Resolution 2007-2

Approving MNRTF Grant Application for Motz County Park Development

WHEREAS, the Clinton County Green Space Commission has prepared a Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund (MNRTF) grant application to cost-share the construction of recreational facilities at Motz County Park; and

WHEREAS, the 42-acre Motz County Park was recently purchased with the assistance of MNRTF grant dollars and is Clinton County's first county-owned park; and

WHEREAS, the proposed development items are intended to provide Clinton County residents and visitors with healthy, safe and enjoyable opportunities for passive outdoor recreation pursuits; and

WHEREAS, the Green Space Commission has requested Clinton County Board of Commissioners approval of the aforementioned grant application; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Clinton County Board of Commissioners does hereby approve submittal of the MNRTF grant application titled Motz County Park Development for funding consideration and authorizes its Chairperson Larry E. Martin to sign application documents.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that, upon approval of the grant application, the County of Clinton commits to financing the Motz County Park Development project, as specified in the MNRTF grant application, including a local project match of $213,000 or 30% of the total project cost of $708,000. The local project match shall consist of $193,000 in cash and $20,000 in force account labor.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
COUNTY OF CLINTON

I, DIANE ZUKER, Clerk of the County of Clinton do hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was duly adopted by the Clinton County Board of Commissioners at the regular meeting held March 27, 2007 and is on file in the records of this office.

Diane Zuker, Clinton County Clerk
