A Canadian Armed Forces helicopter burns in Pete Kurncz's corn field north of St. Johns Thursday morning after it made a forced landing when fire was discovered aboard the aircraft. Fire crewmen escaped injury.

Helicopter forced down in Clinton corn field

ST. JOHNS—Clear-headed coolness and military experience saved two Canadian airmen and their three passengers from a fiery death Thursday morning as their crippled jet helicopter landed safely in a Clinton County cornfield.

Capt. William Pollock of the Canadian Armed Forces and his crew were returning from a transport mission to Calgary, Alberta, when he noticed a fire in the forward transmission area. He said he notified a sister aircraft that his plane was in trouble and that he would have to land.

"We had complete control of the helicopter," Pollock said. "But the fire was spreading too fast for us to put it out."

The helicopter was flying at an altitude of about 5,500 feet, the captain said, and dropped at the rate of approximately 2,000 feet per minute before landing. "We were on the ground within three minutes," he said.

"We were able to fight the fire at first because there were little flames," he said. The craft landed in a cornfield on the Peter Kurncz farm on Gilson Road at French Road in Greenbush Township. The crewmen and passengers quickly left the immediate area of the crippled helicopter loaded with jet fuel. According to witnesses, about two minutes after the plane landed, the fuel tanks caught fire and exploded sending large black streams of choking fumes across the Kurncz farmyard.

Pollock, a balding veteran of the Canadian Air Force, said they were enroute to their home base at Ottawa, Canada.

Clinton County Sheriff deputies blocked off the area with aid from the Michigan State Police and continued to quarantine the area until an investigating team could be flown in from Ottawa to determine the exact cause of the blaze.

WITNESSES said the inside of the cockpit was completely burned, with the magnesium plates still white hot hours after the plane landed.

The other helicopter on the mission also landed at the Kurncz farm once contacting Capital City Airport about the accident, although Pollock and the other men said they would stay until the investigating team finished their work.

The monetary loss in aircraft and equipment was set at about $1.5 million.

Kurncz, one of the witnesses, said he saw the helicopters passing west to east over his farm when one slowed and appeared to hover slightly, and take a steep dip toward his field. He said he saw fire at the base of the propeller and barely missed the tree line at the southwestern corner of the field.

After a few minutes the helicopter began blowing," Kurncz said.

It was not an entirely new experience for Pollock. He said that he had earlier piloted a larger helicopter transport craft that crashed after landing when the wheels hit a ridge and flipped the plane end over end.

Pollock said he was seriously injured in the crash and without his safety equipment would have been killed. He noted that this was a less serious mishap since he and the crew were able to save some of the equipment and attempt to halt the fire before abandoning the craft. He said once the fire began to spread to the fuel cells, they left the area immediately.

Pollock said the fire extinguishers carried in the plane couldn't cope with the magnesium plating in the forward transmission area.

"I was really surprised," Pollock said of the St. Johns fire department. "We were standing here shortly after landing and all of a sudden here are some fire trucks coming out of nowhere."

Spokesmen said the craft would be removed by commercial concerns and sold for scrap, rather than transporting the craft back to a Canadian base.

Little League plans all-star game

ST. JOHNS—An All-Star team from each of the two St. Johns leagues will meet two championship teams from Lansing, of the same age groups, under the lights in St. Johns, on Friday evening, July 30, starting at 6:30 p.m.

Admission will be charged, with the proceeds going toward the balance still owing on the little-league lighting project.

Five calls when paper came out

"I had five calls as soon as the paper came out." That's what Mrs. Mary C. Brown, of 1898 N. Clinton St., St. Johns said after she sold her refrigerator with an 80 pound freezer which she advertised in last week's edition of the News.

If you'd like to have fast results in selling something, or if you want to get something at a bargain price, look in the Clinton County News classified ads. You just may find your pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

Clinton projects approved; county to receive $110,000

LANSING—Expenditure of more than $110,000 from the state recreation bond fund has been authorized for a series of recreation development and improvement projects throughout Clinton County, State Sen. William S. Ballenger (R-Ovid) announced today.

Ballenger listed the projects, recently approved by the Legislature, and state funds allotted to them as including:

Elsie Village Park, $11,153; Watertown Township Recreation Development, $7,690; St. Johns Main Park, $31,857; St. Johns Senior Citizens' Park, $6,076; St. Johns Water Tower Play Lot, $1,817 and St. Johns Kibbee Street Play Lot, $1,311.

Fowler Village Square, $13,363; Bath Village Park, $7,802; Westphalia Dandel Droste Memorial Park, $6,055; DeWitt Township Neighborhood Park-Valley Farms School, $24,544 and Maple Rapids Community Park, $5,274.

Ballenger said work on the Elsie Park would include construction of a combined ice skating rink and tennis and shuffleboard courts; a warming building and shelter; installation of picnic equipment; and construction of a backstop and lighting the existing baseball field.

Work on the Watertown area near Grand Ledge will include development of a park along the Looking Glass River; construction of a picnic area; installation of playground equipment, an archery range and horseshoe courts; a combination recreation building and restrooms; and construction of a baseball field.

Ballenger said work on the St. Johns Main Park includes installation of playground equipment; rebuilding the baseball diamond and lighting it; construction of four lighted tennis courts and an ice skating rink; and construction of an all-purpose shelter with toilet facilities and parking.

A picnic shelter will be constructed at the St. Johns Senior Citizens' Park. Horse-shoe and shuffleboard courts will be constructed and picnic equipment, including tables and grills, will be installed. Toilet facilities also will be provided.

Playground equipment will be purchased for the Water Tower play lot. Basketball backboards and hoops will be installed and picnic tables and benches provided.

Playground equipment and tables and grills will be installed at the Kibbee Street play lot.

The project for the Fowler Village Square includes new playground equipment, horse-shoe and shuffleboard courts, picnic equipment, and toilet facilities.

At the Bath Village Park, Ballenger said an ice skating rink would be constructed and a warming house provided. The project also calls for a baseball field and ski and toboggan runs.

Existing facilities at the Dandel Droste Memorial Park in Westphalia will be expanded, he added.

Two baseball diamonds will be constructed at the DeWitt-Valley Farms Park. The project also calls for a multi-purpose tennis, basketball and ice rink facility and installation of playground and picnic equipment.

In Maple Rapids, toilet facilities will be constructed; a shelter and ice skating area will be provided; and a lighted tennis court will be developed, concluded Ballenger.

Voters will decide good or poor schools

ST. JOHNS—The question of "good" and "poor" will be what the voters of the St. Johns School District decide on Aug. 2.

Voters will once again have an opportunity to choose between a good education for the children of the district or a poor one.

The school board has decided to place two proposals on the ballot for the Aug. 2 election. Voters will be voting on a renewal of 14.5 mills which have expired and 2.5 mills additional tax.

The 14.5 mills which was voted for two years in June of 1969, expired this year, leaving the district with only the 8 mills allocated by the County Allocation Board.

IF NO MILLAGE is approved at the Aug. 2 election, the 8 mills will not be enough to qualify the district for state aid. Last year state aid required at least 10 mills to be levied by the district to qualify for state aid payments.

With no state aid, and no additional millage, the schools would not be able to operate for more than one month after they open in September.

The board has said the 14.5 millage must be approved, in order for the 2.5 mills to go into effect. If only the 2.5 mills were approved, they would not count.

If only the 14.5 mills are renewed, the district would qualify for state aid, but the millage would only allow for the operation of a reduced program. Supt. Earl Lancaster has said there would have to be across the board program cuts.

"IF MORE STATE aid were granted this year, along with 14.5, some of the possible cuts could be restored, but the district will operate with the money that is available," he said. "There will be no deficit spending."

The second ballot asks for a 2.5 mill increase. This amounts to an increase of $2.50 per $1,000 of state equalized assessed valuation. If approved, the 2.5 mills would allow the district to operate the same program they had last year. But it will only count if the 14.5 mills are also approved. It would raise the average tax bill $15.

"We could operate the same program for children that we had last year with the 17 mills, even though some cuts in staff and other economies have been planned," Lancaster said.

Lancaster said one of the staff cuts has already been made in his office. One assistant superintendent has taken another job and won't be replaced.

EVEN IF THE 17 mills were to be approved Aug. 2, the district still will not break even at the end of the next fiscal year.

"It would take more than 17 mills to break even on June 30, 1972," Lancaster said.

Millage meetings planned

ST. JOHNS—Public meetings to discuss the urgent need for 17 mills to operate the St. Johns School District have been scheduled next week for five locations throughout the district.

Supt. Earl Lancaster said the meetings are being held in an effort to supply voters with information on the school situation and to answer any questions the voters may have.

The district is seeking a total of 17 mills, 14.5 renewal and 2.5 additional, on two separate ballots in a scheduled special election set for Aug. 2.

At their reorganizational meeting July 12, the board voted to hold the public meetings "in an effort to make every possible source of information available."

THE MEETINGS ARE scheduled for the week of July 26, with the first meeting set for Monday at the Riley School, starting at 8 p.m. Leg Schumaker and Roger Feeman will be on hand to answer questions.

On Tuesday, July 27, meetings are scheduled at the Eureka and East Olive schools with Alden Livingston and Vera Bryant scheduled to be at Eureka and Bill Richards and Roger Feeman at East Olive.

On July 29, Livingston and Beverly Baker are scheduled to be at East Essex and Raymond Parr and Lancaster will be in the cafeteria at the high school for St. Johns residents.

All of the meetings will begin at 8 p.m.

Students plan vote campaign

ST. JOHNS—Members of the St. Johns High School student council and student body will be manning the telephones and offering free baby sitting services on election day Aug. 2, in an effort to boost the chances of passing the proposed millage package.

Marty Ernst, student council president, said the students will be at the telephone calling people reminding them to vote. He said they would also provide an answering service for those voters with questions on the millage proposal, assisted by Gordon Vandemark, high school principal.

There will be six telephones available at the high schools for voter questions. The high school number is 224-2394.

"We would like to see the high quality of education at St. Johns continue," Ernst said. He noted that this was the first time the student council was donating time to the millage vote.

"We weren't organized during the first election," he said. "The St. Johns school district voters turned down the request for 14.5 mills in operating monies and 2.5 mills additional increase, in a combined 17 mill package. The present election will find two separate proposals, one for the continuance of the 14.5 mills and another for the 2.5 mill increase."

"We are backing both proposals," Ernst said.

There will be about 20 students offering their time on election day. Ernst said some will be at the Rodney B. Wilson Junior High School, the only city polling office, to help mothers with small children while they stop in to vote.

Officers of the student council besides Ernst are Robbin Wilson, vice-president; Ed Jorae, treasurer; Ruth Willett, secretary; and Lila Pettit, parliamentarian.

Chase ends in arrest of DeWitt man

DEWITT TOWNSHIP — A 21-year-old DeWitt Township man was being held in the Clinton County Jail Tuesday morning awaiting examination in District Court on charges of assault and carrying a concealed weapon.

Lee Curtis Gilmore, 10719 S. US-27, was apprehended by Michigan State Police troopers after a high speed chase through the township Monday night. Troopers arrested him after he turned into a private roadway off Stoll Road and lost control of his vehicle.

According to police reports, a Grove Street resident called the State Police in East Lansing at 8:10 p.m. requesting aid for a woman who had called for help. The resident said the woman was being chased by a man carrying a gun and allegedly threatening her.

Two State Police units were dispatched to the scene, but when Gilmore saw the police cars he left the Grove Street address with a female passenger.

Gilmore then travelled to State Road, police said, running stop signs at Grove Street and State Street and ran a red light at US-27. Officers said they could not be certain whether shots were fired at them, but they did attempt to shoot out the tires of the fleeing vehicle.

Officers said Gilmore turned north onto Still Road and went about one-half mile before turning into the private roadway where he was apprehended.

According to reports, no one was injured in the chase.

Opposition grows against project

By TIM YOUNKMAN
Editor

DeWITT TOWNSHIP—Opposition lines have been forming in DeWitt Township during the past two weeks against a proposed $3.5 million low-cost housing project to be located here.

The first hint of opposition came during a recent meeting at the township hall between backers of the housing project, led by Vincent Gels of Gels Realty, Lansing, and interested citizens.

The project calls for the construction of 220 family-size units on property to the south and adjacent to the DeWitt Middle School property along Shavey Road.

Under the plan, the units would be purchased by armed forces veterans, although the units could be rented from veterans by anyone who could afford the rental price.

A veteran, according to the proposal, would purchase a four-unit building at a cost of $60,000 with the federal government financing 90 per cent. Thus, with a $6,000 investment, a veteran could repay his loan through renting three of the units while living in the other one.

The first objections were raised by DeWitt School Supt. James Ritchie.

Ritchie said the 220 homes would produce at least 330 additional children immediately to be served by the DeWitt schools.

"That would mean we must build at least one new school building," he said. Ritchie added that the low income units would not produce enough tax money to pay for the costs of educating the additional children. "That cost would then be spread throughout the district in higher taxes," he said.

With the state equalized valuation of $1,750,000 on the project, taxes would only amount to about $33,000, but the cost of educating the children would be about $247,500, Ritchie said.

Ritchie noted that it costs the district about $700 a year per child for education.

He also said that the site of the proposed veterans' project would block single home construction patterns that currently exist along the Shavey Road-Herblison Road educational complex.

DeWitt Township officials originally favored the proposal, but switched their stand during a board of trustees meeting July 12.

Mrs. Donna B. Syverson, township clerk, said she did delete the rezoning statement from an earlier letter to the county, "because the Clinton County zoning office said that there was no zoning to cover multiple housing and that a special use permit must be obtained."

unanimously, 6-0. The statement cited the growing opposition voiced by a majority of those contacting the township offices.

Milton J. King, township supervisor, said much of the opposition by citizens was centered in three other housing developments. He cited Idylcrest subdivision, LaRoma subdivision and Lake Geneva subdivision. All three are located close to the proposed low-cost housing project.

He said the board at first approved the proposal since the trustees or other officials did not hear any strong opposition to the plan by township citizens. Once the public hearing was held, King said, there was a considerable increase in the opposition.

When asked to comment on the project or the growing opposition, Gels declined, stating only that he would wait until a later date to issue a public statement.

The public officials who are against the plan agreed that further study was needed by both the backers of the project and the county and township personnel.

Recreation plan funded

DeWITT TOWNSHIP—The first phase of a four-park recreational construction plan for DeWitt Township has been approved by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, Milton J. King, township supervisor, announced Wednesday.

Legislature, The State Treasurer plans to sell bonds to finance the program, as funds are required.

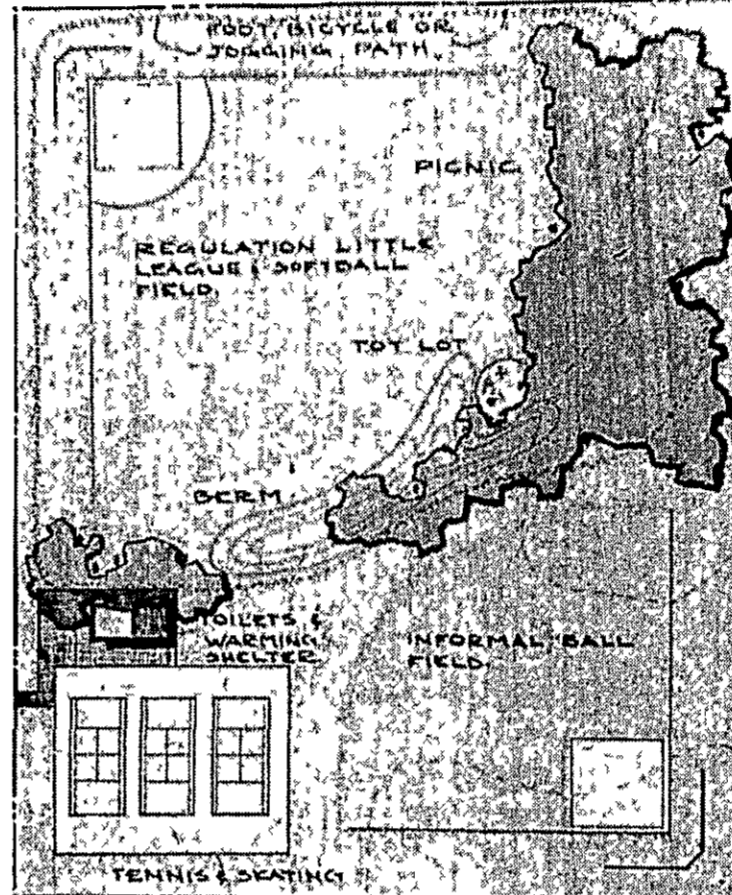

"If you want to start work on this project, please write me a letter requesting a project agreement," Schofield said. "If construction is involved, please brief us on the current status of engineering plans and specifications and include an itemized cost breakdown."

The township received official notification Monday July 12 through a letter from Raymond D. Schofield, Grants-in-Aid supervisor for the department.

The grant of $24,554 will be used to begin construction of a six-acre park to be located east of the township hall. Plans call for a regulation Little League and softball field, rest room facilities and warming shelters, an informal ball field, picnic grounds, tennis and skating areas and bicycle paths.

Members of the parks and recreation committee, which was recently formed to study the park program, are King, Charles Rademacher, Adrian Sanchez, Frank Pratt, Gerald Sonler, Eileen Corr and Ralph Schneider.

Township officials said they would meet with the committee soon to formulate exact specifications and plan the initial building phase of the park.

PARK PROGRAM

Initial plans for a four-park recreational program have been approved by the Natural Resources department with a special grant of more than $24,000. The park will be located directly east of the township hall.

The land for the park is currently owned by the Lansing School District and will be leased to the township for $1 per year.

According to the overall-master park plan, four parks will be constructed, two on each side of US-27, which currently divides the township.

"We are pleased to advise you that the Recreation Bond Fund application submitted by DeWitt Township for Project B-850-D, Neighborhood Park-Valley Farms School, has been approved in an amount not to exceed $24,554," Schofield stated.

Two under-age voters cast election doubts

ST. JOHNS—The battle in Bath Township concerning the recent election of a township supervisor may not have ended.

According to the Clinton County prosecuting attorney Patrick B. Kelly, two voters casting ballots in the election were under 21 years of age and ineligible to vote. The two were identified only as "an 18-year-old and a 20-year-old."

Kelly said he would have to consult with the state attorney general's office before deciding on any legal action against the two violators.

In that election, David L. (Roy) Van Sickle defeated Democratic challenger Carl R. Crofts by 25 votes. However, when a recount was demanded by Crofts, the county board of canvassers disqualified 25 votes, creating a tie between the two candidates.

To resolve the election, a drawing was held in the Clinton County courthouse conducted by county clerk Ernest E. Carter with Van Sickle winning the draw.

The election was a result of a recall vote in April ousting Duane Smith from the supervisor's post.

According to reports, the two under-age voters were uncovered as a result of a roll check by Township Clerk Lee Reasoner and the board of canvassers.

Clinton 'blasted' off map

By TOM DEWITT
Staff Writer

ST. JOHNS — At 10:40 a.m. Thursday morning, the City of St. Johns disappeared from the face of the earth.

The same thing happened to the city of DeWitt and the Merle Beach area.

Sound strange? Well, it was all in theory and part of a civil defense exercise which took place in the emergency operations office in the basement of the Court House.

THE EXERCISE, WHICH was presented by representatives of Michigan Technological University and the department of civil defense, was a dry run of actual conditions and expected problems in the event of a nuclear attack against this country.

It put into actual operation all theory and planning of county Civil Defense Director Charles Frost and his staff. And it worked fairly well.

The exercise started at 9:45 a.m. with a simulated message from Governor William Milliken. Frost read the message to the assembled center staff, saying a state of emergency existed and there was a high possibility of an imminent enemy attack.

The actual attack warning came at 9:48, when a message was received that missiles had been spotted leaving the Asian continent. Red Con I was in effect.

The group had 15 minutes before missile touchdown.

TWO MINUTES LATER the command post received word of a massive traffic jam two blocks from the court house.

Ten minutes later, damage reports out of the City of Detroit indicated minimal damage. A small house fire was reported on Forest Hill Rd. and 30 sick people were in need of assistance at the VFW Hall in St. Johns. A traffic jam was also reported in DeWitt at 9:59.

St. Johns officially left the map at 10:40 a.m. when an air burst was reported 10 miles west of Ovid. The blast had been intended for Lansing and was called "a near miss".

AT 10:08, HIPPIES were reported taking over a drug store in Fowler.

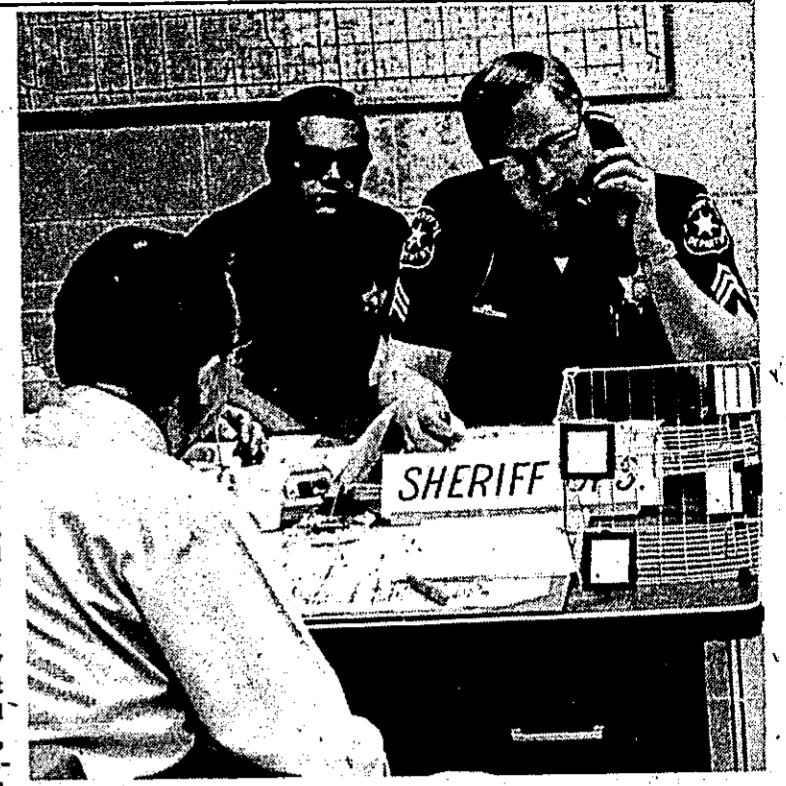

Another air burst, the final one of the day, was reported at 10:55 in the Merle Beach area and over the DeWitt area. Fall-out from Muskegon was beginning to drift into Clinton County on 30 mile per hour winds at 11:06. All emergency crews, road commission, sheriff department, fire and ambulance, were ordered to seek shelter at 11:27 because of the high rate of fall-out.

During the time of the simulated attack, the emergency operations center staff were kept extremely busy. Some answered phones, transmitted messages, while others plotted wind direction and velocity and assessed the situation. Others recorded the messages on a blackboard and moved flags around a huge county map, indicating the location of various emergency crews. In another room, just off the main center, another crew worked, thinking up the various situations that the center staff must respond to.

THE EXERCISE WAS the first time the Clinton Civil Defense unit had participated in an actual simulated situation.

And the reaction was good. Said Clinton County Sheriff Percy Patterson, "I feel this system is going to work very well. I only hope we can get together again for another practice."

Director Frost said, "I think it has been wonderful. But the test showed us where we have weaknesses in the system. For one thing, I think we all realized the value and tremendous need for a coordinator at the county level for a better fire service."

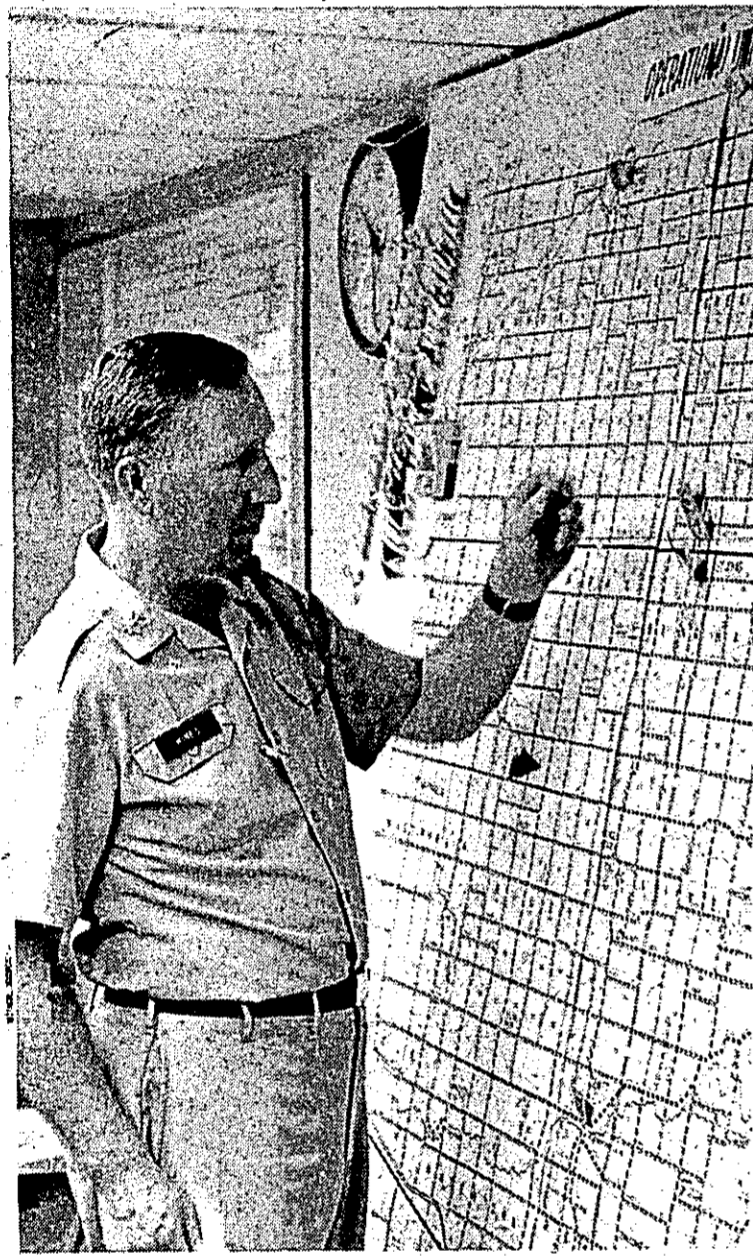

Sheriff Department Sgt. Tony Hufnagel gets the initial call putting the operations center on RED COM I alert. Waiting to go to work are Sheriff Percy Patterson, and Deputy Larry Floate.

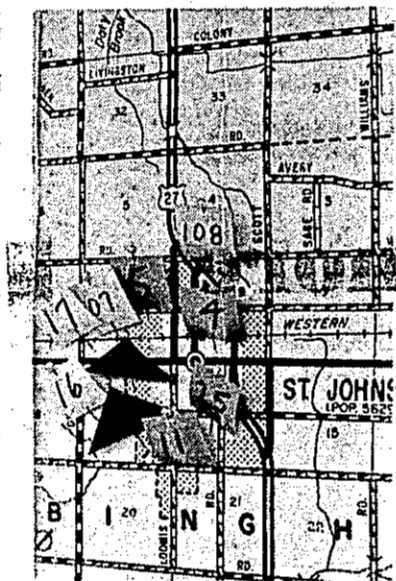

Civil Defense Director Charles Frost reads the message from the governor saying the possibility of a nuclear attack exists within the state.

TEST SUPERVISOR PHIL Wheeler commended the Clinton team for having what he termed "one of the best command center facilities." Wheeler also said the "county Civil Defense plan" was good, but it needed supporting annexes.

"I think the test has shown the need for a county fire association and a coordinator to work with you people. In cases of nuclear attack, survival is local. If you forget that, you're lost."

Wheeler also suggested yearly briefings for employees of departments which will aid the civil defense in times of disaster and attack. He stressed the need for more auxiliary ambulances also.

MTU simulator supervisor Cass Winn summed up the exercise in one word, "Excellent."

WHAT IS A "GOOD" SCHOOL?

A "good" school is one which is meeting the needs of all of the children with the best possible curriculum and supportive services.

ARE THE ST. JOHNS SCHOOLS "GOOD" SCHOOLS?

Yes--The pupil-teacher ratio is reasonably low -- The curriculum is diversified so as to meet the needs of students -- Attendance is excellent -- The Drop-Out percentage is very low --

DO YOU WANT "GOOD" SCHOOLS?

You can make certain that the quality is preserved by voting YES on August 2, 1971.

There will be TWO Propositions:

1. Vote YES on the renewal of 14.5 mills. This is a continuation of the tax rate of the past two years.
2. Vote YES on the additional 2.5 mills. A YES Vote on this proposal will allow the full program to operate.

MILLAGE ISSUES

A Different Point of View

Members of the Student Council which represent the entire student body of St. Johns are in favor of the additional 2.5 mills. We are in an excellent position to judge the needs of our school and feel that if the 2.5 mills are rejected, cut-backs will be made which would lower the quality of education--not only at the high school but throughout the whole school district. Practically every student could be affected if such activities as... 1. Science Fair 2. Athletic Awards 3. Music Programs plus other curriculum were eliminated.

It's in the best interest for parents and grandparents to give the August 2 proposals a second chance. We urge you to vote YES! A victory will enable your children to continue their education on a full scale program.

Will you deny your child a chance to a full Educational Program?

PLEASE HELP US PRESERVE THE QUALITY OF OUR SCHOOLS BY VOTING YES AUGUST 2.

Open Letter from VAN W. HOAG

Dear friends,

It deserves emphasis that the time, the place, the character of the funeral service, the merchandise used, the cemetery selected - these are decisions of the family of the deceased. The funeral director acts only as a representative of the family.

The clergyman should be consulted in matters that concern him before any decisions are made.

Respectfully,

Van W. Hoag

School district in red

ST. JOHNS—The St. Johns School district is in the red. According to a year-end report submitted to the Board of Education last Wednesday night the district spent $101,317 more than they took in.

The report was submitted by Supt. Earl Lancaster, who cited three main reasons for the deficit: 1. The supplying of free textbooks and supplies at a cost of $70,000; 2. A March decrease in state aid payments which amounted to a $21,000 loss in expected income; and 3. The addition of the 7th and 8th grade students from St. Joseph's school following the defeat of the parish amendment last fall. Lancaster said the additional students, plus the addition of three teachers, cost the district $16,000. The school board also received the year-end cafeteria report, which, ended with a balance of $7,080.88. The money will be used to defray the costs of heat and lights.

The board also accepted bids for a 10,000 gallon gasoline tank with a twin pump. The tank was purchased because it is cheaper in the long run to buy gasoline in tank car lots. The bid of the St. Johns Oil Company, of $3,487.99 was accepted by the board.

GASOLINE WILL BE purchased from Gulf Oil with a bid of .12 a gallon and fuel oil will be purchased for .1157 a gallon, also from Gulf Oil. Milk will be purchased from Sealtest Foods at a cost of .0632 per carton for white milk and .0662 per carton for chocolate. Fifteen typewriters were purchased from the Lansing Office Equipment Company for use by the high school commercial department at a cost of $159.50 each.

In other board action, a resolution was approved for application of ESEA Title I funds, which amount to approximately $45,000 a year for the system.

Falls hurt

By LORRAINE SPRAGUE
Extension Home Economist

More than 43 per cent of accidental injuries occur in and about the home with falls leading the list. Burns, cuts and poisonings also add to injuries. The sad thing about such information is that many of them could be prevented.

Have you checked your house, or the surroundings recently to see what hazards lie about and which ones you could eliminate?

Scatter rugs can really scatter you. Either get rid of them or be sure they are firmly anchored to the floor. The best anchor is a non-skid mat beneath the rug.

SPILLED WATER, GREASE or other substances cause a good many broken bones or bad bruises. Also do toys and other objects left in traffic lanes and on stairsteps. Other clutter on stairsteps are danger signals also. Bright lights at the top and bottom of a stairway is an excellent preventive measure. Even painting the first and last step a contrasting color has proven an excellent safety measure. Far too many people suffer injury because of their own careless habits. Floppy shoes can throw one; long flowing sleeves catch fire from the cooking burner; handles of cooking pans turned outward from the stove tempt youngsters to see what's inside. A few hours spent in checking your home, surroundings and your own habits could save yourself or someone in your family painful injury or even death. Do it today, not tomorrow.

Freeze??

"To freeze or not to freeze?" This is the question before Mrs. Homemaker as the fresh fruit and vegetable season swings into Michigan.

Does it pay to freeze fruits and vegetables at home? It's a common belief of many people that they can always save money by freezing foods at home. The truth is that you can't ALWAYS.

Here are some guides to help you figure and compare costs. First, there is the actual cost of the product to be frozen. If the purchase involves time and driving, these expenses must be included. If the food comes from your own garden, you must include cost of seeds or plants, fertilizers, and sprays. Don't forget to add the cost of all the other ingredients such as sugar, salt, etc. that go into the finished product.

THE PRICE OF YOUR freezer and its cost of operation are part of frozen food costs. An estimated average charge of $1.30 per month is figured to operate a 20 cubic foot freezer. Packaging materials for freezing food cost about two to four cents per pound package. A reasonable average figure for packaging and freezing a pound of food at home is 15 cents to 18 cents per pound above the cost of the raw food.

Many people truly enjoy freezing foods when they're in season. If YOU do, you'll probably continue to do up your own supply each season. The pleasure and satisfaction realized from a freezer full of your own handwork usually far outweighs economic considerations.

When you do freeze fruits and vegetables at home, don't try to short-cut or by-pass the tried and true rules. If the directions call for blanching the vegetables, be sure to do it. Don't skip this step or you'll be unhappy with the results of your hard work. Vegetables contain enzymes which can cause spoilage and loss of flavor and texture. Their action must be stopped by blanching or steaming to insure proper preservation. Laboratory tests show that frozen, unblanched vegetables may change in flavor and quality within two weeks. Fruits can be frozen dry without sugar, in a dry sugar pack or with syrup. Best results in terms of color, flavor and texture generally come from the methods calling for sugar or syrup, however.

For reliable up-to-date information on home freezing of fruits and vegetables write or call your Extension Home Economist, Courthouse Annex, 1003 S. Oakland Street, St. Johns, 46879, Phone: 224-3288 and ask for Home and Garden Bulletin No. 10, "Home Freezing of Fruits and Vegetables". It is available free of charge.

Bib overalls of all things are taking center stage at clothing style shows. Yes, it's pretty heady stuff, but it's true, bib overalls are even getting applause, and it's not because of their reasonable cost either.

One show featured a one-piece gaucho outfit in avocado brushed denim with zip front. At $90. Short shorts in bib style are popular too. Only we call them "hot bibs," cousin to "hot pants."

Distinctive, I guess! One socialite attended the Academy Award presentation in the newly prestigious "hot bibs."

The novelty has caught the fancy of youth. They are selling briskly to the under twenty set, from teens to pre-schoolers, both male and female. And children's sales have jumped 30 per cent, reports one maker of bibs.

Of course, not all styles are fresh and new. On the college campuses among the hard core hippy set there lingers the stereotyped old and worn bib.

Some explain that youth put bibs in style because they are symbolic of the ecology movement. Saving the environment in part for these faddists means wearing bibs. It represents a return to the simpler life, back to the old-time farm life, back to the old-time religion, back to organic farming and the arms of Mom Nature, back to a time we're not sure ever really was.

Bib overalls, however, are a product of an image of agriculture that has yet to come unglued. Not all farmers don them by any means, but those that do wear them because there is no constricting belt to hinder movement and they are comfortable.

physical labor. It is the heritage of America's public image syndrome. We believe if bibs be the style today; let it be, and if folks think it will help improve the environment, well, let's keep our fingers crossed. One thing for sure, bib overalls are traditionally American.

Farmers claim title to the bibs, that is if the fad doesn't blossom further so that other groups push to declare, "We invented it first."

Jackson Five to appear

DETROIT -- The Jackson Five, one of the hottest pop music attractions in the country today, will perform at the 1971 Michigan State Fair on Thursday, Sept. 9, Fair Manager E.J. Kelrns announced today.

In the past 18 months the Jackson Five has amassed 11 platinum records; each of their six singles has sold over two million copies and their five albums each grossed more than $2 million to date. This makes the Jackson Five the fastest selling artists in the history of Motown records.

The five brothers from Gary, Ind., are Michael, 9; Marlon, 9; Jermaine, 13; Toriano, 14; and Sigmund (Jackie), 16.

"The enthusiasm of Jackson Five fans can only be compared to the Beatlemania of the early 1960's," Kelrns said.

THIS YEAR'S 17-day fair extravaganza, Aug. 27 through Sept. 12, makes the Michigan State Fair the longest state fair in the country as well as the oldest, in its 122nd year.

Several people have asked us if we miss our boys. Alice never replies, she just smiles and so that no one will think she's an unnatural mother, I explain that we are childless and the two little people living with us are actually midgits who rent a room from us.

We were supposed to drive to the upper peninsula and join Grandma and the boys but when the following letters arrived Big Mama set the car on fire.

some big boats go through. Aunt Barbie asked Jojo if he wanted to get real close and he said yes. So Aunt Barbie helped him over the big fence and a whole bunch of soldiers came and arrested him. Then we went to the hospital. My bandages and stitches are gone and the cast comes off in a couple weeks. Aunt Barbie had to get a shot. When the soldiers gave him back, Jojo bit her. Uncle John said he needed a few shots too, but he went downtown.

GET THEM? Erik is a dear. He is resting comfortably, now. Joel is a little...well, he's busy all the time. Right now he is in the swamp. He must be all tied up with something. WHEN ARE YOU COMING?

Love,
Barbara

P.S. COME SOON
and then, we received a letter from Grandma Preville.

Dear Pluto, Mom and Dad,

Grandma says I still shouldn't write to you but she and Aunt Barbie are resting again. Grandma says who will write to you soon. Uncle John says who won't be able to stop shaking long enough.

Those guys found Jojo. He was alright. Grandma wanted to pay the guy $100.00 reward but he wouldn't take it. He said if she paid the doctor bill he would be satisfied. Jojo bit him. Some other guy said to rub Jojo with tomato juice to get rid of the skunk smell. He doesn't stink anymore but he's awful sticky.

We went to the Soo to the hospital and the Locks. We saw Anyway Jojo is lost again. We all went blueberry picking and he went with Aunt Barbie to hunt for a special patch. She came back but he didn't. Grandma called the searchers again but they just laughed and hung up. Uncle John says he just knows Aunt Barbie tied him to a tree.

Kiss Pluto for me.

And if that wasn't enough....

Lions Park provides summer haven for DeWitt kids

By TIM YOUNKMAN

This young lad seems to have the knack for hitting a softball during one of the afternoon games sponsored by the DeWitt Recreation Program, currently in its second year.

DeWITT—The DeWitt Lions Club didn't quite envision the rapid growth of their proposed park several years ago.

But a park and recreation program, currently in its second year of operation, has expanded the use of Riverside Park to the point of city officials looking for more land to serve their interested citizens.

The program, mostly staffed by volunteer workers, was proposed last year by Tom Mauro, an instructor and cross-country coach at DeWitt High School. He had been working with large city programs both in DeWitt and Lansing and thought that a similar plan, scaled down to DeWitt's facilities, could be started here.

It was met with some skepticism, with officials declining to include the program into their tight municipal budget. Mauro convinced them that he would volunteer to head the program and staff it with other civic-minded volunteers.

It was a slim summer, financially, but the program was successful.

"We had about 75 to 80 children a day," Mauro said. At the time, he was quite surprised that the children turned out in such numbers.

"We never had anything like this in Detroit," he said. He noted that the larger city programs get more children, but not such a high percentage of youngsters as the DeWitt program attracts.

LEARNING CRAFTS

The park program also provides for special arts and crafts training for younger children. Money for materials was provided by the city of DeWitt and the DeWitt Board of Education.

AROUND AND AROUND

Fun in the sun on a summer afternoon finds these youngsters enjoying a circular excursion at the DeWitt park.

meet Clinton National's long-time banker, Les

If you're impressed by experience, prepare yourself, because in thirty-two years of banking Les Jenkins has acquired more than the title of vice president. Anyone who has worked closely with people over such an extended period cannot help but develop a true appreciation of their needs and the important roles that concern and service play in satisfying those needs. And Les has been providing those considerations to our customers since joining the former State Bank of St. Johns in September 1955.

Les' long-time career in banking began at Hart, MI. where he completed high school in 1934. Four years later he was graduated from Davenport Business University in Grand Rapids and in 1939 began working as a banker at Oceana County Savings Bank in Hart.

Les and his wife, Thelma, have three children, all of whom are now married. (In fact, one son, Tom looked to the bank for his bride when he married Janyth Rumbaugh, whose dad John is our executive vice president.) The Jenkins' grandchildren number two and when they're not visiting in St. Johns, Les enjoys golf, boating and swimming.

To many Clinton National Bank customers, Les' position of loan officer wouldn't be quite the same without him. We feel the same way because we're impressed by experience, too.

LION'S PARK

The DeWitt chapter of the Lion's Club has worked in cooperation with the city and school system to create a scenic two-acre park along the Looking Glass River at Bridge Street.

DeWitt park

This time around, Mauro went before both the city council and the board of education early this spring and came up with a token $200 to continue the pilot project.

"This way we'll have money for some equipment and materials," Mauro said, "and we can give each of the workers something for their time."

The program is conducted Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Looking Glass River park site. Some days the children participate in sing-alongs, arts and crafts and softball.

Mauro pointed out that there is no formal sign-up for children wanting to play at the park during the recreation program hours.

"Everyone is welcome. I get some calls from mothers wanting to know if it is too late to sign up for the program. Actually, they can send their children out here on the last day if they want to and they will be part of the program."

If this summer's program proves successful, and it should with almost 100 children turning out every day, the city and school district could coordinate a full time summer recreation program within the next few seasons—one of the goals Mauro has set for the program.

But Mauro and his volunteers have proved one thing—that civic minded individuals can, with cooperation, create an interesting and fun answer to that time-worn summer question—"Mom, what's there to do?"

License restorations begin for 12,000 drivers

LANSING—The job of restoring the driving privileges of more than 12,000 Michigan motorists who are unconstitutionally suspended under the state's financial responsibility law has begun, it was announced by Secretary of State Richard H. Austin.

This does not include motorists who were found at fault and subsequently convicted in auto mishaps under Michigan's financial responsibility law, Austin explained.

At the same time, nearly $310,000 in security deposits required by the law will be returned to hundreds of drivers.

Austin's action followed quickly on the heels of receipt of an opinion from Attorney General Frank Kelly on the unconstitutionality of certain aspects of the Michigan financial responsibility law.

Persons who have questions on any phase of the financial responsibility law may call 345-4300, extensions 336 or 238 in Detroit, or 373-2630 in Lansing, for clarification, Austin said. Kelley's ruling was based upon a recent United States Supreme Court decision that overturned as unconstitutional a portion of the financial responsibility law of Georgia, which is identical to the Michigan law.

Under that section of the law in both states, an uninsured motorist involved in an accident resulting in death, injury or $200 damage or more must post a security deposit equal to the estimated damages, or submit an affidavit that all claims have been settled. If this requirement is not met within 60 days after an accident, the license of the uninsured motorist is suspended by the Department of State.

THE DRIVERS WHO are to share in the $210,000 rebate met the security deposit requirement and were not suspended.

In the Georgia case, the Supreme Court held that a driver license could not be suspended without a finding of fault through due process of law.

Austin notes also that unless the Legislature amends existing financial responsibility law, approximately $100,000 of operating expenses will be wasted each year in view of the Supreme Court decision.

"Although the Court has ruled that a driver license cannot be suspended or other action taken against a motorist until he has been judged at fault in an accident," Austin commented, "the law still required that any accident involving an uninsured motorist and resulting in death, injury or $200 damage or more be reported by all drivers involved to the Department of State.

"THESE REPORTS NOW will serve no useful purpose, but they still must be filed by the Department at an annual administrative cost of about $100,000 unless the Legislature acts."

The Legislature now is considering House Bill 5283 that would eliminate the reporting provision of the financial responsibility law. The measure has passed the House and is in the Senate Commerce Committee.

ZCJB to have special day in August

LANSING—Michigan will observe "Czechoslovak Day" on August 15, by Executive Declaration of Governor William G. Milliken.

State Representative Douglas Trezise (R-Owosso) today announced that the Governor has issued this declaration coinciding with a state-wide celebration by the Western Bohemian Fraternal Organization, which claims 5,000 members within the State.

The Western Bohemian Fraternal Organization—ZCJB—includes members who trace their heritage to the Czech, Moravian and Slovakian areas of Central Europe, now known as the country of Czechoslovakia. Michigan claims over 500,000 residents whose heritage may be traced back to this area.

The ZCJB will be holding its statewide celebration in commemoration of the traditional harvest festival of their native land in Owosso, Michigan.

IN DECLARING AUGUST 15, 1971 as Czechoslovak Day, the Governor urged Michigan residents to take time to note the contribution of the Czechoslovakian people to Michigan's own heritage.

Representatives ponder trade authority creation

LANSING—Legislation to create a Michigan International Trade Authority has been introduced in the Michigan House of Representatives.

The bill is the result of an extensive study conducted by the House Economic Development Committee. It was introduced by Rep. E.D. O'Brien (D-Detroit), chairman of the committee.

"We believe that the creation of this Authority will help us increase our export markets for products manufactured in Michigan. The Authority will centralize existing state agencies for this purpose," O'Brien said.

One feature of the proposal would establish foreign trade offices in Montreal, Brussels and Tokyo. These offices would be known as Michigan Trade Development Consulates and be controlled from Lansing.

O'Brien said that the Trade Consulates could be opened at a minimal cost. Each office would have four people; one person in charge of the Consulate, two assistants and one clerical.

Another feature of the proposal is new and different from foreign trade offices that have been established by other states. Volunteers would be encouraged to work with the Michigan Foreign Trade offices. The volunteers would be former Michigan residents living in retirement in that area of the world where the Michigan Trade Development Consulates are located. The volunteers would be known as Michigan Trade Development Consuls.

"There are many former Michigan businessmen, living in retirement outside of the United States, that would like to be active again in such a program. This program would give these retired people that opportunity," O'Brien said.

AFTER BEING screened and authorized by the Executive Director of the Authority, the volunteers would work without pay. They would be reimbursed for necessary expenses authorized by rules established by the Authority. The prime purpose of such volunteers would be to contact foreign business wanting to import Michigan made products.

Several states, including New York, Illinois and Ohio have established foreign trade offices. None are using the volunteer "Foreign Trade Consul" concept developed by the House Economic Development Committee.

The Authority would be headed by an executive director appointed by the Governor. Funds to operate the authority would be annually appropriated by the State Legislature.

Elite Marines to perform

DETROIT—The world famous United States Marine Drum and Bugle Corp and the Ceremonial Drill Team, based in Washington, D.C., will perform at the 1971 Michigan State Fair, September 5th, 6th, and 7th, Fair Manager, E.J. Keirns announced today.

The Corp, which appeared at the fair last year, has a repertoire ranging from traditional marches to modern melodies.

"With the addition of the Ceremonial Drill Team, the Drum and Bugle Corp should prove to be one of the most colorful and exciting attractions at this year's fair extravaganza," Keirns said.

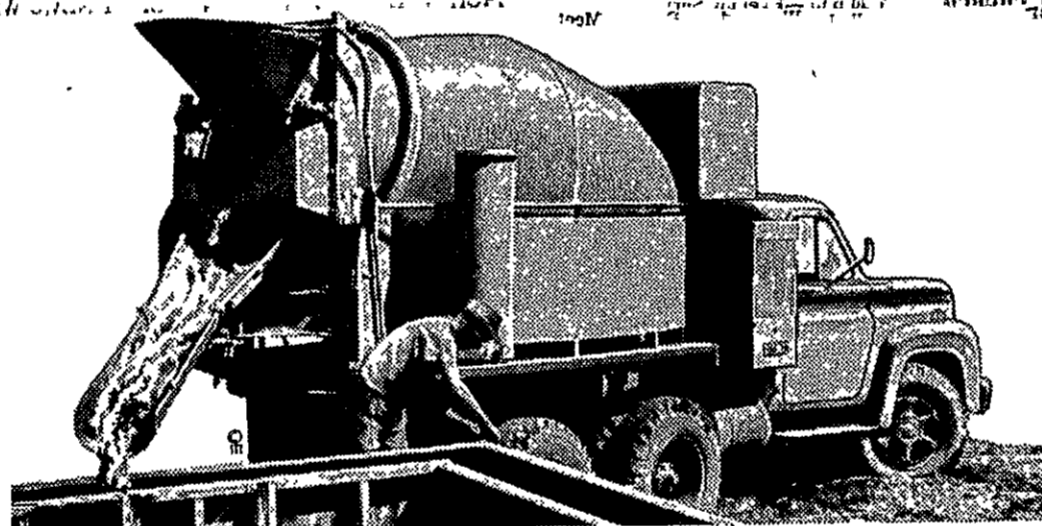

The Corp includes 14 soprano bugles, six French horn bugles, eight baritone bugles and three contra-bass baritone bugles. The drums - bass, tenor and snare - and the crashing cymbals round out the instrumentation. This combination offers the greatest variety to the music and a sensational sound.

A MARINE MUSICIAN must be proficient in both bugle and drum, as well as maintaining his military skills - his primary job in the Marines is that of a combat rifleman.

In its 122nd year, the Michigan State Fair is not only the oldest state fair in the country, but also the longest with this year's 17-day run, Aug. 27th through September 12th.

Taking a stand

A newspaper is supposed to have an opinion, and express it through its editorials, on major issues facing the people and the community in which it serves. It isn't always easy because, frankly, there are times when even the most well-informed editorial writer may have a question as to how he stands on an issue. And, it has been known that as more information is brought to light, the editorial stand could switch.

Certainly today some of the major issues are confusing as to what side we should stand. And it is probably for this reason that we have been asked on several occasions how this newspaper and its editorial writer thinks on some controversial problems. We'll take a turn or two on some of the less popular issues. We aren't attempting to influence you, we're just taking a stand and letting you know how we are thinking—at the moment at least.

AGE OF MAJORITY: Those who have serious doubts about the future when the age of majority is dropped to 18, will probably take a more active part in citizenship and you may see more oldsters at the polls. There is no magic number that can be pulled from a hat to say when a person is ready for responsibilities of citizenship or how he is viewed by the law. Only those who think all young people are hippies and bent on the overthrow of the "establishment" should have any strong admonitions on lowering the voting age. We think the young people will take their citizenship more seriously when they can effectively help mold their own future, as well as the futures of their parents and grandparents.

Probably causing as much negative reaction to the lowering the age of majority is the younger age when a person can purchase and consume alcoholic beverages. Anyone who has viewed young people in their leisure hours the past few years must recognize that teenage drinking is a common thing. It will take time to determine if legalizing the drinking age to 18 will have more adverse incidents than at present. Certainly it will be more difficult to enforce the laws. But to close your eyes to an already existing situation is to not look at the picture with clear vision. Actually, if you are against drinking of any form and by any age group, then the whole proposal must be quite disgusting. But then you are not looking at it in the aspects that legislators must do—and that is to seek answers from all sides and then make a decision.

ABORTION REFORM: Here's a real sure bet to get mail, no matter what stand you take. As the Lapeer County Press expressed it: "Abortion reform is a touchy subject in many groups. Some people object on religious grounds. The answer to them is simple: No one would be forced to have an abortion under any circumstances. The choice is free. If an abortion is against your religion, don't have one. But, please, don't seek to enforce the laws of your church upon people who go to another church."

The Press editorial continued, "Some objectors claim abortion is nothing less than murder. They are fighting the rights of 'unborn infants.' But the proposed reform would allow abortions for any reason only during the first 90 days of pregnancy. Defenders of the bill claim an embryo is no more than a human being than a pumpkin seed is a pumpkin. Actually, the debate of when an embryo-becomes-a-fetus-becomes-a-human will probably never be settled this side of heaven. But the existence of so much varied opinion is a good argument for letting each individual make that free choice. Is the freedom of the embryo to grow more important than the freedom of a woman to control her own body? We don't think so. That's our choice. You make your own—and then let's not bug each other."

If you are still with us, then we'll add the concluding remarks of the Press editorial: "Certainly, abortion is not our favorite type of birth control. We will welcome the day when no abortions will be necessary because no unwanted embryos will have been created. But in the meantime, we must deal with the world that is. And today, in Michigan alone, that means thousands of people who don't know anything about birth control. Many of these same people can't afford a trip to New York for an abortion—any more than they can afford to support a third or sixth or tenth child. So, short of risking their lives and breaking the law with a backdoor abortionist, they must have the child. And too often it is a child born to misery, another burden on a society already unable to carry its load decently. It is incredible for the Legislature to refuse to help these unfortunate people while Michigan doctors help wealthier women circumvent an unfair law by referring them to New York doctors. Our abortion laws simply don't make good sense and it is long past time for the Legislature to do something about it."

So ends the Press editorial comments on abortion. They seem to be pretty much in accord with our own thoughts. It may not be a popular stand with some of our readers, but your comments will be more than welcomed.

Robert Gill, personnel manager at Sealed Power Corp., has been installed as president of the St. Johns Exchange Club. Other new officers elected are Bill Patton, vice-president; Mary E. Pritchard, secretary; and John Rehnmann, treasurer. New board members are Herm Pohl, Lester Jenkins and Bob Wood, past president.

Work is nearing completion on the new DeWitt Middle School in preparation of the 400 junior high schoolers enrolled for the fall opening. The new school features several exploratory programs including a language laboratory, home economics department, counseling center, cafeteria and closed circuit television.

Floyd L. Parmelee, manager of the St. Johns Federal Land Bank Association, was named president of the local Chamber of Commerce for the coming year. He will succeed Roy O. Briggs, local realtor. Other officers elected were Lawrence G. Sexton, division manager of Sealed Power Corporation, vice-president; and O. B. Moore was re-elected secretary. The Chamber reorganized this year, combining the civic and retail division into one unit.

Water pressure also dropped for a short time when the pumps on the city wells stopped operating. Cause was determined by the discovery of moisture under the insulation of the cable.

Matthews will succeed George Schoenhals who has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election. The ship is sinking

By REP. DICK ALLEN

The Budget Bills are moving and the Ship of State is sinking! And your man Allen wants off!

The Captain (Milliken) and the First Mate (Ryan) are supposed to go down with the ship. But, according to tradition, the rats leave while the ship's still at dock and the women and children get a chance at the lifeboats.

But I feel like I'm chained in the boilerroom, expected to shovel coal till the water comes in.

Is it that bad? Well, the talk about payless paydays is probably exaggerated. Certainly we are not in nearly as bad a condition as during those infamous days with the conflict between a liberal "Soapy" and a conservative "Rural" Legislature.

But we are going to have an increase in the income tax. It is going to be higher and it is going to come sooner than the Governor recommended. And, at least this year, it will not include significant property tax relief.

We know all this because of a significant vote on one of the early

"How about that, sports fans?" That was a famous line delivered by New York Yankee sportscaster Mel Allen whenever he saw a great fielding play or a game saving home run. That same term could apply to President Nixon's most recent grandstand play, the Trip to Red China.

With all the international intrigue and secrecy that made Jan Fleming so popular, Mr. Nixon managed to pull off one of the biggest diplomatic "coups" in our recent Cold War history. Spending his special assistant Henry A. Kissinger on a 10-day around-the-world journey, he successfully fooled everyone by setting up a super-secret meeting with Chinese Premier Chou En-lai.

And just as if he had a script writer from Hawaii Five-O, he built up the suspense by announcing a nation-wide television appearance to deliver a "message of great significance" to the American people.

Indeed, the message was significant—in several ways. It is of great importance that the American people recognize the existence of Red China since it has been all but impossible to ignore almost 800 million Chinese people. It is also important that we establish diplomatic ties with the Chinese government on the mainland, since they will figure greatly in any future International peace agreements and could be instrumental in easing tensions that have created situations like Vietnam.

It has been the foolhardy American government (and other Western governments as well) and its policy that has created much of the tension in the world by refusing to deal directly with the Chinese. Our petty and somewhat naive concept of "protecting" Chiang Kai-shek's gangster army on Formosa for the past 25 years or so has been a significant stumbling block to real East-West negotiations on world crises.

Now at least our foot is in the door, and a visit to China, followed by a return invitation by America to Chou En-lai, could be the biggest event of this half-century.

However, the Americans should not be duped into believing that the Administration is so good as to have no personal motives with the trip.

After Mr. Nixon's announcement Thursday night, one network newscaster made the observation that the trip could be interpreted as a stalling tactic by the Administration to delay giving the North Vietnamese an answer on their most recent peace proposal.

It is with this in mind that the President, rather than giving the North Vietnamese a clear answer on whether or not the Americans will agree to pull out their troops by Jan. 1, 1972, in exchange for the freedom of all prisoners-of-war, that he has accepted (and sought) an invitation from China.

Now, when pressed by newsmen and other governments on agreeing to end the war, Mr. Nixon can say he is doing something about ending the war. He can add that he cannot now make a decision until he has had an opportunity to talk with Chinese leaders on the war situation.

And that all boils down to the fact that, by turning aside any decision on ending the war immediately, the war has now officially passed into his hands. It is now officially Nixon's War. And any more young Americans who are killed or maimed in the war zone from this point on are totally senseless losses and cannot be explained away as some other President's mistake.

Good show

'IF IT FITZ . . .

Let's have some quiet, please

By JIM FITZGERALD

And then I wrote . . . The mail brought a question from a woman who'd seen me at a church supper. She wondered if I knew that I always have a "shy look" on my face.

The fact is, I am not so much shy as I am defensive. I use sort of a glazed, flinchy look to defend myself against an attack of small talk.

I am lousy at talking about nothing. I first realized this when I was a small boy, getting my hair cut. The barber was continually asking me what I learned in school that day. There is a bright question. I couldn't think of an intelligent answer and besides, I couldn't believe the barber really cared a darn about my schooling. So I limited my answers to one syllable, mumbled, or sometimes I pretended I didn't hear him.

My dad went to the same barber. One day they talked about me and Dad came home to say: "The barber says you are a remarkable boy. He says he cut your hair 3 times before he realized you were deaf and dumb."

TODAY I use magazines to defend myself against barbers. But I can't live with my nose in a book ("But he sure tries," yaps my wife) and thus I've taken on protective coloring which might easily be mistaken for shyness, rudeness, or even snobbishness. The idea is to discourage anyone from asking me how I like the weather.

Some people, mostly women, are expert at small talk. My wife is the champion of the world. There are people in this world who don't know my name, but they know I don't wear pajamas because they bumped into my wife in a doctor's waiting room.

They end up discussing such earth-shaking subjects as muddy little boys, rice instead of potatoes, cats, college girls, and the health of Pat's cousin's brother-in-law's goldfish.

There is no such thing as two or more women, even total strangers, sitting silently in the same room. They'll talk if they have to discuss the cracks in the ceiling.

On the other hand, I stood in line for 3 years in the army and never talked to the guy in front of me. I don't know if there was a guy behind me because I never turned around. I was afraid it might be a barber.

I think a man with nothing to say, shouldn't say it. I think silence is golden (you may quote that, if you wish). I think I am doing a guy a favor if I don't ask him if he's had enough rain. I think it is friendly not to disturb a man who is obviously thinking about a big fish he almost caught.

The man alone at the end of the bar is not necessarily a lonely soul who would love to hear why the Tigers blew the pennant. He may be seeing splendid reflections of his childhood in his beer.

My wife says I am "just not friendly." Measured by the most popular yardstick, I guess I'm not. But there should be another measuring stick for us quiet types. After all, I'm willing to share great goats of my silence with perfect strangers, free.

Any stranger who says that isn't friendly, he's not perfect.

I do not tell the garrulous man to shut up. He should not tell me to speak up. That's simple courtesy, isn't it? Nowhere is it written on a stone tablet that it is a sin to enjoy silence. No law says a night-dream is more important to the soul than a daydream. A man should be awakened from neither except for a good reason.

Hotels supply "Do Not Disturb" signs to hang on door knobs. Until I hang such a sign around my neck, I must depend upon my "shy look" to ward off inane conversation. This look says plainly I will faint dead if anyone asks if it is cold enough for me.

But if it is anything important, just knock on my nose.

Police in two-state study

EAST LANSING — Michigan police agencies beginning Aug. 1 will participate in a special 90-day two-state study of accidents involving motorcycles for the National Highway Safety Administration, the State Police traffic division reported.

Michigan, which has a motorcycle helmet law, will be paired in the study with Illinois, which has no such law.

Forms for supplementary information on motorcycle and motor scooter involvement in accidents are being distributed to all law enforcement departments in the state.

Information sought includes description of injuries to operators and passengers, make and size of motorcycle, estimated speed at collision impact, helmet type and condition, license and mileage data, and operator experience.

As of July 15 this year, Michigan motorcycle deaths total 63, a slight increase from 60 for the same period last year, while the state in 1971 is showing a 10 per cent decrease in all traffic accidents.

Motorcycle accident deaths in Michigan last year numbered 136. There were 156,941 vehicles of this type registered.

Easter power

By REV. HUGH BANNINGA

We hear a lot of talk about power these days. There is black power (the Negro), red power (the American Indian), brown power (the Mexican-American), atomic power, military power and student power. Today I want to discuss Easter power.

In the first verse of the third chapter of St. Paul's letter to the Colossian Christians we read, "You have been raised to life with Christ. Set your hearts, then, on the things that are in heaven, where Christ sits on his throne at the right side of God."

If you and I are Christians—if we are really risen with Christ—then we know we are sharing in the resurrection life right now. But note that this sharing is not so much opinion about the future (eternal life) as it is POWER for the present. The resurrection life is ours right now. It means that the living Christ rules in our hearts right now.

Easter power is concerned with the risen Christ transforming the world through people like you and me. Easter power is concerned with people who overthrow their self-centeredness by the help of Almighty God, and literally become new people of love and compassion and forgiveness.

But is this the way you and I really feel? This is the crucial question. Is the Easter power really a daily experience for us? Have we become new people of love and compassion and forgiveness?

The central Christian conviction is that the Lord Jesus Christ is risen to be the most powerful force in all the universe here and now. That is what it means when we say that He is victorious over sin and death. Tied up with this conviction is the awareness that we, as Christians, are to show this Easter power in human relationships.

ST. PAUL WROTE to the Colossian Christians and questioned them about their faith. If he were to write us today, he would do the same thing. He would question our seriousness as Christians. He would tell us that we need to discover at first hand—in our own hearts and in our relationships with others—the Easter power of the Christian faith to transform the meaning of life here and now.

In this day of war, riots, increasing materialism, pollution and poverty which continually attempts to chip away at our faith we can scarcely see or feel the Easter power at work. Too often we see the world "going to Hell in a hand-basket" and our mood is one of gloom and despair. But we, as Christians, can say with all confidence that we are associated with the one who said, "Fear not, for I have overcome the world."

The original Christian proclamation was, and still is, that a new day has dawned, and a new life is ours here and now. And while all of our problems are not over and a life-long struggle remains for all of us, a new power has been given to us. To the extent that you and I are vitally connected to that power we are able to see life through different eyes, and we are able to meet difficult experiences with a new kind of courage.

THE LATE SAMUEL Shoemaker wrote a book entitled "Extraordinary Living for Ordinary Men." In this book he talks about the Easter power in the life of ordinary people. He says that there are two necessary ingredients of spiritual power. They are the objective truth and the subjective truth. The objective factor is that whole set of facts and historic events that is held by the church and set forth in the Bible. The subjective factor is what happens in our lives when those facts and events begin to work in us.

Dr. Shoemaker says that "if you take only the truth and leave out the experience, you will probably become dogmatic and hard. If you take only the experience and leave out the truth, you will probably become woolly and amorphous and sentimental. But when you take both, and both are watered by streams of grace, you have authentic spiritual power."

Yes, my friends, we need both the truths of the Bible and the experience of them in our personal lives if we are going to rise above the worldly powers and plug into God's Easter power.

Raising welfare?

As we go down to the wire on the budget bills in the week or so ahead, we are all going to be hearing a lot about welfare and the need to raise the levels of welfare assistance in Michigan.

Speaker of the House, William Ryan of Detroit, is insisting that an additional $11 million over the $10 million increase already recommended by Governor Milliken in his budget upgrade payments to families with dependent children be included in the coming year's budget. Most Republicans and some Democrats are equally adamant in their opposition.

Certainly, a good case can be made for adjusting the level of welfare benefits because of inflation which has affected everyone's household budget and not just those of ADC families. But, to apply a "cost of living percentage" to present levels to increase them assumes that the present level has been proper. And, it is well known that this level in Michigan is near the highest in the nation.

What is the real effect of increasing the levels of public assistance? Records show that every time the levels of welfare are raised the number of people on the rolls goes up. Even proponents of higher welfare payments agree that raising the allowance results in more people presently earning less than the new level forsaking their work to take advantage of the higher rate.

What it really does, then, is to take people who are working out of the labor market and they then put themselves on the welfare rolls. So, to keep people on the job, the employer must raise his pay levels above the welfare standards. Thus, the employer is in competition for employees with the public assistance program. Legislation of the type we will be considering has the effect of controlling the minimum wage.

A RECENT STUDY in Genesee County attempted to develop what the equivalent level of earnings would have to be through employment to match the public assistance levels for ADC families. This study showed that a family of four on ADC has a cash income of $4,768 per year including food allowances, housing, medical payments and food stamps.

To earn the equivalent through employment, after State and Federal income taxes, social security and normal expenses of employment (clothing, transportation, baby sitting, etc.) a person would have to earn $6,888 per year.

Reader urges get out and vote

Editor,

The Citizens of DeWitt Township and Clinton County must take SPECIAL PRECAUTION when they VOTE in the next election.

A prime example of the concern OUR ELECTED OFFICIALS have for us was demonstrated when approximately 100 or more citizens appeared before the DeWitt Township Board and expressed many reasons why we were opposed to a "Special Permit" being issued for the purpose of building a 55 Apartment Dwelling.

This 55 apartment dwelling would consist of 4 units per dwelling. Our greatest concern was the effect this would have on our schools. Obviously since they evidently are not in the DeWitt School District, this did not concern the Board.

They are not concerned as to what effect a 200 unit housing project would have on our schools. (There would also be problems with water, sewers, roads, taxes, etc.) They do not live or pay taxes in the DeWitt School District. They could care less if this type of housing does not begin to pay its way.

The DeWitt Township Board indicated this would be good for DeWitt Township and that we are ready for this type of project. We sincerely wonder how they would feel if this project were being considered in their school district.

The Clinton County Zoning Board has the final say. Let's hope they show more concern for the Citizens of Clinton County and in this particular instance the Citizens of DeWitt Township, than the DeWitt Township Officials.

I want to express very clearly that I hope every citizen in Clinton County, particularly in DeWitt Township, will GET OUT AND VOTE in the next election and every election hereafter.

Thank you,

A look at education

By SEN. WILLIAM S. BALLENGER

With the 1971-72 Higher Education budget bill due to be voted on by the Legislature within a matter of days, a recent study of the costs of higher education in Michigan by the Citizens Research Council has produced some fascinating data which take on added significance.

For instance, how many students are there now attending our nine state universities, four state colleges, and 29 community colleges?

The Research Council says that during the current 1971-72 fiscal year (FY) which began July 1, 285,427 students are attending state-supported institutions of higher learning.

Of that number, 182,908 (64 per cent of the total) are attending state universities—Michigan State, the University of Michigan, Wayne State, Western Michigan, Eastern Michigan, Central Michigan, Northern Michigan, Oakland and Michigan Tech. The four state colleges—Ferris, Grand Valley, Saginaw Valley and Lake Superior—have 16,958 (6 per cent).

As part of a rapidly growing trend, 85,561 (30 per cent) are attending the state's 29 community colleges.

In actual figures, community colleges have had the largest enrollment growth since FY 1969-70, although the percentage of growth has been higher in state colleges.

Community colleges added 13,039 students (18 per cent) since FY 1969-70, compared with 5,595 (3 per cent) for state universities, and 2,910 (21 per cent) for state colleges.

A bit of good news for taxpayers can be found in the fact that the increase in the number of college students over last year's level—7,990 (or 2.9 per cent)—is the smallest increase recorded in 10 years.

How much will it cost Michigan taxpayers to educate each of the 285,427 college students for the next fiscal year?

It will cost an average of $1,371 in direct Michigan taxpayer support while students themselves will pay an average of $568 per year.

This is the average. The cost varies, depending on the type of school attended.

It costs an average of $1,567 in state general fund appropriations for each student in the nine universities—ranging from a minimum of $1,022 for Central Michigan students to a high of $2,020 for each University of Michigan student.

Outlays for the four state colleges average $1,150, ranging from $1,083 for each Ferris student to $1,270 for each Grand Valley student.

At the bottom of the list, local community colleges average $996 per student, of which $617 is in state funds and $379 in local property taxes.

The expected overall operating cost of higher education in Michigan for this year will be $604.8 million, an increase of $35.1 million over last year.

State general fund appropriations will provide 62 per cent of the overall cost; general student fees, 27 per cent; institutional sources or previous year advances, 6 per cent; and local property taxes for junior colleges, 5 per cent.

What are the largest and smallest colleges in Michigan? Michigan State is slated for 41,500 this year, topping the University of Michigan's 37,800 in second place.

At the bottom of the rung size-wise is Little Mid-Michigan Community College near Clare, which has only 351 students.
