ST JOHNS -- Employees of St Johns Jaycees will be honored at "Bosses Night" Jan 8 at Daley's Restaurant.

The annual "Bosses Night" is designed to acquaint employees with the activities of the Jaycees.

Another major part of "Bosses Night" is the presentation of community service awards to Jaycee-age members of the community.

Awards to be presented include Distinguished Service Award, Outstanding Young Farmer, Outstanding Young Educator and individual chapter awards. The meeting, which precedes Jaycee Week, also signals the beginning of the Chapter membership drive.

Young men between the ages of 18-35 may contact Bob Rehmann or Bob Green or any Jaycee member.

The arrest of 2 Fowler men, a Middleton woman and a Clinton County juvenile has apparently cleared up the breaking and entering of the Maple Rapids Elementary School, Middleton Elementary School and the Lewis Hardware in Maple Rapids.

Troopers Paul Titmuss and Loren Urlaub of the Ithaca State Police post have also linked the suspects to the larceny of fire extinguishers and first aid kits from Ithaca Public School buses. They expect to issue more warrants in Gratiot and Clinton County as well as clear up other criminal activity as a result of their investigation, and are hopeful of recovering additional property.

The investigation has led to the recovery of $700 to $800 in stolen goods including ammunition, tape players, cases of candy bars, a flag, records, and items from the schools, such as felt markers, staplers, etc.

ARRESTED FOR breaking and entering were Karen Pierce, 18, of 223 S. Caroline St, Middleton and Kent Bunner, 18, of Rt 1, Talman Rd, Fowler. Darrell Bunner, 19, also of Talman Rd, Fowler, was arrested for receiving stolen property. All 3 were on bond.

The breaking and entering of the Maple Rapids Elementary School occurred Dec 22, while the Middleton Elementary School and the larceny from the Ithaca buses occurred about a month earlier.

Lewis Hardware in Maple Rapids was apparently broken into about 1 am Dec 26. The hardware is located at 104 E. Main St, Maple Rapids.

Jaycees help brighten holidays for family

ST JOHNS -- The new year began on a brighter note for a family of 6 in St Johns thanks to the St Johns Jaycees and members of the community.

Fire swept through the Roger Heinlen family home on W. Centerline Rd just before Christmas, burning all their possessions except for a few Christmas gifts.

Learning of the plight of the family, the St Johns Jaycees went to work.

Members of the Jaycees learned of the fire about 3 am and by 9 am, several members of the chapter were coordinating efforts to help the family.

By 6 pm, the Heinlen family moved into a furnished house complete with trimmed Christmas tree and a waiting Santa Claus with gifts.

The house was located by Houghton Realty who also donated 200 gallons of heating oil.

St Johns businessmen were asked for help by the Jaycees and contributions were generous.

The Gambles Store provided gifts and toys, Kurt's Appliances donated a stove and refrigerator, Dean's Hardware provided a complete set of dishes, Arnold's Drugs furnished toilet articles and kitchen utensils; Dr Henry Burkhardt donated toothbrushes, toothpaste and a shaving kit.

Food was received from Kroger and Andy's IGA, Parr's Pharmacy contributed a $50 gift certificate and Zeeb Fertilizer helped the family into the home by providing a front end loader to move the snow and then presented them with a turkey for the holidays.

In addition, businesses and individuals donated more than $650 through the Jaycees and a special account at Clinton National Bank and Trust.

Dick Giles of the WRBJ Radio staff helped inform the community by announcing on the air places where donations could be made.

IRS offers tax help

LANSING -- Taxpayers living in the Lansing area can obtain assistance with their 1973 Federal income tax returns Monday through Friday each week at the IRS office here starting January 2, according to local District Director's Representative Bruce Kingsley. Internal Revenue Service personnel will be available to provide Federal income tax information from 8 am to 4 pm. The Lansing office is located at 232 Federal Bldg., 315 W. Allegan St.

The IRS will offer expanded telephone service this year to make it more convenient for taxpayers to obtain information and advice. Telephone service will be offered 6 days a week. IRS offices close at 4:00 pm for in-person assistance. Telephone service, however, will be offered til 5:30 pm weekdays and Saturdays from 10 am til 3:30 pm. Assistance phone numbers for Michigan are listed in the instruction booklets mailed to all taxpayers, according to Kingsley. Except for telephone assistance, IRS offices are closed on Saturdays. Many taxpayers will be able to use the "short form" 1040A, again this year. The IRS estimates that about 30 million taxpayers will be able to use the half-page form 1040A.

Taxpayers who plan to pay someone to prepare their return are reminded that the law requires the person to sign the form as preparer. The new forms again include a line for the preparer's Social Security or identification number, says Kingsley.

Taxpayers who pay to have their returns prepared should be careful to select a qualified preparer, he said.

Reports theft

ST JOHNS -- Joseph Kioski, 300 Lindy Lane, has reported the theft of $20 from his home.

The theft was reported Dec 27 at 5 am.

LANSING -- The observance of the nation's 200th birthday in Michigan gained impetus Tuesday as the State's Bicentennial Commission voted its first allocation of matching grant funds to local projects.

At its meeting in East Lansing, the Commission awarded grants totaling $40,000 to eleven local projects which had submitted applications. The funds had been made available for this purpose through the federal American Revolution Bicentennial Commission in Washington. Local groups must match the grants on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

Announcing the grants, Lt. Governor James H. Brickley, Chairman of the Bicentennial Commission, said, "Activities have been under way at the state level for some time, but we are aware that the ultimate strength of the observance lies in the depth and range of local projects. These grants will not be used for planning purposes. They are funds for specific projects which are ready to be carried out. The sum that was available made it impossible to allocate grants to the level requested in all cases," he said. "However, we feel we are materially assisting a number of significant local efforts." Brickley said that additional funds may become available next year and he urged communities to begin organizing their effort. Some 65 local bicentennial organizations have already been formed in the state and are planning activities.

The grants ranged in size from $250.00 to the community of Bath to create a bicentennial mini-park to $7,000 in Meridian Township for a historical village to $8,000 in Detroit for restoration at Fort Wayne. The amount and purpose of grants acted on, Tuesday is:

1. Lansing School District - $6,750. To restore the 1907 Gunnisonville School at Clark Road and Wood Street for use as a living history laboratory. Elementary classes can use the school for a day to learn the importance of rural schools.
2. Bath Bicentennial Committee - $250. To create a bicentennial mini-park on Main Street in Bath. An old building will be razed and the site will be landscaped with trees and shrubs.

3. Macomb County Historical Society - $2,500. To preserve the historic Crocker House. The house will be removed from the path of a state highway project and converted to a County Historical Museum in an urban renewal area of Mt. Clemens.

4. Village of Elk Rapids - $2,500. To assist in the restoration of the Old Town Hall in Elk Rapids.

5. Chippewa County-Sault Ste Marie Bicentennial Committee - $1,925. To provide and erect historical markers at seven locations and structures in Chippewa County.

6. Northville Bicentennial Committee - $4,000. To assist in preservation work at Mill Race Historical Village. An 1845 Greek Revival building used as church, school, library and township office will be restored for museum use. Mill Race Historical Village will eventually encompass 7 1/2 acres in Northville and will include 7 worthy buildings threatened with destruction.

7. Ingham County Bicentennial Committee - $2,500. To assist in publishing and distributing an updated history of Ingham County. The last known county history has done in 1923. The history will treat the contributions of all ethnic groups that have settled in the county and early settlement and social life. The history will also be converted to film in two languages.

8. Mackinac Island State Park Commission - $2,575. To fund research for historical interpretation of two major bicentennial projects, the restoration of the Stone Officers' Quarters and the reconstruction of the sloop "Welcome."

John Wesley College heads enrollment growth

OWOSSO -- John Wesley College at Owosso showed the largest percentage increase in student enrollment for the 1973-74 school year among independent colleges and universities in Michigan. The college had a 50.2 per cent increase with 356 students enrolling. Overall enrollments at Michigan's major independent colleges are up slightly this year, according to the report issued recently by the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities of Michigan (AICUM).

John L. Gaffney, AICUM President, noted there was an increase of 89 students among AICUM's 29 member colleges, with a total of 42,684 enrolling in the fall of the 1973-74 school year, compared to 42,859 in the fall of the 1972-73 school year. Increases in enrollment were reported by 14 AICUM members. Twelve had small decreases and three reported declines of more than 100 students each. "While many public and independent colleges across the nation are experiencing declines in their enrollments, Michigan's independent colleges are holding their own," Gaffney said. He credited the increase in the maximum Michigan Tuition Grant -- from $800 to $1,200 -- and the legislative appropriation of additional funds for tuition grants as major factors in the ability of independent colleges to attract many students who would otherwise be unable to attend college. More students than ever before are participating in the Michigan Tuition Grant program. Tuition grants ranging up to $1,200 are available to independent college students who can show need for financial assistance. This year about one out of every four Michigan residents attending independent colleges is the recipient of a tuition grant. The following chart is a percentage comparison of the 1973-74 enrollment increases:

No shortage of wood for fuel

Despite nationwide shortages of many consumer goods, there is still plenty of firewood for fireplaces and wood burning stoves -- at least in Michigan. Lester E. Bell, Michigan State University extension forecaster, says southern Michigan woodlots contain an abundance of crooked, defective trees that make excellent fuelwood. He says the removal of these trees could help ease the energy crisis and would improve growing conditions in the woodlot. "For years our extension forestry program at MSU has encouraged timber stand improvement by removing logging remnants and hollow, crooked or otherwise defective trees; as well as species of low value. This leaves more growing room for healthy, straight trees of higher value," Bell explains. Promoting these practices has been difficult, however, because there has been little or no market for low grade wood. Now, with the nation facing an energy shortage, fuelwood is in much greater demand, and Bell feels there is an excellent opportunity to improve timber stands by removing cull trees for fuel. Hickory, white oak, sugar maple, yellow birch, beech, ironwood and black locust produce the greatest amount of heat per unit of volume. Elm, soft maple, cherry and pine are of medium value; aspen, basswood, cedar and cottonwood give the least amount of heat. "Trying to evaporate water out of green or wet wood is a waste of energy," says Bell. "The best way to prepare wood for fuel is to cut it, stack it, and let it dry for three to six months in the open air before using."

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS IN THE HISTORY OF BANKING.

(One of a series)

THE OTHER MAN

Disaster appeared imminent. Storm clouds rolled as thunder rattled across the heavens and a dejected Noah stood beside the half-covered skeleton of his ark. "How looks the time to come?" asked his wife. "As gray as the skies," replied Noah. "Omens on high forewarn of rampant waters like no man has ever known. Yet my work is in jeopardy for that large keg of nails sits in want of lumber and my purse holds only the lint of many years use." "Be not concerned over your purse for the answer lies elsewhere," replied the woman. "Of what do you speak, woman?" Noah asked, mildly irritated at her cryptic remark. "I speak of another man in my life," replied his wife. "A man who has provided the friendship and advice that for many years now I have heeded. The time has come for his direction to take form."

Noah's whiskers bristled as his irritation grew. "Blast it, woman," he roared, "be on with your talk. 'Tis no time for parables." "Noah, for many years, as you provided money for household expenses, I have passed along amounts to Mr. Script and he..." "Script, the banker?" Noah asked in surprise. "Yes, Noah, the banker. With an eye to retirement I've watched the fund grow, but this emergency prevails and it is fitting that we assign what has accumulated to the ark." A trace of a smile appeared on the man's face. "I know many things of this world and can read messages from on high, but never shall the ways of a woman provide me with understanding. It is you who will have built this ark, not I. What can be said?" They stood in silence for long moments then it was Noah who spoke first. "What kind of interest did you get?"

The wide-awake bank makes it all so easy.

ST JOHNS - Terri L. Bunce became the bride of Richard Ross Sept. 29 at the Duplain Church of Christ. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Duane Bunce, Rt 3, St Johns. The groom is the son of Mr and Mrs Raymond Ross of Garden City.

Michael Hargrove officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with candelabars and bouquets of red roses, white glads, and white mums. Music for the occasion was provided by Mrs Nida Durham and Connie Burnham, soloist.

The bride chose an empire traditional style gown with lace bodice and long full sleeves of lace. The bridal bouquet consisted of red roses, star flowers, and baby's breath centered with a white rose, accented by red ribbon streamers.

Bernadette Jorae of St Johns served as maid of honor. Her other attendants included Jill and Polly Bunce of St Johns, sisters of the bride, and Valory Sauer of Highland, Mich, sister of the groom.

The attendants wore floor length gowns of red velvet with short puffed sleeves, cross-over V-neckline, and empire waist. The dresses were all sewn by the bride's sister, Jill. They carried bouquets of red roses, white mums, and red star flowers with white streamers. The headpieces consisted of matching flowers and ribbon streamers.

The bride's mother chose a floor length gown with white empire bodice, long sleeves, and purple skirt. The groom's mother chose a pink fitted floor length gown accented with silver bead trim. Both had corsages of orchids with ribbons matching their gowns.

Tim Bunce of St Johns, brother of the bride, served as best man. Groomsman were John Varovich of Detroit and Dave Bombyk of Garden City, friends of the groom, and Chuck Sauer of Highland, brother-in-law of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the VFW Hall in St Johns for 300 guests. Host and hostess were Mr and Mrs Leonard Wiggins. Neighbor ladies of the bride served the lunch. Assisting with the cakes and punch were Cindy Edmondson, Judy Schwark, and Paula Pettigrew.

Following a Fla honeymoon, the couple are residing at 210 E McTavish, Highland Greens, Highland, Mich.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of St Johns High School and is employed as a secretary and accountant in Southfield. The groom is a graduate of Garden City High School and Ferris State College and is employed as a dental technician by a Bloomfield Dental Laboratory in Birmingham.

Things were made that they could take home. Rosie Swagart is county chairman.

You are invited to these monthly meetings on the first Tuesday of each month at the Farm Bureau Building.

Heating with wood--some advice

A piece of dense or heavy wood will provide more heat than a lighter weight piece of wood. Soil Conservation Service Forester Jacques Pinkard considers oak, beech, maple, and hickory best. One light weight wood, aspen, is a hazard in a fireplace, he says. It hisses and snaps and flings ember all around the grate and into the room.

When a pound of dry hardwood is burned it will make about as much heat as one-half pound of coal, or one-third as much as a pound of fuel oil. Moisture held in wood cut from live trees will determine how much heat can be obtained from the wood. As much as 30 percent of the weight can be due to water when the wood is first cut.

Natural forests and tree plantings supply us with wood. Do we know how to use it for fuel? Here is a market for cull wood from most any kind of tree. Woodlands can be improved by leaving the best trees to grow for wood products and taking out only the poorest trees for firewood. "Some of our best tree-covered areas are those from which poor trees have been systematically removed for firewood year after year while the better trees were left to grow", according to Arthur H. Cratty, State Conservationist, SCS in Michigan, and SCS District Conservationist Lloyd B. Campbell in St Johns.

There are several potential sources of firewood:

- cull trees and poor trees in any woodland.
- tree tops or limbs too small to make into logs.
- wood scraps and logs not useable for other wood products.
- wood from land-clearing.
- yard trees removed in town or country.

There is also a fuel saving measure which can be taken around the outside of a home. A windbreak of trees and shrubs can be planted. An ideal pattern is three rows of trees with shrubs on both sides. The entire planting should be along the windward sides and 100 to 150 feet from any part of the home. Beauty, wildlife cover, and value will be increased by a windbreak. A fast growing tree and a slow growing tree could be planted together and when crowding occurs in a few years the fast-growing trees could be used for firewood. Planting a windbreak may seem like something that takes too long a time. Time does pass, rather quickly, however, and in a few years the results will be felt and admired. Clinton County Soil Conservation District has been promoting these plantings. "Now is the time to order plants"

Food safety

Home Economics Agent

Just because it's cold weather is no reason to relax over safety rules for food care and preparation.

Salmonella and Staphylococcus recognize no difference in summer, spring, fall or winter. What are Sand S? Salmonella is a bad bacteria found in raw meat, fish, poultry and eggs and it's carried by dirty hands and cooking tools or equipment. Staphylococcus is a bacteria that comes from sneezes, coughs and careless hands. Staphylococcus forms a toxin in hams, custard-filled foods, cream pies, unrefrigerated cooked meat, and dairy products. Cooking kills "staph" but not the toxin.

SOME FOOD SAFETY "Rules" to rigidly follow include:

- Never place other foods on a surface where you have had raw meat or poultry until you have thoroughly cleaned that surface. This means hot soap and water on knives and other utensils also.
- Follow scrubbing of cutting boards with a thorough hot water rinse and an application of chlorine bleach.
- Refrigerate all cream, custard, and meringue pies and any other foods with custard fillings. Room temperatures cause harmful bacteria to develop FAST.
- Never partially cook fowl of any kind with the idea of finishing it at a later time. Cook to internal temperature of 185 degrees.

-Cook stuffing thoroughly. If a bird is stuffed, cook until the thermometer inserted into the stuffing reaches 165 degrees. Bacteria grow rapidly in lukewarm stuffing. Do not stuff bird before you are ready to put it in the oven. Do not thaw a commercially stuffed and frozen bird before cooking it.

POSITIVE THINKING is important! DO -

- After purchasing groceries, hurry home and refrigerate them at once.
- Keep hot foods HOT (above 140 degrees) and Cold foods COLD (below 40 degrees).

- Wash your hands thoroughly before handling any food. Use Soap and Hot Water. Use the same treatment after handling raw meat, fish, poultry or eggs.
- Cool leftovers quickly. Hold broth or gravy no longer than a day or two. To serve again reheat and boil for several minutes and serve HOT.
- Freeze left over foods promptly.
- FINALLY, remember: food poisoning does not necessarily have a bad smell or taste. Just because it may not appear spoiled doesn't necessarily mean it is all right to eat. Play It Safe. Follow The Rules.

The dates of the County 4-H Snow Camp Weekend will be Saturday, Jan 26 to Monday, Jan 28 at the Twin Lakes 4-H Camp near Traverse City. Letters have gone out to trip winners and those who attended in 1973. The cost to trip winners will be $8.50 while adults and non-trip winners will be $19.50. This fee includes transportation, 6 meals, 2 nights lodging and insurance. The trip will be limited to the first 100 people turning in their registration and money. Last year some were turned down because more than 100 people wanted to attend. 4-Hers are urged to register early for the trip.

With the snow storms it is difficult to get enthused about summer camp at the 4-H youth center at Algonquin Lake near Hastings. However, the camp committee met Wednesday to discuss the 1974 camp schedule, new camp staff needed and their responsibility, counselor training, etc. One thing we are discussing this year is to have one week for maybe just Clinton, Gratiot and Ionia Counties rather than having them select their choice of five weeks available. A number of parents had indicated they would send their children to camp if they knew others attending. The increase cost of food and labor will make it necessary to raise the camp fee this year from $21 to $25 for the four day camp period. The camp session runs each week from Sunday evening after supper to Thursday after supper. It is expected the first week of 4-H camp will start on July 7.

The club members wrote a Christmas list on items they would like Santa to bring them and then had to guess who wrote what list. The group enjoyed puzzles that Mrs Brockmyre gave them.

No goldbricking

Comedian Jerry Clower recently remarked that city folks sometimes looked on farmers, but now they're looking up to them because farmers have finally got some money, too. 1973 was a good year for farming, and this much-delayed prosperity spills out into the rest of the economy, both here and abroad.

fiber around the world, and it is hoped that the $12.9 billion sales last year can increase to almost $20 billion this fiscal year.

Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz, in a recent interview, pointed out that America will always be a good place to buy food products. He gave these reasons why this is true:

- "We haven't learned yet on our farms how to goldbrick on the job."
- "We haven't learned yet how to have two drivers in a tractor cab like they have in locomotives."
- "We haven't learned yet to punch the clock at 40 hours."
- "We haven't learned yet to go out to the cow and say, 'Look, Bossy, I've got to be gone over the weekend. Let's shut her off for three days.'"
- "As long as we haven't learned these things, we're going to be a good source of food and fiber for all the peoples of the world."

One thing that farmers can take pride in is that they have helped boost the American dollar abroad through their exports of farm products. Last fiscal year, there were 12.9 billion dollars worth of farm products sold overseas. Agriculture made a net positive contribution of better than five billion dollars to the balance of payments. The value of our dollar abroad would have been in real trouble if it had not been for these increased farm exports.

Pastor Koeppen to be honored

ST. JOHNS—Robert Koeppen, pastor of St. Johns Lutheran Church for the past 5 years will be honored with his family Sunday, Jan. 6 at a potluck dinner beginning at 1 pm in the Social Hall of St. Joseph Catholic Church.

Pastor Koeppen has asked for a peaceful release to accept a call to Zion Hinsdale Lutheran Church, about 25 miles from Chicago.

During his ministry at St. Johns, he has seen the church celebrate its 100th anniversary and is at present in a $170,000 building program to enlarge its education and administrative facilities.

New programs begun under Pastor Koeppen's ministry have been a Wednesday afternoon weekday school which has enrolled approximately 80 students annually.

An Evangelism program with approximately 30 trained laymen and laywomen was also begun by Pastor Koeppen as well as the training of about 35 Sunday school teachers and the appointment of a Sunday School superintendent, an extensive youth program involving retreats, participation in conducting services and athletics with neighboring congregations.

He also started the 8 am Matins service every 3rd Sunday of the month.

A native of Hemlock, he received his bachelor's degree in 1961 from Concordia Teachers College of River Forest, Ill.

He was a teacher and principal at Immanuel Lutheran School in Murphysboro Ill from 1961-1963.

Pastor Koeppen served as an English teacher for 2 years in Lutheran High East Detroit and graduated from Concordia Seminary in 1968.

He came to St. Johns Sept. 22, 1968, to replace Pastor Theodore Moeller who left to fill a position in Huron, S. Dakota.

Pastor Koeppen's farewell service will be Sunday, Jan. 6 at the 10:15 am service. The public and friends are invited to the service at the St. Johns Lutheran Church, 511 E. Sturgis and to the potluck dinner later.

Pastor Koeppen and his wife Theodora, have 4 children; John, 11; Justine, 9; Stephanie, 4, and Katherine, 2.

Some advice on fire wood

which will be needed in the spring", says Stanley Baird, Chairman of the SCD Forestry Committee.

Here are some of the ways valuable wood is wasted:

- cut all the growing trees in a woodlot or forest regardless of size or quality for use in other products.

- store fuel where it will be wet when needed or will rot before it can be used.

- build a roaring fire and keep the draft open more than needed.

Because of the fuel shortage many people are looking to the woods for a heat source. Michigan does have a big source of wood fuel that is useable for heating homes. This is one answer to help us solve the energy crisis and do some other valuable work. Just how to burn the wood is something that each person who wants to use it has to determine. Wood stoves are apparently in greater demand than for many years, and certain manufacturers have a backlog of orders. The use that we make of fuel will certainly depend on types of equipment available to make it provide heat.

Many feel that New Years resolutions are merely made to be broken.

I can't agree with that philosophy and, mind you, I intend to keep every one of my resolutions for 1974. Of course, the trick is to draft a list of resolutions that are not too demanding to keep.

Here are a few of my resolutions that, may lightening fry my toe nails, if they are not kept.

-I resolve to refrain from kicking pigeons except under extreme provocation.

-Never to read "I Am Joe's Hangnail" in Reader's Digest.

-Say several times during the year, "I really should stop smoking."

-Never again ask a telephone operator, "How long have you been working for the Tinker Toy Telephone Company?"

-Never think the Detroit Lions will beat the Minnesota Vikings.

-Accept the fact that Ohio State went to the Rose Bowl.

-Never to call my wife my "old lady."

-I don't believe that, if I step on a crack, I'll break my mother's back.

-Help preserve energy by sleeping very late every Sunday morning.

-Not to be a fanatic about household chores like cutting the grass etc.

-Cut out many bad habits such as listening to the radio while eating a TV dinner or wondering if the light really goes out in the refrigerator.

-Not to slam car doors on my nose.

-Be more understanding of other people's opinions, unless, of course, I know they're wrong.

-Never to wash a car under a full moon.

-I will not get into political arguments with parrots that swear.

-Get more exercise by tapping my left foot while driving the car.

-Not to eat steak 5 nights a week.

-Not to watch the Detroit Tigers play in the World Series.

"If It Fitz . . ."

Give yourself a kiss

Editor, Lapeer County Press

By Jim Fitzgerald

Gordon Sinclair has shown how to make Joe Slob, the average American, proud of his country and its leaders. All you have to do is get a foreigner to tell Joe how great he is.

How come Harold Stassen never thought of that?

The politicians perennial problem is probably platform-promising people whom it would perhaps be better to butter. (Read that sentence aloud 25 times. You sure sound silly.)

GORDON SINCLAIR has proven the value of knowing what side of the border to butter. He's a Canadian journalist. Last spring he got fed up with hearing rotten things about Americans. So he broadcast some nice things about us. Such as:

"I can name you 5,000 times when the Americans raced to the help of other people in trouble. Can you name me even one time when someone else raced to the Americans in trouble? I don't think there was outside help even during the San Francisco earthquake."

As I recall, Clark Gable cleaned up the San Francisco mess while searching for Jeannette MacDonald. However, he did get some help from Fr Spencer Tracy, an Irishman. But that's a petty quibble. In the main, I agree with Sinclair. We Americans are much sweeter than corner gossip might lead you to believe. So go kiss a mirror.

However, I am not here to praise me and you. Rather, I am here to comment on the peculiar phenomenon uncovered by Sinclair's flattery.

I DON'T THINK anyone realized just how hungry

Back Through the Years

Joe Slob was for a few kind words. He was sick of hearing this is a lousy country. Joe used to believe everything Kate Smith sang. But in recent years it's been nothing but Joan Baez putting the knock on apple pie. All the world agreed the United States was a bunch of greedy, arrogant bomb-droppers. It is no wonder Joe Slob began to avert his eyes when he shaved.

Gordon Sinclair galloped to the rescue. His praise of Joe Slob has been reprinted in thousands of American newspapers. These magnificent words have been recorded in March-of-Time tones, with "America the Beautiful" playing in the background. Disc jockeys spin it twice every hour. Sinclair is in The Top Forty. If there were still a Hit Parade, Snookie Lanson would have to sing about the Marshall Plan and the Red Cross for 62 straight weeks.

Joe Slob listens, spraining his arm patting his back, and loves what he hears. He forgets Watergate and Vietnam. He regains his pride in his nation and the splendid men who run it.

Some cynics might say it is immodest for Americans to so indulge themselves in Sinclair's syrupy adjectives. They might even say it is typically American for us to Xerox Sinclair to the point of nausea.

BUT JOE SLOB, finally flattered, is in no mood to upchuck today. Maybe tomorrow, when Joe learns there is no Canadian named Gordon Sinclair. He is really David Eisenhower, an overseas assignment for his father-in-law.

MTA distributes "Speed is Fuel-ish" bumper stickers LANSING—"Speed is Fuel-ish" Backing up earlier actions in an effort to conserve short diesel and gasoline supplies, the Michigan Trucking Association (MTA) today announced a bumper sticker campaign to remind drivers to slow down. "The slogan", says MTA President Paul Hare, "was designed with a double message. Not only is speed fuel-ish, but it is also foolish, from a safety standpoint. It makes sense that if drivers slow down to conserve fuel, we stand a good chance of seeing a decline in the accident rate and the severity of those accidents." On Nov. 26, the Michigan Trucking Association's Executive Committee asked all MTA members to slow their speeds down to 55 miles per hour.

"We found that there has been good compliance with our request", Hare said. Michigan Cooperative Road Patrol members reported an increasing number of trucks were moving slower during the early part of December, most of the Michigan based carriers apparently have ordered over the road speeds reduced, however some of the out-of-state carriers and independent truckers seem to be waiting for Congress to act. The bumper stickers are being supplied free to the public as well as member truck lines. Persons wishing to obtain stickers may do so by contacting the Michigan Trucking Association, 501 S. Capitol Ave., Lansing, Michigan 48933. There is no limit on the number requested.

Know Your Ice

BEWARE OF FIRST ICE OF SEASON.

REMEMBER: SNOW INSULATES; ICE BENEATH MAY BE WEAK.

NO!	NO!

Lake and farm pond users-- the first ice is dangerous

Don't go out on early ice. The first ice of the season is deceptive because it is not usually uniform in thickness. This warning is given by Stanley Baird, chairman of the Clinton County Soil Conservation District, with the reminder that prolonged freezing temperatures are required to produce solid ice. Such ice takes on a blue color. Any clear, transparent ice, or ice that is honeycombed, is hazardous. He also points out the snow-covered northern lakes and farm ponds should be approached with great caution. Snow is a natural insulator of great efficiency. A lake or pond even in the dead of winter at 20 degrees below zero could be covered by one foot of snow, eight inches of slush, and one inch of ice. In some cases, even the inch of ice could be missing!

If ice has had proper weather to form solidly and in a uniform manner, a general rule of thumb as follows can be used: One inch - keep off. Two inches - maybe one person. Three inches - a few people spread out. Four inches - general use except snowmobiles and large compact groups. This point out that usually more than four inches of ice is needed for safe snowmobiling on ice. Make sure you test the ice with a spud or auger and actually measure the thickness before you go out. The Clinton County SCD directors remind farm pond owners to be especially safety conscious of early ice users' safety. Protect yourself and others from a drowning tragedy - know when the ice is safe and familiarize yourself with rescue techniques.

Jacqueline Garner is Fulton DAR citizen

The award by the Daughters of the American Revolution is given to the senior girl who possess the qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism to an outstanding degree. The faculty selected Jacqueline from three candidates chosen by the senior class.

Jacqueline is a member of the Band, the FHA, and has been an honor student throughout high school. She plans to attend Lake Superior State College in the field of Medical Technology.

Winter's first freeze-over of inland waters often is not the "seal" of approval for fishermen and other recreationists to venture out on the ice, reminds the Department of Natural Resources' Marine Safety Section. It takes prolonged freezing temperatures to produce solid ice. Look for bluish ice as a safety sign. On the other hand, look out for clear or honey-combed ice and stay clear of dark spots in the ice. A good place to start sizing up conditions on your favorite lake is right around the shore. If ice there is squashy or broken up, it's a pretty good bet that the whole lake is unsafe. Beware of lake inlets and outlets. They generally have some thin patches of ice throughout the winter. Don't tread into areas of lakes where the snow cover looks discolored. To be sure of your ice instead of sorry, test its thickness with an auger or spud. The bottom chart here gives an index on how much activity different thicknesses of ice will safely support as a general rule.

RECP receives funds

EAST LANSING—The US Department of Agriculture (USDA) has announced the operation and funding for fiscal year 1974 of the new Rural Environmental Conservation Program authorized by the Agriculture and Consumer Protection Act of 1973 and the Water Bank Program.

Total funding level for the 2 programs, the Department said, will be $100 million. RECP will receive $90 million and Water Bank $10 million.

RECP is a new program which carries forward some features of the old Rural Environmental Assistance Program but with increased emphasis on tree planting in states and counties to be designated.

Annual cost-share agreements will be used as well as phasing-in of the Title X authority in the Farm Act which authorizes the Secretary to enter into long-term cost-share agreements with landowners to establish conservation practices.

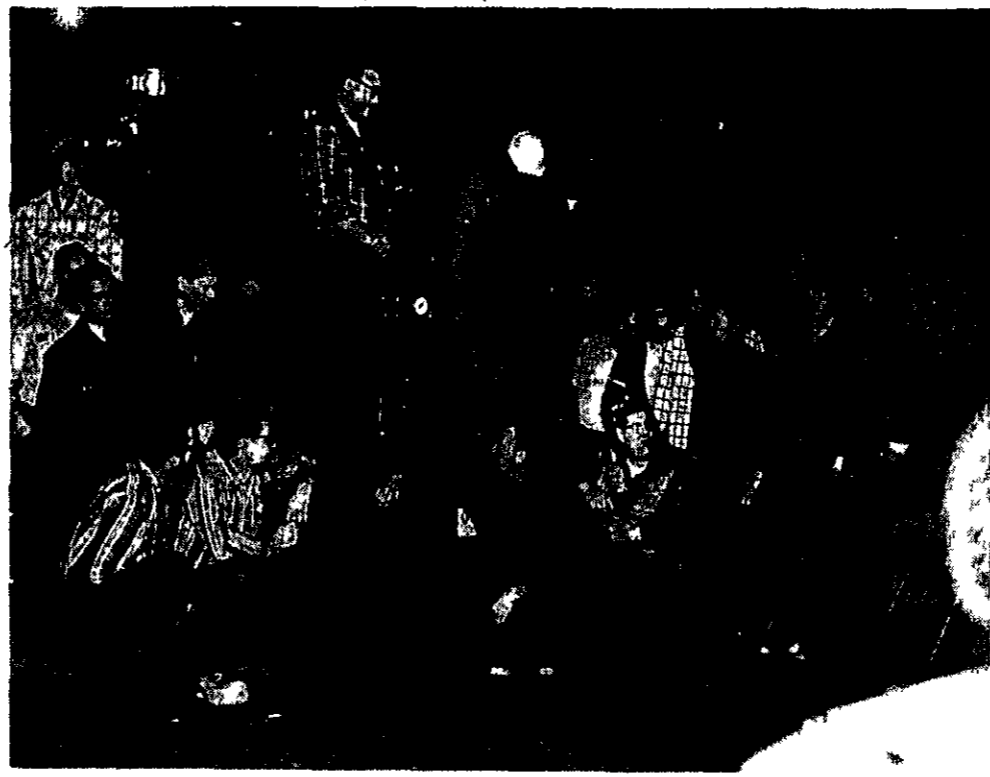

These programs will help landowners establish and follow recommended permanent type conservation practices while farmers are being called on for all-out production to meet consumer and export needs.

WATER BANK continues a program established by Congress in 1971 providing agreements with owners and operators of eligible wetlands in important migratory waterfowl nesting and breeding areas. Participants agree not to drain, burn, fill, or otherwise destroy the wetland character of such areas.

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service will administer the cost-share agreements through its farmer-elected committee system, in close cooperation with other agencies of USDA. Planning, technical and educational assistance will be provided by Soil Conservation Service, Forest Service, Extension Service and the State Forestry agencies.

Program details will be announced soon.

Four fire departments participate in training

Members of fire departments in Ovid, Elsie, Owosso-Twp and Laingsburg are currently participating in a 22 week, 66-hour training program, provided by the Michigan Firefighters Training Council.

Each week the period of instruction is rotated to a different fire department to give all participants in the course experience in utilizing knowledge from the course with their own equipment.

Subjects covered in the course are legal responsibilities of the fire fighter, use of the portable fire extinguisher, fire truck operation, first aid including emergency child birth, ladder practice, rope practice, fire hose operation, forcible entry and ventilation, equipment salvage and overhaul, rescue and cooperative techniques with utility companies.

The Training Council was set up in 1967 to provide training to all fire fighters in the state. The Council became funded in 1970 and since then has trained approximately 10,000 firemen throughout the state.

A main philosophy of the training course is to give training on the firemen's home ground using their own fire fighting equipment. The courses are tailored as much as possible to correspond with any special fire fighting situations that might exist in a particular community.

For those firemen in the departments not now participating, it is expected the course will be repeated to train as many firemen as possible.

Those who complete the course are eligible to work toward a 240 hour certificate.

Ag in action

Nearly everyone, at year's end, takes inventory of the year that was—how well he has met the challenges, weighing victories against failures, and calculating accomplishments, with dreams as a measuring stick.

Farmers are no exception. To them, 1973 was a year of issues and action. It was a year filled with challenges in the legislature, the market place, and the public opinion arena. There was bad weather, inflation increased world demand for food, export restrictions, price controls, environmental concerns, an energy shortage, and consumer boycotts—just to mention a few.

As our food producers complete their year-end inventory, they can be proud of how well they met the challenges. Their victories far outweighed their failures, and their accomplishments took them a giant step closer to realizing their dreams.

When consumers reacted negatively to higher food prices, caused by inflation, farmers defended the huge investment and effort it takes to produce the quantity and quality of food they had come to take for granted, and that no farmer would invest 10 cents to produce something the government said he must sell for a nickel. Result? Consumer understanding and support of the free-market approach farmers advocate.

When Congress attempted to impose mandatory price rollbacks, farmers went to Washington and told their Congressmen that the proposed legislation would be disastrous to agriculture and have a serious impact on our nation's economy. Result? The price rollback provision was defeated.

When the U.W. Department of Labor set forth an "emergency" pesticide re-entry standard, which would have been financially impossible for farmers to meet, cause unemployment of farm workers, and hike food prices, farmers went to the courts and testified at hearings. Result?

Proof that no emergency order was needed.

You could say it was a good year for farmers. For the first time, they began to realize a reasonable return for their efforts and investment. And consumers began to realize that agriculture's "victories" were also their victories—that what happens "down on the farm" affects them, too. More people know now than ever before that a free, productive agriculture, operating in an incentive economy, is necessary to their own well-being. Farmers consider that one of their most important accomplishments of 1973.

Ballenger has perfect roll call slate, releases expense records

LANSING—Citing the crucial need for accountability in government, State Senator William S. Ballenger (R-Lansing) has publicly released his personal attendance, roll call vote, postage and expense records for 1973.

According to the Journals of the Senate for 1973, Ballenger was the only Senator to achieve a perfect roll call attendance voting record in the upper chamber during the past year. He was present and voted on 551 out of a total of 561 roll calls. He was also present for 126 out of the Senate's 127 session days, obtaining an excused absence for the date of February 26 (when there were no roll call votes) in order to make a Lincoln Day speech.

The postage tally for Ballenger's office, which includes daily correspondence with constituents of the 30th Senatorial District as well as state and nationwide mail connected with his chairmanships of two standing committees and one select panel of the Senate, totaled $7,606.12 through November.

MIDLAND, Neil H. Simon of Rt 2, Townsend Rd., Fowler, has been named to the Dean's List for the fall term at Northwood Institute.

The Senator's regular mileage expenses for 1973 totaled $44.88. Lawmakers are allowed compensation for one round-trip between Lansing and their district homes per week during session by the State Officers Compensation Commission.

Ballenger's expense record for 1973 shows that of the $2,875 he is annually granted by the Commission for expenses, $2810.96 was used mainly for meals in Lansing during 1973. "Most people are unaware that this unused surplus, $64.04, is returned to the state coffers and not paid to me," Ballenger noted.

The 32-year-old lawmaker, who is the only Senator to chair two standing committees, noted that one of these committees—Agriculture-Consumer Affairs—was the lowest spending Senate committee of the year, charging only $151.77 to the state for its operations through November. In 1971 and 1972, it was the second lowest spending committee in the Senate. Senate Committee chairmen approve or disallow all spending by their committees and committee members.

The other committee of which Ballenger is chairman—Health-Social Services—spent $1,123.95 according to latest figures available this month and was the fourth-lowest spending Senate committee. Noting that in 1971 and 1972, before he became chairman of the committee, Health-Social Services had spent $3,239.59 and $3,210.87, respectively, ranking 8th and 11th among the Senate's 24 standing committees in spending, Ballenger said he was glad that he was able to significantly reduce the committee's operating expenditures without inhibiting its ability to operate efficiently.

Both Agriculture-Consumer Affairs and Health-Social Services were among the highest ranking Senate committees in terms of percentage of bills referred to them being reported out to the full Senate. Ballenger also reported that expenses for committee work for which he was reimbursed by the state in 1973 amounted to $687.46—one of the lowest-spending Senators out of 38. In 1971 and 1972 his expenses were $250.31 and $263.86, respectively.

Bell Telephone increase affects Gen Tel rates

General Telephone customers will be affected by a part of the recent rate increase granted to Michigan Bell by the Michigan Public Service Commission, according to R.D. Lavery, vice president & controller of General Telephone.

In the rate order issued by the MPSC, the basic rate for long distance calls within Michigan was increased one cent per minute for calls over 25 miles. To insure that all long distance rates within the state are uniform, the rates approved for Michigan Bell are concurred in by the state's Independent (non-Bell) telephone companies.

Charges for Wide Area Telephone Service (WATS), a service used primarily by business and industry, were also increased three percent, Lavery said.

The increased rates went into effect Dec 23. General Telephone has over 540,000 telephones in service in 61 of the state's 83 counties.

At noon on Friday, December 28, both the Senate and House of the Michigan Legislature concluded the 1973 session. In accordance with a provision of our State Constitution, the 1974 session will convene at noon on Wednesday, January 9. All the bills and resolutions introduced during 1973, totaling 3,702, will carry over into the new year with the same status they had at the end of the 1973 session, with the exception of about 200 bills which were passed by both branches of the Legislature and sent to the Governor. Thus far he has approved 175 of them and the balance are awaiting his further study and decision.

MILLIKEN EXPRESSES HIS VIEWS OF 1973 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Governor Milliken, at the conclusion of the 1973 legislative session, expressed his feelings on the accomplishments of the lawmakers. The Governor said: "The 1973 session of the Michigan Legislature had a good record of accomplishment. It passed some important legislation during the fall portion of the session, including a Code of Ethics. Other important legislation is still alive for consideration early next year.

"But Senate Democrats, by their irresponsible refusal in the closing hours of the session to consider the crucial issues of the energy crisis and election reform, demonstrated that they have their heads in the sand and their minds on politics.

"They flew in the face of public concern about the energy crisis and election reform.

"By refusing to deal with the energy crisis, Senate Democrats are playing fast and loose with the future of our state.

"Some of them say there is no crisis. "Let them say it to an auto worker who has been laid off.

"Let them say it to the more than 500,000 people whose jobs depend on the tourist industry. "Or to the motorists who can't get gas this Sunday.

"Or to the farmers who have had trouble getting fuel to harvest crops.

"Let them say it to the school districts who are running short on fuel.

"When those who refuse to deal with the crisis return to Lansing in January, I hope they will act with a greater sense of public service than was demonstrated today.

"There are bright spots in this fall session; a number of the bills I outlined in my special messages last October and November have been passed.

"The Legislature has passed an emergency transit bill which would provide $1,750,000 to help cities expand their public transportation programs - making available $1 million to assist cities in rehabilitating older buses and to buy used buses and $750,000 for park-and-ride programs.

"It has amended the land sales act to ensure that the still-new law will assist small developers stay in business and meet their obligations while preserving the vital consumer protection aspect of the act.

"It has approved a new school aid act (which I signed into law last week) to provide alternate school census dates for school districts that were lided on the traditional student count dates.

"It took an important step toward providing necessary tax relief to Great Lakes shoreline property owners who are threatened by continuing erosion, passing a bill to exempt from taxation seawalls, jetties, groins or other erosion control structures.

"It has approved a tax tribunal to which property owners can take their tax appeals for independent judgment.

"It has passed the code of ethics for state employees and elected officials, embodying the principles I laid down in my executive order earlier this year.

"I agreed to transfer the Tourist Council from the Department of Natural Resources to the Commerce Department.

"This is a good record of accomplishment; it is regrettable that it was tarnished in the closing hours.

"The Legislature's failure to act now in such critical areas as public confidence in government, energy shortage and improved human services merely reinforces the image of a government unable or unwilling to take the steps necessary to avoid crisis - but only to respond once it has befallen the people."

SIGNIFICANT BILLS SIGNED INTO LAW

Governor Milliken recently signed into law a bill to allow hospitals, clinics, or other medical facilities and medical personnel to refuse to perform or participate in abortions.

The bill (SB 156), which was given immediate effect, makes an institution or an individual immune from civil or criminal liability arising from the refusal.

"I have given this bill long and serious consideration and I have concluded that it is appropriate that I sign it into law," the Governor said.

"As part of my review, I asked the State Department of Public Health to determine whether, as a practical matter, any woman in Michigan would be denied a reasonable opportunity for an abortion during the first trimester. I am satisfied that all women in Michigan will have reasonable access to appropriate facilities.

"I have been advised that in areas where facilities are likely to deny abortions, there are facilities nearby that will provide them. Furthermore, state health authorities say that almost all abortions in the first trimester are likely to be performed in physician's offices and clinics.

"I have long favored the right of an individual to terminate a pregnancy under reasonable standards which would protect health and safety of the mother," the Governor said.

TOURIST COUNCIL TRANSFERRED

Governor Milliken also signed into law a bill which transfers the Michigan Tourist Council from the Department of Natural Resources to the Department of Commerce.

The measure (HB 4950) which also has immediate effect, was introduced in the House of Representatives by my Republican colleague, Representative John Engler of Mt Pleasant.

The move was endorsed by the Governor in his special message on economic development and was strongly endorsed by the award-winning House Republican Economic Development Task Force.

Other Bills

The Governor also signed into law: -SB 761 I.E. which amends the industrial revenue bond act to include as a bondable item solid waste disposal facilities. The act now covers air and water pollution facilities.

-HB 4881 which amends the state employees retirement system act to give coverage, for retirement purposes only, to state-licensed operators of vending stands.

-SB 617 which amends the state motor carrier safety act to change truck and tractor definitions and to authorize the Michigan Public Service Commission to promulgate rules qualifying particular persons to operate trucks and truck tractors.

EMERGENCY RULES REGULATE OUT-OF-STATE LAND SALES

Governor Milliken said that emergency rules are now in effect for licensing brokers selling out-of-state land to Michigan residents.

The Michigan Real Estate Licensing Law requires that brokers promoting the sale of out-of-state land be licensed in Michigan and that they furnish information requested by the Department of Licensing and Regulation.

In 1972, the Governor points out, the Land Sales Act established standards for sale for in and out-state developments. It was originally intended, that previously registered brokers would supply additional data as provided by the Land Sales Act.

The emergency rules require that brokers holding existing licenses supply information to the Department of Licensing and Regulations substantially identical to that required by the Land Sales Act. The information will be used in reviewing requests for brokers' approval under the real estate licensing law.

The emergency rules require the promotion of sales of out-of-state properties receiving the approval of the Department of Licensing and Regulation include at least information about the physical characteristics of the property, encumbrances on the property, liens, restrictions on the use of the land, information on existing and proposed improvements, legal descriptions, the statement of the present condition of the property and providing a property report to the prospective purchaser.

Carland News

by Mrs. Pudge Deming

Carland's Extension Club met at the home of Mrs John Ziola this week with 8 members enjoying a delicious Christmas potluck supper.

Christmas decorations throughout the Ziola home, made the party's festivities appropriate for the gift giving of each member's secret-pal, and gifts were brought for the Salvation Army, who will distribute these gifts of canned goods, mittens, etc that were brought to the needy families for Christmas.

A letter was received by Mrs Linda Auslin and read to the group from the Brigadier General of the 38th Air Defense Artillery Brigade in Korea, thanking them for their money gift that was sent through "Jo's Telephone Home" fund that the extension club sent this fall to be used at Christmas time.

Due to conflicting dates of several prospective members joining the club, discussion was held to change the date of the meetings to accommodate the increased membership in the extension interest. It was voted by those present to change the monthly meeting to the second Monday of each month instead of the third Monday of the month, as they were held in the past.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs Edith Oberlin's home, with Mrs Paul Darling giving the lesson on "No Fault Insurance", the second Monday in Jan.
