A MEMORIAL DAY SALUTE FOR THOSE WHO DIED THAT WE MIGHT BE FREE

Memorial Day festivities in St. Johns this year will again center around this monument at Mount Rest Cemetery, where the Rev. Gerald Churchill will give the Memorial Day address. George Smith (left), commander of Edwin T. Stiles Post 153 American Legion; Norman Ketchum, commander of the Veterans Honor Guard; and Don Devereaux, commander of Post 4113, VFW, offer their salute much as they will Thursday. The Memorial Day Parade will form at the railroad depot at 9:30 a.m. and will move out at 10 a.m.; following a line of march along Clinton Avenue, State Street, US-27 and Steel Street to the cemetery. — County News colorphoto by Al Haight.

School problem called 'urgent'

Personnel, finance picture gloomy if millage issue fails

Thirty-eight teaching positions are already open for next year in the St. Johns Public School system, and school administrators fear the number might go up to as high as 75-80 per cent or more of the staff if the June 10 millage election fails.

The 38 openings so far include five new teaching spots necessitated by increased enrollment and plans for a more comprehensive educational program in the rural neighborhood elementary schools.

"The need to pass this millage this time is urgent," Supt. Earl Lancaster said. "We're talking with prospective teachers now, but we can't make any commitments until after the election. If it fails, all this recruiting will go down the drain, plus a lot more."

Already the number of new teachers needed for next year is far above the average for the past few years. Usually about 20-25 teachers are hired each year as replacements or new instructors.

COUPLED WITH THE urgency

from a personnel-hiring standpoint is the cold, hard dollar problem.

Lancaster pointed out, as have school board members at numerous meetings, that the 12.8 mills being sought is only enough to run a status quo educational program, with the exception of improving some aspects of the rural elementary program now that the new schools are completed.

Even that was predicated on another allocation of 8.2 mills for the schools from the county allocation board. Tuesday the allocation board voted the schools only 7.717 mills.

"This millage loss will mean an allocated tax loss of $22,000, but the increase in our valuation over what we expected will produce only $8,000," Lancaster said.

The school district's valuation for next year will be $44,685,061, the school officials have been notified. That's $1,370,424 higher than last year and $685,000 higher than what the board based their original request of 12.8 mills on.

The 7.717 mills allocated will not in itself make the school district eligible for state aid, which will amount to roughly $1 million, or half the school budget. The allocated millage would produce less than $350,000.

"This would be far short of the $2 million budget, and we would have to make cuts even farther than half-day sessions," school officials said.

ST. JOHNS officials are contending again that the 12.8 mills (Story continued on Page 3-A)

2 1/2-3 inches fall

Rains hurting only late-planters

The steady two-day rain early this week doesn't appear to have caused any big problems for farmers in the area—unless you're one of those who hasn't planted corn or soybeans yet.

If that's the case, then you've got problems.

"I'm surprised how little water damage there appears to be," George McQueen, Clinton County Extension agricultural agent, said late Monday afternoon. "The ground was apparently dry enough that it absorbed the water pretty well. The creeks aren't reported up more than just a little." Rainfall seemed to vary from 2 1/2 to 3 inches around the area.

Farmers with heavy soils to work were just beginning to get their corn and soybeans in, in many cases, and the steady rain Sunday and Monday "has pretty well stopped both. In fact it will probably stop them for this year," McQueen said.

IT'S NEVER TOO late to put the crop in, McQueen continued, but the planting date has a lot to do with the kind of harvest that can be gotten.

Corn planting started about May 1, and soybeans started going in about May 10. "Most farmers wait until after their corn is in to plant soys, and if they haven't got their corn in yet, they're in pretty bad shape."

For farmers planning dry beans and white beans on their lands, the rain has worked out beautifully, McQueen said. By the time they are able to get back on the land it will be just time to plant, and there'll be lots of moisture in the ground. The rain will also be beneficial for farmers who have corn and soybeans already in the ground.

"From what I've seen and the reports I've gotten, there's been very little ponding damage so far," the county agent stated. "The ground was able to take it up, although it's awfully soft and soggy. Barring any continuation, it looks like we may come out of it in real good shape."

Ordinance raising water rates proposed

Water and sewer bills for most of St. Johns residents will climb from $9 per quarter to $16 per quarter under a proposed new ordinance introduced by the city commission last week.

It will come up for final action probably next Tuesday night at the commission's first June meeting.

The proposed new rates would take effect in July if passed next Tuesday.

They are along the lines of a recommended rate increase recommended by a finance committee of local citizens appointed last January by the mayor to study the city's fiscal problems. For most residents who use no more than 9,999 gallons of water per quarter, the quarterly water and sewer charge will be $16.

THE PROPOSED ordinance sets these other rates for higher-volume users:

- * 10,000 to 29,999 gallons, $16 plus 85 cents per 1,000 gallons or part thereof over 10,000 gallons.

- * 30,000-49,999 gallons, $33 plus 75 cents per 1,000 gallons or part thereof over 30,000 gallons.

- * 50,000-299,999 gallons, $48 plus 65 cents per 1,000 gallons or part thereof over 50,000 gallons.

- * 300,000-499,999 gallons, $210.00 plus 55 cents per 1,000 gallons or part thereof over 300,000 gallons.

- * 500,000-999,999 gallons, $320.50 plus 40 cents per 1,000 gallons or part thereof over 500,000 gallons.

- * 1 million gallons and up, $520.50 plus 30 cents per 1,000 gallons or part thereof over 1 million gallons.

The water rate increase would be the second within a year for the major water users — Federal-Mogul Corp., Sealed Power, Clinton Memorial Hospital and Scotchway Laundry in Southgate Shopping Center. Last July an ordinance placed a 20-cent-per-1,000-gallon cost on all water used in excess of 500,000 gallons.

THE GENERAL increase would be the first since June 1964 when the new minimum rate of $4.50 per quarter for the first 10,000 gallons was established. It had previously been

$2.70 per quarter. The rate at $4.50 per quarter was for water only, and the sewer rate was the same as the water rate.

The proposed new rates lumps the sewer and water charges into one figure.

The ordinance, No. 217, also sets sewage charges for persons who use city sewer but get their water from non-city water sources. In each case the rate is exactly one-half of the combined water-sewer rate for residents using both services.

The sewage discharge for those non-water customers would be metered at the customer's expense.

A new subsection would be added to the city ordinance, providing for charges for having water turned off or on by the city. The charge would be $5 for each occasion.

The ordinance would be effective July 1 and first water bills under the new ordinance would be (Story continued on Page 3-A)

Preliminary allocation reaffirmed

THE county allocation board stood by its preliminary allocation of last week and Tuesday afternoon confirmed its earlier division of the 15-mill pie.

Under the plan the county government will receive 6.113 mills, the amount it requested to operate in 1969 on a balanced budget. Last year the county got 5.63 mills.

School districts of the county will receive 7.717 mills, a reduction of nearly half a mill from 8.2 mills allocated to them last year. School officials among the 75 people at the hearing Tuesday were visibly upset, particularly in view of upcoming elections for extra voted millage.

The intermediate school district of Clinton County was allocated .17 mill, and the township will receive 1 mill. Both of these figures are the same as last year.

THE FINAL MOTION to reaffirm the preliminary allocation came after defeat of another motion to set the millage at the same figures as last year. It was proposed by Walter Kellen and was seconded by Carl Bates, chairman of the allocation board. It lost by a 4-2 vote.

The motion to accept the preliminary allocations was then made and passed 4-2.

The school districts had been fighting the preliminary allocation all week, and the allocation board made its decision after hearing both school and county representatives Tuesday.

Attorney Harold Reed, a former supervisor, was one of the main spokesmen for the county, and he defended the county budget request that had been attacked by school speakers during the morning session.

Head Start funds approved; Clinton classes begin June 24

A federal aid grant to establish a Head Start program for pre-kindergarten children has been confirmed for Clinton County. Carl Bates, county intermediate district superintendent, said the money has been approved under the program of the 1968 Economic Opportunity Act.

It is the fourth such grant for the Head Start program provides special training for those accepted children who will enter kindergarten classes next fall to acquaint them with the school procedures, the teachers, specialized programs, and many other factors related to early school training.

The Clinton County project will involve 12 classrooms in seven school areas, namely Bath, Ovid, Elsie, DeWitt, Pewamo-Westphalia, Fowler, and St. Johns.

MRS ETHEL HUOT, educational director of the program, said an estimated 180 students are expected to be enrolled in the seven-week summer program which will start for the students on June 24 and will continue through Aug. 6.

All teachers, aides, and other personnel must attend a workshop orientation at Michigan State University during the week of June 17.

Parents of the children who will participate in the program have been mailed application forms which must be immediately returned if they wish to participate in the program; otherwise another child will be assigned to the room. Only 15 students are permitted in a classroom. The children will attend classes half-days for five days a week from 8:30-12:30. A mid-morning snack and a balanced noon meal will be served each day.

Transportation, all needed school supplies, immunizations, vision, and dental assistance will be given to the students in the program. There will be no expense to the parent.

Parents of the children will participate on a voluntary basis, and the summer projects will include field trips as well as classroom orientation.

Admission to the program is not based on race, religion, national origin, or color.

A parent who has not enrolled his child and is interested should contact his local superintendent of schools or his local building principal immediately.

Full use of city park likely

Another successful volunteer project was reported this week on the heels of a swimming pool fund raising campaign. This one won't involve any money — just work.

At least 11 St. Johns organizations have volunteered manpower to tidy up the St. Johns City Park twice a week so that it can be opened for use by citizens this summer.

Ed Schmitt, St. Johns electrician who has promoted the open-park idea during the last couple of weeks, said the program was to open last night (Wednesday) when volunteers were going to set out picnic tables and put up the slides and swings at the park.

He and E.O. (Red) Lundy and Gene Downing, Jaycees president-elect, are acting as coordinators. They were to meet Tuesday night with the city commission to iron out details and schedules for the work to meet requirements of the commission.

MAYOR CHARLES Coletta has said the city park is not closed to use by the public, although the austerity program of the city does not provide for placement or upkeep of the equipment.

This is the area which Schmitt and his volunteers plan to work in. He said 11 clubs and organizations in St. Johns have told him they will be willing to help with manpower for litter pickup and playground equipment upkeep on Friday and Monday nights for 14 weeks this summer.

Volunteer groups so far include the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Clinton County Athletic Club, Jaycees, VFW, Chamber of Commerce, various 4-H Clubs, Lions Club, Rotary Club, Exchange Club and Knights of Columbus.

Schmitt said the clubs would be assigned work nights at the park on a rotating basis after the equipment is all set up. He, Lundy and Downing will coordinate the work to make sure it gets done every week.

Schmitt appeared for the second time before the city commission last week and got preliminary approval for the project. Commissioner Rex Strrine voiced his opinion thusly:

"As long as they are willing to take the responsibility, this is very nice, and as far as I'm concerned they can go ahead. It is a liability and it should be run according to rules and regulations."

Schmitt said this was the group's intention. They were to meet Tuesday night with the commission to work out working schedules, determine charges for softball field use, etc.

Schmitt said the volunteer workers are being required only to pick up litter on the ground; city personnel will empty the trash barrels at the park.

He urged as many people as possible to assist in the set-up of the park equipment Wednesday night so that it could be ready for use over the Memorial Day weekend.

County to get $57,679 rebate on income tax

State Rep. Lester J. Allen, (R-Ithaca) has announced the first quarterly distribution of income tax funds to local governments in the 88th district, which he represents.

Under the tax structure, each county will receive $1.52 per person, with 50 per cent of the total going to the county treasury, and the other 50 per cent to be divided among the cities, villages and townships in the county on a population basis.

"In the 88th district, income tax rebates amounting to $56,229.36 will go to Gratiot County, $78,179.68 to Midland County, $75,490.80 to Eaton County, and $57,679.44 to Clinton County."

State Treasurer Allison Green has indicated the payments should be in the hands of county treasurers by the end of May. As soon as the county treasurers can process them, the funds will be distributed to cities, villages and townships.

Rep. Allen added that if the returns from the income tax remain near their present level, an approximate total of $6 per person will be refunded to Michigan's counties over the entire year.

Preliminary allocation reaffirmed by board

(Continued from Page 1-A) He said the county budget did not meet all the needs of the county, as school officials had contended. He said there was a vast need for more money for roads and bridges, better pay for law enforcement officers which was low in comparison to surrounding counties, general salary increases, an expansion of a civil defense program and need for new equipment.

He said the present budget given to the allocation board did not include anything for building purposes.

HE ALSO QUESTIONED the schools' budgets, saying they included retirement of deficits in one year, and he said he didn't see why the deficits needed to be made up in one year.

Reed also said the county faces probable higher costs because of county reapportionment of the board of supervisors and probable need to pay the costs of a district court plan.

School representatives at the allocation meeting Tuesday defended their own budgets against talk of "padding" and took some swipes at the county budget. Earl Lancaster, St. Johns superintendent of schools, and other superintendents, referred to the county revenue budget and pointed out that it did not figure income tax receipts or the effects of increase valuation.

SCHOOL REPRESENTATIVES based their plea for a change on a comparison of budgets with the county. Speakers said they felt the preliminary allocation was unfair because it was allowing the county to balance their budget while cutting the school's.

Lancaster said it would seem fair—if the allocation board considered the schools and the county government of equal importance—to base the splitting of the 6.83 mills in question proportionately according to the budget requests.

Considering budget amounts, he said, the county should get 1/7 of the millage in question and the schools 6/7, because there is that much difference in the total amounts of their budgets. He and other superintendents repeatedly pointed out that the schools' budgets were not padded, and they referred to past allocation requests and actual audits to prove their point.

He also brought up a topic familiar from other years, that of county use of allocated funds for building purposes. Lancaster contended, and he quoted the Michigan constitution, that counties could ask the public for extra voted millage the same as the schools do.

ST. JOHNS HAS A RENDEZVOUS WITH THE PAST

Residents of St. Johns had an opportunity last Friday afternoon to see a part of the past—a 1912 steam locomotive that passed through St. Johns in tow, on the way to Chicago for a leading role in a movie. "Spud" Heathman and son Neal, 8, got right up close for an inspection. — Additional picture and story on Page 15-B.

Becher 15th traffic victim

Clinton County's highway death rate continues its climb.

The number of victims reached 15 Saturday morning when Richard G. Becher, 29, of 10472 E. Second Street, Fowler, was killed in the collision of two pickup trucks on M-21 3 1/2 miles west of St. Johns.

Francis Feldpausch, 35, of Bauer Road, R-2, Fowler, was the driver of the other pickup. He was treated at Clinton Memorial Hospital for bruises and then released.

Sheriff's officers reported Feldpausch was going east on the highway and Becher was driving west. Feldpausch told the officers he saw the Becher truck come across the center line toward him. He started to swerve off the pavement, he said, and was halfway on the shoulder when the impact occurred.

The Becher truck continued on about 98 feet beyond the point of impact before coming to a stop. The accident occurred about 7:40 a.m. Saturday.

Obituary details are on Page 7-A.

DR. A.N. SAUNDERS

Dr. A.N. Saunders, who has offices in St. Johns at 204 N. Oakland Street, has been elected to the six-man board of directors of the Michigan State Chiropactic Assn. He was named to the post at the annual meeting of the association last Wednesday in Lansing. His term on the board will run until 1970.

Youth center, Redwing Playhouse, opens

The Redwing Playhouse is the new name for the former Golden 8-Ball building in downtown St. Johns, and Glen Rhines of Ithaca, the owner, is planning to make the business an attractive place for teenagers and adults to gather.

Rhines owns the Yellowjacket, a similar operation, at Ithaca. The business involves more than just playing billiards, Rhines pointed out. Redecoration on the interior of the business has eliminated two pool tables, so there are now six. Twelve amusement units, including pinball machines and other games, are located along the walls.

There are two juke boxes, a reading materials table and what Rhines calls the "biggest display of candy and gum in town." Other refreshments are also available, and Rhines plans to expand soon to offer milk shakes and ice cream.

Rhines said there is no smoking allowed beyond the foyer area. The Redwing Playhouse will be open 10:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. weekdays and until 11:30 p.m. on Saturdays. Sunday hours are 1 to 6 p.m.

Suspect 2 tires taken in burglary

Proprietor Dean Fosmoe reported the St. Johns Automotive Co. office at 1005 N. US-27 was broken into during the early morning hours last Wednesday. It appeared the thieves got away with little, except possibly two tires. They broke a window at the rear of the building to gain admittance.

Courthouse closed all day Friday

The Clinton County Courthouse will be closed all day Friday to afford the employees a long Memorial Day weekend. Walter Nobis, chairman of the county board of supervisors, said the decision was in keeping with other counties in the area which are also closing their courthouses on Friday.

Pair of 3-car crashes injure 4 people slightly

Sunday's heavy and steady rain resulted in a pair of three-car accidents on US-27 in St. Johns, but neither resulted in any serious injuries.

Four people were shaken up and bruised on the second one, which occurred at 1 p.m. on US-27 at the intersection of Railroad Street.

The accident involved cars driven by Wayne I. Woodbury, 49, of Chesaning, Samuel C. Gingrich, 50, of Lansing, and Leona M. Adamski, of 709 N. Traver Street, St. Johns. Woodbury and his wife, Virginia, complained of pains; Mrs. Adamski and her daughter, Debra, 12, suffered bruises.

All three cars were going north on the highway, when an unknown auto ahead of the trio stopped suddenly in the traffic lane. Woodbury and Gingrich were able to stop, but Mrs. Adamski's car hit Gingrich's, setting off the chain reaction.

Farwell, and Kenneth B. Montigel, 69, of Alma were the drivers.

Montigel was ticketed for failure to have his car under control. His auto hit the rear of the Agle car, which was then shoved into the Smith vehicle. Both were stopped for a red light. Montigel told city police he couldn't stop in time because of the wet pavement.

City police investigated several other noteworthy accidents over the weekend. Mrs. Freda J. Robbins of 508 W. Cass Street suffered bruises Saturday evening when the brakes failed on her car as she drove down Swerwood Street toward M-21. She swerved onto the sidewalk in an effort to stop and finally did when she hit a tree next to the Bird-aline Smith home.

Edward Robinson, an employee at Green Meadow Farms for the past two years, has been named chief of police at Ovid, replacing Gaylord Wisenberg, who resigned earlier this month. Robinson was formerly a police officer in Alaska.

They also pointed to other communities around the state where millage issues are being passed by voters. Communities of Swartz Creek, Dansville, Shepherd, Eaton Rapids, Portland, Galesburg, Rockford, Ewart, Holland, Lakewood, Okemos, Fremont, and Hart are among them, passing millages ranging from 3 mills at Swartz Creek to 16 at Marquette.

New water rates proposed

THE PROPOSED new rates would be spread among 1,934 city water and sewer accounts. Chairman Ross Downing of the citizens finance committee, said the group's study of the water-sewer system revealed a four-year operational deficit which will amount to $15,000 or more by June 30 of this year. The loss has been made up by advances from the city's general fund.

"Our committee is unanimous in its opinion that the water-sewer department should charge rates sufficient to cover operational and capital improvement costs," Downing said recently. "We also believe the revenues should be adequate to repay the $150,000 obligation to the general fund over a period of the next 10 years."

NEW LOOK AT REHMANN'S CLOTHING

Rehmann's Clothing Store in the 200 block of North Clinton Avenue is sporting a new and wider look these days. The store has expanded into a 20 x 70 building to the north, formerly occupied by Becker's Appliance, and is now practically twice as large as before. The extra room will allow display of more clothing merchandise and new features, such as a gift bar on either side of an archway between the two buildings. Red carpeting is now included throughout the store. Work still remains, however, with new dressing rooms planned and a restyling of the shoe department at the back of the original store. A grand opening is planned later in the summer.

of water washed out one of them.

The bridge did not completely collapse but it was deemed unsafe for traffic, and the road has been blocked off temporarily. It will be a few days before repairs can be made, for the water must recede considerably in order for the men to get at the area where the repair work must be done.

Deepening of ditches in the past has often weakened the footings on many of the small bridges throughout the county and so this sort of collapse happens rather frequently.

Arnold's new store at Southgate open

The new Arnold's Discount Drugs store in the Southgate Shopping Plaza opened for business Wednesday, bringing to 44 the number of stores the firm operates all over the State of Michigan.

John Huhn, 22, of Lansing, a Portland native, will be manager of the store, which employs 10 persons. The pharmacist on duty will be Donald M. Sabo of Grand Rapids.

The store is located in quarters formerly occupied by the Dee Drugs and the Scotchway Laundromat. The laundromat has moved to more spacious quarters at the north end of the shopping center, and the two former buildings were combined into one.

The store occupies 10,000 square feet, including a large addition at the rear. About 8,500 square feet are involved in the display area of the store.

ARNOLDS WILL maintain hours of 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sundays. Pharmacy hours will be 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Monday, Thursday and Friday and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday. The pharmacy will be closed on Sunday.

2 millage issues on Fulton ballot

MIDDLETON — Fulton School District voters will have two millage proposals on the ballot for the June 10 election, one of which would involve millage over and above what is being paid by residents of the district this year.

A 4-mill operation levy is on one ballot. This is a renewal of a four-mill tax levy approved by voters next year.

A 2-mill issue on a separate ballot is an additional amount for paving the drives and parking lot at the Fulton High School site. Another 2-mill levy voted on in 1964 was for a period of five years and won't expire until April 27, 1969.

Last week's Clinton County News story said the 2-mill levy would replace the other 2-mill tax which would expire. That statement was in error. The new 2-mill levy for the parking lot and drives will be in addition to the millage in effect at the present time.

John Rosencrans, Duane Winsor and Charles Zelinski are candidates for two seats on the board of education. Max Loudenberg, a fourth candidate listed last week, had withdrawn his petition within the legal time allotted.

Rains hurt only late-planters

McQUEEN SAID there is a little ponding in ground that has been worked. "We've been able to get a lot of people to put corn in on plow plant or minimum tillage, and that corn isn't hurt. But where some of the fields were worked for soybeans, there's water standing on them, and if there's beans in them there's a greater potential of damage."

It was a nice rain, McQueen said, but now what is needed is warm temperature. "Corn has been growing slow and is just a little yellow because of lack of temperature. Soybeans are in the same boat. It's getting to the point where we need some warmth."

The rain did delay for at least a week those farmers who planned to do some haying the first part of this week.

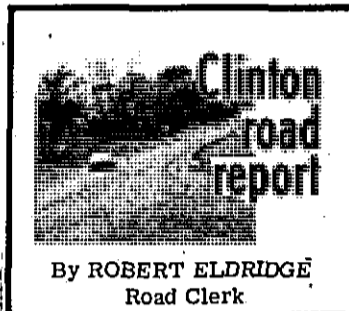

Get preliminary OK for E. Olive school septic field

Preliminary approval has been granted for a septic field to be installed for the new East Olive Neighborhood Elementary School, St. Johns School District officials announced this week.

Steve Bakita, administrative assistant, reported engineers found some lighter soil on the school property suitable for the drain field, and preliminary approval was granted by the state and Mid-Michigan District health departments.

The East Olive School is located on Green Road east of Chandler Road. School officials feared the heavy clay soil on the property would not allow for a septic tank and field and that a more costly lagoon system would have to be built.

Had this been the case, more property would have had to be purchased so that the lagoon could be built at least 600 feet from the school's well.

How quickly a couple of days of bad weather can disrupt roads and the work on roads.

The erosive action of auto traffic is intensified 10 times over, it seems, during a rainy spell such as we experienced this last weekend. Smooth gravel roads that were in excellent condition prior to the rain became rough and hole pocked overnight. Black tops and even paved roads suffer too, for patches pop out of place and the holes they leave are quickly enlarged both by the rain, and the wheels of traffic.

To attempt to correct these conditions while the rain is still falling and even for a day or so afterwards is frustrating. The gravel road surfaces remain too soft and soupy for grading to have any lasting effect. New patches just will not hold on wet black top or concrete either and it does little actual good to fill spot spots on gravel roads until they dry out somewhat.

Rainy weather, as you may have by now surmised, is just not our kind of weather here at the Road Commission.

IF YOU SAW THE road commission crews working last Saturday and wondered why, the reason is this. The men decided they would rather work last Saturday instead of this coming Friday—the day following Memorial Day. The commission, at their meeting last week, approved and so we will be closed for a long Memorial Day weekend.

The heavy rain was responsible for closing off the mile section of Gratiot Road immediately north of Maple Rapids and west. This is the section lying between Harris Road and the extension of Maple Avenue running north through Maple Rapids. It is a heavily traveled one mile piece of black top road used by most traffic from the northwest of Maple Rapids to gain entry to the village. The small bridge on this road has stone abutments and the rain and increased flow

2 candidates tell views to local teachers

Two candidates for a Republican nomination to the State Legislature gave their views on school problems May 20 to the St. Johns Education Assn. Approximately 25 attended the St. Johns High School meeting.

The speakers were William S. Ballenger of Ovid and Robert D. Ditmer of St. Johns. They are running in the 87th House District.

Said Ditmer: "I oppose any legislation that will take away local administrative powers of local school districts and place them with a state board of control."

"I would support a more equitable tax base on a state-wide basis to provide a sound footing for the budget of the school district."

He said he'd like to see a better statewide teacher pay schedule that wouldn't be dependent on local voter approval.

Said Ballenger: "Action is needed to remove the serious financial inequities existing between various school districts in the state."

"Public education's financial base should be revised, and this should include a substantial reduction in local property taxes," Ballenger praised the comprehensive revision of the school aid formula involved in this year's state school aid program. He said early passage gives much needed time to Michigan schools to plan programs and budgets for the fall.

The state school aid program of $752 million represented an increase of $60 million, or 19 per cent, over last year's general fund budget.

Michigan has 40 symphony orchestras, 12 professional string quartets, 150 high school string quartets and more than 200 civic choruses.

Corunna Justice of the Peace Robert A. Schultz has opened an office at 102 N. Clinton Avenue, St. Johns, in his quest for the Republican nomination for the 87th state representative seat. His fulltime receptionist will be Linda Runyan of Owasco.

Schultz campaign office is opened

The highlight of Michigan Week in Elsie was the visit from Mayor A. J. Rogers and wife of Sanford on Mayors Exchange Day. Mr and Mrs Durward Conklin went to Sanford where they were royally entertained.

Mr and Mrs Al Mitchell met the visitors at the village limits and went to the home of Mr and Mrs C.H. Sils for coffee. The next stop was Green Meadow Farms where Merle Green and son, Velmar, greeted them and made a tour of both farms.

They saw the display of trophies earned by Green Cattle and the bookkeeping records on the registered cattle. They also toured the Knight Elementary School, escorted by Principal Larry Nicholas.

The Ovid-Elsie School Bank escorted them through Elsie. They saw the new George Libby bridge west of Elsie and rodeo arena that 4-H groups and their fathers have worked on. Later they joined the local business men at the Village Inn for a luncheon.

In the afternoon they met with the Ovid visiting Mayor James Lawler and Councilman Ronald Reynolds and their wives for a tour of the new Ovid-Elsie High School, escorted by Albert Ackley. Tours of the Elsie Grain Terminal and Moore's Seed Farm were also of real interest to the visitors. They returned to the home of Mr and Mrs C.H. Sils for a social hour with a few neighbors dropping in to greet the mayor and his wife.

They were evening dinner guests of the Lions Club, village officials and businessmen's organization at the Elsie Junior High School auditorium. Speaker for the program was Charles T. Black, pesticide advisor and director of farm-game research for the Michigan Department of Conservation at the Rose Lake Wildlife Research Center Northeast of Lansing.

Corsages made up by Wats Florists were presented to the women and bouquets for the men. The Mitchells received a letter the following morning from the Rogers expressing their appreciation for the enjoyable time and the hospitality of the Elsie people.

FIELD TRIP Mrs Marian Clark and her 32 second graders from Knight Elementary School enjoyed a field trip to the Elsie Athletic Field one day last week.

St. Johns captured all available points during the Lakewood match last Tuesday, May 21. In singles, John Salemi defeated Lyle Livingston 6-0 8-3, Jeff White swept over Bill Ribbens 6-1 6-0, and Rick Warren defeated Mel Townsend 6-0 6-2.

In the doubles category, Tim Durner and Scott Bennett won over Bill Gonyon and Floyd Jackson 6-2 7-5. Mike Galvach and Larry Zuker, still underdogged in the conference, easily defeated Mike Nedham and Stan Graham 6-0 6-4.

The match was a little closer against Ionia on home courts May 23. The match score was 3-2, in favor of St. Johns.

helpful, St. Johns should still be the team to beat in the West Central next season.

During the regionals held Friday and Saturday, May 24 and 25, at Okemos High School, Holt came out on top with 11 1/2 team points. St. Johns, finishing fourth, had Jeff White in the singles going to the quarter-finals only to lose to Myer of Holt. Rick Warren lost to Jagger of Balding in the second round and Dick Rademacher lost to MacFarlane of Ionia in the first round.

The doubles combination of John Salemi and Tim Durner traveled all the way to the semi-finals, losing there to the doubles team of Duke and Dancer of Ionia. Scott Bennett and Larry Zuker were defeated in the second round by Henderson and Bauer of Holt, who were the eventual runners-up in the region. Steve Root and Tom Warstler lost to Robinson and Wagner of Balding in the second round of competition.

Though strating out as a young and inexperienced team, St. Johns had a considerably successful season. Now the job of rebuilding and reorganization takes place for Coach Bill Swears. There are a few bright spots, though, on the returning squad for next year and they are Tim Durner, a sophomore; Rick Warren, a junior; Scott Bennett, a sophomore; and Larry Zuker, a sophomore. St. Johns may still look forward to some more years of winning tennis.

Jon Tatroe (second from left) of St. Johns and Bud Chaney of Ithaca admire their checks for $750 which they each received by virtue of a tie for first place in the annual St. Johns Singles Tournament. Tatroe receives his check from Mike Hata, tournament secretary, and Chaney gets his from Orth Tatroe, proprietor of Red Wing Laney in St. Johns.

St. Johns, Ithaca bowlers tie, win $750 each top money

JEFF WHITE LOST in the singles to Doug Johnson 6-3 4-6 3-6, Rick Warren also succumbed to his opponent Tom Leslie losing 6-8 3-6, but Tim Durner pulled it out for the singles, easily defeating Evan MacFarlane 6-1 6-0.

Top money of $1,500 was shared in the $5,150 St. Johns singles bowling tournament at Red Wings Lanes.

Deadlocked at 714 and getting $750 each were Jon Tatroe of St. Johns and Bud Chaney of Ithaca.

A tie also developed for third and fourth positions at 701. Getting $200 each were Ron Boogard of Hudsonville and George Novitsky of Kalamazoo.

Dick Cornick of Kalamazoo won $125 with his 698 for fifth. Two Ithaca bowlers and a Charlotte pinman tied at 693 for sixth, seventh and eighth. Getting $105 each were Stanley Woodruff and Merle Fitzpatrick of Ithaca and Lee Jackson of Charlotte.

Winners of $90 by deadlocking at 689 for the next three places were Duane Peltier and Danny Oliver, both of Lansing, and James Miner of Grand Rapids.

The tournament attracted 1,920 entries.

Tatroe, a 159 average bowler, received a 92-pin handicap. His actual games were 232, 214 and 176. Chaney is a 184 average pinman. He fired actual scores of 256, 211 and 211 and got a 36-pin handicap.

The prize money is to be distributed in about two weeks, the management announces.

JOHN O'LEARY
O'Leary hits hole in one

John O'Leary of 810 S. Scott Road, St. Johns, scored a hole in one on the 200-yard, par 3 No. 8 hole at Clinton County Country Club Saturday.

It was only the third time a hole in one had been made on No. 8.

O'Leary, who averages 42 strokes a round, had 37 for his nine-hole round Saturday. He was playing with Ray Kentfield, and Ed MacLuek. O'Leary said it was his first hole in one, although he has come within 18 inches before.

Derby inspection, trial Saturday

A trail run of Soap Box Derby cars has been scheduled for this Saturday morning and afternoon in one of the final tune-ups for the June 9 Soap Box Derby that could involve up to 100 cars.

Derby Director William McCarthy said the trial run, coupled with a derby car inspection, will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the Railroad Street hill west of US-27.

McCarthy urged all boys possible to bring their cars to the inspection this week, where they will get an opportunity to try out steering and brakes during the trial run. Starting ramps will be used.

For cars that aren't ready for the run or for a final inspection, the dates of June 5 from 7-9 p.m. and June 8 from 10-12 a.m. have been set for final inspection. The location on those days will be the corner of Brush Street and Railroad Street; no trial run will be provided on those dates.

McCarthy said 94 boys are currently registered for the June 9 race, which could possibly be the largest derby in the state of Michigan. He said he also knows of several other boys who are building derby cars but who haven't registered. He urged them to sign up immediately.

Westphalia will have a six-able delegation of about 16 cars this year, nearly double their entries last year. McCarthy said four or five cars are expected from Fowler, with the balance coming from St. Johns and surrounding area.

Last year's Clinton County Soap Box Derby drew 77 cars.

A 40-unit parade is being planned preceding the derby. The parade will start at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, June 9. Soap Box Derby queens from Fowler, Westphalia, and St. Johns will ride in the parade, and a county derby queen will be crowned at the awards ceremony following the races.

Among the personalities present for the derby will be Terry McDermott, silver medal winner in speed skating for the United States at the 1968 winter Olympics. He'll ride in the parade and will also speak briefly at the awards ceremony.

The awards will be presented on the lawn at the railroad depot near the finish line of the derby raceway (Clinton Avenue). The derby winner will receive the top prize of a $500 savings bond, trophy and a trip to the All-American Soap Box Derby in Akron, Ohio, Aug. 24. Those prizes are provided by Chevrolet, national sponsor of the derby.

Other prizes will be awarded to the top 15 finishers.

Awards will also be presented to winners of a "powder puff" race and an "oil can" race. Three girls are presently entered in the powder puff derby. Invitations have been extended to the mayor and village presidents of St. Johns, Westphalia and Fowler to participate in the oil can race.

A soap box derby display, including the winning car of 1967 Derby Champ Lee Smith of DeWitt, has been set up in the lobby of the Clinton National Bank.

Golfers defeat Ionia, finish with 11-2 mark

At the Clinton County Country Club last Wednesday, May 22, the St. Johns Redwing golf team defeated Ionia 173-186. With this the last match of the season medalist Lee Lynam shot a 42, Dave Gaffney 44, Dan Schueller 43, and Gary Sipkovsky 44. Bruce LaPointe of Ionia shot a 45, Mike Kistler 46, Steve Watt 47, and Gail Larson 48.

The JV's came through in a winning fashion, dropping the JV's of Ionia 203-235. Mike McKay shot a 46, Rich Stoddard 48, John Estes 53, and Jeff Geller 56. Mike Langdon, junior Bulldog of Ionia shot a 50, Fritz Thwaites 58, Charles Cox 59, and Leonard DeLoeke 68.

The varsity golf team finished the season with an overall record of 11 wins and 2 defeats. The team finished second in the West Central Conference. The JV's had a real strong season, recording 9 wins and only 1 defeat.

The prospects for next year look promising, according to Coach Mike Humphrey, for only two members will graduate—

Mike McKay and Dave Harper. This will leave St. Johns with eight returning lettermen for next year's season.

COFFEE CUP LEAGUE (May 23)—High team game and series: The Bugs 659 and the Red Wings 1937. High individual game and series: Margaret Cook 188 and Judy Payne 504. Conversions: Martha DeLong 7-6-10, Carol Cook 2-7-10, Julia Krull 5-7, and Marian Orweller 3-10 and 5-7. The Early Birds and The 4 Wonders are leading the league at 12-8 with The Bugs close behind in second at 11-9.

The Detroit River carries more tonnage annually than the Rhine, Seine, Thames and Volga Rivers combined. More tonnage passes through the Soo Locks in an eight months Great Lakes navigation season than through the Panama or Suez Canal in a normal year.

W. E. Tabor heads Ovid developers

OVID — Willie E. Tabor has been elected new president of the Ovid Development Corp. at the annual meeting of the group.

Vice president will be Edward J. Loznak, and secretary-treasurer is Gilbert O. Bovan. Serving on the board of directors are Francis Johnson and Dave Houghton for three years; Tabor, Bovan and Larry Martin for two years; and Harvey Darling and Loznak for one year.

The purpose of this non-profit community corporation is to promote new business for the Ovid area. Most recently, the development corporation has gained title to the old Wilson Dairy Plant building on East M-21 and it now houses the new business of Ovid Welding Service.

This new company is owned and operated by Robert G'Schwind who specializes in stainless steel, magnesium, aluminum, and white metal die welding. G'Schwind is one of a select few who offer this type of welding service along with conventional methods.

Commission meeting not routine, but it was short

The nature of the business kept it from being routine, but last Tuesday night's meeting of the St. Johns City Commission was one of the shortest of the year.

It lasted only 45 minutes.

There was the business of the budget adoption, and the first reading of a new water and sewer rates ordinance, both of which had been hashed out previously. They were formally taken care of quickly. Then there was the informal approval of a plan for volunteer policing the city park so it could be used this summer.

Details on these items appear in stories elsewhere in this week's Clinton County News.

To round out the 45-minute meeting, the commission also took these actions:

* They approved a request from the Citizens for Quality Education for use of a sound unit in St. Johns on June 10 (school election day) and the installation of a banner concerning the election to be put up at the head of Clinton Avenue.

* THEY APPROVED the use of the city park athletic field (softball) by the fire department for the Fourth of July celebration, provided the carnival company leaves following the celebration July 2-6.

* The VFW Auxiliary and John A. Rumbaugh has been elected a trustee and secretary-treasurer of the Clinton Memorial Hospital Assn., replacing Leo W. Corkin, who has retired because of the press of other duties.

Paul Nobis, a trustee, was elected to the board of directors succeeding William W. Barber, who is retiring from that board under provisions of the association's by-laws. Barber will continue as a trustee.

The changes in the governing organizations of Clinton Memorial Hospital came at the May 16 annual meeting of the Clinton Memorial Hospital Assn.

Corkin, circuit judge for the 29th judicial circuit (Clinton and Gratiot counties) has been secretary-treasurer of the association since 1960 and a long-time trustee.

BARBER HAS BEEN on the board of directors of the hospital for 14 years and has been chairman of the building committee overseeing the $1 million-plus additions now in the completion stage. He owns the Julie K Shop in St. Johns.

Rumbaugh, the new trustee, is automatically on the board of directors as a result of his position as secretary-treasurer. He is executive vice president and cashier of the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co.

Nobis, the new director, has been a trustee. He operates a farm west of St. Johns and is also a director of the Central National Bank and chairman of the Clinton County Road Commission.

Incumbent officers of the board of trustees were re-elected. Alan R. Dean is president, Ink White first vice president and Conrad Selin Jr. second vice president. Rumbaugh is secretary-treasurer.

Robert G. Conn was chairman of the nominating committee for the May 16 meeting.

The board of directors will reorganize at its June meeting. Ink White is presently chairman, Robert Beach vice chairman, Lorenz Tiedt and William Barber assistant treasurers, and Roy Briggs, Leo Corkin and William Richards Sr members.

Lawrence Sexton, chairman of a special committee appointed a year ago for step up recruitment of medical doctors for the St. Johns area, reported to the association that a number of contacts have been made with possible young practitioners, but so far there has been little success.

SEXTON SAID THE committee is finding that most young doctors

JOHN A. RUMBAUGH
...secretary-treasurer

WILLIAM BARBER

are specializing and that there are few general practitioners available. Military service commitments are also standing in the way of the younger men moving into a community situation.

The committee is made up of Sexton, Dorr Anderson, Fraser MacKinnon, Alan R. Dean, Ink White and Dr P.F. Stoller. The men were all reappointed to the committee for another year.

In routine business at the association meeting May 16, reports were heard from Ink White, chairman of the board of directors; Leo Corkin, secretary-treasurer; Harold Reed, hospital administrator; Dr P.F. Stoller, chief of staff; Mrs Fraser MacKinnon, Hospital Auxiliary president; Mrs Esther Hendershot, Auxiliary treasurer; and Mrs Edward Prowant, Red Cross Volunteers president.

Others get quick results with Clinton County News classified ads—you will, too!

American Legion Auxiliary were given permission to sell poppies on the streets of the business district May 23, 24 and 25.

* The commission granted approval for the use of Clinton Avenue for the Soap Box Derby June 9. Bill McCarthy, derby director, said this year's race will be the largest in the state of Michigan.

* The city manager was authorized to enter into an agreement with the YMCA of Lansing for leasing the city park swimming pool. The commission also formally approved the purchase and installation of necessary equipment and the preparation of the pool, provided there is no cost to the city.

The audience last week consisted of 16 persons, smaller than usual in past months despite the presence of the water rate ordinance and 1968-69 budget on the agenda.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

Dr. and Mrs. A.N. Sauders of 411 Meadowview Drive, St. Johns, attended the annual convention of the Michigan State Chiropractic Assn. in Lansing last week. Dr. Sauders was a member of the ethics and sergeant-at-arms committees. He has offices at 204 N. Oakland Street, St. Johns.

Judy Fowler of 401 S. Oakland Street, St. Johns, a sophomore science major at Central Michigan University, has been initiated into Alpha Chi Omega, one of 10 social sororities on the campus at Mt. Pleasant.

Rogation Day masses were said on two farms in the St. Johns area last Monday and Tuesday evenings. Monday's mass was at the Alfred Simon farm on Centerline Road west of Dewitt Road, and Monday it was at the Arthur Motz farm at 1251 W. Silvers Road.

St. Johns schools figuring on 3,732 students next year

St. Johns school enrollment for next year will be another record high unless things deteriorate over the summer (and that's not likely).

Figures compiled by school officials show an enrollment of 3,732 — as of Friday — for next year. Enrollment was 3,626 on the fourth Friday census of this school year.

Most of the increase has come in the high school, where enrollment is expected to be at least 105 students higher than this year. Kindergarten enrollment in the district is light so far, but some additional pupils are expected to be signed up over the summer.

The overall effect may possibly be a reduction in the number of classrooms needed, but whether this will be in the form of fewer portable classrooms or fewer rented classrooms hasn't been determined yet.

The loosening up of the crowded situation in town is the result of many of the rural students being assigned to the new neighborhood schools rather than coming into the city.

WHILE THE OVERALL situation is better, conditions are expected to be even tighter than this year at the high school and Central School where the junior high is housed.

Here's how the enrollment stands for next year, as of Friday:

High school, 1,145 (311 in 9th grade, 307 in 10th grade, 282 in 11th grade, 230 in 12th grade and 15 in special education).

Central junior high, 294 (154 in seventh grade, 140 in eighth grade).

Central elementary school (no kindergarten), 287.

East Ward (grades kindergarten and 1-4), 143.

Perrin-Palmer School 267.

Swegles School 269.

East Olive School 216.
Olive Center School 78.
Riley School 427.
East Essex School 183.
Eureka School 209.
Rural schools in near-St. Johns vicinity 214.

Michigan leads the nation in the production of red tart cherries, dry edible beans, blueberries, cucumbers for pickles and eastern white winter wheat.

CHOIRS HAVE PARTIES

The Junior Choir of the United Methodist Church of Bannister enjoyed a party following their last practice of the season. "Let's talk dry cleaning"

by Dana Antes

Lightweight summer clothes have proved a boon to man... especially to a working man who has to wear a suit all or part of a hot day. And many of the fabrics developed by manufacturers in recent years have added built-in bonuses: they resist wrinkling and staining to keep their "fresh pressed" look longer.

A word of warning, however; regular cleaning is still necessary for your summer clothing. Even when a coat still looks pressed and the trousers retain their crease, they may need to be cleaned. Normal stains and soiling still occur and these should not be left in to attack the fabric or become too deeply imbedded. And perspiration especially should not be left in the garment.

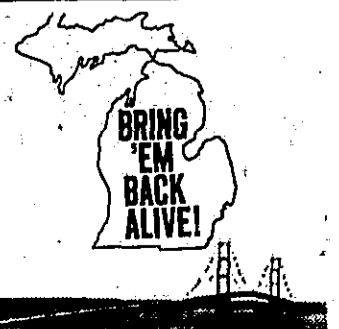

Such popular summerweight fabrics as silks and silk combinations are especially vulnerable to perspiration. You may not see the deterioration of the fabric caused by perspiration, but it will show up as soon as the garment is cleaned. This is a case where what you don't see CAN hurt you.

Summer or winter, regular cleaning is the best way to preserve your clothing so that it will last longer, look better.

Butterflies aren't Human

Our 9A biology trip was a huge success. After we saw the museum's collection of rare lepidoptera, we went outside to collect specimens. Then we ate lunch, and took pictures. Here's one with me, on the left, laughing at Eddie. We were in a big discussion about whether or not butterflies can feel.

While our teacher exchanged notes with the curator, we sat around and talked. After butterflies, we started on missiles and rockets, and whether or not there's life on the stars. Somehow, don't ask me how, we got on the subject of God.

You know, I didn't realize how ignorant some kids are about Him! All of a sudden, I found out how good it is to have some ideas about where, what, and why, I am. A few of those kids were really way out in left field.

Now it's up to me to show them what they have been missing. I think I've talked them all into going to church with me Sunday.

DOWNTOWN GETS BEAUTY TREATMENT

Members of the French's Corners 4-H Club helped give downtown St. Johns a beauty treatment last week by cleaning up and planting fresh flowers in the six floral boxes that line the sidewalks of the middle block of Clinton Avenue. Lynda Droste (left) is the club's teen leader, and the other three members are Marcia Motz, Bruce Droste and Eugene Jones. Several 4-H clubs fixed up flower boxes as a Michigan Week project.

Witt-Spiece vows said at Eureka

Mary Lou Witt daughter of Mr and Mrs George R. Hubbard of Sevy Road, St. Johns and Floyd Leroy Spiece exchanged nuptial vows on Saturday, May 11, at 3 p.m. at the Congregational Christian Church in Eureka. Rev William Moore officiated at the service in which Mr Hubbard gave his daughter in marriage. White mums and white snapdragons adorned the church altar.

The late Mr and Mrs Floyd Spiece were parents of the bridegroom.

The bride was gowned in a street length dress of blue lace with matching accessories and carried white mums and pink rose buds.

MRS KEITH MILLER was matron of honor for her sister. She wore pink lace with matching accessories and carried an arrangement of white mums and pink rose buds.

Derwood Spiece, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Dellray Spiece and Ronald Hubbard.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs J.D. Robinson

Michigan Week as a formal observance wound up Sunday, but as county and local chairmen for the programs noted, the talk and pride about this state will go on. We record below the thoughts and observations of several freshmen English students at Rodney B. Wilson High about the various themes of Michigan Week.

St. Johns Chairman Bill Patton picked these three out of nearly a dozen essays submitted by students in a Michigan Week essay contest in St. Johns.

EDUCATION in Michigan

By JANICE MANKEY

Our governor, legislatures and representatives who run the State of Michigan are well-educated men. Michigan has continued to grow economically and has very good schools so that children can get a good education.

As times progress it is more important than ever that children go to college. In the future a college education is to be necessary in order to get the better jobs.

With the taxes we pay, better schools have been built and properly equipped to educate children. They have more to learn than ever before and modern books and equipment are needed.

YOUTH in Michigan

By DARIA WIRTH

To me the youth of today are unique in their own way.

Many young people in the world today are anxious to help others, and their generosity never seems to let up.

Older people today, though, think young people aren't any good. They say "Why can't you be like we were when we were young?" Try to explain to them that times were different when they were young.

Most young people today are considerate, though, and will go out of their way to prove it to everyone. Today, for instance, young people have started various clubs to help others who are less fortunate. They believe in giving a chance to those who never before had one, and by doing this they give themselves and others a brighter future.

Yes, modern youth of today helps to help put in the new lawn seed. Mrs Clea Summers, took some of the mothers on a tour through the school building.

Mrs Ethel Randolph, Mrs Grace Stevens, Mrs Gladys Silvernail and Mrs Nina Ruess visited with Mrs Emma Mundell of Fowler, last Thursday afternoon. Mrs Mundell had as her house guest, her sister Mrs Fannie Davis of Dexter.

Mr and Mrs John Martin and two children of St. Johns called on her parents Mr and Mrs J.D. Robinson, Sunday afternoon. They helped little Eunice celebrate her 4th birthday.

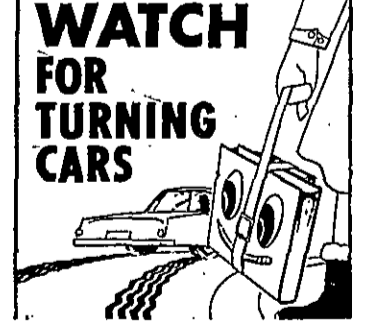

Mrs Ethel Randolph and Mrs J. D. Robinson visited Gordon at the Coldwater Hospital last Saturday.

Mr and Mrs Gordon Waggoner were Sunday evening luncheon guests of Mr and Mrs Roger Shutes, Scott and Tracy in St. Johns.

Gloria Waggoner spent Saturday evening and night with Scott and Tracy Shutes in St. Johns.

Ed Bushre, is home on leave from service, visiting here with his mother, Mrs Ethel Bushre, also his brothers and sisters.

Eureka Mother's Club met Monday evening at the Eureka Elementary School. Mothers from Eureka and the surrounding area rural schools, were in attendance. With Mrs Vera Bryant, the coming school-year Eureka Principal, was the guest speaker of the evening. Wendell Waggoner, also spoke to the group, that there was a need of

HERITAGE of Michigan

By JIM WIERMAN

The Indians, who were the first people in this state, set a good background for Michigan. Many of the counties and cities were named after great tribes and chief; that illustrated that the people showed great concern for the Indians.

For instance, Chippewa, Huron, Keveenaw, Ogemaw, Shawasssee, Oxbow, Tekonsha, Okemos and Owosso.

When the French arrived they were trying to find a water route between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. While they were exploring, the French would trap animals and trade the skins to the Indians for supplies. These are the people who started trapping in the forests and plains of Michigan.

There were many counties and cities named after the French: for instance, Charlevoix, Leelanau, Marquette, Montcalm, Detroit, DeWitt, LeRoy, Grosse Pointe, Au Train, and Au Sable. The British did not agree or get along with the Indians or French. They did not want to start a very large population because it would hurt the fur trade.

The people ratified the constitution on Oct. 5, 1835. On Jan. 26, 1837, Michigan became the 26th state of the Union. In 1963, Michigan adopted a new constitution.

Waterweed control possible

One of the common nuisance waterweeds at this time of year is filamentous algae, found in most Michigan lakes, ponds and slow-moving streams. Growing on the bottom in hairlike threads, they float to the surface and form large mats, which interfere with fishing and other water recreational activities.

"These accumulations are greatly in excess of food requirements of animals," says Vernie Knudson, Michigan State University aquatic weed control specialist. "Dying and decaying each year, these mats of filamentous algae cause offensive odors, breed mosquitoes, clog drains and waterways and interfere with recreation."

"Continued raking will remove the mats but most people consider this too laborious and look for chemical control."

"COPPER SULFATE is the most widely used chemical for algae control. Farm supply and chemical retailers sell it in powder, flakes or crystals," reports Knudson.

Both chemicals are poisonous and should be handled carefully.

IF THE WATER to be treated is not privately owned or discharges into the natural watershed, permission to use copper sulfate or Hydrothol 47 must first be obtained from the local district fisheries biologist of the Michigan Department of Conservation.

If mats of algae are unusually heavy, decomposition of the algae after treatment may use up oxygen and cause death of fish and other aquatic animals. To prevent the complete loss of oxygen, treat only one half of the pond or lake. Then, treat the other half one week later, says Knudson.

Another herbicide which can control filamentous algae is marketed as Hydrothol 47, available in liquid or granular form. The liquid may be applied with a hand sprayer at the rate of 1 1/2 to 3 pints per acre-foot. The granules should be spread evenly with a hand scoop or rotary seeder at the rate of 5 to 11 pounds per acre-foot of water.

"Those dosages should not be exceeded," says the MSU extension specialist, "since fish may be killed at higher concentrations. Be sure to read the label and observe all precautions."

Tractor safety education pays off

Fewer Michigan farmers are killed in tractor accidents, but that's not because there are fewer tractors.

A Michigan State University survey showed that in the last five years, Michigan's yearly death rate has averaged 19 per 100,000 tractors. Compared with the 1955-1956 period, this represents a 20 per cent improvement and also is 10 per cent below the national average.

In the last 10 years, the number of tractors on Michigan's farms has stabilized at approximately 170,000.

The reduction in Michigan's tractor death rate is the result of more safety built into tractors by manufacturers, an effective tractor training program for youth in 4-H Club and FFA programs, and a constant effort to keep farmers driving defensively, says Richard G. Pfister, MSU safety specialist.

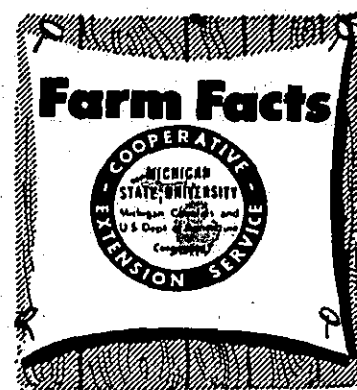

ALTHOUGH MOST OF THE DEATHS happen in fields, the number killed in public road accidents involving farmers has increased, reports Pfister.

The MSU agricultural engineer found that half of all tractor accidents that occur on public roads involve collision with other vehicles. The slow moving vehicles (SMV) emblem law, which has been effective only one year, is expected to result in a reduction of rear-end collisions.

"The most dangerous tractor drivers are those too young to get a permit to drive an automobile," Pfister says. "A total of 51 youth, 10-14 years of age, were killed in tractor accidents from 1965-1967."

"People between 15 and 65 years of age do a large share of the tractor work, yet had only 37 per cent of the fatal accidents. Youth under 15 years of age accounted for 24 per cent of all tractor deaths and 30 per cent of those that occur on public roads."

Pfister's study shows that tractor turnovers were by far the most common type of fatal accident, occurring in six out of every 10 cases.

Best control is achieved with an early treatment when the filamentous algae are starting to grow rapidly on the bottom. Since the algae will grow back, treatments will have to be repeated as necessary.

CONSERVATION DIGEST

MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

At their May meeting, conservation commissioners expressed serious concern over the lamprey situation in the upper Great Lakes, especially in Lake Huron. As of now, federal funds available for lamprey control fall $150,000 short of the amount needed. Without this control, the department's trout and salmon program for Huron would have to be halted. With it, a $20 million a year fishery for the big lake is possible. Collective comment at the Commission meeting: "The job, somehow, must be done."

A four-state attack on pollution in the Lake Michigan basin is the subject of a statement of agreement endorsed by conservation commissions of Michigan and Wisconsin. It now awaits adoption by Indiana and Illinois. Major purpose is to provide a united offensive in the pesticide cleanup of Lake Michigan.

Spring turkey hunters were happy, enthusiastic, well behaved. The seven-day hunt in the Baldwin area, first of its kind in Michigan, was a success, all around. Twenty-five gobblers were taken — about 3 per cent of the population. Successful and unsuccessful hunters called the season "great." Eight hundred permits had been issued, but no word yet on how many used them. Department game biologists are pleased, and indicate spring turkey hunting is here to stay. Outlook for next year: more permits, larger area.

BUDGETED FOR 1969, but not yet approved by Congress, are $1,315,000 for rebuilding harbors at Grand Marais, St. Joseph, and South Haven. Not enough, says Keith Wilson, chief of the department's Waterways Division. In a recent Washington appearance he asked for an additional $1,524,000 to be spent at Cross Village, Cedar River and Lexington.

Forest fire rampage by mid-May covered about 15,000 acres. Total for all of 1967 was about 3,000 acres. On May 8, a 4,000-acre fire roared in southeastern Kalkaska County. On the same day another burned 1,600 acres in southwestern Crawford County. The situation will remain critical until green-up time, about June's first week.

Ready for coho fishermen during the expected late summer bonanza will be an on-the-spot information service. Latest reports on fish concentrations, weather, and other conditions pertinent to anglers will be available. Specially equipped trailers will be operated by the Department to provide the service at Frankfort, Manistee, and the mouth of the Platte River.

State park attendance this year through May's first weekend was up 15.7 per cent over the like period in '67. Camping was up 67.3 per cent. Weather made the difference, say park officials. Nothing dramatic about springtime water levels in Michigan. At "key" rivers — Sturgeon in Baraga County, and Red Cedar

In Ingham, levels are normal. The Muskegon, a third indicator, is down a little. Lake levels are normal, and ground water levels are generally above average, but a bit below a year ago.

Administration of the department's public access site program shifted from the Fish Division to the Waterways Division. Reflected is an expansion in use. Originally public fishing sites, they now serve a variety of interests. "Boat launching site" is the term to best describe their purpose.

Recipe for democracy

Pride and responsibility

There's not much doubt that America is going through a moral and social revolution right now that is, in effect, shaking the very roots of democracy.

Perhaps pride and responsibility would get us started in the right direction. They are old and tested words, but their practice is not old-fashioned or a step backward for society.

Pride and responsibility can be taught, but like most precepts they are no good unless practiced. Michigan Week is an example of practicing pride, but it is designed as a symbol of pride in our state the year around rather than for a mere seven days.

The pride that our nation needs to take in itself goes a good deal farther and deeper than the mere observance of a Michigan Week or what have you.

Once we do that, we can also take pride in our home, our neighborhood, in our water plant, in our hospital, our city facilities, our school system, our highways, our college campuses, our public buildings, our . . . These are things generations before us never had and possibly never dreamed

Death of a volunteer leader will leave a void

A lot of good people die every week, but in few cases is the death felt by such a wide range of the population as when the person has been actively engrossed in volunteer work.

That's why we're sure the death of Miss Hazel Williams May 5 will long be felt even though only passing notice may have been given to her obituary.

She worked long and hard to get others to work, and she was successful because she would never ask anyone to do something she would not do herself.

Mrs Audrey Fruchtl will make a good chairman for the Society in her place, but Miss Williams will be missed by all those who worked with her and the hundreds who have benefited from her Cancer Society work.

Notes in passing

The airlines like to say they are doing a wonderful public relations job. But they are downright dishonest when it comes to dealing with the novice traveler in particular.

Assume you live near Lansing or Grand Rapids and want to fly via Chicago. You call either United or North Central for a reservation. Then you tell them where you'd like to go and when you want to return.

How can you beat it? By going to a competent travel agency. They'll book you for the quickest possible trip regardless of what airline is used.

A committee to assist Grand Valley State College in selecting a new president received 69 nominees from a variety of sources. It has been reduced by the committee to 17 candidates, some of whom may or may not be interested in the job.

of. But we have them, and we should be proud of them and of our society that can provide them.

But the catalyst that turns pride into continuing progress is responsibility. No high school senior, regardless of his pride in his abilities, will make the grade in that world out there unless he acts responsibly.

Society has laws, some good and some bad, but they are laws and they must be observed and obeyed by the responsible citizen. We may protest some of them; to change them is being irresponsible.

Pride and responsibility go hand in hand to build and to maintain. We are proud of our home; WE must work to keep it looking nice. We are proud of our schools; WE are responsible for keeping them good, not "they."

Responsibility is a serious business. Hundreds of graduating seniors around Clinton County will find that out, and thousands of adults who are out earning their way already know it.

Higher water rates for poor water?

Dear Editor:

It is our thinking that if we are to have a raise in our water rates or at the present rate, the water that we are supposed to drink could be of a quality that people could drink without the odor and taste that we have in it now.

Our thinking is that after the money we had to spend to get this water system here in St. Johns it should be water a person could drink, without holding your nose and distaste to your palate.

JFK quotes apply here, too: White

Dear Editor:

"The education of our people is a national investment. It yields tangible returns in economic growth, in improved citizenry and higher standards of living.

"Let us not think of education only in terms of its costs, but rather in terms of the infinite potential of the human mind that can be realized through education. Let us think of education as the means of developing our greatest abilities, because in each of us there is a private hope and dream which, fulfilled, can be translated into benefit for everyone and greater strength for our nation."

These two quotes are from the book "Memorable Quotations of John F. Kennedy." Kennedy was deeply concerned with the youth of our country and was an inspiration to both young and old.

I believe that the members of the school board have given us a realistic picture of the needs of our children. They are not responsible for the rising costs of education any more than we are, but they have accepted it as a fact of life, and we must do the same.

Vote yes for our schools on June 10.

The breaks of life

By LOWELL G. RINKER

It must be kind of hard on a child to have to wear a cast around for a month because of a broken bone. But when the child has only recently reached the do-it-yourself age — under normal circumstances — the broken bone can be a headache to the parent, too, who thought he or she was over the hump.

My daughter took a tumble about a month ago while trying an acrobatic leap toward a neighbor's clothesline pole, and when she fell she landed on her left wrist. All of this happened, of course, as we were getting ready to go out for the evening.

X-rays the next day disclosed that the wrist was fractured, and so a cast was applied. There was considerable apprehension on the daughter's part that the broken wrist and cast would make her an outcast among her friends and school chums, but it took only a day at school to dispel those fears.

From then on the only problems for Kathy seemed to be strictly imaginary in the minds of mom and dad. She learned to sleep around and even on the cast and she carried it around as though it wasn't there. She acknowledged that it does itch at times, but she solved that problem herself by tugging at the inner gauze between her thumb and fingers or at the top of the cast.

THE ONLY REAL problems have been with mom and dad. For several years now we have been able to pretty much depend on her to get herself dressed, washed, bathed, etc. Her one hand out of commission has put us back in an active role in preparing a youngster for school and play.

The good wife looks on this problem, philosophically, pointing out that when she gets Kathy ready for school it's done fast — whoosh, whoosh — and there's no fooling around like kids are prone to do.

There is also a safety problem involved — for the folks. It is downright scary when a little child runs up to you, you pick her up, and she throws her arms around your head for a big squeeze — with a built-in club on her left arm.

It is also rather strange to hear yourself tell your daughter, "Go wash your hand." I'm not sure yet just how she does manage that; the good wife hasn't mentioned whether or not the towels in the bathroom are more dirty from little hand prints than normal.

As I write this, the ordeal of the broken wrist is almost over. The cast is scheduled to come off Saturday, and then things should be back to normal. Her left arm, no doubt, will be stronger than every because of carrying around the cast for this past month. I only hope she doesn't challenge me to Indian wrestling; it would be embarrassing to lose, even left-handed.

The "Low Down"

From the Congressional Record

By Joe Crump

Would expel phony 'pupils'

A small minority of college students are disrupting certain college and university functions. Expulsion is strong medicine, but expulsion may be needed to bring certain rambunctious malcontents to their senses.

Rep. George A. Goodling (Pa.) supports the stand of John M. Cummings, and so states for the Record.

"John M. Cummings has an article appearing in the editorial section of the Philadelphia Inquirer recommending a solution for this problem of student disorders and because of its unique and practical nature, I insert it in the Record for the attention of my colleagues. (The condensed article follows).

It so happens, friends and fellow travelers, we are old enough to remember when a piece of birch was used as a punitive device in the public, and perhaps, private schools. Moreover, when the principal of a school or superintendent of the district issued an expulsion order, the scholar named was banned from attending classes.

NOT ONLY THE student who defied the rules and regulations of the school but also his parents were informed by registered mail of the expulsion. If the family moved to another town, the reputation of the expelled student as a bad actor was bound to follow him. And generally with dire consequences.

These hare-brained college students who defy authority in institutions across the country cry out for an overdose of expulsion medicine. But the people in charge of these knowledge factories, apparently, are afraid to apply the ancient cure.

A flagrant case in point is Columbia University in New York. Here students have gone to the extreme of taking over the president's office and indulging in a sit-in spree. If you think this is an outrage on a great university, scratch your head and ponder the alumni and faculty members' who have engaged counsel to ask for a federal injunction to prevent disciplinary action against the rampaging students.

A sit-in at Roosevelt University in Chicago had as its root trouble the refusal of authorities there to provide a full-time job for Prof. Staughton R. Lynd. A former member of the Yale faculty, Lynd defied an order of the United States by traveling in Viet Nam and China without proper permit. So you see, an order by the State Department means nothing to these overgrown children attending institutions of higher learning.

IN CALIFORNIA, Stanford University students, some 400 of the breed, have engaged in a sit-in protesting the suspension of seven scholars who were fired in November for demonstrating. See LOW DOWN page 13-B

Victory in defeat

By W. E. DOBSON

I long to be a winner In the battles that I face, And put my utmost effort In the causes I embrace; But since the odds on winning Are not what I would choose, Teach me to be more gracious— Lord teach me how to lose!

The victor's role is easy, On him the laurels fall, To him belong the spoils— For him the curtain call; I would not stoop to envy, Nor search for hidden clues, Yet would I win in losing— Lord teach me how to lose!

Today, is soon forgotten, Tomorrow new heroes born Shall hear anew the plaudits, New laurels shall adorn; Let me be worthy of my trust, And in the fray enthuse, To win—if victory be mine— But teach me how to lose!

GRASSROOTS OPINION

COMMENTS FROM OTHER PAPERS

TOWANDA, PA., REVIEW: "If Congress is looking for priority targets for possible economies in the new budget, the contemplated increases in the $25 billion federal payroll certainly merit a place close to the top."

HONOLULU, HAWAII, NEWS: "A local executive commented to us . . . that the one thing that disturbs him most about big government and its proclivity to mix into the affairs of business is the bureaucratic tendency to believe that failure is evil. If through government protectionism, business loses the 'freedom to fail,' it loses that which has driven private enterprise to its great heights of accomplishment."

HUNTINGTON, IND., HERALD PRESS: "When it seems that the country is going to the dogs and the world is in a mess, and if that isn't enough we have to go looking for trouble on the moon, a never falling antidote to the depressive mood induced by an overdose of scarey headlines is to go out and see America . . . It means going out where there are open spaces and smaller communities that give a person room to move and where more people read scary headlines than make them . . . here is a measure of the real America, here is the spirit representative of so much of the nation that is not reported on the front page. Here is reason enough not to harbor fear for our free society, but instead to look upward in hope for the future security and strength of the United States."

WARRENSBURG, MO., STAR-JOURNAL: "As democratic capitalism has developed in this country, the sense of class, never as strong here as in the various old countries from which we sprang, has diminished. Laboring commoners can and do speak to economic kings, and in terms of living standards it is not always easy to tell them apart."

EVERETT, WASH., HERALD: "The apathy of the American people toward spending today seems to indicate that the myth of the federal solution is still strong. When the people reject this myth—and other myths of federal spending—they will speak federal spending—they will again speak up to Congress. After more than 30 years of experience with centralization, with bureaucratic red tape, with waste and duplication, there is a stirring in the grassroots. The possibility of a better way is being weighed." For Classified Ads — 224-2361

New conservation vessel will study Lakes marine life

BY ELMER E. WHITE
Michigan Press Assn.

Problems and behavior of Great Lakes' marine life can be studied with greater precision because of a new Michigan Department of Conservation work vessel. The ship, christened "Steelhead" May 2, is a 63 foot steel-hulled floating laboratory. It is equipped with modern electronic gear, has a range of 1,000 miles and can remain at sea for five days. The Steelhead has a crew of three: a captain, a marine biologist and a fisheries aide who also serves as a deck hand. The ship is permanently assigned to the department's fisheries division.

about migration patterns, food utilization habits of fish, survival levels of planted fish and contributions to fish population made by hatcheries as compared to natural reproduction," he said. Location and numbers of forage fish, such as the alewife, must be determined if sport fish like the coho, chinook and lake trout are to have an adequate food supply. Data collected on the Steelhead will provide this information.

A BIOLOGICAL LABORATORY on the enclosed deck is equipped to handle dissection and other tests necessary to determine age and growth of fish, parasitic activity, food analysis, egg and scale examination. A freezer preserves tissue samples for later investigation of pesticide residue.

MacMullan points out that the Great Lakes suffered virtual elimination of all sport fish in recent years. The lamprey, coupled with exploitation by some commercial fisheries, set the stage for an explosion of alewives and other forage fish.

The primary objective of introducing new predators to the Great Lakes waters is to reverse this biological imbalance and develop new game fish for Michigan sportsmen.

Some legislators question the value of the Steelhead at her $105,000 price tag. MacMullan recalls numerous "jokes" passed among some of the lawmakers. "They weren't very funny," he says.

Michigan is the second Great Lake state to have such a vessel. Ohio already has one in operation and MacMullan expects others to follow suit. The Steelhead will be based at Charlevoix and will operate in Lakes Michigan, Huron and Superior.

ANOTHER WARNING was issued by Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelly to Michigan residents. Kelly notes that two promotional schemes which defraud consumers are gaining momentum in the state.

Home fire alarm systems and "free" stereos are the latest gimmicks used by fast-talk artists and unscrupulous operators.

Fire alarm systems can be of value when sold and installed by reputable companies. But the confidence man goes door to door, usually using the "old referral sales pitch," Kelly says, and tries to wear down the consumer with high pressure scare tactics. Kelly cites one case where such an alarm, mounted directly above the furnace, failed to function even when the furnace blew up.

"Lucky winners" of "free" stereos need only purchase four LP records a month for 15 months to receive their "prize." Total cost: about twice what the stereo and records would have cost had they been purchased separately.

Aside from these two schemes, Kelly reminds of the spring "gypsies" who offer to resurface driveways, waterproof roofs, paint farm buildings and erect lightning rods. Materials are worthless, sometimes even harmful.

The confidence man plays on three human frailties, Kelly points out: "fear, insecurity and greed. These human failings cost Michigan residents thousands of dollars each year as susceptible citizens are bilked by fast-talk artists and unscrupulous operators."

Richard Rogers, a "hostler" on the Cadillac and Lake City Railway Co. steam train when it came through St. Johns last Friday, took 8-year-old Neal Heathman, son of Mr and Mrs "Spud" Heathman, into the cab of the locomotive for a look around.

Steam locomotive pays visit here

St. Johns had a rendezvous with the past for about half an hour Friday.

The occasion was a switching stopover of an old steam locomotive being hauled to Chicago for the making of a United Artists movie, "Gally, Gally," a story about Ben Hecht.

The old locomotive is the "Old No. 2," owned by the Cadillac and Lake City Railroad and used as an excursion train during the summer months.

It is being leased to United Artists for the summer, and, according to Richard Rogers, a "hostler" on the engine as it came through St. Johns, the railroad is leasing another old engine from a southern rail line to use while this one is making its movie debut.

Starring with the locomotive in the movie will be Brian Keith, Melina Mercouri, Jack Kennedy and Beau Bridges. The engine will be used in Chicago, Milwaukee and Galena, Ill., and the moviemakers are expected to finish with it in late August, Rogers said. It will be in Detroit during September and October, and then the Cadillac and Lake City Railroad will get it back.

There were no large crowds to welcome the old engine to St. Johns, but there was a little knot of people around for the half an hour or so it was here. Cameras were popular. The locomotive and its tender were near the end of a dozen-car train heading west from Owosso. The train stopped in St. Johns to switch some of the other cars onto sidings.

Rogers explained his job as "hostler" was to take care of the engine while the crew was not working it. The locomotive kept steam up and made enough power to keep it from being a drag. It was in St. Johns about 1:30 p.m. Monday. Rogers said they were scheduled to be in Chicago Saturday evening.

The next stop for the old steam locomotive Friday was to be Ionia where the fire department was going to be ready to fill the train's water requirements for the time being. It had gotten a fill of oil in Owosso.

ROGERS SAID "Old No. 2" was built in 1912 and was one of the first locomotives to be built especially as an oil burner instead of using coal. The engine belonged to a west coast lumber company before it was acquired by the Cadillac and Lake City Railroad.

Civil defense & you

By CHARLES FROST
Clinton County Civil Defense Director

What's radiation like? We've referred to shielding and fallout shelters as protection from radiation. There are many kinds of radiation, some of which, such as long and short radio waves, infrared (or heat) radiations, visible light, and ultra violet are the ones most familiar to us.

Cosmic radiation coming from the sun, and some of the stars, bombards the earth from beyond the atmosphere. While the atmosphere tends to shield (attenuate) us from much of this radiation, we know that on a clear day in the sun, we can get a sunburn. Because the clothed areas of the body does not get burned, our clothing has shielded us from the cosmic rays, and we feel only the heat or infrared effects. Cosmic rays are also called ultragamma rays. The best way to avoid sunburn is not to expose yourself to excessive amounts of cosmic or ultragamma radiation.

Most of us are familiar with x-ray as photographs of the internal structure of our body. The type of x-ray used here are controlled electron emissions. They are some of the same rays we can expect from nuclear burst results; the only thing is, we can't turn it off like the technician does the x-ray machine! Excessive x-rays like sunburn can make you ill. You are ill because excessive exposure killed body cells. Shielding, again, is the answer for protection. The technician operates with closely controlled exposure.

WE ARE EXPOSED to radiation from natural sources every day. Natural radiation comes from rocks and soil etc., this is called background radiation. Inside our body there are small amounts of naturally radioactive materials (potassium 40 and carbon 14). Tiny additional amounts are taken in through food, water and air. During the average lifetime, every human being is supposedly exposed to about 10 roentgens of radiation from natural sources. In the event of a nuclear detonation we will be concerned mainly with gamma rays - Electromagnetic radiations of high energy originating in atomic fission. Physically, these gamma rays are identical with x-rays, only of higher intensity. In short, this is the radioactivity we would protect ourselves from. Fallout is the process or phenomenon of the fall-back to earth of particles contaminated with radioactive materials. Not all fallout will be radioactive but must be assumed so until proven otherwise by radiological detection by instruments. Also, fallout, can be another word for the old axiom of "what goes up, must come down."

Low down

Expulsion is the proper cure. For the benefit of the men or women in charge, the word is spelled "expulsion." Throw them out and keep them out. There is plenty of work to be done. The want ads cry out for lads who can't behave themselves and for gals who would make good dishwashers when their days as college disturbers are ended permanently.

A GRASSROOTS COMMENT

Some parents are living on a tight budget to enable their children to gain a college education. We can imagine their dismay as disruptions lengthen the period the children will have to attend college. But nothing will be left to the imagination, however, when the "bubblegummers" as the returning GI's call the rampaging students, face prospective employers with their transcript. -J.C.

Schultz campaign office set up here

Another Republican hat has been thrown into the ring in the drive for nomination as representative from the 87th State House district.

David L. Schwab, 36, of 604 Crestview Drive, Corunna, announced last week he, too, will seek the Republican nomination. He's the eighth man to become a candidate for the seat being vacated by Rep. Blair G. Woodman, who is retiring.

Schwab, the manager of Corunna Drugs, has resided in the Corunna-Owosso area for 20 years. He attended Corunna High School and St. Paul High School and graduated from high school from Ferris State College's College preparatory department.

He graduated from Ferris in 1953 with a bachelor of science degree in pharmacy and has worked mainly as a pharmacist since. Before joining Corunna Drug, he was employed at Clark's and Voigt's Drug Stores in Owosso and was a salesman in the Owosso area for Parke-Davis.

A member of the Corunna Planning Commission, Schwab was a charter member of the Corunna Jaycees and a few years ago was the first vice president of the Owosso Jaycees.

He has twice been a delegate from Shiawassee County to the Republican State Convention and an alternate delegate once.

He and his wife Betty have four children, Debbie, 15; David, 13; Tommy, 11; and Lori, 7. They are members of St. Paul Catholic Church and all four children, attend St. Paul School in Owosso.

The 87th District is composed of Shiawassee County and part of Clinton County. Schwab says he will be a representative of all the people and promised an honest and sincere effort 100 per cent of the time. "I will give them 365 days a year of hard work so the 87th District will be the finest district in the State of Michigan," he said.

Wilson Torch wins honors; paper, yearbook editors named

By MIKE GALVACH
St. Johns High

The Wilson Torch, Rodney B. Wilson High School's grapevine and news information source, received an award of excellence earlier this month after being critically judged by State Journal judges. The Torch was one of three in Class B schools entered to receive such an award.

In the individual writers category, Judith Whitlock received an award of excellence and Sandy McQueen and Patti Zuker both obtained honorable mentions for their writing of news. Ted Loomis, news photographer, received an award for the pictures in the paper. Kenneth Gunderman, managing editor of the State Journal, presented the awards to the newspaper at a dinner in the Tamarack Room of Dine's Supper Club.

While on the subject of the Torch, the editorial staff for next year has been announced. The editor will be Debbie Witgen and assisting her will be co-editors Judith Whitlock and Patti Zuker. For the Wilsonian, the yearbook staff at Rodney B., the editor for next year is Theresa Cornwell and she will be assisted by Lee Ann Martin and Linda DeVore. Photography will be done by Jim Parr and junior member Ed Cheeny. The rest of the staff for both the paper and the yearbook will be announced next year.

Once an idea, now a memory, the Junior-Senior Prom, Days of Wine and Roses, was held Saturday night. The theme was characterized by a vivid Italian courtyard scene with authentic wrought iron and greenery adorning the gym.

The Future Homemakers Assn. held general elections for officers for next year and named as president Mary Jane Wilbur; vice-president, Martha Jean Locher; secretary, Karen Tolles; treasurer, Althea Shaw; recorder, Amy Castner; and historian, Nancy Sharick.

Attired in the dresses of the late 1800's, members of the Ushers Club seated enthusiastic audiences for the three night production of the musical "Oklahoma." The club has but one job left to do and that is to usher at baccalaureate and commencement. Members were cited for having served at six or more events in the past two years.

Seniors are anxiously awaiting that fateful day when the knowledge crammed and hammered into their youthful heads for four long years may be turned loose to constructively benefit the world they live in. Baccalaureate for the class of 1968 will be Sunday, June 2, in the high school auditorium and commencement is Wednesday, June 5 at Frank Buck Athletic Field at the city park of St. Johns.
