St. Johns graders do well on test

Elementary reading abilities acclaimed

Elementary pupils in grades three through six in the St. Johns Public Schools system are faring better at reading than most of their counter-parts across the nation.

The results of a standardized reading test given to 997 district pupils in those grades last March and April were computed by the school district this summer in order to compare the district nationally.

School officials liked what they saw. Ironically, the only areas where the St. Johns district fell behind the national norm in reading comprehension and vocabulary was in the percentage of "superior" readers.

GENERALLY SPEAKING, St. Johns as a district had a lower percentage of poor and below-average readers than the national norm and a higher percentage of average and above-average readers.

This reflects St. Johns' reading program emphasis on the students who are having trouble comprehending what they read. There is currently not much offered at the elementary level for accelerated reading, other than what individual teachers may prescribe for individual students.

School officials acknowledged that the test results point out an apparent need for more work with the above-average and superior readers. Meanwhile, the emphasis on helping the poor, below-average and average pupils seems to have been a big factor in the St. Johns district's excellent ranking in those areas.

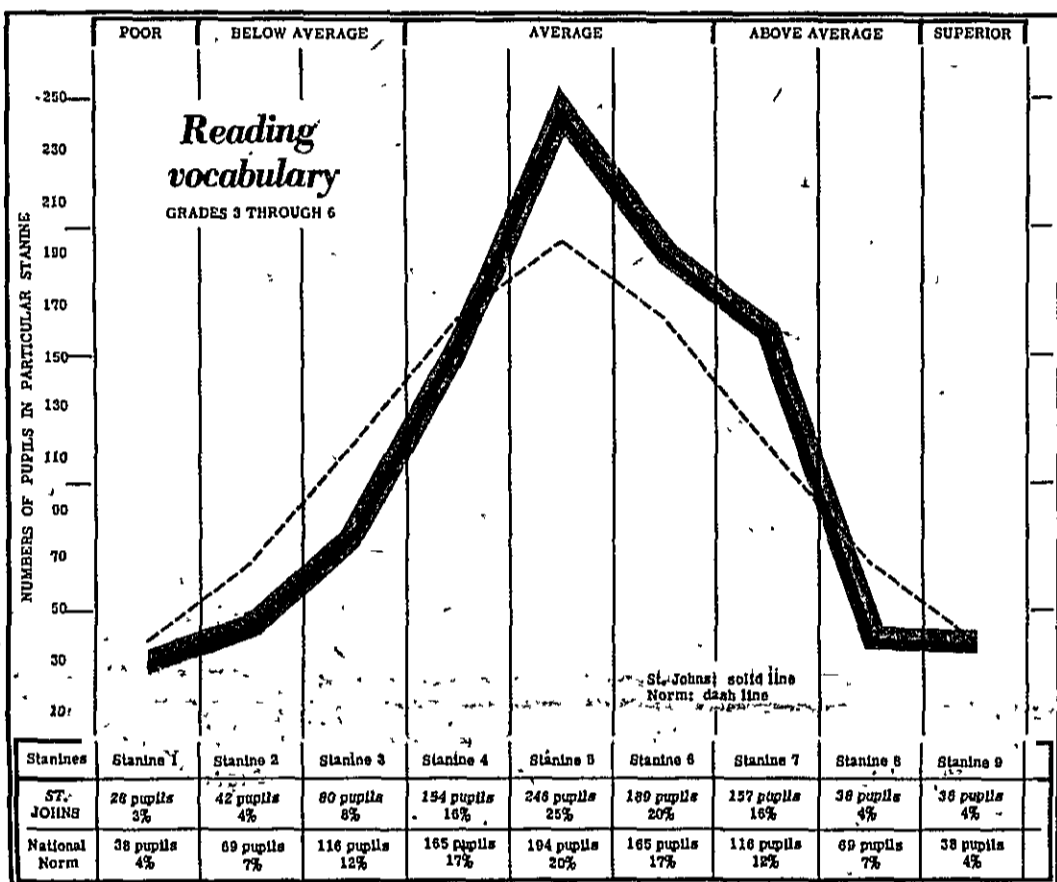

THE TESTS TO DETERMINE the effectiveness of reading programs and individual reading abilities were given last March and April by three district teachers who specialize in reading problems—Mrs Maynard Beck, Mrs Dale Knight and Mrs Earl Haas.

The specialized teachers used only the reading portion of the Iowa Tests of Basic Skills, a standardized testing form, and gave the timed test to all students in the district's rural and city schools in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

The reading test was aimed at measuring vocabulary and comprehension of the young readers. Through the test the teachers were able to get a clearer picture of the reading abilities of individual students which the students' classroom teachers will be able to utilize.

THE TEST RESULTS ALSO indicated which (See ELEMENTARY READING, Page 2-A)

School contract for teachers tentatively OK'd

Negotiating teams for the St. Johns Education Assn. and the St. Johns Board of Education reached tentative agreement Tuesday afternoon on a new contract for the coming school year.

No details of the agreement were available.

The tentative contract is still subject to ratification by both the school board and the membership of the St. Johns Education Assn.

Bill Swears, who has headed the teachers' negotiation team, said a meeting of all teachers has been called for 8 p.m. this Sunday evening in the auditorium of the high school to discuss ratification.

No date has been set for the school board to meet.

THE TENTATIVE agreement came about 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, 11 hours after an all-night negotiation session between the teacher team of Swears, Gordon Vandemark and Doug Japanga and the entire school board broke up. The Monday night negotiations, which lasted from 8 p.m. to 4:30 a.m. Tuesday, were conducted in the presence of Ed Connors of the State Labor Mediation Board. Connors first met with the two groups together and then separately as he tried to work out an agreement.

The teachers group made one new proposal during the long night, and the school board made a counter-proposal, but by 4:30 a.m. the whole situation took on a sleepless haze, and the session was recessed. Tentative plans were to have Swears and Supt. of Schools Earl Lancaster define the exact differences between the school board's and the teachers' stands in preparation for another meeting Wednesday night without the labor mediator.

The Wednesday night meeting has now been cancelled.

AFTER SWEARS and Lancaster met Tuesday morning to define the differences, both negotiating teams got together and reached the tentative agreement.

If ratified by both groups, the new contract will bring to an end several months of negotiations between the teacher team and the school board's negotiating team of Lancaster, high school Principal B. Stanley Poulos and board Secretary Fred Meyer.

Cancer drive sails 36% beyond goal

Clinton County's 1967 Cancer Crusade went way "over the top" in monetary donations, according to the final report this week from Mrs Albert Frucht, Clinton County chairman of volunteer activities.

Clinton County residents donated a total of $12,399.11, or 136 per cent of the Cancer Society's quota of $9,125.55 for the year. The donation amounted to 24 cents per person on the 1960 census.

"Due to excellent cooperation of our newspapers, radio station and television programs, the volunteer workers of the American Cancer Society — 44 chairmen and 500 workers in the Clinton County unit—have done a magnificent job of education and fund raising," Mrs Frucht said.

As a result, she said, A.C.S. has come to mean an "all-concerned society" as well as "American Cancer Society."

HERE ARE THE amounts donated from the various areas of the county, along with the names of the chairmen in those areas:

St. Johns: Total, $2,528.92. Chairmen, Mrs Harlan Dershem $213.69; Mrs Franklin W. Smith $210.15; Mrs Arthur LaBar $135.40; Miss Carmen Tranchell $211.49; Mrs William Dohoney $125.25; Mrs Dale Finch $176; Mrs Don Britten $339.29; Mrs John Paradise $137.60; Mrs Richard Butler $287.25; Mrs Gordon Iacovoni $45; Mrs Velma Beaufore $21; Mrs Lester Lake $100; Mrs Raymond Eisler $87.30; Mrs Anton Peterson $118; Mrs Alfred Barnes $176.50; and Dr Franklin W. Smith $145.

P-W votes Monday on millage

PEWAMO - WESTPHALIA — Voters in the Pewamo-Westphalia School District will go to the polls this Monday, Aug. 28, to vote on a three-mill tax increase for one year for school operational purposes.

The special millage election will be held at the high school building between 7 a.m. and 8 p.m.

This year's school operational costs in the district will be increased nearly $42,000 over the 1966-67 budget, Supt. William Stelneke said. The small improvement in state aid for this fiscal year will only offset the cut in allocated millage and the loss in personal property tax monies in the district.

Nearly every school district in the state has been forced to increase their operational millage to keep up with the rising cost of education, according to Stelneke.

The board of education set the same three-mill request as was rejected by the voters at the annual election in June. The issue was turned down then by a vote of 218 to 187, and the Pewamo-Westphalia district was the only area, school which had a millage issue defeated at that time.

The board was unanimous in its decision to resubmit the millage issue at the special election in anticipation of a favorable vote in order to continue the current services and educational program.

4-H Fair termed the best yet

Clinton County's history-making 4-H Fair wound up last Wednesday, and the consensus among the Extension Service people and 4-H Club leaders was that it was probably the best fair ever.

Attendance for the three days was estimated at about 10,000 persons. Brenda Fiegler, daughter of Mr and Mrs Earl Fiegler Sr. of 7422 W. Church Road, St. Johns, and James Nichols, son of Mr and Mrs Mahlon Nichols of 5408 Chadwick Road, DeWitt, were chosen as the top girl and boy member among the 4-H exhibitors at the 1967 fair. They each received a $25 savings bond from radio station WRBj and fair sponsors.

The fair's livestock and float parade in front of the bandshell Wednesday night drew a big crowd. There were 16 floats, and judges picked the one by the Nimble Fingers 4-H Club as the best, with Jolly Green Giants second and Parker's Workers third. Brian Theisen of Fowler won a calf given by the Clinton County Holstein Breeders' Assn., and he'll raise it during the next year for exhibition at the 1968 Clinton County 4-H Fair.

The 4-H horse show, divided into two days this year, went smoothly, and helped account for the large crowds Monday and Tuesday. Good weather, without rain, was another factor in the attendance.

Also termed a big success on its initial run was the 4-H Fair livestock sale, held Wednesday afternoon at the Wolverine Stockyards. John Aylsworth, 4-H youth agent, said 4-H leaders are already talking about the livestock sale for next year, and their goal is to completely fill the beef barn at the fairgrounds with beef cattle at the 1968 fair. Youngsters interested in raising beef cattle for showing next year should purchase 450 to 500-pound animals by this November or December.

students might benefit from the summer reading program which the school district conducted this year under the direction of Mrs Beck. One hundred one students made an average gain of 7 per cent in vocabulary and comprehension abilities. Absenteeism during the program was extremely low.

The test results across the district were reproduced graphically by dividing the scores into stanine, a simple nine-point scale of normalized standard scores. Scores are expressed along a scale ranging from 1 (low) to 9 (high), with the value of 5 always representing an average performance for pupils in the reference, or norm, group.

Tests scores are converted to stanines by means of a table.

TWO SUCH STANINE GRAPHS were prepared, one comparing reading comprehension and the other comparing vocabulary of the St. Johns district students and the norm, or national sample. St. Johns compared favorably on both.

A particularly useful feature of stanines is that they are equally spaced steps in a scale—that is, a stanine 6 is as much better than stanine 5 as stanine 5 is better than 4.

Therefore, pupils' achievement in various areas as expressed in stanine terms is supposedly accurate portrayal of relative strengths and weaknesses.

Stanines almost automatically indicate a pupil's standing in a subject in comparison with other pupils of similar grade placement. Pupils who took tests last spring, as well as their parents, have been notified of their individual stanine ranking. In some cases, additional individual tests have been given to verify the group-reading test.

Norms are determined by the scores made by a national sample of pupils tested. On the stanine scale, the norm group will have the following percentage of cases at each stanine level: stanine 1, 4 per cent; stanine 2, 7 per cent; stanine 3, 12 per cent; stanine 4, 17 per cent; stanine 5, 20 per cent; stanine 6, 17 per cent; stanine 7, 12 per cent; stanine 8, 7 per cent; and stanine 9, 4 per cent.

The total expense of the testing program carried out by Mrs Beck, Mrs Knight and Mrs Haas has been paid for through Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, at no direct cost to the school district taxpayers.

Light agenda, short meeting (this time) for city commission

A light agenda doesn't usually have much significance when it comes to the length of St. Johns City Commission meetings.

When there's not too much scheduled for action, commissioners usually take lots of time to hash over everything that does make the agenda. The result is that meetings are about as long, if not longer, than those with a long agenda.

Last Tuesday night was different, however. The agenda was light again, with only a couple of letters that didn't require action, discussion of some suggested personnel rules, a petition for sanitary sewer on Sikes Street, and the resignation of Ed Sulka from two city boards requiring the attention of commissioners.

Automatic controls from the plant to the wells. About $400 worth of initial parts have been ordered, but Greer said replacement of those parts may well indicate further damage to other components. He said there was no way of telling yet what the final cost of repair would be.

Meanwhile up at the North Pole . . .

Santa Claus, who's been basking in the midnight sun, is getting the word this week about one youngster's hopes and aspirations for this Christmas.

"What, already?" Santa exclaimed when the letter from St. Johns was delivered last week, but then he gave out with a "ho, ho, ho" that hinted that maybe he's ready to get back to work on this year's Christmas toy lists.

The letter, scrawled on the back of a previously-used typewritten sheet and inserted in an envelope made of two sheets of paper stapled together, had this message:

"Dear Santa: Do you remember when I wrote you the other letter. I wrote I wanted a John Deere tractor. Well, I want it to have back wheels like my tractor front ones do."

The early bird is little Ed Thelen of R-3, St. Johns.

P-W OKs record budget

PEWAMO - WESTPHALIA — An operating budget of $335,663 for the 1967-68 school year was approved by the board of education for the Pewamo-Westphalia Schools at the public hearing of the budget last week. This represents a 14 per cent increase over the 1966-67 budget.

Teaching contracts were approved for Miss Paula Reiner and Miss Geraldine DeFrenn. A request from the Orleans School District to send tuition students to the P-W High School was denied.

His trip was sponsored by the Lansing Production Credit Assn. and the Michigan Association of Farmer Cooperatives. Brook has been active in dairy, vegetable garden, entomology and crops 4-H projects.

The institute gave representatives of 15 national youth organizations an opportunity to gain additional facts about cooperatives and what they can mean to their future.

*A PETITION for sanitary sewer on Sikes Street between Lansing and Church streets on the south side of town was received by the commission. City Manager Greer was directed to prepare recommendations concerning the project. The petition came from Andrew Kuhnmuench.

*Greer told the commission it will probably be several months yet before the automatic control of water, wells, 1, 5 and 6 can be returned to the water treatment plant. Mrs Fruchtl reminded residents that the program of the American Cancer Society is three-fold: service to the victims of cancer; research to find a cure and improved treatment techniques; and education of the public to the seven warning signals of cancer.

THOSE WARNING signals are: 1) any sore that does not heal; 2) a lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; 3) unusual bleeding or discharge; 4) any change in a wart or mole; 5) persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; 6) persistent hoarseness or cough; and 7) any change in normal bowel habits.

If any of the warning signals lasts for more than two weeks, the American Cancer Society recommends seeing your doctor immediately.

Persons desiring more information about the cancer society program should contact their local chairman or call the Clinton County unit office at 800 W. Higham Street in St. Johns.

Plan beef cattle mechanization day

A "Beef Mechanization Day" to show how one successful Michigan beef cattle feeder turned labor problems into profits has been set for Wednesday, Sept. 6 at the Lyle Cunningham farm north of Concord in Jackson County.

labor efficiency by Michigan State University's Tel Farm record program for several years. His average gross income per man has been around $30,000—double the state average for farmers.

AT THE "BEEF Mechanization Day," Cunningham, MSU Extension agricultural engineers, beef cattlemen and farm management agents will team with Jackson County agricultural agents to show how the farm has expanded from a 101-head operation in 1959 to a covered feedlot which will hold 1,200 head at one time. By feeding cattle of different ages, Cunningham will feed out between 1,500 and 1,800 head in the first year in his new layout.

Saginaw drivers have problems in local traffic

Two Saginaw drivers passing through St. Johns last Thursday and Saturday erred in their driving habits, were in auto accidents, and got traffic tickets as a result.

Last Thursday afternoon Robert B. Grindahl, 36, of Saginaw was ticketed for disobeying a traffic signal at M-21 and US-27. Grindahl allegedly went through a red light from the south, striking a car driven by Denise Marie O'Leary, 19, of 902 S. Scott Road, who was making a left turn to go east on M-21.

Miss O'Leary suffered cuts and bruises in the accident. Her car was pushed by the impact into the Standard gas station on the northeast corner of the intersection, where it struck an auto driven by Adam Gursay, 19, of Grand Haven.

Saturday evening about 7:10 p.m., cars driven by Ernest R. Erskine, 20, of Saginaw, and Mary E. Ebert of 602 S. Kibbee, St. Johns, collided at Mead and Cass streets, Erskine, who was traveling north on Mead, was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way to the west-bound Ebert car.

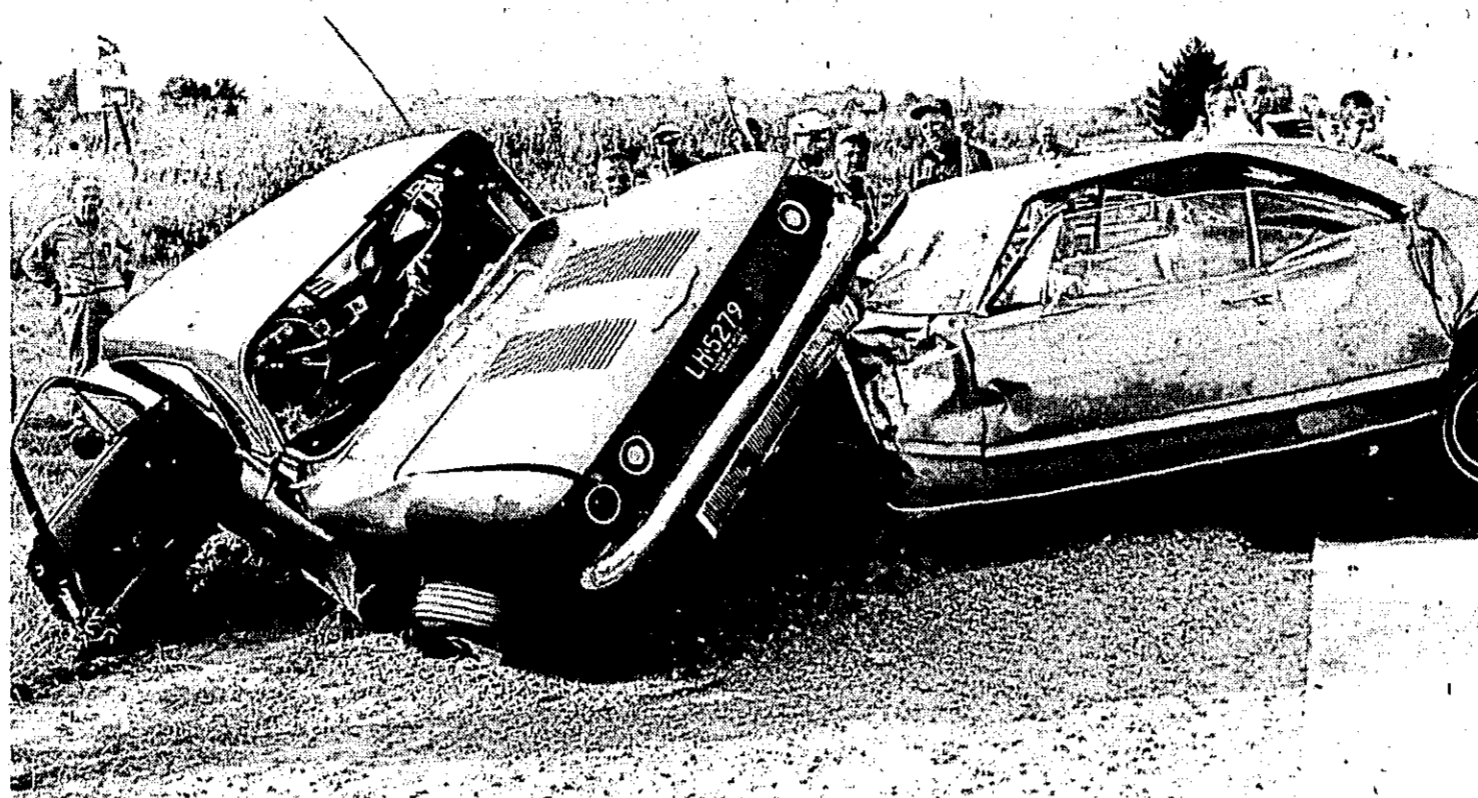

At the field day, sponsored by MSU's Cooperative Extension Service, visitors will also see high moisture corn stored in an upright silo. But the corn silage goes into a giant 90 x 240 x 16-foot trench silo with a capacity of more than 7,000 tons. That's the normal silage output from more than 500 acres of corn.

Many companies are exhibiting and demonstrating silage making equipment, forage wagons, feed bunks and other beef cattle feedlot equipment.

Bob Maddex, MSU agricultural engineer, says dairy cattlemen considering remodeling can also pick up many ideas on farmstead layout and mechanization at the full day program that begins at 9:30 a.m.

3 PERSONS HURT IN SPECTACULAR US-27 CRASH

Three persons were seriously hurt but escaped with their lives from this jumble of metal on US-27 south of Price Road late Monday afternoon. As of Tuesday afternoon state police still did not have a full report on the accident, awaiting interviews with the drivers. Thomas H. Innes, 26, of 701 E. High Street, St. Johns, was apparently the driver of the car at left. He was reported in "fairly good" condition Tuesday afternoon at Clinton Memorial Hospital. Injured in the other car, which was pulling a trailer south on US-27, was William Trail, 61, of Dearborn Heights, and his wife, Alice, 59. Trail was in "good" condition and his wife in "fairly good" condition at Clinton Memorial. Reports of a third car involved could not be substantiated with state police.

Kids and oldsters alike had an active part in the Maple Rapids Homecoming parade Saturday afternoon. These kids wander back and forth during a slow-down stage of the parade. Coming up in the background is the Clinton County Senior Citizens' kitchen band. The 25-unit parade was headed up by the St. Johns Honor Guard.

Homecoming held despite bad weather

MAPLE RAPIDS—The weatherman gave Maple Rapids a sour look over the weekend and turned loose enough rain and cold weather to hold down the crowds for Maple Rapids' annual homecoming.

But nothing dampened the enthusiasm. A parade of about 25 units came off more or less on schedule Saturday afternoon, complete with the crowning of pretty Donna Winsor as homecoming queen. She is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Carl Winsor of 405 Oak Street.

The queen was presented with a dozen red roses from her sponsor, the Fulton Jaycees. The crown and robe will be hers to wear until the next queen is selected. They were originally furnished by the Amica Club.

There was a carnival midway in operation Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and various community groups had booths and games set up, too, at the west edge of the village. Friday evening the Methodist Church sponsored a fish fry at the park, and Saturday night the Jaycees had a chicken barbecue. Rain dampened both these events.

The homecoming was sponsored by the Maple Rapids Fire Department and Maple Rapids Police Department. Heading up the plans were Police Chief Robert Antes, Village President Elston Hicks, Fire Chief Al Brunner and Wendell Blomaster of the Maple Rapids Improvement Assn.

DeWitt teachers attend science curriculum class

DeWITT—First grade teachers from DeWitt, Grand Ledge and Perry are attending a three-week workshop from Aug. 14-Sept. 1 at Michigan State University to learn how to teach science using new materials and techniques for a brand new science curriculum in the three districts.

MSU is a regional field test center for the Science Curriculum Improvement Study of Berkeley, Calif. Adoption of the SCIS curriculum this fall marks its first use in Michigan.

The DeWitt teachers taking the workshop course are Mrs. Marsha Ames, Mrs. Diane Jones and Mrs. Judy Schwerdt.

The new program in physical and life sciences, in essence, turns the classroom into a laboratory. One of its principal goals is to keep alive the curiosity and interest children bring to school. SCIS seeks to accomplish this by introducing materials the child can handle which illustrate abstract scientific concepts compatible with his reasoning abilities.

State 4-H Show all this week

Michigan's top statewide 4-H event, the 92nd annual State 4-H Show, will take place Aug. 22-25 on the campus of Michigan State University.

More than 3,000 4-H'ers representing every Michigan county will participate. They give demonstrations, practice judging, vie in contests, participate in many different educational events, and get a touch of college, according to John Aylsworth, Extension 4-H Youth Agent.

The State 4-H Show was transferred to the Michigan State campus during World War II when the Michigan State Fair was suspended. Since that time club members have staged their own state program at East Lansing. Those members who attend represent the 85,000 Michigan 4-H'ers. They'll give 'action' exhibits, go on tours, and exchange ideas with fellow 4-H members.

AT THE SPARTAN Football Stadium, 4-H exhibitors will carefully groom more than 500 head of livestock—housed in the concourse under the spectator seats. Next door in the Intramural Arena will be exhibits in science, photography, conservation, entomology, weather, citizenship, safety, and handicrafts. The Union Building will feature continuous dress revues and foods-nutrition 'action' exhibits.

It's a big event for 4-H'ers, parents, and leaders. The public is welcome and there is no admission charge. Printed programs are available through your own state program at East Lansing. Those members who attend represent the 85,000 Michigan 4-H'ers. They'll give 'action' exhibits, go on tours, and exchange ideas with fellow 4-H members.

Head Start helps 171 get ready for kindergarten

By MRS ETHEL HUOT, Coordinator, Clinton Head Start Program

One hundred seventy-one smiling pre-schoolers with diplomas in their hands boarded the school buses to return home and to await eagerly the opening of school in September when their Head Start Program closed Aug. 11 after an exciting eight-week session.

These pre-kindergarten children attended Head Start classes in seven locally-centered school areas in 11 classrooms each day from 9 a.m. to noon.

Head Start's main task was to bridge the gap for the pre-kindergarten child so he would become familiar with school routine, teachers, and gain some fundamental knowledge that would help him.

EACH YEAR almost a million underprivileged children enter public school classrooms for the first time. Most of their more affluent classmates face the challenge with some assurance—a new dress or shirt, a box of crayons, a series of successful experiences in a child's world—but many of the underprivileged children bring with them a lack of self-confidence, a mistrust of adults, and a deep fear of a new experience. Too often, the first school experience is the beginning of a familiar pattern—the child loses his will to progress, and week by week falls more behind until eventually he becomes a dropout.

Head Start is designed to help such a child in his home, school, and community. It is so much more than just a preschool or kindergarten experience. It is designed to reach the whole child and his family.

Teachers, aides, and parents who worked with the children were amazed at the progress the youngsters made.

IN ADDITION to their classroom activities the children were given first-hand experience in meeting with community helpers, making field trips to visit the airport, the city market, farms, the creamery, the post office, fire station, grain elevator, the experience to order food and eat in a restaurant, and to ride on a train to a distant city. Many trips were made to various neighborhood homes to observe pets, flower gardens, or large farm animals.

Head Start not only gives a cultural boost but also corrective medical and dental care. Each child was given the opportunity to visit the dentist's office and while there he was given a dental evaluation by the dentist. Following the evaluation the parent was notified of the result.

One hundred-twelve children were found to be in need of immediate and urgent dental care. Appointments were made for these and for the other less urgent cases. Head Start pays for dental and medical care and at present over $3,500 has been paid for these services.

ALL CHILDREN in the program had physical examinations by their family physicians. Head Start offers follow-up in medical as well as in dental care.

Vision and audiometer tests were given by licensed technicians and as a result seven children are continuing treatment from medical specialists under the funds from Head Start.

For each child in the program, the school will receive a complete permanent health and school record (CA80). All physical forms are brought up to date and the child has met the kindergarten physical entrance required by the state law.

Parental involvement was another successful and important part of Head Start. Over 40 parents volunteered their services each week and aided the cooks by helping in the classrooms. Many parents accompanied the teachers and children on their field trips while others come to observe their children in the Head Start program.

SOCIAL WORKERS and the Head Start nurse worked with the parents, children, and teachers by making home calls and by helping to alleviate such problems as a lack of adequate housing, medical attention, employment and education.

A noon meal was served to the children in each of the seven centers. The menus were the same in each center. In addition to the noon meal, a mid-morning snack of fruit juice and cookie was served.

Teachers and aides devoting time and effort in presenting an educational program for the children in Head Start were:

St. Johns—Mrs Maxine Mosher, Mrs Barbara Stiffler and Miss Evelyn Putnam, teachers; Mrs Margaret Davis, Mrs Cathy

Brya and Miss Marsha Mizga, aides.

Ovid—Miss Marianne Behrens and Miss Catherine Behrens, teachers; Miss Judith Rivest and Miss Joellen Woncey, aides.

Pewamo—Mrs Lucille Kramer, teacher; Mrs Beatrice Delar, aide.

Bath—Mrs Lura Clise and Miss Dorine Gamble, teachers; Miss Elaine Kuntz and Mrs Mary Dalamarter, aides.

DeWitt—Mrs Marsha Ames, teacher; Mrs Alma Davis, aide; Elsie—Mrs Bertha Nicholas, teacher; Miss Barbara Horak, aide.

Fowler—Mrs Marcella Edinger, teacher; Miss Ann Mathews, aide.

Cooks for the program were: Mrs Josephine Miller at Bath, Mrs Fern Wellington at DeWitt, Mrs Orlo Mead at Elsie, Mrs Helen Fox at Fowler, Mrs Alice Miller at Ovid, Mrs Eileen Triveller at Pewamo, and Mrs Betty Hicks at St. Johns.

Audiometer technician for the Head Start program was Mrs Geneva Cornell; vision technician was Mrs Marceada Harper; Head Start nurse was Mrs Ann Lerner; social workers were Mrs Ruth Wesner and Mrs Della Cowen.

The Head Start project is a federal grant to Clinton County under the Economic Opportunity Act. Clinton County's grant was approximately $50,643.

Ex-resident honored for war action

A former St. Johns man, Sgt. Wendell J. Walker, son of Mr and Mrs George H. Walker now of R-3, Stanton, received the Army Commendation Medal for heroism in Vietnam July 31.

He earned the medal last May 27 while on a mission to recover ordnance from a helicopter that had crashed near Ben Luc, Sgt. Walker and his men flew to the area, landing a short distance from the wreckage.

With about 25 soldiers providing cover, Sgt. Walker and the rest of the team began digging through the wreckage for rockets and automatic weapons ammunition. Snipers started firing on them, and most of the soldiers ran for cover.

Dashing for his helicopter, the sergeant slid behind one of the door guns and began returning fire. Within minutes all enemy action had ceased and he was able to complete his mission.

Sgt. Walker, an aircraft maintenance shop foreman assigned to Company B of the 9th Infantry Division's 709th Maintenance Battalion, entered the Army in November 1951, completed his basic training at Ft. Riley, Kan., and arrived overseas in February of this year. He is a graduate of Rodney B. Wilson High School, St. Johns. His wife, Rosa, lives at 120 Grandview Drive, Junction City, Kan.

9 records set by handful of kids at city swim meet

Nine new swim meet records were set Sunday afternoon by a handful of youngsters swimming in the annual St. Johns Swimming Meet.

Cathy Stoddard, who was the lone senior girl swimmer, swam in five events and set records in three of them. She was named the outstanding girl swimmer of the meet.

Charles Rehmann set two individual records in the junior boys division and was in on the record-breaking free style relay team. He was picked as the outstanding boy swimmer of the meet.

COMPETITION AT the meet was keen, even though the number of contestants was down considerably from previous years. The sponsoring St. Johns Jaycees figured cool weekend weather, including rain the day before the meet, was partially responsible for the small turnout.

There were only four girls swimming in the meet, and three of them were in the junior division. There were five junior division boys and seven senior division boys.

Cathy Stoddard drew ovations from the crowd for her spirit in swimming all alone in the five events she was in. There was always someone swimming to pace her, but she was always trying to beat only the clock. She managed to beat the record, too, three times.

In the 100-foot backstroke, Cathy swam the distance in 26.2 seconds, shaving .2 second off Jean Muckle's 1966 record. On her next try at the 100-foot side stroke, Cathy set a record of 28.8 seconds, one-tenth of a second better than Jean Muckle's 1965 mark. And in the 200-foot free style event, Cathy swam it in 48.3 seconds, easily beating Jean Muckle's 51.6 seconds record also set in 1965.

ALL THE OTHER new records were set in the boys junior division.

In the 200-foot free style swim, all of the top three finishers broke the 1965 mark of 53.7 seconds held by Brad Huntley, but the winner was Mike Butler who had a time of 52.4 seconds to set a new record.

Bill Muckle broke two of his own records, swimming the 100-foot free style in 20.6 seconds, 1.6 seconds faster than last year; and the 100-foot breast stroke in a time of 30.9 seconds, .3 second faster than last year.

Charles Rehmann also had two new records to his credit. He broke Vince Pouch's 1964 mark of 28.5 seconds in the 100-foot back stroke with a time of 26.0. And in the 100-foot side stroke he swam the distance in 30.3 seconds, .2 of a second faster than Vince Pouch's 1964 mark.

THE BOYS JUNIOR free style relay team of Charles Rehmann, Mike Butler, Jim Viers and Bill

The top swimmers at the St. Johns Swim Meet Sunday, Cathy Stoddard and Charles Rehmann, receive trophies from swim meet Chairman Rod Brown of the St. Johns Jaycees. Looking on is Bill Campbell, pool director.

Muckle set a new mark of 1:33.6, easily eclipsing the record of 1:45.0 set last year by Muckle, Schueller, Sanders and Butler.

Although she didn't set any new records, Mag Kuntz dominated the swimming in the junior girls division. She won all four events she swam in. Plucky Becky Bond placed second in three of them. Here are the results of the swim meet Sunday:

Wood is the favorite material for kitchen cabinets, say six out of every seven homeowners questioned recently by Better Homes & Gardens in a survey in five major cities. Why? Wood looks less institutional, is changed easily with paint.

There were a lot of close races in Sunday's St. Johns Swim Meet, but one of the closest was this one between Scott Bennett (lane 3) and Steve Leonard in the second heat of the senior boys 200-foot free style. Leonard won the heat by a hands-length and .2 second but finished third when compared to times in an earlier heat.

14-bout card set at high school

Golden Glovers bring boxing to city Saturday

Three St. Johns boxers who fought in the national Golden Gloves tournament earlier this year will headline a 14-bout exhibition card at the St. Johns High School Gym Saturday evening as boxing makes a bid for the new community support.

As many St. Johns boxers as possible will be matched in the exhibitions against fighters from at least seven other communities around the mid-Michigan area. All bouts will be a maximum of three rounds of two minutes each.

The three main-event fights of the night will see open-welterweight Bob Every, open light-weight Doug Brya and open middleweight Pat Pohl swinging against noteworthy opponents.

EVERY, STATE Golden Gloves and AAU champ this year, will be matched against Rick Krles of Dimondale. Every is 19 years old.

Pohl, a 25-year-old five-time district Golden Gloves champ who won again this year as an open middleweight, will be pitted against John Stage of Owosso.

Brya was scheduled to fight against Alfredo Saucedo of Michigan Center, but Saucedo won't be able to make it Saturday night, so his opponent isn't known for sure. He might be Mohammed Talbe, an exchange student from Iran fighting with the Michigan Center team; or Doug Stemler of Portland; or Darrell Ford of Owosso; or Tim Reynolds of Grand Blanc, the state feather-weight champ.

Wayne Beaufore, manager for the St. Johns boxing team, says the hopes to have as many St. Johns boys boxing as possible according to the weight classifications. Matchmaker for the fight, Al VanNess of Lansing, will pair up the boys following weigh-ins at 5 p.m. this Saturday.

THE 14 BOUTS ARE scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. The referee will be Jack Stein of Lansing. Ringside physicians will be Dr. Larry Bader and Dr. Harry J. DeVore. Time-keeper will be John Bashore. Judges will be appointed by VanNess.

Out-of-town boxers will be present at the weigh-ins from Nashville, Michigan Center, Dimondale, Portland, Grand Ledge, Owosso and Howell-Powerville.

The 14-bout exhibition is being sponsored by the Clinton County Golden Gloves and is for the benefit of new training quarters for the St. Johns boxers. Presently they train in a single 15 x 20-foot room above the fire hall that falls far short of the needs for training space.

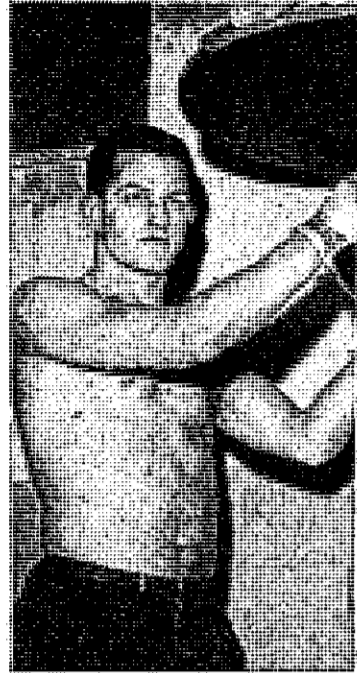

A three-man committee of Ed Schmitt, Edgar Conley and Walt Pierce got behind the Golden Gloves cause last March and were instrumental in setting up the exhibition this Saturday. They each have tickets to sell for the boxing matches, and tickets are also on sale at Pierce Bakery, Bruno's Wonder Bar, Schmitt Electric, Beaufore Barber Shop and from the St. Johns Jaycees. Ticket sales are reported going fairly well.

TICKETS WILL ALSO be on sale Saturday night at the door.

Also tentatively scheduled for Saturday night are two "paperweight" boxers, Kurt and Kevin Conley, five-year old twins of the Edgar Conleys. Micky Powell of DeWitt will also be matched in an open heavyweight fight if there is competition in that classification.

In the audience Saturday night will be Leo Saladin, chairman of the AAU in Michigan, accompanied by Chuck Davey.

Lots of local boxing talent to enter ring Saturday night

St. Johns boxing fans will have an opportunity to see three Golden Gloves champions and a host of other local boxing talent in action Saturday night.

The headliners, Bob Every, Pat Pohl and Doug Brya, were district champs this year, and although Every was the only state champ among them all three represented Michigan in the national Golden Gloves finals in Milwaukee.

When the state Golden Gloves team was expanded from eight to 10 weight classes for the national meet in Milwaukee, Pohl and Brya, were selected to fill the positions. They and Every all lost their first bouts.

EVERY HAS SET the most rugged pace for St. Johns boxers to follow. The 10-year-old slugger won his second straight Golden Gloves title, in the open welterweight class this year, after taking the novice light-weight title last year.

He was named boxer of the year in the Lansing district following the Lansing tournaments.

After winning the state title, Every moved on to Milwaukee, but he lost his first bout by a decision to a boxer who has since turned professional and has won his first four professional fights.

Every won the open welterweight AAU boxing title in March and was named the outstanding boxer of the night for outstate teams. Then it was on to San Diego, Calif., for Every where he stopped a Nevada boy who was semi-finalist in the national Golden Gloves. In his second bout, Every scored a TKO over a fighter from Utah who was intermountain champ and unbeaten in more than 40 fights.

But Every lost out to the United States all-Marine champ in an unpopular split decision in the semi-finals of the national AAU.

EVERY MOST recently fought in New Orleans, La., Aug. 12 in the United States Southern Championships where boxers from Illinois and Michigan fought boxers from six southern states. Every was victorious over Ken Anderson of Shreveport, La., Golden Gloves champion there.

Every also recently boxed and defeated the champion at the Ionia State Reformatory.

Brya, after winning the district lightweight title in Lansing, went on to the state competition but lost there. He was picked for the national competition. In the state AAU tournament in Cobo Hall in Detroit Brya lost to the national Golden Gloves champion in the 132-pound class.

HE HAS ALSO recently fought at Ionia Reformatory, where he dumped the lightweight champ, and at boxing exhibitions at Portland and Howell. He joined Every in the trip south to New Orleans but lost a decision to Terry Pullen, the semi-finalist in the Pan-American Games trials.

Brya, now 25, has one more year of Golden Gloves eligibility. He may not have an opponent this Saturday night but is hoping for one.

Pohl, a five-time district champ also 25 years of age, took the state open middleweight Golden Gloves title this year, but suffered set-backs at the state and national levels. In the AAU tournament in Detroit he was stopped by a boxer who has since turned professional.

POHL WILL HAVE one more year of Golden Gloves eligibility.

Fighting in the preliminary bouts Saturday evening will be a number of St. Johns boys, some of whom were pictured two weeks ago and some of whom are shown here. They may or may not get bouts, though, depending on how many other boys are weighed-in in the same classifications.

Terry Dean, a welterweight, is boxing for his fourth year. He was runner-up twice at the district level of Golden Gloves but this past year lost his first bout.

Dave Vallin won the sub-novice light-weight championship in the Golden Gloves district competition in 1965. This his third year of boxing, and he'll fight Saturday night as a novice welterweight. He will be seeking a rematch with Lincoln Ashford of Lansing, who beat him in the district last winter.

John Jolly, in his first year of boxing, has had three bouts and is still looking for his first win. He has been improving, however, with each fight, according to team manager Wayne Beaufore, and is due for a victory.

Alan Harris will fight as a sub-novice lightweight Saturday night. This is his first year of boxing, but he scored a KO over Ronny Stanbaugh before dropping a decision to Tom Betz of Dimondale in the Golden Glove districts. Betz won the sub-novice district lightweight championship after beating Harris.

This is part of the holiday crowd that jammed the Holy Trinity Parish grounds in Fowler Sunday for the annual parish picnic.

Fowler parish picnic a success

FOWLER—"It was a fine success"—that's the way Fr. Albert Schmitt, pastor of Holy Trinity Parish, Fowler, described the outcome of the annual parish picnic Sunday.

Huge crowds, at one time estimated to number approximately 2,500 people, thronged the parish grounds to join in on the fun and merriment.

Termed the "highlight of the picnic," the country-style chicken dinner was served to approximately 1,300 people.

One of the big crowd-pleasers, especially for the adults, was the fancywork booth, where many beautiful and intricately hand-embroidered and hand-crocheted articles on display were awarded as prizes to winners of the game played there.

At approximately 7:30 p.m., the picnicers were treated to a concert performed by the Fowler High School Band. Following them to the microphone were four male songsters known as the Fowler Quartet, who sang for their listeners some of the old-time-favorite tunes.

THE BIG PRIZE winner of the night—the person who copped the $500 first prize—was Lawrence Romanek of Holt. Mrs. Mary J. Klein of Fowler was awarded the second prize of $250.

The $100 third place award was won by Frank Pung of Fowler. The three names drawn for the three $50 prizes were Lucy Koenigsnecht, Mrs. Fay Schmitt and Bruce Sillman, all of Fowler.

Afghan and quilt winners were: Julie French of St. Johns, Vivian Brown of Edroit, Mrs. John Schneider of Owosso, Agnes Schomisch, Frank Witgen, Mrs. Irene Pohl, Mrs. Brenda Witgen, and Sylvester Martin, all of Fowler.

FRANK KOENIGSKNECHT, Mrs. Clayton Kramer, Lori Klein, Leo A. Thelen, Mrs. William Rademacher, Jim Piggott, Gary Weber, Mrs. James Armbrustmeyer, Mrs. Tillie Schafer, Mrs. Florence Koenigsnecht and Mary Ellen Reame, all of Fowler, were the other winners of quilts and afghans.

The registration prizes, consisting of a lamp, ironing board cover, and a bath towel set, were won by Mrs. Roy Smith, Betsy Hufnagel and Joe Goerge, all of Fowler.

Michigan Tourist Council advertising produced nearly 175,000 requests for vacation information through May, 48 per cent above the year-ago figure and nearly as many as in all of 1965.

Michigan's shoreline is longer than either the U.S. Atlantic coastline or Pacific coastline.

Post office plans new ZIP-a-list

During the latter half of September, each of the nation's 66 million households will receive a unique kit of postal cards which can be used to obtain ZIP Codes for personal mailing needs, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien announced today.

The specially designed kit will consist of nine cards. Eight will carry a message encouraging the use of ZIP Code on one side and spaces for the address to be "zipped" and the return address of the sender on the other side. The ninth card will include instructions. The cards in the kit will be joined in an accordion fold with perforations between each segment.

A TENTH CARD will remind the recipient of his own ZIP Code. This card will not be attached to the kit and is a revised version of the local ZIP Code reminder notice distributed twice a year.

Last year approximately 57 million households received one or two cards upon which they could enter several addresses for the local post office to code.

This year, the expanded project will find the kit of cards being delivered with only one address to be entered on each card for ZIP coding. The card will then go through the mails in the same manner as a regular postal card. It will be separated out of the mail stream at the post office which serves the "zipless" address. There a clerk will stamp in the proper code and "return to sender." The card will then go back the same route to the mailer, who will enter the code into a personal mailing list.

No postage will be needed to send the cards through the mails.

Extra copies of the ZIP-A-LIST kits will be available at post offices. Eight postal cards are included in the kit because last year respondents to the ZIP-A-LIST program sent in an average of about eight addresses on the multi-address cards sent out in the previous project.

Methodist youth gives toys

As part of their civic-outreach program, the Price Methodist Church Youth Fellowship members recently purchased a number of washable rubber and plastic toys for the pediatric ward of Lansing General Hospital.

To obtain the money for the gift toys, the Fellowship presented a liturgical drama during a special communion service on Maundy Thursday, during which time love offerings were donated for the Fellowship project.

The liturgical drama choral reading of the parables of Jesus. Under the direction of the pastor of Price Methodist Church and his wife, the Rev and Mrs. John C. Huhtala, the Fellowship rehearsed for the drama during the Lenten season.

IN ADDITION to the drama reading, the Fellowship has also adopted a Korean youth through its world-outreach program. Each organization member helps in the support of the child with monthly contributions.

The Price Methodist Youth Fellowship meets on the first and third Sundays of each month. The members are counseled by the Rev and Mrs. Huhtala.

Part of the side of a hanger at the Dickinson Airport on West Parks Road was blown out in the windstorm in the immediate St. Johns area last Thursday afternoon.

Dry spell ends with wind, rain

Clinton County's mid-summer dry spell ended last week—in somewhat violent form in places.

A strong windstorm, accompanied by heavy rain, swooshed across the immediate St. Johns area Thursday afternoon. A number of dead elms were blown over along roads west of the city, and a part of the side was blown out of the hanger at Dickinson Airport on Parks Road.

On the north side of St. Johns a garage at the Anthony Hufnagel home at 1818 W. Walker Road was partially lifted from its foundation, and a large plate glass window at the Poly-Clean Center on North US-27 shattered.

Rainfall totaled .7 inch in the heavy shower Thursday afternoon in St. Johns and another .67 inch was recorded Thursday night and early Friday. Friday evening .55 inch of rain was recorded at the St. Johns Sewage Treatment Plant.

Other parts of the county got varying amounts. The Thursday afternoon rain seemed to be in a narrow strip; Friday evening's rain was more general but apparently heavier at least to the north where over an inch was reported.

DeWitt OKs contract for sewage plant

VALLEY FARMS—The DeWitt Township Board has awarded the contract for the construction of the new sewage treatment plant to the Bush Brothers Construction Co. of Indiana. That company's low bid was for $687,140.

Church school workshop planned at Ovid Monday

OVID—A Workshop on Creative Activities in the church school will be held at Ovid United Church, on West Front Street in Ovid, on Monday, Aug. 28, from 7 to 9 p.m.

All interested persons having any connection with church school activity in their local churches are cordially invited to participate. The leaders in each class will show how to do the activities that are suggested in church school material. They will also add ideas of their own.

There will be no fee for attending this workshop, but the sponsoring church (Ovid United Church) will appreciate knowing how many persons will be attending class. Persons are asked to send in their name if they plan to attend to: United Church, Ovid, Box 21.

Experienced leaders recruited to head up the workshop include: Mrs Horace Howell of St. Johns; Mrs Gordon Spalenka of Ovid; Mrs Keith Bovee of St. Johns; Mrs Carl Bair of St. Johns; Mrs Cyril Tremblay and Mrs Robert Parmenter of Ovid.

4H NEWS

The county fair is now history, but most everyone agrees that it was the best fair yet. Not only was there a quantity of projects, but there was quality to the projects, too.

To have a successful fair it takes the cooperation of leaders, members, parents and other people to make things click. I want to thank every one who helped for their support in making the Clinton County Youth Fair a successful event. Even the weatherman helped by providing three hot and dry days. It didn't rain on Thursday until everything had been cleaned up and put away. There was a good turnout on Thursday to clean up, so the job didn't take too long.

Using the 4-H motto "make the best better," we are already discussing new ideas or changes for next year. While everything is fresh in your minds, I would appreciate hearing from you any suggestions or comments that you have for improving the county fair program, exhibits and scheduling of activities. Please send your suggestions to the Extension office or to the 4-H Council members.

This week is State Show Week at Michigan State University where over 3,500 4-H members will be participating in different judging evaluations, action exhibits and other activities. There will be 44 girls and 25 boys from Clinton County who will be staying one night or more. There are 14 of these members who will be working with various project activities. There will be many other Clinton County 4-H'ers who will participate in State Show activities who will not be staying overnight.

The Country Cousins talent show number, "Dances From Different Countries," will perform Thursday evening at State Show. The 4-H softball teams were scheduled to play on Tuesday. Stoney Creek 4-H Club, representing the county in the Green League, played Huron County and the winner plays Shiawassee County. Victor 4-H, representing Clinton County in the White League, played Lapeer County with the winner playing Ingham County. No results were available at the writing of this column.

The 4-H Canadian trip award winners will be leaving for Expo '67 at Montreal on Saturday morning at 9 a.m. Chaperones include Mr and Mrs Robert Klissane, Mr and Mrs Noel Smith and William Klissane. The 4-H members in the group include Brenda Flegler, Mike Borton, Barbara Botum, Linda Davis, Carol Sibley, Douglas Whit, Shirley Irner, Rosemary Kelsling, Kathy Jackson, Elaine Snyder, Suzanne Sillman, Mary Volk, and Judy Rivest. These members were nominated for this award by their leaders for being excellent 4-H club members throughout their tenure in 4-H club work.

The 4-H Trail Blazers Saddle Club will be holding a rummage sale, baked goods sale and pony rides on Aug. 31 and Sept. 1 at the David Brown home on North Turner Road near DeWitt. The time is from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., and the event is sponsored by the members' parents. The proceeds from these events will be used for their camping trip expense.

The Eagle Beavers held their summer picnic at the home of Glenn Bennett. Demonstrations were given by the entomology members Steven Wirth and Gregory Huhn. Richard Wirth and Caroline Bennett demonstrated the proper way to lead livestock and prepare the animal for show. The Horse Club members described how to fit a horse for show.

The Fowler Busy Bees 4-H Club members received a letter of thanks from the Fowler Conservation Club for their work in cleaning up the park area. Congratulations were given to Lois Miller, Glen Feldpausch and Mary Epkey who were selected to represent the county at state show in food action exhibit, demonstrations, and family living. The club had a float in the fair called "4-H Leads the Way."

"Explore '67" is a career day planned for Saturday, Sept. 30, at Michigan State University. The program will begin at midmorning and will run till noon. You will have the opportunity to see scientists in action, visit with counselors and learn about careers in food, fibers and natural resources. In the afternoon you will be able to see the Michigan State University-Southern California football game. A box lunch will be provided at cost. The half time band show will be designated a 4-H Day at the game. Anyone interested in the career day program, lunch and football game should let me know in early September.

come see the prettiest tweeds in town.

No ordinary tweed carpets, these...but fashion-inspired beauties in jewel-tone colorations. No longer are tweeds a compromise. They're the decorator's choice. No other carpet can pick up a color so delicately and weave its spell throughout the room. Of course, tweeds are practical, too. They don't show the soil and they're densely woven for longer wear. But for pure magic in many and many a decorative theme...there's nothing like a tweed.

Animal slaughter on roads

A rash of car-animal accidents plagued the Clinton County sheriff's office last week. On Saturday, in two separate incidents, a cow and a heifer that had wandered onto the road were struck by passing cars. The first occurred when an auto driven by Melborn Dale Jones, 28, of 1576 Avery Road, St. Johns, collided with a heifer owned by Art Kelly Jr. and Son. The mishap took place on Shepardsville Road in Ovid Township. JONES was not injured. The animal was injured beyond help and had to be destroyed. Later, at the intersection of

Alward and Meridian roads in Victor Township, a car driven by James R. Nichols of Owosso hit a cow belonging to Robert H. Dennis of 3715 E. Alward Road, Lansingburg. Domestic animals were not the only critters involved in accidents last week. A DEER RAN into the side of a moving auto on Stone Road, one-half mile from the Wacousta Road intersection in Essex Township Thursday, Aug. 17. The driver of the vehicle, Montier C. Blackford, 20, of Ithaca, was uninjured. His passenger, Richard Wrisby, was seriously hurt. Wrisby had his arm part way out of the car window, and when the deer crashed into the auto, it struck the arm, breaking the wrist and fracturing the collar bone. Wrisby also sustained numerous cuts and abrasions. He was taken to Carson City Hos-

Cars crash, a driver ticketed

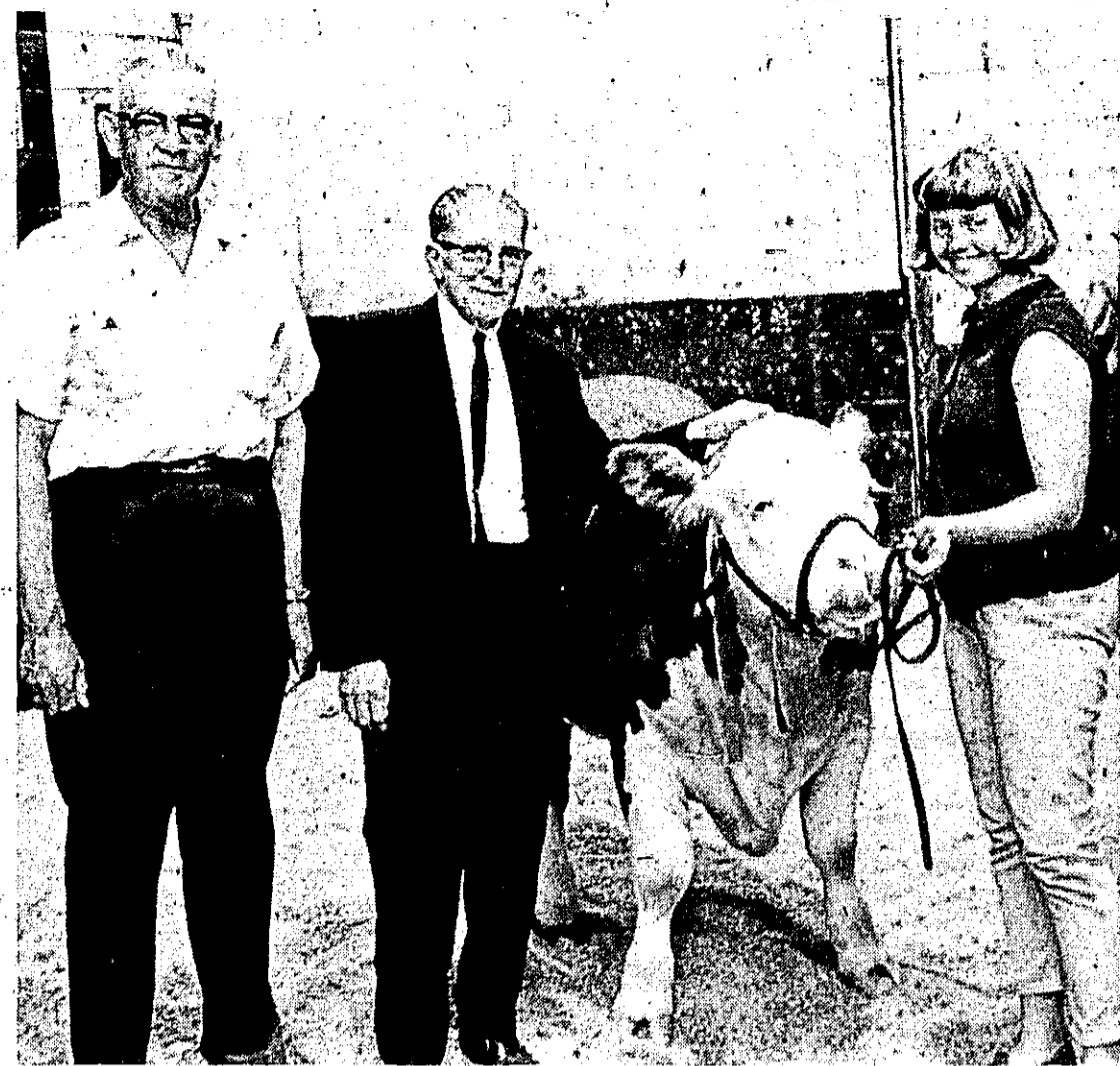

A woman was slightly injured and a man ticketed in an accident that happened Sunday at the intersection of Clark and Lowell roads in Watertown Township. An auto driven by Mary E. Lonier, 19, of Lansing, was struck by a car driven by Cecil Leo Simpson, 37, of Lansing. The Lonier woman told the Clinton Sheriff's officer, who policed the mishap, that she failed to notice the other car because of high weeds obstructing her view. Simpson said in his report that he was going to turn but that he changed his mind and proceeded straight ahead. He was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way. Simpson, then later was transferred to a Lansing hospital.

Many involved, none injured

A passenger-laden auto was struck from behind Friday on US-27, one-half mile from the Kinley Road intersection, in Greenbush Township, but by chance no one was hurt. According to the Clinton County Sheriff's accident report, Mrs Ruth Pearl Thayer suddenly stopped her car to avoid hitting another vehicle which had veered off the road in front of her. Because he maintains he could not see the brake lights and because the pavement was wet and slippery, Prentice A. Kler, was unable to stop his auto in time to prevent it from ramming the Thayer car. Nancy Thayer, 14; Terry Thayer, 16 and Jack Anderson, 14, all of Lansing, were shook up but not injured. Kler, 48, and his passenger, Carol Kler, 48, both of Lansing, were likewise uninjured.

A helter-skelter bone-rattling ride

As his car was approaching a rain-slicked curve on Round Lake Road, near the corner of Babcock Road, Gene Paul Berry, 41, of Lansing, lost control of the vehicle and it slid off the right side of the pavement. The auto maintained enough momentum to regain the road, when once more it went out of control and into a field on the other side of the road, where it finally came to rest after traveling approximately 129 feet. Berry was uninjured.

BANK BUYS GRAND CHAMPION STEER AT 4-H SALE

Janice Woodhams exhibited the grand champion steer at the 4-H Fair last week, and Wednesday afternoon Lorenz Tiedt, a director, and W.S. (Pat) Lusk, president of the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co., bought the animal for 57 cents a pound at the fair livestock sale at Wolverine Stockyards. Janice is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Richard Woodhams of 1083 E. Kinley Road.

4-H Fair livestock sale results

Here are the results of the Clinton County 4-H Fair Livestock sale last Wednesday afternoon at the Wolverine Stockyards. The grand champion steer, owned by Janice Woodhams, sold for 57 cents per pound to the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co. The total price for the 900-pound animal was $513. The reserve champion, a 930-pound steer owned by Brent Ballinger, was purchased by Clinton Crop Service for 48 cents per pound. Seven other 4-H animals were auctioned off and brought these prices: A 935-pound steer owned by Rita Kissane was purchased by Production Credit Assn. for 34 cents per pound. An 860-pound steer owned by Sharon Foster sold for 32 cents per pound to the Jim McKenzie Insurance Agency. An 875-pound steer owned by William Stoy was sold to Capital Savings and Loan Assn. for 33 1/2 cents per pound. An 830-pound animal owned by Christine Kissane was purchased for 34 1/2 cents by the Central National Bank of St. Johns. The largest steer, weighing 1,035 pounds and owned by Linda Davis, was bought by Sealed Power Corp. for 31 cents a pound. Randy Davis' 930-pound steer was sold to Cain's, Inc., for 34 cents per pound. An 820-pound animal owned by Ken Eldridge was sold to Mark DeBoer for 33 cents per pound.

RESERVE CHAMPION STEER SOLD

The reserve champion steer at the Clinton County 4-H Fair last week was exhibited by Brent Ballinger, and during the livestock auction Wednesday the 930-pound animal sold for 48 cents a pound to Clinton Crop Service. Owner Don Bast stands beside the animal he just bought.

Who to blame for 2 mishaps

A car left unattended was struck by an auto near the corner of Shepardsville and Winfield Roads Saturday. The driverless vehicle was parked with the two left wheels still on the road by Faye Joy Barrett, 26, of Williamston. Gerald Duane Gungrich, 39, of R-1, Elsie, approached the errant car in his auto and was about to pass it when a third car came off Winfield Road, forcing Gungrich to ram the Barrett auto. No one was hurt in the incident. IN ANOTHER injureless mishap, an auto driven by Lyle Arthur Walker, 46, of Eaton Rapids, was struck head-on by a car operated by Constance Jean Pitchford, 20, of Lansing. Walker's vehicle apparently strayed across the center of the road and into the path of the oncoming Pitchford auto, according to the Clinton County Sheriff's report. The accident occurred Saturday near the intersection of Chadwick and Forest Hill Roads in Watertown Township. Velma Pitchford, 51, of R-2, DeWitt, was a passenger in the Pitchford car. Men with reasons for their actions seldom need excuses.

Pores so small that a million of them would barely cover the period at the end of this sentence give industrial catalysts a fantastic surface area that helps speed the rate of chemical reactions. The total surfaces of a handful of some aspirin-size catalysts weighing under an ounce would equal that of an entire football field.

happiness is a high hill

It had been a long climb. For various reasons, we were all glad to get to the top of the hill. Jackie rolled down, over and over, to the inviting creek at the bottom. Sally bolted off to climb the neighbor's fence and croon to the colts pastured there. Baby saw the buttercups and struggled to get down. Jack dreamed over the rich soil of the south forty, while I was drawn by the tall-spired church in the valley.

We're happy in the home we've built on that hill. We've a dog and a cat and swings for the children. Summers, we race down the hill to cool off in the creek. Winters, we get the sled out and take it singing down the slope.

The kitchen windows frame a lovely view of the valley and our church. On Sunday mornings, when its deep-throated bells call us clearly to worship, we go down the hill together to its doors. We enter reverently and joyfully, knowing that much of our happiness and security stems from God's love.

Wherever your church may be; in valley, on hill, or city street, you will find the same glorious opportunity to sustain and strengthen your faith.

A TALL STORY, FULL OF CORN

Arden Cressman of 401 S. Morton Street needed a step-ladder to measure the height of his garden sweet corn last week, and he'll almost need one to pick the corn. The variety is a Kentucky Cane roasting corn which he bought in Tennessee last May and then planted about the middle of May. Last week several rows of the corn measured over 11 feet tall. It was seven feet to the top of the ears.

Color is the key

by HELEN MEACH
Extension Home Economist

The latest fashion news in food is color! Colorful foods displayed in colorful containers tempt us to serve them in colorful combinations with colorful garnishes. Berry blue, watermelon pink, lemon yellow and lime green are a few of the popular shades for August.

Let's start with blueberries. The color tells you all you need to know about the beautiful and popular fruit. A good deep blue color is essential to blueberry quality. If the berries have a reddish tinge they're very likely to be under-ripe and sour.

The best blueberries have a soft blue-silver bloom. This bloom is a very delicate waxy coating put on by Mother Nature to protect the fruit from bacterial invasion and from sunburn. Marketing firms handling blueberries insist that the berries be poured, not handled, and the occasional twigs and leaves that get mixed in with the berries are removed with tweezers, pincer with fingers, as handling mars the bloom and could possibly bruise the fruit.

WATERMELON is another summertime fruit for which color is the key quality. In addition to the obvious point that the "meat" of the watermelon should be a full, bright red, add the color of the seeds as a valuable clue. Shiny black seeds means a ripe, sweet watermelon. Too many small white, immature seeds means the watermelon will likewise be immature and under-ripe. If you can't look inside the melon, then check the outside. If the underside of the melon, where it lay against the ground, is starting to turn yellow then the melon is probably ripe and good inside.

Even lemons and limes speak the color language when quality is at stake. Lemons, presently coming to market in abundant numbers, should be chosen for their deep yellow color. Deep yellow lemons are usually more juicy and less tart than pale or greenish yellow ones. They should be firm and heavy for their size with a reasonably fine-textured skin.

LIMES OUGHT to be a good deep color as well. Pale, yellow-green limes lack the acidity that is desirable in this fruit.

Natives of Ceylon, it's said, often cover their bodies with lemon or lime juice before going for a swim . . . in hopes of making themselves distasteful to the crocodiles. It's just possible they are instead making themselves more tasty, for a bit of lemon or lime juice adds an amazingly appealing flavor to almost everything edible.

In these Southern Belle Lime Tarts, the limes take the spotlight; however, they play a wonderful supporting role in fresh vegetable dishes and salads and as a garnish for meat and poultry main dishes.

SOUTHERN BELLE LIME TARTS.

Tart Shells:
1 1/2 c. all purpose flour
2 t. sugar
1/4 t. salt
1/3 c. butter
1 egg yolk, beaten slightly
3 T. ice water

Sift into bowl flour, sugar and salt. With pastry blender, cut in butter until it resembles coarse meal. Mix egg yolk with water with fork, mix lightly into flour mixture until it will hold together. Chill thoroughly. Roll pastry 1/8 inch thick on slightly floured board, cut and fit rounds of dough into fluted tart pans or over the back of muffin tins. With muffin tins, prick dough before baking, to prevent puffing. Chill again. Bake in 450 degree oven 10 to 15 minutes or until golden brown. Cool; fill with Lime Filling. Makes about 15 tart shells.

LIME FILLING:

1 1/3 c. sweetened condensed milk
1/2 c. lime juice
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
whipped cream or substitute

Blend milk with lime juice, and egg yolks. Pour into baked shells. Top with whipped cream. Fills 4 large tart shells. (No cooking needed.)

Fast on the weld

You're behind the time if you think welding is a slow, tedious process. New fully automatic gas-shielded, flux-cored processes achieve remarkably fast metal-deposition rates consuming as much as a 34 1/2 feet of wire electrodes a minute on long, continuous welds.

At the 'summer house' in Sweden

By LORINDA LUMBERT
In Sweden

Elisabeth and I are all alone at home now. My father, mother, and two brothers have been camping and hiking in Lapland, one of Sweden's northern counties. Now they are at the Tottle summer house, Langvind. It is on Sweden's east coast about 180 miles north of Stockholm.

My father, mother, Elisabeth, her friend Gerd, another girl from Michigan, Cindy Corbin, and I were at Langvind from July 11 until July 17. We didn't have the summer house to ourselves; there were other relatives there, but it was a huge place—three stories high with 26 completely furnished rooms, 18 of them ling as the island is quite flat. The four of us rented cycles while we were there. I have never cycled so much as I did during those 10 days. Once, when we stayed over night at a farm, we cycled 30 miles! Besides having heavy suitcases strapped to the backs of our bikes, we had to cycle uphill against the wind both going there and coming back . . . try and figure that one out! I had to keep reminding myself that it was a lot of fun. It will seem good to get home and drive the car again. The driving age is 18 in Sweden.

Editor's Note: Lorinda Lumbert, daughter of Dr and Mrs C. W. Lumbert of 808 W. Park Street, St. Johns, returned Sunday evening from a summer's stay in Sweden under the Youth for Understanding exchange student program. This report was written while she was still in Sweden several weeks ago.

bedrooms. It was just like something out of a book! We had the third floor to ourselves. We even had breakfast in bed to save confusion in the mornings. The other two meals we had with the rest of the relatives.

Elisabeth's uncle took us sailing one afternoon and we saw a lot of seals. It was really fun.

When we got back from Langvind we took a "day off" to rest and do the washing, then we (Elisabeth, Gerd, Cindy, and I) left again. This time our destination was Gotland, a summer resort island in the Baltic. To get there we took a train from Stockholm to Nynashamn, where we took a boat to the island. The trip took nearly five hours, but we were sleeping in deck chairs most of the time.

THE WEATHER was wonderful! Gotland claims the warmest, driest summers in Sweden. That's why you find so many Swedes, mostly from Stockholm, there. It also has the most outstanding medieval churches, city walls, statuary and secular buildings in this part of Europe, so you find a lot of tourists there, too.

We lived with Gerd's grandmother in Visby, just outside of the city wall which is the only one left in Sweden. Visby is called the town of Roses and Ruins. Everyone grows roses. Most of the houses within the wall are very old, not very large, and quite close together; but it wasn't really cramped. It could be described better as sort of cozy! Each house has its own "personality," mostly from the different roses. Some people had roses and vines completely covering their house except for the entrance! Streets are mostly cobble stone and not exactly wide. There is a lot of one-way traffic. It is quite complicated trying to get anywhere by bicycle or car. Once you get outside of the wall, though, it's great for cyc-

THERE IS ONE CLUB in Visby, Mill Club, and it's in a windmill! That's where I met most of the people I know who live in Stockholm. There is a huge camping ground just outside of Visby, and a lot of kids go camping there in the summers. The club was a lot of fun. It is mostly dis-cotheque but they had groups there two of the three times we went. I think that all of Visby is mostly a place for young people in the summers. Everyone loves it, though. Lots of people go there to be married. It is quite romantic with all of the legends connected with the city and its ruins. The roses help, too, and the sunset is fantastic! I'd like to go back someday.

The crayfish season has started, now. Elisabeth and I were thinking about returning to Langvind for a couple of days and trying to catch some. It is really a big event! We decided that there wasn't time before we leave, though. Elisabeth is going to be an exchange student to the states this year. She leaves a day before I do, so we are both busy packing, taking pictures, and seeing things in Stockholm for a last time before we leave.

It's hard to believe that my stay in Sweden is almost over. It seems like the time I have spent here has been "extra" and that when I get back my "real" summer will begin. I know it won't, but I don't really mind. This summer has been the best yet!

New man named to FHA district supervisor post

The Farmers Home Administration's (FHA) Clinton-Gratiot-Montcalm District has a new supervisor—Drexel D. Pierson, 31, of Hillsdale.

Pierson, who replaces Roland Whitney as head of the three-county office, assumed active control of the position Tuesday, Aug. 15. Whitney was promoted to a regional office in the FHA organization.

Because district headquarters is located in Ithaca, Pierson will move with his wife and two children to take up residence in that city.

It may be a long wait for lobster lovers, but it's worth it. It takes about five years for these venerable crustaceans to grow to an edible size.

Fulton Schools fill all teacher positions, but 2

All but two teacher positions of the Fulton District Schools have been filled for the 1967-68 school year, Fulton Supt. Waino Phi announced last week. The two openings that remained in the teaching staff are for the third and fifth grades at the Perrinton School. To acquaint the instructors with the rules and regulations of the schools and to officially welcome them to their jobs, teacher orientation meetings will be held Thursday and Friday, Aug. 31 and Sept. 1, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily.

Road Commission Weekly Report

The Board of Clinton County Road Commissioners held their regular meeting on Friday, Aug. 18. The Board discussed petitions of the new engineer, Don Haske. George Moore, Duplain supervisor, appeared before the board to discuss construction problems. The commission accepted the final plans for a new plat in Watertown Township and discussed a proposed plat in Eagle Township. The board agreed to meet with the County Drain Commissioner to set up specifications for new plats. The commission made an inspection trip to Eagle Township to inspect the site of a proposed plat. They also checked construction alignment of a project in Duplain Township. Bob Eldridge, newly appointed clerk, sat in on a part of this meeting. The board discussed future construction plans and income. The combination of loss of possible revenue by the defeat of the Highway Revenue Acts and possible loss of county appropriations makes necessary a curtailment of present programs at a time when increased traffic calls for increased services. The already inadequate road systems will likely suffer further in the year to come. DON EWING, Road Clerk

'Spearing' dangerous

Coaches, physicians and sports officials are calling for an end to "spearing" blocks and tackles in football. Spearing is the tactic in which a player uses his head as a battering ram to jam the mid-section of an opponent. It's dangerous, both for himself and for the player he hits, says the American Medical Assn. A tackler can inflict a tremendous amount of punishment by driving his helmet into a ball carrier. Moreover, he endangers himself, because his head and neck take the force of the blow. In a correct, head-up tackle, the player uses his shoulders, arms and chest to stop a ball carrier.

Modern living

Tree swallows are adjusting to modern society. Once limited by available normal nesting places, a natural tree cavity or one made and abandoned by woodpeckers, they have become one of our commonest bird-box occupants.

State Fair opens Friday in Detroit

It's state fair time again! The gaily and fascination of Michigan's biggest fun bargain are expected to bring more than one million visitors streaming through the gates during the 11-day run of the 118th Michigan State Fair.

It opens Friday (Aug 25) and runs through Monday (Labor Day), Sept. 4. The grand opening parade will start at 8 p.m. today (Aug 24) in the downtown Detroit.

The theme of this year's fair is "Consumer Meets Producer." "We want farmers and city people to know each other better," says Cass J. Wasung, acting general manager.

exhibits designed to show them the wide range of Michigan's farm products and how the modern farmer and processor work together to bring those products to the dinner table at reasonable prices.

THE PRIZE animals—beef and dairy cattle, sheep, swine, horses, poultry, rabbits, and pigeons—will draw the most attention among the farm exhibits, but the visitor shouldn't overlook the vegetables, grains, fruits, nuts, and other displays.

On the woman's side, there'll be prize cakes, cookies, and breads, canned goods, and needlework.

Headlining the entertainment at the fair will be the music shell and grandstand shows, with nationally known stars appearing in person.

The music shell lineup: —Sergio Mendes and Brasil '66, a popular group with a Latin beat, on Friday and Saturday, Aug 25-26. On the same days, "7" and the Mysterians, a vocal group.

—Singer Buddy Greco with drummer Buddy Rich and his orchestra, Sunday through Tuesday, Aug 27-29. The Debutantes, a girl rock'n'roll group, will be on the bill Sunday and Monday.

—THE NEW VAUDEVILLE Band, of "Winchester Cathedral" fame, Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug 29-30.

These St. Johns girls — Peggy Merignac, 12, Linda Brya, 11, and Cathy Merignac 9 — will be tap dancing at 5 p.m. Sept. 3 in front of the grandstand at the Michigan State Fair. The girls will do two numbers — a song and dance to "Singing in the Rain," and "Louisiana Hayride." This is their first year as a dance group, but they've been tap dancing five years. Earlier this year they danced at the Lions Minstrel Show and for the men's bowling banquet. Peggy and Cathy are daughters of Mr and Mrs Roland Merignac of 1207 S. DeWitt Road, and Linda is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Louis Brya of 5944 S. U.S. 27.

—The Sandpipers vocal group Wednesday through Friday, Aug 30-Sept 1. The Rationals, also a vocal group, will be on hand Thursday.

—Diana Ross & The Supremes, who made "the Detroit sound" famous throughout the world, Saturday through Monday, Sept 2-4.

In addition, the Michigan State Fair Honors Band, composed of the top high school musicians in the state, will play music shell concerts Friday through Sunday, Sept 1-3.

All music shell events are free to state fair-goers.

THE GRANDSTAND lineup will feature the Barnes-Carruthers International Circus in three performances daily from Monday, Aug 28, through Saturday, Sept 2. The circus also is free to fair-goers.

On the first weekend of the fair, Friday-Sunday, the International Daredevil auto thrill show will be held in front of the grandstand. On the final two days of the fair, Sept 3-4, the Johnny Cash show will be the grandstand attraction. Admission will be charged for these shows.

The coliseum also will be a hive of activity, with livestock judging daily and 15 free horse shows, five matinee and 10 evening performances.

Elsewhere on the grounds, the visitor will find children's contests, baton-twirling competition, several bands providing "music everywhere," commercial exhibits and demonstrations, governmental displays and free services, and a host of special events.

The Teen Scene this year will feature among top amateur bands and folk-singing groups, career information, judo demonstrations, and fashion shows.

visitor will find new rides and new shows along with the old favorites like the merry-go-round and the ferris wheel.

Blue Star Mothers
have lake outing

MAPLE RAPIDS—On Wednesday of last week Mrs Evelyn Upham invited the Maple Rapids Chapter of Blue Star Mothers to her cottage at Chippewa Lake. Two carloads of ladies joined Mrs Upham and Mrs Preston Corson, who had gone there the day before, for a deliciously prepared chicken dinner, with all the trimmings. Two of the braver mothers took a dip in the chilly waters before dinner; after dinner the business meeting was held. The members voted to give $100 to a deserving student to help with his college education. This time they decided in favor of Miss Connie August, who is going into nurses' training at Hurley Hospital in Flint. After the business meeting the members enjoyed the afternoon visiting and just being relaxed until all too soon it was time to go home. Those attending were Mrs Joy Tait, Mrs Inez Schultz, Mrs Nina Freed, Mrs James Sowles, Mrs Anna Warner, Mrs Rena Britten, Mrs Nellie Wilson, Mrs Roscoe Martin and Mrs Wilbur Bancroft.

Dr and Mrs Don Kendall, Mr and Mrs Harry Kendall of Kalamazoo attended the wedding of their mother, Mrs Laura M. Kendall of Grand Rapids to Arba Griener, also of Grand Rapids. Mr Griener's daughter, Mrs Norma Winsink of Williamston also attended. Mr and Mrs Griener are planning to spend the winter in Arizona.

The wind currents seemed to be rather tricky Sunday, as the sky divers were proving their skills, and carried one of them across the river, where he landed in the field, much to the amazement of a large herd of cattle belonging to Bob Underwood. Thankfully he was not seriously injured.

Scott, Craig, Brenda and Debbie Bancroft of St. Johns spent Friday to Tuesday evening with their grandparents, Mr and Mrs Wilbur Bancroft. Judy and Lori Bancroft were weekend visitors also.

Rev Robert E. Myers began his pastorate at the Congregational Church in Maple Rapids Sunday. His sermon "A New Beginning," was timely and interesting and we sincerely wish him success in his new church home.

Mr and Mrs Orrison Bailey and Mr and Mrs Bing Bailey attended the Priest wedding at Reed City Saturday.

Mrs Marguerite Wright was a weekend guest of Mrs Selma Bailey.

Mrs John Schmidt and Mrs Rod Schmidt of Alma spent Wednesday through Friday at Grand Haven preparing the Rod Schmidt home for their moving this coming weekend. Ricky Schmidt came home with his grandmother.

Little Debbie Dean, daughter of Mr and Mrs Lester Dean, had ear and throat operation at Grand Rapids Osteopathic Hospital Wednesday, returning home on Thursday. Her brother Ronnie, spent the week with his grandparents, Mr and Mrs Lester Dean.

Mrs Clifford Halsted's nephew, Bill Wright, of California called on her and Mr Halsted last week. Don Willoughby of Detroit called on Mr and Mrs Clifford Halsted and Mr and Mrs Lester Dean this past week.

There will be a meeting of the MRA at the Municipal Building on Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Aug. 28.

Cecil McNutt, who operates a bait shop just north of town, is home from the hospital, although still confined in a cast from head to waist.

Park Lake

Mrs Sadie Bass

(Omitted last week)

T. E. Simpson of Outer Drive was rushed to local hospital during the week.

Mr and Mrs J. V. Wisissar of East Lansing returned home last Sunday from a week's vacation. Now their son Jack and his family have gone on vacation.

Mr and Mrs Charles Bollinger of Park Lake Road have returned home from a trip thru northern Michigan and Wisconsin.

The Past Noble grands are having a farewell party along with August meeting at Ada Belle McGonigal's for Mrs Virginia Ewing. She is moving to St. Johns.

Roe Loving of California and Mr and Mrs Thomas Jenkins have returned to California after spending time at Houghton Lake and in the Park Lake area. Mr and Mrs Ray Bennett, Mr and Mrs Roland Pittenger and Mr and Mrs Beryl Dadds spent last weekend at Barryton.

Elsie

By MRS. NEVA KEYS, Correspondent

Elsie Student in Sweden

ELSIE—David Williams, son of Mr and Mrs Glen Williams of 7471 Warren Road, Elsie, has been spending the summer in Sweden as a part of the Youth for Understanding program.

He will soon return to the states to enter the Ovid-Elsie High School as a senior. He made his home with the Marten Lindquist family in Odensbacken, Sweden.

His group flew from Detroit to Prestick, Scotland, leaving some students and then on to Copenhagen, Denmark, where they had a bus trip around the city.

They crossed by ferry to Malmo, Sweden where they boarded a night train and enjoyed their beds on a sleeper. The next morning, David was met by his father and brother, Per at Hallsberg and continued on to Odensbacken to meet his mother and three other brothers, Rolf, Bjorn and Leif.

David found a busy household preparing for Leif's wedding where dinner lasted for four hours and dancing until an early morning hour.

His father has 1700 acres of forests about 90 miles from their home and checks on it twice a week. David and Per often made the trip with him.

They also did much sightseeing. One of his earliest trips was to Stockholm where Per received his visa to come to the U.S. as an exchange student. Plans were also made for a sightseeing trip to Norway.

David felt very much at home with the Lindquists as he shared many hobbies and interests with his brother Per.

J. Bard is in Vietnam

Samples of propaganda leaflets distributed in South Vietnam were received by Mrs S. J. Keys this week from Sp/4 James Bard, now stationed with the U.S. Army in Vietnam.

Following are some of the warnings: "Stop bombing and strafing at random, South Vietnam villages"; "Stop at once noxious chemical spraying"; "Don't massacre civilians and their domestic animals - U. S. and Australians"; "Don't launch grenades into Vietnamese civilians' shelter".

Bard, a 1966 graduate of Elsie High School drives an Armored Personnel Carrier in a mechanized unit that pushes through the jungle with tanks to clear the VC's.

He wrote that it is very lonesome and he would appreciate hearing news from "good old Elsie" where he plans to live with his wife and son after completion of his military service.

Following is his address: Sp/4 J. B. Bard US 54951858, BTRD 3/5 CAV, 9th Inf. Div. APO San Francisco 96370.

Helpful shove

A gentle shove to fibers in cotton fabrics is giving some kinds of textiles more desirable characteristics. The procedure, called compacting, may result in cotton stretch fabrics that are less expensive and stronger than present stretch cottons. The U. S. Department of Agriculture says that it may also be a means of making durable-press garments wear longer. The fabric is compacted by running it wet through a series of rubber-covered curved rollers that gently push the fabric in on itself.

MONDAY, AUGUST 7, 1967

The Clinton County Board of Supervisors met on this date at 10:00 A.M. Prayer was offered by Chairman Carter. A pledge of Allegiance was given to the flag. Roll was called and a quorum reported. Minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Communications were read and discussed. Chairman Carter appointed Supervisor Reginald Nelson of DeWitt Township, as a member of the Joint Capitol City Airport Zoning Board, to represent Clinton County. Supervisor Nelson was to replace Herbert Fizzell who had previously asked to be relieved of these duties.

A motion was made by Supervisor Gove and supported by Supervisor Underhill, that this Board confirm the appointment of Supervisor Nelson to the Airport Zoning Board. Motion carried.

Following a presentation by William Coffey, Assistant Zoning Administrator, a motion was made by Supervisor Tiedt and supported by Supervisor Thelan, that this Board concur with the recommendations of the Clinton County Zoning Commission in meeting on July 18, 1967, and that the Grand Lodge Public Schools be authorized to locate three portable class rooms on the following described parcel of land:

Commencing at a point 669.5 feet North of the Southwest corner of Section 8, T5N, R3W, Watertown township, Clinton County, Michigan; thence North 350 feet; thence East 198 feet; thence North 408.5 feet; thence East 353.92 feet; thence South 738.5 feet; thence West 551.92 feet to the place of beginning. Motion carried.

Dale Chapman, County Drain Commissioner, spoke to the Board concerning Public Act No. 288 for the year of 1967, which is a newly enacted act to become effective January 1, 1968. Following a suggestion made by Mr Chapman, the Chairman referred the matter to the Zoning Committee with the instructions that they should work with the Drain Commissioner to set up rules governing the initiation of the new law.

The name of Elizabeth Hess, of Elsie, Michigan, was placed in nomination for the office of member of the Clinton County Library Board by Supervisor Moore. A motion was made by Supervisor Nelson and supported by Supervisor Hufnagel, that nominations be closed and the Clerk instructed to cast a unanimous ballot of the Board for Elizabeth Hess. Motion carried and Elizabeth Hess was declared elected to succeed herself on the Clinton County Library Board for a term of five years.

Supervisors Gerald Shepard, and Reginald Nelson made a report to the Board of the meetings of the National Association of County Officials Conference held in Detroit, Michigan, earlier in the month.

A motion was made by Supervisor Tiedt and supported by Supervisor Coletta, that reading of Supervisors expense accounts be dispensed with and they be paid as presented. Motion carried.

After hearing a Salary & Clerk Hire Committee report by Supervisor Gove, the Chairman declared a recess until 1:30 P.M.

Supervisor Nobis, Chairman of the Zoning Committee, read the following recommendations of that Committee and moved its adoption. Motion supported by Supervisor Nelson, voted and carried. To Board of Supervisors Clinton County, Michigan

The following is the interpretation that the Zoning Committee placed upon the ordinance amendment pursuant to trailer coaches. This is meant strictly as a suggestion guideline for application of the amendment.

That the new amendment regarding trailer coaches to the Clinton County Zoning Ordinance shall provide that all future permits shall be allowed only on the basis of extreme hardship for temporary prescribed periods. Such permits to allow the non-conforming unit shall be subject to the review of the Clinton County Zoning Appeal Board as prescribed in the amendment.

Presently occupied trailer coach owners will be allowed to remain in that coach for the period of their ownership and occupancy of that coach on the present location without requiring a new permit or signature consents.

Should an existing trailer coach become transferred to a new occupant or moved to a different location, or substituted by another trailer, occupancy by such new owner or on such other location, or in the different trailer shall require a permit on the basis of the Clinton County Zoning Ordinance as provided in that ordinance including the above described amendment.

A motion was made by Supervisor Shepard and supported by Supervisor Smith, that the following resolution be adopted by this Board. Motion was supported by Supervisor Smith and was voted and carried by a unanimous vote of all members present.

WHEREAS, the lands in and surrounding Capitol City Airport are located within the County of Clinton, but serve not only said County, but those of Ingham and Eaton Counties, together with the greater Metropolitan area of the City of Lansing, Michigan, and

WHEREAS, it appearing that the State of Michigan presently operating said airport is not desirous of continuing in such venture and would favorably consider assigning the operation and management thereof upon and unto other responsible participants who could maintain the required standards for such an undertaking, and

WHEREAS, it would further appear that such operation and management could best be undertaken by a Joint Authority established for such purpose, and that such Joint Authority consisting of the political subdivisions most affected by the continued operation of said airport would be such responsible participants interested in the continued successful operation and growth of said community service facility as to be meritorious successors to the State of Michigan in said operation, and

WHEREAS, said most affected political subdivisions would consist of Clinton, Ingham, Eaton Counties, on a tri-county basis, together with the City or Cities of the greater Lansing Metropolitan area.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the said County of Clinton does hereby authorize its Chairman to initiate, arrange or to attend meetings to be called by said joint political subdivisions pursuant to studying the advisability of creating such an AUTHORITY, together with the merits of joining such an AUTHORITY, for the purposes above set forth, and which are hereby fostered, encouraged, and wholeheartedly supported by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Clinton, Michigan.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Chairman, Ernest Carter, be and is hereby authorized to forward this resolution to the other said political subdivisions deemed by him affected and mutually interested in the above stated purposes, and endeavors.

A motion was made by Supervisor Coletta and supported by Supervisor Shepard, that the County Clerk and County Treasurer be authorized and directed to pay a bill of the Tri-County Regional Planning Commission in the amount of $18,111.00, as Clinton Counties share of the operation expenses of the Tri-County Planning Commission for the fiscal year 1967-68. Motion carried.

A motion was made by Supervisor Nobis and supported by Supervisor Nelson, that William Coffey, be appointed by this Board to the Office of Clinton County Zoning Administrator, effective August 1, 1967, and that his salary be determined to be $6500.00 per year. Motion carried.

A motion was made by Supervisor Nobis and supported by Supervisor Barks, that the Clinton County Zoning Administrator be authorized to employ part time help. Motion carried.

Pursuant to calling of a special meeting of the city commission by Mayor Coletta for the purpose of meeting with the library board, Mayor Coletta asked City Manager Greer to explain to the five-member library board present the break-down of the municipal building expenses and the general fund administrative expenses.

City Manager Greer further in explaining the administrative expense charges pointed out the necessity of the library fund having to repay the general fund for library personnel salaries.

Crops-Soils day Aug. 31 at MSU

Research on fall harvested crops, "pop-up" fertilizers and some unique problems of air pollution will be viewed and discussed at the Crops-Soils Field Day, next Thursday, Aug. 31 at Michigan State University.
 The "pop-up" fertilizers are those which are applied in small quantities at corn planting time and in direct contact with the seed. The idea is that the fertilizers "energize" seedlings and give them an early boost toward good production. MSU soil scientist will report on their experiments with this type of fertilizer application.

THE EFFECTS of air pollution on such sensitive crops as soybeans and field beans will be discussed. MSU crop scientists have some interesting leads as to the cause of leaf bronzing of these crops. The scientists are concerned about this relatively new problem and the effect it might have on both crop yields and selling price.
 All told, there will be 12 tours at the field day which will run from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. from the tour headquarters at the MSU, Crop Science farm, corner of M.L. Hope and Beaulmont roads.
 Other stops will include comparisons of alfalfa varieties and a re-examination of variety and fertility recommendations, reports on nitrogen fertilization of soybeans, suggestions for growing 200 bushels of corn per acre, a late report on weed control in soybeans and field beans, new developments in sugar beet production and soybean variety comparisons.

Wrens have a unique method of assuring that no other wrens will invade their territory. If several birds houses are put up in a wren's territory, the male usually fills most of them with debris.

Keep it a happy day

Labor Day is just around the corner. The symbolism of the day has been lost to many in the enjoyment of the good life. Never in history has such a high level of well-being been the lot of so many people. For most of us, the struggle and deprivation of the centuries have faded into the limbo of history and are no longer comprehensible.

sea. An army of attendants, maintenance crews, firemen, police, first-aid and rescue personnel will be on hand to minimize the casualties. Their task is formidable at best, and unless holiday throngs cooperate, it becomes a hopeless rearguard action.

'Something for nothing' promises are frustrating

Before hailing the new depression-proof era of a finely-tuned, government-managed economy of perpetual abundance as a complete success, the following facts should be noted:

1) Since 1960, the population of the United States has grown by 10 per cent; 2) Since 1960, the personnel comprising the civilian bureaucracy of the federal government has grown by 25 per cent; 3) Since 1960, expenditures for national welfare and health programs are up 210 per cent.

The deficits for the eight years since 1960 will total $50 billion and for the decade will probably be about $75 billion. The national debt will be up by approximately the same amounts. Forty-two million people now receive regular checks from the federal government—either directly, or from states under aid programs financed largely with federal funds.

Maurice H. Stans, former director of the budget, points out: "The government can spend only what the people provide, either directly in taxes or indirectly through inflation. If the people are constantly led to expect more than can be delivered to them, the result is bound to be frustration and unrest—and worse."

Here's a precedent to be greatly feared

The editor of the Asheville, N. C., Citizen has reported one of the most disturbing federal business expansions that has come along yet. It seems that the Office of Economic Opportunity has provided a grant of $179,000 to Community Action, Inc. of Boone, N. C., to publish a weekly newspaper and distribute it free to everybody in four counties.

The Asheville Citizen comments that, "If the OEO can publish a weekly newspaper in northwest North Carolina . . . Washington can . . . develop—gradually, insidiously—a federal press, financed by taxpayers' money and telling the American people only what it wants them to hear. That is not likely? No, it is not likely. It is possible. That is the prime tactic of dictatorship, with a controlled press the main tool."

This is an intolerable precedent in a nation where individual liberty depends to such a great extent upon the independence and freedom of expression of thousands of weekly and daily newspapers.

The 'Low Down'

From the Congressional Record By Joe Crump

Senate wants curb on LBJ 'war' power

Senator J. W. Fulbright (Ark.) "I send to the desk a resolution and ask that it be stated." THE PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. McCarthy in the chair): "The resolution (S. 151) will be stated." The legislative clerk read as follows: S. 151 (would curb commitments to foreign powers unless agreed to by the Congress).

"IN ITS ESSENCE, this resolution represents a conservative position which seeks to recover in some degree the constitutional role of the Senate in the making of foreign policy—a role which the Senate itself has permitted to be obscured and diminished over the years . . ."

Senator Frank Carlson (Kan.) " . . . I commend the distinguished senator from Arkansas for what I believe is the timely introduction of the resolution. Not only will the resolution be well received in the Senate, as has been indicated, but also, it will be well received by the people of this nation . . ."

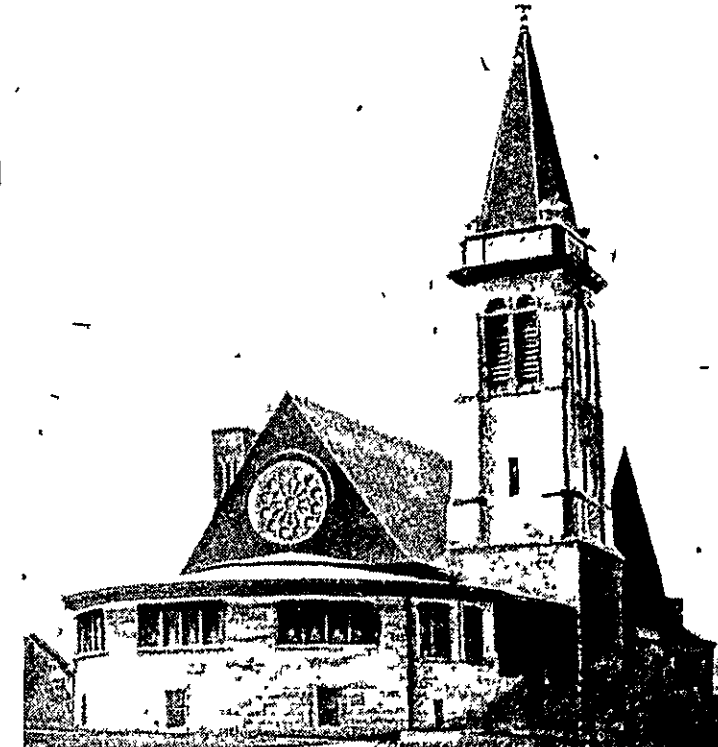

Senator George D. Alken (Vt.) " . . . I comment briefly on the senator's resolution by repeating that old saying, "It is better late than never . . ."

Senator Mike Mansfield (Mont.) " . . . I have followed this debate and I think it has been one of the most significant debates that I have heard in all my years in the Senate. . . This is something the Senate will have to face up to, but the Senate cannot cry too loudly about what has happened because the Senate all too often has been a complacent and willing partner . . ."

A GRASSROOTS COMMENT Few people can understand how this country became involved in a conflict the size of the Vietnam "war," a conflict that calls for the participation of all branches of the Armed Services, including the Coast Guard; the taking of a battleship out of mothballs; of increased taxes to finance the undeclared war that sends servicemen's death notices into every corner of the country; and hampers the American Red Cross in administering to servicemen held prisoner.

Michigan traffic deaths for the first six months of this year totaled 847, which was 198 (or 19 per cent) fewer than 1,043 in the same period last year, according to state police provisional figures.

Newspaper contests are fine, and they are helpful, and they encourage better newspapers, but the real judges of any newspaper's worth are the people who read it, day after day, week after week, year after year. That's the kind of competition that really counts, and that's how you can tell if you're doing a good job for your newspaper and your community.

TALK - TALK - TALK THE PROBLEM

Beat the heat!

Is the heat wearing you down? It's hot in most of the United States in mid-summer. In the desert and in the south, it's even hotter, but by late July and August it's often hot even in the mountains.

REGARDLESS OF whether one blames the heat or the humidity, it's still hot. There's nothing you can do about the outside temperature. Unless, you're fortunate enough to have an air conditioned office or shop, home and auto, there's nothing much you can do about it inside either.

STAY OUT OF THE SUN as much as possible, especially during the middle of the day when rays are hottest. Wear light, loose clothing, the less the better. The ladies have an edge over the men in this respect. Drink more liquids than usual, but take extra salt only on your physician's advice, particularly if you have liver or kidney trouble or a heart condition.

GET UP EARLY in the morning to do your heavy work on the lawn or garden. Or work at dusk in the evening, but try to avoid heavy exertion during the hottest hours of the day.

THE MORE RELAXED outdoor life of the summer months has many advantages to compensate for the heat. Stay relaxed and use common sense, and you can beat the heat—at least somewhat.

SLAYTON, MINN., HERALD: "Affluent Americans have long since concluded that they are, indeed, their brother's keeper. But an Associated Press picture in the . . . newspapers leads us to wonder to what extent we have come in this regard. The picture showed police removing a demonstrator in Boston. The incident was said to be triggered by welfare recipients demanding increased allowances . . . Next thing you know someone will form a union of welfare recipients and we'll have strikes for bigger and better doles."

ABLENE, KAN., REFLECTOR-CHRONICLE: " . . . union plumbers in New York announce acceptance of a new contract calling for $8.59 an hour. In Washington, however, the talk is of a 5 per cent surtax on personal and corporate income in 1967.

Clinging Vines

By W. E. DOBSON The lowly squash or pumpkin vine Creeps aimlessly along, Until it finds support to climb That's anchored stiff and strong, Embracing then the tentacles With which it doth surround, And pulls itself upright as though 'Twere glad to leave the ground. Man often imitates the vine In finding ways to cling To something stronger than himself Some little success to bring; Though vines—and men—oft make mistakes And lean on slender weed, Each seeks its hour of glory From boredom to be freed. The vine can hardly bear good fruit Lest anchored quite secure, And man likewise falls in his task Without his anchor sure; So learn we lesson from the vine: If we would progress gain, Find something to which we may cling Lest effort be in vain!

Million dollars in state salvage, surplus items sold each year

BY ELMER E. WHITE
Michigan Press Assn.

Few Michigan motorists realize there are two kinds of freeways in Michigan — Interstate freeways and state freeways.

"The only difference between Interstate freeways and state freeways is in the financing," Chairman Ardale W. Ferguson of the State Highway Commission says.

"Interstate freeways are financed with 90 per cent federal funds and 10 per cent state funds while state freeways are financed on a 50-50 basis."

The 41,000-MILE Interstate freeway system was approved by Congress in 1947 but construction didn't get underway until adequate financing was made available by Congress in 1956.

Michigan is one of the leading states in construction of Interstate freeways. It has built 807 miles of the 1,080 miles of Interstate freeways allocated to Michigan.

An 850-mile state freeway system was established by the state Legislature in 1955 to complement Michigan's Interstate freeway system.

Ferguson reports that 482 miles of state freeways are now open to traffic and that it will cost more than $700 million to build the remaining 368 miles of state freeways.

THE $700 MILLION estimate is more money than it cost to build the state freeways now in use.

Major state freeway routes include US-23 from the Ohio line to Flint, US-131 from the Indiana line to Cadillac, US-31 from the Indiana line to St. Joseph and from Holland to Ludington, US-127 from the Ohio line to Lansing, M-53 from Detroit to Imlay City, M-78 and M-21 from Lansing to Port Huron and US-27 from Marshall to Grayling.

A master highway classification plan, which calls for construction of an additional 1,400 miles of state freeways during the next 20 years, was recently approved by the State Highway Commission.

This proposed expansion of the state freeway system calls for extension of US-31 from Ludington to the Mackinac Bridge and US-131 from Cadillac to Traverse City.

Other major additions to the State Freeway System would be US-2 across the Upper Peninsula, US-23 from Standish to Alpena, M-35 from Menominee to Marquette, a freeway paralleling I-94 through Michigan's southern tier of counties and a freeway paralleling I-75 from Detroit to a point north of Bay City.

ABOUT 1,100 MILES of other routes have been designated as "principal state highways" — mostly in Northern Michigan — and a third classification — "area service highways" — was designated for the remaining 5,000 miles of state highways, Ferguson noted.

The commission chairman said Michigan will have more than 1,300 miles of Interstate and state freeways open to traffic by the end of this year and will pass the 1,500-mile mark by 1970.

"Our studies show we'll need to build another 1,500 miles of freeway between 1970 and 1980 if we are to meet our growing highway needs," he said.

"Unless we get additional revenue, we'll fall far short of that mark. Even with an increase in revenue, we may not hit the 3,000-mile mark by 1980 because of the uncertainty of what the federal highway financial picture will be after the Interstate System is completed in 1972."

JUSTICE COURTS will go out of business by Jan. 1, 1969. It still isn't definite what sort of system will replace the old Justice of the Peace nor how well the new plan will work.

Most difficult of the questions involving the "district courts" are:

Will the local community, the state, or a combination of the two pay expenses of maintaining the district court?

What limits will be placed on the types of cases the new court can handle?

Will laymen be allowed to act as judges, or will it be required that only lawyers can serve in this capacity?

The legislature was given five years from the date the new Constitution took effect. There are only 18 months left.

ASC PROGRAM

Pre-measurement service offered wheat producers

We are offering premeasurement service to wheat producers again this fall. The 1968 wheat allotments have been mailed to producers, and producers wishing to have their acreage premeasured should contact our office immediately as we have limited personnel to measure, and the requests that come in first will be serviced first.

There are many advantages to the producer for this premeasurement service. He will know in advance of planting time the exact acreage of his fields. The small cost of this service will more than pay for itself by avoiding over-planting which will be a waste of seed, fertilizer, and labor for those who will participate in the 1968 wheat program.

Pre-measurement service offered wheat producers

We are offering premeasurement service to wheat producers again this fall. The 1968 wheat allotments have been mailed to producers, and producers wishing to have their acreage premeasured should contact our office immediately as we have limited personnel to measure, and the requests that come in first will be serviced first.

There are many advantages to the producer for this premeasurement service. He will know in advance of planting time the exact acreage of his fields. The small cost of this service will more than pay for itself by avoiding over-planting which will be a waste of seed, fertilizer, and labor for those who will participate in the 1968 wheat program.
