A RESOLUTION THANKING REPRESENTATIVE TOM LEONARD FOR HIS SERVICE TO CLINTON COUNTY

WHEREAS, attentive state representation has always been an important factor in the continued success of our community; and

WHEREAS, State Representative Tom Leonard has been diligent in overseeing the best interests of Clinton County and advocating on our behalf; and

WHEREAS, Representative Leonard supported Senate Bill 43 which is now Public Act 33 of 2013, restoring Clinton County's 65A District Judgeship; and

WHEREAS, this legislation will ensure that Clinton County residents have judicial representation at both the district and circuit court levels and ensure that cases continue to be handled with the care, attention and promptness that are essential to the fair administration of justice; and

WHEREAS, Representative Leonard's leadership and persistence played a very significant role in the signing of this important legislation by Governor Rick Snyder;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the Board of Commissioners wholeheartedly thanks Representative Leonard for his support and leadership. Your representation of our interests is greatly appreciated.

STATE OF MICHIGAN

COUNTY OF CLINTON

I, DIANE ZUKER, Clerk of the County of Clinton do hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was duly adopted by the Clinton County Board of Commissioners at the regular meeting held July 30, 2013 and is on file in the records of this office.
