'FEEFEE' GETS THE LAST (LICK, LICK) LAUGH

"Feefee," the black-haired, black-eyed poodle pet of Roxie Pearce, 13, of Elsie was eating her own ice cream cone until just seconds before this picture was taken. Roxie gives her pet a permissive yet distasteful look as she realizes her cone, too, now belongs to the dog. Roxie and Feefee were photographed in front of Richards Dairy last Thursday. Roxie is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Roy Wilson of Elsie.

Ewing resigns as road clerk

R. Donald Ewing, clerk of the Clinton County Road Commission for the past 6 1/2 years, has resigned here to take a similar position with the Jackson County Road Commission.

Ewing submitted his resignation Monday at a special meeting of the road commissioners. It will be effective Oct. 1.

Ewing has been with the Clinton

County Road Commission since January 1961—all that time as clerk of the commission. Prior to that he had operated a food market and frozen food locker at Bath. He has been a resident of Bath since 1922.

HE SAID THE Jackson County road job involves a larger operation than does Clinton County, and he will primarily do accounting, although there is a wide variety of other duties also connected with the job.

The Jackson County Road Commission is based in Jackson, and Ewing and his wife will live in that city.

Ewing has written a weekly road report column for the Clinton County News, keeping county residents informed on work being done in various parts of the county and the actions taken by the commission itself.

MEANWHILE, THE ROAD commission continues its search for a county road engineer to replace Lester Drago who resigned from that position effective June 1. Another special meeting was held Monday for an interview with another applicant. The commission expects to make a choice from among the five persons who have already been interviewed at their regular meeting today.

Road commission employees held their annual picnic this week, and more than 200 employees and families and retired employees crowded Smith Hall. There were prizes for all, and safety awards were given out by road commission Chairman Paul Nobis.

Safety awards have been given for nine years, and employees Ed Nobis and Clarence Thompson each received nine-year no-accident pins. Eight-year no-accident pins went to Leonard Campbell and Paul Hills, while Ralph Shlabach and Donald Smith got seven-year pins. Five-year, four-year, three-year and two-year pins were given to Peter Klein, Jack Kelley, Arnold Rosekrans, Luke George, John Bishop and Thomas Lowe.

Sidewalks of St. Johns alive with bargains

The "new" look in "old-fashioned" bargains is being turned out into the sunshine in St. Johns today and Friday so that everyone can get a good look and a good buy.

St. Johns' retail businessmen are celebrating their 10th annual St. Johns Sidewalk Days Sale Thursday and Friday—a yearly event where the merchants actually turn their stores inside out with good bargains.

Tables and racks and counters will be out on the sidewalks for the two days, and most of the merchandise displayed there will be specially marked—down—for Sidewalk Days.

It almost never rains during Sidewalk Days, but if it does, the sale will be extended into the Saturday shopping hours. Even the empty stores on Clinton Avenue are likely to have something on the sidewalks in front of them that people will want to buy.

Being held in conjunction with the Sidewalk Days this year is the annual toothbrush sale by members of the St. Johns Exchange Club. Proceeds will go toward the club's youth projects. Also in the downtown area those two days will be Little League baseball players, who will offer for sale St. Johns Redwing seat cushions. Proceeds will go toward operation of Little League.

All up and down the street merchants are getting their sale items ready for the sidewalk tables and racks. This week's Clinton County News advertisements give the best look ahead at what they'll be offering.

$5,000 goes to hospital

Sealed Power Corp. has presented a check for $5,000 to the Clinton Memorial Hospital Building Fund.

A check for that amount was handed to Ink White, chairman of the board of directors of the hospital, Friday by Lawrence G. Sexton, manager of the St. Johns Sealed Power plant.

Sexton noted that "one of the factors which influenced the company to establish the St. Johns plant was the evidence of fine community facilities such as the Clinton Memorial Hospital."

"SINCE THE St. Johns Division has been in operation, these facilities have continually been improved through the efforts of loyal community minded citizens," he said.

"The expansion and modernization of the Clinton Memorial Hospital is a further indication of the desires of the St. Johns citizenry to provide the most modern and up-to-date medical facilities for the residents of St. Johns, surrounding villages and the rural population of Clinton County."

"Sealed Power Corp., in behalf of its stockholders and employees, is most happy to contribute to the modernization of this important and much needed health facility."

File petitions seeking annexation to DeWitt

DeWITT—Petitions seeking annexation of a large area on the southwest side of DeWitt to the City of DeWitt were filed with Clinton County Clerk Paul Wakefield Tuesday morning.

It will now be up to the county board of supervisors to set a date for an election on the question. Residents of the city and the area in question will all vote.

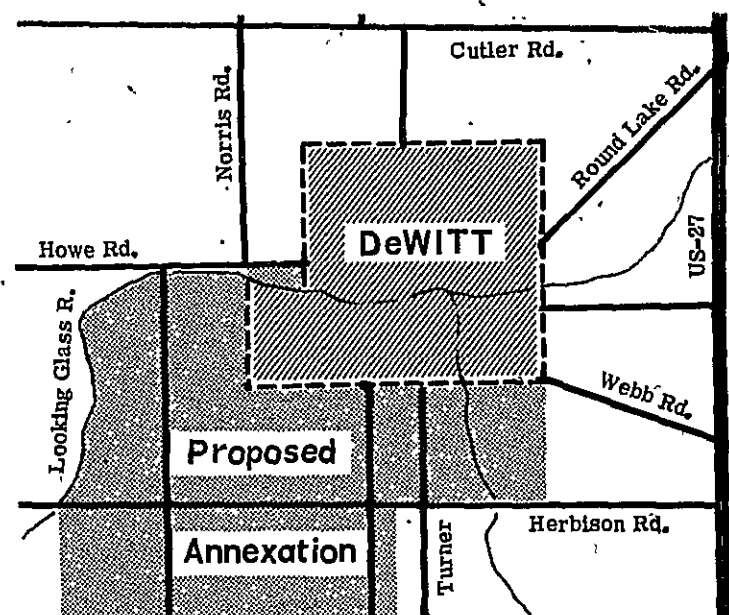

The two petitions filed Tuesday bear the signatures of 111 persons from the township area to be annexed and 130 persons from the City of DeWitt. The petitions will be checked for legal signatures before the county board sets an election date. Such action by the supervisors won't come before the September meeting.

Library offering book bargains

In conjunction with Sidewalk Days, today and Friday, the DeWitt Public Library is offering wheelbarrows and wheelbarrows of old, rarely read books for sale.

The books will cost 10 cents each or three for 25 cents and will be available at the library booth in front of Clinton National Bank. Junior high and high school girls will attend the stand.

Most of the books offered will be of the fiction or biography variety. There will be some children's books.

Southgate Center to be expanded

Southgate Shopping Center on South US-27 in St. Johns will be expanded in the not-too-distant future to make it "considerably larger."

Details of the development weren't made public yet, but Bobenal Investments, Inc., of Alma, which owns the center, said Tuesday an expansion is planned.

"Southgate will definitely be expanded beyond the present occupancy," said Alfred Fortino of Alma, secretary-treasurer of the firm.

Details of the enlargement, he said, would have to await final lease arrangements with prospective tenants. He expected that a formal announcement of the plans would be made in the not-too-distant future.

Several downtown St. Johns merchants received letters this week from Ben Simon, president of Bobenal, touching off speculation downtown about a new shopping center. But Fortino said only an expansion of the present Southgate Shopping Plaza is planned by his company.

County's low drop-out rate being studied

School officials from Clinton County have been invited to attend a meeting in Lansing today (Thursday) focusing on school drop-out problems.

Clinton representation was invited because the county is among the 10 in the state with the lowest drop-out percentage (3.7 per cent).

The meeting today results from a State Board of Education decision one month ago to obtain more information on student dropout causes and successful steps possible to curb the problem.

Saylor-Beall, union sign pact

Officials of UAW Local 925 and Saylor-Beall Manufacturing Co. of St. Johns signed a new three-year contract last Friday, ending several months of negotiations.

The new contract received unanimous ratification by members of Local 925 on July 19.

A total economic package of 50 cents was agreed to over the next three years, with 31 cents being applied to wages and 19 cents to additional fringe benefits. These are to include additional holidays, vacation pay, full paid Blue Cross and Blue Shield sickness and accident benefits and a cost-of-living clause.

The old contract expired June 25 but was extended on a day-to-day basis during negotiations. Negotiations were routine and there was no threat of strike, according to representatives of management and the union. The contract is retroactive to June 26.

Bandt, Lial Knight, Bruce Plier and Henry Schmid, four-years; Leo Cox and Herman Schafer, five-years; Herschal Woodhams and Albert Siebert, six-years; Alfred Ernst, Roy Harger, William Martens and Dale Stevens, seven years; and Joe Barrett, Keith Barrett, Raymond Martin, Dean Moon, Lloyd Myers, Gerald Powers, Glen Schlarf, Lewis Smith and Joe Witgen, nine-years (or since the inception of the safe driving program).

William Richards was general chairman for the annual road commission picnic. The dinner committee consisted of Jack Kelley as chief cook, Herschal Woodhams, Phil DeMarals, Peter Klein and Lial Knight. The hall committee consisted of Luke George, William Hansen, Bert Hiller, Leonard Race and Don Smith.

Both sets hearing on school budget

BATH - Bath Community Schools will hold a public hearing on the 1976-68 school budget Aug. 7 from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Bath High School Library, Supt. Roger Carlson announced Friday.

School officials revise school year calendar

Mothers will greet the following news with a smile or a frown, depending on their children's behavior.

The spring vacation, by now an institution at the St. Johns Public Schools, has been eliminated for the coming school year. It was originally planned to have it March 15 through 24, 1968, but now all public school students will be required to attend classes those days.

The reason for the school board's change in the calendar for the next school year is a new state law passed this summer which required public schools to institute a 180-day-attendance calendar to replace the 180-day-membership calendar.

The change is mandatory before schools can get state aid.

WHEREAS ME A TEACHER conventions' and the like used to count as school days, the new law has banned this and instead demands 180 days in which school is in attendance.

Only an act of God—bad weather conditions, quarantine, etc.—and major equipment failure at the school would take precedence, in which case such time lost would not have to be made up.

To comply with the new ruling so as to insure reception of state aid funds, St. Johns school authorities revised the 1967-68 school year calendar. As a concession for having to subtract the spring vacation in March, the board extended the Easter vacation to include all of Good Friday, April 12, and Monday, April 15.

FOLLOWING IS the new schedule now in effect:

Beginning Sept. 5 and continuing through Sept. 6 will be teachers' meetings and planning sessions.

Elementary and seventh, eighth and ninth grade registration will take place Sept. 7, to be followed by 10th, 11th and 12th grade registration Sept. 8.

M.E.A. regional conferences will take place Oct. 5 and 6; Thanksgiving vacation this year will be Nov. 23 and 24; Christmas vacation starts Dec. 21 at 4 p.m. and will end Jan. 2 with the resumption of classes; and the first semester concludes Jan. 19, 1968.

The second semester will begin Jan. 22. Again, there will be no spring vacation. Classes will not be held April 12, Good Friday, but will resume Tuesday, April 16.

Memorial Day vacation will be May 30 and 31; commencement will occur June 5 and all public schools will officially close June 7, 1968.

2 vandalism cases probed

Two cases of vandalism over the weekend are under investigation by the Clinton County sheriff's office in St. Johns.

In one instance, between 25 and 40 mail boxes were damaged or destroyed in the rural Fowler area last Thursday night. Sheriff's officers are trying to locate a suspect in the case.

Dennis Rademacher, who lives on South Lowell Road, reported Sunday that youngsters with B-B guns had shot out 27 windows and five light bulbs in a barn and tool shed on his farm.

PURSE STOLEN

Val Bartholomew of 309 S. Clinton Avenue told St. Johns police last week a brown clutch purse belonging to her was stolen from the swimming pool at the city park.

Tax deadline for city Aug. 15

St. Johns City Treasurer Eugene Simon warned property owners this week that Aug. 15 is the deadline for paying city taxes.

The taxes were due and payable July 1, but after Aug. 15 a 1 per cent monthly penalty and 3 per cent collection fee will be added to the tax amount.

UAW LOCAL 925, SAYLOR-BEALL SIGN 3-YEAR CONTRACT

Paul Bohil of R-6, St. Johns, a member of the bargaining committee of UAW Local 925, signs his name to the contract between the union and Saylor-Beall Manufacturing Co. Friday. Looking on are Russell V. Allman (seated), general manager of the St. Johns firm, and (standing) Ed Morton, plant manager; Lloyd Cain, international representative of the UAW; William Gillespie of R-1, Perinton, a member of the bargaining committee for Local 925; and Leon Exelby of St. Johns, president of Local 925.

Clinton feels riot effects

A case of no 'doe

George M. Johnson, 25, of St. Johns reported to sheriff's officers his car struck a deer near the Clark Road intersection on US-27 last Wednesday. He said he couldn't find the animal but there was animal hair and blood smeared on the side of the car. Johnson and two passengers were unhurt.

The effect of the Detroit and other out-state riots last week reached into Clinton County toward the tail-end of the week.

Sheriff Percy Patterson ordered all taverns in the county closed Friday to discourage outsiders from the immediate riot areas from coming into the county to get their beer and liquor.

A number of taverns in the eastern part of the county also closed last Thursday night, more or less on their own, because of the outside traffic.

Last Wednesday night, July 26, the sheriff's office turned storehouse for about $15,000 worth of guns and ammunition from a St. Johns store as a precaution against burglaries by outsiders, particularly, seeking arms. Sheriff's officers had called all sporting goods stores that day to warn them to take extra precautions against the theft of guns.

The sheriff's department received a request from the federal jail inspector last week to take some of the Detroit riot prisoners because of the over-crowded jail cells in the southeastern part of the state. Sheriff Patterson said he could take 10 prisoners in the 48-bed Clinton County Jail, but there never was any transfer of prisoners to St. Johns.

Pistol wounds man in leg

Thomas P. Bishop, 24, 1011 Church Street, accidentally shot himself in the left leg early Saturday morning while examining a friend's pistol.

The incident happened at the Pure Oil Station at US-27 and M-21 about 12:55 a.m. Saturday. The attendant, James Gladstone of 200 1/2 S. Lansing, told city police he was showing his 22-caliber, nine-shot automatic pistol, which he believed to be empty, to Bishop.

He said Bishop had the gun in his hand when it discharged, and the bullet hit his left leg. Bishop later confirmed the story. He was taken to Clinton Memorial Hospital and later transferred to University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

4-H Club Chatter

By JOHN AYLSWORTH
Extension 4-H Youth Agent

The County Fair is less than two weeks away and members are putting the final touch on their projects for exhibits. The public is invited to attend the Clinton County Youth Fair and see over 3,000 projects on exhibit. These 4-H members have been working hard over the past year for this exhibit.

To assist some vegetable and flower project members with their exhibits, a training meeting will be held on Friday, Aug. 4, at 1 p.m. at Smith Hall in St. Johns. Members will be able to learn more about flower exhibits as well as learning to identify the different specimens.

Entomology 4-H members will be able to participate in the insect identification contest on Friday, Aug. 4, starting at 10 a.m. at Smith Hall in St. Johns. The members will identify different insects as to common name or order and whether beneficial, harmful or neither. Two winners will be selected in the senior division and two in the junior division to represent the county at State Show later this month.

Several exhibit requirement changes in the entomology project are as follows: Entomology I - 25 different insects from four orders; Entomology II - 50 different insects from at least 8 orders; Entomology III - 100 different insects representing at least 10 orders; and Entomology IV - 200 insects from 16 orders.

At the State Black and White Show last Friday, July 29, at Charlotte Clinton County 4-H members made an excellent showing. Top honors went to Dana Sue Hazle who won first place in senior youth showmanship and Bryon Green who won second place in senior youth showmanship and had the reserve grand champion animal in the open show with his three-year-old cow.

Other placings in the show include Bryon Green with his three-year-old cow, second place with his junior yearling and 10th place with his aged cow; Charles Green first place with his junior calf and fourth place with his senior yearling; Dana Sue Hazle seventh place out of 25 entries with her two-year-old cow; Kathy Hazle eighth place in junior showmanship out of 35 entries and 19th out of 42 entries with her senior yearling; Jim Miller placed 11th out of a class of 42 entries with his aged cow; and David Miller placed in the top 10 in junior showmanship. This show placed youth against adults with their animals except for showmanship.

The Glackmore Riders 4-H Horse Show will be held on Sunday, Aug. 6 starting at 10 a.m. There will be 20 events with an entry charge of 50 cents each. The show will be held at the Dan Gorman farm located on the third farm east of Francis Road on Herblison Road. This show is open to any 4-H members whether they live in Clinton County or not. Proceeds will be used for the club's trip to the Canadian Exposition at Toronto later this month.

The County 4-H gun safety contest will be held Sunday afternoon, Aug. 6, at 1:30 p.m. at the E. J. Bortum farm on Colony Road northwest of St. Johns. Members participating in the shooting contest will register by 1:45 p.m. and be eligible for shooting practice for 10 minutes. The contest will consist of a written quiz, 10 shots in the prone position and 10 shots in the standing position.

The 4-H Wonders learned about the 4-H Barry County trip from Diane Schomisch, Larry Schomisch and Darlene Dunkel. Demonstrations were given by Kenny Andrews on garden tools, Barry Knickerbocker on transplanting of vegetables, Darlene Dunkel on molded salads and Larry Schomisch on rabbits.

The 4-H Cooking Bunny Bakers is the name of the first- and second-year food members in the Victor 4-H Club. The members are planning a cookout where they will prepare their own food. At one of the previous meetings the members toured the Schaefer Bakery and the Hi-Klas Bottling Co. Debbie Archer demonstrated how to make a "Bunny Salad".

Congratulations are in order for Marcia Motz and Wendy Smith, members of the French's Corners 4-H Club and county talent winners. They gave an excellent performance on television last Wednesday morning over Channel 10 at 9 a.m. The girls gave their frog - prince puppet show. The girls will be asked to give their talent show again at the county fair so others will have the opportunity to see them perform.

Library board to quash delinquents

The St. Johns Public Library Board has instituted new regulations governing people who possess overdue books from Bement Library.

Beginning Aug. 1, notices will be sent to those people whose library books are two weeks overdue. If a receiver of the notice does not respond by bringing the delinquent book back to the library, a second notice will be sent to him.

If, after the second notice, the book has yet not been received by the library, a statement will be sent to the person billing him for 90 per cent of the replacement price of a new copy of the missing book.

If, after the statement is received, the holder of the book does return it to the library, he will be required to pay the overdue fine, but will not be charged more than $1.50.

According to the library regulations, "A fine of two cents a day shall be collected." As always, since this ruling went into effect with the founding of Bement Library in 1940, Sundays and holidays are exempt from counting toward the fine.

The librarian was also given authority by the library board to send statements to people who have unpaid fines of 20¢ or more.

Backing this is another library by-law. It states, "Failure to pay the fine shall entail forfeiture of the privilege of drawing materials from the library until the fine is paid."

"A PERSON AGAINST whose name a book is charged shall be liable to the extent of 90 per cent of the cost of the book if such book is lost or mutilated"—another library regulation.

To aid in the curbing of destruction of books, intentional or otherwise, the Michigan Legislature has passed a law making it a crime, punishable by fine or imprisonment, to tear or injure in any way a public library book.

Because of the harsh consequences contained in that law, the Bement Library Board passed a ruling stating that "Parents are responsible for all materials borrowed by children under 21."

"I'm returning an engagement ring...could the postman throw it at him?"

Board plans special meeting

The St. Johns School Board was scheduled to hold a special meeting Wednesday night to discuss the progress of negotiations with teachers and the sewer and water situations at the new Riley and East Olive Neighborhood Elementary Schools.

Negotiations between the school board and the St. Johns Education Assn. are presently at a standstill. With several administrative vacations now over, other meeting between the two groups are foreseen in the near future, but no dates have been set.

The school board reportedly will wait until after the negotiations are completed before adopting a budget for the current school year. Later adoption will provide for a more realistic budget, according to the board.

4 fire alarms keep men busy

Minor fires have kept St. Johns firemen busy since last Friday. Four fire calls were answered, but the first one turned out to be the most serious.

It involved a fire in a wheat field on the Donald Pope farm south of Taft Road on Airport Road in Bingham Township. About an acre of wheat burned over after a combine cutting the wheat caught fire. That was about 6 p.m. Friday.

Saturday afternoon a sawdust pile at the St. Johns Hardwood Lumber Co. on County Farm Road south of town caught fire.

Sunday afternoon St. Johns firemen were summoned way up into Gratiot County to answer a car fire alarm on US-27 a mile south of M-57. Wires in the car were smoking, but there was no actual blaze, firemen reported.

Monday evening about 6:40 firemen went out to the Harry Rosekrans farm south of Hyde Road on US-27 where a small patch of wheat stubble burned.

Diabetes test, chest x-ray screening planned for county Aug. 21-25

A diabetes test and chest x-ray screening program will be held in Clinton County between Aug. 21 and Aug. 25, Dr. F. W. Smith, MD, medical director of the Mid-Michigan District Health Department, announced last week.

The testing centers will be at three locations in St. Johns and one in DeWitt Township during the five days.

On Aug. 21 the test center will be at the DeWitt Township Fire Hall in Valley Farms from 1-5 p.m. Other sites will be: Federal-Mogul plant in St. Johns from 1-4 and 5-8 p.m., Aug. 22; Sealed Power Corp. plant in St. Johns from 1-4 and 5-8 p.m., Aug. 23; and the Central National Bank in St. Johns from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2-5 p.m., Aug. 24 and from 8-11 a.m. and noon to 3 p.m., Aug. 25.

THE TESTS ARE being sponsored by the Mid-Michigan District Health Department, local physicians, Michigan TB and Respiratory Disease Assn., the Michigan Diabetes Detection Program of the Michigan Department of Public Health, the Michigan Diabetes Assn., and the Michigan State Medical Society.

Dr. Smith noted that if you are overweight and past 21 years of age, or have a history of diabetes in your family, or are the parents of a baby weighing nine pounds or more at birth, chances are you may have diabetes and aren't aware of it. Persons in these categories are most susceptible to diabetes.

A conservative estimate of known diagnosed cases of diabetes in Michigan is over 80,000, and approximately the same number are unknown.

Diabetes mellitus, or "sugar diabetes" as it is commonly called, is a disease in which the body's ability to use sugars and starches is faulty. Diabetes cannot be cured, but it can be controlled; when it is detected early enough, it may not even be much of a handicap.

USUALLY THE EARLIER diabetes is detected, the more easily it can be controlled. "It makes good sense for people to have a regular health examination that includes a test for diabetes," Dr. Smith said.

For more accurate results, those persons who wish to take the test are advised to eat a meal heavy in starch and sugar two hours before the test, and should not eat or drink any fluids in the interval.

Write tickets in 2 crashes

St. Johns police investigated two traffic accidents on US-27 within the city limits last week, and tickets were issued in both cases.

Chester L. Worden, 33, of Lansing, was ticketed for being unable to stop in assured clear distance ahead after his northbound car hit barrels and lights in the construction area over the Grand Trunk Railroad last Wednesday evening. He wasn't hurt.

Saturday afternoon a car driven by Frank Flora, 67, of 1332 E. Taft Road, St. Johns, turned into the side of an auto driven by Allen F. Lowrie, 19, of Williamston just north of M-21 on US-27. Police ticketed Flora for failure to yield (improper left turn) as a result of the accident. Both cars were northbound; neither driver was hurt.

Car skids out of control, no injuries

No injuries were reported as a result of an accident which occurred Sunday on US-27 near the intersection of Parks Road.

Arthur Edward Jean, 40, of Lansing, driver of an auto, was attempting to pass another vehicle on southbound US-27 when the other car swung out into the path of the Jean auto, according to the Clinton County sheriff's accident report.

To avoid hitting another car, Jean turned his auto sharply, causing him to lose control. His vehicle skidded across the median, across northbound US-27 and came to rest, facing north, on the bank of the drainage ditch.

Passengers in the Jean car were Donna Jean, 32; Beverly Jean, 12; Sharon Jean 10; Russell Jean, 9; and Marlene Jean, 7, all of Lansing.

Local dairy store hit by burglars

Richards' Dairyland at 215 N. Clinton Avenue was broken into late Friday night or early Sunday by thieves who drank three cans of pop, took three six-packs of pop, five cartons of cigarettes and candy and other packages of cigarettes in a display case.

CORPSMAN WILLIAM SWAIN

Corpsman WILLIAM H. SWAIN, H.N., U.S. Navy, attached to the 5th Medical Battalion, 5th Marine Division at Camp Pendleton, Calif., has been visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Olen Witt of St. Johns. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Swain Sr. of Port Huron.

Corpsman Swain entered the service in February 1966 and trained at Great Lakes, Ill., and St. Albans Naval Hospital at Jamaica, N.Y. He returned Aug. 1 to California and expects to be sent to Vietnam.

6-days-a-week delivery of parcel post resumes

Postmaster J.D. Robinson announced last week that parcel post deliveries in St. Johns were expanded from five to six days a week as of July 25.

This is in line with a recent directive from Postmaster Gen. Lawrence F. O'Brien following the signing of the Post Office Department appropriation bill by President Johnson.

The legislation contains an $8.5 million item for restoration of the six-day-a-week delivery which had been cut back in May 1964 as an economy measure.

Nearly 5,000 cities are affected, Robinson said.

The St. Johns postal official said the improved service will remove an inequity for many business and residential routes. Customers living on routes serviced by foot carriers have received larger parcels from five day-a-week parcel post route covered by a truck. Carriers on foot only deliver small packages.

Education replaces cocksure ignorance with thoughtful uncertainty.

BINGO! BINGO! BINGO! BINGO! BINGO!

Two Newspaper Bingo players in opposite ends of the county shared in last week's top prize of $100 when they both turned in completely-filled bingo cards at the Clinton County News office. In the left picture, Mrs. Donna Braley of R-1, DeWitt, picks out her 50 "Bingo Bucks" being offered by Kenneth Reed, owner of Reed's Thriftway Market in DeWitt, where she picked up the winning card. Up at Elsie, Mrs. Lawrence Hess of 337 W. Pine Street turned in a winning card from Williams Hardware and got 50 "Bingo Bucks" from owner D. L. Williams. There's another Newspaper Bingo game this week on green cards; pick your cards up from any participating merchant and see if you can win this week's $50 prize. Complete details are on Page 4-B.

MRS JOSEPH D. JOHNSTON

Johnston-Warner vows repeated Saturday

St. Cyril's Catholic Church in Bannister was the setting for the Saturday morning marriage ceremony uniting Barbara Jo Warner and Joseph David Johnston.

Rev. Clarence Smolinski officiated at the Nuptial Mass for the daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles A. Warner of Elsie and the son of Mr and Mrs William C. Johnston of Lake George.

THE BRIDE WORE a cage style gown of Chantilly lace over a taffeta floor length sheath. Tiny pearls edged the portrait neckline and long fitted lace sleeves. The back was accented with a full wattleau chapel train. A plateau of overlapping petals scattered with pearls and crystal tear drops secured her triple, bouffant-veil of Imported French illusion. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of yellow roses centered around a white orchid and stephanotis interspersed with a rosary which was a gift from the groom.

Preceding the bride down the aisle was Mary Slag of Elsie. She wore a yellow floor length empire sheath gown of chiffon over taffeta. The tulle top was accented with daisies at the waistline and yellow daisies secured her bouffant veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow center daisies.

CLIFFORD GENOW Jr. of Harrison attended the groom as best man. Paul Dennis of Flint and Delos Dunkle of Harrison were ushers.

Mrs Warner wore a gold and moss green brocade jacket ensemble with a yellow elf rosebud and stephanotis corsage and Mrs Johnston wore a white, blue and turquoise jacket ensemble with a white elf rosebud and stephanotis corsage.

TERRY J. SCRANTONS

Terry J. Scrantons to live in Lansing

Following their wedding trip to the Keweenaw Peninsula, newlyweds, Mr and Mrs Terry Scranton are presently making their home at 2920 S. Washington Avenue, Lansing.

The bride is the former Linda Marie Dettloff, daughter of Mr and Mrs Alfred Dettloff of Rogers City and her husband is the son of Mr and Mrs Harry D. Scranton of 705 W. McConnell Street, St. Johns.

The double ring 4 p.m. ceremony Saturday, July 15, was held at St. John Lutheran Church of Rogers City. Rev Harold Molzan officiated. Arnold Bathje was the organist and Mrs Robert Bingle was the vocalist.

THE BRIDE APPEARED in a gown of linen and Venice lace featuring a high neckline, lace edged Kabuki sleeves, a wide band of lace at the hemline and also trimming the court train. Her bouffant veil fell from a bow headpiece and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss LaDonna Haneckow of Saginaw was the maid of honor and Miss Gayle Uraub of Lansing was the bridesmaid. They were attired in floor length gowns of pale blue dotted swiss of empire style. The gowns had matching vevlet ribbon accents. Pale blue headpieces and bouquets of daisies and ivy completed their ensembles.

MARY SUE DETTLOFF, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and wore a white dotted Swiss dress with a blue sash. She carried a basket of daisies and blue baby's breath.

Jon Scranton of St. Johns was his brother's best man and the groomsmen was Joel Diehm of Lansing. Seating the 150 guests present were the bride's brothers Charles Dettloff of Rogers City and Tom Dettloff of Owego, N.Y.

MRS DETTLOFF, MOTHER of the bride, wore a yellow silk sheath dress with a matching coat, white accessories and a yellow tulle hat. Her corsage was of gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom chose a pink brocade dress and her corsage was of pink and white roses. The home of the parents of the bride was the scene of the reception which immediately followed the nuptials.

The new Mrs Scranton is employed by F.M. Thrun, Attorney of Lansing, and Scranton by Oldsmobile.

September bazaar planned

Clinton County Senior Citizens were pleased to receive a gift from Mrs A. Lynn Woodbury of several articles to be used as prizes at the card parties. Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury were active members of the organization until Mr. Woodbury's health failed. Mrs. Woodbury directed the Kitchenette Band and wrote a skit which won first prize at the Michigan State Fair Old Timers' Day in 1963.

At the business meeting on July 25 it was voted to accept the invitation of Maple Rapids for the Rhythm Band to ride in the parade Saturday, Aug. 19. The Band also plans to participate in the program on Old Timers' Day at the Michigan State Fair Aug. 28.

THE DATE OF THE annual Senior Citizens Bazaar has been set for Sept. 29.

CITY PLAYGROUNDS CHECKERS CHAMP

City rec singles tennis tournament under way

Pairings for the singles division of the St. Johns Recreation Tennis Tournament were announced this week by Recreation Department Director Elaine Douglas.

Fifteen boys are signed up for the competition in the 16-and-under category, and 13 will play in the adult category.

No schedule of games for the first and second rounds has been set up, but definite times will be set for the playing of the third and additional rounds.

Each entrant will be contacted and told who his opponent in the first round will be, and it will be up to the two players to get together and agree on a time to play their match, Douglas said. The winner is to phone the score of his match to the recreation department where, if possible, he will be told who his next opponent will be.

"WE ARE asking that all first-round matches be completed by Monday, Aug. 7, or sooner," Douglas said. "We will try to set a fixed time for the semi- and final matches so that interested people can watch."

Scheduled to play in the first round in the 16-and-under category are:

Tim Durner vs Jim Conley; Bill Muckie vs Mike San Miguel; Doug Nickelson vs Tony Carmack; Lynn Wager vs Tom Warstler; Larry Zuker vs Ed Jorae; Mark Jones vs Bob Rehm; Luane Lambert vs John Warstler; and Kent Schueller vs Scott Bennett.

In the adult category, this is the first-round schedule:

"WE WISH TO REMIND the contestants that this tournament is part of a recreation program and not a life-and-death struggle," Douglas pointed out. "We are not going to provide judges for these matches, and it will be up to both parties to use good sportsmanship and call their own game."

"The only rules the recreation department is setting up are that if a contestant does not complete his match in a reasonable length of time we reserve the right to forfeit the match."

All matches except the adult finals will be on the basis of the best three out of five sets.

THE RECREATION department will announce later this week the pairings for the doubles tournament. Douglas said it was hoped to get the first round of singles competition out of the way before beginning the doubles.

City recreation notes

BASEBALL — (Gary Boyce) — With the regular season drawing to its close, the race has been narrowed down to a two-team race the Phillies and the Yankees. The current standings are Phillies 6-2, Yanks 6-3, with each team having one game remaining.

The St. Johns All-Star team defeated the Fowler All-Star team by a score of 12-11 last Wednesday night. John Warstler started and picked up his first win against one loss, while hurling five innings. In the sixth, Tom Pung relieved and he proceeded to strike out six of the eight batters he faced. Combined, John and Tom struck out 12 Fowler batters. On the offensive side, St. Johns' hitting attack was paced by Dean Eberhard with three hits, including two home runs. Tom Pung and Eddie San Miguel also contributed two hits apiece to the attack, which saw nine safeties of which four were for extra bases.

SWEGLES — (Linda Phinney and Jim McCaussey) — Because of the switch in playground supervisors last week, the first day at Swegles was spent in getting acquainted with all the children, and playing group games. Later in the week, some of the young teen boys on the playground area came over and a quick game of football followed with Mike Heller's team going down in defeat, 21-14.

PERRIN-PALMER — (Sue Durner and Jane Springer) — During last week at Perrin Palmer, the boys and girls entertained themselves with such games as Kentucky Derby, Chinese checkers, and tether ball. Since the weather was quite nice all week, the boys spent most of their time playing touch football. Designs made of stones were also made on colored paper.

GIRLS SOFTBALL — Playing with a lineup marked with absences because of vacations, the St. Johns team defeated Elsie's Elsieettes by a slim margin of only one run, 14 to 13. Elsie took an early lead, but the St. Johns girls slowly chipped away and finally caught them in the closing innings. Val Hufnagel had trouble getting the ball across the plate but did well enough to be credited with the win. The hitting department was handled by Kathy Bradley and Linda Berkeusen. The next game is on Aug. 10.

EAST WARD — (Ginney Bertram and Marilyn Motz) — Recreation at East Ward playground went steady and very well. The kids enjoyed their hikes to various parts of the city, and they have continued with the educational games and such playing.

BIKE HIKE — (Gary Boyce, George Spicer and John Salemi) — Friday afternoon the park supervisors took a composite of children from all the city playgrounds on a bike hike. The hike went from the park south and then west through picturesque rural

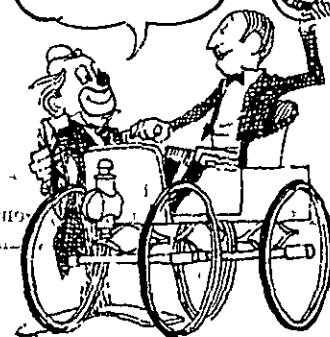

St. Johns. The end result was a well-deserved rest for the tired out children at a rural school house. Cookies and Kool-Aid were the refreshments of the day and following this the recreational facilities at the school were given a thorough workout by the 20 boys and girls present. Highlights of the afternoon trip were all masculine as Craig Goff rolled his bicycle on Lansing Street and John Warstler made a spectacular football catch with his eyeball.

CHECKER CHAMPIONSHIP — Mark Mercer from Swegles was checker champion, of the city playgrounds. His opponents were Mark Rogers, checker champion from Perrin Palmer who finished in second place, and Dave Ettinger from East Ward who finished third.

TENNIS — (John Salemi) — The St. Johns City Park was converted into an 18-hole golf course by Park Supervisor John Salemi. Twelve or more boys participated daily in the matches. The balls (tennis balls) were really given a beating by the boys. Proof of this was when Jim Conley literally tore the cover off the ball Thursday with a three iron. On another occasion Luane (Lumpy) Lambert rifled his ball into the park pool on the seventh hole. The big hitters for the tourney were John Estes and Rick Stoddard who each broke the course record by carding 35s for nine holes. Stoddard also scored a hole-in-one. Friday the tournaments concluded when the boys were teamed up in foursomes for an 18-hole match. Winning the tournament were Tommy Warstler and Kent Schueller. Runners-up were the duo of Dave Weed and John Warstler. Losers for the day were Tony Carmack and Mike Jorae who each shot 101s.

Boxers training nightly for bouts here Aug. 26

A dozen St. Johns area young men are training nightly above the St. Johns fire hall in preparation for an evening of exhibition Golden Gloves boxing in St. Johns Aug. 26.

There will be 14 bouts on the Aug. 26 fight card, highlighted by three open-division matches. Bob Every of St. Johns is scheduled to fight Rick Kries of Dimondale in a welterweight fight. Doug Brya of St. Johns will have a light-weight fight with Alfredo Saucedo of Michigan Center, and Pat Pohl of St. Johns will meet John Stage of Owosso in a middleweight bout.

Other St. Johns fighters will be matched with opponents following weigh-ins and physical examinations on the day of the fight. Seven—and possibly more—other communities will be represented among the contenders.

WAYNE BEAUFORT, manager of the St. Johns boxing team, said teams from Nashville, Michigan Center, Dimondale, Portland, Grand Ledge, Owosso and Howell-Fowlerville will participate in the weigh-ins where they will take their chances of getting a match in the St. Johns exhibition.

Beaufort said as many local boys as possible will get fights. Al VanNess of Lansing, AAU director, is in charge of the bouts here and is matchmaker. He'll name the judges and the referee.

The exhibition bouts are being sponsored by the Clinton County Golden Gloves and is for the benefit of new training quarters for the St. Johns area boxers. Presently they train in a single 15 x 20-foot room above the fire hall.

Beaufort said other boys interested in boxing are invited to contact him.

Marsten-Andrews win Country Club best-ball

Phil Marsten and Andy Andrews of Jackson edged John Becker and Bob Myers of Lansing on the first extra hole of a playoff to win the Clinton County Country Club's 14th annual best-ball tourney last Saturday.

The duos of Marsten-Andrews and Becker-Myers both fired 27 hole totals of 102, six underpar, to tie. Marsten and Andrews put together rounds of 33-37-32-102 while Becker - Myers had rounds of 32-35-35-102.

MARSTEN AND Andrews birdied holes 3-4-5 on the first nine for their 33. On the second nine the going was a little rougher as they picked up only one birdie, on number five, but had two bogeys, on number four and seven, to finish with a one over 37. They came storming back on the last nine with five birdies on holes 2-3-5-6-7, while they bogeyed number one, to give them a finishing four, under 32 and their 102 total.

Becker and Myers picked up a total of seven birdies for the day compared to Marsten and Andrews' nine, but they had only one bogey compared to the winning duo's three.

ON THE FIRST nine Becker and Myers picked up four birdies on holes number 4-5-8-9 for their four under 32. On the second nine they birdied five and nine, but bogeyed number eight for a one under 35. On their final nine Becker and Myers were able to birdie only one hole, number three, but this was good enough for their 35 and total of 102 to tie.

The winning score was five strokes off the tourney record set in 1957 by Dave Hill and Ducky Andrews of Jackson and tied last year by the winning duo of Ron Stelter and Ed Sullivan of Saginaw. The lowest score for these two duos was 97.

FOUR STROKES separated the top ten teams and four playoffs were needed to settle the team positions for prizes.

Third place was taken by the team of Micky McMillan and Bob Postma of Midland with a 103. At 104 stood the two teams of J. Donahue-B. Restau and Gene Hunt-B. Amos. In the playoff, Donahue and Restau won to take fourth. Hunt and Amos ended in fifth.

TWO TEAMS, G. Eleiff - F. Howard tied with E. Sullivan-S. Murphy with 105. In the playoff it was Eleiff and Howard winning the number six spot and Sullivan - Murphy settling for number seven.

225 sign up for swimming

The second session of summer swimming lessons at the St. Johns city park pool began Monday, with 225 youngsters enrolled.

Although this is considerably lower than the 395 enrolled during the first swimming period, Pool Director William Campbell said it was still high for the second period, compared to other years. This year's first session had an abnormally high enrollment, necessitating extra class sessions.

For the second period there are 118 non-swimmers signed up for lessons, along with 48 beginning swimmers, 19 intermediate swimmers, 12 swimmers, 17 in the advanced swimming and diving class, and 11 in the lifesaving class.

Campbell said the second-session enrollment affords a ratio of one teacher to every five younger students and one teacher to every 12 of the more-advanced students — in line with Red Cross recommendations.

The second session of swimming classes will continue through Aug. 18.

Threshing bee held Sunday

"Who would have thought, twenty years ago, that some day people would pay to see a threshing machine," one oldtimer mused Sunday afternoon as a throng of people gathered at an old fashioned grain threshing sponsored by the Future Farmer of America here.

The huge old thresher was in prime condition as it went through wagon load after wagon load of wheat.

Nearby a team of horses stood hitched to an old time cart, waiting to take the gummy sacked wheat to the granary.

THE ACTIVITY took place on the Alvin Simon farm, across from the Pewamo-Westphalia High School on Clintonia Road.

Old timers and young alike gathered around to look over the machinery and watch the now obsolete threshing operation. And, as in the old days, there was food a-plenty. Only this time the adjoining farm women didn't have to pitch in to bake pies and breads. Instead, FFA members served an ox roast dinner in the high school.

Funds from the project will be used by the group to purchase new equipment for the Agricultural Department at the school.

Home grown produce now in peak supply

by HELEN B. MEACH
Extension Home Economist

It's that time of year again when vegetables come fresh from the garden to the table. Nothing could be better. This is the best eating time of the whole year right now, when our home grown vegetables begin to come in peak season.

Cabbage, peppers, cucumbers, green beans, new potatoes, summer squash and sweet corn are the firsts to appear locally.

For the best sweet corn cook and eat sweet corn the day it's picked. At room temperature, sweet corn loses half its sugar and becomes starchy within twenty-four hours. Keep corn cold from corn stalk to kitchen kettle is the rule for best sweet corn flavor.

WE ARE ENJOYING a race with our neighbors, the Jack Hilley family, to see which of us have the first sweet corn picking from our gardens. They furnished new potatoes and green beans from their garden for our last week's Sunday dinner—um good!

To talk of peak vegetable supplies brings up the subject of canning. Vegetable canning demands a pressure canner. Why? Because the boiling water bath is just not hot enough or of continuous even temperature to safely or adequately preserve the contents of the jars. Non-acid vegetables, which means every vegetable except tomatoes, may become quite toxic if the temperature of every particle within the jar has not been heated to the proper degree. The pressure canner can do that job; the hot water cannot. Oven canning? It's too dangerous!

CANNING HAS never been an "easy" task. Both canning and freezing require care in the selection and handling of the foods. But it's worth it, particularly when supplies are large and priced right; better yet, if your supplies come fresh from your garden.

If, as predicted, food prices are on the rise it will be worth your while to preserve some of the bountiful food harvest to give good eating for your family all year around.

WANT ANSWERS to canning and freezing questions? Your Extension Service can help you. Write or call 224-3288 for one or all of the following at no charge. Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables—Bulletin No. 8. Home Freezing of Fruits and Vegetables—Bulletin No. 10.

Carl Sandburg—poet, troubador, biographer, historian, and storyteller—died recently at the age of 89. He has moved on into the greater life, but he has left a precious legacy to the world of American literature.

Sandburg's most ambitious undertaking was his six-volume biography of Abraham Lincoln, a work which was published in preparation. It was published in two sections, two volumes entitled THE PRAIRIE YEARS and four volumes entitled THE WAR YEARS. In 1940 THE WAR YEARS received the Pulitzer Prize for history.

In 1954 he added new material and condensed already existing material into a one-volume edition which he called simply ABRAHAM LINCOLN. During preparation of the Lincoln work, Sandburg apparently felt he had gathered enough material about Mrs. Lincoln to publish a book about her, and in 1932 he brought out MARY LINCOLN, WIFE AND WIDOW.

FOR SOME YEARS Sandburg had been a gatherer and singer of folk songs, and in 1927 he published his 492-page collection, entitled THE AMERICAN SONGBOOK. His dedication of this book reflects his talent as a poet. It reads: "To those unknown singers who made songs out of love, fun, grief—and to those many other singers who kept those songs as living things of the heart and mind, out of love, fun, grief."

Sandburg, along with Edgar Lee Masters, Vachel Lindsay, and others, had begun to speak for the Middle West in the world of American poetry, which prior to his time had been dominated by the New England states. In 1950 he gathered all his poems into one volume called COMPLETE POEMS OF CARL SARBURG, and for the second time he was awarded the Pulitzer Prize, this time for poetry.

He was a reporter for the Chicago Daily News, and his poetry spoke of the stinking, jostling, smoking city of Chicago, as well as the rolling, blossoming, dreaming, prairies of his native out-state Illinois.

IN 1948 SARBURG ventured into the world of the novel with REMEMBRANCE ROCK, a tome of over 1,000 pages. It covers the American scene beginning back in England in 1607 and leading up to the close of World War II in 1945. In this writer's opinion, the novel was not Sandburg's strongest medium.

Children, too, came in for their share of the Sandburg talent. His ROOTABAGA STORIES and POTATO FACE are perennial favorites of the small fry.

In 1953 Carl Sandburg wrote his autobiography, entitled enigmatically ALWAYS THE YOUNG STRANGERS. In 1961 Harry Golden published a biography called simply CARL SARBURG. No doubt we are now in for a rash of fresh biographies of this great man of American letters.

All of the books named in this column are on the shelves of Bement Public Library.

Pranee Thongruay of Thailand visits St. Johns

Miss Bonnie Sharick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sharick of 802 W. Park Street, St. Johns, had her roommate from Central Michigan University here last weekend as a house guest.

Miss Sharick's roommate this term has been Miss Pranee Thongruay, Noy as she is known to her friends, has been working towards a master's degree in library science. Noy will receive her degree this month and return to her home in September.

She is from Kanchanaburi, River Kwal country, Thailand.

BEFORE COMING TO Central Michigan University she taught for four years in the college of education, Prasarn Mit, Bangkok. Noy has been at Central since last September.

She received a scholarship from Central and also a Fulbright scholarship.

Noy and Bonnie had known each other for some time before becoming roommates this summer. They had a class together and both lived in the same dorm. Noy said another reason for them ending up as roommates for the summer term was because she liked to tease Bonnie.

THEY MADE A trip to Indiana together the beginning of the summer term, June 19. This past weekend they went to Niagara Falls with Bonnie's father.

Since she has been here, Noy has appeared showing some of her native costumes in style shows at CMU and has also given programs of classical Thai dances.

Since she has been in the United States, Miss Thongruay has become engaged. Her fiancé, Pinyo Chientong, who is presently in the Philippine Islands, will return to Thailand this month and will become a supervisor of the Voice of Free Asia, also known as VOA.

THEY GREW UP together but became engaged, as Noy puts it, by air mail. They will be married in November in Thailand.

The costume she is pictured in for evening wear is not unlike the one she will wear when she is married. It is in gold and pale yellow which is the color most often used by brides in her country.

Noy, who celebrated her 29th birthday here with the Sharicks last Friday, July 28, said it is not unusual for couples in her country to marry at a later age than they do here.

She intends to continue working until she is at least 60. About 90 per cent of the women in her country work. Servants are employed to care for the children.

BECAUSE NOY WAS here and her fiancé was in Thailand, they celebrated their engagement with two parties. The one at Mount Pleasant was held at 10 p.m. on a Saturday evening and the one in Thailand was held at 10 a.m. Sunday morning. With the time difference both of the parties to celebrate the engagement were held at the same time.

try she does it with a great deal of pride. One thing she makes it a point to tell was that her country has never been a colony. She tells of the great love for the king and queen of Thailand.

THERE IS ONE language used in the country. Although there are regional differences, much like those found here, one can understand all other countrymen.

In Thailand education is compulsory for seven years.

The way of life in her native land is at a much slower pace, Noy said. They find a great deal of pleasure in walking.

THE PACE WE HAVE here tired her at first but a person like Noy, who so obviously enjoys people, had little trouble adjusting.

She seems to have found the food here quite good as since coming here she has gained eight pounds. A daily must for her is a black cherry ice cream cone. Noy has also become very fond of ginger ale and tuna fish sandwiches.

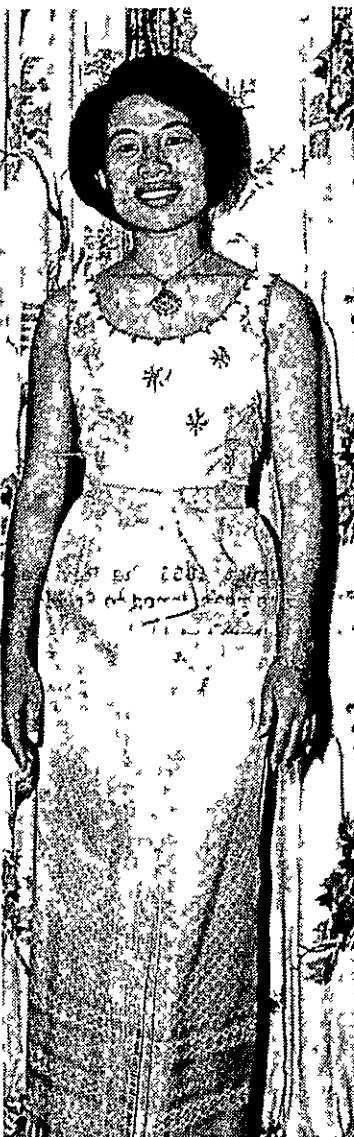

Miss Thongruay and Bonnie

Sharick are both library science majors. Bonnie will be a senior this fall. Miss Sharick attended Lindsey-Wilson Junior College of Columbia, Ky., for two years before enrolling at Central Michigan University.

Prominence problem

Children of prominent people often have trouble finding their own identities, a University of Wisconsin psychiatrist reports. "These children frequently try to be what they are not," he explains. "That is, they try to be either a caricature of their family image or the opposite."

In any case, they do not act themselves. Moreover, they suffer from a sense of disappointment, impotence, inadequacy, failure and resentment. They also have a "dwarfed" view of the world and assume that everyone is talking about their distinguished parents.

Expect 1,000 for Michigan Retreat Day at DeWitt Sept. 17

DEWITT.—More than 1,000 persons from all over Michigan are expected to participate in a day-long "Michigan Retreat Day" here Sept. 17, the Rev. Julian Fuzer, OFM, said this week.

Father Fuzer, resident retreat-master at Portiuncula in the Pines Retreat House here, said the purpose of Michigan Retreat Day is "to help every Catholic, every Christian, and practically every person of good will to be retreat conscious."

Persons involved in the retreat movement "are firmly convinced that retreats are the response to church renewal initiated by the Second Vatican Council," according to Father Fuzer.

"IN ORDER TO UNDERSTAND the beauty and magnitude of their Christian vocation in this time of renewal, the laity need the experience of the retreat," he said. "Behind the apostolate of the laity there is a spirituality and mentality which are refreshed, renewed and revitalized by the experience of the retreat."

The Most Rev. Alexander Zaleski, bishop of the Diocese of Lansing, will be the principal speaker for Michigan Retreat Day.

Father Fuzer said that at a national retreat convention in Boston last year laymen "openly and bitterly deplored the lack of support for and interest in retreats on the part of the hierarchy."

Bishop Zaleski, he said, officially and publicly endorses the retreat movement "and puts his episcopal authority behind the retreat movement for the laity."

SAM W. OBRECHT of Lansing, general chairman of Michigan Retreat Day, said other speakers will include:

Mrs. Wanda Hardman entertained the Riley and Olive Aid Thursday with a large attendance.

The August meeting will be with Mrs. Gene Sigafos. Date will be announced later.

Members of a panel who will discuss the retreat include Frank Guerriero of Mason, moderator; the Rev. Francis T. Martin, pastor of Resurrection Parish, Lansing; Francis J. Coomes, executive director of the Michigan Catholic Conference; and Mrs. Russell Lince of Fenton.

The program will be held in the auditorium of DeWitt Public High School starting at 10 a.m. Box lunch will be available during a noon break.

A consecrated Mass is scheduled for 3:15 Sunday afternoon with the Rev. Maximus Mendel of Roebing, N.J., provincial of the "Franciscan Order," main celebrant.

combined efforts of all retreat houses and retreat leaders in Michigan. "It is hoped," he said, "that this program will dispel the apathy of many towards the movement and will entice lay people to avail themselves of the many blessings and inspirations of the retreat in these days of renewal."

There are 12 retreat houses in Michigan affiliated with the National Catholic Laymen's Retreat Conference. The Michigan chapter of NCLRC is headed by John Raymond, a Detroit attorney who will participate in Sept. 17 program.

"It is strange," Father Fuzer said, "that while some Catholics seem to grow impatient to the retreat movement, Protestants are flocking to Catholic retreat houses in increasing number."

He said several retreats for Protestant ministers and wives of ministers have been conducted this year at the Franciscan Retreat House in DeWitt. Lutheran college students also are seeking a date for a retreat at DeWitt, he said.

ACCORDING TO FATHER Fuzer, every weekend there are Episcopalians, Baptists, Methodists and Presbyterians among the Catholics who participate in a retreat.

"These are wonderful people," he said, "who are happy to be with us, and we are happy to have them. This is true ecumenism."

Father Fuzer said there will be no charge for participation in the Sept. 17 Michigan Retreat Day and anyone who wishes may come.

Pigs may help answer cause of infant allergy

Research on pigs at Michigan State University could prove helpful in understanding why human babies sometimes become allergic to cow's milk.

It all has to do with the similarity between the pig and the human and the way each receives antibodies — or lack of them — at birth.

Drs. Duane E. Ulrey and Elwyn R. Miller, MSU animal husbandry researchers, are trying to find out the factors that influence the antibody absorption in the baby pig. And, since the physiology of pigs is similar to that of humans, this information should be useful in curbing a human baby's sensitivity to cow's milk.

The MSU scientists have found that as a pig begins getting regular mother's milk, the intestinal wall becomes impervious to antibodies. This absorption mechanism, even though it is poorly developed in the human infant, is a definite factor in cases where babies are allergic to cow's milk. If the stomach lining does not close to antibodies, milk protein molecules may pass through, enter the blood stream, and cause formation of antibodies against the proteins. And this, say the MSU researchers, can produce the allergy by making the baby hypersensitive to cow's milk.

last week. After a week of duty, every day in hard work with drilling, policing, and as guards, the company returned home by train.

AT THAT TIME 31 were dead and more than 1800 people arrested with much looting, fires and fighting.

The Elsie men were among the 53 officers and men of Company A, Michigan State Troops to receive service stars and ribbons for participation in clearing up the June 1943 riot.

Mr and Mrs Edward Calko surprised their son, David, Friday evening by giving him a teenage party which included 16 friends and classmates. The occasion was his 16th birthday. His mother decorated his cake with colored records and musical instruments and also a small model of Yamaha, which was assembled by David. Dancing, games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Gail Blunt of 1148 Dorchester Circle, Lansing, was selected to model on television, the new uniforms now worn by the employees of the Lansing Police Department, working on the switchboard, dispatch and complaint desks. The blouse is light blue with civilian insignia and the knee-length skirt is dark blue. Gail, one of the dispatchers has been a civilian employee there for six months. She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Joe McAninch.

Carl Moore, son of Mr and Mrs Robert Moore of rural Elsie returned home Saturday from six months in the Army Reserve. He received his basic training at Ft. Bliss, Tex., and was then stationed at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., for the remainder of the time. Carl, recently awarded a "State Farmer" FFA degree, will return to his studies in crop science at MSU this fall. His completion of army service made it possible for him to be at home to join his family in hosting a visit at the Moore Seed Farm. The farm is one of four in Clinton County to be visited Tuesday on the State Farm Management Tour by some 1200-1500 farmers.

The Dally Vacation Bible School of the Elsie First Baptist Church will be held daily between Aug. 7 and 11 from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Classes will be held for children from pre-school through the 8th grade. Bus transportation will be provided for children on a route on the east of Elsie between Chapin and Elsie, if they will notify the pastor, Rev Norris Beck or Rev Hasley.

Mr and Mrs Clifford Dunham attended Eaton Rapids camp meeting for two days and called on Mr and Mrs Harold Bates and Rev Walter Easton and Mrs

Easton and visited the newly remodeled church.

Mrs V. M. Lockwood is under treatment at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit where she was taken a week ago.

rummage sale

Sharing hostess duties with Mrs Clarence Semans were Mrs J. O. VanDyne and Mrs Owen Seward when they entertained the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Middlebury Church Tuesday evening, July 25. There were 22 members and one guest present.

Mrs Robert Mulder presided and asked Mrs Margaret Furry for the devotions. Mrs Furry read Mat. 25:14-46 and closed with prayer.

Announcement was made of the officers' workshop to be held Sept. 21 at Henderson from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. and luncheon reservations are to be made by Sept. 14.

A TENTATIVE date for the first week of October has been set for a Fall rummage sale, proceeds to be used to redecorate the sanctuary.

Mrs James Burgess presented the program, entitled, "The Christian and World Economy" and the purpose is to face the inescapable truth that Christians must war on poverty in their own country and in the world or make Christianity a shabby, materialistic sham. Mrs Blanche Potter gave the dismissal prayer after which the hostesses served refreshments from tables decorated with begonias placed in butter crocks.

Hostesses for the Aug. 22 meeting are Mrs Robert Mulder, Mrs Russell Stanton and Rev Beatrice Townsend. The program will be presented by Mrs Donald Craig and Mrs James Burgess will conduct the devotions.

Mrs Edna Warren is a patient at Memorial Hospital in Owosso for observation and treatment.

Mr and Mrs Austin Ryon of Grand Rapids spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs Nina Ryon. Saturday evening they all visited the former Mrs Ryon's sister, Mrs Lux, at Morrice.

Under a certain degree of duress, he has now signed his first legal document. And, though he doesn't look much different from all of his tiny neighbors in the nursery, the world knows WHO he is.

But the world cannot know—not can we, his parents—WHAT he will become!

A man of character—loyal, trustworthy, courageous? A leader—strong, capable, resolute? A friend to many—kind, unselfish, understanding?

Identification is so easy to establish. But character is the product of careful moral and spiritual training. The religious atmosphere of our home, the earnest participation of our family in the worship and life of the Church—these will determine our son's destiny... the path in which his footprints will be known.

MRS GROOM RETIRES AT PHONE COMPANY

William Graef, district manager for General Telephone Co. in St. Johns, reads a humorous poem for Mrs. Leota Groom, who is retiring effective Sept. 1, after 34 years of total service with the telephone company and its predecessor. Looking on is R.D. Trezise, central division manager out of Owosso. Mrs. Groom is seated on a chaise lounge set which fellow employees gave her as a going away gift — among other items. Mrs. Groom started her telephone career with the Union Telephone Co. in Ovid Aug. 1, 1920; she first was an operator and then became cashier-chief operator. She transferred to St. Johns a year before the phone company there merged with GenTel. She has been service representative here since 1955. Mrs. Groom lives at 502 W. Williams Street, Ovid. Some 65 persons attended a farewell dinner for her last Thursday at the phone company building.

W. Bancrofts home after state postmasters meet

Mr and Mrs Wilbur Bancroft returned home Saturday night from the week-long convention of the League of Postmasters at Iron Mountain, about 225 postmasters and guests attended the banquet Thursday night, where National League President Henry Womack gave the address of the evening and installed the officers.

Harry Dransfield of Channing became the new state president and Ken Kientz of Ithaca, the state treasurer. All the other officers were re-elected. Mrs. Bancroft remained the historian and League photographer. One highlight of the session has been constantly growing and Wednesday there were more postmasters (98) at the business session than there were members three years ago.

ALSO SEVERAL "firsts" were achieved at the convention; this was the first time the convention was set up to accommodate campers and Sunday evening for 60 postmasters and guests; an auxiliary composed of postmaster's families was organized at the convention and a special luncheon was given in their honor.

During the convention tours of the paper mill at Niagara Falls, and an iron mine at Vulcan, Mich. were conducted. Conventioneers were able to attend the Norway Post Office dedication. Green Winning Cards Must be turned into this Newspaper by Monday 5:00 p.m.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

PICK UP FREE BINGO CARDS: Each week (adults only, please) pick up your FREE Bingo cards from any of the sponsoring merchants listed below. Rules of the game allow the merchants to give you only one card on each store visit. However, you may make as many visits as you wish each day of the week. THE MORE CARDS YOU PLAY THE BETTER ARE YOUR CHANCES OF WINNING.

HOW TO PLAY: To play, check the ads in each week's issue of the CLINTON COUNTY NEWS. The ads of the merchants listed below will contain one or more "Newspaper Bingo" numbers in the "Bingo Bug" symbol (shown above). Occasionally numbers, in the "Bingo Bug" symbol, may be found elsewhere in the newspaper. IF YOU CAN MATCH (JUST CIRCLE OR "X" THE MATCHING NUMBERS) ALL 24 NUMBERS ON ANY ONE OF YOUR BINGO CARDS — YOU HAVE A "BINGO" — AND YOU ARE A WINNER!!

AT LEAST $50 WEEKLY! Winners will share a weekly prize of $50 issued in "Bingo Bucks" that spend like cash at any of the sponsoring merchants. If there is only one winner, he or she wins all of the $50. If there is more than one winner, all winners will share the $50 in equal amounts. If there are no winners any week, the $50 weekly prize money will be added to the following week's prize fund.

CHECK EACH ISSUE OF THE CLINTON COUNTY NEWS: Each game is complete in each week's issue. A new game will start each Thursday and be completed the following Monday. A new set of Bingo numbers will be published each week in the sponsoring merchants' ads and possibly elsewhere in the paper and these new numbers only must be used. A new color of Bingo cards will be available at the participating stores. To be eligible to win, you must play Bingo cards of the correct color for that week's game. The color of the cards for each week's game will be announced on this page.

IF YOU ARE A WINNER: If you have a winning Bingo card, ON WHICH ALL 24 NUMBERS HAVE BEEN MATCHED WITH THE NUMBERS APPEARING EACH WEEK IN THE CLINTON COUNTY NEWS, write your name, address, phone number, and the name of the store where you got your winning card on the back of your card and mail to The CLINTON COUNTY NEWS. The envelope containing your card must be received by 5 p.m. Monday of the following week; or bring your winning card to the office by 5 p.m. Monday of the following week.

A copy of the paper is available for playing the game at the office of this newspaper — also at the public libraries. You may play as many cards as you wish—they are free. Get additional cards—one at a time—each day of the week—from the friendly merchants listed below (adults only, please).

DIFFERENT COLORED CARDS EACH WEEK: The color of the cards changes each week. To be a winner, you must play Bingo cards of the correct color for that week. Mutilated or altered cards will not be honored. ALL 24 NUMBERS ON A CARD MUST BE MATCHED TO WIN.

This Is How A Winning Card Looks

CHANCE DETERMINES NUMBERS: Bingo numbers for each week's game are drawn at random from a revolving Bingo number dispensing cage at the office of this newspaper. Some duplication of Bingo numbers may appear in the merchants' ads. This duplication does not affect the game or the total numbers drawn. All numbers for each week's game will be someplace in the sponsoring merchants' ads and possibly elsewhere in the paper. Employees of this newspaper and their families are not eligible to win any of the prizes.

Ionia Free Fair 8-day run starts this Saturday

All the hep sayings of the "Roaring Twenties" such as "Oh You Kid" and "Twenty-Three Skidoo" will probably be in vogue at the 1967 Ionia Free Fair.

Bringing the flapper era to "Michigan's Greatest Outdoor Event" will be England's famed New Vaudeville Band, one of the hottest and most novel groups to appear on the music scene in years.

The popular group, recorders of the million seller "Winchester Cathedral," star in the evening grandstand shows Aug. 7-12. Blending comedy with flapper era musical styling, the New Vaudeville Band will share the spotlight with Vaughn Monroe, one of the most popular recording personalities in the history of popular music.

MONROE, WHO HAS starred on television and in motion pictures, has a string of best sellers including his theme song, "Racing With the Moon," "Tangerine," "There, I've Said It Again," "Red Roses for a Blue Lady," "Mr. Sandman," and "Ghost Riders in the Sky."

"The Sensations of 1967" production will also include Wes Harrison the "Mr. Sound Effects" who has had past Free Fair audiences doubled over with laughter with his hilarious stories; the Stebbins Family dog act; Rich, Gibson and Rich, dance and marimba novelty act; the Manhattan Rockets dance line; aerialist Ma Ho Pin; Randy Brown, humorist, emcee, paddle ball specialist; and the Keith Killinger Band.

The "Neapolitan Style" fireworks show, produced by Tony Vitale, will ring down the curtain on the evening grandstand shows Aug. 7-12.

THE TEEN-A-GO-GO Shows have been expanded to four performances August 5 and 6. Starring will be Brain Hyland, who first gained fame with his recording of the novelty song,

"Itsy Bitsy Teeny Weeny Polka-Dot Bikini," which was a best seller in several countries. He appeared on the recent "Go" television music special and has hit the top of the recording ladder again this year with "Holiday for Clowns."

On the same bill with Hyland will be the Outsiders, an exciting new group that climbed to the top 10 on the lists with their recording of "Time Won't Let Me." Also appearing will be the Fendermen featuring the Fendettes.

A big explosion at this year's event will occur after Sunday evening's teen show when the Seabees present a nuclear blast demonstration. Following a simulated nuclear explosion on the grandstand infield, a miniature city will crumble, helicopters will swirl overhead to record radiation, and a rescue team will evacuate the "victims" for the disaster area.

IN ADDITION TO Monday's big inaugural Parade, there will be a special Fantasyland Parade staged Thursday morning. The parade, which is Chicago's famed State Street Parade, features Italian paper-mache and plastic heads, bands and other marching units.

Three death-defying auto thrill shows await the grandstand audiences Monday, Friday, and Saturday afternoons. The all-time fair favorite, harness racing, will provide the sporting fun Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoons with $18,000 being awarded in cash and trophies. Back again captivate Free Fair visitors will the Chevy Show exhibit which attracted record breaking crowds two years ago.

A SPECIAL TREAT for youngsters again this year will be The Children's Barnyard. Constructed through the joint efforts of FFA chapters throughout Ionia County, this exhibit houses live farm animals and encourages children to pet the four-legged friends as well as look.

Other fair events include the tractor and horse pulling competition, state championship plowing contest, Live Steam Show, commercial and domestic exhibits, and a vast array of livestock, youth homemaking and agricultural displays.

Starring in the Ionia Free Fair's "Sensations of 1967" grandstand show Aug. 7-12, will be England's famed "Winchester Cathedral" group, The New Vaudeville Band. The group reaches back to the 1920's and 1930's for its musical styling and has made numerous national television appearances.

GLAMOR AND GLITTER OF BROADWAY

Bringing the glamor and glitter of Broadway to the Ionia Free Fair August 7-12 will be the Manhattan Rockets Dance line from New York. Each girl in this Hal Sands line must be grounded in classic ballet, be adept at tap, acrobatic, and jazz dancing, and trained in the precision essential for doing kicks and rhythms. The Rockets will be appearing in the "Sensations of 1967" grandstand show starring England's New Vaudeville Band and singer Vaughn Monroe.

Knobby 'symbols'

'Surfers' knots knobby mounds of toughened skin on the knees and feet of surfboard riders, can cause painful skin ulcers. The ulcerations are caused by the same thing that causes the surfers' knots themselves — the abrasive action of the surfboard as the youth kneels atop it to paddle seaward. The skin ulcerations apparently are not an immediately serious medical problem. They eventually clear up if surfers stay off boards and get medical treatment, says the American Medical Assn. Keeping the youths off surfboards, however, can be a problem. Surfers' knots are considered a status symbol.

Dear friends at home:

Since things have changed considerably with me, perhaps you would like to be brought up to date.

About mid-February the school where I was working, which trained supervisors of village workers, became inactive. The teachers have not had pay since that time. There were many promises of a new program but none materialized.

I had made detailed plans for a hundred-layer poultry demonstration project. I had cleaned out the old superfluous partitions, carried out nine inches of manure and thoroughly scrubbed the coop and equipment. We were to extend the roof on the south side and put rice-straw thatch over the corrugated asbestos roof for insulation. We would make most of our feeders, etc.

Now P.C. OK'd my visit to the ashram (boarding school for aboriginal hill tribes of Orissa—the Adivas). I spent a weekend in Angul with Mr and Mrs George, one of the three English families I had visited at Christmas time, and was entertained by all three. They work for the big Titaghar Paper (bamboo) Co. and the government forest service.

MRS GEORGE BROUGHT me to call on Mr and Mrs Choudhury. He is ex-chief minister (governor) of Orissa, philanthropist and anti-Congress Party. They founded this school, based on Gandhian principles of tolerance, non-violence and dignity of labor, as part of a great privately financed movement. She (Mrs Choudhury), an ex-teacher, manages it. She made a gross understatement when she said they needed two more teachers, but had not money to pay them. They have eight teachers for about 500 students. Some classes have 50 students. She (Mrs Choudhury) seemed happy that I would come and help them.

I teach English as a foreign language (TEFL) to the 7th, 8th, 10th and 11th classes, mostly boys. (School is about a mile across wasteland. They have repeatedly offered me the lovely new ricksha but I think the walk is good for me. I get little exercise, but sometimes it is pretty hot.

THE SCHOOL BUILDINGS, arranged campus-style around an administration building, are partly masonry (brick plastered over with weak cement) with cement floors, partly open on both sides with tamped earthen floors.

Senior basic is classes one through eight; high school, nine through eleven. They go to college for the twelfth grade. The class bell is a brass disc struck with a mallet. Texts are very primitive, grammar formal, poetry good but difficult for grade level, especially in foreign language. The poetry learned is mostly English and American. There is a small, passe Indian history, science, heroes, fairy tales, etc. In science students study notebook drawings of apparatus. The study is formal, trite, and there is no lab.

In the compound a student council plans and directs the various work projects with 'ministers of hostel (dormitory), gardens, library, recreation, poultry, dairy, weaving and other crafts, etc. Jaggedy (crude sugar) is made from sap of a palm.

EIGHT MILES AWAY is a dialectic post-senior basic (high school) where the 3-R's are combined with technical and vocational training in crafts, agriculture, dairy breeding, etc.

There are grandam villages where, among the good works, land owners voluntarily give one-twentieth of their land to landless villagers, giving them a means of support.

A small boy, who speaks a village dialect, is segregated with measles. Mrs Choudhury is trying to keep him happy. A fourth-class boy is in the hospital a mile away being treated for hookworm and anemia. His father demands that he be returned home or he will shoot the village 'social worker' with his bow and arrow. (Word has just been received that the boy died of nephritis last night in the Cuttack Medical College Hospital, where he had been taken for emergency treatment).

NEAR MY HOUSE is a maternity center where a midwife takes care of normal cases from the tribal villages. Here service is very modest; food a little high. In the famine areas the markets are piled high but the poor have no money to buy. A peon comes each morning at 6:30, takes my list and money and brings meat (mutton), produce, groceries, etc., about 9 a.m.

After about a week my servant boy (R's 25 per month; R's 7 1/2 - $1) left to help his father farm. Everyone waited on me. Now I have a girl student who is supposed to help in return for help with English. She doesn't like to wash dishes, and leaves them for the woman who cleans my night 'commode'. The latrine is half a block away.

Peons do leg and back work; Malls carry water and do the heaviest garden and yard work. Women 'sweepers' clean yards, paths and buildings.

THE COMPOUND (campus) is lovely with flowering and fruiting shrubs and trees. My servant brings water from a tubular well, good milk and eggs fresh daily, for which the ricksha I am billed monthly. Mrs Choudhury says I will not be billed for the ricksha. I find a sweet-as-honey papaya in my part of the little 'refrig' in the office almost every day.

I have a lovely little backyard garden with bamboo fence and gate, and rich loam soil. The secretary of the institution is directing students in digging it. I think they will let me plant the seed.

My house—living room, kitchen and bath (just a tiny bare room with a drain hole)—is cement covered with brick with rice-straw thatch. There is a big front porch. The windows are barred and door and window shutters are solid plank with vertical bolt latches with padlocks on the door. I have a little lending library and some games, pictures, etc., and students and teachers come by in ones and in dozens.

THE NEXT WEEK after my visit here was our two-day-end-of-the-year conference in Darjeeling in the mountains about 300 miles north of Calcutta. We flew from Calcutta to Silghur, then had a three-hour bus ride. On clear days Mt. Everest is visible from the heights. It was cool, beautiful, the people quaint and very friendly. We visited a Tibetan refugee center sponsored by an American refugee society. We saw them make rugs from carding the wool to the finished rug. That was the nearest I will ever come to Tibet. I did some shopping—Darjeeling tea, wood carvings and globe-shaped perforated brass ceiling lamp.

On return to Bhubaneswar, I was really relieved to find no appropriation and no new program. I had a week to pack and get ready to leave. Teresa George, formerly of Kerala, which is 85 per cent Christian, a C.D. worker with offices at the secretariat (state capitol), brought me on her travel allowance (no charge). I paid for our and the driver's dinner, and breakfast, and she slept in my house. We arrived at 9 p.m., July 2. The things the jeep wouldn't hold, the paper company jeep will bring soon.

SUNDAY I WENT with Georges and P.C.V. Ed Schroeder to an American movie in the town. The reels were not shown in order—a little hard to follow.

We have a half day of school Saturday. Now I will have lunch, a bath and shampoo, and go to Georges for 4:30 tea.

Sincerely,
Mrs Pearl Haskins, P.C.V.

'Little' squirts

Pygmy mammoths ranging from one-half to three-quarters the size of the normal species roamed the once-drylands of the present Atlantic coast about 25,000 years ago, says the U.S. Geological Survey. Evidence for the conclusion is in the form of fossil teeth dredged from the sea floor of the Atlantic continental shelf.

Elsie council up in air about sewage plant

ELSIE — A report on Elsie's proposed sewage treatment facilities will be completed in about 60 days, village officials were told last week.

The report, being conducted by the Farmers Home Administration, a federal agency, is to deal with a long-hoped-for sanitary sewage treatment system with a price tag of $519,000.

About two years ago the council requested from the federal government a grant of $218,000 to aid in implementation of the sewage system. The council would then have sought to obtain the rest of the money, $301,000, through an FHA loan.

Since that time, the council has eyed plans for a water treatment plant.

AS RECOMMENDED by engineers at the last council meeting, the water treatment facility, a forced draft aeration and filtration process to eliminate odor and remove iron from the village water, would cost approximately $60,000.

A sour note entered the proceedings then. The council members were told that the possi-

Aging committee elects officers

The Aging Committee of Clinton County has elected their leaders for the following year.

Picked as chairman was Mrs. John A. Minsky. The new secretary is Miss Carmen Tranchell and the new treasurer is Elzy Exelby.

Appointed to the board for one-year terms were Miss Tranchell, Exelby and Gerald Irner.

An invitation was extended by the members of the county group to Gerald Wieland, a member of the Michigan Aging Commission, to attend their next meeting. Wieland may offer project suggestions for the county organization to institute as well as benefits the members might receive under the Older American Act.

East Lansing man jailed for 60 days

Ramon M. Heredia, 20, of East Lansing, was fined $75 plus court costs of $32.50 and was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail Monday by Circuit Judge Leo M. Corbin.

Heredia was charged with fleeing from a traffic arrest on June 26. His car skidded into a 30-foot-deep gravel pit in DeWitt Township to end a police chase.

Though wheat crop higher, lower prices not justified

The recent downturn in wheat prices to farmers is not justified by the demand-supply situation, Frank Light, Chairman of the Michigan Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

"There is no overabundance of wheat," Mr. Light stated. "The small increase in the wheat carryover as a result of this year's crop will be well within the levels considered necessary for a safe reserve. Therefore, it is not a surplus and shouldn't be considered as one."

"While this year's crop is a record," he said, "domestic use and exports will continue running at the record levels reached during the past few years. This should prompt strong demand for wheat throughout the marketing year."

"HOWEVER," He noted, "available supplies are currently extremely heavy and are more than market channels need for immediate use. This is creating a buyers' market and farmers are at a disadvantage by marketing more than is currently needed. This is particularly true in the soft red wheat producing area east of the Mississippi River."

"Farmers participating in the program are getting substantial added returns for their wheat through wheat marketing certificates," Mr. Light stated. "This year's certificates valued at $1.36 per bushel and issued on 35 percent of the production on farm allotments increases the average return to participants about 47 cents per bushel on their entire wheat crop."

"FARMERS HAVE an opportunity and also a responsibility to market their wheat in an orderly manner as a means of bolstering prices," he said, "but they need help to do this. To withhold wheat from market, farmers must have access to storage. This has been increasingly difficult for them, partially because of lack of storage and partially because commercial storers of grain are also buyers. In some instances, they are offering to buy but refusing to store for farmers."

The Chairman pointed out that farmers who took part in the 1967 wheat program who have wheat in storage can get some immediate cash for it by putting the wheat under price-support loan, wherever adequate warehouse or farm storage is available. This gives them more flexibility in their marketing by holding the wheat out of channels for later marketing at a more advantageous time price-wise.

"Terminal storage at some distances may provide farmers with an alternative when local storage is not available. Terminals in Michigan have indicated that some space is available. This could involve in-line movement so that farmers would get the same support loan as in local storage. Even though transportation costs might possibly reduce the net loan rate some, the possibility of holding the grain for later marketing might justify the small added cost," Mr. Light pointed out.

"FARMERS CAN work through their warehousemen who would assemble lots large enough to permit shipping to the terminal storage or farmers could go together and make up their own shipment," he said. "They would get terminal warehouse receipts, which would be put up as collateral at county ASC offices to get a loan just the same as for local warehouse receipts."

Farmers who are in need of storage facilities should contact their local ASC county office for further information concerning commercial storage facilities, as well as information of the farm facility loan program for purchase of storage and drying equipment.

'Wrong' forages cost farmers $20 per acre

Two recent research trials show that farmers could lose almost $20 an acre if they planted the "wrong" varieties of sudangrass or sorghum-sudangrass hybrids.

"Our trials at East Lansing have shown an average difference of seven-eighths of a ton between the highest and lowest yielding varieties," reported H. L. Kohls, Michigan State University crop scientist. "Figuring a value of $22.50 per ton, this means an extra $19.57 for the high yielding varieties as compared to the lowest, Piper."

"This is an excellent increase in returns per acre with no additional cost of production."

KOHL'S REPORTED that the varieties of sorghum-sudangrass hybrids that have been the highest yielding in a two-year average at East Lansing were: Sordan, Su-Chow P-A-G 35, Pioneer 985, Sweet Sioux, Haygrazer, 1038 C, Tudean 2, Su-Chow P-A-G 35 and Chow-Maker A.

In addition to these varieties, Kohls is also studying new varieties of rye, ryegrass, common vetch and lupines developed at the MSU Agricultural Experiment Station which show considerable promise.

"Forage variety trials are located in the state where we believe the conditions, climate and soil are typical of the area in which the crop is adapted," commented Kohls. "At present, we have alfalfa trials in Missaukee and Ingham counties and new trials started in Delta and Ingham."

"Forage sorghum-sudangrass hybrids are being tested in Ogemaw and Ingham; Vetch, lupine and ryegrass tests are in Montcalm County; ryegrass alfalfa mixtures in Ingham; and grain sorghum-corn comparison trials in Kalamazoo County. "Three trials," said Kohls, "will give us considerable information on new forage varieties and a basis for new recommendations to growers."

First apricot variety released

Michigan's first apricot variety has been released by Michigan State University's Agricultural Experiment Station.

The new variety, named Goldcot, has been bred for northern Great Lakes growing conditions and is expected to help lead to the first successful apricot production for processing east of the Rocky Mountains.

Developed at the South Haven Experiment Station by Drs. Stanley Johnston and James Moulton, MSU horticulturists, Goldcot produces nearly round, golden colored fruits. The skin is moderately thick and tough and the flesh is medium orange and firm.

Successful production of apricots in Michigan is expected to provide an important contribution to the state's fruit industry. At present, almost all the apricots in the U. S. are processed along the West Coast. Yet, many of the major users of apricots — including the baby food processing companies — are located in and around Michigan.

Gossips are like blotters — absorb a lot of dirt but usually get it all backwards.

AGRICULTURE in ACTION

by M. L. Woell

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

How involved were young people in the riots which have occurred? What part did youth play in the riotous affairs which have claimed so many lives and cost incalculable damage in so many Michigan cities? The records show that many of the dead and wounded were very young, several only 17—any many between that age and 25. What values did they have? What background? What chance to learn to live in a civilized society before they died?

We had better find out. Those who study such things say that this is the year in our country, when the young among us become the majority. 1967 is the year when those "aged 25 or under" take over—at least as far as total numbers are concerned.

Young people have always been activists. They are restless whether on the farms or in the cities, whether in America or Red China. They are more restless in the cities because they have less responsibility—less things of significance to do. The "Red Guard" was pulled off the farm by "Chairman" Mao, who hoped to use them in deliberate riotous acts meant to bolster his crumbling power. Their extreme anarchy caused Mao to plead with them to go back home to their villages and communes.

IN MICHIGAN, it is significant that the riots did not appear racially oriented. They occurred in poverty areas, but most of our youth recall few truly hard times, for they are younger than the great depression. They are used to the mobility of cars and motorcycles—and often, good jobs if they want them.

In any event, poverty is much more than lack of income. It can be poverty of spirit, of ambition, of opportunity. In the words of Michigan Congressman, Guy Vander Jagt, "It is a deep cultural, emotional, and in many cases, political problem. Hard-core poverty is as much a state of mind as a lack of money..." Although the younger element involved in our riots may not have had a surplus of money, they do have a surplus of time. Possibly the greatest misjudgment of the effects of Michigan's "double daylight saving time" was what it meant in terms of our long hot summer, when young men and women of our state were handed another evening hour of daylight—without providing them something constructive to do.

CCC may take wheat now

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman has just announced that wheat producers participating in the 1967 wheat program may deliver their 1967 crop wheat for immediate purchase by CCC if it is to their advantage.

This provision was added to the Price Support Program because some producers who are eligible for price support loans on their 1967 wheat have not been able to get adequate storage.

In the past, producers who did not obtain price support loans on their wheat had to wait until the loan maturity date before CCC would purchase their wheat. The established maturity date for 1967-crop wheat is April 30, 1968.

THIS ADDITIONAL provision will permit them to get the same net return for their wheat now that is assured other program cooperators who were able to get a price support loan. The purchase price will be the support price for the grade and quality of the wheat delivered, on the basis of a sample of their wheat submitted for testing by an official grading laboratory at the time of delivery. A deduction for storage will be made the same as if their wheat was being placed under a warehouse storage loan. Wheat producers interested in delivering their wheat to CCC for purchase, or wish additional information, should contact their ASCS office immediately.

ASC PROGRAM

1968 wheat allotment program notices mailed

W. M. SMITH,
County ASC Manager

We mailed wheat producers their 1968 allotment notices July 21. This allotment is 13 percent less than the 1967 allotment. Any wheat producer who received a 1967 allotment, and failed to receive a notice, should contact our office.

The 1968 allotment is expected to produce about 1.5 billion bushels of wheat if the growing season is average. This is the amount estimated to be needed during the 1968-69 marketing year.

The 1968 program is almost exactly the same as the 1967 program, no acreage division is required. To participate, wheat producers sign up (the time will be announced later), meet their conserving base requirements, stay within the wheat allotment on any farm in which they have an interest, unless they sign up under the substitution provision or the excess wheat option.

WHEN THE SUBSTITUTION provision is used, the producer must stay within other commodity allotments and bases on the participating farm.

Barley will not be in the feed grain diversion program in 1968. This means no diversion from barley will be required in 1968. Barley producers will be eligible for barley price support regardless of the acreage planted. The level of the loan price support will be announced later.

About one-half of the barley in the United States if fall seeded, these provisions are being announced at this time so winter wheat producers will have ample time to make cropping plans.

Wheat producers who have a barley base will be permitted to substitute wheat for barley as they did in 1967.

If a 1968 corn or grain sorghum base is established on a farm, wheat producers substituting wheat for barley will have to participate in the 1968 feed grain program.

Supervisor Noble, Chairman of the Zoning Committee, made a report on a referral made to this committee at the last regular session of the Board of Supervisors. The report was in the form of a recommendation that there be no change made in the present trailer ordinance so far as Section 3.10B is concerned. "A resolution to authorize and direct the County Treasurer to transfer to the Clinton County Public Improvement Fund all fees not assigned for other purposes, and also, a sum equal to twenty-five (.025) mills of the State Equalized Valuation of Clinton County. These said monies shall be so transferred for the first quarter of 1967 and each succeeding quarter of 1967."

AND WHEREAS, it being more expedient for the County's need for operating revenues that said fund no longer be so transferred, but instead to be allowed to become and remain part of the County's general fund for payment of operational expenditures.

IT IS HEREBY MOVED that the following resolution be adopted by the Board of Supervisors,

RESOLVED, that the foregoing resolution of January 9, 1967, by the Board of Supervisors be and is hereby rescinded, whereby the County Treasurer shall no further be authorized to so transfer monies to the Clinton County Public Improvement Fund as heretofore provided from the fees collected which are not assigned to other purposes, nor to further transfer for succeeding quarters of this year of 1967 such sums equal to twenty-five (.025) mills of the State Equalized Valuation of Clinton County.

Motion carried by a unanimous aye and nay vote of all members present. Supervisors Austin and Smith were absent.

A motion was made by Supervisor Nobis and supported by Supervisor Nelson, that the following resolution be adopted by this Board:

WHEREAS, it is hereby determined that it is necessary to borrow the sum of $200,000.00, in anticipation of the collection of the unpaid operating taxes for the current fiscal year ending December 31, 1967, which tax is first due and payable on December 1, 1967, for the purpose of obtaining funds to cover operating expenses of the County; and

WHEREAS, Act No. 202 of the Public Acts of 1943 authorizes the borrowing of money in anticipation of the collection of the unpaid operating taxes for the current fiscal year in an amount not to exceed fifty (50%) per centum of the operating taxes for the preceding fiscal year, when the taxes for the current fiscal year are not as yet due and payable, and

WHEREAS, there are no outstanding loans against the current fiscal years operating taxes,

WHEREAS, the amount included for operating in the tax budget for the preceding fiscal year ending December 31, 1966, was $639,420.00,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the said County of Clinton is hereby authorized to borrow for the purpose above stated the sum of $200,000.00, or such part thereof as the Municipal Finance Commission may authorize, and issue the notes of the County of Clinton, Michigan, therefore in anticipation of the collection of the operating taxes for the current fiscal year ending December 31, 1967; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors and the County Treasurer, for the said County of Clinton, Michigan, be and they are hereby authorized to jointly make application to the Municipal Finance Commission for and on behalf of the County of Clinton, Michigan, for an order permitting this County to borrow $200,000.00 and to issue its notes therefor as aforesaid, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that said notes bear interest at not to exceed four (4%) per centum per annum, be dated September 2, 1967 and be due and payable March 1, 1968, which is the estimated time of collection of a sufficient amount of the operating tax for the current fiscal year to pay the notes in full; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the notes shall not be subject to redemption prior to maturity; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors and the County Treasurer of the County of Clinton, Michigan, be and they are hereby authorized and directed to negotiate the best terms and conditions obtainable pertaining to the redemption of said notes prior to maturity, and they are hereby authorized and directed to jointly execute said notes for and in behalf of the County of Clinton, Michigan, and that upon execution of said notes, the same shall be delivered by the Treasurer of the County of Clinton, Michigan, who upon the receipt of the purchase price therefore, is hereby authorized and directed to deliver said notes to the purchaser thereof; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that hereafter and for so long as such notes remain unpaid in principal or interest thereon, from the first collections of the taxes for the current fiscal year there shall be set aside in a special fund that percentage of such collections which the tax levied for operating bears to the total tax levy, said fund to be used solely for the payment of the principal and of interest on such notes; and that until the amount so set aside shall be sufficient for such payment, collections from such taxes shall be used for no other purposes; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the said notes shall be paid in lawful money of the United States of America at such bank of trust company in the State of Michigan as shall be designated by the original purchaser. Motion carried by a unanimous aye and nay vote of all members present. Supervisors Austin and Smith were absent.

A motion was made by Supervisor Tiedt and supported by Supervisor Gove, that this Board adopt the following resolution:

Eastern Daylight Savings Time, on a date to be hereafter determined by the municipality, and that notice thereof be published in accordance with law in the Michigan Investor, a publication printed in the English language and circulated in the State of Michigan, which carries as a part of its regular service, notices of sale of Municipal bonds and notes, and in the Clinton County News of St. Johns, Michigan, a newspaper of general circulation in said Municipality, which notice shall be substantially in the following form:

The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the municipality. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of the purchaser's attorney approving the legality of notes, to be secured at the purchaser's expense. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. Notes will be delivered at a place to be agreed upon with the purchaser. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Tiedt appointment good for local C of C

The appointment of Lorenz Tiedt as secretary-manager of the St. Johns Chamber of Commerce is heartening news. Tiedt is well-known and respected in the St. Johns business world through his long tenure at the Wolverine Stockyards.

He retired from that firm in April this year, about the same time that Betty Minsky resigned as secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce. While the Chamber has certainly not ceased operation during the intervening three months, the effect of being without a permanent, promotion-minded secretary has been pronounced.

Mr Tiedt admits to being "green" at the type of work which a Chamber manager must do, but there is no doubt he'll catch on quickly and be instrumental in the Chamber's and the city's growth.

Sound of school bells
sound of national spirit

With the coming of August, the hottest days of summer are upon the land with this climax of the seasons will come the month of September—the time for millions of young people to return once again to tens of thousands of schoolrooms across the land.

In today's world, the sum total of man's knowledge is exploding upward at an accelerating pace. It takes many more years of schooling to become well trained in any field and further to become a well educated human being with the established, permanent desire and ability to continue the learning process throughout life.

The cost of education today is a major tax burden. With this in mind, many of the "older generation" sometimes voice the doubt that "all this schooling is really worth it." They wonder what kind of crop of young people we are raising. Protesters, sit-inners, rioters and school dropouts get a great deal of publicity, but they are a tiny proportion of our school population and would probably be in trouble wherever they were and whether they had any education or not.

The real promise of the future lies in the vast majority of hardworking young people who look forward to school days opening again this fall—not only for the social companionship, excitement and fun of activities, but also because they feel the stimulation of learning about their heritage and opportunities and exploring the vast fields of knowledge now being unfolded to man's mind.

Danger of big fire in St. Johns growing

Watching news films of firemen fighting the fires resulting from Detroit's riots last week reminds us that St. Johns has not had a major fire for several years. (We knock on wood even as we say that.)

Someday there will be, probably, but if and when there is a bad fire it won't be because of our fire department. A good head start by the fire and fire-feeding condition of some of our downtown buildings will be what make it a bad fire.

National Fire Prevention Week is still a couple of months away, but it is never too early to be observant about fire dangers. And with the black cloud of death hanging over urban renewal for St. Johns, fire danger will continue and increase day by day.

Fertile Soil

from the
HOPPER

By STEVEN HOPKO

BEAVERTON, ORE., TIMES: "While we believe that teachers and other public servants should not be excluded from participation in politics nor disqualified from holding public office, certain dangers should be recognized . . . Education represents at the state and local level more than two-thirds of cost of government to which the taxpayer contributes. The teacher in politics will be vulnerable to charges of conflict of interest and serving the economic welfare of his or her profession as well as the public interest. It goes without saying that legislators for example as attorneys, farmers and businessmen reflect their particular backgrounds. However, no group has the same stake in taxes as the teachers."

ARGO, ILL., NEWS: "While suburbs are tackling the question of open housing in terms of the color question, it should be pointed out that regardless of color, religion or race, it is the couple with a child or several children that find it more difficult to find an apartment or a rental place to live, regardless if they have money to pay. Next, it is more difficult for the single girl to find a rental room than it is for the bachelor."

The Clinton County Country Club annual best-ball tourney was held last Saturday. The "hopper" was one of those entered in the tourney.

My partner for the day was John Spicer, Village of Fowler councilman, pharmacist and all round (you could take this literally) jolly good fellow. (Would you believe five foot eight and 252 pounds?)

We were slated to tee off at around 7:50 Saturday (the morning, that is) which meant an early rise and shine hour. But, the hopper was equal to the early morning time to get out of bed (well, would you believe I only had to be called four times?) and dressed for the occasion, headed north of town to be there early enough to get in a little practice. (I needed it after the way I hashed the course Thursday.)

Due to unforeseen circumstances, I arrived at the club in time to get my gear together and head for the tee to begin the tourney. (In other words, I was late . . . almost.)

THE THEME FOR the day was set as I reached the first tee. I shook hands with my partner and he informed me that the tourney committee had set odds of eight to five that the two of us would never last the 27 holes.

We met the other half of our foursome for the day (and I'm sure that before the day was over they were wondering if they had come to the right place for a golf tourney). Gary Rayburn and Richard Norcutt were from Clare. Gary is the assistant superintendent of schools and Richard graduated from school in Clare last June and will be entering the University of Michigan this fall. The day was beautiful, an ideal day for golf, as we teed off and started our quest for the array of prizes available to those who could hit the ball in the holes with the least number of strokes. (From the way my partner and I finished you would have thought that we had misunderstood and thought they said the most strokes.)

The first nine we were steaming along, playing not bad, but not real good either. We were one over par at the end of six holes and thought that we had an excellent chance of finishing the nine with a respectable score. But we bogeyed seven, double bogeyed eight (someone had a nightmare, just before they placed the cup on eight green that morning), and bogeyed nine for a very unrespectable 41.

AS WE WAITED our turn between nines with a little refreshment, my partner informed me that we could do nothing more than get better the rest of the day. And, he was right. We had 40, 39 for our last 18 holes which gave us a tourney score of 120. This was only 18

with Rink

By LOWELL G. RINKER

Suddenly my family increased from one child to three.

The change came overnight but not wholly unexpectedly. My wife had driven over to Hart July 24 to deliver some work for me and she stopped in to see her sister near Hesperia. They had been talking about Ann bringing two of their children over to St. Johns for a few days this summer as a kind of vacation for the kids—and their parents.

"Guess who we have at home now?" Ann asked when she called me after getting home.

"BRUCE AND SONJA," I guessed, and she gave me a gold star for the correct answer.

Bruce and Sonja are typical all-American children—full of vim, vigor and questions, each with the vocal capacity of a cheerleader. Besides this there is the normal conflict that exists between a 4-year-old boy and a 3-year-old sister.

Combine these traits with "motherly" instincts of a 6-year-old girl who has always lived at our house, and the whole picture of last week is full of dust and smoke complete with a sound track from a World War II movie.

Thank goodness for warm, sunny afternoons and Kathy's swimming pool. This helped keep the situation livable if not exactly peaceful. Arguments seemed to never cease, but my own daughter was in on and the cause of many of them, so that's nothing different.

BRUCE AND SONJA live on a farm north of Hesperia in eastern Oceana County, so it was a storybook case of the country cousins visiting the city cousins. The first thing to be done was to establish ground rules about the streets and cars, etc., and the kids followed them pretty well after the first day. Our block is big, and it took a lot of watching for a couple of days before Ann felt free to let them outside by themselves.

The experience for my daughter has been good, but it has had mixed results.

"I get to babysit them," she proudly told me when I came home the first night. Her "babysitting" amounted to keeping an eye on them outside, combing Sonja's hair without help from Ann, giving Sonja a bath in the tub Thursday night and helping Sonja get her pajamas on at night and her play clothes in the morning.

SHE WAS PROUD as a peacock over these responsibilities, but we sometimes had to tone her down because of her normal bossy nature anyway. Most of the time she was considerate and helpful, but once in a while she would show that she, too, is still actually only a child.

The experience of having the two kids with us last week has been rewarding for Ann and I, too. We now have an idea what it is like to have a larger family, although we are sure that it would be smoother if the kids were all ours and had been with us for the four and three years of their lives.

We enjoyed having Kathy's cousins over for the week, and they seemed to enjoy it too. But everybody was happy when we took them home last weekend, and Ann even threw away her bottle of tranquilizers.

Ex-resident describes havoc of riot

Editor:

Being a former resident of the St. Johns area, I thought perhaps the folks back home would be interested in my personal observations of the havoc created by the "civil disturbance" within the City of Detroit.

It is now 10 p.m. Monday and less than two hours since I returned from the downtown area. The heart of the city is usually a beehive of activity at this hour, but is now practically deserted. All of the stores, night clubs, restaurants and other places of business were closed due to the curfew. The sidewalks were almost totally void of people except for the presence of national guardsmen with fixed bayonets standing on alert.

The street traffic was very sparse, with an occasional police car containing two Detroit police officers and two National Guardsmen with rifle barrels extending through the rear windows patrolling the streets.

downtown and traveling north on Woodward Avenue, the destruction was very apparent. Store windows were broken and there was evidence of looting everywhere. Occasionally there were smoldering ruins where buildings had stood only hours earlier.

I became quite apprehensive as we approached a group of some 40 to 60 Negroes milling sullenly on the east side of Woodward, but my fears were calmed when only two or three blocks further on we came upon a truck load of armed Guardsmen along with several patrol cars.

The area I have just described is about 12 to 14 blocks from the major riot area, where total square blocks have succumbed to the flames.

We left Woodward Avenue and traveled west via the Edsel Ford expressway. Dense clouds of smoke hung everywhere, and many large buildings had all their windows broken. The property damage estimate is already nearing $150,000,000 (as of July 24). This does not seem to have the connotations of a racial uprising (black vs white) but rather Million dollars in state salvage, surplus items sold each year

BY ELMER E. WHITE
Michigan Press Assn.

A million dollars or more of state salvage and surplus items are sold each year by the Purchasing Division, Michigan Department of Administration.

According to Director Philip H. Anderson, everything from asparagus to mattress hair has been sold to private consumers through the state's method of auction - bid selling. Sales of unwanted state merchandise are handled by Douglas Dodge.

In 1966, Dodge sold about $1.2 million worth of salvage and surplus equipment, including 1,500 vehicles and about 9,600 used tires.

Every agency in the state must follow an outlined procedure when disposing of unwanted or worn-out items.

ITEMS ARE LISTED on regulation forms and submitted to Dodge. A compiled list is then circulated to all state agencies and institutions. Items on the list needed by other agencies are simply transferred.

Merchandise not spoken for is then listed for public disposal. It is Dodge's responsibility to find buyers for the merchandise and get the best price. Some items merit personal trackdown of potential customers.

For example, Dodge recently "acquired" 100 acres of asparagus. Inmates at Southern Michigan Prison grew the vegetable for their own canning factory. But the cannery is going out of business, so the job of selling asparagus became Dodge's.

A call to the Department of Agriculture gave Dodge a list of commercial canneries. The product was quickly sold.

"That was an easy one," he said. A tougher problem currently facing him is disposition of "approach ramps" used when auto's were driven aboard the Straits of Mackinac ferry boats.

INVITATIONS TO BID are mailed to possible buyers on most items. Vehicles are sold at auction only to licensed dealers. Bids may be submitted either on specific items or on a collective basis.

If the item's value is so small it is not considered worthy of listing, an authorization for agency disposal may be issued.

The agency itself will then solicit three bids and sell to the highest bidder.

If the item cannot be sold, it is destroyed and then sold for scrap.

Vary few items are unsalable, Dodge maintains. Most scrap is obtained from highway department cleanup crews or from waste of institutional "factories" which manufacture metal products.

MANY UNUSUAL ITEMS are among the hundreds of thousands sold each year. Anything of value is listed for disposal. Bones and animal grease, by-products of state slaughtering, are sold to commercial processors. A team of horses, pastured at a state hospital, was recently sold. Airplanes from the Conservation and Highway Departments are put up for bids.

Fire-towers, snow-mobles, telephone lines, office machines and furniture, outboard motors and boats, chainsaws, farm equipment, marine equipment, industrial machines and tools, chemicals, and even small auto parts are included in the "Availability Circular of Surplus and Salvage Property" published by the department.

There is no set date for auctions and specific items are obtainable only on an "available now" basis. However, the department tries to notify people looking for specific items when those items are available for bids.

All items are sold on a "where is - as is" basis. Inquiries should be sent to the Purchasing Division, Department of Administration, Surplus and Salvage, Lewis Cass Building Lansing 48913.

MICHIGAN SLIPPED to seventh place among the 50 states in personal income. In April 1966 the state was sixth with total personal income at $2,197.1 million. By April of this year Michigan had only a 1.7 percent increase, to $2,233.7 million. The nation as a whole enjoyed a 6.5 percent gain.

Texas, which followed Michigan in 1966, moved ahead considerably with personal income in April 1967 of $2,465.7 million an increase of 13.8 percent in one year.

The six states, in order of highest personal income, are: California, New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Texas.

mass mob violence, looting and almost hysteria.

HUNDREDS HAVE BEEN left homeless by the fires. A point that should be stressed at this time is that most of these people are innocent victims of circumstances, as only a very small percentage of the total Negro population is responsible for the disturbance.

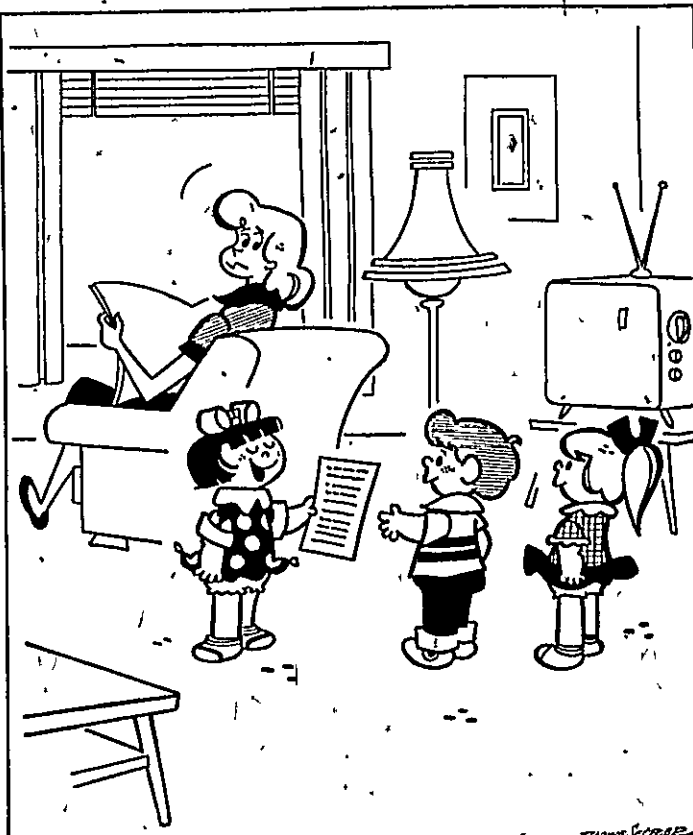

I am a mortician in a funeral home in the city of Dearborn, and the nature of my work requires that I travel into the above-mentioned areas quite frequently. (Several Detroit hospitals are located in the predominantly Negro slum areas.) It is difficult to realize that only two days ago one could freely pass through these areas that now are a virtual battleground.

As I write this letter from my home in Dearborn, there is a great feeling of tension everywhere. I hope and pray that by the time you read this the situation will be much more favorable.

The "Low Down"

From the Congressional Record
By Joe Crump

To probe misuse of x-ray machines

Senator E. L. Bartlett (Alaska)

... Ralph Nader today addressed the House and Senate Interns on a problem of great and growing urgency: the threat to man and his progeny posed by man-made environmental hazards. It is a speech which deserves wide circulation and demands close and thoughtful attention. I ask . . . that it be printed in the Record. (Excerpts from the speech follow):

Deficient x-ray machines and poorly trained operators are so prevalent throughout the states that a serious federal appraisal of the adequacy of state regulation is in order.

New York City probably had the most active inspection program in the country. In 1961, over 3,600 x-ray units in New York City were inspected and 92 percent were found defective. Many states either have no inspection or inspect machines infrequently.

PROFESSOR HANSON Blatz, director of the New York City Office of Radiation Control cites x-ray machines with inadequate lead shielding spraying daily doses on unknowing workers in other rooms of the building. Patients sitting in dental chairs are known to be exposed to radiation from eyeball to abdomen.

At Yale Medical School, an institution with above average standards, students take one short course in radiology which deals solely with reading of x-rays. The students themselves admit that they feel inadequately prepared to deal with problems of radiation safety.

With the recent exceptions of New York and Puerto Rico, NO state requires the licensing of x-ray machine operators pursuant to a proficiency examination.

DR GRANVILLE Larimore of the New York State Department of Health describes the situation in his state: "We knew that a large number of these other people taking x-rays were not really x-ray technicians. They were nurses, secretaries, receptionists, medical assistants, and others working in the offices of private physicians. . . For the most part their 'training' was limited to a few hours of instruction by a representative of the equipment manufacturers."

Any radiation exposure may cause some damage to the human body, either somatic or genetic. Exposure must be kept as low as possible.

What is being done about this situation at the federal level? Why has the Federal Radiation Council remained aloof from the greatest emitting source of man-made radiation in this country? What is the U. S. Public Health Service doing? Why have the American Medical Assn., the American Dental Assn., the American Hospital Assn. and the professional radiological organizations displayed so little concern with this problem? Why have the manufacturers of x-ray equipment not been more aggressive advocates for selling safety?

The most effective way to publicly air these questions and inform the public about the hazards in a sober manner is the congressional hearing. Fortunately, the years of waiting are at an end. There is a strong likelihood that both the House and the Senate will open hearings on the subject shortly.

A GRASSROOTS COMMENT

"We quote from an article by R. F. Brown, M. D., which appeared in a recent issue of RADIOLOGY magazine, published by The Radiological Society of North America.

"Nonradiologist physicians. . . own and operate or supervise the operation of approximately 75 per cent of the 100,000 x-ray machines used for medical diagnosis in the United States. . .

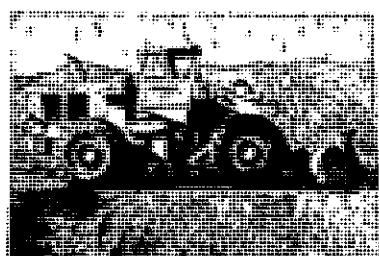

"It is in the public interest to advocate improvement in equipment, technique, and professional competence of all nonradiologist physician operators or supervisors of the operation of x-ray machines."

The congressional hearings should be very interesting.—J.C.

COUNTRY FLAVOR

Among the evergreens one is in a sanctuary

HAYDN PEARSON

Millions of years ago a vast evergreen forest circled the earth. As aeons passed and our planet passed through the Paleozoic, Mesozoic and into the modern or Cenozoic era, the evergreens in our nation became established along the Pacific Coast, across a southern belt and in the northeast. Experts tell us the age of conifers is drawing to a close.

The countryman is not competent to judge this point. But on a pleasant March day when he goes into the mixed stand of pines, hemlocks and spruces above the pasture, he knows that the music he hears is a melody that strikes a chord in the heart. He knows there is history in the music; he knows that when pioneers first came into the region to make homes in the wilderness that they used the soft, fragrant lumber for cabins and implements.

Evergreen music one hears as light breezes pass through the needles. Is soft and haunting; in such a breeze one hears the echoes of distant violins and flutes; in a strong rust the harmony is rich and pulsing, like the strains from cellos and bass violas.

Among the evergreens one is in a sanctuary. The air is fragrant and bracing. Tensions and frustrations of a man-regulated society seems far away. As one stands and listens to the music, he can catch an echo of life's deep meanings and a glimpse of nature's ordered way. It may be in terms of millennia that the evergreens are passing, but somehow when the countryman stands among the trees and listens to the music, he does not worry. Verities still govern our world and the music from the green needles is part of the lesson that man can absorb if he will.

At the end, my partner asked if I was tired from carrying 252 pounds all day. I informed him that carrying the 252 pounds wasn't too bad, but the spurs hurt a little and cut my legs. (Actually I scratched my legs from straddling a two foot scotch pine while I tried to hit my ball. You know this makes for an interesting shot).

THE TOURNEY was a great one, the course was in beautiful shape and even though John and I didn't play too well we're ready for the next one. John and I may not have shot the best golf of the day, but I doubt if many had as much fun as we did, and so went the battle of the little round, white ball.
