Snow. That is how Mother Nature chose to ring in the first day of spring in Clinton County. The white stuff came down all day Friday, March 21, but disappeared over the weekend after temperatures in the 50's.

Green receives Bicentennial award

ST. JOHNS — Mark Green, a St. Johns High School student, has been honored by the Michigan American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, for his entry in the contest to determine the design of the official Michigan Bicentennial medallion.

He received an honorable mention in the contest and was 1 of 10 honored from entrants throughout the state.

Green received a plaque and certificate honoring his accomplishment.

One recognition, signed by Gov. William Milliken and former Lt. Gov. James Brickley, read:

"Know ye, that whereas Mark Green has been a duly certified contestant in the official Michigan American Revolution Bicentennial Medallion Competition, therefor it is hereby ordered and declared that Mark Green hereby receives honorary recognition by the Michigan American Revolution Bicentennial Commission for the contribution made to the celebration of the Bicentennial in the state of Michigan. By virtue of the powers vested in us by the Michigan American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, these orders are given and sworn to our hands this fourth day of July 1974.

In a letter from Brickley, it was stated: "I want to extend my personal congratulations for achieving honorable mention in the contest recently conducted to determine the design for the official Michigan Bicentennial medallion.

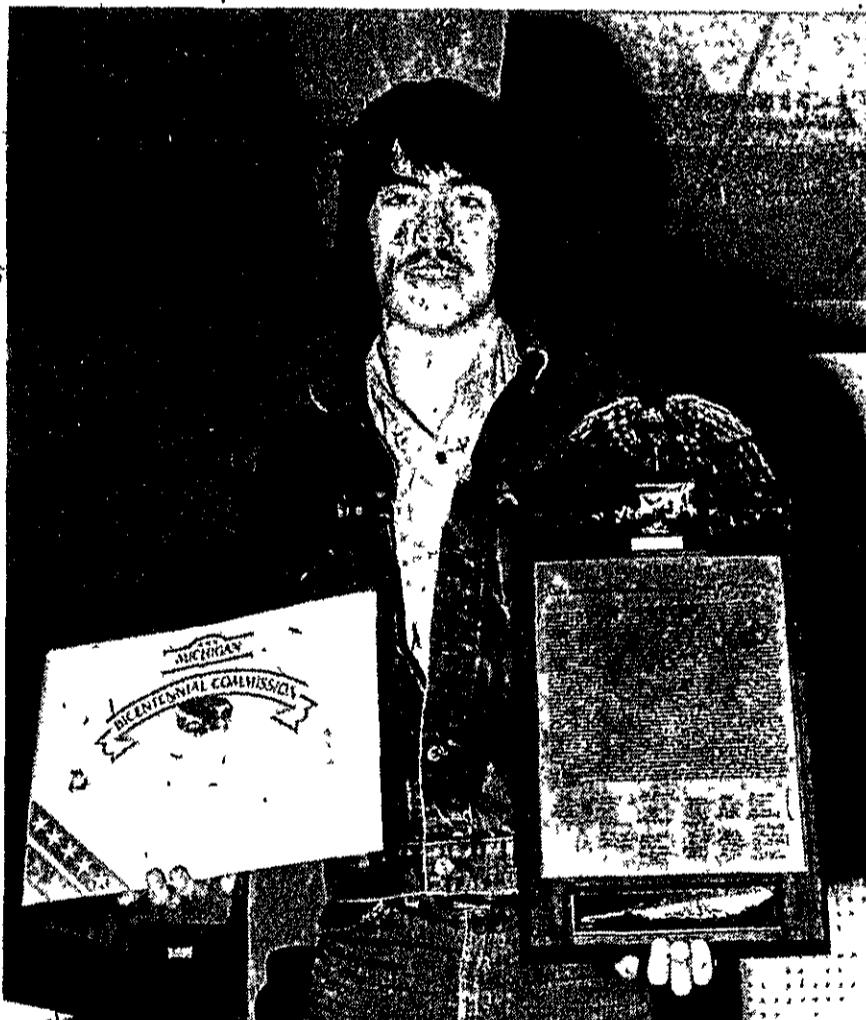

"The excellence of your work does great credit and your success in this endeavor has undoubtedly brought pride and happiness to your parents and teachers.

"The outstanding calibre of work submitted by hundreds of high school students from throughout the state made the decisions of the judges extremely difficult. You are to be complimented not only for your obvious artistic skills, but for the careful thought utilized in determining subject matter which reflects Michigan history during the early years.

"Efforts such as yours assure us that the Bicentennial commemoration in Michigan will indeed be meaningful and significant; symbolizing the pride we take in our heritage and the hopes we have for the future."

Green is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green, 3778 S. County Farm Road, St. Johns.

City moves to halt adult movies, books in St. Johns

Citizens turn out to offer support

By Jim Edwards
County News Editor

ST. JOHNS — Concerned St. Johns area residents filled the St. Johns Municipal Building Auditorium Monday night to offer their support in the city's efforts in preventing x-rated movies and adult book stores coming into St. Johns.

Their visit to the City Commission meeting was prompted by rumors that x-rated movies and an adult book store might be planned to go into the Clinton Arms, the former Steel Hotel.

Those rumors were spurred by a poster board sign in a door of the hotel indicating such an enterprise was in the future.

Prior to the Monday night Commission meeting, the St. Johns Planning Commission Thursday recommended the city zoning ordinance be amended requiring such a business to apply for a license and that 51% approval by city residents would be required. It is also stipulated that not more than 1 such business be allowed within 1000 feet.

Paul Maples, city attorney, told the gathering such an amendment to the zoning ordinance would serve as a prohibitive ordinance and would be most likely to survive a court test.

He added that failure of the community to provide 51% of the residents in favor of granting such a license would indicate the "moral standards" of the community to the courts.

Maples also said a petition drive by residents of the community expressing their disapproval of x-rated movies and adult book stores would also help to advise the courts of the moral standard of the community.

It was indicated the ordinance would be ready soon and that Mayor Roy Ebert would call a special meeting for the City Commission to act on it.

Approval of the ordinance requires a public hearing and published notice.

Ebert told the many residents who attended the meeting that he was "pleased this many people showed up. We worked to beef up the ordinance to keep this element out of St. Johns. In the past, present and future, the Commission is against this type of operation."

Following the explanation of the city's action against pornographic movies and adult book stores in the city, Ebert welcomed any comments from those attending the meeting.

Several ministers of the community spoke deploring the possibility of such facilities in St. Johns and offered their support to the efforts of the City Commission.

Their sentiments were echoed by several other members of the audience.

During the time given for public comments, Ebert was asked if the enforcement of the ordinance could wind up in court.

He answered, "hopefully not."

Another commended the action by the city and urged that action be taken to prohibit such operations outside the city limits.

Another citizen asked what she could do personally to fight against the movies and book store, Ebert told her the perfect vehicle for an organized drive against such businesses and other organizations in the community.

Ed Schmitt, representing the Knights of Columbus, said a petition drive is already underway and said that efforts are being made to have it coordinated among churches and other organizations in the community.

It was also indicated that Bingham Township would be interested and Ray Parr, St. Johns pharmacy owner and president of the St. Johns School Board, said a separate petition drive outside the city would be in order.

Another resident suggested the city look into an "urban cooperation act" to see if there would be a possible legal process that would cover the entire county.

Jason Livingston, 13, and Mike Sanford, 18, also rose to speak in opposition to pornography in St. Johns.

New facility for handicapped gets DeWitt School Board OK

DEWITT — The DeWitt School Board of Education voted unanimously Monday night to OK plans for an added facility to accommodate physically handicapped and health impaired children.

The structure, to be an addition to Scott Elementary School, will include a classroom, therapy room, evaluation room, bathroom and storage room and is estimated to cost $100,625.

The facility will service an estimated 10 children in the Clinton County Intermediate School District who have, up until now, been transported to Lansing for education.

The facility will be built to accommodate up to 15 children.

Larry Schwartzkopf, director of special education in the Intermediate School, said the plans are now for the elementary level, but the Intermediate School Board has hopes of expanding to other levels.

Although financed by the Intermediate School system, the plan first had to be approved by the DeWitt School Board.

It will go to the Intermediate Board for approval Monday, March 31.

The plans provide that a teacher and an aide be hired by the local school system. A physical therapist and an occupational therapist is to be hired by the Intermediate District.

Schwartzkopf said the therapists would also work with the handicapped children in their homes. The School Board plans to have bids from construction companies ready by April 28.

A representative from Manson, Jackson and Kane, an architectural firm from Lansing, said the facility would not be ready by Sept. 1 for the beginning of the next school year.

Agencies serving the Clinton County population gathered at Smith Hall last week in Human Services Day, designed to explain the operations of the various agencies.

Hold Human Services Information Day

Services available in Clinton County and how to effectively make use of those services was the message offered Thursday at the Human Services Information Day held at Smith Hall in St. Johns.

The program was sponsored by the Clinton County Human Services Committee and the Clinton County Board of Commissioners.

Services represented included the Cooperative Extension Service, Department of Social Services, Intermediate School District, Mid-Michigan District Health Dept., Sheriff's Dept., Tri-County Mental Health Dept., Friend of the Court, Juvenile Court, Clinton Memorial Hospital and Clinton Area Ambulance Service.

Each service provided representatives for the all-day program to present displays and to explain the function and goals of their particular department.

DeWitt lays off 4 teachers, eyeing fund cutbacks

By Deborah LaParl
County News Writer

DEWITT — Due to an anticipated cut in state funds, the DeWitt School Board voted unanimously not to extend the contracts of 1 teacher for fall, 1975. Three other teachers' contracts will not be extended due to unsatisfactory performance, making a total of 4 teachers not returning to the DeWitt School System.

Superintendent James Ritchie said during the board's 4½-hour meeting that the necessity of cutting 4 teachers now was due to state funding and timing.

Ritchie said the school board would not know how much money they had to work with until the middle of July or August, but does anticipate the drop in funds.

This will cause the school board to lay off a number of teachers.

"The problem of timing centers around a recent court ruling concerning probation or the most recently hired teachers.

The ruling states that these teachers must be notified of their termination not less than 60 days before the school year ends.

If they are not notified, they must be rehired for the next school year, Ritchie said.

There is no ruling to cover teachers with tenure, however, who can be laid off without notice.

So, Ritchie added, if the school board waited to see how much funds they had to work with, it would be the tenure teachers who would be dismissed and not the recently hired teachers or probation.

The superintendent added that Eaton Rapids had laid off 43 teachers and Owosso had laid off 37 because of an anticipated drop in state funds and the ruling on probation teachers.

"All indications at state levels are saying you are going to have to get by with less money than you got by with this year," Ritchie said.

"If we let this thing ride, we are going to have to lay off our tenure teachers."

The board approved the termination of the 4 probation teachers' contracts.

In other action, the board voted to give tenure to 9 teachers and promote 10 to probation II.

The board also voted to approve the application for early graduation of 3 students, although those applications were submitted 1 week late.

They plan to study the rule at a later time to possibly drop the application time limit.

In other board action, the board voted to allow the high school to try a change in attendance policy, but not without the warning of Ritchie.

The change in policy, submitted by George Scott, assistant principal, would make unexcused absences and unexcused tardiness a definite part of the grading system.

The policy states that absences will only be excused if the parent telephones the school the day of the absence, but pre-arranged absences will be excused if properly submitted.

A tardy student will not be excused unless

Two terms expire on Intermediate Board

ST. JOHNS — B. Stanley Pocus, Clinton County superintendent of schools, has announced that the terms of office for two Intermediate School District Board members will expire on June 30, 1975.

They are Walter Kyes, Bath, and Gerald Wieber, Fowler.

Both have expressed a willingness to seek re-election.

Petitions for those seeking the office are available at the Intermediate Office at 4179 South U.S. 27, St. Johns. They must be filed by May 2. The election will take place June 2.

Offer speech program for pre-schooler parents

ST. JOHNS — Speech therapists in Clinton County are offering a program for parents who want to know if the speech development in their children up to 5 years old is normal.

The program will be held at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, April 17 at the Clinton County Intermediate office, is entitled "Teach Your Child to Talk."

Expectant parents are also welcome to attend the program.

Refreshments will be served.

The Intermediate Office is located approximately 3 miles south of St. Johns on the east side of US-27, just south of Taft Road.

Clinton Memorial honors Auxiliary

Clinton Memorial Hospital honored the Auxiliary members at a supper March 19. Thirty-five members attended.

Paul McNamara, hospital administrator, talked to the members about the importance of the auxiliary in acting as a liaison between the hospital personnel and the general public. McNamara said "We are only imperfect human beings, subject to many errors, but we hope we can profit by our mistakes. Here is where the auxiliary members can be very important, by conveying to us the public needs and thus assisting us in the betterment of our hospital procedures."

He also spoke of new hospital services, the most important of which is the D.E.K. service which will facilitate quick and accurate diagnosis.

Mrs DeCamp spoke briefly of the hospital's accomplishments and some of the highlights which have received favorable comments.

Following the talks Mrs Roger Feeman called the business meeting to order. Committee chairmen reported that all committees were functioning as usual.

Our corresponding secretary, Mrs Garapetian, has been busy sending "Thank Yous" and "Get Well Messages!"

Mrs Fitzpatrick, a new member, was introduced to the Board. The resignation of Mrs Elizabeth Smith as a board member was accepted with regrets. It was voted that she become an honorary member.

The following amendment to the constitution was presented to the members for their consideration "The Clinton Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Board will consist of not less than 50 members nor more than 70 members". It will be voted on at a later meeting.

Mrs Virgil Zeeb and Mrs Fred Tiedt attended the Southwest District meeting. They felt it was a very worthwhile meeting, bringing forth many new ideas some of which would be for the betterment of our auxiliary if we chose to adopt them. They did feel however, that our chapter's work compared very favorably with that of other chapters in the district.

Mrs Feeman announced 2 future meetings, one April 23, at Delta College and another April 24, at Battle Creek. At this meeting there will be a discussion on diabetes.

A highlight of the year's activities will be a style show and card party May 14 in the high school cafeteria. Dessert will be served following the entertainment.

Tickets are $1.50 and include one year's membership to the Hospital Auxiliary. Tickets are on sale and may be purchased from any member. For further information contact Mrs Allen Anthes, chairman of the event.

May 11 to 17 is National Hospital Week. The work of the hospital will be publicized and visits will be welcomed.

Fowler PTO meets

The fourth regular meeting of the Fowler PTO was called to order recently by president Donna Holcomb at Fowler High School.

The secretary's report was read and approved.

The treasurer reported receiving donations totaling $18.40 at the previous meeting making our current balance in the checking account $11.62.

The by-laws were discussed. It was moved and seconded to change Article IV, Section III to include a passage indicating that the PTO may make suggestions to the Fowler School Board of Education whenever the PTO has programs or ideas they would like the Board to consider.

The by-laws were then approved.

The nominating committee has been selected and will present its slate of officers at the April meeting.

A school carnival was mentioned and one may be considered for next year.

It was announced that people could now sign up for membership in the PTO. A certificate of membership will be given to each who joins.

The meeting was adjourned and Evelyn Weiland and Tom O'Rourke presented a program on elementary reading and an official explained the new property tax changes.

The next meeting will be April 14.

Music students earn ratings

Five students from St. Johns High School represented the Music Department at the State Solo and Ensemble Festival this past Saturday, March 22 at Olivet College. Receiving First Division Ratings on solos were Rosa Leonard, Violinist; Barb Penix, violist, and Jeanine Wood, Piccolo. Jeannie Parker received a second division rating on her cello solo.

Joining Rosa, Barb and Jeannie to form a string quartet was Steve Holbrook, a violinist. This group received a second division rating.

To be eligible to participate in the State Festival, these students received a First Division Rating at the District Festival held last February.

Alpha Eta Chapter meets

The Alpha Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met March 12 with president, Etta Smith presiding.

Twenty-eight members responded to roll call.

It was voted to present a gift to our guest speakers to show our appreciation for their services.

The "Golden Gift Fund" was discussed. It was suggested each chapter donate $1 per member. Action will be taken at a later date.

The present recipient of the Alpha Eta Scholarship Fund, Cynthia Radefnacher, is to be invited to speak at our next meeting. For twelve years the chapter has been granting annually a scholarship to a high school girl entering the teaching profession. It lends financial support and encouragement to the girls.

The Scholarship Memorial Fund was discussed. It was decided that under certain circumstances $15 would be donated to the fund in lieu of roses.

The business meeting was followed by a program. The theme was "Expanding Personal Involvement" and consisted of slides picturing Delta Kappa Gamma founders, the 1974-75 officers at the Seattle Convention, and the Navaho Community College. Each member presented a short sketch of her educational background, teaching experiences, family etc. Each was also given an envelope with directions for various activities to cover a five-weeks span.

A highlight of the evening was a fifty-fifty drawing or the "Deflated Dollar". Jane Knight was the recipient of $12.

The next meeting will be held April 9 at the Community Room of the Central National Bank in St. Johns.

Dinstbier now Rutledge

Lissa Jean Dinstbier of Lansing, daughter of Mr and Mrs Edward Dinstbier of 5307 W. Price Rd, St. Johns, was married to Steve Rutledge March 1. He is the son of Douglas Rutledge and Betty Soule.

The 3 pm double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev Robertson at People's Church.

Cynthia Lee Cooke and Andrew Phillips were the couple's attendants. A reception held at the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding ceremony. The couple plan to make their home in Lansing.

25th anniversary

Mr and Mrs Floyd H. Foerch of 4307 N. Wacousta Rd, Rt 1, Fowler, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary April 3.

Floyd and the former Virginia Green were married April 3, 1950 in Columbia, S. Carolina, while he was in the US Army. He is a veteran of WW II and Korea. He retired from the Army March 1, 1965 after 24 years of service. He is the past post commander of VFW 3733 in Fowler.

Floyd is employed by Saylor-Beall Mfg Co, in St Johns.

The couple have 1 daughter, Mrs Steve (Sandra) Thelen of rural Muir, and 2 grandchildren.

50th anniversary

Marion Jones and the former Lucile Valentine were married March 20, 1925, in Wacousta. They lived in Riley Twp for the first 28 years of their married lives and moved to their home at 4873 Burt Ave, Grand Ledge, 22 years ago.

Friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend the celebration.

Former Riley Twp residents, Marion and Lucile Jones are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house April 6.

The event will be held from 2-5 pm at the United Methodist Church in Wacousta and will be hosted by the couple's 3 children and 8 grandchildren.

Kansas group to sing

Charonia, an 8-member worship team from Hesston College, will provide a program of singing and personal testimony at Bethel Mennonite Church on Monday, March 31, at 7:30 pm. The singers come from six states and are students at Hesston College, Hesston, KS. The school is a Junior College, owned and operated by the Mennonite Church. The group is giving twelve programs in Missouri; Illinois; Indiana; and Michigan. Their name "Charonia" is derived from two Greek words: Charonia, meaning fellowship, and Chara, meaning joy. These combined form "Charonia", or "fellowship of joy". It is their purpose and desire to extend the fellowship of joy to those they meet and worship with. The public is invited. The church is located 10 miles north of St Johns on US-27.

MRS DENNIS VANALLSBURG

Vicki Valentine and Dennis VanAllsburg exchange vows

BANNISTER—On March 22 at Bannister United Methodist Church, Vicki Lynn Valentine and Dennis VanAllsburg said their wedding vows.

The 4:30 pm double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev Rodney Westveer of Hudsonville, where the couple attend college.

Two vases of miniature pink carnations and white pom poms graced the altar as the couple said their vows.

The wedding music was provided by organist Mrs Walter Miller, aunt of the bride, and Thomas Lysenga and Sue Eberhard, who sang and played the guitar.

The bride is the daughter of Robert and Doris Valentine, 8901 Gratiot Rd, Bannister. The groom is the son of Earl and Audrey VanAllsburg of Charlotte Ave, Grand Rapids.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was escorted down the aisle wearing a sheer organza gown of white, featuring a full A-line skirt edged with a wide shirred on flounce which extended into the billowing train.

The finely knife, pleated bodice and wrist length sleeves were accented with narrow ruffled pleating and frosted with tiny seed pearls.

A 3-tier veil of illusion floated from her venice lace trimmed headpiece, also trimmed with tiny seed pearls.

She carried her 11-year-old Bible, which was covered with lace and topped with pink roses, white carnations and baby's breath.

Elizabeth Ensign of Muskegon attended Vicki as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lori Miller, cousin of the bride from Elsie; Cathy Schmidtman, cousin of the bride from Marquette; and Mrs Michael (Wanda) Ruelle, of Ovid. Jodi Rando of Manistee was the flower girl.

Their identical gowns were made by Mrs Robert Homer, the bride's aunt. The gowns had deep velvet bodices and mint green satin brocade flared skirts.

Satin brocade bows with velvet ribbons were worn in their hair. They carried light green carnations, red sweetheart roses with deep green velvet ribbons.

A medium green chiffon over taffeta floor length gown was worn by the mother of the bride. The mother of the groom chose a yellow floor length gown of brushed knit. Both wore corsages of red sweetheart roses with baby's breath.

Larry Sherman of Chicago attended the groom as best man. Mike Miller of Allendale and David and Mark VanAllsburg of Grand Rapids, brothers of the groom, were the groomsmen.

Mr and Mrs Kenneth Swanson of Bannister were the host and hostess at the reception held in the Wesley Center of the church. A buffet supper was served to the 250 friends and relatives attending the celebration.

Serving at the reception were: Mrs Dale Schmidtman of Marquette, Mrs William Rando of Manistee, and Mrs Russell Pope of St Johns, all aunts of the bride.

Brenda Miller, cousin of the bride, attended the guest book. Carrie Miller, cousin of the bride attended the bridal table and Sandra Schmidtman and Donna Hinkley assisted.

The bride left for a honeymoon in the South, wearing a flowered mint green dress. Afterward the couple will be at home at an Allendale apartment.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of Ovid-Elsie High School and the groom is a 1971 graduate of Grand Rapids High School. Both are seniors at Grand Valley State College.

MR & MRS MICHAEL SMITH

Caroline Oberlin and Michael Smith wed

BANNISTER—On March 8 at 4 pm, PFC Caroline Susan Oberlin, daughter of Mr and Mrs Robert Oberlin of Elsie, became the bride of PFC Michael Richard Smith, son of Mrs Mona L. Quadras of Campbell, Calif., and Richard A. Smith of Mt. Shasta, Calif.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Father Thomas M.J. Kowalczyk at St Cyril Catholic Church.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her parents, selected a floor length rayon acetate gown featuring long sleeves trimmed with lace.

Her headpiece was attached to a sheer nylon double tiered full length veil and trimmed with lace. She carried a bouquet of red roses, white carnations and mums.

Andrea Thornton of Elsie, friend of the bride, attended as matron of honor. She wore an apricot gown with a large white hat trimmed with apricot roses and ribbon.

Rose Marie Oberlin, sister of the bride of Grand Rapids, was the maid of honor. She wore a mint green floor length gown with a large mint green hat trimmed with green roses and ribbon. Each attendant carried a bouquet of carnations and mums.

Flower girl, Mary Jo Slowinski, was dressed in a white floor length gown with a matching hat. She carried a basket of flowers.

Attending as best man was Max Thornton of Elsie. Groomsman was Larry Bernath of Elsie. The ushers were Terry Bernath of Elsie, and David Bernath of Lansing. Randy Oberlin, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride chose a light blue floor length knit gown with a lace jacket. She wore a corsage of roses, carnations, and mums. The parents of the groom were not able to attend the wedding.

A reception for 200 guests followed the wedding at the ZCBJ Hall in Bannister. Host and hostess were Mr and Mrs

Bond-Minarik
Mr and Mrs Arthur Bond, 1189 E. Walker Rd, Rt 6, St Johns, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gloria Jean, to Ronald Paul Minarik. He is the son of Mr and Mrs Paul Minarik of Rt 2, St Johns.

The bride-elect is a 1974 graduate of St Johns High School and is presently attending Lansing Community College. She is employed by Parr's Pharmacy.

The prospective bridegroom is a senior at St Johns High School, expecting to be graduated in 1975. He is employed by McDonald's.

The couple plan a Sept. 6th wedding.

Joe Bernath, aunt and uncle of the bride.

Yvonne Ortiz attended the guest book and Mrs Robert Kridner served the punch. Mrs Jake Kopchitz and Mrs Frank Bernath cut and served the cake, which was baked and decorated by Mrs Mary Krol.

Frank Oberlin, grandfather of the bride, was a special guest attending the celebration.

The couple are residing in Faurndau, Germany where they have an 18 month tour of duty with the US Army.

Schneiders celebrate 50th

Mr and Mrs Walter Schneider, 1047 Andrus, Lansing, formerly of Fowler, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, April 6, with an open house and buffet supper reception.

The event, hosted by their children, will be held from 2:30 pm until 5:30 pm at St Gerald Hall, 4333 W. Willow, Lansing.

A special mass will be celebrated in their honor Sunday, April 6 at 1:30 pm at Holy Cross Catholic Church. Relatives and friends are invited to help them celebrate.

The couple were married Feb 10, 1925 at Holy Trinity Church, Fowler. They have 3 children and 9 grandchildren.

Liaison to visit

Congressman Elford A. Cederberg's liaison man, Ronald W. Stolz, will be visiting the Clinton County Courthouse in St Johns on Tuesday, April 1 from 11 am to 12 noon.

Ride a bike? Read this

DEWITT -- While walking down Main St., have you ever been the victim of a hit and run bicyclist?

Or have you had to step over bicycles that had been carelessly "parked" on their sides.

If so, then you will be happy to hear that DeWitt City Council is trying to ease your inconveniences and increase your safety with bicycle ordinance No. 79.

The ordinance requires registration with the DeWitt police department, sets up rules and regulations for cyclists, to follow and penalizes if those rules are violated.

Licenses will cost 50 cents and expire every 2 years. Before licenses are issued, each bicycle will go through an inspection to determine if it is safe and has the required equipment.

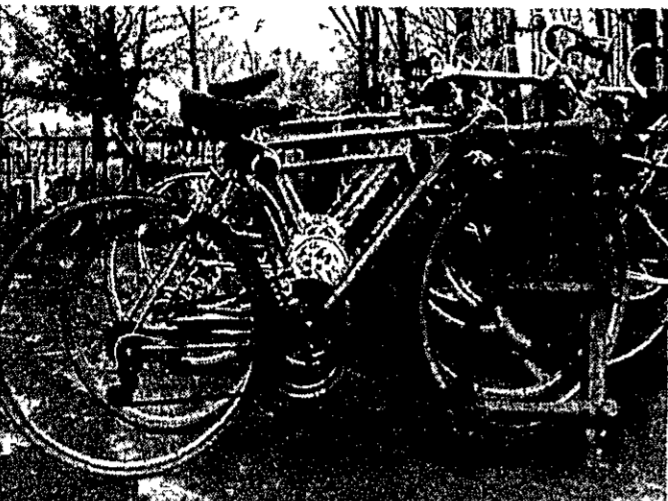

The ordinance applies to any pedal vehicle including ones with helper motors rates less than 1 brake horsepower transmitted by friction and not by gear or chain which produce speeds up to a maximum of 20 miles per hour.

Licenses will go on sale at the Fuerstenau Elementary School on April 26. Policemen will be there to inspect the bicycles, give out brochures on bicycle safety and answer any questions children or their parents may have.

After that date licenses can be purchased at the DeWitt City Hall, 414 E. Main St, 8 am - 5 pm Monday through Friday.

Four things are required for These bicycles are among an estimated 700 in DeWitt which will soon require licensing by the city. Licenses will go on sale April 26 at the Fuerstenau Elementary School. After that date they can be purchased for 50¢ at the City Hall, 414 E. Main St from 8-5 pm Monday through Friday.

registration: a red reflector on the rear of the bike; a reflector on each side of the bike; a safety flag mounted on the rear; and a bell or other device audible for at least 100 feet.

If the cyclist wants to ride at night a light on the front of the bike is also required.

The bicycle must also meet several safety regulations before it will be issued a license.

DeWitt police chief Wendell D. Myers said the ordinance would make his job easier in several ways.

"First in safety. We want to make children more knowledgeable of the rules of the road and traffic, signs and signals."

The second is registration of the bicycles. This will aid the department in the recovery of lost or stolen bicycles, Myers said.

A third way the ordinance will help is in the area of pedestrian safety.

Bicycles will have to be parked against a building or on a rack which the city is in the process of obtaining. This will aid in keeping the sidewalks clear for the pedestrians, the chief said.

Bicycles that travel at night will be required to have a light.

"We have had too many near-miss accidents reported where the driver of a car almost hits a child on a bicycle with no light," he said.

Myers added that before the ordinance there were no rules on the books to cover bicycles. The ordinance provides for a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment for not more than 90 days or both for anyone violating the ordinance.

The police department is also authorized to issue traffic citations to bicyclists breaking any of the rules and regulations in the ordinance.

Myers said about 1,000 licenses have been ordered and he expects to register 700-800 this year.

The chief said some citizens had questioned the need of a safety flag, which is required to be placed on the rear of the bike.

Myers explained that the flag is for the benefit of the drivers who, for one reason or another, are unable to see children on bicycles.

The flag will be an aid, for example, when children on smaller bicycles dart between parked cars.

The drivers of cars will be able to see the safety flag when they are going up one side of a hill while a bike is going up the other side.

In both instances the flag will be seen before the driver sees the bicyclist.

The ordinance gives the police department the authorization to impound any bicycle not licensed with the city, but Myers said the owners would first be given the chance to obtain a license.

"We will try to contact the persons owning the bikes first to advise them of the ordinance. If no one can be located, we will impound the bike and then go from there," he said.

Jaycees announce date for Easter Egg Hunt

The DeWitt Area Jaycees are sponsoring an Easter Egg Hunt for boys and girls in the area who are ages 8 and under.

The hunt will be Saturday, March 29, at 10:30. In case of rain, the hunt will be Saturday, April 5, at 10:30 am.

All children are to meet in the parking lot by the DeWitt Middle School.

Children will be divided into 2 age groups—age 5 and under and age 6-8.

Parents are asked to take their children and enjoy watching them hunt for the 400 candy filled eggs. One child will find a 1-pound chocolate rabbit.

DeWitt showing Olivet restoration pictures

DEWITT -- If 1 picture tells a story, then a series of pictures must tell many.

The DeWitt Bi-Centennial Commission is showing a traveling exhibition of pictures—entitled "Olivet Regained" which tells the story of the city's 3-year struggle to restore and renovate the downtown buildings.

Marilyn Coin displays 1 of Olivet Regained paintings.

The venture was gained through minimum expense with the help of volunteers and professionals.

The exhibit of 35 place cards, consists of large photographs, many in color, drawings and before and after studies of the work that was done.

This will be the first showing of the display which has been booked up all year around.

The public can view the display until April 6 at the City Hall from 8 am until 5 pm, Monday through Friday. Selected pictures will be on

Cooperative nursery sets round-up

The DeWitt Cooperative Nursery School will be conducting a Registration Roundup for 4-year-olds who wish to start nursery school in September, 1975.

The Roundup will be held Tuesday, April 8, at 10 am at Hope Lutheran Church.

The DeWitt Cooperative Nursery School is a non-denominational, equal opportunity, non-profit organization.

Recover stolen property

OVID - An investigation by the Clinton County Sheriff's Dept. following a breaking and entering at Ovid, has resulted in the recovery of several stolen items.

A breaking and entering was reported March 20 at the home of John Valkko, 235 E. High, Ovid, who was on vacation at the time.

At the time, reported stolen were a stereo set, barometer, 2 radios, electric clock, clothes hamper and a movie screen.

The subsequent investigation resulted in the apprehension of 3 juveniles, 2 from Ovid and the other from Shiawassee County.

Recovered, in addition to the reported stolen items, were a movie camera, tires, projector, battery charger, coins, pencil sharpener, power grinder, grinding set, 23 rolls of movie film, ring and a key chain.

The 3 juveniles are to be petitioned in Probate Court.

Girl Scouts and Brownies celebrate first anniversary

The Elsie Girl Scouts and Brownies held their first Mother-Daughter Coffee on Thursday, March 13 at the E.E. Knight Elementary School cafeteria with 120 people in attendance.

Centering the dessert-table was a lovely cake made and decorated by Mrs Fern King. It was oblong and of top had two diamond shaped squares - one representing the Girl Scouts in their colors of green and yellow with two Girl Scouts on top with their insignia and the other one representing the Brownies in the colors of brown and orange with two Brownies on top with their insignia. This was served, along with an assortment of jello, punch and coffee after the program.

Mrs Denise Frye, organizer of the local group, was guest announcer. All the Girl Scouts and Brownies did the opening Flag Ceremony. The guests introduced were: Mrs Lois Love, Service Unit Director of 104; Brooke Wiseman, Program Director from Michigan Capitol Girl Scout Council; and Robert Frye, a sponsor.

The sponsors of each troop were honored and thanked by the girls for donating a United States flag to each troop. The sponsors are Starbird Oil, Robert Frye; Eastlick Heating, Gary Eastlick; Smith's Party Store, Gary and Sue Smith and the Elsie PTA.

Brooke Wiseman spoke on the camping program that will be available for the Girl Scouts and Brownies this summer.

Each troop, decorated their own tables, participated in the program and received awards.

Troop 92, with Leaders Joanne Ebert and Mary Grubaugh, decorated their tables with a Brownie girl and three Brownie Elves representing, "Be Friends-makers," "Be Discoverers" and "Be Readyhelpers" and with items that the girls had made. They sang the Smile

Song with Troop 241 with Lori Bates and Susan Betts accompanying them on the guitars.

The girls receiving first year Membership Stars are Joann Grubaugh, Debra Ebert, Christine Fox, Carrie Clark, Kathleen Mills, Penny Jc MacLennan, Cindy Kennell, Janelle Fatura, Traci Geiger, Brenda Nicholas, Janice Houka, Becky Solez, Angela Mitosinka and Tammy Woten.

Troop 241 decorated their tables with a St. Patrick Theme, using a centerpiece of Top O' the Morning with shamrock, pickie nut cups. Their leaders are Jane Betts and Janet Cook. These girls also received first-year Membership Stars: Susan Betts, Renee Ebert, Susan Cook, Michele Conklin, Julie Ann Warren, Pamela Perrin, Jennifer Godwin, Holly Marsh, Melissa Jones, Jeanne Grubaugh, Erika Chriswell, Bethany Marx, Lori Bates and Kim Schulz.

Troop 90 with leaders Sue Santruck and Esther Mason decorated their table with a centerpiece of a Brownie figure, nutcups of yellow with little Brownies glued on them. The girls put on a puppet show, "The Brownie Story" using hand puppets they had made.

The girls that received their first year Membership Stars were: Kim Alexander, Tina Bremer, Jan Fineout, Sheila Linthier, Sue Leavitt, Lori Mason, Jessica Reymor, Bonnie Rosekrans, Christine Santruck and Michelle Webster.

Girl Scouts Troop 225 tables were trimmed in green crepe paper with Girl Scout Troplets with Girl Scout badges arranged around them. All girls received their first year Membership pins besides the badges they earned. The girls and their badges are: Teresa Barton, Health Aid, Needle Craft and Pen Pal; Tammy Harmon, Home Health, Safety and Sign of the Star; Michelle Betts, Health Aid, Needle Craft; Mary Bearup, Health Aid and Needle Craft; Lynn Eastlick, Health Aid and My Home; Brenda Sipka, Health Aid and Needle Craft; Jamie Fatura, Health Aid and Needle Craft; Tina Barton, Jeanne Leavitt, Tonja Lentz, Vickie Forback, Becky Sloat, Christina Fineout, Christina Roldan, Dawn Green, all received the Health Aid Badge, Holly White and Shirley Himes received their Membership pins. Paula Clark was welcomed as a new member of the troop. The leaders of Troop 225 are Helena Eastlick, Jill Sloat and Kay Pardee.

The program closed with the Brownies and Girl Scouts doing the Flag Ceremony with Taps.

Cub Scouts hold cake auction

The March pack meeting of the Elsie Cub Scouts was held at the Cafeteria of the E.E. Knight Elementary School Sunday, March 16.

The opening flag ceremony was presented by Den 4 with Den Mother, Mrs Virginia Warren.

Ernie Bywater will act as Cubmaster the remainder of the year. Bywater announced that the Cub Scouts will go to St. Johns roller skating on Wednesday, March 26 at 7 pm.

Awards chairman Gary Smith, presented the Bobcat Badge to William Chapko.

March program was the Father-Son Cake Bake Sam

Sherwood of Ovid was the auctioneer in selling the cakes. The boys were given the chance to auction off their own cake with his help, but only Harold Dunham took his offer. The fathers and sons are to be congratulated on their cakes.

A special decorated cake was presented to Mr and Mrs Sherwood. It was made by Mrs Brenda Parker.

The closing ceremony, "Law of the Pack" was presented by Den 4.

Refreshments were served by the parents of Den 4.

The April pack meeting will be Sunday, April 27 at 2 pm at the E.E. Knight School.

Apprehend juvenile and 2 adults

ST. JOHNS - A juvenile has been turned over to Probate Court following an alleged breaking and entering and 2 men have been arrested for possession of the stolen property.

The incident was reported to have occurred March 17 when Yogi's Shell Station, at the corner of M-21 and Hollister Rd, was broken into and taken were 3 watches, jackknives, a flashlight and cigarette lighter. Charged with possession of stolen property were James E. Ornelas, 21, 128 E. High, Ovid, and Thomas J. Taylor, 19, 8542 E. Price Rd, Laingsburg.

Taylor entered a plea of not guilty and was released on $500 bond.

Ornelas appeared before District Judge Frederick Lewis and entered a plea of guilty. He received 45 days in the County Jail in addition to 45 more days on a charge of violating parole and another 30 days on a charge of drunk and disorderly.

Arresting officers in the case were Arthur Hopp and Richard May, detective sergeants with the Clinton County Sheriff's Dept.

Who pays for living expenses (elsewhere) while they repair your home?

Most policies provide the coverages you expect - fire, lightning, storms, riots, vandalism and the like. They cover the cost of repairs due to these losses. But have you thought about the cost of living elsewhere if your home has to be repaired or rebuilt? It could run into hundreds of dollars. Or, it could be covered in black and white in our Homeowners Policy, so we would pay those extra living expenses! Give us a call. We'll put your home insurance all together in one policy for convenience and saving's sake.

88th District Report by Stanley Powell State Representative

In an attempt to cut down Michigan's big welfare error rate, state welfare director John Dempsey has urged local prosecutors to institute a short-term moratorium on new prosecutions of welfare fraud cases. He hopes this will encourage people who are receiving welfare payments illegally to come forward and admit their transgressions without fear of penalty.

So far, at least two counties have instituted such an amnesty program - Kalamazoo and Gratiot.

The point here is not to send people to jail because they're getting more than they should from the welfare system. After all, it appears they've only taken advantage - sometimes inadvertently - of loopholes and sometimes inefficient administration of welfare rules.

The point is to try to reduce Michigan's welfare error rate. The Federal government has already started to cut off funds to Michigan because we haven't been able to bring our error rate down to levels Uncle Sam calls "acceptable". So the people who are getting too much, or who are getting payments when they don't deserve them, are still continuing to do so. And there's just that much less to go around to the people who genuinely need public assistance.

Hopefully, this program approved under Republican sponsorship and support last year, will provide financial incentive for farmers and other landowners to keep more of the land available for cultivation. I realize the attractions and occasional necessities of selling out to developers at high prices. But as we build more and more homes and apartments to accommodate more and more people, will we also have enough land to grow the food to feed them?

WILL MICHIGAN GET RAILROADED?

America, and Michigan, grew to economic greatness on a vigorous network of rail transportation. Due to various abuses of the public trust, the railroads came to be heavily regulated over the years. So when cars and trucks came into their own as alternative transportation, the railroads just couldn't compete. Many have gone into bankruptcy, and their equipment has fallen into disrepair.

Now, after years of attention to highway transportation, the Federal government has come up with a plan to restore and revive America's system of rail freight transportation. But as the plan now stands, Michigan would lose more than a thousand miles of rail lines, and that would be an economic disaster for the state. (We certainly don't need any more of those).

The proposed ConRail system for the country would take over some bankrupt trackage for renovation and abandon the rest, if Federal subsidies were not available for that other trackage. Michigan has only 10 percent of the total bankrupt track under consideration, but as things now stand we would be forced to abandon 19 percent of the total track being eliminated in the entire nation!

The US Railway Association, organizer of ConRail, has not said why this should be, but I suspect it's because of our state's peculiar situation. That is, many of our rail lines run from small communities down to main lines in the southern part of the state, which in turn connect with lines to the other parts of the country. Because we are almost surrounded by water, there is naturally no rail traffic passing through north and central Michigan on its way to other states.

But many of these rail lines are vital to the economic well-being of farming communities in Michigan. The Director of the

TAX BREAKS FOR OPEN LAND

It seems there have been so many apartment buildings, townhouses and shopping centers going up in what used to be farmland that you may have asked yourself, "Where will it all end?"

Last year the Legislature recognized this problem and passed a measure to help preserve agricultural and open space land. Under this act, farmers and landowners can contract to keep their land in its present condition in exchange for certain tax breaks.

The Office of Land Use of the Department of Natural Resources has now put forth rules to implement this law. These rules were recently approved by the Joint Administrative Rules Committee of the House and Senate.

The prescribed procedure is: a landowner may obtain an application from his local unit of government, the Farm Bureau, or by mail from the DNR Land Use Office. The local unit of government must then rule on the landowner's request; the Land Use Office makes the final determination.

truck. Particularly these days, we cannot ask farmers to shoulder these extra costs.

One solution to this problem would be to provide Michigan subsidies to operate the bankrupt rail lines, without waiting for possible Federal subsidies. Such subsidies were a part of the $1.1 billion transportation bond issue which was defeated by the voters last November.

In the meantime, Governor Milliken and US Senator Robert Griffin are working hard to make sure that Michigan does not get short-changed in the rail reorganization. You can be sure that, whenever and wherever it's possible, I will work to do the same.

Senators take reins of plan for horseman's committee

In an attempt to provide Michigan's vast number of horsemen and women with a means of communication between themselves and the State, two state senators have championed their cause in the Michigan Legislature.

Senators Dick Allen and Gary Byker have sponsored a Concurrent Resolution urging the appointment of a statewide horseman's committee. The Committee would review and analyze problems related to the non-racing horse industry. The Committee would be comprised of five horsemen from the United Michigan Horsemen and six horsemen recommended by the Michigan Horse Council.

"Considering the fact that there are an estimated 250,000 horses in Michigan, most of which are pleasure horses, we feel it's time that they were heard," Allen commented. "We presently have no state personnel whose duties are devoted to the non-racing horse industry."

"Over $300 million a year is contributed to Michigan's economy by the non-racing horse industry," Byker added. "This is no small amount. And it is projected that by 1985 there will be over 400,000 horses in the state. Projecting the dollar value of this many horses over ten years equates to quite a bundle for the state's economy."

Both senators are from areas which have a heavy population of horse owners. And both agree that this industry should be developed as a potential tourist attraction.

It is recommended in the Resolution that the Horsemen's Committee complete its study and submit a final summary of recommendations, including suggested programs and pertinent legislation, by December 1, 1975.

Federal Land Bank holds annual meeting

An overflow crowd attended the annual meeting of the Federal Land Bank Association of St. Johns recently.

The meeting, held in the Masonic Building, was called to order by president, Cecil Roberts of Breckenridge. He welcomed those present and introduced Robert Darling, manager of the association who certified that each of the 1,253 stockholders were mailed notices of the annual meeting according to corporate law. Darling appointed office assistant Eytzel Spiller recording secretary for the meeting.

Gary LaMo, manager of the Coruna Branch presented the minutes of the 1974 meeting. Roberts introduced the board members: William Hufnagel, vice president, from Fowler; Harvey Chamberlin, Owsoso; R. Lee Ormston, St. Johns; Ed Ritter, Byron; John Sebesla, stockholder, and Larry DeVogel, of Ithaca.

Darling introduced his staff and several guests and then related highlights about 1974 farming and predictions for 1975.

Roberts gave a history of the St. Johns association. James Bolton, manager of the Ithaca branch, gave a resume on the association financial and operational business for 1974. He stated the office had 1,253 shareholders in Clinton, Grafton, and Shiawassee Counties at the close of the 1974 business year with an outstanding volume of well over $31 Million.

Phil Roberts, acting as chairman of the nominating committee in the absence of Glenn Weaver who was ill, introduced Steve Janick and Francis Thelen, the other members of the Committee.

They placed in nomination those running for the three year terms. William Hufnagel, Cecil Roberts and Harvey Chamberlin were declared elected. James George, Fowler; Dick Davis, Middleboro, and William Spake of Owsoso were elected to the nominating committee, and David Morris, Grand Lodge and Ken Haughton, Owsoso were elected alternates.

Loren Mueller, field representative, assisted by office assistants Barbara Davis and Mary Ebert, presided over the drawing of the door prizes. Don Fisher won the portable TV, Darrell Martin and Diane McAlvery won calculators.

Director R. Lee Ormston introduced Marie Wopmans and Jeanette Mehney, who presented the program "Ins and Outs of Today's Farming."

Receive tree farm award

By Orville Beachler
Soil Conservation Technician

Phyllis and Orlando Andersland of 901 Woodingham Drive in East Lansing are shown receiving their Tree Farm Award from Forester Fred Wuerthele of the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. The Anderslands own a 4-acre woodlot in Section 30 of Lebanon Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Andersland received the award for agreeing to follow approved management practices for maximum production of timber from their woodlot. Forester Wuerthele "cruised" the woodlot with them and recommended various management practices that they should follow such as thinning, pruning and removal of low value and defoliated trees.

The tree farm sign has been awarded to several landowners in Clinton County in the past. If you have a woodlot that you would like to have the District Forester look at to make a management recommendation, contact Fred Wuerthele at the Rose Lake Experiment Station, Route #1, East Lansing.

TCRPC head asks for side truck on rail pull-out

Herbert D. Maier, Executive Director of the Tri-County Regional Planning Commission (TCRPC) asked federal rail planners to sidetrack the proposed abandonment of Penn Central's line from Lansing to Saginaw.

Testifying before the Interstate Commerce Commission's rail hearing in Lansing, Maier urged the line be maintained by the Conrail system or purchased by the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad.

Maier suggested aggressive marketing of rail service, and the continued operation of unprofitable lines by Conrail, solvent lines or subsidy until actual costs can be determined.

After a three year subsidy program, Conrail could reevaluate and abandon unprofitable lines. "These could be picked up by solvent lines or operated by short-line railroads," he said.

"Tri-County planners also recommended that the United States Railway Association (USRA) give further consideration to the abandonment of Penn Central's River Junction to Grand Rapids line.

Stations along this line within the Tri-County region include Eaton Rapids, Charlotte, and Vermontville. Eaton Rapids received a reprieve when USRA modified its original plan and added the City to the Conrail system.

"Firms located along the Tri-County portion of this route have projected about a 25% increase in their use of rail service by 1980 if necessary improvements are made. Further, the paper and agricultural products produced by these firms put them in industries suggested for rate

Cederberg criticizes railway group plans

Congressman Clifford "Al" Cederberg (R-Midland) in hearings before the Interstate Commerce Commission sharply criticized the Preliminary Rail Reorganization Plan recently distributed by the United States Railway Association.

Cederberg said he cannot endorse a plan which would cut the jugular vein of farming and business activity in Central and Northern Michigan.

The hearings, conducted by the Rail Services Planning Office of the ICC, have been held in Lansing and Traverse City to obtain public reaction to the Preliminary System Plan and to gather any relevant information which would be useful in the development of a final system plan.

Cederberg noted that the Preliminary Plan recommends that only 18.2 miles or 4 percent of the 692.8 miles of track be kept running through the 10th Congressional District be included within the public Consolidated Rail Corporation (commonly referred to as Conrail). The track recommended for inclusion in Conrail was the Penn Central line running from Midland to Bay City.

"This plan... would severely limit rail service north of Lansing and west of Bay City," Cederberg warned. The 10th Congressional District covers most of that area.

As he has in previous rail service hearings, Cederberg attacked the USRA's failure to utilize, in the development of its plan, criteria other than profitability for determining the fate of the bankrupt lines.

Congress had instructed the USRA, among other goals, to seek to provide adequate rail service, to maintain as much as possible - the present rail system, and to minimize job losses due to rail abandonments.

Referring to the report, Cederberg pointed out, "There are numerous examples where current, 'sift' projected, rail traffic assumed in the report are grossly inconsistent with the figures reported by the businesses and communities involved." He specifically urged that the USRA reconsider its current recommendation not to include within Conrail the An Arbor line running from Thompsonville to Benzie County to Owsoso. Shawassee County is light of figures provided by rail users which would indicate either current or future profitability for the line.

Cederberg went on to recommend inclusion within Conrail of the Penn Central line running from Gaylord to Bay City. He cited the projected increase of rail service by Champion International and the important major role played by plant and industry in Northern Michigan adequate reason for the continuation of rail service along this line.

Finally, Cederberg urged that the Penn Central line running from Bay City to Saginaw be included in the Conrail. He noted the importance of this line because it carried 1.4 million tons of coal to a Conrail yard in Saginaw without charge. He also served many agriculturally related businesses along the way.

In assessing the USRA's overall approach to this problem, Cederberg criticized the apparently irrational segmentation of rail lines to fit predetermined conclusions. He assailed flagrant disregard of the consequences on businesses, farming, and the communities due to railroad abandonments and called for an economic and social impact statement in the final system plan scheduled for submission to the Congress of July 26. "This is no longer a joking matter... but a problem of serious consequence," Cederberg stated. "I am going to do everything possible to maintain adequate service to Central and Northern Michigan..." Cederberg expressed his hope that the Congress has a good chance of being approved without change. "Cederberg stated, "I want to make it very clear to the Rail Services Planning Office and to my constituents that I am going to do everything possible to maintain adequate service to Central and Northern Michigan..." Cederberg expressed his hope that the Congress has a good chance of being approved without change. "Cederberg stated, "I want to make it very clear to the Rail Services Planning Office and to my constituents that I am going to do everything possible to maintain adequate service to Central and Northern Michigan..."

TO THE EDITOR:

April is Cancer Month

To the Editor: APRIL IS CANCER MONTH. During the month of April, we'll all have a good chance to give that dreaded and ever ruthless disease, CANCER, a real punch in the nose. We have organized a small "army" of wonderful and kind volunteers to canvass the Bath and DeWitt areas, and someone will call at your home this week. Please receive him, or her, kindly, and make your gift a generous one, if possible. We do realize that this is a very tough year for many, and some will just not be able to give, but even a dime helps. One thousand dimes is $100. But whether you give or not, please read the leaflet that the volunteer will leave with you, for in your door should you not be home, flooding its warnings and advice could save your life, or the life of one dear to you. Cancer is not particular about age, race, or sex. No one is immune. And research, under God, is our hope, for a future free from the dread of Cancer. But they need your help. It is wise to close the gate before God is out. I hope, too, that civic clubs, churches and other organizations will distribute "I CARE EMPTY PLATE" pledge and - contribution envelopes in your area.

Thousands overseas are dying of starvation every day. Time is of the essence.

From the Senate

What's the point? What's the point of a fifty-five mile per hour speed limit? On the answer to that question hangs the answer to the questions of whether or not we should assess drivers penalty points for violations of the fifty-five limit so long as they are going slower than the previous limit.

When the limit was first lowered to 55 mph there were some good arguments for the new idea and partly because the lowered for economic reasons, to decrease this country's dependence on foreign oil. Therefore, the penalty should also be strictly economic, a fine but no loss of license through point accumulation.

Now the low speed limit is before us for extension as the original act was a temporary provision. We will vote to keep the 55 mph limit partly because we are convinced it is a good idea and partly because the federal government threatens us with loss of highway funds if we don't.

And we are once again debating points. But the arguments are a little different this time because our experience indicates that 55 mph saves lives. So now the violator is doing more than mere economic damage. He is endangering lives. There also remains that logical argument that a fine is more of a penalty to a poor man than to a richer one. Two weeks ago, following these kinds of logic and a few letters from constituents, I was inclined to support points. As the vote got closer I began to change my mind. Contacts from some men who make their living driving trucks were one factor. They point out that points are a severe economic factor to them since they must drive to make a living. Many of them feel that law enforcement agencies make no attempt to hold traffic to 55 mph but perhaps sometimes may use it to raise revenue by going out and giving a rash of tickets.

I also listened somewhat to the argument that lower accident rates are due to less travel rather than lower speeds.

But since confession is good for the soul, I'm going to tell you what I suspect is the really basic reason for my change of heart. I don't drive 55 mph myself. I have tried but I can't force myself to do it. I drive slower than I used to, but by golly, not 55!

I'm reluctant to vote more severe penalties for a law I can't even force myself to obey!

Announce plan for area substance abuse services

W. Mel Brown, Coordinator, Substance Abuse Control Office, Mid-Michigan District Health Department announces the completion and submission of a first annual Area Comprehensive Plan for Substance Abuse Services in Clinton, Gratiot and Montcalm Counties. This plan identifies service programs, which are now operating in the area and also programs proposed for funding during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1975.

In April 1974, the Mid-Michigan District Health Department was appointed as Coordinating Agency for Alcohol-Drug Abuse Prevention, Treatment and Rehabilitation programs in Clinton, Gratiot and Montcalm Counties.

This appointment was made by the Michigan Department of Public Health, Office of Substance Abuse Services, after the individual county Boards had passed resolutions to approve and endorse this action.

The Health Department has established a Substance Abuse Control Office at the Gratiot County Branch, to administer the responsibilities of planning for and implementing services for the area.

Direct-to-client services will be sub-contracted through agencies other than the Coordinating Public Health Agency due to state guideline restrictions.

The plan is available for review and inspection by an interested party by contacting the Mid-Michigan District Health Department, Substance Abuse Control Office, 204 South Main, Ithaca 48847 or phone 875-2686.

Back Through the Years

From the Clinton County News Files of 1974, 1965, & 1950

ONE YEAR AGO

March 28, 1974
Mrs. Clarence Ebert of 501 South Oakland in St. Johns died Sunday, March 21, at 11:45 am in Clinton Memorial Hospital after a three-month illness. She was 74 years of age.

Miss Emma Louise Keys, 92, a pioneer in Clinton County nursing, died last Thursday in Tucson General Hospital in Tucson, Arizona.

Three more rural school districts voted Saturday to annex to the St. Johns School District and two more elections are scheduled for this Saturday.

A recent Vietnam dispatch from Jim Lucas of the Scripps-Howard newspaper gives much credit to US Air Force Lt. Clare Eaton of St. Johns. Lt. Eaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Eaton, directed an air strike against Long Truong. "There were at least 100 Viet Cong," the dispatch quotes Eaton as saying, "and we got two-thirds of them."

The Clinton County 4-H organization's annual Spring Achievement Show will be staged next week, with 892 youngsters displaying their skills and knowledge for the public at Smith Hall.

A new nine-room elementary school for Ashley is in the planning stages, and an election on a $218,000 bond issue for its construction will be called if the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission approves.

TEN YEARS AGO

March 25, 1965
An early morning collision, Tuesday, at the US-27 - State Rd intersection took the life of a 64-year-old Lansing man. An East Lansing State Police spokesman said William Ezra Johns, of 411 Brandywine, stopped at the intersection's flashing red light, then pulled out and was struck by a north-bound semi-truck driven by 48-year-old Everett Elias Johnson of Melvindale.

Attempts by 2 cable television firms to obtain a franchise in the city of St. Johns have not been met with exactly overwhelming success.

A large number of Clinton County Democrats attended their March County Committee Meeting held Monday evening at the County Bldg. in St. Johns. Plans were drawn up for the 2nd annual Clinton - Shiawassee "Meet the Candidate" fund raiser.

An enlarged clubhouse and expanded golfing facilities are in store for the Clinton County Country Club. The board of directors is seeking proposals from 2 design firms, which would lead to a building program later this year.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. George E. Wahl attended a reception for them at the Steel Hotel Sunday afternoon. The Wahls will leave St. Johns April 1 for Eau Claire, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jopke and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Palmer arranged the reception.

Though Clinton County roads promise to be in the worst condition this spring that they have been in some time, it won't do us any good to get steamed up about it. County and city road crews can do nothing at the present time to alleviate the condition of the city streets and rural roads. This is the third break-up so far this year and many country roads are nearly impassable already.

Three small children were rescued and a fireman was injured in a Bingham Twp fire. Friday, Mrs. Phillip Gillespie, aroused by the smell of smoke, found the single story frame house ablaze, and managed to rush her children to safety.

Dr. R.E. Benson announced today that he would be a candidate for state representative from Clinton County at the Republican primary next September. Dr. Benson will make his bid for the seat left vacant by the death of the late John P. Espie, of Eagle.

Synopsis of March meeting held March 10, 1975. All Board members present except Leon Garlock.

Agenda approved. Minutes and Treasurer's report approved.

Bills read and ordered paid. Helen Reck, Vaughn Montgomery and Donald Garlock re-elected to 3 year term on Planning Commission.

Supervisor informed the Board that the Township bid was the only one presented for the former Wacousta School, and it had been accepted by the Grand Ledge School Board.

Planning Commission report given by Vaughn Montgomery stating that the Planning Commission are working on restrictions for the landfill.

Supervisor showed Board blue prints drawn by Mark Horning for the plantings around Veteran's Memorial in the Wacousta Cemetery.

Mrs. Lora Beth Fitzgerald requested permission to attend April Board meeting to present contract for our citizens to use Grand Ledge Library.

Meeting adjourned. Mildred F. McDonough, Clerk Herman F. Openlander, Supervisor

"If It Fitz . . . Champagne or garbage?"

Editor, Lapeer County Press

by Jim Fitzgerald

[Jim Fitzgerald is vacationing. This column was first published 12 years ago. It is repeated at the request of a reader who wondered when the romance first went out of Fitz's marriage.]

Used to be I sent my domestic problems to Ann Landers for solution. But now I save stamps by getting advice from Helen Welch, the County Press Women's Editor.

For instance, I recently celebrated a wedding anniversary. So did my wife. We celebrated together because a friend asked us both out to dinner. It's a good thing Pat was invited too, because I'd have felt bad leaving her home with only 4 children to remind her of the joys of marriage.

ONSUCH occasions I like to give Pat 3 gifts. One big, one little, and one medium.

For the big gift I stayed home from the American Legion Stag Party which the boys staged on our anniversary in a sincere attempt to cause trouble.

For the medium gift I bought Pat a new garbage disposal. It doesn't make half as much noise as the old one as it grinds bones and silverware.

The small gift had me stumped until someone walked through the office carrying a perfectly handsome plastic garbage pail he'd bought at the hardware.

I WONDERED aloud if maybe Pat wouldn't love a pail like that? Or would that be too much emphasis on garbage for one anniversary?

The Women's Editor commented that she couldn't see anything very romantic about garbage. I replied I had been married 6 years and spent a lot more time carrying out garbage than I did being romantic.

Helen said she'd been married a lot longer than that and if her husband ever gave her a garbage can on their anniversary she would dump him in it.

So I asked what Mr. Welch usually gave Helen as an anniversary gift.

"ONE ROSE," she said.

Well. To this unromantic soul one rose sounds like 11 less than a dozen. But what do I know? Not much, as our wife, Helen Welch, Ann Landers, and most any other female could tell you.

My conscience twinged. I mixed the garbage pail and sought a more stars-in-your-eyes substitute. I went out and bought a bottle of pink champagne. "Honey," I said as I entered the house, "chill a couple of old peanut butter jars. We are going to toast our 6 years of wedding bliss with real, bubbly champagne."

I'll tell you, that girl was surprised. And ashamed. She was dressed more for accepting a garbage can. Somehow her plaid slacks and old bowling shirt didn't seem right for such a romantic remembrance.

UNDAUNTED, I continued to play Charles Boyer. In the movies the champagne bottle is always surrounded by ice in a bucket. So I got a bucket, being careful to remove a mop head and a bar of Fels-Naptha.

While I cooled the liquid, Mother chased the kids outside and locked both doors. Yelling brats with running feet and noses, don't mix with pink champagne.

I'd always wondered if those corcks really POPPED! They do. By the time the decks were swabbed, the kids were back in the house. They were hungry. Which reminded mother she'd better get the meat loaf and potatoes out of the oven before they burned.

By this time the news had spread around the neighborhood that Old Jim brought home a romantic gift. My sister-in-law and her daughter came over to see if it could be true. The phone began ringing and a man came to the door selling magazine subscriptions.

I FINALLY GOT some champagne poured and raised my glass to salute my dear wife who had her head in the oven. Eddie bumped me and I spilled the drink.

Finally I grabbed Pat, dragged her to the couch, stuck a glass in her hand and said:

"By gosh, drink this romantic stuff. It's our anniversary. You're lucky I didn't bring you home a plastic garbage pail."

"Gee," she said. "Do you mean the kind with the top that locks on? I sure would love one. The top is broke on our old one and the dogs keep getting into it."

Well. That was the end of Charles Boyer in our home. I hope the hardware gift-wraps those garbage pails for Christmas.

TO THE EDITOR:

Advocates using James Couzens building in Bath

A note to the citizens of Bath:

There seems to be some discussion still going on in regards to the old James Couzens Bldg. on Main St. in Bath. I hold no truly sentimental feelings for the school, for I attended school in Flint.

But Don and our three sons all attended school in that building. But from a practical standpoint - it's a very pleasant building. We worked in it all last fall, working on the "seed project" under Dr. Hal Bergan's direction - of Bootstrap (International) Inc. This project could add so much to the lives of the senior citizens. If you love a garden, you'd love working on the seeds. But it takes space to store a ton - or 5 ton of seeds, and more space to sort them. It includes children, Scouts, 4-H, etc. It could include garden clubs and all, and it was so pleasant working in the rooms in the old school - spacious - and perfect.

Also, the American Cancer Society (Bath area) needs a place to store their cancer closet equipment. Equipment that can be loaned out to cancer patients who need it. It would include hospital beds, wheel chair, etc. How perfect if we could use just one room in the old school for this storage.

I love to read and used to be a permanent resident in the Flint library. It isn't easy to get to Lansing always - wouldn't it be great to just go to the library - here in Bath. It could happen someday.

Those rooms could have so many uses - practical and helpful. Bath is a lovely town, and only we, the citizens, can make it better. Let's improve - not destroy!

Hopefully,
Mrs. Don Allen, Jr.

Opposition is sure proof that you're on the right track.

Section 1. Definitions.
 "Bicycle" means every device, propelled by human power upon which any person may ride, having 2 tandem wheels. It includes pedal bicycles with helper motors rated less than 1 brake horsepower transmitted by friction and not by gear or chain, which produce only ordinary pedaling speeds up to a maximum of 20 miles per hour.

"City" means the City of DeWitt, Michigan.
 "Police Department" means the Police Department of the City of DeWitt, its officers and employees.

Section 2. Parent/Guardian Responsibility. The parent of any child and the guardian of any ward shall not authorize or knowingly permit any such child or ward to violate any of the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 3. License Requirement. No person who resides within the City shall ride or propel a bicycle on any City street or upon any property open to the public within the City, including a bicycle path, unless the bicycle is licensed and a license tag is visibly attached to the bicycle.

Section 4. Application for License. Application for a bicycle license shall be made upon a form provided for such purpose by the City of DeWitt and shall be made at the office of its Police Department.

Section 5. Issuance of License. The Police Department, upon receiving a proper application for a bicycle license, and upon payment of the licensing fee shall register the bicycle, and is authorized to issue a bicycle license if the bicycle is in condition suitable for operation.

Section 6. Bicycle Inspection. The Police Department shall inspect each bicycle before licensing it, and shall refuse to license any bicycle which is determined to be in unsafe mechanical condition or is not equipped properly.

Section 7. Required Bicycle Equipment.
 a. Every bicycle when in use at night time shall be equipped with a lamp on the front which shall emit a white light visible from a distance of at least 500 feet to the front, with a red reflector on the rear which shall be visible from all distances from 50 feet to 300 feet to the rear when directly in front of lawful upper beams of head lamps on a motor vehicle, and with a reflector on each side of the bicycle. A lamp emitting a red light visible from a distance of 500 feet to the rear may be used in addition to the red reflector. Every bicycle in use shall also have a safety flag mounted on the rear.

b. No persons shall operate a bicycle unless it is equipped with a bell or other device capable of giving a signal audible for a distance of at least 100 feet, except that such vehicles shall not be equipped with nor shall any person use upon such vehicles any siren or whistle.

c. Every bicycle shall be equipped with a brake which will enable the operator to make the braked wheels skid on dry, level, clean pavement.

Section 8. Issuance of Certificate of Registration and License Tags. Upon its issuance of a bicycle license the City of DeWitt Police Department shall furnish the owner with a registration certificate and a license tag bearing the license number assigned to the bicycle, and shall attach the tag to the bicycle for which issued in such position as to be plainly visible.

Section 9. Police Department to Keep Records. The Police Department shall keep a record of the number of each bicycle license issued, the date thereof and the name of the person to whom it was issued.

Section 10. Term of License. A license shall expire at the date of expiration set forth on the license tag. License tags which identify the term of license by year only shall expire on April 30 of the last year shown. Subsequent licenses may be issued by the City to the owner of any bicycle which has been registered as provided in this Ordinance, upon payment of the license registration fee.

Section 11. License Registration Fee. A fee of fifty cents shall be paid by the applicant for each license, when application is made. The amount of such fees may be changed by resolution of the City Council, without amendment of this Ordinance.

Section 12. Removal of Tag Prohibited. No person shall remove a license tag from a bicycle during the period for which issued unless the bicycle is dismantled and no longer operated upon any street in the City.

Section 13. Transfer of Bicycle Ownership. Upon the sale or other transfer of a licensed bicycle, the licensee shall not remove the license tag from the bicycle but shall, upon proper application to the Police Department and, without payment of fee, have the tag assigned to the transferee by the Police Department.

Section 14. Riding on Right Side of Roadway. Every person operating a bicycle upon a roadway shall ride as near to the right side of the roadway as practicable, exercising due care when passing a standing vehicle or one proceeding in the same direction.

Section 15. Riding Ahead of Persons. Riding bicycles upon a roadway shall not ride more than two abreast except on paths or parts of roadway set aside for the exclusive use of such vehicles.

Section 16. Use of Bicycle Paths. Wherever a usable path for bicycles has been provided adjacent to a roadway, bicycle riders shall use such path and shall not use the roadway.

Section 17. Passing Traffic; Use of Traffic Lanes. No person operating a bicycle shall pass between lines of traffic but may pass on the left of traffic moving in his direction in the case of a two-way street, or on the left or right of traffic in the case of a one-way street, in an unoccupied lane.

Section 18. Clinging to Other Vehicles. No person riding upon any bicycle shall attach it to, or cling to, any other vehicle.

Section 19. Parking of Bicycles. No person shall park a bicycle upon a street in the City of DeWitt, nor shall any person park a bicycle upon a City sidewalk so as to obstruct vehicle or pedestrian traffic.

Section 20. Riding on Sidewalks. Whenever any person is riding a bicycle upon a sidewalk, such person shall yield the right of way to any pedestrian and shall give audible signal before overtaking and passing such pedestrian.

Section 21. Impounding of Bicycles. Members of the Police Department are hereby authorized to seize and to impound bicycles in the City Bicycle Pound for a time discretionary with the Chief of Police but not exceeding a period of six months, under the circumstances below:

1. When any bicycle is deemed to have been abandoned or stolen.

2. When an unlicensed bicycle is being operated or found in public place within the City of DeWitt.

3. When any bicycle is being operated in violation of any provision of the Michigan Vehicle Code appropriate to the operation of bicycles, or in violation of any provision of this Ordinance.

4. When the owner or an operator of a bicycle is not readily available to be served with notice or any violation of this Ordinance.

5. When any bicycle is operated in any public place at night without the lighting required by this Ordinance.

6. When more than one person is riding at the same time on a bicycle which is not designed and equipped for such purpose.

Section 22. Unclaimed Bicycles. Whenever any bicycle is impounded under the provisions of this Ordinance and is not claimed and obtained from the City Pound, by its owner within a period of six months from its impoundment it shall be subject to a maximum storage fee of $5.00 and to disposal in any manner deemed appropriate by the Chief of Police, including public sale thereof, transfer to others for charitable purposes, or scrapping.

Section 23. Violation and Penalty. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be liable for a fine of not more than $100.00 or to imprisonment for not more than 90 days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 24. Separability. Should any section, clause or provision of this Ordinance be declared by a Court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the Ordinance as a whole, or any part thereof other than the parts declared to be invalid.

Section 25. Name of Ordinance. This Ordinance shall be known, and may be cited as "The Bicycle Ordinance" of the City of DeWitt, Michigan.

Section 26. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force upon its publication as provided in the Charter of the City of DeWitt.

No person operating a bicycle shall pass between lines of traffic but may pass on the left of traffic moving in his direction in the case of a two-way street, or on the left or right of traffic in the case of a one-way street, in an unoccupied lane.

Section 18. Clinging to Other Vehicles. No person riding upon any bicycle shall attach it to, or cling to, any other vehicle.

Section 19. Parking of Bicycles. No person shall park a bicycle upon a street in the City of DeWitt, nor shall any person park a bicycle upon a City sidewalk so as to obstruct vehicle or pedestrian traffic.

Section 20. Riding on Sidewalks. Whenever any person is riding a bicycle upon a sidewalk, such person shall yield the right of way to any pedestrian and shall give audible signal before overtaking and passing such pedestrian.

Section 21. Impounding of Bicycles. Members of the Police Department are hereby authorized to seize and to impound bicycles in the City Bicycle Pound for a time discretionary with the Chief of Police but not exceeding a period of six months, under the circumstances below:

1. When any bicycle is deemed to have been abandoned or stolen.

2. When an unlicensed bicycle is being operated or found in public place within the City of DeWitt.

3. When any bicycle is being operated in violation of any provision of the Michigan Vehicle Code appropriate to the operation of bicycles, or in violation of any provision of this Ordinance.

4. When the owner or an operator of a bicycle is not readily available to be served with notice or any violation of this Ordinance.

5. When any bicycle is operated in any public place at night without the lighting required by this Ordinance.

6. When more than one person is riding at the same time on a bicycle which is not designed and equipped for such purpose.

Section 22. Unclaimed Bicycles. Whenever any bicycle is impounded under the provisions of this Ordinance and is not claimed and obtained from the City Pound, by its owner within a period of six months from its impoundment it shall be subject to a maximum storage fee of $5.00 and to disposal in any manner deemed appropriate by the Chief of Police, including public sale thereof, transfer to others for charitable purposes, or scrapping.

Section 23. Violation and Penalty. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be liable for a fine of not more than $100.00 or to imprisonment for not more than 90 days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 24. Separability. Should any section, clause or provision of this Ordinance be declared by a Court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the Ordinance as a whole, or any part thereof other than the parts declared to be invalid.

Section 25. Name of Ordinance. This Ordinance shall be known, and may be cited as "The Bicycle Ordinance" of the City of DeWitt, Michigan.

Section 26. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force upon its publication as provided in the Charter of the City of DeWitt.

FARM BUREAU NEWS

Farmer Pete's wife

by Mrs. Ray Peck

There was no use putting it off any longer. If I ever was going to do it... Get started!

"IT" was all the many things that looked like so much fun to make and do, and have, as a result.

First on my wish-list and do something about it was needlepoint. I'd always wanted to do it. Then last fall we visited the National Cathedral at Washington D.C. There were hundreds and hundreds of needlepoint pillows and tapestries made by people from all over. (I was enthralled by it all, still being built, and one of six largest in the world.)

Just a week later a 4-H leader came up to learn new crafts at Smith Hall at St. Johns. Eureka! There it was! Seek and find out or slay home and wish again.

Well, I went to the needlepoint session. IT IS FASCINATING AND NOT HARD AT ALL. As I fill in the little holes with a pattern it gives me such satisfaction and a feeling of hope, honesty, sense, and well being.

For Christmas Sam gave me a needlepoint kit of squares which made a tote bag. At first I followed the suggestion (the squares were blank) given in the folder. Then I took off on my own and designed all kinds of birds, flowers and little creatures of the wild. There will never be another one just like it.

The little Bearup children from across the road helped me with suggestions and examples from their color books. There is a turtle, frog and NOT a snake. Jimmy thought I should have one but not on purpose on a bag.

Again 4-H came up with another dream-come-true instead of wishing for it. At Kettunen Center there was a state craft convention. This time it was chair caning.

How many years I had looked at mother's little chairs and intended to do something about the seats. Of course, there was always some day. Every winter I said that!

Caning is not easy. I worked ten hours on what people sit on and often don't even notice is CANED! Please, don't ever ask me to cane a chair for you. It makes your fingers almost raw as they are constantly wet and as you draw the cane back and forth eight times for each hole. It also makes my eyes bug out and not notice a mistake until several rows have been put in which have to be taken out.

Again, what a satisfaction in accomplishing that task.

There are many things I'd like to do yet. The list (mentally) is long and funny. I don't want to put them down because then folks would ask if it were done yet.

This winter there was still one more opportunity to do something I'd wished and wished to do. Cake decorating! Fern King taught it so I, enrolled. Ten easy lessons!

Well, the first meeting was making the paper decorating cone. When I flunked that I knew that this was not going to be easy. Why, HADN'T I done this years earlier when it is easy to teach a dog new tricks.

We had so much fun as we sat or stood next to each other. There were eight of us and Fern helped us with all winding up in bent over laughter at some of our examples of form, color and texture of icing. Believe me, now when I see icing decorations on the SIDE of a cake that hasn't slipped down to the bottom and as a result can't go further... I feel like saluting.

Even so, I learned so much in both baking and decorating. This is number three for the winter. It has been fun and oh, so rewarding. My family wondered what I was going to do next. With spring here no need to worry, Pete and Sam. The garden, yard and some much-needed painting are things to look forward to. No new projects.

(If there is anything to this today-it's this: The whole idea that other folks can do it, why can't I has to start with starting it instead of just wishing you knew how.)

Next winter is going to be fun too!

All this reminds me of a 4-H Demonstration Sally gave once years ago. When she gave the good points of learning to sew, knit and crochet. She said... "and you will have something fun to do when you get old and can't move around very much or as much."

True, True. I can sit to needlepoint. I can sit to cane. I can sit to decorate.

RONALD MOTZ

Farm Bureau honors Motz

Farm Bureau Insurance Group recently honored a number of its agents at its annual convention held in Lansing. A local Farm Bureau Insurance Group Agent, Ronald Motz, was among the honorees.

The nature of the award was to acknowledge Motz's sincere dedication and service to his community through the medium of Life Insurance.

During 1974, Motz provided more than a million dollars of insurance protection earning membership in Farm Bureau Insurance Group's prestigious sales fraternity, the Leaders for Life Club.

The Leaders for Life Club is built on the basis of creativity, dedication, a deep interest in people, their problems, and solutions to these problems. Professionalism in all business transactions, before and after, is stressed highly by members of this organization.

In 1974 Motz met the rigid requirements this society sets for prospective members and was welcomed to the ranks of a truly top insurance organization.

Power in the People program is underway

Marlie Drew, Manager of the Member Services Division of the Michigan Farm Bureau was on hand March 13 to direct a new program started in Clinton as a result of action by the board earlier this year.

The program designed to cause a study of programs and services provided by the county Farm Bureau will be carried out during the coming months by Farm Bureau members who were selected by either their Community Group or the County Board. Also as an outcome of the program will be ideas and suggestions from the members for new programs and for the surfacing of problem areas which are of concern to agriculture.

Thirty persons were in attendance with representation from all areas of the county and from a variety of the commodities raised in the county. Following are some of the areas of concern and need expressed by farmers:

1. Use of check off funds, improved hedging regulations, milk import subsidies, countervailing duties, import, and export controls, and soybean pool.

2. More consumer communication, drugs in schools, inform public about SMV signs, newsletter to all members, more Community Groups or substitute program, youth understanding of agriculture.
3. Zoning, credit for young farmers, environmental controls, rainmaking information, enforce SMV laws.
4. School redistricting, sales tax exemption.

There are four sub-committees who will be doing research in the above areas. The sub-committees will meet separately and then return in general session on April 3 to report back their findings so far.

President's column

By Bill Kissane

One and a half years ago annual meeting delegates set up a State Study Committee the purpose for which they made quite clear to look into present programs and suggest new ones. After traveling to other states and listening to many resource people the committee was ready to make their report - which was done at the annual President's Conference March 6-7 in Midland.

Two days were spent discussing the various proposals submitted by the committee. The proposals are meant to make your Farm Bureau organization more responsive to the needs of modern agriculture.

Some of the suggestions were to get more involvement by Farm Bureau Women and Young Farmers, expanding of State Farm Bureau Staff so that County Farm Bureaus receive more assistance from the State Farm Bureau.

Some member service program being considered are the Safe Mark Group purchasing program for tires, batteries, disc blades and plow points, expanding the Feeder Pig division, county newsletter service.

These were just a few of the items being put up for consideration. Of course all the programs require financing so included in their recommendation was one for a dues increase to cover these costs, as well as the cost of normal inflation.

These proposals will all be discussed by our County Board as well as our delegates to the Michigan Farm Bureau State Annual Meeting. All of these proposals must be either accepted or rejected by the delegates to a special meeting of Michigan Farm Bureau sometime in late June.

Sales tax exemption issue with farmers

Clinton County Farm Bureau legislative leaders and Community Group Minutemen were alerted this week of the drive to repeal the Sales Tax Exemption on most all farm inputs. Sen John Bowman, Chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee is pushing strongly this legislation.

Farmers are urged to call or write Sen Bowman objecting to SB372 and SB373. Farmers from this area were out in force at the 2nd hearing held Monday in Lansing, to present the farmer's view. Farm Bureau considers this a very serious problem. Farmers should not be expected to make up the loss of revenue when the voters removed the sales tax from food.

Farm Bureau achieved this tax exemption many years ago and we have had to fight to keep it many times in the past. The address of Sen Bowman and others on the Taxation Committee who are Senators Gary Corbin, John McCauley, Michael O'Brien, Jr, Harry DeMasco and John Welborn, Michigan State Senate, State Capitol Building, Lansing, Michigan 48902.

Clinton represented on legislative tour

Mr and Mrs Robert Kissane, DeWitt Road, St Johns were among the over 100 persons who attended the Annual Washington Legislative Tour

March 10-13. Before leaving Lansing from Capitol Airport the group was briefed by Farm Bureau Legislative Counsels Bob Smith and Al Almy and again received information upon arrival when an orientation session was held with Jack Anderson of the Washington AFBF offices.

The Michigan Group was housed in the Quality Court Capitol Hill Motel during the 4 day stay. On Tuesday morning a breakfast was held with Republican congressmen. Issues discussed were the deficit budget, the Farm Program and proposed changes in the Estate Tax exemption.

That afternoon the group met with Secretary Butz at the Dept of Agriculture when the group discussed the Farm Bureau and controls on agriculture. On Wednesday the group hosted democratic congressmen. Three were in attendance Senator Hart among them.

A bus tour of the many points of interest in and around the capitol took the rest of Wednesday and on Thursday the group toured the White House returning to Lansing that afternoon. While visiting the Bureau of Printing and Engraving the group viewed the printing of money. Twenty dollar bills were being made that day and were in pallets which totaled 6 million dollars each. The greatest share of the printing of money is done for replacement of worn out money of which the average life is 18 months.

Young Farmers hear OSHA report

Members of the Clinton County Farm Bureau Young Farmer Group had as their guest and speaker last week Thursday, M.J. Busch, Manager of Michigan Agricultural Service Association an affiliate of Farm Bureau. "Busch" explained new programs involving OSHA

Occupational Safety and Health Act and workmen's compensation laws. Many bills are before Congress involving work comp. A film was shown on tractor safety and the benefits of roll bars. The Young Farmer Committee consisting of Mr and Mrs Mike Borton, Doug Brook, and Mr and Mrs Alan Anderson were hosts for the meeting. All Farm Bureau members between the ages of 17 and 35 are automatically members of the Young Farmer Group and are invited to participate in the activities. Other programs of the Young Farmers are the queen contest, discussion meet, Young Farmer of the Year award, Rural Urban and the Annual Young Farmer Picnic.

The group is active in all parts of Farm Bureau and several Young Farmer Community Groups are now organized throughout the county. Many Young Farmers helped with the membership drive and are now active on the Power in the People program.

Next session will be April 17 which is "gym" night.

Meet 4-H leaders

Esther Pung

Esther Pung has the distinction of being the organizational leader of the largest 4-H club (Westphalia 4-H) in Clinton County. The Westphalia 4-H club has 136 girls enrolled and offers 6 project areas in the winter program. Esther is assisted by four other project leaders. The hum of sewing machines is heard daily at the Pung household as she teaches girls to sew every day Monday to Friday after school and then again every evening after supper. Esther began her 4-H leader experience 22 years ago as a project leader in one club and later organized the Westphalia 4-H club. The Westphalia Jaycees honored Esther in May 1972 with the Community Service Award for her outstanding work in the 4-H program and the youth in the community. She was featured in the 1973 fall issue Michigan 4-H Leader publication for her leadership to the 4-H program. Esther states, "It is difficult at times to show the 4-H members how to do something even though you know how to do it yourself," and adds, "It takes patience, but I find being a 4-H leader very rewarding."

Cheryl Montgomery

Cheryl Montgomery of Eagle is shown here demonstrating sewing techniques. She is teaching 4-H members. This is Cheryl's second year as a 4-H sewing leader in the Westphalia 4-H club and is serving as organizational leader this year also. Being a 4-H leader can present problems at times and one of Cheryl's problems was not having enough sewing machines for her members to use. Where there is a will, there is a way as most 4-H leaders find. Cheryl wrote to the HELP Column in an area newspaper asking for a sewing machine to use in her 4-H club. People responded by donating two sewing machines to the club and were loaned another. The Eagleites 4-H club membership jumped from 12 members in knitting and sewing in 1974 to 44 members in sewing, knitting, leather, small engines and horses this year. Cheryl is a former Clinton County 4-H member. She resides in Eagle with her husband Ken and daughters - Danielle - 6 years and Joanna - 3 years of age.

Bill's Column

Condition bike and mind for summer riding

By WILLIAM LASHER
Extension Agriculture Agent

Avoid tragedy this summer by encouraging your youngsters to heed bicycle safety precautions.

More than 90 percent of all bicycle accidents involve children between five and fourteen years old. Bicycle accidents occur at about the same rate in rural and urban areas, but country bike riders tend to have more serious accidents.

Keep bikes in good condition. Make sure the wheels are aligned and the horn or bell works. Headlights should be visible from 500 feet (about the length of a city block). If you must ride at dusk or in darkness, always use lights.

Inflate tires according to pressure specified on the tires. A hard tire slips on wet surfaces. A soft tire is easily punctured.

Adjust the seat height so your toes can touch the ground on both sides of the bike at once. Adjust handlebars so your knee doesn't hit when the pedal is in its highest position and you're making a sharp turn.

If handle grips don't fit tightly, glue them on.

Grease or oil moving parts at least once a year.

If only the rear wheel is equipped with a brake, it must be in condition to skid on dry pavement.

Ride single file and allow only as many riders as the bike is built to carry.

When possible use bike paths. If you must bicycle in the road, ride to the far right. Keep an eye out for opening doors or parked cars and watch driveways. Use a rear view mirror to be aware of moving cars behind you. Ride defensively.

Bicycle riders must obey stop signs, red lights, caution and yield signs and all other traffic signs.

Walk your bike across busy streets. And remember, the bicycle is the smallest vehicle on the road. In an argument with a car, the cyclist takes the brunt of the bruising.

By JOHN AYLSWORTH

4-H SHEEP DAY
Clinton County 4-H members have been extended a red carpet invitation to attend a special 4-H Sheep Activity at the John Culham farm near Dansville. This 4-H Sheep Day Activity will be held Saturday afternoon April 5th, from 4-6 p.m. All 4-H members and potential members, parents and leaders who are interested in either market lamb or sheep breeding projects are invited to attend. Any member considering a 4-H sheep project will find this sheep activity of special interest. Younger 4-H members are encouraged to consider a 4-H market lamb project for the county fair this year.

The John Culham family has been very active in the 4-H sheep program in Ingham County for several years and are anxious to share some of their experiences with Clinton County 4-H members. The Culham farm is located at 3875 East Columbia Road, Dansville. Anyone wishing to go with the group are invited to meet at the Norman Brown farm by 3:00 p.m. The Norman Brown farm is located at 7409 Clark Road, Bath, or about 1-1/4 miles east of Bath on Clark Road.

FOLK DANCES
People interested in learning more about Folk Dances are reminded about the Folk Dance Institute to be held Saturday, April 5th, at the Union Building on Michigan State University Campus. The program starts at 9:30 a.m. by loosening up. There will be demonstrations by the MSU Promenaders, 4-H teams, Sons of Norway of Lansing and others. Also, there will be instruction sessions for all those who attend. No experience is necessary for attending this folk dance session. The cost is $2.00 and lunch is on your own. Mary Lee Bailey of World Wide Games of Delaware, Ohio, will be teaching the folk dances. The dances include: line dances, twosomes, threesomes, foursomes, long ways, mixers and a lot of fun. They would like reservations by April 1 to have some idea of how many will be coming. The $2.00 donation/cost can be paid at the door. If interested, contact the County Extension Office in St. Johns.

HORSE JAMBOREE
The Michigan 4-H Horse Jamboree will be held Saturday, April 5th, at Michigan State University, East Lansing. Clinton County will be represented in the horse public speaking contest by Robin Clark of the Double M 4-H club. Her talk will be 5-7 minutes in length on some phase of the horse program.

Clinton County will be represented at the 4-H horse judging contest by a Junior and Senior division team. Tentatively, the Junior team will consist of Alice Bush, Tammy Clapp and Robin Clapp of Proud Prancers and Mary Cordes of Trail Breakers. The Senior team will consist of Kim Clapp of Proud Prancers, Diane DeBoer and Ruth DeBoer—a new horse club yet unnamed and Debbie Young of Lucky Riders. The teams will judge 6 classes of horses, give oral reasons on one performance and one halter classes, plus answer 5 questions on each of two halter classes and one on performance classes.

The 4-H horse jamboree is open to the public to view. The judging contest begins at 8:30 a.m.

MONEY FOR FAIRGROUNDS
The Westphalia 4-H Club members have donated $15 toward the fairgrounds beautification project. A number of trees will be planted at the fairgrounds during Arbor Week, April 29-26.

ROUND LAKE STITCHERS
The Round Lake Stitchers 4-H

members invited their mothers to their club achievement, as the girls showed their garments they made this past winter. The members discussed 4-H evaluation to be held March 15th. The members voted to participate in the roadside cleanup project to be held April 19th. Debbie Steavens gave a speech on personal appearance. After the meeting Marilyn Rice, 4-H program assistant, worked with the girls on how to model their clothing projects.

BEES SHOW PROJECT
The Fowler Busy Bees 4-H members showed their projects they made and told about their experiences learned. Questions were asked by different members regarding projects made, such as cake decorating, Artex painting, woodworking, candlemaking, leathercrafts, clothing, knitting, crocheting and small engines. The members felt they had some very interesting projects this winter.

Chloe Padgitt

Clinton County Home Economist.

As you look for ways to cure your family budget blues, you'll probably find yourself bumping against a category of spending we call "fixed expenses." These are the expenses that you have promised to pay on specific dates in specific amounts. They usually include housing costs, taxes, insurance, installment payments, personal improvements, membership dues and contributions.

Your family may not have commitments in all these areas, but those you do have probably seem pretty inflexible. All these expenses can be pared, however, depending on how drastic your cutting back measures have to be.

Some of these fixed expenses—membership dues, lessons or classes, contributions, subscriptions to magazines and newspapers, and installment payments—are voluntary commitments. Once you have paid what you promised, you can decide not to renew your commitment: let your membership or magazine subscription drop, give up the lessons for a while, make contributions according to ability rather than at a fixed rate, and avoid buying things "on time." Some of the other expenses may not be so simple to cut, but you can do it if you really have to.

own may be a strain on both of you.

You may have to move. Changes in family housing needs may make this a logical alternative. If your financial situation is truly at the breaking point, a move may be the only alternative. Analyze the problems—and benefits thoroughly. If you own your home, keep these considerations in sight:

—The costs of changing homes include selling your present home, new mortgage costs, closing costs and moving expenses.

—Unless you are over 65 years of age, you will have to pay capital gains tax on all the profit you make when you sell your home.

—New costs you weren't aware of may be as high or higher than the old costs you were trying to escape. You may trade a lower monthly payment for increased transportation costs or rapidly rising property taxes that will more than eat up your savings.

—Before moving from a home to an apartment, consider also the difference in satisfaction to be derived from living in your own home versus an apartment.

If you are now renting and contemplating a move, you may find yourself blocked by a lease. Look into the possibility of subletting. Depending on the demand for housing in your area, you may be able to terminate the lease before it expires. Moving expenses and the possibility of trading old costs for new ones are factors here, too.

TAXES
That old saying is right: "taxes" will always be with us. But you may be able to lighten your tax burden. Look at income tax, for instance. It's nice to get a refund, but, with the income squeeze on, it may be more beneficial to you to have a little extra money each month. Check into your deductions and total tax load to see if smaller withholdings are a possibility.

To save money on your income tax, be certain to take all the deductions to which you are entitled. Keep good records of deductible expenses; save canceled checks, receipts and other proofs of payment, and file them away where you can find them easily. When the time comes to figure your taxes, do a trial run, taking the standard deduction as well as itemizing deductions and see which way costs you less. If your family has two incomes, figure both jointly and separately to determine which way is more economical.

If you have a child who works and earns less than $2,650 a year, be sure he fills out a W-4E form with his employer so no federal income will be taken out of his check.

INSURANCE
Deciding whether your family has the coverage it needs at the lowest cost will require looking at each of the many kinds of

Training workshop for managers and businessmen

Jim Pelham

Clinton County Extension Director

Are you one of those businessmen or managers that likes to hire people with special skills, but are so busy you rarely get a chance to sharpen your own?

If so, you may be interested in the "Motivation for Profit" workshop to be held in St. Johns, April 16 and 17. The course was developed by the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Staff in Marketing.

If you are a manager who wants to MAKE THINGS HAPPEN, this WORKSHOP is for you. It has been designed to fit the needs of the manager who recognizes that people are his most important resource for success.

No manager can be any more effective than his subordinates enable him to be. A good motivational climate will allow your subordinates to help you by helping themselves.

One of the greatest challenges facing today's manager is to close the "can do" - "will do" gap. Research has shown that most employees know they can do more than they are doing. A knowledge of what causes human behavior, plus the application of proven principles of MOTIVATIONAL CLIMATE CONTROL, will enable you to close the gap.

The workshop will use lecture, case studies and group discussions to develop your understanding of what you can do to make your motivational programs effective, satisfying and profitable.

It deals in motivation and how to use it to make your business more profitable. In a short two days you will gain a better understanding of human behavior and a lesson in leadership.

The workshops will be held at Central National Bank from 9:00 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. on the 16th and 17th. Course fees including lunch are a small part of what you would expect to pay.

Only thirty people can be effectively accommodated, so if you are interested or would like more information, call the Extension Office at 224-3288.

Fight Cancer with a checkup and a Check

Kill weeds in corn this year. Rotate to soybeans next.

Outfox® controls a broad spectrum of broadleaf weeds and grasses. Yet, there are no carryover problems. Use Outfox as directed on corn land this year, and it won't cause carryover problems on other crops in rotation, such as soybeans. (Don't rotate to sugar beets.)

Outfox requires no pre-mixing with oil, because it is a one-container, one-herbicide product.

Get the weeds before the weeds "get" some of your corn yield. See your farm chemical dealer about Outfox.

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain real estate mortgage, whereby the power of sale contained therein became operative, made by VINCENT MALCANGI and CHARLENE A. MALCANGI, husband and wife, of DeWitt, Michigan, mortgagors, to the UNION SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a Michigan corporation, of Lansing, Michigan, mortgagee, dated August 23, 1967, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Clinton and State of Michigan on the 24th day of August, 1967, in Liber 250 of Records, page 486, upon which mortgage there is now claimed to be due and payable for principal, interest and taxes, the sum of Eighteen Thousand thirty-three and 65/100 ($18,033.65) Dollars; and no suit or proceeding at law having been instituted to recover said debt, or any part thereof, said mortgagee, by resolution duly adopted by its Board of Directors having declared its election, pursuant to the terms of said mortgage, to consider the whole sum unpaid on said mortgage debt to be now due and payable by reason of the nonpayment of certain installments of principal, interest and taxes, as provided for by said mortgage, notice is hereby given that on Wednesday, April 23, 1975, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the North entrance to the Court House building in the City of St. Johns, Clinton County, Michigan, (that being the place where the Clinton County Circuit Court is held) said mortgagee will, by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage and in pursuance of the statute, sell at public auction, the lands therein described or so much as shall be necessary to satisfy the amounts due thereon at the time of such sale, together with all legal costs, interest at seven per cent (7%) per annum from date hereof, and an attorney fee as provided by statute, as therein provided, a parcel described as:

Lot 8 of Twinbrook estates, a subdivision of part of the South 1/2 of the Northwest 1/4 of Section 15, Town 5 North, Range 2 West, DeWitt Township, Clinton County, Michigan.

The length of the period of redemption on foreclosure of the within mortgage shall be six months from the time of such sale.

ORDINANCE NO. 78
CITY OF DE WITT
CLINTON COUNTY,
MICHIGAN

An Ordinance regulating the connection of public and private sanitary sewers to the sanitary sewer system of the City of DeWitt, Michigan, the cost, charges and fees relating thereto, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

THE CITY OF DE WITT ORDAINS:

Section 1. Definitions.

(a) "Public Sanitary Sewer" shall mean a sanitary sewer in which all owners of abutting properties have equal rights, and is controlled by public authority.

(b) "Building Sewer" shall mean the sanitary sewer connecting any building to the public sewer or other place of disposal.

(c) "Stub" shall mean the sanitary sewer lead from the property to the public sanitary sewer to the property lot line.

(d) "Property Owner" or "owner," shall mean any "person," which shall include any individual, firm, company, association, society, corporation or group having an ownership interest in the lot or premises on which the building sewer is situated.

(e) "One family dwelling" shall mean a building used exclusively or designed for one family occupancy.

Section 2. Permits for Connection. The owner or proprietor of any building, lot, or premise desiring to connect the same to the City sanitary sewer system shall make application to the City for the written authorization required by Ordinance No. 38, of Ordinances, City of DeWitt, hereinafter referred to as the "connection permit," and pay the designated inspection fee. Permits shall be issued only where stub connections are in place or an approved alternate connection is available, such as a manhole.

Section 3. Service Connections and Cost. All materials and construction work involved in the sewer service connection between the building and the public sanitary sewer shall be in compliance with City regulations and standards. The entire cost of installing the building sewer from the stub to the building shall be borne by the property owner.

Section 4. Special Assessment Districts. (a) Existing Sewer Districts - Where the lot or premise has been included in a sewer assessment district and the established assessment has been paid, or is outstanding, stub connections should be in place, and in the event a stub is not in place it shall be installed by the City without charge to the property owner, provided there is no delinquency in the payment of any sum then due with respect to such assessment.

Where the lot or premise is located adjacent to an existing sanitary sewer and was not included in the special assessment district for that sewer stub connections will not exist. Before a connection permit is issued under these conditions the City Engineer shall estimate the cost of the City installing the necessary stub connection. The owner of any lot or premise making application to connect to the City sewer system under these circumstances shall pay the assessment fee established for the existing sewer district, and the stub cost, and a capital connection benefit charge.

(b) New Special Assessment Districts - In special sewer assessment districts established subsequent to the effective date of this Ordinance all construction costs including stub connection, shall be included in the assessed cost per lot or premises. The capital benefit connection charge shall be separate from the bond program which finances the sewer construction and shall be paid in full prior to the issuance of a sewer connection permit.

Section 5. Capital Connection Benefit Charge. In addition to the inspection fee, any sewer district special assessment payments, heretofore or hereafter payable, and stub cost wherever applicable, the owner of any lot or premise requesting a connection to the City sanitary sewer system shall pay the City a capital benefit connection charge as established herein. This charge is hereby determined to be the owner's pro-rata share of the capital cost of the sewer system which may be allocated or attributed to the premises utilizing the new sewer connection including, but not limited to, overizing of lines and treatment plant capacity and production facilities.

The initial base capital benefit charge shall be $400.00 per one family dwelling unit. Such charge shall be established by the adoption of a resolution by the City Council, and may be amended thereafter by further such resolutions, without amendment of this Ordinance. Charges for connecting other types of building units shall be established and amended by resolution and shall be based upon a factor or percentage of the anticipated sewage flow per unit, as is directly proportional to the estimated sewage flow of a typical one family dwelling unit.

Section 6. Connections in Areas Requiring and Extension of the City Sanitary Sewer System. Where the proprietor of a subdivision plat or the owner of other premise proposes to connect to the City sanitary sewer system by constructing an extension to the existing sanitary sewer system he shall enter into a written agreement with the City covering all pertinent construction items, including plans, specifications, inspections, and transfer of ownership of certain public improvements to the City. Projects of this type shall be subject to the capital benefit connection charges imposed in Section 5, and appropriate fees and other charges referred to in this Ordinance.

Section 7. Violations and Penalties. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be liable for a fine of not more than $100.00 or to imprisonment for not more than 90 days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 8. Validity. The invalidity of any section, clause, sentence or provision of this Ordinance shall not affect the validity of any other part of this Ordinance which can be given effect without such invalid part or parts.

aside money every month in a separate savings account so you don't burst your budget when they come due.

Look at your property and health insurance. Can you increase the deductibles - the amount you have to pay before the policy takes over? Larger deductibles will cut your insurance costs and still protect you against those large, extraordinary problems.

Review your life insurance coverage and evaluate it against your current needs. Your family responsibilities may have changed, or the reason that led you to buy a certain policy may no longer be so pressing. If so, it's time for a change.

If your need for insurance protection has increased, be sure to shop around for a new policy. Comparison shopping can get you the protection you need at the best price.

Easter travel heavy- reservations recommended

Michiganians heading to warm-weather destinations for the Easter holiday are helping to cause one of the severest shortages of air travel and lodging space in history, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

State motorists are expected to travel 10 percent more miles in Michigan this Easter as compared to last year and log nearly 25 percent more miles nationally.

"Travel is anticipated to be so heavy from Michigan to Florida that it may be virtually impossible for vacationers without confirmed motel or hotel reservations to get space at this late date," Joseph Ratke, Auto Club touring manager, explained.

"This is especially true for resorts on the water although many inland water locations, particularly around Disney World, are without available accommodations," he added.

"Motorists traveling I-75 south also may find limited space during the Easter holiday unless they have reservations."

Because of the tremendous interest in Florida travel this Easter, Auto Club is not advising traveling to the Sunshine State without confirmed accommodations.

"Availability of fuel, fears of future travel restrictions, plus many workers drawing SUB pay with time to travel are some of the major reasons why Florida is jammed," Ratke said.

He added that routings to Florida for AAA members this Easter are double last year's pace.

Motorists traveling I-75 could find tie-ups along two stretches during peak travel hours. They include a two-mile portion of two-lane traffic at the Tennessee River, south of Knoxville, and where the I-285 bypass rejoins I-75, south of Atlanta.

Airline travel space will be extremely difficult to find for persons without confirmed reservations to such fun and sun areas as Florida, portions of California and Arizona, the Caribbean, Mexico and Hawaii. A number of flights to Europe also are sold out.

As soon as airlines add flights to their Easter holiday schedules, they are being sold out, Auto Club stated. However, most airlines are trying to keep pace with demand by adding flights.

While airline travel reservations booked through Auto Club's World Travel Department are about the same as a year ago, it is pointed out that Michigan AAA travel counters sold tickets at a record rate last Easter with business up 43 percent over the preceding year.

Airline travelers who have not yet made reservations for southbound flights probably will have to rely on last-minute cancellations to get seats. To take advantage of sudden cancellations, travelers should place themselves on stand-by lists and then arrive at the airport a minimum one hour before scheduled departure.

Travelers seeking reservations to destinations other than the most popular Easter holiday locations should have little trouble finding airline or lodging accommodations.

In all, more than 3.7 million state motorists will travel an estimated 382 million miles on Michigan roads this Easter weekend.

DeWitt School Board

he has a pass from the high school office. According to the policy, excused absences or tardiness will be allowed make-up and will have no effect on grades.

Unexcused absence or tardiness, however, will not be allowed make-up and 3 unexcused absences or tardinesses will lower grades by 1 full grade for each 3.

For a pre-arranged absence, a form must be picked up at the office, filled out by the parents, signed by the office staff, teachers of classes to be missed and returned to the office before the student leaves school.

The parents can also call to pre-arrange an absence.

Ritche brought up an example of a spontaneous trip taken by the parents and the students leaving no one at home to make the call. Although no one could come up with a solution for that problem, OK for a temporary try was given.

Stating that he saw problems with the new method, Ritche said: "If my kid gets graded down for being tardy, you're going to have a fight on your hands because I don't feel it is justified."

In other action, the board voted to purchase pads for the grade school gym to guard against possible injury. The cost is an estimated $250-$300.

License sales slow

LANSING — Are you one of nearly 1.5 million Michigan vehicle owners who still hasn't obtained your 1975 license plate sticker tab? If so, you had better visit the nearest Secretary of State office and handle this annual ritual.

According to Secretary of State, Richard H. Austin, the last week of the sale which ends on Monday, March 31, could produce the "longest lines in our history."

IMPROVEMENT

Nothing is or should be immune to it.

And funeral service is no exception. When changing our ways is in the best interests of the families we serve, changing our ways is what we believe in doing.
