Bath twp denies mobile home permit

BATH TWP — Business opened Monday at the Bath Twp board meeting with the board concurring with the Planning Commission to deny the building of a Mobile Home Court by William Rysberg in Section 20 in Bath Township off Drumheller Road.

NEW POLICE OFFICER

Once the contract is signed, Bath Township will be receiving $10,734 from a Federal Grant to hire a 3rd full time police officer. The allocation of funds was approved by the County Board of Commissioners earlier Monday Richard Hawks, County Commissioner from Bath Township also reported that Bath Township could receive additional funds for a fourth full time officer if they wished.

PARK ORDINANCE ADOPTION

The new park ordinance was read for the second time and was adopted by the Board. An additional $3,400 was granted to the Coleman Rd Project to add more gravel to the road.

The insurance policy for firemen of Bath township was raised to $598.00, an increase by $62.00.

LOWER TAXES?

Supervisor Thomas "Woody" Woodruff suggested to the Board lowering the property millage 1/2 mill, from the present five mills to 4 1/2. Woodruff claimed that the Township would not lose any money by the move, since the 10% factor would make up for it. Daniel A. Carleton, trustee, moved that Clerk June Burnett write letters to the county and to the different school boards serving Bath township to do the same, pointing out that they wouldn't lose any money by the move. The motion passed unanimously.

THREE BAY POLE GARAGE

Daniel Carleton and Richard Bragdon, Trustees, were assigned by Supervisor Woodruff to look into the cost and a possible site for construction of a 30 by 45 foot three-bay pole garage for the storage of Parks and Recreation Equipment.

It was reported by Parks and Recreation Committee Chairman Jim Cronk that Ann Park near Park Lake would be ready by next spring.

The meeting adjourned at 11:00 pm.

Taylor defeats Ballenger

Cliff Taylor outpolled William Ballenger Tuesday night in the GOP race for nomination to the 6th US Congressional District.

Taylor took the election with 10,885 votes. Finishing third in the Republican voting was Bruce Barton.

Gaining the Democratic nod is Robert Carr who defeated Charles Larrowe.

Powell breezes to victory in 88th

Stanley Powell, republican, and Donald Stanton, democrat, won the 88th House District Primary in Clinton County Tuesday. Powell defeated his republican opponents, Roy Ebert and John Fox whereas Stanton defeated his democratic opponent Burton Stencil.

Powell, 76, who is an incumbent for the past twelve years, received 1901 votes. John Fox was first runner up with 914 votes and Ebert received 646. Powell is a resident of Ionia.

Stanton, 51, also a resident of Ionia, got 960 votes in Clinton County, 433 more than his opponent Stencil. Stencil received 507 votes.

In Gratiot County, Powell walked away with the Republican Primary with 224 votes with Fox getting 59 votes and Ebert 80.

Stanton outpolled Stencil in Gratiot 99-66. Ionia County results were not tabulated at press time.

Six votes defeat Commission chairman

Incumbent County Commissioner Derrill Shinabery lost the Primary election Tuesday to Charles Sils by six votes in District Number One. Shinabery is currently the chairman of the Board of Commissioners.

Westerdorff by 290 votes. The final count was Nobis-356, Westerdorff-66. Nobis will run against Democrat Silverman in the November election for William Hufnagel's old seat.

Incumbent Donald Gibson won over Robert Dittmer in District Number Five.

Allen, Warren win in 30th

Shinabery, who has served on the Board for the past 3 years, received 216 votes in District Number One, which is composed of Duplain and Greenbush Townships. Sils received 222 votes, six more than Shinabery.

Richard Allen was successful Tuesday night in his bid for the Republican nomination to the 30th Senate District.

He finished ahead of R. Douglas Trezise. Both have served in the State House of Representatives and Allen recently resigned as head of the Michigan Tourist Council to seek the Senate nomination. Coming in behind Allen and Trezise were Harmon Cropsey and Ed Groot.

On the Democratic side, Richard Warren easily won his bid for the nomination over Mabel Stolz.

Voters turn down DeWitt Twp recall

The proposal to recall Supervisor Dale Emerson, Clerk Donna B. Syverson and Trustees Jack Kzeski Jr. and Eileen Corr was defeated Tuesday by a convincing margin. In addition, Emerson defeated former DeWitt Township Police Chief Bruce Angell III.

The tally

Dale Emerson	615
Bruce Angell	365
All Recalls Failed
Dale Emerson	569 yes 832 no
Donna Syverson	576 yes 823 no
Eileen Korr	555 yes 826 no
Jack Kzeski	534 yes 836 no

The recall petition was instigated against Emerson after he (Emerson) had voted to discharge Bruce Angell III. Those supporting the recall claimed that Emerson not only discharged Angell without cause, but had also approved an adjustment in sewer rates in the township and failed to maintain proper communication lines with residents of the township along with failing to devote full time to his job as Supervisor. Emerson reputedly the charge, saying that he put in over 50 hours a week normally, made no change in sewer rates nor did he ever refuse to communicate with a citizen of the community. He voted to remove the Police Chief because Angell repeatedly broke the rules of proper conduct and had refused to cooperate with other departments within the township.

Recall petitions for Syverson, Kzeski and Corr were similar in charges and their reply, with the exception of the time factor mentioned above, were similar to Emersons. Syverson defeated Marjorie Dziubau for the position of clerk.

Treasurer resigns

Last Monday, the Clinton County Board of Commissioners received the resignation of Mrs. Velma Beaufore as County Treasurer, effective August 31. She is resigning because of ill health.

Mrs. Beaufore first began work as Deputy Treasurer in 1950 and in 1960, she became Treasurer, a post she has held for 14 years.

"She did an excellent job for the county in all the years she's been here," said Gerald Shepard, chief deputy treasurer who took the post last May after the death of Elnor Bell. "The job was her life. She'll be a hard person to replace in her capacity."

St Joseph's expands released time program to include high school

ST JOHNS - This fall, high school students in St Johns will have a new opportunity for growing in a special way. St Joseph Catholic Church is providing programs for religious instruction and growth during regular school hours. At the request of parents, students may be released from their school classes 2 hours per week, if they wish to participate in the new classes for religion at St Joseph School.

The director for this program, Leo Jacoby, says he doesn't feel that religion is something extra or that it should be reserved for Sundays. His viewpoint is, "religious faith must be mixed into everything we do, and change the ways we work and play. Since the daily lives of high school students centers at school, it is appropriate they include religion in their schedules, even though this means they sacrifice about ten percent of the class hours in some of their other courses."

Jacoby does try to include religion in his life day by day.

For 2 years he directed the religious education programs for over 2,000 families in his former home parish in Greensburg, Pa. He graduated from Boston College in 1971, with degrees in English and in philosophy, and has taught religion to high school students this past year.

Jacoby said it was easy to choose St Johns for a new home, when he recognized the strong support he and the new program will receive. The Education Board of St Joseph Parish has been planning this improvement almost 2 years. Since 1971, a similar released-time program has been successfully offered to students attending Rodney B. Wilson Junior High.

Members of the teaching team include: Jacoby; Sr Janet Chadderon, SSJ; Mrs Charles Chapko; Mrs Elaine Brockmyre, assisted by Fr William Hunker, pastor; and Fr Raymond Goehring.

They seek to share with youth three challenges: understanding the message of Christ, joining in the service of Christ to others and celebrating the community Jesus founded. "Basically," Jacoby said "it comes down to love."

Since these are common Christian goals, the St Joseph programs may interest other churches and their youth directors. Service projects, tours, retreats, worship services, social events and other activities are also planned to complement the academic religion courses.

For further information call or write: Leo Jacoby, director, St Joseph 7-12 Programs, 107 Linden Avenue, 224-7649.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile set up headquarters at the Congregational Church in St. Johns on Wednesday, July 31, to accept donations of blood from area residents. A total of 131 residents volunteered a unit of this precious quantity with 118 actual units being collected. Of these volunteers 117 were first time donors. A special

4-H youths and leaders travel to Belize

EAST LANSING -- Eleven 4-H members and leaders traveled to Belize (formerly the British Honduras), July 15-Aug 1, through the 4-H International Program to exchange their knowledge, ideas and time to further the Belize 4-H clubs and camps. This program, sponsored by the Michigan 4-H Programs and the Michigan Partners of the Americas, provides an opportunity for our youth to apply what they have learned in their counties, and helps them gain valuable experience from living in another country," says Margaret Foster, 4-H International Program leader at Michigan State University. When the 4-H members return from Belize, they put the information they gained to use in their own counties and talk with interested people and groups about the program. "The 4-H International Program has been working with the 4-H groups in Belize for five years," Miss Foster explains. "But this is only the third 4-H group from Michigan to travel to the country. Next year we hope to have some teenagers from Belize come to Michigan. Sister clubs have already been developed between cities in Belize and Michigan. "We would also like to establish a training program for Michigan 4-H agents in program-project areas, such as vegetable gardens and crafts, to help expand programs in Belize," Miss Foster says. The trip is financed by the Michigan 4-H program, the 4-H member's county and the 4-H member.

Walter Kyes students have busy summer

ST. JOHNS -- It's summer and school is out except for 17 retarded students attending the Walter Kyes Tranamable School in St. Johns, operated by the Clinton County Intermediate School District. For them, summer meant 5 weeks of new experiences. The students were divided into 2 groups. Primary and Intermediate. Bonita Mathies, Bonnie Heibeck and Terri Moore worked with the 7 children in the primary room, while Judy Peterson, Shirley Moore and Vicky Moore had charge of the 10 students in the intermediate room. The ages ranged from 4 years to 18 years. Parents, relatives, and friends volunteered their time to help each day in the different activities. Pewamo-Westphalia supplied the transportation for the field trips and Eileen Horn drove the bus. The program consisted of field trips, recreational pastimes, and craft and Home Ec classes. Underlying all of the activities was the basic objective to expose the children to community services and recreational pastimes. The goal was that each student would become familiar enough with the community activities to be able to participate with his family or friends in those activities. Many new experiences unfolded as the students toured the State Police Post, Fire Department, Bishop Airport, Gram's Valley Side Dairy, Ovid's MMPA, Fenner's Arboretum, and the MSU animal barns. The recreational portion of the program included swimming twice a week at the St. Johns pool, bowling once a week at Hedwing Lanes in St. Johns and miniature golf at the Ponderosa Sports Arena. Each week the students developed their skills in crafts, cooking, and gardening. As a finale, the children made sandwiches, home made ice cream and hot cherry pie as a farewell picnic for the summer. The cherries were picked by the students at Beck's Orchards.

We're waiting for you to call

The Clinton County News staff finds it impossible to attend meetings of all clubs and organizations that take place in busy and active Clinton County. And there are insufficient hours to chase the president or secretary of each group to get the stories that arise out of their meetings. Club secretaries are requested to drop us a card or give us a call at 224-2361 and fill us in on the highlights of their meetings and especially about special upcoming activities. If we could financially afford it, we'd employ enough reporters to follow you around and report what you do... and take your picture, too. But our bankers insist on our remaining solvent, paying our interest on time and occasionally making a payment on the principal.

The following is a synopsis of the Bath Charter Township Board's regular mid-monthly meeting of July 15, 1974.

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 pm by Supervisor Woodruff.

All Board members were present except Trustee Bragdon. County Commissioner Hawks was also present.

Minutes of the July 1, 1974 meeting were read by the Clerk and accepted as read.

Trustee Carleton reported on the Police and Fire Board meeting. The Fire Department wants to buy a new medical and rescue equipment for the inhalator truck, at a cost of $1,051.46 covering only necessities. They also want to change the fire phone system to the Plecron system. Wherein each fireman will have a radio. This system will be far more efficient than the current phone system. Two bids were received for this equipment one being for $4,821.60 and one for $5,165.00. Moved by Trustee Carleton that the Township Board approve the purchase of the E.M.T. equipment at the $1,051.46 and the switching to the Plecron system at the bid of $4,841.60. Seconded by Trustee Snider. Roll call 6 yes votes. Carried unanimously.

Trustee Carleton reported that a federal grant is obtainable through the County for the maximum amount of $10,000 plus benefits towards the salary of another new full time police patrolman. Jerry Hoard and Jack Mitchell of the Park Lake Improvement League were present to talk about the re-negotiation of the lease between the League and the Township. Discussion followed. They wished to meet with two Board members for further negotiations. Moved by Trustee Carleton to appoint Supervisor Woodruff and Clerk Burnett as the committee members. Seconded by Trustee Snider. Carried unanimously.

Supervisor Woodruff reported on the fact he accompanied the driver of the chloride truck to see the spots were chlorided that were necessary throughout the township. This same procedure is to be repeated on Wednesday of this week.

Relative to road construction and repair contracts have been signed except for the Coleman road rebuild job east of M-78 or Temp I-69. The first estimate was for $10,000 and now it is found to be underestimated. The cost should be $15,000.

Supervisor Woodruff to double check on actual starting point of construction as perhaps a portion that already has had work is being figured into this estimate.

Moved by Clerk Burnett to approve vouchers #955 through #989 for payment. Seconded by Trustee Carleton. Roll call vote 7 yes votes. Carried unanimously.

Trustee Snider moved meeting be adjourned. Seconded by Trustee Carleton. Meeting adjourned at 9:05 pm.

Respectfully submitted, June Burnett, Clerk

50th Harlow reunion

The Fulton Community Hall near Perrinton was the scene Sunday for the 50th annual reunion of the Harlow family. The first had been held at the Essex township farm home of Lloyd and Mina Young in 1925. Minutes of that first meeting were read and brought back many memories. A potluck dinner preceded the business meeting at which officers for the next two years were elected. A booklet of the history of the family had been printed for distribution and copies are available from the secretary, Mrs Merton Garlock of Lake Odessa. There were many souvenirs of the four pioneer families who came from England in the 1850s to settle in North Shade township of Grafton County before the county was organized. For many years, North Shade and Fulton townships were attached to Clinton county and sent their supervisors to St Johns until their own county was organized.

Mr and Mrs Earnest Barnes of Wacousta attended. Earnest is one of the surviving 16 grandchildren of the original family, nine of whom were present for the Sunday gathering.

St Johns, Ovid-Elsie bands attend MSU band camp

EAST LANSING - Twenty-nine high school bands from 26 Michigan cities and 2 from Clinton County will get a head start on the pigskin parade, sharpening their marching and musical skills in 4 weeklong band camps at Michigan State University during August.

Five bands practice the first week and eight each of the following three weeks under supervision of their own directors and with counsel from MSU Band Director Kenneth Bloomquist and Assistant Director Thad Hegerberg. MSU band members will work with drum majors, flag bearers and percussion sections.

More than 3,000 youngsters and chaperones are expected. They will live in MSU residence halls and practice on east campus fields. Attire, to accommodate August's heat and dust, is more apt to be cut-offs, tank tops and sneakers than uniforms.

Each Saturday morning, participant bands will present a public show on the Wilson Road field adjacent to the Veterinary Clinic. At this time MSU's band directors will prepare a critique for each director to take home for use in continued practice.

High schools participating in the four sessions include:
 Aug. 5-10 - Buchanan, John Glenn (Bay City), Ovid-Elsie, Rogers (Wyoming) and Swan Valley (Saginaw).
 Aug. 12-17 - Alma, Hastings, Hudsonville, Jenison, Lakewood (Lake Odessa), Lakeview (St. Clair Shores), Lee (Wyoming), North Muskegon, Portland and River Valley (Three Oaks).

MRS. NEVA KEYS
 Ph. 862-4301

Debbie and David Keys returned to their home in Cincinnati, Ohio after spending a 2 week vacation with their grandparents, Mr and Mrs Sidney J. Keys. They spent a few days with Mr and Mrs WH Keys in Cincinnati and also visited Mr and Mrs Byford Sanders near Pleasant Hill (formerly Shakertown), Kentucky. The older Keys spent 2 days sightseeing from Lexington and the famous Horse Farms, through Lincoln County, the palisades of the Kentucky River and winding highways up and down the mountain areas.

At Harrodsburg, the Keys toured the Pioneer Memorial State Park which contained a replica of Fort Harrod in the 1770's. Along with the stockade, blockhouses and cabins were the Mansion Museum, a monument to pioneer-explorer George Rogers Clark, and the Lincoln Marriage Temple which housed the cabin in which Abraham Lincoln's parents were married.

They saw many fields of tobacco, spacious old mansions, shrines, monuments and markers of Kentucky's fascinating history and also old cemeteries dating back to the Revolutionary and Civil Wars. There were scores of villages nestled along the roads built along the old Indian trails.

At one place they actually drove through a covered bridge built in 1867-68. It was 14 feet wide and 266 feet long and previously used by stagecoaches. It had been reinforced by steel.

They saw coal mines where strip mining (open pit) had been prevalent. They also followed the highways along the Daniel Boone National Forests in Eastern Kentucky.

They enjoyed a stay in Berea where they dined at Boone Tavern Hotel which is owned and operated by the students of Berea College. The college offers educational opportunities for young people from 230 mountain counties of 8 southern states. Here they saw the old mountain crafts of weaving, wood-working, metal work and furniture.

There was much road building, detours and small communities of mobile homes and house boats along the lakes and rivers. They crossed the Ohio River at Mayville to avoid the congested traffic at Cincinnati.

The following day, S.J. Keys and his son and daughter-in-law golfed at the unique Jack Nicklaus Golf Center at Mason, Ohio, northeast of Cincinnati where the Ohio King's Island Open (OKIO) official PGA Tournament will be played Sept. 16-22 with net proceeds of the tournament going to the Boy Scouts of America.

The Keys returned to Elsie by way of Indiana on Route 27 through Richmond, Ft Wayne and Angola

GI bill extended

Some 55,000 school-going veterans whose GI Bill eligibility was extended by two years under a law signed by the President on July 10 will receive education assistance checks by the end of July, the Veterans Administration reported today. The former eight year deadline on using school benefits expired June 30 for veterans separated from military service between Jan. 31, 1955 and July 1, 1966. VA explained. Those veterans who happened to be in summer school at the time the Public Law 93-337 was enacted can now be paid legally for training beyond the former expiration date of June 30.

Normally checks are delivered in advance of each month of training. VA explained, so the agency prepared in advance of the new bill's enactment to process payments for summer school students as soon as legal authority to make the payments was received.

VETERANS IN school who were discharged less than eight years ago continued to receive their monthly checks without interruption, and they will have continuing eligibility under the new law for up to 10 years after separation from service.

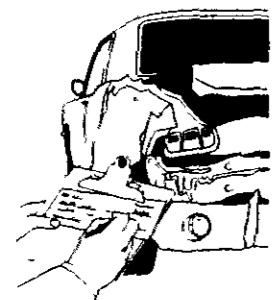

Eligibility had expired for some four million veterans discharged between January 31, 1955, and July 1, 1966. Of these some 55,000 were in summer schools and approximately 100,000 were taking correspondence courses. The extension of eligibility from 8 to 10 years also applies to eligible wives and widows of veterans who train under VA's dependents' educational assistance act and to veterans who take farm cooperative, light, apprentice and on-the-job training.

The law granting the two year extension was the second in recent weeks which eliminated deadlines for using GI Bill benefits. On May 31, the President signed PL 93-293 which provided 30-day extension to June 30 for veterans whose benefits were due to expire May 31.

SINGLE VETERANS going to school full-time under the GI Bill draw $20 monthly in educational assistance, but VA officials noted legislation is pending in Congress to increase allowances

Celebrates 92nd birthday

With a keen mind and a goal to reach 100, Mrs Fannie Hamilton, who resides at the Young Nursing Home in Maple Rapids celebrated her 92nd birthday last week.

A small woman, not much over 4-feet in height and weighing 68 lbs, she was born Aug 2, 1882, the daughter of Mr and Mrs William L. Harris. She attended school at the Muir District School, Number 6 and on Nov 26, 1898, she married William Hamilton of Ovid at the minister's home of the Methodist Church in Maple Rapids at the age of 16.

Mrs Hamilton and her husband were married for almost 34 years, having 4 daughters, Millie, Flossie, Sadie and Hazel. Flossie Johnson of Ithaca is the only one of the 4 daughters still alive.

Mrs Hamilton was a farmer, and as she put it, a natural one. At first, they rented farms then later took over the Harris homestead of 80 acres which he farmed until he died in 1932 of an ailment.

Mrs Hamilton couldn't remember what the ailment was, but said that he had all kinds not long before his death and just took sick and died.

Besides living in Michigan, Mrs Harris has traveled to Florida 9 times - back in the twenties and early thirties with her husband to pick oranges in Orlando. When asked about her trip, she smiles about it and recalls the bad, cobblestone and dirt roads along with fording rivers in an old Dodge.

Only once did she travel by train and that was the first time she and her husband went down to Florida in 1923. She said she was sick that year and had to go to Florida in a wheel chair.

After her husband's death, she continued to run the farm. As she got older, she cared for a garden and chopped wood for the stove up to about 2 years ago when she got a new stove. She came to Young Nursing Home in Maple Rapids a year and a half ago when she fell at night in her home.

Mrs Hamilton lives at the nursing home, operated by Mr and Mrs Fred and Johanna Young, with two other women.

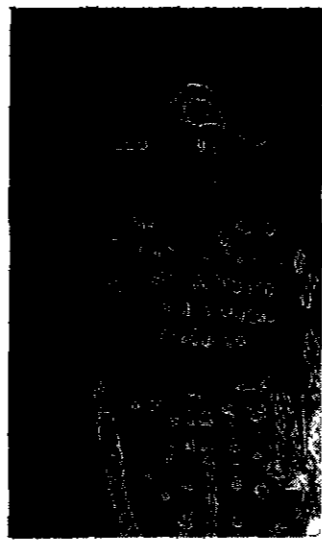

Mrs Alma Smith, 82, and Mrs Leena Jacobson, 89.

Young Nursing Home is located just northwest of Maple Rapids right near the Maple River on a 9-acre tract. Mrs Hamilton enjoys it there, spending her time crocheting or taking walks in the garden with the other women. Mrs Hamilton is talented at crocheting, her latest project being a doily with a clipper ship in the center. The doily is very detailed, the ship even included some of the rigging.

Mrs Hamilton has 4 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

For a woman of her age, Mrs Hamilton has a very keen mind. Her memory is sharp and she can tell you dates of events in a minute. She is becoming a little hard of hearing but is very observant.

Her goal for the future is to live to be 100. Her doctor says that she's very strong for her age and Mrs Young, the proprietor, feels that she'll have no trouble making it.

Book publishes Escher article

ST JOHNS - "Analog Science Fact Reader", a unique book containing factual, but futuristic articles about the implications of modern research and technology carries the views of local resident William J.D. Escher on his hydrogen-oxygen automobile concept.

This new book (St Martin's Press, New York) features a dozen views of imaginative developments which may well affect our future way of life by authorities working in different fields. Based on "Science Fact" articles published each month in the leading science fiction magazine, "Analog, Science Fiction - Science Fact", the editors selected Escher's work for the book out of a great number of pieces surveyed for this book.

"The Case for the Hydrogen-Oxygen Car" resulted from the research and consulting work Escher has carried out for clients in government and industry with his firm Escher Technology Associates located in St Johns. This concept embodies an automotive power system which has zero emissions and which does not depend on petroleum, in increasingly short supply. Instead, it looks to the day that solar or nuclear energy facilities separate water into its constituents, hydrogen and oxygen, for use in transportation and other applications.

The work of Escher Technology Associates covers the energy and environmental fields with emphasis on the utilization of solar energy and the ultimate development of a "Hydrogen Economy"

Consumers Council cites victory on women and credit law

A two-year project of the Michigan Consumers Council came to partial fruition this week when the Michigan Legislature gave approval to a bill banning discrimination in granting consumer credit to women.

It women and it can be expected that the law will bring about some changes in the practices of granting consumer credit to all qualified women applicants.

"We've done extensive research on the problems encountered by women consumers operating in today's credit society and feel a great sense of victory with the passage of this bill," James D. Hunsucker, Council Acting Director said.

The Consumers Council backed up the survey findings with four statewide hearings in February 1973. The hearings brought forth 47 people to testify including 28 speaking solely as consumers relating personal credit experiences. A report on the hearings and survey was published and submitted to the Legislature and Governor William Milliken in October 1973 with legislative recommendations to ban discriminatory practices.

"The Council extends congratulations to the Legislature on passing this bill, and at the same time we would urge them to attend to other pending consumer legislation within this session," he added.

THE NEW LAW, sponsored by Rep William Brodhead (D-Detroit) was given immediate effect by the Legislature Tuesday and sent to Milliken for his signature. Technically, the law amends the public accommodations provisions of the Michigan Penal Code to include prohibition of discrimination by credit granters on the basis of sex or marital status.

According to Hunsucker, who conducted the survey, "the attitudes of lending institutions varied but their cumulative mood indicated a great inequality facing women whether married, single, widowed or divorced. This new law is definitely going to change those attitudes."

Other consumer legislative action called for by Acting Director Hunsucker was passage of the Consumer Protection Act (HB 4001), creation of a mobile home commission to regulate mobile home manufacture, sale and parks (HB 5666), regulation of auto repair practices (HB 5047), regulation of collection agencies (SB 439), and the Home Purchase Protection Act (HB 4637).

Hunsucker noted that while the bill (HB 4639) concurred upon by the House Tuesday was slightly weakened by Senate amendments removing jail sentences for violators and the treble damages provision from the civil penalties section, "the effect is that the State of Michigan has gone on record in affirmation of the credit rights

"These are our priorities for the remainder of the 1974 session," Hunsucker said, "but by no means the full scope of necessary attention that must be given consumer issues by the Michigan Legislature."

Learn the fun of cake decorating

By Esther Smith
Prairie 4-H Club

Have you ever wanted to decorate a cake, cookies, salad or just wanted to "fancy-up" a dish to look special? Well you can do it quite easily. I'm glad 4-H has given me the opportunity to learn this very interesting and enjoyable craft. There is always something new to learn and try.

The big secret is practice once you get the fundamentals, and learn to control the pressure you use. Cake decorating is a great money maker for some people, and a fascinating and creative hobby for others. It gives you great satisfaction and pride to decorate a cake for someone or a special occasion and hear compliments of the finished product. Many think they could never do it, but I'm glad I tried it and found it to be so much fun.

When you start you have to have the proper equipment such as bags, tips, nails and most important the right frosting. There are many kinds you can use depending on what you want to do.

If you are going to make flowers or decorations ahead of time you will probably want to use Royal Icing. This is a smooth hard-drying frosting used only for this purpose or to cement or fasten icing, or sugar mold work together. It is not good to frost a cake with royal icing.

Another frosting you might use, for decorations only, is Color Flo. It is also a smooth and hard drying frosting. With this method you lay wax or parchment paper over a pattern or stencil, then pipe the outlines and let it set. You pipe the outlines again to build it up, then after it dries you fill in with the icing and it flows together to make a smooth design. It has to dry for at least 24 hours, and can be used preferably after 48 hours. It is very brittle when dry, but makes beautiful decorations.

You practice on a board or an inverted cake pan. The three essential steps to good decorating is 1. the icing has to be of proper consistency, 2. you must control the pressure you use, and 3. you must hold the decorating cone (bag of frosting) at the correct position or angle.

Before you ice the cake you groom it. This is done by brushing the sides and top of the layers to remove loose crumbs. If you have a dark or chocolate cake you should seal it with glaze, a thin coat of very thin icing. Next frost the cake and smooth or dress it. When you are done with that, it is time to decorate your cake. If you would like to see a big variety of beautiful cakes come and see the displays at the 4-H Fair, (the cakes will be in the Smith Hall.)

Working with leather

By Rex Ballantine Jr.
Bruch & Halter 4-H Club

Working with leather is a most enjoyable and rewarding hobby. Leather projects are as diversified as your imagination is limitless. Many of the projects can be bought in kit form from a well-established company dealing exclusively in supplies for the leather hobbyist. They range in size from things as small as key chains or coin purses to belts, billfolds, purses and even a full-sized saddle.

To get your start in leathercraft is quite simple and inexpensive. A complete starter kit may be purchased for under $15. This includes all the basic tools required, several pieces of leather and complete instructions.

Leather, being very soft and pliable, is very easy to curve and decorate. The first step is to moisten the leather either with water or a special solution which may be purchased. Next an outline of your design is traced onto the leather. The lines are then cut using a knife specially designed for that purpose. Now with the aid of a hammer and special metal tools which closely resemble a metal punch, the design is pounded into the leather. These tools are made in different designs, which in turn are used to form the pattern desired.

Having completed the tooling of the leather, you are now ready to apply a finish to the leather. You may select from a wide variety, anything from bright dyes of every color imaginable to a clear varnish-like finish. Now your project is complete. You can grab it up (after the finish has dried of course) and show it off to your family and friends.

Not only is leathercraft fun and easy, but the whole family can enjoy it and it can be profitable also, as there is a great demand for leather items. So why not try your hand at leathercraft soon. Please remember one thing - when you begin pounding on your first piece of leather, the object is to hit the little metal tool and not your thumb.

4-H beef cattle

LESLIE KUENZLI
STONEY CREEK 4-H CLUB

This year at the Clinton County 4-H Fair take a good look at the fat beef steers. They are just like the ones you buy at the grocery store.

Each year 4-H members, all over the nation buy, feed, lead, show and sell their beef animals. This is a never ending task which begins sometime between September and December when the steer calves are bought. At this time the calves weigh between 300 lbs and 550 lbs. In the past two years these steer calves have cost much more money for the members buying them.

About 2 weeks after the members get their animals home, they must begin leading them and getting the animals tame. Also, as soon as the animals get to the 4-H'ers home, they have to be fed and watered. Water is very important to the animals health. It is known as the cheapest form of food. This year grain is very expensive, but all the steers are fed on a heavy ration and also given as much as they want and can eat. An important thing about fattening steers is to always have grain in front of them.

During the summer months before the fair, the animals must be washed and finish their training. This is also the time when extra pounds are put on the animals.

Finally, in July and August the animals go to fairs all over the country. This is when the 4-H members get to show off their efforts. Judges decide which of all the animals at the fair is the best. Soon after the showing is finished, the animals are sold. Most fairs have a fat stock sale at the fair. Ours is one of these. Every year the 4-H kids hope that their will sell at a good enough price to compensate for the many dollars spent when the steer was bought and for the cost of grain.

But the project isn't finished at the sale, because now the members have to get prepared for next year's show.

Now that you know all the work that goes into these cattle, please help by supporting the fair and the sale. The sale will begin Aug 14 at 2:00 pm. These animals have a good meat as any you will find in the meat case at your supermarket and each time you have some of the meat you will think of the 4-H'er who put so much care into the animal.

Sheep for fun and profit

By Bev Howe
Eagles 4-H Club

With today's high beef prices, more and more emphasis is being placed on other meats. Lamb is one of those meats which is becoming more and more popular. However, it should not be thought of simply as a substitute for beef, since it has long been known as a delicacy. Gourmet restaurants are including it on their menus more than ever before.

But lamb is becoming more profitable not only for the meat packer and restaurant owner. It is also more profitable for the sheep raiser. Gradually, over the past year, the price per pound being paid for lambs and sheep at the stockyard has increased. This makes sheep a more rewarding project.

While taking sheep as a 4-H project, many great opportunities present themselves. There are county livestock meetings, where methods of caring for, selecting, and grooming your animals are shown. Also there are other programs for livestock members out at Michigan State University. These are in addition to the local club activities.

To prepare a market lamb for the 4-H Fair does take time and effort, though. The work begins in spring or early summer when a member selects lambs to raise for the project. From that time on, the lambs must be fed daily. Although the lambs would gain and fatten for market on pasture alone, if managed properly, it is not a common local practice because they fatten too slowly. Instead, they are fed pre-measured amounts of grain daily, to be sure they have a proper finish at fair time.

Later, about two months before the fair, the lambs are shorn. This serves to keep the lambs cooler during the hot summer months. As well as to lessen the amount of wool that must be trimmed from the lamb before the fair.

Then, at last, it is fair time to do a final hand trimming of the lambs, to intensify their training for the show, and to pack up and move them to the fair. This is what it has all been for, what has been awaited all summer. And even though when the lambs are shown they won't all receive first place, each member feels a certain pride in knowing that he will be admired for the work he has done.

Overall, in the end, there is a great feeling of accomplishment. There is the fair with all its excitement. Then there is the livestock sale, time to earn some money. And there is the experience and responsibility gained from the 4-H work.

Now doesn't the sheep project sound rewarding? I for one feel that it does.

Marimba's Origin

Music experts say that the Marimba is neither of American Indian nor of Spanish origin. Because it resembles the native African limba in tone and name the accepted theory is that a Negro slave from Africa made the first one, using gourds as sounding boxes.

A vegetable garden can be fun

By Mary Bergdolt
Willing Workers

In this ever changing world there is one thing that doesn't change and that is gardening. The same things must be done year after year. First plan the garden.

Decide what kinds of vegetables you are going to grow. There are many seed and catalogs to help. Next draw a plan, decide where each vegetable is going to go.

Second, plant your garden. This is the most fun. Make sure the rows are straight. Read directions from your packets carefully.

Third, take good care of your garden. Weed as often as possible. Keep the bugs off your plants by spraying them. Fertilize your garden and make sure the plants get enough water.

Fourth is harvesting. Harvest your vegetables when they are in top condition. Over ripe vegetables look bad and taste awful.

A good way to learn is to look at other gardens. Go on a tour of your club's gardens. It really helps.

Next is exhibiting vegetables at the fair. Make sure you have received a 4-H book that tells you how to show your vegetables. Know the varieties of each vegetable. It is also good to remember the month (almost the day) you planted. The judge might ask you questions, so be prepared.

A garden brings you pride by showing others what you can do with your hands.

Give blood
unto others.
As you would have them give unto you and yours.

Lepidoptera, Coleoptera, Hymenoptera and Diptera

BY D.J. MARTEN
NIMBLE FINGERS 4-H CLUB

Lepidoptera, Coleoptera, Hymenoptera and Diptera!

Does the title leave you wondering? Two years ago, before I entered 4-H entomology, I would have been. My first thought would have been, what are those crazy words? But today I know that each of these words stand for an order of the insect world. What is an order? Well, it's a classified group of insects that have certain basic structures in common. There are 16 of these groups, classifying various insects, but I have picked out only 4.

The first one lepidoptera, moths and butterflies, comes from Greek lepidos for scales and ptera for wings. It is because of the scaled wings that moths and butterflies are distinguished into this group from other insects. For they like other insects have 3 main body regions (head, thorax, and abdomen), 3 pairs of jointed legs, and 1 pair of antennae, which in lepidoptera are either knob like or feathery. Also most have 2 pairs of wings. Lepidoptera is the 2d largest order of insects.

Coleoptera, beetles of sizes small to large, live on land and in water. The forewings are modified to thickened covers. The hind wings are thin and fold under the front. Coleoptera have chewing mouth parts and short antennae

Sometimes considered as pests are the bees, wasps, ants, sawflies, ichneumans and chalcids which make up the hymenoptera order. Some physical characteristics that distinguish most members of this order are the familiar wasp waist, where 1 segment is pinched in. Most are of small to medium size which possess 2 pair of membranous wings, which is the Greek meaning. The hind wings are smaller than the forewings and interlock. The mouthparts are fitted for chewing and sucking. This is the 3d largest order.

Flies and their kin, 2-winged insects ranging from small to medium in size, with sucking mouth parts are in the diptera order. They usually have large eyes and small antennae. Mosquitoes and house flies are members of this group.

I hope that my report shows to you the educational side to entomology. For entomology isn't just the fun of catching and mounting bugs, but an educational experience of learning to identify orders.

"Care and feeding" of flowers

By Doug Thelen
Bengal Community 4-H Club

This past summer I have taken flower gardening and learned much from it. Knowing about raising flowers and arranging them can help you in later life because flowers are used in many ways.

After you have planted your flowers you must watch them carefully. If they need water, you should always water them early in the morning or in the evening. If you water during the hottest part of the day the sun will just dry up the water and it won't help the flowers at all.

When your flowers are blooming and you want to make an arrangement there are a few rules. To remember Always choose flowers that are not fully open so they will continue to open after they are picked. You should cut the flowers several hours before you want to use them and you should use a sharp knife or scissors. You should make a clean cut and be careful you don't mash the ends. You should cut the stems longer than you need them and strip off the lower leaves in the garden. This will help to fertilize the soil. When you want to harden the flower you should cut off the lower inch of the stem and place in hot water, around 110 degrees. Put the stem in almost to the flower head but don't let the petals touch the water. It will take from one to 10 hours for hardening depending on the flower. If you change the water every day and add a small amount of plant food your flowers will last longer. Be sure to wash your vases with soap and water after using.

Raising flowers is fun and I would advise everyone in 4-H or even those of you who are not to try. I'm sure you will enjoy it.

Let's talk rabbits

By Anne Rademacher
Bengal Community 4-H Club

Throughout Michigan there are many 4-H Clubs, and in these clubs there are many things you can learn about.

One of these is Rabbits. When you enroll in Rabbits, you have a rabbit to work with. You learn how to feed and care for your rabbit.

Caring for your rabbit can be easy to some people and hard to others.

Your rabbit should have a wire cage. The wire cage is recommended for your rabbits' health and cleanliness. You should check your rabbits' ears for "mites" - they are bugs that look like sores, which can spread.

To get rid of "mites", you should take a Q-tip, wet it with baby oil, and swab the ear. Make sure to get down in the ear.

There will be people at the fair to inspect your rabbit to make sure there aren't any diseases that will spread. If a disease of some sort is found, your rabbit will be disqualified.

Your rabbit can be a good pet, as long as you take good care of it.

Crafts popular at fair

By Debra Burnham
Bath All-Purpose 4-H Club

Paper, tole, macrame, quilting and ceramics are only a few of the many types of crafts found at the Clinton County 4-H Fair.

Decoupage, one of the oldest and easiest crafts, is a favorite among a great many people. For those who are not familiar with decoupage, decoupage is where coats of varnish, or any special decoupage product, are applied over and over a print applied to a plaque, a purse or almost anything. It is a sure thing for the beginner that provides fast and beautiful results.

Making jewelry is a favorite of almost everyone. Who knows what kind of necklaces can be fashioned from things around the house?

While wandering around the quonset at the fair grounds, you come across this and much more. There's always something that can tickle your fancy!

Give till it helps.

"Hooked" on crocheting

By Sue Mitchell
Prairie 4-H Club

Boys and girls everywhere - tired of using two needles! Have some free time! Or just looking for something fun to do! Well, here it is - 4-H Crocheting. That's right, crocheting.

Oh, do I hear someone saying, "What is Crocheting?" Well, then sit right down and lend an ear and I will tell you something about it.

Crocheting is about the same thing as knitting except you only use one hook and not two needles. You can get about the same effect as in knitting.

You say, "What would I learn?" Well, this is what I learned. My first year, we learned the basic things such as how to single and double crochet, increase and decrease, some shell stitches, and other easy stitches. We have to make a project just for fun and a major one for the fair.

In my second year we learned more difficult stitches. The girls in my club made things like baby outfits, sweaters, skirt outfits to take to the fair.

You ask, "Why do it for 4-H?" I'll tell you why, for fun, learning, making friends, earning awards, going on trips, and all around fun.

Do yourself a favor, join 4-H crocheting, I did.

Olive 4-H Projects
Euell Gibbons is not the only person who knows what is safe to eat from the wild. We 4-H'ers who are studying wildflowers have learned many things about nature.

Some of the edible uses of wildflowers are: - tea made from Mayweed or Beebalm; coffee made from roasted roots of chicory; salads from young dandelion greens or wild watercress; and the boiled roots of Spring Beauty and Queen Anne's Lace.

We have also learned that Indians found many uses for wildflowers. They were used for food, medicines and yes. They also thought some flowers had magical properties. For instance, they carried the tubers of the American Lotus to protect themselves from witches and they hung the Common St. Johnswort over their door to keep evil away.

There are modern day uses for wildflowers, too. An extract from the May-apple is now used by some cancer specialists for warts and other skin growths. An extract from the Pink Lady Slipper has been found to have an effect on high blood pressure.

Studying wildflowers help you appreciate the beauties of nature. We learn to identify some of the common wildflowers in our state. We learn more about them through the study of their structure, characteristics and habitat. Some flowers are very scarce in Michigan and therefore, they are against the law to pick. Some of the protected ones are Trillium, Trailing Arbutus and Lady Slippers. All wildflowers should be picked sparingly to preserve the beauty of our community.

The first-year wildflower student needs to find and identify at least twenty flowers. They make a poster showing the mounted pressed flowers from three different habitats and write a story about their project.

The second-year student must find at least 25 more flowers and mount them on the forms in their notebook. They need to draw a complete flower identifying its parts and write a story. In the third year of studying wildflowers we are required to dig up both flowers and roots and we learn how to identify them by the shape and construction of their leaves and flower heads.

In the fourth year you may choose your own project in connection with the study of wildflowers.

This year at the fair there will be a wildflower identification contest. This will be the second year the contest will be held. Anyone can participate. There will be cash prizes to the top five winners.

I have really enjoyed this project because it has given me a chance to pay more attention to the beautiful things of nature.

Studying wildflowers is an interesting worthwhile project for 4-H members of all ages. Walking through the woods, along the river or through the fields, you can discover many things about nature. One of the prettiest discoveries are all the beautiful wildflowers that you never noticed before.

Field Crops offer learning opportunities

Field crops is an excellent project for any 4-H member to take. It is a very interesting project and has many learning opportunities for any 4-H member interested in it.

Any 4-H member who lives on a farm should enroll in crops. I live on a farm and help my dad farm quite a few acres.

Each year I have at least one field of my own. I do all the work in that field and then exhibit a sample of it at the fair. In doing this, I learn a great deal about the crops and it works in very well with my farm work.

Field crops is also a project that works in very well with other projects.

Any 4-H member who is enrolled in horses, cows, or most any animal project, can tie crops in very well with it. They can grow the food for their animals and that would be their crops project.

With today's food shortage all across the world and the rising food prices, crops are getting to be a very much talked about subject.

DAN WASHBURN

I have gone many places and learned many things through my field crops project. I am very grateful to be in 4-H and am very glad I took the field crops project.

Learn about horses the 4-H way.

By Mary Boettger
More and more people are buying horses every year, and if you want to keep your horse in top condition, ride it properly, and show it to the best of its ability the 4-H program is just what you are looking for.

In a 4-H horse club you learn the proper way to care for your horse and also how to groom it and show your horse in the show ring.

Riding is probably the main reason people buy a horse, so why not learn to do it safely and to do it right? In 4-H you learn all this and more. Training the horse to respond when you ask it to do something is a very important part of the 4-H horse program, and whatever your taste, English or Western, 4-H takes all kinds.

Training a horse in 4-H takes a lot of time and a lot of work but its worth it to see your horse stand out and really be something in this world of horses. So, if you want to be proud of your horse and feel that you have really accomplished something, join a 4-H horse club. Its worth it!

Ceramics involve many skills

By Mary Schike
Willing Workers 4-H Club
The world of arts and crafts is really expanding in our country, state, and county. The art of Ceramics is especially an active part of our community for all ages.

Ceramics involves many skills. You need not even be very talented, just creative and original. A person may learn many things, too.

For instance, the 3 years that I have been in 4-H Ceramics I have learned how to pour molds, mix stains, and many other things.

The first thing that you must decide is do you want to do a glazed piece or a stained piece. Once that you have decided which one you want to do you may choose your piece of greenware. There are also many things that you must know about choosing greenware, too.

First, look to see that there are no chips or cracks in the greenware. Second, pick up a few pieces to see which one is the heaviest. The heaviest one is the best one to choose because it is most unlikely to break.

Now that you own the piece of greenware you must, first, clean it. Then depending on what type of piece you are going to do, glaze or stain, you fire it in a kiln. After it is fired you stain it with many multi-colored opaque stains.

The result is a finished, beautiful project of which anyone can be proud. Ceramics is a truly, artistic hobby and very worthwhile.

A PERSONAL LOOK AT THE NEWS

Between the lines

with Jim Edwards

Industry-- the unwelcome benefactor

The subject of bringing some types of industry to Clinton County came up at Monday's County Board of Commissioners meeting. What started the subject was the revelation that Clinton County might qualify for federal funds to establish an organization to attract industry.

The reason we might qualify is that our unemployment rate, along with Eaton and Ingham counties in the Tri-County region, is so high.

One commissioner, Dyle Henning, sarcastically commented (we're paraphrasing here) "Why bother--Clinton County isn't interested in industrial development anyway."

He wasn't serious about not wanting industry in the area, but he was pointing out his feeling the county hasn't seemed to be overwhelmingly responsive to new industry.

He argued that many residential, both single and multi-family, developments have been approved in the county, but there has not been sufficient commercial and industrial growth to help support the increased population.

We tend to agree with him. The snarl of red tape to acquire zoning, permits and etc is enough to discourage anybody, but that faces an industrial developer wherever he goes.

What is evident in the county is, that although many people may be in favor of industry to assume large shares of the tax rolls, the residents want it in somebody else's territory.

Regardless of the type of industry seeking approval, it's a good bet residents of the area will appear at the public meetings to protest the particular business in their area.

It is difficult to know if the vocal residents present actually constitute a majority of the citizens affected.

Commr Duane Chamberlain said maybe it is time the Board of Commissioners consider the welfare of the county as a whole rather than the voices of a few.

As painful as it may be, he is probably right. —JE

"If It Fitz . . ."

Don't pray for too much

Editor, Lapeer County Press

"By Jim Fitzgerald

A bunch of sincere people wearing sandwich boards recently spent 3 days on the US Capitol steps, praying for President Nixon. They call themselves the National Prayer and Fast Committee, which naturally reminds me of my old basketball team.

I was brought up to believe God answered all prayers. I didn't begin to have doubts until I went out for 8th grade basketball. The coach was a priest and the first thing he told us was to make the sign of the cross before shooting each free shot.

What about field goals? THE COACH explained about the 2-handed set shot, which was the only way to make field goals in those days. In the action of the game, a player had to keep both hands ready to shoot at all times. There simply wasn't time to make a decent sign of the cross which (for all you heathens) requires that the crosser touch his forehead, chest and both shoulders with his right hand while saying "In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost, Amen." This was pretty hard to do while dribbling.

However, it was different at the free throw line. A player had plenty of time for prayer before shooting. And the coach would tolerate no sloppiness. A kid had to pause plainly at all 4 stops - forehead, chest, left shoulder and right shoulder - and his lips had to be seen moving. If a kid made a careless circle instead of a cross, with no stops, he risked immediate benching.

The awful thing was, I made the slowest cross on the team, and my words were louder than cheers - but I still missed most of my free shots. God wasn't paying attention. My faith began to leak. I took my troubles to the coach. He explained God knows best. If my shots weren't going in, it was God's will and I should accept it. And when I prayed for God to put my ball through the hoop, I should always add, just before the Amen, "That is, if it is OK with You, God."

WHICH MADE my sign of the cross take even longer. And still the free throws wouldn't go in. God's will was against me. Finally I asked the coach for permission to kneel before shooting but he said no, it wouldn't be fair to the rest of the players for me to hog all of God's attention.

Toward the end of a miserable season, cynicism began to take hold. "Are you sure God really cares whether I make my free shots?" I asked the coach. He looked both ways before answering. "Don't tell the Bishop, but I'm not even sure God comes to all our games," he admitted. "If I were you, I'd quit asking God to make your free shots. There are more important things than scoring. You should ask Him to at least let you hit the backboard."

From that day on, my life with God was easier. I finally realized it was wrong and foolish to ask for too much. And that is the advice I would give to the National Prayer and Fast Committee.

THEY SHOULDN'T pray that God will smite the impeachers and enshrine Richard Nixon as our King forever. Rather, they should ask God to at least let Julie Nixon Eisenhower keep her job as an editor at the Ladies Home Journal.

WILLIAMSON "FIVE-IN-ONE" GAS-FIRED

The Williamson FIVE IN ONE gas fired Total Comfort System is designed for easy handling during installation and readily accessible service of the individual components, when necessary. The split half cabinet construction permits assembly, variation for easier installation in those instances where space conditions are a problem.

The new Williamson solid state modulating gas system is designed to proportion the flow of gas to the burner according to the demand for heat in mid weather. The thermostat operates the burner on the conventional on-off manner except it operates at low flame rather than full on-off cycles. As the outdoor temperature drops and the need for heat increases, the burner stays on full on-off at minimum flame. Then gradually increasing the flame size according to the thermostat demand. The heat output is continuously and uniformly matched to meet all requirements, instead of cycling full-on and full-off as with conventional systems. The solid state system offers the added advantage of a highly responsive thermostat sensing element during both the heating and cooling seasons allowing temperature settings in increments of one degree or less. The result is uniform room heating and cooling temperatures no more full on full off blasts.

HOW DOES THE WILLIAMSON "FIVE-IN-ONE" ACHIEVE TOTAL COMFORT?

The Williamson "FIVE-IN-ONE" is a completely self-contained piece of equipment. Inside its attractively styled casing you have a gas burner and heat exchanger, a humidifier, a combination central cooling coil and dehumidifying unit, an electronic air cleaner and a blower. Outside the home you have a compact condensing unit that discharges the heat from the circulating refrigerant.

"Challenge" in 4-H

By Susan Woodhams
4-H Wonders 4-H Club

If you were lost in a gigantic forest and no one would be searching for you, for two weeks, how would you survive?

Let's say you have an axe, knife, metal match and a blanket. That's all! How would you make a tent? Keep the moisture out? Start a fire with wet wood? What would you eat? Could you make snares or go fishing with only these meager supplies?

This would be a real challenge, wouldn't it? How would you go about repelling down a 30 ft., 90° drop? "Challenge" is a new project this year in Clinton County. We have learned how to solve all the problems.

We have eaten cattail stems, burdock roots, and we made fishing line from an old pack. We learned different knots to use in repelling; first aid, when you are in the woods.

Our club is planning to take a 5 mile hike to a lake and camp out for 3 days with just a blanket. Boy, will the kids be praying that it doesn't rain.

We learned about Water Safety too. Our club learned what kind of life preservers to wear, & how to get to shore in a canoe after it was tipped and filled full with water.

Are you interested in Wilderness Survival? It's not just camping and party time, it's serious work and some day it might save your life.

Learning from a dairy cow

By Jeanne Striz
Scattered Southeast 4-H Club

Would you believe a dairy cow could help me get along better in this complex world. Well, Golden Knob K.L. Lucky Georgia is that cow for me.

By having my dairy cow to care for, I have learned how to care for other people. Showing Georgia in 4-H has taught me how to win and lose and in life there will be times I'll have to know how to do both.

From being involved in showing, I have met many new people in both the 4-H and dairy fields. To me the most important thing Georgia has taught me is how to love animals. Every morning I look forward to going out and seeing her.

Georgia and my other cows are my whole summer. Without them, I don't think I would have as much knowledge of what this world holds ahead for me.

GUN SAFETY CONTEST
The 4-H Safety Contest was held Saturday at the Thorny Acres Conservation Club near Elsie. Each member was required to shoot a total of 30 shots (10 prone, 10 kneeling and 10 standing) from a distance of 50 feet. The top 3 winners in the Senior Division were: 1st: Greg Hazle - Bengal Community; 2nd: Jerry Price - Olive 4-H Projects and 3rd: Brian Hazle - Bengal Community. In the Junior Division: 1st place: Mark Heibek - Stoney Creek; 2nd: Tim Phillips and 3rd: James Ruby - 4-H Wonders. All six members will be eligible to

Working with foods

By Joan Witt
Willing Workers 4-H Club

Foods, all people live on them. Everyone must eat them whether it is steak or a bologna sandwich, whether it is brownies or a banana cream pie whether it is lobster or goulash; we all must eat something.

So learning how to prepare foods is important and essential. That is where 4-H comes in. It starts girls or boys out and teaches them how to make that bologna sandwich and that batch of brownies and teaches them the importance of nutrition.

It even teaches them that they can freeze their cookies and 16 tablespoons is the same as one cup.

Through the years they learn to make steaks, pies, lobster and plan all kinds of meals.

They have learned how to cook, and more.

When you get 5 or more cooks together, you are going to learn many new ways to save you time, energy and money.

For example, to separate ground beef while browning for chili or spaghetti use your potato smasher, it's lot quicker.

When you are having company at the last minute, use the refrigerator doughnut dough, cut into doughnuts, and fry them in deep fat. They are good and it only takes a few minutes.

If you find marshmallow cream hard to slip off a spoon, put the spoon in hot water and let it remain there for a few seconds, and no sticking.

As you can see there is much to learn, but if you meet new people, exchange ideas, and do things; you will learn much and that is what 4-H is all about.

Sunrise Fresh Produce

Welcome to the widest array of luscious fruits and dewey fresh garden vegetables in the entire market-area. Our fruits and vegetables are carefully selected from the "lush" growing fields of California, Florida, Hawaii, Texas, and throughout the Mid-West, then rushed to our Kroger Store.

With our new and expanded departments, we offer greater variety on a wider selection of non-food needs - from party hats and streamers to a wide variety of gift wrapping and greeting cards.
