

Auction planned Oct. 17

Volunteers seek donated items for little league benefit sale

Chances for success of little league benefit auction moved toward assurance this week as St. Johns businessmen and private citizens began donating items which will, hopefully, draw bidders from across the county. Plans for the auction, slated to be held Sat., Oct. 17 beginning at 10 a.m. at Smith Hall, were completed during a recent meeting attended by representatives of four St. Johns organizations and independent businessmen interested in raising sufficient funds to defray the cost of lighting equipment installed recently at the little league field. Cost of the new addition is approximately $7,000.

Laying the groundwork for the benefit auction are members of the Lions, Rotary, Exchange and Jaycee clubs of St. Johns. The project of paying off the lighting expenses was undertaken initially by the Rotary Club and Kurt Becker was named chairman of the project committee. The other clubs volunteered their services and from this came the proposal for a county-wide auction.

AUCTIONEER AL GALLOWAY has agreed to contribute his time for the day of the auction as well as making necessary preparations for cataloging and sorting of auction items, and a fifth St. Johns organization, The St. Johns Boys Club, has volunteered to make pickups and collect all donated items.

According to Becker, members of the various clubs involved in the project are currently soliciting businesses for contributions of merchandise to be sold at the auction. Other requests are being issued to homeowners and private citizens to donate unused items which may be put on the block to raise the little league lighting fund ante.

Clinton County News and Schmitt Electric have been selected as two points which contributors may contact to have items picked up. Area residents may call either of these businesses, leaving name and address along with the type item being donated and crews from the Boys Club will then be by the caller's home to collect the items.

ANOTHER WAY to contribute is to bring unwanted items to Smith Hall any Saturday, including auction day. The next two Saturdays members of the involved organizations will be on hand at Smith Hall from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. to accept and catalogue items contributed.

Becker encouraged everyone in St. Johns and surrounding area to select some unwanted item from homes and businesses to increase the list of auction selections. "Everyone has at least one item," Becker said, "which could be given to the auction and sold to someone else who may be looking for that exact thing."

Lights at the little league field were installed recently by volunteer crews from Zeab Fertilizer and Schmitt Electric along with help from members of the four organizations currently conducting the auction project.

Barry Dean of Dean's Hardware in St. Johns displays some of the donations contributed by his firm to the little league lights auction drive to be held for the next three weeks, culminating in the sale Oct. 17. Here he shows a propane torch kit and a 3/8-inch polishing and sanding drill kit.

Coletta's project business growth report

The special business growth report which is section C of this week's Clinton County News, has been a summer project of Richard Coletta.

Dick, under the direction of Advertising Manager Mike Preville, handled all advertising and news copy in the section and assisted in production schedules leading to its appearance in this issue.

Coletta started working for the News, in the advertising department, in June of this year. His assignment was to compile a supplement paper on the progress of Clinton County. Other duties included selling space in signature ads and filling in wherever else he was needed.

A local man, Coletta, was graduated from Rodney B. Wilson High School and is presently a junior at Michigan State University with a major in advertising.

He plans to finish his B.A. degree work at Michigan State University and work for the News part time during the school year.

Coletta, 20, is single and resides with his parents at 111 N. Morton, St. Johns when not attending college and in East Lansing.

LOIS MILLER

Clinton girl named 4-H veep

Lois Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller of S. Bauer Rd., Fowler, has been elected Vice-President of the East Region in the recent election in the State 4-H Service Club.

The East Region consists of all counties east of Clinton County and south of Bay County.

Lois will represent them on the state level. The new officers were installed at the August meeting held at Michigan State University, on August 25. The business meeting followed the installation of officers.

It was decided that a State-wide Workshop would be held at Camp Kett in November. It will be sponsored by the State 4-H Service Club.

City Commissioners spend busy Monday

By TOM McEENEY
News Staff Writer

Approval of warrants, acceptance of bids and contracts and the closing of White Street for good made up the St. Johns City Commission meeting Monday night.

Warrants totaling $100,895.08 were approved unanimously at Monday's meeting.

Bids and contracts for equipment and services were accepted. A bid of $19,088.56 from Bailey Construction Co. of Mason was accepted for the construction of storm sewers along O'Connell St. and Gibbs St. The company was afforded 45 days to complete the job.

A bid of $2,842.50 from Egan Ford Sales was accepted for a new van to be used by the water department. A police car bid for $2,496 from Stan Cowan Mercury was also accepted for a 1971 Mercury.

Commissioners unanimously approved a contract from Rade-macher Construction Co. of St. Johns and gave the company permission to build sewers along East Oak St. at no cost to the city except for fire hydrant installation.

A public hearing was held during the meeting concerning the vacation of White Street between State St. and Walker St. After a brief discussion, the Commis-

The new teacher contracts in DeWitt narrowly passed the ratification vote by the board of education Tuesday night (Sept. 22) due to the inclusion of an agency shop clause.

In a surprise 3-2 vote, the new contract, calling for a base pay increase from $9,900 to $7,400, was ratified more than two weeks after the teachers approved the package Sept. 4.

Mrs. Merry Sellhorn and James Decatur voiced their objections to the agency shop clause demanded by the DeWitt Education Association (DEA).

Mrs. Sellhorn said her sole reason for voting against the contract was "because of the agency shop."

She said she did not think that the teachers should be asked to pay dues to the state and national education associations if they did not wish to.

According to the new plan, all teachers in the district would have to pay an amount equal to regular dues if they did not wish to join the association.

The dues and charges from the associations amount to about $100 per year.

In defending the package proposal, Ritchie said that the contract was "the best we could get." Negotiations, which started in June, had been carried out throughout the summer without results.

At one point, the DEA filed unfair labor charges against the board for failure to produce school district records and teacher files.

The matter was settled without formal hearings with the Employment Relations Commission and the negotiations were resumed.

Teachers decided not to strike in a meeting Sept. 1, agreeing to work without a contract for one week. In a special meeting Sept. 4 they ratified the contract presented by the Michigan Education Association (MEA) negotiator Howard Ward and DEA representatives Gary Roberts, Raymond Unger and Lucille Mis-simar.

There had been some mix-up in delivering the copy of the new contract to the board members before Tuesday night's meeting, according to Ritchie. The copy was sent to the state association by the DEA, he said, and it took some time to return it. During the board session, sion approved the permanent closing of the street.

As a result of the discussion during the hearing, another public hearing was scheduled for the Oct. 26 commission meeting at 8 p.m. This one will concern the official closing of the alley in the 1000 block of White St.

Other action at Monday's meeting included:

—resolving to pay the city's share of $1,585 to have flashing speed reduction signs installed at the corner of U.S. 27 and Baldwin St.

—scheduling a public hearing for the Oct. 26 commission meeting for residents in the area of Rodney B. Wilson Junior High School to voice their opinions with regard to closing McConnell St. between Clinton and Church every school day from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

—unanimous denial of the proposed recommendation to rezone property on N. Swegles St. west of U.S. 27 for the possible construction of an apartment complex. The proposal was returned to the city planning commission for their further recommendation.

—granting permission to have the date of the Teen March for St. Jude Hospital changed from Oct. 4 to Oct. 18.

—a motion and unanimous vote to stay out of the Grand River Water Shed Council.

members were given copies of the old contract while Ritchie pointed out the new changes that would go into effect this year.

Voting to approve the contract were Willard J. Reed, board president, Gordon Brown and Lloyd Ballard. Dale Farhat and Harry Wick were absent from the meeting.

Ritchie indicated that copies of the contract would be drawn up and should be distributed this week.

A new insurance program with higher premiums was approved in the contract called Supermed 70, an exclusive MEA life and health insurance plan. The board will pay up to $36.96 per month for full coverage per teacher and family through this plan and up to $7.50 per month for teachers who do not participate in the regular insurance program.

Negotiations had been assigned to a state mediation board in August after a settlement seemed stalemated, but the mediator suggested a new schedule of talks for the two parties. Both the board and the teachers were apart on 170 paragraphs as the new talks began Aug. 24.

Reed indicated Tuesday that when the new contract expires in August, 1971 a new arrangement may be made for negotiating. Currently the school superintendent represents the board in the talks, but Reed said the board would hire a negotiator or establish a new post of assistant superintendent to handle the negotiations.

The contract ratified Tuesday night is retroactive to Sept. 1, 1970.

Two named to Airport Authority

Two Clinton County men were named representatives on the Tri-County Airport Authority by the County Board of Commissioners last Friday night.

Harold Wellman, president of Central National Bank was elected to serve a four year term and Dick March, a charter pilot, was voted to a three year term.

Wellman, elected to a four year term, has been a resident of St. Johns since January 1969. He is a former chairman of the board of Syracuse Bank, Syracuse, Ind. and former vice president in charge of commercial loans at Citizens Bank of Michigan City, Ind.

He is a graduate of Northwestern University and worked for a period of time with the Federal Reserve System.

Since coming to St. Johns as president of Central National Bank, he has been involved in a number of area activities and is currently on the board of directors of the St. Johns Area Development Corp.

Wellman and his wife, Bonnie, have one son, Harold, Jr., a junior at St. Johns High School and a daughter, Amy, an eighth grader at Rodney B. Wilson Junior High.

The family resides at 423 Meadowview in St. Johns.

Hubbardston resident killed

A resident of Hubbardston was fatally injured Sept. 22 as the result of a collision at the intersection of Tallmap Road and French Road in Lebanon Township.

William James Burns, 38, of 291 Washington St., Hubbardston, was reportedly traveling north on Tallmap Road about noon when a car driven by Lloyd W. Wie-ber, 34, of 608 E. Cass St., St. Johns, was heading west on French Road.

As the Burns auto was going through the intersection the Wieber auto collided with him throwing both cars into a nearby field. No marks in the tall grass indicated that both of the cars had flown through the air before they landed in their final positions.

Clinton County Sheriff's deputies said Burns was thrown out of his car in such a way that the car landed on top of him apparently killing him instantly.

Wieber was taken to Clinton Memorial Hospital where he spent the night and was released on Wednesday, Sept. 23. Deputies investigating the accident talked with Wieber after he left the hospital.

Wieber said he didn't see the other car until he was in the intersection himself. He said he collided with the other car and that was all he remembered.

'Shop at home and save with Clinton merchants'

It's like the lady said isn't it a glorious feeling to be among people you know and trust!

This was overheard when a Clinton County customer returned after a big city shopping trip, where she encountered the hustle and the don't care attitude of the big city clerks.

Recognition, fellowship and trust are basic needs and you will find all these attributes in the Clinton area. You can shop with confidence with friends and neighbors; to help you find exactly what you need at the prices you want to pay.

Merchants from St. Johns, DeWitt, Fowler, Westphalia, DeWitt Township and Eureka are participating in this eight-week Bazaar of Values. During the time, the Clinton County News, acting as a messenger for these outstanding merchants and their special values, will give away $200.

A $100 cash prize will be given away in the final week. All entries will be good for the full eight weeks.

And, of course, you may deposit as many as you wish to increase your chances of winning.

Just write your name, address, and phone number on any sales slip, cash register tape, charge slip receipt or any business form from any business displaying the Bazaar of Values poster. Or you may use the free coupon in Section B.

Fowler gives nod for lagoon

The low bid entered by Smith Engineering of Lansing was approved by the Fowler Village council Monday night to begin work on the new lagoon sewage system for the village.

John Spicer, village president, announced that the engineering firm submitted a bid of $179,000 considerably lower than the estimated $239,000 planned for the project.

He indicated that the village must sell general ordinance bonds amounting to $99,950, the village's share of the cost, although approximately $123,400 had been suggested earlier.

The village will receive a state grant of $37,750 and a federal grant of $45,300.

The plant will be located on 17 acres of a 40-acre complex. Work will begin this fall with completion scheduled for late next year.

Analysis of the discussion will be forwarded to the state committee and the national headquarters.

Middle school open house feature of homecoming

With the new DeWitt Middle School "substantially complete" the board of education announced Tuesday night (Sept. 22) that an open house will be set during homecoming weekend, Sunday Oct. 11.

The new building financed through a $2,700,000 bond issue, was part of an expansion program that included additions to the high school and elementary buildings, administration building and a new bus garage.

Cornerstone setting ceremonies will be held during the day at the new facility located on Shavey Road, to the rear of the high school complex.

William Kane, representing the architectural firm of Manson-Jackson and Kane, will aid in showing the new building to the interested public.

School board members and the school's principal Jack Enderle will be on hand in several of the rooms to give a detailed explanation of the new educational plant.

The school features several exploratory programs including a language laboratory, home economics department, counseling center, cafeteria and closed circuit television.

The total enrollment for fall was about 400 students although the present building is designed for 500 without expansion.

Enderle pointed out that with additions of several rooms the Middle School could grow to about 800, where administrators would try to limit further growth.

The gymnasium - cafeteria and several other specialized areas are already designed to accommodate 800 students.

In other action, the board: -Approved the payment of $3,412 to begin supplying the new bus garage with needed tools and equipment that had been listed and evaluated by Dan Lynn, new maintenance employee, Lloyd Ballard, transportation committee chairman and Supt. James Ritchie.

Highest single expenditure was listed as the purchase of one OTC 2,000 pound floor crane, priced at $715.50.

Other large items listed were a Blackhawk 10-ton floor jack at $480.87, Blackhawk 1,500-pound wheel dolly at $235.80, and a Blackhawk one-half ton aw profile transportation jack at $205.02.

-Approved the hiring of four new employees to the school system. They were Susan Wilson, and Jacqueline Haycock, both fifth-grade instructors, Harry Walters, middle school math and physical education teacher and Dan Lynn, maintenance.

-Accepted the resignations of Mrs. Edith Dexter, teacher and Gordon Perry custodian.

-Viewed the new food transport truck purchased from Rhynards truck and trailer Equipment Company.

-Confirmed earlier speculation that there will be no parent-teacher conferences during the 1970-71 school year, unless the teachers conduct the program on a volunteer basis. The conferences were omitted from the current contract, with the two days normally used for the talks scheduled during the Christmas vacation period.

'Myra Breckinridge' has big attendance

Myra Breckinridge or Buck-andrich, as some people are speaking of it, eclipsed previous attendance figures for "Patton" and "Airport", according to the management of the Clinton Theater, 109 N. Clinton Ave.

"Many people have been concerned about whether or not this showing of 'Myra Breckinridge' would bring other movies of an X rating to St. Johns," said the theater management.

"It's strictly an adult show and people of adult age have been the only ones going in to see the showing."

This last statement seems to be true. Many people have gone by the theater at night and have noticed that woman is always in front of the theater checking identifications to make sure a person is 18 years old.

A male worker at the theater said he turned away a girl who said she would be 18 in three days. He said the theater had to be firm with all of the people who weren't 18.

Asked about who had control of which movies ended up in St. Johns for showing at the theater, the management said, "No one has any real say as to which show comes into town, not even Mr. Kortas (owner of the Clinton Theater) has much to say about them.

"They come to us as part of a schedule. If we reject one of the films, we simply don't have any for that week."

The management went on to say that if "Myra" didn't play at the Clinton, it would have been scheduled out at the Family Drive-In.

Kortas, according to the management, said to "pay no attention to the letter and recommendation from the St. Johns City Commission and continue the presentation of the movie."

"A lot of people over the weekend (Sept. 18-20) said they came to the showing because of the publicity it was afforded. Two sixty-year-old ladies showed up and said they wouldn't have come if it was another movie," said the management.

Indications were made by the theater management that a program of children's films may be coming to the Clinton Theater in the future but they were not definite in saying when this might occur.

"Myra Breckinridge" was an X-rated show but it drew big crowds to the Clinton Theater in St. Johns during its engagement.

State Hospital needs gifts

Christmas at Traverse City State Hospital involves the obtaining and wrapping of 2,200 presents for the number of people usually living within the hospital walls.

Civic Clubs, groups, churches, schools and individuals are cordially invited to take part in the 1970 Christmas program. Suggestions for presents are toiletries for both men and women, clothing for all ages upward of 5, books, games, puzzles, smoking materials, fruits and candles. Wrapping material should be sent along with the gifts.

Additional information can be obtained by writing to Community Relations Department, Box C, Traverse City, Michigan, 49684. Gifts should also be sent to this address. Be sure the name of the club, organization or individual is in the package.

Mistakes, Leslie drop Bath 14-6

Mistakes set the tone and lost the game Friday night as the Bath Bees were downed by Leslie in their first conference game of the season 14-6.

Several high but short punts brought about the Bees destruction as Leslie capitalized on each mistake scoring twice.

Fritz Ordway latched on to a Paul Stoll pass to put the Bees on the board. The play covered 63 yards, reminiscent of the long final second bomb that helped the Bees past DeWitt a week ago.

Ken Klinger plunged over from the one for Lesife for the first tally and Tim Connell stepped off 13 yards for another TD with Klinger passing to Don Ward for the conversion.

The loss puts Bath at 1-1 on the season. They will face Pinckney away next Friday night.

Redwings clip Orioles' wings

By TOM McEENEY News Staff Writer

Boxing utilizes a one-two punch a great deal but Friday, the Redwings of St. Johns gave Charlotte a taste of their own ability as fighters as they KO-ed the Orioles 35-6 for their first conference victory of the young season.

On offense, it was Randy Atkinson who scored three touchdowns and kicked five conversions for a total of 23 points. On defense, it was Ken Schueller, backup quarterback and regular starting cornerback, who intercepted three Charlotte aerials and passed to back Dan McKenzie for a score of his own and 6 points. The "Lansing State Journal" had Charlotte picked to win this one.

The first quarter of Friday night's encounter indicated that it might turn into a real battle as a 0-0 score was registered at the end of it.

Charlotte received the opening kickoff and had a good runback to the St. Johns 41 yard line. Then, on the first play, Oriole quarterback Victor Braatz handed off to back Mike Schneckenberger who was nailed behind the line for a three-yard loss.

Two plays later, Schueller intercepted his first Charlotte pass of the evening. St. Johns took over on the 50 yard line and drove 14 yards before they had to punt. Atkinson also does the punting.

It was the Redwings' ball as the second period started. After a five-yard run by Steve Mead and an incomplete pass from Atkinson to end Roy Pederson, Charlotte defensive back Dennis Dunning intercepted an Atkinson pass. Immediately on the next play, Mr. Schueller pulled down his second theft of the night.

Schueller displayed quick thinking with this second interception. The ball hit the Charlotte receiver on the arm and bounced up into the air over his head. Schueller bounded into the air and grabbed the ball for the Redwings.

This was the lift St. Johns needed. They drove 68 yards in 13 plays for their first score of the night. The touchdown came on 3-yard run by Atkinson with 4:39 left in the first half. Atkinson kicked the extra point and made it 7-0, St. Johns.

After the next kickoff by the Redwings, the Orioles gained one yard on their first play before Redwing offensive and defensive end Roy Pederson recovered his first fumble of the night on the Charlotte 20 yard line. The Redwings drove eight yards before they gave the ball to Charlotte over loss of downs.

Charlotte gained another five yards on two plays before Pederson recovered his second fumble of the night on the Charlotte 23. The Redwings didn't mess around with this break. They took the ball straight into the end zone with 15 seconds left in the half. Atkinson sprang for six yards and the score.

Larry Hayes began the second half with a 20 yard kickoff return to the St. Johns 30. From there, The Redwing machine ground out 70 yards for their third score of the night. The drive was highlighted by a 40-yard pass from Atkinson to Gary Burk, who really came into his own during Friday night's game. Burk also rushed for 49 yards.

Paydirt and 6 points came on a one-yard hurdle by Atkinson with 7:36 left in the third quarter. Charlotte then recovered an onside kick-attempt on their own 30 yard line as the Redwings tried a little trickery.

An 11-yard run by Charlotte was immediately nullified by a backfield in-motion penalty which placed the ball on the Charlotte 25. A 15-yard pass from Braatz to end Jeff Whitson recorded a first down for the Orioles. But, on the next play, the Redwings were at it again. Redwing defensive guard Dan Stockwell recovered a fumble on the Charlotte 37 yard line and set up still another Redwing touchdown. This came on four plays that included a 14-yard run by Atkinson and a 15-yard gallop by Burk before Hayes ran two yards for the score.

Charlotte received the next kick and began working with a new quarterback, Lance Morey, Charlotte's first running play of the third quarter with 3:50 left netted a -2 yards. The Orioles were forced to punt after an unsuccessful series of downs.

St. Johns then moved 29 yards in four plays but got bogged down and were forced to punt themselves. This punt started the fourth quarter.

Morey then threw two incomplete passes before sticky-fingered Schueller grabbed his third aerial of the night on the 47 yard line of St. Johns. He then ran the interception back 15 yards to the Charlotte 38.

Schueller then took over the offensive reins from the quarterback slot. Schueller's lack of game experience caused a punting situation with 4th down and 23 yards to go.

Atkinson came in to punt from about the 50 yard line. The punt carried 30 yards but flags had been thrown all over the field for what turned out to be a roughing-the-kicker penalty against Charlotte. This moved the ball up 15 yards which made it 4th and 8 to go. After the game, many fans were congratulating Atkinson on his superb acting ability.

He didn't need acting ability on the second punt attempt. Defensive halfback Dennis Barnett, the one Atkinson out classed during the first punt, barreled over the line the second time and flattened Atkinson after the ball went sailing through the air.

The referee was standing parallel to Atkinson on the second try and caught Mr. Barnett red-handed. This 15-yarder gave St. Johns the ball, 1st and 10, on the Charlotte 23 yard line.

Schueller came back as QB and immediately handed off to McKenzie for a six-yard gain. A personal-foul penalty against Charlotte placed the ball halfway to the goal line on the Charlotte nine yard line. Schueller then proceeded to fumble and recover the ball twice around the seven yard line.

But, on 3rd down and 7, Schueller passed seven yards to McKenzie in the end zone for the final Redwing tally of the night. The point after was good by Atkinson and the scoreboard read 35-0.

Throughout the fourth quarter, Redwing Coach Jeff Smith freely substituted reserves as the St. Johns bench was emptied before midpoint in the final arrived.

Charlotte did move after the next kickoff down to the Redwing end zone and their only score of the night. A two-point conversion attempt failed. Charlotte's reserves scored the touchdown with 2:45 remaining in the game. There may be some changes in the Charlotte line-up Friday night.

A series of downs, a punt for St. Johns by Mead and a 25-yard run by Dunning of Charlotte ended the night's action.

Charlotte seemed to totally give up after the Redwings scored their first two touchdowns in the second period. In many ways, they looked as St. Johns did just a week previous at Mason with the only difference being that St. Johns went on to win.

Coach Smith heaped praise on the offensive line Monday after viewing game films. "In the first half, we were doing some experimenting to find holes for our runners to penetrate. During halftime, I changed blocking assignments to open up proven holes for our runners," commented Smith.

"The offensive backfield wasn't hitting as hard as they should have been," said Smith. "They will be working on cadence and hitting the line harder this week." Defensively, Smith was satisfied. In the tackle department, Larry Wakefield led the Redwings with 13 and was followed by Steve Mead with 8. Kent Murton, Brad Huntley, Luane Lumbert and Kurtis Parks had 4 apiece.

Huntley earned captain of the week honors for taking care of Tom Richardson, Charlotte's explosive sophomore halfback. Richardson came up with a total of 18 yards on nine carries for the entire night.

Ed Boettger is the lineman of the week for the outstanding display of blocking he gave in Friday's tilt. Smith said of him, "I have never seen better offensive blocks than the ones thrown by Boettger Friday. Ed

Wheels roll

DeWitt crushes St. Paul, 20-0

By TIM YOUNKMAN Editor

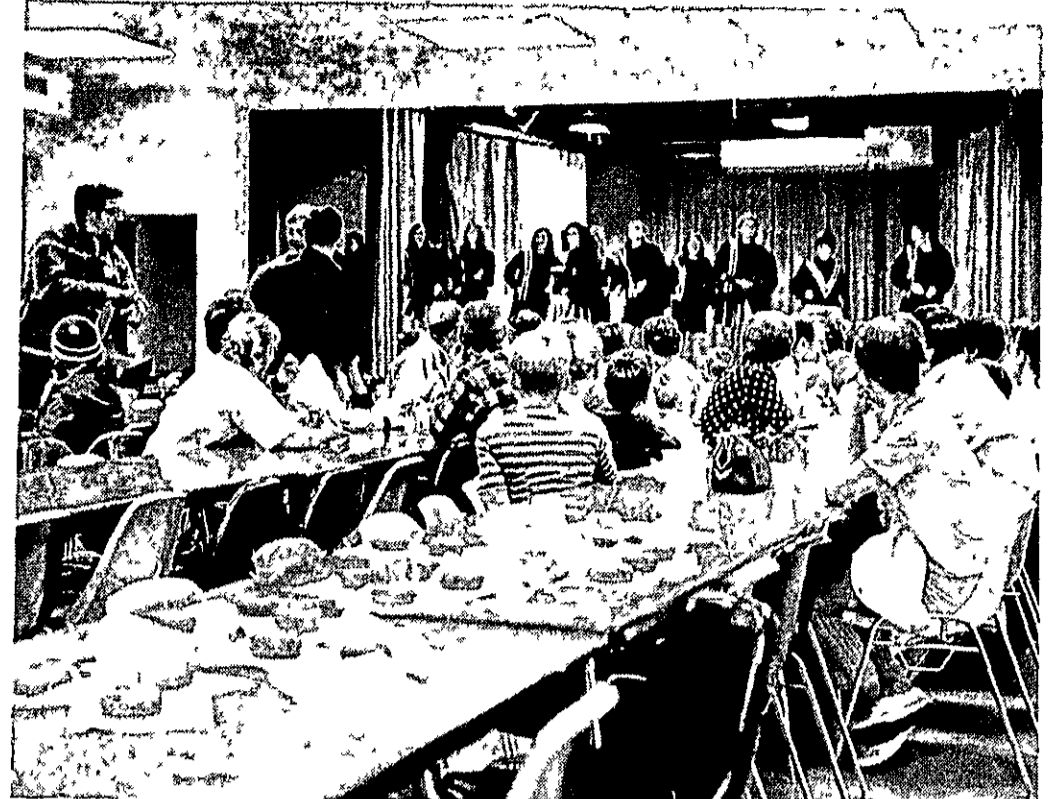

"The wheels are starting to turn now and we're on our way," DeWitt Head Coach Gary Roberts beamed Friday night. And turn they did as the hungry Panthers rolled over Owosso St. Paul, 20-0. With three key players out of action, one for the season, Roberts wasn't sure of the eventual outcome against St. Paul until his team began to roll in the second half. The Panthers, defending Central Michigan Athletic Conference champions, jumped out in front in the first half with a three-yard run by John Black. Earlier a 39-yard touchdown on a fullback screen pass from Mike Cole to Black was called back on a holding penalty. The Panthers marched into the dressing room with a 6-0 half-time lead. Roberts' wheels began to churn in the second half racking up 14 points putting the game on ice.

Highlight of the game midway through the last frame when Steve Tews reached up and intercepted a sure-touchdown pass and rumbled 93 yards for a DeWitt touchdown. Earlier, with 25 seconds to go in the third quarter, Cole tossed a 48-yard bomb to Jim Ashley with the extra points coming on a two-yard pass from Cole to Dan Ruble. The sparkling Panther defense held Owosso to a total net yardage of 47, 31 by air and only 16 on the ground. DeWitt picked up 198 rushing yards and 62 by the airways. DeWitt also rambled for 13 first downs, while limiting the Blue Waves to a half-dozen. The Panthers have probably lost both Bill Thelen and Loren Ward for most of the season, according to Roberts. Thelen has a broken hand and Ward a separated shoulder, which could keep both out at least six weeks. After the Panther victory, the coaches met in a quick huddle.

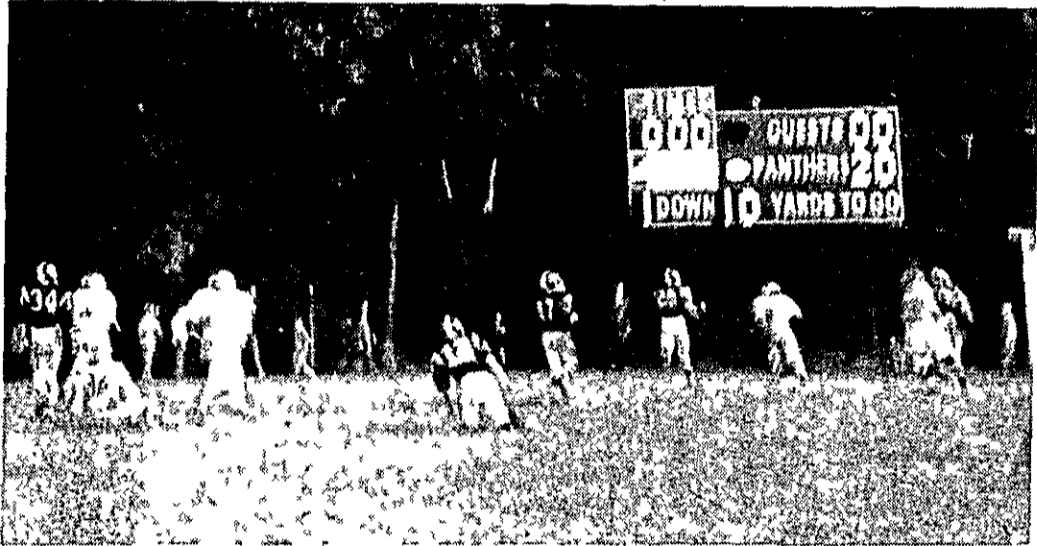

conference over coffee at the high school to discuss the upcoming contest with Laingsburg. "They look tough," exclaimed junior varsity coach Frank Deak, who had scouted Laingsburg squad. Passing quarterback Ron Wilcox was injured in the Bath game two weeks ago and has returned to do punting assignments for the Panthers, but Roberts estimates it will be several games before the junior passer can regain his old form. Laingsburg may be out for revenge this year since the Panthers mauled them 34-0 last year, during DeWitt's undefeated season. "I'm afraid they are going to come to play," concluded Roberts. Cole, a senior signal-caller, displayed his talents in place of the injured Wilcox while completing a number of look-ins and several long tosses.

"Well, is it a touchdown or isn't it," shouts DeWitt Head Coach Gary Roberts, flanked by assistant Tom Isanhart. They have just seen a DeWitt touchdown, but it hasn't registered yet.

Coaches and fans alike have at least two things in common—they love football and enjoy the rousing cheers from the DeWitt High School cheerleaders. They all gathered after Friday night's game to partake of cider and donuts.

It was never to be! This fine runback of an interception went for naught as the ref detected a clip, but the scoreboard tells the real story--no time to go and no points for DeWitt's opponent Owosso St. Paul.

End of the line coming up for this Saginaw runner. Running up to assist are Robb Byrnes (83) and Jim Stewart (85).

Marauders stall

Saginaw belts O-E, 20-0

The Ovid-Elsie Marauders did what they could Friday night, but there was no stopping St. Stephen's of Saginaw and flash quarterback Jim Frazier as O-E went down 20-0. The Marauders, who looked impressive last week against Portland, couldn't muster enough yardage to sustain their drives deep in St. Stephen's territory.

The Marauders' 45 and rushed for another 150 to O-E's 115. St. Stephen struck early with 7:39 to go in the first quarter as Greg Meter took a hand-off and scampered 23 yards to pay dirt. The conversion attempt failed and the Saginaw squad led 6-0. Then with 7:13 elapsed in the second period, Saginaw rolled again with a 35-yard pass from Frazier to Don Manning, bringing the ball down on the Ovid-Elsie four-yard-line.

The final tally came in the fourth quarter on a four-yard toss from Frazier to Miller. The conversion appeared good but a penalty voided the extra points. The Marauders will open their Mid-Michigan B conference play next week traveling to St. Louis. The Marauder junior varsity fared much better as they romped over Saginaw St. Stephen 44-0.

They outscored the visitors in first downs with 11 against Saginaw's 8, but the total yards gained seemed the deciding factor.

On the next play, fresh quarterback Greg Meeder tossed Scoreboard table showing Saginaw 20, O-E 0. Saginaw stats: 6 6 2 6 - 20. O-E stats: 0 0 0 0 - 0.

This exemplified the entire evening for Ovid-Elsie against a tough Saginaw St. Stephen squad. This Marauder can get nowhere but out of bounds on this end-around sweep.

St. Johns Continued from Page 3A weights 168 and the guy he was blocking was over 200 lbs. This offensive and defensive line power is the result of Coach Joe Gonzales and the fine job he's doing. Statistic wise, the game was all St. Johns'. The Redwings played their kind of ballgame and made Charlotte conform. They capitalized on every Charlotte mistake and made very few themselves. The first-down edge went to St. Johns 17-8, Rushing yardage was 213 for SJ and 115 for Charlotte. The Redwings edged out Charlotte in passing yardage.

P-W bombs Webberville in 44-8 route

Webberville's Spartans must be talking to themselves this week after running into a human meat-grinder Friday night as P-W Westphalia took them to the cleaners, 44-8.

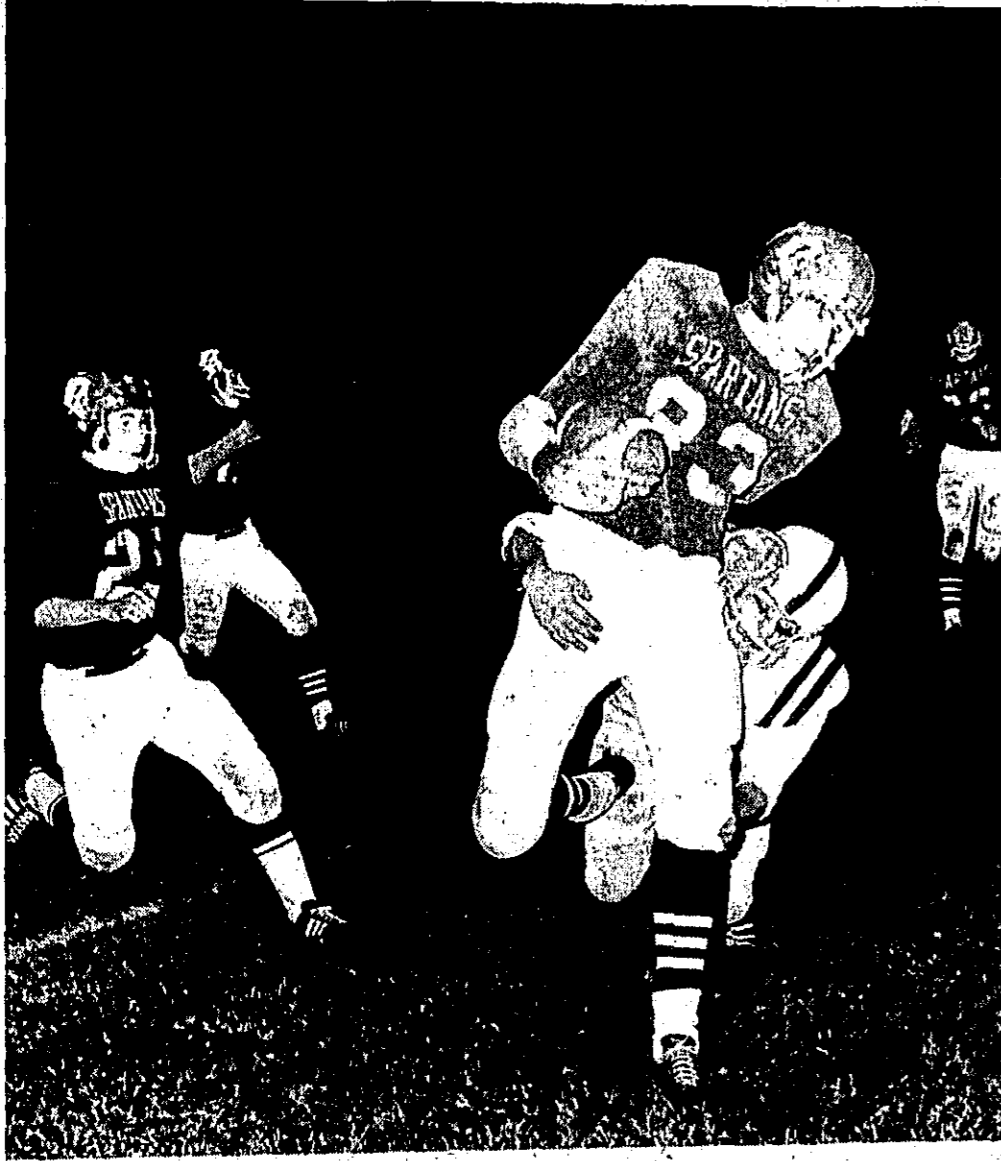

Dan Weber terrorized the Spartan defense with three touchdowns of 46, 54 and 17 yards and had three more called back, one a fine 90-yard romp. Al Fedewa returned a Webberville kickoff 50 yards and a touchdown, which quarterback John Bengel run another and threw a second touchdown pass to Fedewa.

The only Spartan score came in the closing minutes on a 41-yard pass from Greg Glover to Dan Insell.

P-W will meet Fowler in their homecoming battle at the Pirate field which could decide the lead in the Central Michigan Athletic Conference play.

Webberville's Mark Viecele (83) is about to be nailed by a persistent, but unidentified, P-W Pirate during Friday night's clash. Rushing to Viecele's aid are Gary Theis (25) and Chris Monroe (63).

Quarterback John Bengel sweeps around end for a P-W touchdown against Webberville in the wake of a vicious body block thrown by Roger Luna, sprawling a would-be tackler.

P-W tailback Michael Gross (31) pulls down a John Bengel pass with Al Fedewa alongside ready to give a hand.

NORM LOVE

From St. Johns

Norm Love runs, passes for player-of-week honors

Norm Love, of St. Johns, won the honors of offensive player of the week at Ferris State College, after guiding the Bulldogs to a 9-8 win against Lakeland (Wis.) College last week.

Love, a sophomore, quarterback received the award after Head Coach Bob Leach and his staff studied game films of the season opener.

Love was making his first varsity start and had no more than a token varsity experience before the game.

Last year, Love threw only two passes and completed one to account for his previous varsity play.

The Bulldog signal-caller took over for three-year letterman Al Beamer and was a doubtful starter after spraining his ankle a week ago. The 205-pound quarterback completed four of 10 passes for 72 yards and added a pair of long ground gainers to the rushing statistics.

The young back demonstrated the ability to move Ferris' attack against one of the better defensive teams in the nation among small colleges.

"He displayed real poise and leadership Saturday," Leach said. "Especially for a guy who had seen almost no 'live' action this season."

Because of the sprained ankle, Love sat out an earlier scrimmage against Grand Rapids Junior College, the Bulldogs' lone pre-season contest.

The Bulldogs were to go for their second straight win of the season - and fifth in a row counting last season - Saturday at Wayne State.

Feldpausch, Eagles stomp Shamrocks with 18-8 win

The Portland St. Patrick Shamrocks found the going a little more than rough when they clashed with Fowler's Eagles in both teams' first conference contest.

Coming back from an 8-6 half-time deficit, the sturdy Eagles downed the Shamrocks 18-8 for their second season win.

With about eight minutes gone in the first quarter Eagle pass catcher Jerome Pohl snared one in the enemy territory and scampered 25 yards to set up the first score of the game.

Steve Feldpausch carried the ball in on the next play for six points; but Clare Thelen's run for the extra two points failed.

But the lead slowly changed hands in the second frame as Portland sustained a drive from their own 23 yard line as Dan Lenneman plunged over from the one-yard-line to tie the game. Halfback Tom Brown tallied the extra two points for the conversion giving the Shamrocks some life and the lead.

The second half found Fowler's luck a bit changed.

The third quarter started out with more of the same bad breaks for the Fowler squad as pass interference penalties, blocked passes and an interception seemed to spell doom for the Eagles.

But with 3:40 to go in the period Steve Feldpausch broke away for a 13-yard touchdown run, giving him two for the evening.

The two-point conversion failed and Fowler again led the Shamrocks 12-8.

Then with 7:13 left in the final quarter, Fowler's defensive unit halted Portland's stumbling offense at the Shamrock 13-yard-line forcing a punt situation.

At the snap, with Portland kicking, Dave Rossow and Ken Schmitt blasted through to block and recover the punt in the end zone for the Eagles' final tally of the evening.

The win gives the Eagles a 2-0 record for the season as they prepare for a visit to Pevamo-Westphalia and a Pirate homecoming game, next weekend.

The Shamrocks dropped their first game of the season and now hold a record of 1-1.

Last call to enlist in PP&K competition

There is just one day remaining for boys in St. Johns to register for the local Punt, Pass and Kick Competition.

Carl Harter, of the St. Johns Jaycees, competition director, said that registrations would be taken through Wednesday, Sept. 30. The St. Johns PP&K Competition is scheduled for Oct. 3, at St. Johns High School Athletic Field, at 6:30 p.m.

"Although time is growing short, any boy 8-13 years of age can still compete," Harter said. "All he needs to do is go into Egan Ford Sales, accompanied by a parent or guardian, and fill out the PP&K registration form. There's no entry fee or charge of any kind, and that goes for all six levels of competition, up to and including the national finals."

Harter pointed out that 1st, 2nd and 3rd place trophies will be awarded in the local competition in each of the six age groups. Increasing the boys' chances of winning one of the 18 trophies is the fact that each boy competes against other boys his own age. And since there is not body contact, a boy's size is not as important as his ability to punt, pass and place-kick for distance with accuracy.

"Winners can keep right on going up through the zone, district, area and division contests to the national finals," Harter said. It's possible that one or more of our local winners could wind up in the finals, which this year will be held at the pro All-Star Game in Los Angeles on Jan. 24.

That means an all-expense-paid trip to the Coast for the contestant, and his parents, a special tour of Disneyland, a Banquet of Champions celebration, and the chance to meet some of the top professional players and coaches.

"Registering for PP&K right now could mean all that for some youngster or youngsters here in St. Johns, but they should register right now," Harter concluded.

When he registers, each boy gets a free PP&K Tips Book.

All that's new for 1971 - from Oldsmobile!

Toronado. The Unmistakable One takes on grand new proportions. It is a full five inches longer, and every inch adds to its elegance. Even its trunk is more spacious this year. The new interiors are roomier and far more sumptuous. The front floor is flat from door to door, with no hump to get in the way. Toronado's unique front drive and the more spacious, Turbo Hydra-matic— all standard on the Olds Rocket 455 V-8, power steering, power front disc brakes.

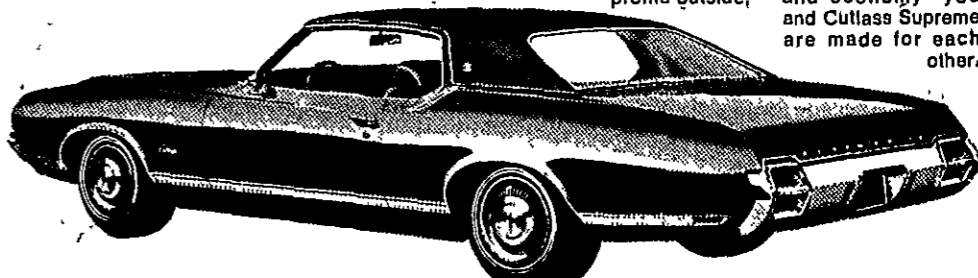

Delta 88. Warmest welcome over to the big-car world. Power steering is standard. So are power front disc brakes. And an impressive 124-inch wheelbase. It's all topped off with Delta 88's remarkable new "G-Ride" System.

The "G-Ride" System. An Olds exclusive—a combination of advances in chassis, suspension, steering and all-new Super-shocks. You ride smoother, corner better, are less affected by stiff crosswinds. It's featured in every 1971 Olds Delta 88.

Cutlass Supreme. Oldsmobile's "little limousine" places all-out elegance within the reach of nearly every new car buyer! And does it so beautifully—with a classic profile outside, deep comfort and luxurious appointments inside. If you're longing for elegance—and economy—you and Cutlass Supreme are made for each other.

MEETINGS

The St. John's Woman's Club will hold its first meeting of the year on Wednesday, Oct. 7 at the Episcopal Church Undercroft.

The meeting will begin at 1 p.m. with a membership dinner and Mrs. John Goebel will present the program "The Egg and I".

Chairman of the day will be Mrs. Joseph Spusta and hostesses will be the membership and hospitality committee.

Tea committee will be Mrs. Roy Davis, Mrs. Lloyd Harris, Mrs. Lawrence Fish and Mrs. Helen Judd.

A board meeting will follow at 3 p.m.

The first fall meeting of 8 at 40, social and service group of the American Legion Auxiliary, met at the home of Mrs. Donald J. Smith on West French Road.

New officers for the year were installed by Mrs. Velma Beaufore assisted by Mrs. Elnor Bell. Officers for the ensuing year are: LePetit Chapeau, Mrs. Dollna MacKinnon; Demi Petit Chapeau, Mrs. Nelda McWilliams; Demi Chapeau Deuxieme, Mrs. Marjorie Pardee; La Secretaire-Caissiere, Mrs. Frances Conn; L'Archiviste, Mrs. Cerelda Hicks; L'Aumonier, Mrs. Ann Walker; La Concierge, Mrs. Evangeline Caudy; Pouvoir, Mrs. Etta Smith.

Mrs. Goldie Brooks and Mrs. Evangeline Caudy were delegates to the Marche in Grand Rapids in July. They brought back two trophies won by this Salon #581, both of them given for work in Child Welfare. They were the Mable Ruggles, Child Welfare Trophy and the Bassett-Trudell Child Welfare Trophy. The work of 8 at 40 is assisting in the care of children suffering from cystic fibrosis and tuberculosis.

The St. Johns Jaycette Auxiliary has begun another busy year of planning and working on many community projects. During August a successful Fall Farm and Flea Market was held and the Helping Hands Program was set up for the year. On the agenda for October will be the biennial Baby Sitting Clinic which is held to give young girls advice and training in taking care of children. Also a used book and bake sale is scheduled in October.

Assistance was given through the use of the Jaycette Special Fund to send a young girl to summer school, to help the Shelter Work Shop and in providing funds for a reading perception test for a local child.

At the Jaycette September meeting, Mary Hutton, Kay Arent, and Joann Banner were installed and welcomed into the organization.

All of the members of the Jaycette Auxiliary are looking forward again this year to serving their community through their many worthwhile activities.

During the week, visitors of Mr. and Mrs. William Ernst and Maxine were Mrs. Robert Beckhorn of Ionia, Edward Ernst of St. Johns, Herman Noller of rural Hubbardston and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bancroft and Joy of SW Dallas.

"THE CHEYENNE SOCIAL CLUB"

Cheryl Weber weds Kenneth Arens

Most Holy Trinity Church in Fowler was the setting for the Saturday Sept. 26 double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Cheryl Anne Weber of 380 Elm Street Fowler and Kenneth A. Arens of Route 2, Fowler. Rev. Albert J. Schmitt performed the 2 p.m. service before an altar decorated with six arrangements of pink chrysanthemums.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George L. Weber and Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Arens.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose an A-line floor-length gown of white angel peau-de-sole featuring an empire waistline and lace trimming the bodice and the full Bishop sleeves with wide cuffs. The high neckline featured the same lace, which was underlined by pink satin ribbon. Lace trimmed the chapel-length train and also the bottom of the gown. A Camelot cap of pink peau-de-sole covered by Alencon lace secured her floor-length veil of five layers of imported nylon illusion and she carried a colonial nosegay of pink and white carnations, pink sweetheart roses, ivy and baby breath with pink floor-length satin ribbon streamers.

Marilyn Weber of Lansing served as her sister's maid of honor and serving as bridesmaids were Ann and Joy Weber, sisters of the bride, Mrs. Stephen Nunham of Lansing and Mrs. John Stump of Lansing, both friends of the bride. The attendants wore Grecian-style floor-length gowns of pale pink chiffon featuring high necklines, semi-full long sleeves and an empire waistline. A braid of deep rose and pale pink satin ribbon circled the empire waistline and the length of the back. Their Camelot caps secured their matching floor-length veils and they carried fireside baskets filled with variegated pink carnations white mums and baby breath.

Friend of the groom, Fred Smith served as best man and groomsmen were Tom, Dan and Gary Arens, brothers of the groom, and Bernie Simons, friend of the groom. Seating the guests were John Weber, cousin of the bride and Dennis Arens, brother of the groom.

A reception for 550 guests was held at St. Mary's Parish Hall at 5 p.m. with special guests being Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weber, grandparents of the bride, Mr. John Thelen, grandfather of the groom and Mrs. Katherine Pohl, great-grandmother of the bride.

For travel on their wedding trip to Canada, New York and Upper Michigan the new Mrs. Arens chose a pink sleeveless A-line dress with a pink cape to match. Black accessories completed her attire.

Upon return the couple will make their home on Price Road in Fowler.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Fowler High School and attended Lansing Community College where she is now employed in the admissions office.

The groom is a 1967 graduate of Pewamo-Westphalia High School and is employed by Consumers Power Co.

Hospital Aux. to sponsor trip

Clinton Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will sponsor a theatre party Saturday, Dec. 5 to the Fisher Theatre in Detroit. Playing at the Fisher on that date will be "Butterflies are Free" with Harold Krens, a story about a blind boy's fight to win his independence living alone in New York.

Reservations are now being taken for the group and can be made by calling Mrs. Edward Idzkowski at 224-3368. The deadline for reservations to formally register the child in school.

Mrs. Hixson said that parents may simply bring the child on the days they wish to attend.

Mrs. Kenneth Harwood will assist Mrs. Hixson in operating the class sessions.

Story time set for Bath area pre-schoolers

The Bath Community Schools have announced the formation of a "story time" for children attending kindergarten next year to be held in the elementary school library every Tuesday and Thursday.

The time of the sessions is from 10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. The program is designed to give the children a chance to experience a school-like situation, hear stories and check out a book each meeting to take home for the parents to read to them, Mrs. James Hixson, reading consultant, said.

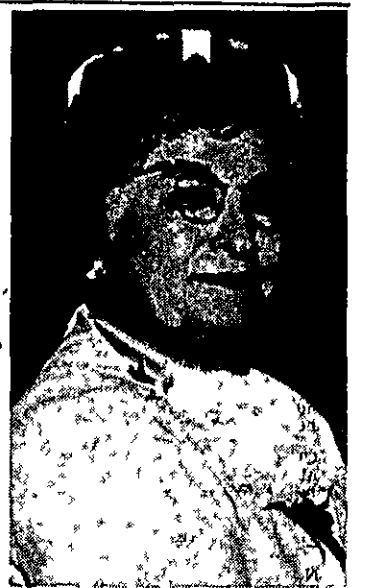

Some of the things taking place during the program are reading stories, playing finger games, singing, seeing films and giving the children a picture to take home to color each day, Mrs. Hixson said.

The picture book, when completed, will be posted in the library during each meeting.

Parents must provide the transportation for the program, although it is not necessary to formally register the child in school.

Mrs. Hixson said that parents may simply bring the child on the days they wish to attend.

Mrs. Kenneth Harwood will assist Mrs. Hixson in operating the class sessions.

MRS. HERMAN SMITH

Organist feted at open house

In appreciation of Mrs. Herman Smith's service as organist at St. Joseph Parish, St. Johns, a testimonial dinner was given in her honor, on Sunday, Sept. 20. Mrs. Smith recently retired after 34 years as head organist for the Parish.

The dinner was held in the St. Joseph School Social Hall. In attendance were Mrs. Smith's children and their families, the past choir members and friends.

Mr. Bernard Feldpausch acted as toastmaster and Brother Gregory Horning, O.F.M., was the principal speaker. Father William Hander spoke his words of appreciation in behalf of the Church and of his eleven predecessors under whom Mrs. Smith had served since 1936.

Mrs. Smith was presented with several lovely gifts and she expressed her gratitude for the help of the choir members and from her associate organists, who were also in attendance. Mrs. Jackie Schneider will replace Mrs. Smith as head organist for the Parish.

Blue Star Mothers

Regular monthly meeting of the Blue Star Mothers Chapter 88 was held in Wilcox Hall of the First Congregational Church in St. Johns on Tuesday, Sept. 22 with 24 members and one guest present.

The group was represented at the Central National Bank on Sept. 23 when three boys left for induction into the service and 24 went for physicals.

Mrs. Marge Fligel, state president of Blue Star Mothers has been invited to attend the January meeting to install the new officers.

The price of the banners has been raised from $1 to $1.25 due to an increase of cost to the Chapter.

Those appointed to the Christmas project were Ruth Barrett, Edna Eldred, Sally Hettler, Frances Halitsky, Vianna Bond, Ruth DeBoer and Alma Brock.

Committee for the next meeting will be Myrtle Tolles, Hortense Price, Grace Shipley and Ann Snater.

ANNUAL STATISTICAL AND FINANCIAL REPORT

St. Johns Public Schools of Clinton and Gratiot Counties

The school year of 1969-70 was one of growth and change for the St. Johns Public Schools. The enrollment rose by 226 students, from 3815 the previous year to 4041.

In September the new High School was completed and occupied by the 10th, 11th and 12th grades. These allowed Rodney B. Wilson Junior High School to house the 7th, 8th and 9th grades. The 7th and 8th grades had previously attended school at Central and the four outlying Elementary Schools.

Because of the fact that there was more space available the programs for both the High School and Junior High were considerably improved. Vocational programs such as Electronics, Auto Mechanics and Building Trades were added at the High School, while a much more comprehensive program of studies was introduced at the Junior High level.

For the school year of 1969-70 the schools were operated with a tax levy of 14.5 mills voted for operation, 8 mills allocated and 7.076 for debt retirement. The operating deficit of $46,506 which existed on July 1, 1969, was reduced to a deficit of $392 as of June 30, 1970.

Within the St. Johns district there are 11 buildings with a net book value of $8,643,913. Nine of the buildings are elementary schools containing 72 classrooms. The secondary schools contain a total of 91 classrooms.

For the year 1969-70 the minimum Teachers Salary was $7,000 for a beginning Teacher with a BA degree and the maximum salary was $11,900 for a teacher with 11 years service and an MA degree. The median salary was $9,200.

CORRESPONDENT TRAVELS TO CANADA

Mrs. Neva Keys accompanied her cousin, Mrs. Adele Jones of St. Johns for a three day vacation trip in Canada where they attended the 18th season of the Shakespearean Festival at Stratford, Ontario.

They saw Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" and Sheridan's "School for Scandals". There were over thirty chartered bus loads of high school students who attended "The Merchant of Venice" Wednesday from all parts of Canada. Two buses included a large group of blind teenage boys and girls and their teachers, who were given the choice orchestra seats for the performance.

The plays were presented in the beautiful Festival Theatre, on the tree shaded Avon River, where white swan and their cygnets, many ducks, paddleboats and picnickers make a tranquil scene.

The Elizabethan style theater-in-the-round, made of concrete and much glass, seats 2,258 people and its stage had seven levels with nine major entrances. The acoustics were so nearly perfect that the audience had no difficulty in following the superb performances of the players.

They toured the Shakespearean Gardens and Rothman's Art Gallery "Intermedate of Van-

The first fall meeting of the St. Johns Morning Musicale was hosted by Mrs. Conrad Selm on Thursday, Sept. 24. A morning coffee was served from an attractive table with fall decor, the host being assisted by the program committee, Mrs. Dean Stork, Mrs. Jack Stenberg, and Mrs. Duane Davis.

Mrs. Harold Lundy, president, welcomed the group, a returned member, Mrs. Fred Lewis, and a new member, Mrs. Bruce Fowler.

Interlochen scholarship students were guest soloists, John Eldridge played violin solos "Minuet in G" by Beethoven and "Fourth Sonata in D Major" by Handel, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Robert Eldridge. Van Patterson played a trombone solo "Concert Piece" by Sol. B. Cohen. He was accompanied by Rhonda Woodbury.

The program for the first part of the year will commemorate the 200th Anniversary of Beethoven's birthday and will feature Beethoven and his contemporaries. To begin the study Mrs. Robert Koepfen presented a brief commentary of Beethoven. She pointed out that Beethoven turned to romanticism—he broke from the traditional forms of classicism but used existing forms and filled them with his genius and emotions. He was master of the classic and romantic.

To close the program a recording of Beethoven's "Emperor" Concerto featuring Van Cillburn, Fritz Reiner, and the Chicago Symphony was played. Attention was called to the Beethoven Festival to be held at Michigan State University Nov. 2-6.

Announcement was made of the South Central District Convention of Music Clubs to be held Friday, October 23, 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Tecumseh United Methodist Church, Tecumseh.

Don't insult the man who sells you milk by calling him a milkman. He is known in the dairy aristocracy as a lacteal purveyor. From the Clinton Republican of May 25, 1877.

Business notes

By MIKE PREVILLE
News Advertising Manager

Mike or Mark Pearson of Route 2, DeWitt...call the County News (224-2361). If you know Mike or Mark... (we couldn't make out his writing) tell him he is $20.00 richer this week. He won the County News Football Contest by predicting 15 of the 16 contests correctly. Ken Schueller of St. Johns also hit on 15 of 16 but Mike or Mark was closer on the tie breaker.

The County News is sponsoring a special award for the Clinton County "Bowler of the Week". All league bowlers at Redwing Lanes, Fowler Bowl of Tri-Arm Lanes are eligible to receive a patch to honor the high actual series rolled in the county. Beginning October 7 and through the season the man and woman who

We picked up a couple gallons of bulk (non-pasteurized, nothing added) sweet cider at Nick's Fruit Market last week. We figured one jug for the family and one jug (after a little doctoring) for Dad. We have to go back to Nick's for more...it was so good, it was gone before we could see it.

Please...when marking the tie breaker on the Football Contest...select the winning team as well as estimating the points. We received over 50 entries that just estimated points...and because no team was picked, we had to mark it wrong.

roll the high series will be able to paste a clipping in their scrapbook and sew a patch on their shirt.

This is part of the County News new program for bowlers which will also include a "Bowling Yearbook" that will feature a picture of every league team in the county.

The first $20.00 winner in the New's Bazaar of values promotion was Marjorie Pardee of St. Johns. There will be two more $20.00 prizes and then...some one will receive $100.00 in the final drawing. Mrs Pardee didn't think when she deposited her E.F. Boron sales slip that she would win...so don't you miss a chance on winning because you've never won anything before.

We were much impressed by both teams when Ovid-Elsie lost to Saginaw St. Stephens Friday night. That 20-0 score does not tell the true story of the game. It was a real thumper...but the thing that impressed us more than anything was that both quarterbacks threw to moving targets all night. We can't recall one play when the pass receiver had stopped.

Football prediction of the week...Green Bay 17-Lions 14.

Commissioners deny additions to Blue Cross plan

Clinton County Commissioners Friday night voted against a fringe benefit proposal which would have placed members of the county road commission on employee rolls for Blue Cross health and accident coverage.

Acting on a proposal by Finance Committee Member Gerald Lankford, the board denied the request in a voice vote with apparent reason being lack of information on the suggestion.

"I should have done my homework," commented Lankford after the vote, but further comments among commissioners suggested the question will be raised again during one of the group's regular October meetings.

Lankford explained to the commission that a finance committee meeting on the request had not been held but his belief that a cutoff date of Oct. 1 for salary changes in the county prompted him to bring up the matter during Friday night's gathering, which was a readjournalment of an earlier recessed session.

Lankford told the commission that a cost of approximately $30 per month would be involved in adding the three road commissioners to current health and accident coverage.

Members of the road commission are Chairman Paul Nobis, Roy Davis and Marvin Platte.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Thelen attended the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John VanAcker of Lansing, Sunday Sept. 27.

1971. Buick introduces a new set of values.

Value, not gimmicks or ornamentation, sells cars. More people have been coming to Buick each year for just that reason. Buick concentrates on value. And this year, Buick introduces a new set of values. Features that will help make your new Buick perform better, last longer and get you more of a return on your investment at trade-in time. Only a Buick dealer can offer you our new set of values. So, test your values against our new ones. Then ask yourself this simple question. Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

Something to believe in.

1971 Buick Riviera. A totally new design concept. And that's not all. Riviera offers MaxTrac, an exclusive power control system you can order with its own on-board computer. It helps you get securely over slick surfaces by reducing rear-wheel slipping. The new body features side-guard beams for protection, a bigger trunk, and a driver cockpit with a control center designed around the driver for new ease and convenience.

1971 Buick Electra 225. A new interpretation of quiet elegance. We've improved our Electra everywhere you look. There's more room in every direction, interiors that can be appreciated as much for their durability as for their beauty and comfort, even a new balanced braking system. A unique valve proportions braking force front to rear to help give you quick, smooth straight-line stops.

1971 Buick Centurion. This is our newest Buick, a city car with sleekness and grace as well as muscle. It features more nimble variable-ratio power steering, power front disc brakes, Full-Flo ventilation, and a vinyl roof on the Centurion Formal Coupe as standard equipment.

1971 Buick LaSabre. An incredible new offering of Buick value. The LaSabre, like the Riviera, Electra and Centurion, features AccuDrive, a new version of the directional stability system we pioneered. It will help give you smooth handling.

1971 Buick Skylark Custom. This is the car that has set the pace for value in its price class. Rocker panels that wash and dry themselves, big-Buick room and comfort inside, a cooling system that should never overheat, inner fenders that protect the outer fenders, and a modest price have put our Buick Skylark traditionally among the resale leaders in its class.

An Important Improvement. Every new Buick engine is now designed to run smoothly and efficiently, and with lower exhaust emissions, on no-lead and low-lead gasolines. And every Buick V-8 engine will have exclusive nickel-plated exhaust valves for smoother operation and longer valve life, and a new time-modulated choke to help give quicker warm-up and a more consistent fuel mixture.

Clinton mental health center readies open house Oct 4

The Clinton County Mental Health Center, 300 Sturgis St., St. Johns, will hold an open house to introduce the public to the local services of the facility and present new staff members. The center, located in the former nurses home, is part of the tri-county mental health facilities serving Clinton, Eaton and Ingham counties. The main mental health hospital is located at St. Lawrence hospital in Lansing.

Mental health-clinic staff members pause for a moment in their day to plan for the upcoming open house Sunday Oct. 4 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. From left are Sue Benson, receptionist, Joy Anderson, staff worker, Tom Sherby and Margaret Cole.

Mrs. Cole displays some of the play equipment at the center used to help entertain and aid the children brought to the center. In speaking of the local center, she indicated the "response here has been excellent." She also said that the center will be searching for volunteer help in the future when the needs arise for expansion.

"The community has made good use of the center," Tom Sherby, case worker, said. "But a lot of people are not aware that we've been here," he added inviting the public to attend the open house Sunday.

The Automatic Checking Account Loan Service

WHAT CHECKMATE IS

Check-Mate is not a credit card. It is a check guarantee—automatic loan program. It assists you in cashing checks where you are not known and it allows you to write checks for more than your balance with payment of the loan credited by small monthly installments of a lump sum, if you desire. Only you and your bank know that you are creating a loan when you write the check.

HOW YOU CAN USE IT

Use Check-Mate to institute a loan at the time of purchase. No delay or red tape when buying items at a time when your account is low or the convenience of delayed payment is desired. The amount used can be repaid in total or in installments to fit your budget.

PLUS IT CAN BE A SAVINGS

Perhaps you have no intention of making a loan but by merely completing a Check-Mate contract you can assure yourself of a savings in the event of an accidental overdraft. The usual overdraft charge is $3 but with the protection of Check-Mate, a three-day checkmate loan of $100 would cost you only 10¢. Let us explain these and other advantages of a signed Check-Mate contract on file at Clinton National Bank.

82 PULL TYPE COMBINE

EDIBLE BEAN SPECIAL

The 82 edible bean special is especially designed to harvest clean, whole beans with a minimum of splits and cracks. A special spring-tooth cylinder and concave gently break the pods without scuffing or cracking the beans. Special perforated bottoms screen out sand and dirt. A stone retarder helps protect the threshing mechanism from damage. And the grain elevator is equipped with more flights to move beans fast and to help avoid cracking and scuffing.

- Sleek modern styling
- Opposed-action cleaning
- Wide 42" separator
- Deep-ledge platform
- Big top-driven elevators
- Fin-and-wire rack

THE COMBINE THAT INVITES COMPARISON

COMPARE... COMPARE... COMPARE

- Deep ledge platform cuts cutterbar loss to the bone.
- Undershot feeder delivers a smooth bunch-free flow to the cylinder.
- Wide heavy cylinder handles heaviest yields without losing speed.
- Fin and wire racks save all the crop at fast ground speeds.
- Even-flt grain pan moves the crop smoothly onto the sieves.
- Opposed-action cleaning puts a clean sample in the tank.
- Top driven elevators keeps heaviest yielding crops on the move.
- Twin grain tanks provide increased traction, unmatched stability.
- International 6-cylinder engine delivers big power for any crop or condition.
- Operator platform with controls that make any operator more productive.

Open letter:

Teen tells experiences of YFU European trip

By CONI BURNHAM
Special to Clinton County News

On exactly June 17, 1970 I was on my way for the most exciting experience I feel I'll ever have in my life. Signing up for the Youth For Understanding Program (YFU) was the greatest decision I ever made. Orientation for our trip to Europe took place at Saginaw Valley College the day before we left.

After being driven by bus to Detroit Metropolitan Airport we were on our way to Europe aboard a Boeing 707 on June 18 at 2 a.m.

Landing in Copenhagen, Denmark where some of the youth were dispersed to go to their various homes for the summer, we flew on to Hamburg, Germany where I would see again the exchange student who had spent a year with our family in America, Susanne London.

Susanne met me at the huge Hamburg airport at 17:30 (5:30 p.m.) Hamburg time—back in the USA it was only 11:30 a.m. I went to her home by tram which was like a train but traveled down streets like a car.

Arriving where the majority of my stay would be I met Susanne's sister, Annette, who was sixteen and Mathias who was Susanne's 14-year-old brother. Both of them could speak English very well.

After eating we watched some German TV and just before going to bed I met Susanne's mother as she had been visiting some friends earlier in the evening.

On TV we saw many American shows but they were translated in German language. "Mannix," "Mod Squad," "Family Affair," "The Invaders," "It Takes a Thief" were a few of the shows but they also had lots of older shows like Buster Keaton and etc.

Mini, midi, maxi what to wear?

Around 55 B.C., Julius Caesar war heard to say, "Veni, Vidi, Vici!" (I came, I saw, I conquered) But in the now Age of Aquarius, the more familiar cry is a question, "Mini, Midi, Maxi?"

With fashions in a transitional stage, young women are looking for help in deciding how to spend their clothing dollar. Over 350,000 of them are getting the help they need by participating in the national 4-H dress revue program.

Extension Service personnel emphasize that the program provides more than ideas of what to wear. It teaches fashion awareness, gives tips on good grooming, hair style, makeup, choosing the right accessories and how to acquire poise and self-confidence.

Simplicity Pattern Co. Inc. is national donor in the program and offers support and assistance in numerous ways. One of the company's recent aids to decision-making is a sample wardrobe called "Computer Fashions—Fall '70." Using the language of EDP, the wardrobe shows how materials and proper length can be used to the best advantage—be it mini, midi, maxi or even "mix!"

Simplicity's 4-H stylists provide fashion consultation and technical assistance at local, county and state dress revues. Girls participating in dress revue not only learn what's right for them in today's fashions but are eligible for county and state recognition awards provided by the company. Last year 25,000 teenagers received county medals of honor.

State winners received an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress being held in Chicago Nov. 29 through Dec. 3 where they will model in the National 4-H Dress Revue. Theme of this year's national revue is "Fashion EXPLOR!" Accent colors will be red, white and sharp yellow, the colors forecast to dominate the spring 1971 fashion picture.

During the National Dress Revue, six national winners of $600 scholarships will be announced.

As school was still in session there I visited school for the first three weeks and the main difference was the students were allowed to drink beverages and smoke during classes.

The school building housed a 9 year school, a 10 year school and a 13 year school. In English class they were reading and discussing "The Catcher in the Rye."

I was asked to explain many phrases and words. Two other classes I visited were French and Art. On test day the students only go to the class in which they are having a test for the whole day.

The test may last 3.5 or 6 hours and during the test one can get up and go outside then later on come back in and finish the test. This is their own free time and they decide what they want to do and how long they spend on the test.

Classes start around 8:30 a.m. just like ours, last 40 minutes and time between classes may be from 10 to 20 minutes. The students stay in one certain classroom and the teachers come to them.

Sandwiches are taken to school to snack on during periods in between classes even though returning home may be as early as 11:30 a.m. depending on how many classes you have that day.

The regular time to return home is usually around 13:00 (1 p.m.)

July 10, the day school was out we left for Denmark and stayed in Gilleleje which is at the northern tip of the island where Copenhagen, the capital of Denmark is located.

We could see the coast of Sweden across the Baltic Sea. We were here for one week and here we saw American movies on TV with Danish subtitles.

One day we saw a Russian movie with Danish subtitles. In the theatres they also showed American movies with Danish subtitles—"True Grit," "The Impossible Years" and "The Yellow Rolls Royce."

Here prices vary according to seats and many times the highest price would be only $1.00.

One day we traveled by ship from Helsingor, Denmark to Helsingborg, Sweden, where we sent the afternoon returning to Gilleleje by ship and train.

While in Gilleleje we saw many interesting sights including the castle where the King of Denmark lives today.

Leaving Gilleleje by car to Copenhagen we spent 6 hours at the Tivoli, an internationally known fair which was fairly good size and open all year round.

From here we traveled back to Hamburg to prepare for our trip to Paris on July 25.

Our journey to Paris by bus took 18 hours and we stopped at the Netherland-Germany border and also at the Belgium-France border.

Here we stayed at the Magenta, a hotel centered well around all the famous sites of Paris, the Place de la Concorde, Le Sacre-Coeur, La Tour Eiffel, Notre-Dame, L'Arc de Triomphe.

We also toured Versailles and Chartres which proved to a very interesting experience. I had taken three years of French and could communicate very well with the people but here we heard much English also as Paris is filled with many American people.

Our trip to Paris was with a group of German students so this also was a good experience.

Besides the many places of interest I visited in Hamburg, I also visited Lüneburg, Germany, a middle-aged city built on salt mines! Susanne's aunt lived here with her husband and two children.

Here we spent two days and a night and got to see quite a bit of the town and sights of Lüneburg.

Then we traveled on to All-Garge, Germany, a small town about 80 miles from Hamburg and close to the East German border. Here Susanne's grandparents lived and we stayed for a week. All-Garge is a small town where many retired people live.

It has a large swimming pool which we visited every day and here we met many people who came for a day when they were off from work.

On a clear day you could see the guards along the border of East Germany across the river.

Back in Hamburg for the remainder of my stay I shopped for souvenirs, visited the television tower which is around 71 meters and similar to the space needle at the World's fair in Seattle, Wash. the Hermmelfest of Hamburg which is similar to our fairs and one evening rode the train completely around the City of Hamburg.

I left from the Hamburg Airport at 10:45 a.m. (4:40 a.m. USA time) on August 16 and arrived in Detroit at 6:15 p.m. (1:15 p.m. USA time) where my family met me.

I feel that nothing could compare with the experience I had this summer, traveling in Europe, the people I met and CONI BURNHAM learned to love and understand, the countries I visited and the different customs in them gave me better understanding of our world.

I believe there is good in all people in all countries and certainly my German mother, sisters and brother will always mean much to me. I hope some day I can visit them and their country again.

Now I am home and back in school, proud to be an American, proud of our American flag and the heritage we have!

LCC offers Christmas sales class

A Christmas sales training course, endorsed by the Michigan Retailers Association will be offered this year at Lansing Community College.

The course, designed to prepare students for retail sales employment during the Christmas season, will meet on Wednesdays from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. for day students and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. for evening students beginning Sept. 30.

Instruction includes the fundamentals of retail salesmanship, cashing, sales, receipt procedures, consumer behavior and customer relations, product knowledge, and employment applications and employment interviews.

The cost per student will be $5, including $2 for tuition and the remainder for the textbook. Each student will receive a certificate of achievement upon successful completion of the course.

For information and class reservations, interested citizens should contact the management and marketing department at the college, 419 N. Capitol Ave., Lansing or call 489-3751 through extension 261.

Clinton County Commission Proceedings

MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1970

The Clinton County Board of Commissioners met Monday, June 15, 1970 at 9:00 a.m. Prayer was offered by Maurice Gove. A pledge of Allegiance was given to the flag. Roll was called and a quorum reported. All members were present.

Minutes of the May 18 meeting were presented and corrections were made. It was moved by Hufnagel supported by Sirrine to approve the minutes as corrected. Voted and carried.

Communications were read:
A request from Michigan Township Association for membership dues which would also include subscriptions to the Township News for all county officials was presented. It was moved by Montgomery supported by Shepard to approve the request. Voted and carried.

A communication from Dr. Paver, Director of Mid-Michigan Health Department requesting approval from the Board to authorize the spending of funds for the Tri-County Comprehensive Family Planning project to be located in Ingham County. It was moved by Montgomery supported by Andrews to defer action until the next meeting. The motion was withdrawn.

Montgomery then moved to deny the request. Motion died for lack of support. Chairman Nobis referred the matter to the Health Committee to investigate and make a report to the Board.

A Resolution from Hillsdale County - RE - SB 1417 - which opposes assessors qualification requirements was read. It was moved by Lankford supported by Sirrine to receive and place on file. Voted and carried.

A 2nd Resolution in opposition to Oakland County's proposed re-distribution of Highway Funds was on a motion by Lankford supported by Montgomery to receive and place on file. Voted and carried.

A communication from the Clinton County Zoning Commission requesting the transfer from a special fund to the general fund, money received for special meetings in the amount of $1,340 was presented.

Commissioner Gove moved supported by Hufnagel that the Board approve the transfer. Voted and carried.

A communication from Congressman Garry Brown expressing his displeasure at our flag being cut down from the flag pole in front of the Court House, was read. He is obtaining another flag for us and lending a special significance to it by having it flown over the United States Capitol.

It was moved by Montgomery supported by Cobb to accept with gratitude the flag and to express to Congressman Garry Brown our sincere appreciation. Voted and carried.

Copies of the State Audit Report were distributed to the Commissioners.

TO: County Board of Commissioners and County Officials

Following is the report of the financial position of Clinton County at Dec. 31, 1969 and the results of county operations for the year then ended. The report is based on the results of an audit by our Local Government Audit Division. The audit was conducted under recognized audit standards and, accordingly, included such tests and review procedures as we considered necessary under the circumstances.

We previously provided you with a report of comments and recommendations arising from this audit.

There have been some extensive changes in our report format. We have for the first time, attempted to construct balance sheets for all funds. We have made several changes in grouping and presentation of revenue and expenditure classifications. In our Explanatory Comments we have attempted to highlight the information which we feel will be of greatest interest to you. We would appreciate your comments and any suggested changes or improvements which you might care to offer.

If you have any questions concerning information in either part of the report or in relation to the conduct of the audit, please contact our office as shown below.

Very truly yours,
ALLISON GREEN
State Treasurer

Commissioner Gove reporting for the Health Committee presented a revised budget as submitted by the Community Mental Health Board.

It was moved by Montgomery supported by Shepard to approve the revised report. After some discussion, Montgomery with the consent of his support withdrew his motion.

The Board recessed for Committee meetings at 10:05 a.m. Upon again coming to order, Dale Chapman appearing for the Dept. of Public Works, presented a Resolution signed by the Board of Watertown Charter Township and approved by the Dept. of Public Works.

It was moved by Montgomery supported by Shepard to approve the Resolution for sewers as presented. On a roll call vote, those voting aye were Cobb, Nobis, Gove, Sirrine, Chamberlain, Underhill, Hufnagel, Montgomery, Lankford, Andrews and Shepard. Nays - none, 11 ayes, 0 nays. Motion declared carried unanimously.

GENERAL RESOLUTION REQUESTING ASSISTANCE OF DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS OF CLINTON COUNTY IN FINANCING AND CONSTRUCTING PUBLIC WORKS AUTHORIZED BY ACT 185, PUBLIC ACTS OF 1957, AS AMENDED

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS it is deemed necessary in order to protect and preserve the public health and welfare that a Sewage Disposal System be acquired and constructed to service the following described area in the Charter Township of Watertown, Clinton County, Michigan:

Sections 36, 34, 35 and Sections 25, 26, and 27

WHEREAS, a preliminary study and report should be made with relation to said Sewage Disposal System and that said report indicate the need for such Sewage Disposal System,

WHEREAS, pursuant to the authorization provided in Act 185, Public Acts of Michigan, 1957, as amended, and resolutions duly adopted by its County Board of Supervisors, the County of Clinton has established a Department of Public Works;

WHEREAS, the authority provided in said Act 185, Public Acts of Michigan, 1957, as amended, in the opinion of the Charter Township Board provides the most feasible and logical means of acquiring, constructing, and financing the project generally referred to above, and will result in the lowest cost to the citizens and taxpayers of the Charter Township of Watertown for the said project immediately necessary to protect and preserve the public health;

AND WHEREAS, the Watertown Charter Township Board is ready and willing to enter into the necessary contracts and agreements with the said Department of Public Works of the County of Clinton to permit the financing and early construction of the above generally described project within the approximate cost thereof under the provisions of Act 185, Public Acts of Michigan, 1957, as amended;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the Charter Township of Watertown does hereby request that the Department of Public Works of the County of Clinton pursuant to the authorization provided in Act 185, Public Acts of Michigan, 1957, as amended, take the necessary steps to establish, construct and finance a sewage disposal system to service the area in said Charter Township generally specified in the preamble hereto.

2. That the Charter Township Board of Watertown recognizes and affirms that the entire cost of said project as hereinbefore described, including all professional services required and other expenses, will be paid by the Charter Township of Watertown in accordance with any contract or contracts to be negotiated with the Board of Public Works, as approved by said Charter Township Board and as financed by bonds and other evidence of indebtedness of the County of Clinton issued in anticipation of the contractual obligations.

3. The Charter Township of Watertown recognizes that the Department of Public Works of the County of Clinton will be expending funds for administrative costs in obtaining federal loan approval and in the acquisition of pumping station sites prior to a final contract being entered into for the construction of the Disposal System; and will pay to the said Department of Public Works such costs if said Disposal System, and the bond issues to pay therefor, is not accomplished.

4. That a certified copy of this Resolution be transmitted to Donald Hasko, Director, Clinton County Department of Public Works, St. Johns, Michigan, with a request for early action thereon.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE FOLLOWING VOTE: ayes, seven (7), nays, none (0).

MILDRED F. McDONOUGH
Watertown Charter Township Clerk

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and complete copy of a Resolution adopted by the Charter Township of Watertown, County of Clinton, Michigan, at a regular meeting held on 9th of February, 1970.

MILDRED F. McDONOUGH
Watertown Charter Township Clerk

Commissioner Andrews reporting on the request by the Zoning Commission for a flat or fixed fee for a special meeting, moved supported by Shepard to approve a flat or fixed fee of $125 for special meetings. Voted and carried.

Commissioner Lankford requests a 30 day extension of the $250 appropriation to the Prosecutor's DeWitt Office. Lankford moved supported by Montgomery to extend the payment for the month of July.

It was moved by Shepard supported by Underhill to table the preceding motion. Voted and declared lost.

Voting on the original motion on a roll call vote. Those voting aye were Chamberlain, Montgomery, Lankford and Andrews. Nays were Cobb, Nobis, Gove, Sirrine, Underhill, Hufnagel and Shepard. 4 ayes, 7 nays. Motion declared lost.

Commissioner Gove reported and explained the revised budget request of the Community Mental Health Board. Montgomery moved supported by Lankford to approve the budget as presented. Voted and carried.

It was moved by Hufnagel supported by Shepard to approve Commissioners expense accounts as presented. Voted and carried.

Shepard reports an attempt by Michigan Society for Mental Health to transfer mental health commitments from the county to Kalamazoo Hospital instead of the Traverse City Hospital as at present.

They are not in favor of the proposal (Judge Green and Committee)

The Board recessed for lunch at 12:00.

Upon again being called to order, William Coffey, Zoning Administrator appeared and presented the action taken by and the recommendations of the Zoning Commission at their May 26 and June 2 meetings.

Item I - Watertown Township (Vector Construction Company)
Application to re-zone from Zone A, residential to Zone D, agricultural

That part of E 1/2 of W 1/2 Section 29, T5N-R3W, lying N of Grand River Avenue and south of MDSH I-96 right-of-way, Watertown Township, Clinton County, Michigan.

Comments and action taken: Mr. Bruce Love, Vector Construction Co-owner, and petitioner, introduced himself and his attorneys Mr. Doyle and Mr. Smith. They want to re-claim this property and feel the only way to do it is to go from Zone A, residential to Zone D, agricultural. States that the land in its present condition is unusable for Zone A, residential. At least 60 acres is unusable, 80 acre total. Less than 1,500 feet approximately of high land along US-16.

A motion by Earl Barks to table until the second part of the petition can be discussed. Motion seconded by Max Loudenberg. Motion carried. Later removed from the table on a motion by Max Loudenberg to act on it. Motion seconded by Earl Barks. A motion by Max Loudenberg to rezone from A, residential to D, Agricultural. Motion seconded by Gerald Shepard. Motion carried.

Item II - Watertown Township (Vector Construction Co.)
Application for a Special Use Permit for the operation of a sanitary landfill on the following described parcel of land:

That part of E 1/2 of W 1/2 of Section 29, T5N-R3W, lying North of Grand River Avenue and South of MDSH I-96 right-of-way, Watertown Township, Clinton County, Michigan.

Comments and action taken: Mr. Love explained their plans. Showed a green belt to be used as a buffer zone. A seven foot cyclone fence would be used. They expect to fill with residential, commercial and industrial refuse. They will get all permits required from the State and the Health Department. They will put in a hard surface road at entrance. Fill areas will also be fenced and they are built to be moved. Hours of landfill will be 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., six days a week. The landfill will be open to the public at a fee. Most of the material will be brought in, in packers so there shouldn't be any great amount of debris blowing around.

A motion by Earl Barks to grant a Special Use Permit for a Permit of seven (7) years, that a $40,000 performance bond be maintained all set-backs stated on maps be maintained, all fences put in and all trees planted as shown on maps presented, the road completed, the de-acceleration lanes and hard surface road put in at the entrance, old buildings be torn down or put into a presentable condition before the permit is granted. This is subject to all other permits applicable to the operation of a landfill. Maps shall be made a part of the record.

Motion seconded by Gerald Shepard. Motion carried unanimously.

A letter from Leon Clark, Chairman of Watertown Township planning Commission opposing the Landfill was read.

Richard Wells, local attorney speaking for interested citizens in the area called for a show of hands of those appearing in protest to the project. Nineteen (19) people responded.

He then presented the objections voiced to the project. They have 324 signatures on petitions against the project. He portrayed many objectionable features which could arise from it: Decreased property valuations, stagnated development, odors arising from it, possible accidental fires, unsightliness and what if the operators default.

He asks that the project be denied.

Louis Smith, a Lansing attorney representing Vector Construction Company, commented on an expression used by Mr. J. Clark's letter. He takes exception to the expression "Steam roller." He states that as president of Clark Construction Company, he is competitor with Mr. Love's Company (Vector Construction Co.). He contends that Mr. Love's Company has a good past performance record and will continue to do so. He urges favorable consideration of the project.

Ed Kraft, Treasurer of Watertown Township stated that after considerable time and careful study, both the Planning Commission and the Township Board rejected the proposition. He urges rejection of the project.

Commissioner Montgomery suggests that no special use permit be issued for more than a one (1) year period.

Montgomery moved that action on the matter be deferred for 30 days. The motion died for lack of support.

He then moved supported by Hufnagel, to disapprove the action taken by the Zoning Commission and to deny the request.

Mr. Coffey presented aerial views of the area in support of the action taken by the Zoning Commission.

On a roll call vote, those voting aye were Cobb, Nobis, Gove, Sirrine, Underhill, Hufnagel, Montgomery and Lankford. Nays were Chamberlain, Andrews and Shepard. 8 ayes, 3 nays. Motion carried. Request denied.

Item I - Bingham Township (Ben Swanchara) March 23, 1970 meeting.

Application for approval and recommendations for a recreational area on the following described parcel of land.

North 1/2 of the SE quarter, and the SE quarter of the SE quarter of Section 22.

It was moved by Cobb supported by Sirrine to approve the action of the Zoning Commission. Voted and carried.

Comments and action taken: Mr. Harold Benson, Township Supervisor says Township Board has no objections to this project.

Mr. Swanchara is asking for approval and recommendations for a recreational area. This would be for a trail bike rental. Trails would be man made. Totally enclosed with fence. Mini-bike type, maximum five (5) horsepower engine, speed 20-25 MPH and weighs about 120 pounds. Would not be allowed to run on public roads. No outside bikes, only those Mr. Swanchara would be renting out. Bikes would all be going in the same direction. A one-way type of trail operation. Mr. Swanchara has checked into insurance on this project to some extent. These bikes can be operated by 12 years of age and up. Closest home is 200 - 250 yards away.

A motion was made by Earl Baks that approval and recommendations for a recreational area be granted to Mr. Ben Swanchara for a one (1) year permit with renewal if there is no action taken by this Board to curtail it. Limit to 6 horsepower. Hours limited to 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Motion supported by Max Loudenberg. Motion carried unanimously.

(This application was approved by the Clinton County Zoning Commission at their March 24, 1970 meeting. However, Mr. Swanchara gave this the wrong description of the property and it had to be readvertised.)

Item II - Westphalia Township (Fedewa Builders, Inc.)
Application to re-zone from Zone D, agricultural to Zone G, Industrial.

A parcel of land in the NE 1/4 of Section 11, T6N-R4W, Westphalia Township, Clinton County, Michigan. Described as: Beginning at a point 483' S of the NE corner of said Sec. 11, thence W 198', S 179', W 1,781', S 935', E 1,979', N 1,114' to point of beginning.

It was moved by Underhill supported by Chamberlain to concur with the action taken by the Zoning Commission and reject. On a roll call vote, those voting aye were Gove, Sirrine, Underhill, Montgomery and Shepard. Nays were Cobb, Nobis, Chamberlain, Hufnagel, Lankford and Andrews. 5 ayes, 6 nays. Motion declared lost. (Action on this matter was deferred pending a legal opinion.)

Comments and action taken: Mr. James Fedewa, introduced himself, Robert Fedewa and Pete Schafer of Schafer Heating, 120 Acres, 42 of which are being requested zoned industrial. The rest they are asking be zoned residential. Their ready-mix and building business and Schafer Heating are already located there. They have several parties interested in locating in this proposed industrial area. There is some talk of Wright Road becoming an all-weather road in the near future. Now it has 60,000 pound gross load. Half load in the spring.

A motion by Earl Barks to table so we may move on to discussion of their housing. Motion seconded by Gerald Shepard. Carried 5 to 0.

Item III - Westphalia Township - (Fedewa Builders, Inc.)
Application to re-zone from Zone D, agricultural to Zone B, residential.

A parcel of land in the NE 1/4 of Section 11, T6N-R4W, Westphalia Township, Clinton County, Michigan described as: Beginning at a point 148.5' S of the NE cor. of sd. Sec. 11, th. W 181.5', N 149.5', W 1,222', S 294.5', W 148', N 294.5', W 528', S 662', E 1,781', N 178', E 198', N 483', top of hwy. also a par. of ld. in NE 1/4 of Sec. 11, T6N-R4W, Westphalia Township, Clinton County, Michigan, described as: beg. at 1,597' S of the NE cor. of sd. Sec. 11, th. W 1,979', S 1,043', E 1,714.02', N 165', E 264', N 878' to point of beg.

Comments and action taken: This request also has approval of Health Dept., Drain Commission, Road Commission and Township.

There is existing residential there now. One parcel is about 46 acres and the other is 37 acres. A preliminary plat is now being drawn up for approval. The lots will be 1/2 acre in area with a minimum of 132' in width. They are asking for B, residential zoning, but lots are actually "Zone A Size." Will eventually have sewer and water.

A motion by Earl Barks to table. Seconded by Gerald Shepard. Motion carried.

(Later in the evening) A motion by Earl Barks to remove both applications from the table. Motion carried.

A motion by Max Loudenberg to reject. Motion seconded by Lawrence Maier. Motion carried unanimously.

The Chairman then declared a short recess. Upon again coming to order, Zoning Items were resumed.

Item V - Bingham Township (Robert Fell)

Application for a Special Use Permit for a multiple dwelling on the following described parcel of land:

The S 1/2 of the NW 1/4 and the N 10 A. of the W 1/2 of the SW 1/4 all in Sec. 17, T7N-R2W, in Mich., also the E 1/2 of the SW 1/4, of Sec. 17, T7N-R2W, Clinton County, Michigan except a parcel of land in the SW corner thereof, running 200' E and W by 217.8 N and S.

It was moved by Hufnagel supported by Chamberlain to concur. Voted and carried.

Comments and action taken: This is located on Townsend Road. Mr. and Mrs. Fell presented their application. This is an old farm house and they wish to put an apartment upstairs. They want this for an additional source of income. He did not want to rent it as a one-family dwelling as it is such a large house. Would rather use it as a two-family so that it would accommodate smaller groups of tenants. Someday he hopes to move into this house when he retires. It appears that the upstairs apartment has well over 700 square feet of floor area. He proposes a separate outside entrance to the back for the upstairs apartment.

A motion by Max Loudenberg to grant a Special Use Permit for a duplex be granted. Motion seconded by Lawrence Maier. Motion carried unanimously.

Item VI - Eagle Township (Rosier)

Application for approval and recommendations to operate and maintain a sand and gravel pit on the following described parcel of land:

W 1/2 of S fraction of SW 1/4 of Sec. 19 and E 1/2 of S frac. of SW 1/4 of Sec. 19 and NW 1/4 of NW 1/4 of Sec. 30 and N 49.22 A of E 1/2 of NE 1/4 of Sec. 30

It was moved by Underhill, supported by Chamberlain to approve the action taken by the Zoning Commission. Voted and carried.

Comments and action taken: Mr. Rosier is asking for this approval and recommendations for sand and gravel operation. 1 1/2 mile of river frontage. This is good future homestead property. It is not their intent to destroy the property with this pit.

A motion by Gerald Shepard to approve subject to new proposed regulations and a performance bond subject to approval by the Clinton County Road Commission.

Motion seconded by Earl Barks. Motion carried unanimously.

Item VII - Eagle Township (Williams Bros.)

Application for approval and recommendations to operate an asphalt plant on the following described parcel of land:

The W 1/2 of the NW 1/4 of Sec. 8 and the S 53 and 1/3 A. of the E 1/2 of the NW 1/4 of Sec. 8 in T5N-R4W in the State of Michigan.

It was moved by Chamberlain supported by Andrews to concur with the action of the Zoning Commission. Voted and carried.

Comments and action taken: Mr. Dick Worden, Superintendent for Williams Brothers, presented this case. This portable plant was set up last year. This is the first county they have ever set-up a plant in which they had to have a permit. They expect to terminate this operation about mid-summer 1970. They do have air pollution equipment this year. William Brothers processes and distributes the asphalt.

A motion by Earl Barks to allow on a temporary basis until Nov. 15, 1970. Ridges in the road should be smoothed out and holes filled.

Motion supported by Max Loudenberg. Motion carried unanimously.

Commissioner Shepard reported on a request from Probate Judge, Tim Green. He moved supported by Sirrine, to appropriate from the contingent fund the amount of $800 to the Guardian Ad Litem Fund. Voted and carried.

Commissioner Chamberlain reporting for the Equipment Committee submitted the following report:

1. Approved the purchase of a 10,000 BTU window air-conditioning unit for Sheriff's quarters in the jail. Cost $248.

2. Approved edging for carpeting in Circuit Court room at a cost of about $87.

3. Approved purchase of an electric drain auger for use in County Buildings at a cost of $128.

4. Approved transfer of the manual typewriter from the Child Welfare Office to the Jury Commission.

5. Approved two water coolers, one for basement and one for second floor, outside Circuit Court room. Total cost $275.

6. No action was taken on a John Bean lawn sprayer, waiting a study of the costs of hiring this work done.

Attorney Tim Green appeared and offered his opinion of the Fedewa Zoning matter. He states that this Board has not rezoned the property due to lack of affirmative action by this Board.

*Action on deferred matter (Fedewa Builders)

It was moved by Montgomery supported by Andrews that the matter be again referred to the Zoning Commission and the developers make the recommended changes and revisions and to re-submit the matter to this Board for consideration. On a roll call vote, those voting aye were Cobb, Gove, Sirrine, Chamberlain, Hufnagel, Montgomery, Lankford, Andrews and Shepard. Nays Nobis and Underhill. 9 ayes, 2 nays. Motion declared carried.

The appointed terms of Alden Livingston and Earl Barks on the Zoning Commission expires 6-15-70. Mr. Coffey states that both have been contacted and will serve if re-appointed.

Bruce Lanterman was nominated by Andrews. Alden Livingston was nominated by Cobb.

Mr. Shepard questions the validity of appointing a member to the Zoning Commission who is a city resident.

Gove nominated Al Galloway.

It was moved by Cobb, supported by Hufnagel to close nominations. Voted and carried. On a first ballot, results were as follows: Livingston - 5; Lanterman - 5; Galloway - 1. 2nd Ballot results: Livingston - 6; Lanterman - 6; Galloway - 0. Livingston declared elected.

Commissioner Underhill nominated Barks. Andrews nominated Lanterman. Hufnagel nominated Robert Fedewa. Commissioner Cobb moved supported by Andrews to close nominations. Voted and carried. On a first ballot results were as follows: Barks - 3; Lanterman - 4; Fedewa - 4. 2nd Ballot results Barks - 1; Lanterman - 4; Fedewa - 6. Fedewa declared elected.

As this will remove Barks from the Appeal Board, an appointment becomes necessary. On a vote by ballot Max Loudenberg received five (5) votes, Livingston - Four (4) and Maler one (1). No one having received a majority, another vote was taken with the voting resulting as follows: Livingston - Five (5) votes, Loudenberg - five (5) votes.

On a choice by drawing by lot, Max Loudenberg was drawn and declared elected.

RE: An appointment to the County Library Board, Commissioner Gove placed in nomination, supported by Sirrine, Ed Izkowski. Shepard supported by Underhill, nominated Doris Wilkins.

Andrews moved supported by Hufnagel, to close nominations. Voted and carried. On a vote by ballot, Izkowski received six (6) votes. Wilkins received five (5). Izkowski declared elected.

Commissioner Lankford presented a Committee report:

1. Committee approved the hiring of Janet S. Murray for clerk in the Register of Deeds office on recommendation of W. Kriebel.

2. Committee approved the promotion of Bonnie Wickerham to Deputy Register of Deeds upon recommendation of W. Kriebel.

3. Committee approved the hiring of Gale Bensinger for Deputy Sheriff upon recommendation of Sheriff Patterson.

4. Committee approved the hiring of Delores Vitek and Diane Rademacher for part time hourly rate employees in the County Extension office upon the recommendation of E. Haas.

5. C.D. Director, Frost requested permission to attend State C.D. Seminar to be held Aug. 4 thru 7 at Houghton Tech. Committee recommends approval.

6. Sheriff Patterson requested committee approval the promotion of Deputy Sheriff Hufnagel to the rank of Sgt. Committee recommends approval.

7. Committee recommends the approval of promoting Leon Thelen to be Equalization Director effective July 1, 1970. Mr. Thelen was recommended to the committee by the Finance Committee. Committee recommends a starting salary of $10,000 per year effective 1 July, 1970.

It was moved by Lankford supported by Montgomery to approve Item No. 5. Voted and carried.

It was moved by Lankford, supported by Montgomery, to approve Item No. 6. Voted and carried.

Lankford moved supported by Shepard to approve Item No. 7. Voted and carried.

Montgomery presented and moved supported by Shepard that the following Resolution be adopted. Voted and carried.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the maintenance of a Medical Care Facility providing comprehensive medical and nursing care for Medicaid and Medicaid patients is essential to the health and welfare of all county residents and

WHEREAS, All counties are unable to assume any greater share of the cost of maintaining Medical Care Facilities, and WHEREAS, the same conditions prevail in all counties having Medical Care Facilities through which we work to serve the best interests of all of the people of Michigan, now therefore:

BE IT RESOLVED: That we most strongly urge the Honorable William G. Milliken, The Senate and the House of Representatives, The Director of the Department of Social Services and the Director of the Department of Public Health to refrain from any Administrative Directives or Legislation that would result in the counties being required to assume any greater share of the cost of providing humanitarian, and total nursing services through our County Medical Care Facilities.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Legislative Committee of the Michigan Association of Counties here today goes on record as favoring the removal of the word "skilled" on Lines 9 and 14, Page 24 of House Bill 4076.

Montgomery presented and moved supported by Hufnagel that the following Resolution be adopted. Voted and carried.

WHEREAS, IT HAS BEEN SUGGESTED THAT mentally ill from this county be committed to the Kalamazoo State Hospital in lieu of Traverse City State Hospital as is the present practice.

AND WHEREAS, our committee strongly supports continuing to use Traverse City for a number of reasons.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Clinton County Board of Commissioners that we support this position of the committee, and further that copies of this resolution be sent to Dr. Yudaschin and to our State Senator and our two State Representatives.

Montgomery presented and moved, supported by Chamberlain, that the following Resolution be adopted. Voted and carried.

WHEREAS, we are informed that it is proposed to create an impoundment on the Looking Glass River from a dam at or near Portland and running upstream to approximately Grange Road in Clinton County.

AND WHEREAS, we believe that in addition to flooding good land and costing a large sum of money,

AND WHEREAS, there are additional reasons for opposition

Commission proceedings

The impoundment serves no flood control purpose. Such a large area would lessen the flow of the stream, would silt up and would result in an accumulation of polluting substance. Such an area would lend itself to a great amount of evaporation resulting in very small amount of water reaching the area below the dam, especially in dry weather.

It is our opinion that the impoundment could easily become a little Lake Erie.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Clinton County Board of Commissioners that they are strongly opposed to this proposed impoundment.

AND FURTHER, that copies of this resolution be sent to our State Senator and to our two State Representatives and to the Grand River Watershed Council.

Know the issues

The upcoming general election Nov. 3 will offer Clinton County voters an opportunity to act on a number of vital issues.

Aside from offices, issues to be voted on county-wide include state proposals for low income housing bonds, minimum voting age of 18 years, a constitutional amendment prohibiting public aid to non-public schools and students and a proposal relating to Clinton County as a participant in the Capitol City Airport Authority.

Residents will also be voting on a county proposal which calls for a tax limitation of 16.90 mills for four years or until altered by the voters. Allocation of the funds would be to the county, townships, and various school districts.

City of DeWitt residents will vote on a proposal for charter revision which would allow unpaid tax rolls to be turned over to the County Treasurer in September rather than November.

DeWitt Township residents will be faced with two proposals; whether to incorporate as a charter township and, secondly, should millage limitation be raised from 15 to 16 for the years 1971 through 1974.

Liquor by the glass will be the issue in Riley Township.

All of the issues which will be placed before the voters come November are of great significance to the future of Clinton County and voters in doubt as to the true meaning or provisions of any of the questions should take it upon themselves to inquire at the appropriate offices.

Clinton County News will run stories on each of the issues throughout the month of October but the privilege of voting carries with it the responsibility for being well informed on the issues.

Casting a ballot wrongly can mean a loss of what you truly desire.

And we got it

The condition of county roads and city streets came to our attention this past week through first hand contact with citizens concerned with what they considered to be continuing deterioration.

They were so right. Some streets in the city of St. Johns and a number of county roads are in a critical status of disrepair, but the present condition of these thoroughfares was predicted by government officials early last spring.

Most of the problem—as officials see it—lies in the lack of sufficient funds and voters at the city and county level denied proposals earlier this year which would have created revenues earmarked for street and road improvement.

As the man said, "you gets what you pays for."

Letters to the Editor

'Give teens support' says News reader

Dear Mr. Editor:
 Your editorial on Sept. 23, 1970 was a very good START towards getting things rolling on a project for the teenagers of St. Johns.

A group of teenagers worked most of the summer with Mr. Chisom, Juvenile Officer, and school teachers and a few local organizations to get a teen center started that would be run and governed by teenagers with occasional help when needed. The young men and women agreed that with the responsibility under teenage control it would be run with probably more strictness than if run by adults with a profit-making outlook.

 The project is now at a standstill because several have gone away to college.

But what about the teenagers that are still in St. Johns, whether in school or out of school? They need a place to go and activities with others their own age. All of them would prefer activities instead of "X-rated" movies like St. Johns has graduated to.

Anyway not many can afford the price of movies today nor the $2.00 and $3.00 dances that are available.

Let's get behind our teenagers and help them, not just think up new ways to kick them around and issue tickets to them.

Sincerely yours,

Back thru the years

News Editor awarded, Westphalia men killed

ONE YEAR AGO
 Oct. 1, 1970

Former Clinton County News Editor Lowell Rinker was awarded a first place award for a news story of his from the Michigan Press Association Weekly Newspaper Contest. The story concerned the depositing of over $150,000 in coins in the Ovid branch of the Central National Bank.

St. Johns Redwings went down to their only defeat of the year at the hands of Ionia, 20-19. Head Coach Jeff Smith said the team could just get clipped and they did.

Fowler should be about four months away from the use of new sewer facilities. Last year at this time, a plan was submitted that called for construction of a new sewer facilities by the end of 1970. The total cost for the project including construction of a new lagoon came to nearly $265,000. Word was received from the office of Michigan Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley Thursday that the state grant of $125,000 for the project was authorized.

A grand piano fund for St. Johns High School was begun by the St. Johns Morning Musicales. The music department at the school had voiced interest in purchasing a seven foot grand piano for the stage of the school auditorium. The cost of the piano was estimated to be more than $5,000.

A 250-lb. bear was backed by Edmund Reaume and Chucky Thelen, a then recent combat veteran home from Vietnam. They used a 12-gauge shotgun and a 30-30 rifle to bring down the animal. Both Reaume and Thelen were members of a group of nine Fowler bear hunters who called themselves "glorified coon hunters."

Sixteen year-old Matthew Ray Peck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Peck of Elsie represented Michigan in the 19th annual Eastern U.S. 4-H Tractor Operator's Contest. Peck earned the right to compete in the event by winning a series of county, district and state eliminations.

TEN YEARS AGO
 Sept. 29, 1960

St. Johns Firemen were honored at a recognition for service night put on by the St. Johns Independent Insurance Agents Association. Certificates of service were passed out to the qualifying firemen. Entertainment for the night was provided by the Merry Men of Lansing, a barber shop quartet.

Funeral services were held for 17-year-old Warren George Amy, Rt. 2, Webberville, a former resident of St. Johns, Young Amy died from injuries received when his car rolled over in a ditch in Shiawassee County. The Ionia Bulldogs shut-out the St. Johns Redwings by a score of 19-0. All of Ionia's points came in the first quarter. This brought the 1960 record to 0-2 for the Redwings after an opening loss to Alma 24-7.

Groceries were a bit lower in price: cigarettes were 25 cents a pack, ice cream was $1.19 a gallon, potatoes were 69 cents for 25 lbs., cereal was going at 4 packages for $1, chuck roast was $49 cents per pound and smoked picnic hams were 39 cents per pound.

Anthony Perkins, John Gavin and Vera Miles were starring in "Psycho" at the Clinton Theater and "South Pacific" was the feature at the Family Drive-In Theater. The Elsie Theater has "Solomon and Sheba" as its main attraction.

Bath American Legion Post No. 412 was changed to the Ray Barker American Legion Post Saturday Oct. 1st. James Couzens school gym in Bath. The change of the name will honor the memory of Ray Barker, past commander and one of the organizers of the post, who died in May of 1960.

Oct. 10 was the last day for voters to register for the general election in November. It was reminded that registration was and still is a fast and painless process involving going to your city or township clerk and giving a few facts which takes only a few minutes.

25 YEARS AGO
 Oct. 4, 1945

Three Clinton County men lost their lives in a train-auto accident at Swindt crossing in Pewamo Sunday at 4 p.m. The victims, all of whom live close to Westphalia were: Alvin Bierstetel, 19, driver of the car; Arthur Wacker, 31, employed at a Portland factory, and Norman Hafner, 22, who worked in an Ionia garage.

St. Johns Redwings defeated Grand Ledge in a driving rain storm 13-0 for their second win of the season in as many starts. Nick Hatta and John Hopko each ran for one touchdown in the sea of mud and water at city park Friday night.

A new outdoor swimming pool and stadium was proposed for County Memorial Park. Plans for the pool had it being built just east of the football field and adjacent to a new 1,000-seat stadium. Underneath the stadium, it was proposed to have an area for dressing rooms and shower rooms for the use of swimmers in the summer months and for athletic teams in the Spring and Fall.

A campaign for the construction of the Clinton County Memorial Park was begun today by 50 men from St. Johns and will last 12 days. The goal is to raise $100,000 for the development of the park in honor of men and women from the county who have served in World War II. Scattered early responses showed that residents of St. Johns were most generous with their contributions.

Clinton County was reported to be getting a share of $26,600 from $400,000 in gas tax monies that is paid annually to counties for use in maintaining former township roads taken over by counties under the McNitt Act of 1931.

"Belle of the Yukon" was playing at the Clinton Theater and starred Randolph Scott, Gypsy Rose Lee, Dinah Shore and Bob Burns. The upcoming feature was "Nob Hill" starring George Raft, Joan Bennett, Vivian Blaine and Peggy Ann Garner.

'IF IT FITZ . . .
 Today it's interdiction

By JIM FITZGERALD

There wouldn't be so much campus unrest if there were more interdiction at the generation gap.

You maybe don't understand that sentence. But I like to keep this column typically topical. Everybody talks about campus unrest here, interdiction there, and the generation gap everywhere. What am I supposed to write about, the League of Nations and Knute Rockne?

When I lived on a campus there was always a bunch of guys getting drunk and putting No Parking signs in the shower. Or they hollered around the girls' dormitory, asking for silk panties when they really wanted something else. Or they snake-danced through town, blocking traffic and bugging merchants.

Mostly, I used to flop in bed and listen to all that noise outside. Or I would retreat to a lovely tavern that sold 10 cent beer. It was frequented by war-weary veterans who had no energy for yanking up parking signs. We often discussed the young nuts who were throwing rolls of toilet paper at each other so as to help Michigan State beat Notre Dame at football the next morning.

But I can't remember anyone saying: "My there is a lot of unrest on the campus tonight."

These were the recuperation years following World War 2 but already there was trouble starting in Korea. Another thing I never heard said in that lonely tavern was: "Boy, somebody better interdict those Koreans of the first thing you know, somebody is going to interdict us."

Another thing often discussed over that cheap beer was how come our fathers didn't send us haircut money so we could buy more beer with it. Or how come our mothers kept sending cookies when what we wanted was money for beer. Or how come our fathers couldn't understand why we were studying to become writers and bullfighters, like Ernest Hemingway, rather than merchants and carpet salesmen, like our fathers.

But I can't remember even a guy saying, "The trouble is that we have a generation gap."
 I think it is ironic that, in 1947, we never said any of these words that everyone is saying now.

Panty raids and snake dances were pretty harmless things, especially when you look at today's Kent State and bombed libraries. The "police action" in Korea was a family brawl compared to the bloodshed in Viet Nam. And the 1947 teen-ager might have thought his dad was a square, but Junior didn't flip out on pills and go live in a doorway in San Francisco.

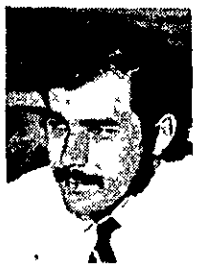

Things are a lot uglier today, but the words are prettier. You don't kill the enemy; you interdict him. There's not a bunch of violent jerks destroying and disrupting on the campus. That's just unrest. And that's not bitter hate and disrespect between long-haired, turned-on Junior and his racist, Wasp father. It's only a gap.

Years ago I had a boss who, my first day at work, said an uncommonly wise thing. "Let's always have plain talk between us," he said.

What this world needs is more plain talk. Then maybe somebody will listen to somebody. And understand.

California commando

By TIM YOUNKMAN

Let's give California back to the Indians.

Just for the sake of argument, envision the United Nations, suddenly swept away by nostalgia and justice, issuing an executive order ceding the entire state of California to the Indian tribes as compensation for the centuries of land grabbing by white men.

At this same hour next week, all non-Indian citizens must vacate their homes and jobs and move from the state. Any existing industry in the area will become the property of the new inhabitants.

If the order is not followed, troops from around the world will be sent in to forcibly evict all present-day Californians.

Following this line of thinking, assume that most Californians did decide to move inland—or to the north—to look for another home.

The Indian nation, small and insecure, looks for help toward off any possible conflict ahead with the U.S. government or former residents.

The most logical power, willing to give aid, would be the Soviet Union. The Russians, hoping to gain a foothold in a new sphere of influence, send weapons, aircraft, money, food and clothing. In gratitude, the new natives quickly absorb their new friend's culture.

Now comes the tough part. Let's assume that all of those displaced Californians, or even a percentage of them, decide to go back and fight for their homes. The U.S. government quickly offers aid to the homeless army, although denies it in public hoping to avoid a major conflict with the Russians.

The California Commandoes then stage raids, mortar attacks and harass the new Indian army.

Who is right? Who is wrong? Where are the good guys?

This analogy may seem far-fetched—but it does point out a similar dilemma existing today in the Middle East.

At one time, the Jews lived in Palestine. They worked there, prayed there and created a culture that has endured more than 2,000 years.

However, during the course of history, their influence in the Middle East waned as thousands of Jews emigrated to Europe and the West.

Our history books are filled with heroes from this land, making and breaking kings and kingdoms, stamping marks in the annals of business and leisure, while accumulating fortunes. Others turned to science and medicine, advancing the human culture to unforeseen heights.

Not as notable, but just as important, are the vast numbers of Jews who were forced to live in ghettos, the slums of the major cities in Europe. We know of the incredible torture and debasement the Jews have suffered throughout history, especially in our own lifetimes.

But we made a mistake. Just as agreeing to divide Germany and the rest of East Europe with the Russians, our government erred in agreeing to divide the Arab lands.

It is true that many Jews lived in the area presently designated Israel. But there were more Arabs in that land. It was their "promised land" too.

Most of the Arabs were asked to say in 1948, when Palestine became Israel. But, to them, their self-government was taken away. They were strangers in their own land.

Many Arabs left the country and turned to Egypt, Jordan and Syria, but they were not Egyptians, or Jordanians or Syrians.

They were Palestinians. Just as Californians could move to their states and probably blend in easily, they would consider themselves natives of California. A minor difference to outsiders, but a serious distinction for those removed from their homes.

Today or tomorrow, another war will break out in those Arab lands. Unless succeeding generations accept their lost homeland to be of little importance—unless they can accept their new adopted states as home—the bloodshed will not end.

They see the Americans supplying arms, food, money and moral support to their "enemy," and it should not seem unreasonable for them to turn to other sources for help in their "holy war."

As a nation, the United States is trapped in the mistake.

We cannot let the Israeli military fall into decay for lack of supply, since the balance of power would shift dramatically to the Arabs, and a new war would see the end of Israel. On the other hand, allowing Israel to unleash its firepower on the Arab neighbors would only invite Soviet intervention—and already has to some extent.

Our only way out is for the Palestinian commandos to see the futility of waging a war of liberation against an entrenched nation.

Whatever the outcome, it should be a genuine lesson to the next generation of American diplomats. Observe the cardinal rule: avoid entangling alliances.

That was a lesson we should have learned from World War I, when the major powers found themselves ensnared in a war between two lesser nations. Foresight and intelligence under pressure were lacking as one country after another declared war and waged war until the world was exhausted.

If it happens again, lessons and strategy won't matter a bit—there won't be anyone around to study the history books to find out where we went wrong.

I have been asking questions these past few days about "Old Grads" from St. Johns, and it seems everyone knows someone that our city should be proud of, and information is coming about several of them. If your paper would like more of these items it should not be difficult to get them.

It proves, also, doesn't it, that we have been lucky to have some wonderful teachers in our school system through the years?

More on Myra

Editor, Clinton County News:
 I would like to state a few facts in regards to the recent controversy regarding the showing of "Myra Breckenridge."

First of all, it's the motion picture industry that should be the target, not the theatre manager!

I feel Mr. Kortez has shown favorable pictures, and certainly isn't deserving of all the publicity he has gotten on this one picture.

I also wonder how many people, especially those that are screaming the loudest, have been to the theatre frequently and put a considerable amount of "bread and butter" on Mr. Kortez's table?

Clintonites doing well in world!

Dear Editor:
 Thank you very much for printing the story about my son in your paper last week. Being a normal parent I naturally am very proud of him.

It has occurred to me that there are numerous parents of very successful former graduates who do not have articles sent to you by the companies, educational institutions or other places of employment who are now being served by these former citizens of St. Johns. I am hoping that in the naming of a few I may inspire others to send along information to acquaint the community of some of their accomplishments.

Did you even know Dr. George W. Woodbury? He is the son of the late A. L. Woodbury. Dr. Woodbury graduated from the St. Johns High School with the class of 1922. He attended Michigan State University, and received his Doctorate from Cornell University. He spent two years in Ecuador, and one year in Colombia as the head of Agricultural colleges representing the United States in an exchange teaching program. He was retired in 1969 as the head of the Horticultural Department of the University of Idaho, after having spent thirty-one years there. Recently he was given an honorary life membership in the Potato Association of America for all the improvement of his has made to the Idaho baking potato.

Then there is Gordon Collins, son of Rev. and Mrs. Earl Collins, graduated from Rodney B. Wilson High School with the class of 1935. He graduated from Central Michigan University at Mt. Pleasant. He became Director of Engineering in the Federal Laboratories of International Telephone and Telegraph in Ft. Wayne, Indiana, being with that company for twenty years. At present he is Vice-President and Director of National Electronics Transmission Services in East Tawas, Michigan, which is a computing service used in conjunction with micro-wave.

And how about M. M. (Mac) Rand, who graduated from our high school in 1941? He served with the Navy in World War II, and graduated from Michigan State University with the class of 1946. He started working in the plant of the Union Carbide Corporation in the summer of 1947, and is now the Vice-President of one of the five divisions of that huge Corporation. His office is in New York City, and the family home is in New Canaan, Connecticut. His wife is the former Shirley Belknap of our high school class of '44.

Adulteration of life

By REV. HUGH BANNINGA

The seventh commandment says, "You shall not commit adultery." In our English translation of the seventh commandment the Hebrew word "na-aph", which means "adultery", did not originally have any reference to the violation of the marriage relation.

It meant basically—adulteration—the mixing of a base or impure substance with a pure substance. In the case of the Jews it meant the mixing of impure religious practices with pure practices.

It was used first in this moral sense to describe the perversion or "adulteration" of religious practices. For the Jews this was idolatry or idol-worship. In its first usage "adultery" meant man's futile and self-defeating attempt to serve more than one God, or something other than the true God.

Adultery in family relations means exactly the same thing that it meant for the Jew and his covenant with God.

Marriage is a covenant relationship whereby the husband and wife have certain privileges and duties with respect to each other which they do not have and cannot have with respect to anyone else. Marriage is the union of one man with one woman for the purposes of sexual fulfillment, the procreation and nurture of children; for mutual fellowship, encouragement, and understanding.

Many young people get married today without the vaguest idea of what marriage is all about. They have been sold a bill of goods concerning romantic love and physical sexual attraction and that's all.

No sound spiritual foundation has been a part of this superficial package. The result is that too many young married couples become tired of each other physically very early in the marriage and have nothing else to build on after that. So what happens when young marrieds get tired of each other?

They naturally turn to others in order to satisfy their physical sexual needs. This, of course, pollutes or "adulterates" their own relationship which started out in the pure form it was meant to be.

Marriage is a job at which we must work from the first "I DO" until the "DEATH DO US PART."

Actually, much of the work essential to a meaningful marriage must be done long before anybody says, "I do" at the wedding ceremony. Successful marriages are made in the nursery, not before the altar at the church.

In preparing young people today for meaningful marriage experience, every responsible institution in society must have a share in the preparation. This means the school, the church and the home.

Especially, the home is important for marriage preparation. A young person's concept of marriage and his approach to it is determined to a great degree by what he sees and hears and feels in his own home as he grows up.

A great part of the young person's marriage preparation is provided by a general atmosphere of happiness and well-being of the parents.

If parents are genuinely in love with each other and are constantly at work to resolve the family conflicts that do come up in every family, then the children will be positively impressed and will strive to do the same thing in their own marriages.

One of the important aspects of preparing our children for marriage concerns the area of human sexuality. It is in this area, I fear, that most parents are neglectful. Young people need explicit instruction and definite guidance in matters of sexuality, dating procedure, marriage and family responsibilities.

There is so much that parents today could be doing, but usually they shirk their duties. The result of this is that young people grow up learning a lot of misinformation about their own sexuality.

Parents have the grave responsibility to demonstrate to their children that sexuality is a wonderful, God-given part of life and that it is meant to be experienced in a wholesome and dignified way. But, as parents, we have shirked our responsibility, and have let the exploiter of sex take over.

A good case in point is the showing of the film Myra Breckinridge last week in St. Johns. This kind of film takes the pure substance of human sexuality and so pollutes and distorts and degrades it that it's hard to believe that anyone could be entertained by it. Anyone who claims that this sort of film should be allowed to be produced in the name of freedom has taken leave of his moral senses.

In reality this isn't freedom at all, but slavery to everything that is vulgar and in bad taste. It is what the Bible calls "slavery to sin."

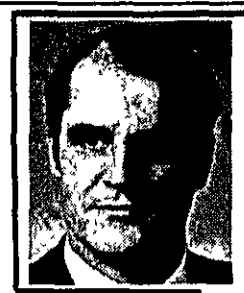

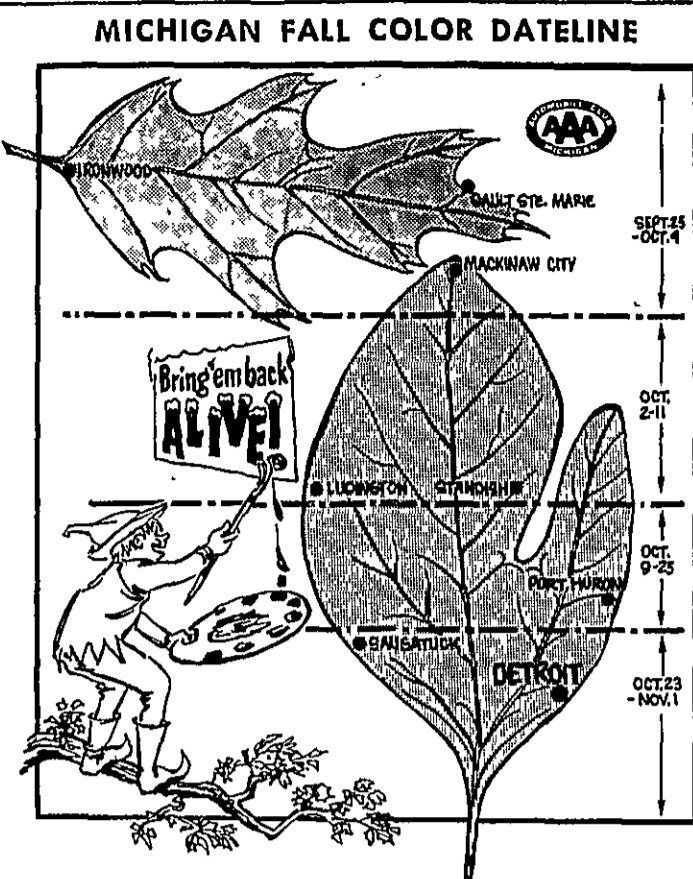

St. Johns is a microcosm of our American way of life, and if we want to see a better world in the future, then you and I in St. Johns ought to re-assume our responsibility to that better world.

You and I should see to it that our children get a healthy look at human sexuality and married love.

St. Paul wrote to the Ephesian Christians, "Let each of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband." Mutual love and respect—without these two ingredients no marriage can be successful.

Remember, that what a husband and wife experience together is so intimate and personal that nobody else can share those experiences without the marriage becoming polluted or adulterated. This is the concern of the seventh commandment—"You shall not commit adultery."

View from the 87th Bottomless pit?

By REP. WILLIAM S. BALLENGER

Michigan's treasury is not a bottomless pit filled with money—but you would never know that by looking at the requests already flooding in from state agencies and organizations wanting more money next year.

For instance, the University of Michigan is currently receiving $73.5 million from the state for operations during the present fiscal year.

The U-M Board of Regents announced a few days ago, however, that it would request $95.6 million—an increase of $22 million—for next year.

About the same time, Michigan State University trustees announced they would hit the Legislature for $81 million next year—an increase of $11.5 million over the current year.

Not to be outdone by these institutions, the 19,000-member Michigan State Employees Association concluding its annual meeting with a series of requests, the ultimate cost of which no one has yet been able to determine.

First, they announced a campaign for pay increases based on a sliding scale, with lower paid workers getting a bigger percentage increase than the people in higher civil service brackets. The association did not set any range of increases desired.

A costly series of fringe benefits is included in the package, headed by full employee retirement at 55 with 30 years of service and the retirement program scaled to the cost of living index.

The association wants the taxpayers to pay their retirement costs completely instead of the present 3 to 5 percent employee contributions. It wants the state to pay "a substantial part of the premium of a group dental and optometric insurance program."

It wants the state to start longevity pay to employees after three years, instead of the present six years. The association wants the taxpayers to provide paid-up life insurance for employees upon retirement.

It wants free parking for all state employees, a cost of living escalator (the association news release called it an "excellator formula") clause for state police pensions, uniform allowance for employees who must wear uniforms, and 12 cents a mile for state employees using their own cars for state business.

These three requests for substantial budget increases are just the tip of the iceberg. In the next few weeks, the State House and Senate Appropriations Committees will be receiving a flood of agency requests for money—everyone of which would have to be subsidized by the taxpayers if enacted.

The biggest one—State School Aid—has hardly been mentioned yet but it can be expected to be vast. In fact, there are indications that the Legislature isn't even through appropriating school aid money for the current year.

When the lawmakers return to session immediately after the forthcoming November general election, they expect to face the possibility of providing more money for schools with underprivileged children and possibly providing money to all school districts to enable them to provide textbooks and materials ordered in a recent State Supreme Court ruling.

Mac's Moments St. Johns - so far

By TOM McEENEY

Many people from St. Johns and the surrounding area have asked me "How do you like St. Johns now that you've been here a few weeks?"

Well, it's not Flint by any stretch of the imagination. It's not even Jackson, my other stop before Clinton County. In a way, it's like my hometown of Clinton, Iowa, which, by the way, is the county seat for Clinton County. But the Clinton of old can't be compared to the new one, either. It has a population of 36,000.

St. Johns isn't really a city or a town. It's a group of people who go out of their way to say "hello" and "how are you." The first day I was in town, eight people waved and said "hello" from their cars as I was moving into my apartment on S. Lansing St.

The friend helping me move, a native of St. Louis, Mo., said, "What's wrong with that guy? Is he thinking of taking some of your furniture when we go upstairs?"

I told him I didn't think so and that he was probably just being neighborly. This broke my friend up. He began to laugh as if there was no tomorrow. I told him that St. Johns was probably filled with that kind of person.

I was right, as I discovered at the barbershop last Tuesday. I was getting my ears lowered at a downtown establishment and was carrying on a conversation with the tonsorial artist who was clipping my over-extended wings. He, as everyone else in the community, was asking me how I liked St.

Johns and whether I liked the atmosphere of a small town, or not.

I said he could blindfold anybody from Iowa, drive him up here to St. Johns, and upon taking the blindfold off, hear him swear he was still somewhere in Iowa.

This is a big city compared to Iowa towns like Lost Nation, Grand Mound, State Center, Calamus, Sabula and Strawberry Point.

Other interesting experiences have marked my first three weeks in mid-Michigan. One has been attending Mass at St. Joseph's on Sunday morning. Memories of small-town living are brought back when the usher asks you to squeeze over to the left when you already have 15 on your side of the pew.

Now you're saying he's a Catholic. Well, what else would you expect with a father by the name of McEeneey, a mother with an maiden name of O'Neil, and my being the oldest of seven children. Besides all this, I like to sing and eat meat on Friday.

Parking meters in St. Johns are either inexpensive or non-existent which just won't be seen in Lansing, Flint or Jackson. These meters even accept pennies which is practically unheard of anywhere except for Iowa.

Searching for an apartment was another thing, altogether. People I've talked to about the search have said I set some sort of a record by finding a place to roost in only three days. For three days, I was living out of the phone booth on State St. in St. Johns across from the courthouse.

Enough talk about me and my living conditions. What is this column going to be about? Who will I be talking about and why? Will the content be light or heavy?

The column will be about anything or anyone I may encounter through my life here in St. Johns. For the most part, I'll be trying to keep all comments light as light a vein as possible. But, this doesn't mean I'll treat everything with kid gloves. I hope the reading will be enjoyable every week.

IT'S JUST GOOD BUSINESS TO JOIN THE UAW

The Rt. Rev. Bernard J. Sheil Catholic Bishop once said: "If a Non-Union worker in a partially organized industry is receiving a good income, it is quite probably because his Non-Union employer, in order to keep the Union out, meets, or nearly meets, the higher wage and hours standard of Union establishments. Clearly such Non-Union employees are eating the fruits of others' sacrifices. The workers in the Union shops perhaps risked their jobs to get their Union recognized, and pay monthly dues to keep it going. It is a categorical injustice for Non-Union employees, enjoying the common benefits, to refuse to carry their share of the common burden."

4-H Chatter

'We care' is 4-H theme

By JOHN AYLSWORTH

Clinton County's more than 1,500 4-H members will be celebrating National 4-H Week, Oct. 4-10 throughout the county. The theme for the county and national observance is "We Care." The local 4-H'ers are joining more than 100,000 Michigan 4-H'ers and nearly 4 million others throughout the nation in observing National 4-H Week. 4-H is more than cows and cooking. Exhibits in the Clinton National Bank in St. Johns will show the top pumpkin and sunflowers 4-H'ers grew this past summer and exhibits in the Central National Bank in St. Johns will show paintings, drawings, photography, rocks, and other projects that youth living in town or country can take.

4-H clubs will be putting up displays in other stores, schools, and presenting programs on what 4-H members do and learn. The members will be telling the public and prospective 4-H members about the Head, Heart, Hands and Health program; also to recruit more volunteer leaders, recognize the support of parents, and to honor 4-H friends. Opportunities in 4-H and the opportunity to join 4-H are greater now than ever before. Youth between the ages of 10 and 18 as of Sept. 30, 1971 can now enroll for the winter program or sign up in April for the summer program.

They may live in cities, villages, towns, or country and be eligible to enroll in local 4-H clubs.

In the modern 4-H program the major part of the 4-H story is project work. Members choose from some 100 projects dealing with everyday learning experiences that fit them and the places where they live.

In the 1970 4-H year the county 4-H boys and girls were enrolled in 3,056 educational learn-by-doing farm, home, personal development, and community projects.

The Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University provides each 4-H member with the latest research information and up-to-date methods for carrying on the projects selected.

Using this information, the 4-H'ers develop his or her project, keeps records, prepares educational exhibits, and gives demonstrations or illustrated talks for the benefit of others.

Clinton County had 12 members selected as district award winners. They were: Kathy Nichols - Achievement; James McQueen - National 4-H Conference; Kathy Davis - Health; Dana Sue Hazle - Dairy; Lois Miller - Dairy Foods; Randy Davis - Rabbits; Kam Washburn - Photography; Mathew Peck - Field Crops; John Dunham - Grain Marketing; Alan Cobb - Poultry; Kathy Hazle - Bread; and Lori McQueen - Entomology.

Seven of the district award winners were selected as tentative State winners following the committee interviews at the State 4-H Youth Exploration Day Programs at Michigan State University.

They are: James McQueen - Trip to National 4-H Conference at Washington, D.C. in April; Randy Davis - $50 Savings Bond for State Rabbit Award; a trip to National 4-H Congress at Chicago in November for Kathy Davis-Health; Lois Miller-Dairy Foods; Kam Washburn - Photography, Kathy Nichols - Achievement, and Dana Hazle in Dairy. However, projects aren't the whole story in 4-H. In 4-H, Clinton County boys and girls have fun; go to camp; take special trips; attend county district and state exhibits and activities; out of state exchange trips; earn awards - including scholarships; work with younger members; enroll in leadership and citizenship programs; and discover new and interesting ways to enjoy life while living it. Now is a good time for young people to join 4-H. To find out how to join, call 224-3288 in St. Johns or drop by the office at 1003 South Oakland St., in St. Johns to get more information. More adult leaders are needed to assist with the program. There are nearly 300 adult volunteer leaders in Clinton County now who are revealing their faith in today's young people.

They share a common interest - seeing boys and girls advance through the opportunities available to 4-H.

This past weekend has been a highlight in the life of Gerry Little of Ovid as he participated in the Eastern Regional 4-H Tractor Operators contest last month at Michigan State University during the State 4-H Youth Exploration Days.

Gerry is a member of the Spring Valley 4-H Club and is accompanied on this trip by George McQueen, Clinton County Extension Agricultural Agent. This is the 3rd year in a row that Clinton County 4-H members have represented Michigan in the Eastern Regional 4-H Tractor Operators contest.

In 1969 Mathew Peck of the Elsie 4-H Corners Club and in 1968 David Schwark of the Spring Valley 4-H Club of Ovid were representatives.

Contributions to the National 4-H Center Expansion Drive in Washington, D.C. have been made by the 4-H members of the Parkers Workers - $5, Merry Makers - $14 and Willing Workers - $10.

The Parkers Workers Club and Merry Makers Club have now reached their quota of $1 per member fair share for the National 4-H Center.

The Saddlemates 4-H Club members have completed their summary achievement sheets for the summer program. The members discussed money making projects and decided to sell candy before Christmas and this coming spring.

They are planning a day outing and a hayride in October and their next meeting is Oct. 5 at the home of Annette Pederson at 6:30 p.m.

The teen leaders will be meeting Thursday, Oct. 1 at Smith Hall and assist with the Pumpkin and Sunflower Exhibit and Show. Also they will elect their officers for the year.

A hayride and Halloween party is set for late October at the home of Jane Smith.

Football season is here, the pigskin flies every weekend, taking off Friday and staying airborne until late Monday night.

Throughout the five-month season, national concern will focus on who has the best team and the validity will come from complex rating systems in nationwide polls.

Like football, but a team that plays a year-round season, is the "Agricultural Conference of America." And like football, agriculture does have its very own rating system.

For instance, here are the recent yearly official statistical ratings of Michigan's "Top Ten" food product finishers and how they stacked up with all the fifty states in their field as released by the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

In the number one spot for the first time are blueberries along with dry edible beans (unchallenged for years), red tart cherries, eastern white winter wheat, cucumbers for pickles and hothouse rhubarb, which is always an exciting contender.

On our 13 million acre Michigan playing field, the solid team effort coached by Michigan farmers, we can boast that no state crops finished second best.

In the third spot are apples, asparagus (fresh), carrots, celery, spearmint, strawberries and sweet cherries. Moving quickly now, corn (sweet of course), grapes and pears claimed fourth; while fifth went to cottage cheese, maple syrup and plums.

Michigan's 85,000 farms finish out the top ten with sixth spot awarded to onions, peaches, peppermint and shiny red fresh tomatoes.

In seventh place stands beat sugar, cauliflower, green peppers, ice cream, milk and snap beans (processing type). In 8th place is tantalizing cantaloupe and processing tomatoes. Big number nine is lined up with cabbage, honey and ready to market fresh snap beans. Rounding out the big ten is field corn and fresh sliced cucumbers.

Outside the elite ten are head lettuce and potatoes in eleventh, butter sliding into 12th position with American cheese close behind. Others are wheat in the 16th spot, followed by eggs and swine. Chickens claim the 18th position, one position after the eggs.

Allaby Insurance is long-time St. Johns firm

One of the most outstanding characteristics of Allaby Insurance is the amount of experience that everyone involved in the business has.

The business was started in 1933 by A.T. Allaby. Allaby is still active in the business with 37 years of experience in handling insurance problems.

Leon Brewbaker is an insurance agent for the business.

Brewbaker has been an agent for 15 years.

Although experienced agents are vital to every insurance business, experienced secretaries can make an enormous difference in the amount of speed and service an insurance company can give to its policy holders.

Allaby Insurance has an experienced secretarial staff, with a total of 31 years in the business.

Three secretaries are employed by Allaby Insurance, Alice Cole, Jean Green, and Artis Graham. Cole has been with the business 17 years, Green 12 years, and Graham 2 years.

This vast amount of practice in the business and a policy of service enables the business to give everyone quick accurate attention.

This experience enables the secretaries to help in every insurance problem even when the agents are out of the office.

Service has been a tradition at Allaby Insurance. Agent Brewbaker commented that, "It has always been our policy and pleasure in the past to give our customers the best service possible. We shall continue in the future, to make service a policy of our business."

Seeds of Fowler were sown in Dallas Twp.

Seeds of what was to become the town of Fowler were sown in the village of Dallas.

It took a transplant 10 years later to place the settlement where it is today.

Late in 1856 land for the village of Dallas was purchased three-quarters of a mile east of the present Fowler station. The site for Dallas was chosen by Robert Higham, chief engineer of the Detroit and Milwaukee railroad.

It was Higham who also picked the site for St. Johns.

Higham and E.A. Wales of Detroit bought 160 acres of land at the Dallas station and the tract was platted and lots laid out in 1857.

WHEN THE RAILROAD reached Dallas in that same year, Herman Marsh was named station agent and Alanson Parks was transferred from the Stoney Creek post office and made postmaster at Dallas.

Wales erected a hotel and Marsh put up a store building. Nelson Kuhn opened a grocery and a Mr. Branswick started a shoemaker's shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rossow of Flint were weekend guests Sept. 18-20 of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Rossow and David and his grandmother, Mrs. Herman Rossow.

On Friday evening Sept. 18 Mrs. William Ernst and Maxine attended the Worrall-Barrett wedding at St. Joseph Catholic

But the town of Dallas was doomed to die.

The town site was surrounded by swamps that were impassable except in the driest of weather or the coldest part of winter. Fewer and fewer people came to trade.

In 1867, citizens of both the town and township agitated to have the village moved. They were aided by J.N. Fowler of Detroit, who owned the land which the villagers proposed as their new site three-quarters of a mile to the west.

IN 1867 THE railroad agreed, after payment of $750, to move its station to the new site. The village was first known as Isabella, since Fowler also owned land in Isabella County.

The hotel building erected by Wales at Dallas was moved bodily to Isabella and became known as the Fowler House. James Lance moved his store from Dallas to just south of Isabella village to land he owned. There he later laid out an addition to the village of Fowler.

A second store was opened by Jacob Schraff in a log house just west of the Fowler House. Fowler also moved the tavern from Dallas and leased it to Schemer and Gruler.

At the villager's request, Fowler changed the name of Isabella to his own in May, 1869, when he drew up an addition to be platted in section 14 south of the railway.

Carol Ann shop shows fashions in annual card party

The original Mary Frances Shop located at 102 N. Clinton, opened its doors in November of 1962. It was then owned by Mr. and Mrs. James E. Crosby and operated by Mrs. Mary Frances Crosby.

Maxine Sipkovsky was employed as a part time sales lady. During the holiday seasons additional part time help was hired.

In May of 1966, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Keys purchased the business from the Crosbys. They had become interested in the store through Mrs. Frank Sipkovsky, Carol's mother, who had worked at the shop since it opened.

Carol began operating the business on a full time basis in June of that year assisted by Maxine Sipkovsky and Rita Harr.

Mr. Keys is employed by Oldsmobile on a trainee program. Mrs. Carol Ann Keys attended Michigan State University and then worked at the MSU Counseling Center. Both Roger and Carol came from the St. Johns area originally and were graduated from Rodney B. Wilson High School in 1962.

In November of 1966 the name of the store was changed to the Carol Ann Shop, with a new lighted sign to announce the change. Also, an additional part time sales lady, Mrs. June Sipkovsky was hired at that time. The shop moved next door into a building newly remodeled by Esther Hendershot in October of 1967. This location provides more than double the amount of floor space including a complete lingerie department and more spacious dressing rooms.

Presently the staff includes Margaret Stachel, June Sipkovsky, Rita Harr and Maxine Sipkovsky with other help during the busy seasons.

A yearly event in which the shop takes part is the Card Party Style Show held at St. Joseph Gym. Fashions are featured by Carol Ann. This year's show will be held Oct. 15.

In a statement about the business Carol Ann said that, "we are most happy to serve St. Johns and the surrounding community. We invite you to stop in and see our selection of the latest fall and winter styles."

Cows forbidden

The Council passed an ordinance Tuesday night prohibiting cows from running at large in the streets of St. Johns; but in order to give due notice it will not become operative until after 60 days. A village ordinance already prohibits other stock from running at large in the streets but has not been enforced—Republican, 1881.

Fowler Co-op in business since 1919

The Farmer's Cooperative Elevator of Fowler was incorporated March 19, 1919, under the Public Acts of the State of Michigan. The purposes of the cooperative are the buying, selling, dealing in and handling of articles etc. produced or raised on a farm and articles used in and about the farm, including the buying and selling of same, either wholesale or retail and the conducting of a general elevator and feed business.

In recent years the feed plant and grain elevator have been thoroughly modernized along with a bulk delivery feed truck. Wayne Feeds are featured along with a complete line of all feeding ingredients.

Labor movements aid Clinton area progress

The labor movement in America, with its deep roots in the automotive industry of Michigan, has grown tremendously since its birth in the early part of this century.

Growing with the business firms, especially in the Tri-County area, labor unions, especially the United Auto Workers, has had quite an impact on Clinton County citizens, according to Bill Cross, local U.A.W. representative.

"We take great pride in our U. A. W. and its accomplishments," he said.

"It didn't come easy, however and remember that unionism, like Americanism is not a heritage but must be continually protected and sometimes fought for by men and women," Cross said.

Cross quoted a portion of one of the speeches delivered by the late U. A. W. leader Walter P. Reuther.

"Our union, the U. A. W., since its beginning has struggled to bring a measure of social justice and economic security to all workers united under its banner.

"Our union has made great progress during the past quarter of a century and that progress has always been made with the nation and community, and never at their expense.

"Our union has been a by-word for dynamic, honest and democratic trade unionism due to the vigilant participation of our membership in the affairs of their union."

Cross added that "unions, the U. A. W. particularly, have always led in making progress, not only for our 1,600,000 members; but all humanity."

WIEBER LUMBER CO.

Courthouse substantial-sound

Wiebers mark 64 years in lumber firm

A lumber company has been operating at the site of Wieber Lumber Co. for about 80 years. For 64 of those years the Wiebers have been involved in the business.

The business was originally started by John Gay about 1890. In 1906, Anthony Wieber and a partner, Charles Dane, bought the business from Gay.

A year later Wieber bought

Dane's interest in the business and continued alone until 1917 when his son, Frank, bought a half interest with his father.

The business was known from 1917 to 1923 as A. Wieber and Son. The name was changed to Wieber Lumber Co. in 1923 when Frank acquired sole ownership of the business. Frank managed the business from 1906 until 1958.

The big lumber shed was built in 1913. All of the buildings have been regularly repaired and remodeled through the years. In 1953 a new office and display room was built.

The lumber company is presently in the third generation of Wiebers. Frank Wieber's four sons, Mark, Giles, Carl and Leon, are the present owners of the business.

One of the oldest, yet substantially sound public buildings in the entire state is the Clinton County court house, dominant structure in downtown St. Johns since its completion in 1871.

The building faces north in the court house square, overlooking broad Clinton Avenue.

Comparative costs of construction are found in the fact that about 30 years ago, when the fireproof vaults were built as east and west wings, these cost about the same amount as the original building itself, $35,000.

TODAY IS safe to assume that reproduction would require at least $300,000, perhaps more, or four times the total original outlay for the building and additions.

The Republican-News took a leading part in the public effort culminating in approval by the voters of the bond issue to finance the building of the vaults. On page 1 of the issue of Mar. 18, 1926, with an architect's sketch of the building as proposed, the three-column headline advised:

"Nothing Extravagant About the Proposed Fireproof Vaults For Court House; Voters Should Authorize This Much-Needed Fire Protection."

THE STORY ADDED: "Voters of Clinton County will have the chance to prevent what has happened in many counties, viz., the loss of county records by fire. Clinton County has no fireproof vaults in the court house. The Board of Supervisors has asked the voters to authorize their spending $35,000 to build two additions. The proposition is to protect the valuable records which would be forever lost were there a fire. The loss of these records would cost taxpayers of the county many times what is being asked for the vaults."

The vote was taken in connection with the regular spring election Apr. 5, 1926, carrying by an overwhelming margin, 2,199 "yes" to 1,262 "no". Only two townships voted against the bond issue, Bath and Lebanon, with adverse majorities of 18 and 67 respectively.

The work was completed in June of 1927.

81-year-old rakes hay

"Grandma" Sanborn, Riley township matron who is 81 years old, came to the aid of her son, B.F. Sanborn, last week when rain threatened as the son and other men were raking hay. "Grandma" grabbed a rake and worked on the hay with more vim and determination than any man on the place.—St. Johns News, July 26, 1900.

Phillips Implement Company owner Harold Phillips, left, discusses the progress of his firm with John Schumaker.

Phillips moves business from Charlotte to St. Johns

Phillips Implement Co. began in 1953 when Harold and Marjorie Phillips bought the St. Johns Farm Store. In June of that year they sold their home in Charlotte and moved to St. Johns.

Phillips was not a newcomer to this kind of business. He had been an employee and partner in a similar business in Charlotte for 17 years.

Mrs. Phillips has taught in seventh grade every year since moving here.

In July of 1953, the Phillipses purchased the Monument Works

Building at the west end of Railroad Street and moved the business there. In 1963 they remodeled and modernized the front portion of the building.

Looking towards the future and continued progress the Phillipses purchased property west of St. Johns with plans for further expansion.

The Phillipses have three sons; Bruce, a teacher in State College of Pharmacy, St. Louis, Missouri; Warren, who is in charge of data processing for the Lansing School systems and Roger, a worker at Motor Wheel.

Egan Motor Sales was first Ford agency here

Egan Motor Sales has been selling and servicing Fords in St. Johns for 41 years. The business was founded by John M. (Jay) Egan in 1929. Egan was dealer at Carson City for four years before purchasing the local agency from A.T. (Lon) Smith. The Egan Motor Sales is located at 200 West Higham, where Smith had a blacksmith and harness shop. Smith obtained the Ford Franchise in 1909.

He was the first full-time agent here although Andrew Durkee had sold cars at his farm in 1908 before Smith became the dealer.

The present building replaced the old blacksmith shop in 1916 and an addition was erected in 1918.

Egan retired from the business in 1964, and his interest was purchased by Larry Burns, who has been associated with the business for 35 years, Lewis Kramer, and Bruce Fowler, in June of that year.

In 1965 the old O.P. DeWitt grocery building was taken down and a modern car - port was erected for a used car display lot. It is located on the corner of Higham and Brush Streets.

The office, shop and lounge were remodeled, in 1969, after a fire damaged the east building.

Displaying a brand new line of automobiles for 1971 at Egan Ford are Lou Sipka, Bill Spaniolo, Bruce Fowler and Larry Burns.

Centennial Farm Market records 118 years in business

The history of Centennial Farm Market extends back 118 years and is now into the fifth generation.

Farmer R. Phillips, great-great grandfather to one of the present owners Dennis Phillips, settled 80 acres in the area in 1852.

The farm has grown steadily as it was passed from father to son and it now includes 250 acres.

Farmer R. and his son, Dennis Phillips are the present owners and have inherited the farm in direct descent from Farmer R. through James H. and Austin J. Phillips.

The farm has grown fruit continuously since 1852. It now grows about 85 acres of fruit, about 65 acres of apples and about 15 acres of other fruits and vegetables for retail sale.

In 1967 the Phillipses built a new cold storage, packing shed and retail sales room to replace the obsolete storage built in 1930 by Austin Phillips. The products of the farm are marketed directly to the processors through Northwood Fruit Cooperative and are retailed at the farm.

The farm managed by Farmer Phillips has kept up with the times and has replaced old time varieties of apples such as Kings, Baldwin, Maiden Blush and Greening with Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, McIntosh and Jonathon. Also all new plantings, about 5,000, are now done by a new process called dwarfing rootstocks.

Dennis Phillips manages the Centennial Farm Market which is located on U.S. 27 near DeWitt. The market was built in 1965 to expand the farm's retail outlet. The building and bakery were enlarged and expanded in 1969.

The market is open year around and uses fruit and produce from the farm plus produce from around the country in order to offer a complete line of products.

Centennial Farm Market is a member of the Michigan Certified Farm Markets and must meet its standards, one of which is that they must have fresh, quality fruits. This has always been a policy of the Phillipses.

One of the features of the Centennial Farm Market is that you can watch them make the cider they sell. Many groups of school children, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other organizations visit, by appointment, annually to watch the cider made. Another feature of the market is the bakery department where donuts, breads, cookies, and pies are made daily. The market also has a custom line of jams and jellies.

Both Farmer and Dennis have been graduated from the Michigan State University Short Course in Horticulture and they have "grown up" in the business.

Rehmann's serves Clinton County area men since 1936

Rehmann's Clothes, central Michigan's largest home owned men's and boys' clothing and shoe store is into the third generation. A.L. Rehmann, senior member of the firm, learning tailoring from his father Jacob, who was a merchant tailor and haberdasher. He came to this country in 1909 at the age of 15. He went to Chicago, where he was employed part time as a merchant tailor, and continued his education there. He later went to Saginaw, where he was a partner in a small chain of men's clothing stores.

The Rehmanns came to St. Johns, in 1936 and opened their first store in the north portion of what is now the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co. building, offering a complete line of men's and boys' popular priced, nationally known brand name merchandise.

THEIR BUSINESS in the present bank building gradually outgrew their location, and in 1948 Rehmann's built and moved into the present store, where they have been able to handle a larger and more varied selection of merchandise.

In the spring of 1968, the store expanded again into the adjacent building to the north, practically doubling the size of the store. Larger stocks of clothing and haberdashery and shoes including a gift bar on both sides of an open archway between the two buildings were added. A.L. Rehmann is still active in the business today, and is in charge of the Tailor Shop. John Rehmann has been continuously associated with his father in the business since it was opened in 1936. He is the buyer and manager. Besides his experience in retail clothing, he has had specialized training in practical pedics. He was graduated from the American School of Practical Pedics, fitting shoes for all types of feet.

Norbert Rehmann served with the armed forces from 1942 to 1945 and since being graduated from college has been associated with the firm. He is in charge of accounting and advertising and is assistant buyer.

GEORGE WEBER, assistant manager of the store, has been associated with the business since 1947. He previously served in the armed forces and attended Ferris Institute. Joe VanRooyen has been associated with the store for the past three years, and is in charge of the Shoe Department. Part time employees at the store are "Cy" Waldron, "Ans" Thelen, Marie Fox, Robert Rehmann, Robert Fox and Mike Gehoski.

Regarding the future, John Rehmann commented, that, "It has always been our policy in the past, and it will be in the future, to retail first quality, nationally known brands of merchandise. We look forward to serving our many friends and customers in the future."

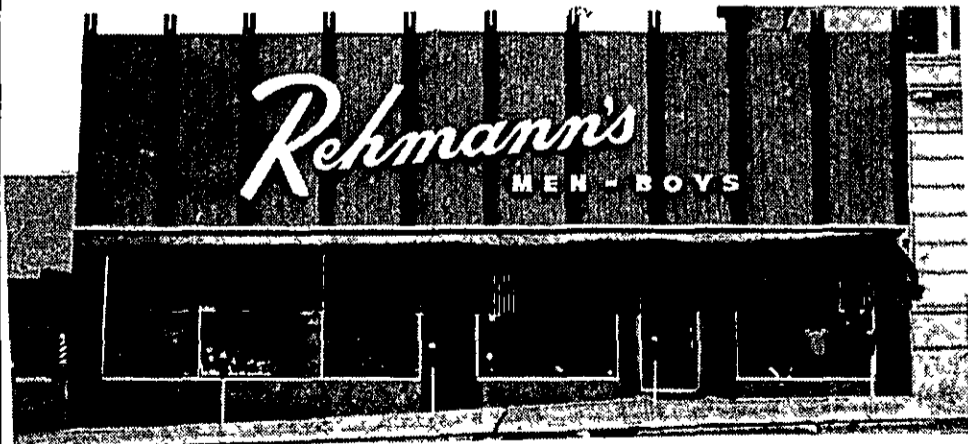

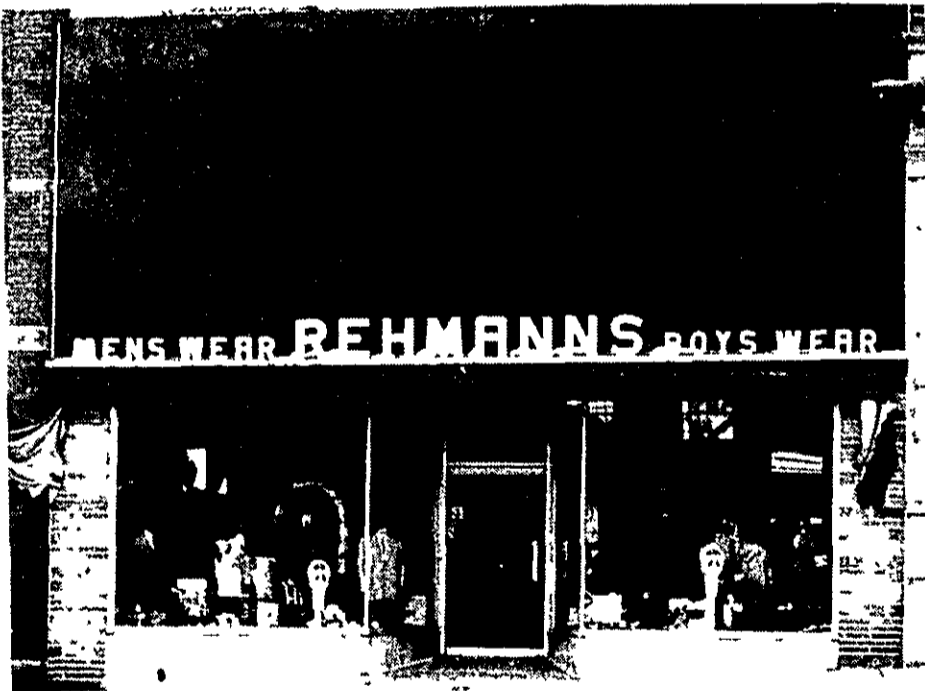

Rehmann's in St. Johns has become a fashion keystone for Clinton County men. Here a Rehmann's team prepares Ron Henning for a new addition to his wardrobe. Outfitting Henning are, from left, Al Rehmann, founder of the store, John Rehmann, one of two sons active in the operation and, kneeling, Bob Rehmann, a son of John.

PROGRESS . . .

Yesterday

In 1948 Rehmann's moved from their quarters in the bank building to the building shown here at their present location. This building had more space and enabled the store to carry a larger and more varied selection of merchandise.

and Today

The success and progress of Rehmann's is evident in the remodeling and expansion done in 1968. The new, modern store front reflects the progressive up-to-date attitude of the store. The expansion into the building on the north of the old store provided enough space for the store to carry an even larger amount of merchandise to suit every taste and need.

Since his discharge from the service in 1946 Luke Becker has operated Becker's Furniture Store in Fowler. Here Becker displays a hutch recently delivered for showing during the new fall season.

Becker Furniture follows policy of all-product-service

The Becker Furniture Store in Fowler is owned and managed by Luke Becker.

When Becker returned from the service in 1946 he purchased the business from Vincent Goerge.

The store was in the Goerge family for many years. It was started by Henry Goerge, who was followed in the business by his son Lewis and then his grandson, Vincent.

What now is the main store warehouse is one of the oldest buildings in the village, being built by the founder of the store, Henry Goerge.

The north half of the store was built in 1948 by Becker and the building now has a double front.

The store handles furniture, floor coverings and carpets. Famous and well know brands are featured such as La-Z-Boy, Bassett, Lane, Bigelow, Loyd and Howell.

A policy of service for all products sold by the store is maintained and the store makes deliveries in Fowler and the entire surrounding area.

The business employs seven people including Becker and his wife Joan, the owners. Jerald Fox is employed as an assistant. Marge Schomisch and Rose Thelen are clerks. Delivery service for the store is done by Mark Weber and George Schaefer.

Discussing his years of business in Fowler Becker commented that, "We have enjoyed serving all our good friends and neighbors for the past 24 years and hope to continue serving."

A good time?

The Labor Day celebration in St. Johns in 1920 had its troubles.

The airplane scheduled to fly here and take up passengers was grounded in Detroit by bad weather and didn't arrive.

All the fireworks exploded at once when a skyrocket went out of control test discovered during the middle of the contest that they were seated above a hornet's nest and had to fight off the winged intruders all during the contest.

Entrants in the tug of war failed to appear and that event was called off.

Otherwise, a good time was had by all.

We would like to say that taking part in the PROGRESS of Clinton County and supplying the excellent people living in the area with quality goods and services has been our pleasure

Wilson's welcome you to Gaspie Drug Store

The Gaspie Drug Store at 221 North Clinton Ave. is owned by David and Kathryn Wilson. Mrs. Wilson is a daughter of the former owner, Bert Gaspie, who died in 1941.

The store was founded in 1890 by C.E. "Cad" Van Sickle.

Gaspie worked there a number of years then purchased an interest in 1910. The store then was known as Van Sickle and Gaspie until Van Sickle, who came here from Eureka, died about 39 years ago.

In the early days of the business the Getty Jewelry Store occupied half of the building.

In November of 1964, Roger Hammontree took over as manager and still is today.

Indian trails in Clinton past

Several trails through the wilderness served as early thoroughfares in Clinton County.

One was the old Indian path known as the "Grand River Trail."

It left the Grand river at the mouth of the Looking Glass river, passed up along the north bank of that stream to DeWitt and then across the county to Laingsburg.

There it forked, the south branch (known as the Red Cedar Trail) passing south to the Cedar river in Livingston County.

The north fork continued east across Shiawassee County and into Pontiac and then Detroit.

A second trail was the Saginaw Trail. It passed up the valley of the Bad river in Saginaw County, crossed to the great bend of the Maple river in Gratiot County and then followed the Maple across Clinton County to the Grand river.

A third trail left the Saginaw at the great bend of the Maple and passed southeast up the Maple through Clinton County to join the Grand River trail where it crossed the Shiawassee River.

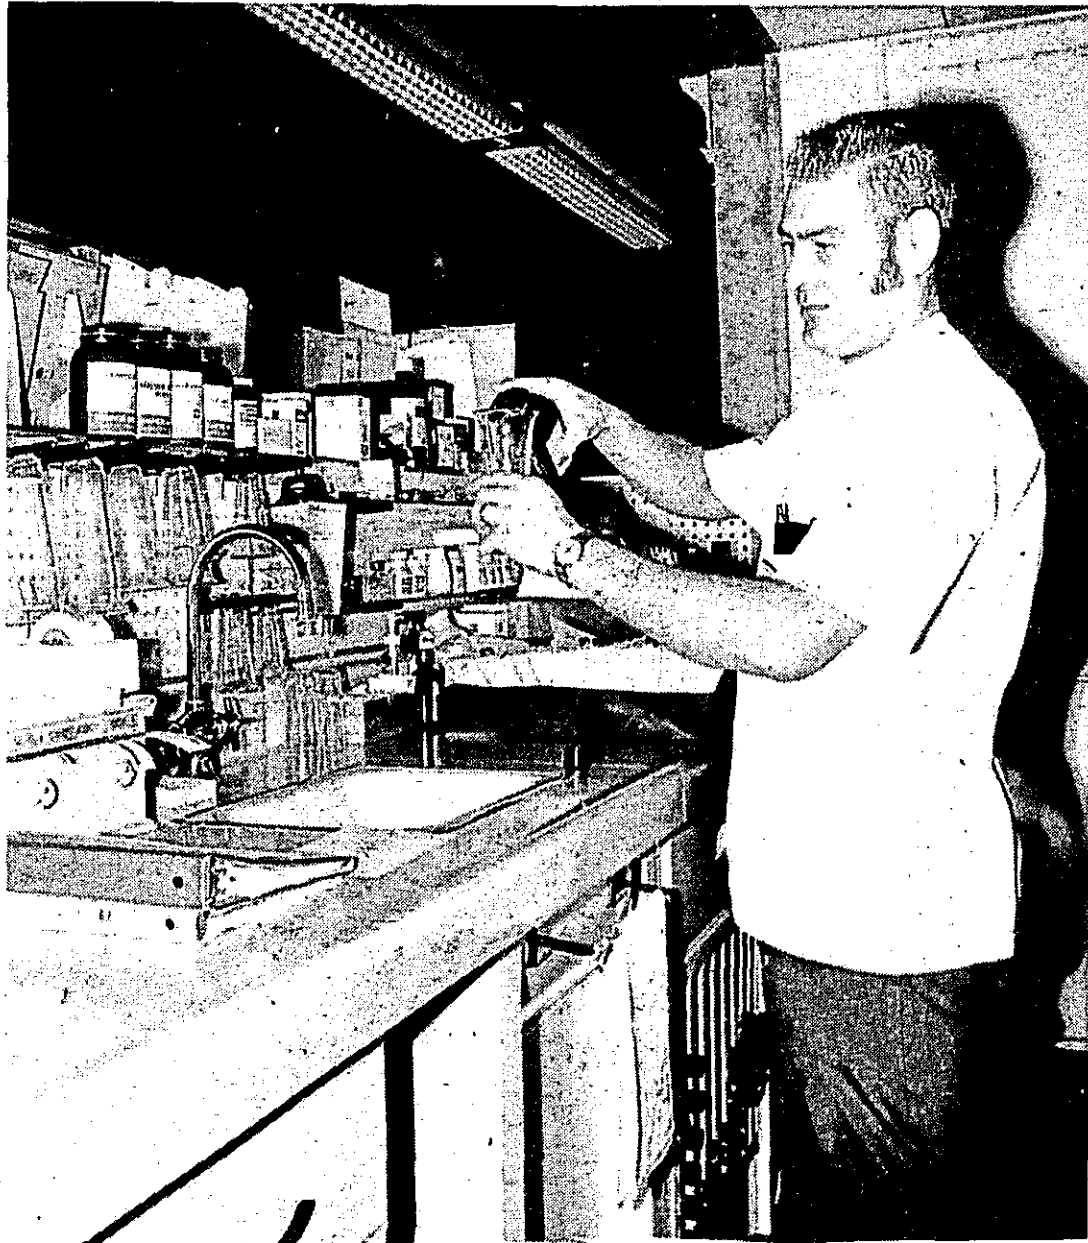

A fourth trail crossed south-eastwardly from Maple Rapids to DeWitt, where it crossed the Grand River in Ingham County.

She had the pelts

In pioneer days, women had a beastly way of earning pin money. Take Sally Avery, for instance.

On Jan. 1, 1842, the county commissioners paid $64 to Sally. Why?

For eight wolves she killed. And she had the pelts to prove it.

Precision is the primary concern in preparing prescriptions and Roger Hammontree of Gaspie Drugs is shown carefully measuring out ingredients.

Kurt's Appliance show steady five-year growth

Kurt's Appliance Center opened for business Aug. 5, 1965 at 220 N. Clinton Ave. After four years in this location, the store was moved to its present location, 217 N. Clinton, directly across the street. The move enabled a much larger display area,

In "white goods" the store features General Electric, Whirlpool, Tappen and Magic Chef. In TV, stereo, and record players (electronics) RCA, GE and Sony are the main suppliers. The business has recently expanded its electronic parts department, and now offers the customer who has a hobby of electronics, a vast selection of speakers, jacks, plugs, and miscellaneous wiring devices used in radio and TV work. A large selection of tape recorders, players, and pre-recorded tapes are now available at the store.

In housewares, Kurt's Appliance features name brands such as GE, Westinghouse, Farberware, Hamilton Beach, and Sunbeam.

One of the largest radio selections in the area can be found at Kurt's — AM-FM pocket transistors, short wave, clock radio and tape players.

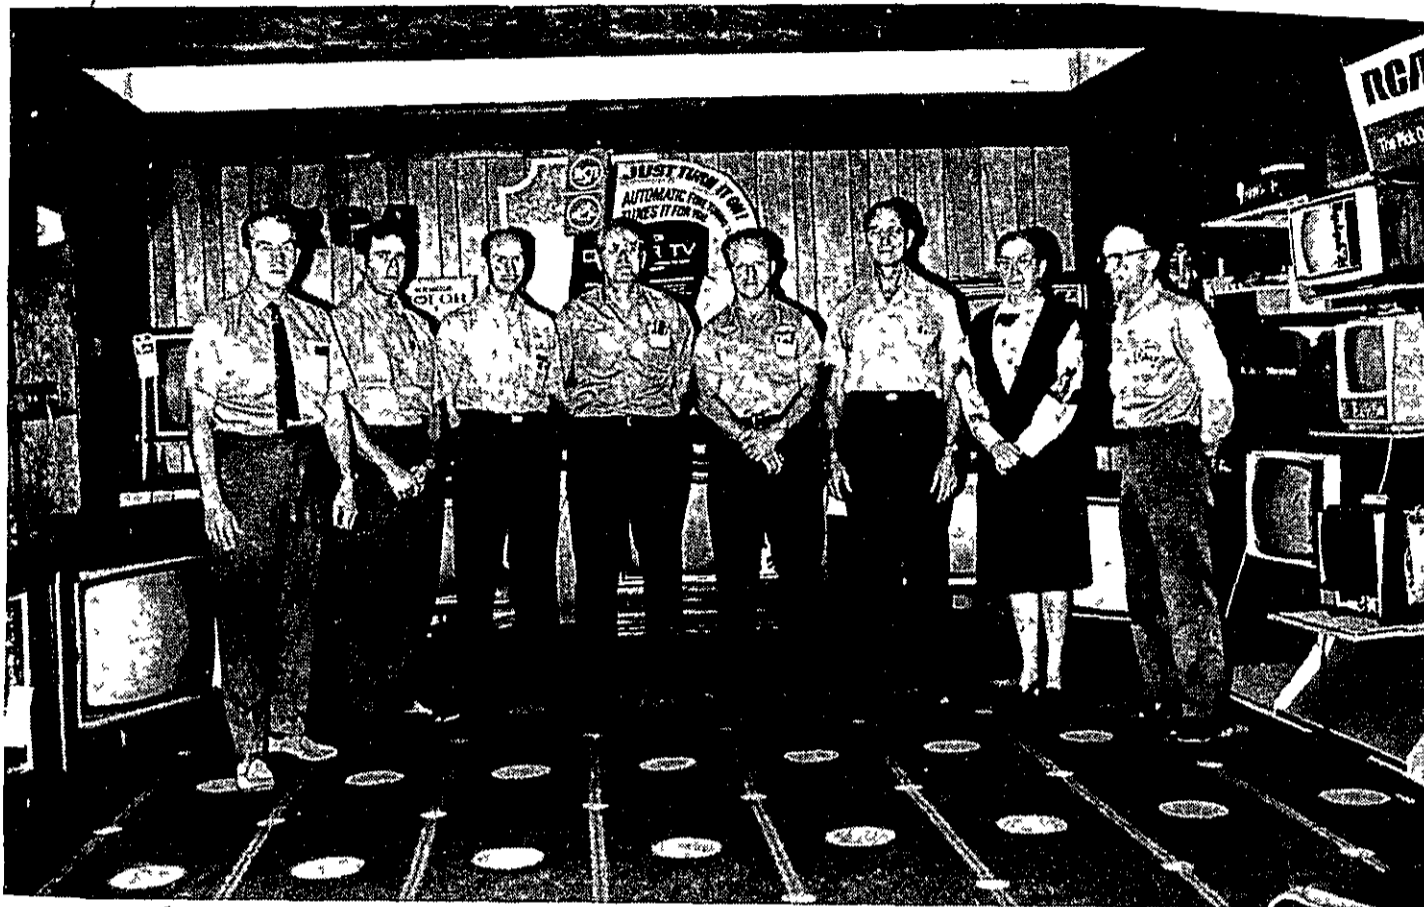

Also for the homemaker, Kurt's offers a large selection of "White" sewing machines, sewing accessories and tables.

Two fine kitchen displays are set up at the store, featuring Kemper and Raygold cabinets. The store offers complete kitchen planning services.

Complete antenna installation and service is also available with a vast selection of antenna parts and supplies for the "do it yourself" person.

Kurt's Appliance Center presently employs 7 full time employees and 4 part time. It is owned and managed by Kurt Becker.

Becker commented about the business that: "It is our sincere hope to continue to provide the people of St. Johns and surrounding area the largest selection of home appliances at a competitive price, with dependable service assured."

Clinton National Bank - - a 105-year tradition

One hundred and five years ago Clinton Avenue in downtown St. Johns was marked with three stumps. Land north of the railroad tracks was pretty much a swamp.

But there was a post office, and on the historic morning of Aug. 28, 1865, St. Johns pioneer businessmen gathered there to pick up their mail. Sam Walker examined his mail; then he turned excitedly to John Hicks and exclaimed:

"John, she's here. Here's what we've been waiting for . . . the charter for our new bank."

An official-looking envelope was clutched in his hand. Hicks, Robert M. Steel, O.W. Munger, Josiah Upton, George Hunt and Charley Plumstead gathered around, examining the document as Walker spread it out on the rough pine table in the little post office lobby.

"This letter says we can start doing business as the first chartered bank in Clinton County," Walker said. Quite true, for the document had come from the Comptroller of the Currency of the U.S. in Washington D.C.

From that humble beginning, full of pioneer excitement and spirit, has emerged over the century the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co. The present size and solidity is not just a story of one bank's history, but rather the story of banking in general in Clinton County.

For the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co. is the culmination of the growth and progress of several Clinton County banks over the last 105 years. But the central core of this growing bank leads directly back to 1865.

Actually, there were banks in St. Johns prior to 1865. In 1857, for instance, H.C. Hodge started the pioneer bank of the Village of St. Johns on the west side of Clinton Avenue, south of Walker Street. It was a small concern with limited assets, but it served the new village well.

Hodge continued to lend money until 1864, when Timothy Baker and A. G. Higham opened the Baker and Higham Bank, but their business was soon abandoned.

There was a great need for good banking service for the village. Pioneers were coming to Clinton County in covered wagons and it hadn't been too long before that the new railroad had pushed its way through the wilderness, connecting Detroit with St. Johns. Union soldiers were coming home from the Civil War to take up where they left off before the war.

Those were strenuous days. There were demands for a bank. In the log homes of Bengal, Bingham, Greenbush and Essex existed the need for financial aid, a place where the pioneers could get the money to build and improve.

In January 1865, Sam Walker opened a banking office in O. W. Munger's store, and shortly after that he and several other men organized the First National Bank of St. Johns.

The first meeting of stockholders was held May 31, 1865 at the office of Porter K. and H. M. Perrin, Charles Kipp was chosen president, John Hicks was elected vice president and Walker was named cashier.

The articles of association of the First National Bank of St. Johns were dated the same day and provided for the bank to do business under the Act of Congress entitled "An act to provide a national currency, secured by a pledge of United States Bonds, and redemption thereof." That act had been approved June 3, 1864.

After the signing of the articles of association, the wait began. On Aug. 28, Sam Walker got the charter and the history of what is now the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co. began.

The First National Bank opened for business Sept. 4, 1865, with a capital of $50,000, limited to $200,000. The Bank building originally used by Baker and Higham, was purchased for a grand sum of $17.

Construction began immediately on a new bank building. It was built on the same site, with the old building being moved into the street. So for 30 days the First National Bank did business in the middle of Clinton Avenue. Finally they moved into the new clapboard building.

Five years later, in 1870, a brick building replaced the wooden one, which was moved around the corner onto Walker Street and served the village for a number of years as a post office. Both the wooden and the brick buildings stood just north of the corner where the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co. is now located.

Kipp resigned as president in 1883 and on Jan. 9, 1883 Josiah Upton was elected president. On Jan. 8, 1884, John Hicks was elected president to succeed Upton.

In 1885 the charter of the First National Bank expired, but it was immediately renewed under the name of the St. Johns National Bank.

John Hicks was named the first president of the St. Johns National Bank.

At the death of John Hicks in March 1907, his son John C. Hicks was elected president of the bank. He was the president of the bank until his death in 1935. John C. Hicks was also president of the Michigan Bankers Assn., in the 1930's.

In 1906, St. Johns National Bank purchased the Plumstead Building at the northeast corner of Walker Street and Clinton Avenue. Construction was soon started on the present building, which has been consistently modernized, remodeled and enlarged at intervals ever since.

At the time of the 50th anniversary, in August 1915, the St. Johns National Bank listed capital of $50,000, surplus of $35,000 and undivided profits of $6,457.

With the growing pains of the first 50 years gone, the St. Johns National Bank settled down to a program of constant improvement in service to its customers and the St. Johns area. There were mergers along the line, all designed to improve both at the present and for the future.

The St. Johns National Bank merged with the Clinton County Savings Bank, in 1938, and with the St. Johns Building and Loan Association, in 1948.

It hasn't been all "smooth sailing" for the bank in meeting its direct and indirect obligations to the people it served. There were national financial crises.

There came Black Friday in the 1870 panic, one of the most crucial in the country's financial history. Then, First National Bank of St. Johns remained sound.

Again in 1893 and 1907 came panics. Many today remember the panic which began with a stock market crash in 1929 and came to its critical end in the bank holiday ordered by the President of the United States on Feb. 14, 1933. But St. Johns National Bank remained sound in this most disastrous financial crisis of the history of the world.

The bank has been the scene of many rebuilding projects in the last quarter century. In 1950 the banking quarters were rebuilt, enlarged and modernized at a cost of around $70,000.

When the St. Johns National Bank consolidated with the State Bank of St. Johns, in 1961, the name was changed to the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co. Lewis Wolf the president of the state bank was elected president of the newly combined institution.

After the merger more remodeling was done to provide more facilities for the bank's larger clientele. More counters and teller windows were constructed on the first floor. An enlarged and improved accounting department occupied the third floor and some offices were moved and modernized.

The County Welfare Building, adjacent to the bank on the east, was purchased and renovated to house the safety deposit box vaults and an elevator.

Also included in the remodeling plans were a sidewalk teller window on Walker Street and Clinton County's first drive-in bank on the corner of East Higham and Spring Streets.

The bank also merged with the State Savings Bank of Elsie in 1961.

After a pause of five years the bank began expanding again. Since 1966 the Clinton National Bank and Trust Co. has more than doubled the number of branches serving the people of Clinton County.

In 1966 Clinton National merged with the Fowler State Bank. The same year the bank opened a Valley Farms branch in temporary quarters.

The President, Lewis Wolf,

County, names from famed, man

Clinton County and DeWitt, its first county seat, were named after a famed and controversial New York politician and statesman—DeWitt Clinton.

At different times Clinton served in the U.S. Senate, was mayor of New York City, was defeated by James Madison in the 1812 presidential election and was elected governor of New York state four different times.

But perhaps his greatest accomplishment was the promotion of the Erie Canal, which played a major role in opening Michigan and other western states to settlement.

Clinton was born Mar. 2, 1769, in Little Britain, Orange County, New York. His father, James, was a major general in the Revolutionary War. His mother, Mary DeWitt Clinton, was of an old Dutch family.

HE RECEIVED HIS A.B. degree from Columbia college in 1786 and then studied law for three years. After being admitted to the bar he became, at age 23, private secretary to his uncle, George Clinton, who was the first governor of New York state.

Young Clinton believed in states rights and opposed the Federalists, the party of Washington. After the anti-federalists (the Republican party of Jefferson) became unpopular in 1795, Clinton spent several years studying natural sciences.

In 1797 he was elected to the New York state assembly and in 1798 was elected to a four-year term in the state senate. On Feb. 19, 1802, he was appointed to the U.S. Senate when John Armstrong resigned. While in the national senate he introduced the 12th amendment to the constitution, which provides the method of electing the president and vice-president.

CLINTON RESIGNED in October 1803, to become mayor of New York City. He earned considerably more as mayor than as senator. New York City at that time played an even more prominent role in the nation than it does today.

He served as mayor until 1815 except for a total of two years in 1807-08 and 1810-11. During this time he also served as state senator in 1806-11 and as lieutenant governor in 1811-13.

Clinton was nominated for president on the Jeffersonian Republican ticket in 1812 but lost to Madison by 128-89 electoral votes. In 1815 he was removed from the mayor's office.

IN 1810 CLINTON had been named to a New York state canal commission. Clinton tried to obtain federal funds for the project but was unsuccessful. He then began a writing and speaking campaign that lasted until the state legislature adopted the plan on April 17, 1816.

Clinton was elected governor in March, 1817, to fill out a term and was re-elected in 1820. He retired from the governor's office on Jan. 1, 1823.

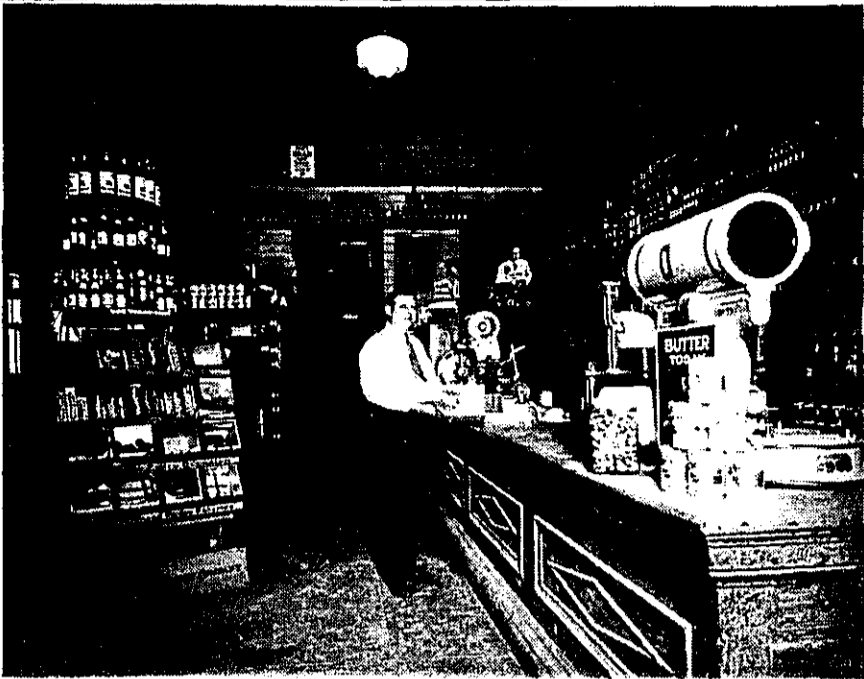

His political opponents succeeded in having him removed from the canal commission but the removal resulted in Clinton being elected governor again in November 1824.

Thus Clinton was governor when the Erie Canal and its adjunct, the Champlain Canal were opened in 1825.

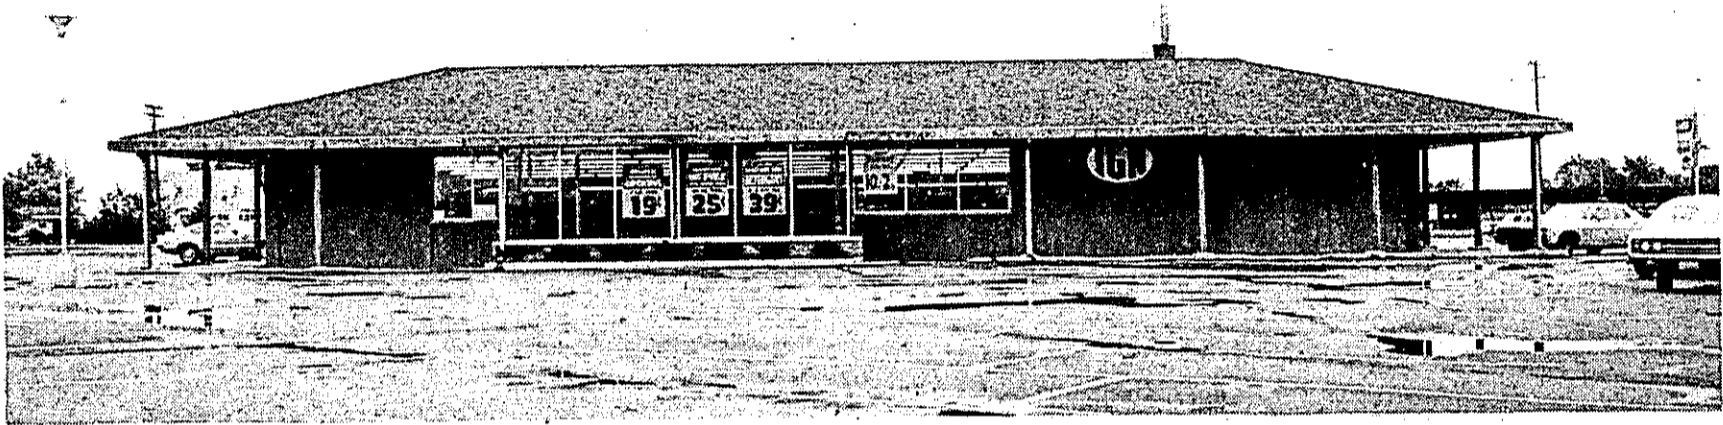

CLINTON WAS re-elected governor in 1825 and died in Albany on Feb. 11, 1828.

The Erie Canal cost $7,000,000 and was built by New York state with funds obtained on loan. The canal income was a million dollars in its first year of operation. It soon paid for itself and created surpluses in the New York treasury. It was used about 100 years.

The Erie Canal ran from Albany on the Hudson River to Buffalo on Lake Erie, covering 362 miles. The Champlain canal connected the Hudson river with Lake Champlain and stretched 71 miles.

Andy's IGA, 34 years of serving St. Johns

Following a tradition of three generations, Rick 'Andy' Anderson is now operating the "Andy's IGA Foodliners, Inc." with locations in St. Johns and Ithaca. The business was founded in New Orleans, La. at the turn of the century by Jacob Nienaber, great grandfather to Anderson.

In 1936, the business was started in St. Johns when Dorr Anderson purchased the Burk Food Market. The original market was located in the building now occupied by the McKenzie Insurance offices on Clinton Avenue. In 1942 the business was converted to a self-service operation and moved to the building now occupied by Paul Automotive.

The original part of the building at the present location was constructed in 1949 and stores were operated at the two locations until 1951. In that year an addition was made to the original building on U.S.-27 and the two stores were consolidated. A second addition was built in 1953 and a third in 1968. The most recent addition reversed the floor plan and the entrance of the building in order to conform with plans for future expansion and development of the area into a complete shopping center.

The store has been affiliated with the IGA organization since 1945. There are now 6,000 IGA stores in the United States, Canada, and Mexico. IGA is a voluntary cooperative buying organization under which the stores retain independent ownership and management.

Rick 'Andy' Anderson, now managing the operation, has worked in the business since 1956 and assumed the management position after his father's death in 1969.

Mrs Wilma Bensinger, head cashier and office manager has been with the store since 1945. Ed McDowell, assistant manager of the St. Johns store has been affiliated with the company since 1963.

Gerald Tiedt is managing the operation in Ithaca and has been with the company since 1961.

Under the lights

The first night baseball game to be played in St. Johns was in 1905 when the town baseball team met a traveling Cherokee Indian team in an exhibition game.

The Indians brought along their own portable lighting system employing carbon arc lights. They traveled in a specially equipped Pullman car.

The 6-3 loss to the Cherokees was considered as fine entertainment since the Indians used a double-jointed pitcher.

Early residents of Clinton County were members of Sauks tribe

The Indians who once called Clinton County their home were a proud and mighty people in their day, but after 1812 they submitted peacefully to the coming of American settlers, and finally were decimated by disease.

According to Indian legend, the earliest redmen in Clinton County as well as central Michigan were members of the powerful Sauks.

The Sauks were mighty warriors and made their headquarters in the vicinity of what is now Saginaw.

But for some unknown reason the territory of the Sauks came to be claimed by the Chippewa (Ojibwa) nation. The Chippewas sprang from the shores of Lake Superior.

THE CHIPPEWAS in the north agreed with a branch of the tribe in southeastern Michigan to launch a full scale war against the Sauks. In this plan they were joined by their northern Michigan neighbors, the Ottawas.

The unprepared Sauks were caught off their guard. Their main village at Saginaw was wiped out. The Chippewas and Ottawas marched westward to the present site of Flint and wiped out another Sauk village.

The fight was carried westward and ended in a complete rout of the Sauks. Those who did not die fled to Lake Michigan and escaped by canoe.

The Chippewas were noble fighters. They played prominent roles in the Pontiac war of 1763, in the Indian alliance against the American colonies in the Revolutionary War, and in the long campaign waged by Tecumseh against the U. S.

They also fought against the U. S. in the War of 1812, but with Tecumseh's death in the Battle of the Thames on Oct. 5, 1813, their warlike spirit died forever.

The Chippewas, along with other Michigan tribes, sued for peace and retired to their villages thoroughly subjugated. Never again did they war on the settlers.

WHEN THE FIRST settlers arrived in Clinton County, the few remaining bands of Indians were scattered throughout the primitive forest, each band known by its locality or chief.

They lived chiefly by hunting, although in the summer they raised mindor-mn (corn), potatoes, turnips, beans, squashes, pumpkins and melons.

Near each village on the Maple and Looking Glass rivers the Indians had corn fields, and these were planted with the same crop year after year.

On the north bank of the Looking Glass river just above DeWitt was located the Chippewa village of Wabaskonoquay, or "White-locks."

After this village was abandoned as a permanent Indian settlement it was used for years as a temporary camp for wandering groups of Chippewas. Early settlers called it the "Indian Green."

FOUR MILES upstream on the south side of the rivers the Indians used another spot as a camp ground.

On the south bank of the Maple river in the northwest part what is now section 3, Essex township was the village of Chief Makitoquet. The chief's band also had villages farther downstream, in section 14 of Lebanon township.

After harvesting their crops in the autumn, the Indians would move upstream, camping every 10 miles for considerable time to hunt and fish.

As winter approached they would float downstream in their canoes and take up winter quarters in the comparative shelter of the dense forests.

FROM THERE the men would hunt and trap until spring. When sap in the sugar maple began to rise, the whole tribe engaged in sugar making. They then moved to their summer camps to plant corn and other crops.

The Indians produced huge quantities of sugar. They packed it in mokoks (vessels made of birch bark) and buried it in the ground for safekeeping until future use.

The Chippewas at one time occupies all of the Lower Peninsula with the exception of Pottawatomie holdings in the southwest part of the state.

The Chippewas lost title to these lands in a series of treaties with the U. S. and in the end were removed from the scene largely by disease.

THE FIRST treaty was signed Aug. 3, 1795, at Greenville, Ohio, by General Anthony Wayne and chiefs representing the Chippewa, Ottawa, and Pottawatomie tribes. This treaty gave to the U. S. a six mile strip along the Detroit river, as well as Bois Blanc island and the straits of Mackinac.

The second treaty ceded all of southeastern Michigan to the U. S. but Clinton County was not included. The pact was signed at Detroit Nov. 17, 1807, by William Hull, governor of Michigan territory, and the Chippewas.

The western boundary of the U. S. territory was known as the "Indian boundary line." It forms the present boundary between Clinton and Shiawassee Counties.

In the 1807 agreement the Indians gave up all their lands east of the boundary line as far north as the northeast corner of Victor township and then south of a line drawn northeast from there to Lake Huron.

EVEN THOUGH the Indians fought with the British in the War of 1812, the U. S. restored their land rights under an 1815 treaty.

Then in September, 1819, a huge pow-wow was held at Saginaw, with Gen. Lewis Cass, territorial governor, signing for the U. S. government, 114 Chippewa chiefs gave up claim to the remainder of the Lower Peninsula while retaining about 15 reservations covering 100,000 acres.

In 1837, Indian Commissioner Henry R. Schoolcraft met with the Chippewa in Detroit and on January 14, a treaty was signed providing for removal of the Chippewas to new homes either west of Lake Michigan or west of the Mississippi river.

The move was to be completed in five years. A delegation of Chippewa chiefs visited the West, and picked a location near the headwaters of the Osage river.

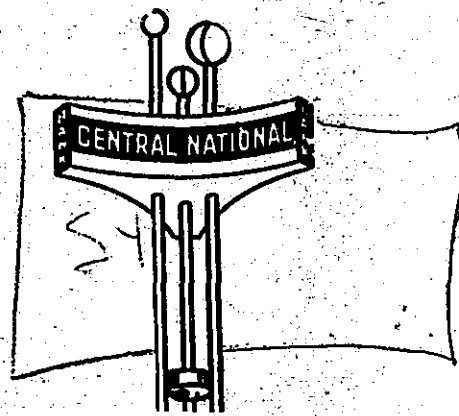

The removal plans were never carried out.

A smallpox epidemic swept through the Chippewas in the summer of 1837, leaving only feeble remnants of the once numerous tribe. Some survivors feared the move west and fled to Canada.

Others gathered on a reservation in Isabella County, but very few were on hand to greet the first settlers in Clinton County.

Central National Bank — tremendous growth

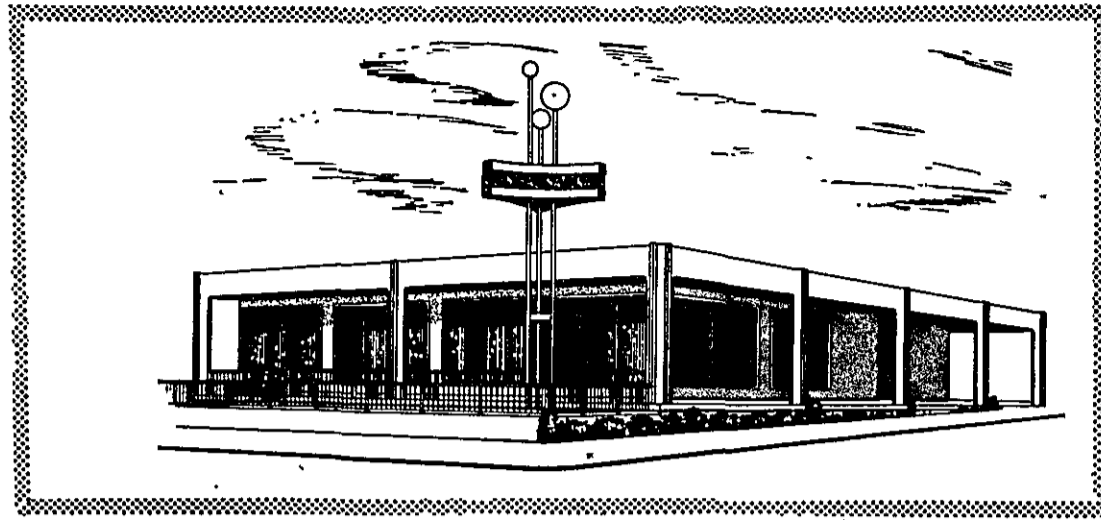

The Central National Bank is one of the newer local institutions. It opened its doors in St. Johns for the first time six years ago. Since that time the people of Clinton County have opened the bank's door many times as can be shown by the remarkable rate of growth since 1964.

Central National started out with just over $4 million in resources. In the last six years the bank has quadrupled its assets and now has over $18 million.

The directors of the bank are mostly local men. They are as follows: Harold W.H. Wellman, Harold S. Beardslee, Timothy M. Green, Edward A. Idzkowski, Dr. C.W. Lambert, Gordon McCormick, Richard Mynsberge, Paul W. Nobis, Arnold M. Schaffer, Leon W. Schumaker, and Robert E. Thompson.

ALTHOUGH CENTRAL National is only six years old, it stems from a bank that has a long history of serving Clinton County, the State Savings Bank of Ovid.

The State Savings Bank was chartered in 1897, with H.A.

Potter as its first president. The bank was originally capitalized at $15,000 and the assets at the end of the first year of business were $67,000.

The State Savings Bank of Ovid replaced a national bank which had succeeded an earlier private bank.

The state bank purchased the building of the national bank. The building was remodeled and modernized in 1921.

WHEN THE STATE Savings Bank of Ovid received permission from the U.S. Comptroller of Currency to change from a state to a national bank, in mid-September, 1964, the Central National Bank came into existence. The comptroller also granted permission for the bank to move its main office from Ovid to St. Johns.

Central National Bank first opened for business in St. Johns, on Nov. 12, 1964. The bank occupied temporary offices in the former Yankee Store building, presently the McKenzie Insurance Agency, at 212 N. Clinton Ave.

The property on the corner of Spring and Walker Streets was purchased and plans were made to construct a new, permanent, ultra-modern bank building, at that location.

IN 1965 THE Central National Bank opened a branch office in Pewamo, filling a need of several years in the Pewamo area.

The bank started operating out of its present site, on the corner of Spring and Walker Streets, on Jan. 31, 1966.

The building is an ultra-modern structure and is one of the newest in St. Johns. It has such features as: safety deposit boxes, a public auditorium in the basement and drive-in banking facilities.

Central National Bank opened an office in the Southgate Shopping Plaza, on Aug. 15, 1966. The office was opened in response to the growth of St. Johns to the south. The bank saw this as an opportunity to take some of its services to the customer.

The most remarkable aspect of the bank is its tremendous growth for the last six years. A representative of the bank attributes this growth to the sound management of the bank. With the same sound management and the continued patronage of its friends in Clinton County the bank's growth is expected to continue.

St. Johns Founders couldn't miss

The men who founded St. Johns must have bet only on sure things.

The way the odds were stacked in their favor in 1853, they couldn't lose.

In that year the Oakland and Pontiac Railroad was being extended west from Pontiac. It was to pass through what is now St. Johns extend west to Grand Haven.

Robert Higham, chief engineer of the railroad, known later as the Detroit and Milwaukee and now as the Grand Trunk, had selected the route for the line.

Four state government officials in Lansing heard that Higham was about to select depot sites along the new route.

THEY REASONED the stopping place nearest to the new state capitol would boom and prosper. Lansing at that time had no rail service.

The line through St. Johns would bring travelers from Detroit and during legislative sessions would be especially busy.

The four state officials met with Higham at the Biddle House in Detroit and discussed the probable location of the station nearest to Lansing.

As a result of their discussion they agreed to form a land company to buy up land for a town at the point where Higham would locate the depot.

Members of the company were Higham; Charles L. Dibble; proprietor of the Biddle House; and the four state officials—John Swegles, auditor general; Porter Kibbee, land office commissioner; B.C. Whittemore, state treasurer, and H.S. Mead, deputy attorney general.

THE SIX MEN visited the proposed site for their village in 1853 and appointed Swegles attorney-in-fact to buy the land.

He first bought 80 acres in the west half of the southwest quarter of section 9 of Bingham Township from George W. Estes.

Only one of the 80 acres was cleared of timber.

Before 1853 closed Swegles had purchased a total of 920 acres and the company's holdings included the south half of section 9 and all of section 16 except the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter.

In 1854 Swegles hired Estes to clear the townsite and in the winter of 1854-55 he built a steam sawmill to prepare the lumber to construct the first buildings.

THEN IN 1855 Mead sold his one-sixth interest to Swegles and Nelson P. Stewart. Stewart then bought out Swegles and Kibbee while selling a portion of his interests to Orville and Asahel Clark.

Although Swegles was no longer a partner in ownership he was retained as attorney-in-fact and manager.

The plat was signed by Nelson P. Stewart, Mary Ann Stewart, B.C. Whittemore, Charles L. Dibble, Sarah I. Dibble, Robert Higham, Elvira Higham, Orville Clark, Delta M. Clark and Asahel Clark.

John Swegles also signed as their attorney-in-fact and the signing was witnessed by Timothy Baker and George F. Mead.

The plat included sites donated for two churches, a cemetery, school and railroad depot.

The village was named St.

Johns in honor of John Swegles.

Early in 1857, Alvan H. Walker, a prominent Detroit businessman, bought 5/12 of the village and with proxy rights controlled 7/12 of the voting interests.

THE MINORITY 5/12 was owned by Elvira Higham, C.L. Dibble, Orville Clark and Asahel Clark.

Walker eventually moved to St. Johns and became a prominent merchant here.

On Sept. 2, 1857, local residents signed a petition requesting the County Board of Supervisors to incorporate the village. The request was granted Oct. 15, 1857.

Signing the incorporation petition were John Hicks, George W. Emmons, Charles Kipp, Henry Walbridge, Stephen J. Wright, George F. Mead, H.J. Corbit, A.M. Crawford, J.E. Leach, Joshua Garte, S.W. Gibbs, William H. Moate, J.T. Newell, William L. Hicks, William Weeks, Sheldon Munger, Alonzo Plumstead, William W. Flagler, M.E. Palmer and 31 others.

The first village election was held Mar. 2, 1858 at Hicks's Hotel with John Swegles, Charles Kipp and Alonzo Plumstead serving as inspectors. There were 16 votes cast.

By-laws and ordinances were adopted at the fourth meeting of the trustees on Apr. 17, 1858. At their Apr. 24, 1858 session the trustees signed a contract with Maryin E. Palmer to supply gravel and dirt at 16 cents a yard for grading and filling Clinton Avenue.

Although St. Johns became a village in 1857, the State Legislature didn't get around to passing an incorporating act until Mar. 2, 1867.

St. Johns continued to operate as a village for 37 years. Then on Mar. 13, 1904, citizens voted 512-333 to become a fourth-class city.

About 1917 a charter committee began to study the advantages of the commission manager form of city government.

Citizens voted in August 1918 to adopt the new form and it took effect Jan. 1, 1919.

THE COMMISSION consisted of three men until June 7, 1949, when the number of commissioners was increased to five by an amendment to the city charter adopted at a special election.

Ground for the Municipal Building was broken in December, 1938, on the site of the old American Legion and Bunge properties across from the Republican News Building.

The city paid $8,000 for the site. Cost of the building was $50,000. The PWA granted $22,500 toward the cost and subsequent grant was secured for furnishing and equipping the building. An additional $20,000 was obtained from the Bement Library fund.

The Municipal Building was officially occupied Monday, Feb. 19, 1940.

But then, bears are scarce . . .

If there's a moral to this story of a Victor township pioneer a word of caution must be added: Don't cut down the tree when you tree a bear.

Robert G. McKee, second white settler known to have resided in Victor, once went hunting bear with an Indian friend.

They treed the bear, then promptly cut down the tree. The brute was stunned by the fall so they tied him up with rope and decided to take him back alive.

Mr. Bear worked himself loose and was about to scamper away when, according to the old story, another settler named Miller jumped on the bear's back trying to hold him, McKee and the Indian joined the struggle.

The trio managed to handle the bear and keep him in captivity but this method of capture is not recommended as a parlor pastime.

But then, bears are rather scarce in Victor and elsewhere in this part of the state for that matter.

Shinplasters

Businessmen in St. Johns have signed an obligation to accept no more shinplasters (paper currency) until Aug. 1. They will take only silver, copper and "postal currency."—Clinton Republican, July 17, 1863.

Publisher was always prepared

H. S. Hilton, founder of the DeWitt newspaper which ultimately became the Clinton County News, had a handy way of carrying things.

He simply stuffed them in the crown of the high silk hat he wore.

Whenever he wanted a pencil or a piece of paper for jotting down news notes, he would doff his hat and there they would be.

One day back around 1860 Hilton was being introduced on the streets of DeWitt to Michigan's governor, who happened to be passing through the village.

Hilton doffed his hat out of

Out rolled his pencils and also his night shirt, rolled in a neat bundle.

Quick-witted Hilton explained: "That's the gentlemen of the press for you, governor—ready night or day."

Beck's began in a tent and constantly grew. Shown here is Beck's Farm Market in 1960. In the years after this picture was taken the store met with continued growth and success.

PROGRESS AT BECK'S

The difference between Beck's today and in 1960 is evidence of the progress at Beck's. Today Beck's is a farm produce retailer and modern supermarket. Even with the tremendous growth Beck's have managed to maintain an atmosphere of friendly personalized service.

BECK'S

FARM MARKET

County atmosphere marks Beck's market

Beck's Farm Market and Beck Farm Marina has grown to become recognized around the state. Aside from serving Clinton County residents with grocery and sports equipment, Beck's has attracted a wide following of customers who regularly travel U. S. -27 for camping or boating outings.

Beck's Farm Market, a farm produce as well as a super market is operated with an atmosphere of the old country store.

The business was started by Ben Beck in 1958, when several acres of strawberries grown on the Beck farm on E. Maple Rapids Rd. were in production.

Ben purchased the farm on the corner of Hyde Rd. and U.S. 27 from George Howard, constructed a tent for shade and was in business. This Farm Market was a continuation of a market which had been operated by Ben's grandfather, Frank Beck, located about one mile north of the present location.

The Beck farms have been known for their fresh fruit and produce both in Lansing on the city market and their roadside sales for 50 years.

Ben's tent sales room grew rapidly and during the past 12 years has been expanded by six additions and now has over 30 employees.

Al (Tank) Smith, a school chum of Ben's, is employed as general manager; Larry Bongard, a local man, is acting as assistant manager; Glen Wilkie with the assistance of Elston Miller purchases and cuts meats to your order, and Ken Yordie has charge of the produce counter. Ethel Frisbie with eight years of employment as cashier has been employed for the greatest number of years.

Grocery purchases were originally made through the Lansing Wholesale Grocery Co.

Beck's Farm Market has been affiliated with the Spartan Stores Inc. for the past five years. Spartan Stores Inc. a co-op buying organization for more than 500 stores in Michigan has the greatest buying power in Michigan.

Five years ago another addition was made and Beck's and Hyde Farm Marina with R. G. Hyde, Dan Beck and Ben Beck forming a corporation which sells a complete line of boats, motors, campers, snowmobiles and sporting equipment and where personalized service as in Beck's Farm Market is the policy.

They thought so in 1854

Haircuts an impairment to sound body, mind?

The following article appeared in the American Phrenological Journal for August, 1854. Phrenology is a system by which personality traits and abilities can be allegedly analyzed by studying the shape and protuberances of the skull.

Perhaps the hippies have already come across this article. If there is any truth in what the article says, the hippies are in good shape and the establishment may be in trouble.

Read it and judge for yourself.

"If amputating the beard were merely a harmless, fashionable whim, we would not notice it. But as watchmen—self-appointed perhaps—upon the walls of health of body and vigor of mind, it becomes us to sound public and general alarm respecting whatever impairs either. This we conceive shaving and frequent hair-cutting does; and for the following reasons:

"First, Electricity is the grand motive instrumentality of all forms of life and mind. If abundant, the life-power is abundant. If diminished all those functions and powers—mental included—it carries forward are weakened.

"Secondly, Hair is one of the very best "conductors" of electricity that exists. This all electrical experiments conclusively prove. The head requires more electricity than any other part because of the organ of the mind. To collect this stimulant of mind from the atmosphere and transmit it to the brain the head is surrounded by hair, and the face by beard.

"Amputating them prevents the coming in of as much air, or gathering up of as much electricity, as being left long and flowing. Long beard and hair, then, promote mental power and brilliancy. Heartily then, we say, let them be worn.

"What proof can be more conclusive than that a most intimate interrelation exists between the beard and the manly element itself? The masculinity of every man corresponds with, measures, and attests the amount of virility. To men, then, it becomes both a sign and promoter of masculine power and beauty. Its amputation then must be attended with both injury and deformity.

"But we are persuaded that men shave and barber mainly to please women. Yet only sickly feminine taste—or rather want of taste—will require it.

"Women, too, especially those whose hair can be trained to curl gracefully, will do well to wear their hair in flowing ringlets rather than to tie it up closely, for they will thereby collect and furnish a larger amount of that electricity which alone can impart that glow of health called beauty, that hilarious ecstasy which forms a chief attraction of women, that sprightliness and clearness of mind so desirable to every human being."

Clinton's first county seat was in DeWitt

DeWitt township started fast in the race for settlement but soon lost out to the railroad and St. Johns.

Land in the present village of DeWitt was settled in 1833 by Capt. David Scott and was plotted by him on Oct. 26, 1841.

For a time, DeWitt township was the only township in Clinton County and included land now comprising 16 townships. The village was the county seat until transferred to St. Johns in 1857.

At the public vote on transfer, DeWitt citizens voted 233-3 against the change.

Capt. Scott, his wife and two sons, David and Charles, arrived at the site of DeWitt on Oct. 4, 1833. They came by ox drawn wagons from Ann Arbor, carrying all their possessions.

BECAUSE OF SWAMPS, river fordings and other obstacles, the trip from Ann Arbor took two weeks, even though they followed the government "turnpike" known as the Grand River Trail.

After their arrival they lived for several weeks in an Indian wigwam while their log cabin was being built. Several Indian families lived in DeWitt at that time but they left soon for the west.

The Scotts brought 17 cows and one horse with them. The animals had all of Clinton and parts of Ionia, Eaton, Ingham, and Shiawassee Counties for pasture, excluding the wooded parts.

Twenty acres of wheat were sown in July 1834, and harvested the following July with a yield of 32 bushels per acre. Threshing was carried out by leveling a piece of ground, laying logs around it, placing wheat on the ground and driving four yokes of oxen over the grain.

The nearest grist mill was at Pontiac until 1837, when the Wacousta mill opened.

IN 1839 CAPT. Scott built a frame building for use as a store and grocery. When DeWitt was named the county seat in 1840 the same building was used as a courtroom by the first jurist, Judge Hubbard.

Court later was held in the school house built in 1840. Two years later Capt. Scott erected a hotel with a hall. Court then moved into the hall.

Capt. Scott was the town's first postmaster. He resided in the village until he died in 1851. His land holdings totalled 1,426 acres in various sections of the township.

THE FIRST sawmill in the county was built by Hiram Wilcox on the south side of the Looking Glass in the village in 1838.

While a group of settlers was inspecting the mill in that year, Sylvester Scott, a third son of the captain, was killed when someone accidentally turned on the water and set the mill in motion.

The first store in the village was built in 1838 by Milo H. Turner. He and his brother, Jesse Foot Turner, put up a grist mill in 1841. It burned in 1847 but was rebuilt. The Turner brothers succumbed to the gold fever and went to California in 1850.

Another early merchant was David Sturgis, who came from Portland in 1840 and remained until 1850. He then moved to St. Johns and later to Gratiot County where he died.

DeWitt township included all of present-day Clinton County for almost a year.

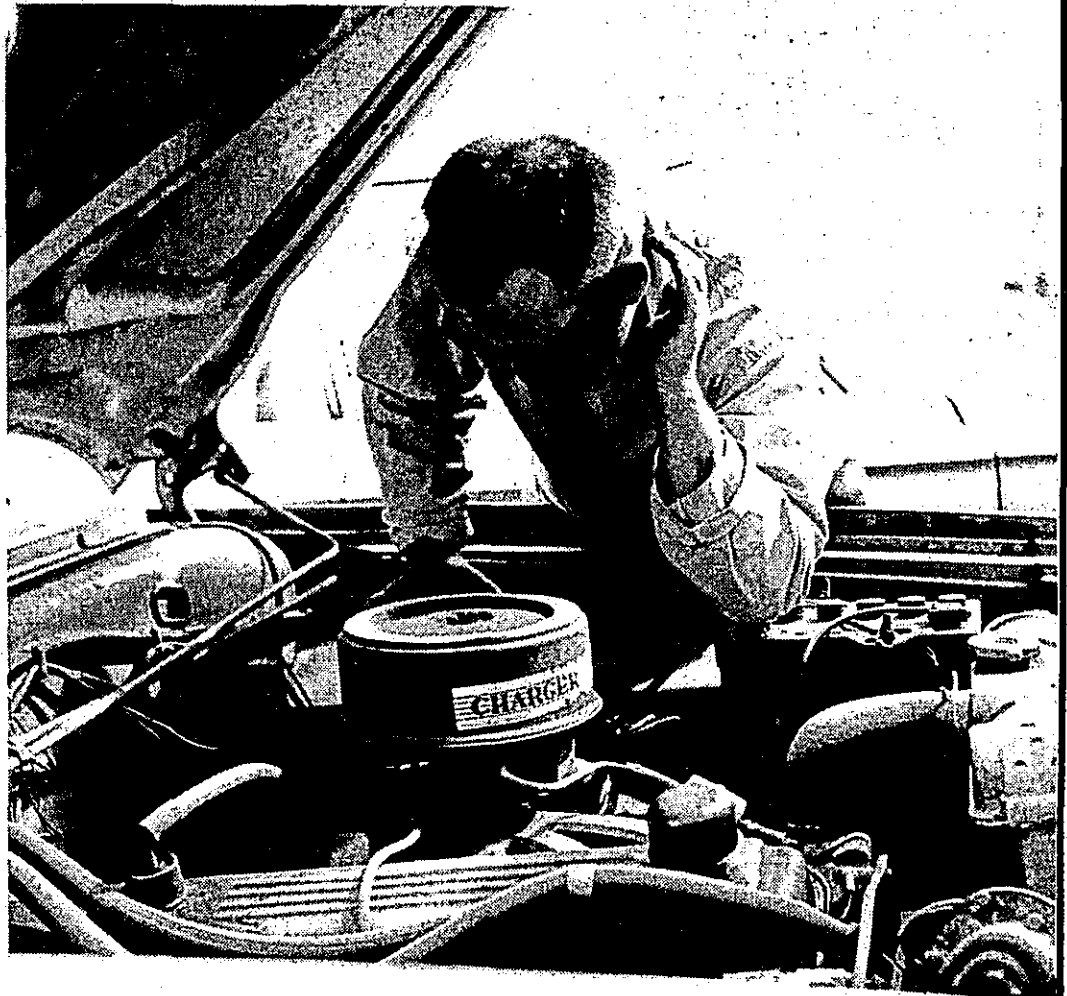

On March 20, 1837, the western half of the county was detached as Wandaugon township. On March 21, 1839, the legislature set off Bingham township, including the present Bingham,

But 80 years old Capitol Savings & Loan in St. Johns 4 years

Capitol Savings and Loan Association was established in 1890 in Lansing and is celebrating its 80th birthday this year.

The Capitol Savings received state approval for the opening of a branch office in St. Johns early in 1966. The office was opened in June of the same year. The branch here is Capitol Savings' fifth; other branches are in Detroit, Lathrop Village, Pontiac, Okemos and Grand Ledge.

When Capitol Savings first opened it had to share its present building with Kurt's Appliance, which has since moved across the street.

William H. Patton is the manager of the St. Johns branch and has been ever since it opened.

PATTON RESIDES in St. Johns with his wife and three children. He is a native of Terre Haute, Ind. He attended Indiana State Teacher's College. He is the holder of a graduate key award from the American Savings and Loan Institute and a graduate diploma from the Institute's correspondence school.

Formerly associated with Henry County Savings and Loan of Newcastle, Indiana, Patton is an associate member of the Lansing chapter of Residential Appraisers and is a past member of the board of governors of the Detroit chapter of the American Savings and Loan Institute.

CAPITOL SAVINGS also employs Connie Podolak and Marlene Mizga as tellers at the local office. Miss Podolak was graduated from Fulton High School in 1968. Miss Mizga was graduated from Ovid-Elsie High School in 1969.

In June of this year Capitol Savings and Loan Association reported assets of $133,934,400.74.

Directors of Capitol Savings are Clifford W. McKibben, Ruby B. Pennell, Joseph C. Coleman, Harold J. Reniger, Stanley V. Weed, Charles F. Cummins, Walter A. Graff, Richard P. Lyman, Robert E. Clark, Martin W. Richards, and William J. Van Hoesen.

Pretty girls aren't the most important thing at Capitol Savings and Loan But they're high on the list. Connie Podolak and Missy Mizga help keep it that way.

According to legend

First St. Johns Post Office kept in cigar box

First postmaster in St. Johns was George W. Estes, who according to legend kept his office in a cigar box.

Estes came here in 1854 and became postmaster at the same time. Estes remained as postmaster until 1856, when he resigned and was succeeded by Timothy Baker, who Estes recommended for the job.

On Feb. 6, 1855, the name of the post office was changed from Bingham to St. Johns.

Until the Detroit and Milwaukee railroad reached St. Johns in January, 1857 mail was received by stage traveling the route from DeWitt to Rochester Colony.

IT IS RELATED that the first mail brought to St. Johns was carried in the rider's hat.

Names of postmasters and dates of their appointment have been: George W. Estes, June 19, 1851, Timothy Baker, Aug. 6, 1855, Richard Baylis, Aug. 20, 1866, Julius McCarter, April 5, 1867, George A. Well, Mar. 17, 1875, Joseph M. Frisbie, Feb. 2, 1887, Sidney A. Chapin, Jan. 19, 1891, Houston D. McCabe, Feb. 25, 1895, Will H. Brunson, Feb. 14, 1899, Will H. Vauconsant, Feb. 3, 1915, Walter G. Wykoff, July 31, 1923, Charles S. Clark Jr., June 25, 1936, Carl E. A. Bunge (acting) May 1, 1941, George E. Judd, May 22, 1942, Otto H. Wakefield (acting) Mar. 1, 1949, and George E. Osgood, Oct. 31, 1953 and J.D. Robinson, Dec. 1, 1958, and current officer in charge pending appointment of a new postmaster, Keith A. Mishler, Nov. 1, 1969.

The first rural delivery route was established here on Dec. 4, 1899, with Decatur Bross as carrier. He covered 27 miles daily at a salary of $400 a year.

TWO MORE 27-MILE routes were added April 16, 1900 with George A. Kelly and Archie W. Chant as carriers. They also were paid $400 yearly.

The fourth and fifth routes, also 27 miles in length, were added on Nov. 1, 1900, with John C. Hugus and Charles D. Caruss as carriers. Their yearly salaries were $500.

County wide rural delivery was established Feb. 19, 1903, with 13 carriers.

City delivery was established Sept. 1, 1902, with three carriers.

The present post office building on the northeast corner of Brush and State Streets dedicated Nov. 16, 1935, and cost $41,976.

Previous to that date the post office was located at 117 E. Walker St.

Howard Kremer and Raymond Parr study ingredients for a prescription being prepared in the prescription department of Parr's Pharmacy.

Parr's Pharmacy is a family tradition

Parr's Pharmacy at 201 North Clinton Ave. is owned and operated by Raymond Parr. He purchased his father's interest in the business in January of 1956.

A drug store has been located at the site since May, 1862. The first owner was Dr. M.L. Bogg. Subsequent owners were Travis and McDonald, Travis and Baker, Baker, Shiley and finally Travis alone.

Dart Parr was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1910 and started work for the Travis drug company in 1910. A year later he became part owner along with Fred Travis and Clare Wilkinson.

In April 1951, Dart Parr and his father, L.D. Parr, purchased the entire business and the store since then has been known as Parr's Pharmacy.

A few years later Dart purchased his father's interest.

In 1947 Raymond Parr was graduated from the University of Michigan, worked in the store as a pharmacist for a year and then entered into a partnership with his father which lasted until 1956.

The store was remodeled in 1959. In 1963 the pharmacy purchased the vacant State Bank building. This building was located on Clinton Avenue adjacent to Parr's on the north side.

The space obtained in the purchase enabled Parr's to remodel and double the size of its gift shop. There was also enough space to allow the pharmacy to expand the size of its prescription department.

Story of David Scott

David Scott, first white man to settle in DeWitt, served in the War of 1812 with rank of captain.

He left Genesee County, New York, in 1825 and cleared land at Ann Arbor for a farm. In 1833 he sold that farm.

Scott scouted the DeWitt territory and picked out a site for his new farm. Then he rode by pony to the government land office at White Pigeon.

On this journey Scott became lost. Seeing a campfire while wandering in a woods late at night, Scott stumbled upon a group of suspicious Indians.

The warriors had been holding a pow-wow and evidently thought Scott was spying on them.

The natives fingered their knives, and Scott feared for his scalp.

But a friendly squaw came to his defense and offered to stand guard over Scott while he slept on a blanket on the floor of the forest.

Despite his sentry, Scott was able to do little sleeping in the night.

The next morning an Indian boy guided him—at a fee of two shillings a mile—to the nearest whiteman's farm, and from there Scott reached White Pigeon in safety.

Early hunting trip pitted Greenbush man against bear

Bear stories concerning early days in Clinton County are legion, but one of the best involved Henry A. Smith of Greenbush township.

This story happened in October, 1856. That autumn, incidentally, was known as the "Smoky Fall" because many forest fires swept Michigan timber lands that season.

Smith, for want of something better to do, called his small black dog and started out to hunt bear.

IN A CEDAR swamp he found one, took chase but the bear outdistanced the hunter and escaped.

He soon came upon a second bear, Smith wounded this one with a shot from his gun. The bear took off, with the dog at his heels.

As Smith sprang to join the chase, he literally bumped into a third bear.

He fired at number three and it also started to flee. Smith fired three more shots while running after bruin no. 3.

Up to this point Smith had been chasing the bear. But now the script changed.

AS SMITH WAS running at full speed, the wounded bear stepped out from behind a tree and lunged for him.

Smith stepped aside.

The disgusted bear made for the dog and dispatched it with a swift cuff.

Bruin turned his full attention to Smith.

The animal issued a terrible roar and began gnashing his fangs.

Smith by now was out of ammunition.

He decided to use his gun as a club.

He put his total strength in a blow about the bear's ear. His gun snapped in two.

Smith, torn and bleeding, was about to give himself up for lost. He fell to the ground, and as he fell his hand found a stout stick. He summoned all his power for a final blow. Luckily, it finished off the bear.

As the story is handed down, that incident ended Smith's taste for bear hunting for many a moon.

Sunday, Sept. 20 was the 81 birthday of John Foerch and Sunday dinner guests were his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nequette of Lansing. Afternoon callers in the Foerch home were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Husted of St. Johns, Mr. and Mrs.

Gail Foerch of rural Maple Rapids and Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Thelen of Fowler. In the evening John was surprised when the following guests had a birthday party for him. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Moritz, Kathy and Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Falk, Mrs. Edna Watamaker and Mr. and Mrs. William Ernst and Maxine. A lunch was served including a birthday cake. Cards and visiting formed the evening's diversion. Mr. Foerch received nice gifts and cards and the best wishes of his relatives and friends.

The new granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Evitts was named Rebecca Marie and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Cornwell of St. Johns.

On Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 15 Mrs. Arthur Martens of St. Johns and Mrs. Edmund Falk visited their aunt, Mrs. Rose Ernst of East Bengal.

retired in 1966. W.A. Lusk was elected to succeed him.

The County Service Unit began operations in 1967, serving Bath, Eureka, Hubbardston, Maple Rapids and Wacousta. This mobile bank was only the second such charter issued in the U.S. The other is located in Syracuse, New York.

A permanent branch was opened at Valley Farms in 1989. In April of that year Clinton National merged with the Union State Bank of Lansing.

In 1970 the bank began construction of a new drive-in facility and 66 car parking lot on the corner of Higham and Spring Streets. The new drive-in bank, to replace the present facility, will have over twice the capacity and allow cars to drive up without blocking traffic.

Ink White is the present president of the bank. He was elected when W. A. Lusk retired in 1969.

28 people

The United States Census of 1850 reported 28 people were employed in all types of manufacturing in Clinton County that year.

PROGRESS . . .

The corner drug store used to look like this prior to 1900 and was often called the "Apothecary Shop".

It's had sassafras, cinnamon sticks, patent medicines, and a variety of items used in concocting medicines and pills.

The corner drug store looks like this in 1970 and is called Parr's.

Parr's prescription center carries a complete line of drugs. Parr's also supplies the community with many other products never found in the old drug store. It has the full line of Kodak camera equipment, a large selection of cosmetics and beauty aids and a gift shop for all occasions.

One similarity between yesterday's and today's corner drug store is the educated and dedicated men serving your needs.
