FACT finder

Are you concerned about getting the straight facts on a question which arises but don't know where to find the answer? We'll find the facts for questions submitted by our readers. Just drop us a line at FACT FINDER, Clinton County News St Johns 48879.

Q—Is there any place that takes tin cans
TJF, Elsie

A—It would be nice, but so far nobody in this county wants to take on the project. John Aylsworth of the County Extension Office, explained that cans must have labels removed, both ends cut out, and be stamped down before they can be recycled. He said anybody in this area interested in starting a recycling program for tin cans may call him at 224-3288, and he'll put them in touch with the proper people. The nearest place we could find for recycling is the Alma Fairgrounds.

Q—We live 7 miles north and 6 west of St Johns. Beside us is State land, which, when we moved here 4 years ago, was posted "Public Access." This trail to the Maple River was used as such.

This past week we are bothered by a young new Conservation Officer, who says we are not supposed to use this trail for snowmobiling. He has chased several of the young neighbor kids off. As far as we can see, nothing has been hurt or can be hurt from snowmobiles on this trail. So why can't we ride on it anymore? And why did he put a sign up, "Snowmobiles Prohibited?" We buy hunting and fishing licenses every year and pay our taxes as well as the next taxpayer and feel we helped pay for this land. So why aren't we able to ride on it? It keeps many of the young kids off the road.

If you can't answer please refer us to someone who can. LD, St. Johns

A—Conservation Officer Jim Chapman says the land is posted "no snowmobiling" because State law prohibits such activity in game areas. Game areas are to be used exclusively for hunting and fishing.

Q—Who is behind stopping snowmobiles from riding roadsides and state ground, and why? We don't have snowmobile trails in Clinton County. Why isn't a percent of our registration money used in our county?

A—We've got a surprise for you, in the form of 2700 acres in Clinton County that are OK for snowmobiles. Sleepy Hollow State Park, located on Shepardsville Rd, between Tart and Jason Rds, has 10 miles of snowmobile trails, and has been a popular spot for area snowmobilers this winter.

As far as more trails go, Conservation Officer Jim Chapman said there isn't any place to build more in Clinton County. He cited an experimental program in Eaton County, where officials rented land from farmers, but said they won't do that in this county since there already is 2700 acres of trails. Chapman suggested that those who want more trails get permission from area farmers to use their land.

The question of riding on road sides (we're assuming you mean "shoulders" of roads) lies with the County, and not the Dept of Natural Resources. If you want to ride on shoulders, you'll have to convince the County to pass on the matter.

LAST WEEK'S QUESTION:

Other areas are organizing "meat boycotts" because of rising prices. Would you cooperate with such a boycott?

YES 40%

"I'm already doing it, because I can't afford to buy meat" . . . "If it would help, I'd be glad to participate, but I don't think it would" . . . "I would not only boycott meat, I'd be glad to picket, too."

NO 60%

"Boycotting would be a waste of time and with today's prices, you would have to boycott everything" . . . "I'm a meat and potatoes man" . . . "My husband would buy it anyway" . . . "Boycotting would hurt the producer as much or more than the middle men who are getting the most."

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION:

A television network has announced plans to show an x-rated movie on television. Do you feel they should be prevented from doing it?

YES

NO

Citizens seek support for area osteopaths

ST JOHNS -- Clinton Concerned Citizens Inc of Clinton County is urging local support of Senate Bill 54, which would allow osteopathic physicians to practice in public hospitals.

In a news conference Saturday at the home of Mrs Jerry Reha, 1501 N DeWitt Rd, the organization provided the following news release:

"The Clinton Concerned Citizens Inc of Clinton County today announces the support of Senate Bill 54. This bill would permit licensed medical and osteopathic physicians in good standing to treat their patients in accredited hospitals in the geographic area of their practice.

"This has been an aim of this group since it was formed. At the present time, our local hospital does not permit the practice of osteopathic doctors within the confines of the institution.

"With the majority of physicians in Clinton County being DOs (doctors of osteopathy) we believe that the people of Clinton County will be able to enter the hospital and be attended by the doctor of his or her choice.

"THE ADOPTION of this piece of legislation will lead to a larger medical service to our county.

"With a large number of citizens going to hospitals outside of Clinton County, we are losing a good share of revenue which otherwise would remain here.

"Armed with these facts, this group will endeavor to bring Senate Bill 54 to the attention of citizens through the state. We will start here in Clinton County, hoping that other interested persons will write to their legislators.

"Already underway is the circulation of petitions supporting the bill. These will be submitted to various legislators.

"We are interested in bringing both professions together, which will, in the end, be in the best interests of their patients.

"A SURVEY in February of 1972 revealed that 70 of the approximately 250 hospitals in the state have joint staffs. This is a sure sign that both professions can work together in harmony."

The Concerned Citizens group said, "Those who would like to help in this petition drive may write to the Clinton Concerned Citizens Inc, 1501 N DeWitt Rd, St Johns or call 224-7238 or 224-2191."

The same organization stated that nearly 2 years ago they circulated petitions and drew 1800 names in 2 weeks supporting ODs practicing in Clinton Memorial Hospital.

Bill Wainwright, a member of the group said, "We have been labeled radicals and trouble makers -- we disagree with that. We are willing to sit down to discuss this situation."

Wainwright was referring to earlier attempts to meet with the hospital board of trustees to discuss allowing osteopathic physicians to practice in the St Johns facility.

ASKED IF THEY had met with the hospital concerning the Senate Bill 54, now in committee, representatives of the group said they hadn't because, "as of last year, they refused to acknowledge us."

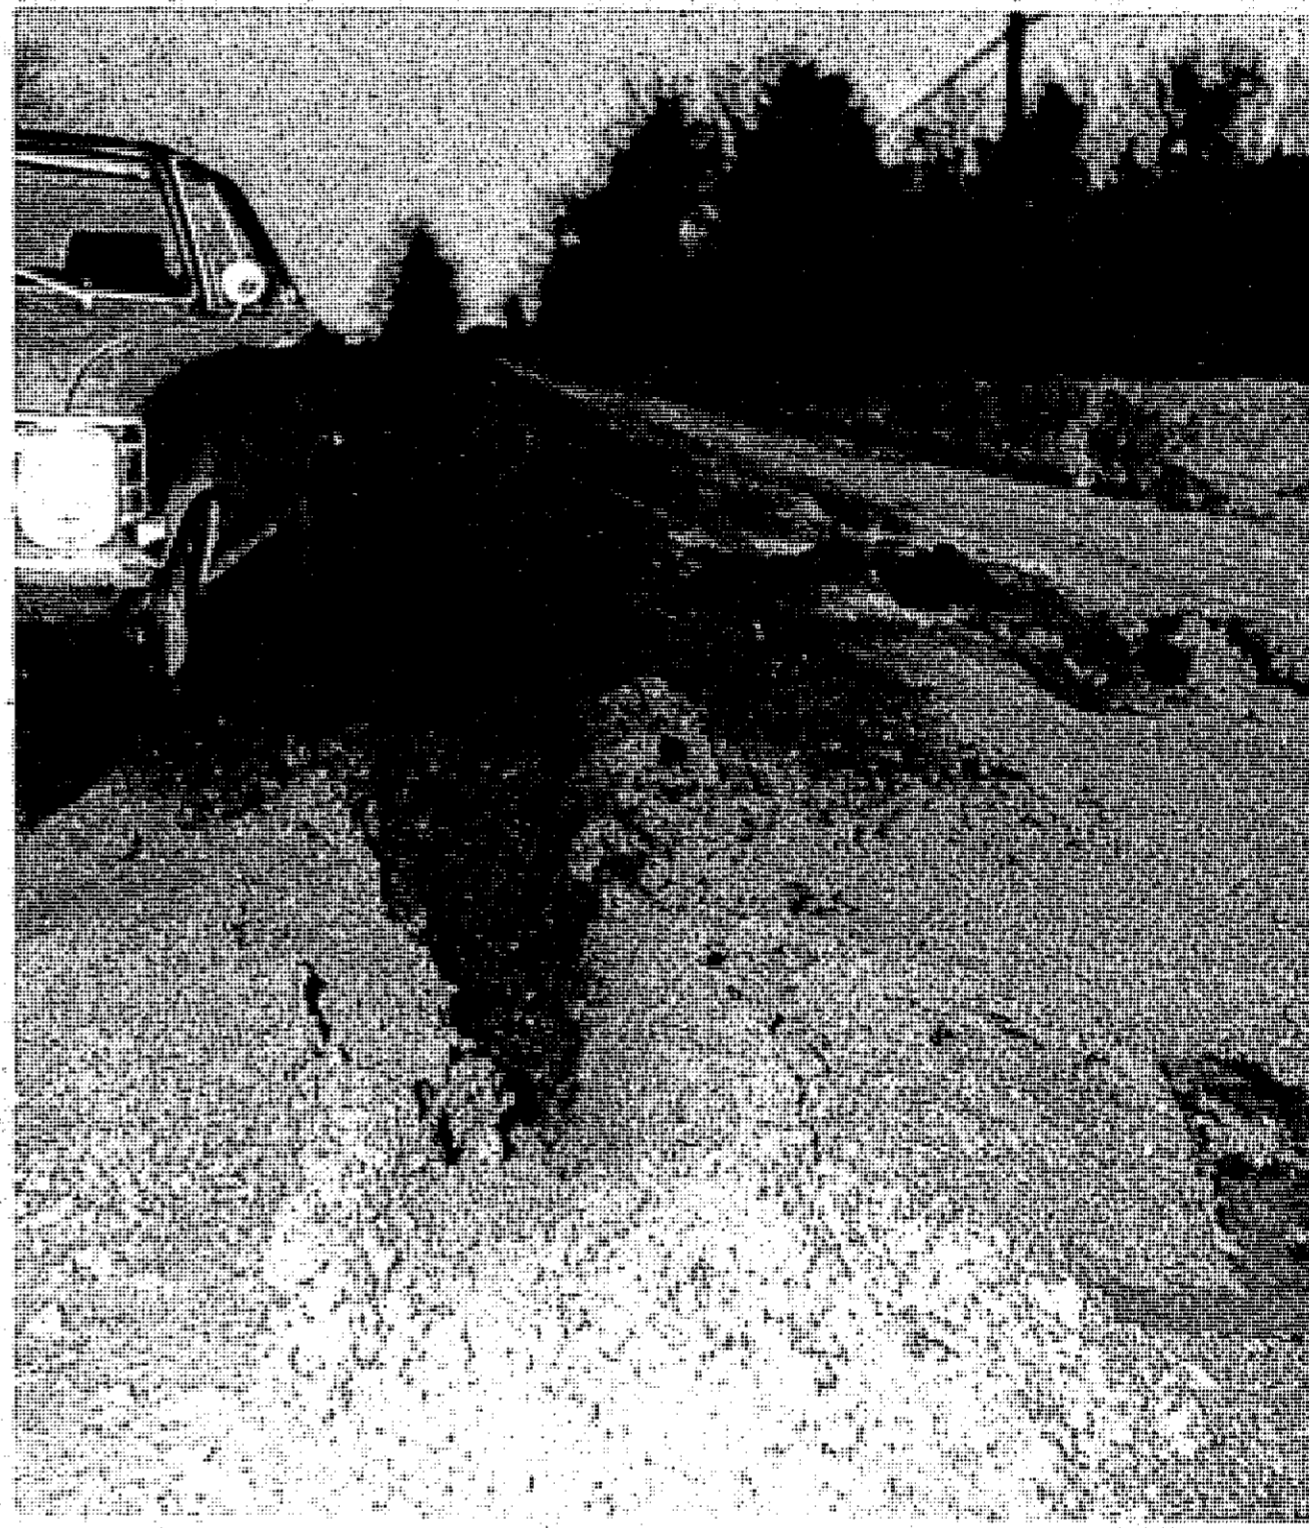

They indicated the board of trustees would not accept their previous petition which asked for:

"An open discussion and election of trustees to terms not exceeding 3 years, immediate election of not less than 1/3 of the trustees with the additional 1/3 to be elected in May, 1972, determination of the status of osteopathic physicians in meeting the health needs of the community including the right to use the hospital facility and consideration of the construction of a medical clinic building adjacent to the hospital as a means of attracting new physicians to the community."

Speaking about the Senate bill, they said, "we hope it passes, but if it doesn't we won't stop our work."

They reported that presently 4 medical doctors and 7 osteopathic physicians are operating in the area.

This is the way it is over most of the county as spring thaws are torturing area roads and streets. Maintenance on the roads is difficult at the time and most cannot be repaired until weather permits the roadbeds to dry. Clinton joins other area counties in the murky mess causing several roads to be closed in Ingham and Eaton, with some school closings.

Schmaltz heads Michigan Week

ST JOHNS -- Harold Schmaltz, publisher and advertising director of the County News, last Monday accepted the appointment of chairman of Michigan Week in Clinton County. The action took place at a special meeting at the Hospitality Inn in Lansing involving 40 persons organizing the annual statewide affair.

Michigan Week this year has been designated for May 20 to 27 with the theme being, "What You Seek Is What You Get." This is a Flip Wilsonism take-off on the state motto, "If You Seek A Pleasant Peninsula, Look About You."

Schmaltz indicated that each village and town throughout the county would be contacted and various local chairmanships established to make the festive week "an occasion to remember."

A spokesman for the Greater Michigan Foundation, organizer of Michigan Week activities said that Michigan Week is everybody's, and it begins at home. It provides each individual, community and organization the challenge and the opportunity to work toward the Michigan Week objectives adopted by the Greater Michigan Foundation. The objectives are:

1. To give Michigan citizens greater knowledge and appreciation of their state.

2. To expound the state's assets and resources for industry, business, education, and recreation, and to afford the nation and the world an inspired view of Michigan's advantages.

3. To foster a spirit of cooperation among all communities and people to the end that all of Michigan will work together to make the state even more livable and attractive.

He also stated, "How well your county succeeds in this effort is up to you. It takes good hard work, lots of it, not only on your part but on the part of the many people working with you. Well done, it's a rewarding experience, for you, for your area and for Michigan!"

St Johns City Commission acts on re-zoning requests

ST JOHNS -- It was decided by St Johns City Commission members in a brief regular meeting Monday night to request written progress reports from Williams & Works Co regarding, smoking of the sewers in St Johns.

Commissioner Roy Ebert expressed dissatisfaction with the lack of communication, and moved that a written report be prepared for every meeting of the City Commission. City Manager Harvey Weatherwax agreed with Ebert, and said he has personally asked for reports, but has not yet received them. The motion was supported by Dr Grost, and carried.

Lon Canum, 712 Garfield, was present at the meeting once again to bring attention to his flooded basement. He pointed out that a catch basin located at the corner of Lincoln and Garfield streets is clogged, and that water runs out and down Garfield St during a rain.

When asked if he was aware of this problem, Harvey Weatherwax replied that he wasn't and that Williams and Works will be smoking sewers in the vicinity after March 19.

The Fink rezoning request, from R-3 to general commercial, was turned down by the board. Commissioner Jean Rand moved to accept the report of the Planning Commission and refuse the rezoning request for 306 Higham St. Ebert supported the motion, which passed.

A Public Hearing on Ordinance 254 to amend the Zoning Ordinance was scheduled for April 9 at 8 pm. The ordinance deals with required footage for building construction.

A rezoning request by Richard Bowersox, representing Bowersox Distributing of Lansing, was read. The request asks for a depth of 800 feet for light industrial, in an area presently zoned 525 feet long by 257.6 feet deep, for purposes of constructing a retail shopping center on N US-27. Rand moved, seconded by Grost, to refer the request to the Planning Commission. Motion carried.

The Mayor and Clerk were authorized to execute deeds for the realignment of Morton St, from Sickles St to the park property. The street will be dedicated to the public for roadway purposes only.

An engineer's report was read, which strongly recommended that documents be drafted with property owners to straighten out the road, prior to dedication. Commissioner Hannah moved the Mayor and Clerk be so authorized, supported by Ebert. The motion passed, with Dr Grost abstaining.

A request from Clinton National Bank to rent 3 additional parking spaces on Walker St was denied. The same question was put before the Commission a year ago.

Commissioner Rand was opposed to the request because "it could set a precedent," she said. "Why should the bank be able to do this, and not other businesses," she questioned.

She moved that the request be denied again. The motion carried unanimously.

Police car bids were read, with Bee's the low bidder. Weatherwax recommended the Commission award the contract to Bee's, since all bidders met specifications. The bid of $5410 for 2 cars was accepted.

Almond Cressman at national meeting of regional councils

Several hundred local, state, national and federal government elected officials then flew to Washington, D.C., to present their ideas and participate in discussions with the Administration and Congress. Those who attended the Conference from the Tri-

County Regional Planning Commission were Gordon Swix, Chairman; Herbert D. Maier, Executive Director; Almond B. Cressman of St. Johns, Vice-Chairman; and Mildred Moore, Treasurer. The occasion was the Seventh Annual Conference of the National Association of Regional Councils (N.A.R.C.). Regional Councils are area wide organizations of local governments encompassing a total metropolitan or nonmetropolitan region. Their prime purpose is to increase communication, cooperation and coordination among local governments in planning and implementing programs to meet mutual challenges and problems. Their governing bodies are comprised of local government elected officials from cities, counties, townships and other forms of local government within a region.

The fly-in was scheduled long before the release of President Nixon's controversial budget and impoundment actions. The purpose of the fly-in was not to criticize the Administration's policies, but the membership did adopt a resolution urging the President to temporarily release funds for the categorical programs he plans to consolidate into special revenue sharing packages.

local officials in the use of grant-in-aid funds. However, the resolution urged that attention be paid to ensuring comprehensive regional plans adopted by local governments are followed in spending special revenue sharing funds. It also emphasized that the needs of people in such vital areas as jobs, housing, health care, education and community and economic development, cannot be completely ignored until new bloc grants or special revenue sharing legislation is enacted.

It was, therefore, urged that the President release available funds including those which have been impounded and provide acceptable FY 74 funding levels which will permit essential needs to be met. In addition, Congress was called upon to expedite the reforming of the grant-in-aid system to assure that our critical national goals will be met while utilizing to the maximum degree the total capability of the federal system.

Four injured

Four persons were taken to Sparrow Hospital March 11 following a 1-car accident on Howe Rd. Police report the car, driven by Patricia J. Hoard, 19, 910 E. Shiawassee, Lansing appeared to have run off the road, got back onto the road, jumped the ditch and came to rest.

Admitted to the hospital were the driver, John Hoard, 23, Lansing; Lorria Sobert, 21, Laingsburg and Michael Sobert, 20, Laingsburg. The driver told Sheriff's Dept deputies an eastbound driver came into her lane, forcing her off the road. She was ticketed for failure to have her car under control.

MRS LAWRENCE KEESSE

Wieber-Keesee vows exchanged Feb 3

ST. JOHNS -- To the strains of guitars playing "A Time for Us," Jane E. Wieber walked down the aisle on the arm of her father to become the bride of Lawrence C. Keesee on the afternoon of Feb. 3.

St. Joseph Catholic Church was the setting for the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Fr. William Hankard, in which the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wieber was united to the son of Mr. Curt Keesee and Mrs. Anne Jordan of Kalamazoo.

Tony Kuntz commented for the guitar wedding mass before an altar adorned with gold vases of blue and white mums with pink carnations and blue starflowers.

The bride wore a gown of ivory slipper satin with a high-rise waist, accented with pink satin ribbon and flowing streamers. The bodice of anselon lace was accented with tiny satin buttons, long bishop sleeves and a self contained train. Her ivory floor-length veil was attached to a headpiece covered with pink satin ribbon and matching anselon lace.

The bride carried a colonial bouquet of white mums, carnations, pink sweetheart roses and blue starflowers, with accents of green and pink satin streamers tied in lover's knots.

The matron of honor was Susan Fox, with Debby and Cindy Wieber as bridesmaids. All were sisters of the bride. They were attired in floor length gowns with high-rise waists.

The brides and long bishop sleeves were deep blue velvet and the skirts were a pink and blue floral print.

They, too, carried colonial bouquets of white mums and pink and blue carnations, accented with deep blue star flowers that matched the blue velvet streamers.

Lynn Anne Keesee and Karen Jane Keesee, junior bridesmaids and sisters of the groom, wore floor length gowns of deep blue velvet with pink satin ribbon accenting the raised waists. Nosegays of pink and white carnations with blue starflowers and pink satin streamers were carried by both girls.

John D. Sweezy of Kalamazoo served as best man, with Tim Keesee and Brian Keesee, both brothers of the groom, serving as groomsmen.

A dinner and reception was held at St. Joseph Gym for 200 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Fox, Fowler, aunt and uncle of the bride, served as host and hostess for the afternoon and evening affair.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, the new Mr. and Mrs. Keesee are residing in Kalamazoo.

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS

Williams & Works Consulting Engineers for the City of St. Johns will be using non-toxic smoke in the Sanitary Sewer System in the following section of the city on the following days, weather permitting.

Monday, March 19, 1973 to Friday, March 23, 1973 in the general area bounded by the railroad tracks, west city limit, North Avenue and Scott Road. (All of the city north of the Grand Trunk Railroad.)

The reason for this use is to find the points of storm and/or ground water infiltration into the sanitary sewer system. This non-toxic smoke will not enter your home if your plumbing system is properly trapped. IF YOU HAVE A FLOOR DRAIN THAT HAS NOT BEEN USED RECENTLY, POUR A PAIL OF WATER DOWN IT TO ASSURE WATER BEING IN THE TRAP.

Redwings get past Charlotte, fall to powerful Holt

TALL HOLT DEFENSE STIFLE SCORING ATTEMPT

OKEMOS -- A tough Holt squad was just too much for the St Johns Redwings Saturday night as they were defeated 79-62 in the District Championship game at Okemos.

Earlier St Johns defeated Charlotte 57-50 and the next night, Holt surprised previously undefeated Okemos to get into the championship match Saturday night.

Holt, 18-4 for the season, jumped into an early lead with the Redwings unable to catch up for the rest of the game.

They led 20-14 at the end of the opening quarter and added 19 more in the 2d to 18 for St Johns.

Trailing 39-27 at the half, the Redwings found themselves the victims of a 23-point scoring spree by Holt in the 3d period. St Johns hit for 18 in the quarter.

Both teams hit for 17 points in the last period of play. Doug Woodhams had a strong scoring night, popping in 27 points to lead the St Johns scoring. Ed Jorae was also in double figures with 15 points and Alex MacKinnon had 10 points.

Also scoring were Dan Mohnke with 4 and Mike Sutherland, Tom French and Leo Seavey 2.

In the earlier victory over

Charlotte, it was again Doug Woodhams who led the scoring, this time with 18. He was joined in double figures by Mike Sutherland with 15 and Alex MacKinnon with 10. Also scoring were Charlie Faivor with 6, Dennis Parker

5 and Dan Mohnke 3. A low scoring 1st quarter ended with St Johns in the lead 11-6.

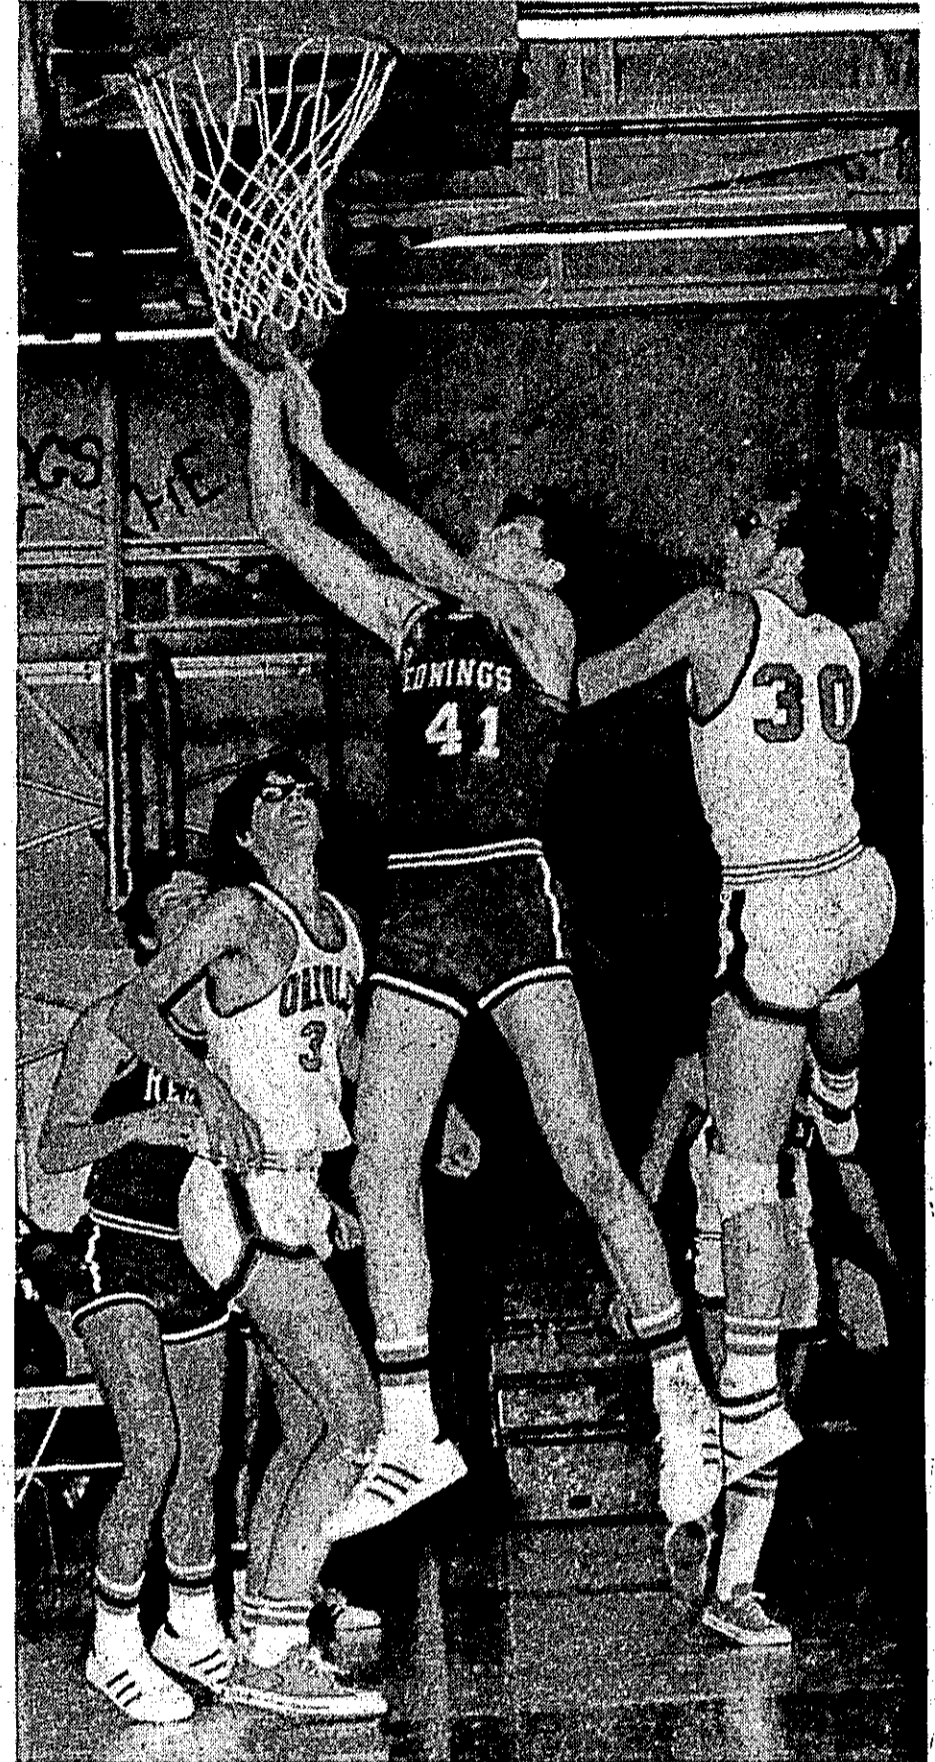

In the 2d period, Charlotte came back to outscore the Redwings in the quarter by 1 point, 15-14.

Leading 25-21 at halftime the Redwings edged the Orioles by another point in the 3d period, 17-16.

It was another close period in the last quarter with St Johns again topping the scoring 15-13.

Scrappy St Pats wrecks Fowler winning streak

EAGLE DRIVES FOR SCORE AGAINST ST PATS

POTTERVILLE -- It was hard to believe. Even with less than 2 minutes to play and trailing 71-70, it seemed Fowler would once again turn off the Portland St Pats charge to take their 21st victory without a defeat. But, it wasn't to be as the Portland St Pats ended the Eagles win streak at 20 Thursday night with a 74-72 upset victory. Fowler started out on a hot streak, canning the 1st 6 shots of the game. St Pats refused to be intimidated and stayed within 2, 21-19 as the 1st quarter ended. Fowler again outscored St Pats in the 2d period, but once more it was a narrow margin, 21-18. Leading 42-37 at the half, Fowler was unable to extend that margin in the 3d period with both teams putting 14 points on the scoreboard. In a rough and tumble final period, St Pats chipped away at the Eagles, but Fowler contained them each time the Shamrocks threatened to take away the game. With less than 2 minutes remaining in the game, a Shamrock bucket put the Eagles down by 1 point 71-70. Then, the roof fell in. Two free throws made it 73-70, and another free throw cinched the right to play in the championship. Fowler sunk 2 more points right at the buzzer to make the final score 74-72. Mel Pohl led the Fowler scoring with 26 points followed in double figure scoring by Tony Thelen with 13 and Bob MacKinnon with 10. Also scoring were Scott Spicer 9, Glen Thelen 6, John Simon 6 and Dan Jandernoa 2. Prior to the loss to St Pats Fowler was ranked 2d in the state. Earlier in tournament action, Fowler used a lopsided 3d quarter to eliminate Potterville from the district competition 59-44. Fowler led 15-14 going into the 2d period, but Potterville outscored the Eagles 11-9 in the next quarter to take a 1-point 25-24 lead. Then Fowler ripped Potterville 22-8 to set the 2d half pace and outscored the district host 13-11 in the last period. Bob MacKinnon was the Eagle's leading scorer with 19 with John Simon hitting in double figures with 15. Also getting on the scoreboard were Mel Pohl 8, Tony Thelen 8, Scott Spicer 3 and Dale Koenigsnecht, Glen Thelen and Neil Simon all with 2.

Upset bid fails

O-E falls to Hemlock

ALMA--It looked for a while Thursday night that Ovid-Elsie's Marauders might join in the upset parade that saw Holt beat Okemos and Portland St Falls beat Freer.

Hemlock in tournament action at Alma and made the scoreboard spell "upset" until a disastrous 4th quarter.

An even 1st quarter kepted the district competitors at 11 apiece at the end of the period. Hemlock pulled away by a slim 3 points in the 2d period, outscoring the Marauders 19-16.

It was the Marauders' turn in the 3d quarter, outscoring Hemlock 16-11 for a 45-43 lead going into the final period of play.

Ovid-Elsie, 11-9 for the season, found the 19-3 Hemlock too much in the last quarter as Hemlock scored the Marauders for 25 points. Ovid-Elsie picked up 14 points in the last period.

Gary Groom led the scoring for Ovid-Elsie with 17 points, followed in double figures by Rick Staples 12, Dan Egbert 11 and Tom Kirinovic 10. Also scoring were Randy Bowles with 5 and Randy Loynes with 4.

DRIVING PIRATE LAY-UP

Portland press eliminates P-W

MIDDLEVILLE -- The Pirates of Pewamo-Westphalia fell victim to the Portland man-to-man defense at Middleville in District Tournament action Wednesday.

After P-W went into a 2 point, 18-16 lead in the opening quarter, Portland came back in the next period with 27 points, with P-W hitting for 14.

A strong 3d period by the Raiders netted them 29 points, 12 points over the 17 for Pewamo-Westphalia. An even final quarter ended with 16 on the scoreboard for Portland and 15 for the Pirates.

Much of the offensive of the Portland attack was made possible by the quick defensive game, which stole the ball 13 times.

The loss gave P-W a 14-7 record for 1972-73, while Portland went on to win the District Title with 19-4 record.

Four players hit in double figures to lead the Portland victory; John Piercefield with 21, Ken Lawless 18, Brad Sandborn 16 and Dick Coe 13.

Topping the scoring for Pewamo-Westphalia were Jim Hengesbach with 15 and Randy Walter with 13. Also scoring were Louie Thelen with 8, Randy Fedewa 8, Roy Piggott 5, Duane Hengesbach 5, Doug Walter 4, Jim Cotter 4 and Dan May 2.

Haslett makes Bath second tourney victim

HASLETT -- What do you do with a team that's won only one game all season and then suddenly decides to win?

That's what Bath faced Thursday as Haslett downed the Bees 81-73, after Vikings earlier eliminated DeWitt in District Tournament play.

Bath fell behind by a slim 1-point margin, 20-19 in the 1st period, but Haslett turned it on in the 2d period, outscoring the Bees 28-13 for a 48-32 halftime lead.

Bath outscored Haslett 19-10 in the 3d period to pull within 7, 58-51.

FRITZ ORDWAY

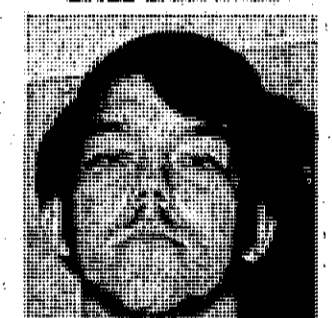

But, that was as close as they got with Haslett picking up 23 in the final quarter to 22 for the Bees.

John Gillette was the big difference in the game, ripping Bath for 38 points. Steve Wren was also in double figures for the Vikings with 22.

Leading the scoring for

DALE CANTWELL

DOUG KESSON

Bath was Fritz Ordway with 21 points, joined in double figures by Dale Cantwell with 17 and Doug Kesson with 15.

Ordway and Kesson are juniors and will be back next year.

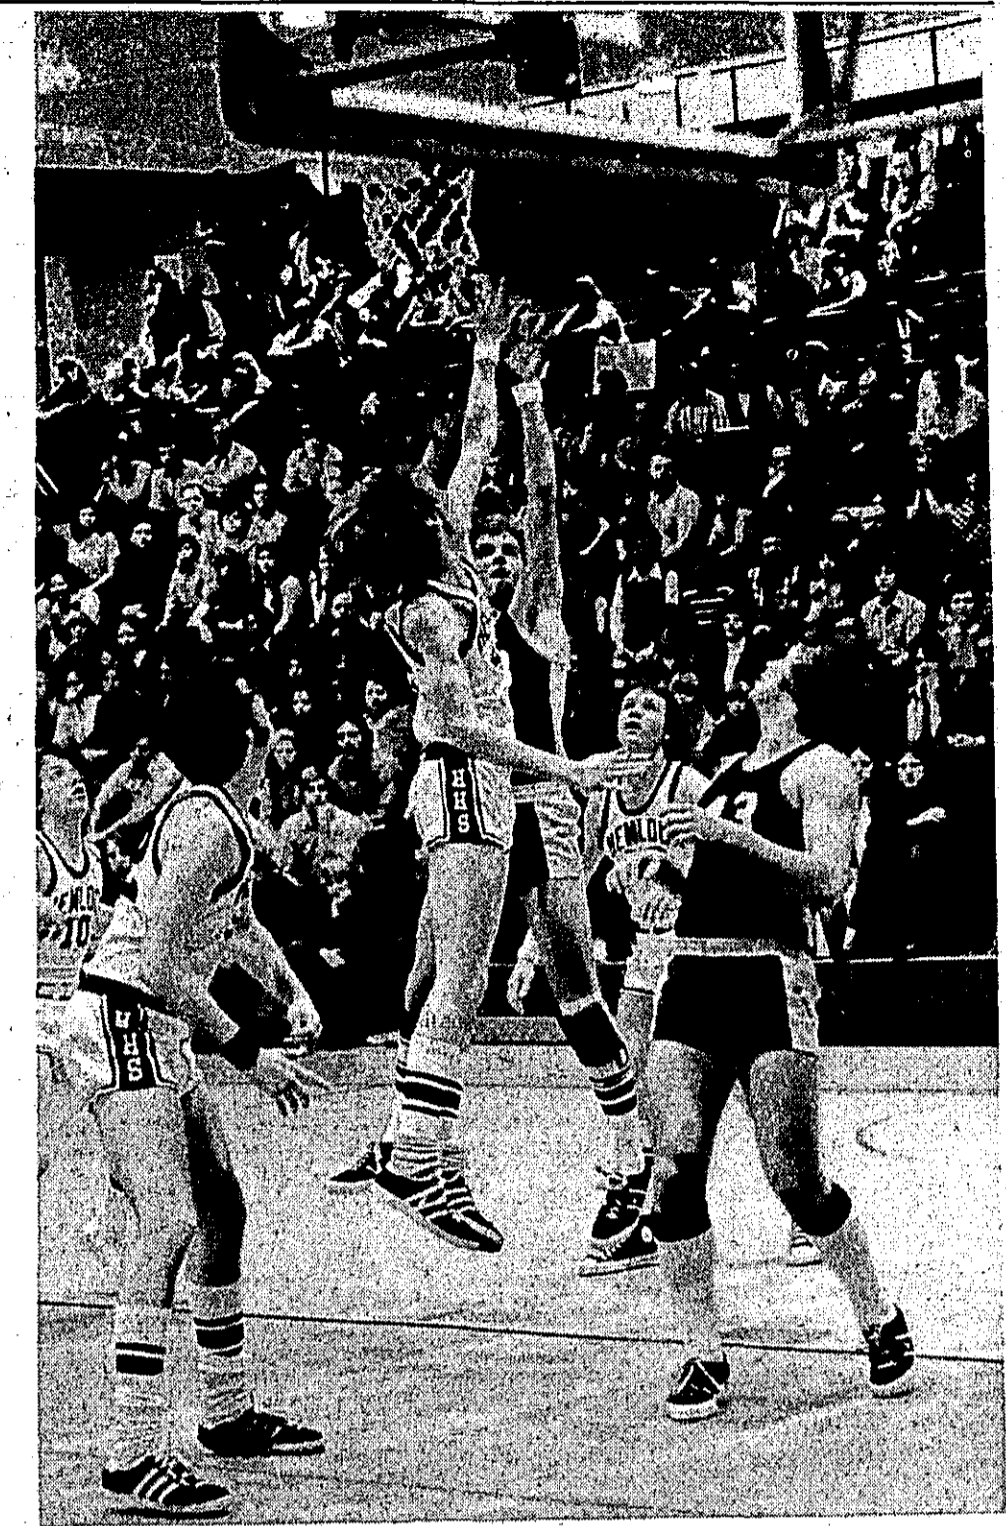

Next in scoring was Glen Tarrent, also a junior with 9 points, Don Henry and Ted Day 4, Roy Hill and Zorb 1. Day, who has seen a lot of action this season, will also be back as a senior next year.

4th graders conduct poll

ST. JOHNS -- 4th graders recently conducted a poll to find out what they considered the most important things in life.

The poll got its start in Mr Holley's room at East Ward School, which invited other 4th grades to participate. Spokesman for the class, David Rood, reported that most did participate.

The results from East Ward were (in order of importance) parents, school, and 400 yard freestyle relay food, friends, God, and brothers and sisters.

MARAUDER OUTSTRETCHES DEFENSE FOR SCORE

Successful season for St Johns swimmers

ST. JOHNS -- St Johns swimmers have completed a successful season, notching 8 victories with 3 losses in season meets and 4-1 in conference meets.

During the season, 7 Redwing swimmers had record breaking performances.

Four swimmers, Bruce Haas, Charles Rehman, Dan Downing, and Mike Butler each set 3 records, Larry Feldpausch, a freshman, set 2 records, and Paul Butler and Brian Stork, both sophomores, broke 1 record each.

Bruce Haas holds records in the 200-yard free-style (2:03.2), 400 yard freestyle (4:23.8) and 400 yard free-style relay (3:46.5).

Charles Rehman holds the 200 medley relay record (1:54), 220 individual medley (2:22.8) and 100-yard butterfly (1:02.3).

Dan Downing holds the 200 medley relay record of 1:54, 100-yard free-style (54.6 sec) and 400 yard free-style relay (3:46).

Mike Butler has the 5-yard free-style record of 24.6, 100-yard breast stroke of 1:11.7 and 400 yard freestyle relay of 3:46.

Larry Feldpausch holds the 200 medley relay time of 1:54 and 100-yard backstroke of 1:04.8. He was a 10th of a second away from qualifying for state competition.

Paul Butler holds the 200 medley relay of 1:54 and Brian Stork collected a record 198.8 points in diving competition.

As a team, the Redwings amassed 537 points during the season while their opponents picked up only 220.

Coaches Wayne Morrison and Bob Barber are pleased with the success of the team this season. They point out that 11 varsity records set by the 1971-72 swimmers were all broken.

Morrison said, "I feel the main reason was the willingness of the team members to practice mornings and nights all during the season."

"The coaches feel next year is going to depend a lot on freshmen and sophomore swimmers of this year and see the coming swimming season as a "rebuilding year."

Plans are being made now to start junior high and age group programs to help rebuild future varsity teams.

Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers.
Sweetly, tenderly, fond and true.
There is not a day dear son,
That we do not think of you.
Sadly missed by his family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our wife, mother and grandmother who passed away one year March 14, 1972:

In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, fond and true.
There is not a day dear mother
That we do not think of you.
The family of Fred A. Harris. 46-1p

Open Letter

from VAN W. HOAG

Dear friends,

It deserves emphasis that the time, the place, the character of the funeral service, the merchandise used; the cemetery selected - these are decisions of the family of the deceased. The funeral director acts only as a representative of the family.

The clergyman should be consulted in matters that concern him before any decisions are made.

Respectfully,

Van W. Hoag

Hoag Funeral Home

Local 4-H club members raise leader dogs

By Laurie Kipp
County News Writer

CLINTON COUNTY -- The Leader Dogs for the Blind program in Rochester, Mich. started in 1939 with a handful of ideas and about $400, and has now reached the stage of being the largest producing school in the world. Their yearly budget for 1973 totals $670,000, 70 percent of which is contributed by Lions Clubs across the country. The big problem, however, is a constant shortage of dogs with the right temperament. Helping to alleviate this shortage in Clinton County is the "Tail Waggers" 4-H Club. The club, first of its kind in this county, began 2-1/2 years ago, with a membership of 7. It has now grown to a total of 28 members.

Mrs Wayne Bruin, the Tail Waggers' leader, explained how the club was formed. She said a public relations representative from the Leader Dog School in Rochester stopped in at her husband's shop, and asked him if they would be interested in raising a puppy for about a year. The dog then would go to Rochester to be trained as a Leader Dog, if he had the right temperament.

So, the Bruins acquired

"Duke," their first black Labrador Retriever. Although Duke wasn't accepted for training, all their efforts since have been successful. Two dogs are currently "with their blind", which means they are a part of a team and have blind masters. Nine other puppies they bred, were donated to other families to raise, and should be with their blind by now, since they are old enough. Ten more of their pups are being raised for training by other families, plus numerous others sired by Duke. Mark Bruin is also currently raising 1 puppy for training.

only black Labrador Retrievers, other members of the club raise German Shepherds and Golden Retrievers. These 3 are the most commonly used breeds, but some cross breeds are also acceptable.

Requirements for potential Leader Dogs state that the dogs must be between 1 and 2 years of age, male or female, and must be friendly and accustomed to people. The Tail Waggers raise their dogs with these requirements in mind.

Mrs Bruin says the most important thing in raising a potential Leader Dog is "lots of love."

"They need a family that's happy, just like children," she said, and added that dogs raised in unhappy family situations don't seem to make it as Leader Dogs as often.

Members of the club don't like to pen their dogs up, as they seem to fall then too.

At meetings, the kids work with each other's dog, as well as their own, so the animal learns to accept someone else's commands. By the 2nd meeting, dogs should have learned to lay quietly by the child's feet.

Besides raising even-tempered dogs, club members have helped set up Leader Dog training clubs in Bath, Charlotte and Owosso.

They have traveled as far as 200 miles to get other clubs started.

Mrs Bruin attributes the success of these clubs to family participation.

"All the mothers and fathers help, and are really a part of the club too," she stated.

"It's different from regular 4-H, where a child raises a steer, for example, all alone," she said.

Members of the Tail Waggers show their dogs at school assemblies, visit interested people, and have been on television to promote interest in Leader Dogs.

(SEE PAGE 8B)

Can you find all the puppies here? This Golden Retriever, belonging to the Kenneth Harris, of Chandler Rd., had 11 of them. The Harris' will donate some or all of the pups to be raised as potential Leader Dogs.

Mrs Wayne Bruin shows off their latest "Buster", a black Labrador Retriever puppy. Mrs Bruin says Mark, her son who raises puppies for Leader Dog school, calls all his male pups "Buster" and the females "Candy". The pup's mother, "Princess," was camera shy.

Battle of the big spenders

Big spenders are bound to lose the current battle of the budget in Washington.

We think so mainly because they find themselves calling for a course of action which is anathema to most Americans right now. What they are saying adds up to: "We insist that the federal government must spend additional billions of dollars even if that means raising taxes."

This will go over like a lead balloon with taxpayers. Rep Morris Udall (D, Ariz) concedes as much by saying: "It sounds as if Congress is arguing for its right to be wrong. That's a very difficult argument to sell to the poor citizen at home who's concerned about taxes and inflation."

The "poor citizen" has learned the hard way that federal deficit spending is the engine of inflation which has run up his cost of living, and will keep on doing so unless said spending is brought under control.

He is more likely to nod approval of President Nixon's effort to pare the budget to $250 billion this year and $269 billion next year by cutting out some items approved by Congress and spending less on others.

Nor do we think most Americans will buy the partisan charge that Mr Nixon is hacking at social programs because he lacks compassion for the poor.

As the President said in a radio talk, "These old programs may have appealing names, they may sound like good causes, but behind the fancy label often lies a dismal failure . . . By eliminating programs that are wasteful, we can concentrate on programs that work."

View from the Senate

By SEN. WILLIAM S. BALLENGER

Paraphrasing the old song, "tenting tonight on the old campgrounds" should still be possible this summer even if your tent doesn't meet the specifications outlined in a law passed last year.

But there has been a lot of flak lately in the news media concerning this particular statute, which requires that all tents in Michigan be made flame resistant by April 1.

Consequently, there is now movement in the Legislature, because of heavy pressure from Scout groups and campers, to repeal the law, which reads: "After April 1, 1973, all tents occupied for sleeping purposes by one or more persons, in which animals are stabled or those located within that portion of the premises used by the public; all tents in places of assembly in or about which any devices using fuel are operated; and all tarpaulins and decorative materials used in connection with tents or within 20 feet of such tents shall meet the appropriate requirements for resistance to fire prescribed in the standard for flame resistant textiles and films in the National Fire Protection Association pamphlet. Safety nets are exempt from these requirements."

The new law would appear to have considerable impact on small tents because, being waterproof, they are almost impossible to make flame-resistant with existing materials.

Scout leaders have been especially concerned, because they have been led to believe the law will put a permanent crimp in their camping program.

A spokesman for the Canvas Products Association International has said it will be impossible for the industry to meet specifications of the law by April 1.

Some fire resistant tents are just appearing on the market that may meet Michigan's standards, but they will be more costly and heavier than conventional tents. Even officials of the State Department of Natural Resources have expressed concern about the task of enforcing the law as presently written and have indicated they don't relish the idea of putting a damper on the plans of Michigan campers.

But the intent of the Legislature in passing the law was quite clear. The Legislature's concern was and is to prevent deaths, or at least serious disfigurements, caused by tent fires.

Sponsors of the law note that, while tent fires may be comparatively rare, anyone who has visited a hospital burn center such as the one at the University of Michigan will realize all too well that no serious burn is a small problem for a burn victim.

Backers of the new law say it is unfortunate that groups such as Boy and Girl Scouts have been brought into the argument in hopes of getting public support to overturn the statutes.

States former State Rep. Richard J. Allen, prime sponsor of the new law: "If a serious legislative attempt is made to avoid all regulation, I intend to give a demonstration on the front Capitol lawn using a highly-flammable tent and mannikins of children dressed in legal, but highly flammable clothes. Such a demonstration can be dramatic and is easily caught in gruesome detail by news media. I think it would easily reverse current coverage critical of State control and would be embarrassing to legislators advocating no regulation. I hope (the Legislature) will not be swayed to take such a stand by current news coverage and letters from well-intentioned but misled groups of tenters."

The new law was requested by the fire marshal's office of the Michigan State Police and was presented for the Legislature's approval by the Governor's office. While in bill form, it was before the Legislature for more than a year before it passed. During all that time, I received no correspondence from anyone on the subject. Campers and tent manufacturers and distributors alike were silent.

But just before the bill passed, tent manufacturers and their representatives struck an agreement with the Legislature whereby the effective date of the new law would be postponed until April 1 of this year to give them an opportunity to develop chemicals which could be used to treat tents to sharply reduce the flammability of tent fabric.

Nevertheless, somebody has bamboozled campers and Scout leaders into "cleaving the general air" with cries of outrage, contending that it is impossible to meet this deadline and that, if it's not met, they'll be out of the camping business. They either are unaware of, or are conveniently overlooking, the fact that the law, having no penalty section, would have no power to eliminate the manufacture or use of flammable tents, but would serve as a warning both to the public and the industry of Michigan's interest in the problem.

Still, the Legislature now feels it must decide on whether the April 1 deadline was realistic and, if not, whether to extend it. The House has already passed a bill to do exactly that -- and it's now before my Senate Committee on Agriculture and Consumers Affairs.

Certainly it never was the intention of the Legislature to deny anyone the pleasure of camping in our great outdoors. On the other hand, the Legislature did attempt to make such tenting safer. Bills presently before the Legislature on this subject should be given very careful study not only this month but throughout the remainder of the 1973-74 session.

In its present shape, the law is obviously unenforceable. The Department of Natural Resources and the State Fire Marshal's office agree that, if enforced, the law would shut down all camping with tents and even the pop-tent campers.

Back Through the Years

From the Clinton County News files of 1971, 1962, 1947

ONE YEAR AGO

March 15, 1972
The St Johns City Commission voted Monday night to table a proposal to rezone the vacant land across from the St Johns High School on Sicksles Street pending a public hearing March 23 by the city planning commission.

State Sen William S Ballenger and State Rep R Douglas Trezise this week disclosed that they would be closing their St Johns office at the end of this month. Clinton County's oldest resident, Jesse Guernsey, 105, 105, died Saturday at the Rivard Nursing Home where he had lived since 1964.

District Court Judge Roland Duguay reported last week that the 65th District Court in St Johns had completed its third successful year. Judge Duguay, in a report to the Clinton County Board of Commissioners, said the court had generated "sufficient funds to pay its own way without being a financial burden upon the taxpayer."

TEN YEARS AGO

March 14, 1963
Unless some miracle occurs, political or otherwise, a 27-year old former St Johns man will die tomorrow on the gallows of Iowa State Penitentiary, at Ft Madison. All appeals for a stay of execution of Victor Harry Feguer, convicted murderer of a Dubuque Iowa, physician, have been denied, including a request to President Kennedy for executive clemency.

The proposed $700,000 Maple River Drain project received a thorough going-over in a public meeting at the Shiawassee County courthouse in Corunna last Thursday, attended by over 100 land owners from the three county district.

Sealed Power Corporation set a new all time record in 1962, in earnings, employee compensation and dividends paid, according to the annual report released this week by corporation President Paul C. Johnson.

George E Ashley, 80, a well-known Victor township farmer, died at his home on R-5, St Johns at 6:30 pm Friday, March 8 after a long illness.

25 YEARS AGO

March 11, 1948
The 13-room farm home of Mr and Mrs Cyrus Waldron, of Lebanon township, was completely destroyed by a fire that was discovered at about 3:30 pm last Friday. All the families personal belongings were lost and only a small amount of furniture was saved.

Initial returns from the 1948 Red Cross drive in Clinton County began to pour into the local Red Cross office this week. Norman R Sleight, chairman, 39 district chairmen and their co-workers are currently engaged in a drive to meet the $6,000 Clinton County quota.

The State of Michigan has returned nearly a third of a million dollars in sales tax to local units in Clinton County during the year that the sales tax diversion amendment has been in effect, according to figures released this week by County Treasurer Lee Bissell.

The cost of county government functions in Clinton County increased $56,737 during 1947, according to a report from state auditors who recently completed an examination of the county's books and records.

Making laws

Rep. Douglas Trezise
87th District

When it comes to making laws, ideas are easy to come by. We all have a lot of good ideas about what laws we need.

The big problem, though, is converting an idea into written law, assuring that the administrators and courts will interpret the language of the law in the same way the idea was first conceived.

An excellent example of this problem showed up in Lansing in the past few weeks in the case which might be called, "The Big Tent Flap".

The big flap, of course, is over Public Act 269 of 1972, a law which, under interpretation given it today, would require that all camping tents used in the state of Michigan after April 1 of this year must be fire resistant. It didn't start out that way.

In this case, a legislator had an idea. His original thought was that many public gatherings are held in tents, which represent a fire hazard to the people in them. He considered that at our county fairs temporary tenting is used to house animals. In putting this into shape as a law, one little comma got inserted which extended the scope of the bill, by interpretation, beyond what any of us realized. So now, we have a law which requires that all tents in which one or more persons sleep must be of fire resistant material rather than only those tents where the sleeping use is incidental to the public assembly or animal stabling use.

In its present shape, the law is obviously unenforceable. The Department of Natural Resources and the State Fire Marshal's office agree that, if enforced, the law would shut down all camping with tents and even the pop-tent campers.

There is serious doubt that we even have the techniques available to us to make today's camping tent fire resistant. No process is available to make the light weight nylon used in many tents meet the standard of the new law. Some spray-on fire resistant products are available but these are water soluble and the tent would require treatment after every rain. And, there is no way for an inspector to determine that a tent has been treated.

So, we have a long way to go before the law, in its present form, can be enforced. It will not be enforced this year and many of us in the legislature are trying to correct it for the future.

A new bill, House Bill 4169, has been introduced with the sponsorship of more than 40 of us in the House of Representatives. It passed the House of Representatives last week and hopefully the Senate will take immediate action.

This bill will delete the misleading language from last year's bill and define more accurately the types of tents included. These include the public assembly tent, the tent for stabling of animals, tents where devices using fuel are used and similar locations. It does provide that camping tents SOLD in Michigan after April 1, 1974 shall be made of flame retardant materials. This latter section should give manufacturers a chance to develop the necessary fire-proofing technology and recognizes that in some camping situations, state parks, campgrounds, etc., there is some danger from fire because of the togetherness of the campsites.

This time I hope that gap between the idea and the written law is a lot narrower. Meanwhile, to all the tenters: happy camping, but be careful!

A PERSONAL LOOK AT THE NEWS

Between the lines

with Jim Edwards

LOCAL GOVERNMENT, 1984-Reports from Lansing today indicate further county offices are scheduled to be absorbed by the state.

The absorption of the county units into the state level nearly completes a trend started in 1973.

At that time it was decided by the executive branch of the state that many state agencies would be combined under 1 head.

It called for the Water Resources Commission, Department of Natural Resources and Department of Agriculture, plus drain districts to be all 1 department.

It was argued at the time such action would combine agencies of particular fields into 1 big agency, probably eliminating the efficiency through a large bureaucracy.

Local governments again questioned whether further moves were being taken that would, eventually, endanger the concept of local government.

At the same time, former President Richard Nixon was cutting federally funded programs and initiating revenue sharing in an attempt to return responsibilities to the local level.

Some felt that bunching several agencies together in a large bureaucracy on the state level was in direct contrast to the President's concept of return to local control.

Throughout the state many local government meetings included informal discussions about the loss of local controls.

"If It Fitz . . .

It's a Pistol

Editor, Lapeer County Press

By Jim Fitzgerald

If I ever shoot some guy who bugs me, the first question I'll ask myself, as I step over the dead body, is this:

If I hadn't had a gun, would I have bitten him to death?

This is an important question, as any member of the National Rifle Assn can tell you.

Everytime someone shoots a big shot, such as Bobby Kennedy or George Wallace, there arises a great wail for gun controls. And then, quick as an echo, the gun people answer:

"Guns don't kill people, people do. If the murderer hadn't had a gun, he would have stabbed the guy to death with his swizzle stick."

Certainly. There is an interesting paradox in the gun controversy. Most lawmen, especially in big cities where the blood spurts regularly, are strongly in favor of gun controls. And their strongest opposition comes from law'n order people who usually wear love notes to cops on their bumpers.

I have a friend who automatically snarls "Love It or Leave It" everytime he sees a boy with long hair. Naturally, I call him Archie. He thinks all policemen are marvelous people. It's not their fault the commie judges turn all the crooks free.

But Archie owns 12 pistols. He has them stashed, always loaded, all over his home. These handguns have only 1 purpose -- self defense. Archie uses rifles and shotguns to kill animals. The pistols are for killing any,

Some years later, the demise of the Michigan Association of Townships brought angered cries about elimination of township forms of government.

The reply from the state was that with assessing being done on the state level, much of the need for township governments was eliminated.

Townships soon became townships in name only when the local elected offices were abolished.

Many residents of the state's townships complained about having only 1 elected official, that being their county commissioner from their respective districts.

Sarcastic responses were heard that indicated, "You better be happy still having a county commissioner. That, too, may be gone some day."

That prediction, however, proved to be false.

Although the county boards of commissioners today are not of the type in past years, there is still that form of government on the local level.

A telephone line has been installed in Lansing for persons wishing to discuss local problems with their county representative. Soon to be appointed, that individual will be known as the Michigan County Commissioner and will fill the capacity formerly filled by the county boards.

It is not known at this time what is to become of the now-deserted county courthouse.

Letters to the Editor

Answer to meat boycott

Dear Editor,

This letter is in response to your question in "Speak Out" concerning participation in a meat boycott. My husband is a dairy and beef farmer and so our answer is a definite no.

However, our reasons are not purely farmer motivated. A meat boycott might bring a temporary reduction in prices, but in the long run it would tend to create shorter supplies of meat and thus even higher prices. Farmers would not have the incentive to raise animals be they sheep, swine, cattle, or poultry if there were a drastic reduction in prices.

Supply and demand is a vicious circle in which farmers have usually been overworked and underpaid. That is why there are so few meat producers and why there is such a shortage of meat in this country today. It is high time farmers received a decent price for their goods and a price comparable to the salaries of the other wage earners of our economy. Farmers are not second class citizens and do not deserve second class incomes. After all, they produce one of the main necessities of life, food.

Sincerely,
Mrs Charles Wadell,

SENIOR SOLILOQUY

It takes a little longer
To do each pesky chore,
Than when brain and brawn were super
In the golden days of yore;
Now speed is not the essence,
But we can still have fun
As we call on skills acquired
To see the job well done.

It takes a bit of patience,
Generation gaps to span,
To be of real assistance
Yet not disrupt the plan;
To be yet more observing
As the youngsters pass each test,
And not resort to bragging
Of the days we thought the best.

It takes a younger eye to see
The program in detail,
To find the rainbow in the sky
With crops that make and fail;
But I shall seek to see the stars
When my own eyes betray,
And find a path where I can tread.
And smile along the way!

Responds to D F Snyder

Dear Editor,

This may look like a tug-of-war between Mr D F Snyder and myself, but I cannot sit back and listen to one more idiotic word.

First of all, I just wonder if Mr Snyder would be content if the Supreme Court had reversed their decision. Just because a few men decided abortion should be legal, does that make it right? And here's another one for you--if you think women should decide about abortion, then why did those men take it upon themselves to make the law?

I may as well admit it, that letter made me sick! What business is it of anybody's how many children a woman has? Mind you, I'm not out to prove my femininity, or my "animal instincts," or anything, but I'll add to my family as I see fit. With that decision goes the obligation of caring for them myself. No, not pawing them off on day-care centers, military, or marrying my daughter off early. Therefore, whether I have only one or one hundred, they will not cost anyone else a cent!

Why do we need abortion? I see no reason for a married woman to have one. In the first place, if they're old enough to be married, they should know about contraceptives. As for the unmarried, if they're fooling around, they should be prepared to take the consequences. I get the impression that those who want abortions, don't want to prevent a pregnancy, because they can have it conveniently taken care of, and go out and do the same thing.

How can anyone say life begins at birth? I can tell you, Mr Snyder, with more experience than you could ever have, that a baby moves in the uterus long before birth -- up to 4 or 5 months before. If you can prove me wrong, I'd like to see you do it! Besides, doesn't life have a lot to do with growing? From the moment a baby is conceived, it is growing, and very rapidly, I might add.

Calling concern to unfertilized eggs and dead sperm is being silly. They were never united to form a baby. We're talking about a fetus, and this can only be formed by an egg and sperm, not two eggs or two sperm. I have yet to hear of this happening!

I can't help but think of the many couples who can't have children and would gladly take a baby off someone's hands. There are many people who want them, and just as many killing babies off.

Abortion is murder, nothing less. To those who try to have one by stating possible birth defects as a reason, waiting until you gave birth and finding deformities, and killing it then would be the same thing.

Ok, maybe the law is here to stay, but I want to see what these "well-intentioned" people will think when a law is passed to stop medication on people over 65, and let them die. I imagine they will be a little hot under the collar.

One question, Mr Snyder: Have you never driven or been a passenger in a car? Your letter gives the impression that you still ride a horse on a buggy. I've said it once and I'll say it again, people cause accidents-not cars.

In a time when so many people are against war, how, in the name of heaven, can these same people turn around and demand abortion?

Sincerely,
Mrs Roger (Beth) Schneider

Proposed ban on smoking

As you know if you have read this column before, we have been carrying out a mini-campaign against smoking, which most physicians today, regardless of whether they partake of the fatal weed or not, consider a serious health hazard.

If you have done any airplane travel during the last year or so, you will also be aware of the fact that before joining your travel companions on the plane, airline employees will ask you with a sweet smile "whether you prefer 'smoking' or 'non-smoking' seats."

Since a lot of people would rather die than give up the soft, white cylinder lighted at one end, even people who sit in the non-smoking area still inhale a fair amount of polluted air. But the attempt to put some pressure on the social conscience of the smoker, who if he has no compassion left for his own lungs, should at least have some for those of his neighbor, is a step in the right direction.

WORD FROM A FRIEND

A young psychiatrist friend of mine, Dr Terry Stein, from Michigan State, informs me, that there is a new group at the college, trying to accomplish the same thing.

According to reporter Chris Danielson, from the State News, a group called Students for Stopping Smoking in the Classrooms has circulated petitions asking for student support to ban all smoking in those teaching areas.

The organization was founded last summer, after several students got tired of sitting in rooms where, they complained, "the smoke was too thick to think!"

PEACEFUL PROTEST

Miss Mary Bailey, a Fern Creek, Kentucky, junior and president of the group, said that over 1,000 student signatures were collected during fall registration on petitions calling for a smoking ban in classrooms, lecture halls, and teaching labs.

Some of those who signed were themselves smokers, interestingly enough; and one of them stated that if the ban was instituted, it would help him stop smoking.

Just to show that not all sense of social responsibility is on the part of the students, the group also collected signatures, from 75 faculty members, several of whom circulated petitions in their classes.

ANTI-SMOKING RULE

University Ordinance 32, according to reporter Danielson, amended in May, 1969, prohibits smoking in barns, farm buildings and storage areas of flammable liquids or combustible materials. The cows, perhaps because of the long agricultural tradition at MSU, have it better than the people.

The old ordinance, which had been adopted in March, 1959, made smoking in classrooms, lecture halls and teaching labs a misdemeanor. It was enforced very poorly if at all, however, except perhaps in the library.

BURNS EVERYWHERE

Besides the harmful effects on student health, the anti-smoking group contends that smoking damages university buildings. The maintenance supervisor at Hubbard Hall said four students spent four hours each term scraping burns off the floors. A seven-year-old carpet will have to be replaced because of ash burns.

THE OUNCE OF PREVENTION

A study included in the 1972 Surgeon General's report on the Health Consequences of Smoking found that cigarette smoking in a small room can raise the carbon monoxide level to 50 parts per million.

After 90 minutes in such an atmosphere, the average non-smoker begins to show perceptual problems, and literally gasps for air.

A clear sense of social responsibility in the person who smokes is the only viable alternative towards fresh air for the rest of us.

Farm Tips

TOO MUCH? OR TOO LITTLE?

The importance of high corn populations and narrow rows is often overemphasized. Some farmers using very high populations could increase their yields by dropping back to a lower level of plant population.

There is an optimum plant population for each field, and to find it I suggest planting three strips in each field to give a harvest population of 16,000 to 18,000; 20,000 to 22,000; and 24,000 to 26,000 plants per acre. Careful comparison of yields should tell which plant density is best.

Thirty-inch rows generally average 5 to 6 percent higher corn yields than conventional 36 to 40 inch rows. Corn planted to 20 inch rows will average 10 to 15 percent higher yields than 36 to 40 inch rows.

To get the maximum advantage from narrow rows, optimum fertilizer and planting practices should be used.

Inselecting the hybrids for grain, I recommend early maturing hybrids for several reasons: they usually mature before killing frost, and dry corn makes better livestock feed; they generally yield more than late hybrids; they allow farmers the advantage of an earlier harvest; and lower moisture content at harvest reduces costs.

Early hybrids should also be used for late planting; on low fertility soil, sandy soils and muck soils, and where corn is followed by a winter grain or cover crop.

I suggest a high grain producer for corn silage, because the best silage contains a high percentage of grain. High, dry-weight production per acre is a better basis for choosing hybrids for silage than tons of green weight.

The best time to begin harvest for silage is early dent. A hybrid that will reach the early dent stage well before frost in an average year is ideal.

For a degree of crop insurance, choose two or three hybrids which differ slightly in their maturity. If one hybrid runs into unfavorable weather at a crucial stage, another may be less affected and come through with a good crop.

Your corn crop might be improved by trying one or more of the hybrids with better records in the research trials than yours. New hybrids that have tested well are worth trying. You may want to try one in a strip in the same field with your present one.

Complete results of the hybrid yield tests for 1970-72 are available in the MSU Extension Bulletin 431, "Corn Hybrids Compared-1973." Free copies are available at your county extension office.

Agriculture in Action

Imposition of price controls on raw farm products as demanded by the AFL-CIO executive council could only lead to food shortages, rationing and black markets as experienced during World War II, according to William J. Kuhfuss, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

"If consumers want well-stocked meat counters, they must be prepared to pay farmers a fair price."

"Record high production costs which promise to hit new highs this year make producing beef a risky business and there must be a reasonable opportunity for profit and a return on huge capital investments," declared the national farm leader.

It has taken more than 20 years for farm prices to even come close to what they were in 1952. During that period, farmers experienced some disastrously low prices.

As long as union contracts call for higher and higher wages, which drives up the cost of everything that farmers must buy for production, we cannot expect cheap food. Farm prices go up and down, but under union wage contracts, wages keep going up and stay there. In addition, many union contracts provide for cost-of-living wage increases. The United Auto Workers, for example, just received a 3-cent an hour increase under such provisions. This increase went to 150,000 workers producing agricultural equipment as well as 700,000 auto workers and 50,000 workers in parts factories.

"Probably few consumers realize that current estimates indicate farmers will get less net income in 1973 than in 1972. An upsurge in production cost for 1973 is expected to place net farm income for the year at $19 billion as compared with $19.2 billion in 1972," Kuhfuss said.

BEST HYBRID, KEY TO PROFIT

The right hybrid choice is the key to maximum corn profits in Michigan.

According to the 1972 hybrid corn trials conducted by the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, those yielding the highest produced 28 bushels per acre more than the average of 127.5 bushels, and 42 bushels more than the low of 85.9.

The best hybrids offer higher yields and other improvements at generally the same cost.

Set-aside program deadline March 16

ST. JOHNS -- March 16 is the final day county ASCS offices will accept 1973 Set-Aside Program applications. This announcement was made by Dorn Diehl, State Executive Director of the Michigan Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

After a slow start, interest in the program has been increasing daily. Some counties report enrolling between 150 and 200 farms a day. With this kind of activity and the deadline not too far away, those farmers who intend to enroll may expect to wait a considerable time in line if they wait until the last day to enroll.

Diehl attributed the slow beginning to the late changes in the program, the uncertainty of additional changes and the confusion resulting from the termination of the Rural Environmental Assistance Program (REAP) and the impoundment of other agricultural program funds by the President. County ASCS offices are still open, Diehl emphasized.

With the changes made this year in the Wheat and Feed Grain Programs, most farmers will find it to their advantage to participate. The direct payments in some instances may be smaller than last year but the overall advantages are greater. These include the decreased set-aside requirements in both wheat and feed grains, the liberalized planting options, the guarantee of price support and the haying and grazing set-aside privileges.

Diehl noted over 70,000 Michigan farmers enrolled in the 1972 program. He was quite optimistic that this number would be equal or exceeded this year.

Five indicted for tax fraud

DETROIT -- Five commercial preparers of tax returns were indicted Feb. 20 on charges of aiding and assisting in the preparation of fraudulent Federal income tax returns. The indictments were handed down by a Federal Grand Jury in Detroit. The 5 were immediately arrested by IRS agents, arraigned before a US Magistrate and released on personal bond. All of those charged were from the southeastern part of the state. One of the men was charged with 10 separate counts of fraud. The maximum sentence on each count charged in the indictment is 3 years imprisonment and a $3000 fine.

Thomas A. Cardoza, IRS District Director for Michigan, said IRS Agents are continuing in their efforts to ferret out unethical preparers. The agents are checking preparers by posing as taxpayers and having them prepare returns.

Cardoza cautions all taxpayers to select a competent return preparer. Each taxpayer should thoroughly examine his return before signing and mailing it to the IRS, he said.

This year, according to Cardoza, every tax preparer is required to sign the returns he prepares, as well as entering his social security or employee identification number.

4-H leaders honored

EAST LANSING -- Three area men were honored by Michigan 4-H Leaders Saturday night, March 4, during the annual 4-H Leadership Conference at Michigan State University.

Making the presentations were Michigan's National 4-H Conference delegates: Dan Liston, Berrien County; Robert Ogg, Genesee County; Vicki Roesch, Clinton County; and Elise Harrington, Midland County. "Outstanding Service to 4-H" citations were presented to Frank Dawson, administrative assistant in MSU's College of Human Medicine; Dayton Matlick, editor of the Michigan Farmer; and Richard K. Arnold, MSU radio farm editor.

Dawson, a member of the state 4-H health and safety developmental committee, has taught first aid to several Michigan 4-H members. He coordinated the first aid option during 4-H "Exploration Days" in both 1971 and 1972.

A recent sample of his success as a 4-H "leader" is an 18-year-old Macomb County youth who saved a life by mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, a technique he learned from Dawson's 4-H assistants.

Dayton Matlick was recognized for his support for the 4-H communication

Vicki Roesch to attend conference

Vicki Roesch, Eagle, is one of 5 Michigan 4-Hers selected to participate in the National 4-H Conference April 14-20 at the National 4-H Center in Washington DC. The other 4 delegates representing Michigan 4-Hers include Dan Leston - Berrien Springs; Robert Ogg - Grand Blanc; Elise Harrington - Midland and Velvaleta Cradolph - Jones, Michigan. Approximately 300 4-Hers from throughout the United States will be participating in this National 4-H Conference.

While in Washington that week the 4-H members will meet their congressman, tour the capitol and other historic places of interest, discuss topics of concerns facing the youth of today and provide suggestions for the development and expansion of the National 4-H program. Vicki's selection as a National 4-H Conference delegate took place during the State 4-H Exploration Days at MSU June 22, 1972 following all day interviews by the selection committee.

Vicki has completed 8 years of 4-H club work in Clinton County and is presently a member of the Painthounds 4-H club with Faith French as her leader. Her 4-H project work for 8 years covers areas of clothing, knitting, cultural arts, food, horse and photography. She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Martin Roesch and is presently a senior at Grand Ledge High School.

Safety belts, when you think about it, it's a nice way to say I love you.

Trees are a good conservation practice

Planting of trees is a popular conservation practice applied by the cooperators of the Clinton County Soil Conservation District, according to Stanley Baird, Chairman of the Clinton District. The district office at 100 South Ottawa accepts orders for 100, 500, or 1000 trees from Cooperators on a cooperative arrangement with a private nursery who deliver the trees to St. Johns during the last of April. Barbara Rehm, Executive Secretary for the Clinton S.C.D., said that there is still time to order conifers, except White Cedar, and the smaller sizes of Carpathian Walnuts, but that the large 24 to 48 inch high Carpathian Walnuts were all sold for this spring's delivery.

The Carpathian Walnut is a beautiful, fast growing shade tree with tropical appearing foliage. It produces large, delicious, thin-shelled English type walnuts.

Many people, when they plant Carpathian Walnuts, use a sheet of black plastic about 3 foot square over the tree, making a slit in the plastic just large enough to put the tree through. Next place an old tire on the plastic to keep it in place. The plastic and tire kills the sod and prevents the grass from competing with the small tree. Good growth of the tree results from this practice.

A windbreak of conifers around a home can reduce the effects of a cold wind. For example, the Wind-Chill index shows that at 20 degrees with a 15 mile per hour wind the Chill temperature is negative 6 degrees. The sooner you plant your trees, the sooner you will begin to receive windbreak protection. Seedling trees of Red Pine, Austrian Pine, White Pine, White Spruce, Norway Spruce, Scotch Pine, and Colorado Blue Spruce may be purchased at the Clinton Soil Conservation District office.

Windbreaks help control soil blowing, reduce the drying effects of wind on soil particles on young, tender seedlings. A conifer windbreak can be a big help in having an early vegetable garden. The kinds of trees you need for your soil type can be part of your conservation plan. Technical assistance in soil capabilities to the cooperators of the Clinton S.C.D. are made by the technicians of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service at 100 South Ottawa, St. Johns. Lester E. Bell, Extension Specialist in Forestry, in a report to District Directors said: "There is no surplus of good Christmas trees being produced.

2. There appears to be an expanding demand for Michigan Christmas trees. 3. We are not planting enough trees currently to meet future demands." He also made this observation: "Most of the producers and dealers interviewed this year indicated that the 1972 season was the best year they had ever had. This represents a reversal of the thinking of some, who, in 1969 and 1970, had been concerned about land costs, taxes, high labor and machine costs, and the threat of insect problems, competition from artificial and from over production. Some of these same people now realize that the Christmas tree business is a pretty good business and are concerned about having enough good trees to sell in 1973, '74, and '75. Michigan growers have not been planting trees at a rate that will support a 5 to 6 million tree annual harvest. There will not be enough trees in future years to meet demands. Growers that have the land, the equipment and the know-how to grow good trees should be encouraged to expand their enterprise for the future of the business looks bright." Now is the time to order trees so you can plant an area for Christmas trees.

The District's tree planting machine may be rented for $5.00 per 1000 trees planted, and is scheduled with District Chairman Stanley Baird by telephoning him at 669-9433 in DeWitt.

CPAs explain what income is and is not taxable

(Ed note: This is the third of a series of articles prepared by The Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants offering advice on filing 1972 Federal Income Tax Returns.)

Is all the income one receives from all sources subject to the same Federal income tax? No, says the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants. Some types of income are exempt from taxation, while others are taxed at a rate different from that for ordinary income.

The MACPA says the types of income to be included with salary and wages as part of one's adjusted gross income include: Tips, bonuses, commission, and incentive payments. Dividends (except for the first $100 and except for so-called dividends on insurance policies, which are actually rebates of premiums and not taxable). Supplemental payments by one's employer under a guaranteed annual wage plan. Interest received on bank deposits, loans, etc. Casualty or health insurance benefits over the amount of loss or the cost of treating the illness.

Gambling winnings and prizes won in contests (after subtracting gambling losses and the costs of participating in the contests, including the costs of purchasing Michigan lottery tickets; and for this reason unlucky lottery stubs should be saved.) Michigan lottery winnings, although subject to Federal Income Tax, are exempt from Michigan State and City income taxes. Short-term capital gains on investments sold after being held six months or less. One half of long-term capital gains (realized on the sale of investments held longer than six months).

The CPAs say that, with certain exceptions, the type of income that can be excluded from one's adjusted gross income on tax returns include: Salary or wages up to $20,000 earned outside the United States if the taxpayer was a bona fide foreign resident for the entire taxable year. Sick pay up to $100 a week if one's employer has an established wage continuation plan. Social Security benefits. That portion of retirement income resulting from one's own contributions to a pension fund, if the money contributed was taxed before being paid in. Food and lodging provided by an employer, if it was for his convenience. Unemployment Insurance Act or the program for Federal employees. Strike benefits paid by a union under certain circumstances. Legacies. (Estate taxes are paid by the estate.) Gifts or prizes that did not increase the recipient's participation or the payment of a fee. The Michigan Association says that, because of the many qualifications attached to some of these exclusions, care should be taken in claiming them.

Middlebury

The Middlebury Livestock Club held its first meeting of this year at the home of its leaders, Mr and Mrs Kaye Potter. The Club held election of officers with the following results: Pres., Lynn Putnam; Vice-Pres., Sheri Harr; Sec., Karen Potter; Treasurer, Dawn Vaniman; and Recreation Leaders, Mark and Steve Semans. Dues were raised from $5 to 20¢. The Club plans to go bowling March 24. The next meeting will be at Lynn Putnam's home.

The Burton - Garland Community Farm Bureau group will meet Thursday evening in the establishment of Mildred Brookins on Shaltsburg Rd with Florence Garber as assisting hostess. A social supper at 6 pm will precede the business meeting and program.

Helen E. Fehr, a United Methodist missionary who has been engaged in village education work in India and Pakistan for more than 40 years, will speak at the Middlebury United Methodist Church on W. Hubbard Rd, Sunday March 18 during the morning worship at 11 am. Miss Fehr has returned to the United States for a pre-retirement furlough.

In India she was occupied with the supervision of village schools and training of teachers. She was instrumental in the establishment of lay leader's training courses. Most of her time, however, was devoted to the development of adult literacy primers and the promotion of literacy classes in short-term schools for rural people.

After coming to Pakistan Miss Fehr again was active in literacy work. In cooperation with the West Pakistan Christian Council Committee, she has been developing literacy materials and courses of study for the training of literacy teachers and supervisors. As director of the village education service she served 53 village schools.

A native of Indianapolis, Miss Fehr was graduated from DePauw University and holds a master's degree in religious education from Northwestern University. Middlebury United Methodist Church cordially invites anyone interested in hearing Miss Fehr to the service on March 18. There will be a cooperative dinner at the church following the service with Florence Garber, Frieda Warren and Midge Craig as hostesses.

Miss and Mrs. Donald Mulder have returned home after spending 8 days in Florida visiting friends and relatives. They also visited Disney-world and other places of interest.

A new dimension is being added to the Fulton area this weekend, as the newly formed Fulton Community Players present their first historic performance.

An old-fashioned melodrama with heroine, villain and hero, "Pure as the Driven Snow; or A Working Girl's Secret" will be presented by the group at 8 pm on Friday and Saturday, March 16 and 17 and at 2 pm on Sunday, March 18. All 3 performances will be given in the Middleton Elementary School Gym.

The group has a dual purpose in starting and presenting the play, according to John Clark, principal of the Maple Rapids Elementary School and one of the founders of the group.

Dan Wright as Mortimer Frothingham, a black-hearted villain, threatens Rosanne Gerrish as the pure and innocent Purity Dean as members of the Fulton Community Players get set for their production of "Pure as the Driven Snow; or a Working Girl's Secret" on March 16, 17, and 18 in the Middleton Elementary School gym. Members of the newly formed players group will offer the melodrama at 8 pm on Friday and Saturday, and a 2 pm on Sunday. Prices for the play are $1.25 for adults and 75¢ for students. The group hopes to use the profits from the performance and future performances to establish a scholarship fund for Fulton High School graduates.

Clark talked Sara Laitner, a resident of Westphalia, but a school social worker for the Gratiot-Isabella Intermediate Schools, into directing a play for the interested people in the Fulton area. The Fulton Teachers Association loaned the group some $300 for the cost of the first production.

AS THE IDEA was explored, Clark and Mrs Laitner found that interest for such an acting group ran high in the Fulton area, as a core group including Rosanne Gerrish of Maple Rapids, Karen Smith of Maple Rapids, Wanda Moore of Pompeii, June Wright of Carson City, Clark and Miss Laitner, was formed. Presently about 25 people of all ages, from high school on up, belong and help with the production of "Pure as the Driven Snow." According to Clark, finding people that were interested was not a problem, "Surprisingly enough we found people with experience and many will help with all aspects of play production right here in this area."

In addition to getting help from the Pewamo - Westphalia group, in the form of a director for their first production, the Fulton Community Players also borrowed costumes and technical assistance. Also a help were costumes and experienced actors associated with the defunct Carson City acting group.

The cast, who have been working for 2 months on this production includes Miss Gerrish as the pure and down-trodden heroine, Purity Dean.

CAST AS the black-hearted villain, constantly pursuing the heroine is Dan Wright of Ferrinton. Wright plays the part of nefarious Mortimer Frothingham. The hero, who foils the villain, is played by Pat Ryan of Maple Rapids. Ryan's part is that of Leander Longfellow, who follows the romantic calling of working in a pickle factory.

Other characters include Johnathan Logan and his wife Zamah, played by Jim Glass of Maple Rapids and Cora Goldman of Rainbow Lake. The couple runs an inn in which all of the action of the play takes place.

Jed Lunn is played by Clark; E.Z. Pickens by Al Mogg of St Johns; Imogene Pickens by Tamara Prichard of Fowler; Mrs Etheline Hewlitt by Wanda Moore of Pompeii; Allison Hewlitt by June Wright of Carson City; Miss Faith Hogue by Cindy Vining of Middleton; Lotty Barber by Kris Simmon of Carson City and Nellie Morris by A.J. Husted of Fowler.

Written in the spirit of the old-time melo-dramas and combining all of the sure-fire situations from the best of them and played in modern costumes the play offers an opportunity for everybody to join in and sing the old-fashioned songs in the last act, "Pure As The Driven Snow; or A Working Girl's Secret."

THE NEWLY formed players group said that the scholarship-loan fund would offer if successful, about enough for a student to attend a community college on a one-half grant and one-half loan basis so that part of the fund would continue to revolve.

Cost for the play, set for 8 pm on March 16 and 17 and 2 pm on March 18 is $1.25 for adults and 75¢ for students.

The play will be presented in the gym at the Middleton Elementary School which has the only stage in schools of the Fulton district.

Coordinating activities for the DeWitt Senior Citizens are (left to right) Fr Jerome Schmitt, Marion Mallenfant and Genevieve Druin. All interested persons are invited to join the group.

DeWitt senior citizens are not forgotten

DEWITT -- The problem of "forgotten" older people is not a new one, and the residents of DeWitt are trying to do something about it.

The current membership of the DeWitt Senior Citizens is approximately 38 people, age 55 and older. The group meets on the 3rd Thursday of each month for a potluck luncheon at the Community of St Jude Center, 409 Wilson St, DeWitt. Each member also brings a "white elephant," and the group plays Bingo for these prizes.

The Rev Fr Jerome Schmitt, of the Community of St Jude, originally had the idea to form a group for the senior citizens of his parish. Last November, a mass and meeting was held for these members of the parish. It was decided at that time to invite all older members of the community, and to change the meeting to potluck luncheon.

Fr Schmitt asked Marion Mallenfant, a member of the social activities commission at St Jude, and Genevieve Druin, if they would be interested in helping organize the group.

Ms Mallenfant said they asked the group members what they wanted to be called, and it was decided to call the organization the DeWitt Senior Citizens. The organization is not a member of the national Senior Citizens clubs, but she said they will join if that's what the members want.

"Our purpose," she added, "is to let senior citizens in this area know we are aware of them."

2nd Lenten service to be held March 18

OVID -- The 2nd in a series of Lenten Services will be held on Sunday, March 18 at 7:30 pm at The United Church.

The Rev Karl E. Unger, First Baptist Church of Davison, will be the speaker. John Hall, senior at the University of Michigan, and a voice major, will be the soloist.

The Rev Unger was born near Leipzig, Germany in 1922, and was raised in West View, Pa. He is a graduate of Gordon College and Temple University School of Theology at Philadelphia. He also took further studies at Eastern Baptist Seminary and Gordon Divinity School in Boston.

In the early years of his ministry he was trumpet soloist and song leader at Temple Baptist Church, New England's largest protestant church, directed the Youth for Christ program in Fall River, Mass, and was instructor of trumpet at the Providence Bible Institute.

After 3 pastorates on the East Coast, he and his family moved to Michigan in the fall of 1961 to assume the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of Davison.

Hall, tenor soloist, is the son of the Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Stockbridge. He has toured Russia as a member of the University of Michigan Concert Choir. He will be singing several selections at this service.

These services are interdenominational, and they are open to everyone. Refreshments will be served after the service.

Faculties collide for Little League

The St Johns faculty will play the Ovid-Elsie Little League basketball contest at the Ovid-Elsie gymnasium Tuesday, March 20, at 7:30 pm.

Proceeds will go toward the Ovid-Elsie Little League Baseball Program. Student admission is 75 cents and adult $1.

Tickets are available at Ovid-Elsie High School, Ovid-Elsie Junior High and St Johns High School and Junior High or at the door.

A problem the group is encountering is trying to contact all senior citizens in the area. The policy now is "bring a friend." So far they have compiled a list of 135 persons, but feel there are many more who have not been contacted.

Fr Schmitt emphasized they don't want to impose on group members. "We leave them free to do what they want to do," he said, "Sort of...hang loose."

The DeWitt Senior Citizens will hold their next meeting March 15 at noon, with the usual potluck luncheon. All interested people are invited to attend. They should bring a dish to pass, and a white elephant.

Fr Schmitt said people can come as often as they wish, and explained that there are no dues of any kind.

The Community of St Jude will hold a mass at 11 am, before the meeting, for those interested.

MSU radio station broadcasts programs for blind, handicapped

EAST LANSING -- Michigan State University's radio station WKAR is embarking on a venture to provide specialized programming for the blind and handicapped.

"Miracle Worker" set for March 30-31, April 6-7

"The Miracle Worker" will be presented by the First Nighters on March 30 and 31 at the Ovid-Elsie High School and on April 6 and 7 in St. Johns at the Wilson Auditorium.

A play that will appeal greatly to the whole family, there are children in the cast and a lot of action paces the presentation.

Cast members for this production are: Rachel Houska playing Anne Sullivan; Dee Holley as

Helen, Eugene Livingston as Keller; Virginia Schmalz as Kate, Henry Deller as the Doctor; Beverly Stoddard as Martha; Fred Kundra as Percy; Christine Brown as Aunt Ev; Robin Cole as James; Glen Hills as Anagnos; Delia Anderson as Viney; Cindy Feldpausch as Alice; Richard Geller as Bobby; Tracy Shutes as a schoolgirl; Rhonda Lee as Betty; Alan Nelson as a schoolboy; Sandy Boling as a schoolgirl; Rod Lounds as Roger; Brenda Boling as Sarah; Teresa Barker as Beatrice; Debbie Geller as Karen and Keith Parson as Jimmy.

Tickets are available at Herbruck's and The Discount House in St. Johns and Darling's in Ovid. Prices are $1.00 for children, $1.50 advance for adults and $1.75 at the door. You can receive your advance tickets by sending a self-addressed envelope and the proper amount of money to Mrs. John Bradley, R6, St. Johns, Michigan 48879.

band, the station will be able to present material of interest to the blind and handicapped, such as readings of current newspapers and magazines and best-selling books while they're still popular, without considering the needs of the sighted public.

This will be accomplished by providing a receiver, free of charge or expense, to the blind and handicapped in WKAR's listening area. The subcarrier receivers will be fixed-tuned to the frequency of the special subchannel, and the general public will be unable to hear the programs. Such point-to-point broadcasts are regarded under law as private communications, so no lengthy delays to clear copyrighted material will be needed.

Michigan's Lions Clubs, long noted for unceasing charity work in the field of sight (their current concern is glaucoma), will assist fund-raising efforts to purchase the receivers. About $65,000 is still being sought to support the first year of operation, and about half of that will go for receivers.

THE "TALKING Book" concept for the blind is not a new concept, but the idea of broadcasting the material is unique in Michigan. Services of this type are in effect in only two other cities, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minn., and Lawrence, Kan.

The "Radio Talking Book" concept adds two advantages to the record and tape program offered by the Library of Congress. The recipient of the radio service has only to flick a switch to receive the material, instead of operating a record player or tape recorder and ordering the material by mail.

The U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has accepted WKAR's request for a grant, and Michigan State University has provided matching funds. Studio broadcast equipment for the subcarrier programs has been ordered, with an "on the air" target date of July 1.

Trezise seeks area opinions

LANSING -- The pulse of the 97th House of Representative District is being taken by State Representative Douglas Trezise (R-Owosso) on critical issues affecting Michigan citizens. Ten thousand questionnaires have been mailed to registered voters in the district which encompasses Shiawassee County and parts of Genesee and Clinton Counties.

"It is essential that I know the viewpoints of my constituents before I vote on the many serious pieces of legislation that the legislature will be facing during the upcoming months," Trezise said. "The recent court rulings which tear down present laws concerning the financing of our school systems and the striking down of our abortion statutes presents us with two immediate problems that will have to be decided on."

In his questionnaire Representative Trezise highlights the issue of education which is one of the most pressing issues now facing the Michigan Legislature. Other areas concentrated upon include crime, government, environment and other general questions ranging from abortion to tax relief.

"For me to be aware of constituent feelings on the many issues affecting their lives it is imperative that citizens fill the questionnaire out and return it. The results of this opinion poll will be made public and will effect my votes and actions here in Lansing during my present term of office," Trezise concluded.

Shepardsville

The Ovid-Duplain Library Club met Friday, March 2, at the home of Mrs. Robert Hebel, Sr. Fifteen members and 3 guests were present and enjoyed the potluck dinner. Mrs. Ralph Baker gave the invocation.

The Pledge of Allegiance and Collect were repeated in unison followed by roll call. Several cards were signed to be sent to our shut-in members. During the business meeting it was announced that the April meeting will be at the Shepardsville Church with Mrs. Ralph Teal and her committee serving a dessert luncheon. The May meeting will also have to be changed. Plates were shown that the General Federation will be selling for the next 4 years, 1 plate being issued each year during the next 4 years, ending in 1976, the bicentennial year of our country.

In charge of the program was Mrs. George Parmenter who told about the 73 day trip she and her husband, Jack, last year on a cargo passenger ship named the Oriental Pearl. Before showing her pictures, Mrs. Parmenter played a recording of a young lady they call their Chinese daughter. She sang Auld Lang Syne and Danny Boy in Chinese. They are looking forward to having her visit them this summer. She had a lot of slides to show. There were 78 in the party, many of them being older than the Parmenters.

Their first stop was in Yokohama. Several trips were made around this city. One of the trips was to Mt. Fuji. It is very smoggy there. In Tokyo they saw the largest Buddha. At Saparro they visited the gym where the Olympic games were held. Many of their pictures were taken from the Tokoyo Tower. Pictures of the school children showed them to be very clean and in uniform. Kobe is a very modern city. Here they visited a Japanese Opera House. Next stop, Pusan, Korea. Most of the cargo was unloaded in Korea.

They visited a commune. It is a very modern city. She showed a picture of tea growing on a side hill. Next stop, Incheon. They took a motor trip across Taiwan. They had to travel a very narrow road, used as a 1-way road part of the time. She said that each farmer has 10 acres on which he grows about 4 crops a year.

There are many bicycles in this country. Several Chinese homes were shown. This 1-way road is noted for its many land slides. A picture of Madame Chiang Kai Shek's home was shown. Next stop, Hong Kong. All tours of this city were cancelled because of the typhoon season. They took pictures of the rough sea.

Three days out their ship lost power, but another ship stood by. They had to be towed into port for repairs. They had to spend 8 days there, due to the typhoons. The barges are manned entirely by women. Women also do most of the maintenance work in the beautiful public gardens.

Besides all the pictures she showed, she told of many interesting and amusing experiences they had. She also had some interesting mementoes on display.

Mother Goose on tour

Ron Holley's 4th grade at East Ward School recently went on a 3 school tour with their modern medley of nursery rhymes. Each rhyme was acted out, and many had accompanying songs and dance routines. Every class was involved in the acting and singing. The show has been presented 5 times, as of Feb 27. The first 2 shows were done for an all-school assembly at East Ward, and for parents, neighbors and relatives of the class.

Then the group was bussed to Perrin-Palmer, Jack and Jill Nursery School and Central Elementary. The acting project was undertaken as an English unit.

Motivation and attention problems were non-existent during these classes, according to Holley.

He said that from the start the kids eagerly developed their roles and put together a polished production, which was very well received by all audiences.

New swim team to be formed

ST. JOHNS -- A swimming team for Junior High and Elementary students is being formed by St. Johns High School swimming coach Wayne Morrison.

All interested students should report to the High School swimming pool Thursday, March 15 at 3:15 pm, and bring their swim suits.
