chyril Delhi, Julie Kentfield, John, Richard, Sam and Priscilla Decker, Larry and Susan Slagel, Deborah, Jeff and Willy Huss, and Jimmy and Vicki Bailey.

Santa plans first area visit Nov. 28

Santa Claus is coming to town Nov. 28 and every Saturday after that to talk to St. Johns area children and find out what they want for Christmas.

St. Johns Business Unlimited is providing a helicopter for Santa to travel in so he can save his reindeer for the big trip Christmas Eve. The helicopter will set down with Santa on the lawn west of the Grand Trunk Railroad depot in St. Johns at about 5 p.m. Nov. 28.

Santa will talk with children and pass out candy.

Children between the ages of 5 and 10 may also have a chance for free rides in the helicopter earlier that afternoon. St. Johns Business Unlimited is mailing out 7,000 postal cards telling of the Santa Claus arrival, and each card will be numbered.

Cards whose numbers match those displayed in the windows of participating stores in St. Johns will be good for a free helicopter ride ticket from that businessman. Tickets must be picked up by 10 a.m. the 28th, and a parent must accompany the youngster picking up the ticket.

PARENTS MUST also accompany the youngster to the helicopter, which will be based on the field behind the Redwing Bowling Lanes at the north edge of town. Rides will be given from about 1:15 to 4:45 p.m.

The helicopter will be brought to St. Johns by truck and will definitely be able to fly except in the very worst kind of weather.

ON THE following three Saturdays before Christmas, Santa will stop in St. Johns from 3 to 5 p.m. He'll arrive on a float, accompanied by a small band, and he'll make his headquarters at Jim's Insurance building during those hours.

Christmas street light decorations will be turned on Friday, Nov. 27, to provide the proper atmosphere for Santa. No special ceremonies are planned for the lighting.

Cars collide again at US-27, M-21 corner

There was another accident Friday at the corner of US-27 and M-21, but no one was injured. The two cars involved were driven by Richard H. Bushre, 37, of Eureka and Necla Beck, 53, of R-3, St. Johns.

Mrs Beck was going north on US-27; Bushre was going east on State Street (M-21) and making a left turn onto US-27.

Deer hunters off to good start

Clinton deer hunters seem to be having much early success this year.

About 50 deer were reported taken in the first two days of hunting.

The Buggs Brothers Locker in St. Johns alone handled about that many up to Tuesday morning, and William Buggs Sr. said it was a better than average season so far.

THERE ALSO seems to be more deer taken close to home.

The first person to report to the Clinton County News that they had gotten their deer was Dick Wager of 1010 S. Church Street. He got his about 7:50 a.m. Sunday three miles west of St. Johns.

RICK WILSON of 712 N. Oakland also got an eight-point buck about 7:20 a.m. in the Clinton County Conservation Club area. Lavern Argersinger called in shortly after bringing down an eight-point buck about 8:20 a.m. on his father's farm two miles east of US-27 on French Road.

Mrs William Bellingar of 1100 E. Hyde Road was the first woman to report a kill. She got a seven-pointer on the Bellingar farm in Greenbush Township.

OTHERS WHO reported with details were: David Mohnke of R-4, St. Johns, who got an eight-point buck about 9 a.m. Sunday in Riley Township; Jack Brown of St. Johns, who got a seven-point, 150-pound deer at Roscommon; and Dennis Sykora, 18, of R-1, St. Johns, who got a six-point, 160-point buck at Marion.

The biggest deer reported so far is a 181-pounder shot by Ray Peck. Harold Scott got one that weighed 177 pounds.

OTHER HUNTERS from the St. Johns area who reported deer kills are:

IPP pay-off slated for 319 at Federal-Mogul

A group of 319 employees at the St. Johns plant of Federal-Mogul Division are eligible next month to draw a total of $115,503 in annual benefits provided by the company's Income Protection Plan.

Announcement of the amount of accumulated excess IPP funds was made this week by Kermit Hart, manager of the St. Johns plant.

Employees who intend to draw on their individual deposit accounts are asked to give notice to the bank depository, through the company personnel office, no later than next Wednesday, Nov. 25, Hart said.

A TOTAL of $351,965.36 was on deposit Nov. 1 to employees' IPP accounts. The company presently contributes 7 cents per hour worked for each employee eligible to participate under the terms of the Income Protection Plan which has been in effect since 1955.

The 319 employees who may participate in December withdrawals are those who have accumulated in excess of $600 in their deposit accounts. They are eligible to draw payments ranging from as little as $26 to as much as $878. The average is $362.

Funds deposited for employees under IPP draw interest at maximum commercial bank rates.

FEDERAL - MOGUL'S Income Protection Plan is designed to cushion for employees the loss of income from unemployment due to layoff. It is not until an employee has accumulated $600, including interest, in his IPP account that he may withdraw excess amounts in December each year.

The stability of employment at Federal-Mogul here in recent years has contributed to the present surplus accumulation.

THE IPP employee savings accounts are on deposit in the bank under the name of each individual. In the event of layoff, employees may draw specified weekly amounts to supplement state unemployment payments.

EMPLOYEES may also withdraw the amount credited to their account, including interest, if employment is terminated for any reason; or at the time of normal, early or permanent and total disability retirement.

In the event of an employee's death, the deposited money is paid to the designated beneficiary.

Those eligible to participate in the Income Protection Plan are hourly rated employees who have completed 12 full calendar weeks of work for Federal-Mogul. Temporary and part-time employees are not included. Presently participating in IPP at Federal-Mogul are 434 hourly rated people.

Ovid-Elsie board names architect

OVID — The Ovid-Elsie Board of Education has selected the firm of VanderMeiden and Koteles, architects, for the proposed building program for the district.

The architects selected have their office in Grand Haven. They have built high schools at Muskegon, Hart, Caledonia, Hudsonville and are now building new high schools at Howell and Pickney.

AMONG THEIR elementary buildings are those in Grand Haven, Hesperia, Fremont and New Era. They have built junior high school buildings at Grand Haven, Zeeland and Fremont.

The first problem facing the architects will be helping the board of education in selecting a site for a new Ovid-Elsie school. This will be done in the very near future.

OVID - ELSIE Supt. Robert Beauchamp said the new school board has several sites in mind, and test borings have been made. But the board delayed making a decision until architects were hired.

Beauchamp said board members spent many hours traveling around the state and looking at work done by many of the 35 architects who bid for the Ovid-Elsie school job. The final decision was made at a meeting of the board Monday afternoon.

AFTER selection of the school site will come a bond issue election to provide money for the construction of the new school. No date has been set for the voting.

Voters in the Ovid and Elsie school districts approved a merger of the two in an election May 25. The district now includes some 2,351 students in grades and high schools, making it the largest district in Clinton County at the present time.

THE district encompasses 175 square miles in 12 townships and four counties. The district is continuing to operate 17 one-room schools until the building program can be completed.

The high schools are continuing to operate as two separate units, although both are governed by a single board of education.

tion. Beauchamp pointed out the football records of the two schools this year sums up to 17 wins and only one loss. That was by Ovid to Elsie.

This is the St. Johns police car which Officer Lyle French was driving when it collided with a fire truck Sunday night in St. Johns. The truck caved in the grill and radiator of the car. Officer James Stiffler, left, who witnessed the crash; directs traffic around the damaged car.

Police car, fire truck in collision

Police Officer Lyle French was injured late Sunday night in the crash of his police car and a fire truck on the way to a car fire.

French reportedly suffered painful back injuries. He was reported in "fair" condition Tuesday afternoon at St. Lawrence Hospital in Lansing.

The accident occurred about 12:05 a.m. Monday at the corner of Spring Street and M-21 in St. Johns. French was taken to Clinton Memorial Hospital and transferred to Lansing later Monday morning.

The policeman was traveling west on State Street (M-21) when his car struck the fire truck driven by Carl Geller of 605 W. Park Street. Geller was not hurt, nor were Al Northouse of 608 W. Walker and Richard Cornwell of 300 E. Higham, firemen riding on the truck.

POLICE OFFICER James Stiffler, who witnessed the accident, said the fire truck stopped at the corner of Spring and State, started forward and then stopped again. The front end of the truck was stopped in the westbound lane and French's car slid into it.

The left front fender, bumper and water pump of the fire truck were damaged. The front end of the police car was pushed in by the collision.

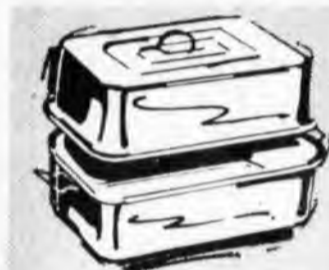

FRENCH returned to the St. Johns police force in July after recovering from a back operation.

The car fire was of a minor nature. The alarm was answered by the city's new fire truck at the Wheel Inn on South US-27.

United Church Women hear Sylvia Aldrich

"Peace in a World Community of Nations" was the theme for the recent observance of World Community Day, a special event held once a year by the United Church Women of the Council of Churches all over the world.

Seventy-five women registered for the meeting Nov. 6 at St. John's Episcopal Church in St. Johns.

AT THE worship service, Miss Sylvia Aldrich of Hadley, spoke on "Peace Among Nations." She served 28 years in China and eight years in Africa as a Methodist missionary, and although now retired, she is still keenly interested in missions.

"Peace must begin with men," she said, "and each must have length, breadth and height for their lives. We cannot attain world peace until the world community becomes a redemptive society."

SHE LIKENED the 53 new nations of the world today to babes, kicking and crying for help, and teenagers rebellious to rules and order, needing guidance, education, understand and Christ.

"Before we can effectively help others, we at home must rid ourselves of selfishness, greed, waste of food, money and talents," Miss Aldrich said.

The food wasted in one meal in the United States would feed her former class of students in Africa one year, she said.

SHE WARNED that "Our Nation will suffer because we surround ourselves and our children with too many unnecessary things. Our young people need something to challenge them instead of their cry of give me, give me, give me," she said.

"And we must treat the underprivileged of the world as people before we can achieve peace."

THE EPISCOPAL ladies served tea from 1:30 to 2 p.m. preceding the worship service. Mrs. Claude Roat and Mrs. Florence Dexter poured. Dainty cookies, tea and coffee were served from a table decorated in a Thanksgiving motif.

The ladies were seated in the sanctuary by Mrs. Lloyd Ford and Mrs. E. G. Stockwell of Greenbush Church and Mrs. Conrad Tyson and Mrs. Albert Frucht of the St. Johns Congregational Church.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT Mrs. Frank Swagart spoke briefly, and the organ prelude was played by Mrs. James Williams. Scripture was read by Mrs. Lorenzo Churches, Mrs. Lyle Hallead and Mrs. Clyde Pearson of Bingham EUB Church and Mrs. Ione Anderson, Mrs. Anita Smith and Mrs. Carl Shinabery of Lowe Methodist Church.

The Rev. Hugh Banning, rector of the Episcopal Church, gave the invocation, received and dedicated the offering and gifts and gave the benediction. Ladies from the member churches of the county formed the choir.

THE COUNCIL'S project this year included children's clothing, layettes, yard goods and school kits. The women made 28 school outfits, 14 layettes, 31 school kits and gave 21 pieces of yard goods. Some $51 was given in the offering.

The gifts will be distributed by representatives of Church World Service in Africa and Brazil.

Mrs. K. L. Jones reviews plays of Shakespeare

The St. Johns Morning Musicales met Thursday, Nov. 12, at the home of Mrs. Robert Rice, 3072 West Townsend Road.

Following a short meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Fred Lewis, Mrs. Rice introduced the program theme of the day, "Cupid and Helms," an outgrowth of the theme of the year, "Music Salutes Shakespeare."

After explanatory remarks regarding the music of the last four hundred years, composed as a result of Shakespeare's genius, Mrs. Rice presented Mrs. K. L. Jones, who reviewed eight of his plays. The first four, based on the period of mythology and antiquity were: "Troilus and Cressida," "Comedy of Errors," "Pericles," and "Timon of Athens."

THE SECOND group of four plays, all tragedies, were classified by Mrs. Jones as Roman historical works. They were "Coriolanus," "Titus Andronicus," "Julius Caesar," and "Antony and Cleopatra."

She covered the plots of each, interspersing her remarks with Latin phrases and commenting on Shakespeare's understanding of the human psyche with its potential for good and evil.

The club members heard Gallucci's voice in an early recording of "Lo here the Gentle Lark," from "Venus and Adonis," a Rogers and Hart record, "Falling in Love with Love," and "This Can't be Love" from "The Boys from Syracuse."

The Musicales will meet, Nov. 19 at Mrs. Jones' home, 1448 French Road.

Area professor says teenagers want guidance

Wednesday, Nov. 9 was "back to school night" for the parents of St. Joseph's Home School Council.

Before the meeting the parents attended classes just as their children do in order to learn the teaching methods of today.

At 8 p.m. the meeting was opened with a prayer, led by Father Schoettle. A report on the recent carnival was given.

PRESIDENT Ronald Motz introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Brennan, professor of police administration at Michigan State University and director of marriage counseling in the Lansing area.

His topic was, "Observation on the responsibilities of teenage-parent relationships."

He said, the four things that make a house a home for teenagers are love, affection, security, and discipline. Today most parents are willing to go along with what their neighbors let their children do whether right or wrong, he said, and all teenagers want their parents to tell them what is right and wrong even though they may resist correction at times.

OTHER FACTORS that influence the character of teenagers are a decent community and a proper education, Brennan said.

It was announced by the faculty of St. Joseph's that classes about understanding modern math will be held on Tuesday evenings, starting Nov. 17 for parents.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

3-car collision bruises pair

Two persons suffered bruises in a three-car crash Saturday morning on US-27 in front of the Clark service station at the south edge of St. Johns.

Injured were Mrs Norma Watson, 50, and Bonnie Watson, 21, of Lansing. They were passengers in a car driven by Clayton O. Watson, 49, of Lansing.

ACCORDING TO Police Officer Robert Ott, all three cars were in the passing lane going north. Watson slowed to make a left turn and the second car, driven by Orson D. Taylor, also slowed. The third car, driven by Edward R. Field, 55, of Jackson, hit Taylor's car, forcing it into Watson's.

Field was ticketed for failure to have his car under control.

Fowler woman wins contest

Mrs Glenda Brown of Fowler won a mixed-up football contest last week when she missed only one of 17 eligible games listed.

Type lice got into the contest editor's schedule of games last week, and as a result the Ovid-Fowler game was listed twice, and Ashley was listed as playing Morrice (they played New Lothrop because of a change in the original schedule).

ONE OVID-FOWLER game was counted, but the other three games were ruled no contest, and the judging was done on the basis of 17 games.

Mrs Brown's wrong choice among those 17 games was in the Oregon-Indiana game. She picked Indiana, and Oregon won.

SHE WAS the only one to miss just one game; about four persons missed only two choices. This week's contest, double-checked for accuracy, is on Page 10-C.

Road Commission Weekly Report

The weather made news last week as high winds littered the road with trees and limbs. Our crews worked into Thursday night and routine maintenance was practically suspended Friday as they continued to remove the litter.

We owe thanks to a lot of people who helped us from those who moved limbs by hand to those who used their tractors in an effort to clean roads before nightfall. We are grateful for this assistance and to Bath Township, which had a crew with a wrecker working on the problem.

LES DRAGOO, county road engineer, was visiting his son in Washington, D.C. last week. Les is back on the job but Fred Crowell, construction superintendent, is still on vacation this week. We were short-handed the first of this week as one-third of our crew had vacation for deer hunting. Many of the hunters are back, and operations are nearly normal.

St. Johns, Elsie complete season undefeated

Wings ranked 5th; Gabriels victim

The St. Johns Redwings put on their biggest scoring display of the year Saturday night in snowing under defenseless Gabriels 55-12 in the finale of the season.

The win marked the completion of a perfect season for Coach Bill Smiley's Redwings. They posted a 9-0 record, the first undefeated season since 1951, and they brought home the West Central Conference title.

THE WINGS rolled up an awesome 564 yards rushing and passing, and they scored seven of the eight times they had the ball. Most of the yardage came on the ground, with St. Johns gaining 487 yards on 40 carries, an average of over 12 yards per carry.

Fullback John Vitek, playing his last game for the Redwings, had his best night of the season, picking up 177 net yards in eight carries for a 22.12 yards-per-carry average. Most of the yardage came up the middle through wide holes torn in the Gabriels line by St. Johns center linemen.

BILL SIRRINE, Gary Crawley and Dave DeGeer all averaged 10 yards per carry in picking up 40, 30 and 60 yards respectively. Doug Salters made the longest scoring run of the game with a 38-yard shot for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

St. Johns wasted little time in dominating the game. Gabriels took the opening kickoff, but they were soon forced to kick, and St. Johns started the attack from their own 35-yard line. Six plays later Lee Hill ran over the left tackle position for 13 yards and a touchdown. A Rademacher to Crawley pass accounted for 42 yards in the drive. Dave DeGeer's kick for the extra point was blocked.

FOUR PLAYS later, St. Johns had the ball again after a Gabriels punt. John Vitek found a nice hole on his 38-yard line and romped to the Gabriels 19. John Sickles went to the 14, Sitrine carried to the five, and Rademacher hit Bob Krumm in the end zone. A penalty nullified that TD, however, but Rademacher came back on the next play and connected with Sitrine on a 10-yard pass for a touchdown. DeGeer's kick this time was good.

A fumble interrupted the Wings' scoring on the next series of plays, but before the half was over, another touchdown was on the board. John Sickles got it with a two-yard run that climaxed a 70-yard drive in nine plays. Rademacher had 23- and 9 yard quarterback sneaks en route, and Sitrine picked up 13 yards on one run. Dave Hamer kicked the extra point after the touchdown.

GABRIELS THEN scored their first touchdown, moving 67 yards and scoring with only six seconds left in the half. Fred Szeklak tallied from the one-foot line after one try had failed. The half ended with a 20-6 score.

St. Johns halfback Lee Hill (22) is just three big strides away from the goal line (left) on his way to scoring the first of eight St. Johns touchdowns against Gabriels Saturday night. Hill's run was 13 yards around left end. Identifiable St. Johns players besides Hill are Bob Krumm (83) and Gene Rademacher (10).

St. Johns took just over two minutes to score in the third quarter. Lee Hill took the kickoff to the St. Johns 38, Rademacher carried to the 48, and Vitek went through a big hole to the Gabriels 26. Hill took it to the 19, and Vitek went up the middle again for 19 yards and a touchdown. Hamer's kick was good.

THE TOUCHDOWN parade continued on the next series of plays. Lee Hill picked up 16 yards on the first play, Vitek ran up the middle for 21 yards to the Gabriels 22, Sitrine carried to the 12, and Crawley went over left tackle for 12 yards and a touchdown. Hamer's kick was wide.

Gabriels then marched toward the St. Johns end zone in earnest. But Lee Hill intercepted a fourth-down pass in the end zone and carried it out to the 5, and St. Johns was on the way again.

CRAWLEY, Dave DeGeer and Vitek had long runs to bring the ball to the Gabriels 20. Then Vitek went to the 5, and Sitrine dashed into the end zone. Sophomore Gary Boyce converted, and St. Johns led 40-6.

A blocked punt set up the Wings' next touchdown. St. Johns took over on the Gabriels 38, and then Doug Salters shot up the middle, bounced off and ran over three would-be tacklers and went into the end zone. Boyce kicked the extra point.

A PASS from halfback Dave Fellows to quarterback Tom Jakovac set up Gabriels' last touchdown. It went for 44 yards to the St. Johns nine, and two plays later Fellows circled the right end for a touchdown. The try for the extra point failed.

DeGeer was the workhorse on the last touchdown drive for St. Johns. It started on the St. Johns 36, and DeGeer had runs of 12, eight and 15 yards, moving the ball to the 16. John Sickles carried to the 10, and then on the first play of its kind this year, Sickles took the ball from quarterback Gary Becker, stepped back and threw a pass back to Becker on the five, and he bulldozed his way in for a touchdown. The extra point was no good when a pass was broken up by a fake-kick play.

AL WERBISH'S booming kick-off put Gabriels back on the 10-yard line, and after an off-side penalty set Gabriels back to the five, St. Johns got their last two points of the game.

Four St. Johns tacklers zeroed in on quarterback Jakovac in the end zone. He got rid of the ball, but the referee ruled he intentionally grounded it, and he awarded a safety to St. Johns. That made the score 55-12, and that's how it wound up.

JUNIOR TACKLE Ted Rahl suffered a head injury on the

With his first pass Saturday night, St. Johns quarterback Gene Rademacher went over the 1,000 yard mark in passing for a single season, a record attained by few high school players. For the season, Rademacher, a junior, completed 62 of 97 passes for 1,064 yards, 11 touchdowns and one extra point. He had a .639 passing average for the year. He also ran 58 times for 246 yards, scoring one touchdown and one extra point.

third play of the game, and he didn't see action the rest of the night. The injury was not permanently serious.

Quarterback Gene Rademacher passed the enviable 1,000-yard mark when he hit Crawley for 42 yards on the third play of the game. He completed four of eight passes for 68 yards during the game, and ended the season with 1,064 yards gained in passing in a single season. He's a junior.

John Vitek (42), lying just in front of the referee, scored touchdown No. 4 for St. Johns in the third quarter with a 19-yard run before being dragged down by a tackler in the end zone. Other St. Johns players are Gary Becker (12), Ken Love (53), Jim Pope (65), Bob Krumm (83), Al Werbish (84), Lee Hill (22), John Sickles (40), Jim Leonard (81), and Dave DeGeer (32).

No. 3 Big Reds edge Corunna

ELSIE—The Elsie Big Reds were held to their lowest scoring output of the year Friday night, but they managed to edge a strong Corunna team 12-7 and finish the season undefeated.

The victory over the Mid-Michigan B conference team was not enough to keep Elsie ranked as the No. 1 C-D team in the state. They've held that title the last three weeks of the season. But in the final Associated Press ratings, they fell to third place.

CORUNNA proved to be almost too much for Elsie. The visitors led 7-6 through most of the game until Ross Carter scored on a 23-yard pass from Tom Ebert in the last quarter.

Elsie had scored first, on the first series of plays. Jim Horak got the touchdown with a 13-yard run around end to cap a 57-yard drive. Horak was stopped on the try for the extra point.

THAT APPEARED to be a big point when Corunna scored in the second quarter and kicked the extra point. Tom Butcher got the touchdown on a one-yard run to close a 68-yard drive. Jim Graves booted the point after touchdown.

Corunna outgained Elsie on the ground 180 to 170 yards, and picked up 14 first downs to Elsie's eight. Most of the Corunna offensive show came in the first half when they gained 131 yards.

ELSIE'S defense, led by R. J. Jones, Tom Micka, Mike Cole and Joe Guysky, shut them off in the second half, allowing only 41 yards in the third quarter and 8 in the last period. Corunna completed only two of 14 passes.

Elsie this season scored 314 points in their nine victories, while limiting opponents to only 26 points. Only three teams were able to score on the Big Reds—

ELSIE'S strong ground game showed up in statistics, too, as did the defense. Elsie rushed for 2,950 yards during the season, and limited opponents to only 1,150.

Sixteen seniors played their last game for Elsie.

Ovid ends year with 28-7 win

OVID — The Ovid Romans capped an almost perfect season Friday with a football victory over the Fowler Eagles, 28-7.

Steve Leonard, playing his last game for Ovid, paced the Romans with two touchdowns and an extra point. Bob Gazda scored the other two touchdowns, and Frank Gazda added three extra points.

OVID finished the season with an 8-1 record, their only loss being to Elsie. Ovid finished second behind Elsie in the Central Michigan C conference.

Leonard's 13 points gave him 76 points for the season. He carried the ball 11 times against Fowler and ran up a total of 137 yards rushing. He's gained over 800 yards during the season. On defense, Leonard contributed 14 unassisted tackles.

LEONARD opened the scoring with a one-yard run in the first quarter, and then Bob Gazda got his two TDs in the second period. Leonard dashed 61 yards for a touchdown to start the second half.

Jon Thelen finally put Fowler on the scoreboard with a one-yard run in the fourth quarter after the Eagles recovered an Ovid fumble.

Olivet's late TD nips DeWitt

DeWITT—The football game was three minutes too long for the DeWitt Panthers Friday night. Had it been that much shorter, DeWitt would have notched its first victory in a long, cold season.

As it was, Olivet punched over a touchdown in the last three minutes to nip DeWitt 6-2. The Panthers closed out the season without a win and with eight losses and one tie.

DeWITT dominated the game but could not score. Its two points came when senior middle guard Pat Weston blocked an Olivet punt which bounced out of the end zone for a safety.

With three minutes left in the game, Olivet's Bob Davis hit Doug Stevens with a 17-yard touchdown pass and DeWitt's victory was gone.

AGRICULTURE in ACTION

by M. L. Woell

Attitude is a prime cause of accidents. More and more evidence is piling up in support of the philosophy that "as a man thinks, so he drives." Underwriters, safety engineers and researchers are reaching the conclusion that "mental attitude" is a prime accident cause.

According to Mrs Anton Hoort, Ionia housewife who represents the Farm Bureau Women on the Governor's Commission on Safety, many accidents are traceable to the attitudes found in the home. "These have a big effect on traffic safety, especially how children are brought up to respect the property and person of others. Even the fundamental basic beliefs of mankind today affect driving habits."

MRS HOORT'S observations

are reinforced by insurance underwriter James Rathbone, who sees people led into wrong attitudes by some automobile manufacturers.

"It appears that people are urged to buy a big, new and powerful car, and then drive it like they hate it. Wrong attitudes are encouraged by naming the car with such descriptive terms as 'Mustang,' 'Marauder,' 'Baracuda,' 'Fury,' 'Sting Ray,'—to say nothing of putting a 'Tiger in the Tank.' Not that the cars themselves are bad—just the attitude of hostility that surrounds them."

THE APPARENT results of this encouragement to take out the hostility of the driver—on the road and on his fellow motorists—is an unbelievable nationwide death toll. During the first seven months of 1964, we killed 25,630 Americans in traffic accidents. More people between the ages of 5 and 25 years now die from traffic accidents than from any other single cause.

Here in Michigan, the Governor's Safety Commission has completed its report and has endorsed a number of recommendations which farmers support. Among them is the "implied consent" provision to the Driver's Law. This would provide that at the time of getting a driver's license, a motorist gives his "implied consent" that he is willing to take a chemical intoxication test whenever a law officer has reason to request this be done.

Cars spin into field after crash, 2 hurt

Both drivers were injured when their cars collided and went out of control just north of Webb Road on US-27 in DeWitt Township last Wednesday afternoon.

Most seriously hurt was Marvin L. McGrath, 20, of 4944 W. State Street, Lansing, who suffered cuts and bruises in the crash, Mrs. Merrill Kirkbride, 47, of 1011 Walsh Street, Lansing, suffered bruises.

McGRATH WAS released from St. Lawrence Hospital in Lansing Monday, although he was in a wheelchair. Clinton County Sheriff Percy Patterson said McGrath will be served with a ticket for driving on a suspended license.

McGrath was attempting to pass the car driven by Mrs. Kirkbride and hit the rear end of it, causing it to go into a ditch on the west side of the highway and skid sideways into a field.

McGRATH'S CAR, after striking the rear of the other, swerved onto the median and then swung back across the highway and went into the field beyond the Kirkbride car.

Charge pair stole gasoline

Two St. Johns youths were still in jail Monday following their arrest on a charge of stealing gasoline from a tank on the Mark Eaton farm in Bingham Township Sunday.

They were Norman Geller, 18, of 605 W. Park Street, and Robert Rodriguez, 20, of 610 N. Clinton Avenue.

BOTH WERE arraigned before Justice of the Peace Robert Wood Monday. Geller was fined $15 plus $15 costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail, with another 25 days possible if the fine is not paid. Rodriguez drew the same $15 plus $15 fine and one year's probation, with 15 days in jail as the alternative to paying the fine.

Pleads guilty to theft charge

Richard Astran, 26, of 228 S. Howard Street, Lansing, pled guilty in circuit court Monday to a charge of larceny from a building in DeWitt Township.

Astran was picked up by sheriff's officers and charged with taking $140 from the Marathon station on US-27 near State Road. Astran was employed there.

He was bound over to circuit court from Justice of the Peace Gordon Willyoung's court on $1,000 bond last Thursday. Circuit Judge Leo Corkin lowered Astran's bond to $500 Monday after hearing the plea, but Astran was still in jail Monday evening. Sentencing will come later.

2 cars collide south of French

A collision of two cars on US-27 south of French Road resulted in damage only to the cars Saturday, and not to five persons in the vehicles.

The cars were driven by Roy A. Bigford, 29, of Jackson, and Dr. Arthur C. Henthorn, 76, of 4611 N. US-27, St. Johns. Three other persons were riding with Bigford.

ACCORDING TO Deputy Sheriff Hilary Hafner, who investigated, Bigford was traveling south. Henthorn had parked on the shoulder to wait for traffic to clear. When he thought it had, he put on his left turn signal and was making a left turn onto a crossover when Bigford's car hit his.

Lots of excitement as children see Thanksgiving dinners "on the hoof"

Ninety-one Fulton school district kindergarten pupils run excitedly through a field of 13,000 turkeys Thursday on the Shady Nook Farms near Middleton. The gobblers, which will soon grace many Thanksgiving Day tables, were lots of fun for the youngsters, who came from Middleton, Perrinton, Maple Rapids, Oia Corners and Washington Center schools. Harry Bolyard, owner of the turkey farm, is a former school board member. Following the visit to the farm, the children in the days before Thanksgiving will receive follow-up activities in the classroom.

Snow not enough to get extra funds

The average snowfall in Clinton County last year averaged only 30 inches, not enough to qualify the county to share in the snow removal funds distributed by the State Highway Dept.

Averages in surrounding counties read like this: Gratiot 24, Eaton 40, Ionia 33, Montcalm 26, Saginaw 25 and Shiawassee 28. None of those received any state assistance either.

Why buy Series H US Savings Bonds? They are a safe and liquid depository for your funds; pay 3 3/4 per cent interest to maturity; and provide current income through semi-annual interest checks.

Crackdown on bad drivers at record pace

Nearly 40,000 Michigan drivers . . . 15,000 more than in the first eight months of 1963 . . . have been brought in for hearings before driver improvement officials of the secretary of state's department as the "crackdown" against the state's problem drivers continues at a near record pace.

Through October, Secretary of State James M. Hare reports that 39,501 drivers came in for action of various kinds. The figure compares with 28,633 in 1963.

TOTAL actions such as revocations and suspensions during the first 10 months of the year were nearly 8,000 more than 1963 totals, Hare said. Warning letters to problem drivers "might well reach" the 100,000-mark, Hare indicated, with totals through October already near the 75,000-figure.

warded as it will be for those who take title to this magnificent automobile—easily the most exciting Cadillac in history. Its new beauty and luxurious interiors surpass even traditional Cadillac standards. Its many personal options have made it the most desired automobile of all time. And its new handling ease must be experienced to be believed. See and drive this great car soon.

Area Cancer Society donates to research

ELSIE—A delegation of women from Elsie and St. Johns presented a check for $1500 from the Clinton County Chapter of the American Cancer Society to Dr. Jere M. Bauer at the University of Michigan, Kresge Medical Center, Tuesday afternoon.

The amount was pledged on the basis of collections last April and is the 12th year that such a fund has been turned over to the Clinton County Unit Cancer Research Fund at the University of Michigan. One year ago, $1000 was sent to Michigan State University for a research project there.

MISS HAZEL Williams, chairman of the Clinton County Chapter and Mrs. James Postlethwaite, chairman of volunteer service, who have served for the past 15 years and Mrs. William Dohoney, new co-chairman with Miss Williams, all of St. Johns, accompanied the 11 women from Elsie. They are: Mrs. George W. Bennett, Mrs. Sidney J. Keys, Mrs. Woodrow Bashore, Mrs. Lewis Carter, Mrs. Ward Lewis, Mrs. R. C. Parks, Mrs. Henry Allen, Mrs. Asa Stewart, Mrs. Paul Platter, Mrs. Norman Blakely and Mrs. B. M. Woolley.

THE ELSIE ladies are members of the Woman's Literary Club that has directed the Cancer Crusade in the village for the past 18 years, during the month of April.

Upon their arrival at the Kresge Medical Center, they were met by Dr. Bauer, who is associate professor of internal medicine and postgraduate medicine. They were taken to a lecture room where they were told of the work and progress in the cancer research laboratory.

The number of patients cured of cancer, which is the number two killer of Americans, is increasing but little is known about the disease, Bauer said, and it is imperative to continue and expand research programs.

BAUER SAID that the process in biological research is slow as there is no final answer at which to aim. Biological research must be taken step by step and often there are many disappointments to those involved, he said.

Following a coffee break, served by Dr. Bauer's assistants, the Junior class plans complete for EHS play

ELSIE—Final preparations for the junior class play, "The Worm Shall Squirm" are being made. It will be presented Saturday evening, Nov. 21 at the Elsie High School.

The cast is composed of Kay Acre, Dennis Baese, Jerry Bernath, Celeste Buck, Randy Daley, Joe Guysky, R. J. Jones, Jennifer Keys, Nancy Luznak, Ken Sperl, Mary Slagh, Jill Tabor and Barbara Warner.

Nancy Walter and Susan Crell will be in charge of the programs. Jane Cerny and Pauline Ladiski will be usherettes and Dennis Herron and Bill Streeter, ushers. Ron Stambersky and Terrie Randolph are student directors. Assisting in arrangements are class sponsors, Mr and Mrs Rodney Tulloch.

Dr and Mrs G. W. Bennett spent the weekend at Western Michigan University with their daughter, Linda, who is a sophomore. They attended the football game with Ohio State University and went to church Sunday morning with their daughter. Open house honoring the dads was held at the Smith-Burnham Dormitory as a closing event for Dad's Weekend.

ladies were conducted on a tour of his laboratory and the Lloyd Radiation Therapy Center.

In the laboratory, Dr. Bauer pointed out various equipment and instruments which the Clinton County Cancer Fund helped make available during the past few years.

Among them were a microscope through which growing cancer cells can be observed, delicate instruments sensitive to small weights, and automatic washing and sterilizing equipment for laboratory utensils and dishes.

DR BAUER showed one of the white rats used for experimental cancer research. It was infected with a tumor, which was being studied by Dr. Bauer in an effort to find an explanation for the wasting of the body that occurs in the advanced stages of cancer.

The Elsie Woman's Literary Club supervises one of the Cancer Loan Closets in the area. Its hospital beds, wheel chair, walker and adjustable crutches, may be used in homes where such equipment is needed.

Miss Williams had 400 workers that conduct the Cancer Crusade and another 100 women organized to cut and make dressings for cancer patients in the county. Among those making the dressings are Elsie area extension clubs and the Methodist WSCS.

Fifty per cent of the money collected each year is returned to Clinton County for education, service and research. Thirty per cent is used by the American Cancer Society for research and the other 20 per cent is divided equally between the state and national offices.

Open house held at Elsie High for the parents

ELSIE — Elsie High School joined other schools throughout the nation in the 44th annual observance of American Education Week by holding open house for parents and other citizens, Monday evening, Nov. 9.

"Education Pays Dividends" is the nationwide theme of this year's observance and it was evidenced in the local classrooms with displays, posters, demonstrations by students and visual aids.

There was an opportunity to meet the teachers and visit the various classrooms. Bells were rung at 15 minute intervals to signal the time passing so other rooms could be visited.

THE PERIOD spent with the teacher was for all to become better acquainted socially.

Members of the Future Teachers Club served as guides to assist in locating the numerous classrooms and departments.

The cafeteria was open for a coffee hour with the eighth grade mothers. Mrs. Raymond Thornton and Mrs. Alpha Grubaugh were in charge.

Open house at the Knight Elementary School was held the previous Monday evening, so parents of both age groups were able to attend.

Seek old photos of Free Fair

In making preparations for special golden anniversary attractions at the 1965 Ionia Free Fair, photographs taken at earlier fairs are needed, according to C. L. Teachworth secretary-manager.

The fair association has a picture history dating back to its beginning in 1915, but additional photos are being sought to round out a historical exhibit.

THESE OLD pictures might show Ionia Free Fair activities and midway scenes, or be of family outings at the fair. Early movie films of the fair are also needed, Teachworth said.

Persons having old photos are asked to contact the Ionia Free Fair office at 304 1/2 W. Main Street, Ionia. Copies of the photos can be made by the fair and the originals returned to the owners, if desired.

THE 1965 FAIR is scheduled for Aug. 9-15.

Waldrons near 68th wedding anniversary

ELSIE—Mr and Mrs Cassius B. Waldron are approaching their 68th wedding anniversary Nov. 25 in the Rivard Nursing Home.

Mr Waldron was taken to the Clinton Memorial Hospital a few weeks ago for treatment and later transferred to Rivard's where he was joined by his wife, who had been bedridden for two years.

They are able to be together often in the family room, for meals and in visits with old friends and neighbors. Mrs. Waldron is now able to move about in a wheel chair.

MR WALDRON was 90-years old Wednesday, Nov. 11. Mrs. Clifford Geiger and Mrs. Raymond Buck, representing their Elsie neighbors, arrived with a birthday cake and ice cream for the Waldrons and their Rivard friends. Mrs. Waldron was 87-years-old last August.

Waldron and his wife, the former Frances Keenan, were married in the Methodist parsonage at St. Johns, Nov. 25, 1896. Shortly after, they built the home a mile west of Elsie, where they have lived since.

Mr Waldron was sexton of the Riverside Cemetery for 30 years, retiring at the age of 79. His previous occupations included winter ice harvesting, bridge building, road work with a team of horses and carpentry. He was a member of the IOOF lodge for several years.

MRS WALDRON was a teacher in her younger years. She is a member of the First Church of Christ of Owosso, and made a visit to the Mother Church in Boston, Mass. several years ago. The couple has three daughters, Mrs. Roy (Vivian) Menter of St. Louis, Mrs. Lewis (Margaret) Wilson of Manitou Beach and Mrs. Florence Krepps, who lived at home and cared for her parents until her father's recent illness. They have five grandchildren and twenty great grandchildren.

Farm area draws tourist visitors to "do nothing"

Concerned with the dwindling opportunity for jobs in Brown county, Illinois, Sid Landfield, editor of the Democrat Message, and Dick Gordley, local dry goods merchant, went into executive session.

"Well," said Landfield, a former Chicago police reporter, "people are always complaining about nothing to do. Why don't we capitalize on that?"

So the two whittled out a plan. Many city folk, they reasoned, would be happy to have nothing to do, and quiet surroundings in which not to do it. So they began to plant little pieces in the papers about the joys of vacationing in Brown county.

WHY NOT, they asked, take a vacation in the country with absolutely nothing to do but rest? You could relax in a farm home, they announced, for $38 a week, and the food; unlike many city restaurants, would be not only edible, but delicious.

They pointed out that if you wished you could aid the farmer in his farm chores, or just sit and think. They absolutely guaranteed that you would in no way be bothered by the clatter of night life, as there is none.

Junior city tykes, who had never seen hogs, cows and fowl could ogle a pig to their very hearts' content.

THEY MENTIONED 850 farm ponds stocked with ample blue gills and bass. And they pointed out that an occasional fossil might appear as this is the limit of the glacier line, and stressed the fact that rock-hounds might leap about like mountain goats running up a fine score in rocks.

Somewhat to their amazement, the first year crop proved beyond the number of farmers set up to handle the visitors. "Fifty persons put ads in the paper asking for places to stay," said Landfield.

The time-on-your-hands idea might work in some Clinton County communities.

National political campaign too long

Although it took until the final day of the 1964 campaign, the candidates for Vice President finally agreed on one thing: Political campaigns are too long.

Campaigns have become "too long, too expensive, too arduous on the candidates and too boring for the public," said Representative Miller. On the Today television program Senator Humphrey said the campaign "may very well have been too long" and suggested that both major parties hold their conventions in early September and begin campaigning in mid-September or later.

A MORE COMPACT campaign would allow Congress to keep at the nation's business into the summer without the diversion of conventions and would make the candidates present their arguments more concisely.

The shorter campaign might also decrease sensational claims and charges that seem to emanate from politicians having too long to talk and too little to say, and would offer the political parties an opportunity to cut campaign costs.

THERE ARE other persuasive reasons for both National Committees to give Mr Humphrey's suggestion careful study.

One is that the campaign schedule as now constituted is a serious threat to the health of the candidates. No longer can a campaign manager decline speaking invitations because of distance or lack of time. Local political leaders are insistent. They want the magic of a presidential candidate in the flesh.

If the pace must be maintained, perhaps the distance of the race can be reduced.

A Lot to Be Thankful for

RAMBLIN' with Rink

BY LOWELL G. RINKER

A year ago this Sunday, Nov. 22, Americans wept as a nation and as individuals over the death of President John F. Kennedy. Because it came so quickly, so unexpectedly at the hands of a sniper, the impact of the assassination jarred everyone.

It did me, I know, and because I processed many of the stories that were written in those days just after the assassination—and read them all—the event will always be in my memory.

PEOPLE FIRST heard the news in many different ways. I heard it when I walked into the barbershop back in Farmington, Ill. I even remarked to the barber and the others there that "it sure is quiet in here."

The high school football coach was in the barber's chair, and he said "The President has been shot." I told him not to joke about things like that, and he turned my attention to the radio.

THE announcer verified it. The President HAD been shot and had been taken to Parkland Hospital. He was believed to be critically wounded.

Time passed and then as I sat in the chair, the announcer interrupted his own description of events with the announcement: "Ladies and gentlemen, the President is dead, President Kennedy died at approximately 1 p.m., central standard time." Then he played the National Anthem.

NOBODY said anything. There wasn't anything to say until the initial impact had lessened. For the first time, I realized that I would be going to work that night and would be helping get the story out to the public.

I worked on the copy desk at the Peoria Journal Star and was working for their morning paper at that time. I went in an hour early that evening, because I knew things would be in a turmoil.

THE JOURNAL Star's evening paper for the out-of-town editions had already been to press, and most of the city edition was off, too, but they made that over entirely and had put extras on the street when I got there.

Management personnel made a rare appearance at the paper that night, writing and directing. My part in the telling of the assassination story was certainly not big, but I handled my share of stories that came across the desk that night and in the week that followed. I'm proud to have had the opportunity to work on that story.

LOOKING BACK over the year, you can try to assess what made the story great in your own mind. To me it was the combination of the fact that the President of the United States had been shot down, that I had been fortunate enough to help carry the story, and that America reacted as it did.

As time goes on, I marvel more and more at this last point. We lost our President, and we mourned him. But we didn't lose our senses. Our government was wisely built to handle situations like this and when the new man slipped unceremoniously into President Kennedy's place, the government and the people were standing behind him.

AMERICA WAS never stronger than it was in those days a year ago. —rink

Thanksgiving

Not for the bank account I own,
Not for my shares of stock,
Not for the acres I call mine,
Not houses by the block;
Teach me that I may realize,
For all my poverty —
A thankful heart for work to do,
And eyes that I may see.

Man learns, but oh so slowly,
What constitutes real wealth,
To be a power for things worth while,
A Connoisseur of health;
To know and to appreciate
Midst all the teeming mart
Lord make us thankful but to find,
An understanding heart!

For sense of right and beauty,
For worthwhile cause to fight,
For powers of discernment,
That teach us wrong from right;
For sense of obligation,
To the cause that made us free,
The spirit that bids us "carry on,"
We give our thanks to Thee.

Change or be left standing

ALTHOUGH WE'RE often slow to notice it, Clinton County, like the rest of this nation is slowly changing from an easy-going rural community to the more hectic pace of our urban neighbors.

Even though we have no great cities within our borders, the problems which cities have already are evident here in a smaller way. Like a young boy, who suddenly finds himself a gangling teenager, this county is finding its voice, its appearance and its problems changing. And the change requires a modification of outlook and method.

THE PHYSICAL changes of the county are most evident. Heavy building is evident in many communities with yesterday's pasturelands transformed into today's subdivisions. And the increase in building is not slackening but accelerating.

Evident, too, is the changing voice of this county's peoples. Today there are stronger minority voices, deeper political and economic opinions, stronger and more diversified interests, a wider range of personal outlook and conviction.

THE COMPETITION today is rough. While machinery has taken the backache out of farming, today's competition has replaced it with a headache. Chain stores, metropolitan-type shopping complexes and modern discount and volume selling have changed the outlook and the attitude of the businessman.

Farming, business, the professions—all are feeling the effects of a changing world and country.

ALL THESE changes are having their effect on the demands made of government. Today, local government can no longer casually operate across the back fence or in easy-going catch-as-catch-can fashion.

There is need for genuine forward-looking, forward-thinking leadership and awareness. And this goes for village, township and county government. Government must be aware that things are changing and must be open-minded and broad-minded enough to envision what is ahead and to prepare for it.

We must change with the times or time will leave us standing alone and empty-handed.

THANKLESS JOB

(From The Ingham County News, Mason)

Jurors serve at an average wage of 75¢ an hour and in many cases to be a member of a jury is to do so at a financial sacrifice.

In spite of the handicaps of jury duty, the jury system is strong. No better way has been devised for guaranteeing to a citizen the right to a fair and impartial hearing.

It is comforting to know that the jury system is available to all. That's why it is important that citizens rise to their responsibility when asked to serve on jury. Those in trouble need juries. Some day it might be you who needs a juror.

EVERY DAY busy men and women are taking time out from their daily routine to serve on hundreds of juries across the country. Right here in Ingham county, juries are continually being summoned in justice and circuit courts.

Jurors are probably the most taken-for-granted people on earth. They are never called to duty unless someone else is in trouble. They are asked to make decisions affecting fellow human beings and in many cases must make unpopular decisions in order to interpret the laws as they see them.

Reader has thoughts on Christian living

WHY IS IT anyone puts off writing a little thank you note for thought of appreciation for so long. For weeks I've been wanting to do this for the little thoughts on Christian living in your paper by Pastor Niewkoop. Whatever subject you are interested in you always look for in the news media.

I am also glad and thankful for the happenings in Rome and many prayers are being answered. Maybe in some future date we will all worship as the New Testament teaches.

WE KNOW THE Old Testament is history, which leads to the day when the Spirit descended on Jesus and said "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased;" whose earthly mother was Mary, not the Mother of God, as you explained in a recent article. (Matthew 3:16, 17, and Mark 1:10, 11. Also in Luke and John. The Baptism.)

The study of the Bible is very interesting; an evening goes by so quickly and nourishes your soul with the Bread of Life, thereby.

Thank you again. Sincerely, A FRIEND (M.B.M.), Fowler

Ward uncovers story of sea chest

IN 1956 I WROTE A story, part fact, part fiction, about an old high oven stove owned by Murett Ridenour's father-in-law. I saw the stove and it was given away and later sold for $5, later for much more and now may be worth $100 or more. This story was lost when I sent it to the State Journal.

TODAY I found George Becker's sea chest. It is big and old and has his name on it in ancient script. It was on a rubbish pile and really beat up. It had huge hand-made hinges and a lock and key and big handles on the ends.

George came from Germany in 1875, and he was the father of John B. and Mary Becker Grimes, George B. and others. Mary's son is a high official at Knapp's Stores in Lansing.

THE NEXT generation is represented by Agnes and Lawrence B. and now their children.

This chest was George Becker's father's and dates back to 1820 or earlier. What a story it could tell, and is still too good to throw away. I will use it to store chemicals in for safety. It should have had an honored place and been used for happy children's toys.

Crewel Embroidery dates back to the 16th century English, but it is having a wide-spread revival today. Erica Wilson's book, "Crewel Embroidery," is designed to teach the beginner the fundamentals, and help the more advanced worker to enlarge her choice of stitches. Instructions for 64 different stitches with illustrations are given, as well as designs, instructions for stretching, blocking and finishing the finished pieces. The book was purchased as a memorial for Mrs. Toybel Delbert, mother of Basil Delbert who is a member of the Bement Library Board, and presented to the library. Mrs. Delbert's chief interest was handicrafts and it was felt that this fine book was a fitting memorial.

Interesting fiction to be received recently includes these titles.

"UNDER THE SKIN" by Nina Bawden is a story of what happens in an English household when an African Negro student comes to stay. The people of the house are decent, likeable folks who would scorn to be thought prejudiced, but there was a great deal of adjusting to be done on both sides. In this book the author has written a delightful novel, revealing how close all of us are related, "under the skin."

"So Long at the Fair" by Bonner McMillon is a bolstersome story of life and love in a less complicated age. It takes place in the farmlands of Texas just before World War I. It is a story of a pair of brothers—one a baseball hero, the other his 7-year-old worshipper. Love complicates the picture when the right girl comes along.

"LYDIA" is a novel of suspense by E. V. Dunningham. A valuable necklace has been stolen and the hero of the story, acting for the insurance company, sets out to find the gems. The mystery centers around the maid in the household masquerading as a Texas hill-billy.

The author of "Spartacus" — Howard Fast — has written another exciting novel of ancient times. This is the story of Queen Berenice, great-granddaughter of King Herod. This is "Agrippa's Daughter," who helped the Jews.

Democrats surpassed highest hopes in state

BY ELMER E. WHITE Michigan Press Ass'n.

Highest hopes of the Democratic Party were surpassed in the Nov. 3 election where legislative races were concerned.

All party workers predicted Democrats would gain a majority in the state House of Representatives, but even the highest guesses were far from the 72-38 margin achieved.

SENATE hopes were pinned on 17 sure seats for each party with the remaining four anyone's guess. As it turned out, the party which has held such a small minority in the Senate for many years will have a 23-15 edge in the 1965 session.

Strength of President Johnson's victory in Michigan accounted for several Democratic gains, but most capitol observers feel this was not entirely the cause.

Look at those returns closely and you can see a definite balk by the voters in several areas at the conservatives, noted a veteran lobbyist who knows the voting patterns well.

IN SEVERAL traditionally Republican strongholds such as Ingham, Jackson and Berrien counties, defeats were handed to long-term lawmakers whose political philosophy puts them in the so-called "Old Guard" ranks.

The decisive victory of Gov. George Romney despite the Democratic sweep indicated many more voters than ever before were very selective in their ticket-splitting.

NOW ONCE again Michigan's government returns to the dilemma which existed for 14 years under Democratic Govs. G. Mennen Williams and John Swainson.

Romney, however, will have one advantage over his Democratic predecessors. Although he will be working with a legislative majority of the opposite party, he will have a couple of his team members on the State Administrative Board.

Republican Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken of Traverse City was elected on the joint ticket with Romney, and the governor now has the ability to appoint the state treasurer, previously an elected post.

MOST PREDICTIONS are that Romney will be able to work better with the Democratic legislators than his predecessors could with the GOP majorities of past years.

Part of this theory is based on the fact that Romney is generally viewed as a moderate or liberal Republican, while the two liberal Democratic governors had to contend with conservative GOP lawmakers.

SOME difficulty is anticipated in the legislative-executive exchange, however, based on personality conflicts and the simple fact that Democrats have so long anticipated the day when they would be the party in power.

Each year Michigan surpasses the last in preparations for the rising number of winter sports enthusiasts, and this year is no exception.

Now State Tourist Council publications list 89 winter sports centers scattered across the state. This is the largest number ever, but expanded facilities and improved equipment and accommodations add even more to the offerings.

ONE RESORT will put into operation this year what its owners boast is the first four-passenger chair ski lift in the world. This device has a carrying capacity of 2,400 skiers per hour up the slopes at Boyne Mountain.

Conventional double chair lifts are very plentiful at other areas, as are the more old-fashioned T-bar, J-bar and rope tow conveyances.

Equipment rental and professional instruction are available at many of the 89 resorts and Tourist Council Director William T. McGraw notes that non-skiers can have as much fun as skiers in most areas.

ICE SKATING, tobogganing and sledging facilities, indoor game rooms and even heated outdoor swimming pools are available at some Michigan winter resorts.

Given normal winter temperatures and snowfall, McGraw said it is anticipated more than 225,000 sports enthusiasts will be in Michigan this year to spent close to $25 million on various activities.

HOPEFULLY MICHIGAN will miss the mark predicted some months ago: 2,500 highway traffic accident victims in 1964! Indications as the year draws to an end are that motorists will again exceed the death toll

In early November, highway deaths passed the 1,700 mark which was the full year total in 1962. Last year nearly 1,900 persons died in highway crashes.

RAIN AND snow-slicked pavements, the early hours of darkness and the comparatively heavy traffic load during the year-end holiday periods traditionally bring an increase in weekly accidents.

If present indications hold true and the death toll rises again this year, Michigan motorists can be assured of a concentrated effort in 1965 to change several state laws and enact new ones to crack down on errant drivers.

Many state officials are convinced stricter laws and law enforcement are the only means of reversing the current trend of carelessness. All the intensive safety campaigns have appeared to be of little use.

Bucking wood a good experience for a lad of 14

HAYDEN PEARSON

There is some question whether a 14-year-old lad half a century ago would include the bucksaw in a list of the world's most important inventions. When a solid farmer was preparing for winter in the days of snow rollers and buffalo robes, he made sure of sufficient wood for the kitchen stove and parlor heater.

To D. D. Terrill of Bangor, Maine, goes credit for inventing the raker tooth bucksaw. He conceived the idea that spaced, wider set teeth to remove the sawdust from the cut would make for faster and easier cutting. The idea caught on quickly and soon farmers, woodsmen and villagers were using the familiar saw with its arched frame.

BOY POWER with a bucksaw was considerably less expensive than hiring the local sawyer with his steam-driven saw, and that is why on a beautiful October day, a lad dreaded the words at breakfast, "Son, better buck up that pile of wood for the kitchen stove today."

With a good saw, sharp, well set teeth it wasn't especially hard work. But it could become mighty monotonous cutting the maple, oak and birch into 12-inch lengths for the kitchen stove. A lad had to go to the kitchen frequently to see how Mother was coming along with the Saturday baking. It took cookies, doughnuts and apple turnovers plus cold creamy milk to maintain a fellow's strength.

THERE ARE men of dignified girth behind city desks who look out at these blue and gold days and who recall those long-ago days on the farm and the bucksaw. A man today doesn't want to buck wood, but he thinks it would be a good idea if all boys knew about it through first hand experience.

"I'm not in the habit of talking to strange wrong numbers."

State's crime rate up 8.6 per cent since '60

Michigan's crime rate increased 8.6 per cent during the four years of 1960-63, according to the fifth annual "Michigan Law Enforcement Officials Report on Crime for 1963," compiled by the State Police from reports submitted by all police agencies.

There were 1,238.7 criminal offenses per 100,000 population last year compared with 1,140.2 in 1960. The rate was 1,208 in 1962 and 1,160.6 in 1961.

THE STATE'S population, according to federal estimates, gained 3.7 per cent from April 1960 to July 1963. The population was 7,993,000 in 1961, 8,029,000 in 1962 and 8,116,000 in 1963.

Viewed another way, the rate of increase in crime in Michigan has been two and a third times greater than the rate of the population gain in the 1960-63 period.

THE ANNUAL total of major offenses, which are classed as Part I crimes, increased by 14.2 per cent during the four years, rising from 176,493 in 1960 to 201,526 last year.

Of special interest is the report's section on juvenile delinquency which shows that 55.8 per cent of the persons apprehended for major offenses in 1963 were under 17 years of age. The breakdown also shows that 21.2 per cent of those apprehended were in the 17-21 age group while 23 per cent were in the 22-50 bracket.

A PROJECTION based on experience in the period of 1959-63 indicates there may be a total of 97,356 juvenile offenders in 1968. This compares with 57,847 in 1963, 46,834 in 1961, and 33,548 in 1959. These totals include all types of misbehavior involving juveniles.

Related to this analysis are figures showing that a big percentage of the first post war major wave of increase in population is now entering the 17-21 age group. Michigan's projected population for 1970 is 9,000,000, compared with 7,823,194 in 1960.

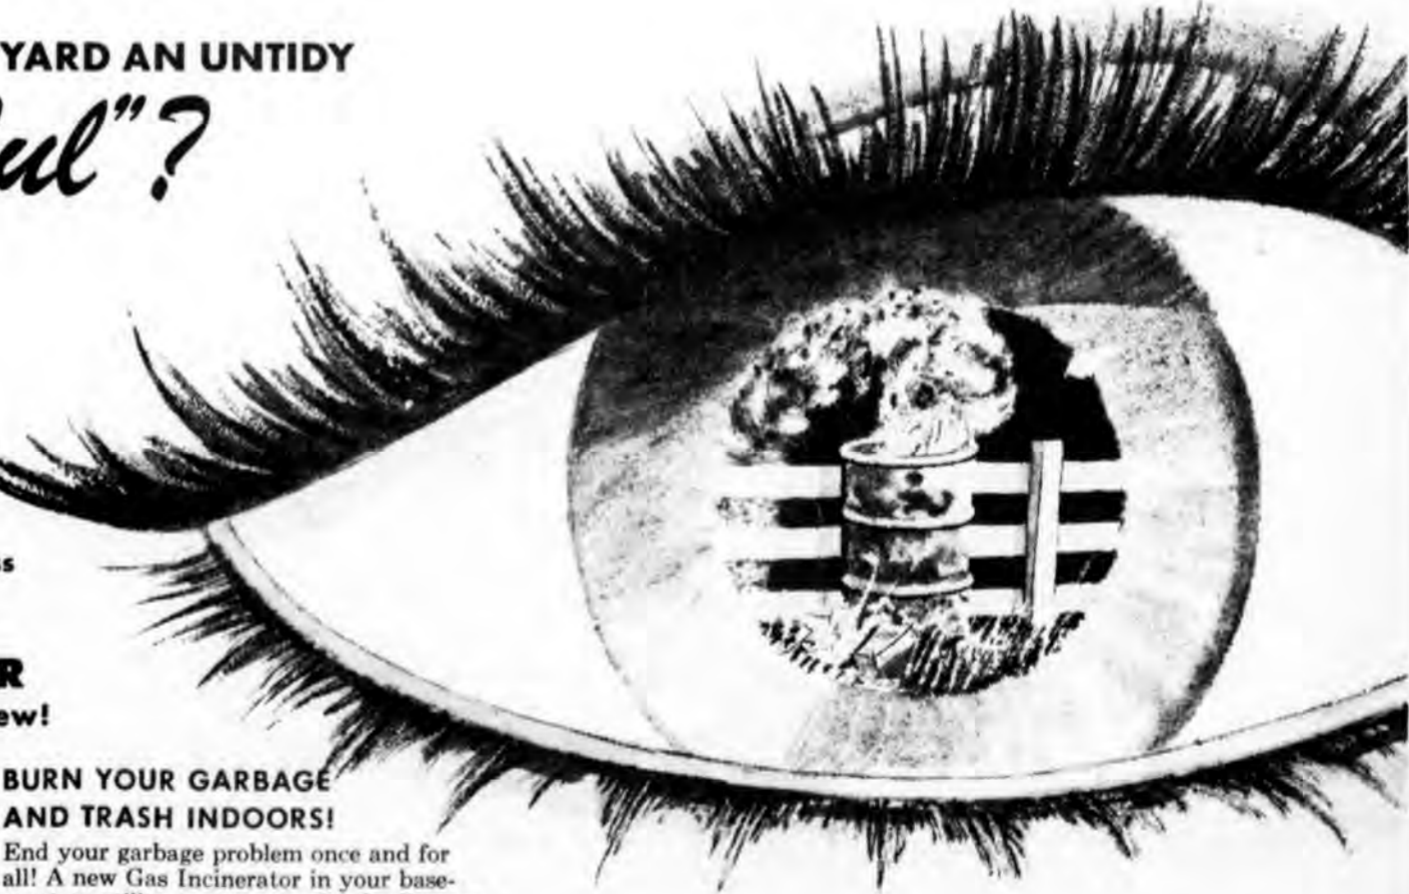

MAJOR OFFENSES in 1963 included: Crimes against the person 242 murder, 940 rape, 6,301 robbery, and 7,370 aggravated assault; crimes against property 44,086 burglary, 25,513 felonious larceny, 100,061 simple larceny, and 17,014 auto theft.

Years alter recipes beyond recognition

Early settlers in America celebrated Thanksgiving in a big way.

In making plum pudding, according to the Williamsburg Art of Cookery, they would, "take a pound of best flour, sift it and made it up before sunrise with six eggs beaten light, a large spoonful of good yeast and as much milk as would make it the consistence of bread, let it rise well, knead into it half a pound of butter, a grated nutmeg, one pound of raisins, stoned and chopped up, mix all together, wet the cloth, flour it, tie loosely, so the pudding would have room to rise—the raisins should be rubbed in flour."

Now, more than 150 years later we use different ingredients, measurements and ideas. Following is a plum pudding recipe you might try for the holidays.

Plum Pudding

- 2 slightly beaten eggs
- 1 c. light brown sugar
- 2 c. soft bread crumbs
- 1 c. milk
- 1 c. finely ground suet
- 1/4 c. orange juice
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1 c. sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 tsp. soda
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 2 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 tsp. cloves
- 1 tsp. mace
- 2 c. raisins
- 1 c. chopped dates
- 1/2 c. chopped candied fruit
- 1/2 c. chopped nuts

Blend eggs and brown sugar; add bread crumbs, milk, suet, orange juice, and vanilla. Sift dry ingredients and spices together and sift over fruits and nuts; mix well. Fold into bread crumb mixture.

Pour into a well-greased 6-cup mold, filling 2/3 full. Cover with foil and tie tightly; steam for 3 hours. Steam any leftovers in a custard cup 1 hour. Let puddings stand about 10 minutes before unmolding.

Is your home ready for coming winter?

Now's the time to winterize your home. Here's a handy checklist of the things to do for increased comfort and impressive fuel saving.

Keep furniture from blocking radiators, registers and other heat sources.

Have a fireplace? When not in use make sure damper is closed, otherwise heat will be siphoned up the chimney.

HAVE FURNACE checked periodically. A clean, adjusted furnace with new filters will operate safely with more economy. Oil motor frequently.

Sixty per cent of all fuel is wasted through the attic. Be certain that it is properly insulated.

Weather strip or caulk doors and windows.

At night, close bedroom doors before opening bedroom windows, so there is no heat loss from other rooms.

Have a kitchen fan? Open a kitchen window slightly when exhaust bread crumbs, milk, suet,

Listen. Turkey talk saves you dollars

by BETTY KETCHAM
County Extension Agent
Home Economics
It's time to talk turkey!

Turkey comes in so many different forms, how do you know what to buy?

How many in your family? How much refrigerator and freezer space do you have? This might be a good place to start. Because the larger the turkey—the more servings per pound.

IF YOUR family is small, you can roast a small whole turkey, a turkey quarter, turkey half, turkey parts or a boneless turkey roll. The price varies, but so does the number of servings per pound. Figure the cost per serving—if you want a true cost.

Many homemakers still demand hens. First, because they are smaller and some people still think they are more tender than toms. Because of this demand hens turkeys generally cost more per pound than tom turkeys. However, today tom turkey is just as tender as his sister.

Turkey is also available in frozen turkey dinners, turkey and gravy in heat and eat envelopes, turkey pies and turkey ala king. So if you have only a sauce pan—you can still have sliced turkey for dinner. Just drop the bag in boiling water and heat.

MAYBE YOU'VE tried the stuffed frozen turkey. These birds are stuffed and prepared under strict controls, which cannot be duplicated at home.

So for safety sake—stuff the turkey the day you roast and eat it. Remove left over dressing from the cavity, before storing in refrigerator.

Many professional chefs feel that a common error most homemakers make in cooking turkey is that they cook it too fast. 325 degrees is a good baking temperature—but it does take a longer period of time. Many people prefer an even lower temperature. I like to roast mine at 300 degrees F.

If you want an accurate way to check doneness—use a meat thermometer. The turkey is done when the thermometer, inserted into the thigh muscle at the start of roasting, registers between 185 and 190 degrees. An internal temperature of 160 degrees in a rolled turkey roast will kill any disease-producing bacteria that might cause digestive upsets.

WANT AN interesting first course for your Thanksgiving dinner? Try Mulled Cider.

This is a recipe from Kellogg Center, Michigan State University, that was served in the county at the Sawmill Operators Clinic by the Rochester Colony Extension Group.

- 2/3 c sugar
- 3/4 c water
- 2 T whole cloves
- 3 sticks of cinnamon
- 3 T lemon juice
- 3/4 c pineapple juice
- 1 1/2 c orange juice
- 3 1/4 c apple juice

Certain fabrics keep warmth in and cold air out

The coming of cold weather each year turns the thoughts of most of us toward the business of keeping warm.

Which fibers are warmest? What kind of fabric is the best protection outdoors? What kind of blanket stays warm longest?

Technicians who spend their lives checking this factor of warmth, in and out of research laboratories, give us these answers.

THE FIRST fact is that the warmest protection you could have would be a layer of perfectly still, dead air against your body. If on a bitter cold night you could reach down and pull up a "blanket" of such air, you would never feel the cold. A coat of such air would be greater outdoors, too, if you could keep it inside a windbreaker.

SINCE WE can't handle air like a fabric, the next best thing is a fabric which, through its construction and thickness will trap and hold air in its weave. The kind of fiber used has very little to do with warmth, so far as the fibers having any "thermal coefficient" of themselves. Their differences are insignificant here. But the ability of a fiber to keep the construction that holds the air trapped is the biggest factor involved.

FINALLY there is a fabric like a sponge; flatten that one out in use and it soon springs back into original thickness and shape, the expanding cells once more filling with the lovely insulating air.

Outdoors, add a "skin" of windbreaker to keep cold blowing air out, and the insulating fabric inside will keep you warm there, too.

NOW, TO GET to the question of which fibers keep their resiliency and "air-trapping" character longest: Wool reigns supreme here, with the acrylics next, with high resilience though low compression resistance. Cotton, rayon, acetate and nylon are low to medium in resilience and compression resistance.

This is by no means all the story of what makes a coat warm, but it is the basic story of warm fabrics.

Hobby collecting dolls can be fun, educational

BY PATRICIA HOLMES

OVID—Have you always thought of dolls as toys for little girls? They are, of course. That is, unless they are a hobby.

When dolls become a hobby, as they have for Mrs Irwin Reed, 4495 South Shepardsville Road in Ovid, age is no barrier for maintaining an interest in them.

Mrs Reed, who worked at the Ovid Roller Mill as a bookkeeper for over 20 years, until her retirement last year, began collecting antiques 25 years ago. Five years ago she combined this hobby with one of collecting dolls.

SHE PRIZES dolls highly because, she said, unlike the Barbie Doll that everyone has today, dolls were at one time available only to royalty.

"It was with dolls that French dress designers showed European queens the latest fashions," she said.

Today Mrs Reed has over 150 dolls, representing many periods of history and many parts of the world.

Listening to her makes one realize that dolls are much more of a science to the collector than they are to the little girl who dresses them and puts them to sleep.

A COLLECTOR has to know what is valuable.

"Dolls with brown eyes are more valuable than dolls with blue eyes because there are fewer of them made," she said. "Among French dolls, those with closed mouths are worth more than those with opened mouths for the same reason."

The material that a doll is made of is important too.

Mrs Reed's oldest doll, which is 90-years-old, is made of China. One that was made in 1895 has a kid body so if you should hear the expression kid-doll it is not slang for the child-doll but means a doll made of leather.

She has a pair of grandpa and grandma dolls whose faces are made out of apples and the dried apples give the effect of an aged, wrinkled skin.

HER SUN-bonnet lady, from the South, is made of cornhusks, while a milk-maid from the same area of the country has a hickory-nut face.

A doll from Florida is, naturally, made from shells and another doll has a wig made from Mrs Reed's own mother's hair.

For a tiny Aunt Jamima doll a dark substance was needed for the face, so someone acquired, of all things, a black baby's nipple and with a little imagination and work, Aunt Jamima was created.

A doll from Alaska, wrapped in fur and skins has a face carved from ivory. Another doll, who's head has been replaced, has a leather body and even Mrs Reed does not know how long ago it was since this material was used.

AMONG HER foreign dolls are ones from England, Italy, France, Germany, Turkey and a lace-maker from Belgium.

She has an "Osana doll" from Korea whose face is made of a special paint which is made of shell powder.

Others include a doll from Chinatown in San Francisco, Calif., Indian dolls, and little women dolls, Mother, Jo, Amy, Beth and Meg, which represent the characters in Louisa May Alcott's book, "Little Women."

Among the problems Mrs Reed mentioned in collecting dolls are moths getting into the wigs and having the dolls take over your home.

"You have to be able to turn dolls down," she said.

SHE HAS SIMILAR problems with the antiques that she collects.

"Right now I can still turn down dolls, but not antiques," she said.

While Mrs Reed has antique china, pewter, yarn winders, butter presses and an entire milieu of other items from ages past she is mainly interested in antique toys and doll furniture.

She has a toy rocking chair that is over 84 years old, antique toy chests, containing antique doll and baby clothes, and clay marbles.

She prizes her Schoenhut piano highly. It was made by a German toy maker who came to America in the late 1800's. He is also famous for the dolls that he made.

IN HER DOLL house, a recent addition which her husband built, she has a miniature butter churn which is 100 years old. There is a miniature brass coffee table, spittoon, and two table lamps that came out of a millionaires doll house.

Mrs Reed eventually hopes to furnish it in all early American.

Mrs Reed does have an antique which is not a doll's toy that she is particularly interested in.

AMONG HER antiques is a spinning wheel which she hopes she will learn how to operate. She has contacted Greenfield Village in Detroit in hopes of receiving lessons there. Once she learns, she hopes to be able to demonstrate its operation to various schools and clubs who would be interested.

Speaking in front of a group will be nothing new to Mrs Reed as she is presently called upon to give talks about her dolls. She also teaches knitting to 35 4-H girls every week.

Mrs Reed has a sister in Dowagiac, Mrs Fred Young, who also collects dolls.

She has no children of her own, but is now occupying her time knitting Christmas gifts for her nieces. What is she making? Doll clothes naturally.

The "Race" Problem
The summer of riotings and racial unrest has caused us to focus our attention upon a serious problem that exists in our land. I am amazed at the attitude of some Christian people toward the colored. I denounce their attitude as sinful, shameful and unjust! Space forbids a full fledged article, so I must limit myself to but a few words. (1) Why does the problem exist? Because white men made chattle out of other human beings who happened to be of a different color. What we are reaping now is but the harvest of slavery! (2) Are negroes people or are they animals? There is no debate—they are people! Since they are people, they are also souls for whom Christ died. Their salvation is just as precious as that of any man. Talk about the dignity of man, here you have it! (3) If we believe in Christian missions abroad, why do we despise these same people in our own country? There is something strange going on in this professed missionary passion. (4) As a citizen of this land of the free, the negro is entitled to the same rights, no more and no less than I. Remember this—Jesus Christ loves the negroes! When they become converted they too are members of the body of Christ.

OLD ENOUGH!

Not old enough for a novel, a dictionary, an encyclopedia.
But old enough for the Bible!
For in these very years before she fully understands its truth, a child learns to respect God's Word. Reverence is born. A sense of the importance of religion develops.
The passages must be short . . . and sensibly chosen. Childish but searching questions must be answered. Mother and Dad will soon discover that explaining Truth to their child deepens their own comprehension.
Take advantage of a parent's most sacred privilege. Introduce your child to God. Make the Bible part of the family. Participate in and cooperate with the Church's program of religious education.
A child grows spiritually whose parents grow spiritually!

Grade A compliance called milk sales key

High quality Michigan dairy products are finding outlets in other states, and there is opportunity for even greater expansion of these out-of-state markets as more and more of Michigan's dairy sources comply with Grade A milk requirements.

Director G. S. McIntyre of the Michigan Department of Agriculture says milk is the largest single source of farm income in the state. It amounts to $209 million a year, with Michigan ranking seventh among the states in dairy production.

OUT-OF-STATE markets are closed to dairy products if the quality cannot be certified for interstate shipment by the Department's Dairy Division, headed by F. M. Skiver. Seven dairy plants in the state now are shipping products interstate, and there is demand for even greater export.

The inspection and checking of farm sources and dairy plants to maintain Grade A milk requirements is an enormous one for the Dairy Division. Last year this involved 20,202 such inspections. It also necessitated the testing of more than 15,000 milk samples.

FOR THE milk producer the five main factors that determine rating for Grade A milk certification are a clean milk house, sanitary milk equipment, clean barns and milking areas, clean cattle, and clean loafing areas for cows. Other items such as healthy animals and available supplies of pure water also are considered in the score.

In dairy processing plants, equipment and methods also must maintain at least a 90 per cent score.

THE DAIRY Division of the Department of Agriculture has four men certified to conduct surveys on producers and processors.

Hunters who are successful this month in getting part of the estimated 800,000 deer in Michigan must take storage precautions in order to comply with Michigan Department of Agriculture regulations, advised Director G. S. McIntyre.

Conservationists estimate that between 515,000 and 520,000 hunters will bring back between 124,000 and 130,000 deer. This poses its problems for inspectors of the Department's Foods and Standards Division which is headed by J. L. Littlefield.

DRESSED and cup up deer under the law may be stored in commercial cold storage plants with other food supplies, provided the skins and hides are not included.

Strict regulations govern the storage of game. Forbidden is the storage of hides and skins except in separate storage rooms that have no open passages leading into locker rooms, chill rooms, aging rooms, or sharp freeze rooms. Deer still having hides on must be stored in separate rooms from all other provisions.

FOR THE milk producer the five main factors that determine rating for Grade A milk certification are a clean milk house, sanitary milk equipment, clean barns and milking areas, clean cattle,

Car gets deer before hunters do

A deer jumped out of a ditch in Bath Township. Ronald Harte, and was struck by a car driven by Nelson Harte Jr., 17, of R-1, Bath, on Clark Road last Wednesday evening.

The accident happened at 9:15 p.m. a half-mile east of Chandler

In Bath Township. Ronald Harte, 15, and Roger Harte, 16, were passengers in the car. No one was hurt.

Recovers weather balloon on farm

From whence the wind blowest?

It's hard now to know, but whoever tracked a weather bureau balloon that landed on the Almond Cressman farm in Olive Township probably had a pretty good idea.

Richard Cressman, a student at Lansing Community College, recovered the deflated balloon and an attached battery and light blub from a corn field across from the Cressman home at 2327 W. Price Road.

THIS WAS ABOUT two weeks ago. Last week he checked with the US Weather Bureau at the Lansing Airport for some information about it.

The balloon, the weatherman told him, was a "highball balloon," used to determine wind velocity and direction. They said Friday it would be hard to determine just where the balloon came from, but quite likely it came from either Muskegon, Flint or Alpena.

BY FILLING the balloons with gas so they will rise at a certain rate per minute, weathermen are able to track them by watching the little light through powerful telescopes. By calculating the time ascension rate, changing angle, etc., they are able to tell what direction and at what speed the wind is blowing at different altitudes.

The smaller balloons usually rise to between 14,000 and 15,000 feet; the larger ones go twice that high. The balloons are observed for up to 20 minutes, depending on cloud and wind conditions.

LARGER, MORE sophisticated balloons and instruments are tracked by other methods, often are recovered in this part of the state after being released from such points as Sault Ste. Marie, Flint, Green Bay, Wis., or Peoria, Ill. Because of the prevailing winds, most of the long range balloons would come from Green Bay or Peoria.

ROBERT EBERT

Ebert accepts job with Clinton Crop Service

Robert A. Ebert of St. Johns has accepted a position with Clinton Crop Services Inc. as a sales representative of Smith Douglass products. The position change was effective Nov. 1.

Ebert resides at 509 S. Oakland Street with his wife Kay and two children, Robert and Celia.

EBERT, WHO lived and worked on a farm in his early life, attended MSU agricultural short course. He is a veteran of World War II, having served four years.

He owned and operated the Bo-Kay Floral Shop in St. Johns for 13 years.

HE IS presently attending the Smith-Douglas Corp. crop advisors school and will attend the MSU fertilizer dealer training school at Delta College near Midland beginning Dec. 3.

Donald C. Rice also active at Valleyside

One of the important cogs in the operation of the Valleyside Dairy farm the last few years has been Donald C. Rice, son of Donald W. Rice, one of the owners.

The younger Rice's name was inadvertently omitted in last week's story concerning the sale of the dairy business. Donald C. Rice worked in the dairy plant for three years and for the past 4 1/2 years has assisted in the operation of the dairy farm.

The Valleyside Dairy is 59 years old, having been started in 1905.

4-H scholarships are available

Worthy 4-H members who will be graduating from high school next spring may be eligible for a 1965 Michigan State University 4-H scholarship. Don Walker, county Extension agent for 4-H club work, reports.

"This may be an opportunity for your local high school to receive several MSU scholarships which they would not otherwise receive," Walker said. "As in all scholarships, the recipient must have an excellent scholastic record, a high school B average minimum."

Prices dip at feeder cattle sales

Nearly 12,000 feeder cattle sold at seven northern Michigan and Upper Peninsula cattle sales in October. They brought an average price of $21.95 a hundredweight and a total income of $1,185,170 to the farmers who raised them.

The 12,000 cattle are about 8 per cent of the total fed out each year in southern Michigan feedlots.

THE AVERAGE price for steer calves was $24.64 per hundredweight, which is $2.88 below last year. The average price for heifer calves was $20.74 per hundredweight, down $3.67 from last year. Yearlings were down $3.53 from last year to $19.43.

At the Gladwin sale, Holsteins for fattening in feedlots were offered for the first time. The Holstein steers averaged $17.16 and Holstein heifers $13.70. Yearling Holstein steers averaging 690 pounds sold for $15.02 average per hundredweight.

W. B. (BILL) Finley, Michigan State University animal husbandry specialist, says there is a high demand for average and lower quality beef, and many farmers find the cull Holstein animals make gains on low cost feed.

Finley added that the potential for cow-calf programs in northern Michigan is particularly good because plenty of low-cost silage to heifer calves and yearlings will likely find that this management technique is also profitable.

Experience may be a great teacher, but no one ever lives long enough to graduate.

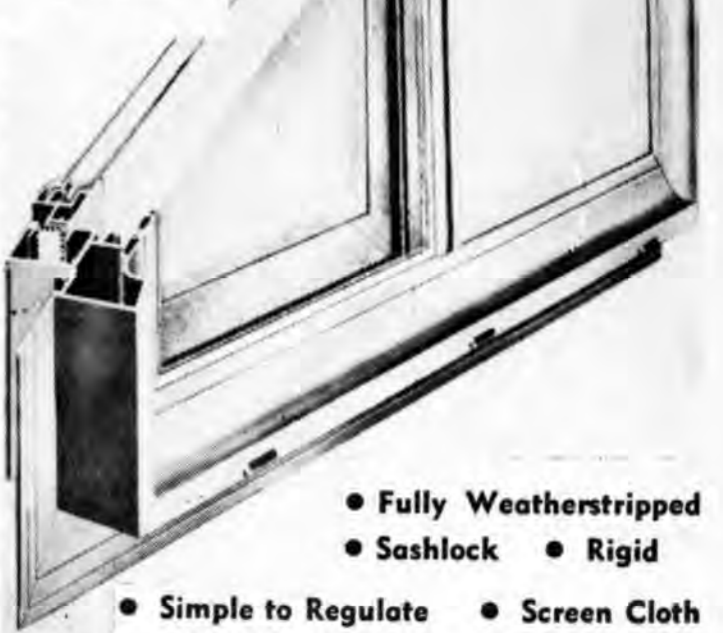

Applications must be submitted to MSU by Dec. 15. They may be obtained from the high school office, county Extension office, or Michigan State University.

Christmas seals on way to 6,710 county homes

Christmas seals—some 17 tons of them—were dispatched last week to more than two million Michigan homes to start the 58th campaign to raise funds for the fight against tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases.

More than 6,710 envelopes were mailed to Clinton County residents, where the 1964 campaign goal was set at $4,900. Last year Clinton donors contributed $3,793.

SPURRED by reports that tuberculosis is on the increase and by plans to counterattack by intensifying control measures, Christmas seal campaigners sought total statewide contributions to $1,150,000.

The letters soliciting contributions from Michigan residents are signed by Christmas Seal campaign chairmen in counties with affiliated local associations or by Lauren T. Elliott, Flint business man. They emphasize that gifts to the Christmas seal campaign are a means of protecting the gift of life, "breath of life."

"THIS GIFT from God is often taken for granted," Elliott says in his letter. "Yet, without breath, there can be no life for you or me."
