Chamber readies banquet

ST. JOHNS — The oldest living past president of the St. Johns Area Chamber of Commerce will come in for recognition next month when members gather for their annual awards banquet Oct. 5 at Daley's Restaurant.

Already several candidates for the special award have been nominated and the awards banquet committee, headed by vice president Bill Patton will meet the week of Sept. 20 to make final selections.

In addition to this presentation, two other major awards will be given. An "Outstanding Chamber Member" plaque will be presented to the nominee who has performed most effectively during the past year in chamber projects, while a member or non-member will be recognized for "Distinguished Community Service."

Patton explained that several nominations have been received at the Chamber office and final selections in these categories will also be made by the committee.

WE'RE HOPEFUL THESE awards will become recognized by everyone in the community as prestigious honors," Patton said. "Those who receive them will have truly earned the recognition."

County GOP groups plan Bar-B-Q Sunday

ST. JOHNS—The Clinton County Republican Committee and the Republican Women's Club are sponsoring their annual Chicken Bar-B-Q on Sunday September 19 and will be held at Smith Hall in St. Johns from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

This year the Bar-B-Q will be a family affair with Family Rates and children's portions at a reduced price. There will also be games and activities for the little ones.

The prices are adults, $2.00; children under 12, $1.50; or the whole family for $9.00.

Brown's aide here Sept. 21

ST. JOHNS—U.S. Congressman Garry Brown has announced that his district representative, Lew Soll will be holding office hours in St. Johns on Thursday Sept. 21.

Soll will be available from 11 a.m. to 12 noon at the Clinton County clerk's office in the courthouse. Anyone interested has been invited to stop into the office to discuss problems with the congressman's representative.

Trash liner sale planned

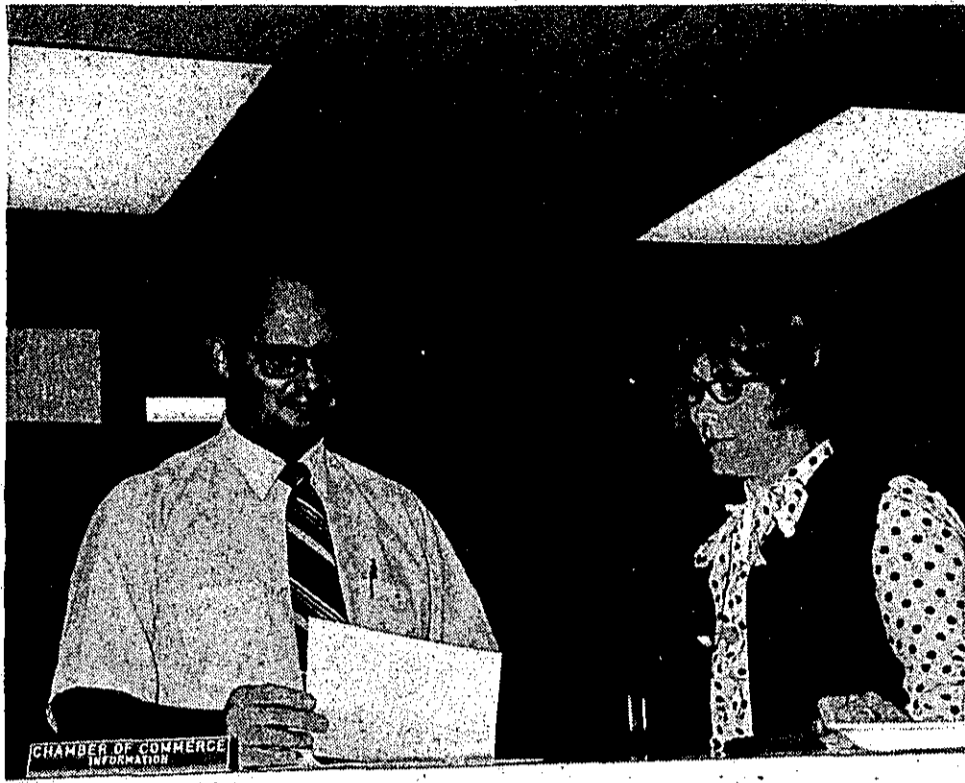

ST. JOHNS—How's your trash liner supply?

If it's running low, then keep Sept. 20 in mind.

That's the day the St. Johns Jaycees will be selling the liners on a door to door basis, beginning at 7 p.m.

The liners cost $3 for a roll of 50 and $5.50 for a roll of 100.

IF YOU ARE not contacted and you do want some, call 224-3154 or 224-6065 or contact any Jaycees member.

PLANS BANQUET

Chamber of Commerce office Secretary Roberta Mageli and Bill Patton prepare plans for the upcoming awards banquet slated for Tuesday Oct. 5 at Daley's Restaurant. Patton is vice president of the chamber and is serving as chairman of the banquet.

Employment funds split for law enforcement

ST. JOHNS—A special emergency employment committee of the Clinton County Board of Commissioners Friday split a $61,300 emergency employment fund grant among five governmental units.

The money will be used to hire mostly policemen with the exception of the City of St. Johns, who will use their funds for other city employees.

Committee Chairman Gerald Lankford said the committee felt the greatest need for employees within the county was in the law enforcement field, and so the money was split up between the sheriff's department, Bath and DeWitt Townships, the Village of Ovid and the City of St. Johns.

The money was given to the county recently by Governor Milliken after the state had received federal funds to be used for employment purposes.

COUNTY CLERK ERNEST Carter said the Board of Commissioners had taken the responsibility for allocating the money and notified the various governmental units in the county to make applications for the funds.

"The total requests exceeded $200,000," Carter said. "Of course that was more than we had available."

With the decision by the committee to use the monies for law enforcement, the split was made like this:

Sheriff's Department—$15,300 for two deputies.

Bath Township—$8,500 for one patrolman.

DeWitt Township—$17,000 for two patrolmen.

Ovid Village—$7,800 for one patrolman.

City of St. Johns—$12,700 for one man in the water treatment plant and one laborer for the Department of Public Works.

ERNIE BOONE, A representative of the Governor's Task Force in Lansing said Tuesday the Clinton County Proposal for spending the money was due in on Friday of this week.

"We are working now to establish the details and final requirements for spending these funds, and the approval process will take from five to seven days," he said. "The county, if approved, should be receiving the money within 10 days. That is our goal, and we are working like mad to attain it."

CARTER SAID THE City of St. Johns had recently hired a new patrolman before the funds became available and thus the money was used for other city employment needs.

The money turned over by the state was earmarked for use in restoring cuts in public services by providing jobs in such fields as law enforcement, police and fire protection and road maintenance and street repair or to create new programs in these areas and others that would not have been possible until now.

The funds were available under a Congressional act passed this year called the Emergency Employment Act of 1971. The money was made available to Clinton County to give priority hiring to Vietnam and Korean War veterans, migrants, young persons, Indians and the unemployed. No job could be created with a salary of over $12,000 under the program.

DeWITT—The DeWitt Board of Education Monday night unanimously approved the teacher contracts for 1971-72, to become the first school district in Clinton County to have their teachers under contract.

"It was very smooth going, this time," Supt. James Ritchie said. "The school principals all commented that this was probably the smoothest school opening in years."

Ritchie said the contract was "exactly the same contract, page for page, as last year except for the calendar and salary. In fact, we came to a tentative agreement early."

The contracts call for an increase of

State aid up Clinton children benefit

By TOM DeWITT

LANSING—Clinton County School children will have the possibility of getting a better education during the 1971-72 school year thanks to a county-wide boost in state aid and local tax revenues.

The recently passed state aid measure provides for an average overall increase in combined state aid and local revenues of at least $40 per child for the 1971-72 school year.

Sen. William Ballenger (R-Ovid) told the Clinton County News Tuesday that the increases were all within one or two dollars of each other for each of the county school districts.

"This is the purpose of state aid, to equalize as much as possible, the amount of local and state monies being spent to educate children in Clinton County," Ballenger said.

THE BREAKDOWN IS as follows:

DEWITT—Each child in the DeWitt School District will have a total of $744.50 in combined state and local revenues spent on him this year. That is compared to a total of $699.81 spent last year.

The increase in state aid amounts to $40.17 over last year and an overall increase in combined state aid and local millage money of $44.69.

The DeWitt Schools will receive a total of $477.07 in state aid and $267.43 in local property taxes compared with $436.89 in state aid last year and $282.82 in local tax last year.

FOWLER—The Fowler School District received the largest increase in state aid, because of a decrease in local revenue monies this year.

A child in the Fowler district will have a total combined amount of state aid and local millage money spent in the amount of $689.06 for the year '71-72, compared with $646.76 spent last year. The figures represent a total combined increase of $42.30 over 1970-71.

The Fowler Schools will receive $441.01 per child in state aid and $248.05 in local millage monies this year.

The Fowler District lost a total of $5.26 per child in local revenue this year, and the larger state aid grant made up the difference.

BATH—The total combined money per child in the Bath District this year will be $705.15 as compared with $661.11 last year. That includes $516.01 in state aid and $189.14 in local millage monies per child. The amount represents a combined total increase of $44.04 over last year.

OVID-ELSIE—Children in the Ovid-Elsie School District will have a total of $899.84 combined state aid and local revenue monies spent this year. That includes $425.57 in state aid and $247.27 raised locally through millage for a total combined increase of $42.83 over the 1970-71 school year. The total last year was $856.01.

PEWAMO-WESTPHALIA—P-W students will be receiving a total of $693.88 in combined state aid and local millage this year, compared with $650.80 in combined revenues last year. The figures include $404.08 per child in state aid and $289.60 per child in local millage monies for a combined increase of $43.05 over 1970-71.

ST. JOHNS—The St. Johns School District will have a total of $694.22 per child this year of combined state aid and local revenue as compared with $649.90 during the 1970-71 school year. The increase of $44.32 per child includes $399.77 in state aid and $294.44 in local revenues. The St. Johns School District received the smallest increase in state aid this year.

Downtown will have a brighter outlook

By TOM DeWITT
Co-Editor

ST. JOHNS—The city has a brighter outlook.

Not financially, of course, but there may be less grumbling about the "sad shape" of the city street lights on Clinton Ave.

At their regular meeting Monday night, the City Commission authorized the replacement of 36 10,000 lumen lights on Clinton Ave. with 36 20,000 lumen mercury vapor street lights—doubling the brightness of the downtown area.

The 36 new lights were the first part of a three phase program which would ultimately brighten the entire downtown area.

THE ESTIMATED INCREASED cost of the new system to the city under Phase I would be $76.95 per month or $923.40 per year. There is no cost for installation.

The lights would be installed by Consumers Power Lansing Division, who also made a study of the lighting system following a request by the city fathers. A note to City Manager Harvey Weatherwax explained that the work load and the power company employees strike had delayed the report to the commission.

The delayed report had caused somewhat of a minor flap among some of the downtown merchants and members of the Chamber of Commerce.

Some of those members were present at the Monday meeting.

SAID CHAMBER VICE President William Patton: "On behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, let me say we are extremely happy with your decision to go ahead with the new lighting system."

The new lights will be on both sides of Clinton Ave. from State St. to Steel St.

Phase II of the plan, if and when it is implemented, would include replacement of 11 2,500 lumen, one 6,000 lumen and four 10,000 lumen lights with eight 20,000 lumen and eight 10,000 lumen mercury vapor lights in an area bordered by Railroad, Ottawa, State and Clinton Ave. Eight of the lights would be installed in the alley on the west side of the business district. It would cost an estimated additional $49.79 per month or $597.55 a year.

Phase III would replace four 2,500 lumen, five 6,000 lumen and six 10,000 lumen lights with eight 20,000 lumen and eight 10,000 lumen mercury vapor lights.

THEY WOULD BE placed on streets and in alleys on the east side of the business district bordered by Steel, Clinton Ave., Spring and State Streets. It would cost an estimated additional $40.37 a month or $484.50 per year.

Total cost of all three phases is estimated to be $2,005 a year to the city, if all were implemented at this time.

The Commission authorized the City Manager to go ahead with Phase I and to "Find some money to pay for it."

There was an additional condition.

DR. JAMES M. GROSZ said the downtown area was not the only portion of the city where the lighting needed upgrading. "We have some very dark sections of this city in the residential areas and I ask that another study be initiated by Consumers to determine the costs of upgrading the lighting of city streets in these areas," he said.

The Commission concurred.

Charlotte man dies in crash

VICTOR TWP.—A 36-year-old man was killed early Monday morning when the car in which he was riding went off the road and struck a tree. The accident happened at Round Lake Road and Babcock Road, Sec. 29, Victor Township.

Jack Leroy Williams, R-3, Charlotte was killed at approximately 2:45 a.m. Monday, according to State Police in East Lansing.

Details of the crash will not be released, officers said, until the investigation is completed this week.

Clinton gets $34,923

LANSING—A compromise state revenue sharing plan that is based on "tax effort" and "tax burden" will provide local units of government in the six-county 30th Senatorial District with $57,255 more than last year's formula, Senator William S. Ballenger (R-Ovid) said today.

Ballenger said the measure, which was passed by the Senate and sent to the Governor for his signature, is a compromise between plans proposed by Governor William G. Milliken and the Michigan Municipal League.

"The bill allocates $20.7 million for cities, villages and townships and adds $2.7 million for the county share of the state income tax for the current fiscal year," said Ballenger. "This is a 44 percent increase for the counties over the last fiscal year."

Ballenger said the measure recognized both the tax burden of local units of government and the tax effort they are making as basic components of the new revenue sharing formula.

"A 'GRANDFATHER CLAUSE' in the bill provides that no local unit will be paid less than $16.50 per capita from the combined sales, intangibles and state income tax distributions in the current fiscal year, $400 on the base salary of a first level teacher with a bachelor of arts degree, raising the income to $7,800 per year. The top salary for a teacher with a BA degree is $11,130 at the 10th level.

Master of Arts degree holders will receive a base of $8,540 with a top rate of $11,870. A master of arts-plus30 category will receive a base of $8,910 with a ceiling of $12,240.

The DeWitt Education Association (DEA) had ratified the contract by a 78-0 vote on Aug. 20, but had to wait until Monday night when the board met officially to ratify the pact.

In other action, the board:

—Approved the hiring of three instructors. They are Christine Kane, Okla Johnson and Lydia Radtke.

—Received approval of a $52,828 bond loan from the Michigan School bond loan program. The money will be used as part of the district's debt retirement plan.

—Gave Supt. Ritchie authorization to contact James Giddings, a local attorney, to represent the board. The current board attorney, Patrick Kelly, resigned that post and that of county prosecutor to pursue a private practice in the Upper Peninsula. Giddings is an assistant prosecutor with the City of Lansing and is a member of the DeWitt law firm of Kelly and Matson.

CNB officials attend conference

ST. JOHNS—Two executives of Central National Bank here attended a two-day Business Development Conference of the Michigan Bankers Association held at Boyne Highlands, Harbor Springs.

Present at the September 8-9 meeting were Harold Wellman, president, and Robert Thompson, executive vice-president. Wednesday's schedule included sessions highlighting sales training, new market ideas, a consumer panel with the topic "If I Were A Banker" and another on "Meeting Non-Bank Competition."

SPEAKERS AND PANEL moderators were obtained from Detroit, Chicago, Grand Rapids, Flint and Philadelphia.

Business notes

By MIKE PREVILLE
 News Advertising Manager

This is it, when the men and the boys get separated. Everyone can talk football and sound like an expert but with this issue the experts will be sorted out. The County News' Football Contest starts this week.

Twenty dollars will go to the lucky and/or expert person who selects the most winning teams. And again, the games selected for the contest are "easy" ones . . . or so they seem. There will also be a "tie-breaker" each week. You must select the winner and estimate the total number of points scored in the game.

The Lion game isn't a part of this week's contest because it won't be played till Monday night. And besides, the Vikes will win it anyway.

The upset of the week? New York Jets over Baltimore. I've been reading about television sports announcing lately. And I agree with the folks who enjoy listening to Howard Cossel, Don Meredith and Frank Gifford. With the exception of the late Paul Christman I think they do the finest job of not only telling what happened but why.

The other network announcers will come up with, "Munson was caught in the back field for a 7 yard loss, folks." Big deal. I've got eyes and I saw it. Cossel and company, on the same play, come out with something like this: Gifford, "Munson's down for a 7 yard loss, folks."

Meredith, "Ouch, that even hurt me..."

Cossel, "Detroit's 'All-Pro' center Ed Flannagan blew it that time, he didn't even wink at Gerlovitch as Big Frank..." Meredith, "... tried to disassemble his quarterback. You know better than that, Ed."

Part of the past weekend was spent in Manistee. At an advertising meeting. In a hotel overlooking the Manistee River which was filled with fishermen after Coho. I didn't have rod, reel, boat or invitation but it didn't bother me at all. After the meeting I strolled down to the pier and threw rocks at everyone in a boat who smiled.

Assessment hearings held

ST. JOHNS—Public hearings on special assessments for two requested projects were conducted by the City Commission Monday night. One was settled and the second was tabled.

Commissioners opened hearings on a special assessment for sewer improvement on Giles St. There was no one present to discuss the matter.

The request was made by the Briggs Company and Fedewa Builders, City Manager Weatherwax told the Commission the parties agreed to pay to have the work completed and since they were the only ones to be involved, the Commission later authorized a contract with them to complete the work. A second public hearing, on curb and gutter construction on Oak St., brought about a lively exchange between Commissioners Roy Ebert and Mrs. Robert Rand.

I discovered one important thing over that weekend. I'll never, never invite Assistant Ad Manager, Harold Schmitz to dinner. We had "family style" shrimp one evening. After 4 or 5 heaping plates of deep fried and boiled shrimp had disappeared the waitress told us the average customer eats maybe a pound of shrimp. I would venture a guess as to how much Harold put away but no one would believe me...but don't you invite him for dinner either.

EBERT QUESTIONED THE validity of petitions which had been filed earlier with the city. He said he understood some property owners who had signed the original petitions had changed their minds.

Ebert also said the commission had ruled at a previous meeting that corner lot owners would only be assessed on one side of their property. Mrs. Rand disagreed. "It's always been on both sides for as long as I have been on the Commission," she said.

Trailer ban will be reviewed

ST. JOHNS—The long established ban on camping trailers being parked within the city came under review Monday night by the City Commission.

A communication from the St. Johns Ministerial Association asked the Commission to review the ordinance with the possible changing or implementing a new ordinance.

The Association cited several cases where traveling evangelists have not been able to park their trailers on church property within the city while they are visiting and conducting services because of the ban.

The Association said, however, they were making the plea not just from their standpoint, but from the standpoint of all St. Johns citizens who may have guests visiting with trailers and motor traffic off of US-27.

THE COMMISSION authorized the city clerk and city attorney to make a study of the possibilities of authorizing temporary trailer parking permits.

In other action, the commission heard the first reading of a proposed St. Johns Building code patterned after one established for the county.

Public hearings on the code will be held Oct. 11 at 8 p.m.

Parking ban sought for Lansing St.

ST. JOHNS—The City Commission Monday authorized a study by the police department in an effort to limit parking on one side of Lansing St. from State St. south.

Commissioners felt the amount of traffic on the street to and from the St. Johns High School, and the width of the access demanded that parking be banned on at least one side.

Commissioner Dr. James Grosz said, "There are many times when cars parked on each side, directly across from each other, limit the flow of traffic on the street."

The Police Department will make the survey to determine which side of the street would best be suited for the parking ban.

MRS. CHARLES A. ROOT, 109 Oak St., had a different view. "We have lived there for four years, getting stuck in the mud and with the dust, and we definitely want it. We're tired of the present situation," she said.

The Commission was puzzled with what to do, since only two residents had shown up.

A related matter, the withdrawal of a dedication of a parcel of land for street right of way, was withdrawn by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rand.

"THERE HAVE BEEN so many changes on this thing, that we have not been able to establish a cost factor yet," said Manager Weatherwax. "I wish you people would set some guidelines for this matter."

Commissioner John Hannah moved the hearing be recessed until Sept. 27 at 8 p.m. and that some further study into the matter be undertaken. The commission concurred.

In another related matter, the Commission gave Manager Weatherwax authorization to conduct an engineering study and complete work on a petition from Mrs. Joe Kubica for sewer extension of 100 to 150 feet from Sturgis north on Lansing St. Since Mrs. Kubica is the only property owner involved, the Commission felt it would not be necessary to conduct public hearings.

A request for the cleaning of a drain on the city property on the south side of Walker Rd. west of Lansing St. was received from Wilber Minott.

HE SAID WATER draining into the ditch was not being carried away and was standing on his land during the winter months.

The Commission authorized Weatherwax to conduct a study, obtain cost estimates, and report back at the next meeting.

Weatherwax also told the commission a water main extension on US-27 of 630 feet would cost an estimated $5,250. The commission tabled the matter for further information.

Revenue sharing

regardless of the level of local tax effort," said Ballenger. "This is an increase of more than 9 percent above the $15.08 per capita distributed the last fiscal year.

"In effect, the new bill rewards local taxing efforts." Ballenger said the new revenue sharing formula provides the 17 cities and 22 villages in the 30th Senatorial district with a total of $306,883 more than they would have received under the revenue sharing formula used last year.

"COUNTIES WILL RECEIVE $156,122 more under the new formula than if the formula of last year were continued, but the district's 77 townships will receive $105,750 less than they would have under a continuation of last year's formula," Ballenger said.

"However, it should be emphasized that all three different units of government will receive more in 1971-72 under the new bill than they did in 1970-71.

"For instance, last year the counties received $3.27 per capita and would have received $4.41 this year if the formula had not been changed. But the new formula adds 30 cents and brings the per capita distribution for this year up to $4.71 for the counties.

"Townships and municipalities throughout my district received a flat $15.08 last year per resident and would have received $17.44 this year if the same formula had been carried on. Under the bill just passed, townships will receive $16.50. Municipalities will receive varying amounts depending upon the formula factors used."

UNDER THE NEW formula, municipalities in the 30th Senatorial district will receive $309,253 more than under last year's formula. This includes: Gratiot, $53,698.30; Eaton (part) $60,319.82; Montcalm (part), $27,681.57; Shiawassee, $115,989.48; Clinton, $34,923.25; and Ingham (part), $14,664.00.

Following is the additional money the cities and villages in Clinton County will receive over the previous formula. The figure in parenthesis at the right is the per capita amount provided under the new formula.

Table with 3 columns: Municipality, Amount, Per Capita. Includes Dewitt, St. Johns, Eagle, Elsie, Fowler, Hubbardston, Maple Rapids, Westphalia.

Some of these figures may be changed slightly by a late amendment which provides that the cost of city and township improvements installed as special assessments will be added as "tax burden" to provide more aid to some local units.

Mrs. Margaret Strunk, a former resident of Pewamo now of Orleans, has been discharged from Ionia County Memorial Hospital Wednesday, Sept. 8. She is recovering from a broken hip.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Feldpausch and family of rural St. Johns were callers at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Irene Fox Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leach of Florida spent the past five weeks with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thelen. Tuesday they went to Saginaw to visit her sister, Mrs. William McPherson, who is recovering from surgery at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Packard at Saginaw.

September 11, Mrs. Dora Smith celebrated her 89th birthday at her home on Lincoln St., Pewamo.

Huntington attends banking school

MADISON-Charles B. Huntington, of Clinton National Bank and Trust Company, St. Johns, was among 835 banker-students from 47 states, including Hawaii and Alaska, who attended the 19th summer session of the three-year School for Bank Administration held Aug. 8-20 at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

The record 835 banker students included 32 women from 18 states total included 316 freshman students, 284 juniors and 235 seniors. The students also came from the District of Columbia, Canada, Jamaica, the Netherlands, Nicaragua, and Puerto Rico.

The school is sponsored by the University of Wisconsin and the Bank Administration Institute, and is one of the more than 500 short courses and conferences held on the Wisconsin campus at Madison throughout the year as educational public services for all citizens.

High school diploma available at St. Johns

ST. JOHNS-If you slipped out of high school without getting hold of that diploma, then Bert LeFevere is out to get hold of you. LeFevere is heading up the adult high school completion program at St. Johns High School again this year. And if you don't have that diploma, Bert can tell you how to get it.

WHAT QUALIFIES?

Not having a diploma is the number one criteria. Age isn't really a factor as the program is geared to handle both 21 year olds and older or younger people. The other criteria are an interest and a desire to obtain a high school diploma. Interested?

"I am always after people," he says. It's not really that hard to do either. A simple call will get the ball rolling if you really want to.

THEN BE SURE not to miss the organizational meeting planned for Thursday evening Sept. 16 at 7 p.m. in room 142 at the High School.

"IT TAKES A special kind of desire," said LeFevere. "I am sure that everyone who does not have a high school diploma would like to have one. But many people are afraid. They are not sure."

LeFevere says his program is designed with the individual in mind. "I am interested in solving individual problems which could prevent someone from trying to get a diploma," he said. "And our program is very flexible."

LeFevere will be on hand to explain the program and a representative of the American Schools will also be on hand to explain the independent study program, both of which will be available again this year.

The classes will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m. in room 142 from September to May of next year. If you want to get more information prior to the meeting, give Bert a call at 224-2394.

The decision to keep the pool open will be studied during monthly reports to the board by school officials.

Pool to open as usual

ST. JOHNS-High School officials here plan to open the St. Johns swimming pool to the public as planned, but may be forced to close it if funds are not available.

is only for those living within the school district. All others must pay $35. Thursday nights is again open to public swimming.

"If we are meeting our expenses, we will continue to operate the program," board members said. "If not, we will have to alter the schedule or drop it entirely."

Red Cross lessons will be held on Saturdays with beginners diving in at 9 a.m. until 9:40. Advanced beginners get the pool at 9:45, with intermediate swimmers at 10:30 and beginners under 54 inches tall at 11:15.

The swim program, which has been in operation for two years, will begin Oct. 2 and run until Nov. 20. The eight week program, which includes swimming instruction will cost $4.

The decision to keep the pool open will be studied during monthly reports to the board by school officials.

The pool will be open for public swimming Monday Sept. 27. There will be two other eight-week courses during the year if funds are available. One is slated to start Dec. 4 and run until Feb. 5, but includes a two-week break for the holidays. The third program will begin Feb. 19 and run until April 15.

The new schedule released last week calls for open swimming on Mondays from 8:30 p.m. until 9 p.m. Cost here is 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults or $1 for the family.

Tuesdays and Wednesdays will be reserved for pool parties rented at the rate of $25 for two and one-half hours. The cost

Those attending the Shakespeare Festival were Ruth Willette, Mary Patton, Michele Lenon, Kathy Beagle, Terry Riley, Janie Thrush, Amy Wellman and Anne Fox. LuAnne Thelen, Karen Buggs, John Ward, Peggy Powers, Jackie Slade, Helen Hiltz, Kaye Halmo Marty Ernst and Janet Barnes. Pat Migrants, Jim Barnes, Cindy Westland, Kim MacLuckie, Silly Durner, Marla Signs and Bruce Ceasar.

The trip was sponsored by the school speech and theater department under the direction of R.L. Koger and Tom Smith.

Shepardsville

By LUCILLE SPENCER, Correspondent

WCS MEET

The general meeting of the Shepardsville WCS was held at the church on Thursday evening, Sept. 9. Mrs. Karl Smith presided over the business meeting. Correspondence was read from the conference and district officers and also a thank you note from Mrs. George Olson. During the business meeting it was voted that each of the circles continue their contributions to the general treasury and that the coffee hour be resumed in October and Community House Sunday be observed on Nov. 8.

Mrs. Francis Hall had charge of the program and Mrs. Ralph Baker the devotions. Mrs. Baker used as the scripture lesson Psalm 46:1-2 and James 1:16-20. The meditation was taken from the study book "A Leap in Faith." The topic discussed by Mrs. Hall was on the changes in our social life and how it affects family life. It was presented in the form of a dialog, touching the various problems as they effect the family. The next meeting will be in January.

-NOTICE-

The business office of the late Dr. Paul F. Stoller, M.D., will be open Mondays through Fridays from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. until further notice to assist patients in providing for transmission of their medical records to other physicians and for settlement of their accounts.

David Paul Stoller,
Special Administrator

OFF TO ONTARIO

These St. Johns students, members of the drama club, get ready to travel to Ontario for the Shakespeare Festival at Stratford Sept. 10. They attended three plays including "MacBeth," "Much Ado About Nothing" and "Volpone."

Mrs. Rita Goerge and daughter, Agnes, Bernita Hufnagel and Misses Cecilia and Amelia Thelen attended a Tupperware shower for their niece, Beverly Thelen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thelen. The shower was held Thursday evening at her apartment in Lansing and was given by her sisters. She will become the bride of Harold Whiteing on Oct. 9.

Mrs. Agnes Fox and Mrs. Anna Droste attended the barbecue chicken dinner at Hemlock Sunday.

Mrs. Lula Boak spent Friday afternoon and evening with Mrs. Stella Mageau.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schafer spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Simon and family of Mt. Clemens.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fox and daughters Shelly and Nancy of Flint spent Sunday evening with his mother, Mrs. Agnes Fox. Diane Boak returned home last week after vacationing in Norfolk, Va. for four months.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haley of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Miller and Mr. and Mrs. William Snyder Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bradbury and baby of Holt and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schrauben Jr. and children of near St. Johns were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Motz.

Parking board named

ST. JOHNS—The St. Johns City Commission Monday night established a Parking Lot Advisory Board to study parking problems in the downtown area and within the city.

City Clerk Thomas Hundley said the purpose of the Advisory Board will be to make recommendations in regards to parking within the city. They will assist the city commission in regards to parking lots and other parking facilities.

Appointed to the seven member board were City Manager Harvey Weatherwax, Commissioner John Hannah, Chamber of Commerce President Rollin Huard, and businessmen Edward Idzakowski, Robert Thompson, Edward Mankey, and Don Roegner. They were appointed for two one year terms and two two-year terms although the commission did not specify which ones would serve which terms.

In other commission business, the commission authorized a proposed contract with the firm of Hubbrl, Roth and Clark for engineering services on the renovation of the Waste Water Plant, estimated to cost in excess of $1.25 million.

CITY MANAGER HARVEY Weatherwax was appointed grant administrator for the expected federal and state grants and a communication was received from the Department of Natural Resources saying that the stipulation had been signed, which will bind the city to complete the work on the Waste Water Plant according to state and federal regulations.

Little Eagles have mentor

FOWLER—Another new face on the Fowler football scene this year is Ron Bedore who is coaching the JV squad and will also coach junior high basketball for the Eagles.

Bedore, 25, comes to Fowler from New Lothrop St. Michael's where he served three years as head football coach for the varsity squad and two years as wrestling coach.

A native of Unionville, Bedore graduated from Central Michigan University in 1969 with a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and sociology and a minor in physical education. He also has his BS degree in secondary education and teaches social studies and physical education at Fowler.

Bedore's football teams at St. Mike's had 3-5 seasons all three years. He is single and lives in St. Johns.

The Eagles will go into the 1971 grid season under the tutelage of 26-year-old Steve Spicer, named this fall as head football coach.

Spicer, the former JV football coach for the Eagles, was named to the varsity position to succeed Blaine Douglas who took a coaching position at Burr Oak.

Spicer has been at Fowler for three years as coach of the varsity baseball team and served two years as JV football and basketball coach. He will continue as baseball coach and JV basketball coach, in addition to coaching varsity football.

56 boys attend hunting course

ST. JOHNS—More than 50 boys completed the Jaycee Hunter Safety course sponsored by the St. Johns Jaycees.

A total of 56 boys received hunting safety instructions from Bud Jarvis, Larry Slade, Dave Huminek and Jack Downing.

The Jaycees expressed thanks to the St. Johns High School for the use of the classroom. They cited Dave Cook who brought a special gun to the class for discussion and helped the boys with their shooting. They also cited Don Wealch, Clinton County conservation officer.

The group used the Sleepy Hollow Club rifle range for practice. Guns and ammunition for the course were supplied by Dean's Sports Center.

PP&K contest registration on at Egan's

ST. JOHNS — Registrations for the 1971 Punt, Pass and Kick competition, co-sponsored locally by the St. Johns J.C.'s and Egan Ford Sales, Inc., continue to roll in.

The contest is for boys ages eight through 13 and it winds up with final eliminations at the NFL Super Bowl Game in New Orleans Jan. 16. If you can kick, pass or punt a football and meet the age requirements, you will want to compete. Participants compete only against boys their own age. Any boy, eight through 13 years of age may register to compete at participating Ford dealer. There is no entrance fee and no body contact during competition. No special equipment is needed and participation does not impair a boy's amateur standing. Scoring is based on accuracy and range with one point added for every foot of punting, passing and kicking distance and a point subtracted for every foot off a center line. Boys, accompanied by a parent or guardian, may register for PP&K at Egan Ford Sales, Inc.

Gen-tel will close Carson City offices

ST. JOHNS — General Telephone will close its Carson City business office Friday, Sept. 24 and begin handling all business office transactions at the St. Johns office the following Monday.

W. F. Graef, district manager for the company, said today. The closing affects customers in Hubbardston, Middleton, Palo and Perrinton in addition to Carson City.

"We have seen a steady decline in the number of people who utilize our business office facilities," Graef said. "As an example, more than two-thirds of our customers now use the convenient return envelope provided with each monthly billing for mail payment."

Graef said the company could provide more efficient service to its customers through the St. Johns office.

Local "payment agencies" have been appointed to accept bill payments from customers who wish to continue personal bill payment, Graef said. The agencies are, the State Bank of Carson City, the Palo Post Office and the Perrinton Post Office.

Graef noted that the agencies are authorized to accept only bill payments and other transactions, such as questions concerning service or long distance billing, must be handled at the St. Johns business office.

"Customers will be able to reach the St. Johns office by telephone without paying long distance charges by dialing 'Operator' and asking for 'Enterprise 6346,'" Graef said. "The service numbers included in your present directory, such as Repair Service and Directory Assistance will remain the same."

Graef said the Carson City business office employees are being transferred to the St. Johns office.

All customers will receive a letter from Graef explaining the move, he said.

Wedding

The deadline for wedding information for publication in the Clinton County News is 5 p.m. on the Thursday preceding publication. The News cannot guarantee immediate use of stories submitted after that time. This deadline is necessary to insure fairness to all parties and to all types of news. No wedding stories will be delayed more than one week.

If publication of a wedding story is desired in the first publication after it takes place, information should be submitted prior to the wedding and by the established Thursday deadline. Wedding information blanks are available at the County News office.

Desprez attends school

ST. JOHNS—Gayle Desprez, vice president and cashier of Clinton National Bank recently completed the first two-week session of a three year course at the University of Wisconsin graduate school of banking.

Desprez was among 1,500 bankers from 41 states and three South American countries enrolled in the course which includes studies in economics, investments, law, marketing and commercial loans. Instructors and speakers at the school are numbered among presidential advisors and members of U.S. Congress.

Desprez will complete the course in 1973 after two more on-campus sessions and a home assignment program. He is a graduate of several other banking profession courses and currently serves on the board of directors of the American Institute of Banking for central Michigan. AIB sponsors educational sessions for bank employees.

Open Letter from VAN W. HOAG

Dear friends,

It deserves emphasis that the time, the place, the character of the funeral service, the merchandise used, the cemetery selected - these are decisions of the family of the deceased. The funeral director acts only as a representative of the family.

The clergyman should be consulted in matters that concern him before any decisions are made.

Respectfully,

PLAN THEATER PARTY

Mrs. Virgil Zeeby, left, and Mrs. Howard Gentry check the reservation list for the upcoming annual Theater Party, sponsored by the Clinton Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

Hospital Auxiliary plan theater party

The Clinton Memorial Hospital Auxiliary members and guests are planning their annual trip to the Fisher Theater on Saturday, Oct. 16.

The cost of the trip, which includes bus trip, theater ticket and a stop at Northland Shopping Center in Detroit, is $15.

Those wishing to make the trip should call in reservations before Oct. 1 to Mrs. Zeeby, 224-4338 or Mrs. Gentry, 224-3751.

Featured at the Fisher will be "And Miss Reardon Drinks A Little" starring Julie Harris and Kim Hunter.

The play depicts three sisters who are all seeking their own personal adjustment to life after the demise of their domineering mother. It can best be described as a play of affirmation.

Miss Harris, who is repeating the role she created on Broadway in "And Miss Reardon Drinks A Little" recently won her third Tony Award for her starring role in "Forty Carats".

Miss Hunter has created many memorable portrayals on stage and screen including her Oscar winning role of Stella in "A Streetcar Named Desire."

Canteen planned

An early morning canteen for Clinton County men leaving the area to obtain their pre-induction physicals will be held on Tuesday Sept. 21 at 6 a.m. at the Central National Bank community room.

There will be fifty young men traveling by chartered bus to Detroit and they will return to St. Johns the same day.

Rev. William Harkard of the St. Joseph's Catholic Church will represent the Ministerial Association at the September canteen.

Doris Frowant of the Red Cross will conduct the canteen with the assistance of Joyce Thrush, Alberta Brock and Edna Eldred of the Blue Star Mothers.

The Double N Extension Club will provide cookies and the Red Cross will supply coffee to all attending the canteen.

Roll Call will be taken by Mrs. Milo Podolak, Clerk of the Clinton County Selective Service.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD DEAN CORNWELL

Couple travel North following wedding rite

ST. JOHNS—Marleen Seconsky became the bride of Richard Dean Cornwell Saturday, July 31 in St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Rev. Joseph Aubin officiated at the 1:30 p.m. ceremony before an altar decorated with daisies, white carnations and gladiolus in colors of white, green and yellow. Rev. Harold Homer also assisted in the double ring ceremony.

Tom Fowler rendered "Oh Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by organist Mrs. Jackie Schneider.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seconsky of 1140 South Warren Road, Ovid and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Cornwell of 300 East Higham Street, St. Johns.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and approached the altar wearing a demure princess-style gown in oyster linen featuring Venice lace entwined with satin ribbon on the bodice. Lace paneled the floor-skimming skirt and cuffed the sheer three-quarter Bishop sleeves. Her chapel-length veil was secured in place by an empire crown of pearls and Venice lace entwined with satin ribbon edged the circular of the veil. She carried an all white bouquet of carnations, daisies and baby breath with white streamers.

Mrs. Gordon Taylor of Ovid sister of the bride, was matron of honor and assisting as bridesmaids were Debbie Seconsky of Corunna and Adie Boeck of Ovid. The attendants wore floor-length gowns of mint green dotted swiss with white lace trim in an empire style design. They wore mint green and white lace headpieces and carried bouquets of white daisies and green and yellow carnations with green and yellow streamers.

Dennis Cornwell of Torrance, Calif. was his brother's best man and serving as groomsmen were Richard Mean of Lansing and Terry Adams of St. Johns. Seating the guests were ushers, Gordon Taylor of Ovid and Roger Wyrlick of St. Johns.

Serving as host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Seconsky and Mr. and Mrs. Madison Wyrlick aunts and uncles of the bride and groom.

A 5:30 p.m. reception and dinner was held at St. Joseph's Gym. The bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vital Pariselle of Laifour, France were unable to attend the wedding, but in their honor a touch of France was added to the ceremony. While the bride and groom were showered with rice they showered their guests in return with French Dragees (almond covered candies).

After the wedding and at the reception, the bride and groom gave a little more touch of France to their aunts, grandmothers and sisters by handing out small floral baskets filled with candies.

Following the reception the new Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell left for a wedding trip to Houghton Lake. They are making their home at 50 1/2 West Higham Street, St. Johns.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Ovid-Elsie High School. The groom is a 1966 graduate of Rodney B. Wilson High School and attended Lansing Community College.

Patricia Kridner weds Bruce Aldrich

ELSIE—The Elsie United Methodist Church was the scene of the Saturday, Aug. 14 wedding ceremony uniting in marriage Patricia Eileen Kridner and Bruce Alan Aldrich. Rev. Paul Jones performed the 7:30 p.m. double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladiolus and blue carnations.

Organist for the service was Sharon Dunham of Elsie and soloist was JoAnne Neely of Lapeer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kridner of R-1, Elsie and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aldrich of R-1, Elsie.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and chose a gown of white satin accented with appliques on the train which was connected to the skirt with a flat panel in front and pleats on the sides. The round neckline, with a lowered back, was edged with a ruffle of lace and lace covered the bodice. The gown also featured a full lace sleeves with lace covered cuffs accented with satin covered buttons. Her shoulder-length veil was secured in place by a circular crown of satin covered lace and she carried a bouquet of white and pink roses and baby breath tied with satin ribbon streamers.

Marjorie Bailey of Ludington was maid of honor and assisting as bridesmaids were Sharon Kowalk of DeWitt, Gail Howe of Pittsburg, Pa. and Julie Aldrich of Elsie, sister of the groom. The attendants wore blue linen street-length sleeveless dress with a stand-up roll collar and a self fabric back belt. They all carried bouquets of pink long-stemmed roses.

Sharleen Haynes of Mason, cousin of the groom, was flower girl.

Best man was Kenneth Kridner, brother of the bride, and assisting as groomsmen were Jack Larsen, Carl Murray and Kenneth Jones. Seating the guests were ushers, Ralph Kridner, brother of the bride, Mike Roberts, Chuck Palmatier and Glenn Aldrich, brother of the groom. Ring bearer was Lanson Fay.

A reception was held for 300 guests at Fellowship Hall following the ceremony. Special guests at the wedding and reception were Frank Oberlin, grandfather of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. August Witt and Mrs. Marion Aldrich, grandparents of the groom.

Following a wedding trip to Chippewa Lake the couple will make their home at 314 Sterling Street, Ashley.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Rodney B. Wilson High School and a 1971 graduate of Central Michigan University.

The groom is a 1969 graduate of Rodney B. Wilson High School and will be a student at Lansing Community College in the fall.

Are You Getting Engaged this Fall Here is a Little Help

DIAMONDS ??? Flourite Lyne

Diamond prices are based on purity, size and cut. We offer no "discounts or bonuses" because you will find the diamond purchased at HARR'S is of the finest quality already at the lowest price. We are never interested in a "Quick Sale". Your complete satisfaction has been our goal for 29 years.

DIAMOND PRICE FACTS: Don't spend more than you can afford. A good rule to follow: Spend about a month of your salary on the engagement ring. But make sure you get the most for your money. In the ring style that pleases her most.

DIAMOND BUYING FACTS: About half of all engagement rings are chosen by boy and girl together. But in many cases the young man buys the diamond alone. Or he talks it over with us first and then brings his girl in for final selection. It's up to you!

DIAMOND STYLING FACTS: Modern girls are individualists. Some want an absolutely perfect diamond even if it is smaller. Others want the largest stone possible even if it has slight flaws. Some want ultra-modern, others traditional styling. These are the things to talk over with us.

COME IN SOON AS POSSIBLE! We have helped so many young couples. We can help you to come to the right decision. Let your wishes and our experience be the guide. For a lifetime of happiness with your diamond. We have any credit terms to suit you and if you wish, we do have a private Diamond Room to display and service you.

Card of Thanks

STOLLER - We wish to thank the doctors, nurses, hospital personnel and employees of the Clinton Memorial Hospital, Reverend Homer and Rev. Father Harker, the Methodist Church Women's group, Robert Serrine and staff, our friends and neighbors, the many patients and friends of Dr. Paul F. Stoller for the kindness shown to us following his death. We have been deeply touched by the expressions of love and respect for Dr. Stoller shown by the people in the form of cards, food, flowers and comforting words to us. We know he would have felt greatly honored by the contributions made in his memory to the Intensive Heart Care Unit and the Pediatrics Department at the hospital. We also wish to thank those who have commissioned the production of his portrait for the hospital and to the community for their efforts for a Dr. Paul F. Stoller Memorial Fund. For all of these kind expressions we are very grateful. The Family of Dr. Paul F. Stoller. 20-1p

BARBOUR - I wish to thank Dr. Russell, nurses and aides for the wonderful care given to me during my recent two-week stay at Clinton Memorial Hospital. Consumers Power construction site

LUDINGTON, Mich., September 10—Michigan's giant pumped storage project near Ludington is drawing a proportionately large number of visitors to the site on the Lake Michigan shoreline.

More than 150,000 persons have traveled to the site to watch construction activity since Consumers Power Company and The Detroit Edison Company began keeping count in August, 1970. The number of visitors is averaging 8,500 each week. The two utilities are joint owners of the facility.

What do visitors see? The project is one of the largest single construction endeavors in the nation. Its size and scope are literally breathtaking.

On a given day, as many as 100 large earthmovers are in operation hauling the 45 million cubic yards of earth which must be excavated and used for fill.

Six penstocks, circular steel pipes measuring 1,300 feet each in length and up to 28 feet in diameter, are being erected by part of the 2,400-man work force. The penstocks will carry water between Lake Michigan and a reservoir being built above the shore.

The embankment of the reservoir is six miles long. The man-made lake will have a capacity of 27 billion gallons of water.

Covering a 1,400-acre site, the pumped storage plant is being built at a cost of $340 million. When completed in 1973, it will be capable of generating nearly 1.9 million kilowatts of electricity.

Water from Lake Michigan will be pumped into the reservoir during off-peak hours, such as late at night and on weekends, when demand for power is low. It will be stored until the daytime hours of peak electrical demand, then released to fall through pump-turbines to generate electricity on its way back to the lake.

Many visitors leave the site awe-struck by its size, according to Frank L. Smith, Consumers Power Company field information program at Ludington. Smith believes they tell their friends about the project, because the number of visitors keeps increasing although the utilities do little advertising about the plant.

The word is certainly being spread. Visitors have come from 50 states and 30 foreign countries. Many tourists tell Smith they have gone miles out of their way to see the construction activity.

A visitor to the project arrives directly at the information center, which is open seven days a week including holidays.

The information center, run by Smith, a secretary, and up to four other employees during the summer months.

Originally, an information center was to have been built when the plant was nearing completion, but the large number of visitors required the installation of temporary facilities for the public during the summer of 1970. These were replaced with a much larger facility this year.

From an observation area directly above the shoreline, the viewer can watch construction of the mammoth generating station, over 100 feet high and nearly 600 feet in length. He can also see the workmen building the penstocks up the slope and has an excellent view of the harbor and shoreline.

Inside the information center is a large animated model of the entire plant. A second animated model shows a cutaway view of how the water will flow through the penstocks. Other displays describe the project in detail.

An adjacent auditorium houses unique new audio-visual/multi-media presentation. Using rear-screen projection on three movie screens, nine slide projectors and a motion picture projector are coordinated to present a narrated program. The automated operation is synchronized by a small computer.

Smith and his staff act as visitors' guides to answer questions and supplement the information provided by the displays.

For example, Smith says, the penstocks are so large that a semi-trailer can be driven through them. The reservoir will be paved with 500,000 tons of asphaltic concrete, the largest single application of this material in the world. During generation, the water will be returning to Lake Michigan at the rate of 33 million gallons per minute.

Around Ludington, the words "largest" and "biggest" have become as commonplace as the visitors.

Helicopter refunded third time

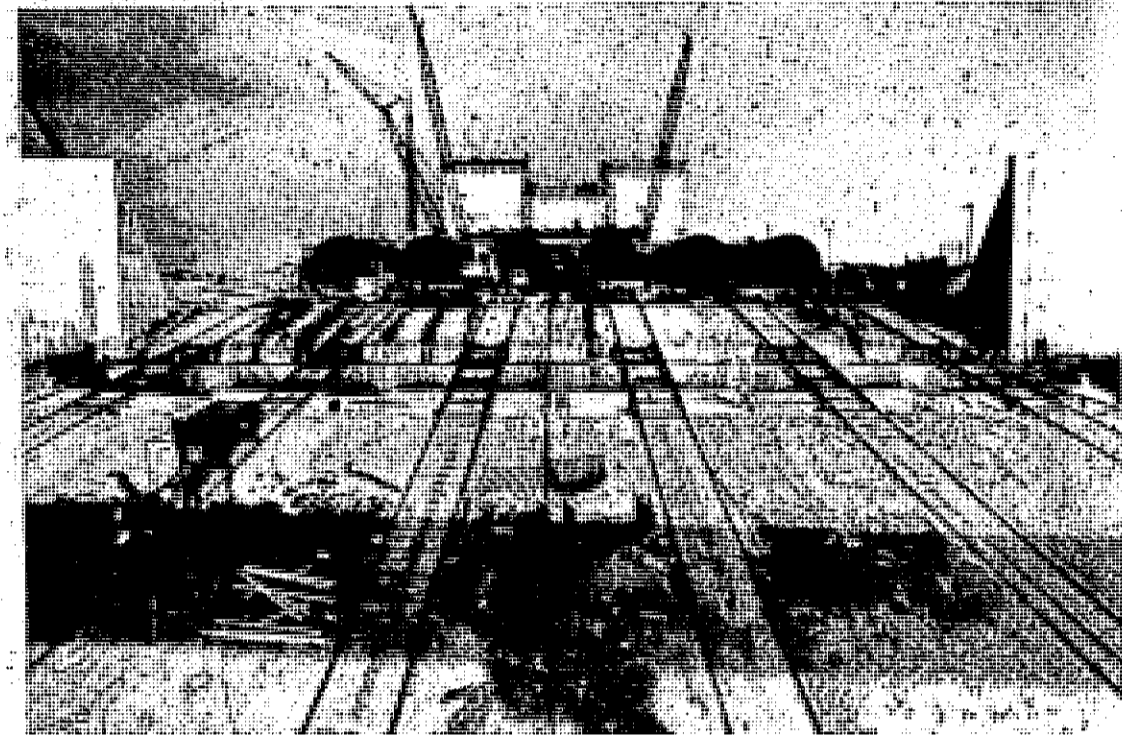

EAST LANSING — Michigan State Police have been advised that $41,000 in federal funds has been approved and released for the third year of the department's operation of its helicopter in police traffic services, Col. John R. Plants, director, reported.

The sum covers the federal grant period from July 1 this year through next June 30. The grant period of three years began in 1969.

The department received $172,800 for its first year of the helicopter project which included about $135,000 for the purchase of the craft from the Fairchild-Hiller Corporation.

The second year federal aid amounted to $32,400. Total federal funding for the three-year period is $246,200. Arrangements for the project and the financing were handled through the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning, whose director is Noel C. Bufo, and which is a division of the State Police.

CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY

Six penstocks will carry water pumped from Lake Michigan to the upper reservoir and will channel it back through the generators to produce electricity. The 1,300 foot pipes will measure 28 feet in diameter at the upper end and 24 feet at the bottom, large enough to accommodate a semi-trailer. At maximum generating capacity each penstock will be carrying water at the rate of 12,660 cubic feet per second. The Ludington facility, being built at a cost of $340 million, will generate nearly 1.9 million kilowatts of electricity after it begins operation in 1973.

THE JOHN RADEMACHER FAMILY

meet John Rademacher, our busy young man in Fowler

Active!

That one word describes our Fowler office assistant manager, John Rademacher. As those who know him can attest, you're likely to find John after hours in any one of a number of places—like working for the Jaycees, helping out with a Holy Trinity parish project or lending a hand in a community-wide event. It seems that John is always on the go.

But we wouldn't want him to be any other way. Since joining the bank in 1963 John has pursued his work with this same approach of varied interest, progressing from trainee to teller to assistant cashier and assistant office manager. For almost eight years now John has been with Clinton National Bank and we hope this is just a beginning. We like our people to know and grow in their work and to be an important part of their community. John fills both these desires.

John is a native of Fowler and a graduate of Fowler High School. In addition he has completed a number of bank study programs sponsored by the American Institute of Banking including a course in personnel and supervision.

He and his wife, Cathy, have three children, Steven 6, Daniel 5 and Curt, eight months. The Rademacher's live at 442 S. Main St. in Fowler.

Glass project earns $175,760 this year

By JOHN AYLSWORTH

One year ago a committee of Clinton County 4-H Teen Leaders got together to discuss what they could do for improving the environmental and pollution problem that would involve the county youth. The idea of "Do Your Thing" brought forth the idea of collecting non-returnable glass bottles or containers that could be recycled into new products.

Not only would the glass recycling project help improve our environment but it also would reduce the amount of trash going into the landfills and would serve as a money making project as well. The Owens Illinois Glass

Plant at Charlotte pays $20 a ton for the glass containers that are returned to them sorted by color and have all metal removed. No other group in the county was doing this type of project at the time so it was a first for the 4-H Teen Leaders.

The first month, October, the group collected 4920 pounds. We learned one thing then, that if you break the bottles you can get about twice the weight of glass in a truckload than when the bottles are not broken. For November the amount of glass collected jumped to 10,380 pounds. More people learned about the project and began to save their glass bottles since the 4-H youth were doing this project on a monthly basis.

EACH MONTH THE amount of glass seemed to get higher with August being the biggest amount of 22,110 pounds. The turn out of the older 4-H Teen Leaders each month to collect, sort and break the bottles ranges from 20 to 38 youth depending upon the time of year. The interest of the Teen Leaders is increasing as they feel they are doing something worthwhile.

The money earned from this glass project totals over $1750. The group contributed $500 to the National 4-H Center Expansion Drive in Washington, D.C., provided some 4-H camp scholarships, provided part of the overnight trip cost to Cedar Point Amusement Park at Sandusky, Ohio for a busload of Teen Leaders, provided tickets to a Michigan State Football game for members plus other activities. The group is making plans for other worthwhile projects that will benefit the 4-H program and community with their funds earned each month.

I had said in the beginning we would carry out the project for one year and then evaluate the program to see if the values gained were worth the effort and time put into it. Most everyone agrees that the project is worthwhile and beneficial to the people in St. Johns and the county. People outside of St. Johns probably appreciate it more as many of the landfills are closed and they have no other place to dispose of their glass containers.

How much glass would we get if everyone just in St. Johns would save their glass? I'm not sure but in many parts of town there is no glass set aside on the curb each month for the group to pick up. With a weekly trash pick-up it is pretty convenient not to bother saving the glass containers for a whole month. People outside of town drive in from as far as Fowler, Dewitt and other areas as they are concerned about recycling of the glass containers and appreciate what the youth are doing. Groups from other parts throughout Michigan have been taking glass containers to Charlotte for recycling. However, they are finding it harder each month to get people involved as the project begins to seem less fresh and exciting.

THE CLINTON COUNTY 4-H Teen Leaders are planning on continuing the glass container collection project for some time yet. However, it would be helpful to the group if people would remove the metal rings. It is not necessary to remove the paper labels. Also the bottles should be cleaned and free from food. We are getting some bottles that have food left in them. These can't be used and have to be hauled to the landfill.

The cooperation and assistance of people who have worked with this project has been tremendous. The year's summary and evaluation of the project has shown the 4-H Teen Leaders made a wise decision last September to "Do Their Thing" for their country and community.

The Double M 4-H Club members enjoyed a trail ride this past weekend, September 10-12, in the Astley area on State owned land. This was the club's final summer activity. In their planning meeting for the trail ride they also evaluated the County Fair and made some suggestions for improvement.

The world market is a dynamic place—a place of opportunity for American agriculture to increase its returns from the market place, according to Nick Smith, Chairman of the Michigan Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

In the United States, beef producers and soybean growers respond to increased demand at home and abroad—for the livestock and poultry products usually thought of as a part of better living. Consumption of vegetable oils and cheese reflects the changed eating habits of Americans and some of this gain is at the expense of other animal products.

The Japanese have enormously increased feed grain imports to help meet the rising demand there for meat, milk and eggs. The Dutch have decreased feed grain imports and substituted other materials because of trade restrictions in the Common Market. And the Canadians are growing more feed grains and feeding more cattle at home—their response to the changing world appetite.

Equipment operation safety tips

LANSING — Contrary to the theory of self-defense, a mechanical equipment operator who keeps his guard up can get clobbered, warns the Michigan Department of Labor.

At least that's the case when he operates power presses and other machinery while their guarding devices are not in place, the department says.

Of the 50,000 compensable injuries received by workers in Michigan each year, over 5,000 result from accidents involving machines.

THE DEPARTMENT OFFERS these tips for safe machine operation:

Never start a machine without the guards in place.

Never adjust or remove machine guards without permission from your supervisor.

When guards are removed for repair or adjustment, the main power switch should be tagged and locked out to make the machine inoperable.

IN ADDITION, machine guards should be inspected regularly to make sure that they are functioning properly.

Washington, D.C. and issues just naturally go together! Some of the issues discussed in Washington have been around longer than the people who are now discussing them.

One of these issues, and one that is particularly important to farmers, is the agricultural exemption in the Transportation Act of 1958. This has been argued often in the past, but thirteen years ago Congress drew a line between commodities classified as "agriculture" and those labeled "manufactured."

A coalition of regulated carriers—rail, truck and water—has been formed to seek the enactment of a ten-point transportation legislative program. One of the coalition's ten proposals is to extend economic regulation to transportation of livestock, processed poultry, redried tobacco, shelled peanuts, processed milk products, processed eggs and several other commodities.

Bills to implement the coalition's program have been introduced in the Senate and House.

The crux of the coalition proposal is that the transportation by truck of the farm products listed would be limited to carriers having a "certificate of convenience and necessity."

The certificates are issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission and authorize carriers to haul specific products to and from specific points listed. The regulated carriers must charge rates approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The coalition's bill provides that certificates be issued to concerns engaged in handling such products on June 1, 1971. However, exempt carriers (many of whom are farmers or small local truck operators) rarely have the regular operations which meet ICC qualifications for certificates of convenience and necessity.

It is forecast that an extension of regulations to the specified products listed by the coalition would mean both substantially higher rates and poorer, less dependable service.

Smith stated that each of these trends is a reflection of opportunity—and response to that opportunity.

The new domestic farm programs are designed to help us produce and compete for markets both at home and abroad. American agriculture has just completed two remarkably good export years but we will need the will to compete and constant vigilance to maintain fair access for our products in the markets of the world.

In the 1970 crop year almost one cropland acre out of every four produced for the export market.

ST. JOHNS — Michigan State Police reported reaching a new high gross of $10,131.25 in their seventeenth annual auction Thursday of confiscated, recovered and unclaimed merchandise at East Lansing headquarters, according to Ernest W. Banning, director of the department's business administration division.

The previous high gross was $8,934.05 in the 1969 auction.

This year's sale of 636 lots of merchandise, totalling more than 2,000 items, began at 8:30 in the morning and ended at 6:30 p.m. Several hundred persons attended the sale throughout the day in generally good weather with occasional light rain.

Net proceeds of the auction, which will be turned over to the state treasury, will not be known until all billings for advertising of legal notices have been submitted and paid. Fees for auctioneers also come out of the gross.

LAST YEAR'S auction grossed $7,751.75 and netted the state $5,746.98.

Lettuce

By HELEN MEACH
Extension Home Economist

How often do you have a fresh green salad at home? Low calorie greens are popular, and did you know that every year American families eat more and more? The latest figures show each of us eating about 21 1/2 pounds each year!

Is head lettuce the most popular salad green with your family? Then you may be interested to know that most of it comes from California and Arizona — about 85 per cent. In Michigan the lettuce grown for the commercial market comes from the Stockbridge area. Greenhouse lettuce — leaf and Bibb — is expanding in the area around Grand Rapids.

The varieties of lettuce are many and all are full of good nutritious eating. Be daring — surprise your family with possible new (new to them) and different salad greens. Some of these might be: romaine, curly endive, escarole, Chinese cabbage, butter lettuce, spinach, curly cabbage. Others available are: kale, beet greens, collards, mustard greens, Swiss chard, nasturtium leaves, parsley, mint and almost any other green you can think of that will add your individual touch and special flavor to your salad.

Greens deserve careful care. As soon as possible after a purchase remove inedible leaves and twist or cut out core. Wash gently under cold running water and drain well. Don't discard all the dark outer leaves. They are less tender, but they are rich in vitamins and minerals. They can be used in sandwiches and torn into a tossed salad where appearance isn't so important! Wrap in film or foil and store in refrigerator. To prevent rust-colored spotting, or russeting, store as near to 32 degrees F. as possible. The vegetable tray of most refrigerators is about 38 to 40 degrees F., so the coldest place is usually higher up. Also, fruits as melons, apples and pears give off ethylene gas as they ripen, causing lettuce to russet. Store these apart from well-wrapped greens.

Garden lettuce should be picked early in the morning before the sun has wilted it down. If it contains insects, wash and soak in lukewarm salted water. Then allow the greens to stand in cold water long enough to restore crispness. Store in plastic bags or set in shallow water like a bouquet of flowers and place in refrigerator.

Loose greens, like parsley and watercress, should be washed, drained thoroughly and refrigerated in a tightly covered container.

*Tip: For salad lettuce so crisp it crackles, place a plastic bag of salad greens in the freezer for a few minutes before serving.

How safe are they upholstered furniture

By LORRAINE SPRAGUE
Extension Home Economist

How often do you say "well, my children are safe at home"? Really now how safe are they? Take your home medicine cabinet for just one example. How many bottles of pills are available for little hands to open easily? Pills that could cause serious illness or possible death to a small inquisitive pre-schooler.

The most typical type of home poisoning occurs to a child under five eating a tiny handful of aspirin taken out of mother's purse, from a dresser drawer or even that medicine cabinet. Children think little pills (often flavored and colored) are candy meant just for them.

Child resistant containers for prescription tablets and capsules are being used by many retail drug outlets. Various types of child resistant containers are available. You know the kind that have an extra catch or simple mechanism which will stump the child but does not require unusual strength or dexterity for an adult to remove or re-apply the closure.

We should compliment retail drug outlets that provide child resistant containers. Those that don't should be encouraged to do so by the adult buyer—mothers, fathers.

This type of container might prevent 75 to 90 per cent of the pill poisonings to children under five years old. But we must never relax our effort to keep all kinds of containers out of the reach of children or those with the nimble, mechanically skilled fingers will continue to bring up the poison ratings.

Take time now to "safety check" on this one important home problem.

Are you considering a piece of new upholstered furniture in the not-too-distant future? If the answer is "yes" you'll be wise to study up on the characteristics of the different fibers being used today in upholstery materials. The fabric information is valuable to you do-it-yourself craftsmen also.

For this latter group the fact that by law (the Textile Fiber Products Identification Act of 1960) all upholstering fabrics purchased by the yard must be labeled according to fiber content with the generic "family" name and percentage of each fiber represented. Fabrics on upholstered pieces need not be so labeled so the dealer may be your only source of information.

Usually furniture fabric is a blend on two or more fibers to take advantage of specific fiber characteristics at a lower cost. However at least 20 per cent of any fiber is necessary before a fiber can contribute to the performance characteristic of a fabric, except spandex which allows considerable stretch at a lower percentage.

Cotton, rayon and acetate fibers are commonly used in upholstery fabrics due to their lower cost and extremely wide variety of color and texture.

Wool fibers are long wearing, are uncomfortably warm in the summer and somewhat higher in cost.

Glass fibers are now available in upholstering fabrics. They promise good wearability due to their strength, stain resistance and colorfastness. Today a polymer coating controls former glass fiber problems such as breaking from abrasion and irritation to sensitive skins. Synthetic fibers of many kinds are popular for furniture fabrics. Olefin fibers have almost zero absorbency meaning they are highly resistant to staining. One caution—olefin fibers have a low melting point!

This means added care is necessary regarding smoking materials or other sources of fire such as fireplace sparks. Nylon and polyester fibers offer high strength and are resistant to abrasion and thus are durable. They may "pill" (a condition resulting in tiny balls forming from friction) however. Polyester fibers also have the disadvantage of low resistance to oily stains.

Knowing these characteristics of fibers can guide you in selecting the upholstered furniture that best meets your needs and desires in price, wearability, care and appearance.

Horse census completed, shows Clinton with 2,626

EAST LANSING—It's official. There are 2,626 horses in Clinton County.

After a hectic few days in August, John Alysworth, Michigan Cooperative extension agent for Clinton County, and his 4-H'ers came up with the total. The figure includes horses, ponies, mules and donkeys.

The head count was undertaken at the request of the U.S. Department of Agriculture in the wake of an outbreak of Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE) in Texas.

The disease causes sleeping sickness in horses and other equine species. It can infect humans, although the attack does not usually have serious consequences.

"Knowing the number of equine in the state was necessary to insure that enough vaccine would be available in case an outbreak of VEE would occur here," said Jake Wamhoff, assistant to the state extension director. "We decided the best way to undertake the survey was to mobilize our 4-H members under extension field staff supervision. They did a fine job."

He said the survey was more accurate than any previous attempt. Most experts figured the current horse population at about 100,000. The survey revealed that there are 171,005 equine in Michigan.

A breakdown of the study showed that Eaton County has 4,494 equine while Ingham County has 4,190. Other near-by counties listed included Shiawassee with 2,662, Gratiot with 1,700, Ionia with 2,593 and Montcalm with 2,283.

"In the past, equine counts included only those animals on farms," he said. "Animals counted in this census took in those on farms as well as those on premises classified as rural non-farm, riding stables, zoos, parks, race tracks and other locations."

According to veterinarians at Michigan State University, there are still no confirmed cases of VEE in horses outside of Texas. Recent casualty figures there showed 1,480 horses dead and another 1,800 sick.

is vaccinated, it is under quarantine for 14 days and may not be moved to another area during that time."

Outdoor furniture: practical splurge

EAST LANSING—What better way to enjoy your outdoor living space than to supply comfortable, attractive, durable furniture for your family and friends? Picnic tables, lounge chairs, tea carts and huge umbrellas can turn the back yard into your most often-used "room" during the summer.

The range of styles, colors, materials and prices in outdoor furniture may confuse the first-time (or even experienced) shopper, says Margaret Boschetti, extension home furnishings specialist at Michigan State University. "Concentrate on finding a combination of weather resistance, portability, and compactness for storage, suitable for your family," she says.

The most popular types of outdoor furniture are made of wickerware, metal or wood, the specialist points out.

Wickerware, including wicker, rattan, bamboo, cane and rush, is economical, lightweight and easy to care for. Wicker itself is very flexible and can be fashioned into the fanciful curves and elaborate designs of Victorian style. In general, wickerware furniture should be protected by a finish of paint or shellac.

Metal furniture is aluminum, wrought iron or steel. All are strong and durable. Iron and steel, however, are susceptible to rusting, unless protected by a baked-on enamel finish, and are less comfortable than a more flexible material.

Redwood is the most popular wood for outdoor furnishings. It is lightweight and strong and, because it doesn't store heat, it is comfortable to sit on in the summer. Redwood furniture is expensive. Quality pieces are usually two inches thick with screwed-on legs and smooth rounded edges. If knotholes appear, they should be hard and tight.

Fiberglass furniture is rapidly gaining popularity because it is ideal for your round use indoors

New drivers need lots of adult help
EAST LANSING—Michigan highways have the added hazard of 80,000 new, fledgling drivers this fall, a safety expert warns. Trying their wings for the first time are youths who got their driver education in public school programs during the summer months and who have had only a month of driving experience with parent or guardian at their side. "These kids have had only 90 hours of classroom study and six hours of behind-the-wheel training, plus a limited amount of driving with adult supervision," says Dr. Robert O. Nolan, professor in Michigan State University's Highway Traffic Safety Center. "They need all the help they can get," adds the educator-father who has been teaching driver education and teaching driver education for a quarter of a century. "Parents can be a big help!" he says. He has these suggestions: "Let the fledgling share the highway driving on the fall vacation trip. "EXPOSE HIM GRADUALLY to heavy traffic, multiple-lane driving. "Let him drive you to the shopping center, the market, the downtown area. "Drive some time to rural road driving—different curves and curves, view obstruction, possible farm vehicles. "Take the fledgling out driving in the evening and at night. Chances are his training included no night driving. "AND THEN, WHEN winter comes and it first begins to freeze, see him through his first hours on icy roads and streets." Dr. Nolan also suggests that parents and youngsters have some agreed-upon guidelines for use of the car—time limits, how many passengers, how far and where. They should also talk over insurance, he says. "Driving is a responsible job and the kid who has some responsibility in setting the rules is likely to feel more responsibility for observing them," he says. "Nolan believes that parents have a right to inquire about the driver, time limits, number of passengers when and where." "If the child is on the side in another's car," he says.

1,500 area adults attend MSU classes

EAST LANSING—More than 1,500 mid-Michigan adults will join Michigan State University's student body when University buildings light up for Evening College, later this month and early in October.

Government employees, business and professional people, retirees, homemakers and others will join MSU staff, faculty, students and their wives in 57 courses ranging from new life styles to evaluating the news coverage on TV.

Registration began Sept. 13 in the main lobby of The Kellogg Center for Continuing Education.

The Evening College courses, taught by MSU faculty and guest lecturers, offer the intellectually curious opportunities for life enrichment, for professional development, for service to others and the community and for understanding today's changing world.

MOST OF THE courses will begin the week of Sept. 27 and meet two hours a night, one night a week for six to eight weeks. Some courses require textbooks and materials; others, selected readings. There are no grades, no transcripts, no credits and no examinations. Evening College people study for the joy of learning.

The fall course roster begins with Advanced Equine Management and ends with Yoga.

"There's something for everyone," according to Dr. Charles McKee, director of the Evening College.

Brand new and timely is a fall, winter and spring sequence—Women: Potentials and Perspectives—which will focus on women's place in today's society. Who is Woman? is the intriguing title of the fall term study which will begin Thursday evenings in mid-October.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST to women, too, will be courses on consumerism, managing the family money and driver education and a women's poetry group.

Other fall courses reflecting change in today's society are Dissent and the War from 1776 to 1971, Intentional Communities (communal living), Attitudes Toward Death, Alternatives During Retirement, Life Styles and Architecture, the Nixon Presidency, Biochemistry for the Layman, Contemporary Avant Garde Poetry, and Sexuality—Woman and Man.

By way of contrast, there's a course in Victorian Marriage—Fable, Fact and Fiction.

FOR THOSE IN the business world are courses dealing with facets of management, communication, investments and securities and rapid reading.

Additional information about the Evening College and any of its offerings may be obtained by contacting the Evening College office, 18 Kellogg Center, 517-355-4562.

Fees, books and tuition are free for adults for this program and further information may be obtained by calling the high school office at 582-2221.

The process for making yogurt is much the same as it is for yogurt's "cousin", dairy sour cream. The milk used is first pasteurized and homogenized. After that it is prepared to a specific degree of acidity by using a mixed culture. This develops the tangy flavor, and plain yogurt has been created.

For the various fruit flavors, artificial fruit flavorings, sugar, pured, or otherwise processed fruit is then added.

In a survey conducted in the early part of 1970, the American Dairy Association found that the favorite flavor of yogurt was strawberry, followed by blueberry and raspberry. Plain yogurt "placed" fourth. However, there are many more tempting flavors from which to choose. There are peach, mandarin orange, boysenberry and prune, among others.

When cooking with yogurt, use low temperatures. High temperatures may cause curdling. Another way to help prevent curdling is to stabilize the yogurt by adding 1/2 teaspoon of baking soda or a small amount of flour or cornstarch to the product.

In baking, treat yogurt gently. Fold it into the mixture. Do not beat, as this will sometimes thin the yogurt, and change the consistency of the finished product.

Yogurt is usually sold in 1/2 pint (1 cup) containers in the grocery stores. When you bring it home, remember, it's a fresh dairy product. Keep it cold and covered. Freezing is not recommended. Yogurt should usually be eaten within 3 to 4 days after purchase. After this time, the acidity is likely to increase and may produce a sharper taste in the product.

YOU CAN MAKE YOGURT at home from pasteurized milk (either fresh or reconstituted dry milk) by adding 4 tablespoons of fresh yogurt which you have bought to 2 cups of milk.

You will get best results if you use yogurt which is not more than three days old. Cover this mixture and allow it to stand in a warm room until it clabbers. It takes about ten hours in winter or five hours in summer.

After it clabbers, keep it refrigerated.

This product has been a staple product for hundreds of years in Europe. We are consuming more each year in the United States. In 1969, we used 143 million pounds and that is a 30 percent increase over the previous year.

Outdoor notes

hunting would continue through Dec. 19.

According to Plan II, which would go into effect if there was no exchange of land or hunting rights, an unrestricted number of hunters would be permitted on the island, but special permits would be issued for the entire 35-day season.

Regardless of which plan is adopted for the island, a bow and arrow season will be recommended for Oct. 1-Nov. 14. No special permit or registration will be required other than a regular bow and arrow license. One deer of either sex may be taken.

Throughout the firearm deer season on the island, Nov. 15-Dec. 19, two deer of either sex may be taken.

Integrity outclasses all other kinds of pull in the long run.

Adult ed program opens Sept. 21

Spell it yogurt or yoghurt, but what is it? Yogurt is a thick, custardy like, smooth textured dairy product with a tangy flavor. It is usually made from fresh, partially, skimmed milk, enriched with additional non-fat dry milk. Such names as appear on labels include Low Calorie Yogurt, Low Fat Yogurt or Dietetic Yogurt. If the label says simply Yogurt, then it is made with whole milk.

YOGURT MADE FROM partially skimmed milk contains about 120 calories for each cup or 10 calories each tablespoon. The fruit flavors have added calories.

Juvenile officers plan meet

LAPEER—The annual conference of the Michigan Association of County Juvenile Officers and Michigan Juvenile Court Officers Association will be held on Sept. 22, 23, and 24, 1971, at the Pantlind Hotel, Grand Rapids.

The theme for the conference will be: PROGRAMS FOR TOMORROW FOR JUVENILE COURTS. It will include two general sessions with the Honorable Thomas C. Kavanaugh, Chief Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court and Mr. Peter Forsythe, director of the office of youth services.

The purpose of this conference is to better enable Juvenile Court personnel in helping the youth help themselves to become successful human beings and responsible citizens. Ten workshops have been scheduled to meet this goal.

They include such areas as: Drug abuse, Adoptions, Foster home recruitment, Handicapped parents and youth, Court volunteers, Racism, Role of the probation officer, Detention facilities, Parents of Court wards, State custodial facilities.

The conference will close Friday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beagle spent Labor Day weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Beagle in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Baker and family have moved into the former Pack home. Mrs. Edward Kraft spent

Redwings could be WCC dark horse

"They are the hardest working and most enthusiastic bunch of boys I have ever coached."

Those were the words that new Redwing Head Football Coach Ernie Becker had to say about the 1971 edition of the St. Johns Redwing football team.

Enthusiasm is just about all the Redwings have going for them this year. Coupled with the talents of Coach Becker and all that hard work and desire, the Redwings could be the spotters in the West Central Conference this year.

"WE ONLY HAVE two starters back from last year," said Coach Becker. "One of the assistant coaches said this is the thinnest returns of starters we have had here in the past six years."

The returning starters are Ken Schueller, a defensive halfback last year, who will be the field general for the Redwings this year, and Rick Hudson, offensive tackle last year.

Joining Schueller in the backfield Friday night in the home opener against Mason will be veteran Dan McKenzie, swingback, sophomore tailback George Rosner and veteran upback Dennis LeVeck.

McKenzie is 5-8, 150 pounds, while Rosner is 6-1, 170 pounds. Both boys ran well in a recent scrimmage and will get the starting nod.

ON THE OFFENSIVE line this year will be 200 pound senior Daryel Peck at center, Rich Riley, 5-8, 150 pound junior guard, Jerry Smith, 5-8, 160 pound junior guard, Bruce Irish, 6-2, 190 pound tackle, a junior and Rick Hudson, veteran senior tackle at 6-3, 190 pounds.

"The end positions are still undecided," said Coach Becker on Monday. "We're looking for someone who can catch a ball and also block."

Becker said the coaching staff was taking a hard look at Sam Staley, 5-11, 170 pound junior and Dan Mohnke, 6-1, 165 pound junior.

"We are relying a lot on our juniors this year," Becker said.

RECENTLY THE TEAM scrimmaged with Bay City Central, Flint Northern and Dearborn Fordson, three of the biggest Class A football powers in the state.

St. Johns is a small A school this year.

"Our defense was terribly weak," said Becker. "We need a lot of work. This week we are spending most of our time on defense and the kicking game."

But coach Becker was extremely pleased with the offensive game in those scrimmages.

"WE MOVED THE BALL well against Bay City Central and against Flint Northern, but not so well against Fordson," he said. "They are tough competition. We ran right up their middle. If we did anything well, the offense was the bright spot of the day."

Becker said he was also pleased with the willingness of the Redwings to hit the power teams.

"They didn't seem to be afraid to hit that type of competition," he said.

The offense still needs polish, however, and Becker is stressing that also this week.

"WE ARE GOING to polish what we have and pick up new things as we go along," he added.

Defensively, the Redwings will be relying on the talents of veterans Earl Barks and Gary Koenigsnecht, a defensive line-man and linebacker respectively.

They will also be expecting great things from Kevin Hayes, a senior, who will be playing the "monster" position this year. Hayes is a free linebacker who will rove on either side of the line where the play is expected to move.

"We still are making too many changes defensively to say who else we will have in specific slots," Becker said.

OTHER RETURNING Lettermen are Wayne Hettler, a senior tackle, Steve Marek, senior guard, Jack Henning, junior end, and Rudy Rosner, senior end.

In the season opener with Mason, the Redwings could have the advantage. The Bulldogs have only two starters back and they lack size. But they do have speed.

"They are strong on speed and play a wide open brand of football, running a lot of reverses and pass plays," Becker said. "They will be a real test for our defense."

But if the scrimmage is any indication of how we move the ball, then they will have problems with us," he added.

THE REDWINGS COULD be the dark horse in the WCC this year. Grand Ledge is the favorite and Waverly and Ionia are considered contenders.

"But we hope to be right up there among them," Becker said. "It could be dog eat dog."

DEWITT—It's been a hectic month for Head Coach Tom Isenhart. He took over the head coaching duties just one short week before his DeWitt Panthers started their drills in preparation for the new season.

When asked about all the work that must be done, Isenhart just shakes his head.

"We have only two linemen back this year," Isenhart lamented. "We lost almost all of our starters—18 lettermen."

Losing that many players was quite a letdown for the team after two brilliant seasons in which the Panthers won 15 while losing only one, and captured two consecutive Central Michigan Athletic Conference championships.

"It's a very well balanced league this year," Isenhart said. With an inexperienced ball club, DeWitt will have strong competition from Laingsburg,

'71 Star

DeWitt's Mike Moody crashes through the line for a good gain against the inexperienced Viking defense. It took three Vikings to haul Moody down on this second quarter gain.

Potterville, Fowler and Pewamo-Westphalia. "St. Pat's (Portland) has a good team, too."

The only opposition that did not seem to be much of a threat this season should be Webberville, Isenhart noted.

There are some bright spots Isenhart could point to on the Panther squad. Ron Wilcox, who will return to the quarterbacking chores again this season, has suffered injuries during the past two years. "If he stays healthy, he'll be our starting quarterback," Isenhart said. Wilcox missed several games last year when he was injured during the season opener against Bath. Wilcox is a 6-0, 185-pound senior.

The new coach said Chuck Berkimer, 5-9 and 160 pounds, will be the backup quarterback. "He's a very fine player," Isenhart noted. Berkimer took over some of the quarterbacking duties when Wilcox was injured last year and helped the team past several tough CMAC foes. Other standouts include Mike Moody who was second in rushing for the Panthers last season and for the team's best receiver. He is a 6-0, 180-pound senior. Dan Davis will return at slotback and is described as "the hardest hitter" on the club. He is 6-1 and 185 pounds.

The hopes of a solid backfield were dented somewhat after a scrimmage last week that claimed Ron Brown. Brown, 5-8 and 165 pounds, was supposed to be the starting halfback, suffered a concussion in the practice game and will be out for the season.

Duane Shootz, who has good speed according to Isenhart, will be starting at fullback. He's 5-8 and 160 pounds. Tony Vettrano, 5-8 and 150 pounds, will be used extensively at a running back slot.

"I think we're ready to go," Isenhart said. "We've had to push it to get ready." He said the Panthers have been trying out some new offensive plays and should provide some exciting football for local fans.

"The league winner this year won't go undefeated I'm sure," Isenhart said. He will not have any trouble, however, getting his team up for the contest Friday against the Bath Bees. The Panthers lost what appeared to be a certain win in last year's opener with Bath in the final six seconds of the game when the prevent defense didn't prevent a touchdown on a 50-yard bomb. The Panthers won't forget that loss and will be out for revenge against the cross county rivals.

Other players noted by Isenhart include Randy Lankford (5-9, 150 pounds), Chris McNelly (5-11, 160), Tom Couling (5-8, 145), Kent Wolfe (6-0, 165), Lloyd Isham (6-0, 155), Bob Anderson (6-0, 150), Jerry Marriott (6-2, 210), Don Strat (5-9, 185), Murray Brockway (5-10, 175) and Tom Ashley (6-1, 185).

Joe Cavanaugh (5-8, 170), Brad Hitts (5-9, 180), Chuck Gorman (5-10, 180), Keith Merrill (5-9, 165), Robin Cole (5-7, 155), Gary Bouts (6-0, 190), Craig Miller (5-10, 240), Jon Simpson (6-0, 180), Rod Sheperd (6-11, 180), John Bridgewater (5-10, 180), Randy Pitts (5-10, 170), Rich Albertson (6-1, 190) and Jim Tews (6-0, 160).

RON SKORICH

BATH—Whatever the outcome of the Bath-DeWitt game Friday night, it could well be called the "game of the year" for both squads.

Fans will remember last season's opening encounter between the Bees and the Panthers, when Bath pulled the game from the fire with just six seconds to go in the game on a 50-yard pass play. Bath won 12-10 after trailing most of the game.

It was a bitter sting to the Panthers, who had the potential power to go on to an undefeated season for the second year in a row. It was a defeat, however, that the Panthers remembered. They went on to win the rest of their games in 1971.

The Bees were young and inexperienced going into that first clash. But the ecstasy of winning was short lived as Leslie came in to put a damper on the Bees' spirits the next week, 14-0. Bath ended the season with a good 4-4-1 record.

Now the Bees are back with good size, power and experience, and Coach Ron Skorich is expecting big things for his club.

Both offensively and defensively, the Bees are going to be impressive, according to Skorich.

"Our offensive line will be led by senior guard Larry Feguer, a three-year letterman. Our line will be strong and fast with letterwinners at every position."

He cited the two big ends, Brad Schaubly and Fritz Ordway, as key personnel in the Bees' attack. Schaubly, a 6-1 and 185-pound senior, caught nine touchdowns last year, while Ordway, 6-4 and 185 pounds, gathered in four TD's passes. "The backs are fast and will be led by Paul Stoll at quarterback," Skorich said. "He's the leading passer in the Ingham County League."

Experience is the keynote of the defensive unit, Skorich said. "The Defense will be our strongest point with experienced players at almost every position plus the addition of two very tough sophomores, Brian Brook and Rod Adams." Brook is 5-9 and 190 pounds. Adams is 5-11 and 190 pounds. Skorich was also pleased at the return of Roy Dobson, a 6-1, 175-pound senior line-backer. Dobson was out last season with a broken hand.

The Bees will lose only six lettermen from last year's squad, with 11 players returning. More important to Skorich is that he'll have his touchdown producing duo back for one more season, Stoll and Schaubly. They will be more of a threat this season with Ordway at the other end with good size and speed which should prevent the opposition from double teaming on Schaubly.

Other players cited by Skorich were Jack Brown, a 5-11, 175-pound senior tackle; senior defensive halfback Gary Shaw, 5-9 and 145 pounds; Joe Mitchell, a 5-11, 160-pound senior running back; Terry Glazier, a 5-6, 165-pound senior running back; Randy Markham, a 6-0, 180-pound senior center; and Jeff Smith, a 5-7, 150-pound junior running back.

Skorich, who is also the school's athletic director, is a 1965 graduate from Michigan

The Bees will also be trying to snap a three game losing streak they contracted at the end of last season. They lost to Haslett 30-12 in the season finale and were defeated by Perry and

State University. In his six years at the helm of the Bath gridders, Skorich has compiled a 21-25-3 record.

Fowlerville before that. With the experience and new enthusiasm of a new season, the Bees could be launching a championship drive Friday night, when they meet DeWitt at the Bath High School field. The game is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

Injuries, army claim top Marauders

OID-ELSIE—Injuries and the army have put a big dent in the championship prospects of the Ovid-Elsie Marauders.

Frank Dudash, 6-0 and 180 pounds, was a leading tackler for the Marauders last season with 50 solo hits and would have been a defensive regular at linebacker this season, Dudash has left the team for army duty this fall.

Operations have accounted for four players missing the 1971 season. They are Larry Bush, a 210-pound middleback; junior Dale Miller, a tallback; Randy Loyne, a junior tackle; and Tom Pontack, a junior tackle.

Coach Mark O'Donnell feels, despite the injuries, that his team will be a championship title contender in the Mid-Michigan B Conference, a title the Marauders captured last year with an 8-1 overall record.

O'Donnell pointed out that the juniors coming onto the Ovid-Elsie squad this year have never suffered a defeat in football competition. The players went undefeated as freshmen in 1969 and again in 1970 as the junior varsity team.

"We have an undefeated JV team plus six returning defensive regulars," he said. O'Donnell noted that these were the main strengths of the squad. "Having to build an offensive line with only two regulars back on offense is our weakness."

The Blue and Gold will feature five senior lettermen on offense. Tim Bouck, a 6-2 180-pound light end, is "a good blocker and pass receiver," according to O'Donnell. He terms Glen Bensinger "the best blocking back" he has and is a "fast starter." Bensinger is a 5-9, 155-pound fullback who will be handling some of the ball handling chores.

Ron Mead is a fast tallback, but has not been tested under fire, O'Donnell said. Mead is 6-0 and 150 pounds.

Quarterbacking chores will fall on the shoulders of Charles Miller who is described by the coach as "a good leader." O'Donnell said Miller, who is 5-9 and 150 pounds, "could be a surprise."

Bill Foran filled in the last two games of the 1970 season at end. "He has good hands," the coach said. Foran is a 5-11 and 170-pound receiver.

With Bush and Dudash gone for the season, there are only four returning lettermen on defense. Ron Mead, the offensive tallback, will double as a defensive safety. "He's our only deep regular," O'Donnell said. "He could be a help to our pass defense."

Rick Staples, 6-0 and 175 pounds, will be a defensive regular. He was tied with Dudash with 50 solo tackles last year. He is a "fast and strong tackle," the coach commented.

Frank Quine, 6-0 and 180 pounds, will be a defensive tackle again this year. Randy Byrnes, 5-6 and 140 pounds, is a punt return specialist. "He could develop into a deceptive wide receiver," O'Donnell said.

Others expected to stand out this season are Gordon Baker, 5-9, 140-pound tallback; John Peters, 5-11, 160-pound upback; Dan Egbert, 6-1, 170-pound quarterback; and Tom Kirinovic, 5-10, 160-pound quarterback.

"Baker could be our outside threat," O'Donnell commented. "Egbert's a junior and could be a great pocket quarterback. He's a great passer and a slow runner. Kirinovic (a junior) could make a great running quarterback. He is a fair passer."

Jeff Grant, a junior tallback noted as a quick starter, and Gary Groom, a junior wingback, should see plenty of action against Mid-Michigan B opponents this year. Grant is 5-9 and 150 pounds while Groom is 6-0 and 180 pounds. "Groom was the main stay of our undefeated JV's. He could be great because he has good pickup and is a power runner."

Marc Flegie, junior end, Cayle Reha, junior end, Jim Micka, junior end and Robert Nethaway, sophomore tackle.

Mike Buck, end, Alan Cobb, halfback, Less Heinz, center, John Peters, fullback, Darrell Smith, linebacker, Joe Wassa, center, Stan Hibbler, guard, Robbin Leslie, guard, Lynn Webster, tackle, Nyle Weber, guard and Dave Winkler, tackle.

The Marauders will open their season Friday night against Portland. Ovid-Elsie demolished the visitors last year 36-14 and are anticipating another repeat performance. Homecoming here is set for Oct. 1 against St. Louis, the first conference game for the hungry Marauders. Dad's Night will be held here Oct. 22 in a game against Corunna.

Ovid-Elsie added a new team to their schedule when they tackle Remus Chippewa Hills away on Sept. 24. All other opponents are the same as last season and they all have one thing in common. They all lost to Ovid-Elsie. The only squad to top the Marauders last year isn't on the schedule—

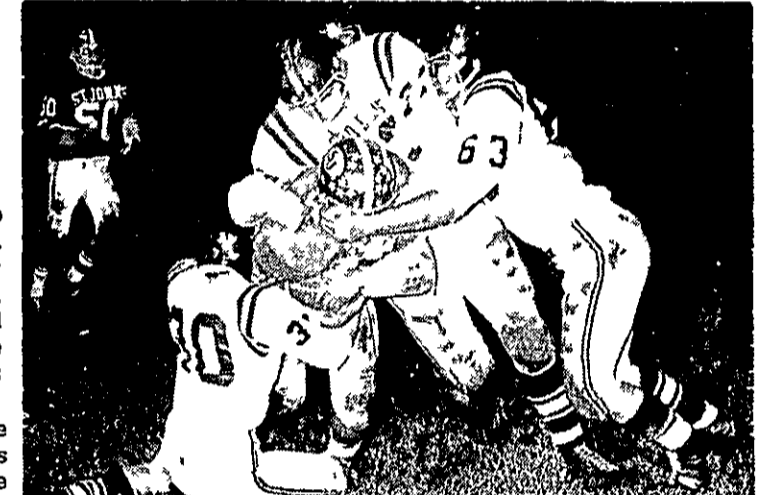

Saginaw St. Stephens. The Marauders will wrap up the season at St. Johns on Nov. 12. O-E topped the Redwings for the first time last year 24-12, a feat the Redwings have vowed won't happen again, but the Marauders have different ideas about that.

Another tough battle will be against Swartz Creek, last year's Flint Metro champions, whose only loss came against Ovid-Elsie in a muddy, rain-soaked affair 6-3. It is shaping up to be another rugged encounter. O'Donnell sees the Mid-Michigan B title battle being waged among Corunna Midland Bullock Creek and Ovid-Elsie.

Eagles face rebuilding year with young team

FWLER — Rebuilding is the name of the game of football at Fowler this year.

Not only do the Eagles have a new head football coach in Steve Spicer, but they also have a relatively new team. With 57 students turning out for football this year, 40 of them are freshmen and sophomores.

"It is the largest turnout we have ever had here for football," said Spicer with a hint of optimism.

The Eagles were riddled by graduation last year including six all conference plays, among which two were all stater. Last year the Eagles tied for third place in the Central Michigan Athletic Conference and were 5-3 for the year.

WE LOST THE entire interior line and three members of the backfield," Spicer said. "We have only three senior starters returning."

The returning seniors are Roger Nobach, Al Simon and Leon Schneider. Nobach, a 6-1, 175 pound end is a two-year veteran of Fowler grid wars while Simon, 5-8, 205 pound tackle has one year of experience.

Schneider, a 5-7, 155 pound halfback has two years experience. Junior end Tony Thelen has two years experience and that's about it.

"We're counting on 15 juniors and five sophomores," Spicer said. "And they'll play."

Offensively, the Eagles will run from a basic balanced T formation and they will probably stay on the ground more than in the air.

Spicer was disappointed with a scrimmage last Friday. "We looked poor," he said "We were too slow and a lot of work is going to have to be done before Friday night."

Junior Quarterback Scott Spicer will probably get the starting nod at quarterback, with Schneider, Dave Halfman, and Denny Kramer at the running back slots.

DEFENSIVELY THE EAGLES LOOKED "fairly good" in the scrimmage. Defensive standout this season should be Al Simon, Tony Thelen, Nobach and Dave Halfman.

Simon and Halfman will be at the defensive tackle positions and Nobach and Thelen at the defensive end positions.

The Eagles will open at home Friday night against the Fulton Pirates with the game getting underway at 8 p.m.

Scouting reports indicate the Pirates should be much improved over last year when they were faced with rebuilding a team. They have all but one of their players returning, including 12 lettermen. The Pirates were 0-8 last season.

COACH SPICER SAYS the Central Michigan Athletic Conference should be a toss up this year.

"There are five clubs that could take the title the way I see it," he said. "It should be a good league this year."

Spicer gave the edge to P-W, DeWitt, Portland, St. Pat's and Potterville as being top contenders and added, "We should end up in the middle of the pack."

It will definitely be a rebuilding year for the Eagles in 1971.

FWLER CHEERLEADERS

Heading up the spirit department at Fowler this year are the Cheerleaders, Eileen Koenigs-knecht and Suzie Van Ells, (kneeling) and Joany Pohl, Julie Harr, Ann Klein and Joy Weber. Missing is alternate Patty Schrauben.

The Fowler Eagles have 16 lettermen returning to the grid wars this fall. They are (kneeling) Dan Simon, Albert Thelen, Neil Simon, Dennis Kramer, Leon Schneider, Randy Simon, Alvin Koenigs-knecht and Scott Spicer. (Standing) Tony Thelen, Dave Osborne, Mel Pohl, Roger Nobach, Al Simon, Dave Halfman, Bob MacKinnon and Pat Thelen.

P-W is unknown quality in CMAC

There's going to be another head to head battle this year for the Central Michigan Athletic Conference title again this year. And that title, like last year, will probably be decided when Pewamo-Westphalia collides with DeWitt.

The Pirates finished second in the conference last year with a 5-1-1 mark and a 6-1-1 record overall. DeWitt got the best of the pirates last season when they met. The Panthers were the winners, 20-14 in a hard fought contest.

The Pirates lost 21 lettermen through graduation, but they have 13 returning for the 1971 season, including most of their line from last year.

THE RETURNING Lettermen include all conference right end Albert Fedewa, a senior and all conference tackle Frank Spitzley. Also returning are center Tom Thelen and right guard Mike Gross, both of whom received honorable mention on the all-conference team last year. Spitzley, Thelen and Gross are all seniors.

Other lettermen who are returning include left end Steve Heiden, guard Gary Pline, back Jim Thelen, halfback Mike Fedewa, tackle Ben Wesley and back Steve Hanses. They are all seniors.

The Pirates have two juniors returning as lettermen. They are last year's end Roy Piggott and tackle Charley Bengel. Piggott who has experience at the end position and had a decent season last year, is being groomed as a probable starting quarterback for the Pirates this season.

Other quarterback prospects for the coming season include Junior Doug Walter, who was the signal caller for the JV team for the past two years, and junior Gerard Fedewa.

OTHER MEMBERS of the backfield will probably include Hanses and Mike Fedewa at the halfback slots and Jim Thelen at fullback.

Coach Bill Marks says, "Our strength will be in the line this year and that is where the majority of our experience is. Our backfield is young and untried. We are counting on young talent and if they come through we could be tough."

Defense is where the strength of the Pirates lies in 1971.

"We are exceptionally strong in this department," says Marks. Returning defensive specialists include Spitzley, Al Fedewa, Hanses, Tom Thelen, Gross, Trierweiler, Piggott, Gerard Fedewa and Wesley.

THE PIRATES WILL open at home Friday night against an improved Carson City team.

"We watched their scrimmage last week and we feel they are much improved over last year,"

Marks said, "I think they are going to give us a real good ball game.

The offense will run from the T and I formations this year, but the quality is yet unknown. Running backs will include Hanses, Mike Fedewa, Gerard Fedewa and Jim Thelen, with Piggott and Walter at the quarterback slot. We don't feel the offense is up to the defense as yet," Marks said Monday, "But we think they will be by Friday night."

P-W CHEERLEADERS

P-W VETS RETURN

GOOD BLOCK

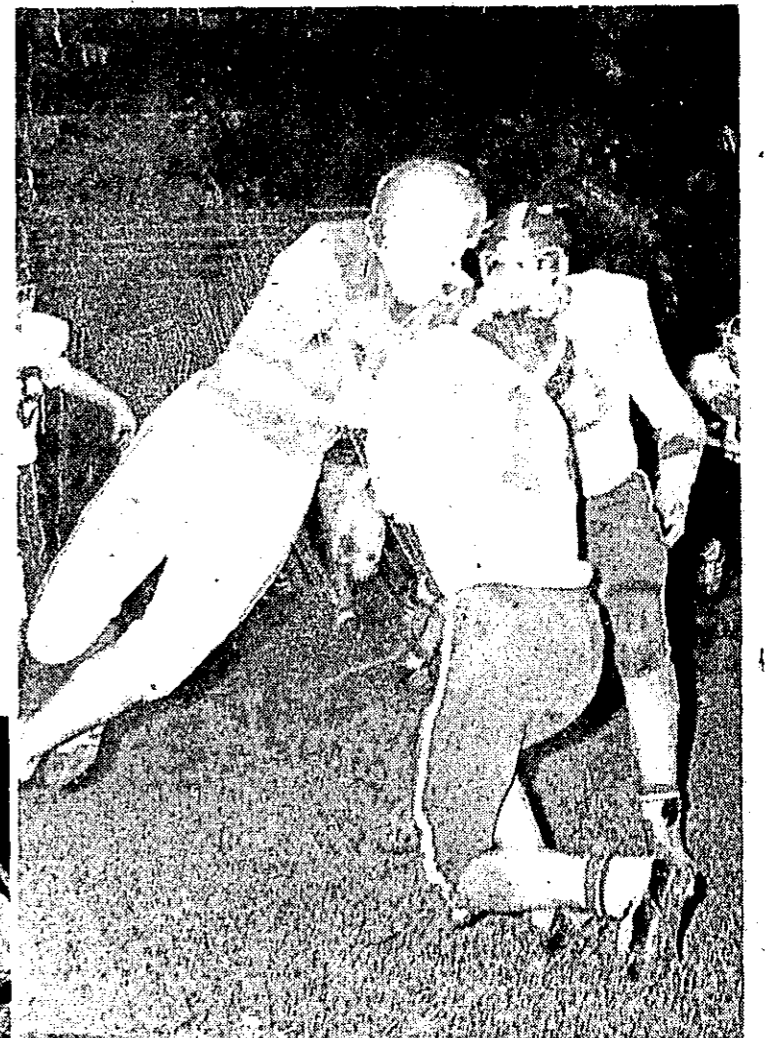

Larry Hayes (22) carries for yardage during Friday's game. Hayes rushed five times for 22 yards. Hayes follows blockers Steve Mead (64) and Tom Rasdale (61).

WHO FORGOT THESE TWO?

Randy Atkinson (10), on the ground, is probably asking that question as he sits, or lies, and ponders what went wrong on this particular play as Marauders Wayne Hettler (83) and Walter Fytlowanyj lay on top of him.

Remember last year . . .

DeWitt quarterback Ron Wilcox takes a sharp cut and blasts through two Shamrock defenders Friday night and goes in for the extra two-point conversion. The action took place late in the second quarter after Wilcox had thrown his first TD pass of the night. The Panthers remained undefeated in the conference by downing St. Patrick of Portland 28-14.

Too much grain doesn't pay

Protein supplemented all-silage rations return more profit to beef producers than corn grain rations. But if they still want to go the corn grain route, they should not overdo the grain portion.

Recent Michigan State University tests show that feed costs per 100 pounds of gain increased from $15.78 for cattle fed protein supplemented all-silage rations to $20.07 for cattle fed corn silage plus a 60 percent concentrate ration. Most economical were all-silage rations treated with Pro-Sil.

Details of the tests will be reported Friday (Aug. 20) at Cattle Feeders' Day at MSU.

Figuring 18 tons of 35 percent dry matter silage or 100 bushels of shelled corn per acre, MSU researchers found that cattlemen could produce 1,490 pounds of beef per acre by feeding all-corn silage, 868 pounds of beef from a 40 percent concentrate ration, 745 pounds from a 60 percent ration and only 701 pounds from a 80 percent concentrate ration.

"This means that gross returns per acre of corn fed are twice as high with a protein supplemented all-silage ration as they are with a corn grain ration," says Dr. Hugh Henderson, MSU beef researcher. "And these returns keep decreasing as the percentage of corn grain is increased in the ration."

Check the facts

In response to an editorial appearing in this newspaper last week, State Representative Richard Allen (R) Ithaca, submitted the following letter to Publisher Bob MacDonald:

Dear Bob, Check the facts Mac! I don't wish to sound like a puppet of Spiro Agnew but I also don't intend to ignore cases of extreme editorial license.

I certainly expect and welcome close editorial scrutiny of my stands on the issues and my voting record. No doubt it at times should be criticized; I make no claim of infallibility.

However I take strong exception to your criticism of my recent bicycle trip on the basis that "it is obvious he isn't attending shop in Lansing". Had you bothered to check you could have found that on the two days that the Legislature met I rode my 50 miles during early morning, and late evening hours driving back into Lansing for the entire day session. My attendance record is one of the best in the Legislature having missed only one evening session since I was elected three years ago.

Certainly you might wish to take a stand against the hiking, biking and horseback riding proposal. Since you have seen me in the late evening at the ice rink and since you have covered my district walks during campaigns you may be aware that I am somewhat of a physical fitness "nut." While I realize that vigorous exercise is not for everyone I sincerely believe it is in the best public interest to encourage such activity both by availability of facilities and example of public officials.

If you examine attendance records or look down from the balcony for those sleeping I don't believe you will find that the worst offenders are those few of us who take a little time to stay in shape!

I fully face the fact that voters may wish to replace me. However whether it is next year at age 39 or 30 years later at 69 I promise you it will not be for either of the following causes: poor attendance and lack of attention to legislative duties; getting fat and sloppy at the public trough or at lobbyist expense.

Sincerely, Richard J. Allen

P.S. Bob,

I know it is impossible to check everything before you write. I generally admire your willingness to take editorial stands, even occasionally against me. I hope you will give my rebuttal a chance by printing this letter, including the P.S. Keep up the good work.

Rep. Douglas Trezise 87th District

No leadership

There were times not too long ago when the big deal around Lansing was to finish up the legislative work in time to recess for the 4th of July holiday.

This year Labor Day has come and gone and we're still not through with our business. In fact, we are only now getting down to the real crunch of the session, the final action on a budget which is ten weeks overdue.

It was not ever thus. As recently as 1968, every budget bill had cleared both houses of the legislature by June 26 and had been signed by the Governor before the start of the new fiscal year on July 1. And, may I modestly point out that 1968 was the last year the Republicans were in control of both houses.

THE KEY TO AN orderly, productive legislative session is in planning and LEADERSHIP! The one thing which has turned the House into a shambles in the past three years is the lack of a timetable, a series of deadlines which guarantees the public interest will be served on time. This schedule, in the past, has specified deadlines for introduction of bills, dates for completing committee action and for floor debate.

Would you believe that the right kind of leadership resulted in 1968 in having the school aid bill signed by the Governor on April 30? At this writing, with schools already operating, we have yet to see this year's bill on the floor of the House.

Finally, in the first week of September, we have been informed that we will push our work to complete the budget and recess by September 9. To meet this date will require some speedy and, I am afraid, hasty action on almost all the budget bills, representing a total expenditure of well over $2 billion.

I have the feeling that this crisis atmosphere is not entirely unwelcome to the majority party. It is in this kind of situation that members can best be persuaded to vote for bills they might otherwise oppose. The prospect of going home to one's family after 8 months of wrangling in the legislature can be quite appealing.

BUT, I DON'T think we can lose sight of the real problem facing us, that is, the need for a balanced budget.

Depending on whose estimates of new revenue you accept—Speaker Ryan's or Governor Miliken's—the deficit for this fiscal year will be between 68 and 88 million dollars.

The obvious places to make up this kind of money is in the big spending bills. These include school aid, social services and the revenue-sharing package which passed the House last week. The real meat of the session is still before us. Most of the appropriation bills are in House-Senate conference committees, trying to resolve differences between the versions passed in the separate chambers. To complete the necessary work by the 9th of September means we are going to have a large number of critical items placed before us for concurrence or disagreement within the space of a few days.

BUT, I FOR ONE, will do everything I can to keep from being railroaded into any ill-advised budget decisions. Since we have dilly-dallied this long without any sense of urgency, I can find nothing in our present situation which would justify rash action at this time.

When weather's quite alluring And all signs shout go-go! It's maybe asking most too much To just sit still you know; But whatever the analyses They leave you in the lurch The guys who cannot sleep at home Nor stay awake in church.

'Tis one more old age problem We face again these days, To keep ourselves quite wide awake In so many different ways; We know he can not help it Skill it's subject for research, The blokes who cannot sleep at night Nor stay awake in church.

Republican Con-Con candidates demonstrated amazing strength in state-wide voting as they swept more than two-thirds of the delegate seats in the Michigan Constitutional Convention which is scheduled to open in Lansing in October. Clinton County gave Republican candidates pluralities of more than 5-to-1. Elected to represent Clinton at the convention were Alvin M. Bentley, former Owosso congressman; Dean B. Doty, Grand Ledge businessman and Ink White, St. Johns editor.

Our own worst enemy

By TIM YOUNKMAN

Add one more humiliation to the American involvement in the War in Indochina.

The upcoming Presidential elections in Vietnam, with only one candidate empowered to run for that office is just the latest in a long line of political slams Americans have faced since entering the war almost a decade ago.

We tried very hard to turn the other way during the last Presidential balloting that put Nguyen Van Thieu in the presidential palace. It was a dirty and deadly campaign, complete with bombings and assassinations, with more than a dozen other candidates imprisoned after the elections to avoid a coup.

It may not be as easy this time.

One of the most popular figures in Vietnamese history, Gen. Duong Van (Big) Minh, withdrew his name from consideration after blasting Thieu's tactics and American political meddling.

Vice-President Nguyen Cao Ky also withdrew after it became apparent to him that the elections would be unfair and possibly rigged. These two important politicians, if they would follow such a course, could easily swing the army to their side and force Thieu from the palace.

Now the Vietnamese President has graciously announced that if he doesn't get 50 per cent of the vote, he will step down from the office. That would have to be some write-in campaign for the opposition. On the face of it, Thieu can look to our elections and claim that the American president doesn't need 50 per cent of the vote to take office. So politically, he's trying to cover as many bases as he can before the election.

In recent weeks, Thieu has had meetings with the American representatives in his country trying to solicit support for his government in the event one of his rivals tries a revolt. He wants to know where we stand.

For once, we should tell him—and the other Vietnamese politicians—that the American influence will not extend into internal political wranglings; that we won't support anyone elected in a one-man race; that our armies will not be around to be used as pawns in a pint-size power struggle.

We had backbone and pride when we entered the war 10 years ago. By staying in that part of the world we have lost respect and the pride it brings, but we can still salvage part of our national backbone by getting out immediately—not on some future (but undetermined) date. We could add that dimension, at least, to our credit.

If we stay and support Thieu, then we have been fighting on the wrong side since those tactics he has employed were indicative of the enemy we wanted to crush. If we aid in this travesty, then we will become our own worst enemy.

Bomb those buses

By JIM FITZGERALD

Please pass the dynamite. Our daughter is bused to school but not to the school closest to our home.

Our son doesn't attend the school nearest home either. But he walks to school. I don't mind blowing up a bus but it doesn't seem fair to break the kid's leg just to bug the school board. Come to think, he does ride his bike sometimes. I could let the air out of his tires.

Our school district is about the largest, geographically, in Michigan. Some students attend school 20 miles from where they live. Every day they are bused past dozens of schools closer to their homes.

Obviously, this is a terrible thing. Our district should be ripe for revolt. Bombs should be sold at roadside stands. But there's no excitement at all. No protests. Just peace, I've had to drink all my Molotov cocktails.

Some days even the most active activist can't find any action. But how come . . .

The TV news showed the dynamited buses burning in Pontiac, just a few miles down the highway. A middle-aged woman looked fiercely into the camera and said the destroyed buses were "the most beautiful sight I have ever seen."

Now there is an activist to be admired. She obviously has political ambitions. She will end up in the state capitol, sharing an office with Pontiac's Rep. Arthur Law, another beautiful person. The day before the buses were bombed, Law urged his constituents to ignore the stupid law and keep their kids off the buses.

(I wish Rep. Law would change his name to Humperdink. It is difficult to type a lower case "P" while writing about him and a stupid law in the same paragraph.)

So how come they get all the fun and violence in Pontiac, and in a lot of other towns, but none in my school district? Why doesn't our bus system make parents angry enough to fight?

I'M CERTAINLY glad you asked. Our district has a skin problem. Too much white and not enough black.

You see, parents everywhere used to be the same. They didn't care when 1-room schools were consolidated into 1,573-room educational complexes.

They didn't care that this meant Junior had to be bused to high school 30 miles away, even though there was an elementary school building around the corner from home, and a junior high building just up the block, and 9 abandoned Little Red Schoolhouses within walking distance. The bus trip was necessary because it meant a better education for Junior.

But lately, the federal government and the courts have been looking at school systems in such towns as Pontiac. They discovered some school boards were "discriminating to perpetuate segregation." This means the black Juniors were separated from the white Juniors.

As always, the black kids got the short end of the stick and kids of both colors lost the chance to learn to know and maybe even love each other. Most parents like this segregation because it makes it easier to raise the kids to be good little bigots like Ma and Pa.

The courts ordered these schools to start achieving "racial balance" even if they had to use buses to do it. And that's what put the lighted fuse in all those buses.

Busing is fine for Junior if it means he'll learn more. But if the dumb bus is going to deposit Junior next to a Negro, that's not a better education. That's a kid of another color. Dynamite the damn buses. And don't you dare call the bombers racists, for goodness sake's.

They're busists.

From the State House

Allen reply

By REP. DICK ALLEN

Equity in Education and Taxation! A rallying cry since I have been in the Legislature. Where do we stand as we near the end of this session?

First in taxation. Well I think this tells the story. Early in the session when I insisted that property tax credits be returned to our income tax the Governor and leadership of both parties objected. Not on the basis that the credits weren't justified. On the basis that the 60 to 90 million dollars in property tax relief was paltry compared to their goals.

I strongly supported the Governor's efforts to lower property tax by almost a billion dollars but at the same time insisted on the paltry credits.

Now it appears that 70 million is all the property tax relief this session will provide!

How about the equity of education? In my opinion we took a step backward in this direction. In the past few years a coalition of Detroit Democrats and rural Republicans have attempted to give poor school districts the largest share of any increases in school aid.

Our ultimate objective has been to equalize the total dollars raised by a given amount of local millage. If the district is poor the state aid payments should be proportionately large.

In the legislative parlance we call it a "one formula" approach. 20 mills levied for schools would provide the same money per student in Birmingham as it would in Breckenridge. Naturally if one district's voters levied more mills they would provide more money to add some of the frills to their school system. That's fair.

Last year's Spencer Plan was essentially a "one formula" approach. We narrowly missed implementing this plan and some of us had hopes this would be the year.

Now we passed a School Aid Bill that is in my opinion a step backwards. Wealthy school districts actually got a higher percentage increase than poor districts!

You have heard me at times blame Speaker Ryan and the Democrats for the problems of this legislative session. On the School Aid Bill I feel that Republican Senators, many of whom represent wealthy school districts, were equally to blame.

The Senate took good care of wealthy suburban school districts when they passed the bill. Then Speaker Ryan took care of Detroit with special sections. Who got left out?

Us medium to poor, small town and rural districts! We went down kicking and screaming but we went down!

I'M MAD!

GRASSROOTS OPINION COMMENTS FROM OTHER PAPERS

EDGERTON, Minn., ENTERPRISE: "Do you wonder, sometimes, why, at the end of your working day, you're tired? Have you ever stopped to consider that during one day your heart beats 103,389 times? Have you also considered that your blood travels 168,000,000 miles, that you breathe 23,040 times, and that you inhale 438 cubic feet of air? Do you also know that you speak 4,800 words, move 750 major muscles, and use 7,000,000 brain cells? All this beside what you know you've done. No wonder you're tired."

Purpose of life

By REV. HUGH BANNINGA

Continuing with last week's text from the fifth chapter of Ephesians, we read in the 15th verse, "Live life, then, with a true sense of responsibility, not as men who do not know the meaning and purpose of life, but as those who do."

St. Paul implies that a sense of responsibility grows in us when we know the meaning and purpose of life. I submit to you that the purpose which gives meaning to life is twofold—personal and social.

On the personal side, the purpose of life is inner growth in the grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. One very important path to inner spiritual growth is that of worship. Worship is meeting the living God and having your life changed by His presence.

But too often this does not happen. Too often our spiritual growth comes to a halt, because we rely on just our Sunday worship and neglect the rest of the week.

The story is told of a farmer whose pig kept getting out of the pen into the cornfield. Time and again the farmer examined the pen and found no break in the fence, but the pig kept getting out. Finally the farmer lay in wait by the pen until he saw the pig burrow deep into a corner and escape through a hollow log.

After he captured the pig again, the farmer thought he would have some fun with him. So he extended the fence beyond the outlet of the log and then waited to see what would happen. Sure enough, the pig found his way into the log and out. But then he discovered he was still inside the fence.

So he went back through the log a second time and a third. On the last run through he looked at the fence with a pained expression and then ran round and round the pen squealing at the top of his voice!

Too many people go through life like that pig. They get used to doing things a certain way and it becomes mechanical and they like it that way. This can happen in worship. Our Sunday morning services can become meaningless and empty, because we fail to let ourselves meet the Living God on a deep level and let His presence change our lives.

TRUE WORSHIP is not something that comes easy. It entails work—it demands thought—it means we have to experience God in a personal and continuous way. Otherwise we will never know what it is to truly know Him.

There was a man who had such remarkable experiences of God that he wrote them down for a permanent record. Some years later he moved to another city and applied for church membership. The minister asked him about his spiritual experience. The man smiled and disappeared into the attic. He returned after a long while and he stammered to the minister, "Pastor, the rats have eaten my spiritual experiences!"

The moral of this story is that if you can't remember your spiritual experiences, then you never really had any.

Now on the social side the purpose of life is to contribute to the common life of others. Personality has both meaning and joy when we are growing spiritually and contributing to the common life of others. The poet says it this way,

"Up in Heaven the dear Lord heard and smiled.
"Today she soothed a little, crying child.
She stopped her work to take old Ella Kloop
A fragrant, warming bowl of her good soup.
Her house was orderly, her garden tended,
Her children fed, their clothes all clean and mended.
Her husband, home from work, found happiness
And quiet peace in her deep gentleness."
The dear Lord smiled again.
"Too tired to pray?
Her hands have offered prayers of love all day."

In verse 16 of chapter 5 of Ephesians St. Paul says to "Make the best use of your time, despite all the difficulties of these days." In spite of all the troubles we face these days, you and I can still turn our hearts to the Kingdom of God and contribute to the common life of others. We can visit the sick and the shut-ins.

We can help to feed and clothe the needy. We can give an ear to the problems and troubles of someone else instead of complaining and whining about our own problems.

We live in a world that mauls and mutilates our best intentions and our noblest resolves. As St. Paul says, "The struggle against the principalities and powers that often seem dark and demonic, both in ourselves and in society.

But life demands that we take sides. That means for you and me to know the real meaning and purpose of life. The purpose is God-centered through Christ and not man-centered through and not man-centered through self.

No special election

By SEN. WILLIAM S. BALLENGER

Now that it's apparent the controversial House Resolution GG will not appear on the November, 1971, Special General Election ballot (there probably won't be any special election of any kind), Democratic legislators are predictably trying to place the blame squarely on Senate Republicans.

State Democratic Chairman James McNeely went so far as to proclaim that the "Republican Party and the Governor have refused to allow the people a chance to vote on property tax relief this fall."

Nothing could be further from the truth. The Governor swallowed hard (like me) and endorsed "GG", and Republicans in the Legislature have consistently championed a "yes" vote on any resolution which would put the question of property tax relief directly before the people.

But House and Senate Democrats have stubbornly refused to allow voters to express themselves on that issue alone. Instead, the Democrats have insisted that a clause allowing a graduated income tax, which was rejected 3-1 by the electorate in 1966, be grafted onto any property tax relief referendum.

The 19 Senate Republicans were willing to submit the two issues to the people separately but, with the single exception of one Senator Ballenger, steadfastly refused to go along with any plan which said to the voters: "If you want to vote yourself property tax relief, you must agree to open the door to the possibility of a graduated income tax."

All during the debate on "GG", there was never any indication as to exactly what a graduated levy might amount to.

But just as an indication of what might have been if GG ever got (or gets) on the ballot and passes, one suggested plan would have had Michigan residents determine their state income tax by basing it on a percentage of their federal tax which is graduated. (This is the so-called "piggyback" concept.)

The Citizens Research Council figured out that, just to replace the $600 million that would be lost through school property tax relief if "GG" passed, a person would have to pay a state income tax equal to almost one-third of his federal income tax.

In other words, to lower his school property tax substantially, a person would have to pay a state income tax of $707 if his federal income tax was $2,260 (based on federal taxable income of $12,000).

If his taxable income was $16,000, his state income tax would be $1,020 in addition to his $3,200 federal tax. At $20,000 he would pay a state tax of $1,371 and a federal of $4,380. Lost in the shuffle of charges and counter-charges over who is to blame for failure of the two issues to get on the ballot is the fact that the State Constitution does not actually have to be amended to grant school property tax relief.

A series of bills now before the Legislature would, if adopted, provide property tax relief and, through increases in the flat rate income tax and institution of the Governor's proposed value-added tax, raise sufficient funds to make up for that lost by the lowered property tax. I have consistently supported all or almost all of these bills, but I despair that the Legislature will ever come up with the votes to pass them.

Accordingly, I am supporting the Governor's state-wide petition drive to pass a property tax relief proposal before voters in 1972. After three years of waiting in vain for my colleagues to pull together on the question of property tax relief, I'm convinced we can wait no longer. We must now circumvent the legislative process altogether and go directly to the people.

Living Council which has assumed the responsibility for determining if and when exemptions to the freeze will be made.

THE COUNCIL HAS achieved relative consistency in its rulings. Absolute clarity and harmony is, of course, virtually impossible, and to the council's credit, apparent inconsistencies have often upon closer examination proved to be illusory, resulting from oversimplification of council decisions.

Further, the council has been relatively stringent in allowing only a minimal number of exemptions. And by-in-large, a good dose of plain common sense has gone into making these exemptions.

Finally, the initial success is due to the speedy establishment of an extensive network for distributing information and receiving complaints. To now obtain information or report an alleged non-compliance, call either your local Internal Revenue Service office on the county office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Freeze favored

GARY BROWN
U.S. REPRESENTATIVE

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Three weeks into the wage-price freeze, the Gallup poll projects that 68% of the American people approve—and 11% disapprove—of the President's action of August 15th. Further, a clear majority of rank and file union members support the President's action, the public rhetoric of some labor leaders to the contrary.

This public support would appear to indicate that many recognize that the President's action did not slap a permanent lid over the present situation nor did it establish government controls over the setting of wages and prices.

To be sure, the temporary freeze works a hardship on some. That is only to say that there are currently injustices and the freeze necessarily locks them in for 90 days. However, the freeze is temporary and beginning at the end of 90 days, free market forces will again be brought increasingly into play, allowing for a natural resolution of these injustices.

Further contributing to the initial success of the freeze has been the work of the Cost of
