Opens Valve to New Tower

St. Johns Mayor Jack Smit turns a huge valve to start water moving up into the new city water tower. The valve is located in a pit in the base of the tower. The start of the filling of the tank came Friday in special ceremonies conducted by engineers for city officials and those of industries in St. Johns.

New meter, new tap fee for water users

It will cost a bit more now for owners of new homes to tap into the city water system, but those same people will not have to put up with others tramping through the house to read the water meter every three months.

The city commission last week approved purchase of the new meters, which can be read without having to enter the building. An outside recording device runs off a small dry cell battery good for from five to 10 years.

THE METER will be installed wherever new service is going in and wherever the replacement of worn-out or broken meters is necessary. The city normally uses about 25 meters each year for new service and another 30 for replacements.

The new hookup cost that will be charged will be $100, compared to $75 previously. This charge will pay for making the tap at the main, installing copper line from main to the back of curb, installation of a valve at this point and installation of the new meter.

Witnesses for the plaintiff included Thomas Carter, James Metros and Robert Ott. Defense witnesses were Robert Moon Sr., Robert Dale Moon, the defendant, Lee DeWitt and Mrs. Roscoe Smith.

Jury finds youth, 17, innocent

A St. Johns youth charged with the burglary of the Marie Metros home last April 30 was cleared by a circuit court jury Thursday of involvement in the case.

The youth was Robert Dale Moon, 17. He was found innocent of the charge of larceny from a dwelling by the jury of six men and six women, who deliberated an hour and 15 minutes.

HE WAS ONE of two youths allegedly involved in the theft of $430 from the Metros home last spring. The second youth was never formally charged or arrested. Prosecutor Norman White said Monday this charge is pending.

Moon was arrested July 10 after the other youth reportedly signed a statement admitting the theft and implicating him.

MEMBERS OF the circuit court jury who heard the case last week were: Irene Jumper of Bingham Township, Dahl DeBoer of Bingham, Doreen A. Kridner of Duplain, William G. Wilkie of St. Johns, Harry Ward of Essex Township, Yvonne Wagner of Bath, Herbert Stevens of Greenbush, Edith Baker of Olive, Nellie Nobis of Lebanon, Florence Hopp of Riley, Bernice Moots of DeWitt and Clayton Woodard of Bath.

Witnesses for the plaintiff included Thomas Carter, James Metros and Robert Ott. Defense witnesses were Robert Moon Sr., Robert Dale Moon, the defendant, Lee DeWitt and Mrs. Roscoe Smith.

It's usually not hard to tell when Christmas is near—stores are open nights, Christmas lights are up and Santa Claus starts to make visits to the area.

St. Johns will be no different in the coming weeks.

As a matter of fact, St. Johns is planning a little more in the way of Christmas activities than are a lot of towns.

They all start this Friday evening when lights on the Christmas decorations are turned on. That'll be done to welcome Santa Claus to town late Saturday afternoon.

HE'LL COME by helicopter—the same one that will be providing free rides for lucky children all afternoon Saturday. Santa will arrive in the 'copter about 5 p.m., Saturday on the lawn of the Grand Trunk Railroad station and will pass out candy to children who greet him there.

The rides on the 'copter will start about 1:15 p.m. on the field behind the Redwing Bowling Lanes and will run until about 4:45. Children whose parents hold lucky numbers from among the 7,000 mailed out by St. Johns Business Unlimited will receive free tickets for the ride from participating members.

FAMILIES should match their numbers with winning numbers shown in store windows. This must be done by 10 a.m. Saturday, and parents must accompany the children when picking up the helicopter ride tickets. Parents must also accompany children to ride the helicopter.

At 4:45 p.m., the helicopter pilot will leave to pick up Santa Claus.

SANTA HAS also agreed to make three other stops in St. Johns before his Christmas Eve visit. He'll arrive each Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock on a float with a band and will make his headquarters next to Jim's Insurance office until 5 p.m.

Businessmen and women began Friday and Saturday night openings last week.

MOST ST. JOHNS businesses will be open the following nights during the Christmas season for shoppers' convenience: Nov. 27 and 28, Dec. 4, 5, 7, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 21, 22, and 23.

This week's Clinton County News contains a gift guide—both advertising and news stories—in Section B, and all sections of the paper contain Christmas advertising.

Students to tour Oldsmobile plant

Three physical science classes from Rodney B. Wilson High School in St. Johns will be traveling to Lansing Tuesday afternoon for a tour of the Oldsmobile plant. Over 90 students will be involved. Teacher Bill Smiley will be in charge of the group.

Federal agency gives city 'go' signal on urban renewal

St. Johns got the word last week on urban renewal—"Go."

Three men from the Housing and Home Finance Agency in Chicago were in St. Johns last Tuesday making a quick check to see whether or not 50 per cent or more of the buildings in proposed renewal area are now substandard by federal standards.

THE THREE HHFA representatives said most of the buildings were, in fact, substandard, and gave the city an oral commitment for federal urban renewal funds.

The buildings studied did not

OK first equipment for new water plant

Walker Process Co. received the approval of the city commission last week to provide equipment for the inside of the water processing tanks at the new St. Johns water treatment plant. The Walker firm's bid for the equipment was $36,831.

Bids for the construction of the plant are to be opened Dec. 7, and construction is expected to be started during the first few months of 1965.

include any of those in the business district. They were in generally a U-shaped area around the business district. The exact dimensions and exact buildings in the project area won't be known until the city's engineers, Villican-Leman, rate the buildings more precisely.

THE HHFA's apparent approval of St. Johns' plan resulted in the engineers being set free to make the ratings and proceed with the project. Seventy-five per cent of the costs entailed from here on out will be paid by the federal government, providing the city meets the standards set up by the federal agency in the coming months.

City Manager Ken Greer, who reported the situation to the commissioners last Tuesday, pointed out that the federal government will not say which houses and which buildings are to be removed in the renewal project. These things, he said, are up to the city commission on the recommendation of the planners, Villican-Leman.

GREER OUTLINED the procedure under which the HHFA will pay 75 per cent of the cost. He said a fair market value will be placed on property which contains a structure deemed substandard and which the city wants removed. This market value, neither more nor less, will be offered to the property owner. If the property owner objects, the court will set the market value, which must be complied with. The market value set by the city will be an average of figures by three separate, independent appraisers.

The building will then be razed and the bare land put up for sale, again at fair market value.

THE TOTAL cost of the urban renewal project will be the difference between the cost of purchasing and clearing the property and the price the cleared land was sold for. The federal government will pay 75 per cent of that difference; the city will pay the other 25 per cent.

The business district was left out of the proposed project because of hardships which it was felt the more-strict regulations would bring. Greer pointed out that the business district renewal would come under a different "rehabilitation program."

"THIS WAS 'out' for a city like us," Greer said, "because it would throw hardships on the businesses." Under the rehabilitation program, businesses whose buildings were judged as substandard would be required, within a given time, to bring the buildings up to standards. This could run into considerable money for some businesses, he pointed out.

Villican-Leman has given the signal to proceed with the urban renewal plans, and soon they will be making ratings of individual buildings in the tentative renewal district.

Reckless driving costs Ashley man $54

Ivan Kimmel of R-2, Ashley was fined $50 and assessed court costs of $4.30 Friday after being found guilty of reckless driving Nov. 15 in Duplain Township. Sheriff's Deputy Stanley Kajdas made the arrest. The fines were assessed by Justice of the Peace Alba Wert.

ALL GREENBUSH Township residents are urged to attend a meeting at the township hall on Saturday, Dec. 5 at 8:00 o'clock to consider items which are of interest to all, including local fire protection.

Engineer Explains Valve Workings at New Water Tower

Engineer John McKeon of Ayres, Lewis, Norris and May (fourth from left) points out the route water will follow through a complicated set of valves at the base of St. Johns' new 150-foot water tower. Others who attended ceremonies Friday when the tower was filled with water are, left to right, Robert Barnes and Ray Smit, both engineers; Bernard Feldpausch, St. Johns Chamber of Commerce president; McKeon; Ink White, publisher of the Clinton County News; Larry Sexton, plant manager of Sealed Power Corp.; Kermit Hart, plant manager of Federal-Mogul; City Commissioner Charles Coletta; Mayor Jack Smit; City Manager Ken Greer; and Jud Marzke of WJUD. The valves are in a pit at the base.

General Telephone to spend $284,500 for expansion here

General Telephone plans for a $284,500 expenditure in the St. Johns district for service improvement and expansion in 1965 have been announced by District Manager W. F. Graef of St. Johns.

The St. Johns outlay is part of a $3.7 million total to be spent for improvements in the company's central division area. The proposed projects were outlined at a press conference with area newsmen at Owosso last week by Central Division Manager R. D. Trezise.

MAJOR expenditures will be made in our continuing program, announced last year, to accomplish the company's primary objective of reducing all parties per line to a maximum of four in suburban and rural exchanges "Trezise said.

In the St. Johns district a total of $64,800 has been budgeted for upgrading the service in the rural area southwest of St. Johns. An additional $3,000 will be made available for engineering costs for the eventual upgrading of service to the north and southeast.

TWO HUNDRED line and 100 terminal additions are projected for the St. Johns district in 1965 at an estimated cost of $16,800. Additional long distance circuits are to be installed at a cost of $44,800.

A cable truck is to be replaced in St. Johns at a cost of $5,500. Completion of ticketer and long distance circuit projects begun in 1964 is estimated to cost $1,700 next year. Engineering costs for miscellaneous future work is budgeted at $1,000.

"Our 1965 program represents an increase of more than $400,000 over our 1964 expenditures and will increase the company's investment in land, buildings and equipment in the central division to over $31 million," Trezise said.

GENERAL Telephone's central division is bounded by exchanges of Woodland, Grand Ledge and Williamston to the south; Lakeview to the west; Barryton and Mt. Pleasant to the north; and Linden to the east.

The company's 1965 plans represent additional expenditures equivalent to approximately $55 for each of the 66,520 telephones in the central division, Trezise pointed out.

General Telephone serves more than 300,000 telephones in 464 Michigan communities and has a current total investment of over $137 million in Michigan.

Deer Hunter Gets Bear

Clarence Waltz of R-4, St. Johns, was deer hunting south of Shingleton a week ago Monday and wasn't having much success. He was just getting up from the ground after a nine-hour-15-minute stint when rustling bushes called his attention to this black bear eating berries nearby. One shot brought the bear down. It weighed in at 198 pounds. Waltz, who was hunting with Ken Dickens, said it was the first bear he had seen in the woods in 30 years of hunting.

Chest drive lags at $22,000 mark

The Clinton County Communities Chest board expressed some concern this week over the fact that the fund drive is lagging considerably short of the $29,000 goal.

About $22,000 has been donated thus far, although some out-county area drives have not yet been completed.

THE BOARD pointed out that if there is anyone who has not been contacted and who wishes to contribute, money is still being accepted. Checks can be mailed to the Clinton County Communities Chest in care of Bill Richards in St. Johns.

VA mailing will include income questionnaire

More than 68,000 disabled veterans or the widows and parents of deceased veterans will be seeing colors when they open their pension checks about Nov. 30.

Inside will be not only the familiar green check but also an income questionnaire card with a stripe in one of four different hues, depending on the kind of pension received.

THIS CARD must be filled out and returned to the Veterans Administration by Jan. 31 or, under the law, February pension checks must be suspended. However, Robert Fitzgerald, Manager of the VA Regional Office in Detroit, urged pensioners to get the cards back as soon as possible and not to lay them aside until the last minute. Each year this results in several thousand delayed checks which have to be suspended by VA until the cards are returned.

Fitzgerald pointed out that this year VA needs all the extra time possible to process the income information due to a number of complicated changes under a new pension law.

Seek early Marshall vote on school annexation plan

As expected, patrons of the Marshall School district in Greenbush Township voted last week to send their grade school children into St. Johns on an emergency basis following the fire which leveled their one-room schoolhouse Nov. 14.

The children began attending classes in town last Thursday, two days after the emergency meeting of patrons. Fourteen were involved; those in grades kindergarten through third are now attending East Ward School, fourth and fifth graders are at Perrin-Palmer School, and seventh and eighth graders are at Central School.

IN THE WAKE of the emergency procedure, the St. Johns board of education met in special session Tuesday night to pass a resolution asking the State of Michigan for permission for the people in the Marshall district to vote on annexation to St. Johns.

Marshall district is one of 32 rural districts in the center part of Clinton County which have been told by St. Johns they must annex by July 1 next year or send their high school students elsewhere. The resolution by the St. Johns board Tuesday night was necessary before a vote on annexation could be held.

ST. JOHNS Supt. Earl Lancaster said the board will ask for permission for the Marshall district election now, because of the fire, rather than wait until Jan. 1 when it plans to resolve for elections in the other 31 districts.

The resolution will be studied by the state, and after about a week, Lancaster said, they will probably approve the election. Thirty days must then elapse before voting. Thus, he said, the earliest the Marshall patrons could vote on annexation would be about Jan. 1, 1965.

THE STATE'S participation is necessary, he pointed out, to prevent annexation of districts so far removed from each other as to be impractical, even though both parties want the merger. Lancaster said, however, that he had verbal assurance that annexation votes in all 32 districts would be approved by the state.

The board has tentative plans to make the resolutions for the elections about Jan. 1. This will allow ample time for election, or if necessary elections, before the July 1 deadline set by St. Johns. The St. Johns district did not anticipate accepting annexation of any district before early next year, despite the fact that several have wanted to vote on the subject as soon as possible.

BECAUSE of the fire, Marshall will be allowed to vote on the annexation. Their 14 grade school students are now attending St. Johns tuition-free, because, Lancaster explained, no tuition can be charged for those registered after the fourth week of school. Because of the necessity of having the students in the schools, it would be advantageous to have them in the district, Lancaster said.

The addition of 14 students created a transportation problem, Lancaster said, but that has been solved. Previously this year, two buses had transported students living north of St. Johns. Both buses were filled to capacity, and so it was necessary to add a new bus and divide up the old routes. Three

Blame slippery road for crash injuring 2 youths

Icy roads caused by the weekend snows were blamed for a single-car crash early Saturday afternoon that resulted in the hospitalization of two of six young men in the car.

Douglas L. Witt, 16, of R-4, St. Johns, and James Wood, 16, of R-2, DeWitt, were reported in "good" condition Monday afternoon at Clinton Memorial Hospital. Witt reportedly suffered bruises, and Wood had numerous cuts.

WITT WAS driver of the car, which went out of control on icy Lowell Road, north of Pratt Road, went into a ditch, hit a tree stump and overturned.

Other passengers in the car were Wayne Deveau, 16, of R-2, DeWitt; Paul Geller, 16, of R-4, St. Johns; LeRoy Martens, 17, of R-4, St. Johns; and Tom Hoover, 15, of R-2, DeWitt. They were unhurt.

WITT WAS driving north on Lowell Road at the time of the accident about 12:45 p.m. The accident scene is in Riley Township.

National Cathedral is seen on slides

Nov. 19, St. Monica's Guild of St. John's Episcopal Church, met at the home of Mrs Leo Pouch. Miss Shirley Pouch and Mrs John Pouch acted as co-hostesses.

A program about the National Cathedral in Washington, D. C. was presented by Miss Josephine Burnett. Slides were shown of the cathedral, all of the altars, and floral arrangements used in the cathedral. Miss Burnett also talked about the construction which is still under way. Three cathedral schools, boys, girls, and clergy, were also included in the program.

Mrs John Pouch presided over a brief meeting. The ECW Christmas party will be Dec. 11 at the home of Mrs Charles Lynam at 8 p.m.

buses now handle the children going to that sector of the county.

THE FIRE which leveled the old wooden frame schoolhouse is believed to have been started by faulty wiring. Firemen estimated the loss at $5,000, but the Marshall school district board has not yet met with insurance adjusters to set the official loss figure.

Mrs Mildred Penner, the teacher at the old Marshall school, was absorbed into the St. Johns system with the children. She will help with the system's reading program.

Local girl wins sewing contest employing wool

MARY LOUISE WITT

Area girls were winners at the District 4 "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest held Nov. 21.

Mary Louise Witt, 17, will represent Division B at the State contest, Dec. 12, at the Union Building, Michigan State University. She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Herbert Witt, 7052 West Centerline Road.

Mary's winning costume consisted of a four piece navy and white hounds-tooth checked suit. Her award was a red wool, felt rug donated by Cretcher's Corridales.

OTHER local girls placing high in the contest were sisters, Carolyn Ann and Mary Beth Sexton. They are the daughters of Mr and Mrs L. G. Sexton, 105 Swegles.

Carolyn, 17, won a $5 gift certificate from Goodwin Fabrics for her beige herringbone suit.

Mary Beth, 16, won the "best accessorized" award, a $5 gift certificate from Sew N' Save, with her red and black herringbone suit.

Clergymen injured in crash

The Rev Robert Prange, 34, pastor of the Grove Bible Church at the corner of Price and Shepardsville roads in Victor Township, was injured Monday afternoon in a two-car crash.

He was reported in "fair" condition Tuesday afternoon at Clinton Memorial Hospital.

THE REV MR Prange was first taken to a physician by sheriff's Deputy Hilary Hafner when it appeared the pastor was not seriously hurt. Pains developed to such an extent that he was taken to the hospital.

The pastor was driving south on Shepardsville Road about 1:05 p.m. Monday when he collided with another car traveling north. It was driven by Robert E. Bowers, 35, of 2721 S. Washington Avenue, Lansing, who was not hurt.

Deputy Hafner, who investigated, said Bowers' car was over the centerline of the road. Bowers was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way, according to the report.

3 persons hurt in Olive crash

Three persons were taken to Sparrow Hospital in Lansing last Wednesday afternoon with injuries received in a two-car collision at US-27 and Alward Road in Olive Township.

Robert Lee Meeks, 29, of Detroit, driver of one of the cars, and a passenger, Paul Stanfield, 37, of 1322 N. Walnut Street, Lansing, were tossed from Meek's car.

STATE POLICE said Meeks had head cuts, a back injury and a possible head injury. Stanfield had head cuts and a possible head injury.

The driver of the other car, Lois Mae Huffaker, 18, of Wellington, Ohio, had knee and elbow bruises.

Troopers said Meeks' vehicle turned left into the path of the southbound Huffaker car.

On Monday evening, Diana Boshore hosted the meeting of the Page 4-Corners 4-H Club.

Maureen Peck, president, called the meeting to order and Sandra Grubaugh and Janise Hibbler led the flag pledges. Because there were several new members, roll call was answered by everyone giving their full name.

Betty Wadell, and Patricia Kridner conducted initiation for 14 members and three leaders who had not been initiated before. Song leaders led several songs.

CERTIFICATES, pins and premium money were awarded. Trip awards went to Diana Boshore, Yankee Springs; Judy Revist, Detroit; Jill Tabor, Traverse City; Snow Trip and Betty Wadell, club week.

Refreshments were served by Marie Blakely, and Betty, Debbie and Diana Boshore.

Projects that the 30 members are enrolled in are clothing, knitting, handicraft and indoor gardening. Mrs Donald Whitaker is the new leader in clothing.

Officers are: Maureen Peck, president; Jill Tabor, vice president; Mack Webster, secretary; Janice Levey, treasurer; Carol Buck, reporter; and Betty Wadell and Patricia Kridner, games.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 7, at the home of Rita and Jill Tabor.

Crowley-Reese marry reside in St. Johns

St. Johns Methodist Church was the scene of the marriage of Diane Crowley and Terry Reese.

The Rev. Ralph Woodard of the Duplain Church of Christ in Elsie officiated at the double ring ceremony which took place Nov. 7 at 3 p.m.

Diane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crowley of R-5, St. Johns. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Reese of 202 Floral are the parents of the groom.

Mr. Crowley gave away his daughter, who was wearing a floor-length dress, made of tiered lace over net and satin. A princess waistline accented the belled skirt and sweetheart neckline. Her veil of French illusion was secured by a jeweled crown. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings which were gifts of the groom, and carried a cascade of white mums.

MAID OF HONOR for the former Miss Crowley was Judy Reese, sister of the groom. She wore a gold satin sheath with elbow sleeves and an oval neckline.

The bridesmaids, Karen Rehmann and Ellen Halsey wore identical dresses of emerald green satin. All carried cascades of white mums.

Kathy and Bradley Behrens of Ovid, cousins of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer, respectively.

Richard Fenby assisted the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Neil Hall and the brides brother, Terry Crowley. Arthur Howard, brother-in-law of the groom, and Royce Brown served as ushers.

THE BRIDES mother wore a two-piece dress of green and blue brocade and accessorized it with a matching blue purse and shoes. An eggshell-colored brocade dress was chosen by the mother of the groom, who also chose blue accessories. The mothers wore identical corsages of yellow and white mums.

Gayla Fricke who is a friend of the bride was organist for the occasion. Soloist was John Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Exelby acted as hosts at a reception in Niles Hall which directly followed the ceremony. About 175 guests were present.

The couple, both graduates of St. Johns High School, made their home at 206 McConnell, after returning from a honeymoon in the Upper Peninsula.

The new Mrs. Reese is a secretary at Michigan State University. Her husband works for the National Guard in Lansing.

Christmas party plans discussed by study group

The Friendly Neighbors Extension Study Group held its November meeting at the home of Mrs. Clarence Trumbull, Wednesday evening, with nine members present and one visitor.

The meeting opened with the members reciting the Women's Extension Creed. Chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Hopp, presided over the business session.

Councilmember, Mrs. Walter Marten, gave the council report.

THE LESSON on What's New in Fabrics was given by Mrs. Clarence Trumbull and Mrs. Roy Moore. They discussed new fabrics and pointed out the advantages and disadvantages in sewing, washing and drying.

Plans were made for a Christmas party which will be held with Mrs. Maynard Marten on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 16, at 1:30 p.m. with a 50 cent gift exchange.

Dinner meeting held

Price Extension Study Group was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Palmeter, Nov. 17.

Miss Mildred Ashley acted as chairman. Roll call was favorite quotations.

Mrs. Joseph Motz, councilmember, gave the lesson on "What's New in Fabrics."

MRS. JAMES E. BARNES

Double ring rites unite Lynam-Barnes

A double ring ceremony united in marriage Deborah Lynn Lynam and James E. Barnes on Saturday, Nov. 21, at 2 p.m. in St. John's Episcopal Church. Rev. Hugh Banning officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Lynam of 500 East Walker Street and the groom is the son of Mrs. Altha M. Barnes of Clearwater, Fla. and the late Edgar L. Barnes.

Mr. Lynam gave his daughter, who appeared in a floor-length gown of silk taffeta. Alencon lace adorned the scalloped neckline and a cathedral train was attached to the draped skirt. The shoulder-length veil was secured by a crown of pearls. Her bouquet, consisting of red roses and white chrysanthemums, matched the flowers which adorned the altar.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Candace Dean Lynam, was her maid of honor. She wore full-length, peacock blue chiffon over a taffeta dress with a fitted bodice. The cowl neckline of peacock satin ended with a satin bow at the end of the "V" back and continued into full-length streamers. She wore a white fur hat and a white fur muff adorned with red roses.

David Stokes of Ithaca was the best man. Dennis Snyder of Western Springs, Ill. and Terry Weisenberger of Saginaw were the ushers.

ORGANIST FOR the event was Donalee Williams. A reception followed immediately in the undercroft of the church. At 7 p.m. guests met at the home of the bride's parents.

After honeymooning in Detroit, the couple made their home at 700 North Washington in Lansing. The bride attended Central Michigan University. The bridegroom is a student at Michigan State University and will graduate this December.

Music inspired by Shakespeare feted locally

Members and guests of the St. Johns Morning Musicales met Thursday morning, Nov. 19, at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Jones on French Road.

Mrs. Manning Bross, vice president, conducted the business session in the absence of the club president, Mrs. Fred Lewis. Members voted to start the next meeting, a Christmas program with brunch following, at 9:30 a.m. instead of the regular time of 9:45 a.m. This Christmas meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Lambert on Thursday morning, Dec. 10.

Mrs. Bross commented briefly upon world-wide celebrations of the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death. The most followed of these celebrations are being held in England and Scotland. Since the club is studying the music inspired by Shakespeare's plays, she enumerated a few of the compositions, from overtures to full operas, that have been written in connection with Shakespearean plays.

MRS. ROBERT Cox provided reviews of both Hamlet and Cymbeline. The former, considered one of Shakespeare's great tragedies, contains several poetic passages sung in the play by the character Ophelia. These words, set to music by Brahms, were sung by Mrs. Robert Rice and accompanied by Mrs. Duane Davis.

Although Cymbeline is not as familiar a play, when compared to Hamlet it is worthy poetry containing unique characterizations. It was written late in Shakespeare's life. However, Franz Schubert used words from the play for one of his famous songs, "Hark, Hark the Lark." With Mrs. Harold Lundy accompanying at the piano, members and guests sang this number in unison.

Serving one-year board terms will be Charles K. Taylor, Oak Park; John R. Keller, Bedford, Ohio; Ralph P. Bassett, Winnetka, Ill.; and Dr. Russell Elliott, Highland Park.

BONNIE THELEN

Bonnie Thelen named 'good citizen' at P-W

Miss Bonnie Thelen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thelen of Pawamo, has been selected as the 1965 Good Citizen at Pawamo-Westphalia Community Schools.

She was elected by the faculty and seniors. The Good Citizenship Program is sponsored by the Stevens Thompson Mason chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution of Ionia.

BONNIE, one of eight children, started her education at St. Joseph's in Pawamo. As a student at Pawamo-Westphalia High School, she is attaining a high scholastic rating. Among her extra-curricular activities are cheerleading, Junior Classical League, student librarian, Future Homemakers of America, Girls' Athletic Assn., and student council.

She has held the office of historian and reporter in the FHA and secretary of the Junior Classical League and the student council.

BONNIE is a member of the Independent Study group. These are honor students selected on the basis of scholarship, citizenship and dependability to study without observation.

Upon graduation next spring, Bonnie plans to continue her education, possibly at Central Michigan University at Mount Pleasant.

Priscilla Alden get Advent candles

The November meeting of the Priscilla Alden Fellowship was held at the Congregational Church with 22 women present.

A potluck luncheon was served by Mrs. John Dexter and Mrs. Grover Heibek.

THE aprons and several small items left from the fair were sold at this meeting. Ruth Loomis gave the secretary's and treasurer's reports.

In addition to a new antependium, the club is getting candles for the Advent Season.

MRS. MABEL Maier had charge of an inspirational devotional period.

Dec. 8, a Christmas luncheon, with the Methodist ladies as guests, will be held.

Entertains friends at party after junior class play

Cathy Matthews entertained 72 friends Saturday night at an informal party following the last performance of the junior class play, "Mr. Co-Ed." The party was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Matthews, 701 South Mead Street.

Miss Sue Fulton, the teacher who directed the play, was presented with a gift from the cast, engraved with the words "Mr. Co-Ed."

Hot dogs and soft drinks were served.

Past presidents lead initiation of new members

Six of the new members of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 153 were initiated at the meeting on Tuesday evening, Nov. 17.

The meeting, which was preceded by a membership potluck at 6:30 p.m., was called to order by the president, Mrs. John L. Hall. The initiating team was made up of past presidents. The following new members were initiated: Mrs. Lloyd Peterson, Mrs. Joseph Caudy, Mrs. Alberta Brock, Mrs. Arthur Hicks, Mrs. Harold Durbin and Mrs. Robert Howe.

THE initiating team in charge was Mrs. St. Clair Pardee as director; Mrs. George H. Brooks, pianist; and Mrs. Frank Maier, chaplain. Mrs. Cereda Hicks, Miss Maralyse Brooks, Mrs. Jake Wabeke, Mrs. Carl Bancroft, and Mrs. Carl Zacharias, all past presidents, assisted. Mrs. John Caudy and Mrs. T. E. Brooke were sergeants-at-arms.

Following the initiation the past presidents were mentioned and Mrs. Don Smith and Mrs. Justin Marzke were honored.

Mrs. Harold Shipley, gold star member, was introduced and presented with a gift.

Members of the unit have attended the Christmas Gift Shop at the Veterans Hospital at Battle Creek for two days, where they assisted veterans to choose Christmas gifts for their families. Those who went are Mrs. R. V. Beaufore, eighth district rehabilitation chairman; Mrs. St. Clair Pardee, local chairman; Mrs. Ed MacKinnon, Mrs. Al Northhouse, Mrs. Lloyd Peterson, and Mrs. Roland Ordway.

Committee for the evening was Mrs. Paul Hettinger, Mrs. John Caudy and Mrs. James Karber.

Sarah-Louise Circle hears Dr. F. L. Bull

The Sarah Louise Circle of the First Methodist Church met at the church, Tuesday, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m.

The members were led in worship by Mrs. Lester Jenkins. Chairman Mrs. Fraser MacKinnon introduced Dr. Frank L. Bull who gave a talk on the Rhine River followed by films.

AFTER a meeting announcements were made. Dessert was then served by co-hostesses, Miss Carmen Tranchell and Mrs. George Snater.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS COE

Airman Thomas Coe weds St. Johns girl

The First Baptist Church of St. Johns was the setting for the Saturday evening wedding of Miss Connie Rae Devereaux and Airman 1 c Thomas Myron Coe.

Rev. Duane Brewbaker, of the Church of God, and Pastor Peter Nieuwkoop performed the double ring service which united in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Devereaux of R-1, St. Johns and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Coe of 302 W. Gibbs Street, St. Johns.

Mrs. Edward Loznak played traditional organ selections and accompanied Ralph Vanderwerf of Grand Rapids who sang, "God Given Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

THE BRIDE chose a dulcet, satin gown with re-embroidered Alencon lace, hand clipped and patterned. It had a molded bodice with a Portrait neckline and graduated panel extending to the floor. Accents of the patterned lace trimmed with pearls fringed the neckline and the panel. Long fitted sleeves were also accented with the lace and pearls. The full skirt was fashioned on each side of the panel with unpressed pleats, repeated at the back where it was swept with a wide chapel train. Above the waistline, in back, an Obl was attached. A small double Swedish crown of pearl-edged, lace scallops and scallops of the Aurora Borealis Crystals secured her triple, bouffant veil of imported French illusion. She carried a white Bible which was topped with an orchid and white rose buds.

MISS SARAH Young served as maid of honor. Dianna Salter, and Elaine Flegel of Ithaca were bridesmaids. They wore identical street-length sheath gowns of Capri-blue velvet with three-quarter length sleeves. The modified, scoop neckline came to a "V" in back with a bow and long ends attached. They wore matching head pieces and carried a cascade of pink carnations.

Robert Penney of Traverse City was best man with Stanley Meyers of Owosso and Gale Devereaux, brother of the bride, as groomsmen.

Ushers were Bill Richards, Robert Redmond of Perrinton, Stanley Benson of Ashley and Kenneth Salisbury.

The flower girl was Laura Richards, cousin of the groom and ring bearer was Timothy Devereaux, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride chose a royal blue, brocade dress with beige accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose a powder-pink, brocade dress with black accessories.

MR. AND MRS. Maurice Gove of St. Johns were hosts for the reception of approximately 300 guests held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Boog of Bannister, Mrs. Duane Brewbaker, Mrs. Leon Devereaux and Mrs. Wendell Devereaux, aunts of the bride and Kathy Salter presided at the serving table. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clingenpeel of Wheeler and Peggy Young.

Kay Boog of Bannister, cousin of the bride, attended the guest book.

Gifts were opened by Chris McLellan of Lansing, Doreen Slept, Shiela Brewbaker of Elsie and Dawn Eastlick of East Lansing all cousins of the bride.

The newlyweds will reside at Kincheleo Air Base in the Upper Peninsula after a short honeymoon.

Courthouse vaults cleared of obsolete records, papers

The vaults at the Clinton County Courthouse in St. Johns were getting a cleaning this week for the first time since they were built. Old records that dated back as far as 1860 were removed from the vaults to make room for more up-to-date records.

The cleanup was being done under a state law which provides for records disposal. It was done principally by Bruce C. Harding, chief of the Division of Archives for the Michigan Historical Commission.

HARDING LOOKED through all the records to see that nothing of historical value is destroyed. All the records were being burned in the courthouse incinerator unless Harding set them aside.

"When local officials decide they need the space and that records are no longer needed," he explained, "the Historical Commission, with the approval of the State Administrative Board, conducts a records disposal project."

MATERIAL being burned included checks and vouchers over six years old, dog license records over two years old, and other obsolete records. Anything felt to be of historical value was saved and is available for use by the Historical Commission.

Census records in the county clerk's vault were kept. They included figures on the census of 1860, 1864 and 1870. Harding said Clerk Paul Wakefield retained the 1880 figures for use in social security figuring.

ALL MATERIAL is checked over by the county officials to make sure nothing is thrown away that should be kept. The courthouse custodian also checks the papers, too, before throwing them in the incinerator.

Some papers Harding packed in boxes and marked them for destruction at later dates. This is material that still must be kept for a few years.

THE VAULTS of County Clerk Wakefield and County Treasurer Velma Beaufore were cleaned out Monday and Tuesday of this week, and Harding was making arrangements to clean out that of Register of Deeds Marie Belknap Wednesday.

Women's WCTU examines drug, smoking danger

Mrs Alma Dutton was hostess to the November meeting, Monday evening of the Mary Smith Union of Women's Christian Temperance Union, conducted by Donnah Hampton, president.

The meeting was opened with devotions by Mrs Charles Berkhausen who used as her theme, "Thanksgiving." Scripture was Deut. 6:4-9; Psalm 91:1-2 and Psalms 100.

All joined in singing "Whisper a Prayer in the Morning."

Prayer was offered by Verna Beck.

Following the meeting Pearl Blank conducted the program. The first part was a historical outline of "United States Narcotic Legislation."

The US Congress passed three major laws in 1914. Following this about 14 laws and amendments passed as needs arose until now all narcotic laws are codified.

FOLLOWING this, an actual report was read on "How I stopped smoking."

The next meeting will be a family Christmas party at the First Methodist Church.

Greta Weller hosts Past Matrons Club

The Past Matrons Club of Radiant Chapter No. 79, OES met at the home of Mrs Greta Weller, 207 East Cass Street, to initiate the Junior Past Matron, Helena Burk.

Mrs Rosalie Ludwick was in charge of the initiation, assisted by Mrs Lucille Bailey.

After the initiation a lunch was served by the committee for the evening. Helen Hoag was chairman, assisted by Donna Carter, Evelyn Putnam, Evonne McCurry and Greta Weller, the hostess.

OTHERS attending were Fay Osgood, Esther Graham, Marguerite Crampton, Mae Spousta, Esther Bradley, Ruth Mehney, Violet Pope, Greta McNutt, Jeannette Blackman, Mabel Fowler, and the guest of honor Helena Burk.

The Christmas party was discussed and it was decided to hold it at the home of Mrs Fay Osgood, Dec. 14 at 8:30 p.m. The committee in charge for the evening will be calling all past matrons before that date, for the potluck.

County Treasurer Velma Beaufore (left) and County Clerk Paul Wakefield (right) look over old records in Mrs Beaufore's vault before they are destroyed to make room for new records. At center is Bruce C. Harding, chief of the division of archives of the Michigan Historical Commission, who conducted the cleanup of three courthouse vaults this week.

PTA discusses welcome group for the area

MAPLE RAPIDS—Maple Rapids PTA met Tuesday, Nov. 17 to form a welcoming committee for the Maple Rapids area. Alvin Drumheller said that about 7 different organizations and clubs had shown interest in the project. Mr Drumheller and John Murdock will represent the PTA.

It was voted to give the room having the largest parent representation, at any PTA meeting, the sum of two dollars. Teacher and students will decide how it would be spent. Third grade has won for three months so they will receive $6.00.

JOHN MURDOCK, elementary supervisor, announced that parent teacher conferences would be held Nov. 23 and 24, and that there wouldn't be evening conferences this year. Anyone not able to make regular conferences should call at the school at their convenience, he said.

Featured speaker for the evening was Dr William Steigerwald of Maple Rapids. Dr Steigerwald spoke on the importance of immunization for children and adults.

Next month Santa Claus will make an appearance.

DeWitt man's heart ails on Florida trip

He was taken to the Manatee Memorial Hospital in Bradenton, Fla. and is presently recuperating there. The Hells were on their way to the Lane Oak Trailer Park in Palmetto, where Mrs Hell is now residing.

Have You Met?

A COLUMN DEVOTED TO NEWCOMERS TO THE ST. JOHNS AREA

Brothers RICHARD E. BELLANT and WILLIAM E. BELLANT, who are self-employed as steel painters, have moved their families to St. Johns. They recently completed painting on the Mackinac Bridge and are presently working on the Oldsmobile factory in Lansing.

They are living in St. Johns because it is centrally located in a wide area of this type of work. Although self-employed, they are hired for their work by various construction companies. They have moved their families to separate living quarters in the former Wilson residence at 110 Maple Street. They plan to either build or buy a home in St. Johns.

RICHARD BELLANT and his wife Judith have two children, Dickie 4, and Dickie, age five months. WILLIAM BELLANT and his wife Beverly also have two children, Randy 6 and Ricky 5.

Both families moved to St. Johns from Marquette.

Rev Churchill tells of Alaskan religion

The St. Johns Woman's Club met Wednesday, Nov. 18, at the home of Mrs Dorr Anderson.

The Michigan State Federation of Woman's Club song, "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty," was sung with Mrs Manning Bross leading.

MRS HOWARD Smith introduced Rev Gerald Churchill who spoke on "Religion in Alaska." He said the native groups of Eskimos, Aleuts and Indians, numbering about 44,000, all had a primitive religion.

Now there are 85 churches in Alaska ministering to the needs of 250,000 people in Anchorage.

THE TEA committee, with Mrs Gayle Vauconsant as chairman, served from a tea table with a centerpiece of autumn fruit.

The next meeting will be Dec. 2, at 1:30 p.m. at the Methodist Church. Mrs Howard Smith will be the hostess.

Paper bedding popular, hears Extension Club

The Urbanites Extension Club met Nov. 19, with Mrs Lloyd Ford. Mrs Donald Wiseman was co-hostess for the 10 members present.

Plans were completed for the tour to the Consumers plant in Lansing, Wednesday evening, Nov. 25.

It was also agreed to help finance both a scholarship for a student, and the floor in Smith Hall.

Each member is writing a card to our state congressman against legalized gambling in Michigan. The cards to be paid for from the treasury.

THE LESSON, "What's New in Fabrics," was given by Mrs Marlon Walling. She said that by 1970, paper sheets and pillow cases will be very popular. Some large hotels are now using them and rearranging beds to conceal the roll of paper in the head board.

The Germans have a new suede cloth that makes beautiful garments, she said, and concerning grease spots, a simple dry cleaner will take care of them on any material.

Dec. 17, a potluck, Christmas party and exchange of mystery sisters will be held at Mrs Lawrence Raseys.

Pleads innocent to drunk driving

Edward Handon of 317 S. Sycamore Street, Lansing, pled not guilty Monday to a charge of driving under the influence of liquor. He was arrested by St. Johns police Sunday at the top of Clinton Avenue.

He was released from jail on $300 bond. Justice of the Peace Robert Wood set Dec. 10 at 1:30 p.m. for trial.

Bazaar is planned by St. Rita's Guild

St. Rita's Guild of St. Joseph Altar Society met Thursday evening, Nov. 19 at the home of Mrs Wayne Beaufore with Mrs Floyd Barnes as co-hostess.

The rosary was led to the 13 members present by Mrs Ronald Cuthbert. It was followed by the meeting.

The Christmas bazaar which the Altar Society is sponsoring on Dec. 8, was discussed. Plans for a card party for the guild members and their husbands was also discussed. After the close of the meeting members worked on projects for the bazaar.

MRS AARON Ordway won the door prize. Refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostess.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs Bernard Eisler with Mrs Wayne Beaufore as co-hostess.

Head-on crash bruises 2 persons

Two persons were bruised Saturday evening in a two-car crash on M-21 a half-mile east of Bauer Road in Bengal Township.

Pauline VanAlstine, 19, of Vestaburg was admitted to Clinton Memorial Hospital, but was released Sunday. She was a passenger in an auto driven by Lyle Dalymple, 23, of Belding, who was not hurt.

ALSO BRUISED in the crash was Frank E. Tober, 55, of Alpena, driver of the second car involved. He did not require hospital treatment.

Dalymple was ticketed by sheriff's deputies for driving on a revoked license. According to the accident report, Dalymple, traveling east on M-21, was passing another vehicle and hit the Tober car head-on. The accident occurred at 7:30 p.m.

Hyatt-Plogger exchange vows in Saginaw

OID —Marilyn Louise Hyatt and Airman I.C Charles W. Plogger exchanged nuptial vows Saturday, Nov. 17, in a 7 p.m. candlelight service.

The Saginaw First Church of God, where the ceremony took place, was the same place where the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Marvin R. Hyatt of Saginaw, were married 26 years ago. Rev Lewis Wagoner of Saginaw, one of the bride's ministers officiated at her parent's wedding also. The other officiating minister was Rev Ronald Krethoff of Midland.

Parents of the groom are Mr and Mrs L. D. Plogger of Greenfield, Ill.

THE BRIDE appeared before an altar decorated with white mums in a floor-length gown with a lace bodice and sweetheart neckline. The sleeves were long and the belted skirt of angel mist taffeta featured a lace panel in front caught with three taffeta bows. The chapel train was edged in lace. The headpiece consisted of a crown of pearls and a fingertip veil. The white Bible which she carried was topped by miniature roses and streamers.

The bride was given away by her father in the double ring ceremony.

Rosalyn M. Hyatt of Saginaw, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs Jerry Morgan and Ruth A. Harrington, both of Ovid. A cousin of the bride, Shelly Leach, was flower girl.

THE HONOR attendants wore floor-length, long-sleeved dresses of peacock blue velvet. The belted skirts were of white and silver brocade silk and the headpieces wore crowns of peacock blue velvet encrusted with pearls and crystals. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow Fuji mums.

Mr Hugh M. Hyatt of Lansing was the best man. Groomsmen were Lee Woodworth of Ovid and William H. Leach of Saginaw. Dale Hyatt and Russell Hyatt, both of Midland, assisted as ushers.

The bride's mother chose to wear a suit of beige brocade. She accessorized it with peacock blue. The mother of the groom wore a navy blue suit with red accessories. The mothers wore identical corsages of red roses and mums.

ORGANIST for the ceremony was Mrs Joanne Leach. Kenneth Oley was the soloist.

Master and mistress of ceremonies at the reception, held in Church Fellowship Hall were Mr and Mrs Frank Oles of Ovid.

Following a honeymoon in the Eastern States the couple will reside at K. L. Sawyer AFB.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Ovid High School. The groom graduated from a school in Greenfield, Ill., in 1961.

Fined for driving on suspended license

Marvin LeRoy McGrath, 21, of R-3, Harrison, was fined $75, charged court costs of $15 and sentenced to two days in jail Tuesday for driving while his license was suspended. Justice of the Peace Robert Wood assessed the fine.

News About Clinton County Service Personnel

Yeoman Second Class RONALD R. RUVOLO, USN, husband of the former Miss Elizabeth S. DeGeer of 910 E. Walker St., St. Johns, participated Nov. 9-15 in operation "Flea Bite," a mine warfare training exercise off the coast of California, while serving aboard the ocean minesweeper USS Prime.

The operation, conducted by the Pacific Fleet Mine Force, was the largest mine warfare training exercise of the year.

His ship completed the exercise in time to return to the United States for Thanksgiving.

He wants taxi; city won't run it

A St. Johns resident, nameless in his or her letter, last week asked the city commission if there was anything that could be done about getting taxi service again in St. Johns.

It has been about three years since Virgil Olson closed a taxi business in the city, and there has been no serious effort since then to get another one going. The anonymous letter writer expressed the opinion that there was a need.

CITY MANAGER Ken Greer told the commission that some time back he had asked City Attorney Harold Reed to investigate the possibility of the city owning a service and leasing it to someone who could run it. Greer said Reed thought it could be done.

"Many larger communities have had problems with their bus service," Greer said, "and have devised ways of the city owning these and leasing them back to the actual companies operating them. This in effect is a form of subsidy in that there is quite a savings in the purchasing of the equipment by the city, savings in cost of gas and oil, some savings in the cost of insurance, etc.

"WHETHER OR not the lack of a taxi in St. Johns warrants this type of action, I don't know," Greer said, "but some time back I asked our attorney to investigate this and he claimed it could be done. Roughly municipal ownership would cut the cost just about in half."

The commissioners were generally in disagreement over the success of any taxi venture, it being expressed one way as "St. Johns is not a taxi town." Particularly, they didn't feel it was the job of the city to provide taxi service. That exclamation ended further discussion of the matter.

Recommend 'no' on zoning change

The St. Johns Planning Commission, meeting last Thursday night, made a recommendation to the city commission that a rezoning request by Karber Block and Tile Co. be turned down.

Larry Karber presented the request for the change to the city commission Oct. 20, and they referred it to the planning commission for a recommendation. Karber seeks a change from single family residential to light manufacturing classification.

The city commission probably will act on the planner's recommendation when it meets Tuesday evening.

Accept lowest bid for reroofing

The city commission has accepted the low bid for reroofing the St. Johns Municipal Building, but not unanimously.

The vote was 4-1 for accepting a low bid of the Underwood Roofing Co., of Chesaning for $692. Three other firms bid for the job, with bids ranging up over $2,000.

Commissioner Charles Coletta voted against accepting the low bid, saying that repairs to the roof couldn't be made acceptably for that price.

Let's fence it in, commission suggests

The city commission has a proposal for the St. Johns school board. The city recently purchased, at a good price, a length of heavy wire fencing.

It has offered to use the fence to enclose part of the football field at the park if the school board will purchase enough extra fencing to finish the job. The city's new fence will reach approximately down one side and across one end of the field.

Men's recreation nights start Dec. 7

A men's recreation program for the city of St. Johns will get under way Dec. 7 at the St. Joseph School gym. A charge of 50 cents per person will be made. The program will run from 8 to 10 p.m. each Monday night.

BOWLING St. Johns Area Leagues

With the bowling season now going on three months old, bowlers are beginning to get in the groove, and better scores are resulting.

The 4 K's rolled a 2052 series Friday night for the best three-game series of the season in the Industrial Mixed League. Their 715 game was the high in that category, too. Ed Kaminski had top individual honors with a 256 game and 629 series. Dan Boncha wasn't far behind with a 226 game and 608 series. Shirley Bailey was high for the women with 191 and 469. Other 200 games were rolled by Dick Kuhns with 226 and Elmer Feldpausch with 201 and 210.

THE TIGERS had the high team game of 789 and the high series of 2260 in the Tea Time League last week. Lillian Tiedt rolled a 200 game, which was high for the day. Connie Cronk-hite had a 524 series. Jean Heathman picked up the 3-8 split.

The Bowlettes are stretching their lead over the Pin Pals in the Coffee Cup League. There's a difference of seven games between the two as of last Thursday. The ninth place Eye Openers opened a lot of eyes with a 595 team game and a 1551 series. Marilyn Miller rolled a 165 high game, and Marie Conley had a 455 series.

ROBERT Cartwright hit 158 for the high individual game in the Junior High bowling league last week. Terry Masarik's 470 series score was tops. The Alley Cats, who still lead the league, rolled a 582 team game, and the Wildcats came up with the best series on a score of 1697.

Julie K went into first place in the Ten Pin Keglers League last week. Rhynards trails by only one point. The high individual game and series were rolled by Elsie Dickenson of the Julie K team. She had scores of 194 and 532. Sealed Power had the high team game, 784, and Julie K's 2219 series topped them all. Pat Moore picked up the 6-7 split.

THE MIXED LEAGUE finds the Centerliners leading the way with a five-game bulge over the second place Guy's Sunoco team. Penney's Paints, the seventh place team, had the best game Friday with a 667 score, but the Centerliners had a 1881 series to top that category. For the women, Margaret Turner had a 180 game and 455 series. Richard Zapoli was the best bowler for the men with a 225 high game and a 683 series. Zapoli had games of 226, 255 and 202. Bill Burnham had a 207 game.

Town and Country has a slight lead in the Westphalia Woman's League after last Tuesday's competition. Frankenmuth Beer is a close second, with Drewry's Beer only half a game farther away. Rose Johnson, Seamstress had the best team game and series with scores of 758 and 2073. Flo Lawrence, a member of the Rose Johnson team, rolled a 202 game and 520 series to win individual honors.

BECK'S FARM Market paces the Night Hawk League as of last Tuesday, with Blued Oil not far behind them. Blued's helped their cause with an 890 high game and a 2612 high series on that Tuesday outing. H. Schmid had a 204 high game and a 560 high series.

Eberhard's, the league leader in the First Nighters League, set the pace in Monday night's bowling. Their team scores of 815 and 2328 were tops for single game and series. Sally Martin rolled a 192 game, while Lorna Hopp had a 515 series. Eberhard's leads the league by a point over Heathman's and three points over Hettler's.

THE KINGS and Queens League race is close, too, with the Fearless Four holding a one-point lead over the L & S's and a two-point lead over A & M's. The Fearless Four rolled a 746 game and 2023 series Sunday to take high honors. For the women, Kay Penix had a 189 game and 489 series; for the men Keith Penix was best bowler with a 229 game and 652 series. Penix also had games of 223 and 200. Tom White rolled a 206, Don Hibler had a 215, Walt Suehik had a 206 and Vern Lance scored a 216 game.

H & H Lounge set the pace Monday night at the Capitol League. They had an 874 high game and 2601 high series. Bill Bunce had a 220 high individual game, while Terry Larsser had a 583 series. Strohs had a two-point lead over H & H Lounge and Frechen's Tavern in the league standings.

COWAN'S Mercury rolled a 930 game and a 2816 series to lead the way in the City Classic League last Thursday. Jim Fedewa was high individual bowler with a 267 game and a 621 series. Pohl Brothers leads the league, with Dean's Hardware and 7-Up each one game off the pace.

Sentence pair in burglary case

Two men who were convicted of burglarizing the Dog and Suds Drive-In of $200 Oct. 1 were sentenced to jail terms Monday by Circuit Judge Leo Corkin.

Mitchell Makidon, 18, of Owosso, was sent to state prison in Jackson for a term of not less than two nor more than 10 years.

Robert Alvin Tower, 21, of R-1, Elsie, was put on probation for three years, with the first 90 days of that time to be spent in the county jail. Tower was given credit on the jail term for the time he has spent in the jail since his arrest Oct. 13.

Thanksgiving is pastor's topic at Rotary meeting

Development of an "attitude of gratitude" was the theme of a Thanksgiving message delivered to the St. Johns Rotary Club Tuesday noon by Dr. Howard A. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist Church of St. Johns.

Dr. Smith spoke of the nation's vast store of material and human resources and a national heritage based on a firm reliance in a Divine Providence. "We have abundant reason to be thankful to Almighty God," he concluded.

The speaker was introduced by Dorr M. Anderson, program chairman for the meeting.

Driver is bruised when car rolls over

Marian A. Slamka, 29, of DeWitt suffered arm and knee bruises when her car overturned on Bath Road a half-mile west of Woodbury Road late last Wednesday night. She told state police she swerved to avoid a horse and lost control of the car. It left the road and rolled over on its top.

Misfortune that cause people to think become a blessing.

Estep-Nelson married in Hubbardston rite

EAST HUBBARDSTON—Miss Diane Estep, daughter of Mr and Mrs Cecil Estep of Hayes Road, Ionia County, and Lawrence Nelson of Ionia, repeated their marriage vows before Rev Eugene R. Fox at 1 p.m., Saturday in St. John the Baptist Church, Hubbardston. A reception and dinner was served after the services at the Estep home.

Mrs Edgar Stoddard was taken by ambulance, Thursday morning to the Clinton Memorial Hospital. Mrs Mamie O'Connell and Mrs Iva Rogers visited her Friday.

Mr and Mrs Bruce Stevens and Mr and Mrs Charles Stevens visited Mr and Mrs LeRoy Bendt of Eureka, Sunday.

Near his home, Thursday, Russell Dally shot a deer.

Mr and Mrs Allan Stoddard arrived, Friday night from Huntington, W. Va., to visit the family of Mr and Mrs Edgar Stoddard, and other friends in Michigan. They called at the New Horizon Nursing Home in Springfield, Ohio Friday to see Mrs Daisy Timlin, who will celebrate her 102nd birthday, Dec. 14. Her address is: New Horizon Nursing Home, Driscoll Ave., Springfield, Ohio, for those wishing to send cards.

Mr and Mrs Allen Stoddard and Patrick, visited his aunt, Mamie O'Connell, Sunday after spending some time in the St. Johns Clinton Memorial Hospital, with his mother, Julia.

Fined $50 for speeding

Fines and costs totaling $50 were assessed against David Louth of Ovid Saturday after he pled guilty to speeding. He was arrested Nov. 14 on US-27 in Bingham Township by Deputy Sheriff Roman Terpening. Justice of the Peace Robert Wood assessed the fine.

John Hufnagel (left) of 408 E. Gibbs Street, St. Johns, came home with a deer last week that almost looked like an albino. It had a lot of white coloring mixed in the same fashion as a cow might appear. Hufnagel was hunting with Jim Bancroft (right) of R-1, St. Johns, near Gut Lake north of Farwell in Clare County on opening day when he got the prize animal. The buck weighed 115 pounds and had a nine-point rack.

New successes at deer hunting told

Clinton area deer hunters continued to report successes this week.

Larry E. Shultz of R-1, DeWitt was one of the lucky ones. He shot a nine-point buck on the farm of his father, Charles Shultz, also of R-1, DeWitt. The deer weighed 160 pounds.

REV AND MRS Erwin Self of St. Johns brought home two deer, one a spikehorn and the other a one-spoke buck. They hunted in the West Branch area with their two sons, Edwin and Elwood.

Roger Kowalski, St. Johns' recreation director, got a doe Sunday near Eight Point Lake north of Barryton.

The biggest rack on any deer reported in this area by hunters was one with 15 points, taken by Tom Placer of Lansing.

OTHER DEER hunters who had successes since last week include:

Sheldon Beebe, Norma Ban-

It was rough week for picking football victors

Keith Jolly of 109 E. Steel Street, St. Johns, missed four choices on last week's Clinton County News Football Contest, but it was still good enough to win him $20.

It was apparently a rough week for picking winners. Jolly was the only person to miss only four games, eight others tied for second and they missed five each.

JOLLY PICKED Ohio State, Kansas, Syracuse and Yale to win, but they didn't. Most others were also picking those teams—and, of course, one or more losers—as winners.

So far this year $200 has been distributed to Clinton County News readers who have showed ability to pick out winning football teams from the lists published each week. If you haven't won, there's still one more chance to win the $20 weekly prize. This week's contest—the last of the season—is on Page 10 C.

OK preliminary plat

The St. Johns city commission last week approved a preliminary plat for a part of Outlot K in the city. The plat has previously received the approval of the City Planning Commission but needed the city's approval before the final plat can be drawn and submitted.

Allaby awarded turkey for sales

Albert T. Allaby, agent for State Mutual Insurance Co., in St. Johns, was awarded a Thanksgiving turkey by the company for exceeding his quota of new policies during the first 10 months of 1964.

THE CONTEST began Jan. 1, and continued through Oct. 31. All new policies written by the agent during this period count toward the prize.

Allaby was also one of the "Top 15" State Mutual agents for the month of October.

Favor uniform bill for meat inspection

Parker Center Community Farm Bureau went on record as favoring a uniform state meat inspection bill to be administered by the department of agriculture. State meat inspection was the monthly discussion topic at the November meeting held at the Byron Kissane home.

Following the regular reports given by Mrs Wilbur Brandt and William Kissane, Mrs Clarence Kaltrider conducted an old-fashioned spelldown for recreation. A social hour followed lunch, served by the hosts.

A 25-cent gift exchange will be held at the next meeting Wednesday, Dec. 9, at the home of Mr and Mrs Lee Ormston.

King basketball bounces into sports spotlight

Short, but fast Redwings pose big question mark

By next Wednesday morning, Coach Bill Swears will have some answers—but only a few—to the many question marks that face him and St. Johns basketball fans this season.

Can the Redwings hold onto the title they shared with Lakewood last year? Can the team develop a good shooting eye? Can they use their limited height well on the backboard? Will the team use abilities of its only three lettermen as a springboard to victories?

COACH SWEARS said Monday night he honestly doesn't know the answers yet. The answers to some of those questions will be the answers to others.

He may find a few Tuesday night when the Redwings open the 1964-65 campaign by playing host to Mt. Pleasant at the high school gym. And yet they may not be conclusive answers, for the Wings will have had only 10 practice sessions, and seven of the 16 boys on the team are still tired out from a rugged football season which ended only a few days ago.

COACH SWEARS lost six seniors last year, including some good height—and it may hurt this and Jim Leonard, a junior, who are 6 foot even.

IN COMPARISON are these three seniors who started most of the time last year and who were lost in graduation: Dave Middleton, 6-4; Mike Garey, 6-4; and Scott Munger, 6-1. If they were still around this year, Coach Swears probably wouldn't have the big question mark about his team's rebounding ability.

But he has one consolation. Two of his three lettermen—Werbish at forward and Clark Berkhausen at guard—have two years of varsity experience behind them and have been the leading scorers the last two years. The third letterman, Gary Becker, is a scrappy guard who also has two varsity letters to his credit.

SWEARS SAYS most of his boys will be scrappy, and they'll have good speed to make up for their height deficiency. "We'll be a more interesting team to watch," he predicted.

Other seniors on the squad will be Anderson, a center; Hankey a forward; Doug Lundy, a center; and Bill Serrine, a guard. Lundy is 5-11, Serrine 5-10.

JUNIORS INCLUDE Leonard, a forward-center; Springer, a forward who was the leading junior varsity scorer last year; Bob Ortwein, a 5-9 guard; Gene Rademacher, a 5-11 forward; Roger Leavitt, a forward-guard who stands 5-10; Don Hungerford, a forward; John Wilson, a center; Lee Hill, a 5-5 guard; and Tom McKenzie, a 5-7 guard.

"We're shallow in depth," Swears noted, "but they're all good kids, and they work hard and play well. My big worry is our board strength."

"HOW WILL we do this year? I haven't the slightest idea right now," he said. "My boys are untested, untried, but they're good workers. They're all of these things. But they're a question mark."

Last year the Wings shared the West Central Conference title with Lakewood while compiling a 12-4 over-all season. Three of those losses were to Lakewood, Swears notices that he lost more good players than anyone else in the league, and he figures competition this year to be tougher in a more-balanced league.

THE WINGS were to get their first test of the year last Tuesday afternoon in a scrimmage session against Edmore. Swears figured this might answer some of his questions about rebounding, since Edmore has a big center.

Next Tuesday night's season opener will begin at 6:30 p.m. with a junior varsity contest between St. Johns and Mt. Pleasant, with the varsity game to follow.

Basketball parents' night is Saturday

The third annual Parent's Night for parents of basketball players will be held this Saturday night at 7:30 in the high school gym. Players will be dressed in uniforms, and Coach Bill Swears will put them through their paces, explain plays and rules and answer questions.

St. Johns football Coach Bill Smiley was all smiles Sunday as he posed with the West Central Conference trophy. The Redwings won it with a 7-0 league record.

Wings put 9 on all star squad

St. Johns selected five players on the West Central Conference all-star football team and four more on the second team, according to an announcement last week.

Named to the first team were end Al Werbish, tackle Jim Pope, center Ken Love, quarterback Gene Rademacher and back John Vitek.

ON THE second team were end Bob Krumm, guard Don Hungerford and backs Bill Serrine and Lee Hill.

Other players on the first team are end Rod Lake, guard Brad Gillespie and back Tom Barker of Lakewood; tackle Mike Paul of Alma; guard Lloyd Duguid and backs Harold Olds and Zana Easton of Grand Ledge; and back John Newton of Hastings.

4 county schools in action Dec. 1

Clinton area schools aren't allowing for much slack time in their sports schedules, and one week after many teams finished football they'll be going into action on the basketball courts.

All the teams will be playing by next Friday, Dec. 4, but at least four of them—St. Johns, Bath, Fulton and Laingsburg—will get an earlier start next Tuesday.

AS IN THE football season, the Clinton County News plans extensive coverage of the Clinton County and Clinton area teams, and reports on all the games will be printed to keep basketball fans posted on the progress of county teams.

In the early weeks of the season, a close, detailed look at the county teams will be presented. Here are the schedules of most of them as reported by their coaches.

Archers' rabbit hunt Dec. 6

The annual bow and arrow rabbit hunt, proceeds of which go to the Owasco YMCA, will be held Sunday, Dec. 6 at the Style Ferris Coverside Farm near Perry.

Registration will be from 8-11 a.m., with the hunt starting at 10. Blunt arrows, not field point, are to be used for the hunt. Prizes will be awarded to the hunter, huntress and student bringing in the first rabbit and the hunter bringing in the heaviest rabbit.

The Ferris farm is located a mile north and mile west of the M-47 and M-78 junction at Perry.

The flea can lift 140 times its own weight. If a man could do this, he would be capable of lifting a 10-ton truck.

370 see awards presented

The end of a perfect season—that's what they called a football banquet at Smith Hall Sunday evening.

About 370 persons attended the potluck dinner and saw the presentation of football awards, trophies, letters and other recognition to the St. Johns varsity and junior varsity teams, and coaches.

THERE WAS no official speaker, although Supt. of Schools Earl Lancaster did have a few words to say about the 1964 St. Johns Redwings. The Wings finished the season undefeated, with nine victories and with the West Central Conference football title.

Most of the program was concerned with recognition of achievements. Trophies were given to the following varsity players for accomplishments: Lee Hill, outstanding defensive back; Bob Krumm, outstanding defensive lineman; Jim Pope and Al Werbish, outstanding offensive linemen; John Suckles, most improved player over last year; and Ken Love and John Vitek, captains of the team.

GOLD ENGRAVED key chains were given to Gene Rademacher and John Vitek for being named to the all-conference and all-state Class B football squads, while silver key chains were presented to the other all-conference players from St. Johns, Ken Love, Jim Pope, Bob Krumm, Bill Serrine, Lee Hill, Al Werbish and Don Hungerford.

Trophies were presented to the coaching staff by the players of both the varsity and junior varsity teams. Both teams finished their seasons undefeated. Receiving the trophies were head varsity Coach Bill Smiley, and Asst. Coach Frank Rosengren; head JV Coach Doug Japinga and assistants Len Shafley, Tom Wilson and Dale Knight.

CHARLES CAUDY, who photographed the football games this season for the Clinton County News, presented an album of 8 x 10 glossy prints of each picture which appeared in the paper to the two varsity coaches.

Varsity letters were presented to the following players:

necht, Roger Beebe, Lee Hill, Gene Rademacher and Ron Bond.

GUESTS AT the potluck dinner were cheerleaders Debbie Wirick, Betsy Hufnagel, Carol Kees, Marie Rademacher, Sue Humphrey and Molly Sapp; Steve Hopko, representing the Clinton County News; Dick Hayman, representing radio station WJUD; Earl Lancaster, representing the school administration; football scout Bob Spencer; and the families of all the boys on the football teams.

Coach Bill Smiley thanked in addition to the fans who supported his "best team ever," Virgil Zeeb for his contribution of seed for the field, and Mr and Mrs Ralph Lynam and Mr and Mrs Charlie Lynam for putting on the dinner Sunday. They were assisted in the kitchen by Mr and Mrs Robert Serrine and Mr and Mrs Steve Hopko.

Men's basketball meeting Dec. 2

Men's league basketball, under the auspices of the St. Johns Recreation Dept., is being planned again this year, and a meeting of team managers and other interested persons is scheduled for next week.

Recreation Director Roger Kowalski said the meeting would be next Wednesday night, Dec. 2, in the Municipal Building. It will start at 8 p.m.

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGISTS are training laboratory technicians to improve laboratory services and helping with desperately needed research.

OPERATING ROOM NURSES are assisting surgeons and upgrading surgical services by on-the-job training of operating room personnel.

PEDIATRIC NURSES provide skilled care for sick children, aid in ward teaching and supervision of student nurses and teach child care and training.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSES work in rural and urban clinics, visit families to teach nutrition, mother and child care, sanitation and general home improvement.

NURSING IN THE PEACE CORPS: Fluent Hands, Skills to Share

*The cry of a kicking, newborn infant . . .
The impatient chatter of children at play . . .
The unsteady breathing of a 70-year-old, fighting to live.*

These are some of the sounds of life. In many lands they would have ceased were it not for:

*A single drop of smallpox vaccine . . .
A trained eye, scanning a microscope field . . .
Fluent hands helping a surgeon close a wound.*

In these familiar sounds and common actions, hundreds of American nurses in the Peace Corps are finding a new sense of purpose, a new feeling of dignity.

The level of medical standards we know in the United States has not been reached in most developing nations. Every day, thousands of lives are lost due to smallpox, malaria, tuberculosis, dysentery, malnutrition—maladies which in our land have almost ceased to take their terrible toll.

In 21 countries around the world, Peace Corps nurses are serving in urban and rural hospitals, clinics and health centers. Many are working in special institutions—tuberculosis sanatoriums, leprosariums, mental, maternity and infectious disease hospitals. Others serve as instructors in schools of nursing and in public health and community development projects. Volunteers also work in surgery, public health, midwifery, anesthesiology, psychiatric nursing and physical therapy.

Prior to August, 1961, Melinda DuBose was a clinical instructor of communicable diseases in a Miami hospital. A few months later, Peace Corps Volunteer DuBose was credited with helping stem a crippling typhoid epidemic on the island of St. Lucia in the West Indies. During another 11-week period, she treated 1,650 children plagued with whooping cough, malnutrition, intestinal parasites and skin infections.

Hard, demanding work? "Sure," she says, "but the heart-warming experiences are multiplied many times over nearly every day. You can't help but feel the warmth of these people as you assist in crowded clinics, attempting to teach a mother the proper diet for her child or explain the reasons why her child has intestinal parasites. There's no feeling in the world that equals the smile on a mother's face, a smile that says, 'I believe you and will try to do as you say.'"

The Peace Corps needs all kinds of Americans—men and women, young and old—for a wide variety of jobs. None, however, are needed more than graduate nurses. For more information about how you can help, write the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525.

Blue Star Mothers fix Christmas boxes

MAPLE RAPIDS— Plans for the Christmas party and for packing Christmas boxes were made at the meeting of the Blue Star Mothers at the home of Mrs. Nellie Wilson on Nov. 18.

The Christmas party will be a supper at the Middleton Diner, and will return to the home of Mrs. Nina Freed and Mrs. Mina Dangel for the meeting and gift exchange on Dec. 15.

It was decided to put cookies and candy in the Christmas boxes.

Chapter No. 76 OES appoint committees

MAPLE RAPIDS— Maple Rapids Chapter No. 76, OES met on Monday evening, Nov. 16, at the Masonic Temple. Worthy Matron, Doris Hicks and Worthy Patron, Maurice Paine presided in the East. All officers, but two, were present.

The chapter was opened in regular form. The secretary read the minutes of the October meeting and the special installation meeting. Both were approved. The treasurer gave his report which was approved and placed on file.

Communications were read, one of which was a Thanksgiving message from the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, of the Grand Chapter of Michigan. The Worthy Matron announced that the Maple Rapids OES, No. 76 and Middleton Chapter No. 318, will have a school of instruction at the Maple Rapids Temple Monday evening, Nov. 23 at 7:30 p. m. The Grand Adah of Grand Chapter of Michigan, is to be the instructor.

THE WORTHY Matron read the committee appointments for the year: examining committee, Edgar Walker, Mary Cole, and Grace Upton; entertainment committee, Marguerite Berry, Winnifred Walker, and Doris Hicks; committee on building improvements, Winnifred Walker, Nelda McWilliams, and Norma Eleson; chapter news correspondent, Eleanor Fogleson.

The chapter approved a motion to work with the Masonic Lodge to install a new water heater in the kitchen.

A Christmas party, with a 75 cent gift exchange, will be held at the December meeting.

The meeting closed and Hazel Wright and Marie Roberts with their committee, served refreshments in the dining room.

MRS HAZEL Foland and Mrs. Iris England were welcomed back after an absence of some time. An invitation from the Elsie Chapter to attend their 20th anniversary party on Dec. 2 was read.

The next meeting will be Dec. 1 at the home of Mrs. Iris England.

ON-THE-FARM FEED MAKING AT ITS BEST!

LOADED WITH FARMER-ORIGINATED AND FARMER-TESTED FEATURES!

Make the feed you want, the amount you want, when you want it. The Feedmaster offers advantages over all other feed-making methods... no waiting, no payments to outsiders, better prices on bulk pre-mix and concentrates. Reduce handling, storage, work and costs. In minutes you can grind and mix a 2-ton batch of any kind of feed. You use grain, hay, corn, milo, etc. of known quality for better feed. And now the Farmhand Feedmaster, already proven best, is better than ever... years ahead of all other makes.

Let me show you why FEEDMASTER is the best possible machine for your money!

MCGONIGAL CORNERS—The Girl Scout Cadette Troop No. 55, met at the Bath School Tuesday evening. Discussions for nominations for state officers followed. The following girls were elected to run for offices: Eldona Vermillion, governor; Tam Cowdry, Lt. governor; Jan Harte, secretary of state; Darlene Palmatier, auditor general; and Jean Watson, speaker of the house.

If elected, these girls will sit in the state offices, Dec. 30. The girls also discussed coming events of the winter-week to be held at Mill Lake, Feb. 21 to 23.

The Cadette Troop plans to visit the Cadette Troop of DeWitt Thursday, Dec. 3, at 4 p.m. The troop will care for a needy family at Christmas time.

Candidates for baptism from the Bath Baptist Church were baptized last Sunday afternoon at the Grove Church on Shepardsville Road.

Bannister

WSCS members display array of local talent

BANNISTER—The November meeting of the Bannister Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service took place Wednesday afternoon at the church with Mrs Tom Bradley, vice president, in charge of the program.

By previous arrangement, each member present had been asked to participate in her special talent. The result was a display of instrumental music, vocal selections, humorous readings, poetry, worship settings, scripture verses and a group song led by Rev Edward Tillitz, who visited the meeting and program. Of special interest was a seed picture by Mrs Pearl Mead.

Mrs Raymond Stewart was hostess for the afternoon and was assisted by Mrs Bradley in serving the dessert luncheon at the beginning of the meeting.

THE WORLD Federation of Women was described as 12 women of the 12 fruits of the tree of life which is the emblem of the Federation. A large five foot tree made by Mrs Bradley and her daughter, Romona, was used as each lady pointed out and explained one of the fruits.

Mrs Richard Moore, president, stressed the bazaar date of Dec. 1. The bazaar will be held at the church and will commence at 5 p.m. Mrs Wayne Peck will be in charge of the bazaar, Mrs Floyd Walters of the dining room, and Mrs Richard Moore of the kitchen. Chicken and homemade noodles, and roast pork and dressing will be served. The MYF will also have Christmas cards, homemade candy and fishpond. Besides the regular baked goods, and fancy-work, a large array of Christmas candles will also be available.

Plan skating party

BANNISTER—The Bannister Methodist Youth Fellowship met at the church Friday evening for an evening of games and refreshments.

Plans were completed for the Sunday afternoon session to be held Nov. 29 when the group will make candy for the men in service.

Mrs Robert Valentine, one of the adult counselors, reminded the group of the skating party to be held Nov. 27 at the Fenmore Rink to which everyone is welcome.

Lance Cpl. Moore of the US Marines left Friday for Cherry Point, N.C., to resume his duties after several days leave with his parents, Mr and Mrs Tom Moore. The afternoon previous to his departure he had shot a six-point buck. Roger has been in Japan and the surrounding areas there for the past several months.

Giles Coon, King and Kaye Terrell and Bill Mitchell returned early Thursday morning after spending several days in Vermont with the latter's brother, Dale Mitchell and family. Besides the family visit and the sightseeing, the men also returned with a buck as a result of the hunting available in that section of the States.

South Ovid

By Mrs George Young

Mr and Mrs Vern Binger spent most of last week visiting their children in Lansing.

Mrs Gladys Parker of Ovid was taken to St. Johns Hospital for treatment last week Tuesday.

Ten ladies of the South Ovid vicinity surprised Mrs Sarah Young at her home last Wednesday evening with refreshments and gifts for her new bath room.

Mrs Grace Young and Lucille Loomis of East Laingsburg were Sunday dinner guests with Mrs S. Young and then visited Mr and Mrs Orla Law of near Westphalia. Mr Law just returned home from Carson City Hospital last Thursday.

Mrs Roberta Young of Ovid and Mrs S. Young of this vicinity attended the toy party at Mrs George Youngs on Taft Road last Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Bertha Parker was a Monday caller on her grandparents, Mr and Mrs Dee Ellwood on Hollister Road.

Mr and Mrs M. Morehouse of Ovid called on Mrs Sarah Young Sunday morning. Mr Morehouse just returned Saturday night from hunting in northern Michigan. He said that the party got two deer.

Jewelry Stores Sparkle with Exciting Gifts for Everyone This Christmas

A glance at the showcases in local jewelry stores will reveal attractive Christmas gifts for the whole family this year. The greatly diversified selections for every member of the family are sure to offer just the right present for every person on the gift list. When buying jewelry, the recipient's personality and tastes should always be taken into account. When, for instance, you buy a watch, the Jewelry Industry

Council advises that you should bear in mind that handsome styling and individuality are likely to be as important to the wearer as split-second accuracy. There is an extensive choice of new and fashionable watches to suit every taste this year.

that can be enjoyed by the whole family. For example, picture frames, nut and condiment dishes, candlesticks, cigarette holders, lighters and vases, all add a touch of beauty to any home that will be a joy all year around. Silver trays, in all sizes and shapes, are among the most usable gift ideas on anyone's list.

Among the popular gift watches for Christmas are outdoors and sports models, thin pocket watches and chains for formal wear, as well as many kinds of wrist watches designed for business and professional people.

For infants, there are bent-handle spoons, silver rattles or teething rings with silver bells, brush and comb sets, silver-handled tooth brushes, pearls for starting a necklace, cups, bib holders, porringers and gift rings.

For young boys, as well as for men, you may choose fashionable cuff links, tie tacs, tie clips, key chains or wallets. Sterling identification bracelets are very popular among young teenagers. Pen and pencil sets, money clips, leather wallets and desk accessories are available to suit the personal tastes and interests of everyone.

Smoking accessories, such as lighters, cigarette cases and holders, always win a warm welcome. Rings bearing fraternal insignias, initial or signet designs have a strong masculine appeal and are bound to win the heart of your favorite male.

Young women's gift choices are sure to include fashionable earrings, necklaces, bracelets, pins, clips and rings. Gifts of jewelry flatter every woman and make her feel more desirable.

For young girls there are pieces of sterling in her chosen pattern, precious jewelry in the form of bracelets, pendants, rings, pins and lockets. Silver ranks high as a gift

Old Favorites Get Big Play

New variations of old favorites this Christmas cater to youngsters' love of playthings as big as they are and, at the same time, light in weight.

New blocks, for example, are made of tough fiberboard so even a toddler can pile them up without strain and jump on them without adverse effects, if it suits his fancy.

New animal sounds add to the fun as the blocks are squeezed. Another style musical block of fiberboard emits animal sounds when shaken. Crawl-in garages encourage junior to put away his wheel toys. A crawl-in firehouse adds realism to children's universal interest in playing fireman.

This season the streamlined rocking horse has a variant—a tugboat on untipable rockers. There's a rocking elephant too, as another novelty.

New challenges to the toddler include a put together telephone whose components are attached to a cord to eliminate hunting for loose pieces. The eternal challenge of learning to lace shoes is lightened by a music attachment.

THEY'RE MONSTROUS
Most bizarre trend in '64 toys—lands is a crop of monsters, mostly inspired by reruns of horror movies of a generation ago. Frankenstein and Dracula, for example, may be produced from plastic kits.

SANTA BRINGS sweaters — and the girls love 'em! Here, new sleeveless styling in a diamond-patterned sweater. By Russ.

Fashions Can Please All Tastes

Whoever she is, wherever she lives, whatever she does — Santa can be sure of one thing. The woman in his life wants fashion gifts for Christmas.

Actually, Santa will be well advised to think of Christmas in terms of the women, not woman, in his life. Mother, grandmother, wife, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, sweetheart or friend — each deserves to be gifted, and each is, in terms of her interests, responsibilities and pleasures, not one woman but many.

Every phase of every woman's life involves the practicality and beauty of fashion and this happy gift-giving circumstance makes Santa's gift-giving task both easy and pleasant.

She's a working gal — as career girl, homemaker, mother or all three — and therefore she welcomes "on the job" fashions that are smart, attractive and easy to care for. Santa's choice here can range from comfortable, colorful, well-fitting separates in new stretch fabrics to wash-and-wear daytime dresses or dainty and feminine but thoroughly practical aprons.

Since she leads a busy life, she deserves to be pampered, and fashion gifts offer Santa myriad opportunities to show her she's appreciated. Whether the gift choice is a luxurious fur coat or jacket, or some inexpensive but important costume jewelry, or even a pretty little hankie, presents with a touch of glamour are certain to be cherished by her.

The same is true of all the many fashion accessories with which Santa can gift a woman. This season, stockings — certainly useful — are fashion news, too, and the variety of colors and textures is so great that a hosiery wardrobe has become virtually a necessity. Why not give her an assortment — stockings for day, for evening, for sports and casual wear.

Handbags, gloves, scarves, headwarmers, belts — the cost of these items is as varied as the tastes of Santa's girls, yet each carries the extra advantage of versatility which will help her to plan and dress for "the complete look" of fashion, with day-to-day variety, too.

There's something to please every woman in the giftworthy array of sweaters, blouses, shirts, skirts, jumpers, jackets and pants, all of which continue the theme of fashionable variety and versatility for her wardrobe.

Lingerie which looks delicate and dainty but which wears and washes wonderfully has an important place on the gifts list. This year's gifts lingerie news features stretch fabrics and laces, as well as new easy-care crepes and taffetas.

For her private life, too, she probably needs everything from cozy robes and dusters to elegant costumes for at-home entertaining.

THINK LIKE A KID
Although it may be somewhat difficult for some adults, the best way to select a gift for a child is to try putting yourself in the place of the youngster in question.

What sweet delight a quiet life affords. —William Drummond

Watch Gifts Telling More Than Time

This Christmas, more than ever, a woman's watch tells more than time. It tells her tastes, her pleasure in beautiful things and her fashion love of coordinating her accessories to her costume.

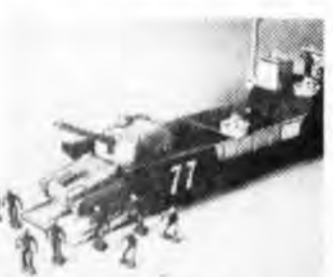

Styled for the ultimate in fashion appeal and built for many years of carefree time-keeping, these fine jeweled watches come in many shapes, sizes and finishes. Thanks to modern design, it is no longer necessary to limit one's choice to a round or square shape, for there are now many other new and exciting shapes including the marquise, octagon, tear drop, pear, oval, clover-leaf, circle-in-a-marquise and diamond.

Today's watches come in white or yellow gold, as well as the popular multi-colored gold, and the finishes include Florentine, matt and polished, in addition to combinations of these.

For added jewelry elegance, many of the new watches have beautiful woven mesh bracelet-type bands. The multi-faceted crystal continues to attract admirers, since it adds sparkling beauty to the face of every watch. Another important trend is the bracelet watch—wide, hinged or flexible.

Some have jewel-studded lids which ingeniously conceal the watches themselves. Diamond watches, priced far more modestly than many realize, are, naturally, quite popular.

The new watches for men are sleek and thin, the last word in scientific ingenuity.

JUNIOR GENERALS get a chance to brush up on history, too, with toys such as "Anzio Invader," an authentic reproduction of landing equipment used on D Day. By Ideal.

ENCOURAGE CREATIVITY with gifts such as "Big Press," for fast, easy printing of cards, messages, even newspapers. By Ideal.

GIFT PROBLEM?

When Santa's helpers can't gift the children of a large family individually, gift of a game suitable for varied age groups solves the problem.

It's Etiquette to Follow the Rules In Ordering and Signing Greetings

Checking the Christmas card list? Check greeting card etiquette, too.

That's the advice of Jerlyn Madison, consumer consultant for the Shaeffer Pen Company, who points out that there are certain rules that must be followed when ordering and signing Christmas cards, if they are to be in good taste.

Engraved signatures are based on formal tradition, but generally more liberties are more appropriate for Yule cards, even printed or engraved ones, than "Mr. and Mrs. William Jones." People don't identify themselves as "Mr. and Mrs." to their friends. "The William Joneses" is also proper.

When first names are used, cards can be signed "William and Mary Jones" or "Mary and William Jones." The order is a matter of preference, but the wife's name usually comes first.

Etiquette experts say it is not good form to sign a greeting, "Mr. and Mrs. William Jones and family." Use a signature like "William, Mary, Susan and Robert Jones."

Artists Like Supplies

Amateur artists can always use plenty of new canvases, new paints and brushes or a new easel. There are also plenty of books on painting that will help him to improve his style.

OH! WHAT A WONDERFUL MORNING it can be Christmas Day for the man who gets a full supply of shirts, pajamas, socks, and other wearable accessories to replenish his supply. These are of Dectolene by Arrow.

Japanese brothers plan tour stop in St. Johns

St. Johns will be visited, probably sometime next year, by two young Japanese men making a two-year visit to 1,000 United States cities and touring the US in their Japanese-made auto.

The men are Hyoue and Hayao Takeuchi, brothers from Tokyo.

IN A LETTER to St. Johns Mayor Jack Smit, the brothers said the drive "will be the first and the longest friendship-exchange project by Japanese between the United States and Japan."

"Because of this," they went on, "we have received some encouraging and assisting letters from the offices of your states and chambers of commerce, and those letters make this project more definite."

"WHEN WE visit your city's office, we would like to have your confirmed letter on our drive-visit and your authorized city seal. We will place them with the automobile in some auto museum in Japan."

The brothers will be starting their trip next March. Because road and auto conditions vary, they said they couldn't tell exactly when they would get to St. Johns. The entire tour will cover over 67,000 miles, and the number of cities visited will be more than 1,000.

Sewing club elects officers, buys flags

Officers for the Fashionettes 4-H Sewing Club are Kathy Jackson, president; Linda Marek, vice president; Mary Ashley, secretary; Carol Ormsby, treasurer; and Mary Ann Marek and Judy Irish, recreation leaders.

There are 11 members in the club.

THE $20 in the treasury will be used to buy flags.

Meetings are held on the second Tuesday of every month.

Party planned for Christmas by Clintonites

The meeting of the Clintonites Extension Club was held, Nov. 17 at the home of Mrs Robert Niemi, 605 North Morton.

The Club voted to send a package costing between $4 and $5 to an inmate at Traverse City. Mrs Gene Hinton volunteered to take care of the project.

The Club also voted to donate a box of toys to the "Toys for Tots Campaign," sponsored by the local American Legion.

MRS NORMAN Feldcamp and Mrs Marvin Whitford will remember the County Farm residents with a treat for Thanksgiving.

Following the meeting was a lesson, given by Mrs Fred Ferris, on What's New in Fabrics. She displayed samples of new fabrics and gave some information on what the future holds in fabrics.

The mystery gift was won by Mrs Ruth Niemi. The group then worked on bows for packages. New ideas were exchanged.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 15, at the home of Mrs Fred Ferris. It is a Christmas Party and mystery sisters will be revealed.

Hospital Board Auxiliary plans Santa puppets

The Women's Auxiliary Hospital Board met Wednesday evening, Nov. 18.

The puppet sewing group finished making Santa Claus puppets for pediatrics to use during the Christmas holidays. A special time was set for the rental of television sets at the hospital. It is from 7 a.m. until 3 p.m. Another Isolette incubator was purchased.

Every one who purchased a ticket for the annual meeting in June is a member of the auxiliary. There are 40 women on the Auxiliary Board. They are chosen from the Auxiliary membership, but all members are needed to give assistance in projects that are being planned. There is a possibility of a gift cart being used in the hospital for the convenience of patients and visitors. They can purchase gifts of such things as candy, or toothpaste but it will be necessary to have one or two people to take the cart to the rooms in the hospital and take care of the sales. Mrs Richard Johnson and Mrs R. Wohlers are taking the names of those interested.

ROGER BUSFIELD of the Michigan Hospital Assn. will be the speaker at the February 19 meeting.

Tray favors for Thanksgiving were made by two fourth grade rooms of the Ovid Elementary School. Mrs Edna Smith and Mrs Neva Pope are the teachers.

A spring rummage sale is planned for April. Mrs Wohlers will assist in collecting articles for the sale.

United service placed for eve of Thanksgiving

The united Thanksgiving service will be held at the Church of the Nazarene Wednesday, Nov. 25 at 7:30 p.m.

The service has been a tradition among the churches of St. Johns for the past 17 years and for the last 12 years it has been held the evening before Thanksgiving Day.

Rev Erwin Self, the host pastor, will give the call to worship. A Responsive Reading-No. 14 will be given by Rev D. Brewbaker of the Church of God.

THE NEWCOMERS to St. Johns this summer, Rev G. Churchill of the Congregational Church and Rev H. Banning of the Episcopal Church will give the Thanksgiving prayer and sermon, respectively.

The Benediction will be given by Dr Howard Smith of the First Methodist Church.

Organist for the event will be Herbert DePeal and Mrs DePeal, the pianist. The Chancel Choir of the First Methodist Church will perform under the direction of Mrs Robert Rice.

Gifts for Handyman Offer New Ideas

Is your man a handyman around the house? Almost all men are. These avid work bench enthusiasts seem never to run out of the desire for new tools and gadgets that will carry them further into the realm of "do-it-yourself."

Have you ever seen your home handyman pass a display of tools without letting his eyes browse through the equipment for a while? Hardly!

He may have three hammers and still feel that he could use a couple more. Or, he may have five screwdrivers but still find himself lacking the one that is just the right size at one particular time or another. Perhaps he has had the same old tools for years. If this is the case, now might well be the time to buy him a new set.

If he is all set in the hand tool category, then it is time to get him into power tools. These will open a whole new field to him. He will be able to do things that otherwise would have been impossible.

Tools aren't the only things he may need, though. What about his workshop area. New lights, a paint job, insulation racks for tools, cabinets, or better still, materials to make some of these items might be in order.

Need it or not, however, he's sure to enjoy any tool you buy him.

GIFTS FOR THE DO-IT-YOURSELF MAN should hew to his interest in the tools that extend his skills. These may range from hand tools to one of the immensely versatile kits of power tools that can do almost anything for him, illustrated here by Stanley Works.

Plan for Christmas mailing, county postmasters urge

A little planning during the Thanksgiving holiday can help avoid the "Christmas Rush," Clinton County postmasters have some tips which will not only put ZIP into Christmas mailing, but help postal employees move the record-breaking mountain of mail that is expected this Christmas season.

1. Find last year's Christmas mailing list. If you don't find it, or didn't have one, make one up.

2. CHECK TO see that all addresses are correct. The phone book is usually a good source for local addresses.

3. Wherever possible, add the ZIP code to the addresses on the list. Because ZIP Codes speed your mail, always include the code for your area in return addresses. This is the best way to inform friends, relatives and business associates of the code number for your area.

KITCHEN MATCH-UPS in terry towels, potholders, aprons and toaster covers are Christmas pleasers for homemakers. By Morgan-Jones.

Charge driver failed to yield

A driver has been charged with failure to yield the right-of-way following a two-car collision Saturday afternoon at the corner of case the outer covering is not secure and comes off.

THE POST Office Department in Washington is predicting that a record seven billion pieces of mail will move through the postal system during the peak rush just before Christmas.

"The cooperation of all mailers is vital for us to deliver each holiday card, letter and package before Christmas Day," Postmasters said. "A little planning will make the Christmas rush less hectic for everyone."

Alward and St. Clair roads in Victor Wanship.

He was Larry W. Smith, 22, of 245 Marshall Street, Lansing. His car reportedly struck another driven by Howard Dennis, 62, of R-1, Laingsburg. Neither driver was injured, nor was Mrs. Dennis, riding with her husband.

DENNIS WAS driving east on Alward Road. Sheriff's deputies said Smith was traveling north on St. Clair and that his car skidded into Dennis'. A yield right-of-way sign governs traffic on St. Clair Road.

SPREAD HAPPINESS at Christmas by giving practical, pretty bedspreads. Here's one by Fieldcrest in Avisco rayon and cotton.

Flowers Spread Spirit of Yuletide

The holiday season is one time when imagination can do more than decorate dreams. Let the sparkle, brilliance and beauty of the holidays come into full bloom right at home this year.

There are many special ways to help Christmas spirit shine in the home. Fresh flowers, in both traditional and novel arrangements, should be focal points of all important areas.

Certain spots are perfect for holiday dressing-up. Doorways, for example, set the scene for the entire home. Make them bright as a holly berry, with a great green wreath, pungent fir and sparkling pine cones tipped with gold. Let a lovely wreath welcome the world at the holiday door.

Homes with a mantle are particularly lucky at Christmas. Not only is there a spot to hang hungry little stockings, but the mantle is a perfect place for a holiday flower arrangement. Ask your local Florist's Telegraph Delivery florist about festoons of evergreen; brighten them with juniper and bayberries.

If there's a mirror above the mantle — all the better to reflect a glorious arrangement of holiday greens, red-ripe berries and color-splashed pine cones.

Christmas tables are another important point for holiday decorating ideas.

Ladies Aid Society buys church supplies

GUNNISONVILLE— The Gunnisonville Ladies Aid Society met at the Church Wednesday, Nov. 18 with seven members present.

During the meeting which was called to order by Mrs. Oliver Angell, president, it was voted to give the Official Church board $200 to apply to the "pointing-up" of the bricks on the outside of the church. It was also voted to buy a 30 cup coffee urn, six glass coffee servers with burners, two kettles, a waste basket and a metal cupboard for the church kitchen.

Mrs. Margaret Stampfy invited the women to her home for the December meeting, Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 16. There will be a 50 cent gift exchange. Mrs. Stampfy served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Schmidtman of Clark Road spent three days at Marquette, Mich.

Eric and Julia Baumer of Lansing were Sunday dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baumer of Boichot Road. The occasion was Julia's 15th birthday.

Attention Focused on New Cameras For Gift Giving This Christmas

Although the gadgetry of photography presents a happy hunting ground for gifting untold millions of enthusiastic picture makers, major attention appears to be focused on the new cameras available for Christmas.

This is true both with respect to still cameras and movie cameras, both of which, regardless of what they may cost, will yield either black and white or color pictures. Remember, it's the film you use that is the determining factor here.

Chief across-the-board feature of the new cameras—and this applies even to many in the budget priced category—is the extension of automation which frees the user from the mathematical problem of figuring exposures. Yes, this is applicable to movie cameras as well as still cameras.

Popular preference for still cameras that use 35 mm film—possibly because of their convenience and maybe even more so because of the color slides they produce—continues to increase.

A New Trend

A new trend brings what is called the "single frame" still cameras onto the market in wide and fascinating variety. "Single frame" means just half the size of a traditional 35 mm negative or slide. This in turn means that these compact and easy to carry cameras will yield just twice as many pictures from a given roll of 35 mm—72 from a roll of 36 or 40 from a roll of 20.

NEWEST OF INSTAMATICS BY KODAK is this 800, featuring instantaneous cartridge loading that sets speed of film, close coupled rangefinder with view finder, automatic exposure control and built-in pop-up flash holder.

True, this is an economy as far as film is concerned, but more significant is the compactness of these cameras, most of which are equipped with most desirable automatic exposure features.

Some are hardly bigger than a package of cigarettes. All slip with equal convenience into a coat pocket or a lady's purse. They are recommended as most convenient for the traveler who doesn't want to be burdened in any way and for all those who are fond of the idea of modern miniaturization within reason. By choice of proper film, they will produce negatives and transparencies that will blow up sharply. They are especially fitted for gifting the "snaps" of the area of convenience for the amateur has been greatly developed by Kodak's work in ANSCO TITAN 8 mm movie camera with grip handle, sets lens automatically for proper exposure, even warns if light is too bright or too dim. It has battery-powered electric motor and 1/8 lens with zoom available on some models.

perfecting its Instamatic series—the still cameras that are loaded and set for shooting by simply dropping a cartridge of film into position. Foreign camera makers currently are following the trend by bringing out models also featuring this ease of loading.

Budget Priced Models
 Instamatics are available in a wide variety of models, from budget priced models to those ranging to three figures and equipped with almost every conceivable type of automation, from motorized film advances to built in automatic flash units.

More and more "zoom lenses" are becoming available for still cameras as well as for movie cameras. These are the lenses which permit making everything from wide angle shots to close-ups from the same vantage point.

There also is a special type of camera on the market this year that would bring joy to the skin diver. It's presented as an "all weather" 35 mm, hermetically sealed against the effects of water.

Pastor discusses politics, church with Lions Club

The Rev. Hugh Banninga addressed the Lion's Club of St. Johns recently on the subject, "Politics and the Church."

There is a noticeable distance between the Christian ethic of love and social policy, Father Banninga noted. "The question is 'Why is it so difficult to find a straight line from Christian ethics to the concrete problems of our society?'"

"THE difficulty lies in the fact that in the social order there are certain factors which prevent us from drawing a straight line from the ethic of love to the concrete problems of our society."

"First, there is in public life a long unbroken history which provides for the accumulation of disorders (juvenile delinquency, moral depravity), for the development of encrusted prejudices (the civil rights issue), vested interests (labor-management disputes), and vicious circles of fear (the East-West cold war)."

"SECONDLY," he said, "the decisions of public life involve large mixed communities in which only a minority, and often a very small minority, is guided by Christian standards. Two problems arise here."

"One is that a Christian politician must always act in cooperation with those who do not admit to the authority of Christian ethics. The other problem is that Christians themselves may have such a one-sided and distorted view of their own faith that they oppose the social objectives of a non-believer that are essentially just."

"THIRDLY," he went on, "we really cannot fully grasp the experience of those whom we have never seen and who are in superficial ways quite different from ourselves. Unless we have been there ourselves, we cannot really get a feeling of what life is like for the millions in Russia or China. Unless we have been there ourselves, we do not know what life is like for the Puerto Rican, Negro, poor white, in the slums of our large cities."

"Fourthly, this limited imagination is often combined with conflicting interests, and when such is the case moral blindness is intensified. The recent newspaper strike in Detroit is a good example of this."

"FIFTHLY, THE limitations of our imaginations and the distortions that arise from conflicting interests are further complicated by the extraordinary resources in the human spirit for cloaking self-interest with idealism."

"A sixth factor which makes public life especially difficult from the moral point of view is that personal responsibility is diluted. By this is meant that we have a representative democracy in which we elect men to represent us in government. We count on these men to make responsible decisions in terms of social policy."

IN HIS concluding remarks the Rev. Mr. Banninga said this. "One general American assumption that cuts across anything we might say about the responsibility of the church for public life is the belief in the separation of Church and State."

"Now both the Church and the State seek the welfare of the same community. The members of the Church are also citizens. They participate in the life of the state and their citizenship is a Christian vocation concerning which they receive guidance from the church if the church is not asleep. We should keep the formula of separation of Church and State, but we must make sure of what we are talking about and not allow it to be a general source of inhibition against action by the Church in society."

People on the Move Like Gifts that Get Going, Too

At Christmas, Santa Claus really gets around, and so do most of the people on his gift list — with the difference that they're on the move all year long.

For such a mobile population, mobile entertainment is in demand, and manufacturers have gladly complied with that demand. There is a wealth of portable and transistor radios, television sets, tape-recorders to keep families on the go amused for a short hop or a grand tour, and each one is a fine gift idea.

Portable and transistor radios are the favorites of the younger set, although adults enjoy them, too, for trips to the beach, picnics, or listening in any part of the house or patio.

Transistor television is relatively new, but has caught on quickly and is now popularly priced. Powered by batteries, these sets can be viewed anywhere, including an automobile! One important feature is the inclusion of earphones and a jack for personal viewing pleasure.

Stereo and hi-fi sets come in portable styles, with the extra speaker doubling as a lid. Such a set is a fine gift for the out-of-town student, who can tote his favorite records back to school with him. It's also excellent on a patio or at a backyard party.

Compact, transistorized tape recorders have a multitude of uses. Aside from recording favorite programs or friends' voices, the portable tape recorder is an ideal way for people away from home to keep in touch with friends or relatives.

Businessmen may use it to dictate letters or spur of the moment thoughts or memos. A special magnetic tape, offering 15 minutes of recording time, is available for these mobile messages.

FOWLER, MICH

WHICH ONE IS THE DOLL? FOR LIVING DOLLS like this little girl, Santa's pack holds many glamorous lifelike dolls such as "Little Coquette," who typifies the continental look in the doll world, with a towering hairdo and taffeta ballgown. By Uneeda Doll Co.

Cheery Wraps Give Presents Joyous Look

Colorful gifts under the tree make Christmas merrier. The many gala wrappings available this year can help give every present, large or small, a joyous holiday look. "New" trend in wrapping papers, ribbons and bows sees a return of the old-fashioned, cheery red-and-green Christmas spirit, along with many pretty pastels. Traditionally-loved subjects such as bells, Santa, pine cones and Christmas trees, abound on printed papers. Whatever type of paper is used, it's well to remember the basic rules of wrapping.

1. Always use non-transparent paper (so no one knows what the box says).
2. Keep wrappings secure with glue or rubber cement, seals or transparent tape.
3. Leave at least two inches of paper for a neat squared corner.

Some other hints include: Disguise presents in unusual packages. Use paper towel rolls to hide small presents or flat ones such as scarves or handkerchiefs. Red tissue and cotton turn this kind of wrap into a "skinny" Santa, or pastel tissue and ribbon make it into a pretty doll.

For larger boxes, create holiday scenes or funny faces on the tops by using greeting cards, cotton colored tissue ribbon and pompon bows. Don't stop with the outside! Stuff boxes with candy, confetti or shredded tissue. That makes it more fun to try and find the present.

There's Young Future In Gifts of Music
To give children Christmas presents with a future, consider musical instruments—along with music lessons, too. For younger children there are instruments designed especially for small hands. At age eight or 10, standard-size musical instruments can be handled with comfort.

DREAMERS
Some of the things they do are pointless, but every man is the hero of his own imagination.

Road Commission Weekly Report

The Board of Clinton County Road Commissioners held their regular meeting last Wednesday, Nov. 18. After a lengthy discussion the Board voted to accept the bid of the Wolverine Tractor and Equipment Co. to purchase a model H60, Hough Payloader. Ten companies had bid on 16 different models of loaders on Nov. 3.

The commission examined two preliminary sketches of new subdivisions. One, in Bath Township, was approved and the one in Bingham Township was approved subject to some changes.

THE COMMISSION then took up the requests of local 794 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees for changes in the working agreement for 1965. Thursday, Dec. 10 at 2 p.m. was set as the time to meet with union representatives to discuss these requests.

Many vacations for deer hunting left us short-handed last week, when the first storm of winter came along. Most of the hunters are back this week.

SNOW AND freezing temperatures made for hazardous driving last weekend. Some accidents were reported, but state highways were clear and most blacktops were sanded Sunday.

Your road clerk was to leave for Washington, D.C., Wednesday, Nov. 25. We will spend Thanksgiving at our daughters in Rockville, Md., just north of the Capitol, and expect to return by Monday.

No traffic crashes in week in St. Johns

City police were rejoicing Monday over the fact there had been no traffic accidents in the city of St. Johns since Nov. 16—a week before. This was in spite of snow and hazardous driving conditions over the weekend.

Proclaims Sisters' Week

St. Johns Mayor Jack Smit, left, presents his signed proclamation designating the week of Nov. 29 as Sisters of St. Joseph, Nazareth, Mich., Week in St. Johns to Sister Marie Jane. Looking on are Sister Mary Gordon and Charles Coletta, city commissioner. The Sisters of St. Joseph are celebrating 75 years of service next week. One of the events will be a choral program in Lansing in which Sister Mary Gordon will participate.

PROCLAMATION

Sisters' Week, Nov. 29 - Dec. 5, 1964

Honoring The Diamond Jubilee of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Nazareth, Michigan

WHEREAS The Sisters of Saint Joseph, Nazareth, Michigan, are celebrating the 75th Anniversary of their foundation in Michigan from July 6, 1889 until July 11, 1964 and

WHEREAS From 11 pioneer Sisters who came to Kalamazoo from Watertown, New York, at the invitation of Monsignor Francis A. O'Brien, they have grown to a Community of about 900 Sisters with about 200 deceased, and

WHEREAS They are educators who administer Nazareth College, two accredited schools of nursing, and they teach about 34,000 pupils in 62 elementary schools and 17 high schools and

WHEREAS They are also missionaries with vocation schools for migrants in Michigan, after-school religious centers, and a clinic and catechetical center in Nasca, Peru, and

WHEREAS They are nurses who administer and staff six hospitals making up five per cent of days' care and three per cent of beds for patients in Michigan hospitals and

WHEREAS They are social workers with two homes for dependent children, a licensed child-placing agency, and a home which furnishes temporary care and guidance for unwed mothers and

WHEREAS The public profits from the efforts of these Sisters who administer the six hospitals, the 79 schools, two homes for dependent children, the founding home and the vacation schools and

WHEREAS By their dedication and progressive spirit they have made a notable contribution to the moral, cultural, and educational progress not only of St. Johns but all of Michigan.

THEREFORE I, Jack J. Smit, Mayor of the city of St. Johns, do hereby proclaim week of Nov. 29, 1964, as SISTERS OF SAINT JOSEPH, NAZARETH, MICHIGAN WEEK in St. Johns and urge all citizens to participate in the activities of this anniversary in gratitude for their contribution to the dynamic development of Detroit and all of Michigan.

Representative's wife tells of family life

ELSIE— "A. C.'s Better 1/2," a program title in the yearbook of the Woman's Literary Club was explained Tuesday night as the speaker was introduced by program chairman, Mrs Earl Seybert Jr., to 35 members assembled in the Homemaking Room of Elsie High School.

The speaker was a fellow member, Mrs Jean Cobb, wife of Andrew Cobb, state representative for the past 15 years.

Mrs Cobb had been requested by the program committee to relate some of her experiences as wife of a politician and its effect on the life of her family of five children.

The flags, a large colored picture of the Capitol, a red-bound, Michigan Manual, autographed pictures and programs and other mementoes of her years as a congressman's wife were arranged for display.

COMMENTING on the effect to their family living, she said, that these have been rewarding years with many happy and some sad situations. She said that her children learned it wasn't always easy to be known as a public official's child as criticism was freely offered.

The family's pet peeve, she said, is the volume of unsigned letters that are mailed to congressmen. They are of no significance or worth if the letter cannot be acknowledged, she said.

The second part of Mrs Cobb's talk concerned her membership with the House and Senate Club organized in the early years of the Michigan Legislature for the wives of the members. It provides a social life for the women and offers them programs and trips.

EVERY TWO years, a visit is made to one of Michigan's colleges where they are entertained at the president's home or by the professor's wives. They tour new buildings, gymnasiums, see art collections and student programs.

The concluding remarks by Mrs Cobb described the trips she took with her husband. On such occasions, the wife pays her own expenses and often, Mrs Cobb said, some sacrifice had to be made. But they have been worth sacrificing, she said.

Fifteen years ago Andrew Cobb was elected to complete the unexpired term of the late John Esple, and since then, reelected every two years. His present term will expire Jan. 1, 1965.

During these years, the Cobb family has entertained foreign students during the holidays and on several occasions had them spend summers living and working on the Cobb Centennial Farm east of the village limits.

PIRKKO Kukkonen of Helsinki, Finland, lived with the Cobbs and attended Elsie High School during her senior year in 1962-63 while Martha, the younger daughter of the Cobbs was an exchange student during the summer of 1962, living with the Wilhelm Kohling family in Hofgessmar, Germany.

Through the cooperation of the Cobbs, guest speakers have been made available to the civic and service organizations of this area as speakers.

Rep and Mrs Cobb and son, Alan, will leave for New York City on Sunday following the Junior play of which Mrs Cobb is the director. They will also visit her mother in Wallingford, Conn. on the occasion of her 94th birthday and also attend Mrs Cobb's class reunion at Lyman Hall High School nearby. Both Rep. Cobb and Mrs Cobb are alumni of MSU.

MUSIC was provided by Miss Sharon Dunham who played two piano arrangements.

Mrs Paul Platner presided over the meeting which included reports on recent activities of the club women.

It was voted to give a sum of money to the Michigan Chapter, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation.

Mrs Henry Allen and Mrs Woodrow Bashore were hostesses and their assistants, Mrs Oliver Smith, Mrs George Spiegel and Mrs Loyal Hinkley served refreshments with Mrs Paul Platner and Mrs Earl Seybert presiding at the coffee and tea services.

The next meeting, Dec. 1, also will be in the Home Ec room of EHS with Mrs Boyce Wooley in a program on "gift wrapping." Each member is requested to bring 50 cents for the Christmas Fund for the needy, a custom adopted several years ago instead of the usual gift exchange.

Green School Club plans church dinner

ELSIE— The Green School Home Extension Study Club held an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs Kenneth Munson, Thursday.

A potluck was served at noon to the nine members and one visitor. Mrs Anna Praay opened the business meeting with roll call, giving facts concerning Thanksgiving.

The point system was explained and a list read on ways to receive them. There was a discussion on the Christmas workshop and plans for Christmas dinner at the Carland Church House on Dec. 14. The recent Clinton County Council meeting in St. Johns was reported.

ALL VOTED favorably to take the lesson on painting, and materials were ordered. Mrs Munson gave the lesson on Fabrics, pointing out the ones that may be laundered in automatics and the way to sew stretch cloth garments.

The Mystery package was won by Mrs Milson Young. The next lesson meeting will be at the home of Mrs George Ellis in January when there will be a white elephant sale, also.

Literary Club holds benefit for new library

ELSIE— Sixteen tables of progressive cards were in play Tuesday evening at Knight Elementary School, when the Woman's Literary Club sponsored its annual benefit party for the Elsie Public Library.

Gary Bensinger drew the door prize which was a turkey, while Mrs Viva Scott and Asa Stewart won first place in the card games.

Refreshments were served by Mrs Robert Bloomer, Mrs Duane Green, Mrs Ward Lewis, Mrs Leroy Vincent, Mrs James Collis and Mrs B. M. Woolley.

MRS DURWARD Conklin was general chairman and other committees were social, Mrs Howard Peltier and properties, Mrs Norman Blakely and Mrs Loyal Hinkley.

Mrs Lawrence Hess represented the Elsie Public Library board of trustees and distributed information sheets concerning the local library.

Librarian, Mrs Orpha Clement, and her board of trustees will welcome suggestions from its patrons on ways to plan for the library's future.

WCS Esther Circle remembers shut-ins

ELSIE— Thanksgiving was the program theme of the Methodist WCS Esther Circle meeting Wednesday evening, with Mrs Alpha Grubaugh as hostess.

Mrs James Dorman chose her lesson from three sermons by Norman Vincent Peale to bring a message of Thanksgiving. They were: "Source for Life's Happiness"; "Remedy for Discontent"; and "Being Thankful Makes Everything Better."

Mrs Clifford Geiger gave the devotions from the Upper Room. Members responded to roll call by commenting on why she was thankful at this season.

IT WAS VOTED to prepare Thanksgiving remembrances for shut-in members: Mrs L. E. Clark at the Ashley Nursing Home; Mrs Fannie Emmons, Ovid Nursing Home; Mrs Jeannette Emmons, Owosso Memorial Hospital; and Mrs Myrtle Tillotson and Miss Gladys Betts at their homes.

Mrs Charles Fizzell and Mrs John Hibbler will deliver the gifts. There were 14 sick calls and 16 cards reported for the month. At the close of the meeting, Mrs Grubaugh served refreshments.

There will be no regular Parent-Teachers meeting in December but the PTA executive board will meet with President George Keck, Monday, Nov. 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the Home Economics Room at EHS.

O'Donnell initiated in area Lion's Club

ELSIE— Coach Mark O'Donnell of Elsie High School was initiated into the Lions Club, two weeks ago, when District Governor, R. A. Potts, made his annual visit and assisted in the ceremonies.

Monday night, the coach returned as guest speaker to review the recent success of football season with his Big Reds.

This was the second season, in O'Donnell's 12 year coaching career at Elsie High School, that his team had gone undefeated. They also ranked as the No. 1 C-D class team in the state for three weeks, falling to third place in the final Associated Press ratings.

TO ILLUSTRATE the spirit and ability of his team, O'Donnell showed movies of two victories and defeat of the Portland Raiders and Ovid Romans.

Blaine Lentz served as chairman of the program which was preceded by a Thanksgiving dinner in the American Legion Hall. President Jack Hawes presided for the business meeting.

Schedule old chiller

The silent film version of the chiller, "The Cat and the Canary," will be shown Sunday at the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn. The Sunday-only performances will be at 2 and 4 p.m. They're part of the museum's Famous Early Movie Series.

"Something for the Home" Brings the Family Christmas Joy that Lasts

FROM THE FAMILY TO THE FAMILY GO GIFTS that mean more year 'round pleasure for everyone, as well as more home beauty. Especially welcome are gifts that serve a double purpose, such as studio sleepers, styled for nighttime comfort, daytime good looks. This one by Thayer Coggin, Inc.

All Share In Choice Of Gifts

Credit Plans Can Aid Purchase of Those 'Big' Presents

Families, homes, presents, Christmas: they belong together. At Christmas, a time for giving, for decorating the home and, most of all, for joy amongst the family, gifts of "something for the home" become the successful answer to many a present problem. Home gifts fill a need, serve a purpose, look wonderful, last long — and please everybody.

From the family to the family, home gifts express the very spirit of Christmas — the joy of giving, plus the warmth of family ties centered in the home. In keeping with this spirit, the family can band together to pay for the home gift, and go together to select it.

Call a Conference
Call a family conference early to decide on the gift — or gifts. Then, shop early to be sure of having the selections delivered in time for Christmas enjoyment.

Convenient credit plans in local stores make it easy to make this the year the family realizes its special wish for some major piece of furniture that can be shared and enjoyed by all, whether it be a sofa, new carpeting, dining table and chairs, complete equipment for a family recreation room — or whatever.

Then there are the "personal" presents — home gifts chosen by individual members of the family, to surprise Mom, Dad or the children.

Even the young children can play an important part here. They learn the joy of giving and the gift of cooperation by putting their money together and choosing a gift for Mommy and Daddy that fits into the home.

Let Them Choose
Let them pick it out themselves, with a little tactful guidance if they're very young. A mirror, planter, clock, throw pillows might be "big gifts" for little folks to present, while such smaller gifts as kitchen gadgets for Mom or barbecue tools for Dad fit young budgets and get a big welcome.

Since Mother is always happiest when she feels she has kept the family home a pleasing, comfortable and convenient place to live in, almost any home gift will delight her. Dad and the children might surprise her with a gift just for her — a serving cart to help lighten her work, for example, or a chair or "short sofa" for her own relaxing corner.

For the Children
Traditionally, Christmas is the time to give Dad a comfortable chair — and he'll also welcome such gifts as games tables, desks, man-sized lamps to read or work by, chests and cabinets for everything from clothing to hobby equipment. Whether they're married, college students or just youngsters, the children will enjoy something new for their rooms or home. Newlyweds can use just about anything and everything to help them start home-keeping, while older married children are usually ready to refresh or modernize their home.

The fellow who is his own best friend usually gets left.

3 from DeWitt get CMU football letters

Three former DeWitt High School football players have been approved for football letters at Central Michigan University, it was announced last week. Thomas Isanhart will receive a varsity football letter, and Harold Deines and Douglas Isanhart will get junior varsity letters.

First Methodist Church presents annual bazaar

Women of the First Methodist Church are preparing for their annual church fair which will be held Dec. 3. They have chosen the name Christmas Delight and will carry out the theme in gifts, decorations and refreshments.

General chairman is Mrs. Doyno Heuer. Her committees are: aprons, Mrs. J. E. Bartholomew and Mrs. George Osgood; attic treasures, Mrs. John Thrush; bake goods, Mrs. O. E. Wells; doll clothes, Mrs. Horace Howell; frozen foods, Mrs. Merle Redman; gifts, Mrs. Raymond Torpey Jr. and Mrs. George Pierson; needlework, Mrs. Richard Rutter and Mrs. Charles Hazle; linens and jewelry, Mrs. Allen Anthes; rugs, Mrs. Edward MacKinnon; and stuffed animals, Mrs. Ward R. Leonard.

The Wesleyan Service Guild and MYF will also feature booths.

The fair will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Niles Hall. Homemade doughnuts and coffee will be featured during these hours.

Unless a friend proves to be a trump it's time to discard.

PUT THE FINISHING TOUCHES to the gay gift bow, and a handsome rocker-lounger is ready to surprise Dad. While chairs are favorite gifts for the men, he can expect to share chair time with the rest of the family, who love to relax, too. This one by Berklene.

Continued faith in God is Thanksgiving's theme

A great deal has happened since that first Thanksgiving Day back in 1621 on the bleak shores of Massachusetts. But one thing is the same—our continued faith in God and our humble prayer of thanks for the inspiration and the guidance He has given us.

During the past 343 years the entire world has undergone a transformation unparalleled in history. From a handful of religious refugees huddled on the edge of a vast new continent, the United States has grown into land of hope and promise for millions of people. Underlining this remarkable progress and development has been a growing recognition of the power and influence of faith.

THIS RECOGNITION didn't start in 1621 but it certainly found new meaning and purpose in the simple prayers of our first settlers. As a society and a nation we have come a long way since the crude tables were set for the first Thanksgiving feast and the Pilgrims gathered in the rough cut meeting house for prayer and devotion.

Though the food on the table may have been different, though their words of prayer may seem a bit odd to us today, the observance they started long, long ago still lives.

WHY DOES Thanksgiving become more meaningful with each passing year? Maybe part of it is heritage and tradition which grows in value as time goes on. Maybe it is because we have more to be thankful for in this progressive society of ours.

But actually Thanksgiving lives and grows because, like our forefathers, we recognize the hand of God in our deliberations and because we are grateful for the inspiration, help and hope that He has given us. But this is more than just a day of thanks, it is an opportunity for rededication of faith and a period of resolution in which each of us should pledge to serve our fellowmen better.

This is the way it happened long, long ago . . . this is the way it will happen Thanksgiving Day, 1964.

Improving justice for our juvenile offenders

Clarence H. Faust, a Ford Foundation vice president, pointed out the other day that attorneys are involved in fewer than 10 per cent of the 600,000 cases disposed of each year in the nation's juvenile courts, even though 73 per cent of the delinquency cases involve offenses that would be classified as crimes if committed by adults.

It would seem elementary that a juvenile accused of an offense should have counsel. Certainly the average juvenile is even less capable of handling his own legal affairs than the average adult.

But the United States Supreme Court has not yet decided the question of whether a child has a constitutional right to be represented by counsel, and lower Federal courts and some state courts have handed down conflicting and inconclusive opinions.

THE FORD Foundation has now given $730,000 to the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges to be used to demonstrate the value of attorneys in cases involving juveniles, and $100,000 to the National Council on Crime and Delinquency to prepare a reference work of tested juvenile court procedures.

It is illogical to expect that we can do a great deal to clean up our juvenile crime problem unless we also do something to improve the quality of the justice we mete out in our juvenile courts. The Ford grants should help us see the problem more clearly, and pave the way for doing something constructive about it.

The problem is not presently serious in Clinton County, but it is growing. We cannot afford to deal in any way but fairly and judiciously with the young people who find themselves accused of violations of the law.

Address unknown

BY W. E. DOBSON

Did you ever drive on an unknown street, In search of a given address, Find most house numbers missing, The street signs in a mess? Did you do a lot of inquiring, Where all should be plain as day? Were houses but properly numbered, The signs correct and OK?

With a steady increase in one-way streets, And traffic hazards galore, It's tough enough to find your way When you're weary, puzzled, and sore; Were every street and house well marked With proper number and name, How oft would time and temper be spared, To play a more profitable game.

I've gathered all the evidence, Prepared for all creation A lecture on good citizenship, And civic obligation; Arriving home I'm still burned up, But when I tell my spouse, She casually reminds me, "There's no numbers on this house."

More talk of changes to come

LAST WEEK in this column I tried briefly to make something of a case for the imperative need for change in our thinking and in our methods of doing things as individuals and as a community.

Quite simply, I tried to say that unless we modified our attitudes we could easily find ourselves on the tail-end of the parade in years to come.

This was not intended to be the warning of an alarmist, but rather the studied opinion of one who hates change as much as the next fellow.

IF IT DID nothing else satisfactory to me, the recent Presidential election confirmed a belief that the people of this country are not ready or willing to return to anything like an unmanaged and unfettered economy. We've got and we're going to continue to have a mild form of socialism . . . and we might as well live with it.

I can't go along, for instance, with Senator Goldwater's post-election conclusion that we should possibly study the political picture to see whether a realignment into Liberal and Conservative parties is indicated. For his part, he was quoted as saying: "The time has come to choose up two new teams and get going."

IT'S TO BE presumed from Goldwa-ter's statements that in a refashioned Republican-Conservative Party he would find no place for Governors Romney and Rockefeller and others he described as "so-called" Republicans.

My personal belief is that these men are as much entitled to be Republicans as is Senator Goldwater. Both parties are strengthened in the long run by having within each a spectrum of opinion rather than a single, uniform ideology that is not subject to change or compromise.

SUCH INTERNAL differences can cause stress. But they result in a broader-based party inclusive enough to respond to minorities within the majorities. Such a party is able to attract those whose thinking is somewhere in the vast middleground and who can change from one party to the other without the severe wrench which is attached to switching loyalties.

Today's rapidly shifting world scene needs leadership that can act quickly with a large consensus behind it. The "outs" need to be able to live with the "ins" even while supplying an invigorating loyal opposition.

If any great realignment of parties is to come, it should come naturally from the people, and not artificially from above.

Eastham congratulates Clinton grid squads

MY HEARTIEST congratulations to Coach Bill Smiley and his fine Redwing squad!

I always did think Bill deserved better than he got in his first couple of years there, and I took great delight in following the Redwings through their undefeated season.

My only regret is that I wasn't there to cover them. Rink did a good job, however, and I enjoyed his coverage of their conquests.

A bouquet, also, to Coach Mark O'Donnell and his Big Reds of Elsie. I have a lot of admiration for coaches who can drop from the pinnacle of success, struggle along with a mediocre team for several seasons, and then work their way back to the top again.

I look forward to receiving the paper each week and get a little nostalgic when I read about the goings-on in the old town.

Bill Smith has reserved a buck for me to take a crack at this weekend. I'll bring it around for Al to take a picture of for next week's paper. (Pretty confident, huh?)

Likes new paper but misses Amy

I THINK YOUR new edition of the Clinton County News is very lovely, although I was most unhappy to see the discontinuance of the Dear Amy syndicated column.

Let's face it, newspapers of today don't have a lot of humor in them. And in yours, the only humor left is Mr Ward's letters to the editor. But I feel you should add some feminine humor also to your paper; and what is more humorous than a lot of women pouring out their heart-throbs.

Thank you very much for letting me voice my opinion.

Holiday details history of famed Washington Monument

IF YOU'LL step to the rear of the bus, we can begin our guided tour of Washington . . . or as I call the city, Marbleton.

In fact, those who do tour Washington in a bus are the smart ones, for parking lots in this city are the next biggest business to the government. Joan and I tried sightseeing by car. She would point out the interesting buildings as we drove by vainly looking for a place to park and we got to know quite well all the famous landmarks along Route 1.

But now that all the "tourists," meaning folks like you, have returned home for another year, we natives have the city to ourselves, and can usually park within a mile or so of any destination.

SINCE 1880 when congress was moved from Philadelphia and John Adams moved in with the carpenters since his house was yet unfinished, the city has changed some. Federal employees then numbered 137.

Horace Greeley was later to describe the capital as a "place of high rents, bad foods, disgusting dust, deep mud and deplorable morals." Well, there are a few more than 137 employees now, and one can even get a good meal.

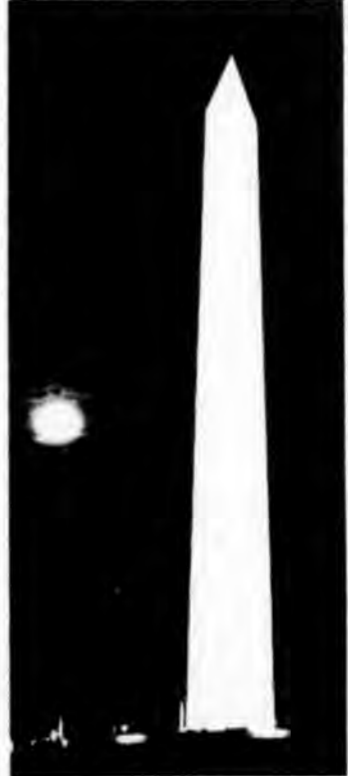

Today, we must be impressed that Washington is in as good shape as it is considering the lack of local rule and its dependency upon a group of congressmen to recommend financial support of needed governmental services and programs. Still, Washington's crime rate is in the "Big Ten" class, and its VD rate is one of the highest, which indicated that as a nation's capital, we have not done too well with the "heart of the home and the brave."

L'ENFANT WAS probably the first to realize that governmental rule of this city was not all sugar and cream. He burned quite a lot of midnight oil designing the city back in the 1790's and never did get paid for his efforts. Congress went ahead with his plan, and in 1909 located his obscure grave and moved it to Arlington National Cemetery.

But, back to our bus ride, and at least a visit to one capital landmark. It is proper, I would think, to talk a little about the monument dedicated to the person for whom the city is named, although I can't find any records at hand which illustrate just how this was done.

The Washington Monument is to this city what the Eiffel Tower is to Paris. Both can be seen for miles around, and both have received fair shares of criticism in years past as being "blots on the horizon," although I am sure neither city would now give up their drawing cards.

IF SOME folks had their way, this structure would have never "got off the ground." Way back in 1783 one of the patriots suggested some sort of magnificent memorial to the "Father of Our Country" but no one liked the idea enough to lay out any money. Finally, one of our earliest pressure groups, the Washington National Monument Society, was formed in 1833, and by 1848 had managed to stimulate the design, groundbreaking and cornerstone laying.

However, work on the project seemed to go under the proverb "a brick a day and the construction boys play" and in 11 years, the marble structure was only raised to 156 feet. All work stopped when the bankroll ran out, and there the 156 feet of marble sat for 20 years.

One of the problems of construction, and the fund-raising for same, dealt with memorial stones. As one walks up the 898 steps of the monument, he can look at 190 memorial stones while resting and gasping for air. Among these are stones donated by the "Alexandrian Library in Egypt," "The Citizens of the US living in Foo Chow Foo, China," and so on.

WELL, IT seems like Pope Pius IX thought he would get into the act, and sent one over which said "Rome to America." Before the speedy construction crews could get the stone in place, the block was carried off, and hasn't been seen to this day. An antireligious group known as the "Know Nothings" caught all the blame for the foul deed, and contributions to the building funds fell to nothing.

Uncle Sam came though finally in 1876, and by 1888 had finished the project and opened it to the public, with the total cost running to about $1.2 millions, not to consider the still-missing stone from Rome.

Since that time, some 42 million persons have struggled up to the top of the 555 foot monument, most on foot, and some in an elevator installed for us rich Americans some years ago.

OUR FRIEND L'Enfant had planned for a memorial to George at the exact center of lines between the White House and the Jefferson Memorial, and the Capitol building and the Lincoln Memorial (at least that's the way we see it on our map of 1964) but a marshy area required a shift of a few hundred feet to the east.

The monument is even lighted at night these days, along with many other governmental buildings in the area, making Washington one of the prettiest cities in the United States to fly over.

End of bus ride and tour, at least to one part of this large complex and interesting cities of our country. What goes on here, both behind the governmental doors and in the streets of the city has many implications for all of us, whether we appreciate what is going on or not.

Where "too ur" next time? I don't know; it depends where I can find a parking space.

Sincerely,
AL HOLLIDAY

Plan local facilities for retarded children

Waiting lists at state institutions for mentally retarded children still number near the 1,800 mark, but this need not be so long, according to the experts.

Mental health officials have informed Gov. George Romney that at least half of these children on waiting lists could adequately be accommodated in community programs.

Programs currently call for the creation of a dozen community day-care centers for severely retarded children and additional homes for those needing full-time institutional care.

MANY OF these waiting children, however, are of the groups termed educable or trainable in extent of retardation. Unfortunately, many local school systems which operate programs for educable or trainable children already are at capacity enrollment.

Mental health officials estimate some 200 or more retarded children not now enrolled in local school programs could be handled by the 12 county-level programs to be created in the near future.

For more severely retarded persons, nearly 1,100 new beds are slated to be available at state institutions by next April and a completely new center in western Michigan is in the pre-construction planning stage.

ON THE LOCAL level it is surprising just how many school districts already have some type of program for mentally handicapped children.

A list compiled by the State Department of Public Instruction of available programs is based on those districts which last year received state reimbursements.

In all, more than 350 systems at the local and county level in 55 counties provide either classroom or consultant programs for educable or trainable mentally handicapped at various levels in the school system.

A DECISION has been promised early next year on whether legal action is needed to curb below-cost sales of milk in Michigan.

The Legislature has been asked several times by individual members to outlaw all "loss leader" sales in stores or prohibit below cost sales of dairy products particularly.

To date all these attempts have been unsuccessful and members of the dairy industry have fought them most vigorously.

SOME DAIRY industry members this year, however, felt some state action should have been taken to maintain the competitive position of independents.

Now Gov. George Romney has asked a special committee to determine in time for the 1965 legislative session whether any state action is warranted and what form it should take, legislative or administrative.

The reasons for use of milk as "loss leader" items in stores also is to be determined by this committee, Romney said.

THE Governor indicated concern in this matter at least partly because of the implications government action might have for other industries in the future.

"Any industry is better off if it can keep itself from getting into the position where it's regulated," he said. Citing his experience with American Motors in the appliance industry, Romney said, "It is not only better for the industry but it is better for customers, too, in the long run.

"But if this situation, which has been going on for years and is getting worse, isn't cleared up voluntarily, there's going to be state governmental action," he said.

COUNTRY FLAVOR

Can feel heart respond to music of November

The turning year is a symphony of varied but always profound music. Each of the four major seasons, and each month within a season, contributes its meaning to the whole.

In November he who is sensitive to Earth's majestic chords can follow the slow movement with its haunting strains. This is the period after the exhilaration of harvest. The tempo now is measured but gradually rising as time marches toward Winter's majestic chords.

GO FORTH to the hillsides and ridges on an eleventh month day and listen to the cellos and vi-olas; their pulsing notes are part of Nature's spirit when stark simplicity is on the land. Stand for a while beside a patch of oaks, and as the wind passes through the leathery, faded leaves, you will hear echoing chords from the bass viol and the reverberations of the percussion instruments.

In the deep-toned music you can hear overtones of King Winter's fortissimo music.

WEEK BY week as the days draw nearer to the season of ice, snow and hard-breasted earth, November music increases in volume and meaning. Winds sweep the land and rains pelt sodden fields. There are sunny days when the bugles of the blue jays carry far and the chickadees' alto chants blend with the brownness of the month.

November music is one movement in the Great Symphony of life. The cries in the chimney, the owls' hoots from the woodland, and the music of oak leaves on the hillside are all part of a complete whole. November is an integral part of life and a man who follows his trail with faith, listens and feels his heart respond to the harmony.

Michigan farmers have good reason to be tax conscious, for most farm-owned property is visible in the extreme and it is in this area of real and personal property taxation that farmers hurt most.

THEY CONTEND that a century ago, property was a good measure of wealth and ability to pay, but that this is no longer the case. They say that total state tax revenues represent only about 10 per cent of Michigan's personal income, but that farmers pay this and much more in just property taxes alone.

In addition, farmers pay all other taxes now levied.

BACKING these statements are figures from a 13-state study to show Michigan with the dubious honor of having the greatest per cent of property-tax increase in the 10-year period from 1951 to 1961.

Other reports show that taxes on Michigan farm real-estate have risen nearly 5 per cent in the past year and now represent 13.3 per cent of total net farm income.

FARM LEADERS in official policy sessions at the recent Michigan Farm Bureau annual meeting called for substantial personal and real property tax relief. They said that new sources of revenue should be found and that these should include the use of broad-based, flat rate net income taxes. They said that cities, with the possible exception of Detroit, should not be allowed to "pre-empt" the use of income taxes.

In addition, the farm delegates said that income taxation on non-residents should be prohibited, and that assessment and equalization methods should be improved in general.

THEY MADE IT plain that one such improvement would be to assess agricultural land as farm land as long as it is so used, instead of for its possible potential high value for subdivisions or similar use.

Elton Smith to lead Farm Bureau

Elton R. Smith, Kent county dairyman who has served as vice president of the Michigan Farm Bureau for the past 1 1/2 years, has been elevated to the presidency by action of the board of directors.

He replaces Walter Wightman, who has served as president of the big, 70,000 farm family organization for the past six years. Wightman remains on the board in the position of Director at Large and will be one of six voting delegates to represent Michigan farmers in policy sessions of the American Farm Bureau Federation soon to be held in Philadelphia.

OTHER ACTION taken in the traditional "reorganization" session of the Farm Bureau board included naming Dean Pridgeon, Montgomery, vice president; and David Morris, Grand Ledge, third member of the Executive Committee. Pridgeon is a prominent Branch county swine producer. Morris owns an extensive cattle-feeding operation in Clinton County.

The board renamed Lee Monroe, Lansing, as treasurer, and Clarence E. Prentice, Okemos, as secretary-manager. Appointed to fill a vacancy in District 7 was Kenneth Bull, Bailey, filling a position recently held by Guy Freeborn, Hart.

BESIDES Wightman, others who will serve as voting delegates to the mid-December annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau are: Elton Smith, Dean Pridgeon, Walter Frahm, Frankennuth, Eugene Roberts, Lake City, and Max Hood, Paw Paw.

The new Michigan Farm Bureau president operates an 80-cow registered Guernsey dairy herd near Caledonia.

Most recently he served as president of Farm Bureau Services, Inc., a large volume farm supply cooperative affiliated with the Michigan Farm Bureau. In 1963, he was honored as Michigan's "Dairyman of the Year," and also received Michigan State University's "Distinguished Service of Agriculture" award.

Americans are expected to eat more in 1964 than in 1963. A one per cent gain—largest food consumption increase since 1959—is indicated by the USDA. Beef and poultry account for most of the gain.

See Greenville potato plant boosting grower acreage

Development of a Russet Burbank potato industry in Michigan is helping the state's growers increase their acreage.

The decision to build a major potato processing firm at Greenville in Montcalm County, which will use large amounts of Russet Burbanks, should greatly increase Michigan potato acreage, believes Quentin Ostrander, district marketing agent for the Cooperative Extension Service at Bay City.

MOST OF THE potato acreage grown for the new processing plant is expected to be increased acreage. "Growers in the past have been limited by the amount of available storage space," said Ostrander. "But grower owned storage is not needed for Russet Burbank production since these potatoes usually move directly from the field to the plant for storage and processing."

Some growers might even be able to double existing potato acreage without having to purchase additional equipment or hire additional labor.

To stage 'Look Homeward Angel' Dec. 2, 5

The long-run Broadway dramatic hit, "Look Homeward Angel," winner of the Drama Critics Circle Award and the Pulitzer Prize, will make its debut on the Lansing stage Dec. 2 and will run for four nights.

The play will be the 180th production by the Lansing Civic Players in its 36th consecutive season. It will be staged at West Auditorium, with an 8:30 p.m. curtain.

THE SETTING of the play is the typical small town of America in 1916, and takes place in North Carolina. It deals with the rather volatile and explosive family of Thomas Wolfe, with their trials, tribulations and problems. Its events are many and varied and run from wild, lusty humor to selfless love and grief.

Bryant Farm on Silvers Road Designated as Centennial Farm

New snow whitens the ground around the John and Vera Bryant farm on Silvers Road, R-6, St. Johns. The Michigan Historical Commission recently designated it as a centennial farm. Located in Greenbush Township, it has been in the possession of the family since 1862. It was originally purchased from the US government by the great-grandparents of the present owner. The Michigan Historical Commission has awarded certificates and metal markers to some 1,800 Michigan centennial farms.

Foresees shift in federal approach to farm puzzle

Dairy farmers face the prospect of a shift in the government's approach to farm problems, Glenn Lake, president of Michigan Milk Producers Assn., told delegates to the group's 48th annual meeting earlier this month in East Lansing.

In his keynote address to 421 delegates and 250 guests, the MMPA president said the legislative approach to farm problems is being "de-emphasized as the number of farmers continues to drop," and as a result, "we must accept the fact that in the future we must do more for ourselves."

"WE HEAR expressions of fear for agriculture," Lake said. "We hear that the technology and mechanization which have created our food abundance will drive prices down and cause the farmer and his family to loose their farm. We hear the same fears about automation from factory workers."

Lake termed the situation ironic. "We have conquered scarcity in our fields and factories, yet we are fearful of the new dimensions we have opened for ourselves."

LAKE TOLD the MMPA delegates they must be confident and optimistic and must accept the challenge to build for the future.

"We need to get out of the rut of thinking we are the underdog," he said, "that we have all the problems, that we cannot do this or that."

"We are going through painful economic experiences and the critical need to improve farm income," Lake added. "We are going to have to make many adjustments and work together as a responsible cooperative, it is my opinion that dairy farming has a bright future."

MMPA GENERAL Manager Jack W. Barnes reported that members of the association last year marketed a record-breaking three billion pounds of milk for $126 million. He said $15.6 million of members, gross income was the direct result of premiums negotiated by the association.

These premiums helped raise members, average gross milk income to $11,446, compared to $4,281 ten years ago. Barnes said the average amount of milk marketed per member was 275,000 pounds last year, 13 per cent more than the year before.

STATING THAT the role of MMPA had changed markedly in recent years, Barnes said the association was now providing "total marketing services" for over 11,000 dairy farmers. He predicted that within the next 10 years, members of the association would market 75 per cent of all milk produced in Michigan.

The MMPA manager reported that association plants last year processed 718 million pounds of milk into various dairy products, up from 537 million pounds a year ago.

BARNES TOLD delegates that the present trends in the dairy industry demanded that dairy farmers consider mergers or federations with other cooperatives over broad regions to improve bargaining effectiveness and maintain orderly marketing systems.

Lake was elected to his ninth consecutive term as president of the association, and Harold Blaylock of Vassar was named vice president. New directors officially seated were Marvin Lott of Mason, John Gilbert of Ithaca, Harold Wood of Marlette and Glen Hanson of Gregory.

PCA office closed for annual meeting

The St. Johns office of Production Credit Assn., located on Brush Street, will be closed Tuesday for the annual meeting of the association at the Kellogg Center in East Lansing.

Registration for the meeting will begin at 11 a.m. Dinner will be served at noon. During the business session, two directors will be elected, and there will be brief reports. There will be door prizes and entertainment.

RICHARD K. Arnold, farm editor of WKAR, Michigan State University, will be guest speaker and will give an illustrated talk on "The Vital Issue."

Bernard Miller is manager of the St. Johns office of Production Credit Assn.

PROCEEDINGS

of the St. Johns City Council

The regular meeting of the city commission was held on Tuesday, Nov. 17, 1964, at 7:30 p.m., Mayor Smit presiding. Invocation was by Edgar McLaughlin. Commissioners present: Smit, Sirrine, Colletta, Irner, Kentfield, Manager Greer and clerk.

Minutes of the Nov. 3, 1964, meeting were read and approved.

Communications included a letter from a citizen, regarding taxicab service in St. Johns and a letter from Japan stating a group of Japanese in a Japanese-built car will tour Michigan and will be in St. Johns sometime during March 1965.

MANAGER Greer made a report on Urban Renewal Program. Bids on roofing of Municipal Building were open and read. Motion made and supported that bid for roofing Municipal Building in the amount of $692.00 be accepted. Motion carried.

Bids on analysis for water treatment plant equipment were opened and read.

Motion made and supported that bid by Walker Process Co. in the amount of $36,831.00 be accepted as per recommendation of engineers. Motion carried.

THE Commission instructed Manager Greer to contact School Supt. Lancaster about the balance of fencing the football field. Motion made and supported that charge for new water service (residential) be $100.00 and the new meter with outside recording will be used. Motion carried.

Plat of part of Out Lot "K" were presented; motion made and supported that Plat of part of Outlot "K" be approved. Motion carried. The commission agreed on the wage and hours of the employee for the city park maintenance.

MOTION made and supported that claims be allowed as audited in the amount of $78,229.61; clerk was authorized to draw warrants for same from available funds. Motion carried.

There being no further business, motion was duly made to adjourn.

Items on food bill really grocery bill

BY BETTY KETCHAM
County Extension Agent
Home Economics

Bothered by the size of your food bill? Look again. You may be confusing it with your grocery bill—which includes a lot of non-food items from your supermarket.

Deduct things such as soap, paper towels, light bulbs, hose, magazines, cigarettes and dog food. You can't call these food—but they do add a lot to your grocery bill.

DEEP freeze honey if you intend to keep it a long time. That's the latest word from researchers at the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment Station.

As most homemakers know, honey kept on the kitchen shelf gets sugary and turns dark after a while. Putting honey in the refrigerator doesn't help. In fact, it crystallizes even sooner.

None of this happens to honey kept in a freezer. So, the researchers suggest you store it there. Remove only a small amount at a time—enough to last a week or two.

"ARE CHICKENS with dark bones fit to eat?"

Yes, they are. US Department of Agriculture Poultry specialists say dark bones in no way affect the wholesomeness or the flavor of poultry meat.

Dark bones actually are a sign of a young bird, the specialists say. And the reason you are seeing more of them lately is because producers are marketing broiler-fryer chickens, fryer-roaster turkeys and ducklings at an earlier age.

Michigan library board makes budget requests

The State Board for Libraries will ask the legislature for $4 million to operate the State Library and provide basic aid to public libraries during 1965-66, according to Dr Flint Purdy, board chairman.

Coupled with $2.1 million in federal monies, the proposed total budget of $6.1 million is the largest ever requested for the State Library. Current state appropriations total $1.3 million.

MAJOR SHARE of the state request is $2.5 million for aid to public libraries, of which $1.9 million would go to library systems. State aid at the present level ($520,000) would be continued to libraries not yet ready to affiliate into systems.

Other purposes included in the budget request are:

- * $24,000 to improve services to school libraries with the addition of five school library consultants and to provide book examination centers and centralized ordering and cataloging to all elementary and secondary schools.

- * $101,000 TO EXPAND State Library services because of increased use and demand, including a $55,500 increase in Michigan State Library book funds; expansion of centralized ordering and cataloging services to public libraries and developing a bibliographical center at the State Library.

- * $72,000 to increase library services to state agencies and institutions. Included is $25,000 for books to be used in mental hospitals and correctional institutions and a bookmobile to beset inmates of correctional institutions.

- * $25,000 to expand the program of recording books on tape for blind readers.

- * $133,000 to establish a film center at the State Library for free use by all Michigan citizens. Such a program would improve services to people in metropolitan areas by providing specialized, less generally used film not currently within budget reach and would make available a whole new dimension of knowledge in non-urban communities.

- * $24,000 to conserve space by keeping documents in microfilm form.

Also included in the budget request is $75,000 for planning money for the new State Library building.

Make leftovers of Thanksgiving into tasty meal

Thanksgiving passes and, if you're among the lucky ones, you face only about a week of eating leftovers.

Now, old-fashioned, American cold roast turkey, left over from the festive dinner, can be converted into a glamorous continental main course salad this holiday season.

The recipe that will turn the gobble into a gourmet's luncheon or late supper is a chef's salad, as follows:

PLACE CHOPPED lettuce in the bottom of a salad bowl. On this arrange cooked turkey, smoked ham and Swiss cheese equal amounts and all cut "julienne" (cut in long, thin strips). Add 1/2 cooked hard-boiled egg for each portion. Arrange water cress in the center. Tomato wedges and radishes, cut in rose pattern, may be used also for garnish to give the red holiday color. Spiced crab apples or chilled, cooked whole cranberries, which have held their shape, may be used instead for the red garnish. Just before serving pour a French dressing liberally over the mounded salad.

OR TRY A delicious turkey sandwich in a casserole.

Place warmed leftover turkey (sliced breast or diced meat) in a shallow greased baking dish. Pour hot cheese sauce over top. Cover with triangular bread slices. Broil until browned, about 5 minutes.

A woman's campaign made Thanksgiving a national holiday

It is due to the efforts of a woman that we celebrate Thanksgiving on the fourth Thursday in November every year.

Nov. 26, 1789 was the first time that Thanksgiving was celebrated by presidential proclamation. After that, no regular holiday was set aside for several decades.

IN THE 1830's Sarah Josepha Hale, editor of "Godey's Lady's Book," started a campaign, stressing the idea that "Thanksgiving, like the Fourth of July, should be a national festival observed by all our people."

It was not until 1863, however, that her campaign succeeded. At that time President Abraham Lincoln proclaimed the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day.

Now it is always the fourth Thursday in November.

Translate weights on labels into cups

Are you ever puzzled by just how much is in a Number 303 can of vegetables or a Number 300 can of cranberry sauce?

Here's a handy table taken from information supplied by the US Dept. of Agriculture to help you translate net weights on labels into approximate cups for cooking or eating:

Net Weight	Approx. Cups
8-oz. can	1
10 1/2-oz. can	1 1/4
12-oz. can	1 1/2
1-lb.) No. 300) can	13/4
16- to 17-oz.) No. 303) can	2
1-lb. 4-oz. or) 20-oz., or 18) fl.-oz.) can	2 1/2
No. 2) 1-lb. 13-oz., or) 29-oz.) can	3 1/2
No. 2 1/2) 3-lb. 3-oz., or) 46 fl.-oz.) can	5 3/4

Approximately 25 billion cans of food reach shelves of grocery stores and supermarkets each year.

Always read the labels on the canned foods you buy. You'll learn what's in the product, the net weight or volume of the contents and the name of the canner or distributor—and often there's a handy recipe for immediate use or inspiration.

Native of Czechoslovakia appreciative of America

Before a plentiful Thanksgiving dinner and a day full of festive family reunions, many take time to bow their heads a moment, thankful for the years blessings.

IT IS AN accepted fact that children in America can go to school, chose a profession and, through their own initiative, earn an independent wage.

"What they get in print about America, over there, is not very nice," she said. In her travels through the Czechoslovakian countryside, Mrs Hospodar said she was asked it is true that the small farmer in America cannot grow enough to feed his own family.

Joining them is Mrs John Hospodar of 2426 East Colony Road.

"I think more young people should go over there (to Czechoslovakia)," she said. "They would better appreciate the opportunities they have."

SUCH misrepresentations are common, she said, pointing out that, while they did have to work hard, she has been able to travel, and her children have been able to save money for their education. In addition to that we are very healthy, she said.

Mrs Hospodar, a native of Czechoslovakia, has returned to her native country twice to visit her parents, three brothers, a sister and friends. Her heritage and travels have made her appreciative of what America has to offer.

Knowing the Slovak language, Mrs Hospodar was able to talk to many students in her native country. Education there is school and sports, she said. The school days are longer and there are very few holidays from school. Church and God are completely neglected.

But she realizes that the future of her children is not in small farming.

MRS Hospodar was 19-years-old when she came to America 25 years ago, the last to leave the country before World War I and the enforcement of the quota system.

"I TALKED to some college students about their future and their wages," she said. She found out that since the government pays for their education, it also sets the wages.

"I have never had a formal education beyond the eighth grade," she said, and knowing that my children will be away at college I am going to night school to learn spelling."

"I didn't hear from my parents for five years after that," she said. "The only messages I received was from the Red Cross telling me that my grandparents and oldest brother had been killed."

"It is not unusual to see a doctor riding a bike to work," Mrs Hospodar said.

MRS HOSPODAR is thankful to the people who helped her.

It was 17 years later, after Mrs Hospodar married and had a family of her own, when she returned to see relatives in Czechoslovakia.

So important is it to her, that her children obtain a college education that Mrs Hospodar has decided to forego any future visits to her relatives until their education is financially assured.

"I like to do things for people because they did so much for me," she said.

IN 1957 Mrs Hospodar traveled with a tour during her two-month stay. She said she noticed much change.

"I NEVER want my children to be as far away from one another as I had to be from my family, especially around the holidays," she said. "And I am thankful that in this country you don't have to send children all over the world to make a living. There's plenty for everyone right here."

In addition to educating herself, raising her children and helping her husband on the farm, Mrs Hospodar is a member of the choir at St. John's Lutheran Church, a Sunday School teacher and secretary for the National Slovak Society.

"The government was taking property and I did not get over it for two years after I returned," she said. It was then that she began to express verbal appreciation for living in a free country. She still often gives talks and shows slides to groups around the county.

Mrs Hospodar is thankful for her status as a small farmer, too.

Thanksgiving Forgotten

President Washington said, "It is the duty of all nations to acknowledge God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and to humbly implore His protection and favor." Presidents, with the exception of Jefferson, up to 1815 were God-minded men. Then for the next 50 years Thanksgiving was forgotten! It remained for the honorable President Lincoln to call the nation to "Thanksgiving" once again. National Thanksgiving is again in danger of being forgotten. Not because there is no proclamation but because feasting on the day has become more important than the "giving of thanks". A short thanksgiving prayer is uttered (if at all) before a table spread with fast cooling bounties and God is but little acknowledged and honored. May I make a suggestion to improve your Thanksgiving? Rise an hour earlier than you normally would, close yourself in your private chamber, read aloud Psalm 103, get your hymn book and sing, "Great is Thy Faithfulness" and then pray a prayer of detailed thanksgiving. After breakfast and preliminary preparations for the Thanksgiving Dinner include in your schedule an hour of worship with God's people in the Church Thanksgiving Service. If your church has no service on this day we invite you to attend our annual Thanksgiving Service on Thanksgiving Day at 9 a.m.

More Than Enough

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Venison Hangs Just Around Corner from Dinner Table

Want some venison? There is lots of it at the Buggs Brothers Locker plant in St. Johns, but unless you're one of the hunters who brought in the deer, your chances of getting these particular ones aren't very good. William Buggs Jr., one of the operators of the business, stands in the cooler room with about 25 deer that have been dressed out ready to be cut up for the lucky hunters. Deer have been coming in at a faster than usual pace, Buggs reported.

Principals Pocuis, Nickel set for meeting

Michigan's winter resort areas see busy season ahead

Michigan enters the 1964-65 winter sports season well equipped to host the thousands of snow fans who will be seeking the Michigan brand of winter recreation.

A total of 87 areas are listed on the state-wide 1964-65 Winter Sports Guide and Ski Map—the largest number ever to appear in the annual publication. Two additional areas have announced openings since the map went into final production.

"EXPANDED facilities, improved equipment and accommodations and the largest number of winter sports areas ever could well result in the busiest winter in the state's history," said William T. McGraw, Michigan Tourist Council director.

"Given normal winter temperatures and snowfall, it is expected that more than 225,000 skiers will spend close to $25 million in the state during the approaching winter months," McGraw said.

ADDED TO the Upper Peninsula's skiing facilities is Big Powderhorn Mountain near Bessemer as well as the re-opening of Iroquois Mountain (Mission Hill) near Brimley.

In Western Michigan, three areas have been added near Traverse City. Sugar Loaf Mountain, absent from the listings for two years, is again included in the active facilities. Timber Lee, at the south end of Lake Leelanau, opens for the first time this season. One of the late starters not on the map is Maple Hurst on Torch Lake, 18 miles north of Traverse City.

ALSO MAKING its debut is Mt. Marla, at the south end of Hubbard Lake in Eastern Michigan. Lee-Tow Winter Sports Area near Caro is another newcomer to the listings. Pinnacles Ski Resort, 11 miles east of Gaylord, announced its opening too late for inclusion on the map.

Two new areas in southeast Michigan complete the additions to this year's facilities. They are Jack Pine Valley at Jeddo, north of Port Huron, and Silverbell Village near Pontiac.

AS WELL AS an increased number of winter sports areas, many existing centers have improved and expanded their facilities.

The combined 89 winter recreation areas include 33 chair lifts, three of which are triple-chair lifts and another which is listed as the world's first four-passenger chair lift. The latter, newly-installed at Boyne Mountain, boasts a carrying capacity of 2,400 skiers per hour.

Also waiting to serve the thousands of skiers in Michigan this year are 44 T-bar and J-bar lifts; 23 pomalifts and more than 400 rope tows. Twenty areas offer tobogganing facilities, some with return conveyors.

ADDED TO this are the establishments which have improved their slopes, and several which have added new lighting for night skiing. In some instances both dining and lodging accommodations have been improved and expanded.

Most winter sports centers offer rental equipment such as skis, boots and poles as well as group or individual instruction. Top ski professionals are on hand to help the beginner or the more advanced skier get more enjoyment from the sport.

The "extras," which winter resorters are coming more and more to demand and which add a change of pace to winter holidays are not lacking in Michigan winter sports areas.

DINING AT some facilities is on a par with that available in major metropolitan areas.

Skiers and non-skiers alike find relaxation in such bonus offerings as heated outdoor swimming pools, game rooms, cocktail lounges and the fun of gathering around massive fireplaces for songs and entertainment.

Ski weeks and ski weekend packages for individuals or family groups are offered at most of the leading Michigan snow resorts.

COPIES OF the 1964-65 Ski Map and Winter Sports Guide are available without charge by writing the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing 48926.

Booked for Yule...

Make this a well-read Christmas—give books! From the youngsters on up, everybody on the list can be gifted with books that suit their age and interests, and the price range is equally adaptable to the gifts budget. Best way to get ideas is to browse through book stores and departments, and it's also wise to check the recipient's own book shelves, to avoid giving a book he already owns.

Lovely, Lasting Are Gifts of New Leather Fashions

Something elegant and easy to wear, something smart now and next season, too — these are her specifications when it comes to fashion gifts, and one way Santa's helpers are planning to meet them is with pleasing presents of new leather apparel.

Suede dresses, smooth and grained leather coats, new embossed and printed leather separates have fashion importance, and can be found in every style, color and price range, so that individual tastes and budgets may be served.

Standouts in style detailing of leather coats are detachable fur collars for dress wear, the use of quilting and the return of the classic wrap-around.

Traditional leather separates such as jackets and overblouses now are joined by skirts, stoles, pants, jumpers and tunics.

GIFTED IDEA

If she's the family chauffeur, she'll appreciate driving gloves, a car coat.

Certain moods of mind find an indefinable pleasure in stillness, soft, silent as the storm's sudden hush. — Mary Baker Eddy

WIN THE $20⁰⁰ JACKPOT!
in the
Clinton County News FOOTBALL CONTEST

Join in the fun! You can win $20 cash, paid by The Clinton County News each week to the person who guesses the most winners of the high school and college football games listed on this page. Shop the ads and read the rules to find out how you can cash in!

1. Read every ad on this page. An important game will be listed in each ad for your selection.
2. On a separate sheet of paper, write the name of each merchant on this page and after his name, the name of the team you select as the winner of the game listed in his ad. List in sequence 1 to 20.
3. Be sure and print your name and address plainly on your entry.
4. Mail your entry to Contest Editor, The Clinton County News, St. Johns, before 6 p.m. Friday or deliver it personally to The Clinton County News office before 5 p.m. Friday. Mail must be postmarked no later than 6 p.m. Friday.
5. Contest winners will be announced each week in The Clinton County News.
6. Only one entry per person is allowed.
7. Remember—Your guesses plus the names of the merchants, must be on a SEPARATE sheet of paper . . . not on this page.
8. See copy at left for tie breaker.
