MacLaren answers charges

Health unit head explains demand, department duties

Acting Director H. Lawrence MacLaren this week took issue with charges directed against the Mid-Michigan Health Department by Bath Supervisor-Assessor Duane Smith and the threat by the board of supervisors to quit the three-county health unit.

In commenting on recent actions involving his unit, MacLaren emphasized that the Mid-Michigan Health Department has been in existence for only slightly over three years and that this time does not provide for the creation of a completely seasoned operation.

HE POINTED OUT the impossibility of one sanitarian handling the workload imposed by the size of Clinton County and explained developments of personnel changes within his department. "Last September," MacLaren stated, "Mid-Michigan District Health Department was told to fire the sanitarian we had at that time. I asked and received his resignation. Being unable to find a replacement I was forced to use Robert Barnes, R.S. to cover both Gratiot and

Clinton counties. The term 'good sanitarian' was used in one article, I strongly feel there are none better than Robert Barnes. "With the help of Art Kelly we have struggled through to the present time. With our increased staff we hope to give prompt and complete coverage of all problems."

MacLAREN'S REFERENCE to increased staff involves the recent appointment of a sanitarian and an assistant to the health unit. Darwin Root has received appointment as sanitarian with the assistant's position going to Arnold Minarik.

In other comments MacLaren readily agreed that many sewage violations are in existence in the Bath area but he pointed out that much of Bath Township was developed many years ago when the people were not so conscious of pollution. He pointed out, too, that building sites in the area are so small they will not adequately support a sewage system and well with proper isolation.

It is MacLaren's strong belief and recommendation that only a system of sanitary sewers will provide sure relief from unsanitary conditions which presently exist in the area.

IN ADDITION TO THESE comments, MacLaren went on to explain that sanitation is not the only program being pursued by the Mid-Michigan District Health Department. Some of the other activities which involve the department include food service inspections, water well inspections, inspection of all non-public water and sewer plans and trailer park inspections. Numerous other activities were also part of MacLaren's comments including septic tank cleaner and vehicle inspections, school system food services, water supplies, sewage and safety inspections and at least two dozen other areas which demand attention from Mid-Michigan Health Department personnel.

AS AN EXAMPLE OF AN activity not normally associated with the unit, MacLaren cited the monthly immunization clinics. He pointed out that at least one-thousand persons received approximately 1,500 immunizations during the June clinic providing protection against diphtheria, pertussis, whooping cough, tetanus, measles, polio, small pox and tuberculosis.

"I hope this gives the public some idea of the scope of our endeavors," MacLaren stated. "The department should not be condemned on one portion of their total load. Sometimes the problems seem almost insurmountable, but we keep on striving. With the support of the public and the cooperation of other county departments we can, and will, promote a better program for all of our citizens."

Chamber plans development group

Tentative plans for the formation of a greater St. Johns area development corporation were laid before the Chamber of Commerce board of directors last week by President Brandon White. The non-profit group proposed by White received full support from other members of the board and a schedule of procedures for official formation has been implemented.

Named by White to head up the group was Rollin (Ron) Huard, publisher of Clinton County News. Huard served on the board of directors of a local development group in Charles City, Iowa and was also a board member of the North Iowa Area Development committee. The latter was an economic development group designed to further growth in nine counties of north-central Iowa.

According to White's proposal, the group will tentatively be called "The Greater St. Johns Area Development Corporation" and purpose of existence will be to further specific industrial and general economic growth of the St. Johns area.

The corporation will be directed by a nine member board consisting of the chamber president and vice president, development group committee chairman and six stockholders in the corporation. White emphasized that the six need not be chamber members to be named to the board, but must be stockholders of record in the corporation.

White's proposal calls for the issuance of a yet undetermined amount of stock at a value of one dollar per share. Monies received will be earmarked for specific uses such as options for desirable development land and actual purchase or lease agreements.

In announcing the formation of the corporation, White commented: "St. Johns area is in a highly desirable location for almost immediate growth and economic development. It is only to our advantage that we be prepared to accept these changes. If this group functions properly, many difficulties related to a fast growth pattern can be eliminated or diminished greatly, paving the way for smooth and orderly development."

Official committee appointments will be announced upon completion of papers of incorporation.

NEED A-POSITIVE AND O-NEGATIVE BLOOD

The summer visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile is taking place today in St. Johns and volunteers have issued an urgent call for donors with A-positive or O-negative blood. Mrs. John Paradise, Mrs. Edward Idzkowski and Mrs. Leonard Puetz, volunteers for the bloodmobile, are shown preparing publicity materials for the visit. Volunteers explained that the Bloodmobile will be at St. Joseph School from noon until 6 p.m.

Representing members of the St. Johns Fire Department, Ray Kentfield Monday night informed the city commission the group would contribute $2,500 toward the purchase of new equipment.

The offer followed a request by Kentfield that commissioners seriously consider the purchase of a three-quarter ton pickup truck for use in fighting grass fires and a drop-in unit. Estimated cost of the combined purchase was $6,000.

Kentfield explained that the firemen had agreed that proceeds from their fund raising activities would be directed toward the purchase of the desired equipment in the amount of $2,500 if the commission were to approve the difference.

AT THE SUGGESTION of Commissioner Charles Coletta the commission took the request under advisement until contact with township officials could be made. It was Coletta's opinion that since the greater percentages of grass fires occur outside the city limits perhaps townships might be inclined to share in the costs of additional fire fighting equipment.

The question of weed control and storm sewer installation again came before the commission and the group moved forward on the first while tabling the latter.

A SECOND READING of the weed control ordinance, presented initially at the June 9, 1969 meeting, was completed. The statute, a legal notice of which appears elsewhere in this issue, is designed to define obnoxious growths, to outline their removal and to provide penalties for failure to conform.

The tabled sewer request was that of Willard Seales who had desired installation of storm sewer along a number of residential lots along Scott Road. The action came at the recommendation of Commissioner John Hannah on the strength of insufficient funds and the dangers of establishing a precedent which could not be uniformly followed. Along with the tabling a tone of general agreement among the commissioners hinted that policies regarding such installations for assessment will be established.

THE SECOND ACCEPTANCE of bid for a new police car was made during the commission meeting and the nod was given Cowan Mercury, Inc. The second bid was required and accepted because of inability of Egan Ford to deliver an auto as outlined in the bid because of factory production cutoff dates. Cowan's bid was $2,015.89. The original bid was $2,621.69.

In other action the commission heard Hannah tell of heavy truck traffic along Sturgis Street from US-27 to Lansing St. and acted on his recommendation that something be done to combat the increasing usage. City Attorney Paul Maples and City Manager Harvey Weatherwax were directed to compile information regarding traffic weight controls for commission consideration at the next meeting.

Some concern was registered by commissioners before accepting a bid to purchase a city owned bulldozer. The concern, voiced in both light and heavy veins, centered on the fact that of two bids submitted only one dollar established the margin. Finally after a few minutes of discussion the sale of the dozer was granted to Traver's Auto Parts for $1,011. Greenbush Supervisor Derrick Shinabery was a dollar shy of buying a lame dozer from the city of

Arson pair referred to Circuit Court

Two Fowler men, charged with arson, have been referred to Circuit Court after a pre-examination held in District Court on June 20.

The men, Dale E. Feldpausch, 22, of West Townsend Road and Lesley Kohagen, 17, of Hinman Road, R-2, Fowler, were arrested and held in the Clinton County Jail charged with setting two fires north of Fowler, May 21.

They are charged with setting fire to an unoccupied house on French Road owned by Martha Hale of Alma, and a barn owned by Glen Summerfelt on Stone Road. Both fires occurred May 21, with the house being saved by Fowler firemen but the barn burned to the ground.

Damage to the house was limited to walls in several rooms. The barn lost included 2,000 bushels of corn and some machinery owned by Art and Gayla Fitzpatrick.

Fowler well No. 3, back to normal

FOWLER—Councilmen appointed John Klein to preside over their meeting June 23, in the absence of Mayor John Spicer.

Members were relieved to learn that well No. 3 which has only been operating at one-third its normal capacity is again back to normal without expensive repairs. Engineers solved the problem by adjusting an impeller and the well now pumps a normal 72 gallons per minute.

Councilmen also decided that North Drive will be hard surfaced only to Elm Street in this year's paving program. This would coincide with the present plan the county has for widening the road south of the village. The cost and amount of work involved are some of the questions councilmen feel should be discussed.

The council would also like to arrange a meeting with the Clinton County Road Commission as soon as possible to discuss widening of Wright Road for half a mile inside the village. This would coincide with the present plan the county has for widening the road south of the village.

The cost and amount of work involved are some of the questions councilmen feel should be discussed.

GI seeks wallet left in phone booth

A serviceman needs your help. Like Little Bo Peep, he has lost something — but unfortunately, it is something a little more important than some sheep, it's his billfold.

Last Wednesday afternoon about 1:30, Mike Hawley made a phone call from the booth on State Street. He needed a phone number on a card in his wallet. In his haste, he left the wallet on the shelf in the booth.

As soon as he discovered he had forgotten to return the billfold to his pocket, some 15 or 20 minutes later, he returned to the phone booth, but it was not where he left it.

Hawley who is a 3rd class petty officer with the U.S. Navy is spending a 15 day leave at his home at 223 N. Main Street, Ovid. He will report back to duty at Pensacola, Fla., on July 3.

The billfold contains valuable personal identification. A reward is offered for the return of the wallet and those papers.

Contact Hawley at his home or call 834-5601.

Commission requested to act on abandoned autos

St. Johns for land operations in his township.

IN OTHER ACTION the commission heard correspondence read commending them for the free camper sewage disposal facilities at the disposal plant. A letter from the library board which resulted in Hannah being appointed as liaison between that group and the commission and a request by Rodney Devereaux for action toward removal of a pair of abandoned cars near his home on south Cass St. This request tied in with a proposal already being prepared by Maples and being recommended by him to be included in the zoning ordinance currently undergoing a general revamping.

A letter from Fraser MacKinnon requesting water-sewage adjustment was read but no action can be extended under current ordinance.

A presidential entourage of top management personnel from Detroit visited the St. Johns Federal Mogul plant last week and visitors were conducted on tours of the local installation. In addition, a noon luncheon was held at the Clinton County Country Club in honor of the visit by President S. E. MacArthur. In photo above, St. Johns Plant Manager E. A. Idzkowski, far right, goes over production statistics with, from left, Gerald Dietrich, purchasing manager for St. Johns; M. W. Muzzy, vice president and group manager of Engine Parts Group; R. C. Chamber assignments passed out by Brandon White

The St. Johns Chamber of Commerce board of directors slapped stamps of approval on three major committee chairmen appointments last week during a regular board meeting held in the meeting room of Clinton National Bank. President Brandon White presided over the meeting which saw the naming of three persons to head up committees for membership and special events, tourism and retail activities. Named to direct membership and special events activities was Wayne Gossett, advertising manager of Clinton County News, Stan Cowan of Cowan Mercury, Inc. received the nod to head up the tourism committee and Ed Mankey owner-manager of Gamble's Store was elected for the retail committee chairman. According to White the committee chairman will be asked to submit a monthly report to the board of directors as to the activities in their respective areas. Each chairman has been instructed to select members for their committee and to proceed with a program or plan for the year.

Chamber plans general membership dinner for Monday, June 30

Over 250 members and non-members of the St. Johns Chamber of Commerce last week received invitations to a general dinner Monday June 23 at Daley's Fine Foods. According to Brandon White, president of the chamber, purpose of the gathering is to outline to members and interested businessmen the chamber's 1969 program of events and goals. One of the activities drawing much attention from the chamber board of directors is area development (see story on page 1A) and plans for this activity will be given at the dinner. Another important area of interest is the retail group and the chamber's participation in retail activities will continue to be a basic consideration. The 1969 budget will also be presented for discussion and suggestions or ideas from those in attendance will be solicited. White stated that anyone, member or non-member, may attend the general meeting. Tickets are available in advance at the Chamber office in the Credit Bureau or by contacting Brandon White.

Clinton County Deputy Sheriff Richard May examines one of the autos involved in an accident Saturday night at 9 p.m. Cars driven by Russell Granger of Perrinton and Euclid Mageau of Fowler collided at Wright and Kinley roads.

This accident claimed the life of Lawrence Durbin when the pickup truck driven by his father, Duane, and an auto driven by Mrs Dorothy Henning collided shortly after noon Sunday at the intersection of Walker and DeWitt Roads. The truck bed was slammed against the tree from the force of the impact and the rest of the truck came to rest atop Durbin, pinning him beneath the wreckage.

One Clinton County youth was killed and eight more people were injured in two accidents on area roads this weekend. Dead is Lawrence Durbin, 14 of 3650 N. DeWitt Road, St. Johns. He was a passenger in a pickup truck driven by his father, Duane Durbin, 35.

The Durbin truck and a car driven by Mrs Dorothy Henning, 46 of 1497 N. Airport Road, St. Johns collided at DeWitt and Walker Roads Sunday about 12:35 p.m. Passengers in the Henning car were Dawn Boak, 2 and Doug Boak, 4, of 305 S. Prospect, St. Johns and Nancy Thurston, 14, R-2, St. Johns.

Young Durbin was pronounced dead at the scene of the accident and all of the others were taken to Clinton Memorial Hospital in St. Johns. Set trial in death of Lansing youth

Funeral services were held Saturday morning in Lansing for Randy R. Hoke, 16, of 718 Mayfield Drive, Lansing, who was struck and killed last Wednesday night as he walked along State Road near Wood Street in DeWitt Township.

According to police, Hoke was killed about 8:45 June 18 when hit by a car driven by Harry Hilborn, 57, of 2586 E. State Road, Lansing, Bruce Angell II, chief of the DeWitt Township Police said Hoke was struck from the rear as he pushed a minibus along the right side of the road and was killed instantly.

Hoke was walking with a companion, Leo Dziuban, 15, of 860 E. State Road, who was unharmed. Hilborn was charged with manslaughter and held at the Clinton County Jail until his pre-examination of June 20. A plea of not guilty was entered at his arraignment on June 19.

Roland Duguay, district judge, has set trial date for June 27 at 1:30 p.m. Bond was posted for Hoke at $1,000.

Saturday about 9 p.m. a car driven by Russell Granger, 25, of 4827 Skyline Drive, Perrinton and a car driven by Euclid Mageau, 67, W. Colony Road, Fowler, collided at Wright and Kinley Roads.

Taxpayers
Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q - My income is up and I think I will have to increase my estimated tax payments. Do I have to file another declaration?

A - No, when you make your next installment payment of estimated tax adjust it to take care of the increase.

With your payment enclose the appropriate pre-addressed voucher sent you as part of your estimated tax package last February. The filled-out voucher for each installment identifies your payment and makes sure it is properly credited to your account.

Q - I filed my return showing a refund back in April. When can I expect my check?

A - Your refund should arrive in mid-June. Some returns filed at the deadline may not be processed completely until the first week of June.

Incomplete returns and those with errors take longer to process. Taxpayers are notified of the reason for delay in these cases.

Q - I just took a second job. Does Social Security tax have to be taken out of my pay on both jobs?

A - Yes, the law requires each employer to withhold Social Security tax on the first $7,800 of an employee's wages. If more than the maximum of $374.40 is withheld for Social Security tax in 1969, you should claim a credit for the excess on your income tax return next year.

Q - I'm thinking of buying some U.S. Savings Bonds and putting them in my son's name. If I do that, will I have to pay tax on the interest?

A - If the bonds are issued solely in the child's name, or in his name with you listed as beneficiary, then he will be liable for tax on the interest they earn.

Q - Can a farmer deduct the cost of a telephone he needs to sell his produce?

A - A business deduction may be taken for that portion of the telephone costs related to farm business. For instance, if the phone is used for farm business half the time then half of the cost may be deducted.

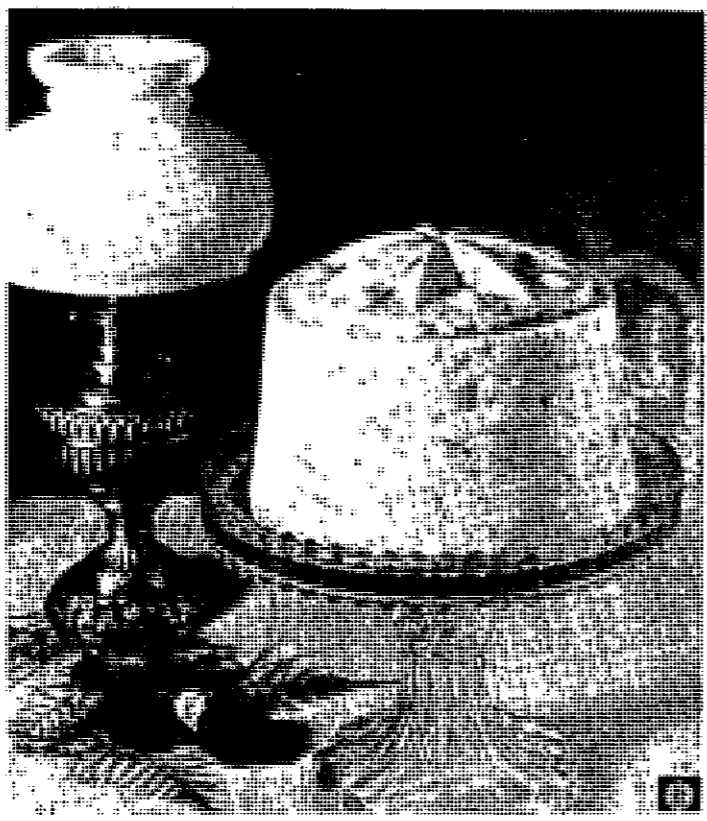

Q - I'm being called in for an examination of my return. Is there any booklet that would help me get ready for it?

A - Yes, send a post card to your district director and ask him for a copy of IRS Publication 556, "Appeal Rights and Claims for Refund."

Q - I no longer have a maid help me with my housework now that my children are all away at school. What should I do with the quarterly report on household help I've been getting?

A - If you do not expect to be paying any taxable wages to household help in the future, write "final return" on the bottom of the Form 942 received in the mail and send it back. Your name will then be removed from the mailing list.

Turn Loose With Tuna Mousse When The Weather Waxes Hot

Tuna Mousse is terrific when it's torrid outside. It makes a refreshing main dish that is easy to prepare. Light as Tuna Mousse looks and tastes, it is high in nutrition because canned tuna in vegetable oil is comparable in complete protein to lean meat. Have you gotten on to tuna's money-saving ways in your meals? Canned tuna costs so little, it is one of the very best bargains in protein foods today. Many families are serving tuna twice a week to keep up nutrition and flavor in their meals at modest cost.

Tuna Mousse

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatine
- 1 1/2 cups cold chicken broth, divided
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 cans (6 1/2 or 7 ounces each) tuna in vegetable oil
- 1/4 cup diced celery
- 1/4 cup diced green pepper
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Sprinkle gelatine on 1/2 cup of the chicken broth in saucepan to soften. Place over low heat, stirring constantly, until gelatine is dissolved. Remove from heat; stir in remaining 1 cup broth and lemon juice. Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Mix in tuna, and celery and green pepper. Fold in whipped cream. Turn into a 4-cup mold; chill until firm. Unmold to serve. Yield: 6 servings.

Head Start program enrolls 219

While hundreds of school children began their eagerly awaited summer vacations, 219 bright-eyed and excited youngsters started their six weeks pre-kindergarten session. These youngsters are the Head Start children who will get a good feeling about school, about teachers, and the community. They will find out that learning can be fun, and that learning in school can make them stronger, wiser, happier, and braver than they were before. They will learn success.

The teachers and aides have planned the classrooms so that the children will have many new experiences such as talking, singing, dramatizing, painting, taking field trips, and improving their health habits. They will be providing experiences and teaching through which the child learns how to learn and through which he gains the foundations necessary for future learning.

for Head Start children are established in Clinton County. The centers and their teachers are: Bath, two rooms, Miss Dorine Gamble and Mrs. Darwin Clise; DeWitt, one room, Mrs. Maxine Mosher; Fowler, one room, Mrs. Marcella Edinger; Elsie, two rooms, Miss Patricia Rivest and Mrs. Jeanne Wilkins; Ovid, two rooms, Miss Joane Ford and Miss Barbara Flore; Pewamo, one room, Mrs. Marie Blauwiekel; and St. Johns, four rooms, with Miss Evelyn Putnam, Mrs. Retha Cook, Mrs. Vera Bryant, and Mrs. Joanne Seavey.

The children will be in school from 9 to 12:30 p.m. each day and a balanced noon meal will be served at 11:30. The cooks for the Head Start program are: Mrs. Josephine Miller at Bath; Mrs. Fern Wellington of DeWitt; Mrs. Helen Fox of Fowler; Mrs. Irene Mead at Elsie; Mrs. Alice Miller in Ovid; Mrs. Eileen Trilerveller of Pewamo; and Mrs. Betty Hicks in St. Johns.

Teachers and cooks are helped by a qualified person known as an aide and the Head Start program employees 22.

children work as volunteers in the classroom with the teacher and the aide. The mothers are scheduled and serve as helpers during the hours that the children attend. In the past programs this help has proved very valuable as they become a member of the team in helping the child to share his experiences and ideas through communication.

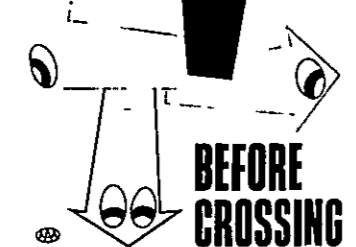

Thirteen mothers work each day in the classrooms in the seven centers of the county. The Head Start program continues from June 23 through August 8.

Open Letter from VAN W. HOAG

Dear friends, It is natural that simple faith, in time of bereavement, be reinforced by religious ceremony, and also by social ceremony. Physical aspects, such as casket and vaults, provided they are prudently selected by the bereaved and are honest expressions of sentiment, are helpful symbols to carry the bereaved family through the trying days of grief.

Respectfully, Van W. Hoag Hoag Funeral Home ST. JOHNS, MICHIGAN

Deadlines

Because we haven't heard of a newspaper that suddenly materializes with all news, advertising copy and pictures in place and in A-1 condition, it becomes necessary for the Clinton County News to impose deadlines to insure a smooth flow of copy so that as much material as possible may be printed in proper form. Toward this end, these deadlines are now in effect:

- Display advertising.....Monday noon. Classified advertising.....Monday noon. Letters to the editor.....Thursday, 5 p.m. News for farm pages.....Thursday noon. Wedding stories, pictures.....Thursday noon. Other contributed pictures.....Monday noon. Church and fine arts items.....Thursday, 5 p.m. Regular columns.....Friday, 9 a.m. Sports page items.....Monday, 5 p.m. Teen activities page items.....Thursday, 5 p.m. Other contributed items.....Monday, 5 p.m.

Earlier submission of news items is greatly appreciated, with the result that more attention can be given to them. Items will be accepted after the deadline, but will be used ONLY if time and space are available. Requests for pictures to be taken by the County News staff should be made as soon as possible and never less than 24 hours before the picture time.

A few 'basics' for cleaning

By LORRAINE SPRAGUE Extension Home Economist

Open windows and doors require some extra work and care to rid the home of summer dust. Though year-round cleaning has replaced "Fall" and "Spring" Housecleaning, a few basics still remain important. Cleaning tools and supplies are the same, no matter the season. Rooms, brushes, clean scrub cloths of sponges, buckets of water, some detergent, and sweepers, floor scrubbers and/or polishers with special cleaners, waxers and polishers add to convenience, but are not absolutely necessary for everyone. Finances, and personal health and energy are governing factors for the number of "extras" a homemaker will have.

Dust from ceiling and walls is easily brushed down if you wrap a broom with a soft cloth and tie it securely. Take care not to streak the walls. Light strokes and changing the cloth often will remove cobwebs and surface dust that accumulates so quickly. Do the ceiling first, then the walls. Washable walls can take on a fresh look with a light wash with a cleanser will do a good job. Vacuum sweepers, carpet

Did you ever think of ads as guardians of your individuality? They are, you know.

In a time when the edges are being eaten off our personalities and we're all being reduced to card-index numbers, we need to hang on to some things.

Like our freedom of choice. And that choice is yours only so long as competition and free enterprise and advertising are working for you. Guard them. For they stand between you and a dull and standardized life.

There seem to be a Great Many Tableware Promotions

One minute we have the idea of a tableware promotion to assist in giving customers of Central National a little extra just for banking here. The next thing we know, just about everyone is in the act.

We Believe Ours Is The Best

Perhaps it is only natural that we would believe our tableware idea is a better idea. Folks have told us that they like ours better. Decide for yourself.

At Central National the first five-piece setting is free when you open a new or add to an existing savings account to the amount of $25 or more. A setting is free, too, if you open a new checking account for $100 or more. Every time you add $10 to your savings or checking account you can buy the same service for just $2.50. Extra pieces are available, too... and at Central National, nothing costs more than $2.50 for a set.

Like we said, decide for yourself.

Coronation Ball huge success at Ovid area centennial "Delighted and surprised," were the words used by Mrs. Dean (Jan) Austin to describe her feelings when she was named queen of the Ovid Area Centennial. She received the coveted crown at a Coronation Ball, Saturday evening, June 21 in the Ovid Junior High School.

"I really thought the runner-up would be the queen. The tickets I turned in for points during the first week of the contest gave me my biggest advantage." These tickets were worth a 25 per-cent bonus on points.

"I entered the contest because I wanted to win the trip to Bermuda, but I wound up having a lot of fun and meeting an awful lot of very nice people."

"With the committee issuing weekly standings I knew where I was, but I never knew how far ahead I was in points, and I always felt that the other contestants were just a little behind me. This feeling kept all the contestants on their toes and they all worked hard selling tickets."

"The Coronation Ball was very beautiful and I'll always remember it. Everyone on the committee did a great job."

Mrs. Austin will be crowned nightly during the pageant, and will ride on the "Queens Float" during the grand finale parade this Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin have two children, Brian 4, and Scott 5. Mr. Austin is a well known barber in Ovid. They are both 4-H horse club leaders and they attend the Grove Bible Church.

Mrs. Austin posed with the grace of a true queen several minutes for dozens of photographers, but had forgotten her own camera. If anyone gets some good pictures she would appreciate having one.

She received a (four day-three night) trip for two to Bermuda, luggage, a cosmetic kit, and the queen's trophy.

AMELIA TEJKL ... runnerup

QUEEN JAN ... getting the word

Other winners were: Amelia Tejkl, first runner-up; Ethel Shinabery, second; Pat Wilson, third; Linda Lou Behrens, fourth; Diane Seelhoff, fifth; and Laura Main, sixth.

James Briggs and George Craig were in charge of the presentations. Each of the contestants won various prizes and a beautiful trophy.

The Coronation Ball setting was set with a mid-summer night theme. A dropped ceiling effect was created with pastel crepe paper streamers and an old fashioned wishing well centered the gym floor. Large flower daises and scenery accented the walls. Rag time music provided lively entertainment and residents enjoyed the expert banjo plucking of their favorite toe-tapping tunes from the past and present.

Iced punch and cookies were served for refreshments. The committee is to be congratulated for the well planned highlights of the Coronation Ball.

Eight students attend camp at NMU

Chuck Miller, Bill Foran, Tim Bouck and Jack Keys of Elsie, John Glowney of Bannister and Randy Byrnes, Rick Hood and Ron Mead of Ovid, all students of Ovid-Elsie High School have returned from a week's basketball camp at Northern Michigan University, in Marquette.

They resided at Payne Hall on the campus and were supervised and instructed by counsellors and staff members of the university. The main objective was to make the boys better basketball players through an intensified program that emphasized conditioning, fundamentals and team play.

Other recreation such as swimming and sight-seeing rounded out the program. A steak cook-out was planned at the beautiful Presque Isle Point on Lake Superior but due to inclement weather it was held in Wildcat Den of the Student Center on the final night of the camp.

Glenn Brown, NMU basketball coach was camp director while Bob Ortel, assistant basketball coach was in charge of the 65 high school boys from Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin who attended. The boys were separated in five groups of 12 boys with five different coaches.

The local boys reported a very pleasant week in spite of the rigid schedule of calisthenics and work-outs three times a day. They had basketball movies in the evening and they also made many new friends. The excellent food prepared by Northern's skilled staff was highly praised by all of the group.

The boys will all receive certificates of merit for their participation in the summer program.

For two days previous to registration at the university, the boys were guests of Mr and Mrs Al Miller at their school house-cabin north of Manistique, and completely enjoyed every minute of the time.

Mrs Miller's brother and sister-in-law, Mr and Mrs Clark Bashore of Gulliver brought over two gallons of smelt ready for frying and the food consumed by the boys amazed Mrs Miller, who is employed in the hot lunch program at Ovid-Elsie. They also played soccer-baseball and other games.

As an added treat, they went to Kitch-i-ti-ki-pl (The big spring) near Indian Lake and rode the raft out to view the deep water.

Others, who assisted in transporting the boys besides the Millers were Coach Oberlin, the Byrnes, the Tom Boucks and the Russell Boucks.

The boys returned home last Sunday with the exception of Bill Foran and Charles Miller who sent on to Ontonagon to spend a week with Bill's relatives.

Craig and Ballenger give thrilling speeches

The Ovid Centennial program on Monday evening opened with the singing of patriotic songs and awards were presented at 7:30 p.m. The pre-pageant festivities were held at the Ovid Junior High School field.

Robert Craig, a 1969 graduate of Ovid-Elsie High School, was the winner of the oratorical contest and delivered a thought-provoking speech to the audience. He discussed public apathy and the lack of involvement of today's citizens in society. He emphasized that the individual should improve his citizenship, and show more patriotism to his country. He further stated that these are vital ingredients to the survival of our free government, and the people must care about others and practice the "Golden Rule".

William Ballenger, State Representative from the 87th district, gave the closing address for "Governor and Pioneer Day". He spoke forcefully on what the citizen of today should be doing to improve his country. The speech was sprinkled with timely quotes from Kennedy, Eisenhower, and others. He encouraged the audience to actively participate and become better citizens by giving more time and effort toward more responsible government. He too suggested people become politically active, and intellectually informed on current events.

The audience was given the rare opportunity of hearing speeches by a 1969 high school graduate and a present day government official. After listening to both, one felt a distinct closing of the generation gap with realistic ideas for national improvement being given on both sides.

Cool weather and intermittent sprinkles may have dampened the picnic spirit in Ovid last Sunday but the spiritual spirit was as warm and friendly in 1969 as it was a hundred years ago. Nine churches participated in the Religious Heritage Day with old fashioned clothes and fancy sunbonnets the dress of the day. Each of the churches held regular services and invited back all former members and pastors, for a day of prayer and good fellowship.

Flower show highlights

Monday in Ovid was Government Day. Highlight of the day was a flower show at the Congregational Church.

Judges for the event were Mrs Virginia Chamberlain, Jennifer Cummings and Mrs Connie Parmenter. Three grand prizes were given and the winners received commemorative plaques. Four blue ribbons were awarded to outstanding entries and a special merit award was given.

Grand winners were Nellie Miller for an artificial arrangement, Mrs John Owen Sr., received a plaque for her arrangement of Queen Elizabeth roses and the third grand prize went to Mrs Pearl Haskins for her exceptional single rose.

Blue ribbon winners were Mrs Virginia Woodard for an arrangement of dried flowers, Mrs John Owen Sr., for an arrangement called "The Light of 1869", Mr and Mrs Ralph Baker for a collection of peonies, and Mrs Max Miller for a teapot arrangement of roses.

The special merit award went to Nellie Miller for an arrangement and display entitled "Apollo 11".

Along with the flower show was a display of antique furniture collected and displayed by the seventh and eighth grades of the Ovid Junior High.

Other activities of Government Day included a picnic in the late afternoon to honor the city fathers. A band concert was also held in the afternoon.

At the picnic, an opening address was given by Bill Ballenger and later pioneer awards were given to members of the community.

During the day, an authentic looking covered wagon toured the streets of the city, and at the picnic in the evening, desserts and beverages were sold from it.

Committee of the day members were Mr and Mrs Bill Ballenger, Mr and Mrs Cy Tremblay, Mr and Mrs Bill Serviss, Mr and Mrs Bernard Weber and Mr and Mrs Francis Johnson.

The first steamship made its trial run in Lyons, France. This city became the world's silk capital after the mulberry tree was introduced; Jacquard invented his loom here; Ampere worked on the laws of electro-dynamics that led to modern great hydroelectric works; and the brothers Lumiere experimented with the movie camera.

Clinton 4-H chatter

One hundred ten Clinton County 4-H members and leaders had a lot of fun fishing canoeing, trap shooting, etc. while learning about conservation projects at the 3rd Annual 4-H Conservation Fun Day held Wednesday at the Fowler Conservation Park.

The highlight of the day was the canoe safety activity where the members learned about canoe safety and participated in a three mile canoe race. Members who had never canoed before were able to practice on the Stoney Creek under the direction of Mr and Mrs Roswell Leatherman and Hazel McFarren, 4-H leaders from Muskegon.

Throughout the day, the members observed a fish shocking demonstration by Bruce Volmar, fish biologist, stationed at the Rose Lake Wildlife Research Center. The youth and adults were able to see what fish were in the stream and saw a lamprey which is uncommon for this area.

The State 4-H Trail Ride will be held on July 18-20 near Traverse City. The cost is $7 per person and entries are due by July 7. Clinton county may send four persons of which one must be an adult, but no more than two adults. Anyone interested may get more details from the Extension Office.

BRUCE VOLMAR STUDIES LAMPREY

Bruce Volmar, fish biologist from the Department of natural resources at the Roselake Research Center, was demonstrating "fish shocking" procedures to a group of 4-H members when he came up with this lamprey in the Stoney Creek (near Wight Road bridge) in Fowler. Conservationists are becoming concerned over the presence of the lamprey in in-land waters. The lamprey attaches itself to the side of a fish and can eventually kill it. At maturity they ascend streams to breed then die. It has also been a serious destructive pest of native fish fauna in the Great Lakes.

Murgittroyd sparks Pony League with no hit game

Randy Murgittroyd was the star of the North Star entry in the Gratiot-Clinton Pony League last week as he led his teammates to a 3-1 no-hit victory over Eureka.

The victory marked the first for this squad in this season's competition and North Star now stands with a victory, one tie and a bye.

In other action a rash of double hits marked the league's action as no less than seven players in the four game schedule rapped two hits per game.

Jim Lewis did the trick for Eureka which downed Ashley 7-3 to creep above the .500 mark with a 2-1 season record.

Barry Coele and Lee Walker paced Middleton in their losing effort against Bannister bylobbering two safe hits each. Bannister's 5-2 victory came on the strength of twelve hits with Frank Dudash, Tom Pumford, Russell Saxton and Steve Sigafosse each collecting two apiece.

In other action last week Perrinton presented Ashley their second loss in as many games by the tune of 10-5.

Pompeii, drawing a bye, was idle.

Past student receives top batting honor

ELSIE (c) — Former Ovid-Elsie student, Max Saxton, copped his high school's top baseball batting honors.

Max, 15, is now a freshman at Harrison High School. Catcher for the Harrison Hornets, Max's batting average of .358 bested that of all other team members.

The young rookie gave credit to the expert guidance of Ovid-Elsie Coach Richard Johnson for his developing prowess in both catching and batting.

Max, who will be a sophomore at Harrison, will serve as vice-president of his class.

Chatter

By JOHN AYLSWORTH

John Colvin, Fowler Conservation Club member, demonstrated trap shooting for the group by hitting nine out of ten clay pigeons. Members who wanted to do some trap shooting were able to under the direction of Mr. Colvin.

In the morning, Dick Johnson, forester for Buskirk Lumber Company, showed the members how to identify wood and trees by various characteristics. The members were given the opportunity to see how many trees they could identify later in a contest.

The youth and leaders felt the day was quite a learning experience for them in different conservation project areas.

Just a reminder that money for tickets to 4-H Baseball Day at Tiger Stadium on July 26 at Detroit is due Wednesday, June 25, at the Extension office. Tickets are 50 cents each for youth and for adults at the rate of one adult per five youth. Last year over 2,400 4-H youth attended this special day activity.

The Kountry Cousins 4-H Club members are planning on a hayride in July. With the cool weather we have been having, it will be right in season. The members are going to help people in the neighborhood who need it for their Community Service Project.

The Fowler Eager Eagles 4-H members discussed the 4-H Conservation Fun Day, 4-H Baseball Game, Soil and Water Conservation Scrap Book and Flower Arranging Workshop at their last meeting. Club dues were set at 35 cents. The club will hold a wether roast on July 9 with a swimming and bowling party scheduled for July and August. The members will paint two litter barrels for the litter barrel contest. Dennis Spitzley will be in charge of one barrel and Marilyn Weber in charge of the other one.

Vacations taken on borrowed money is a poor way to relax.

Leaving today by jet for Rome, Italy and a six week tour of Europe are front row; Patty Nuser, Scott Bennett and Penny Foland. Back row, Mrs Beatrice Barnum, Collene Robinson, Jim Parr and Ken Kridner. Not present for the picture were Rosemary Foersch and Jim Goresch who will also be part of the group.

Jet-flight to Rome

Local students leave for Europe

Excitement grew to a fervent pitch as local students and their chaperone neared flight time today, June 25, bound for an exciting six week study-tour of Europe with the Foreign Study League.

In New York City, they will join 170 other youths and chaperones from other parts of the United States for their charter-jet flight directly to Rome.

The group will study and tour together throughout the six week period, spending about eight days each in Rome, the Bavarian Alps, Paris, Amsterdam and London.

The Foreign Study League is the oldest and largest non-profit international high school in the world. As part of its continuing program, the league charters jets, leases dorms and school buildings and schedules trips and tours. The students spend three to four hours a day in the classroom learning about the area. The remainder of the day, evening and weekends are filled with planned excursions, field trips and tours.

There is also free time for shopping and sight seeing. The intensive course amounts to about 100 actual classroom hours plus 50 field trip hours. For this the League grants one-half a Carnegie unit toward graduation. Many local schools accept this Foreign Study League credit with some schools giving a whole credit.

Local students participating are: Patty Nuser, daughter of Mr and Mrs Jim Nuser of 902 E. State Street; Penny Foland, daughter of Mr and Mrs Donald Bast of N. Lowe Road; Colleen Robinson, daughter of Mr and Mrs Dale Robinson of 407 E. Park; Rosemary Foersch, daughter of Mr and Mrs Berl Foersch of 141 High Street, Ovid; Jim Kridner, son of Mr and Mrs Robert Kridner of 7850 Chandler Road, Elsle; Scott Bennett, son of Fred A. Bennett of 210 W. Cass Street; and Jim Parr, son of Mr and Mrs Raymond Parr of 207 W. Cass Street. Jim Goresch, son of Mr and Mrs

Joe Goresch, of Muskegon will also travel with the group.

Mrs Beatrice Barnum, a teacher of the St. Johns Public Schools, will be the students' chaperone. This will be the third summer that Mrs Barnum has acted in this capacity with the Foreign Study League.

Penny Foland and Patty Nuser will present a model Mustang as a token gift from Michigan at a mayor's reception sometime during the trip. The Mustang was given to the group by Bruce Fowler, local Ford dealer.

Reassignments released

Fr. Labiak among priests in diocese given new orders

The Rev Joseph W. Labiak, associate pastor of St. Joseph Church in St. Johns, is among priests in the Diocese of Lansing who have received reassignment orders from The Most Rev Alexander Zaleski, bishop of the diocese.

Father Labiak will be replaced by the Rev Michael J. Haas, a Kalamazoo native receiving his first assignment since ordination earlier this month. The changes are effective July 1.

Father Labiak's new duties will be with a newly formed pastoral team of priests in Flint with residence at St. Luke's Church. He has been at St. Joseph since the summer of 1967 and prior to that served as associate pastor at St. John in Jackson from the time of his ordination in June of 1963.

Among other transfers in the diocese was the appointment of Msgr Walter E. Mehm, vicar general of the diocese, as pastor of St. John Vianney Parish, Flint, succeeding Msgr Henry M. Mayotte who is retiring. Msgr Mehm, as vicar general, is the second-ranking Catholic clergyman in the diocese. He has been pastor of Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, Lansing, for the last eight years. He also was chancellor of the diocese for 13 years, 1955-68.

Bishop Zaleski also confirmed that two priests have requested to be relieved of the active priestly ministry and are without assignment. They are the Rev Norman J. Zerfas, pastor of St. Edward Parish, Mendon, and the Rev David L. Boggs, associate pastor, St. Joseph Parish, St. Joseph, Mich.

Food standards are somewhat like recipe

By HELEN B. MEACH
Extension Home Economist

How many boxes or cans of food do you open in your kitchen each week? The count might surprise you.

You might also be surprised to know that government standards for safety and quality play a part in more and more of the food you buy for your family.

When choosing ready-made rather than do-it-yourself, the homemaker can be sure that these food standards protect her.

A food standard is somewhat like a recipe. Standards of identity have been established for many of our staple foods and have been called the nation's most important cookbook. They define the normal composition of the food, the required kinds and amounts of ingredients, and the permissible ingredients that may be added at the option of the manufacturer. It is the optional ingredients, that make the difference in flavor among various brands.

Standards set a minimum (or floor) for the major ingredients and may set a maximum (or ceiling) on such "filler" ingredients as water. A manufacturer may add more of a major ingredient—more beef in the beef stew, for example—but he can never go below the standard.

Federal standards have been established for about 200 food products. . .no easy task. Food and Drug Inspectors visit factories, question homemakers and study cookbooks in determining what the standards shall be. They want the food products the homemaker buys in the store to meet her expectations. Because the noodles a homemaker would make in her kitchen contain eggs, she may be sure that the product labeled "noodles" and available in the store will also contain egg yolk or whole eggs.

Federal grades for foods are another means of protecting the consumer in the market place. These grades. . . sometimes letter grades, sometimes number grades, and sometimes words. . . assist the food shopper in making quality identifications. It must have been an advertising man who determined the word grades. Top grade for honey, for example, is US Fancy, and the second grade is US choice. When eggs are on your list, you'll select Fresh Fancy or AA if you

EXTENSION REPORT Nitrogen risks

By GEORGE McQUEEN

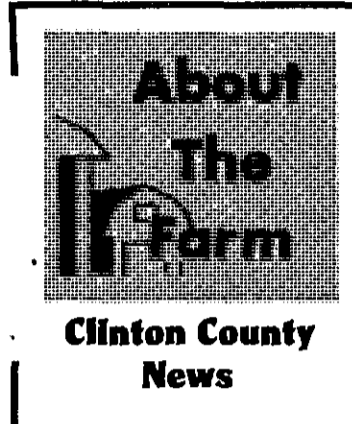

Farmers should not risk applying nitrogen to the foliage of their young corn crop, warns a Michigan State University soil scientist.

"Applications of less than 10 lbs. of urea spray per acre in 50 gallons of water have been known to cause scorching and chlorosis of corn two to three feet tall," reports Dr Maurice L. Vitosh. "Although we have no new data available on small corn plants, we suspect that even smaller amounts of nitrogen spray would cause severe burning of the leaves."

too, to control weeds. But foliar applications of herbicides in combination with nitrogen on corn plants could be a big mistake, warns Vitosh.

The most commonly used herbicides, atrazine and 2,4-D, are most commonly recommended for spraying before the plant comes out of the ground. They can be risky because of the chance of injury to the plant, says Vitosh.

"The amount that can be sprayed on corn plants is very small and has no beneficial effect, provided there is adequate nitrogen in the soil"

Vitosh says many farmers missed their chance to put on nitrogen before planting because of the wet spring. And some would like to put on a herbicide,

Federal standards have been established for about 200 food products. . .no easy task. Food and Drug Inspectors visit factories, question homemakers and study cookbooks in determining what the standards shall be. They want the food products the homemaker buys in the store to meet her expectations. Because the noodles a homemaker would make in her kitchen contain eggs, she may be sure that the product labeled "noodles" and available in the store will also contain egg yolk or whole eggs.

Federal grades for foods are another means of protecting the consumer in the market place. These grades. . . sometimes letter grades, sometimes number grades, and sometimes words. . . assist the food shopper in making quality identifications. It must have been an advertising man who determined the word grades. Top grade for honey, for example, is US Fancy, and the second grade is US choice. When eggs are on your list, you'll select Fresh Fancy or AA if you

It's summer-buckle up driving habits

By LORRAINE SPRAGUE
Extension Home Economist

Summer weather means lots of automobiles on the road. Vacationers, whether driving close to home, or far away help increase highway traffic. Of course business driving remains an important part of traffic the year round.

With all things taken into consideration — warm weather, longer daylight hours to encourage longer driving hours, carefree spirits and down a long list — it pays to take extra precautions for safe driving. Here are a few reminders.

Every driver, regardless of age, needs to be alert while at the wheel. Feeling either sleepy or somewhat ill is a sure invitation for trouble. No one should drive after taking medication. Elderly persons or persons who have recently had serious illnesses should have the frank opinion of their doctor regarding the advisability of their driving.

Keep your mind on your driving. Conversation is fine, but driving comes first. Children riding in an automobile should be taught to wear seatbelts and be moderately quiet so as to cause no distraction to the driver. An automobile is not an active game center.

ALL DRIVERS should keep up to date on traffic laws and rules of safe driving. Before driving in unfamiliar areas or states, check for any specific laws of which a driver should be aware.

Unreasonably slow driving can be as dangerous as too fast driving. Modern highways, with heavy traffic, require all drivers to keep pace. A busy highway is no place for a leisurely Sunday afternoon of sightseeing.

Whenever possible, planning either short or long trips to avoid "rush" hours is wise.

Cars need to be kept in good condition. Windshields and headlights must be clean. Regular check-ups on brakes, lights, tires, turn signals and other mechanical parts are important. Safety belts should be used at all times by all occupants. An unfastened seat belt is absolutely no protection. Many accidents occur on short trips — sometimes trips of only a few blocks — so a wise driver will adjust and fasten the seat belt every time he slips in behind the steering wheel. A wise passenger will be sure the seat belt is secure for even the shortest drive.

MSU professor given national recognition

Howard F. McColly, professor of agricultural engineering at Michigan State University, was presented with the Golden Plate Award last night by the American Academy of Achievement.

McColly, who was cited for his contributions to the field of agricultural engineering, was one of 50 recipients. Other honorees included astronaut William Anders and Frank Borman, baseball immortal Mickey Mantle, entertainer Polly Bergen and Deputy Secretary of Defense David Packard.

The Academy — a non-profit organization "dedicated to the inspiration of youth" — annually honors extraordinary leaders in the sciences, professions, industry, arts and service to fellow man. Past honorees include General Douglas MacArthur, Dr Michael E. DeBakey, Bob Hope, Louis Nizer, Dr Joyce Brothers and Allen Drury.

For Professor McColly, the award marked the second time in a year that he had received national recognition for his work. In June 1968, he was awarded the Cyrus Hall McCormick Medal by the American Society of Agricultural Engineers for "exceptional and meritorious engineering achievement in agriculture." The award is generally regarded as being the most prestigious award which can be bestowed upon an agricultural engineer by his colleagues.

Professor McColly joined the Michigan State agricultural engineering staff in 1949. He has authored two books, contributed to several others and prepared more than 30 smaller publications. He and his wife, Esther, have three daughters and 10 grandchildren.

Brown submits legislation for lumber price stability

U.S. Representative Garry Brown (R-Mich) announced today that he has joined many of his colleagues in both houses of the Congress in sponsoring legislation designed to promote long-range lumber supply and price stability.

"The continuing 'National Housing Goals' hearings of my Subcommittee on Housing have emphasized the immediate and long range need for a massive effort to produce more lumber if our nation's housing needs are to be met," Brown noted.

The Michigan lawmaker's bill, entitled the National Forest Timber Supply Act of 1969, sets up a high timber yield fund as a repository for 65 percent of the timber sale receipts from Federal commercial forest lands.

(By existing law, 25% of Federal timber sale receipts revert to the county supplying the timber, and 10% go to the State of origin). The Federal timber management agencies will be able to draw upon that fund (estimated at $200-$300 million annually) through the regular appropriations process to obtain the dollars necessary to apply modern management methods to vast areas of Federal commercial forest lands which are now neglected or are reserved from harvest because there has previously been no long range assurance that funds would be available for sustained commercial timber operations. Funds deposited but unappropriated within two years revert to the Treasury. Included among the provisions of Brown's bill are safeguards for conservation and recreation, as Chief Cliff emphasized that "efforts to increase timber yield on the

Downing family receives posthumous awards

Mr and Mrs Ross Downing were presented posthumously the Bronze Star Medal, Purple Heart and Good Conduct Medal awarded to their son, Duane, who was killed in Viet Nam on Feb. 23, 1969.

Prior to his death Duane had received the National Defense Service Medal, Viet Nam Service Medal, Viet Nam Campaign Ribbon, Combat Infantry Badge, Expert Badge, with machine gun and rifle bars, and the Marksman Badge with automatic rifle bar.

Major Borden and Warrant Officer Langford presented the awards to his parents on June 10. The citation read:

lems inherent in combat environment greatly enhanced an allied effectiveness against a determined and aggressive enemy.

"Despite many adversities, he invariably performed his duties in a resolute and efficient manner. Energetically applying his sound judgment and extensive knowledge, he has contributed materially to the successful accomplishment of the United States mission in the Republic of Viet Nam.

"His loyalty, diligence and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself and the US Army."

Duane entered the service on Jan. 23, 1968 and went to Viet Nam on June 23, 1969. He passed away in a field hospital, Feb. 23, after being hit by mortar fragments during a Viet Cong attack on a base camp landing zone near Da Nang. Duane was a graduate of Rodney B. Wilson High School, with the class of 1967.

Mr and Mrs Ross Downing reside at 610 Baldwin Street, St. Johns.

By DICK ALLEN
88th District Representative

The School Aid Bill finally made its complete tortuous trip through the legislature.

The total increase over last year is 89 million dollars or about 12 per cent. Special education received the largest single increase, about 37 per cent. Special education is the only school program about which I have had letters of praise from parents and other non-educators.

Transportation, a large expense in our area, was increased from 22 to 26 million. Intermediate school districts were increased 27 per cent.

A large amount of controversy and misunderstanding has centered on the basic aid formula which was increased by 10 per cent. Basic aid is distributed by a formula which gives less to wealthy districts, more to poorer ones. Consequently, as the property value per student increases, basic aid decreases. Some school districts in our area have had large recent increases in valuation due to State Tax Commission Studies. This had led to predictions by some that state aid per student would drop. After an earlier newspaper article estimating losses of 40, 25 and 10 dollars per student for area schools, I made a public offer to buy dinner for the superintendent and school board of any school in the district which received less than the current state aid per student. I felt they were seriously overestimating valuation or underestimating the school aid formula and that this could confuse the public.

Even with the basic aid formula set it is necessary to use estimates of valuation per student, but the following figures should be close to final for these area schools.

- Grand Ledge, $20.00 per student increase.
- Alma, $32.00 per student increase.
- Breckenridge, $15.00 per student increase.
- St. Louis, $14.00 per student increase.
- Fowler, $35.00 per student increase.
- Coleman, $40.00 per student increase.
- Ovid-Else, $33.00 per student increase.
- Ithaca, no increase, no loss.

Ashley, $22.00 per student increase.

Fulton, $14.00 per student increase.

Districts having suffered large increases in valuation receive the smallest gains but, of course, they receive increased local revenue from the higher valuation.

Most schools in our area have been operating on tight budgets and certainly need any increase they get. If your school in one that apparently will receive a little more than was predicted earlier, I believe it is the public's responsibility to make certain it is spent in the best possible manner. Perhaps recently cut-back programs should be re-instituted or teachers should be better paid.

If a thorough study proves money is still inadequate, local millage should be passed. Our public schools are one of the last bulwarks of local government and local control. Only strong cooperation and complete candor between local taxpayers, school officials and state officials will preserve them.

HURRY UP and RELAX

Highways, superhighways, turnpikes, freeways, expressways—they crisscross America, leading in every imaginable direction. And, they get you there so fast, you are past the right exit before you know it. We live in such a speed-oriented world that, when we are not working, we feel we must "hurry up and relax." At times we even feel guilty when we are not busy about something.

We don't really like our foolish pace. We speak longingly of peace of mind and quietude, and we take tranquilizers by the ton. We search frantically... on vacations, on "lost weekends," on "fun activities"... but tranquility is hard to find.

Perhaps we are seeking too hard. Perhaps tranquility is not to be sought. Rather, isn't it what happens when you are at peace with yourself, no matter the circumstances?

You can be at peace with yourself only when you are at peace with God. He is the very center of your being, and His peace is freely given when you accept it.

Accept this great gift of God in the very best place of all—His Church.

HUNT'S DRUG STORE

Opened in 1857, Hunt's Drug will close June 30

John Martin, president of the Carrier-Stephens Company Lansing has announced Hunt's Drug Store, a subsidiary of the company, will be closing its doors June 30.

The building is in the process of being leased, and all present employees will be reemployed in the company's main office at Lansing.

Hunt's Drug was established in 1857 and has been in continuous operation for the past 112 years, at 110 N. Clinton Avenue.

DeWitt Hunt, a son of Alonzo, later entered the business and be-

The business was founded by Alonzo O. Hunt, and his uncle, George Hunt, when they heard the railroad was coming through St. Johns.

DONALD CHAPMAN

Former St. Johns resident, Donald Chapman, is presently employed by the United States Department of Commerce.

Among various assignments, Chapman was recently director of the U.S. Pavilion at the 28th International Aviation and Space Exposition at Le Bourget Airport, Paris, France.

Auxiliary has new officers

The June meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary No. 153, was held June 17, at the hall with a potluck supper served at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Nelda McWilliam acted as installation chairman and the following officers were installed: Mrs. Keith Mishler, president; Mrs. John Caudy, first vice-president; Mrs. Bert Hiller, second vice-president; Mrs. Jack Walker, secretary; Mrs. R. V. Beaufore, treasurer; Mrs. William Karber, historian; Mrs. Dolena McKinnon, chaplain; and Mrs. Margaret Crowell, sergeant at arms. Following the installation a song was sung by Etta Smith.

During the business meeting it was reported the Poppy Drive was very successful. The Auxiliary also wishes to thank the public for their help in the magazine drive. As a result they were able to order two pair of crutches, two walkers, and two bed side tables.

Equipment such as beds, walkers, wheel chairs, and etc. may be used by anyone free of charge by calling the Van Hoag Funeral Home.

If you do not receive your magazine please contact Thelma Beaufore, community service chairman.

This was the final meeting for the summer and the Auxiliary will hold their next meeting in September.

The first recorded attempt to invent a typewriter was made in England in 1714, when Queen Anne granted a patent to Henry Mill for his "artificial machine."

Alan Harris (center) receives his first-place award in the Lansing Area Industrial Executives Club's industrial arts project contest from Kenneth Moore of the F. C. Mason Co. At the left is James Dickman, who won second place. Looking on is John Theuerkauf, shop instructor at St. Johns High.

The exhibit was opened May 29 by Sargent Shriver, Ambassador and astronaut, David Scott, James McDivitt, Russell Schweikart and their wives. Chapman conducted the opening activities.

Bits & pieces
News notes from the Clinton County business world

F-M buys controlling interest in English manufacturing firm

Federal - Mogul Corporation has purchased controlling interest in Westwind Turbines, Ltd., located in the city of Poole, Dorset County, England, a small specialized manufacturer of high precision air bearing spindles used in close-tolerance machining and grinding operations, particularly for the electronics circuit board industry. Federal - Mogul's subsidiary, Metal Removal Company, has been handling domestic distribution of Westwind spindles for the past several years and will continue to market spindles for select applications. S. E. MacArthur, president of Federal - Mogul, said that because of the relationship to the corporation's existing lines of grinding wheels and carbide tools, Westwind will be placed within the General Products Group, of which Walter T. Camp is vice-president and group manager. Richard G. Welling, formerly research manager of the BCA Ball Bearing Division, has been appointed manager of sales and engineering for Westwind in the United States. "Production of the air bearing spindles will continue to be handled at the British facility," Camp said, "and with the expansion of U.S. markets, it is expected that operations and employment overseas may be increased in the future. However, he added, "complete inventory and service centers currently are being set up in the United States to assist with all domestic customer requirements."

MILTON BERLE

Tickets are now on sale at Lowell and other cities throughout western Michigan for the 37th Annual Lowell Showboat scheduled for nightly presentations at 8:30 July 21-26. Shiawassee Free Fair Aug. 11-16

The thirty-first annual Shiawassee County Free Fair will open Aug. 11 and run through Aug. 16 according to Elmo White, secretary manager of the event. The fair will be staged at McCurdy Park in Corunna. Through the years the Shiawassee County Free Fair has grown to become one of the late summer attractions in central Michigan and last year over $10,000 in premiums were awarded. Officials expect an increase of attendance this year over the 126,500 persons who filed through the gates during 1968.

WATERTOWN CHARTER TOWNSHIP MINUTES

JUNE 9, 1969 Meeting was called to order on the above date with all board members present. Also present, Commissioner Montgomery. Minutes of the May meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer's report was read and placed on file. Bills were read and orders drawn for the same. Commissioner Montgomery made a report that further study was being made by the DPW department on the sanitary landfill problems within the county, and said that there had been some discussion relative to the road situation also. He did mention that the County Board is still interested in the airport situation. Correspondence was read and placed on file. Three members of the Looking Glass Valley Park Board were present to discuss plans relative to additional space for baseball diamonds, and that they will investigate thoroughly all such possibilities within the township and report back at the next board meeting. The supervisor was authorized to check into repairing the eave troughing at the township office. The board voted to register their concern over the location and route of I-69 corridor through our township. Letters were sent to the State Highway Department and the Clinton County Road Commission. There being no further business, meeting adjourned. MILDRED McDONOUGH Clerk

AW, COME ON, NOW

It's getting to be a habit. Maple Rapids has done it again. This time it's a portable television set and chances are getting better all the time that the staff at Kurt's Appliance might revamp their rules to omit letting residents of Maple Rapids in on future contests. Mrs. Joan August, right, is shown with a portable G.E. television she won in Kurt's Appliance Center "Dear Ol' Dad" registration contest. Shown with Mrs. August is Mary Boettger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boettger of St. Johns. Mrs. August joins the ranks of other winners of gifts from Kurt's who reside in Maple Rapids. Earlier this spring Mrs. June Winsor was presented a General Electric dishwasher from a local drawing at Kurt's and later, at the state level drawing in the same "Good Ol' Mom" contest, a second Maple Rapids lady, Mrs. Muriel Abshagen, was a winner.

A senseless pursuit

Civic forces are gathering momentum with impact directed toward Tuesday July 15. That is the day when St. Johns residents have an opportunity to indicate their desires as to the action city commissioners should take on the question of a city income tax.

While the question itself, along with the vote, is of great importance, there is an element of the issue which should, and does, hold even greater significance. That element is personal attitudes. Let's not allow ourselves to cast shadows of hostility or resentment over the issue, the result of the vote or those with whom we might disagree. There is much value in wholesome dissent or disagreement, but the merits are lost under the labors of a grudge.

St. Johns as a city is in the unenviable position of being short of finances and, as in the case of individual families, such a situation tends to increase heat and lower boiling points. It is a time when proposals are many, solutions are elusive and the effectiveness of any decision cannot truly be evaluated. Proponents of various recommendations must, indeed, support their beliefs, but only time itself will ever prove the collective merits of the final action.

We have indicated a preference and while we feel it to be not merely expedient, but fair and effective, we are not oblivious to the inherent dangers of losing perspective of the final goal; that being a sound community with firm finances and friendly people.

There is no room, regardless of the depth of the difficulty, for resentment. That, too, can be proven senseless by the passage of time and can leave wounds far deeper than those which may be caused by financial difficulties.

Role of advertising

An official of the National Newspaper Assn. remarked, "Advertising with a capital 'A', has taken an unmerciful beating at the hands of consumerists in recent years." The consumerists, he points out, say advertising provides the consumer with no useful information.

The truth is that advertising contains a staggering amount of useful product information, beginning with such elemental facts as where an item is for sale, during what hours and at what price. Newspaper advertisements are usually filled with detailed information that enables purchaser and seller to come to a meeting of minds, and thus keep our entire free market economic system rolling along in high gear.

The association official touched on a phase of advertising with which the public has little familiarity—the policy guides which determine acceptance or rejection of advertising by newspapers. In practice, the self-regulation of advertising content by the newspapers is a more effective safeguard against fraud or deception than a mountain of laws. Yet, it is carried on without impairing the basic function of advertising or the fluidity of the marketplace. Newspaper self-regulation of advertising, as the official observes, is pragmatic and direct, and based upon the "... knowledge and experience of the publisher and his staff."

It should never be forgotten that advertising is the underpinning of a free press.

OCALA, Fla., STAR-BANNER: "Does the wide disparity of welfare funds made available by the various states encourage would-be recipients to move from state to state seeking larger handouts?... Just the other day... (the New York City) welfare department denied welfare benefits to a woman with 12 children who had migrated from Mississippi. If her application had won approval, she would have received $745 a month in welfare, tax free and not including free medical care available under the Medicaid program. Multiply that $745 by 12 and it comes out to a cool $8,940 in relief payments."

Back Thru "Looks Like Another Rough Season!" the Years

Interesting Items from the Files of the Clinton County News

10 YEARS AGO

New facilities to manufacture metal powder will be installed in the Federal Mogul plant in St. Johns this year, Kermit Hart, plant manager announced today. Construction of a 50 by 100 foot addition to the southwest corner of the plant will be started soon to house the new operation.

St. Johns summer tax bills are being mailed to owners of real and personal property in the city this week.

The summer rate is 10 1/2 mills on the city's state equalized valuation about $1.62 per thousand higher than last year on assessed valuation.

No mother could have been prouder than Mrs. Thelma Baese as she pinned the "wings" on her son Richard, Wednesday, June 10 at Greenfield Air Force Base, in Mississippi, where he received his commission as a pilot in the Air Force.

Richard is the last one of nine sons of Mrs. Baese to have seen service in some branch of the military service. The boys have served continuously since World War II and have traveled all over the world and every continent except South America and Antarctica. Eleven members of Dick's family were present.

25 YEARS AGO

The Republican National Convention in Chicago named Thomas E. Dewey, former Owosso boy, and now governor of New York state to head the ticket.

Mrs. Nelson H. Palmer, 86, one of Clinton County's most widely known and respected women, died on Friday morning, June 23, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Brooks, at 205 S. Mead Street, St. Johns.

Effective Monday, July 10, ceiling prices will become effective on 23 makes of automobiles, including 6,000 models manufactured in the years 1937 to 1942.

50 YEARS AGO

No it wasn't a fire, nor a runaway nor anything like that, but when a big truck loaded with ice appeared in the eastern part of the city last Friday morning there surely was some commotion. The good news spread like wild fire and with a hurried wipe of their noses on their respective aprons, and without waiting to adjust a hair pin, the housewives started in pursuit. One of our most distinguished male citizens was in the bunch and in stentorian tones ordered his ice box filled to the limit. But the women wouldn't stand for that and said he must take his turn, which he meekly did. The public benefactor to break the ice famine in St. Johns was Earl Payne, who has arranged to secure ice from Ovid dealers, and will supply customers so far as he is able.

Drownings are frightfully common since the resort season opened and warm weather came. About two weeks ago there were nine in the state over the weekend and nearly every day takes one or more toll.

'IF IT FITZ ...'

Have another drink

By JIM FITZGERALD

I just got a dirty letter from Bill Ricketts. He said our high school class graduated 25 years ago this month and we should have a party. What a clown.

The first thing I did was subtract 1944 from 1969. Then I proved my answer by adding it to 1944. Then, for the first time, I looked at the numbers on my Playboy calendar to make sure it was 1969. I then phoned my mother to make sure it had been 1944.

But no matter what I did, it kept coming up 25. Ricketts is right. It would have been nice if he'd kept his mouth shut, but he is right.

It was just the other evening that my sweet 13 daughter said I wouldn't look so fat if I didn't have so many chins.

"I guess I eat too much," I admitted.

"Don't you swallow it?" she asked.

I AM NOT too keen on driving to Port Huron to parade my chins before St. Stephen Class of '44. No one will recognize me. When I was a high schooler, I was so skinny my shadow was embarrassed and kept falling behind me, trying to act as if it were with someone else. As a result, my shadow didn't graduate until 1946.

I remember lots of things about those skinny days...

There was the day Fred Ceglarek pushed me through a school window. We were brought before Father McCormick where, under pain of mortal sin, we promised to make restitution. I'll bet that bum Fred hasn't paid his half yet. Which makes 2 of us.

I remember handsome Bobby Patterson who wowed the girls and drove a new Buick in the 8th grade (I may have written that in the wrong order). He defected to military school for a couple of years but returned in time to get me in lots of trouble. Bob later taught at St. Stephen which was similar to making Al Capone warden of Alcatraz.

The graduating class president was Bill Hubbell. He was going to be a priest until he met a girl named Peaches, of all things. He married her. And, the way things are going these days, he may still become a priest. "Here comes Father Hubbell and Peaches." I like the sound of that.

I remember buying cigarets for a penny each at Grandma

Abdou's store across the street. Her grandson Joe was a classmate, the toughest kid in the room. The last time I saw him he owned a bar and raced horses and was still single. It pays to be tough. Just ask us sissies.

I remember the place to meet your girlfriend after school was in the last pew of St. Stephen Church. The girl I met for years finally wised up and married a golf pro. They also tore down the church and any day now the Pope may announce that St. Stephen was a phony.

I remember how World War II changed the curriculum. A nun who used to teach literature was suddenly teaching aeronautics. She didn't know an airplane from a scooter but this was war.

I remember a classmate named Tommy Knapp who didn't graduate. He dropped out early to join the army and, by commencement day, he was dead in Europe.

A war waited for most of the boys then. Now, 25 years later, another war waits for our sons. This is progress?

All hall the Class of '44. And do have another drink.

TAKING FIVE

Hot dogs to cats

By RON HUARD

A young friend of mine from out Iowa way by the name of Mike Means is fairly representative of the all-American boy. Like most other boys his age Mike has an appetite for hot dogs, but unlike his contemporaries, he has a unique method of disposing of them.

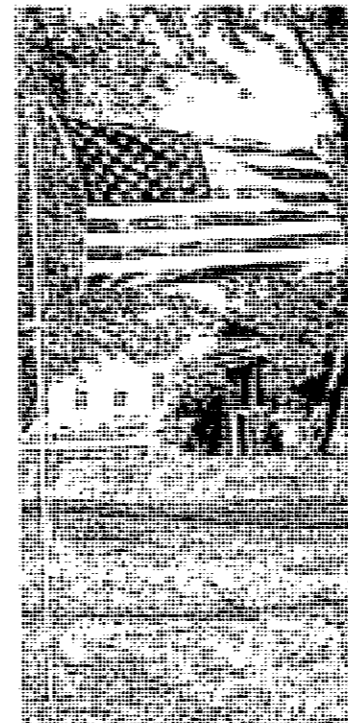

From observations it appears to be commonplace that a hot dog be eaten from one end to the other and this Mike does but in a way all his own. He begins nibbling the weiner and with each successive bite proceeds further into the sandwich allowing the respective parts of the hot dog bun to slide along his cheeks without ever being touched.

The end result is an empty hot dog bun and a mustard speckled lad with a wide grin and despite the unusual procedure everyone concerned seems to be satisfied with the results.

Once had a geometry teacher who worked diligently teaching us the generally accepted ways of reaching solutions to mathematical problems yet there were more than a few occasions when the correct answer would be arrived at by a number of students using procedures other than what the instructor had suggested.

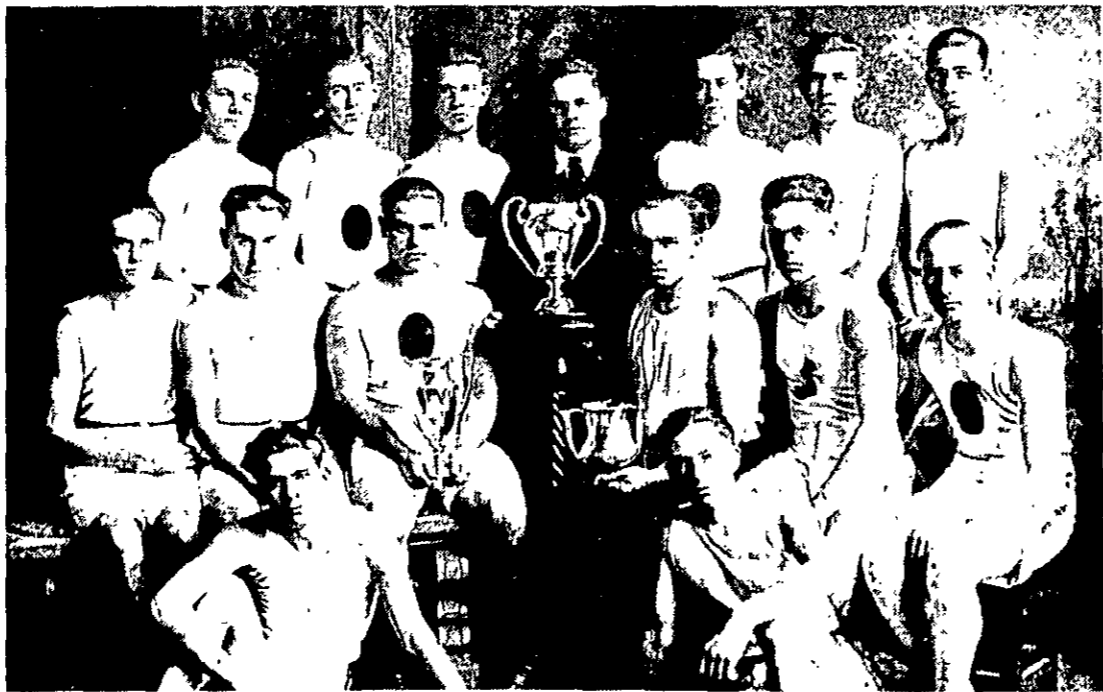

They were never discouraged by this concerned teacher. In fact, she praised them for their ingenuity (I never happened to be among the ingenious numbers) and used their accomplishments to point out how difficult it is to be absolute in any procedure.

They fly our flag

Patrick Goff, 10, requested that his parents, Mr and Mrs Thomas Goff, place a flag pole in their front yard at 1101 S. Oakland Street. The family now flies the flag regularly.

These fellows made up the track team at St. Johns High School back in 1921. The picture is reproduced from Le Cid, the high school's first yearbook, provided by Mrs. Arnold Martens. According to information accompanying the picture the team had a successful season that year: "St. Johns won two meets out of the four in which she took part. In the other two meets she placed third in one and individual scoring in the meet at M.A.C. Much of her success is due to the efforts of the coach, Mr. Davies, who developed a winning team out of raw material." The "raw material" Mr. Davies worked with from the left: back row—Leonard Blakeslee, Aloysius Martin, Maxwell Smith, Mr. Davies, Walter Gohn, Morris Anselm and Robert Gilson. Middle row—Blynn Vincent, Orville Price, Lewis Kelly, John Zabelka, Wendell Stead and John Burrige. Raymond Hull Jr. and Albert Reese are seated in front.

Broken rules

We killed so many men today!
Please do not ask me why,
Chance threw them all together,
And decreed that many die.

We killed so many men today!
Maimed and battered countless more,
Not defending our chosen land,
But on some far away shore!

We killed so many men today!
Men who were not born to kill,
Who marched to battle once again
On some Hamburger Hill!

We killed so many men today!
Who keeps the bloody score?
Like pawns upon the chess-board,
Each new move cries for more!

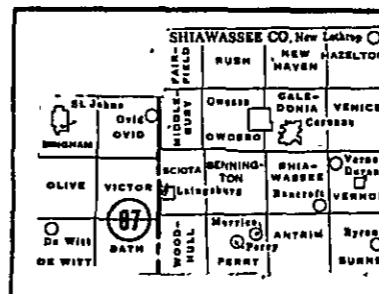

We killed so many men today!
Ever finding new ways to betray
The God whom we would worship,
When love has found the way.

We killed so many men today!
And boast of our prowess as good!
While a world still plunged in darkness,
Seeks Human Brotherhood!

View from the 87th

By WILLIAM S. BALLENGER
State Representative

This week I'd like to report the final tabulation of responses to my legislative questionnaire on the subjects of welfare, throwaway bottles, and driver licensing.

When asked if the state should establish the minimum age to obtain a driver's license at age 17 instead of 16 (subject to existing exceptions), the approximately 1765 respondents answered: 50.3%, Yes; 34.7%, No; and 15%, No Opinion.

Clearly, then, a sizable number of adults in the 87th House District do not approve of the high accident and fatality rate among teenage drivers and feel that, by deferring for a year a teenager's right to drive an automobile, we can cut down on the skyrocketing property damage and loss of life resulting from auto accidents involving young people.

A surprisingly high percentage of respondents felt that the litter, health, and financial problems posed by throwaway bottles and cans should be strongly dealt with by the Legislature.

For instance, when asked if the Legislature should pass a law requiring a higher deposit on bottles which currently require such a deposit, the response was: 57.6%, Yes; 17.8%, No; and 24.6%, No Opinion.

When asked if they felt non-deposit or throwaway bottles should be banned, a whopping 78% said Yes; only 10% said No; and 18.6% had No Opinion.

When asked if they felt non-deposit cans should be banned, 85.6% said Yes; 15.9% said No; and 18.6% had No Opinion.

Also, 65.3% said they felt the Legislature should prohibit the sale of refrigerated beer in non-deposit containers for off-premises consumption, 15.1% said they did not feel the Legislature should take such action, and 19.6% had no opinion.

Lastly, when asked whether they felt the Legislature should avoid becoming involved in the throwaway bottle-and-can controversy, only 8.7% said they felt the Legislature should keep out of it. 53.9% said they felt the Legislature should take action, and 37.4% had no opinion.

The responses to the queries on Welfare in my legislative questionnaire proved interesting in at least one category, anyway—that of Aid to Dependent Children or ADC, as it's often abbreviated.

Respondents gave far less support to the idea that ADC should be increased than they did to other welfare programs such as Nursing Home Care, Hospital Care, Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Disabled, and Physicians' Services. Furthermore, most respondents seemed to reject the suggestion that ADC grants should be increased with the cost of living and a strong majority favored a new work incentive program for ADC mothers.

The welfare category which drew the strongest and most sympathetic support was that of "Old Age Assistance." 40% of the respondents felt Old Age Assistance should be increased. Only 3% felt it should be decreased. 29.2% felt it should stay the same, and 27.6% had no opinion.

As I said, the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program drew the least sympathetic response. Only 13.4% felt support for the program should be increased. 22.8% felt support should be decreased. 36.3% felt support should be left the same, and 27.5% had No Opinion. As a matter of fact, ADC was the only category out of the six I listed in the questionnaire in which more respondents felt support should be decreased than increased.

The other four categories—Nursing Home Care, Hospital Care, Aid to the Disabled, and Physicians' Services—all received support somewhere in between Old Age Assistance, on the one hand, and ADC on the other. I should also mention that respondents who advocated increased support outnumbered those who recommended decreased support in all four of these categories by a sizable margin.

Back once more to ADC. When asked if they favored support for a new work incentive program for ADC mothers, the response was: 77.9%, Yes; 9.5%, No; and 12.6%, No Opinion.

I pointed out in my legislative questionnaire that present grants to ADC mothers are based on costs in 1961. I said that there are proposals to peg increased ADC grants to the rising cost of living.

But when I asked my constituents if they favored legislation to increase ADC grants with the increased cost of living, only 36% said Yes; 45.4% said No, and 18.6% had No Opinion.

Clearly, a majority of residents of the 87th House District feel that the Aid to Dependent Children program has not been effective. My feeling is that major efforts ought to be expended on behalf of ADC in both Congress and the State Legislature to make it a worthwhile program and prevent the abuses which have plagued it and damaged its image in the public eye.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Nonpartisan judges

By ELMER E. WHITE

Chief Justice Thomas E. Brennan has called on the Michigan Legislature to enact a pending bill to provide for the nonpartisan nomination of state Supreme Court justices.

Brennan, in a special message to the lawmakers, said the present system of party convention nominations is a "relic of a bygone day."

Under the bill, Supreme Court candidates would run without party labels in a wide open primary. The top two vote-getters would meet in the general election.

"Given a nonpartisan primary election for nominations to the Supreme Court, the two great political parties of Michigan will be unburdened of the biennial chore of finding candidates to be noisily nominated—and promptly disowned," Brennan said.

"Incumbent justices will be unburdened of the prospect of a re-election contest which stems not from a judgment about his qualifications, but from the necessity of filling the ticket."

"And the people will be unburdened of the tired labeling of their Supreme Court justices as Republicans and Democrats by the public press—as though the circumstances of their original nomination had some indelible influence upon their decisional processes."

BRENNAN ALSO called on the Legislature to enact bills swiftly to consolidate the Detroit Recorder's and Wayne County Circuit Courts, and create a Detroit District Court with criminal and civil divisions.

Establishment of a district court system would bring the court process closer to Detroit's black population and solve some of the legal problems in the ghetto, the chief justice added.

"For too long the black people of our cities have been smeared by the wide brush of public reaction to the crimes of some black men, without having in hand the tools with which to discipline their errant brothers," Brennan said.

"It is time we gave them the tools . . . It is time we give the people of Detroit, neighborhood by neighborhood, and precinct by precinct, the judges and the courthouses to do the job which must be done if our children and our children's children are to enjoy the fruits of urban civilization."

Brennan took an indirect swipe at legislation to strip the State Bar of Michigan of its self-policing power over lawyers and vest the authority to license attorneys with a state agency.

"No other profession is regulated as completely or judged as sternly as the practice of law," Brennan declared. "The number of lawyers annually disciplined, suspended, and disbarred far exceeds the number in other professions."

In the new state Judicial Tenure Commission, the agency for disciplining judges, Brennan said Michigan jurists "have the best, most modern appliances to clean our own house."

"STATE COLLEGE and university presidents have closed ranks against 'intentionally disruptive and negative' campus disorders, vowing they will 'not tolerate intentional acts of physical coercion or violence.'"

At the same time, they reaffirmed their dedication to peaceful dissent and said they plan to avoid outside intervention in campus disorders unless absolutely necessary.

"We will protect with all appropriate means the rights and safety of all students, faculty and staff and will resist with all appropriate means the seizure of our institutional facilities," the presidents warned in a resolution adopted unanimously.

"We will not permit any group within our institutions to infringe on the rights of others. We will, of course, defend freedom of expression and the necessity for tolerance of all viewpoints, but will not tolerate intentional acts of physical coercion or violence."

"It must be clearly understood that all members of the academic community are subject to the civil and criminal laws of the society in which we live."

The presidents urged that "channels for appeal and orderly dissent" be kept open and that conflict be "resolved rationally and positively."

Gov. William G. Milliken enforced the presidents' position and said his office would work with college administrators in formulating guidelines for handling campus unrest.

Pat Thompson, Karin Powers, Pauline Powers, Sue Suppa and Judy Hunt all of St. Johns met at Walker's Cafe June 17, to form a new club devoted to aiding new residents to the Community. Welcome Wagon Hostess Pauline Powers is the club sponsor. (See story on page 7B)
